Indian Tank Forces Stab Fiercely Against Pakistan

Heaviest Armor Battle Since World War II

By United Press International
The Indian defense ministry said today Indian troops had stepped up their attacks on all fronts and that two double-pronged drives had by-passed Pakistani strongpoints and were nearing the Pakistani towns of Lahore and Sialkot. The fighting has developed into a war of attrition with each side trying to destroy the other's armored forces in the heaviest tank battles since World War II. Both sides were using jet bombers and fighter-bombers but little infantry contact was reported.

Farm Bill Victory Is Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate was expected to hand President Johnson another key victory on the farm bill today. There was even a chance of final approval of the big measure by nightfall.

Both the administration and organized labor rallied behind an amendment by Sen. Ross Bass, D-Tenn., under which the Labor Department would continue to decide when foreign workers could be imported to help out on the nation's farms.

The Bass amendment would serve to strike from the farm bill an amendment by Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla., to shift jurisdiction over foreign farm workers (Mexican "braceros," Canadian potato diggers, and the like) to the Agriculture Department.

Two hours of debate were allotted to the Bass amendment, the first of a string of proposed changes the Senate must consider before it can reach a final vote.

Police Close Thornton Case

HOUSTON (UPI)—Police today had officially closed the case of the fatal shooting of Thomas Raymond Thornton, former Bell county judge.

A verdict of murder-suicide has been returned in the death of Thornton and hair stylist Bruce T. Rabuck, 35. Rabuck died Sunday from what police said were self-inflicted gunshot wounds.

Thornton, 38, was hit eight times and died a short time after the shooting. Police said Rabuck shot himself when officers entered his apartment.

Thornton was named one of the five outstanding men in Texas by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1961. He had been the youngest district attorney in Texas in 1953 in Bell County. He became Bell County judge in 1960. He moved to Houston last April.

Weekend Kills 13 In Texas

By United Press International
Compared with the tragic carnage over the long Labor Day Weekend, in which Texas led the nation in violent deaths, the past weekend was relatively mild.

Still at least 13 persons met violent death in the regulation weekend period, according to a United Press International survey.

In the count that began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued until midnight Sunday traffic accidents accounted for seven lives, four persons were victims of homicide and two were asphyxiated.

The dead included former Bell County Judge Thomas Thornton, 38. He was shot eight times Saturday. His assailant, Bruce Rabuck, 35, died Sunday of self-inflicted gunshot wounds. The shootings took place in Houston.

Jimmy Johnson, 31, and Barbara Spann McCoy, 30, were found dead in a parked car in Dallas Sunday. Police said the windows were closed and the ignition key on. A ruling of death by asphyxiation was returned.

Earl Keene, 21, of San Antonio was killed Saturday when his car overturned and crushed him.

Mrs. Jack Bowman was killed in a head-on collision of two cars at Rockport Saturday.

Mrs. Lydia Obaya, 33, of San Antonio was fatally shot Saturday in Houston. Police were holding her husband.

A two-car smashup Saturday on state highway 114 in Grapevine killed Earl Young, 52, of Dallas.

A car collided Saturday with two tractor-trailer trucks, killing 19-year-old Ronald Eugene George Bishop, 21, of Fort Worth.

A Friday night accident killed two-year-old Dayvne Rose Bair in Brownsville. The child was struck by a car.

SAIGON (UPI) — Another 5,000 men of the U.S. Army's First Cavalry Division landed today in Qui Nhon while advance elements of the 20,000-men "air mobile" strike force flew to a secret base inland to prepare for strikes against the Viet Cong.

U.S. military spokesmen have refused to announce location of the 8,500-acre base but expected to do so shortly when all of the 20,000-men force is in readiness. The arrivals today were greeted by Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the American commander in Viet Nam.

In the day's most important ground action reported, a purely Vietnamese action with no U. S. advisers participating, the government-owned Vietnamese press said 435 dissident tribesmen surrendered to government forces in mountainous Darlac Province.

Government forces encircled the tribesmen, who gave up more than 400 weapons that were American arms but others dated back to the Vietnamese uprising against French rule prior to 1954.

In Vinh Binh Province 55 miles southwest of Saigon, South Vietnamese forces on a one-day search and destroy operation captured a Viet Cong munitions plant. They found 1,000 rounds of small arms ammunition, chemicals for making powder, and other supplies.

A popular force squad ambushed a Viet Cong unit 120 miles southwest of Saigon, killing six guerrillas and capturing two weapons without loss to themselves.

In the air war, U.S. and Vietnamese planes flew 283 sorties against Viet Cong concentrations and supply areas in a 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m., destroying or damaging 499 buildings and blowing up ammunition dumps and blowing up ammunition dumps.

U.S. planes hit North Viet Nam, attacking the Yen Khoai barracks and ammunition storage area 35 miles northwest of Hanoi for the third time in four days. Other planes hit the Chap Le ammunition depot 12 miles north of the border.

There was still no indication when the First Cavalry Division will see action.

Early End For Council Predicted

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—A top official of the Ecumenical Council predicted today the fourth and final session of the Roman Catholic assembly "can be finished before Christmas."

The council faces an 11-point agenda including such controversial topics as religious liberty, nuclear warfare and reform of the Roman Curia.

Julius Cardinal Doepfner, archbishop of Munich, Germany, held an official pre-council press briefing today. He said no date has been set for the close of the council.

"It will finish when the work is truly completed without strangling the council itself," the cardinal said.

Louisiana Counts 250 Dead in Betsy's Wake

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—The coroner of New Orleans said today he received reports that Hurricane Betsy killed 240 persons in devastated Plaquemines Parish (county). The reports via amateur radio said the bodies would be sent to New Orleans.

"We have no real confirmation of this," said coroner Dr. Nicholas Chetta.

Verification was difficult. Telephone lines to Plaquemines south of New Orleans were still out.

There were 45 known dead from Betsy in Louisiana. Chetta had said there could be as many as 200 in still-flooded New Orleans alone.

At Baton Rouge, divers searched for 1.2 million pounds of deadly chlorine. It was aboard a barge that disappeared at the height of the storm Friday and presumably sank in the Mississippi River.

Pr-sident Johnson ordered the all-out emergency search for the missing barge, owned by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Officials said it was unlikely that the chlorine could escape and turn into its gaseous state, posing a grave threat to the heavily-populated area, but gas masks were rushed in as a "precautionary measure."

250 Demonstrators Enter U.S. Capitol

WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than 250 civil rights demonstrators filed silently into the Capitol today to support the Mississippi Freedom party's attempt to unseat the state's congressional delegation.

The demonstrators gathered outside the Capitol during a rainstorm and were admitted to the building at 9 a.m. EDT when it officially opened. Capitol police permitted the demonstrators, most of whom traveled here from Mississippi during the weekend, to walk to the rotunda of the Capitol.

'Didn't Lose' —Miss Texas

IRVING, Tex. (UPI) — Mary Lou Butler was back home from the Miss America contest today and said she "really can't say that I failed."

"I don't think I'm a loser," added the 18-year-old Miss Texas.

A co-ed at Stephen F. Austin who represented Nacogdoches in the state contest, Miss Butler competed for the national title in Atlantic City Saturday night.

Indian Minister, Thant Hold Talk

NEW DELHI (UPI)—United Nations Secretary General Thant held urgent conferences today with Indian Foreign Minister Swaran Singh and Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri in his thus far unsuccessful efforts to win a cease-fire in Kashmir.

Earlier he held a long meeting with Gen. Robert Nimmo, chief U.N. Military observer in Kashmir where U.N. intervention halted an Indo-Pakistan war in 1949 and imposed a cease-fire in disputed Kashmir.

Informed sources said Thant might stop off in Moscow on his way back to New York from his peace mission.

Barbra Streisand, Dick Van Dyke Top 1965 'Emmy' Honor Roll

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Barbra Streisand, who burst on the television scene in a widely acclaimed one-woman show, and old standby Dick Van Dyke topped television's annual Emmy awards Sunday night.

The young stars shared top billing with Alfred Lunt, Lynn Fontanne and conductor Leonard Bernstein who also won for outstanding individual achievements in entertainment. They were the only performers to receive the gold statuettes among the 33 Emmys presented on the nationally telecast program.

Each of the winner's shows also took honors for outstanding achievement under the revamped Emmy format that limited nominees to four catch-all categories.

The winning shows were: "My Name Is Barbra," "The Dick Van Dyke Show," Bernstein's "What Is Sonata Form?" from his New York Philharmonic Young Peoples Concert series, and "The Magnificent Yankee" in which Lunt and Fontanne starred in a segment of "Hallmark Hall of Fame."

A breathless Miss Streisand said: "This is too fantastic. When I was a kid my favorite shows were the Oscars and Emmys!"

Van Dyke, who won last year's Emmy for best comedian, was absent. His Emmy was accepted by his brother, Jerry.

Actress Edie Adams accepted the award for Bernstein while Joan Crawford read a note of pleased acceptance from Lunt-Fontanne.

The scheduled 90-minute telecast, which ran almost a half-hour over time, was a star-studded show emanating from Hollywood's Palladium with Danny Thomas as emcee and New York's Hilton Hotel where Sammy Davis acted as host.

Presentations were intermingled with musical numbers and gags by stars acting as presenters, among them: Johnny Carson, Jimmy Durante, Inger Stevens, Danny Kaye, Robert Vaughn, Mary Tyler Moore, Richard Crenna and 22 members of the singing

King Family.

Thomas began the show by observing: "We don't have the suspense we had in the past, but this will be a thrilling moment for us all—we hope."

Only the Van Dyke awards went to a popular, highly rated series. No others among the top 10 or 15 shows came close to winning.

The hoopla of previous Emmy nights was missing as fewer than a hundred fans showed up outside the Palladium. The scene was the same in New York.

Under Academy President Rod Serling, no distinctions were made among dramatic, musical, comedy or variety shows, thus eliminating individual competition which flavored the past 16 presentations with suspense and excitement.

Neither were supporting players separated from stars. As a result no supporting performers were rewarded with Emmys, although several were nominated.

In the competition among networks, NBC won 14 awards, CBS, 12, and ABC, 3.

The Canadian Broadcasting Corp. won the international award for its "Le Barbier De Seville." And the station award went to WDSU-TV, New Orleans, for its special, "Ku Klux Klan."

"The Louvre," a documentary of the famous Paris art gallery narrated by Charles Boyer, won the most Emmys of any single show with a total of six. "My Name Is Barbra" ran off with five awards for second honors.

Dear Abby...

Concerned Reader Has A Pertinent Point

DEAR ABBY: You recently quoted from Socrates to point out that today's teen-agers are no worse than those in the Fifth Century, B. C.

"Our youth now love luxury. They have bad manners, contempt for authority; they show disrespect for their elders, and love chatter in places of exercise. They no longer rise when elders enter the room; they contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up their food, and tyrannize their teachers."

Every time the subject of youth immorality, "The Bomb," or "The Pill" comes up, someone trots out that old quote from Socrates. Doesn't it occur to them that Athens fell because their society had degenerated to a new low? Homosexuality was rampant, slavery ruled, only the elite enjoyed human rights, women were abused. Let's give that misleading quote from Socrates (who was forced by his fellow citizens to drink the hemlock) a rest. While we're contemplating today's youth versus those of early Athens, let us recall another quotation: "Those who ignore history are doomed to repeat it."

me because he sort of smiles when we pass each other. I know you can't judge a book by its cover, but I would give anything to meet this man and get to know him better. Any suggestions?

THROBING HEART
DEAR THROBING: Heed your own advice and don't try to judge that book by its cover. It could be dedicated to someone. He may be as free as a breeze and as good as gold, but taking up with strangers is a very risky business. I don't recommend it.

Officers Elected By Metanet Club

CONCERNED
DEAR CONCERNED: (Gulp.) You may have something there.

DEAR ABBY: A woman wrote to you a while back and complained because her husband "lost" four handkerchiefs in a week. Well, I have her beat. My husband lost two pairs of underwear and a pair of socks in three days! He comes home plastered and claims he doesn't even know where he's been. If I even dare to suggest that he's been running around, he tells me I am out of my mind. So what should I do?

New officers were elected by Metanet Quilting Club when the group met recently in the home of Mrs. Orval Johnson, outgoing president.

Serving the club will be Mrs. George Hamlin, president; Mrs. J. B. Jones, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Willie Harless, reporter.

Refreshments and "Pick A Word Game" were enjoyed. Attending were Mes. Orval Johnson, Earl O'Neal, George Hamlin, Forrest Cloyd, J. B. Jones and Willie Harless.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do if you couldn't get a person out of your mind, but you didn't know his name or anything about him? Abby, this man is about the handsomest guy I have ever laid eyes on. I see him near where I work almost every day. I'm sure he notices

Study Habits Can Save Eyes

GOOD POSTURE ESSENTIAL — Posture affects a young pupil's general health and future good looks. Incorrect posture while studying can cause eyestrain, tension and muscle fatigue. Here pupil sits properly with homework well-lighted. She takes an "eye break" by focusing on a distant object occasionally and by using eye lotion to refresh tired eyes.

By ALICIA HART
Beauty Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
What do good study habits have to do with a young girl's appearance? Quite a lot. Fatigue caused by poor posture, headaches due to poor lighting and lack of fresh air all tend to wrinkle the brow, so to speak, of the youngest pupil. Few look and feel at their perky best when these discomforts occur daily. Most educators and doctors agree that sitting posture is correct only when the center of gravity falls perpendicularly on the seat bones. Sit erect. Correct posture puts books and papers the proper distance from your eyes—14 to 18 inches. Incorrect posture brings the work too close. The result often is eyestrain, tension and muscle fatigue.

When studying, take a break from the printed page every 15 to 20 minutes and focus on a distant object.

After long periods of study, a few drops of eye lotion from a handy plastic squeeze bottle will be soothing.

When you feel mentally tired, open a window or step outdoors for cooler air. This helps "clear out the cobwebs" by riding your body of excess heat.

The right amount of sleep, moderate meals, a proper study atmosphere and adequate lighting help make your homework stints more pleasant and productive.

Researchers for an eye care product company (Murine) offer study room tips:

They suggest the room be decorated in light colors. The minimum amount of light considered adequate or study is that received from a 75-watt bulb at a distance of six feet. Even better is a 150-watt frosted bulb in a lamp with a drum-type shade. This throws the light downward on the print and also diffuses light upward. There should be another light on in the room to eliminate harsh shadows or extreme contrast.

A study desk or table, about 24x4 feet allows enough surface space for books and papers. It should be a light to medium color or if dark, covered with a pastel blotter to avoid too sharp contrast with the lighted book.

Once you set up your study routine, observing good posture and lighting, set your mind to enjoy your work. You'll absorb more if you approach your lessons willingly.

Ruth Millett Willing Hands, Kind Heart Always Needed

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

I am always reading — and I'm sure you are, too — about that period in a woman's life when she "no longer feels needed."

Those who use the phrase assume that a woman "no longer feels needed" once her youngest child is grown and gone from home.

Why, just because her job as a mother is as near finished as it will ever be it's never really finished so long as she lives, should a woman get it into her head that she is no longer needed?

If she still has a husband she is just as much needed as a family. Since no bride thinks of herself as "no longer needed," why should a middle-aged wife?

Even if she no longer has a husband there is no sensible reason for a woman whose children are grown and gone from home to decide that nobody needs her.

For one thing the children will need her from time to time, if she is the kind of person who can be counted on in times of emergency or for moral support or even for good advice, when asked for. And grandchildren need a grandmother.

Surely there are relatives and friends and neighbors she feels close enough to so that she can sense when help is needed and be ready with a helping hand.

But even if she is quite alone there are today all sorts of places where a pair of willing hands is needed. Every community needs volunteer workers. Every church needs them.

There is no stage in life when a woman suddenly becomes "no longer needed." There's always need for willing hands and a kind heart — if a woman wants to recognize the need.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR TUESDAY, SEPT. 14
GENERAL — TENDENCY: A good time to use all that force now generated to make some long-range plans that can take your greatest wishes into account and gain for you their respect and good will because you do have the clarity of thought plus active direction that makes others see your best qualities and opens new doors for you.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Financial affairs can best be resolved if you get the assistance of some real expert. Be sure you have a more workable budget going. Have a greater reserve than usual.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Considering close ties that a plan you have in mind is workable will be relatively easy now. Handle cleverly any out-of-side business with others. Show you are on the beam.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — By following through with the ideas of an influential person you get ahead very much faster now. Handle cleverly any out-of-side business with others. Show you are on the beam.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — A higher-up will help you to get obligations better handled if you discuss with him or her, but all in fine order. Evening then, others well for romance and happiness.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) — Only by your full cooperation will you make so co-workers that you are desirous as they of being more successful. Have more orderly surroundings. Be efficient.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Take better to some charming restaurant, etc. where better understanding can be reached. More interest in others is also necessary. Increase your own happiness.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Rid yourself of anything that deters your success — have a stronger structure behind you. Partners expect that you work hard. This is only right at the present time.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — You need more data before you can carry through with your ideas, plans, so be sure to get it. Labor with enthusiasm. Then off to the recreation you like with pals.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Sit down and analyze what progress you have made especially where home affairs are concerned. Get projects operating more efficiently. Start an uptrend immediately.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — You are able to discuss your most cherished aims with those who can be truly influential in helping you gain them. Know what it is you want. State specifically to partners.

Mature Women Can Always Maintain Beauty

Women who are 50 plus, belong to an age group whose beauty may be maintained for years, when specific make-up rules are faithfully obeyed, says a leading beauty authority.

Here are the important do's and don'ts that should be carefully followed.

Don't use bright rouge applications in an attempt to look younger. Some women discard many of their beauty requisites, and then, in trying to look younger, apply an abundance of rouge. This creates an artificial, painted effect that only augments age. Use the new pastel glow, natural complexion coloring, and you cannot fail to achieve a completely youthful rouge effect.

Take great care in the application of lipstick. Make sure the lip line has the sharp, clean look of youth by applying the color with a brush or with the fine line lipstick. Wear only the soft, youthful pastel shades.

Don't use foundation make-up or powder that is overly light or dark for your own skin. Do select colors that harmonize with your own complexion tones. If your eyebrows and eyelashes are turning white, delicately tint with an eyebrow make-up and mascara. Cover veined eyelids with misty shades of eye shadow, and lightly dust with powder.

Don't give up any of your make-up requisites. Instead, use them with less drama as you grow older, but use them with all the skill you have learned over the years.

Bowling Party Is Enjoyed by Class

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — The Christ Ambassadors of Skellytown Assembly of God Church enjoyed a bowling party recently at Cedar Lanes Bowling Alley in Borger.

Attending were Eddie Mayfield, Ronnie Tyler, Beverly Cook, Martha Tyler, Tresa and Mike Tietz, Adh Ledford, one guest David Heaton. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Lovd Cook and Amos Cook. Mrs. Cook acted as scorekeeper for the group.

An extra laundry hamper, reserved for soiled play and work clothes and placed near the wash-up area, is a real work saver.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Cutting Hint Helps When Sewing Plaids
By POLLY CRAMER

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — Those who dislike sewing on plaid materials because of the trouble in matching plaids may welcome my Pointer. The bodice pieces of a pattern front and back and sleeves, after they are seamed together, all meet at the underarm seam. To have matching plaid lines, fold the sleeve pattern across at the points where the armhole and underarm seams intersect. Also fold the front and back pieces where the armhole and underarm meet.

When this is done correctly the lines made by the folds will be perpendicular to the straight of the goods line. I like to mark the line with a red pencil and label it the "plaid line." When doing the final pressing of a finished garment, I also press the pattern so it stores flatly. I also date a pattern and make any appropriate comments on adjustments and materials.

LIZ — Many of you will soon be making school clothes from plaid fabrics so I am sure that this Pointer will be most welcome. Liz's method still requires care and caution but I found it to be sure if carefully followed. I prefer the use of a straight pin to identify the plaid line being followed rather than a red pencil mark.

DEAR POLLY — When you buy a bottle of cooking oil, fold a paper napkin in half, wrap it around the bottle and secure with a rubber band. The drip which usually runs down the bottle to soil clean shelf paper is absorbed by the napkin and there are no resulting greasy rings.

DEAR POLLY — For a long time I have been trying to come up with a good way to save the yolks of separated eggs. I now keep each yolk in the original half shell after separating it from the white. To "close" the shell, wrap a small piece of plastic wrap or foil around the shell and place it upright in the egg rack in the refrigerator to keep for use in the immediate future.

ARCADIA, La. (UPI)—Two men wanted on charges of kidnaping and robbery in Texas were in jail today following their meek surrender Sunday night to a Louisiana sheriff.

Youth Sentenced in Mower Theft
Richard Lee Dismuke, 17, of 1600 West Browning was fined $100 and sentenced to three days in jail today after he had entered a plea of guilty to a charge of theft.

The charge was made in connection with theft of a lawnmower on September 1.

Prairie Village Has Prowler

Pampa police were deluged with calls from residents of Prairie Village early Sunday morning reporting a Negro man looking in their windows.

The first call came at 12:45 a.m. from Mrs. Steve French, 600 Plains. Other calls within an hour came from Leroy Jackson, 1004 Prairie Dr.; Oliver Rogers, 1013 Varnon and Mrs. Andrew Robertson of the Jiffy Trailer park.

Mrs. French told police that a neighbor had chased the prowler down an alley but was unable to catch him.

The four reports covered a period from 12:45 a.m. until shortly before 2 a.m.

Police said they searched the area for about 1 and one half hours but were unable to locate any trace of the prowler.

swapped accusations of atrocities. The latest atrocity report came from Karachi where a statement said the Indians massacred a family of 13 in Kashmir because they had taken part in an uprising against Indian rule.

Reports of the fighting in Kashmir were as conflicting as reports of the fighting on the Lahore-Sialkot fronts.

India's midday war bulletin said Indian troops dominated all areas of the Tithwal sector east of the River Kishanganga. This area is 140 miles northwest of Sialkot and barely 15 miles from Pakistan.

In this same area, Pakistan radio said, another 1,000 persons had joined the "freedom fighters" battling against Indian rule and the freedom fighters captured a number of police stations and an armory in the Darhal-Malkam sector of extreme southeast Kashmir. The "freedom fighters," aided by Pakistani regulars, touched off the undeclared war when they rose against Indian rule in the pre-dominantly Moslem state of Kashmir. India sent in troops and Pakistan sent in large forces. The war quickly spread south into Pakistan.

Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!

New York, N.Y. (Special)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription.

Medical tests proved this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms.

This formula is so effective that it is the physicians' leading asthma prescription — so safe when used as directed that now it can be sold without prescription in most states — in tiny tablets called Primatene. These Primatene Tablets open bronchial tubes, loosen congestion, relieve taut nervous tension. All without painful injections.

The secret is—Primatene combines 3 medicines (in full prescription strength) found most effective in combination for asthma distress.

So look forward to sleep at night, and freedom from asthma spasms.

Opening Fails for Jets; Namath Rides Bench

By United Press International
When your opening act falls flat, your star watches from the wings and a former member of your troupe gets rave reviews, well, that's show business.

Sonny Werblin, a veteran show business magnate and owner of the New York Jets, saw his team literally fumble away a 27-21 decision to the Houston Oilers Sunday in the American Football League opener for both teams.

"Louis B. Mayer built the mighty M-G-M film studio on the star system; Werblin once remarked: 'It's a lesson that has stuck with me.'"

Werblin learned his lesson well. The Jets drafted Joe Namath, who has that star quality "when he walks into a room" and also has $400,000 reportedly paid to get him. Whether or not he has star quality when he walks onto a football field has not as yet been determined.

Namath stood on the sidelines at Houston and watched bargain-basement (a tv set bonus) quarterback Mike Taliaferro direct the Jets for the entire game. On the same day, a New York cast-off, Dick Wood, the quarterback who suddenly became expendable when Werblin drafted Namath and John Huarte, came off the bench to lead the Oakland Raiders to a decisive 37-10 victory over Kansas City at Oakland.

In AFL season-openers Saturday night, the Buffalo Bills whipped the Boston Patriots 24-0 and the San Diego Chargers nipped the Denver Broncos 34-31.

Don Trull sparked the Oilers attack and also may have thwarted the career of aging George Blanda, the 16-year pro football veteran who has guided Houston since the team was founded. Trull, somewhat of a disappointment in his first year in 1964, hit Willie Frazier with touchdown passes of 57, eight and four yards while Blanda provided the scoring difference by booting two field goals.

If Trull's passing didn't help Houston win the game, New York's opening game jitters did. The Jets fumbled seven times and lost the ball on four of those miscues. The Oilers also must have been nervous before a record crowd of 52,680. They fumbled the pigskin six times, losing it twice. The total of 13 fumbles is an AFL record while the Jets tied the one-game mark of seven.

Wood, New York's top signal-caller last season and traded to Oakland earlier this year, threw touchdown passes of 14 and nine yards to Art Powell and scored once himself. Claude Gibson accounted for the other Raider TD by scampering 58 yards on a punt return and Gene Mingo kicked three field goals.

Buffalo, the AFL defending champion, intercepted five Boston aeriels and took advantage of four before a record War Memorial Stadium crowd of 45,502. Cornerback Charley Warner ran 22 yards with a pilfered pass in the third quarter when the Bills broke a 7-7 halftime tie. George Saimes picked off two Boston aeriels and Jackie Kemp tossed a touchdown pass to Glenn Bass and plunged one yard for another TD.

San Diego and Denver battled down to the wire until John Hadj hit Lance Alworth in the end zone to put the game out of reach late in the fourth quarter. Rookie Gene Foster scored for the Chargers on runs of two and 17 yards and Paul Lowe galloped 41 yards for a touchdown, picked up a total of 120 yards rushing and connected on a 42-yard pass to Alworth.

Santana Worth 100 G's as Pro?

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—The general feeling around the courts today was that it would take at least $100,000 to lure Madrid's Manuel Santana, the new U.S. singles tennis champion, into the professional ranks.

The unruffled, 27-year-old Santana played it as smooth on the question of his turning pro as he did while slashing through a steady rain Sunday to bring Spain the title for the first time by beating South African Cliff Drysdale 6-2, 7-9, 7-5, 6-1.

"At the moment," said Santana, stressing those first three words, "I am not interested in turning pro."

"However, I'm sure they will talk to me after the Davis Cup matches in November and when they do I'll listen to what they have to say."

The professional tour officials will have to be talking at least six figures after the spectacular, drama-packed performance Santana staged in becoming the 10th straight foreigner to win the coveted United States title.

America's tennis forces drew a blank all around on the famed Forest Hills tennis courts when Australia's Margaret Smith won the women's crown for the second time in three years and then team up with countryman Fred Stolle to capture the mixed doubles title.

The top-seeded 23-year-old Miss Smith, also holder of the Wimbledon championship, displaced Brazil's Maria Bueno as the U.S. women's singles titleholder with an 8-6, 7-5 win over Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif.

Then, after Santana took two hours and 18 minutes to knock off Drysdale, Miss Smith and Stolle grabbed the mixed doubles with a 6-2, 6-2 triumph over Frank Froehling III of Coral Gables, Fla., and Judy Tegart of Australia.

The 24-year-old, eighth-seeded

Shockers Take Opener, 27-12; Prep for Borger

Coach Bill Jones Pampa Shockers opened their season on a successful note Saturday night, whipping Perryton B, 27-12.

Jones said he was pleased with the showing of the Shockers, with the exception of the second quarter when, "we just tired out. I don't think we were in real good shape."

The Shockers built up a 13-0 first period lead, but saw it dwindle to 13-12 at halftime.

Fullback Stan Mathis got things off to a good start for Pampa, scampering 40 yards on the Shockers third play of the game for a touchdown. Hershel Moiser booted the extra point to put Pampa ahead 7-0.

The Shockers came right back to score the next time they got the ball, recovering a Perryton fumble on the Rangers 40.

Three plays later halfback Dick Henley went 20 yards for the first of his two touchdowns. The kick failed and Pampa led, 13-0.

The Shockers' apparently tired in the second period and Perryton scored twice to trail only 13-12 at the half.

But the Shockers weren't too be denied.

Pampa took the opening kick off in the second half and promptly marched 70 yards and promptly marched 70 yards diving in from the one to give the Shockers a 19-12 lead. The third period ended this way.

The Shockers scored their final touchdown near the middle of the last quarter, marching 80 yards, using mostly trap plays with Henley going over from 15 yards out.

Quarterback Steve Summers tossed to end David Shaub for the extra points and the Shockers had the game, 27-12.

Pampa had one other score called back when Gary Hyatt took the ball away from a Perryton runner and rambled 70 yards to score.

The play was called back, however, because the Shockers had 12 players on the field.

Pampa picked up 75 yards in penalties in the first half but had 400 yards rushing for the game and 80 yards passing on six of 11 completions.

The Shockers travel to Borger Friday for a 7:30 p. m. game with the Borger B team.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Rookie Sets Record For Lowly Senators

By United Press International
Rookies can dream, but few are fortunate enough to live their dream like 24-year-old Brant Alyea.

Alyea (pronounced all-ya) has spent four years in the minor leagues building a reputation as a slugger and trying to convince the Washington Senators he is ready for the majors.

The husky Passaic, N.J., outfielder, who has even spent some time studying dreams as a psychology major at Hofstra University, had a chance to analyze his wildest one in real life Sunday when he slammed the first ball pitched to him in the major leagues for a three-run homer.

Alyea's blast off reliever Rudy May paced the Washington Senators over the California Angels 7-1 and helped the 6-foot, 3-inch, 210-pounder become:

—The first American League player to hit a pinch homer on his first pitch in the league.

—The 35th player in history to sock a roundtripper in his first appearance.

—And, the ninth man to perform the feat as a pinch hitter.

Meanwhile, the pennant-bound Minnesota Twins blanked Boston 2-0 and whittled their "magic number" to nine, over Baltimore and eight over Chicago to clinch the American League flag.

Chicago topped New York 4-1 in the only other A.L. game played. Kansas City at Baltimore and Detroit at Cleveland were postponed because of rain.

Alyea, who socked 90 home runs during his short minor league career, was called up from Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League last week. He was announced as a pinch hitter Saturday but did not get to bat.

Catcher Jim French, another Senators rookie, had a perfect day with two hits in two at bats and two runs batted in. Frank Kreutzer scattered seven hits to win his second game in six decisions and Dean Chance lost his 10th against 13 victories.

Jim Grant hurled his fifth shutout, 13th complete game and posted his 19th triumph, limiting the Boston Red Sox to four hits. Tony Oliva, the defending A.L. batting champion, edged within five points of batting leader Carl Yastrzemski of Boston, the 1963 king. Oliva tripled and scored the winning run for Minnesota in the first inning on Bob Allison's single.

The victory was Minnesota's 17th in 18 games with Boston, a record since the A.L. expanded to 10 teams in 1961 and changed from a 22-game schedule with each team to 18.

Amateur Golfers Tee Off in Tulsa

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The switch from match to medal play for deciding the 65th annual National Amateur Golf championship failed to take the heat off Walker Cupper Deane Beman, who probably merits the favorite's tag regardless of the method used.

The 27-year-old Beman, who led the Americans' final day singles charge that threw the Walker Cup matches into a deadlock after the British had built up a formidable lead, already is here tuning up his game for the 72-hole grind starting Wednesday.

So are all of his Walker Cup teammates and eight of their 10 counterparts from the British Isles. But none of them figure to handle the tricky 6,917-yard, par 35-36 — 71 Southern Hills Country Club layout as well as executive.

NATIONAL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Spahn On Way to Series As Giants Stretch Lead

By United Press International
Somehow you have to listen when Warren Spahn says the San Francisco Giants are going to win the pennant.

"We're in the driver's seat," chirped Spahn Sunday, after he had pitched the Giants to their 10th straight victory and a two-game lead in the National League pennant chase.

This is the same 44-year-old lefthander who kept insisting to anyone who would listen last July that he wasn't too old to pitch and win in the major leagues.

But Spahnie couldn't even bend the ear of the tattered New York Mets, who found him and his 412 win-lost record expendable in mid-July. Even the Giants picked up the winningest lefthander in history on July 19 with a shrug.

Nothing to Lose
"We'll take him because what have we got to lose?" was Giants' manager Herman Franks comment.

Spahn proved himself right about his ability to win, pitching a neat seven-hitter at the Chicago Cubs for a 9-2 triumph after the Giants had dumped the Cubs 4-3 in the opening game of a doubleheader. It was his third victory in seven decisions since coming to the Giants and was his first complete game triumph since May 24.

Warren also thinks he'll prove himself correct about the pennant.

"There shouldn't be any pressure on us now. The pressure should be on the other clubs to catch us," Spahn said. "It's the other side that might make mistakes and can't afford it, not us."

Houston upset the Los Angeles Dodgers 3-2, dropping them two games off the pace, and New York shocked Milwaukee 1-0 in 10 innings, pushing the Braves four games behind. St. Louis at Philadelphia and Cincinnati at Pittsburgh were postponed because of rain.

Willie Mays hit his 499th career homer with a man on to help Spahn, who yielded two home runs to John Boccabella and his 412 win-lost record expendable in mid-July. Even the Giants picked up the winningest lefthander in history on July 19 with a shrug.

Nothing to Lose
"We'll take him because what have we got to lose?" was Giants' manager Herman Franks comment.

Spahn proved himself right about his ability to win, pitching a neat seven-hitter at the Chicago Cubs for a 9-2 triumph after the Giants had dumped the Cubs 4-3 in the opening game of a doubleheader. It was his third victory in seven decisions since coming to the Giants and was his first complete game triumph since May 24.

Warren also thinks he'll prove himself correct about the pennant.

surprise the Dodgers. Ex-sacrificed to third and scored on Dodger Bob Lillis doubled, was Joe Morgan's sacrifice with the winning run. Jim Wynn had tied the score in the eighth by racing all the way home from second on an infield roller by Lee Maye with two out. Reliever Jim Owens (6-4) was the winner and Ron Perran (4-6) took the loss.

Demons Make Habit of Beating 4-A Grid Teams

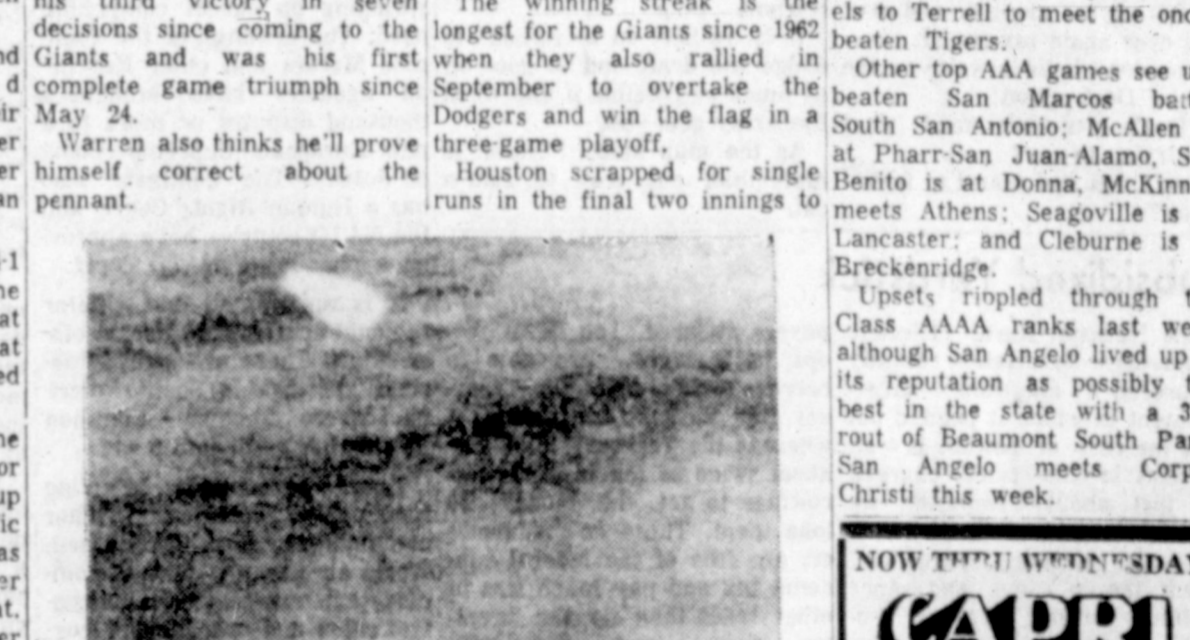

By United Press International
The Class AAA Dumas Demons, who make a habit of picking on Class AAAA bully-boys and drubbing them, get another chance this week.

The Demons — 19-0 victors over AAAA Amarillo Palo Duro last week — take on Borger in their home lair at Dumas. Borger routed Littlefield 31-0 last week.

Palestine, defending state AAA champ and 27-0 victors last week over Athens the only team to beat it last year, travels to Terrell to meet the once-beaten Tigers.

Other top AAAA games see unbeaten San Marcos battle South San Antonio; McAllen is at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, San Benito is at Donna, McKinney meets Athens; Seagoville is at Lancaster; and Cleburne is at Breckenridge.

Upsets riddled through the Class AAAA ranks last week although San Angelo lived up to its reputation as possibly the best in the state with a 37-0 rout of Beaumont South Park. San Angelo meets Corpus Christi this week.

BLOW-UP — Houston's Eddie Kasko and umpire Paul Pryor are having the same problems as the wind takes center stage and plays havoc with the infield—and their hats.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

'Beat' Generation's Song

There are various ways to relay a message, sell a concept or a philosophy. The most accepted is the direct statement that can be dealt with in the open bars upon its face value, the means of communication with which the American public is most familiar. Other methods sell by innuendo or suggestion and are generally presented in a form other than as an accepted "sales" talk, the most popular current medium being that of folk songs or pop music.

Folk songs or pop music reach a vast audience. Those listening or dancing are not specifically interested in the words that accompany the music or the beat, the words are secondary. The listener absorbs but is not actually conscious of the fact that he is. The actual implanting of an idea is accomplished through exposure by repetition.

One of the current teenagers' "beat" through exposure by repetition seems to fit this category. It is a record distributed by ABC Paramount Records, recorded in "Dunhill Records," Trousdale Music Publishers Inc. "Eve of Destruction" (P. F. Sloan) and features Barry McGuire. From the words: "The eastern world, it is exploding! Violence flarin', bullets loading; You're old enough to kill, but not for votin'; You don't believe in war, but what's that gun you're totin'; And, even the Jordan River has bodies a-floatin'; "But ya tell me over and over and over again my friend; You don't believe we're on the Eve of Destruction! "Don't you understand what I'm trying to say? Can't you feel fear I'm feelin' today?"

Subsidized Yardstick

The National Rural Electric Cooperative Association recently sponsored a magazine advertisement in which it pointed out that the cost of power is an element in the price charged for just about everything we buy. It then said that the "consumers' electric yardstick" which the co-ops and other "publicly-owned systems provide" makes it possible for us to know the true cost of providing electric service.

This, no doubt, presents an appealing picture to consumers who are not conversant with the whole story. And, it is a story which deserves constant telling, and retelling. The substance of it is that "public-power" systems, of whatever kind, do not run on a business basis. They are subsidized — directly, indirectly, or both — by the taxpayers at large. The REA co-ops, for instance, are able to borrow money from the Treasury at 2 per cent interest whereas the Treasury must pay about twice as much on its borrowings to get the money to loan them. These co-ops, furthermore, are free of the federal income tax and pay much less in other taxes than do the investor-owned companies with which they compete. The importance of this reflected in the fact that the investor-owned companies pay an average of about 25 per cent of their revenues in taxes, in some cases, substantially more.

The co-ops position would be tenable, if, and only if, they operated on precisely the same financial basis as the investor-owned utilities. The Co-Op "yardstick" is totally misleading.

World Law Day Offers Dreamy Idea

By BRUCE BOSSAT Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Today Sept. 13, the headlines may well go to events in Viet Nam, or to a civil rights march somewhere. The fact that it is also World Law Day may strike many Americans as pretty dreamy stuff, if they hear about it at all.

The setting aside of the day is indeed an adventure in idealism, intended to call attention to the hopes of whole legions of lawyers that the rule of law may some day be so thoroughly pervading throughout the world as to make war truly obsolete.

But World Law Day, and the week-long September conference here of which it will be a part, already represents a good deal more than a filmy dream. Some 2,000 legal leaders from 120 countries would hardly be gathering in Washington for so distant a purpose.

The hard, practical substance behind the conference on World Peace Through Law is the tremendous proliferation of contracts among the peoples of the world — and among their many institutions and agencies.

International trade, travel, investment and other relationships among men and nations are accelerating so fast that some legal ordering of these affairs is vital if chaos is to be avoided.

Just on the national level, the United States now is party to 1,432 treaties and conventions. It is represented at an average of two international meetings a day at which new law may come up.

Lawyer Charles Rhyne, chairman of the September conference, says the United Nations and its specialized agencies have "spurred, spawned, updated or sponsored more international law and legal institutions than was achieved in all prior history."

New international courts below the World Court level are springing up out of compelling need. The dealings of the Common Market and other European agencies have brought a thousand disputes or more to a new European Supreme Court of Justice. The continent also has a Human Rights Court, and the NATO countries have approved a plan for a NATO court.

Backstage Washington

Viet Nam Master Plan for Ending Fighting Based on Setting Up Civilian 'Reconciliation' Government

WASHINGTON — A crucial aspect of the Johnson administration's master plan to "bring the Viet Nam conflict from the battlefield to the negotiating table" is replacing the existing military rule with a broad-based civilian "government of national reconciliation."

Consisting of an indirectly "elected" national assembly, a premier and cabinet, this regime would take the lead in seeking a negotiated termination of the fighting.

Tagged to play a key role in this intricate backstage strategy is Edward Lansdale, the controversial retired Air Force major general now back in Saigon for the announced purpose of heading a special team of U.S. advisers to the Viet Nam Central Rural Construction Council.

It is this still largely paper organization that is to be Lansdale's principal tool in setting in motion the series of developments designed to bring about the peace-aiming "government of national reconciliation."

While congressional and other authorities know that the President and his inner advisers have a master Viet Nam "peace" plan, it is shrouded in closely guarded secrecy. Other than vague references to it in White House briefings and the President's private talks with callers, nothing has been divulged.

Between the Bookends

Growth in Free Market Literature

For those who wish to go behind the daily news to the ideological issues at stake, there are several valuable libertarian magazines on the market.

Foremost among these is The Freeman, descendant of a long line of Freeman magazines — published for over 40 years. The present version has been offered since the forties by The Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington, on Hudson, N.Y.

Chief advantage of "The Freeman" is its concern with the intricate workings of the free market. This means that the alert reader will benefit in two ways: he will better understand the superiority of a free economy over government control, and he will also discover the methods of success in the free market — because of his increased understanding.

Contributing writers include such stalwarts as Leonard Read, Paul Poirot, Ludwig von Mises, John Chamberlain, and William Henry Chamberlain, as well as others less known but carefully selected.

Two other magazines have recently come on the market, and premiere issues are very promising. The first of these, "Rampart Journal," is published quarterly by Rampart College Graduate School, Box 158, Larkspur, Colorado. For $7.50 per year, the reader will obtain advanced ideas on freedom.

Robert Allen

PAUL SCOTT

What, if anything, is done to keep village chiefs from naming Viet Cong to the national assembly is another blank spot. Perhaps it is contemplated to screen the assemblymen. Perhaps not.

In any event, the national assembly will select a civilian premier who, in turn, will set up a cabinet representative of all major elements.

This presumably broad-based and U.S.-backed civilian "government of national reconciliation" will launch a two-pronged effort — to negotiate a cease-fire, and to get underway a wide-ranging economic restoration and development program, with the U.S., of course, footing the bill.

Also envisioned is a start on withdrawing U.S. troops. This will depend on how this concept of events works out. But as the President eagerly pictures it, the homeward redeployment of troops should be in progress by January. That's what he has been broadly hinting to congressional and other callers.

As reported in this column last week, he told a small group of congressmen when the question was raised about the possibility of escalation of the Viet Nam conflict, "There is no serious danger of that. In fact, I think that when you come back here in January for the next session, there is a good chance we will be redeploying our troops home from Viet Nam."

The American Way

By HARRY BROWNE

Few people have ever stopped to realize the essential nature of that agency we call "government." Arguments rage over this governmental program and that power; but very seldom is the nature of the argument defined.

For there is only one reason why the state is called upon to perform any function — no matter what the function and no matter how it is labeled. What is the one essential ingredient of the state? Coercion.

No one ever calls upon the state for any reason — except for the purpose of coercing some people into doing something they would not voluntarily do. Examine any program of the state; and ask yourself "Why is the state handling this program?"

Why does the state handle welfare and relief? To administer charity? Of course not. There are private charities for that purpose. The state handles relief because there are people who would not voluntarily contribute part of their earnings to it, and so must be forced to do so.

Why does the state operate electricity companies? Because it is more efficient? No; because it is more profitable for someone to provide them in the free market. And everyone could buy and enjoy the services. But because some people want to force other people to do things against their will, they become agencies of the state.

The state's only asset is coercion. There is no program of the state that could not be undertaken and offered to the public by private enterprise. There is no service too large, too "official," too far-reaching to be handled by a voluntarily-organized private company. Ultimately, this even includes protection, which most individuals realize — as evidenced by the great sale of locks, firearms, etc.

Do people enjoy paying money yearly for foreign aid? If they do, put the program in the free market and let them contribute voluntarily. If they do not, then recognize that it is a federal program in order to force unwilling compliance.

The debates in Congress, the thousands of bills passed yearly, the State legislature, the local school board, the municipally-owned water company, the United Nations, everything that has to do with government in any form — all these things pertain to one commodity: force. Every question is one of: "What shall we force the people to do?"

Coercion, or force, is the physical interference with the life or property of another person. Only threatened (in case the state's wishes are not complied with) does not change the nature of the program. You pay your tax or you lose your property.

Every state program — from the regulating of milk prices to the building of schools — involves coercion. Think it through: it is not possible to conceive of a situation where this is not so.

Now, what was that "beneficial" state program you were promoting? Coercion, or force, is the physical interference with the life or property of another person.

The land is full of "bold new programs" by government; the air is full of the enthusiastic voices of the planners for government; more and more the chosen road of the ambitious is not personal production but the manipulation of power through government.

Questions are still raised; criticism is still heard. But most of the time it revolves around mere details. Should we use this plan or that plan? Should we make government twice as big this year, or wait five years? The debaters take it for granted that the massive trend of the times toward more and more government is both desirable and inevitable. In the midst of this turmoil of the power-seekers and the power-users, who stands for liberty?

Liberty does not mean absence of government. Liberty does not mean an irresponsible policy of instant destruction of existing government programs on which people have come to rely. Liberty does not mean opposition simply for opposition's sake.

A true love of liberty will impel us to ask questions, not about how the innumerable "bold new programs" of government are to be carried out, but what their real effects will be on individual freedom. No matter how often these vital questions may seem to be drowned out by the chanting of mindless slogans such as "extremism," "super-patriotism," and others, those Americans who love liberty and their heritage will continue to ask them.

Whether we agree or disagree, we would do well to hearken to their voices; for it is the voice of the conscience of Americans.

HOW TO ADDRESS OUR LAW MAKERS

The common European lemming, a rodent five to six inches long, including tail, is noted for its mass movements to the sea, led by blind impulse to what amounts to apparent voluntary suicide. During their line of march they are pursued and harassed by crowds of beasts and birds of prey, by men and domestic animals, including goats and cattle who stamp them to the ground and even eat them.
