VAN DEVANTER RETIRES FROM HIGH COURT

MOTHER SIGNS CONFESSION IN GIRL'S MURDER

SAYS SUITOR HELPED HER KILL DAUGHTER, ASSAULT SON

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—A blond, 25-year old mother stood under the glaring lights of the police lineup today and calmly accused her suitor of complicity in the torch-knife slaying of her 7-year old daughter and the attempted killing of her 4-year old son — crimes to which Assistant District Attorney Salvatore Consentino said she confessed.

The suitor, George Christodulus, 29-year old restaurant steward, denied all the charges made by Mrs. Helen Tiernan and said he was at work last Saturday when the children were attacked in a wood at Brookhaven, Long Island. He, too, was formally charged with homicide.

Both were turned over to Suffolk county authorities to be taken to Riverhead, Long Island.

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—A 30-year-old restaurant store room man and suitor of Mrs. Helen Tiernan, confessed slayer of her daughter, was charged today with acting in concert with the young widow in the crime.

The man was George Christodulus referred to by Mrs. Tiernan as George Christie, Police Lieut. Edward Mullins said she accused him late last night as having plotted with her in attempting to kill both her seven-year-old daughter, Helen, and her four-year-old son, Jimmie.

Christodulus denied having anything to do with the crime. The body of little Helen was found Sunday in a thicket near Brookhaven, on Long Island's south shore, the throat gashed, the head bruised, and the clothing and parts of the body burned. Nearby was little Jimmie, his throat also cut but

500 AMERICANS KILLED IN SPANISH CIVIL WAR

MADRID, May 18 (AP)—American volunteer battalions, used continually as government shock troops in the Spanish civil war, were estimated today to have lost almost a third of their number in death.

Reliable sources placed the number of United States citizens killed while fighting on the government side at more than 500, or 30 per cent of the 1,700 reported to have enlisted since the conflict started just 10 months ago.

A few of the volunteers were professional air pilots and technicians, and a few were soldiers of fortune, but the overwhelming majority lacked previous military experience.

The largest contingent of Americans in the service of the republic has been the 10th infantry, or Abraham Lincoln battalion, which members of the unit said was recruited in the United States.

This battalion originally was composed of 487 men who entered Spain last December and January and went into the thick of the action on the Jarama river south of Madrid on February 12.

Only two weeks later, according to one member of the outfit, 147 men out of the 487 had been lost and many others incapacitated by wounds and sickness.

Cars Crash at Top Of Grade on Road

Two cars crashed at the top of a grade on an oilfield road southeast of Pampa about 5 o'clock yesterday which resulted in injuries to Mrs. Jeff E. Dye, driver of one of the cars.

Mrs. Dye was taken to Pampa-Jarrett hospital in an ambulance. She was treated for cuts and bruises about the head and body. No bones were broken.

Occupants of the other car were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Whitell. Mr. Whitell received treatment for minor cuts.

Details of the accident have not been learned, officers not arriving at the scene until after the damaged cars had been moved.

PAMPA WOMAN WHO RESEMBLES WALLY TO BE 'WEDDED' TO DUKE IN PAN AMERICA'S BIGGEST SHOW

DALLAS, May 18 (AP)—Edward of Windsor and Wallis Warfield are going to be married for the benefit of visitors to the Pan American exposition, fair officials announced yesterday.

R. L. Vollman, director of the dramatic spectacle, "Cavalcade of the Americas," said he had cast a couple in the production whose similarity in appearance to the Duke and his intended was "remarkable."

In fact, the resemblance was "almost phenomenal," he said.

ASHURST SAYS VAN DEVANTER HELPED BILL

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—The Senate judiciary committee met today to vote on the Roosevelt court bill amid circumstances suddenly altered by the announcement that Justice Van Devanter will retire from the Supreme court bench June 2.

Chairman Ashurst (D., Ariz.), told newspapermen the retirement "immensely promotes" the prospect for passage of the court measure.

On the other hand an opposition leader—Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.)—quickly demanded withdrawal of the President's plan.

He said "there is absolutely no excuse whatever for going ahead."

Word of Van Devanter's retirement quickly spread through the capitol. Excited Senators called each other to talk it over and discuss the possible effect on the bitter court bill controversy.

There was little prospect it would immediately affect the vote in the judiciary committee, where sentiment was thoroughly crystallized. But some Senators felt it would have a tremendous long range effect on the measure.

Foreign Ignorance Ten of the 18 members of the committee are publicly committed against the bill which would permit the addition of as many as six new justices unless those now over 70 retire.

There were hints that Ashurst had talked with the White House before calling in newspapermen.

When they walked in his office, he feigned ignorance of the retirement announcement. When told

SENATE GROUP REJECTS FDR'S COURT CHANGE

SENATORS VOTE 10-8 IN ADVERSE REPORT

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—The Senate Judiciary committee voted 10 to 8 today to report the Roosevelt Court Bill adversely to the Senate.

First members to emerge from the committee session said all amendments, except a few clarifying changes, were rejected by the dominant opposition majority.

The vote, taken in executive session shortly after announcement of the retirement of Justice Van Devanter, came out just as it had been forecast for more than a week.

For almost two hours, the committee voted down compromise after compromise.

Senator Borah (R-Ida.), one of the leading foes of the President's bill, stepped out of the committee room to tell newspapermen:

"Ten to eight adversely."

The line-up on the final vote, Borah said, was just as it had been forecast—with seven Democrats and three Republicans opposing the Presidential measure to increase the size of the Supreme Court.

Seven Democrats and Senator Norris, the lone Independent, voted for the bill.

Those voting to report the President's bill favorably, Ashurst said, were Senators Neely, Logan, Dietrich, McGill, Pittman, Hughes, Norris and Ashurst.

Those against were: Senators King, McCarran, Van Nuys, Hatch, Burke, Connally, O'Mahoney, Borah, Austin and Steiwer.

WHEAT PROSPECTS OFF 30 MILLION BUSHELS

CHICAGO, May 18 (AP)—Wheat crop prospects in the Southwest declined approximately 30,000,000 bushels the first 15 days of May, B. W. Snow, a widely recognized crop expert, estimated today.

Grain trade leaders here said there was no doubt the domestic crop was deteriorating fast and that added damage would occur if hot weather arrived before the much needed rains.

These statements concerning declining crop prospects were accompanied by sharp advances in wheat prices at times. May wheat rose more than 4 cents a bushel at one stage to around $1.32 but later reacted.

Snow based his estimates on reports from country correspondents throughout the area where the growing winter wheat is at the jointing stage.

'Drunk' Trees on Courthouse Lawn Given 'The Cure'

Evergreen trees on the courthouse lawn were being put on the "straight and narrow" path today by caretaker Lee Harris.

Because of persistent southwest winds, the trees have been listing a bit to the northeast, all of which proved irksome to caretaker Harris.

This morning he got out his stepladder, drove iron pipes down through the center of the trees into the ground and braced them. Now the trees stand straight once more.

"If you'll notice," Mr. Harris said, "Panhandle trees all appear to be drunk and lean to the northeast."

'Miss Pampa' To Be Picked Here Tonight

Beauty on parade, sponsored by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, will be featured on the stage of the LaNora theater tonight as a score or more of Pampa girls compete for the title of "Miss Pampa of 1937."

The winner of tonight's beauty contest, to be selected by three out-of-town judges, will go to Fort Worth on Thursday to vie with beauties from a hundred other Texas cities for the title of Texas Sweetheart No. 1.

In addition to "Miss Pampa," the judges will select an alternate, who will also make the trip to Ft. Worth as a guest of the Chamber of Commerce. All expenses of both girls will be paid.

"Miss Pampa," in addition to her chance at the title of Texas Sweetheart No. 1 will have an opportunity for a role in Billy Boy's Cantanna Revue which will play all summer at the Fort Worth Fiesta.

Several special features will be included in tonight's beauty show. Among them will be KPND's Mystery Pianist and pupils from the Vincent Studio of Dancing. The beauty show is scheduled for 8:30 p. m.

"Miss Pampa" also will have a role in the Top O' Texas Fiesta parades here on June 3 and 4.

HOUSE OKAYS ELECTION ON FEE SYSTEM

AUSTIN, May 18 (AP)—The house of representatives responded quickly and unanimously today to Governor Allred's appeal for submission of a constitutional amendment authorizing a return to the fee system.

Within 20 minutes after reading of the Governor's message, the body voted, 128 to 0, for submission. If the Senate should take like action, the people would be permitted to vote August 23 on whether to abolish the new salary method of compensating officers.

"I voted to abolish the fee system," said the Governor, "but I must admit error. It not only has proved a costly financial failure, but has utterly failed to produce as good a type of service as we had under the old system. After all, our forefathers were pretty wise in writing most of the constitution."

The amendment would not make the fee system mandatory but would permit the Legislature to adopt any method if desired.

GIRL ENTERS MARBLE WARS

The first girl entry in the Top O' Texas marble tournament brought her entry fee and the entry blank, filled out, to the NEWS this morning. She is Ravenel Winton and her age is 15 years.

The boys in her neighborhood say that she consistently beats them and has won all their marbles several times. Ravenel is modest and would not discuss her prowess at knocking down, but she was eager to talk about the Pan American exposition where she expects to go when she wins one of the two trips that will be given the champion and runner-up. The prizes will be awarded during the Top O' Texas Fiesta here June 3 and 4.

When the finals of the tournament with all school champions competing will be held.

Last night, the Panhandle American Legion post assured a visiting delegation of Pampa Legionnaires who are sponsoring the tournament that Panhandle will hold an elimination tournament and send a champion to compete here.

Tonight, member of the local post will go to Dalhart where a district Legion meeting will be held. They will announce the tourney and invite all posts to cooperate in holding the tournament. A good response is expected.

Meanwhile, local marble players are practicing to enter preliminaries this week in their local schools.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP IN NEA PRESENTED FISHER

A life membership in the National Educational Association was presented to Supt. R. B. Fisher from Pampa schools this morning. Presentation was made in the regular staff meeting of school executives and principals, but the gift came from the activity funds of all six schools, to which pupils and teachers contribute.

Life membership in the national organization entitles Mr. Fisher to listing in the educators' section of "Who's Who in America." Since the membership was presented to him and not purchased by him, his name will be marked on the roll of the National Superintendents Association.

The gift was a surprise to Mr. Fisher, who today expressed his appreciation of the tribute from Pampa students and faculty.

Three Members of Family Die in Day

NACOGDOCHES, May 18 (AP)—Funeral services were planned today for three members of the H. T. Burk family who died in one day's time. Slamise twin girls succumbed at birth and their 24-year-old mother, Mrs. Nellie Burk, several hours later.

Hospital attendants said the twins were joined together at the chest. Mrs. Burk, the former Miss Nellie V. Muckleroy, was a sister of Mayor Robert G. Muckleroy of Nacogdoches and a graduate of Stephen F. Austin college here.

LONG SERVICE ON BENCH TO CLOSE JUNE 2

FDR'S BILL DEBATED FURIOUSLY IN NEW DEVELOPMENT

By JOHN T. SUTER WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Associate Justice Willis Van Devanter announced today his retirement from the Supreme Court, effective June 2, thus clearing the way for President Roosevelt to make his first appointment to the high bench.

The 78-year old justice, who has served 26 years in the court, made known his intention in a letter to the President.

Mr. Roosevelt immediately wrote a brief acknowledgment in long hand extending to the jurist "every good wish" and inviting him to call at the White House before he leaves Washington.

The President's letter said: "My Dear Mr. Justice Van Devanter:

"I have received your letter of this morning, telling me that you are retiring from regular active service on the bench on June 2, 1937.

"May I as one who has had the privilege of knowing you for many years, extend to you every good wish. "Before you leave Washington for the summer it would give me great personal pleasure if you would come in to see me.

"Very sincerely yours, (Signed) Franklin D. Roosevelt."

News of the retirement aroused widespread excitement on Capitol Hill where intense interest already was centered on the Senate judiciary committee's vote today on President Roosevelt's bill to reorganize the Supreme Court.

Under the reorganization plan the president would have power to add six new justices to the high bench, one for each present member of the court over 70.

Chairman Ashurst (D-Ariz.) told newspapermen that the "immensely promotes" the prospect for the passage of the bill but Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.), opposition leader, demanded withdrawal of the bill.

"There is absolutely no excuse for going ahead," he said.

Van Devanter has long been considered a conservative member of the court. His retirement brought from Chief Justice Hughes a statement that the court would suffer a "most serious loss."

In a statement the chief justice said:

LUNCHEON AND GOLF ENTERTAIN VISITORS

Hostesses Win From Amarillo Women By 3 Points

Playing hostess to a women's golf team from Amarillo, members of the Ladies' Golf Association here entertained their visitors with a luncheon at Schneider hotel yesterday, and defeated them in matches on the Country club course.

Nine holes were played in the morning and nine in the afternoon in the return matches, which followed similar games at Amarillo a week ago. The course was wet, making scores unusually high, especially on the morning round.

In the 10 matches, Pampa women made 10 1/2 points to Amarillo's 13 1/2. The score for the day was made by Mrs. J. W. Ross of Amarillo who shot 44-44, an 88 total. Mrs. Del Love of Pampa was a close second with 45-44 and 89.

Other players who broke 100 were Mrs. Jess Rogers of Amarillo with 92. Mrs. Carl Luedders of Pampa with 98. Mrs. Arthur Swanson of Pampa and Mrs. Shane of Amarillo with 99 each.

Results in the matches, Pampa players named first, were as follows: Mrs. Swanson 2 1/2 points, Mrs. Rogers 1, Mrs. Luedders 0, Mrs. Ross 3, Mrs. Luedders 0, Mrs. Shane 3, Mrs. Cartwright 1, Mrs. U. N. Oliver 2.

1 Mrs. Larry Padden 2, Mrs. Frank Wolf 1, Mrs. Annie Culbertson 1, Mrs. Charlie Duenkel 1 1/2, Mrs. Christopher 1 1/2, Mrs. Carl Smith 1/2, Mrs. Fred Wagner 2 1/2, Mrs. William Miskimins 3, Mrs. Moore 0.

Mrs. Mark Heath 3, Mrs. Jack Himerman 0, Mrs. H. H. Hicks 3, Mrs. Wade Holman 0, Mrs. Walter Sikes, pro of the River Drive course at Amarillo, accompanied the team but did not play a match. Other Pampa women who played in the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Thut, Clyde Fatheree, Frank Harris, Lynn Boyd, A. J. Beagle, Roy McKernan, Gene Green and R. G. Allen.

Prizes in the regular Ladies Day handicap play went to Mrs. Thut, who shot a 49 on nine holes for a net 36, and Mrs. Love, whose 44 for a net 39 gave her second place.

POSTER PRIZES ARE AWARDED

Students' Entries in Auxiliary Contest Judged

Prize winners in the annual poppy poster contest of the American Legion Auxiliary were Aubrey Green and Arlene Arlsland in the junior high division, Betty Jo Stover of Woodrow Wilson and Otto Carter of B. M. Baker in the Ward division.

Winners were announced at an Auxiliary meeting last evening, after the posters were judged by Mmes. John Andrews, Ramon Wilson, and Ralph Thomas. Cash prizes were awarded the first and second place winners in each division.

A business session followed the judging at the American Legion hut. Plans were made for the poppy sale and also for making Memorial Day wreaths. A called meeting was announced for next Monday to work on the wreaths.

Members went to the home of Mrs. Al Lawson for a social period in charge of Mrs. Hupp Clark and Mrs. R. H. Kitchings. Those present were Mmes. Charlie Maisel, L. D. Blas-ingame, Bob Ernest, Roy Sewell, Hoyt Allen, L. R. Hartell, W. C. de-Cordova, Katie Vincent, Thomas, and two special guests, Mmes. B. W. Rose and O. K. Gaylor.

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton
A mother asked about the psychology of a child using baby talk. One day, it seems, Polly began to chatter to herself in odd little phrases. She would say, "Oh, oh poor little dir. Oh has to wash our itty face and bush its nice booful hair."

"There isn't any psychology," smiled this oracle. "She just likes to do it."
"Let her alone. She'll get tired of it. Polly has just learned that she can talk to herself, and so she adopts another voice."

I think that every child goes through such a period and if you ask me, it's much more civilized than all the "ixnay" stuff that the morons think so cute."

One of my unhappy memories of childhood is about a day that my sister and I began to talk to each other over the table in "pig Latin." "Are vuz you vuz going vuz to vuz etc. etc."

A father, a rigid disciplinarian of the old school, began to roar his wrath. "If ever I catch you girls talking like that again I'll punish you both," said the irate gentleman.

We were so astonished and felt the injustice so keenly, that our innocent little fun was taken so seriously that never again did we attempt any such nonsense in his hearing. We never let him see us behaving like idiots, but we did just the same. He was a grand person, but very serious with children. Never could he find anything funny in our antics.

And yet, another memory of him clings. One evening some friends were in to play cards. And he had had bad luck. Up he got and walked around the table quite sedately, saying that it might break the jinx.

Why is Parent Exception?
My small round face must have showed its surprise because I was hastily packed off to bed, but my hurt never wore off. Why couldn't we be silly once in a while, when our father could let loose his heavy dignity and do a nonsensical thing?

The ever popular House of David bearded baseball team will be in Pampa tonight for a single game with the Pampa Oilers. Game time will be 8:15 o'clock with admission 40 cents for adults. Season tickets will be honored.

With the team will be the lovable Doc Talley, veteran pitcher; John Tucker, elongated first baseman; George Anderson, long-haired third baseman, all members of the famous pepper game which will be presented as usual.

Many newcomers will be ready to show their ability to Pampa fans. On second base will be the well known "Scrappy" McCollister, who led the Three-I league for six years, while at shortstop will be another newcomer, Ike Bohn, who comes direct from Benton Harbor, home of the Israelite House of David.

Helping Lefty Deck patrol the outfield will be Joe Zantora of the strong arm, and Art Lasky, who hails from Toledo. On the receiving end will be Fred Cato, formerly of Muskogee, Okla.

The pitching staff this year is an imposing one, including Talley, Bill Anderson and Herb Anderson, brothers of the famous third baseman, Randy Williams, Dick Farrell and Smoky Lewis.

On the opposing team will be a former House of David star, Sam Scaling, in right field. Scaling traveled about 34,000 miles with the team last year, going to the Hawaiian Islands. Scaling hit .401 for the Davids.

Manager Fred Brickell will have ready for mound duty Sam Dalley, who is hoped to receive the hurling assignment tonight, Carl Stewart and Lefty Goodell. Harvey Hutton pitched nice ball last night in downing the Hawaiians.

JOE CRONIN STRUCK ON CHEEK BY THROWN BALL

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Misfortune caught up with Joe Cronin again.

He was struck on the cheek yesterday by a ball thrown by Pinky Higgins. He was carried to the hospital but an X-ray showed no broken bones, and he was able to leave with the Red Sox for Boston last night.

Only a few weeks ago the experts said Manager Cronin wasn't good enough to make his own team. They figured he would weaken the Boston lineup if he elected to be a playing pilot.

But the early weeks of the American league season have seen no comeback more spectacular than his. Lighter by many pounds and in great condition, Cronin has been the spark of the Boston infield at shortstop. His batting average is .437, and his all-around play is reminiscent of a few years ago when he was rated the most valuable player in the league.

JUDGE CREDITED WITH ASSIST AT 2ND BASE

NEW YORK, May 18 (AP)—Credit Judge George Donnellan with an assist in today's scorebook of the first ward baseball team, known as quite an outfit down around Battery place.

It seems that Eddie Laikowski, 23, was caught off base by an employe of a Greenwich street restaurant. He was climbing through the transom and pleaded guilty to a charge of illegal entry.

When he was called for sentence yesterday his teammates went to bat for him, with letters to the judge explaining how tough it would be if the First Warders had to start their season without second baseman Laikowski.

Judge Donnellan suspended sentence.

House of David Principals

The bearded gentlemen above are members of the famous House of David baseball team which will meet the Pampa Oilers here tonight at 8:15 o'clock. At the right is baseball's greatest first baseman, manager George Tucker. Tucker does everything but catch a baseball in his mouth. The same can't be said about Lefty Deck, left who eats baseballs for a pastime. Deck used to play ball with Phillips of Berger and is well known here.

BOYS OF 16 AND UNDER MAY ATTEND GAMES BY SIGNING UP

Hey, boys, want to see baseball games at Road Runner park free? Well, if you are 16 years of age or under and you sign one of the application cards below and take it or send it to the Sports Editor of the Pampa Daily News, I am sure you will be given a membership in the KNOT-HOLE GANG organized last night by the Pampa Lions club Rotary club, Junior chamber of commerce, Kiwanis club and the Oil fraternity.

The clubmen have decided to build you a grandstand of your own. You will have an entry gate of your own too. The gate you will use is on the west side of the playing field. The grandstand will be along the third base line.

But you must act like gentlemen to carry on your membership. You can yell and holler all you want as long as you don't become abusive or "get out of line." You play ball with the clubmen of Pampa who want you to have a good time this summer and they will play ball with you.

An elderly man who is interested in you will be in charge of your grandstand. You must pay attention to him and do what he wants you to do. If you forget and start tearing up the grandstand and he tells you stop, the clubmen will expect you to stop.

Your grandstand will be made possible through efforts of the following men, representing their various clubs: Kiwanis—Chris Martin and C. L. Stine. Jaycees—Harry E. Hoare and D. L. Parker. Lions—Arthur Teed and W. M. Craven. Rotarians—Lee Bowden and Ely Fonville. Oil Fraternity—Bill McKinzie and R. B. Allen. The grandstand will be ready for you next week.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP IN KNOT-HOLE GANG

I make application for membership in the KNOT-HOLE GANG to secure free admission to ball games played at Road Runner park. I promise that I will conduct myself properly and abide by the rules to be made by the Pampa city clubs, Kiwanis, Lions, Rotarians and Jaycees, sponsors of the "GANG".

THIRD NO-HIT GAME PITCHED BY STUDENT

RICHMOND, Va., May 18 (AP)—Bucky Jacobs, University of Richmond pitcher whose ambition is to play baseball in the major leagues, has three no-hit performances in five weeks to back up his claim for attention.

The diminutive Bucky first broke into baseball's hall of fame at the expense of Virginia Tech, one of the stronger Southern conference clubs. A week later, he repeated against the usually hit-worthy Hampden-Sydney nine.

That brought the big league scouts a-runnin', but they were slow to take to Jacobs because of his lack of height.

He showed them again yesterday that a 158-pounder can put a lot of "stuff" on a baseball when he tossed his third no hitter against Virginia Military Institute.

This best ever done, one of the big time is two hitless contests in a season and three for all time. Jacobs has won 19 games and lost only one in three years of varsity pitching with Richmond university.

BETTY JAMESON LOOMS AS TOURNAMENT THREAT
ATLANTA, May 18 (AP)—A couple of youngsters about high school age stood out as possible trouble makers for the medalist, defending champion and other veterans as match play began today in the women's Southern Golf championship.

They were Betty Jameson of San Antonio, Texas, who had her 18th birthday on Mother's day and won the title in 1934, and Dorothy Kirby, 17, three times winner of the Georgia state championship. Miss Jameson qualified with an 82 and Miss Kirby with an 89.

INDIANS LEAD TEXAS LEAGUE AS CATS WIN

San Antonio at Dallas.
(All night games.)

Oklahoma City's Indians rode on top of the hectic Texas league race today as the climax of a spurt which saw them win eight of their last nine games.

The Redmen downed Houston 3-0 last night to replace Beaumont's Exporters at the top of the scramble, the Shippers going down before the rejuvenated Fort Worth Cats, 3-1.

Roy (Snipe) Hansen shut out the Buffs with a three-hit performance. The Indians scored two runs in the first inning as a result of Carl Kott's slashing triple, then got another run in the eighth that they didn't need.

Manager Homer Peel paced the Cats in the defeat of Beaumont. Peel's double in the fourth drove in all three tallies. The Panthers got only four hits but made them count in the clinches.

Houston dropped into the cellar as a result of the defeat, changing places with the Tulsa Oilers who walloped Galveston 17-3. The Oilers went on a spree to bounce out 17 hits off three Buc pitchers while Ed Carmet limited Galveston to seven.

Dallas made it three wins in a row by downing San Antonio 2-0 and going into sixth place. Chief Euel Moore turned in a fine twirling exhibition to hold the Padres to five hits, four of them of the scratchy variety.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Bill Lee and Lonny Frey, Cubs; Lee tamed Reds with six hits and gave only two bases on balls; Frey's double and triple drove in three runs.

Lynn Nelson, Athletics: Entered game in first inning as relief pitcher and held Yanks to one run and fanned seven, as A's regained lead with 3-2 triumph.

Jimmy Deshong and Al Simmons, Senators: Former set down Red Sox with seven hits to win fourth game of season, 4-5; Simmons' third homer of year accounted for two runs.

DESHONG WINS 4TH STRAIGHT SINCE MAY 4

ATHLETICS POUND NEW YORK YANKS FOR 3-2 VICTORY

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer.

If Washington's Senators today are resting at the bottom of the American league it is no fault of right-hander Jimmy Deshong.

When he set down the Red Sox yesterday with seven hits, 4-3, it was his fourth straight victory since he went in against the Cleveland Indians on May 4 and turned in a winning eight-inning relief job.

His flinging yesterday overshadowed anything the Philadelphia Athletics could do as they swung back to the top of the standing with a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees and was fully as good as lanky Bill Lee's elbowing that gave the Cubs a 5-2 decision over Cincinnati's Reds. Only these three games were on the big league schedule yesterday.

Al Simmons' third homer and Joe Kuhel's three singles paced the Senators' nine-hit attack yesterday on Wes Ferrell, who lost his fourth game of the year.

Manager Joe Cronin, Red Sox leading hitter, went to the hospital before the game started when he was cut on the cheek by a ball thrown by Pinky Higgins, his third baseman.

While the Senators were climbing nearer the idle St. Louis Browns and dropping the Red Sox into fourth place, the Athletics got an upward push in their first place battle with the Yanks. The winning runs clattered across the plate in the eighth inning when Bill Dickey, trying to catch Bob Johnson on a double steal, heaved the ball into left field.

The A's also got the benefit of seven-hit, seven strikeout pitching by Lynn Nelson, one time Cub flinger.

Lee was the hurdle that kept the Reds from sweeping their three-game series with Chicago, giving the Rhinelanders a meager six hits.

Oilers Beat Hawaiian All Stars 8-2; Errors Frequent

After a jittery start, the Hawaiian All Stars last night played good ball but were unable to overhaul the Pampa Oilers who won handily, 8 to 2. The same two teams will meet again tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock at Road Runner park.

Apparently unable to get set to the lights, the Hawaiians made five errors in the first inning, which, coupled with a pair of singles by Scaling and Cox, put the Oilers into a four run lead. It was their second game under lights. Consecutive hits by McNabb, Summers and Sain in the second inning added another pair of tallies and from then the Oilers coasted. A walk, stolen base and Abbe's single gave the Hawaiians a run in the first inning. An error and Oana's first single let the visitors score again in the seventh.

Spectacular Fielding
Although making eight errors, the Hawaiians made so many spectacular plays that they were forgiven for their misdeeds. Oana in center field came up with three fielding gems when he circled in search of wind-blown balls to make sensational catches. Eno at shortstop scooped up a couple of grounder balls for the left centerfield territory to get men at first.

In Naula the Hawaiians have a pitcher of major league caliber. He has a high, hard one and a nice assortment of curves. Given support last night the story could have been different.

Harvey Hutton hurled great ball for the Oilers but was a little wild, probably due to the strong wind which whipped across the field at intervals. Hutton slipped the third strike past 10 of the Hawaiians but worked five. The big fellow showed fans a change of pace that was a beauty. In the past, Hutton depended largely on his speed. Now he has developed the needed change of pace which is expected to serve him well.

Old time fielding was displayed by Al Summers at second base. The little flash leveled down on a couple of bullet grounder and almost stood on his head to whip the ball to Cox who made a great save by going "yards" in the air after Summers had made a play from behind second base. Eddie Sain, the Oilers lone catcher, worked a good game.

Hitting honors went to Sam Scaling with a double and two singles on five trips to the plate. The other hits were divided with Summers collecting a double, Oana with two singles led the visitors.

Tonight the Oilers will meet the fast House of David bearded team in a single game.

SHELL, TEXAS COMPANY AND JAYCEES WIN

Play in the City Softball league opened yesterday afternoon with the Pampa Jaycees, Texas company and Shell winning games. The Sun-Coltexo game was not reported this morning because of telephone trouble. The other scheduled game was postponed.

The Jaycees opened up with a 10 to 4 victory over the Humble Oilers. Before the game members of the team named Jack Dunn and Dick Hughes as bench managers, one to be in charge every other game or when the other cannot be present.

Prock not only pitched good ball for the Jaycees but banged out a home run and two singles. Jack Kretsinger was the powerhouse, however, with a homer, double and single. Castleberry was behind the plate.

Wood worked the game for Humble and pitched nice ball. McBride hit two home runs to lead the Texas company in their 10 to 7 victory over the strengthened Skelly Oilers. Christopher was on the mound for the winners with Willis receiving. Naylor and Twentier worked for Skelly with Johnson receiving.

Shell downed the Clabby Dusters, 16 to 8, with Wisley pitching winning ball. Stokes, his battery mate, hit a home run. Cook also hit for the circuit. Clovin and Herring was the battery for the Dusters.

The PAMPA DAILY NEWS

Published every evening, except Saturdays, and Sunday morning by the Pampa Daily News, 222 West Foster Street, Pampa, Texas.

Entered as second class matter March 15, at the post-office at Pampa, Texas under the act of March 3rd, 1879.

Subscription rates—by carrier, 15c per week; $4.00 for 6 months; by mail, payable in advance in Gray and Adjoining Counties, $2.50 per year.

Just a few simple words. They tell a story around newspaper offices of a very young and enthusiastic reporter who once dashed back to the city room after covering a spectacular fire.

He crouched over his typewriter, tense, prepared to turn himself loose with everything he had, almost overcome by the excitement which he was about to transmit to his expectant readers.

Feverishly he rapped out a couple of words on the typewriter. He scowled at them, shook his head, and crossed them out. He tapped out two or three words on a fresh start, scowled again, and made a third start.

There sat watching him a pot-bellied old-timer, who had been writing stories ever since the battleship Maine blew up in Havana harbor, and this old-timer presently came over to the eager cub and touched him on the shoulder.

And that, unfortunately, is a lesson that our American announcers seem utterly unable to learn. Show the average American announcer into a big spectacle, whether it be a presidential inauguration, a baseball game or an air meet, and he immediately gives a life-sized imitation of a man who has swallowed a bumble bee.

He chokes up with excitement, he gets a shaky tremor in his throat, he assures his listeners every 20 seconds that this is undoubtedly the A-1 spectacle of all time. His feet touch the ground only in those sacred moments when he has to remind the audience that it is listening to this broadcast through the courtesy of the Squeegie-Weegee Liver Pill Corporation.

It is a shame we could not have sent a dozen or so of our home-grown announcers over to London, to see how a broadcast of that kind ought to be handled. For the British announcers had that priceless quality of restraint, coupled with a dash of adult dignity. They seem to have discovered that the thing being described interests the listener far more than the personality of the man who is describing it.

Just put down one little word after another. It's simple—but how few narrators ever learn that most important of all lessons.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON—Too many senators want to run the nation's foreign affairs and too many ambassadors want to run its domestic affairs.

Senator Nye of North Dakota and several others became frightfully wrought up over the letter Ambassador Dodd sent from Berlin warning the nation against a plot of some unnamed billionaire to put a puppet dictator in the White House.

But almost at the same hours the state department and its outlying ambassadors were stirred to the depths when Senator Nye demanded that the state department impose an arms embargo against Germany and Italy, or show the reason why not. It was his idea that the naz-fascist filibustering expeditions into Spain constituted a state war which justified the United States going into the shuddering conclusion that is contemplated in the neutrality act.

In a way that amounted to a request for an investigation. The senate did not at once act on it, to the undying gratitude of the state department.

Senator Nye is a bound for neutrality and staying out of Europe's affairs, hence the state department was wide-eyed with perplexity at his action.

But on the other hand, the senate was doing very well at confusing the court business without outside aid when Ambassador Dodd cut loose with suggestions on how to do a more complex job of it. Again Nye was out for an investigation of why he did it and who was the billionaire. And he was backed up by other senators, including Borah of Idaho, who thought the soap-box style of the ambassador's warning indicated maybe he was a little "teched in the head."

TEX'S TOPICS

Today's column will be devoted to the sweet girl graduates of the High schools at the Top O' Texas, so the rest of you may as well turn to the funny page, if you expect to find anything of interest. . . There is nothing sweeter than a sweet girl graduate in Maytime. . .

Graduation night has its problems. . . This year's girl graduate may curve as she will conform to the newest command of fashion, but there is no new style for posture when she marches up, capped and gowned, and stands to receive her diploma. . .

Shoulders back, chin in, hands relaxed at the sides are requisites for good carriage now, as in Victoria's day. . . Seniors who will be getting diplomas in late May or June would do well to check up on their posture. . .

Another good test is to stand with your back against the wall—head, shoulders, and hips just touching it, feet four inches from the wall. Then move slowly away, holding the same position. . . You will be surprised to find how unnatural the new position seems. . .

Grandmother advocated the broomstick cure. The stick securely pinned the elbows back, and did help the shoulder position. But reflex action shot the chin of the posture-seeker forward, hurting matters more than it helped. . .

Self-consciousness on the commencement platform often results from poor posture. The girl who continually clasps and unclasps her hands, who restlessly shifts her feet, is not at ease because she realizes she does not stand well. . .

There you are, girls. . . And, now we feel as if we have done right by you. . . These commencement night tips come right along with your regular edition of the Pampa Daily NEWS, delivered at no extra cost. . .

Perfumed butter is available now in Paris for descendants of the nobles who originated the "let 'em eat cake" jest. . . The world's biggest telescope, in southern California, will have a curved lens for convenience in identifying female film stars. . .

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY. Painting the city's name in huge letters on the water tower was completed, and lights were to be installed on the landmark.

White Deer residents had given $400 for relief of flood sufferers in the Mississippi valley in a drive conducted by T. A. Horn. Civic clubs were receiving donations in Pampa.

Three members were dropped from the city police force, leaving only three policemen on duty. The city commission in taking the action announced that "Pampa has been remarkably free from crime in recent week."

The Rotary club heard students read essays written in a contest on the subject of international relations. Malcolm Carr was first place winner.

Ambassador Dodd, who has spent far more years being a college teacher of history than a diplomat, really gave the senators a fine take-off for an investigation. It isn't altogether likely such an investigation will be ordered, but the letter may cost Dodd his post. The air has been a-tingle with rumors he was to be replaced. He may have heard the counting and so decided on a final fighting fling.

But a senate hunt for the conniving billionaire suspected by Dodd would be a thrill-hunt unrestrained. Rockefeller, Morgan and Ford have been the only ones recently menaced by the title of billionaire. But times change, and no telling what might be shaken out by a senate investigation.

FASTER AND FASTER!

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK, May 17—With the bookmen: Ernest Hemingway, they say, writes his best stuff while his fishing trawler litters off the Florida Keys.

E. Phillips Oppenheim's sinister yarns were verbally composed while their author lay prone on a downy sofa and dictated them. Margaret Mitchell is said to have insisted upon an oil lamp over her writing table while she waded through "Gone With the Wind."

Clifford Odets once confided that before sitting down to his proletarian works, he found stimulation in Beethoven. Now a Mississippian who enjoys the friendship of William Faulkner reveals the idiosyncratic tastes of the author of "Sanctuary" and "As I Lay Dying."

Faulkner of whom Hugh Walpole once remarked, "He writes like an angel," happens to be a swing addict. . . In the small room at Oxford, Miss., where he works, there is a table, a desk, two chairs and an ancient phonograph. Well, the phonograph is as vital to his work, it seems, as the gnawed pencil he uses to compose in longhand.

As Faulkner sits down to work, a little negro boy places a record on the machine. No word passes between him and the author at work. When one tune concludes, the little fellow replaces it with another disc. Upon investigation, these tunes turn out to be old renditions of "Beale Street" or "Basin Street" Blues, played by the Original Dixieland Band or Benny Goodman's swinging contingent. The concert doesn't end until Faulkner lays down his pen.

Joe Jackson, the old-time clown with the trick bicycle, never has met Janet Gaynor or Frederic March or David O. Selznick, but they have endeared themselves to him for the rest of his life. Jackson is now filling a vaudeville date in Berlin. He might have been a passenger in the ill-fated Hindenburg but for the vast success of Miss Gaynor, Mr. March and Mr. Selznick with "A Star is Born."

An executive at Radio City explains it, Jackson got a cable in Berlin a month ago offering him the headline spot in the new Music-Hall stage show. The only condition imposed was that the comedian was to hurry over by the fastest trans-Atlantic vehicle. . . and with time short, Jackson chose the Hindenburg.

The Music Hall, however, didn't count on the prospects of "A Star is Born" holding over a third week. When the box office receipts rolled in and the film remained on the Radio City screen, Jackson was informed that his booking had been postponed. The comic cancelled his dirigible passage and took a job in a Berlin revue.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

They are telling this story on Lee Sadler over at Groom: Last week a lady tourist rushed into Mr. Sadler's drug store with her four-year old son who had just swallowed a 32-caliber pistol cartridge. She asked Lee to do something to "save my child."

Lee was instructing some Groom Boy Scouts on how to be safe when handling or using fire arms and shells. The lecture was in the nature of a warning against the danger of pointing anything loaded at others or having anything loaded pointed at them. Lee stopped his lecture and gave the youngster a big dose of castor oil and told the mother not to worry as the child would soon be okay. The Scouts who had watched the little boy take the castor oil did not wait to hear the rest of the lecture but almost wrecked furniture getting out of the store.

Lee was quoted by the Groom News as saying that there was no reason why the boys should get so steamed up.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The names Astaire and Rogers over the boxoffice will mean more than ever after "Shall We Dance?" And the name of Mark Sandrich, who directed this most original of their offerings, should go up five or six rungs higher on the ladder.

Astaire, playing a Pennsylvania boy masquerading as a Russian for professional reasons, falls in love with Ginger's photographs and decides to marry. He pursues her from Paris to New York, where a gossip report of their marriage has preceded them. Ginger's efforts to untangle the situation and marry a dull play-boy only enmesh them further, leading to a proposal of marriage from the pursued to the pursuer as they way out. But it doesn't end there, of course.

All of this permits the logical introduction of such high spots as Astaire's imitation of a temperamental Russian dancer for Ginger's benefit; his steam-room dance on shipboard; his dance on roller skates with Ginger; his ballet performance with Harriet Hector, who plays herself; and Eric Blore's hysterical attempts to explain to Edward Everett Horton via telephone, that he is detained at the Susquehanna police station.

George Gershwin did the music and Ira the lyrics. The support includes Jerome Cowan, Ketti Gallian, and William Brisbane.

Mark Sandrich is a young director (36) from New York who has been in pictures since 1922. He wrote and directed features and comedies in comparative obscurity until one of his shorts—"So This is Harris"—impressed RKO.

How's Your Health?

Edited by DR. IAGO GALDSTON for the New York Academy of Medicine

SUNTANNING! The art of sun bathing lies in acquiring a tan without suffering sunburn. This can be attained by exercising a certain amount of self-control and by observing a few simple rules of precaution.

These regulations may be summarized as follows: Take your sun bathing in small doses; tan very slowly. Specifically, one should not sun bathe very long between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. in midsummer. Healthy persons not accustomed to sun bathing should not expose themselves for more than 15 minutes at first. They may increase the exposure five minutes daily during the next two weeks.

Begin by exposing the feet to a few inches above the ankles for five minutes. On subsequent days progressively increase the body surface exposed to the knees, hips, middle of abdomen and chest. Each new body portion should receive five minutes initial exposure, while the previously exposed parts receive five minutes additional sun bathing. On the fifth day all the body will have been initiated. The feet will receive 25 minutes of sun bathing, and the remaining segments each five minutes less.

When one has acquired a good protective coat of tan, one may sun bathe for two or three hours. Anyone suffering from disease of the heart, the blood vessels, the lungs or the kidneys should consult his own physician for specific instruction before undertaking a course of sun baths.

While the sun and the time element are primary determinants in tanning, there is a third element to be considered—one's capacity to acquire a tan. Not all persons can tan, or tan equally as well. Blondes, for example, burn more quickly than they tan. Some blonds will freckle instead of developing an evenly bronzed tan. A freckle is, after all, but a small tan spot, deeper and usually more persistent than the summer tan.

There are some individuals called albinos who lack pigment in their skin. Such individuals usually have pink colored eyes, colorless hair and a pear-white skin. Albinos of course must always protect themselves against strong light. The head should be protected by some form of headgear and it is wise to wear dark glasses, particularly while sun bathing on the seashore. The sand and water reflects large amounts of both the visible and the ultraviolet rays of the spectrum.

PRODUCTION OF CRUDE OIL SHOWS INCREASE

TULSA, May 18 (AP)—The Oil and Gas Journal says the national production of crude oil increased 53,724 barrels during the week ending May 15, reaching a daily average of 3,549,821.

Oklahoma increased 15,500 barrels to 600,650. East Texas declined 1,400 barrels to 463,547 barrels daily average and total Texas was up 26,500 barrels to 1,421,339 barrels daily. In Louisiana production declined 9,615 barrels to 243,125. California increased 15,500 barrels to 656,000 daily and Kansas jumped 12,250 barrels to 198,475.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN

A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q Who is the 1937 professional pocket-billiard champion? H. J. A. Ralph Greenleaf recently won the world championship in New York City by defeating Andrew Ponzi 125 to 107.

Q What is the number of the United States Congress now in session? C. B. W. A. It is the 75th Congress, 1st session.

Q What was chosen as the official song for Atlantic City? J. M. A. Atlantic City By the Sea won the prize in a contest for an official song. The words are by Alma E. Price and the musical setting by Vincent E. Speciale. It was adopted on January 18 by the City Commission as the official anthem of the resort.

Q What was the name of the negro who assisted in planning the city of Washington, D. C.? E. H. A. Benjamin Banneker, a negro mathematician, was appointed by George Washington to serve on Major L'Enfant's commission for the surveying and laying out of the city.

Q What is the source of the phrase, As full of spirit as the month of May? W. B. A. It is from Shakespeare's Henry IV.

Q Has Monte Carlo become prosperous since the depression? H. L. A. The board of directors has announced a profit of $100,000 from the gambling casino for 1936.

This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM BUSLEY CLARK

We are told recently of a certain news reporter who, in addition to getting the story of a certain strike, but helped to bring about a peaceful settlement of the strike. This example shows how useful one can be when he has an alert mind and a disposition to do good as he goes along—as well as an eye for his particular business.

The thing that made the above mentioned incident an arresting news item is the fact that it was an unusual thing for a reporter to do. That reporter had a larger vision and sense of responsibility than was expected of him from the public. His disposition bears close resemblance to a noble philosophy propounded centuries ago by the world's greatest teacher. A life that does only those duties pertinent to strict business and never goes a second mile is missing a great opportunity for some of its greatest service. As important as it may be for people to attend to the routine of business, it is just as important for them to look for those challenging opportunities to include little daily tasks in their service for which they are not paid in terms of money but which give an added dignity to their service.

So They Say.

LOUISE POUND CALLS GO-EDS 'OBLIVIOUS'

LINCOLN, Neb., May 18 (AP)—The modern college girl lacks fire and spirit in the opinion of Dr. Louise Pound, professor of English at Nebraska University.

Dr. Pound, sister of Roscoe Pound, former dean of the Harvard law school, recalled today when co-eds always were fighting or plotting something. Today's maidens, she said, tend to be disinterested in everything.

"It is most discouraging," she declared, "to have that young lady in my front row applying lipstick the entire period during my class. In reading some beautiful poem, when I am trying to keep myself from being moved to tears, or am trying to move my audience to tears, I find it a fascinating distraction to watch this girl smearing her mouth, obliviously."

Judge Delays Court With Bases Loaded

HAMILTON, O., May 19 (AP)—It was 4 p. m. Municipal Judge E. M. Davidson was in his chambers. Bailiff Clem Imfeld opened a connecting door and reminded the judge it was "time for court."

"Say, young man," returned the judge, who was seated before his radio, "don't you know Chicago's just loaded the bases?"

Legal business was delayed until the Cubs were retired in the fourth.

SYNDICALISTS REBEL AGAINST NEW CABINET

MADRID, May 18 (AP)—Anarcho-syndicalists refused today to cooperate with the new cabinet of Dr. Juan Negrin.

Their stand overshadowed the relief of many Madrilenos that the governmental crisis, caused by the resignation of Premier Francisco Largo Caballero and his failure to bring extreme left elements into a new ministry, was solved by Negrin's "win the war cabinet."

Concern mounted for the government's defenses against the insurgent revolt.

The Negrin cabinet was formed without their participation and will not collaborate with it, the national committee of the anarcho-syndicalist national Federation of Labor (CNT) declared.

VALENCIA, May 18 (AP)—Dr. Juan Negrin's "win the war cabinet" assumed direct command of the Spanish government's armies today in a plan to coordinate civil and military defenses against the 10-month-old insurgent revolt.

The new premier, who organized the sixth war-time government of Spain's republic after his predecessor, Francisco Largo Caballero, failed to hold together its dissident supporters, appealed to the aloof anarcho-syndicalist to support the common front.

The government's first statement was an assertion of its role as "the genuine representative of the totality of political parties united to crush the rebellion, assume liberty to the people and maintain the independence of Spain."

The new government, including two moderate socialists other than Negrin, with two communists, one Basque nationalist and three left republicans, thus sought to compose the nerves and aims of its constituents.

MORGENTHAU'S PLATE COVERS BRITISH DEBT WHEN HE EATS LUNCH

BY EDDY GILMORE. WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau's dining secret came out today—and if he doesn't suffer an occasional stomach ache, he's a digestive wonder.

The bald truth is that the secretary eats his mid-day meal on the famous table over which foreign governments worked out their debt funding agreements with the United States.

In the middle of the glass topped table is a silver plaque with an engraved inscription:

"On this table the debt funding agreements with foreign governments were executed. Aggregate principal—$11,577,260,885."

The secretary sits at the west end of the table with his plate covering the British debt, engraving as of June 19, 1923, as $4,600,000,000.

This little silver plaque, which can be read only when the secretary isn't eating, bears such history-making names as: Stanley Baldwin, Montagu Norman, Chas. E. Hughes, Herbert Hoover, and Andrew W. Mellon.

It may be just a coincidence, but to the secretary's right—about where the waiter puts down the dessert—shines the Finnish-American agreement, the one on which Finland always comes through.

BRUMMETT ROUNDING UP WAGONS FOR PARADES

Old wagons and ancient vehicles of buffalo-hunting days once again are hitting the long, long trail to Pampa.

Lester Brummett, of the Top O' Texas Fiesta parade committee, left on a tour of the country-side this forenoon to round up relic wagons for the street pageants to be held here on June 3 and 4.

Anyone having vehicles which can be used in the parade are requested to contact Mr. Brummett or Charles Meisel, chairman of the parade committee.

Franco Captures Basque Defense

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, May 18 (AP)—General Franco's insurgent command announced today its armies had "completely dominated" the important Basque defense of Amorebeta and that columns were pushing on toward Bilbao, nine miles to the northwest.

The insurgents reported Amorebeta was in flames and apparently empty of defenders and that they had advanced to a point 1,300 feet from it.

They took the nearby villages of Echano, Epalza, Anacha, Arrinda, Diddagaita and the monastery of San Miguel.

The insurgents, it was announced, were hastening the destruction of Amorebeta. They captured considerable quantities of war materials which they said the Basques, with heavy casualties, had left on the field.

ALIBI CHICAGO (AP)—Arraigned in traffic court on a charge of speeding, Barlene Trenary, 18, was a bit startled when Judge Gutrecht said: "Are you one of the little devils who tear around my home on two wheels?" "Oh, no, your honor," replied Miss Trenary, who lives in the judge's neighborhood. "I wouldn't tear around your home on two wheels. I know better." She was ordered to bring her mother to the next hearing.

Workers Begin Mobilizing to Unionize Ford

DETROIT, May 18 (AP)—The United States Automobile Workers of America began mobilizing today for its campaign to unionize the Ford Motor Company.

First detailed announcements of the drive—against Ford expressed opposition—named Richard T. Frankenstein as campaign leader and disclosed a plan for secret membership lists to "protect" workers.

Homer Martin, U. A. W. A. president, said a "score or more of organizers" will be assigned to the campaign.

Enlistments of the Ford employes, Martin said, will be carried on thru Detroit locals until a separate Ford unit is established. He and Frankenstein appealed to the "200,000 organized automobile workers in Detroit" for aid.

Unionization at Ford, assumed as the largest task yet undertaken by the automobile affiliate of the Committee for Industrial Organization, will involve "protection" for "workers," Frankenstein said.

Union strategy appeared to rest on the conviction it will be a prolonged struggle.

It became evident that for the present no demonstrations of union strength were planned to impress Ford workers. The spectacular was being avoided.

MONEY BILLS HANGING FIRE

AUSTIN, May 18 (AP)—House educational and rural school aid appropriations remained the only "money" bills hanging fire in the legislature.

With the curtain due to ring down on the overtime four-month session Saturday, the House departmental appropriation joined judiciary and eleemosynary bills in conference committees.

The lower chamber completed a week's wrangling on the proposal after midnight last night, passing it 80 to 45. It totaled approximately $25,000,000 for the biennium.

The amendment-riddled bill included a $40,000 appropriation, contingent upon federal matching funds, for creation of a Nueces conservation and reclamation district affecting 23 counties southwest of San Antonio. A $19,000 item was provided for survey and important work.

The Guadalupe-Blanco river authority would receive $6,000 to complete a preliminary survey by another amendment. Others were: $150,000 to repay farmers for expenditures in pink boll worm eradication work; $400,000 for rural health service and $50,000 a year for syphilis control, the latter funds to be administered by the health department.

With a special session to repeal horse race betting looming immediately after adjournment, the House fell but two votes short of adopting a resolution extending the session another week.

The governor said he would call an extraordinary session unless the Senate voted directly on the parliamentary waging repeal issue.

STEEL PLANT CLOSED TO BOYCOTT PICKETING

CLEVELAND, May 18 (AP)—The Republic Steel Corporation, in a statement today, said its plants would be shut down and kept shut "until" civil authorities clear the streets in the event that picketing made it impossible for its employes to reach their jobs.

The steel workers organizing committee has threatened a strike against the company if it does not sign a bargaining contract.

Spokesmen for the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., against which CIO officials also have threatened a strike, said the same course would be followed by them.

As near as we can tell," the Republic statement said, "our men want to work and we want them to work."

work. However, if outsiders block the streets so that our men are unable to come to work we will shut down and stay down until civil authorities clear the streets and make it possible for our men to return peacefully and without intimidation."

Republic Steel employs 52,000 workers, mostly in Ohio. It has plants in several other states, including Alabama.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube has 26,000 employes, mostly in the Mahoning valley district surrounding Youngstown, Ohio.

The two companies are important objectives in the attempt of the steel workers organizing committee to organize the independent steel industry.

Wage And Hour Bill May Be Subject Of Message

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 17. (AP)—A tentative version of the administration's long-awaited wage and hour bill has been drafted, but the measure is not yet in final form.

This far-reaching legislative proposal will be the subject of the President's next message to Congress, in all probability. It may be sent to Capitol Hill within the next week or so, and it may be held up indefinitely. That depends on the time it takes for Roosevelt and his numerous advisers in this field to agree on details.

The bill, as previously forecast in these dispatches, will provide for general administration by a board, and for the establishment of wage and hour standards in individual industries considered to be operating in interstate commerce. Probably it will contain provisions for regulating child labor.

Attempts have been made to get trade practice provisions into the bill and make it provide a modified NRA. But that appears to be definitely out. Donald Richberg, who is now counsel for the U. S. Steel Corporation, has been the prime mover in such attempts.

Various vexing problems remain to be settled. One is the question whether a new agency or an existing agency should administer the law, which means an under-surface struggle between Secretary of Labor Perkins and the National Labor Relations board. Another problem is presented by proposals for North-South wage differentials and this problem may or may not be sidestepped by framers of the bill. There is also some dispute within the administration as to constitutional and other legal angles.

Relief In Two Places

George L. Berry, the millionaire labor leader just appointed senator from Tennessee to fill a vacancy, has had an unusual record for getting his name into the public prints. There is no reason, moreover, to suppose he will not be heard from now that he's a member of the legislative group known to itself as "the greatest deliberative body in the world."

Most Tennesseans claim to be sure that Berry has an agreement with Governor Gordon Browning, who appointed him, whereby Browning could run for the seat in 1938 while Berry retired. They also believed Browning figured that in case Berry's memory lapsed, the poorly labor leader-banker-farmer manufacturer-police official would be easy to defeat for nomination. But Berry denies such tales and it's known that Roosevelt favored his appointment, presumably being sure that he could depend on Berry for a Supreme Court vote and other support.

A certain amount of relief is noticeable both in the administration, which Berry had been serving as Federal Co-ordinator for Industrial Co-operation, and among labor leaders, with whom Berry has served as head of Labor's Non-Partisan League.

The Co-ordinator's office, with a staff of 46 persons and a cost of nearly $150,000 a year—which has come out of work relief funds—will now be abolished. Created to receive the bones of NRA and preserve such an agreement between government industry and labor as might be possible, this organization staged meetings of labor leaders and business men which resulted in recommendations for "industrial self-government." Possibly its efforts were quite valuable but that is by no means a common impression here.

Meeting Flopped Badly

Labor's Non-Partisan League is expected to be headed by E. L. Oliver, an able, energetic executive who came from the Brotherhood of Railway and Shipbuilding and placed in command there by John Lewis and Sidney Hillman, who believed that since he was president of the A. F. of L. Pressmen's Union his selection would save the league from being pictured as a C. I. O. subsidiary. On April 19 the league staged what were announced as mass meetings for the Roosevelt Court plan in many cities. This stunt, to the anguish of both the administration and C. I. O. leaders, was a flop.

MEMORIAL PLANNED FOR DR. SUN YAT-SEN.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—This city, once the home of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, Chinese revolutionist and one-time president of the Chinese republic, will honor him with a statue. A 14-foot image of stainless steel will be erected in St. Anne's square, where Sun Yat-sen often studied while planning his revolt against the Chinese imperial house. The memorial is to be the gift of the local Kuomintang, or Chinese nationalist party.

SAFE AND SANE DRIVING

BY THE NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

THE MOTOR CAR DRIVER.

The driver is the most important factor in traffic accidents. He may cause an accident, he may also skillfully prevent one.

Some drivers have accidents because they are actually defective in mind or body. They have poor vision, are not strong enough to control a heavy vehicle, or their senses are dulled by alcohol, fatigue, or carbon monoxide.

Many drivers have accidents because they do not know how to drive safely. They have never learned proper methods of making turns, backing, signaling. They do not observe right-of-way rules, stop signs, traffic signals, and they ignore the rights of pedestrians.

Most drivers who have accidents, however, are neither defective physically, nor ignorant of traffic rules. They do not really want to have an accident; but neither do they try sufficiently hard NOT to have one.

These are the drivers who take chances by going too fast; do not slow down at intersections. They always expect others to get out of their way.

RIO GRANDE EXPLORERS LEAVING ROCKY CANYON

MARATHON, May 18 (AP)—Word was awaited today from four National Park service explorers who set out yesterday to row a boat through the rock-studded waters of narrow Santa Helena canyon on the Rio Grande.

The trip had been expected to be completed in the afternoon but the coast guard headquarters at El Paso received no report during the night.

Heading the expedition—one of the few to attempt navigation of the waters of the Rio Grande's famed canyon—was Dr. Walter Prescott Webb of Austin, consulting historian of the National Park service. Accompanying him were James W. Metcalf, acting chief inspector of the U. S. Immigration service at Alpine.

Purpose of the trip was to gather additional information for Dr. Webb's report on historical background of the proposed Big Bend National park.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 18 (AP)—National Park service officers here said today they had received word from the Rio Grande exploration expedition that the party had passed the rapids and was now "well on the way out of the canyon."

MARKED UPSWING IN BUSINESS HAS LEVELLED OFF, CLAIMS BUREAU

WASHINGTON, May 18 (AP)—The Bureau of Agricultural Economics reported today the business upswing has levelled off but Commerce Department officials said the industrial pace has quickened in recent months.

The bureau said in a recent survey: "The marked upswing in business which began late last summer apparently is not continuing."

Whether the development will prove a minor setback or a serious interruption in the business upturn, it said, will depend on the amount of increase in private spending for construction and capital goods.

"Evidence pointing to large increases in business spending for rehabilitation and expansion of productive facilities in the near future is not particularly convincing," the bureau continued.

"Residential building prospects for this year are less promising than before the recent large increases in construction costs."

Part of the present business slack may be due to expansion of consumer goods lines at a faster clip than construction and capital goods, it added.

Bureau statistics showed that production of such consumer goods as cotton wool, shoes, gasoline and tobacco for the first quarter of 1937 climbed over the same period a year ago and equalled or topped 1929 levels.

On the other hand, residential construction, locomotive orders, public works and similar heavy goods lines recorded either declines from a year ago or much smaller gains than consumer goods.

The world's largest "zoo" is in Kruger National Park, South Africa. It covers an area about the size of Belgium.
