Red Guerrillas Storm US Special Forces Camp

Families Meet Heroes

SAIGON (UPI) — Fourteen Americans were killed and 10 others wounded today when 1,500 Communist guerrillas stormed through a U.S. Army Special Forces camp and captured a district town 60 miles north of Saigon. An air-ground counterattack failed to dislodge the guerrillas and heavy fighting raged throughout the day. The 14 American deaths were the biggest U.S. loss in any single battle of the Viet Nam war.

A U.S. Navy flier was killed today during a raid on North Viet Nam when his A1 Sky-raider fighter-bomber crashed into a ridge and exploded during an attack on the Co Chinh power plant 80 miles south of Hanoi.

Wednesday in major battles within 100 miles of Saigon. Two battalions of guerrillas launched the assault just after midnight, pouring more than 200 rounds of 600-millimeter mortar fire into the camp. The defenders were outnumbered five-to-one.

More than nine hours later, government relief forces finally landed in the area aboard troop-carrying helicopters from Ben Cat, 40 miles to the southwest. They ran into heavy Communist fire.

HOUSTON (UPI) — The happy astronauts, James McDivitt and Edward White, returned home to their families today and the start of a week-long round of ceremonies in honor of their record space flight.

They landed at nearby Ellington Air Force Base at 9:30 a.m., CST. Around 200 newsmen and officials were on hand to greet them.

The two astronauts were finally home after a historic four-day series of orbits around the earth in a Gemini-4 space capsule the size of a couple of phone booths.

They were taken to the aircraft carrier USS Wasp for three days of debriefing and medical examinations. The Wasp came into port at Pensacola, Fla., early this morning and a crowd of 3,000 on hand to cheer the heroes as they strode down the gangplank and onto a red carpet.

A band played "happy birthday" in honor of McDivitt who is 36 years old today, and then went into "Around the World in 80 Days." Gov. Haydon Burns presented the astronauts a plaque of the great seal of Florida and told them: "Welcome to terra firma, welcome back to the United States and welcome to the great state of Florida."

It was the first public welcome for the astronauts since they were hurled aloft one week ago today, to spend four days in space. They were plucked from the Atlantic Monday, and taken aboard the Wasp to undergo a series of debriefings.

McDivitt and White were on the ground only about 10 minutes, speaking briefly to the governor, before they walked further along the red carpet and clambered aboard a twin-engine jet waiting to take them to Houston and their wives, children and parents.

"Thank you," both men replied to Burns when he presented them with the plaque. The governor added to McDivitt: "Happy birthday."

"We got started here in Florida and ironically we ended up here," McDivitt said referring to the launching of their flight from Cape Kennedy.

The Gemini-4 capsule, the astronauts' home in space during their flight, was visible on the deck of the carrier.

Police expected some crowds along the route leading from the air base to the astronauts' homes near the Manned Spacecraft Center that directed their historic mission.

The big crowds were yet to come in a week of criss-crossing the country as the nation's newest space heroes.

A farewell dinner was held for them aboard the Wasp Wednesday night.

Rain to Stay Another Day

Raincoats and galoshes are the order of the day for Pampa and Panhandle residents tonight and tomorrow with more thundershowers forecast.

Pampa caught .21 of an inch of rain Wednesday night and the weatherman said the showers would continue through Friday evening.

Violent spring storms unleashed a death-dealing lightning bolt, tornadoes and crop destroying hail in the Texas Panhandle Wednesday for the second consecutive day.

The other twisters reported struck near Dumas, Enochs and Bula. The tornado which hit near Dumas demolished a garage at a farm, the Enochs tornado churned harmlessly along the ground and the Bula funnel cloud only toppled a truck.

Heavy rains and hail were reported in all three areas, with three inches recorded in Bula.

The heaviest rains reported came in the Mazareth community, five miles east of Dimmitt, where four inches fell.

Golf ball sized hail pounded Amarillo for the second straight day, and along with heavy rain flooded underpasses on U.S. Highway 287 north of the city.

The skies turned black in the Amarillo area during the storm and hail caused damage to automobiles and smashed a number of downtown store windows.

Rainfall amounts for the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m. included 2.37 at Amarillo, .76 in Dalhart, .28 in El Paso and other lesser amounts.

Lazbuddie, about 80 miles southwest of Amarillo, was hard hit, but many cities and towns in the Panhandle received some damage as a result of the storm.

The twister which struck near Lazbuddie also toppled utility lines and demolished five oil well derricks.

Three inches of moisture—a combination of rain and hail—fell on the small town and one farmer, S. K. Platt, said his wheat crop "is about gone" and 80 per cent of his cotton was destroyed.

Other severe crop damage was done near Muleshoe, where a tornado ripped up phone lines. Agriculture agents estimated about 1,000 acres of cotton destroyed by the hail.

The heaviest rains reported came in the Mazareth community, five miles east of Dimmitt, where four inches fell.

Golf ball sized hail pounded Amarillo for the second straight day, and along with heavy rain flooded underpasses on U.S. Highway 287 north of the city.

Further Study Asked On City School Track Project

The proposal for construction of a track at Pampa High School's athletic field was relegated into the "further study" stage at today's school board meeting.

Board members also heard School Superintendent Jack Edmondson recommend against the hiring of a full-time track coach.

On the track construction, Edmondson told the board the project would require a considerable expenditure.

The superintendent said he was not "playing down" the need for a track, but added that there were other badly needed school improvements on the priority list.

"This sizeable expenditure would require a bond issue," Edmondson said.

The other needed improvements, he stated, include at least two new school cafeterias and repairs at Pampa Junior High School and gymnasium.

Thirty Youngsters in Final Round of Big Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Thirty youngsters squared off today in the finals of the 38th annual National Spelling Bee.

They are what's left of the original 70 local champions from 11 through 15 years old who competed in Wednesday's opening round. Words such as condominium, portucullis, pickerel, leprosy and pulmonary helped eliminate 19 girls and 21 boys.

The spelling bee and its preliminary contests across the country are sponsored by Scripps-Howard Newspapers in 16 cities and Sunday and daily newspapers in 53 more cities. The winner will get $1,000 in cash, a trip to the New York World's Fair and the title of the nation's champion, speller.

Decision Delayed On Ratable Take Gas Case

AUSTIN (UPI)—Attorneys for both sides in a test case of the Texas Railroad Commission's ratable take gas decision headed back to their law libraries today. Their final arguments will be heard in mid-July.

Judge Herman Jones of 53rd District Court interrupted attorney Dee Kelly of Fort Worth Wednesday to ask if Rio Grande Valley Gas Co. would face stiff state fines for refusing to pay prevailing field rates for gas which the commission told it to buy from Russell Maguire of Dallas.

Rio Grande is seeking an injunction to stall enforcement of the order, claiming that the commission's milestone ruling quotes no price or rate, making it too vague to follow.

Kelly, lawyer for Maguire, said Rio Grande should follow the lead of other firms facing similar rulings and pay Maguire what it pays other contract producers in the West. Port Isabel field in Cameron County.

Goldwater Being Eased Out of GOP Limelight

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
With certain royal privileges excepted, King Hassan II has in his four years of rule attempted to turn Morocco into a western state.
Among the exceptions is the right to resume personal rule at a time of emergency. This he has just done.
His action stemmed from three months of political deadlock in which he sought a government of political union. But his troubles also are economic.
Hassan draws his support from a loyal and disciplined army and from Morocco's rural population which is both devoutly Islamic and devoted to the monarchy.
His opposition comes from both left and right. On the right is the nationalistic Istiglal party which is loyal to the crown but demands a larger voice for Morocco in the Sahara and opposes foreign investment.
On the left, it is the National Union of Popular Forces which draws its strength from city intellectuals, labor unions, students and others influenced by such Socialist revolutionaries as President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic and President Ahmed Ben Bella of neighboring Algeria.
Giving voice to the political opposition is a steadily deteriorating economic situation which in April led to bloody rioting in Casablanca, Fez, Marrakesh and the capital of Rabat.

Pampa First In Safety on Streets

Pampa, according to a national safety magazine, ranks first in the least number of traffic deaths inside the city limits for the first three months of 1965.

Pampa was compared with other cities in the 10,000 to 25,000 population bracket. During the first five and one-half months of '65 the city has recorded no traffic deaths.

Prowler Calls Probed By Police Department

Pampa Police investigated three prowler reports Wednesday night, but no arrests were made. Prowlers were reported in the 2000 block of Clifford street and in the 700 block of N. Dwight.

Robber

(Continued From Page 1) rained in in the Sandhills. He had three or four days to loaf around, shoot the breeze in the beer parlors, and learn the lay of the land. People around Big Springs can still remember Duane Pope from that time.

At college Duane was the kind of guy everyone seems to like and — in retrospect — nobody really knew.

He was a good enough defensive football end to make All-Kansas Conference. And he was leader enough to be elected co-captain of the football team along with his roommate, Nick Petrucci of Trafford, Pa.

"He hated to hurt things," Petrucci recalls. "I remember one time he asked me not to step on a spider crawling across the floor of our room. He said 'Let it live.'"

"He was a great guy, one of the greatest guys I ever will know," Merlin L. Frantz, dean of academic affairs at McPherson, remembered "he's the kind of fellow who always had a grin. He was the kind of fellow you expect to find walking down the hall smiling at you."

Buddy Taylor of Thomas, Okla., quarterback on the football team: "He was always by himself. Girls liked him, but he didn't make a play for them."

And assistant football coach Don Widring: "I don't believe I ever saw Duane with a girl in four years."

But there were girls. There was Ramona Lowe of McPherson, daughter of a retired United Brethren Church minister.

"I don't think many people tried to like him," Ramona said. "He was shy and withdrawn. He'd blush when a girl said 'Hi' to him."

And there was another girl, after Ramona. She attended McPherson for one semester and left without giving a reason. Today she was under police guard at a home for unwed mothers in Fort Worth, Tex. Her baby was born Monday.

Sometime shortly after the slaughter at Big Springs, police believe Duane telephoned the girl at Fort Worth. On May 20, he priced a second-hand gun at Carlos Crabb's town and country store in McPherson, went away and came back a week later. This time, Crabb said he could have a 22 automatic Strum-Ruger—a nine-shot weapon with a six-inch barrel — for $37.50. Ten dollars down and the rest on time, Crabb said. It was a deal. Three days later, Duane Pope became a bachelor of arts. That day, he told Ramona Lowe he planned on working around McPherson. He told his older brother Gerald he didn't quite know what he planned to do.

At that moment, Duane Pope had more than $1,000 in bank loan debts, a caterpillar tractor and an ancient but sporty 1939 Buick convertible which he had bought with his wheat harvest earnings last summer.

But now, the college graduate was taking it easy back home. A week ago last Wednesday he borrowed $50 from his father. He said he was going to Oklahoma to look for work — any kind of work.

And the melodrama of Big Springs began. At Salina, Kan., early last Thursday, a gangling young man came to Phil Martin's car rental agency and rented a 1965 light green, two-door, Chevrolet Impala. He signed the rental papers Duane Pope.

That evening, just before dark, the green Chevrolet wheeled up to a motel at Ogalala, Neb., a storied cattle trail town 450 miles from Salina and 22 miles from Big Springs. The long-jawed, long-limbed young man with the gold-capped front tooth who was driving registered as Duane Pope.

He checked out at 8 o'clock the next morning. The daughter-in-law of the motel owner said the young stranger sat in his car in the parking lot for an hour afterwards. He seemed to be reading.

The day was beginning in Big Springs. Andy Kjeldgaard and his brother, Carl, had owned the Farmers State Bank since 1927. They were first generation Danes and they had flourished on the prairies. Carl and his son, Wayne, 38, ran the family's considerable cattle and wheat operations. Andy and Carl's son, Franklin, took care of the bank.

"Andy could be a little hard-nosed about a loan," Deuel County Atty Robert E. Richards recalled. "But if there was somebody with a hard luck story or a kid starting off to college, he'd lend them money on nothing. A lot of people didn't know that."

There are only 510 persons living in Big Springs and nothing much has happened there since outlaw Sam Bass and his gang held up a Union Pacific train at the depot in 1877 and got away with $60,000 in gold. It is a free and easy place, with a rich flavor of the West. A sign close to town says "Warning: Swedes on their way to town have the right of way."

Financial Gossip

BY JESSE BOGUE
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Most cheerful noise on the sound-track, for motion picture producers' stockholders, is one which was for long silent: The sound of the builder's hammer.

The nation's seven largest producing companies have been reporting on their first quarter results, and all showed gains over the corresponding period of the previous year.

With this rise in earnings, according to Ralph Hetzel, acting president of the Motion Picture Association of America in a statement released here, has come announcement of expansion plans by some major studios.

Music Corporation of America, parent company to Universal Pictures, plans to start construction of six to eight new sound stages soon, at the Universal City lot outside of Los Angeles. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Inc. has taken an option on 1,500 acres in the Conejo Valley northwest of Los Angeles and plans to build a new studio.

Twentieth Century-Fox plans to build three new sound stages at Beverly Hills; Columbia Pictures Corp. plans to start soon on three new sound stages, and has future plans for four more and a 13-story building on its Hollywood lot. Warner Bros. Pictures Inc. is spending $5 million to modernize 27 sound stages. The MPA reports.

While all these call for capital expenditures, they are an indication of industry belief that, whether the outlet be a drive-in theater or the TV screen at home, there is an attractive future ahead for the motion picture makers.

Nor has the stronger financial picture of the past quarterly financial period been confined to the picture makers; major theater circuits also have reported increased earnings for the three months or six months period.

ROBIN HOOD BARRED
LEAMINGTON SPA, England (UPI)—Robin Hood has been barred from entering the midland counties and South Wales archery championship tournament here because he is too young. The namesake of the legendary hero of Sherwood Forest is 17. Minimum age for the 100-year-old tournament is 18.

INTEREST IN LOUIS
BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI) —The Hungarian news agency MTI Wednesday reported "great interest" in the forthcoming appearance here of Armstrong and his band. It said 72,000 tickets already had been sold for his concert in Budapest.

Make a Mint Tulep for a Change

When the temperature soars and the sun seems bent on making this the hottest summer yet, thirsts will welcome a change of pace in the usual iced tea or iced coffee.

Though most of us have a favorite way of making tea and coffee already, a review of tips for getting the best results can be helpful.

Always start with a sparkling clean coffeepot or teapot. Use standard measuring spoons and cups to measure coffee, tea, and water.

Always start with freshly drawn cold water. Bring it to a vigorous rolling boil before adding it to tea leaves, ground or instant coffee. Just hot water won't give the best flavor. But never boil tea or coffee.

Be sure to have the right grind coffee for the type of coffee being used.

To make delicious iced coffee, choose from three methods. For iced coffee quickly, make double strength coffee (4 level tablespoons coffee to each cup water). Use percolator, drip or vacuum method. Pour coffee at once over ice in tall tumblers. Add pure cane sugar and cream to taste.

The ahead-of-time way is to make regular strength coffee. Cool it in a glass or china container. Cover and keep in the refrigerator. For freshest taste, serve within three hours, pouring over ice cubes.

Iced coffee instantly is made by placing in each tall glass double the amount of instant coffee you would normally use for a cup. Add several tablespoons of hot water and stir to dissolve. Add ice and cold water to fill the glass; stir well.

When tea is the order, remember to rinse the teapot out with boiling water to heat it before brewing tea. And brew the tea only 5 minutes. It becomes bitter if allowed to stand on the leaves too long.

To make refreshing iced tea, pour 3 cups of fresh, rapidly boiling water over 2 tablespoons of loose tea, 6 tea bags or 4 level tablespoons of instant tea. Cover and brew 5 minutes. Stir and strain into pitcher of 3 cups cold water. Pour tea into tall ice-filled glasses. Offer juicy lemon wedges and pure cane sugar.

People who have access to fresh mint leaves will enjoy Mint Tulep. Place 2 sprigs of fresh mint leaves, bruising them, into a pitcher with 2 tablespoons loose tea, 6 tea bags, or 4 level tablespoons instant tea. Pour in 3 cups boiling water. Cover and brew 5 minutes. Stir and strain. Stir in 3 cups cold water, 2 1/2 cup pure cane granulated sugar and 1/4 cup lemon juice. Pour into ice-filled glasses and top each with a sprig of mint and lemon slice.

Iced Tea Spiced is a cold version of that tea party favorite. Just combine 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg and 1 cinnamon stick in a pitcher. Add 2 tablespoons instant tea. Pour in 3 cups of boiling water. Cover and brew 5 minutes. Stir and strain. Add 3 cups cold water, 3/4 cup lemon juice, and 2 1/2 cup pure cane

Cover the food chopper with a clear plastic bag to keep it clean and ready for use.

Parsley will stay crisp longer if stored in the refrigerator in water in a tightly covered container.

Keep kitchen plumbing clear with this once a week treatment: pour 3 tablespoons of sal soda concentrated down the drain and run hot water until granules dissolve.

Young Birds Are Given Best Rating

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Q—What type of chicken is best for barbecuing?

A—A fryer or young bird is usually best for barbecuing, broiling and trying. Often you'll find it labeled as to use. That is, a fryer, broiler or roaster. Or it may be simply marked "young." If there is nothing to indicate age and only the kind of poultry appears on the label, the bird must be young. You may prefer a mature chicken for stewing or to use in a salad or creamed dish. Look for the words hen, fowl or stewing chicken on the label. Or if it's turkey you're buying, it may be marked mature, old or yearling.

Q—We expect 12 people at our big barbecue next week. Can you tell me how many chickens I should buy.

A—The Department of Agriculture recommends the following amounts of poultry per serving:

Chicken
Broiled or barbecued. 1/4 to 1/2 bird.
Fried, roasted, stewed about 1/2 pound.
Duck about 1 pound.
Turkey about 1 pound.

Pick the poultry you want, then, of course, multiply by the number of people you intend to invite.

To use the last bit of catsup in a bottle, pour in a small amount of salad oil and vinegar to make a tangy salad dressing. Line the backs of picture frames with strips of adhesive foam rubber to prevent rub marks on walls.

Blueberry strudel Add grated lemon or orange peel to whipped cream and serve.

Apple strudel Steep 1 teaspoon mint flakes in 1 table-spoon boiling water for 7 min-utes. Pour through a strainer and cool. Whip 1/2 cup heavy

Family Desserts

Climax your dinner tonight with a spectacular dessert—delicious apple strudel or any of the other three frozen ready-to-bake strudels: cherry, peach, or blueberry. In days gone by a dessert like this would have meant hours of work in the kitchen. Now it is so easy to serve strudel because it comes frozen, ready-to-bake. Ready for you to pop in the oven, and, since you bake it yourself, it has a homebaked taste.

The strudels are made of a light textured, flaky pastry and filled with a generous amount of fruit filling. Only the choicest fruits are selected: ripe Rio Oso peaches, plump whole cherries, succulent apples, and wild Maine blueberries.

To complement the rich fruit fillings, here are a few serving suggestions:

Blueberry strudel Add grated lemon or orange peel to whipped cream and serve.
Apple strudel Steep 1 tea-spoon mint flakes in 1 table-spoon boiling water for 7 min-utes. Pour through a strainer and cool. Whip 1/2 cup heavy

Food Buying Guide

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Week-end food shoppers will generally find that broiler-fryer chickens, eggs, and dairy products continue to rate the best buy levels, along with seasonal harvests of fresh fruits and vegetables.

At produce counters there cream, then fold in, 2 table-spoons sugar and minted water. Serve as topping.

Cherry strudel Serve with vanilla or your favorite ice cream.

Peach strudel Add a little ground nutmeg and cinnamon or allspice to whipped cream and serve.

will be plenty of fresh green beans, cabbage, celery, corn, cucumbers, greens, onions, radishes, and tomatoes, according to market reports of the Agriculture Department's Consumer and Marketing Service. Among fresh fruit selections are plenty of oranges, peaches, strawberries, and watermelons.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Newton D. Zinder of E.F. Hutton & Co., Inc. says it would not be surprising that analysts may eventually consider the current reaction not as the start of a bear market but rather as a healthy correction which served to extend the life of the bull market.

Colby & Co. Inc. says it does not believe the market has reached its high for this year and maybe for 1966 and continues to advise purchase of good stocks during period of market weakness.

Bache & Co. says it believes the market needed a rest after a good upward march and the profit-taking being experienced now is a normal occurrence in the bull market.

The International Statistical Bureau says the peak in the present bull market has not yet been seen and any further decline should not be marked or protracted.

Oppenheimer, Neuborg & Neu says it believes the present phase is just another consolidation in the bull market.

Spear & Staff says that while a breakthrough in the resistance levels in the market indicators may trigger a flurry of panic selling, it would be foolish to be frightened out of the

Recessions Suddenly Becoming Subject of Heated Public Debates

By JOHN PIERSON WASHINGTON (UPI)—The question of whether recessions are a thing of the past had been getting some quiet and scholarly attention both in and out of government until recently. Now it suddenly has become the subject of heated public debate.

The issue hit the front page when William McChesney Martin Jr., chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, saw "disquieting similarities" between the present prosperity and the fabulous twenties which preceded the great depression.

Martin rattled off a dozen "menacing" likenesses. "Then, as now, there had been virtually uninterrupted progress for seven years... then, as now, prosperity had been concentrated in the fully developed countries... then, as now, there was a large increase in private domestic debt... And most importantly, then as now, many government officials, scholars and businessmen were convinced that a new economic era had opened, an era in which business fluctuations had become a thing of the past, in which poverty was about to be abolished, and in which perennial economic progress and expansion were assured."

Martin didn't name names; but the "government officials" he was talking about are primarily President Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers. Last month, in a report to Johnson on the current 51-month business expansion, the council had this to say:

"It is premature to say that business cycles have been eliminated. But we now know that there is no necessary reason why any expansion must end in 26 months, 36 months, 50 months, 80 months, or any other arbitrary length of time."

That isn't saying recessions are a thing of the past, but it comes pretty close.

Martin's reserve board is charged with keeping the supply of money and credit growing just fast enough but not too fast for a balance expansion of the U.S. economy. As an independent agency, it can and does act independently to tighten or loosen the money supply.

But Martin cannot afford to ignore the President's wishes. And Johnson is basically an easy money man.

The President's natural liking for easy money gets scholarly support from his economic advisers. The council's three members are Johnson's personal economists. And while they may disagree with him in private, in public they are always with the Chief Executive.

Trouble Brewing in U.S. Economy

JOHN PIERSON
 United Press International
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Is the U.S. economy headed for trouble?

Last week Federal Reserve Chairman William McChesney Martin Jr. noted "disquieting similarities between our present prosperity and the fabulous twenties" and said the federal government must be ready "to prevent orderly expansion from turning into disorderly boom."

Only a few days before, Gardner Ackley, chairman of President Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers, declared that manufacturers' prices have been "edging up." He said the price movement had been slight so far but that it was just enough to be disturbing.

These statements — sobering enough in themselves — followed government reports showing that such key business indicators as personal income, industrial production and retail sales slowed their advance in April.

The fact is that few government analysts had expected these indicators to continue climbing as fast as they did during the first three months of the year when the economy was regaining lost ground.

Auto production and sales fell off last fall when Ford and General Motors were closed by strikes and the economic indicators sagged. During the first quarter, Ford and GM were back at work and auto dealers were racing to make up lost sales.

In addition, steel users stepped up their already high rate of buying during early 1965 in anticipation of a strike May 1. All this helped to give the indicators a hefty upward push.

But as early as March, administration economists were cautioning against "over interpreting" the first quarter statistics. Officials warned that the economy could not possibly maintain the first quarter's pace all year. The $1.75 billion excise tax cut and the retroactive increase in Social Security benefits, both written into President Johnson's January budget and both due to take effect this summer, were designed deliberately to help take up this slack.

But a lot of people didn't listen. Ackley therefore felt obliged to say again that the expansion "is going to slow down a bit in the months ahead, as compared with the first quarter's booming rate of advance."

He stressed that the council still is sticking to its January estimate of a $660 billion gross national product for 1965.

But what about Ackley's "disturbing" price increases and Martin's "disquieting similarities" between the present prosperity and the roaring twenties? Actually, both statements were directed at a single question but from different viewpoints: Should the government tighten money so as to raise interest rates?

PLASTICS FIRE
 LONDON (UPI)—Fire caused an estimated $2.8 million damage to a warehouse near the Fenchurch Street railroad station. Contents included 10 tons of plastics.

More than 200 firemen fought the flames, bringing the fire under control three hours after the first alarm was turned in.

SIX SENTENCED
 MOSCOW (UPI)—Tass, the official Soviet news agency, reported that a Russian court has sentenced six Soviet citizens to death on World War II war crimes charges.

The court ruled that the six defendants collaborated with the Nazis in killing inmates of concentration camps at Auschwitz and Buchenwald.

Chanel Dresses Down Parish Fashion Press

ELEGANT TRIO — It's great to be glad you're a girl. And that's the message that came through from most of the Paris spring fashion collections. Marc Bohan for Dior used wide pleats to shape a shirtwaist dress and create a swiny, feminine skirt (left). Still in the feminine mood, Chanel (center) made impressive use of rainbow colors to highlight this white tweed suit. From Pierre Cardin (right) comes the epitome of slender elegance. Long tunic with softly rolled collar tops a slinky, kilt-pleated skirt.

By HELEN HENNESSY
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — When Chanel chooses to stir up a bit of controversy, there's trouble as well as love in the air under Paris skies. And right now the colorful grande dame of Paris fashion is lashing out at the fashion press.

It's rare for Chanel to champion the designers in the Paris couture group. Often they are the targets of her verbal barbs. She has even been known to assert that "when they run out of ideas, they copy Chanel."

But it's easy to understand why she chose to be their spokesman this time. Page after page of raves for Courreges designs—skirts ending at mid-thigh, boots for everything but sleeping, five-gallon hats tied with a bow, sunglasses with just a slit to see through—prompt me to tip my hat to Mademoiselle Chanel for objecting to the over-rated applause his collection received.

Although Andre Courreges states that he designs for the individual woman and would not put an 83-year-old client into a short skirt, only the very young can wear the kind of fashions he showed in his spring collection. Yet because it got such big play, too many foolish women old enough to know better are wearing what they consider the "latest" from Paris. And they look grotesque.

It is certainly true that when something completely different is launched from the Paris collections, it must be reported as news. But when the drum is beaten so loudly that every other voice is obscured, something is wrong with the reporting.

Molyneux, who returned to fashion after a 15-year absence, showed handsome clothes. They had all the restrained elegance associated with beautiful women who appreciate and can afford deceptively simple styles. His return should have been big news. Yet the lukewarm reception he received in the Paris press showed he would have a fight on his hands to buck the beatnik tide.

There were beauty and elegance in abundance in Bohan's collection for Dior. His clothes were not aimed at an age, but were for all women.

Chanel herself indulged in a flurry of frills, flounces and ruffles, feminine enough to make any woman believe she is pretty.

Balenciaga, St. Laurent, Pierre Cardin—all turned their great talents toward the soft, elegant mood for spring. Only Courreges showed "tough chic" even for formal wear. And because he was different, he was hailed as a nauseum.

Chanel chided the Paris press for speaking of his designs as architecture and art and a peek into year 200. "Who wears art?" she asked. "The couture if for now and it's a business." It's difficult to disagree.

Anyone who has seen photographs of all the collections from Paris will admit that most women will look charming in American copies of almost all the couture clothes. But only a few will win admiration of the so-called "tough chic" of Courreges, as it was seen in the collection.

When I look at these "architectural" designs that to me seem to belong in a bad play about outer space, I am reminded of a remark made by a friend, a sophisticated old-hand in the fashion business.

"You be chic," she told a young assistant in a brief skirt and boots. "I'll be pretty." And she was—in a Chanel suit.

Women are on the crest of the open-shoe wave, a fashion for several seasons. But it's far from over. Spring's shoes are re-opened all the way. Some are simply a sole with delicate strands of leather laced across the top.

WMU of Central Baptist Has Meet

Executive board of Central Baptist Church WMU met recently with Mrs. R. C. Brown offering the opening prayer. A discussion was led to see if each circle wanted to contribute to send a counselor to GA camps in July. Mrs. Wayne Cobb closed the board meeting with prayer.

The program began with the group repeating the watch word and Mrs. J. P. Adams presented the prayer calendar and offered the opening prayer. Wanda Smith Circle presented the program, "Missionary Associate."

Mrs. Hal Brown gave the opening devotional. Others on the program were Mmes. Wayne Cobb, Lela Gomer, C. G. Miller, Maggie Deal and Paul Howard. Mrs. Brown closed the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. R. C. Brown conducted the business meeting. The minutes were read by Mrs. Richard Johnson who also gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Adams gave the GA report and Mrs. Cobb gave the stewardship report. Mission study was stressed. Each member was asked to read a book and attend mission programs.

The group voted to meet in Fellowship Hall for the summer months for general missionary programs. The society voted for each circle to give a love offering to send a counselor to GA camp in July.

Community missions project for June will be to bake cookies for Vacation Bible School.

Mrs. Billy Fulcher submitted her resignation as chairman of the nominating committee. Mrs. Leon Brown was elected to fill this position.

The most popular lengths in pearl necklaces are the single, 22-inch matinee length, double, matinee length, 30-inch opera length, and the single or double choker. The Jewelry Industry Council reports these are all styled to accent the fashions of this season's clothes.

Store canned foods in a cool, dry place where they won't be subjected to freezing temperatures.

DEAR bad look sonality

Dear Abby... Cigar Smoker Is Or Hopes To Be Many Things

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a man who constantly smokes cigars?

CURIOUS
DEAR CURIOUS: He is courageous, self-confident, masculine, sophisticated and uninhibited. Or would like to be.

DEAR ABBY: My sister, who is planning to be married in September, has a problem I think maybe you can help her with. (I'll call her Sharon.) Well, Sharon borrowed her girl friend's wedding gown because she didn't want to go to the expense of buying one. About a week ago Sharon's fiancé's aunt, who lives in Texas, sent her a beautiful brand new bridal outfit. This woman has never met Sharon, but because Sharon's fiancé is her favorite nephew she wanted to do something real nice for his bride. The outfit looks very expensive and it seems a shame for her to spend all that money on a bridal outfit when Sharon already has one. And besides, Sharon would much rather have a TV set. Should she keep it? She hates to hurt her girl friend's feelings by not wearing the gown after accepting it. But she doesn't want to hurt her fiancé's aunt's feelings, either. What should she do?

HER SISTER
DEAR SISTER: Although the aunt meant well, she should not have sent a bridal outfit as a gift without knowing whether or not it was needed—or wanted. Sharon should return it with a letter of thanks, explaining that she has her bridal ensemble. But no mention should be made about what she would prefer instead, unless she is asked.

DEAR ABBY: I am 21, not bad looking, have a good personality but I am a little shy until I get to know a person. I don't have a steady boy friend. I work in a large office building, and I keep running into a very nice-looking young man who must be about 24 or 25 years old. I know he's noticed me, but he has never made any effort to get acquainted with me.

One of the girls who works where I work was with me when he passed by and she said she didn't know his name, but she knew in which office he worked and she was sure he wasn't married. I would like to meet him. I have an idea that he would also like to meet me, but he is also shy. How do I break the ice? A nice girl can't just start talking to a strange man, can she?

SHY BUT INTERESTED
DEAR SHY: No, a "nice" girl cannot just start talking to a strange man—but if you want to "break the ice"—crack a smile, and leave the rest to Providence.

DEAR ABBY: Your advice to 17-year-old girl who became fascinated with the stranger who dialed her number by mistake, was good. I hope she takes it. Four years ago the same thing happened to me, only I wasn't a 17-year-old kid. I was old enough to know better. I should have hung up the moment I heard that deep resonant voice. It changed my life.

GROOM (Spl) — Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eschle entertained with a birthday party Sunday honoring three of their grandchildren, Mrs. Jon Pomroy of Emory, Billy Raymond Fields and Johnny Eschle.

Those enjoying the occasion were the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eschle, Mr. and Mrs. George Eschle and Johnny, Mrs. Pete Fields, Mrs. Arletus Ruthardt and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Fields and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clive Cline and children of Panhandle and Mrs. Jon Pomroy of Emory.

A greater and more elaborate use of precious colored stones makes the new pins, bracelets and earrings sparkle plenty. Emeralds, rubies, sapphires and diamonds abound in the newest gold jewelry designs. The unusual combinations of precious and semi-precious stones mark a new trend. Sample: a large bracelet paved with turquoise and rubies.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 11

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Most everyone is so determined to get his or her way that you have to be very careful or that they do not unintentionally make you angry because of their preoccupation with their own success. Take time out to be thoughtful and kind and you win where others lose out.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) — Much trouble can come if you do not pay your obligations on time, be they in business or personal life. Don't be envious of others. By the same token, do not be taken in by others.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Avoid arguments with partners and show understanding courtesy instead. Steer clear of those who want to tell you what to do all the time. Use your own good judgment and logic.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — You may be called upon to do more than you are inclined to step out for fun. You could easily spend more money than you can truly afford. Endeavor to sort. Grow.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) — Home life could prove to be very frustrating today. Get information you need, but not all at the expense of others. Be pleasant.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Spend your time finding ways to be more economical and you will not get into trouble. Show others you are a level-headed person.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — If you do not control that temper of yours, much trouble can ensue. Diplomacy will also include your romantic life.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Although you are bogged down with private worries, do not take your ire out on wrong people. Be charming, especially in business. Get love life on a more even keel.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Whatever you have planned to do in the hope that your pals will assist you must await a better day. They are too busy. Avoid going after what is not worthwhile.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — If you observe every law and rule that applies to you, you can certainly keep out of trouble today. Remember that conventional practices are the norm. Be wise—keep them.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Do not jump right in and make radical changes as yet which new friends that you can order. And then you can listen to about the only thing that could possibly sound any better: The price of one of these racy new Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Coupes or Convertibles.

Death Preferred to Life Following Nuclear Attack

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Defense Secretary McNamara recently projected 80,000,000 American fatalities in the event of a surprise nuclear attack.

As a result, I understand there has been some official criticism of that "apathy" of ours toward the adoption of a national fallout shelter program. The dictionary's definition of apathy is "indifference; disinterest."

I, for one, am only too happy to confess my indifference and disinterest in a fallout shelter program. What's more, I know why I feel apathy toward it. I know that were I to survive the poison of radioactivity by reason of the protection afforded me by my fallout shelter, I should emerge from it into a wasteland so terrible to me that I should die anyway of the poison of unimaginable grief.

No matter how efficient was my shelter against incineration and radioactivity, it could not shelter me. It could not shelter me against the wish to die along with everything else I hold dear—my fellow humans who didn't make a shelter in time; my country's ruined hills, the water of its rivers and brooks lost to steam; its earth fused into glass by unearthly heat. So all the efficiency of my fallout shelter would have gone for nothing. I'd be dead in a day of grief for the dead world.

Are my reasons for "apathy" toward fallout shelter programs also your reasons? If so, I think we should all get together instead of just going on letting the shelter promoters criticize our "apathy" as though it were a kind of dull and stupid insensitiveness to facts.

Sometimes I wonder if these promoters know anything about love or grief.

Sometimes I wonder at the

No Rest for Weary Willie As He Paces Giant Wins

By United Press International
A weary Willie Mays has a bad cold and would dearly love a "real day off" if Manager Herman Franks could afford it. Franks would be glad to oblige, but if he had rested Willie in either of the San Francisco Giants last two games, they would have lost. Because Willie played, the Giants won both.

"I wish to (Franks) would tell me just to stay away from the park for a whole day," Willie sighed after the Giants had beaten the New York Mets 4-2 Wednesday night on his two-run homer and run-scoring single.

Mays has been "rested" several times this season, but he has appeared in every game—usually as a pinchhitter in a critical situation when he isn't in the starting lineup.

"For me, that's tougher than playing nine innings," Mays explained.

Realizes Condition
Franks realizes Mays' condition, but he's a fresher manager trying to win a pennant in a pressure-packed National League race and has little choice.

Mays understands and he said he'll play as long as Franks wants him in the lineup. "I'm not going to ask him," Willie said. "He's under a lot of pressure."

In other National League games, St. Louis whipped Cincinnati 6-4, Philadelphia topped Los Angeles 7-3, Chicago stopped Milwaukee 4-2, and Pittsburgh beat Houston 11-3.

Mays, who won Tuesday night's 2-1 game with a two-run double, cracked his 18th round-tripper in the first inning Wednesday and after Charlie Smith had tied it for the Mets with a two-run blast in the fourth, Mays plated the decisive run in the eighth with a single.

Gaylord Perry scattered eight hits and struck out nine to pick up his sixth victory and Jack Fisher, who had a three-hitter entering the eighth inning, lost for the fifth time.

Tony Taylor hit a three-run homer and Bobby Wine accounted for two more with a single as the Phillies routed Dodger rookie Mike Kekich in his major league debut. Chris Short (5-6) beat the National League leaders for the third time this season, striking out eight and yielding 10 hits.

The Pirates rapped 19 hits en route to their 17th victory in 19 games. Vern Law (4-5) allowed just five hits while picking up his fourth consecutive triumph. Gene Alley drove in three runs with three hits and Roberto Clemente, Donn Clendenon and Jim Paggiaroni each contributed three safeties to the Pittsburgh attack against loser Don Nottebart and two relievers.

Bill White and Ken Boyer slugged back-to-back home runs in a five-run fourth inning for the Cardinals. White's blast accounted for three runs off loser Joey Jay. Curt Simmons (4-6) was the winner with relief from Tracy Stallard and Barney Schultz. Deron Johnson and Don Pavletich homered for the losers.

Ernie Banks raised his league-leading runs-batted-in mark to 48 with a three-run homer that was decisive in the Cubs' win—over Milwaukee. Wade Blasingame was the victim of Banks' 11th round-tripper. Cal Koonce was the beneficiary, earning his fourth win on a yield of four hits, including Felipe Alou's seventh homer.

Monday Leads Sundevils Over Ohio State, 9-4

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — Rick Monday and his Arizona State teammates carried the favorite's banner today against St. Louis University in the home stretch of the NCAA college world series.

Arizona State, which downed St. Louis in a first round game, was the only undefeated team in the double-elimination tournament. The Sundevils meet the Ellikens tonight following a second clash between Washington State and Ohio State.

Monday, a 19-year-old sophomore who was top choice in the major league draft, homered, doubled and singled Wednesday night as the Sundevils trounced Ohio State 9-4.

Monday singled in the first inning during a six-run rally which put the game on ice before the Buckeyes for the Big Ten came to bat. He homered in the second with one on base and got a double in the seventh inning.

It was the first defeat for the Buckeyes in the tournament, and the Ohioans will have to whip Washington State again in order to qualify for another shot at the high-flying Sundevils.

Arizona State ripped sophomore ace Steve Arlin for six runs in the first inning. Arlin, trying to come back after only two days rest, was tagged for four hits and a walk before he was replaced by senior right-hander Ron Kitchon, who held the Arizonans at bay until the ninth inning when the Sundevils added two more runs.

Only two of the first inning runs were earned as the Ohio State defense collapsed. The Buckeyes, who had played nearly flawless ball throughout the NCAA tournaments, committed four errors, two of them of the two-base variety.

In other games Wednesday, St. Louis eliminated Florida State 5-3 and Washington State downed Connecticut 3-1 on a two-run triple by John Olerud.

Injury May Halt Matson

FORT WORTH — Randy Matson's strained left knee is acting up again and the world's first 70-foot shot putter may bypass the NCAA track and field meet next week, the Star-Telegram reported Wednesday.

"I talked to Randy today," Texas A&M Coach Charley Thomas told the Star-Telegram, "and he says the knee is throbbing more than ever. He was told if he laid off practice for two weeks, the rest would strengthen the knee. It hasn't." Matson is employed in Houston this summer. He was to have the knee examined by Dr. Tom Moore today.

The sophomore injured the knee last winter stepping from a cab. He had the knee bandaged when he reached 70 feet 7 inches in the Southwest Conference meet a month ago.

The NCAA meet starts June 17 at the University of California's Edwards Stadium in Berkeley.

—Shot put trials are June 17 and finals June 18.

Ump Cuts Kaat's Sleeve, Scissors Twins' Skein

By United Press International
Samson drew strength from his hair. Jim Kaat was bolstered by his left undershirt sleeve. And scissors brought disaster to both.

Kaat was involved in a dispute Wednesday night similar to the incident of the tattered shirt that first made American League pitcher Johnny Allen famous in the 1930's.

The Minnesota Twins lefty was protecting a 1-0 lead in the ninth inning with one out and a 2-1 count on Rocky Colavito when Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbets stopped play and complained to plate umpire Bill Haller that the sleeve of Kaat's sweatshirt had a hole in it and that it was distracting the batter.

After retiring to the dugout to have two inches of sleeve cut off, Kaat returned to the mound and walked Colavito. Max Alvis followed with a game-winning home run providing Cleveland with a 2-1 decision.

Completing the American League action, Boston topped Chicago 4-2, Washington edged Baltimore 3-2, New York belted Kansas City 5-1 and Detroit slid by Los Angeles 4-2.

replacing Howie Koplitz. Ed Brinkman hit a two-run homer in fifth for the Senators. Mel Stottlemyre allowed six hits and struck out 10 and Tom Tresh and Joe Pepitone each slammed two-run homers for the Yankees against the A's Diego Segui. Stottlemyre lost his shutout in the ninth on a double by Nelson Mathews and a single by Mike Hershberger.

Good Weather Vowed For Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — The weatherman promised hot, humid but sunny conditions for the start today of the Cleveland Open golf tournament, the second-richest event on this year's tour.

The total purse is $125,000, including a $25,000 winner's share. An additional $10,000 was offered for Wednesday's pro-amateur event.

Only the $200,000 Claring Open is richer.

This is the third annual Cleveland Open and everyone is wondering if it is going to have the same kind of ending as the first two.

Arnold Palmer won the inaugural in 1963 in an 18-hole playoff with Tony Lema and Tommy Aaron. Lema came back last year to show Palmer a thing or two and won the tournament in a single hole sudden death finish.

Palmer, nursing a heavy cold, flew to his home at Ligonier, Pa., Wednesday night to see his physician, but planned to be back for his scheduled tee time.

Lema, whose victory Sunday in the Buick Open was his first win this year, is here to defend his title.

A field of 144 golfers teed off on the 6,321 yard Highland Park course today. The municipally-owned course, celebrating its 50th anniversary, is a par 36-5-71 and not particularly difficult. Lema and Palmer tied at 270 last year.

Missing from the lineup is Ohioan Jack Nicklaus, who changed his mind about entering to concentrate on sharpening up for the U.S. Open in St. Louis next week.

Michel Jazy Runs Mile In 3:53.6

RENNES, France (UPI) — Michel Jazy of France is not satisfied, despite a world record mile in 3:53.6, five-tenths of a second under the previous mark of New Zealand's Peter Snell.

"Naturally, I am delighted at this record," the amazingly refreshed Jazy said Wednesday night following his triumph. "But I believe I could have gone a full second faster if the race had been held at the start of the meet."

"After an hour of running on the track, it got churned up and definitely slowed down," he continued.

It was the third world record for Jazy, who in June 1962 set world standards for the 2,000 meters in 7:49.2 and 3,000 meters in 7:49.2.

When asked if he hoped to add still another record to his collection when he runs the 5,000 meters in Paris on Friday, Jazy said, "It is still the first half of June and I am in great form. Anything is possible."

The mile record came only one week after the 28-year-old Frenchman had turned in a European record 3:55.5 for the mile in Paris.

Jazy, who lived up to his pre-race declaration that he hoped to break the world standard, hardly seemed fatigued as he covered the final quarter-mile over the 400-meter track like a sprinter in an unofficial 51.6. He then jogged a victory lap to the cheers of the 5,000 spectators.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Hoover 9100-10 9
One-Bull 0000-0 2

Batteries: Mike Edgar to Gary Jennings for Hoover, Leslie Geerdes to Wendell Smith for One Bull.

Winning Pitcher: Mike Edgar SO 6, BB 0, Hits 2
Losing Pitcher: Leslie Geerdes SO 1, BB 2, Hits 9
Leading Batter: Simon, Allison & Ingram, 2 Hits for 3 AB
Home Runs: Coyt Tigrett with two on.

Comments: Game was called after 4 complete innings because of the 10 run lead. Mike Soukup and Monty Ingram both had two runs in the 4 innings. Tigrett's home run came in the top of the 1st inning with two on.

Yanks Face Stiff British Opposition

PORTHCRAWL, Wales (UPI) — America's top hopes among its seven survivors, Bill Hyndman and Bob Gardner, faced stiff opposition today in the fourth round of the British Amateur golf championship as they prepared to take on a pair of veteran Walker Cup campaigners. Hyndman, who advanced by dropping a six-foot eagle putt on the 17th hole Wednesday, was paired against England's garded Ronnie Shade.

Gardner of Essex Fells, N.J., was paired against England's Alan Thirlwell, who was on the 1957 Walker Cup squad.

James Campbell of Rochester, N.Y., met Scotland's Jim Walkinshaw. John Miles of New York met British Walker Cup Captain Joe Carr of Ireland; Hunter McDonald of Royal Oak, Mich., faced Welshman Gordon Clay; Philadelphia's John Penrose teed off against 18-year-old Britisher Peter Townsend, an outstanding prospect; and John Thornton of Rochester, N.Y., met 22-year-old Roiney James, the reigning Staffordshire amateur champion in other matches involving Americans.
