CIO CHOSEN TO BARGAIN FOR STEEL UNION

17,028 BALLOTS OUT OF 24,412 CAST FOR S. W. O. C.

(By The Associated Press.) The Committee for Industrial Organization hailed its victory in the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation election today as a forerunner of collective bargaining throughout the steel industry.

Out of 24,412 votes cast by employees in the biggest election conducted under authority of the Wagner labor relations act 17,028 ballots favored the CIO steel workers organizing committee as bargaining representative. The majority vote made by the S. W. O. C. the exclusive bargaining agency for all J. & L. employees.

Philip Murray, CIO chief, commented: "It should be a warning to other independent steel producers that the wave of favorable sentiment for the CIO is spreading rapidly. The workers cannot be thwarted by opponents of true collective bargaining."

With the election out of the way, CIO officials renewed their drive for collective bargaining contracts from other large independent steel plants—Bethlehem, Republic, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Inland and Crucible.

While ballots were being counted in Pittsburgh, approximately 500 miners entrenched themselves 360 feet underground at Chesapeake, Ill., in a dramatic bid for concessions from the Superior Coal Co. The strikers sought a stagger system of work that would permit employment of 300 fellow workers made idle by the closing of another pit for repairs.

Employers and strikers' families brought food, clothing and reading material to the entombed men. An official of the Progressive Miners of America said the men would "stick it out to the last."

Production was resumed today in the Ford Motor plant of the Murray Corporation after an overnight shutdown by workers objecting to the speed of production.

Representatives of the union and management met during the night and came to an agreement, terms of which were not immediately disclosed.

The plant manufactures frames for Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corporation. Three hundred U. A. W. unionists employed by the Champion Spark Plug Co. remained in possession of the firm's plant in Hamtramck, Mich. The sitdown strike was caused, a union organizer said, by the management's effort to discourage unionization. A strike at the Plymouth plant affecting 10,200 workers was settled.

At Hollywood, Calif., the Federated Motion Picture Crafts postponed indefinitely a strike against 27 independent producers pending negotiation of demands for a union shop.

HILLBILLY FLOOR SHOW WILL FEATURE DANCES

A hillbilly floor show will be an appropriate and special feature of the farewell pioneer ball to be sponsored by the Panhandle Centennial committee at the high school gym tonight. The dance will begin at 8 o'clock and last until 11.

The floor show will feature KPDN "Tune Town" who will sing cowboy songs and western ballads of the era when square dances and "round" dances were the only steps in this territory. Admission will be 40 cents per person for everybody.

Hundreds of dancers from a dozen Panhandle counties are expected to be on hand when Homer Ratliff and his orchestra tune up for the opening number. The most popular step at the last dance held at the gym was the heel and toe polka. More than 200 couples danced the heel and toe polka at one time on that occasion. That polka step proved even more popular than the waltz. As many as six sets of square dancers are on the floor at one time.

Funds will be used to pay the last installment on the deficit incurred by the Panhandle Centennial committee in 1936.

FIREMEN WILL ATTEND FLOYDADA CONVENTION

Four members of the Pampa Volunteer fire department will go to Floydada for the annual Panhandle Firemen's convention Monday and Tuesday. It was voted at a meeting last night.

Delegates named by the members were Marion Moore, Mel Dunn, A. J. Hindman and Albert Hollenbeck. Fire Chief Ben White will not make the trip but will attend the state convention at College Station.

German Accent In 'Cabbages' Draws Laughs

The strong German accent and the acting of Dickie Kennedy, Betty Rains and Colleen McMahan have evoked a continuous flow of laughter from all audiences that have seen "Cabbages," state championship one-act play which will be presented tonight at the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Dickie, who is only 15 years old, has acted in two plays that went to the state finals; Betty and Colleen speak American with a strong German accent. Speech arts teachers at the University of Texas marveled that high school students could acquire such a "perfect German accent." Mrs. Lena Schneider, Pampa pioneer, was asked to listen to a rehearsal of "Cabbages," and she declared the accent could not be improved upon.

The plot of the play evolves a gentle satire as follows:

The Grossmeiers, Wilhelmina (Colleen), August (Dickie), and their daughter (Albertine Schukley), lived quietly, complacently on a farm until oil was discovered on it. They, at the insistence of Wilhelmina, moved to town where Mrs. Grossmeier acquired a feverish ambition to move in high society. Her first step up the social ladder was to engage a Chicago genealogist to write up the Grossmeier pedigree. The genealogist (Gene Finkbeiner) went "across the waters to Germany" to investigate the Grossmeier family tree and return with his findings, to-wit: that one of her ancestors had been hanged for "snatching a sow," as Lena Fischer (Betty Rains) puts it.

That killed Wilhelmina's social ambitions and she is even resigned to buy a Ford car, whereas a Packard was not good enough for her. Previously, only Esquire whose pictures were read by August, was kept in the Grossmeier library but when the play ends, Wilhelmina is glad to have the "Comfort" laying around.

Stage managers of the play are Mickey Ledrick and Roy Lee Jones. Kenneth Carman is director. Mr. Carman, a graduate of Northwestern university, taught the cast the difficult accent.

The high school acceded to the requests of society people in deciding to give another performance of the play here tonight. Admission will be 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

MOVE TO FORCE VOTE ON RACING ACT LOSES

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Members of the legislature today intensified their efforts to pass four big appropriation bills within the short time remaining before the scheduled end of the long regular session late tomorrow.

Conference committees on the educational, departmental and rural school aid bills still expressed confidence their reports would be ready tonight or tomorrow. The judiciary bill had struck a snag because of a rider affecting salaries of Dallas district judges but did not appear to be in serious difficulties.

A belated effort to bring about a vote on repeal of the race betting law developed in the senate but made no immediate progress. Governor James V. Allred had said he would reconvene the lawmakers immediately in special session unless the Senate voted repeal.

Mrs. Young's Swimming Pool Bid Accepted

ALLRED SIGNS HOSPITAL BILL

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred made good today on his promise to veto an appropriation of $817,000 for a new hospital for the insane in East Texas but approved one for the same amount and purpose to be established in West Texas.

The governor said the financial condition of the State would not justify building two such institutions at this time and, moreover, the legislature made the appropriations in "general knowledge that he would knock out the one for East Texas."

"In my message to the legislature dated Jan. 25, I pointed out that the board of control had recommended the establishment of a new hospital for the insane in West Texas to cost approximately $817,000," he said.

"I adopted the recommendation of the board and myself recommended the establishment of this hospital. Up to that time no representative of either West or East Texas had conferred with me about it. I simply acted upon the recommendation of the board of control and their finding that this hospital was necessary and desirable."

"No member of the legislature, or representative of East Texas, discussed any proposed hospital in East Texas until after an amendment to this effect had been adopted in the state senate. When the matter went into conference a number of the members of the legislature did discuss it with me."

"I was advised that the legislature was unwilling to appropriate money for two hospitals at this time in view of the depleted condition of the treasury and the fact no tax revenues had been raised. At this time I was informed that the board of control had decided to establish a hospital and that this should be established to serve a vast area in West Texas not being served at the present time and to relieve congestion in other institutions."

FEDERAL DOPE AGENT HELD IN RENO ROUNDUP

RENO, Nev., May 21 (AP)—Chris Hansen, 58-year-old federal narcotics agent in charge of the Nevada district, was arrested as a climax to a series of raids by federal narcotics agents sent in from outside and booked on an open charge today.

Joyce McAllister, attractive Santa Barbara, Calif., girl was credited with brilliant detective work which led to the arrest of Hansen and eight others.

Hansen was formerly connected with the Los Angeles, Portland, Spokane and Seattle districts. He came to Reno from Los Angeles four months ago. He recently staged a spectacular narcotics raid in Carson City.

Federal agents and Washoe county officers staged three raids here last night, but found narcotics only in possession of persons at the Public Club.

The raids were made after nearly $1,000 worth of narcotics had been purchased by operatives in nine transactions, federal authorities said.

They said the raid on the Public Club was made at the time Mrs. McAllister had made a $195 purchase at the club with marked money, found on Woo Sing, operator of the club, after the raid.

Miss McAllister was quoted as saying she was so shocked by the widespread traffic she saw during a visit to Reno five months ago she solicited the aid of Sheriff Ray Root of Washoe county. She was credited with gaining the confidence of peddlers and linking Hansen with Sing.

"I saw youngsters, boys and girls of college age," she was quoted as saying, "scrambling together dollars to buy bundles. That made up my mind that I was going to smash the narcotics rings."

Sheriff Root said the arrests wrecked a Reno narcotics gang. "Woo Sing has been operating here for more than ten years," he said, "and has a Nevada figure for a quarter century."

George Christopher and Wesley Lewis will be instructors. The ship will be used to give the ship a top speed of 95 miles an hour with a top speed of 105 miles.

The type of plane has become a favorite in the north and east. It performance has been tested and approved by the department of commerce.

Resolutions passed included recommendation creating of a 5-state authority embracing the blown area with an administrator from each state; more facilities to speed up preliminary work; additions be made to water conservation and flood control program with special emphasis on the 5-state area; building of ponds and lakes to trap water where it falls; immediate presentation of a bill in Congress.

Yacht Burning Off Bilbao, Say Rebels

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish frontier, May 21 (AP)—Insurgent Francists broadcast today an announcement that incendiary bombs, dropped during an insurgent-Basque government air battle, had fired the Basque yacht Goizeko-Izarra, carrying refugees out of Bilbao.

An insurgent communique said the yacht was blazing "somewhere in the bay of Biscay."

There were other insurgent reports that the ship was carrying several high officials of the Basque government as well as 7,000,000 pesetas worth of jewels and silver belonging to members of the Basque cabinet.

But nothing more definite concerning her passengers or cargo was immediately available.

GERMAN ARMY AVIATORS TO DIE IN BILBAO

FOREIGN VOLUNTEERS WOULD BE WITHDRAWN

LONDON, May 21 (AP)—Proposals for an armistice in the Spanish civil war and for the withdrawal of foreign volunteers moved towards actuality today with authoritative assurances that no European power outside Spain will object.

Germany and Italy were said authoritatively to have been the greatest stumbling blocks to the twin plans for restoring peace in embattled Spain, but well-informed diplomatic personages said both now would join general discussions.

The British government, through its own ambassadors, has been seeking to learn the attitude of foreign nations on the armistice for some time. It was reliably disclosed that they have encountered no refusals or active consideration of the plan.

A special technical committee of the 27-nation "hands off Spain" group discussed the possibility of withdrawals of foreign troops from the civil war today and pressed the delegates to obtain their governments' flat approval of an armistice.

The Spanish government's efforts to bring the civil war before the league convenes would prevent serious consideration in the civil war of the demands at Geneva.

(The League of Nations council assembly will meet next week.) (The Spanish Valencia government, which has made repeated accusations of German and Italian intervention in the civil war in violation of international neutrality agreements, appealed to the league to investigate intervention as a threat to the continent's peace. Its latest communication, this week, made no specific accusations.)

BILBAO, Spain, May 21 (AP)—Two captured German aviators were sentenced to death today on charges of military rebellion and murder.

The two officers, downed on the Basque front, convicted by a popular tribunal of waging warfare against the government of Spain in the forces of insurgent General Francisco Franco.

They are Captain Walter Kienzell and Lieut. Gunther Schulze. A Franco government (Spanish) agency account of the trial said Captain Kienzell testified he had been in the regular German army before he came to Spain voluntarily last January.

Influenced by German press photographs who convinced him that Soviet Russia was aiding the Spanish government, Captain Kienzell enlisted to oppose the "Russian influence."

Lieut. Schulze testified he sailed for Spain aboard the Italian ship Conte Rosso and joined the civil war front through Portugal after disembarking at Lisbon.

He, too, said he came to Spain voluntarily after two years in the German army.

NAZIS WOULD LIKE TO BEHEAD SISTERS' AIDES

BERLIN, May 21 (AP)—The powerful Gestapo German secret state police began today to seek detailed information on German sources from which it believed George Cardinal Mundelein obtained the information on the church-state situation from German residents, relayed through the Franciscan sisters in Illinois.

If the identity of any of these Germans can be established, it was learned, they will be punishable under a German law which classifies as treason the circulation of "false reports likely to do damage to the fatherland."

The penalty for treason is the headman's ax.

TRUCKING FIRM DEFENDANT IN $15,000 SUIT

Damages totaling $15,000 are being sought in a lawsuit filed today by W. L. Walkenhorst of Pampa and others against the J. A. Robinson Trucking Co. of Pampa, as the result of an automobile accident five miles south of Sunray last Sunday.

The petition alleges that the car driven by Mr. Walkenhorst carried as passengers, Mrs. Walkenhorst and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Manion. It is charged in the suit that one of the defendant's trucks, driven by Charles Holt, sideswiped the car being driven north by the plaintiff and caused serious injuries to Mrs. Walkenhorst and Mrs. Manion in the resulting wreck.

Negligence on the part of the company's agent is charged in the petition which also claims that Mrs. Walkenhorst was injured for life and that both women were so incapacitated as to be deprived of their ability to perform household duties.

For Mrs. Walkenhorst's injuries, $10,000 damages are asked, $2,500 for Mrs. Manion's injuries and $2,500 exemplary damages also are sought. The law firm of Willis and Via filed the petition.

It is stated in the petition that plaintiffs Mr. and Mrs. Manion have assigned and transferred, for a valuable consideration, their rights to damages to Mr. and Mrs. Walkenhorst, and join them in the suit for the purpose of enforcing liability of the defendant.

DRILLING CONTRACTORS WILL MEET IN DALLAS

Many Pampans plan to attend a called meeting of the old Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico Drilling Contractors association at the Baker hotel in Dallas at 2 p. m. Monday. Every contractor in the Panhandle field has been asked to attend or to send a representative to the meeting.

Purpose of the meeting will be to organize to be better able to cope with labor problems, rising field expenses, rising material costs, state and federal legislation.

It is a general consensus of the majority of contractors that the association should not be used for price fixing purposes in contract work but to help the contractors with their problems.

LEGISLATURE WILL ADJOURN ON SATURDAY

SLIM HOPE HELD FOR REPEAL OF RACE BETTING LAW

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—Texas legislators viciously tied into important matters today with only tomorrow's theoretical half-day between them and adjournment.

Slim hopes were held for eleventh-hour action on the horse race betting repeal bill, buried under a maze of proposals on the Senate calendar. A called session on the issue, to start Monday, practically was assured.

Conference committees slaved at bills in feverish efforts to save them from death by inaction. Among these was the rural school aid appropriation, last of the big "money" bills to leave the House.

The bill would appropriate $6,000,000 a year as compared with $5,000,000 decreed by the Senate. Both proposals left administration in the hands of the superintendent of public instruction rather than the board of education, as recommended by committees.

Governor James V. Allred yesterday received the first of the appropriation bills—that for eleemosynary institutions, which called for expenditures of $14,131,615, an increase of $2,600,000 over the current biennium.

A conference committee's report on a teachers' retirement plan was approved by the House. The state would match teachers' contributions of five per cent of their salaries up to $3,000 a year. Cost to the state was estimated at $1,500,000 a year. Operation would begin in September.

The House engrossed a proposal to raise John Tarlton and North Texas Agricultural Junior colleges to senior status.

In night session, the Senate sent the governor a bill creating a coastal division of the game, fish and oyster commission. A director would be appointed to handle the matter concerning game in the coastal area.

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

One of the hardest things to teach a child is to make a decision and then contentedly abide by it.

Some children do, of course, those who have faith in their own powers and feel that mistakes are out of their line. This, too, can be a fault, and a child can become so cocksure that he is always right, that he becomes a hazard to himself and a trial to others.

Sometimes in a home, the uncertainty is the one chosen for the most rebukes. It should be the other way 'round. He needs to be bolstered in spite of his poor judgment, which is poor about half the time because he is nervous and self-conscious.

When I suggest forcing him, I do not mean to make it apparent. A mother can quietly work this out, according to the child's disposition. Often the less-confident one is contrary. His terror puts up a barrier to be reckoned with.

Letting him alone, to make up his mind, is one method. The inferior child usually does better by creating his own faith in himself. Give him many opportunities to work out his salvation and withhold as much comment as possible.

Creating situations in which he must decide for himself what to do. Ask his opinion about general matters. Praise him often, but not in suspicious overtones. Give him responsibilities and, above all, never laugh at him.

DISAPPEARANCE OF MAN FROM VESSEL PROBED

WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—A federal agency took over an investigation today into the strange disappearance from the Potomac river steamer of Charles F. Keene, 65-year-old Washington real estate man.

Eight days have passed since Keene boarded an overnight boat here for Norfolk, Va. He was missing when the steamer put into port.

Was he killed in his cabin and his body thrown into the river? Did he commit suicide? Is he still alive?

What appear to be bloodstains were discovered in his disheveled cabin.

His glasses, without which he was said never to have walked, lay smashed upon the floor — yet a brown beret he wore on deck was missing.

Three articles his family say are not his were picked from the cabin carpet: A new pair of gloves. A chamol's pouch. An empty blue letter purse.

Armed with little more tangible evidence than this, the Bureau of Marine Inspection and Navigation called a number of witnesses today for a public hearing.

Assisted by the missing man's son, Thomas F. Keene Jr., Maryland and Washington detectives have gathered from the boat crew and passengers what may develop into important clues.

STRUGGLE FOR GREEN WEALTH NEARS CLOSE

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—The first stage of the fight for the millions Hetty Green left her son, the eccentric, one-legged Col. Edward H. R. Green, was nearly over today with almost a million words on the surrogate's court record and dozens of memories washed clean by the exhaustive inquiry in three states.

Next Wednesday the final hearings will open in Elizabethtown, N. Y., and Surrogate Harry E. Owen will wade into the record to determine if Mrs. Mabel Harlow Green, widow, has the right to start proceedings for dower rights in the $70,000,000 estate.

The colonel died last June, close to his 68th birthday. His widow had signed a pre-nuptial agreement under which she was to have no claim in the estate but was to receive an annuity of $18,000.

But—and there was the legal hitch—what was Col. Green's domicile, a ticklish legalistic question to decide.

Mrs. Green contended her husband was a resident of Texas, his sister's lawyers said he was not, that evidence of domicile in Massachusetts was greater.

Under Texas law, the widow contends, the pre-nuptial agreement would be invalid, and she would be entitled to dower rights.

Running through all the hearings, in spite of the seriousness of the issue itself, has been a current of folk humor, quiet wit, amusing anecdotes.

The exhibition of memory by witnesses has been remarkable. They have gone back lightly to events of 20, 30, 45 years ago.

Col. Green himself has been minutely portrayed by witnesses in all the glory of his vast fortune and eccentricities.

He had a special chair built in an office to support his 315 pounds. And once in a moment of levity, when asked about his title, he remarked that "anyone is a colonel in Texas if he has more than a thousand dollars."

Miss Sybil Ward, who has been attending school in Amarillo, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred C. Fischer.

Janice Jarratt Talks But Says Precious Little

SAN ANTONIO, May 21 (AP)—Janice Jarratt, beautiful blonde former model who fled society when her marriage plans with Melvin Purvis, ex-G-man, went askew, spoke for publication today for the first time since the love idyll's lull. It was precious little information obtained, however.

Located at the Bossman ranch at Junction City, in the hill country 50 miles northwest of San Antonio, Miss Jarratt said she had not talked to Purvis since their trouble climaxed in San Antonio several weeks ago; she probably would return to New York in September, and she was still in the dark regarding the possibility of re-entering the movies.

STRETCH YOUR MILEAGE

...with this 100% Custom Tailored Gasoline

Let's get right down to the facts. Let's talk about why and how Phillips 66 Poly Gas saves you money.

The reason is simple. Into every gallon of this new-type, cost-cutting gasoline, Phillips packs extra energy units by means of the patented POLYMERIZATION process. The result is twofold. Your motor not only gets more power out of every gallon, but also delivers more miles.

But sudden changes in climate would endanger the economy and improved performance of Phillips 66 Poly Gas, if it were not 100% custom-tailored, matched in advance to your weather in accordance with U. S. Weather Bureau standards.

Why 100%? Because Phillips pioneered the idea of custom-tailoring gasoline to break the vicious connection between changes in weather and changes in motor performance. Because Phillips has carried the process further and made it function more successfully. Because Phillips has greater facilities for custom-tailoring than any other refiner.

That is why no other gasoline, not a single one, is so accurately matched to your weather as Phillips 66 Poly Gas!

The benefits are yours every day in the year from January through December. There is a real thrill behind the wheel, when the tank is filled with Phillips 66 Poly Gas. The Orange and Black 66 Shield is the sign that you can get this improved gasoline which does more—but costs no more.

FIRING THE REBELLION ON CREAM-PUFF FOODS

A Michigan newspaper recently opened a prize contest for housewives, asking them to submit old-fashioned recipes for old-fashioned foods; and no mortal who has plodded gamely through the whipped-cream-and-cracker-crumbe output of modern cookery can do less than hope that the ladies of Michigan rally 'round and make a great occasion out of it.

We might just as well face the fact that some strange fads and fancies have been flourishing in the American kitchens of late. Our forefathers waxed great and strong on solid food that would nestle up to a man's backbone and stay there, letting him know that he had eaten something; we, their unworthy descendants, are facing a world in which the kitchen has become an experimental laboratory for a ladies' bridge club, so that a plateful of orange-colored fluff on a dewy lettuce leaf is actually held to be suitable nourishment for hard-working adult human beings.

It started, probably, when people began to find out about things like vitamins. Now vitamins are all very well in their way, and a steady diet of salt pork and boiled potatoes is probably a trifle heavy for city folk.

But once science reared its ugly head in the kitchen, it opened the way for all manner of abuses, and the voluntary dietary advisers lost no time in taking advantage of it. They began with desserts, and the way their minds work can be gauged by the fact that they actually tackled a dressmaker's word like "chiffon" onto a sturdy thing like pie. They debased ice cream by discarding the freezer and chilling into solidity a series of weird mixtures of tints and flavors in the ice tray—each mixture guaranteed to provide at least one lump of pure ice to the spoonful.

From desserts they moved on to salads. They took to grating carrots and chopping nuts, to launching bananas in oceans of mayonnaise, to throwing at homo sapiens whole platefuls of raw vegetables as if he were no better than a rabbit. They erected fairy concoctions of gelatin, tomato juice and whipped cream—fair to look at, but passing strange to the palate.

They put whipped cream into soups and breakfast foods into custards. They turned puddings from honest affairs of solid crusts and firm interiors into quavery, watery confections that will collapse at a touch. They sinned against the potato, by slicing and perforating it into unearthly shapes and then frying it to brittle tastelessness; against the egg by forgetting that the egg was designed by Providence to nestle, sputtering, against slices of fried ham; against bacon, by slicing it thin as tissue paper and broiling it within an inch of its life.

But enough has been said. The Michigan editor has the right idea: old-fashioned recipes for old-fashioned foods. Cannot something be done to make this a great, nationwide campaign?

WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON—It may be that the government has been so busy with heavy affairs of state that it has at times overlooked the finer things of life, but the Washington press corps in recent weeks has been really getting at art for art's sake.

Some time ago it was recorded here that the WPA, in an unexpected fury of house cleaning, swept the treasury press room clean of an accumulation of bizarre art that was without known rivalry. It included bathing girls, girls who were about to bathe, and nudes of real artistic merit which had found their way to magazine covers and the color art of some Sunday supplements.

Associated with it were descriptive lines of such a hearty nature that few "gal reporters" ever presented themselves at the press room—one purpose of the display.

In a desperate effort to retrieve their masculine isolation, the treasury reporters framed and hung a dozen or so photographs of just plain, unbleached nudity.

But the tone is gone, and the sponsors can only brazen it out until an opportunity comes to chuck the lot for something better. The state department press group fell into no such error. The department recently cleaned up their quarters and offered a press committee the choice of several hundred treasury and WPA art works by artists "on relief."

The art they left behind must have been a prize lot, for the pieces the committee members chose were street scenes in front of negro dives all done in smoky hues of red, purple and brown. This they pugnantly insisted was the "pick of the lot."

But there is a more conservative wing among the reportorial art lovers. For instance, the National Press club's display piece, hanging opposite a herdman with his sheep, is such a canvas as might have been retrieved from above the bar of some old-time Reno saloon. It harks back to the days when visiting artists, down on their luck, were paid by saloon keepers in proportion to the amount of pinky feminine flesh they could paint above the bar without including unartistic details.

TEX'S TOPICS

As we write this the mercury in the office thermometer is bobbing around in the nineties, giving rise to the thought that it is a swell day for a May walk, or something. . . In fact it is a swell afternoon to lie around on the sandy beach and acquire a No. 1 suntan, listening the while to the great waves breaking and rolling beachward. . . It's remarkable what a keyed-up imagination can do for you. . . Just about the time you are carried to the heights, walls of the castle crumble, and you come tumbling back to earth and tasks that have to be done.

Bob Castle, the radio announcer, was busy the other afternoon building a cage for his pet snake. . . Of all things! . . . The Rev. Will C. House, Methodist minister, writes to agree that American radio announcers "hop up" their announcements and descriptions too much and that the should take a lesson or two in simplicity from British radio voices. . . Well, there's something about fighting a microphone that makes a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde out of you. . . Probably like the fellow who said that every time he stands up to speak, his voice sits down.

If a winning smile counts for anything—add it to her many other qualifications and Ina Mae Dean, Miss Pampa of 1937, should click in the Texas Sweetheart No. 1 contest at Fort Worth on June 5. . . There is some talk of a Mrs. Wally Warfield-Duke of Windsor mock wedding here as a feature to open the Top O' Texas Fiesta, June 3. . . Pampa's Mrs. Toy Johnson, of course, (if the plans go through) would be cast in the role of Wally. . . Mrs. Johnson has been signed, because of her striking resemblance to Mrs. Warfield, to play the role in the Cavalcade of the Americas show at the Dallas Pan-American Expo this summer. . . Now, who in Pampa appears like the Duke of Windsor? . . . Step right up, please. . . The Duke and Mrs. Warfield actually will be married on June 3 in France.

Shrimp is something of which we are fond. Not the two-legged kind, though. . . Silence, they say, is the best answer to calumny. . . However, it seems that a good smack on the jaw ought to produce more satisfaction. . . No takers yet for Fred Cullum's 500-yard golf ball drive. . . Little Billy Hector will speak a piece at the Wells Corner schoolhouse commencement exercises on Monday night, which are being held this year four days ahead of the Pampa High school graduation in the city.

Progressive hoboes will prick up ears at news of Detroit's vitamin pellet theft, which took less trust than window-sill pie snatching. . . A psychologist says being in crowds releases people's emotions, but who wants to make love in a Cuyler-st. traffic jam? . . . President Roosevelt probably found the unhappy part of his Gulf fishing trip was unsnarling the backlash at Washington. . . An Ohio lad's school absences were found to coincide with the baseball club's home dates, proving that youth still must have its inning.

The Communist menace has been smothered, but we still have that cornfield parasite, boring from within. . . As used in fortune telling, spades are the worst suit of cards in the deck. They denote treachery, disappointment, ill luck, and even death.

Yesteryear In Pampa

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY Louis Cox, J. F. Lard, and Lester Sills were in Lubbock, delegates from the Pampa post to an American Legion convention.

Half a million gallons of water was used in the city, setting a new record for a day's consumption.

W. M. Lewright and C. T. Hunkapillar flew to Texarkana on a business trip, a front-page news item in 1927.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY A special edition of the Daily News heralded the first annual Frontier Days celebration. County and Panhandle history was included. Sheriff Lon Blancett was named as chairman of the celebration; C. H. Walker, president, and George Briggs, manager, of the chamber of commerce, R. S. Brashers, president, and Frank Hill, secretary, of the Junior Chamber of commerce, were leaders of preparations.

For several years depression deepened in spite of everything, and now recovery rises in spite of everything.

That Yellow Stuff That's Piled Up in the Basement

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—One of those mishaps of no consequence bobbed up in the theater the other evening and gave the audience a giggle at what ordinarily was supposed to be a serious moment. The play was the late Sammy Shipman's "Behind Red Lights," a drama based on recent headlines, and as the scene in question began to unfold Bruce MacFarland, playing a gangster, was supposed to whip a revolver out of his pocket and shoot Dorothy Hall, who, having fallen in love with the district attorney, had betrayed the gang. At the appointed moment Bruce dragged at the gun, but it stuck in his pocket, and for a moment he experienced an agony of exasperation. . . Had this happened in real life, our tough fellow would have been ridiculed by a return fire—it took him that long to wrench the gun free—but in make-believe play, of course, Miss Hall faithfully stood by until he extricated his shooting iron and gave her the works. Another incident which happened some time ago—before Noel Coward left, in fact—gave that sharp-witted author-actor an opportunity to spray the audience with one of his extremely opportune quips. It happened during one of the "Tonight at 8:30" playlets, and Coward was out near the footlights. Gertrude Lawrence, down stage, crossed the "boudoir" an attempted to turn out the lights. She pressed the switch but nothing happened. Then, several heartbeats later, the lights faded out and flashed back on. . . "Ah," murmured Coward, "this house must be haunted."

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGEM

Fellow fishermen who knew him say that Clyde Long who was Methodist minister here before Gaston Foote, was in the best caster ever seen in these parts. They say he could cast a plug farther than anyone in this country. They say that Clyde Long was not happy here; he was too far away from water that had fish in it, and Clyde Long always had a deep and perpetual need for water near. They will tell you that Clyde Long's face grew sad and became set in a continuous mold of longing. They, referring to his fishermen friends, say that Clyde Long lived all his life in east and north Texas around streams and lakes. "You notice where Long moved to when he left here," his friend will say, "Why, he moved to Sweetwater where there is a big lake." They say that Clyde Long kept in practice while he lived in Pampa by casting by the hour in his back yard. . . and there's many a Pampian who keeps brused up on his casting by throwing the line over the grass. One day this week, two enthusiastic fishermen, Harold Simms and Joe Vincent were trying out Harold's new reel with one of Joe's plugs. It looked funny to see them casting over the grass in the bright sunshine late in the afternoon, but probably that's how V. L. Boyles, D. C. Kennedy, and other top-notch fishermen got their start.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The kiss, long the big punch in movie love scenes but lately under wraps, is returning in its glory. It is coming back even in that hackneyed fade-out cliché which for a while went under cover while sophisticated cynicism and comedy ruled the casting. And next year's kisses—currently in process of manufacture in the sound stages of Hollywood—are going to be something else again. Next year's kisses if what goes on here is an indicator, are going to be gentle and a little more lingering than they have been in the past few years. That fade-out kiss between Jean Harlow and Robert Taylor in "Personal Property" was a fair sample of what to expect. It was the most prolonged ostentatious these eyes have seen since the movies went pure back in 1933. But it was a comedy kiss, and that makes a difference. The Garbo-Gilbert kissing marathons of old weren't supposed to be funny. See Economic Reason

COTTON QUILTS USED TO BUILD TEXAS ROADS.

AUSTIN, (AP)—Texans use old-fashioned cotton quilts to build concrete highways. Cotton quilts—which officials say are nothing more than quilts—are used in "curing" newly laid pavement. It started as an experiment to develop a new use for the state's crop but officials found that the quilts when wetted and placed on new paving for 72 hours were more efficient than burlap—imported from India—for their purpose. The moist cotton maintains a constant temperature and prevents the surfacing from cracking. The department has used some 20,000 quilts. The same mat can be used many times.

How's Your Health?

Edited by DR. IAGO GALDSTON for the New York Academy of Medicine

IN CASE OF SUNBURN When the body is exposed to excessive heat, no matter what its source, a burn is likely to result. The heat from the sun is no exception to the rule. Should one carelessly or thoughtlessly expose oneself to the "heat of the sunlight," a burn of the first, second or third degree may be the result. A first degree burn implies merely a reddening of the skin. In a second degree burn there is a more severe inflammation of the skin, with the likely formation of vesicles or blisters. In a third degree burn there is an actual partial destruction of the skin. A severe sunburn is no laughing matter. Local symptoms are those of pain, inflammation, the formation of blisters and possible stinging of the skin. Together with these are associated constitutional symptoms such as headache, fever, diarrhea, the appearance of albumin in the urine, irregularity of the pulse, etc. Severe complications may follow a third degree burn. The treatment of sunburn will naturally depend upon its severity. A mild sunburn may be treated by a tub bath in slightly alkalized water, or by the standard home remedy of applying a mild solution of vinegar to the burnt parts. If constitutional symptoms are present, such as headache and malaise, the sufferer should go to bed and remain there until the symptoms have disappeared. To the most severely burned areas one may apply compresses carrying a saturated solution of baking soda or magnesium sulphate. When large blisters form, it is desirable to puncture the blisters and allow the accumulate serum to escape. The overlying skin, however, should not be torn away. In the more severe form of burns, a mild solution of piperac acid may be applied to the affected parts. Such a solution should be composed of 5 grams of piperac acid dissolved in 50 cc. of alcohol, to which is added enough distilled water to make a total volume of 500 cc. Care must be taken not to apply the piperac acid solution over too large a skin surface, because in such cases the piperac acid may be absorbed in sufficient quantities to cause poisoning. Fluids should be taken in large quantities, together with extra amounts of table salt. Exports of machinery from the United States during the first month of this year were valued at $17,273,000, the highest monthly value since 1930 and a 19 per cent gain over January, 1936.

So They Say:

If in the coming years I can show my gratitude in service to you, that is the way above all others that I should choose. —George VI, in a speech after his coronation.

Parole today is becoming one of the major menaces of our country. Through its misapplication, convicts are freed with little or no supervision, and often with no sound reason for release. —J. Edgar Hoover.

SIDE GLANCES

By George Clark

to kissers generally used to be "Make it short and snappy." And Mervyn LeRoy says, "There, that's right. Put some feeling in it, a little passion!" An Endurance Kiss Mark The love scene between Ian Hunter and Kay Francis in "Concession" is one of the longest filmed in recent months—longest in point of endurance kissing. It is the kiss that is supposed to seal their betrothal and it will occupy all the time and space on the screen permitted by the Hays office. Love scenes between Bette Davis and Henry Fonda in "That Certain Woman" are also unusually prolonged and tender, photographically speaking. Even Martha Raye and Bob Burns, if this keeps up, may go in for serious, constructive cinema kissing. The tender passion expressed by a gesture more tender than the passionate peck—that's the outlook for next year's kisses.

This, That and Everything

BY WILLIAM HUSLEY CLARK

Often we hear it said that the world has gone to the "dogs." Of course we all agree that such a statement is absolutely wrong, but pessimistic expressions do have a cause other than the melancholic attitude of some man we are often pleased to call a "crank."

The emphasis we place on the worst that men do and the relative quietness we maintain when no one deems an enacted could hardly be expected to produce anything different from what we have when we find such extreme pessimism. If some fellow gets a spirit of usefulness or displays some other time-honored virtues we hear little about it. But the moment a somebody kills somebody or perpetrates some other hideous crime, the papers are full of the dreadful details. Seeing that we are anxious to suppress the news of favorable behavior, and are constantly inclined to spread abroad the most unfavorable reports of human conduct, what else can we expect than that the public in general shall have reasonable grounds for becoming pessimistic.

BOOK A DAY

By BRUCE CATTION

Stanley Casson, British archaeologist, has written an eerie, challenging book in "Progress and Catastrophe" (Harpers; $2.75).

We all believe in progress as a natural law of human life. But the fact is, says Professor Casson, that it is no such thing. At least twice in human history progress has gone in to reverse, civilization has collapsed, and human society has spent several painful centuries going downward instead of upward.

He goes into a good deal of detail about one of these occasions—the fall of the Roman empire. There is no specific date for that fall, he points out; no definite year of which we can say, "In this year Roman civilization disintegrated."

It was a slow process, and the people who lived in it did not recognize it as collapse at all. They realized that times were bad and that society had got itself into a jam, but they no more doubted that things would be set right in a few years than we today doubt that presently we shall witness the most brilliant progress of the last generation.

And it is Professor Casson's suggestion that our civilization also has collapsed without our knowing it. European society is splitting up into warring fragments. European influence is receding from the Orient. Dictatorship is spreading; human life is becoming insecure, men of affairs are expressing open contempt for men with trained minds (remember the jibes at the "brain trust?"), peaceful cities are subjected to military attack, international exchange of goods and money is broken down. All of this looks like collapse to Professor Casson; not like approaching collapse, but like the result of a collapse that has already happened.

ball has had its major scandals, but no one has ever suspected that the outcome of a university game was "fixed."—Dr. B. L. Stradley, Ohio State University.

I would like to see a crop of lawyers developed with more genuine, humane ambition to benefit the poor and unfortunate clients, rather than mainly themselves. —Clarence Darrow, eminent lawyer.

ONLY 4 AND HALF GAMES SEPARATE LEADERS FROM BROWNS IN AMERICAN

INDIANS LICK RED SOX AND PAGE LEAGUE

(By the Associated Press)

The whole thing doesn't make as much sense as an insane asylum, but the figures show the American league is off to a closer and more completely unlooked for start than it has been in years.

By the end of the first month last year, five games separated first and fourth place. This season, the race was regarded as New York, Detroit, Cleveland and nothing much else. But so far it's been as tight as a mustard plaster—so close, in fact, that only 4 1/2 games separate the leaders of the moment, Cleveland's Indians, from the cellar riding St. Louis Browns.

And most astonishing of all is that the longest of the long shots, Connie Mack's mystifying Athletics, are in the second place—so close, in fact, to the Yankees and Tigers. They were on top until yesterday, but the Indians licked the tar out of the Boston Red Sox, 16-5, while the A's dropped a 3-2 decision to the Tigers, which gave the Tribe the pace by a percentage margin.

Hottest of all right now are the revived Washington Senators — and their sudden form reversal is just as explainable as the rest of the league's ways. Although their pitching still is in a sorry state, the Nats are starting to hit, and on this strength alone have won their last four straight to climb from eighth to fifth. It took two twirlers and 12 innings before they finally overcame the Browns yesterday 5-4 on Ossie Blue's timely single.

Thornton Lee found out the Yanks are still his "boys." The White Sox southpaw became the first flinger of the year to whip the hitless world champions twice by muffling them with three hits for a 3-1 win, thereby dropping them to third place.

Altogether, every outfit but the Tigers and Browns changed places yesterday. Mickey Cochrane's crew held fourth with their decision over the Athletics, achieved through Roxie Lawson's sixth victory of the season. The Red Sox dropped to seventh, the White Sox, whipping the Yanks, advanced to sixth.

Featuring the national league lurching for the third straight day, the Giants and Cardinals wound up their three-game series with New York on top 7-4 on the strength of Dick Bartell's ninth inning homer with the bases loaded.

Roy Parmelee not only pitched a seven-hitter, but blasted a homer with two aboard as the Cubs clouted the Brooklyn Dodgers 6-1. Vince DiMaggio banged out a pair of homers and the Boston Bees knocked off the Reds, 4-1, Pittsburgh's pace setting Pirates cashed in on Bill Swift's six-hit flinging for a 5-2 triumph over the Phillies.

CARL HUBBELL CALLED 'STAR OF THE NORTH'

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—Although pressed closely by five other players in both leagues, Carl Hubbell was big league baseball's "star of the month" in the opening 30-day period of the season.

The Giants' great lefthander was named five times during the month in the Daily Associated Press daily list of "Yesterday's Stars," one more than each of his nearest rivals—his teammate, Dick Bartell, Van Mungo of the Dodgers, the Cardinals' Ducky Medwick and Dizzy Dean, and the Detroit Tigers' Gerry Walker.

A total of 17 players from both leagues were mentioned three or more times.

PRESTIGE AT STAKE

KANSAS CITY, May 21 (AP)—With only prestige at stake, John Henry Lewis of Phoenix, Ariz., world light heavyweight champion, will meet Jack Kranz, rugged Gary, Ind., heavyweight, in the 10-round main event of a fight card here tonight. Lewis was expected to weigh 178, and Kranz 155 pounds more. Lewis defends his title against Bob Olin June 3 in St. Louis.

MARION MILEY WILL DEFEND GOLF CROWN

SAN ANTONIO, May 21 (AP)—Four Curtis Cup team stars, a bevy of state champions and a fresh crop of youngsters converge on San Antonio June 1 for the start of the eleventh annual women's trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Stender Marion Miley, the Lexington, Ky., mentor, will defend the title she won last year at Denver, against a field blessed with quality and quantity.

Three of her Curtis Cup team companions, dynamic, freckled Patty Berg of Minneapolis; Mrs. O. S. Hill, the Kansas City veteran and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, Ft. Worth, Texas, were listed among the foremost challengers.

The homelink, however, leaned toward Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas, former Texas and Old Mexico champion and twice medalist of the women's southern. She was almost reared on the sloping fairways and greens of the San Antonio Country club course, scene of the meet, and gives par a scare each time she blasts off the first tee.

Still another San Antonian rated high was Miss Betty Jameson, the 18-year-old schoolgirl state champion and former southern titleholder. For their "dark horse" entry, San Antonio offered Mrs. E. R. Hury, a former women's golf noted for prodigious wood shots.

Lucille Robinson Mann of Mill-walk, Patti Newbold of Wichita, Kas., a former champion; Helen Hoffman and Betty Botterill of Salt Lake City and Mrs. R. D. Roper of Phoenix, Ariz., recent winner of the Southwestern, were other links luminaries listed as definite entries by the tourney committee.

SOFTBALL TEAMS PILE UP 'FOOTBALL' SCORES

Only managers of two home teams reported games in the City Softball league play last night and the scores sounded more like football than softball. Coltexo "B" and Shell set a new high for the season with Coltexo winning 27 to 25. Clasyby's Dusters and the Jaycees tried but failed to reach that mark, the Dusters winning 23 to 17.

A strong wind blew fly balls far and wide, mostly wide and runners crossed the plate almost at will. Rough diamonds also played a part in the wild scoring bees. Lack of pitching finished the tale of woe.

Two more teams have made applications for entry in the City league. Decision on their entry will necessitate holding up the league schedule for a day or two, probably until Sunday.

CATS CAPTURE 2ND PLACE IN TEXAS LEAGUE

(By the Associated Press)

Where They Play Today
Beaumont at Dallas
San Antonio, whose bat- tlers had to take on the fearsome scowl as challenger to Beaumont's Texas league pacers.

The Cats worked themselves into the No. 2 spot last night on the strength of some good pitching by Jackie Reid and a little help from Galveston, which was knocking over Oklahoma City, previous contender.

Reid pitched a fine game against San Antonio, whose batters had to be content with six hits, while Fort Worth messaged Lefty Mills for five hits and three runs in the fourth inning. The score was 4 to 1.

The Panther rise to a contending position was the fruit of a sustained drive which netted them 10 victories in 13 starts.

Dallas made Beaumont's grip on the lead more precarious than ever, suddenly coming to life with a pitching and batting combination that caught up with and passed the South Texans, 9 to 8. A young Slovenian named Frank Ennis rushed to the mound for Dallas in the first inning, when old Fred Marberry cracked. Beaumont scored two in the third and one in the fourth against him but from there on out he was as tight as a drum, allowing no runner past second and grand slam shots.

In the fourth the Steers batsmen regained a semblance of their 1936 slugging form and rushed across four runs. At the end of the eighth they had tied the game up. In the ninth Les Mallon smacked out a double to score a runner from second.

Three pitchers couldn't match the performance of Galveston's Eddie Cole and Oklahoma City lost 9 to 1. Houston swapped cellar positions with Dallas in dropping their second straight game to Tulsa, 5 to 4.

WILCY MOORE SAVES GAME FOR K. C. BLUES

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—Remember old Wilcy Moore, the slinker ball expert who did some great relief pitching for the New York Yankees a decade ago?

He's still around, saving games for other Kansas City pitchers in the American Association warfare. He was rushed into action last night at Indianapolis after the Indians had filled the bases and pitched in old-time form to stop the rally without a run being scored. He was nicked for five hits during his two and a fraction innings of service and was scored on twice in the ninth, but was still good enough to save the Blues, 8 to 6.

McBRIDE NAMED HEAD OF TEXAS FEDERATION

TYLER, May 21 (AP)—A. S. McBride of Houston is the new president today of the Texas Federation of Labor.

He and other officers were chosen at the state convention yesterday, the results of the election being announced last night.

Beaumont was chosen convention city for 1938.

The other officers were: Alfred Bailey, Fort Worth, Emily Jordan, San Antonio, Harry Acerman, El Paso, W. W. Finch, Amarillo, W. J. Fox, Dallas, William R. Tooley, Fort Arthur, J. S. Arant, Brownsville, vice presidents ranked in that order; L. C. Johns, Longview, reading clerk; L. M. Barber, El Paso, sergeant-at-arms, and Wallace Relly executive secretary.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Dick Bartell, Giants: His homer reported games in the City Softball league play last night and the scores sounded more like football than softball. Coltexo "B" and Shell set a new high for the season with Coltexo winning 27 to 25. Clasyby's Dusters and the Jaycees tried but failed to reach that mark, the Dusters winning 23 to 17.

A strong wind blew fly balls far and wide, mostly wide and runners crossed the plate almost at will. Rough diamonds also played a part in the wild scoring bees. Lack of pitching finished the tale of woe.

Two more teams have made applications for entry in the City league. Decision on their entry will necessitate holding up the league schedule for a day or two, probably until Sunday.

FELLER PITCHING HALTED. WASHINGTON, May 21 (AP)—Manager Steve O'Neill announced today that Bob Feller, the Cleveland Indians' youthful strikeout king, would do no further pitching on the club's current eastern trip which ends May 27. O'Neill's announcement came after Feller reported his "million dollar" right arm felt weak and that some trace of soreness remained.

JOHNNY MORROW ADDED. DALLAS, May 21 (AP)—The Dallas Steers have added Johnny Morrow, Texas A. & M. infielder, to their roster. Morrow signed a contract with the Chicago White Sox and was farmed out to the Texas league club with instructions for a thorough trial. The Steers also are slated to get outfielder Foster Smith, another Aggie who signed with the White Sox.

Baseball's Only Woman Scout Lists Conquests!

McKINNEY, May 21 (AP)—Baseball's only woman scout—Mrs. Roy Largent—with thirteen seasons of combing the minors for talent behind her, laid aside her sock darning today to tell tales of "her boys."

Scout for the Chicago White Sox, she has sent many a star to the Windy City. Luke Appling, the 1936 batting champ, was her find. Zeke Bonura, slugging first sacker, another. And then there's Monte Stratton, Rip Radcliffe, Johnny Whitehead, Vern Kennedy and others.

The warm spot in Mrs. Largent's heart, however, belongs to Stratton. Hean six-foot, five-inch twirler with two well-pitched shutouts on his record already this year.

Just a boy of 19 in overalls when found by Mrs. Largent, Stratton had much to learn. Eager, however, he was a frequent visitor at her home and was most adept at lifting Mrs. Largent's gingerbread cookies from the jar.

Most interesting of all her "boys," however, was Art (Whattaman) Shires. Her story of Shires:

"I like Art Shires because he was husky, aggressive and could hit the ball a mile. I found him with Waco in 1929 and upon my recommendation it was agreed we'd buy him."

"But Shires had other plans. He didn't get a cut of his purchase price so he jumped the club and we lost him 'somewhere in Texas.' I was told to go out and find him."

"After weeks of traveling I found him playing semi-pro ball at Baytown and Lampasas. It took a lot of money but he was finally persuaded to join the White Sox. I told Mr. Comiskey, club owner, that Art was the fighting type. He wired back 'fine, that's the kind of a player we need.'"

"But I guess my boy Shires carried it a little too far when he hit Lena Blackburne, the manager of the Sox. In general, he just conducted himself more like a pugilist than a star ball player."

"I like the men who have fire and hustle," she said. "They're too loose of arm and body helps. To be a good major leaguer, good size is necessary. You've got to be a good hitter to last."

Mrs. Largent's husband, Roy, accompanies her on all trips and is a No. 1 ivory hunter himself. Every day during the baseball season they see a game somewhere. More often than not, it is two—once it was four.

Scouting today is harder, what with the advent of night baseball, Mrs. Largent said.

"You've got to see what a player can do in the sunshine before passing final judgment. Past ball pitchers at night usually don't shine so well in the day."

Today, the Largents, having signed three bright prospects out of the Southwest conference, left by automobile for Louisiana. They'll drive 60,000 miles, touring the smaller leagues looking for new timber.

hurler, went 12 innings in the other game to achieve his fifth straight victory of the season, 3 to 2, over Louisville.

MAJOR LEAGUE CRIPPLES JUST NOW BEGINNING TO RECOVER

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. NEW YORK, May 21 (AP)—The cripples are beginning to recover, but for the first month or so of this baseball season major league managers have found it necessary to read hospital charts and X-ray plates, rather than batting averages, before they could name their daily lineups.

Disregarding spring training troubles, every major league club has been affected to some extent by either illness or injury, with Chicago's Cubs easily topping the list. The roll still is growing. Joe Cronin, Boston Red Sox manager, suffered a cut cheek when a thrown ball hit him Monday. His regular catcher, Rick Ferrell, got a broken throwing hand the same afternoon. Then young Bob Feller of Cleveland, whose publicized sore arm had kept him idle since his first game, had a workout and remained in the game just long enough to walk one batsman.

The Cubs' hospital list now has dwindled considerably, but since the campaign began it has been something like this: Pitchers, Curt Davis, "dead" arm; Tex Carleton, chipped bone; Larry French, broken hand; Clay Bryant, broken arm; Gaby Hartnett, sore arm, then a split finger; Bob Garbarik, broken finger; Ken O'Dean and John Bottarini, minor hurts; infielders, Bill Jurges, broken wrist; Bill Herman and Ripper Collins, minor injuries.

Two serious operations have been performed on prominent ailing ball players. Paul Dean of the Cardinals, running mate of his more famous brother, Dizzy, had a piece of cartilage removed from his shoulder in an effort to fix up the sore arm that forced him into retirement last season. Jake Powell of the Yankees had his appendix removed.

In addition the Yankees' young Joe DiMaggio was absent awhile for removal of his tonsils after his throwing arm began to cause trouble. Hank Lauer of the Giants wound up in a hospital after Feller beamed him in an exhibition game.

Difficult to classify are the unidentified illness that has kept Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe from taking his turn and caused him to be "laid off" until he was in shape, and John Whitehead's lack of girth control which made Manager Jimmy Dykes suspend him until he got into condition.

Others laid up at one time or another include: Wally Berger, Bees; Leo Durocher and Johnny Mize, Cardinals; Joe Stripp, Babe Phelps and Randy Moore, Dodgers; Frank Gabler, Giants; Lloyd Warner, Pirates; Ernie Lombardi, Reds; Bill

Dickey, Yankees; Johnny Allen and Bruce Campbell, Indians; Tommy Bridges, Tigers; Larry Rosenthal, White Sox; Cecil Travis and John Riddle, Senators; Jimmy Foss, Fabian Gaffke, and Bobby Doerr, Red Sox.

CALIFORNIA PLANTED FISH REAPED AN INDUSTRY. SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sixty-six years ago 12,000 young shad were transplanted from the Hudson river to California waters and two years later 35,000 more were transferred. Today shad is an important commercial fish from Monterey bay to the Columbia river and is found in lesser quantity from Mexico to Alaska. It cost the government less than $4,000 to do the stocking and commercial fishermen have taken in an estimated $400,000 as a result.

Milk cows in the United States reached a five-year low of 25,040,000 at the beginning of this year but an increase is expected in the next three years. More than 30,000 different kinds of rubber articles are in general use in the United States, the manufacture of which gives direct employment to 150,000 workers.

PRISONERS IN MEXICO CITY GIVEN 'SCIENTIFIC' NAMES

MEXICO CITY, May 21 (AP)—Prisoners are no longer to be called "prisoners" in Mexico City. They are, in the language of newly promulgated regulations of the federal district penitentiary, "natural biological units susceptible of correction."

A far-reaching experiment in penology, the plan—which seeks above all else the regeneration of criminals—drew mingled snickers and praise.

Especially did humorists find to their taste the high-flown description of the occupants of the "penitentiary" and these provisions henceforth governing their life behind bars:

1. For work in prison shops they are to receive the minimum wage—2.25 pesos, or $61 U. S.—established by law for the federal district.
2. They may organize, like other workmen, in unions.
3. Out of their wages they must pay for food, clothing and living quarters (jocksters particularly liked the idea of prisoners renting their cells), which, it was estimated, would total some 1.60 pesos daily.
4. All left over is to be divided thus: 40 per cent for those who suffered by the inmate's crime; 30 for his family; if any, and 30 to be put away against his departure from the prison.

Furthermore, the prisoner is to be insured—like other labor, again—against illness or accident.

Half the profits from the sale of goods manufactured by the labor of the "natural biological units" is to go to a security fund; the other half will be reinvested in prison workshops.

Outgrowth of the first national criminological congress here last year which urged all penal establishments be put under the control of experts versed in new methods, the regulations, prepared by the interior department, got President Gardenas' prompt approval.

They define the institution's purpose as the "social readaptation of delinquents," with work as the "means of regeneration."

Henceforth criminals entering the penitentiary are to be classified as to criminal tendencies, personal habits, and former environment, motives of their crimes, type of crimes and the like, and psychoanalyzed to determine the needed treatment.

Reserved to the prison warden is the right to take steps to maintain order, but otherwise the inmates may organize freely to improve their "physical, moral, cultural, economic and social condition."

The conservative newspaper Excelsior, giving approval to the step, called it "ample and generous."

It remarked that "an atmosphere of skepticism and pessimism" met most such measures but said "regenerating methods ought, nevertheless, to be attempted" for the regeneration of one single criminal makes the effort worthwhile.

Granite Shaft Commemorates Mackenzie Deeds

PLAINVIEW, May 21 (AP)—A granite shaft commemorating General Ranald S. MacKenzie's expedition that broke the power of the Indians on the Texas plains will be unveiled at the ninth annual pioneer roundup here May 22.

The monument, placed at a spot on the Hale county court house square here where, early residents recall, once were marks of the old Mackenzie trail, it will be unveiled by Col. R. P. Smyth, one of the first residents of Plainview. As an early day surveyor he laid out many Texas Panhandle towns.

Ten Comanche Indians led by Baldwin Parke of Cache, Okla., a grandson of Quannah and Cynthia Ann Parker, will erect tepees and participate in a pioneer parade in full Indian costume. Relics and curios will replace merchandise in many store windows and clerks will wear early-day dress.

The 50th anniversary of the establishing of the Plainview post office also will be observed. A "golden wedding circle" composed of couples married 50 years or longer, ex-drawn vehicles, a cowboy and cowgirl group, chuck wagons, and other units with a frontier flavor will compose the parade with Hale County Sheriff J. K. Cooper marshal.

Early plains residents from several states have indicated intention to attend. The day's activities for the pioneers will end with a square dance.

Organization of coast-to-coast air service in Canada is proposed in a bill introduced in the house of commons.

She had been avoiding coffee put up in paper bags. But a friend was so enthusiastic about Admiration—"In the 'CELLOPHANE' bags, you know"—that she tried it. She found it just as fresh and good as the coffee in glass jars and vacuum-packed cans. AND about 4c per pound less in price! Admiration's triple-sealed bags—inner wax lining, tough bond wrapper and moisture-proof outer jacket of Cellophane—plus fast truck delivery from roasting plant to your grocer, make Admiration in bags the ideal way to buy coffee. The thrifty housewife who demands full value for her money will appreciate the savings afforded by buying Admiration packed this way. Admiration Coffee in bags comes in two grinds—Dripkut and Steep Cut—just as it does in vacuum-packed jars and slip-covered tin cans. Duncan's Admiration Coffee.

IF SENATE BALKS, PRESIDENT WILL TOSS COURT BILL INTO HOUSE, OBSERVERS SAY

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Pampa Daily News Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 21.—One of the next bills to be introduced in the Senate may be a surprise administration move to throw the issue into the House.

Whether this strategy will be employed depends largely on whether Roosevelt decides to keep on fighting with no material compromise and whether he can get what he wants from the Senate.

If Supreme Court decisions on the Social Security Act weaken the administration in the Senate, you may expect a shift of battleground. This shift might come after Roosevelt had been voted down in the Senate on his minimum demands, or it might come as soon as it became obvious that opponents in the Senate definitely had an edge.

Presumably it would be necessary to launch an administration drive for 219 signatures necessary to get the President's bill out of the House Judiciary committee and onto the floor. The bill was promoted in the Senate instead of the House because Chairman Hatton Sumners of the House Judiciary committee refused to cooperate with the White House.

Majority Leader Sam Rayburn privately boasts that he can deliver a majority of a hundred votes for the President's plan. All members of the House were elected in November's Roosevelt landslide, and all will be up again for election next year—a fact which tends to strengthen the administration's hand there.

The idea of administration leaders is that they could jam the full original plan through the House, get the best possible bill in the Senate by whatever compromise might be necessary, and finally fight out the issue in conference committee. That, at least, would be a logical sequence of events if Roosevelt decided to bill the issue through but found his position weak in the Senate.

Where Will He Wind Up?
Most recent counts, subject to change in the wake of the social security decisions, found the administration workers claiming from 49 to 51 votes and opposition leaders claiming about the same.

The reason no one could be deemed certain of his own estimates, however, has been in the fact that many assurances of votes have come second-hand. Friends and colleagues often have reported that so-and-so's vote could absolutely be depended upon when there was no word whatever from the senator himself.

One senator has just returned to Washington from a long absence and taken a flat-footed position for the first time. But a very important political figure from his home state has assured leaders on the other side that he will see to it that this senator's vote is with them when the time comes. Thus the question is left just where Senator — will wind up.

Some May Resign
The most likely basis for the eventual compromise, assuming that the President doesn't have to accept a considerable measure of defeat, would be something like this:

1. Extension of the age provision to 75 years instead of 70.
2. Limiting the President to appointment of four justices instead of six—thereby providing a court of only 15 men even if no resignations occur in the meantime.
3. A court limited to nine or possibly 11 justices, its size to shrink back to that number as justices in excess of it retired.

That's about as much, Roosevelt's lieutenants are thinking as he can concede if he is going to insist on victory. An uncertainty complicating this picture, however, is the possibility that certain justices will resign before the court fight is over in Congress.

Brandeis is Weary
No one has any assurance that any of the justices will resign after the present court term. But few would be surprised if from one to five justices did decide to resign this summer.

Friends of Justice Brandeis think it not unlikely that he will soon quit. He has been showing signs of age. Recent rumors that he would be asked largely on the fact that he is 81 years old, the oldest member of the court and tired.

The Irish Free State includes three southern provinces of Ireland—Leinster, Munster and Connaught—and three counties, Cavan, Donegal and Monaghan of the Province of Ulster.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, May 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt received many gifts on his trip through Texas recently but the one which took his eye especially was a yearling Hereford presented by the Agricultural and Mechanical college.

Gov. James V. Allred, who accompanied the President to College Station and Fort Worth from Galveston, said the yearling an unusually fine specimen of his breed, will be sent to Mr. Roosevelt's farm in Georgia.

Knowing the President's love for fine stock, the college paraded its best animals before him, tendering the Hereford as a climax.

Other gifts from various persons included a model oil derrick constructed from the original timbers of the Spindletop discovery well near Beaumont, one of the most famous gushers.

The President was greatly pleased at his reception not only at College Station, but all along the route, the governor reported upon returning to Austin.

Mr. Roosevelt expressed appreciation for the honor of membership on the board of directors of the college conferred on his son, Elliott, who lives near Fort Worth.

He said the college was an "inspiration to me" and voiced happiness that "my small boy has something to do with it." The small boy is a six-footer.

He wise-cracked that he always had understood that A. & M. was a constitutional institution "but if it isn't where do they all come from?"

Gov. Allred said the President was given an ovation virtually all the way through Texas.

NEPOTISM VIOLATIONS IN CAPITOL CHARGED

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, May 21 (AP)—The practice of hiring kinsfolk by state department heads and legislators in violation of anti-nepotism laws "still is bad" in Texas.

That was the opinion expressed by members of a special House investigating committee in a report prepared for presentation today.

"In certain instances," the report said, "we have found members of the same family on the payroll, some working in one department and some in another. In other instances there are brothers of members of the legislature employed in state departments, wives, cousins, uncles, nieces, fathers-in-law and brothers-in-law."

The committee expressed the hope it might go into the matter more fully.

OLEANDER FETE BEGINS.
GALVESTON, May 21 (AP)—A 3-day festival in tribute to the oleander got under way here today. The program calls for sailboat races and dances today; a maypole pageant with thousands of children participating is set for Saturday afternoon.

Saturday night, Miss Kaitha Humphreys, queen of the fete, will reign at a oleander ball. Sunday afternoon a spectacular oleander parade will be held on the seawall boulevard.
