Overconfidence Steers' Worst Enemy As First Game of Series For Bi-District Crown Nears

George Brown's "comeback team," who have won less than an even dozen of their games this year with rallies in the closing quarters, and who came back to retain their District 8 championship laurels with two consecutive wins over the Abilene Eagles after dropping the first game of the playoff series in their own gym, stood ready for action in the bi-district playoff with the Breckenridge Buckaroos as plans were completed for the two-out-of-three game series which will open in Breckenridge Wednesday night. The two teams will play in Big Spring Friday, with the date for the third game, if necessary, to be decided later.

With his squad of Steers heavy favorites to win over the District 9 representatives Brown had only one worry as he sent his charges through a light workout Monday afternoon—overconfidence.

"I can't get it in their heads that Breckenridge has a ball club," the former A. C. C. star said as his proteges were favoring stiff muscles as they went about warmup drills. "I know that it'll be a tough battle, and we haven't any right to believe the bi-district championship sewed up. Abilene slipped up in the first game, and Breckenridge might do the same thing."

Prince Shotwell's band of Buckaroos, whom the Steers defeated in straight contests last season were reported as an improved quintet this year despite the loss of two regulars through eligibility rules. Trueman Spain, hero of the playoff series last year, has failed to be eligible consistently this year because of scholastic deficiencies, but is expected to be in good graces of the Breckenridge officials for the first game Wednesday night. Wohlford, a star guard, has also been in discard once or twice this year.

The improved showing of Bill Flowers in the Abilene series has caused local stock to go clambering upwards. Flowers was one of the outstanding stars in the straight triumphs in the Abilene gym that gave the Steers the District 8 championship for the second consecutive year after the Eagles had staged a dope upset to take the first game 32 to 28 in the Big Spring maple parlor, and a repeated exhibition would enable Brown to put two of the best guards in West Texas, and certainly the best combination, on the floor. Forrester, his running mate, has branded himself as the premier floor man in District 8 and should be able to repeat the distinction in the playoff.

On the shoulders of Captain Cecil Reid, elongated center, depends much of the locals' hopes for a repetition of the 1931 triumph. Reid almost single-handedly turned the tide in the Abilene series when he took matters in charge in the second game and played circles around Coppinger, the Abilene ace, and then came back Saturday night with another great exhibition of defensive play. David Hopper, forward, is due to be the outstanding player in the series as he has been in practically every game in which he has taken part this season, and Morgan, his running mate, is a quick-breaking forward whose uncanny accuracy makes him a constant scoring threat.

Only one substitution is likely for the Bovines, as Elmer Dyer, a guard, is due to see service in the series. Should Reid foul out of the game, as he does quite frequently, Forrester will probably go to the center's post. Dennis will probably get first call if a forward is needed.

He's Ready For The Derby

Preparations for the Horned Frog Derby, to be staged in the Settles hotel ballroom during the intermission of a dance to be given by the American Legion post, to which the public is invited. Proceeds will go toward equipping the Legion Drum and Bugle Corps. Dancing will begin at nine p. m.

New entrants in the Derby announced Wednesday by the promoters included the following: by E. G. Towler, "County Treasurer"; by Loy Acuff, "Tax Collector"; by J. I. Prichard, "County Clerk"; by George G. White, "Commissioner No. 3"; by J. L. Webb Motor company, "Buick VIII"; Dr. C. D. Baxley, "Pyorrhoea."

The sponsors of these toads presented their claims for superiority as "derbyist" in this manner:

"County Treasurer": An expert in his line, who is a favorite for the blue ribbon.

"Tax Collector": Being trained by his owner by use of a fly on the end of a straw, with the floor of the collector's office as a training field.

"County Clerk": Never in a race before, but, profiting by the long experience of its master, J. I. Prichard, expected to be the real Dark Horse of the race and to show his heels, if any, to the old-timers in the race.

"Commissioner No. 3": Built somewhat like his master, with Many an ounce of excess weight, and aching limbs of steel.

"Buick VIII": Registers blood heat at around 80, can outstrip anything on the track; equipped with valve-in-head straight-line eight motor, Silent-Shift Synchro mesh transmission and torque tube drive, with one of those insulated bodies by Fisher.

"Pyorrhoea": the only toad in town with full set of "store" teeth; his original ones were extracted so smoothly the toad didn't know he's lost them.

MELLINGER'S

Victor Mellinger Main at Third

"My business takes me all over the world"

"Guess I'm like most Americans who travel a lot, I take many of my hobbies with me. Chesterfields, for instance. I've smoked 'em for years.

"They're not only made good, but they're made to keep good, and that's why they hold old customers like me.

"Take the tobaccos. That fragrant Turkish tobacco—your taste gets that, all right. And the whole blend—say, there's nothing like it for milder, better taste.

"But my point is, Chesterfields are just the same wherever I buy them—Argentina, India, New Zealand. The package is O. K.—moisture-tight, clean-looking—keeps the aroma in.

"Even the paper comes into it. As far off as Shanghai I've noticed how pure and white and fresh it is.

"I've never yet found a town where Chesterfields couldn't be had! And no matter where I've bought 'em, they've always been just exactly right!"
