Steel Editor Makes Suggestion For Bargaining

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) -The editor of Steel Magazine today suggested negotiators for the United Steelworkers Union (USW) and the basic steel industry "reinstitute the 120-day bargaining period."

Walter J. Campbell indicated it was unreasonable to expect an agreement in the steel industry before the present May 1 strike deadline because 21/2 months of the original negoviating time has passed.

Campbell described steel negotiations as "a mess," and blamed the situation "solely (on) political wars within" the union. He urged the battling USW factions to get together. Suggests Commission

An agreement should reached between challenger I. W. Abel and USW international President David J. McDonald to establish a bargaining commission." Campbell said, "and to abide by whatever agreement is reached, regardless of the outcome of the union's political contest.'

This is a time to set aside politicking and display statesmanship to protect workers and the economy from further harm," Campbell said.

"An excessive emotional impact on the economy" is likely to be felt with the inventory. building, later liquidation of strike hedge material and what Campbell called the inevitable decline in the economy because 'liquidation recessions are tricky and difficult to control. Encourages Buying Abroad seeded Villanova is a six-point favorite over Manhattan but second-seeded New Mexico rates only as "pick 'em" against St John's tonight when the 28th annual National Invitation Tournament advances into its quarterfinal round at Madison Square Garden.

Villanova carries a No. 11 national ranking, a 21-4 record and string of 11 victories in its last 12 games into the tournament while New Mexico makes its first appearance in the 14team scramble with a 19-7 record and a 55.6-point-per-game detensive record that is the best in the country.

Hawks Snap Laker String

By United Press International The St. Louis Hawks snapped the Los Angeles Lakers' fivegame win streak Sunday night when they defeated the National Basketball Association Western Division champions, 115-108.

Coach Fred Schaus' Lakers proved they couldn't do without the services of the great Elgin Baylor and Jerry West despite a slim 58-53 halftime lead.

Baylor has been bothered by his knees again and played only 18 minutes on Saturday when the Lakers downed the Hawks 106-101. He did not suit up Sunday. West, who piled up 37 points in Saturday's game, played only 17 minutes in the first half Sunday and 10 minutes in the second half. He reinjured his back while going in for a lay-in in the first half.
