California Couple Describes Ordeal With Ex-Cons

By DEVAN L. SHUMWAY
TONOPAH, Nev. (UPI)—Hale and Marie Champion, haggard and wearing rumpled clothing, today described their 24-hour nightmare in the custody of two fugitive ex-convicts as a strange but "decent" relationship.

Champion, California's state finance director, bore two large bandages on his left leg where he was wounded during a gun battle here. But he stood easily and described the wound as minor.

"The fugitives treated us very well," Champion said. "There was no physical abuse, and they were good to the baby. In fact, they played with the baby."

"I wouldn't say they were crazy," he added. "We're all different kinds of nuts, but in a strange kind of way we had a decent relationship with them. Once they stopped and bought food, which my wife prepared while I fixed a tire."

Champion, wearing blue pants and a wrinkled white shirt, was covered with a borrowed seersucker bathrobe at Nye County Hospital here.

His wife, Marie, in blue slacks and a red windbreaker that she had hastily thrown on when the gunmen entered their Sacramento, Calif. home early Thursday, said during their brief news conference that she thought their captors never intended to harm them.

"I felt no harm would come to us," she said, adding "but (my) hands were trembling." Tired but smiling, Mrs. Champion said "the men were pathetic, but very considerate."

FBI Brought Into Kidnaping Case

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—The FBI today joined the search for a red-haired 9-year-old girl who was kidnaped in a robbery at her grandparents' motel.

Freckle-faced Denise Clinton was still missing more than 24 hours after a gunman apparently snatched her from a couch where she lay asleep during the robbery.

Clues were meager and Kansas City Police Chief Clarence Kelley said today would be a crucial period in the hunt.

Kelley personally led an on-foot canvass Thursday of the wooded area around the Great Plains Motel, located on the extreme northern edge of Kansas City.

Explosion Rips Canadian Plane

VANCOUVER, B.C. (UPI)—An eyewitness told authorities today a Canadian Pacific Airlines DC6B exploded before hurtling to earth in a screaming dive that killed all 22 persons aboard. At least two were Americans.

Bodies were scattered over such a wide area of a heavily wooded, hilly section of Cariboo ranch country near Dog Creek that officials said it might be days before all of them are found.

The airlines said that at least two Americans, identified only as Mr. and Mrs. MacLennan of Los Angeles, Calif., were among the 46 passengers en route from Vancouver to Prince George, B.C. and the Yukon.

First reports listed the dead at 49 but airline officials later said there were 44 passengers on the list plus two infants and a crew of six.

HUNTER-KILLER MISSION — U.S. paratroopers are dropped into action in the hunter-killer operations initiated by American, Australian and South Vietnamese forces in Viet Nam. The joint operations have had limited success.

Marines, Cong Hooked Up in Savage Battle at Government Naval Base

SAIGON (UPI)—A Viet Cong battalion overran a government naval base today near Chu Lai, killing two Americans and 16 Vietnamese soldiers. U.S. Marines mounted a swift counter-attack by landing craft and savage fighting was reported underway.

Initial reports said the Marines had three killed and 14 wounded in the battle, the first in which they have been committed to action as a relief force to aid Vietnamese troops. Communist casualties were listed as four killed and 51 captured.

The Marines, moving in from their defense positions in the Chu Lai area 360 miles north-east of Saigon cut the Viet Cong off on a triangular shaped island less than five miles from Chu Lai. Marine planes and artillery were pounding the guerrillas.

NASA to Launch Luminous Monster

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The space agency plans to orbit a luminous monster bearing 48 brightly colored "coupons" which officials hope a Gemini or Apollo astronaut will clip and bring back to earth a year or so hence.

REACTION FAVORABLE FOR CHANGE

The fate of the third American was not immediately known. An American spokesman in reporting use of the Marines to aid an embattled Vietnamese unit said the scene of the Viet Cong attack was so close to the Marine air base they had to act.

Capture Ends Three State Crime Spree

TONOPAH, Nev. (UPI)—Two desperate ex-convicts, who blazed a trail of terror across three states, surrendered meekly today shortly after releasing a California state official and his family held hostage 24 hours.

The capture of Carl Cletus Bowles, 34, and Wilford M. Gray, 30, ended one of the West's most spectacular crime sprees, which began last Monday at Eugene, Ore., about 600 miles northwest of here.

Bobby Condemns Use of Force Alone in Viet

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, in what appeared to be a criticism of the Johnson administration's Viet Nam policy, today condemned the use of military force alone in meeting the threat of Communist-style revolutionary war.

The New York senator did not directly aim his criticism at the administration, nor did he mention Viet Nam except in a general way. But his meaning was obvious when he said: "If all a government can promise its people, in response to insurgent activity, is 10 years of napalm and heavy artillery, it will not be a government for long."

Dear Abby... Eleven-Year-Old Girl Is Too Uninhibited

DEAR ABBY: We have a problem and I don't know exactly how to cope with it. It concerns our 11-year-old daughter. She's a very affectionate girl, and quite developed for her age. She is infatuated with a man who happens to be a very good friend of ours. He and his wife are at our home often. At first it was cute to see her run to him, throw her arms around his neck, and kiss him fiercely. We teased her about her "dream man," and he played along with the game. But it's no longer funny. If she's not sitting on his lap, she's very close to him. She holds his hand, and kisses him lovingly on the lips. I notice he's very uncomfortable lately when she's around. My husband says we should ignore it as this is a stage all girls go through while growing up. I never had this problem while I was growing up. Is my husband right? Or should something be done? And, if so, how is this done without inhibiting our daughter's natural affectionate nature?

CONCERNED
DEAR CONCERNED: Every normal adolescent girl has a "dream man." And there's no harm in it. But your daughter would be far better off drooling over a picture of Gregory Peck than "fitting on your friend's lap." Tell your daughter that she's a young lady now and she must not be so aggressive. To ignore it would indicate approval on your part. And, furthermore, it's the responsibility of parents to see that guests in their home are not subjected to embarrassing situations.

DEAR ABBY: Eldon and I have been married for over a

Did it ever occur to you that even though you and your husband are usually at home in the evenings and on weekends your children may not have much of a home life?

A sociologist who is head of a settlement house that takes in children and teenagers who cannot stay at home says: "With the fast moving world of today, there is often no home life. Television has destroyed communications between parents and children and there are too many social activities that take youngsters away from home."

That's certainly true of many homes today — homes where the whole family rarely sits down to a meal together, but because of hectic schedules eats at odd times as though the family kitchen were a quick lunch cafe.

It's true, too, of homes where the television is always on — discouraging easy, relaxed conversation. Children don't interrupt a television program to talk over a problem with their parents. Such confidences come about in a quiet, relaxed atmosphere that invites conversation.

And what good does it do for parents to stay at home if their teenagers are always off to some other place — hurrying to girl is only trying to meet men with honorable intentions. I suggest that you girls pull in your claws.

get to a meeting, to a practice session, to a pep rally, to an athletic event or to a party? Even when vacation time rolls around parents of teenagers today often say, "We're leaving Jim or Susie with a friend while we take our trip. You know how teenagers hate to leave their

So it is well for today's parents to look long and hard at their day-to-day routine to see if their children are actually getting any real home life.

FOR SATURDAY, JULY 10
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day and evening when you are apt to be far too outspoken and thus arouse much opposition that could be avoided if you gingerly approach anyone else and use tact and diplomacy in whatever dealings with your current relationships with them. Use much care on the highway and in motion. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — While tonight new acquaintances may "hook" you away on this free day, be diplomatic, not forgetful for the best results. Jog along at a quiet pace. Don't become impatient. TARDES (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Trying any tricks on others could backfire. You may find out now since they are very suspicious on the alert. Be ethical. Keep promises to others. Expect the same from them. GRAVITY (May 21 to June 21) — Any attempted "back" changes in agreement with associates could end in a great deal — even lose you valuable partners. Be more than co-operative. They then support your views. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Better get right down to duties ahead of you instead of dishing out on some will-o-the-wisp fancies. Be sure to plan time and activities. Then you get the utmost accomplishment. JULY (July 22 to Aug. 21) — Getting out for amusement is fine, but be sure you keep within your budget and do not let others in any way. Set some latent talents to work. Make sure that what you do is really satisfying. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) — While you interest in the outside world, it behooves you first to handle all family and home problems. Apply raw economy measures. Bid yourself of the obsolete. LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) — Pleasing gains is wise now, valuing those who need your assistance. Ideas: etc. Don't fall prey to temptations. Get data that reveals where personal disturbances are. SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) — Instead of spending, concentrate upon how to increase abundance instead — which bears repetition. Confer with business partners. Learn the most modern and fastest methods. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Feeling pretty frustrated yourself, you are apt to make curt remarks that others resent. Don't improve your health. Get busy and rid yourself of personal problems. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Investigations made with a chip on your shoulder only lead to more trouble, even with closest friends. Be generous and look on the good side of others. Help those in need. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 18) — If you must be with friends, see that you pick out those who are not trying to yank your nose. Keep controlled. PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) — It's time to be ambitious today, but don't annoy friends who are very busy and can't help you about with you. Negroes Charged With Shooting

By United Press International
A white man was wounded by gunfire Thursday during a civil rights march at Bogalusa, La., and police charged two Negroes with the shooting.

The victim, Alton B. Crowe, 26, was struck in the stomach and neck by two of three shots fired at him. He was reported in critical condition.

Police charged Henry Austin, 21, and Milton Johnson, 26, with investigation of aggravated battery and hustled them to an undisclosed location for security reasons.

The shooting occurred at the rear of a column of about 350 civil rights demonstrators after a Negro girl ran screaming from the line with a bloody nose. Austin and Johnson jumped out of a car and police said Austin began firing a pistol at Crowe.

Louisiana State troopers, sent to Bogalusa to help preserve order, overpowered the two Negroes. There were no other incidents. Bogalusa Mayor Jesse Cutler asked for 150 more troopers to join the 72 in his city and Gov. John McKeithen promised to send all the men he could spare.

At Chicago, civil rights demonstrators sprawled in the street during the height of the evening rush hour and police hauled 10 of them away. The arrests brought to 656 the number of such jailings since the start of a campaign to oust Chicago school Supt. Benjamin W. Gill, accused by Negroes of fostering segregation.

A spokesman for the U.S. Office of Education said in Washington Thursday officials are closely watching segregated northern schools. He said complaints have been received about school segregation in Boston, Chicago and San Francisco, and others are anticipated.

Washington: The House was expected to vote today on a Republican alternative to President Johnson's voting rights bill. Indications were it would be defeated and the administration bill passed shortly afterward.

SON DROWNS IN BATHTUB

Tears of Joy Turned to Sorrow

DENISON, Tex. (UPI).—Happiness turned to untold grief for Mrs. Clayton McKenzie yesterday.

Mrs. McKenzie looked up from her job at a garment factory in this North Texas town Thursday and saw two of her daughters, 10-year-old Patricia and 12-year-old Lequita, running toward her.

They carried a letter from their step-father, Staff Sgt. Clayton McKenzie. The letter said McKenzie would be arriving back in the United States, ending his year's duty in Viet Nam.

At about the same time Mrs. McKenzie was reading the joyful news of her husband's return, tragedy was unfolding at her home, a block away.

Clayton Dale McKenzie dashed from the bathroom of the home to where his oldest half-sister, Ina Gilbert, 15, was talking on the phone. The little boy was dripping wet and screaming.

The girl rushed to the bathroom and found the McKenzie's youngest son, 11-month-old Mark, floating face down in the bathtub. He was dead.

Mrs. McKenzie collapsed when she was told her son had drowned and was rushed to Perrin Air Force Base hospital in shock. But she recovered later in the day and was allowed to go home.

"My child was beautiful and he only had 11 months on this earth," she said. "I ask the reason why."

said, "I felt all right, too."

Mrs. Champion and her daughter were released several hours after Champion was freed. They were turned loose near Basalt, Nev., after a terrifying ride in which the fugitives offered to free them for food and ammunition and threatened them repeatedly.

Authorities said Bowles and Gray told them they wanted the supplies to "give you a real battle."

As the chase progressed through the Nevada desert between Reno and Las Vegas, the fugitives talked with authorities over the radio of a sheriff's patrol car they had commandeered.

"They were calm and collected," one officer said, "but used foul language."

However, the police were able to persuade the pair by radio to release Champion first because he was wounded and later the mother and daughter.

Apparently starved for food, the fugitives stopped briefly at the Coaldale Inn in Coaldale for whiskey, cigarettes and canned sardines. Bartender Jim Cook, 52, said one of the suspects gave him $200, saying, "Here, this will pay for what I got. I won't need it anyway."

The official spokesman said the operation was continuing late today. All indications were the Marines could score a major victory if the Viet Cong were unable to escape. However there were no such claims as the battle went on.

U.S. paratroopers were reported meanwhile to have killed or wounded more than 150 Viet Cong in their search and destroy operation in combat Zone D 30 miles north of Saigon. The operation came to an end and U.S., Australian and Vietnamese troops were being moved out by helicopter.

Pair Being Held For Greenville

The Gray County Sheriff's office was holding an 18-year-old girl charged with adultery and a 22-year-old man charged with child neglect today for authorities in Greenville.

The pair was arrested by the sheriff's office after authorities in Greenville notified them of their presence in Pampa and issued warrants for their arrest.

Being held in jail and awaiting extradition to Greenville were Ruby Moore and Raymond Jones.

Jones' parents live in Pampa and he and Miss Moore were visiting them when they were arrested, according to the sheriff's office.

Ford Asks LBJ To Make Clear US Policy in Viet

WASHINGTON (UPI).—House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford called on President Johnson today to reassure the public that appointment of a new ambassador to South Viet Nam did not mean a change in U.S. policy.

The Michigan congressman said on a television program the President should "make crystal clear" that no change is in the cards.

Ford said he continued to support administration policy in Viet Nam in its present form. He said his call for U. S. bombing of Communist anti-aircraft missile sites near Hanoi, North Viet Nam, was intended as a constructive suggestion rather than criticism.

Denise is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell Clinton of nearby Independence, Mo. She had gone to visit her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chelsea Reynolds, at the motel Wednesday.

Mrs. Reynolds said she was awakened about 2 a.m. Thursday by the night bell. She went from the back bedroom where her husband was still sleeping to the office where a man described as about 30 years old, tall with close-cropped dark hair asked for a room.

She got a registration card from under the counter and looked up into the barrel of a blue steel revolver.

"I want your money," the man said.

After grabbing the bills from the cash drawer the gunman forced Mrs. Reynolds into her bedroom, passing en route the girl who was asleep on a couch in a room adjoining the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were bound and their mouths taped. When they worked their way free and called police, they noticed Denise was gone.

"I know she never woke up," Mrs. Reynolds said. "She was sound asleep. I don't know why he'd ever bother her."

Police Lt. Ezra Hatfield said there was no conclusion except that the girl was kidnapped, although no one actually saw the abduction.

Detectives said they believed the bandit came across Denise on his way out and on impulse took her with him.

The freckle-faced girl was barefoot and wearing a blue checkered muumuu she wore as a nightgown.

City Manager, Ex-Mayor Speak To Lions Members

City Manager Jim White and Ed Myatt, chairman of the Citizens Charter Committee, spoke at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Pampa Lions Club.

White and Myatt discussed the proposed changes in the city charter which will be presented to voters at an election Aug. 24. There will be seven amendments to be voted on, but the speakers yesterday confined most of their comments to the annexation and tax money proposals.

Myatt has stressed that the citizens' committee will provide speakers for any club or organization wishing their services to explain the proposed charter changes.

Importance of Church Attendance Being Minimized

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press-International
There is a growing tendency among Americans to minimize the importance of church attendance.

In a recent public opinion poll, 67 per cent of the people interviewed agreed with the statement: "You don't need to go to church to be a good Christian." One reason why this viewpoint has gained such wide acceptance is that churchgoers rarely try to contradict it. They're afraid of sounding stuffy, or pharisaical, if they voice their conviction that going to church is not an optional extra but a very basic part of Christian living.

Sacrament Is Subject of Christian Science

The record of Jesus' last supper and his meetings with the disciples after his resurrection will be reviewed in the Bible Lesson-Sermon to be heard in all Christian Science churches this Sunday, July 11.

The subject is "Sacrament and the Golden Text is from I Corinthians: 'Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.'"

One of the related passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook will include these lines: "In the quiet sanctuary of earnest longings, we must deny sin and plead God's alms. We must resolve to take up the cross, and go forth with honest hearts to work and watch for wisdom, Truth and Love" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 15).

goer, you'll find that he has several reasons for spending morning in a pew, rather than in bed or on the golf course.

Best Reason
The first and best reason for going to church is to worship God. To worship means "to give honor or reverence." An CONDUCTS REVIVAL—Rev. Louise Herod of Kansas City, the founder and pastor of Swope Park Community Church, is conducting a revival at the Pampa Revival Center Church, 1101 S. Wells, through July 14. A prayer meeting is held each morning at 9:30 and evangelistic services start at 7:45 p.m.

First Christian Sunday Sermon From Matthew

The First Christian Church, Kingsmill at Starkweather, will hear Rev. J.W. Duke, pastor, speak on "Touched and Changed" at the Sunday Morning Worship Service. Doyle Munkres will read the scripture Matthew 8:1-3.

The choir, under the direction of Miss Rosemary Lawlor, will present the Anthem, "O God Our Help in Ages Past" by Wm. Croft, arranged by Reginald Martin. Jerry Whitten will be the organ accompanist.

The snack supper will be served at 5:30, followed by youth group meetings. The Sunday Evening Worship Service is at 7:09 p.m.

older and more illuminating definition says that worshipping means "ascribing ultimate worth" to the object of worship. Worshipping God is not just one of man's religious duties. According to the Bible, it is his pre-eminent duty, the chief end of his existence, the thing for which he was created.

It is certainly possible to worship God on a mountaintop as well as in a church. But how many people get up on Sunday morning and repair to mountaintop in order to spend an hour in reverent solitude? A church service is for most people the best opportunity the week affords to "be still and know that I am God."

A second reason for going to church is purely selfish—but selfish only in the sense that it's selfish to eat when you're hungry. The regular churchgoer comes to depend upon this hour on Sunday morning to renew his supply of love, kindness, patience and perspective. In short, to recharge spiritual batteries which have been badly drained by a week's encounter with the world.

There Are Others
Once again, it must be acknowledged that there are other ways to achieve renewal of the human spirit. Some people do it by listening to music, by taking a walk in the woods, by sailing a boat, or by taking the family on an outing. Most churchgoers do these things, too. But it has been their experience that all such forms of "re-creation" are more effective when treated as a supplement rather than a substitute for communion with God in church.

A third reason for going to church is to learn. Few sermons are so bad that a listener cannot hear some faint echo of the word of God. And if the sermon should prove to be a total loss, there are still the scripture readings, the prayers and the hymns through which the Holy Spirit can speak to a person who is genuinely seeking light for his pathway.

Member of Community
A fourth reason for attending church is to identify with, to become a real participating member of, the community of faith. "There is no such thing as a solitary Christian," said John Wesley. From New Testament times, the Christian experience has been recognized as something which men must share, which becomes fully real only in the context of a fellowship or community. And the church, notwithstanding its many failures and frailties, is still the "body of Christ," the human community within which Christ promised that his spirit would always dwell.

The intelligent churchgoer will concede that there are some hypocrites in the church and some highly moral people outside it. He will acknowledge that churches waste a lot of time, money and energy on parochial boondoggling that has no relevance to what Christ would expect his body to be doing in a torn and suffering world.

But to say that the institutional church has shortcomings is simply to register a fact which—St. Paul noted 2,000 years ago: "We hold this treasure in earthen vessels." The remarkable thing is that the treasure itself has been preserved, and transmitted from generation to generation.

Jehovah's Witnesses Due at Convention

The Pampa congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will be represented in Lubbock, July 22-25 when the group convenes for their "Word of Truth" district assembly, according to Jimmy Conner, who has been presiding minister here for a number of years.

"As has always been the case with Jehovah's Witnesses," observed Conner, "this convention is designed to satisfy the spiritual needs of everyone, adults and children alike. Our main appeal is the Bible and this assembly will largely have its program from the Bible directed to youth as well as parents."

Conner said he was especially interested in this feature of the convention as he himself is a member of a family where all are active as ministers he being the next to the youngest.

"Since Bible reading isn't the easiest program to stimulate among youths of the day, it is encouraging to see hundreds of youths sitting quietly and listening attentively to Bible instruction," said Conner. "The results are favorable since children are impressionable and it leads to more resultful training in the home."

Conner explained there is a personal program of Bible reading in his family to tighten the family arrangement. "It involves doing things together such as Bible discussion at the breakfast table, personal study during the day and attendance at congregational meetings three nights a week. That way, Bible emphasis cannot be done lost in the many things we do together throughout the week."

Conner felt that if more families could see the impact that large Christian conventions have for their youth as well as themselves, most family situations would not mushroom into bigger problems and disrupt the family circle.

Series on Life and Death Slated

The pastor of Central Baptist Church, T. O. Upshaw, will begin a series of sermons Sunday evening on one of the least understood areas of human experience. This experience of death is faced by all who live and is a certainty for all people. For the next several Sunday evenings Pastor T. O. Upshaw will preach on Death and the life hereafter.

Services for Sunday begin with the Bible Study hour at 9:45. The lesson for Sunday is "Our Continuing Response to Christ." The scripture is from Philippians 3:10-17 and Colossians 3:1-3. The morning worship hour begins at 10:30. The pastor's message for the service will be "Choices in Life" with his scripture text from Genesis 13:5-18.

Evening services at Central Baptist begin with the Training Program at 8:00. The Training Hours provides training for children in Royal Ambassadors, Girls Auxiliary and Sunbeams. The youth and adults meet in Training Unions. The pastor's subject for Sunday evening will be "Death Made Easier," based on scripture found in II Corinthians.

Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor, will preach for the subject, "Why Be Good Anyway?" Sam Allen, Minister of Music, will present the Church Choir in singing the anthem, "I Will Lift up Mine Eyes" by Woodward and a ladies trio with Mrs. Gordon Bayless, Mrs. Harold Craddock, and Mrs. Harold Pitts for the special music.

Rev. J. R. Manning, assistant pastor, will be in the pulpit for the evening worship at 6:00 o'clock. He will continue his series of sermons on "The Seven Churches of Revelation" using "The Church at Sardis" for his sermon topic. The Chapel Choir will occupy the choir loft and will sing a hymn-antem. Alier will sing a tenor solo, and "Andantino" by Rheinberger will be the organ duet.

TEMPTATIONS TO COMPROMISE

Exodus 8:24-26

Moses and Aaron were waging a terrific battle with Pharaoh. They demanded that all the Israelites, their wives, children and property be allowed to make a three days journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to their God. Slavery was a profitable business for Pharaoh and to let them go meant freedom for them. So Pharaoh suggested four compromises to Moses.

- I. The first one was: Stay in Egypt "Go ye sacrifice to your God in the land". Be a christian but stay in Egypt. This is the temptation of the Devil to day. Egypt represents the world, the bondage of sin. The Devil says by all means be a respectable church man and worship if you must but do not let your religion divorce you from this charming world. Because of this attitude we do not make much impression on this old sinful world. When we become christians God calls upon us to give up the sins of this world.
- II. Stay Near Egypt There is no need of being so domatic about your Christianity. Why go so far away from Egypt? The Devil says "There is no need in going so far away from the old life just because you have become a Christian. What will your friends think? At least stay near Egypt."
- III. Leave your Children in Egypt The Devil says religion is alright for the old folk but the young people need not bother with it. Many parents today have lost their children to the world because they did not think it was necessary to guide them toward the church and God. Many times such children will break the hearts of the parents.
- IV. Leave Your Property in Egypt If you and Your children will not remain in Egypt Satan will seek to hold your property. Here is the temptation to worship God with out a sacrifice. The rich young ruler had yielded to this compromise. The Lord said to him: "Sell all that thou hast — Take it all out of Egypt. But he had good investments and he went away sorrowful, for he wanted a religion without self-denial and without sacrifice. Moses stayed by his demand that the people and all they had must come out of Egypt. Christ demands an entire consecration of our time, out money and ourselves. You cannot worship God in Egypt (in sin).

All-Star Game Pitchers Selected

By United Press International — Veterans Don Drysdale, Sandy Koufax and Juan Marichal head the list of eight National League pitchers announced today for the July 14 All-Star, while six American League hurlers will be appearing for the first time in the 36 annual baseball classic.

National League Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox chose Baltimore's Milt Pappas and Minnesota's Jim Grant as the league's only veterans of All-Star pitching competition.

Filling out the American League's roster of pitchers will be Eddie Fisher of the White Sox, Bob Lee of Los Angeles, Sam McDowell of Cleveland, John O'Donoghue of Kansas City, Pete Richert of Washington and Mel Stottlemyre of New York.

Drysdale is considered the "senior man" of the NL squad, having been selected on six occasions. The big right-hander has started four All-Star games, allowing just eight hits and three earned runs in the 14 innings he worked. The Dodger ace has compiled a remarkable earned-run-average of 1.93 as Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies also selected Cincinnati's Sammy Ellis and Jim Maloney, Pittsburgh's Bob Veale, Houston's Dick Farrell and Bob Gibson of St. Louis, in addition to the Dodgers' Drysdale and Koufax and Marichal of the Giants.

Nicklaus Struggles To 77 in Open; Lema's 140 Leads

SOUTHPORT, England (UPI) — Champagne Tony Lema, confident he could "hang on" and annex his second consecutive British Open golf championship, today began the gruelling final 36 holes at the Royal Birkdale course locked in a two-way tie for the lead with Bruce Devlin of Australia at 140.

Jack Nicklaus shot a four-over-par 77 in the third round of the British Open golf championship today for an aggregate score of 221.

The 31-year-old Lema, from San Leandro, Calif., expected a "royal tussle" over the final two rounds on this the last day of the 98th Open, but said "I reckon I can hang on—I'm used to being buzzed."

The defending champion fired a neat one-under-par 72 over the 7,037 course Thursday after an opening round of 68 which set a new links record. Brian Huggett of Wales matched that 68 Thursday for a total of 141 and a share of third place with Arnold Palmer, who was seeking his third British title.

Devlin, currently the third leading money winner on the United States professional tour, shot a fine 69 Thursday, including an eagle three on the par-5 13th hole, and Palmer, who eagled the 17th with a 30-foot putt, was "not happy" with his 71.

A number of the "big names" in the tournament moved into a challenging position, including heavily favored Jack Nicklaus, but some of the biggest failed to make the cut at 149 or better.

Among those who failed to qualify for today's final rounds were five Americans, the most notable being Sam Snead, the 1946 champion. The Slammer added a 76 to his first round 74 for a 150 total and muttered, "I putted like I didn't know how." Phil Rodgers, with a pair of 75s, Doug Sanders, with back-to-back 78s, and amateurs Mike Hadlock of Houston (77-75-152 and Bruce Richards of Seattle, Wash. (79-86-161) also fell by the wayside.

Nicklaus, who finished second to Lema at St. Andrews last year by four strokes after trailing by nine at the midway point, was only four shots off the pace. Thursday after a 71 and warned that Lema "had better watch out."

Homero, Mate Lead at Odessa

ODESSA (UPI) — Professional Homero Blancas and amateur Mark Hopkins went out on the unbanked fairways of the Odessa Country Club course today in an attempt to hold their one stroke lead in the 17th annual Odessa pro-am golf tournament.

The Blancas-Hopkins team toured the 6,600-yard-par-72 course in 63 strokes during Thursday's first round, to earn a one-stroke lead over no less than five teams.

Fisher 'Saves' Sox From Cleveland, 3-2

By United Press International — Eddie Fisher, who started the 1951 American League season as "the other guy" in the Chicago White Sox bullpen, may wind it up as the first 20-20 pitcher in major league history.

That's "20" for victories and "20" for saves — which would make the 28-year-old knuckleballer a modern version of such old-time 40-game winners as Jack Chesbro and Ed Walsh. Fisher, knows it's impossible for modern pitchers to rewrite the old pitching book records so he's writing his own.

Second-man to Hoyt Wilhelm in the White Sox' bullpen when the season started, Fisher has emerged as a super-star with a 9-3 won-lost record and a total of 17 saves. With half the season to go, Fisher could be the first pitcher ever to win 20 games and save 20 in the same season — and, in any event, seems certain to receive credit in one or the other column for between 45 and 50 of the games that his team wins.

Fisher worked his usual magic Thursday when he pitched the last two innings of the White Sox' 3-2 victory over the Cleveland Indians — a win that enabled the White Sox to remain a half-game behind the third-place Baltimore Orioles, moved Chicago to within five games of the league-leading Minnesota Twins and dropped the Tribe two games out of first place.

The Orioles completed a sweep of a four-game series with the Kansas City Athletics when they scored a 10-5 triumph and the Detroit Tigers downed the New York Yankees 6-1 in other AL games. In the National League, Los Angeles downed Pittsburgh 9-4.

Philadelphia beat San Francisco 4-2 after a 10-2 loss and Milwaukee edged out Houston 9-5 in 12 innings.

Fisher took over for Tommie John after Larry Brown singled to start the eighth inning for the Indians, pitched out of a jam, and then went through the ninth at the expense of Rocky Colavito's 20th homer. Fisher's 17th save of the season presented John with his seventh victory against three defeats.

The White Sox scored all their runs in the fifth inning on Al Weis' single, a felder's choice, Don Buford's double and a single by Floyd Robinson. Jack Kralick suffered his seventh loss against two wins for the Indians.

Wally Bunker went seven innings to win his fifth game with the relief help of Don Larsen and Dick Hall as the Orioles built up a 7-1 six-inning lead and then fought off closing rallies by the Athletics, Russ Snyder, Bob Johnson, Curt Blefary, Boog Powell, Sam Bowers and Jerry Adair had two hits each in the 13-hit Baltimore attack while Santiago Rosario, Wayne Causey and Ken Harrelson had two hits each for the Athletics. Mickey Lolich pitched a five-hitter and struck out 10 to win his ninth game for the Tigers, whose 11-hit attack was highlighted by a two-run fourth-inning double by Don Wert and a homer by Bill Freehan in the sixth. Pete Mikkelsen suffered the loss for the Yankees.

TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The Reforms of the Sixties

A recent issue of one of the most widely read slick magazines in the country features an article by Senator Frank Church of Idaho, who alleges that the Radical Left has collapsed as a political force in the United States and that the danger is the Radical Right. The Senator tells us about "the decline of the Communist Party in the U.S. Back in 1932, it ran candidates in 39 states and garnered a total of 102,961 votes. In those desperate Depression Days, the Communists were at work in labor unions and on college campuses. But the reforms of the thirties, the resurgence of free enterprise and its spreading abundance, robbed the 'class struggle' of its credibility. . . . That short quote gives the flavor of the Senator's remarks. Now let's look at the record. The Communist Party had 12,000 members in 1932. When Roosevelt recognized Russia in 1933 the membership rose to 16,000. A year later, it was 24,000. After four years of the "New Deal," Communist Party membership was 40,000 in 1936. By 1938 the "reforms of the thirties" had upped the membership in the Communist Party to 75,000. Only when Stalin and Hitler signed their pact did membership fall in 1939, but, during the American-Soviet alliance in World War II, membership began to climb again and rose to almost 80,000. The beginning of the "cold war" in 1947 brought membership back down to 59,000. It brought, too, a change in Soviet technique. Moscow does not press for party membership these days. The emphasis is on giving guidance and leadership and money to "peace" fronts, youth organizations and racial agitation fronts. Moscow presently finds these organizations more useful than an expanded membership. Also, de-emphasis on recruitment of members, as such, makes it more difficult for the FBI to place additional undercover agents inside the Communist Party itself.

The record shows that when US and the USSR are "friends," the membership in the party grows. This is because the Communist Party, USA, has no independent existence. It is a creature of the Soviet Union and its life and fortunes ride with those of the Soviet Union. As the Administration proceeds with its "Great Society" and further extension of "the reforms of the thirties," we will see membership begin to rise again. And the rise of the front organizations will keep pace, for the cadre technique has been too successful for Moscow to abandon it.

Double-Think

In his all-too-prophetic novel, "1984," George Orwell spoke of "double-think" — which he defined as the ability to hold two completely contradictory ideas in mind at the same time without being aware of their contradiction. Apparently this dubious capability has already been achieved by some American intellectuals well in advance of 1984. For despite clear and mounting evidence to the contrary, U.S. policy-makers and other alleged experts speak and act as though the Soviet Union is in no way connected with Communist aggressions in Vietnam. Even after circumstances have forced them to acknowledge the presence in North Vietnam of Soviet bombers, missiles and personnel, spokesmen for Defense and State Departments, and those reporters and columnists who are satisfied to accept official handouts as the end and all of significant news, persist in that ridiculous and self-defeating pretense.

Diplomacy's Wonder World

One of the nice things about diplomacy is that it is so diplomatic. Example: When President De Gaulle of France visited Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany recently to discuss issues dividing the two nations, it was the general feeling that the two leaders would be doing extremely well to agree on what day of the week it was.

Democrat - GOP Coalition Fighting McNamara Project to Merge Reserves, National Guard - Charge Poor Planning in Viet Nam

WASHINGTON — A powerful coalition of Democrats and Republicans on the House Armed Services Committee is going to wage all-out war against Defense Secretary McNamara's proposal to merge the military reserves and National Guard. Headed by Representatives F. Edward Hebert, D-La., and Bob Wilson, R-Calif., the legislators plan to launch their campaign when McNamara appears before their committee this month in support of the controversial merger.

The strategy of the Hebert-Wilson group, as worked out at a private meeting, is based on the battle theme that the reserves should remain separate because of the increasing U.S. military commitment in Viet Nam.

Instead of reducing and merging reserve units which the U.S. may soon be forced to use in Viet Nam or other crisis spots, the legislators will argue, McNamara should be improving the combat readiness of both the reserves and National Guard. The lawmakers' offensive will strike where McNamara is most vulnerable — his failure to budget or plan for an expanded ground and air war against the North Vietnamese and Communist Viet Cong.

This unexplained gamble, which is seriously limiting the military options there, is being investigated by Senator John Stennis' Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee. Stennis, expected to lead the fight in the Senate against McNamara's merger plan, is so shocked by the Defense Secretary's preparation blunder that he is urging the President to immediately boost the Defense budget request by $2 billion. According to Stennis, his subcommittee's tentative findings indicate the extra money is needed now to replace military equipment being lost in Viet Nam and diverted from other U.S. forces and military stocks.

BEING PREPARED — The Hebert-Wilson group, with the full backing of Representative L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, will draw heavily on U.S. experiences in the Korean war to make their case. During that inconclusive ground war, the U.S. called up 150,000 reserve officers for duty and sent two National Guard divisions to the front lines in Korea. Two more Guard divisions were stationed in Europe to ward off a Soviet move against West Berlin. Another two divisions were mobilized and kept in the U.S. for emergency deployment.

The legislators will argue that McNamara's own intelligence warns of a possible North Korean-Chinese communist move in South Korea where two U.S. divisions are stationed under the U.N. flag. To bolster these crack fighting men in the event of a large-scale Red attack, the Joint

WASHINGTON:

Idle Hands Give Devil Field Day

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA)—Trips to well-to-do suburban areas in a number of states over the past year uncover the following: Bootleg liquor "shops" in upper middle-class junior high schools. Student-salesmen keep supplies in their book lockers in the school halls, sell quick shots to fellow seventh, eighth and ninth graders. High school prostitute rings involving girls from good families. Gambling rings for considerable stakes. Operators and customers both are sons and daughters of well-above-average income families in good communities. There are even more shocking examples.

THE POINT TO REMEMBER is that these incidents are from schools in excellent neighborhoods. The students are not economically underprivileged. Some teachers insist they have far less of a problem with young men and women from poorer sections.

A high school coach called up one of his best students the other morning, found him watching television and "loafing" around. "That's all I do all day in the summer," said the boy. "I haven't got a job; there's nothing around the house to do. So I loaf."

Wit and Whimsy

We are all manufacturers in a way — making good, making trouble or making excuses. — H.V. Adolt, quoted in Forbes.

The American Way

By HARRY BROWNE

A free enterprise society is attacked in various ways by its critics. But perhaps the most often repeated charge is that individualism is non-cooperative that when everyone is free to pursue his own profit, chaos results. What is required, we're told, is greater co-operation — as imposed by a central authority.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)
QUESTIONS: "When was money first used as a medium of exchange? Who was the first to originate it? How was it distributed to the people? Did some get more than others? If so why? Did some have to sell, and others have to work for it? Where did those who hired people for work get it? How did the one who originated it and the others that had the most of it get it? Did they make their own? Can anyone answer the above questions correctly?"
ANSWER: The questions probably cannot be completely answered in any space short of a lengthy book. However, generally speaking, money has been used as a medium of exchange almost as long as men have been exchanging goods and services.

Nearly everything has been used as a medium of exchange, from salt to beads and wampum. Even cattle were used at one time, according to the stories. It is from the word pecu — cattle — that the term pecuniary was adopted to mean relating to monetary matters. It is only because it is necessary for men to exchange goods and services for them to have more than a bare existence that money is necessary as a medium of exchange. Probably the first man to accumulate "money" was one who produced a surplus and saved it rather than to consume it. Thus he developed a working capital, which enabled him to produce more and thus to earn more. He became a capitalist and then was able to hire people who could earn more working for him than they could earn on their own little plots of land. Money must have a value in itself, it must be relatively scarce, and naturally it will be unequally divided or it will have no value.

If the questioner wishes to get a short, concise statement on money, we suggest he read "What Has Government Done for Our Money?" by Dr. Murray N. Rothbard, outstanding New York economist. Originally entitled "Money, Free and Unfree," this work has been printed as a 49-page booklet by the Freedom School, Box 165, Colorado Springs. It is priced at 75 cents.

A more complete study may be found in "The Promises Men Live By," by Harry Sherman, Random House ($3.75).

SQUARE PINEAPPLES
LONDON (UPI) — Australian officials reported today that a square pineapple is being developed at the Alston Tropical Research Station in New South Wales.

"It is intended for canning and has been developed to produce a more-can-shaped fruit which will be less wasteful in the canner," officials said.

The variety is described as "bigger, juicier and with a better balance of acid and sugar than the normal pineapple."

Business Highlights

By United Press International
WASHINGTON — U. S. officials, although deeply concerned at the crisis in the European Common Market, say they believe the six nation group will hold together in spite of General De Gaulle's obdurate tactics. A breakup of the common market could produce severe problems for U. S. export trade and for U. S. industry in Europe.

OTTAWA — The Royal Canadian Air Force has decided to order Northrop Corp.'s twin-engine Super F5 Freedom Fighter plane, it was reported. The initial Canadian order is expected to be about $215 million for 102 planes.

NEW YORK — World sugar prices fell to a 24 year low of $1.93 a hundredweight with a seven cent tumble. Crop reports indicating a seven million ton rise in world output this year caused the break.

WASHINGTON — Seven of the 12 federal home loan banks have been raising rates on loans to member savings and loan associations by 1/8 to 1/4 of a point.
The home loan banks say their action has been dictated by the increasing cost of money.

Methodists Will Participate In TANE Field Day

St. Paul Methodist church will be one of some 2,900 churches over the state of Texas of several denominations, that will participate in the TANE Civic Righteousness Field Day on July 11 at the 11:00 o'clock service. Judge Lee Nowlin, a Methodist layman from Plainview, will be the speaker.

It is reported that during these services in Texas last year more than 1,000 decisions were made and nearly 50 per cent of TANE's (Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, Inc) budget requirements were provided through offerings from these services.
Rev. Roy Patterson, pastor of St. Paul's church, says that Judge Nowlin is a former associate lay leader of the Methodist Northwest Texas Conference and has been district lay leader of the Plainview district for a number of years.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Week-end shoppers will find good buys in many fresh fruits and vegetables, and also plentiful supplies of pork, lamb, beef, and poultry.
Asparagus, green beans, cabbage, celery, arrots, corn, cucumbers, lettuce, okra, onions, and peppers head the list of vegetables. Peas, potatoes, radishes, squash, and tomatoes are now in full season, making good main dish buys.
Cooks can choose from blueberries, cherries, peaches, plums, raspberries, and bananas to make their pies. And for dessert, they can pick at good prices, cantaloups, nectarines, strawberries, and watermelons. All are plentiful.
Heading the meat list are broiler-fryers, followed by ground beef, roast, and steak cuts. Bacon, pork chops, and lamb are in good supply.
All the dairy products — butter, milk, eggs, and cheese — are in abundant supply.
To round out the dinner menus, there is a quantity of canned pink salmon, frozen fish sticks, and halibut.
