Top O' Texas Show Sale Brings in $27,044.19

What was called one of the most productive sales in the 20-year history of the Top O' Texas Stock Show saw 68 calves and 74 pigs bring a total $27,044.19 as the annual event came to an end yesterday afternoon. In the junior livestock sale, held yesterday morning, 56 club calves sold for $18,008 with an average of 36.5 cents per pound; 12 scramble calves sold for $3,189 for an average of 34.6 cents per pound and 74 pigs sold for $5,846 for an average of 38.5 cents per pound.

Army Reserves Enlisted Men Balk at Joining National Guard

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A survey by the Defense Department indicates that less than 16 per cent of the organized Army reserves' 228,000 enlisted men are ready to volunteer for duty in the National Guard. Results of the survey, learned today, also showed that more than 35 per cent of the reserves' 40,000 officers—including 56 per cent of those holding the rank of colonel or above—have expressed willingness to accept permanent assignments in the national guard at their present rank. Questionnaires were sent out to reservists last Dec. 7, a few days before Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara announced his plans for a cutback and merger of the civilian Army reserves with the guard. The plan calls for an increase in the guard from 400,000 to 550,000 men. If the survey results hold, only 50,000 of the increase would come from the disbanded and transferred Army reserve units. A breakdown of the results of the questionnaire gave the following percentages for those expressing willingness to volunteer for guard membership:

—Sixteen per cent of 144,000 enlisted men who got into the reserves through the six-month training program.
—Eight per cent of 57,000 former draftees who were assigned to the civilian reserves to complete their military obligations.
—Thirty-three per cent of 27,000 enlisted men who are in the organized civilian reserves on a purely voluntary basis.
—Thirty-five per cent of officers below the rank of colonel.
—Fifty-six per cent of senior officers in the rank of colonel and above.
The plan, now before Congress and scheduled to go into effect July 1 if the lawmakers approve, originally called for freeing from civilian drill duty all those who did not wish to volunteer for the guard. The Army has since said that some of the enlisted men with reserve obligations, chiefly the six-month trainees, may be assigned to guard units for weekly drills. However, if they did not volunteer, they would be considered "attached personnel" rather than guard members.

Senate's Money Bill Snubs Teacher Raise

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Senate Finance Committee meets today to put its stamp of approval on its blueprint for state spending during the next biennium—a plan that allots $3.65 billion but provides no pay raise for teachers. Although Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio indicated displeasure with parts of the bill, committee chairman Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo predicted the bill would pass out virtually unchanged from the subcommittee version released Monday. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said he expects the bill to go out on the Senate floor Monday or Tuesday. The bill is $76 million more costly than a companion measure already approved in the House. A final compromise would be worked out in conference committee. The Senate bill does not provide funds for a teacher pay raise and could mean such an increase would call for new taxes. The House was expected to finally pass and send to the governor a bill to streamline the state's program for preven-

The breeders' sale, held in the afternoon, saw 53 head sell for $24,470 for an average of $462 per animal. Forty-seven bulls sold for $2,234 and an average of $47.5 per bull. Six cows sold for $2,125 and an average of $354 per animal. The grand champion bull in the breeders' sale, shown by J. P. Callahan of Conway, topped the sale with a price of $2,325. Callahan also had the second highest-selling bull at $1,800. Auctioneer for both sales was Walter Britten of College Station. Walter Graham of Happy placed the sale order. Clyde Carruth, show superintendent, for the past 19 years voiced the feeling that most observers seconded—the show was one of the best in quality cattle since the event began.

Ben Mathers, president of the Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders Association, thanked the Chamber of Commerce and all exhibitors for the interest shown the show "as well as a job well done." The grand champion steer was purchased by the Wheeler Grain Company of Pampa at a price of $1 per pound. The steer was shown by Lynn Mays of McLean. The Reserve Champion steer was purchased by the Harold Barrett of Pampa at a price of 50 cents per pound. The calf was shown by Larry Brown of Groom. The grand champion pig of the show sold to the Great Western Distributing of Borger for $1.50 per pound. The barrow was shown by Larry Richardson of Pampa. The Great Western Distributing Company also purchased the Reserve Champion pig, shown by Dena Boggett of Canadian for $1 per pound. Both of the pigs purchased by Great Western Distributing Company were given to Boys Ranch.

James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said in New York that CORE chapters throughout the nation have been alerted for a possible call Sunday for a second march on Washington.

Plutonium Bomb Due by Red China

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Scientific sources speculated today that Red China's second nuclear test weapon may be a plutonium bomb dropped from an airplane. This would be evidence, one expert said, that the Chinese possess "real atomic sophistication." It also would suggest a capability to develop the H-bomb. Both the U. S. and British governments have forecast another Chinese atomic test but have not said what they think the device will be. Plutonium is a man-made fissionable material usable in A-bombs and as triggers in H-bombs. According to unofficial reports heard here, the Red Chinese have five nuclear reactors capable of producing small amounts of plutonium. They are said to have in operation a plant for recovering plutonium from reactor fuel cores and processing it for weapons. This plant, according to the reports, is near Paotow north of the Great Wall in Inner Mongolia.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A small group of civil rights demonstrators staged a sit-down on the basement floor of the White House today. The demonstrators bivouacked in the street during the night, huddled against the chill in blankets and bed rolls. When dawn broke today the demonstrators sang "Ain't Nobody Going to Turn Us 'Round." Later they sang the Star-Spangled Banner while Public Safety Director William Baker and other officers took their standing positions before their ragged line. The atmosphere was friendly, however, between police and demonstrators. When the crowd sang a verse that started "God Bless Mr. Baker" the top police official of the city walked over to the Rev. Ralph Abernathy and said with a grin "Does this mean you are going to call off the demonstration?" "Oh no," Abernathy replied.

Reeb lay near death in a Birmingham hospital. Three white men have been arrested on both state and federal charges in connection with the attack. Later they sang the Star-Spangled Banner while Public Safety Director William Baker and other officers took their standing positions before their ragged line. Rights Leaders Plan March on Washington

By United Press International Aroused civil rights leaders across the North laid plans today for new demonstrations in support of Negro voter registration efforts in Alabama. There were calls for a nationwide march on Washington and an economic boycott of Alabama. More state legislative bodies and church groups joined the condemnation of police violence at Selma, Ala., with "statements of conscience." About 75 demonstrators spent the night outside the Federal Building at Los Angeles, where 97 persons were arrested Wednesday in the city's most turbulent civil rights demonstration. Harry Bridges, president of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union said in San Francisco that each local in his union would vote on a resolution to refuse to handle any goods from Alabama "until the rights of all the people of Alabama are recognized and fully protected." Civil rights leaders made plans to stage a sympathy demonstration through the streets of New York on Sunday. Similar demonstrations are planned for Friday in Detroit, where 10,000 persons marched Tuesday, and in Beloit, Wis. Marches were scheduled for Saturday in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Milwaukee, Wis.

FAVOR FEDERAL ACTION

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican leaders gambled recent GOP gains in the South today in an opening bid to recapture the party's normal share of the Negro vote. With support from party leaders outside Congress, GOP leaders in the Capitol were attempting to seize the leadership in the drive for a new law to protect Negro voting rights. They recognized, however, that passage of a bill would depend on support from a coalition of Republicans and northern Democrats, just as the 1964 civil rights law was passed. A three-page statement issued after the first meeting of the new Republican Coordinating Committee Wednesday dealt with only two issues — civil rights and foreign policy. Twenty-one of the twenty-six members attended, including the entire eleven-man congress-

Talks Underway On Steel Pact

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The sensitive issues of local grievances and working conditions took the stage today in resumption of contract talks between the United Steelworkers union (USW) and bargainers for the "Big 11" steel firms. Both sides were working against time in attempts to agree on a contract before the May 1 deadline. The current contract provides for 120 days of bargaining on a new contract. But this bargaining time was halved because of a 60 day recess called because of the USW presidential election. It was reported that USW President David J. McDonald and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the 11 firms, were working together in preparation for bargaining on USW demands. When contract talks opened last December the union made it clear it would seek a substantial pay boost, improved pensions and job security. McDonald and Cooper, who had cleared the way for the last two contracts, were not present Wednesday for the talks. The industry renewed its plea for an extension of the contract.

South Loses Plane

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Air Force jet bombers and fighter-bombers carried out secret bombing missions against the Communists today. One B57 twin-jet was lost while dropping napalm on Viet Cong troops 350 miles northeast of Saigon in another attack. South Vietnamese fighter bombers and the B57's hit Communist targets inside South Viet Nam while a force of between 15 and 20 F100 fighter-bombers roared off from Da Nang to hit unannounced targets, believed to be Communist supply lines in Laos. The pilot and co-pilot of the downed B57 apparently parachuted to safety but were not found. It was the first B57 lost in action against the Communists. Five other B57 pilots on the same raid said there was no ground fire in the area. Transport planes dropped parachute flares over the crash scene tonight to light up the scene for searchers. Fighter-bombers and U.S. helicopters bristling with rockets and machine-guns protected search parties which reached the wreckage.

Belli, Imprisoned Texan Await Lie Detector Results

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli today awaited the results of a lie detector test given Dykes Askew Simmons Jr., condemned to death for the murder of three young members of a prominent Monterrey, Mexico family. Simmons, of Fort Worth, Tex., has been in the Monterrey prison for five years. Belli indicated he had discovered someone else responsible for the murders. Simmons repeatedly denied the killings and his case has become a cause for a number of groups and individuals, who argue he was convicted on flimsy evidence. "This is really a case for James Bond," said Belli. "Although I'm not sure even he could do much when all the clues are five years old." Belli said the lie detector tests were given Tuesday and Wednesday in Monterrey, where Simmons is imprisoned, and he expected to hear the results some time today. He said the lie detector tests were the followup to a battery of physical and mental tests run on Simmons over the weekend, aimed at determining whether Simmons has "homocidal tendencies." "Nobody could have pumped 22 shots into three unarmed children without such tendencies," Belli said. "So far, I haven't found one person who really believes Simmons did it, with the exception of the judge that sentenced him." Belli said that he got the idea from his talks with officials that "you can give Simmons as soon as you give someone else," as the murderer. "And I think we can give them that someone else," Belli said. There have been constant reports that another U.S. citizen, a doctor allegedly found running through a nearby village shortly after the killings with an automatic rifle, was the real killer but had been spirited back to the United States.

Pound Red Positions

In Saigon, a U.S. spokesman said six American-piloted B57 bombers pounded Communist positions north of the Kannah special forces camp in Binh Dinh Province, scene of a bloody Communist defeat Monday. No details of the B57 strike were announced. The spokesman also said a force of 15 B57's late Wednesday bombed and strafed Communist positions along the shoreline in Phu Yen Province 235 miles north of Saigon. Today's raids from Da Nang were carried out against a backdrop of strife in the port city. Vietnamese rangers opened fire with rifles early this morning when a mob attacked police in front of a station house. At least two persons were reported injured, but it was not known if they were hit by bullets or hurt in the crush of the mob. Police said the riots began Wednesday night after officers detained a civilian who had accused an army sergeant of being a Communist agent. A search of the soldier produced no evidence. Shortly afterward the wife of the civilian arrived at the police station backed by a large crowd which demanded his release. (See BOMBERS, Page 3) If it comes from a hardware store we have it. Backstairs At The White House

By ALVIN SPIVAK
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Backstairs at the White House. When Harry S. Truman was President he had a motto on his desk: "The buck stops here."

This was the ultimate recognition of how far paper shuffling, decision delays, and responsibility transfers can go in the government bureaucracy. Buck passing does not always work, however. Example: An agency official was given some weeks ago an assignment that required tough, detailed decisions. Rather than take over the responsibility himself, this official passed the buck to the White House.

Before two weeks were out, the same official—by virtue of an excellent reputation for past deeds—was transferred to the White House staff. The decisions he had requested earlier from higher up, had been deferred at the White House until someone of this man's caliber could be found to work on them. His first assignment was to work on the items he had tried to avoid in the first place.

It turned out that he had passed the buck to himself. Another form of turn-about irony stems from President Johnson's order of a year or so ago to cut down the number of limousines and high-priced cars used by government officials. A good start is reported to have been made on reserving limousine purchases only for cabinet officers and heads of the armed forces, with lesser lights riding in the ordinary sedans.

Even though there may be chauffeurs driving the Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths and Ramblers, some occupants have been distressed by what they considered a reduction in prestige when they gave up their Cadillacs and Continentals.

The answer, in a few cars, has been to have a telephone installed in front of the rear window of the lower-priced automobiles, visible immediately from outside. If there is any status symbol in government that almost equals having a high-priced, chauffeur-driven sedan, it is having a telephone in a vehicle.

This indicates for all to see that the passenger is important enough to be kept on call even when riding to and from work. Up to now, at least, the phones do not violate any economy edict.

Pampan Fined For False Report

John Prince, 21, of 1114 N. Somerville, was fined $100 yesterday after pleading guilty to a charge of "making a false report to police."

The charges were in connection with an incident July 31, 1964 when Prince reported his 1963 model Chevrolet had been stolen.

Following the stolen car report, police found the vehicle in a ditch east of Pampa. The auto had been burned and the transmission missing.

According to Police Chief Jim Conner, Prince and another person planned the theft of the car, apparently so Prince could collect insurance on the vehicle.

Conner said charges are pending against the other person involved.

Panhandle MOD Campaign May Bring in $52,000

The announcement came at the quarterly meeting of the Golden Spread Council of chapters of The National Foundation—March of Dimes last night at Richon's Court House Cafe. The Council is made up of 24 Chapters in the Texas Panhandle. The Gray County Chapter hosted the affair.

Bigham discussed plans for a proposed Birth Defect Evaluation and Treatment Center for the area and procedures for chapters to follow in providing assistance to birth defect children was also reviewed.

J. C. Roberts, Gray County chapter president, presided.

prayed: "We have tried to witness for thee. Take our feeble efforts and make them perfect. Bless those who oppose us..."

"Help Governor (George) Wallace to know he is the governor of all the people..."

"Help the state troopers to lay aside their billy clubs and tear gas..."

John Doar, assistant U.S. attorney general and head of the Civil Rights Division of the Justice Department, was one of the observers Wednesday night as the prayer vigil demonstration began.

Abernathy said the demonstration would go on although something else might be done during the day.

Plan To Stay
 He told a reporter that the goal of the demonstrators still was to reach the Dallas County Courthouse and "unless they let us through or arrest us we plan to stay here."

The demonstrators sent a telegram to President Johnson asking him to use the "full force" of the federal government to protect the civil rights group in Selma "after our white friends leave."

Abernathy, one of Dr. Martin Luther King's top civil rights leaders, led more than 400 out of the Brown's Chapel Church shortly after 7 p.m. CST Wednesday headed for what was billed as a short prayer vigil to the Dallas County Courthouse 10 blocks away.

They reached a blockade of local, county and state police one half block from their starting point and there the march halted.

No Police Interference
 Police made no effort to interfere with the demonstration after an appeal by Baker that they give up the show was ignored.

ECA Hears Talk On Recent Survey

Members of the Exceptional Childrens Association heard Mrs. Rufe Jordan speak on a committee she served on to survey the facilities communities had to offer, both physical and aesthetic and to evaluate what was being done by various organizations for the retarded child.

Mrs. Jordan told the group that 300,000 mentally retarded persons live in Texas and that one Texas family in every nine is affected by mental retardation.

Mrs. Roy Patterson, exceptional childrens teacher at Sam Houston school, gave a review of her classes and a general work day program. Myrie Norman, teacher at Pampa Junior High, talked on her students, ranging in ages, 14 to 19, and showed the group the use of group activity.

The tentative establishment of Hallmark Residential school for the exceptional child was announced by Mrs. Wanda Cotter. The facilities of the home will depend on the need of the applicants.

The accident occurred, according to the sheriff, between 1 and 2 a.m. yesterday.

Gordon was first taken to Highland General Hospital and later transferred to the Amarillo hospital for further treatment.

Serve Chicken Every Season

BAKED CHICKEN MARMALADE — For a pleasant variation on a favorite theme, dip chicken pieces in a delicate sweet-sour sauce before baking them to a tender crisp. The sauce is made from orange marmalade, vinegar or lemon juice and soy sauce.

Remember when tender young fryers were called "spring chickens" and were a special treat for Sunday dinner? Today they're available all year and have become an economy food that most families can enjoy any day of the week.

To keep your family from tiring of this delicious and easy-on-the-budget food, introduce them to Baked Chicken Marmalade — frying chicken cut into pieces and dipped in a sweet-sour sauce of marmalade, lemon juice or vinegar, and soy sauce. Then the pieces are rolled in corn flake crumbs and baked 'til they're a crisp brown on the outside and fork-tender inside.

Baked Chicken Marmalade is easy on the cook as well as the budget, because once in the oven the chicken needn't be turned or basted until it's ready to take out and serve.

To accompany the chicken, plan mashed or baked potatoes, a green salad, and vegetable, and you'll have a dinner that's sure to find favor with your favorite family.

It's a good party food, too, for it looks pretty, tastes delicious, and requires no carving. It fits in well with a hot dinner or as the only hot food in a cold buffet supper.

BAKED CHICKEN MARMALADE

1 jar (12 ounces) orange marmalade
 1/4 cup vinegar or lemon juice
 2 teaspoons soy sauce
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 3-pound frying chicken, cut in pieces
 1 cup fine corn flake crumbs
 Combine marmalade, vinegar, soy sauce, and salt. Dip chicken pieces in marmalade mixture then roll in crumbs to coat well. Arrange pieces in shallow baking pan, skin-side up, with pieces close together. Cover with a foil and bake in moderate oven (375 degree F.) 25 minutes, remove foil and continue cooking until tender and lightly browned, about 35 minutes. Heat remaining marmalade mixture and serve with chicken. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's best food buys for the weekend was prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Food shoppers this weekend can expect to find plenty of chicken and eggs, along with plenty of seasonal fruits and vegetables.

Meat counters also will feature various cuts of beef and pork, along with the ever-popular broiler-fryer chickens.

Eggs represent a top protein buy, along with canned pink and chum salmon, frozen fish sticks and portions.

Fresh produce counters will offer plentiful supplies of cabbage, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, and tomatoes. For the fruit bowl, there will be generous supplies of apples, bananas, grapefruit, and oranges.

Mushroom Sauce

Drain broth from 1 can (3-oz.) Sliced Bottled Mushrooms directly into saucepan; add 2 eggs, 1/4 cup softened butter, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon cayenne. Beat constantly with electric or hand beater over low heat until thick and fluffy. Add mushrooms and use to dress-up and savor-up simple vegetables and fish.

Bread and Cereal Both Are Needed

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q — I like bread but my friends say it has no nutritional value and only makes you fat. Is that true?

A — Nutritionists will tell you to eat a balanced diet you should have 4 or more servings a day from the bread-cereal group. Foods in this group offer significant amounts of protein, iron, several of the B vitamins and food energy. Included are all breads and cereals that are wholegrain, enriched or restored. Check labels to be sure. Cornmeal crackers, flour, grits, macaroni products, rice, rolled oats and other baked goods made with whole grain or enriched flour also are in this group.

Q — I am very thin and can't seem to put on any weight. Can you give me any advice? I do not like to be called "Skinny Winnie".

A — See your doctor first and let him decide what your desirable weight should be. Eat regular meals each day. Frequent small meals or between-meal snacks along with regular meals may work better for you than trying to pack the extra food in the three regular meals. Get as much rest as possible — regularly. Rest helps you conserve energy. Spend some time in the fresh air. Exercise moderately, possibly a stroll before dinner. Exercise is needed to develop muscle tone and appetite. Do not be discouraged during the first few weeks of your plan.

Shamrock Pie for St. Patrick's Day

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

After the corned beef and cabbage traditional St. Patrick's Day dinner, try this Shamrock Bonbon Pie with its light, creamy green mint filling. And those chocolate shamrocks on top — sure, any good Irishman would be proud to eat them.

SHAMROCK BONBON PIE
 (Serves 8-8)

Bonbon Pie Shell
 1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
 2 tablespoons shortening

Line 9-inch pie plate with 12 inch square of aluminum foil; press foil over bottom, sides, and room to assume shape of plate. Carefully lift foil from plate, keeping shape. Place pie plate in refrigerator to chill. place foil on baking sheet; sprinkle morsels evenly over the bottom. Place in 350 degree oven for 3 minutes; remove from oven and carefully replace foil in chilled pie plate. Add shortening; blend together chocolate and shortening with back of teaspoon. (If necessary, chill 3 to 5 minutes, until chocolate mixture becomes stiff enough to spread without running.) With spoon, spread chocolate mixture over bottom and sides of pie plate, covering about 1/2 of rim. Place in refrigerator for 30 minutes, until firm. Carefully peel foil from chocolate; slip back into pie while preparing filling.

Mint Filling
 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 1/4 cup sugar, divided
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 eggs, separated
 1 1/4 cups milk
 1/2 teaspoon peppermint flavoring
 4 cups heavy cream, whipped
 Green food coloring

Mix gelatin, 1/4 cup sugar, and salt in medium saucepan. Beat together egg yolks and milk; stir into gelatin mixture. Place over low heat; stir constantly until gelatin dissolves and mixture thickens slightly, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in peppermint flavoring. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; gradually add remaining 1/4 cup sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture; fold in whipped cream. Add enough green food coloring to make delicate green shade. Turn into Bonbon Pie Shell. Chill until firm. Arrange Chocolate Shamrocks on pie.

of foil and return to refrigerator to chill thoroughly again before placing on pie. This keeps cut-outs from melting while they are handled.

For a colorful salad, grate cooked beets. Fold the beets into a sour cream dressing spiked with horseradish and curry. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Broccoli leaves are good cooked as greens.

Chocolate Has More Calories Than Cocoa

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q — Which has more calories, chocolate or cocoa? What are their health benefits?

A — Cooking chocolate contains from 50 to 58 per cent by weight of cacao fat, but the fat content of cocoa ranges only from 19 to 22 per cent. Break; fat cocoa, however, must contain at least 22 per cent fat. Chocolate and cocoa are products made from cacao beans from cacao trees which thrive only in tropical climates.

Q — Isn't it true that fish is "good brain food" I tell my son that if he will eat more fish he will get better grades at school.

A — Unfortunately neither fish nor any other one particular food is "brain food." Eating it is no guarantee of intellectual speed-up. It is true, however, that fish provides phosphorus-containing compounds and that the nerve tissue in our brains is rich in phosphorus. But meat, poultry, eggs and milk are also rich in phosphorus — containing compounds.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM

Obviously it was to United States advantage to forestall if possible joint action by the Soviets and Chinese in Viet Nam.

Thus it was possible to question U.S. political wisdom in launching the Feb. 7 U.S. air attack against North Viet Nam at the same time Soviet Premier Alexei Kossygin was on a visit to the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi.

Forced Same Positions

Momentarily, at least, it forced the Russians into a position identical with that of the Red Chinese.

But the Chinese themselves have made it clear they intend to become the dominant power in Asia and in demanding apologies to the Chinese students injured in the Moscow demonstration they imposed a new set of conditions which the Soviets could not accept.

In effect the Red Chinese have told the Soviets that co-existence within the Communist world depends upon total surrender to Chinese terms.

So long as these two remain locked in their own power struggle neither has the flexibility it needs to carry on large-scale adventures elsewhere.

And, for the Soviets, it becomes possible that even a U.S. presence in Viet Nam is preferable to a total Chinese take-over.

Two recent events help to illustrate the complexity of the problem facing President Johnson in South Viet Nam.

Both bear on the risk that the escalation of the U.S. military effort in Viet Nam eventually could lead to a head-on clash with the Red Chinese, with the further possibility that Soviet involvement could lead to a world nuclear war.

In the one instance, an anti-American demonstration in Moscow failed to follow the script, and Soviet soldiers and police who finally crushed it broke some Red Chinese heads in the process.

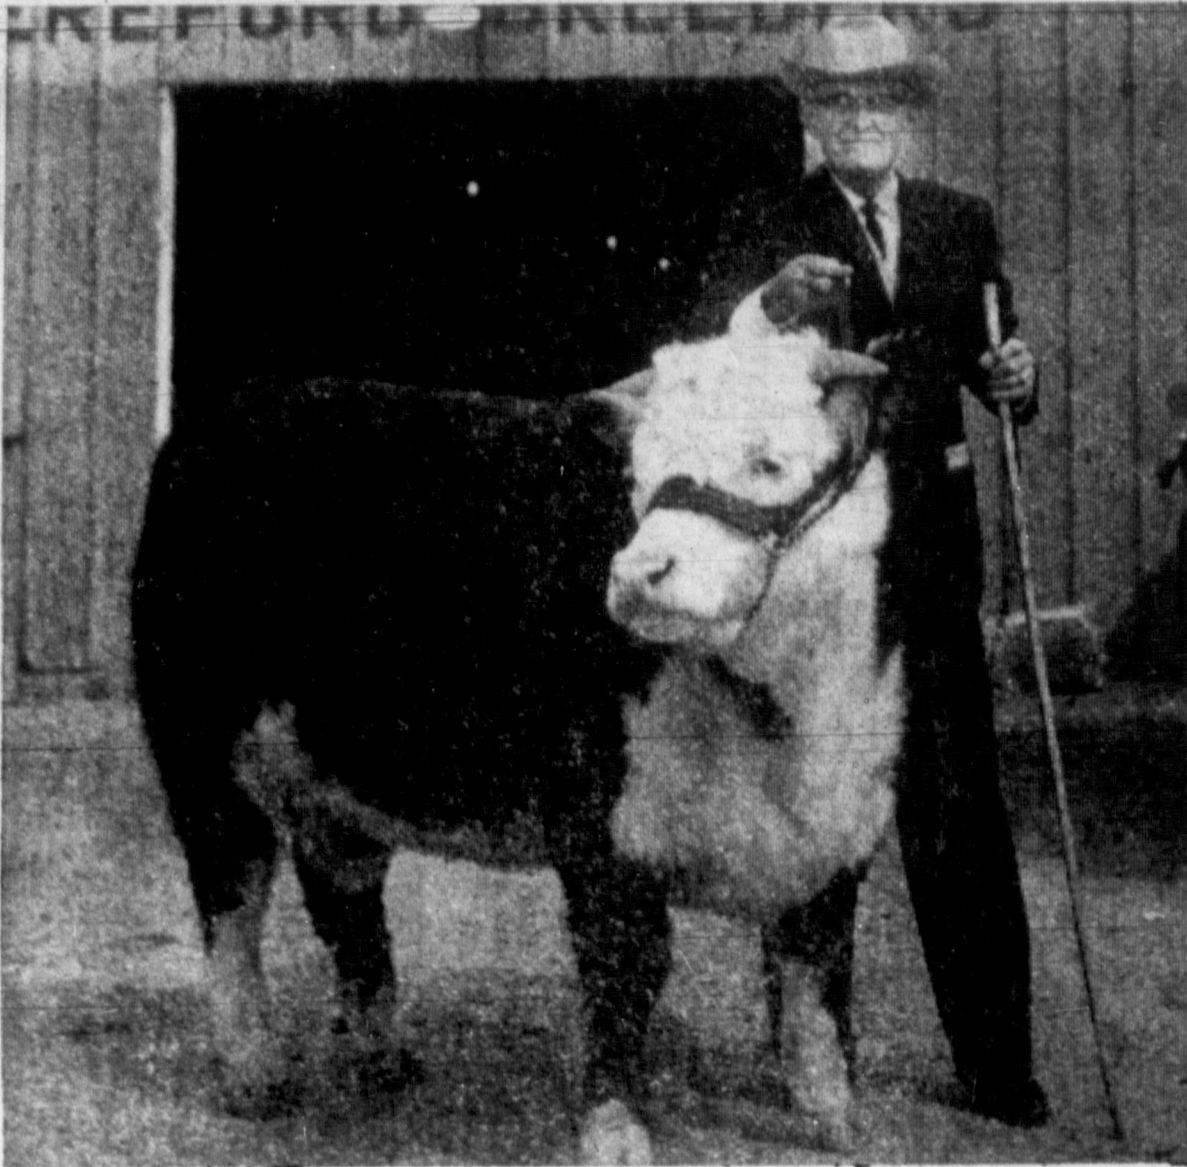

The Chinese followed it up with a sharp note of protest, and in Peking 400 students staged a protest outside the Soviet Embassy.

First in China

The Peking demonstration was the first of its kind since Communist take-over of the China mainland.

The succession of events was a special embarrassment to the Soviets since they coincided with the dismal failure of a Moscow "unit" conference originally designed to re-establish Soviet leadership of world communism.

For the United States, the over-all effect was of special significance.

Cong Death Toll Count Is Slightly Inaccurate

By ROBERT BUCKHORN
WASHINGTON (UPI) — In war, the death toll depends on who is doing the counting. Viet Nam is no exception.

Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson subtly reminded Congress of this military fact of life in a report to the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate military appropriations subcommittee.

The government of South Viet Nam, Johnson said, claims that 75,000 Viet Cong guerrillas have been killed since Jan. 1, 1960. He made it clear that the figure is something less than accurate.

"Recognizing that the nature of the war is such that these may not be exact," Johnson said, they were the "best figures we can get."

Other military observers put it more bluntly: the figures are probably too high.

Counting Is Difficult

In a war where the enemy seldom is seen, counting his dead is not easy. A strict body count was not even enforced in South Viet Nam until last year.

In past wars, these counts have been multiplied for propaganda and morale purposes. They have been underestimated, and exaggerated, by men on the scene who thought they were reporting accurately. And they have been deliberately twisted by diplomats and politicians.

In short, casualty figures have been targets for criticism since men began to fight.

Back in 279 B.C., the Greek Pyrrhus put it this way: "One more victory and I am lost."

In the case of South Viet Nam, the casualty reports on the Viet Cong dead look less credible by comparison.

Estimates Run High

In a breakdown, the South Viet Nam government claims it has been killing the enemy at the rate of approximately 20,000 a year since 1962.

South Vietnamese estimates by the Viet Nam government placed the total members of "hardcore" Viet Cong units in their country at 29,000 to 34,000. Added to this, however, was the so-called "parttime" guerrilla fighter — the peasant who farms by day and fights by night. The figure on these was put at 60,000 to 80,000.

Using the highest estimate of hard core rebels, plus the highest on parttime fighters, the government figures for last year would indicate South Viet Nam is killing Viet Cong at the rate of about one out of every six. Using the smaller number of each, the Viet Cong casualty rate would run about one out of very four.

These figures would indicate that the war in South Viet Nam is being fought with an all-out ferocity with a near-continuous commitment of troops to battle.

Fighters Lack Arms?

According to the government, the South Vietnamese captured 15,101 weapons from the Viet Cong during 1962-64. But in their casualty reports they were killing Viet Cong at the rate of 20,000 for each of the same years. This would mean that most of the Viet Cong guerrillas killed were not armed — an unlikely situation.

Dear Abby...
Give Local Postmaster
Unwanted 'Literature'

DEAR ABBY: Our problem is this: Our teenage son has been receiving filthy literature in the mail. We were very much disturbed about it. He says he has no idea who is sending it to him. And we believe him. This is the first time this junk has ever been in our home and we don't want it. Can you tell us how to keep this stuff out of our mailbox?

DEAR NO: Take it to your local postmaster. Be sure you have the original envelope in which the "literature" was mailed. The postmark is an important clue.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you can help me with a problem which is rather unusual. I was born without that part of an arm just below the elbow. Having been born that way, I find it awkward to explain to people why I have only one arm. Try as I do, it always ends up with the same question, "but why?" My little nephew is now at the stage where he asks a lot of questions, and he is so perplexed about this. Believe it or not, I have had many hurts from playmates whose mothers used me as an "example" to make their children behave. Mothers will tell their children that I have only one arm because I was a bad boy and God "punished" me like that — and if they are not good, it could happen to them.

There must be others who have a similar problem, and I shall be watching your column for some kind of answer that will satisfy the curious small fry.

DEAR WAITING: Explain that from the mysteries of human reproduction, "unexplainable things happen now and then, and that your incomplete arm is one of them; that you do not feel handicapped and have learned to live with the loss.

DEAR ABBY: One day last week a very good friend of ours invited my husband and me to join her and her husband for a drive to a nearby resort to spend the day and have dinner in the evening. We accepted. Later she called back and said they owed another couple a dinner and asked what I thought about asking them to join us? It so happens that I do not

Softness Heralds the Spring

WATCHWORD FOR SPRING — Soft is the watchword for spring. The soft, ladylike look prevails even in suits. Orleans, silk and linen combine to make the soft tweed of the suit (left) in bone check on beige. White pique blouse with feminine ruching in Dacron and cotton ensures easy upkeep. A design (right) in spring tweed of Orleans, silk and linen is cut on the bias to permit graceful movement with the body. like the other couple. Being around them leaves me low in spirits, so I told her that I did not think much of the idea. Well, she didn't invite them. Now my husband is ashamed of me. He said I should have agreed to let the other couple join us and suffered through the day and evening. If he is right, tell me why.

DEAR PERPLEXED: I think your husband is wrong. Since you were asked by your hostess whether you wanted the other couple to join you, there was no reason for you to have been hypocritical.

Past Noble Grand
Honored by Lodge

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Members of the Skellytown Rebekah Lodge honored past noble grand, Mrs. W. S. Berry, recently at a banquet at Black Gold Restaurant.

Mrs. R. C. Heaton, mistress of ceremonies, presented Mrs. Berry with a corsage-fashioned with a small gavel, pink rose buds, white net and pink ribbons.

Mrs. Berry's theme was carried out in the table decorations. Rockets were used as centerpieces and each guest received a space ship in the form of a pencil sharpener.

Mrs. Berry was also presented a pottery cookie jar in the form of a space station with the name of "Friendship" inscribed in brown on the front.

Mrs. Heaton read a report of the projects Mrs. Berry achieved during her term of office. Each guest present gave a tribute to the past grand. Mrs. Clifford Coleman gave the invocation, and Mrs. R. C. Heaton gave the closing prayer.

Scouting Scoops

A girl is introduced to citizenship in her first official act as a Girl Scout — the reciting of the Brownie or Girl Scout Promise. In subscribing to the Promise, a Brownie pledged herself to love her country; an older Scout promises to do her duty to her country.

"Duty to country" and "citizenship" are not easily defined. For many people, they mean voting and paying taxes. What do they mean to girls seven-through 17-years-old who are not generally in a position to do either? The dictionary says that a citizen is "a member of a community." Does being a member of a community imply anything besides just living there? A Girl Scout will tell you that it certainly does.

For a Girl Scout, citizenship is active participation — serving the community and the people in it. It means recognizing obligations as well as rights, taking responsibility for projects that will benefit everyone. It includes knowing how the government functions, why and how laws are made, why conservation of natural resources is a vital obligation of every citizen.

Brownie Girl Scouts planting flowers to beautify their schoolyard are learning about citizenship. Juniors working on an Active Citizen badge, Cadettes helping their local Board of Elections, Seniors giving service in a hospital—these are but a few instances of projects which mean citizenship in action for more than two and one-half million Girl Scouts in the United States.

Pirate Relays Kick Off TOT

LEFORS — Cancellations due to basketball conflicts and lack of practice because of bad weather have cut the field to 14 teams in the annual Pirate Relays, the smallest field in the events' history.

Lefors coach, Dean King reported that original entries Darrouzett, Gruver, Miami and Lakeview have cancelled out, and that Briscoe is very doubtful as their coach is in girls basketball playoffs. Added to the roster has been Mobeetie, joining a field of Booker, Clarendon, Canadian, Groom, Memphis Morningside, White Deer, Wheeler, Wellington, Pampa Shockers, McLean and host Lefors.

RANDY ELLIOTT
heads WD

Defending Class B state champion Booker and the three W's—White Deer, Wheeler and Wellington are the top-rated teams, with Morningside and Pampa the dark horses. Panhandle and Memphis are also expected to be strong.

Ordinarily, Lefors is the second track meet of the year for Top O' Texas teams, but with the cancellation of the Gruver meet due to basketball playoffs, this will be the opener for all but two of the entrants who went to Iowa Park last week.

Starting off fresh will be the Booker Kiowas, but with all but one member of the state champion sprint and mile relay teams back, plus state 400 champ Shyne Slovacsek, as well as the fact that the Kiowas ran as a unit in summer AAU meets, giving them a big edge.

Wheeler, which returns three members of the mile relay team that went to finals with the Kiowas, as well as district low hurdles champ Dunk Porter and speedster Little Bobby Vanpool, who dogged Slovacsek's heels all last season, will again present a rugee powerhouse.

Two factors which will count against both however, is the elimination of the 220 and 440-yard dash events in the meet. King explained that due to the annual teacher's meeting and the wishes of most of the coaches, the meet this year, as last year, will be a Saturday event only, cutting out some of the events run when the meet was a two-day affair. The many relay events in the meet however, will give the two teams plenty of chance to run their specialties.

Wellington, defending district 2-A champ, although graduating some of their top boys, will be tough as ever, as witnessed by the 4.4 sprint relay they ran at Iowa Park. Memphis, district runner-up, chalked up a 3-43 mile relay in the same meet. Although neither are close to Booker's winning marks of last year, 43.5 in the sprint and 3-23.9 in the mile (state record), both are extremely impressive for opening meets.

Coach King said that Panhandle had requested to be put in the "fast heats", indicating the Panthers will be strong.

Pampa B, of course, will be a strong dark horse, always an unknown quantity due to no previous outings, but always powerful.

Memphis Morningside, Negro state champions, ordinarily would be ranked up with Booker, but the coach reports that many of their best boys have graduated.

White Deer, a Class A powerhouse, will again send a strong field to the meet, led by Little Randy Elliott, second in regional pole vault with 11'6" last year, and Otto Wheeler, regional hurdles finalist.

Purdue Cage Coach Quits

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (UPI) — The search began today for a replacement for Ray Eddy, who resigned Wednesday as head basketball coach at Purdue University after 15 seasons.

Some prominent names were being mentioned as possible successors for Eddy, 53, who came to Purdue in 1950 after leading a Madison High School quintet to the Indiana state basketball championship.

Among the possible successors are Charles (Lefty) Driesell of Davidson, Vic Bubas of Duke and Roy Skinner of Vanderbilt.

However, Athletic Director Red Mackey said he has not "talked to anybody on the outside about the job." He added, though, that the search probably would be conducted along the "lists which have been exploited in the papers for the last couple of weeks as to the best coaches in the country."

Mackey also refused to count Eddy's assistants, Joe Denson and Bob King, out of the running.

"After 31 years of coaching, it's time to turn this job over to someone else," Eddy said.

Purdue compiled a 176-164 record under Eddy and finished in the Big Ten's first division in seven of the last 10 years. During Eddy's tenure Purdue has fielded such standouts as Sexson, Terry Dischinger, Mel Garland and the current Big Ten scoring leader Dave Schellhase.

Hebert Fires 66 In Doral

MIAMI (UPI)—Billy Casper teed off in fast company today in pursuit of a third victory in the $70,000 Doral Open golf tournament, and everybody had their eyes on the record-tying 66 scored by Jay Hebert in a pre-celebrity round.

Hebert fired his three-under-par 33-33 in the warmup round Wednesday, and collected top money of $500. The 66 tied the record for the extra-tough "blue monster" layout at Doral.

Casper, the winner in 1962 and last year, had a 71, two over par, for his tuneup but shared the company of Jackie Gleason in the round. Last year, Casper won here with a 277 for the 72 holes, 11 under par.

Casper had in his threesome today Dave Marr and Mason Rudolph, both of whom were near the top of the warmup round — Rudolph with 68 and Marr with 69.

Major League Roundup

By PETE DOWD
UPI Sports Writer

Bob Swift took over the reins of the Detroit Tigers Wednesday as interim coach and lost no time convincing the team in general—and Al Kaline in particular—that he has no intention of being a rubber stamp.

Acting in a manner befitting his name, Swift told his men that he would follow ailing Manager Chuck Dressen's policies up to a point, but that he intended doing several things his own way. His first executive decision involved moving Kaline up to the lead-off spot in the spring training lineup.

Dressen, who is hospitalized in Santa Monica, Calif. after suffering a heart attack Tuesday, had the Tiger outfielder in the No. 3 batting position in camp.

Despite the calendar date, several clubs showed early indications of mid-season form Wednesday.

Cards Look Sharp

At the St. Louis Cardinals training site in St. Petersburg, Fla., veterans Lou Brock and Curt Flood tripped and Bob Skinner and Steve Hunt doubled as the world champions exploded for an 11-hit barrage of springtime slugging.

ers face the Washington Senators... Clarke has impressed Keane during the first phase of training both at the plate and around second base... Rico Carty will also get the once over Saturday when the Milwaukee Braves open their exhibition schedule against the Dodgers... He made a strong showing as a rookie outfielder last year and Manager Bobby Bragan has temporarily switched him to first base this season.

Johnny Romano of the Chicago White Sox caught batting practice Wednesday for the first time this season with fine results... Romano had been hampered by a strained knee ligament during the first week of training... Manager Gil Hodges of the Washington Senators has named veteran hurler Bennie Daniels to start against the Yankees Thursday night, while southpaw Chris Short has received the initial mound assignment for the Philadelphia Phils Grapefruit League game against the Pirates Saturday... Hurler Tom Butters of the Pirates, who incurred a neck injury in an auto accident en route to camp, has been ordered to rest for three weeks.

Harvesters Open at Farwell Tomorrow

Good weather the first two days of the week has the Pampa Harvester baseball team off and running as they head into their first big weekend of the season, playing at Farwell, N. Mex. Friday and a twin bill at Clovis, N. Mex. Saturday.

Coach Deck Woldt was highly pleased with intrasquad games Monday which saw Jerry "Chinky" Garrison and Buddy "Bones" Hammons shining on the mound for the varsity, and Roy Harper, Jerry Largin and Jim Lang looking good for the Shockers.

Coach Woldt said that

...get probable starting nods

Dodd backing him up. Jimmy Moore and Phil Masie will be standing by, as will Jeff Smiley, Bill Watts and Jerry Goodwin.

Friday's game will start at 3 p.m. (4 p.m. CST) and Saturday's opener at 1 p.m., although Woldt said he hoped to move the opener up to 11 a.m. and play straight through.

Coach David Kelley also announced the Shocker lineup of 12 players, although Harper will be lent to the Harvesters for the opening of the season. The Shockers will have Harper, Largin and Lang pitching, with Harper also available for catching and infield relief, Largin for infield and Lang for first base and outfield.

Jimmy Stroud will be at first base, Monk McDonald at second, Teddy Phillips at shortstop and Barry Price at third. Stevie Oler will play centerfield, Ronnie Sander's left field and Larry Jones right, also alternating at first base. Nicky Brumfield, who plays both infield and outfield, will be the utility man. Gary Hyatt will be the starting catcher.

Mike Pursley, promising soph pitcher down with a leg injury, will act as B team manager until he recovers, joining managers Dennis (The Menace) Scott, Ronnie Ebenkamp and Perry "Mervis" Moose.

Nation's Top 5 Not In Majors

By United Press International
Both major college basketball tournaments will be in full swing as of Thursday night when the National Invitation Tournament gets underway in New York, yet oddly enough the best team in the country isn't playing in either tournament.

The nation's best team, judged solely from win-loss percentage, is Evansville University of Evansville, Ind., which has won 27 consecutive games this season without a defeat. The reason you won't find the Purple Aces in either of the major college tournaments is because they are listed as a small college.

Evansville must content itself with playing in the NCAA small college tournament, which it already has won three times.

Seek Second Straight
This season Evansville is seeking its second straight title and the Purple Aces got off on the right foot Wednesday night as they toppled Philadelphia Textile 92-76 in a first round game. The top-seeded Purple Aces got a 30-point effort from their Little All-American Larry Humes in downing Philadelphia Textile and moved into today's semifinals against St. Michael's (Vt.), which topped Akron 101-87 in other first round action.

Evansville's toughest competition is expected to come from Southern Illinois, a team the Purple Aces defeated twice during the regular season, both times by one point. The Salukis ran into some trouble in their opener against Washington of St. Louis, but managed to come from behind in the second half. Sls, 1st add., Bears, 76-67.

Southern Illinois trailed 41-29 with 17 1/2 minutes left in the game when sophomore Ralph Johnson entered the contest. Johnson, who had tallied only two points in the first half, connected for 20 in the remaining time and his efforts, coupled with a full court press, enabled the Salukis to pull out the win.

The Salukis will meet North Dakota in semifinals action today. North Dakota trimmed Seattle Pacific 97-83 in its opening game.

Central Wins
Those who don't favor Evansville as the best small college team in the nation swing their votes to Central (Ohio) State, a team which also finished its season unbeaten. The Marauders are competing in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics tournament at Kansas City and they safely made it through the second round of play Wednesday by downing Midwestern (Tex.) University 75-61 behind a 37 point and 24 rebound performance by center Kenneth Wilburn.

In other second round action, Fairmont (W.Va.) State beat Alliance (Pa.) 83-69. Winston-Salem defeated High Point College 78-62. Oklahoma Baptist University downed Southwestern Louisiana 95-82. Southern University of Baton Rouge, La., topped Eastern Montana 97-86. Augsburg, Minn., edged Hastings, Neb. 86-65, and Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) trimmed Lewis (Ill.) College 77-61.

Getting back to the major colleges, the NIT begins today with a night doubleheader. Manhattan meets Texas Western in the first game and Boston College faces St. John's in the nightcap.

The NCAA tourney resumes play on Friday.

Twins Soft-Pedalling 'All AL Pennant Talk

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI)—The Minnesota Twins have put a new roll in their piano.

They're soft-pedalling all pennant talk this year and changing their tune to "anything can happen."

"We hope to be a contending club," Manager Sam Mele says. "We are going to have to solve a lot of problems to become one."

The big problem is defense. The Twins lost 83 games in 1964, 30 of them on unearned runs in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings.

Reason Why
"And that," says Mele sadly, "is why we finished in a tie for sixth place instead of winning the pennant like we thought we would."

"You just can't give away runs in this league," Mele added. "And what amazed me, and what I still can't understand, is how we did so badly in the field. After all, when we finished second in 1963 we were the second best fielding club in the league and made the most double plays with the same players on the field we have now."

While Mele admits that fielding deficiencies were a major factor in last year's downfall, he doesn't think the Twins were helped any by all the pennant talk in their camp last spring.

Too Much Pressure
"A lot of people were picking us to win," Mele recalled, "and as a result there was a lot of pressure on our players. It didn't help any."

Now, Mele, insists the attitude of the players "is different."

Evansville Star Little All-American

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jerry Sloan of Evansville, a three-time small college All-American, was a unanimous choice on the 1965 "Little" All-American basketball team selected today by the United Press-International Board of Coaches.

The small college team, which produced more successful professional players from its 1964 squad than the major college All-American quintet, again boasts several outstanding pro prospects.

Wilbur Frazier of Grambling, Steve Nisenon of Hofstra, Robert Love of Southern Louisiana and Sloan's teammate, Larry Humes of Evansville, complete the first team.

Nisenon and Sloan are the only repeaters from the '64 squad which also included Lucius Jackson, now with the Philadelphia 76ers of the National Basketball Association and Willis Reed, now with the New York Knicks. Reed and Jackson are the leading candidates for rookie-of-the-year honors in the NBA.

The All-American team is determined by the 35 coaches (five from each geographical section of the country) who rank the small college teams each week throughout the season.

Next to Sloan in popularity among the coaches was Nisenon, who was named on 84 per cent of the ballots. Frazier was selected on 81 per cent, Humes on 78 per cent and Love 74.

Only returning regular in the 13-man crew is sophomore Dickie Sims, whose 10.6 hundred is the fastest mark. Sims went to state for the Pampa Jaycees last summer in the 440, but King feels that Sims is not ready yet. One good prospect for the Buccaneers is freshman Dennis Keith, who has clocked a 54-second quarter.

Both running and field events start at 9:30 a.m. Saturday. The 880-yard relay will kick off the running events, followed in order by the low hurdle preliminaries, the 100 prelims, the high hurdles and the sprint medley relay (which will be two 220's, a 440 and an 880 this year) at 10:55. Finals will start at 2 p.m. with the final event the mile relay at 3:45. Other relays will be the 440 and the two-mile.

Field events—pole vault, high jump, broadjump, discus and shotput, will run off as quickly as possible, with the top six in each event going to finals.

Rubber Battle At Skellytown

The rubber match between the "Skellytown Recruiters", alias the White-Deer-Skellytown Faculty, and the "Pampa Ringers," (otherwise known as the Pampa Newsboys, will come off Saturday night at 8 p.m. at Skellytown Junior High gym.

Another sellout crowd for the clash, which had standing room only for a previous meeting here, is expected. The game will be sponsored by the WD Lions Club, with all proceeds to go to benefit their youth program, especially Little League baseball. Admission will be 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for student.

In addition to being the third playoff for the two hot rivals, the game will also be a preliminary for this month's Top O' Texas Basketball Tournament in Pampa, as the two teams are both highly rated for the tourney.

In the opening game, WD won a tight 71-64 victory, amidst cries from Newsboy coach

Jeff Cohane of "recruiting" as the locals also had the entire Richard Drug team of the YCC League (for which three of the WD Skelly coaches star) as well as Curtis Campbell, ace guard of Frank Phillips Junior College.

In a return match at the Pampa YCC, the Newsboys handed Richard Drug their only defeat of the season in an even tighter overtime game, 66-62. At that time, coach Arlen Kaiser screamed equally loud about "ringers" as Dan "Rock" Heil, leading scorer of Frank Phillips JC, and most of the bi-district champion Pampa Harvesters had joined the Newsboys after their school seasons ended.

Both Cohane and Kaiser have promised that they would not recruit further, although Kaiser is reported to be seeking former all-stars Carl McAdams, Gerald Bichsel and Charlie Coleman, while Mike Gann and Red Mike Reynolds

TCU Outslugs Sam Houston

FORT WORTH (UPI)—The Texas Christian Horned Frogs blasted five pitchers, for 17 hits and survived a nightmarish sixth inning Wednesday to whip Sam Houston State 12-8.

TCU had just scored five runs in the bottom of the fifth and was coasting along with a 7-0 lead when the Bearkats unloaded their bats for eight runs.

are also being sought. Cohane is satisfied to go with his present two-platooning lineup.

The Newsboys will go with one platoon of 6-3 Ropes Roper, 6-3 Gerald "Little" Sikes, 6-2 Davey McDaniell, 6-0 Lanny Lewis and 5-11 Charlie Snuggs, all former Harvesters starters. The second platoon will have 6-4 1/2 Gary Sikes, 6-3 Heil, 6-2 Carroll Russell, former White Deer all-state and 6-0 Terry Bromlow and 5-11 Don McCool of Lefors and 5-9 Ronnie Chase, another Harvesters-ex, in reserve.

White Deer will have the Druggist team of 6-5 Gene Williams, 6-2 Ronnie Mills, 6-0 James Lee, 5-11 Roy "Gunner" Pool and 5-9 Kaiser, plus Doc Bates, 6-0, Don Whittenberg, 6-2, Bill Burcham, 6-0, and 5-7 Campbell, as well as roly-poly Jerry Wright and a few more disguised "coaches."

Both teams have warmed up for the game by running up 100-point plus games, the Druggists over the Pampa Jaycees and the Newsboys over the Groom Faculty. Another high-scoring tilt is expected.
