Russia Demands U.S. Get Troops Out of Viet Nam

American Aggression Cited by Soviet Boss

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin today demanded the withdrawal of American forces from both South Viet Nam and South Korea as a prelude to a peaceful settlement of the Far Eastern crisis.

Kosygin in a nationwide television report on his recent visit to the Far East, said the United States "aggression" against North Viet Nam cannot go unpunished.

"If the American imperialists continue the aggressive actions, the conflict in that part of the world will inevitably transcend its original boundaries," Kosygin said.

Kosygin visited Peking, Hanoi and the North Korean capital of Pyongyang in a trip that coincided with the first American air force and Vietnamese bombing raids on North Vietnamese military targets.

He said these actions had strengthened the socialist camp against "imperialism."

He called his talks with the Chinese Communist leaders useful and said they helped to clarify the possibilities of "further developing our relations." But he said the Sino-Soviet difficulties cannot be resolved "right away."

But "the Socialist states are united and solidaristic in face of the imperialist threat," he said.

Selective Buying Campaign Started By Selma Negroes

By United Press International
Negro integrationists at Selma, Ala., today turned their attention toward organizing a massive "selective buying" campaign against white merchants in the current civil rights drive.

Spokesmen for the Southern Christian Leadership Council said a "buying" campaign started about two weeks ago would be intensified to include all businesses run by whites.

Other activity in the campaign started at Selma more than six weeks ago by Dr. Martin Luther King hit a lull Thursday. There were no demonstrations or mass meetings.

King was in Hollywood, Calif. to fill a speaking engagement and police there took extra precautions Thursday night against a possible attempt on his life after the civil rights leader received an anonymous threat to blow him up.

King told an audience at the Hollywood Palladium Thursday that "we must learn to live together as brothers or we shall perish together as fools."

In New York Negro leaders warned Harlem merchants to close their stores for the weekend as a tribute to Malcolm X, assassinated Sunday as he spoke to a rally of 400 Negroes. Merchants said they would defy the demand but would allow employees to attend Malcolm's funeral services Saturday.

A federal judge in Mississippi Thursday threw out indictments against 17 whites, including a sheriff and his deputy, in connection with the slaying last summer of three civil rights workers.

Judge Harold Cox said the indictments, drawn on an 1870 civil rights law, "surely states a heinous crime against the state of Mississippi, but not a crime against the United States."

Elsewhere: Montgomery, Ala.: The Alabama Civil Rights Advisory Committee took long testimony from witnesses Thursday in preparing a report to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

Birmingham, Ala.: Three Negroes sought suit in federal court Thursday under the 1964 civil rights law, seeking damages for alleged police brutality and an injunction against Holiday Inns of American Corp. for allegedly refusing to serve Negroes. One of the plaintiffs claimed he was kicked and beaten by police at Anniston, Ala., following his arrest in a traffic accident.

Kosygin returned to Moscow Feb. 14 from his 10-day visit to the Far East. Since then there has been increased talk of negotiations to end the Far East crisis—but no specific actions.

Bigamist to Face Wives Today

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI)—Loren Campbell, a moonlighting bookkeeper who worked at several jobs, had an opportunity today to explain to two women why he is married to both of them.

Campbell, 36, was free today on $3,000 bond after being arraigned on a bigamy charge.

His arrest ended a double life he led by sharing his home with wife Phyllis in his Wellington home and with wife Sue in his nearby Augusta home.

Campbell, an accountant, worked days at Southwest Grease and Oil Co. in Wichita. At night he did bookkeeping for several individuals and several businesses in different towns. Miller said the many jobs gave Campbell the excuse he needed to be away from each home three or four nights a week. The many jobs also gave him the money he needed to keep his two families.

Augusta is about 40 miles from Wellington.

Miller declined to give details of how officers learned Campbell had two wives, but said

"two people, one who knew about the wife in Augusta, got together and figured it out."

Miller said Campbell married Phyllis Daniels April 18, 1948, at Abilene, Kan. They have three daughters, ages 4 to 12.

Campbell tried to get a divorce from Phyllis in 1963. Miller said, but was unable to do so. Campbell then went ahead and married Sue States July 20, 1963, at Sedan, Kan. Campbell has a 2-year old son by this marriage, Miller stated.

Officers have marriage certificates verifying dates of the marriages, Miller stated.

Muslim 'Enforcer' Arrested by Police for Shooting of Malcolm X

NEW YORK (UPI) — A 26-year-old unemployed Negro, described by police as "the enforcer for the Black Muslims," was arrested early today for the assassination of militant Black Nationalist leader Malcolm X.

Nixon Calls for LBJ to Act Now

By FRANK L. SPENCER
CHICAGO (UPI) — All of Southeast Asia will fall to communism if President Johnson fails to act firmly within a few days, Richard M. Nixon told a Republican dinner Thursday night.

Nixon, on a mission to help "revitalize" the GOP, said Johnson "at the earliest possible time" must announce a decision on the U.S. aims in Viet Nam.

If the decision is not announced within a week or 10 days, Nixon said, "we may be forced by world opinion" into an adverse position — one that would cause Asian nations to tumble to the Communists like dominoes.

The course Johnson should follow, Nixon said, is full use of naval and air power to cut off all supplies from North Viet Nam to South Viet Nam.

"This would be short of atomic weapons," Nixon said.

The former vice president addressed 1,250 persons who paid $100 each to attend a dinner sponsored by the United Republic Fund of Illinois. Before the dinner he told a news conference he hoped to help breathe new life into the party by making selective speeches and was not interested in "running for any political office."

Asked if he agreed with Barry M. Goldwater that Nixon stands head and shoulders over others in the party, Nixon said: "I'd rather not get into that."

He urged immediate rejection of any proposal to withdraw American forces from South Viet Nam and criticized U. Thant, United Nations secretary general, for making such a suggestion.

Police believe the suspect, Norman (3X) Butler, was a member of the three-to-five man assassination team which cut down the bearded Negro extremist with a flurry of shotgun and pistol fire as he addressed a Harlem rally of his followers last Sunday.

Malcolm X was ousted from the Black Muslim movement last year when he was its East Coast leader and second most powerful spokesman. He formed his rival Black Nationalist group and became an arch-foe of the Muslims. Shortly before he was killed, Malcolm charged the Muslims were out to take his life. His followers also blame the Muslims for the murder. The Muslims have denied any connection with the assassination.

Butler's arrest increased fear in Chicago for the safety of Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad and heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, a prominent Muslim.

Some of Malcolm's followers have publicly vowed maximum retaliation against those responsible for their leader's death. The Muslims' convention opened today in Chicago amid reports that Malcolm's allies before leaving the meeting early.

Eckhardt, the GOP and several Negro spokesmen from Houston told the House Committee on Congressional and Legislative Districts that the triangular division would emphasize valuable common interests.

A Baytown city councilman, David Clark, said his city objected to the plan "A" strips which would place his city in the same district with parts of Western Harris County.

Houston lawyer William B. Cassin was the Republican spokesman, pushing a GOP view that the strip plan was "gerrymandering."

Cassin said such a plan is near completion and will be presented in a few days, presumably by the sole GOP lawmaker in the statehouse, Rep. Frank Cahoon of Midland.

'Butcher It Up'
Legislative redistricting was handled in a single bill, Rep. V.E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio presented a plan that drew up, he said, during idle nights last summer. He told the committee somewhat mournfully, "I know you're going to butcher it up."

Rep. Bob Eckhardt proposed a pie-like division of Harris County instead of the horizontal strips that Floyd proposed

Soviet Arms To Viet Reds

LONDON (UPI) — Communist China will supply North Viet Nam with tanks and artillery which in turn will be replaced by the Soviet Union according to diplomatic reports received here.

The reports also indicated that the Kremlin has assigned top priority for a coordinated program to supply arms from the Soviet Union and its European satellites to the Communist regime in Hanoi.

It was reported that North Viet Nam will get airplanes, anti-aircraft weapons, gunboats, small arms and special anti-helicopter weapons from Russia, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Bulgaria and other East European countries.

The exact scope of the arms program was not known. Indications were that the Communists intend to keep the weapons shipments within moderate proportions for the time being at least.

But the reports also said the crash program has been given priority over existing Communist commitments to other countries.

The program followed Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin's return to Moscow from visits to North Viet Nam, Communist China and North Korea. It was said to have been arranged within the framework of the Communist bloc in Europe. The reports said shipments of arms to North Viet Nam via Communist China already have started.

It has been reported that Russia cut off its aid to Red China as a result of the ideological feud that has been raging between the two countries for years.

Nevertheless, the diplomatic reports indicated that Moscow and Peking have achieved a degree of coordination to supply arms to North Viet Nam, at least temporarily.

The reports said the Russians still hope for a peaceful settlement of the crisis in Southeast Asia but that they have decided to deliver the arms to North Viet Nam without delay to bolster it against possible massive attacks by the United States. U.S. planes bombed targets in North Viet Nam in retaliation for Communist Guerrilla attacks against American military installations in South Viet Nam.

Students Riot In Viet Nam

SAIGON (UPI) — Demonstrating students today demanded an end to the civil war and withdrawal of foreign troops from Viet Nam. The move coincided with a stepped up U.S. Air Force jet bomber offense against the Viet Cong.

More than 100 students demonstrated at the downtown student union headquarters and distributed tracts saying "We request foreign elements to withdraw from Viet Nam" and "Let the whole Vietnamese people decide and solve the Vietnamese problem."

The peaceful demonstration did not specifically demand withdrawal of the 23,000 or more Americans from Viet Nam but said "the Vietnamese are suffering in this war caused by foreigners at the expense of the Vietnamese people."

"We are firmly decided to end this terrible war because 20 years of war has caused so much disaster to our country," one tract said. "We cannot take one more day of war."

Student riots in the past have had a profound influence in changing south Viet Nam's political structure, leading to overthrow of several governments.

The student demonstration — which was not molested by police — coincided with worldwide calls for a negotiated settlement of the war.

U.S. to Meet Force With Force
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States is going to continue to meet force with force in Viet Nam until there is a basic decision by the Communists to give up their aggression.

That was the substance of a series of policy statements issued Thursday by the White House and other top officials of the Johnson administration.

U.S. officials made it clear that formal negotiations were out of the question at this time, and that the United States would continue to support fully South Viet Nam's fight against Red subversion.

White House Press Secretary George E. Reedy said that President Johnson "has not authorized any negotiations. We are not contemplating any negotiations. There are no proposals before the president for negotiations."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk underscored this when he told a news conference that "negotiation aimed at the acceptance of the confirmation of aggression is not possible."

"The crucial element," he said, would be evidence that Communist North Viet Nam had decided to cease efforts to subvert and take over its neighbor to the South.

Rusk disclosed that the U.S. position was conveyed to Communist China in Warsaw Wednesday during a meeting between the American and Red Chinese ambassadors. No change in Communist policy was evident during the exchange, he said.

The secretary said repeatedly that the "missing piece" in the puzzle was the absence of any indication that North Viet Nam was prepared to stop its infiltration of men and arms into South Viet Nam, and its direction of the war.

He accused North Viet Nam of "callous disregard" of the 1954 and 1962 peacekeeping accords for Southeast Asia. He said Hanoi "has directed and supplied the essential military personnel and arms for a systematic campaign of terror and guerrilla action aimed at the overthrow of South Viet Nam and at the imposition by force of a Communist regime."

Air Guard To Be Increased

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was reported today to ask for an increase from 75,000 to 114,000 men in the authorized strength of the Air National Guard.

The request would come in connection with McNamara's plan to streamline the nation's Army and Air Force civilian reserve forces by trimming their manpower and merging them with guard units.

McNamara's proposal to merge the Air National Guard and civilian Air Force reserve units is expected to be announced soon. It would parallel his previously submitted request to eliminate the organized Army reserves and increase Army National Guard strength from 400,000 to 550,000 men.

The proposed increase in the strength of the Air Guard would allow it to absorb present Air Force reserve units almost intact.

Last reported at an actual strength of 72,500 men, the Air Guard would be getting 41,500 additional spaces for paid civilian personnel.

The drill-paid Air Force civilian reserves were last reported at an actual strength of 54,400 men, of whom 8,600 were to be eliminated with the dissolution of its air recovery units next month. This would leave 45,800 men for possible transfer to the Air Guard.

Cattlemen Hear Futures Outline

The advantages of futures trading in the livestock industry were outlined last night at a meeting of the North Texas T-Bone Club in Jim's Steak House. Approximately 80 cattlemen from over the Panhandle were on hand for the meeting.

The T-Bone Club, formed last year, is an organization of persons who are engaged in the cattle raising and feeding industry.

Principle speaker for the affair was Paul Engler, general manager of the Hereford Feed Lot and part-owner of a seat on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Engler pointed out that futures trading will offer cattle feeders an opportunity to hedge cattle. He said this will take much of the gamble out of trading and put the cattlemen in a better position to finance his cattle.

Rex McAnely, manager of the Moody Farms Feed Lot, east of Pampa, is vice president of the organization.

On July 1, 1947, Kessinger completed a successful term as Governor of the 182 District of Rotary International.

During the period he officiated in this capacity, he addressed leading groups from coast to coast. The New York Rotary said, "Kessinger is truly a great humorist and philosopher."

Also at the meeting, the club will elect three new directors to replace three whose terms expire March 1.

Retiring directors are R. W. Curry, W. S. Dixon and J. E. Thompson.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Thursday North Viet Nam must indicate a willingness to end its aggression in South Viet Nam before the United States will agree to negotiate. But London diplomatic dispatches said Britain, with U. S. approval, had been making guarded inquiries in Moscow about the prospects of a settlement and the role Russia is prepared to play in it.

There was no indication the military leadership in South Viet Nam was ready to jump on the peace bandwagon. But ousted strongman Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh told newsmen in Hong Kong he was willing to assist any diplomatic settlement—but only if the war continued.

It has traditionally brought people together across denominational, racial, national and cultural boundaries to pray for the needs of the world and to make an offering for carrying around the world.

World Day of Prayer is worldwide in character. Basically the same service is used by groups in approximately 125 countries and areas of the world. Persons

Luke and John are not the only documents in which Jesus' sayings are recorded.

Statements attributed to Jesus but not found in the Gospels are known among Biblical scholars as "Agrapha." Hundreds of them have been unearthed from a wide variety of sources. Some obviously are spurious. Others have the ring of authenticity.

The most reliable Agrapha—accepted by all scholars as genuine utterances of Jesus—are found in the New Testament itself. Several of St. Paul's letters, for example, contain words of Jesus which are not duplicated in the Gospels. And it is from the Book of Acts that we get the familiar quotation: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Another rich source of Agrapha are so-called "glosses" in New Testament manuscripts. Before the invention of printing, manuscripts were copied by hand. Occasionally a scribe would add material from some other source to the Biblical text he was copying. Such additions are called glosses. They are detected by comparing the oldest manuscripts with those of later date.

It was manuscript glosses that produced the story of Jesus' gentle dealing with the woman taken in adultery, as well as the great cry from the cross: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

From what source ancient manuscript copiers took these sayings, no one can now determine. But so clearly reflected the spirit of Jesus that their authenticity is considered beyond challenge.

The four Gospels which the early church decided to include in the Canon of Holy Scripture were not the only Gospels in circulation. Writings of the church fathers contain allusions to seven other Gospels which were not considered as reliable as the New Testament. These are known as "Apocryphal Gospels."

One of them, long known to scholars, is called "The Gospel According to the Hebrews." Along with some material of dubious historicity, it includes several sayings which sound as though they really came from the lips of Jesus. For example: "Never rejoice except when you have looked upon your brother in love."

Two long-lost Apocryphal Gospels have come to light in the past century through the pyrus scrolls discovered in Egypt. They are the so-called "Gospel of Thomas" and "Gospel of Peter."

Members of the planning committee include: Mrs. R. A. Newton, chairman; Mrs. S. T. Friend, president of Pampa United Church Women; Mrs. Frank Grantham; Mrs. Bill Tucker; Mrs. Harry Vanderpool; Mrs. J. B. McCreery. A nursery will be provided during the services.

PANCAKES — Members and the Rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church are finalizing plans for their 10th Annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper which is to be held March 2 in the Episcopal Parish House. Pancakes will be served with all the trimmings between 5 and 7 p. m. Working on the plans for the project from left are Mrs. Bill Felter, Mrs. Ruby Lee Harris and Rev. William West.

Pancake Supper to Be Held in St. Matthew's Parish House

The 10th Annual Shrove Tuesday, Aunt Jemima Pancake Supper will be held Tuesday, in St. Matthew's Parish House, 727 W. Browning.

Aunt Jemima pancakes with all the trimmings will be served by candlelight in Mardi Gras atmosphere from 5 to 7 p. m. Tickets will be $1 and may be secured from members of the Parish Youth Groups, Church office or at the door. The public is cordially invited. A box of Aunt Jemima Pancake Mix will be given to the ladies attending the Pancake Supper. Prizes will be awarded to the four persons selling the most tickets, the two selling the most tickets and two attendants for the next highest ticket sellers.

The history of the traditional pancake supper, which is held locally each year, goes back many centuries, when it was designated as a time to use up all the leaven in the house before the meatless Lenten Season began. The custom of meeting in the church for a pancake supper grew with everyone attending services afterward.

Shrove Tuesday is the last day before the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Its religious use, from which the name was taken, was to make confession and to be "shriven." Later, Mardi Gras developed around a congregational gathering.

Committees are: Messrs. and Mrs. Cleo Jordan, Vera Farmer, Duanna Deaton, Katherine McArthur, bacon; Betty Meador, Katherine Reeve, June Alexander, table setting; Bettie Cooper, Shirley Dixon, syrup and butter; Dan Michael, batter; Clem Followell, Al Knox, Bill Ragsdale, Ab Conway Jack Nichols, pancake flippers; Bob Parks, Paul Payne, Pat Conway, Marge Redd, Kathleen Zmotony, Agnes Webb, servers; Pat Hart, Susy and Earny Wilkenson, Jr., EYC, waiters; John

An Inquirer's Class for those considering church membership will meet at the 9:45 church school hour and at that hour also there will be classes meeting for all ages.

The Junior and Senior High Fellowship meet at 5:30 for supper and at 6 for their own programs. Mrs. Ruby Capps will meet with the Senior Highs for the second in a series of programs on vocation and life's work.

Evening worship is at 7 p. m. in Kelley Chapel and will center around the commandment, "Thou shalt not bear false witness."

Services Set For Sunday at Lamar Christian

Rev. Loren E. Williams will be speaking at Lamar Christian Church Sunday from II Kings 6 on the topic, "Wearing Sackcloth — Let Us Forget."

The Sunday evening service has been dismissed so that members and friends may worship with the First Christian Church in Borger. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Palmer, returned missionaries from Japan, will be speaking there at 6:30. Those planning to attend are asked to meet at Lamar Church ready to leave for Borger by 5:30 so that all may go together and arrive in time to share in the fellowship of the snack supper beginning at 6 o'clock.

The World Outreach Department of Lamar Christian invites all members and friends to a fellowship dinner to be held at Lamar beginning at 7 o'clock tonight. This will be the last fellowship dinner under the leadership of the present Minister.

Rev. Duke Leads Christian Service

The Sunday morning worship service at the First Christian Church will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Duke. His sermon topic will be, "The Enemies of Our Spiritual Life." The scripture will be Psalms 31:9-16.

The snack supper is served at 5:30. The Juniors, Chi Rho and C.Y.F. Groups meet at 6:00 p. m. The Sunday Evening Worship Service is at 7:00 p. m. The evening singing is led by Charles Beard with Mrs. Danny King playing the organ. The evening meditation will be given by the Rev. J. W. Duke.

Elisha Gray of Chicago and Alexander Graham Bell of Boston, acting independently, both applied for patents on the telephone on the same day in 1876.

Sunday Topic Set
At Christian Science services this Sunday, the Bible Lesson on "Christ Jesus" will include the promise recorded in Mark (16): "And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out devils; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

Also to be considered is a related passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Jesus established in the Christian era the precedent for all Christianity, theology, and healing. Christians are under as direct orders now, as they were then, to be Christlike, to possess the Christ-spirit, to follow the Christ-example, and to heal the sick as well as the sinning" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 138).

Baily's Beads is a phenomenon seen during a total eclipse of the sun. Just before the moon's disk completely covers the sun the narrow crescent of sunlight is broken in several places, giving an appearance roughly compared to a string of beads. This is due to irregularity (mountains and valleys) on the edge of the moon's disk. These "beads" were named after Francis Baily, an English astronomer.

FELLOWSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH

THE WORD AND PRAYER

We are looking at those things God is now doing for the believer. These are the things that God is now doing to make it possible for the believer to live a Christian life. These are the things that make the believer's standing before God a living reality.

God has provided everything that the believer needs to be a Christian.

The first thing that we would like to consider that God has given each believer to make it possible for him to lead a Christian life is the Word of God — the Holy Scriptures. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." . . . II Tim. 3:16,17.

This is our final authority, the Word of God. The Christian does not have to look to his own conscience nor his own wisdom. He does not have to look to man nor the church. God has given each Christian the right to God's Word and hear: "thus saith the Lord." This is a wonderful assurance. It gives a firm foundation. It gives a certain word in an uncertain time. "Instruction in righteousness." The Bible will teach the believer in the ways of righteousness. "Thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Everything that the believer needs to be equipped for God's service is supplied in God's Word.

"Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." . . . Ps. 119:105. In a dark sinful world the Word of God is a light that shows the way. God loves us and has provided a guide to lead us safely through this maze of sin and sorrow.

The Word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart." . . . Heb. 4:12. Quick and Powerful! It can cut to the very heart and convict of sin. There is power in the Word. It keeps the Christian from sin.

The second thing that God has provided that we would like to consider is prayer. Prayer is another provision of God given for the needs of the Christian in this life. "Pray without ceasing." . . . I Thes. 5:17. Prayer is the appointed means whereby the Christian obtains from God those things that he needs.

Let us praise unto the glory of the grace of our God. He provides the wonderful word. He invites us to pray. Everything we need . . . God's grace has provided.

Dear Abby....

Given Enough Time,
This Too Shall Pass

DEAR ABBY: I went steady with Joe for six months and then we broke up. He has been talking about me something terrible and I don't know what to do. He never got anything more from me than a goodnight kiss at the door, but he has been going around telling everybody that he quit going with me because he got all he wanted.

TALKED ABOUT DEAR TALKED ABOUT: Maybe that's all he wanted. Forget it.

DEAR ABBY: Don't you think that when a husband and wife eat out he should give her some suggestion as to what to order, or at least some clue as to how much he intends to spend? Example: We had breakfast in a restaurant recently. I asked him what he was going to order, and he said he didn't know. Trying to be thoughtful and considerate I ordered coffee and toast. Then he ordered juice, bacon and eggs, blueberry muffins and jam and coffee. I would have enjoyed that kind of breakfast, but I hesitated to order it because I wasn't sure he was going in for a meal like that. Later he could see I was hurt so he asked me what was wrong, and I told him as nicely as I could that if I had known he was going to order a meal like that, I would have, too. Don't you think it's a man's responsibility to put his wife at ease and give her some kind of a clue as to what kind of meal he had in mind to pay for? He can't understand it.

ONLY HIS WIFE DEAR ONLY: There is no reason why you, after hearing your husband's order, couldn't have changed your mind and had the same. To have sat there and sulked in silence was childish. This man is not a "date," lady—he's your husband. I suggest you get on more familiar terms with him. You might enjoy it.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is trying to keep busy at work. I work for a small company in a one-girl office. I have a wonderful boss and a nice place to work, and the pay is good, but about three (and sometimes four) days out of the week I have nothing to do. The mail comes in at noon and I spend the rest of the day just sitting around. The phone hardly ever rings. I've read books and magazines, and listened to the radio, but I can't do that all day. I've straightened the desk drawers, files and cupboards and even cleaned and scrubbed the office although we have janitorial service. My boss is out of town most of the time. He knows I don't have enough to keep me busy, but he doesn't mind. I love my job, but I wish you could tell me how to occupy my empty hours.

LENORA DEAR LENORA: If idleness bugs you and you like to work, get a job where there is work to do. The job you have now, and say you "love," is unlike most jobs worthy of the name.

DEAR ABBY: I was surprised at your answer to the person who asked what you thought of people who offered to take their guests on a "tour" of their home. Maybe you think it's all right, but I have another opinion on that.

A home is not a show place. It is a person's private property with all his personal possessions collected there, and I think it is in very poor taste to show them off.

Now I have another question for you: What do you say when someone comes into your home for the first time, looks around and then says, "May I see the rest of your house?"

NO SHOW-OFF DEAR NO: You may have two choices. You may either offend your guest by refusing his request, or you conduct the guided tour whether you like it or not. I would give him the tour.

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Teenagers Will Wear London's Larky Look

BANGS—LONDON STYLE — For the complete "Young London Look," look to your head. In England, "gear" heads have lots of fringe—a la Beatle—meaning bangs that tangle in the eyebrows. Many of these new spring teen hairdos, created by Gerard Austen of Yardley of London, have a kind of all-around fringe, with hair cut just to ear-top level or above. Others stay long but are pulled back to look short. The Twist (upper left) is fringed from a zigzag part and pinned into a flat twist in the back. For dates, the sides can be curled into ribboned muffs. For the Pudding Basin look, (upper right), the

NEW YORK — Wear fringe down to your eyebrows, round eyes and a cupid's bow mouth — and you'll have that "larky" London look.

This spring's bangs should be London's fringe — sweeping low over the forehead and tangling in your eyebrows. The rest of your hair should be cut just to ear-tip level or above — or made to look short with a French twist.

To match your eyes to the new low fringe, round them with make-up. Thicken liner slightly at the center of the eye to accent roundness. (Don't ex-

Crown hair, fringe and sides are brushed forward. Long pretend fringe highlights The Short Cut, (lower left), a variation of The Twist. For shoulder-length hair, the crown section is brushed across the forehead and the ends and sides are brushed back. Back hair is folded into a flat twist. THE BRITISH HAVE LANDED What's "nippy" and nice, "gear" and great?

It's that "fab" London feeling, started by the Beatles and now sweeping the country! "By the time the Beatles had picked up their jelly babies and gone home, anything imported from London — from fashion to flicks, music to make-up, hairdos to dropped h's — was with it!"

The London look in fashion belongs especially to the young, and some of the designers who create it are barely out of their teens — for example, Angela Cash, age 20. Their "larky" fashion edict: lacy stockings, rounded-toe shoes, and Edwardian primness blended with Victorian dash.

WD-Skelly Bounces Newsboys

SKELLYTOWN — A standing-room-only crowd last night saw the White Deer Skellytown "Bouncing Bucks" break open a tight game in the fourth quarter to pull out a 71-64 win over the Pampa Newsboys.

Although the Newsboys' outshot the WD-Skelly coaches from the floor, they lost it at the foul line as the Bucks hit 17 of 21, led by Arien Kaiser's 10 of 10, while the Newsboys could connect on only eight of 17 charity tries.

The Bucks were aided by a group of "brand-new coaches," including almost the entire Richard Drug team of Pampa and Curtis Campbell of Frank Phillips JC. Although it was girls' coach Ronnie Mills and Skelly coaches Kaiser and Doc Bates that did most of the damage, one of the new "pros," towering Gene Williams, hit eight points in the final frame for the margin of victory.

The battered Newsboys will come back against Richard Drug Tuesday night at the Pampa YCC, and then meet this same crew of coaches under the non-de-plumie of the White Deer Lions next Thursday at White Deer.

The Newsboys took an early lead as Gerald "Little" Sikes was hot, hitting three quick buckets on tips, but Mills was heck under the backboards, and the former pro football player canned 11 points to propel the Bucks into a 19-12 quarter lead.

Charlie Snuggs and Carroll Russell started ripping the nets to open the second quarter and brought the visitors back again, but Kaiser hit seven of seven from the foul line and added a pair of baskets to move the Bucks ahead at the half, 35-27.

Gary Sikes found the range from close-in to open the third quarter, and backed by Russell and Snuggs, smashed the Newsboys back into the lead, with the third-quarter ending in a 49-all deadlock.

Teddy Bird and Terry Bromlow hit for the Pampans in the final frame, but Bates' pot-shooting from the corner put the Bucks in the lead as the Newsboys missed five free throw chances, and when the Pampans put on a press, the Bucks fired the ball down court to Williams, snowbirding under the basket, to wrap it up.

Kaiser led the scoring with 22 points, Mills had 20, Williams 12 and Bates nine. Gary Sikes headed the Newsboys with 16, Snuggs had 11 and Bird, Russell and Gerald Sikes eight apiece.

YCC Basketball

W-B Pump won over Hi-Land Pharmacy by forfeit, while the First National Bank came from behind over Stinnett, 33-34 last night.

Stinnett led throughout the half, but Loyd Stevens hit a short jumper as the third quarter ended to move the Bankers ahead, 29-28 and they held the margin the rest of the way. Stevens had 13 points, Sonny Lancaster 10.

Sellout Crowd Awaits Pampa

EL PASO — The regional playoff game here between El Paso High and Pampa is practically a sellout already, reported sportswriter Don Sanders of the El Paso Post. Of 500 reserved seats put on sale Tuesday at Texas Western Coliseum, 100 were sold before any official announcement was made. Officials expect an overflow crowd in the 4,500-seat gym.

El Paso has never had a regional game here before, and the local district, 1-AAAA, has not gone past bi-district since 1948, so the interest of all basketball fans in the city, not only the Tiger partisans, is intense.

Sanders said that the El Paso Herald sports staff had rated the game a tossup, but that the Post felt the Tigers should be the choice because of their height advantage and playing at home.

"These kids are really tasting playing at home in a big game. Coach C. D. Jarvis, like your coach Culley, has been a hard-luck flipper, and this is the first playoff toss we've won in many years," explained Sanders.

The El Paso scribe said that the Tigers expect the Harvesters to press, and are ready for it. "We had a scout at the Halton City game and that's the only time we've really seen you, but it has been reported to coach Jarvis that you press often and they are expecting it and working on it," explained Sanders.

Charlie Snuggs and Carroll Russell started ripping the nets to open the second quarter and brought the visitors back again, but Kaiser hit seven of seven from the foul line and added a pair of baskets to move the Bucks ahead at the half, 35-27.

Gary Sikes found the range from close-in to open the third quarter, and backed by Russell and Snuggs, smashed the Newsboys back into the lead, with the third-quarter ending in a 49-all deadlock.

in our town, used a press, so we worked against it quite a bit and were successful in stopping it. Midland-Lee used a press on us in the first half of the ball game and played us close, but they took it off just before the half, and when they did, they waved goodbye to a title."

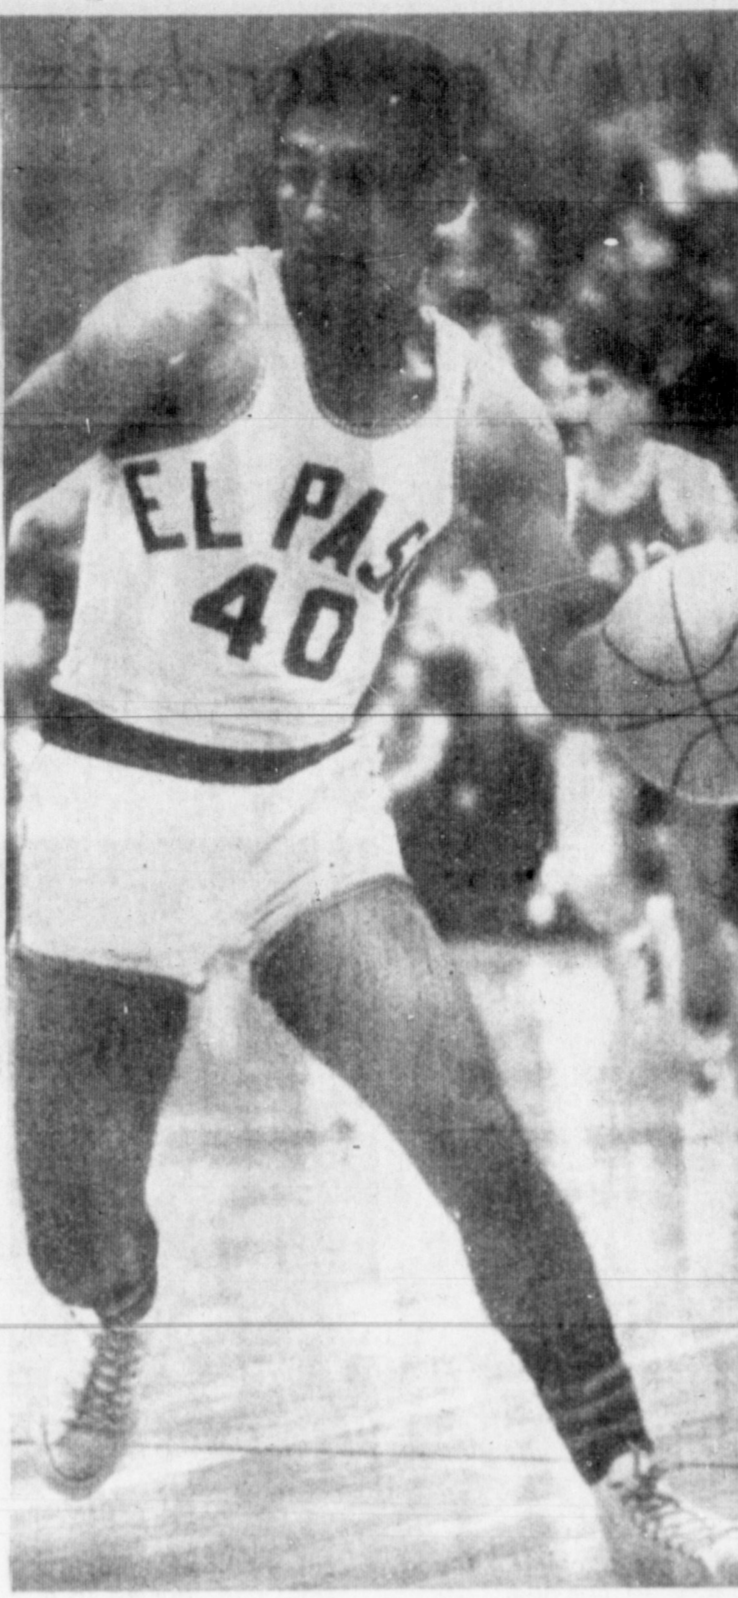

Sanders said that with eight of the 10 starters shooting in double figures, he expected a wild-shooting game, but admitted that the Tigers hope to keep the score down. "He (Jarvis) likes to get opposing teams to play his game and he's strong on defense so it holds down scores."

"Jarvis said that the Tigers have improved 100 percent as a team since the district playoffs started four games ago. He also said that his best player, 5-11 Kenny John, is the shortest 6-4 player I have, referring to his tremendous rebounding ability. However, he has tremendous respect for Pampa, especially your boy Roper."

"Personally, I was a little pessimistic through the season, even the playoffs, and up until the second half of the Lee game. However, EP's tremendous rebounding ability has impressed me. With John and their two 6-7 boys, they can just keep shooting until they hit, they get four or five chances before the other team can get the ball. In addition to that, they have been red-hot in their shooting lately. It should be a real good game."

Probable starting lineups and height, with scoring averages in parenthesis:

El Paso	Pampa
F—Richard Crockett, 6'7" (10.5)	Davey McDaniel, 6'2" (12.8)
F—Kenny John, 5'11" (16.9)	Mac McWilliams, 6'3" (11.0)
C—Bill Hardy, 6'7" (6.6)	Ropes Roper, 6'3 1/2" (15.3)
G—Frank Chavira, 5'6" (10.5)	Lanny Lewis, 6'0" (11.9)
G—George Hodge, 5'10" (4.1)	Ron Curlee, 6'2" (10.6)

BALLHANDLER — Slick little Frank Chavira, 5'6", of El Paso is quick and agile on both offense and defense despite his lack of height, and will be a threat to the Pampa Harvesters in tomorrow night's quarterfinals game at Texas Western.

Davidson KO's VMI In Southern Meet

By FRED MCMAINE, UPI Sports Writer
It may have taken a full year to accomplish, but Davidson's revenge on Virginia Military Institute is now complete.

The Wildcats, who last year were deprived of a trip to the NCAA basketball tournament because they lost to VMI in the Southern Conference tourney, gained their official revenge on the Keydets Thursday night by swamping them 94-83 in the first round of the SC tourney. It was the third time Davidson had beaten VMI this season, but this was by far the Wildcats' sweetest victory.

All-America Fred Hetzel and junior Dick Snyder led the assault on the Keydets with 31 and 28 points respectively. Hetzel scored Davidson's first 10 points and led the Wildcats to a 39-31 halftime advantage. VMI narrowed the lead to five points early in the second half, but the smooth-working Wildcats allowed the Keydets to get no closer.

The victory was the 24th in 25 contests for the sixth-ranked Wildcats and their 23rd straight triumph.

Four Games Played
Davidson was one of four Southern Conference teams to score first round victories in the tournament. In other action, West Virginia whipped George Washington 94-83, Virginia Tech crushed Richmond 103-63 and William & Mary tripped the Citadel 68-60.

Tom Camp hit on eight of nine first half field goal attempts to lead the Mountaineers to a big 52-57 advantage at halftime, and the Colonials were never able to get closer than 10 points in the remainder of the contest. Camp topped West Virginia in the scoring department with 26 points while Phil Aruscavage tallied the same amount for George Washington.

Virginia Tech's 6 foot 11 center Bob King was the chief engineer in the Gobblers' victory over hapless Richmond. King ignited a second half rout which saw Tech turn a five-point halftime advantage into a fat 42-point lead with seconds to go in the game. The final 40-point margin was the largest point spread ever in a Southern Conference tournament game. King tallied 27 points in the contest, 17 of those coming in the second half.

World Marks In Danger

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — If physical condition and the confidence of the performers mean anything, at least three world records are in danger of falling tonight in the Golden Gate Invitational outdoor track meet at the Cow Palace.

The records believed in danger are in the high jump, broad jump and the two-mile run. Russia's Valeriy Brumel, who holds both the indoor (74) and outdoor (75 3/4) high jump records, says he is over his knee trouble and confidently is shooting for a new indoor mark.

Australia's Ron Clarke, who holds world records at three miles, 5,000 meters, six miles and 10,000 meters, promises flatly that Jim Beatty's two-mile indoor mark of 8:30.6 will be beaten.

And America's Ralph Boston, who has split a pair of broad jump competitions with Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan, says "I want to get his (Ter-Ovanesyan's) indoor record of 26-10."

PWGA Here October 7

DUMAS — The 1965 schedule for the Panhandle Women's Golfers Association was set last week during a meeting at North Plains Country Club.

The annual tournament will be Sept. 15-17 at the North Plains Country Club course. There will be a regular one-day play and qualifying for the tournament Sept. 14.

One-day events are April 21 at Ross Rogers Course, May 4 at Tascosa Country Club, June 3 at Phillips Country Club, July 20 at Amarillo Country Club, Aug. 25 at Huber Course in Borger and Oct. 7 at Pampa Country Club.

There will be no team entered this year from Amarillo Air Force Base as several of the regular players expect their husbands to be transferred before the season is complete.

Texas Tech Ineligible For SWC Crown, NCAA

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) — The Texas Tech Red Raiders packed their visions of a Southwest Conference championship and an NCAA playoff berth in the locker today because their star forward was scholastically ineligible.

Norman Reuther, who had helped lead the Raiders to a one-game lead in the conference race, was declared ineligible because he had not passed enough hours during the last two semesters.

"This came as a complete shock and surprise to us," said Dr. J. William Davis, Tech's faculty chairman of athletics. "We learned in competitive athletics to take the hard knocks and come back fighting as well as to accept praise with humility."

Conference Secretary Howard

Grubbs said that the conference rules were clear on such an incident.

"All games that Texas Tech has played count as far as their opponents are concerned," said Gibbs. He said the only effect it would have would be that Tech would be eliminated from championship consideration, and of course from post-game tournaments.

Grubbs said the Raiders would play their final three games without Reuther and at the end of the season, the championship team would be the one with the best record other than Tech.

Texas Tech coach Gene Gibson rolled up his prepared statement at a press conference and rapped it on the table. "We will play the last three games with the same Red Raider fighting spirit that has become a trade mark of our basketball teams."

"We had no indication — no earthly idea — (that Reuther had failed)," said the coach. He said Reuther was "very upset."

The 6-foot-7 Reuther, of Fort Worth, was a pre-medical student at the South Plains school. He started with 16 hours of courses during the fall semester but dropped a two-hour course. He flunked a five-hour chemistry course which left him with only nine hours of credit at semester's end. He needed 10.

Reuther was one of Tech's top scorers. He had pumped in 29 points in a losing effort against Baylor Tuesday night, and earlier in the season had hit 42 against the Phillips 66'ers. He is a junior in basketball eligibility.

The Raiders had amassed a 9-2 conference record and stood a single game ahead of Southern Methodist with the three games left.

Even if the Raiders and SMU had tied for the crown, Texas Tech would have represented the conference in the NCAA playoffs because they had defeated the Mustangs twice during league play.

Now, SMU is out in front with its 8-3 record. Baylor and the University of Texas trail with 7-4 marks.

The Southwest Conference representative will meet the Missouri Valley champ in the first round of the Midwest regional playoffs.

Home Sweet Home Insurance (that really pays off)

A State Farm Homeowners policy pays off two ways. First, by protecting your home and belongings against almost every risk imaginable. Even covers you in case of lawsuits. And secondly, by paying big dividends — the kind of dividends that have already saved Texas drivers over $45 million with State Farm Mutual. Want to hear more? Call me for the full details.

Texans Honored At Sports Fete

DALLAS (UPI)— Olympic vault champion, Fred Hansen, Texas A&M basketball coach Shelby Metcalf and New York Yankee manager Johnny Keane walked off with the sports achievement dinner Thursday night at the 5th sports achievement dinner. Hansen, who overcame the world's best vaulters in Tokyo last year was honored as the southwesterner of the Year as well as the Amateur Athlete of the Year.

Metcalf was honored as the senior College Coach of the Year and Keane received his award as the Professional of the Year. Metcalf and Hansen were on hand to accept their awards but former president of the Texas League, Dick Butler, accepted Keane's plaque for him.

Also honored was L. L. (Red) Lewis, track coach at Howard County Junior College, as Junior College Coach of the Year. They were voted their honors by Texas Sportswriters.

Metcalf told the crowd of about 500 that it appeared the Aggies were in a rebuilding year. A&M is currently in fifth place in the Southwest Conference race.

"Actually the fellows are setting me up for the comeback of the year in 1966."

Metcalf said coaching anywhere else would be dull. He said that night he was lying in bed after his team lost and was thinking about what he might have done different. "I know there are 10,000 Aggies living there thinking the same thing."

The Aggie mentor was the chief speaker at the dinner and he was left mainly without a text. He had prepared a salute to the apparent Southwest Conference basketball champion, Texas Tech, but the speech was thrown out the window when it was learned that Tech was declared out of championship consideration because of an ineligible player.

New Mexico, Texas Western Accept NIT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Defense, considered virtually a lost art in this era of high scoring basketball, will be in for quite a revival during the 28th annual National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden, March 11-20.

New Mexico and Texas Western, two of the nation's top four defensive quintets, are among the latest teams to be selected for the NIT along with hometown St. John's. Those three being the completed field to six in the 14-team tourney.

Villanova, Boston College and Detroit entered the NIT picture on Wednesday.

The addition of New Mexico, which reached the final round of the nation's oldest tournament last year in its maiden appearance here, was a big score for the NIT since the Lobos (19-3) currently lead the Western Athletic Conference and rank as the nation's top defensive squad with an average allowance of only 52 points per game.

Matson Cancelled

COLLEGE STATION — The opening track meet for Texas A&M and Randy Matson has been cancelled due to lack of practice because of the cold weather and rain. The meet was a dual affair scheduled here Saturday against Baylor.

Matson will make his first college appearance since last Spring in Houston on March 8, in a triangular meet between the Aggies, Rice and Texas.

Pampa Track, Golf Teams Open

Two groups of Pampa High School athletes will not be on hand to cheer their cage teammates on to victory this weekend, as the Pampa track team kicks off the season at Fort Stockton in the Comanche Relays, and the golf team opened today in the Andrews Invitational at Golf Meet.

Coach Norman Phillips will take 14 thin-clads to the meet, including a state finalist and a group of extremely promising sophomores. Although the old pipe-puffer will be missing two of his aces due to basketball, broad jumper "Little Butch" Crossland and dashman Davy McDaniel, the professional pessimist admits that things are looking a little brighter than last year.

"Last year weather handicapped us greatly before the season started and we went into this first meet ice-cold and finished low. This year we've had a little chance to work out. I won't really know what we have though, until we run there."

The huge field will include 4-A state champion Abilene Cooper, Kermit, meet winner last year, Odessa, Odessa Permian, Abilene, and host Fort Stockton, always tough, and now in the large-school division.

Phillips and assistant Don Myers tentatively picked Peerman as the winner, on the basis of returning strength.

The Harvesters will be headed by senior Mark Westbrook, fourth in the state in the mile last year, and with his 4:26.4 time rating him the favorite's role for the championship this season.

Joining Westy as a threat will be two-letter senior Waylon "Bones" Bullard, high and low hurdler, who had a top time of 15.5 last year, but has recorded a 15.1 in practice so far.

Another two-letter senior, Jimmy Jamieson, a jack of all trades who has run three or four different events for the Harvesters, will be an 800-man this season.

Another senior veteran is high-jumper San Williams, who won the event at the Perryton Relays last year. Three other vets return in sprinter Charlie Walker, hurdler Randy Johnston and weightman Carl "Swede" Johnson.

Phillips' tentative lineup for the meet has Williams in the high jump, Jamieson and David Martindale in the 800, Doc Cornutt and Chad Speers in the shotput, Johnson and Big Matt Matney in the discus, Westbrook in the mile, Bull Heiskell in the 440, Bullard and Johnston in both high and low hurdles, Walker, Gary McCarrell and Eugene McCampbell in the sprints. McCampbell, Walker, Heiskell and McCarrell will make up the sprint relay team in that order, with Heiskell, Jamieson, Martindale and Johnston in the mile relay.

The newcomers include a trio of record-setting sophomores.

Cornutt broke Randy Matson's junior high record with the shot, will be in three running events, and Matney set a new mark with the discus as a freshman, out for his first year, and has looked good in practice, as high mark last year with a 10:1.5 hundred-yard dash.

Cornutt has been hitting 45-47 feet with the big shot, but is being pushed hard by Chad "Ringo" Speers. The long-haired soph ran second to Big Doc through most of his junior high career, but is hitting the 49-foot mark in practice.

Major League Roundup

By Fred DOWN

"No pain" is the word in the New York Yankees' spring training camp — whether it's the way Johnny Keane broke in Saturday as new manager of the American League champions or how Whitey Ford felt after his first warmup.

Both performances, it was agreed by neutral observers, were as slick as a CBS commercial.

Elsewhere on the baseball front: Pitcher-coach Warren Spahn, one of seven New York Met holdouts, is scheduled to talk terms with club President George Weiss on Saturday morning — a few hours after the team formally opens spring training. The Cincinnati Reds completed the signing of their key players when infielders Deane Johnson and Chico Ruiz agreed to terms.

Former Dodger righthander Phil Ortega announced that he wants the opening day pitching assignment for the Washington Senators because he wants to perform in the presence of President Johnson, almost a certainty to be present for the opening-day ritual. American League batting champion Tony Oliva surprised the Minnesota Twins by showing up a few days early and participating in a pitcher-catcher workout.

"I really didn't expect any. I don't plan any changes in my training routine. I'll work this year just as I always have and if all goes well I should be ready to throw pretty hard in a week or so."

The Milwaukee Braves' manager, Bobby Bragan, meanwhile, went out on the limb with the prediction that the Atlanta-bound team would win the NL pennant "if our pitching holds up."

"We have the best array of hitting talent and the experience and confidence acquired by our young pitchers like Donny Lemonster and Tony Cloninger should pay off," he said.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The trial of a young American airman accused of the fatal shooting of a 14-year-old Filipino concluded today with a guilty verdict. The case is expected to have a continuing effect on U.S.-Philippine relations.

The airman, 1.C. Larry D. Cole, was charged with the unremediated murder of Rogelio Balagtas on Nov. 25, 1964. Balagtas was among a group of intruders on the restricted area of a gunnery range at Clark Air Force Base.

Cole was born in Marshall, Mich. He grew up in Ezel, Ky. The charge carries a maximum life sentence, but Cole received a sentence of only three years at hard labor.

The Cole case and another in which a Filipino fisherman was killed by guards in restricted waters of the Subic Bay naval station have gone far beyond the confines of a military court martial.

Anti-American Editorials
Manila newspapers have carried militantly anti-American editorials and radio commentaries have spread the anti-American line throughout the archipelago.

Demonstrators have carried "Yankee go home" signs outside the American Embassy.

U.S. Ambassador William McCormick Blair Jr., has been burned in effigy.

The Philippine press also raised a clamor for revision of the 1947 treaty on military bases. The United States has made a conciliatory offer to meet this demand.

The 1947 treaty gave the U.S. criminal jurisdiction over offenses committed by American servicemen on the base and when on duty off the base. The Filipinos want jurisdiction over all cases involving Filipino nationals.

Broader Jurisdiction
The United States is understood to have offered broader Filipino jurisdiction over crimes committed by off-duty servicemen and some categories of offenses committed on bases.

But regardless of the outcome of the Cole case and renegotiation of the bases agreement, many Americans are convinced that relations between the United States and its traditionally staunchest friend in Asia never again can be quite the same.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stanley Heller & Co. views the monetary and fiscal stimuli now being accelerated by the government as an effort to delay rather than eliminate completion of the economic cycle.

Accordingly, the firm says, investment attitudes should become increasingly sensitive to those indicators which may suggest a loss of momentum and a change of direction.

Waller Mintz of Shearson, Hamill & Co. says the public has lived through so many crises in the past 20 years that it has developed a rather thick skin when it comes to cold war conflicts.

Bache & Co. believes there still is room for upward expansion since many stocks are selling at what it believes are reasonable price-earnings ratios.

Police Slayer on FBI's Ten Most Wanted Listings

By SAM FOGG
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 27-year-old Negro accused of the Christmas Day slaying of a police sergeant was placed Thursday on the FBI's list of the 10 most wanted criminals.

Samuel Jefferson Veney is also wanted in connection with the robbery of a Baltimore liquor store on Christmas Eve.

The FBI warned that Veney must be considered extremely dangerous.

Veney, who has a long criminal record, is also accused of wounding a Baltimore police lieutenant.

Veney, his brother and two others were involved in the armed robbery of a liquor store on Christmas Eve, according to police. The lieutenant who answered the alarm was shot twice but survived.

On Christmas morning, a Baltimore police sergeant investigating the shooting was found dead from bullet wounds from one of the guns used in the robbery. Veney is under indictment for murder of the sergeant, assault murder of the sergeant, assault with intent to murder the lieutenant, and three counts of armed robbery.

A native of Baltimore, the wanted man has a police record dating back to when he was 16 years old. His convictions included assault, disorderly conduct, burglary and escape from the state prison where he has served two terms.

Veney is known to be a heavy wine drinker. He stands 6 foot 1 and weighs 185 pounds. Of medium build, he has a curved scar near the center of his forehead.

Other identification aids are dark marks on the outside of both wrists and a gold-crowned upper tooth on the right side of his jaw.

Financial Gossip

By JESSE BOGUE
UPI Financial Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — Designing and building an industrial structure or a laboratory facility without windows has some advantages, but it is not an un-mixed blessing, Frank L. Whitney believes.

Whitney, an architect and engineer, is president of Walter Kidde Constructors, Inc., an engineering and building organization. Whitney discussed present-day trends in building design in an interview here.

At one extreme of the range of officials in industrial concerns, Whitney said, there is often found one who will call for a design of a working space without outside windows "because my people are always looking outside instead of at their work."

But, Whitney said, the worker in a windowless structure may lose what he called a sense of "outside awareness." He believes that in some types of occupation, this may have adverse psychological effects.

"Windows are no longer needed for ventilation or for lighting," he said. "Air conditioning—or in its broader application, environmental control, including regulation of temperature, humidity, air cleanliness—has gone beyond that."

"Lots of clients," he continued, "are interested in exploring the possibilities of windowless construction" because of its advantages in cutting down heat loss. Yet this may be the easiest argument to knock down, he said, with modern-day temperature controls which are at the command of the builder.

One of the most difficult details of designing, Whitney said, is making allowance for "solar load," the effects of sunlight through glass on the control of interior lights and temperatures.

For this reason, he said he thought the use of areas of smaller windows in industrial designing is a definite trend at present.
