WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (P) - Officials investigating the air crash which killed 55 here last week weighed the possibility today that a frantic radio effort to prevent the disaster might have been transmitted to the wrong

Glenn Tigner, 21, a National Air-port traffic controller, conceded yesterday that his shouted warnings to the Bolivian pilot of a P-38 on the wrong channel—to be heard, instead in the Eastern Airlines transport which the fighter rammed moments later.

An inquiry panel set up by the Civil Aeronautics Board expected today to hear the views of Erick Rios Bridoux, director of Bolivian aviation, who was at the controls of the ill-fated -P-38.

Rios Bridoux offered a detailed statement to investigators Monday at the Alexandria, Va., hospital where he is being treated for se-vere injuries suffered in the crash. Maj. German Pol, another Bolivian aviation official, was one of the witnesses at yesterday's opening hearing.

Pol, who witnessed the collision from his parked automobile at the airport, said it appeared to him that the Eastern Airline DC-4 had swerved into the fighter.

As for the P-38 Pol testified that his government had turned down the plane three times prior to the fatal test flight-on one occasion because the radio was not working properly.

The Bolivian official said Rios Bridoux had indicated before the takeoff that the radio was working. But he added that Rios passed on a request to the control tower to instruct him by lights if his radio

Mr. Lewis wasn't "a-hint" the door when the brains were distributed. He took occasion to point out that the back-towork movement until Nov. 30 was "another contribution of major magnitude to shance the remote possibility of agreement being reached."

this statement he deftly puts his organization in a generous light, bedges against the possibility of continued deadlock. If an agreement is reached, the return to work can be credited with playing its part; if not, then Mr. Lewis can say in effect: "I told you so."

While the inference is plain that he would like to do a lot more talking with the operators, he did not pull down the bars and throw them away. Between now and Nov. 30, officers and scale represent-atives of the union will "participate in such wage conferences as may eventuate in confirmity with recognized policy," he

Aside from these matters of face and caution, there were other reasons why Mr. Lewis, took the unexpected action. One doubtless was that he sniffed a wave of mounting revolt from some of the tocals. Another was the absence of paychecks for 51 days. Still another was a gradual crumbling of the line on the steel front. And finally, there was some evidence of resentment over Mr. Lewis' offer to give heavy financial aid to the steel workers when the miners' welfare fund was in had shape. Thus a period of truce seemed appropriate as well

But foreign aid is being done in the name of democracy, and U. S. failures in that field are apparently considered fair game. No U. S. official can be found to laugh it off or say it does not matter: they believe it matters very much.

The one thing America cannot afford to do according to one veteran adminis-trator, is to think of the problem in terms of the Negro at home. In his view, a vital question of world foreign policy is involved to which all American thinking on the subject must be keyed.

U. S. officials and the voice of America are not lying down on the job; they do what they can. Another assist came from the globe-trotting Town Meeting of the Air which effectively featured Walter White of the Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Pardon Me, Stranger, But You Look Just Like An Old Friend

Recently, when it was rumored that King George had been seen entering the Mayo clinic, I immediately thought of a d of mine who is a dead ringer to His Majesty, Last year he visited Eng-land in company with his wife, a British girl, and on his return he told me that his resemblance to the king had been a source of much embarrassment to him during his stay. People on the street stopped and stared, crowds collected about whenever he halted before a shopwindow, and flunkies leaped to do his bid-

It so happens that neither King George nor my friend ever has been a patient at the Mayo Clinic, and it is evident that the King has a second double. Perhaps he even has a dozen, for resemblances between people are rather more common than is generally supposed.

At the university, the girl who sat next to me looked exactly like Ida Lupino, my favorite actress. Indeed, she often was mistaken for the film star. Once an acquaintance of hers, who had just seen Miss Lupino on the screen for the first time, came out of the theater in a daze and had to be assured by telegraph that the actress was not the girl he had known.

All of us constantly are meeting people who look familiar, but turn out to be complete strangers. Personally, I should ot like to count up the number of times I have yelled a greeting to a passerby, only to be rewarded with a blank stare or a scowl. There are few things more humiliating, and the titters of those around one do not belp matters.

When r man is in love, every girl he meets on the street looks like his beloved, even though the resemblance may exist only in his mind. This can have un pleasant consequences, for the girl finds herself accosted by a strange man sometimes does not wait to ask a few que, ons before she calls a cop. Perhaps it is thus that many a perfectly in man has acquired the reputation of a

There is a fascination in the study human resemblances, I have a theory that two persons who resemble each other physically are very likely to have the same interests and tastes. We know that this is true in the case of identical twins, can be told apart only by their thumb-prints, and it is probable that similar sympathies can be found in "doubles" who are not related by blood.

However, it goes almost without saying that no humas being is the exact duplicate of another. Always there is a alight difference, even if it be no more than a thumb-print, which marks the individual. I cidentally, nothing is so wonderful as Nature's strong insistence upon individuality. Just as no two persons are alike at all points, so we shall look in vain for any animal, leaf or snowflake that is not unique in some respect.

To my mind, one of the surest proofs of immortality is this invincible individ uality. If the universe were mechanistie in its origin, as certain scientists claim, we should expect to find a great deal of duplication throughout Nature, since this would be inevitable under the operation of non-intelligent forces. As it is, we are obliged to conclude that there is an in-telligent purpose behind the universe and every living thing in it-a purpose which persists beyond the grave.-R. G. MAC-READY.

The Nation Today-By James Marlow 1950 Vote Will Tell Better How People Like 'Fair Deal

WASHINGTON, W - IN SPITE OF THE Democrats' enthusiasm over their victory in the New York Senate election Tuesday, the congressional elections of 1950 will tell better how the people feel about President Truman's "Fair Deal."

There are two vays of looking at the election results in New York where Demoerat Herbert H. Lehman won the Senate election over Republican John Foster Dulles: 1. That it was a victory for the "Fair Deal" program of Mr. Truman, since Lehman campaigned on that and backed most of the program all the way.

2. Or, that the New York voters, who had previously elected Lehman to four terms as governor, liked him better than they did Dulles, whom they never had elected to anything.

LEHMAN WAS DEFEATED THREE years ago when he ran for the Senate against Irving Ives, a Republican. Ives was swept into office in 1946 when all over the country the tide was Republican, and Republicans, for the first time since 1932, won control of Congress.

But in this off-year election there was no national struggle that would have influenced the voters to mark their ballots all Republican or all Democratic.

This time it was a cold-cut choice—(A) Between Lehman and Dulles or (B) Between the "Fair Deal" arguments of Leb man and the warnings against it uttered by Dulles.

At any rate, the voters ignored Dulles' tion, that the goal of the Democrats would mean "state socialism and an end to liber-

BUT EXACTLY WHAT THE PEOPLE want will show up a lot more clearly in the November elections of 1950 when they have to choose a whole new House of 435 Representatives, and one-third of the 96 senators.

The Democrats now control both houses of Congress. But the Republicans and southern Democrats, who balk at a lot of Mr. Truman's "Fair Deal" program, together outnumber the Democrats who might call themselves "Fair Dealers."

Between next January, when the present Congress begins its final year's work, and next November, when the elections are held, the Truman Democrats and the Republicans will have a chance to make the "Fair Deal" issue pretty sharp.

And if - big chunk of Mr. Truman's program is stifled in Congress, the voters next November will be able to show whether they want "Fair Deal" congressmen or

THAT WILL BE A BITTER AND BETter test than the Lehman-Dulles fight, As this was written, Lehman was running around 200,000 votes ahead of Dulles. This raises an interesting question about the 1948 presidential vote in New York

Last year Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican candidate for President, won New York state from President Truman by about 61,000 votes. But Henry Wallace, running for President on the Progressive Party ticket, captured 509,000 votes. Democrats said at the time that, if Wallace hadn't run, Truman would have carried New York, that a l share of the Wallace votes-if Wallace hadn't been running-would have gone to the Democrats, not the Republicans.

World's Best Canasta Player Wins Fame By Holding Hands

NEW YORK, UN-OSWALD JACOBY IS a big, bear-like man who has won fame by holding hands. Not lady hands-card hands.

Right now Ossie is looking for somebody to give $5,000 to. Anybody. That is, anybody who can beat him at the new pasteboard epidemic-canasta. Some nine months ago he spent a dozen hours playing this pastime and decided he knew enough about it to write a book. He did. And his "How To Win at Canasta" has sold over 300,000 copies.

BUT A NUMBER OF OTHER PEOPLE also wrote books on canasta. After reading their books-and re-reading his book-Jacoby decided he was the best canasta player in the world.

"I'm willing to pay $5,000 to anyone who can beat me," he announced. "There may be a couple of unknown guys in Oshkosh who can do it, but I doubt it. And I'm sure there is no other canasta author able tonot if they play the way they write."

He has reason for self-confidence. This 46-year-old, grizzly-gray, 6-foot-two-inch Texan ir a fine mathematician. He began playing bridge at the age of 7. Since 1930 he has won the Vanderbilt Cup, The Kentucky Derby of tournament bridge six Precocity runs in his tribe.

"MY FATHER ENTERED COLLEGE at 14, I entered at 15 and my son at 16," he said, smiling, "I guess the family is petering out."

Jacoby says there is no card game that can be played perfectly, and that if someone invented a machine that could-"a good player could beat it because he could predict what the machine would do."

His tip to amateurs: To play any card game well you have to avoid patterns.

"There are card players with better memories than mine, but none is as good a m thematician. I also have a fast mind, I'm unreadable-so far at least-and I can outguess other people."

JACOBY FEELS THAT CANASTA ISN'T a brief craze like Mah-jongg but will stay popular a long time.

"It has already hit the sale of bridge supplies," he said. "It is much easier to play than bridge, but harder to play well. It has more psychology, fewer rules and more common sense.

What is the best of all card games. "Poker!" said Ossie positively. "There is no doubt of it-poker."

Sterling Seeks Title Friday

Spotlight in District Eight sixman football activity Friday will be on Sterling City where George Tillerson's Eagles play the improved Rankin Red Devils in a night game.

A victory by the Devils would ensnarl the race, since the Forsan Buffaloes are only a game be hind the Flock and should be able to cop the remainder of their contests without too much trouble.
Sterling is a slight favorite in Friday's game but will have to be on top its game to nudge Rankin.

In other games, Courtney goes to Forsan for a night engagement with Frank Honeycutt's while Mertzon was booked to play in Christoval today and Water Valley in Garden City on Friday. Paint Rock, other member of the league is idle this week.

Outside of the Brownfield win, the Bulldogs have succeeded in chalking up only one triumph. That was a 14-0 decision yielded by the Plainview Bulldogs, which earlier had waylayed Big Spring.

All things considered, the teams will enter the skirmish even-Steph-en. Big Spring has come home in front three times in seven starts. Outside of their conquest of Brown-wood, the Herd has skimmed past Brownfield, 18-12,, and trounced Cisco, 20-6.

ABILENE, Nov. 10. 0 - Mighty Brad Rowland of McMurry has run his total yardage for the season to 1432 in eight games—an average of 179. It is one of the greatest one-man offensive shows in college football.

Rowland leads the Texas Conference in rushing, punting and scoring also.

He has carried the ball 131 times for 1133 yards and passed 25 times gaining 299 yards that way. He has averaged 38.0 yards on his punting in 29 kicks. And he is the nation's leading scorer with 108 points.

Floyd Sampson, McMurry full-back, is second in rushing with 622 yards on 105 carries. Al Langford of Howard Payne is second in total offense with 1217 yards on 181 plays, Billy Jay of Howard Payne is second in punting with 37:3 on 25 kicks. Langford is the passing leader with 1048 yards on 72 completions in 159 throws. Dan Harmon of Austin College is second in passing with 465 yards on 32 connections in 67 throws.

Mack Thompson of Austin College tops in pass-receiving with 22 catches for 394 yards. Frank Barnett of Howard Payne is second with 19 for 330.

In team offense, McMurry leads with 3466 yards in eight games. Howard Payne is second with 2936

Larry Priddy, the one-time Sweetwater high school mentor, might have been happier had he not withdrawn his application for the local coaching post last spring. (He was considered first in line at one time.)

Priddy is supposed to be having his troubles at Gainesville, despite the fact that his gream has the inside track on the league's title. There's dissention in the ranks, according to the story.

San Angelo football coaches are consuring themselves for letting a torrid grade school grid prospect by the name of Frye slip through their hands.

The boy's pop, a railroad employe, moved from Angelo to Brownwood recently after the boy had spent most of his life in the Conche City.

The youngster is supposed to be setting the woods after in a football way down to the Brown county matropolis.

a football way down in the Brown county metropolis.

Brad Rowland of McMurry and Eddie LeBaron, College of Pacific's great quarterback, are two lads considered certain choices the Little All-America football team selected annually. A third could be Connie Callahan of Morningside college, Nebraska, who picked up 1,347 yards in his first eight games. Of that total, 962 paces were acquired by rushing.

Morningside plays an 11-game schedule, which gives Callahan a good chance of leading the nation in total offense this year.

In his first seven games this year, Rowland scored more points than he did in his first two seasons combined. The pair of TD's he counted against Sul Ross last week ran his point aggregate to 108

Some of the HCJC Jayhawks who played against Cisco's Wranglers last week are of the opinion that the contest was the roughest in which they have participated this year. That is some statement, considering the fact that the Weatherford game here two weeks ago almost wound up in a free-for-ell.

More than 200 yards in penalties were stepped off against the Cisco and HCJC teams in their outing.

Ollie Matson, the big Negro boy from Texas playing halfback for San Francisco university, who this column has mentioned before, can cover one hundred yards in 9.6 seconds and the 440 in 47.1. Anyone will tell you that's moving.
Ollie weighs 201 pounds and stands 6-2.

NAMING ALL-STAR BACKS TO BE TOUGH How would you like to have the job of naming the All-Southwes conference football backfield this year? It may prove an easier task than picking the All-American secondary.

Here's the lads you'd have to consider Doak Walker and Kyle Rote, SMU; Lindy Berry, TCU; Bob Smith Texas A & M: Randall Clay and Ray Borneman, Texas: Bobby Lantrip and Tobin Rote, Rice; Adrian Burk, Baylor; and Muscles Campbell.

LAST YEAR'S BOWL TEAMS HAVING TROUBLES The 1949 bowl teams are taking quite a beating along most fronts.
Oklahoma remains unbeaten and California bas yet to take its lumps but the others are getting kicked around.

North Carolina, which was throttled by Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl, has been beaten twice and is in for a third licking Saturday at the hands of Notre Dame. The Tarheels must also play Virginia nd Duke before the campaign is out.

SMU, the Cotton Bowl kingpin, has lost once and been tied once in six outings and isn't out of the woods yet. Oregon, the team the Ponies conquered in Dallas last New Year's Day, has experienced four defeats to date.

The Orange Bowl principals are having their troubles, too. Texas has dropped three decisions while Georgia has lost on five occasions Football fortunes have a way of changing rapidly.

Tentative dates for installing new Civil Aeronautics Authority sirways communications equipment n the new airport terminal buildng have been set, H. W. Whitney, elty manager, said this morning.

The CAA now plans to start the installation of equipment on Nov tl and will probably complete the work by Oec. 15, airways communications officials have notified Whitney. The dates are subject to change, they warned.

The city manager said the mov ing of airlines and other offices to the new terminal would probably be coordinated with the opening of the new CAA offices here. putting the new structure in use about the middle of December. Additional street paving and the con-struction of walks at the terminal should be completed by that time

An application has been filed with the CAA for additional federal aid in the paving and outside improvement work, but no reply to the request has been received, the city manager stated.

from the allotment in that it fashlons any penalty that might go in to effect relative to future crops.
The allotment, according to Gabe Hammock, county administrator, is simply a distribution of the acreage and will already be in effect at that time.

Eligible persons can cast their votes either by mail or by calling at the AAA office here, results will be tabulate and a report sent forward to College Station.

Interest in reviving the Big Spring DAV chapter, has been set for 7:30 p. m. at the Veterans of

All disabled veterans are being urged to attend the meeting, and of course all veterans are livited to participate. Efforts are being exerted to reactivate on a vigorous basis the chapter here in advance of the activation of the Veterans administration hospital.
