Shastri said today he rejected the three reported Pakistani conditions for a cease-fire: withdrawal of all troops from both sides in Kashmir, a plebiscite to be held within three months to permit the people of Kashmir to decide their own future, and introduction of a United Nations force from African nations to police Kashmir pending the plebiscite.

Marsh said the incident happened when a group of Negro students were taunting a 14-year-old Negro sophomore at the south entrance of the high school about 8:45 a. m. yesterday.

Snakes, Hungry Dogs Prohibit Return Home of 5,000 Families

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Police and health workers waded through a muddy, polluted 300 square block section of New Orleans today to clear out rats, snakes and hungry, crazed dogs that kept 5,000 families from returning to their homes.

The area, east of the industrial canal, was the hardest hit by flood waters that spilled through four breaks in the canal levee and claimed most of the state's 63 dead from Hurricane Betsy.

Encephalitis Confirmed As Death Cause

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Out-numbered House Republicans, with a big assist from 38 state governors, have finally beaten administration Democrats on an important rollcall vote.
Spearheaded by the GOP leadership, the House Wednesday rejected a plan to strip governors of their power to veto local "war on poverty" projects in their states.
The vote, 206 to 179, was too decisive to be a fluke. It marked the first occasion since the voters gave Democrats a 295-140 House majority that the Republicans could claim a clear victory.
President Johnson and his congressional lieutenants have given ground this year when, as with rent subsidies and wheat price supports, they found themselves coming up to a rollcall with too few votes to assure victory.
But those retreats were before they were...

Vacationing Musician Starts Charting 'Old Chisholm Trail'

CHICKASHA, Okla. (UPI) — The Old Chisholm Trail, staked out 100 years ago, wound its way north and south through Grady County, Okla., en route from Brownsville, Tex., to the railhead at Abilene, Kan.

Al Carter, who each year takes a few weeks out from his job as a drummer in the Chicago jazz clubs, left Brownsville two weeks ago. He loaded his sedan with topographic maps, charts, pictures and historical data, and a camera, and set out to follow the trail.

Even that gets to be a problem. "I got stuck in rough sand in southern Grady County for four hours."

How do you follow a trail 100 years old?
"The original trail markings have just about disappeared. Although occasionally you come across a groove worn into the ground by millions of cattle hooves," Carter said. "But you can see the general formation of the ground that led to staking out the trail in the first place—level passages, stream beds. I've got it marked on a map."

Mayor Antonio Gonzales of Brownsville to the mayors of Abilene, Kan., but it'll take him until next summer to make delivery.

His historic interest, Carter says, was developed as a musician.

"I have jobbed in every state of the union. One day I got some maps and decided you can't see the country from the superhighways."

"You have to dig in, you have to hit these back roads," Carter said. "I found that these back roads really had a history."

Foreign News Commentary

By WELLINGTON LONG
BONN (UPI)—For the first time since the establishment of the West German Federal Republic in 1949, politics are back to normal here.

In the current campaign for the Sept. 19 parliamentary elections, voters are not confronted with a choice only between East and West, between rearmament or being disarmed, between capitalism or Marxism.

More on the American style, the election campaign this year is being fought by three major parties which subscribe to the same overriding general policy lines on both international and domestic affairs.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's Christian Democrats, his coalition partners the Free Democrats, and the opposition Social Democrats led by West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, all profess total loyalty to the NATO defensive alliance and to political, economic and military partnership with the United States.

Although all three have tried to entice voters by promising an attempt to reopen the dialogue with Moscow about ending the division of Germany, all three hasten to add they would do so only with the full approval and support of the United States, Britain and France. No campaign leader has entertained any suggestion of cutting ties to NATO and the United States in favor of a deal with Moscow.

The days when the Social Democrats opposed rearmament and membership in NATO, and marched militantly in the streets shouting "comrade" are gone.

Similarly, the years when the Free Democrats fought to replace Christian Democratic policies with a scheme for a neutralized and disarmed Germany have pretty well been forgotten.

All three parties now accept the necessity for Germany to be defended by nuclear weapons, and all three demand a greater co-determination in the strategic planning of nuclear defense.

On the domestic front, the differences are of detail rather than in principle. The Social Democrats have abandoned Marxism. They do not intend, if elected, to start nationalizing industries. Public health insurance long has been an accepted fact of life here, and the question now only is one of which party promises the most comprehensive coverage and best medical service for the least money.

All this makes for a dull election campaign. But it means that West Germany has moved safely through the political storm of its postwar years.

GOOD NEWS, KIDS!
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Dr. Ralph V. Platou, a New Orleans pediatrician, said Tuesday that instead of bathing you should "just dab where and when you are dirty."

"Today's strong soaps can remove many of the natural secretions which are beneficial to our skins," he told the Tennessee Pediatric Society. "We should be bathed only where we are dirty, and only when needed. Otherwise, our skin should be left alone."

ONE FOR BOOKS
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—A committee was asked Tuesday to abandon the local practice of having policemen deliver overdue book notices for the public library.

Police Chief Harold Breier said it gave officers the appearance of "bogeymen" to the book-reading public. But librarian Richard Krug argued that "no letter has the psychological impact of one of Milwaukee's finest policemen going up to a front door."

Observers Ponder Atom Bomb Plan

JAKARTA (UPI)—Indonesia announced intention to explode an atomic bomb sometime in the near future — possibly through an underwater test — is puzzling diplomatic observers here.

Actually, the defeat was more embarrassing than damaging to the President's legislative program. The issue focused more on gubernatorial pride than on practical operation of the anti-poverty projects, and it did not stand to endanger any important part of the key great society program.

The effect of the House vote was to send back to a House-Senate conference committee the legislation authorizing $1,785,000,000 in anti-poverty spending during 1965-66 and withdrawing governors' veto power over local community action and neighborhood youth corps projects.

In 1787, the U.S. Constitution was completed at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia and signed by a majority of the 55 delegates.

Observers Ponder Atom Bomb Plan

JAKARTA (UPI)—Indonesia announced intention to explode an atomic bomb sometime in the near future — possibly through an underwater test — is puzzling diplomatic observers here.

There have been no indications of preparations for the explosion of a nuclear device, although officials continue to declare that Indonesia will explode an atomic bomb shortly. There have been no reports of construction on any of the Indonesian islands or of ships arriving or being built to carry a nuclear device for underwater testing.

Experts say some sort of construction to house equipment and scientists would have to be undertaken if there is to be an explosion in Indonesian territory any time soon. Brig. Gen. Hartono said such an explosion might occur around the dates of the second Afro-Asian Conference to be held in Algiers. Afro-Asian foreign ministers are scheduled to begin meeting in Algiers in October. Heads of state will meet on Nov. 5.

Many observers deem it unlikely that the Chinese, after struggling to produce two A-bombs at great sacrifice, are about to hand equipment and a bomb over to the Indonesians "just for friendship's sake."

Rotary Club Hears Talk By D&B Official

"Causes of Business Failure" was the title of a talk given by A. M. Morton before the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday in the Coronado Inn. Morton is with the Amarillo office of Dun & Bradstreet.

The speaker listed some of the prime factors in business failures as lack of adequate sales, competitive factors, high accounts receivable and high fixed assets. Other important causes are lack of managerial experience, unbalanced experience and incompetence.

Morton said that the trend in the number of business failures has been down each year since 1961. Surprisingly, he added, 23 per cent of all failures are in businesses ten years old and older.

The national average is fifty-three failures per 10,000 businesses. Arizona and Utah lead the nation in percentage of business failures. Texas has an average of fifty-one per 10,000.

In manufacturing, Morton said that the furniture industry has the highest failure rate and the same is true with toy and hobby craft stores in retailing.

Bob Curry introduced the program.

Dolphin Tried For Sea-going St. Bernard

LA JOLLA, Calif. (UPI) — Can a trained dolphin do for a submerged diver what a St. Bernard dog does for a lost mountain climber?
Tuffy, the Sealab 2 project's "educated" dolphin, and two aquanauts planned today to put that question of animal intelligence to the supreme test 205 feet down in the Pacific Ocean.
Aquanauts John Reaves and Ken Conda, in diving gear, were set to plunge to the ocean floor equipped with buzzers to signal their position to Tuffy. If all goes well, the dolphin, wearing a harness with a cable attached, should respond to the signal, locate the divers in the murky depths and take the cable to them so they can find their way to the surface.
Scientists said a Dolphin's underwater vision far exceeds man's 10-to 20-foot undersea limit and the mammal can descend and ascend much faster than man.
Experimenters also wanted to learn whether Tuffy could carry messages to and from the diver as a sort of sea-going mailman.
"Our main concern is that he (Tuffy) get used to the sounds in a strange area—boats, motors and laboratory noises—so he can distinguish our underwater signal," said an official at Point Mugu, Calif., where Tuffy was trained.
To familiarize Tuffy with the expected sea noises, he was flown here by helicopter Monday from point Mugu and given two days' special training Tuesday and Wednesday.
Area Masons Set Panhandle Meet
A workshop has been scheduled for area officers and members of Masonic Lodges at 8 p.m., Sept. 27, in Masonic Hall at Panhandle. Officers from Claude, Groom, White Deer, Skellytown and Panhandle lodges will attend.
The workshop is part of a statewide, semi-annual program authorized by the Grand Master of Masons in Texas, J. Carroll Inley of Austin.
Purpose of the workshop is to enable Masons to study common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations. The Panhandle workshop will be conducted by J. B. Noland, a Sumnerfield rancher and chairman of Masonic Workshop Area E-6.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "I Spy," the first network prime-time entertainment series to costar a Negro—comedian Bill Cosby—bowed in Wednesday night on NBC-TV, an hour of secret agent stuff blending adventure and humor. Robert Culp and Cosby share the billing as a couple of agents roaming the world pretending to be a tennis bum and his trainer-companion. The first show, set in Hong Kong, was delightful.
What made the premiere delightful—and what immediately revealed the program as more attractive than all the other spy series around—was the fact that its strength lies in pleasant human relationships rather than in gimmicky tools-of-the-trade. Culp is an actor with good comic instincts, and Cosby is a comedian with good acting instincts. They blend beautifully. Culp the more dashing, Cosby the rascal incarnate—but each perfectly capable of switching these roles.
Meanwhile, back at the ranch, ABC-TV was introducing a new one-hour "Bonanza" like Western called "The Big Valley"—only instead of Lorne Greene as head of a big family, it has Barbara Stanwyck as head of a big family. There are other differences too.
Though the premier was cut from the standard cloth—with the railroad trying to take over land, and a young son trying to claim what he thinks is rightfully his—the heroes of "The Big Valley" at least act like grown men, instead of like grown children with a daddy, as in "Bonanza." Dan Blocker as "Bonanza" is pretty wonderful and pretty incomparable as "Hoss." But "The Big Valley" is a great big brawling, lusty, rich-looking, blood-and-thunder Western, with Peter Breck, Richard Long and Lee Majors strongly cast among the sons—and Linda Evans, a stunning, wholesome-looking blonde with eye appeal and acting ability, as the daughter. It is straight and unpretentious, and maybe that's the best way to make a Western after all.
Meanwhile, back at the launching pad, CBS-TV offered a new hour series called "Lost in Space," a science-fiction concoction of depressing cleverness and comic-strip juvenility concerning a family of the future that is sent to another planet for colonizing purposes.
PARKING FINE
LONDON (UPI)—Two chauffeurs arrived at the police lot, paid a $5.60 fine and drove an Aston-Martin convertible away. The car, towed in Wednesday for illegal parking, belonged to Lord Snowdon, husband of Princess Margaret.

REFINED DANCING
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Politicians have a language of their own. To wit, Wednesday's definition of "belly dancing" by Rep. H.R. Gross, R-Iowa, during debate on an arts bill: "Irregular jactitations and-or rhythmic contraction and coordinated relaxations of the serrati, obliques and abdominis recti group of muscles, accompanied by rotatory undulations, tits and turns."

LONDON (UPI) — The women of the Sierra Leone troupe will dance in topless attire tonight before a British television audience.
The government Ministry of Works earlier refused the group permission to dance in Trafalgar Square. The proposed attire was declared unsuitable for a public place.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — They say that nighttime soap operas, in which the suds are mixed with sex, are going to be very big on television this season.
I always try to keep abreast of the cultural trends so one night this week I tuned in on "Peyton Place," the pacesetter in this field.
You can't, of course, jump into the program cold and expect to know what is going on. Fortunately, I had available an animated scorecard in the person of my 15-year-old daughter Becky.
Becky has been a "Peyton Place" fan since its inception and knows the names and numbers of all the players. As they appeared on the screen, she straightened them out for me.
Scene Opens
In the opening scene, a boy is sitting on a porch. "That's Rodney. He just killed somebody."
Enter a girl. "That's Betty. She used to be married to him. He got her in a family way and the baby was killed in an accident and so they had the marriage annulled."
We were off to a rousing start.
"Joe's the kind of boy who looked for trouble."
"Who's Joe?"
"He's the boy who was just killed. He and Rodney had this fight and he hit his head on something. Rodney has a brother named Norman and this was what the fight was about. Joe, who was Polish, used to go with this girl."
"Who's Rita?"
"Rita. Rita and Rodney's brother Norman were going steady and so in Joe's effort to get Rita back they had a big fight and Rodney, who feels he's his brother's keeper, went after Joe and that is how they had their fight."
Follows Easily
With this bit of background, I found I could easily follow the rest of the program on my own.
Rita tells Norman that Joe is dead and that "the police are going to find out that you talked to him." Norman tells Rodney he didn't have anything to do with it. Rodney, who did it, tells Norman, "I don't believe you."
Betty's mother, whose husband is insane, asks Betty where she is going. Betty says, "I don't know. You will have to trust me."

Hash-Eggs Gives Day a Hearty Start

BREAKFAST CLASSIC — Pop corned beef hash next with hard-cooked egg halves into the oven for heating while you dress. There's no need to skip a nourishing breakfast when it's so effortless.

FALL BREAKFAST

Orange Slices-Plum Sections
Corned Beef Hash and Eggs
Toasted English Muffins
Coffee Milk

"No time for breakfast" is hardly a good excuse when there's conveniently canned corned beef hash on hand.

If you've noticed a lag in work output or a sag in morale after working an hour or longer, it could well be the lack of a proper breakfast. Unless the morning's food has a stick-to-the-ribs quality, you're hungry and out of sorts long before lunch time.

There are many good breakfasts, easily prepared and quick to eat types. All can prevent you from feeling less than top notch.

As long as September is Better Breakfast month, this might be good time to check up on breakfast eating habits and do something about it.

Canned corned beef hash is one good possibility. Flip it out of the opened can, slice and pan-fry in lard or bacon drippings to be served with or without eggs. Spread it on toasted English muffins and heat for a few minutes in the oven.

Another good way is more novel, certain to be appealing especially to the younger set who will probably refer to them as moonboats because of egg halves and the boat shape of the hash.

Here's a good way to get meat potatoes, eggs and cornflakes all in one! Prepared the evening before, just heated for breakfast, there's real speed in this high protein main dish.

CORNED BEEF HASH AND EGGS

2 cans (15½ ounces each) corned beef hash
2 cups cornflakes, crushed
3 hard-cooked eggs, cut in half lengthwise

Shape corned beef hash into 6 oval patties. Roll patties in cornflake crumbs. Place egg half in center of patty and press slightly into mixture. Place in baking dish and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 20 minutes or until heated through. 6 servings.

Serve It Buffet

Macaroni turkey salad makes a main course for a buffet supper. Cook 6 cups (1½ pounds) of elbow macaroni as label directs. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water and drain again.

Toss macaroni with 6 cups of cubed cooked turkey, 3 cups of thinly sliced radishes, ½ cup of finely chopped onion and 1½ cups of thousand island dressing. Chill and serve on lettuce. Makes 12 servings.

The outside of orange or lemon peel, rubbed on the skin, will help to remove tar stains picked up on beaches.

California's long white potatoes are an almost "all purpose" type. They are particularly fine, however, for mashing. Very smooth, with thin skin a minimum of waste. They are the major reason why California ranks third in production of potatoes.

SCIENCE SKETCHES

WHOLE BLOOD has been transfused into monkeys, after being frozen and thawed, with no adverse effects. The University of Michigan medical school hopes the experiment may help in developing frozen storage of human blood for indefinite periods.

STEELMAKERS' switch to the basic oxygen process, producing a heat of steel in just 60 minutes with a jet of pure oxygen burning out impurities, is making the atmosphere a very valuable commodity. Fortunately, says National Cylinder Gas, Chicago, raw material is no problem. The sky's the limit.

MEN'S SHOES don't fit properly, says a shoe manufacturer who has introduced the first new shoe-sizing plan since the Civil War. The system, replacing one that he says has a built-in error of as much as 28 per cent, emphasizes distance between the heel and the ball, and the girth of the foot at the ball, instead of overall length and width. This eliminates the letter system (just numbers are used) and permits stocking 40 per cent fewer sizes, the inventor claims.

Prisoners Escape With Prison Bus

HOUSTON (UPI)—Two prisoners pulled a guard from his horse in a cotton field today, seized his gun and fled in a white prison bus.
The prisoners were identified as Robert Novak, 28, and Walter Carter, 41, both of Dallas. Each was serving a 12-year prison term at the Harlem Prison Farm near Richmond, Tex.; Novak for robbery and Carter for burglary. They were convicted in Dallas County.
Police said they were among a group of prisoners taken in the bus to a cotton field.
A guard's horse shied. Novak pulled the guard down and seized his 28-caliber pistol. He and Carter forced the bus driver to hand over the keys of the vehicle and fled.
They headed toward southwest Houston, cutting across a golf course as they went.

Ex-Miss America Posts $500 Offer

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Vonda Kay Van Dyke, Miss America of 1965, has offered a $500 reward for the return of her Miss America crown and curly, her ventriloquist dummy.
The crown and dummy, used by Miss Van Dyke in the talent competition to win the title last year, were missing from the beauty's luggage when she arrived at Sky Harbor Airport here from Philadelphia on Monday.
An American Airlines spokesman said the articles were valued at $1,100, but Miss Van Dyke's mother said the dummy was "priceless and irreplaceable."

Lens Technician Draws Tax Fine

DALLAS (UPI)—A Dallas contact lens technician was fined $10,000 Wednesday for income tax evasion.
U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson levied the maximum fine allowable by law to Raymond C. Hieb, who pleaded guilty to evading almost $15,000 in income taxes on his 1960 return.
The government won indictments on charges Hieb also evaded taxes in 1958 and 1959, but asked the other two indictments be dismissed because it would cost too much to try Hieb for them.
Hieb admitted reporting an income of $10,999 in 1960 when his actual income was $37,470. He should have paid $18,215, but under the lower income paid only $3,235.
Judge Davidson did not give him a prison sentence but ordered that he pay the 1960 taxes and penalties he owed within the next week.

American Actress Given High Honor

CUERNAVACA, Mexico (UPI)—American movie actress Martha Hyer was chosen to give the "independence shout" in Cuernavaca, kicking off today's Mexican Independence Day ceremonies.
The fiesta, celebrating the 155th anniversary of the start of Mexico's revolution against Spain, begins with a shout of "Viva Mexico."
The President delivered the chief shout from the balcony of the National Palace Wednesday night, but others were delivered at the same time in almost every Mexican city and town, generally by the mayor, governor or other high official.
Miss Hyer, of Dallas, who is starring in a Mexican movie being made here, was picked to give the Cuernavaca shout.
She plans to fly back to Hollywood Sunday, saying she has to begin work in another picture there on Monday.

FROM YOUR STATE CAPITAL

Highlights and Sidelights

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, — Texas voters, by decisively defeating a proposed constitutional amendment to increase the number of State Senate seats from 31 to 39, moved one possible reason for a special legislative session this year.

Federal courts control two other legal issues which could require lawmakers to come back to the capitol for another 1965 powwow.

Since no senatorial districting act had been passed at the regular session, adoption of the amendment would have meant a virtually automatic special session call to decide how the eight additional Senate districts were to be divided.

Proponents of the defeated proposal promptly tagged its rejection a loss for rural areas.

Eight metropolitan counties accounted for enough votes to block it in the light-turnout, September 7, election. But some rural areas voted against it, too.

Thirteen incumbent Senators will be jammed together into six districts under court-ordered senatorial districting.

The amendment, if adopted, would have given all incumbents a chance to retain their jobs. Now, at least seven senate veterans are certain to be eliminated at the polls next year.

Suits challenging Congressional and House of Representatives redistricting by the 59th Legislature and attacking constitutionality of the poll tax still could require a special session.

Congressional redistricting case was heard by a special three-judge federal court at Houston last Thursday. Same court also conducted a pre-trial hearing on the legislative re-apportionment suit. A ruling that either act is unconstitutional conceivably could carry with it a mandate that lawmakers redo their work before the filing deadline for the 1966 election.

If the poll tax is outlawed, Texas will be left without a voter registration act. That is, unless the federal court, which will hear the case here in mid-November, decrees some sort of emergency plan for 1966 elections.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, continuing his opposition to the federal government's suit to ban the poll tax, last week fired off letters to all congressmen asking them for evidence to support their findings (in 1965 Voting Rights Act) that the Texas levy violates constitutional rights.

FEDERAL EDUCATION AID PLANNED — State Board of Education has accepted administrative ground rules for participating in new U. S. elementary-secondary education act which will bring about $60,000,000 in federal funds to public schools.

At the same time the board approved proposals to triple Texas' migrant school pilot program to reach 18,000 children in 40 districts. It also set up special programs for at least 3,000 adult migrants.

Children whose families follow the crops will get intensive, six-month schooling. Adults participating will receive basic education and training in fundamental homemaking and occupational skills.

Board named Ben R. Howell of El Paso its vice chairman to replace Emerson Stone of Jacksonville who resigned. Successor to Stone, who represented Anderson, Cherokee, Grimes, Henderson, Houston, Madison, Montgomery, Nacogdoches, Polk, San Jacinto, Trinity and Walker Counties on the board, will be appointed at the agency's November meeting.

Forty-five districts were warned of accreditation violations. Eagle Pass district was officially notified it will lose accreditation next July 1 unless substantial progress is made.

Eagle Pass Supt. J. I. James assured board the district already is hastening to correct shortcomings.

STATE SURPLUS GROWING — State government started its new fiscal year on September 1 solidly in black. Surplus was $136,800,000 according to Comptroller Robert S. Calvert. This is nearly $40,000,000 more than previously estimated.

State revenue for the fiscal year was $1,800,000,000 — $150,000,000 more than the year before.

as side of the Red River before the Legislature passed a law to ban pipelining water across the state boundary.

TEXAS TOPS IN SAFETY PROJECTS — Texas leads in projects and expenditures designed to promote safety on federal aid highways.

Office of Highway Safety, Bureau of Public Roads, announced the achievement through the vacation White House here. Twenty-seven Texas high-accident safety improvement projects have been programmed totalling more than $15,400,000.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Gov. John Connally named Jerry M. Kolander of Amarillo to membership on the Texas Youth Council. He succeeds Robert S. Tate of Austin, recently named to the new Mental Health and Mental Retardation Commission.

Connally also announced these appointments: V. F. (Doc.) Neuhaus of Mission, J. H. Bain of Stockdale and C. E. (Sonny) Bentley of Abilene to the Finance Commission of Texas.

tonio to the State Board of Pharmacy.

— H. A. Albert of Austin, John L. Disman of Houston, Dee E. Wheeler of Fort Worth, Clayton Evans of Austin, L. R. Wynn of Amarillo and Joe Low of Dallas to the new Polygraph Examiners Board.

Dr. William J. Kemp of Haskell to the State Board of Dental Examiners.

Governor reappointed Dr. Sam H. Rabon of Kingsville to the Dental Examiners Board; Roy Wiese of Brenham to Pharmacy Board; Dr. Richard L. Stratton of Cuero, D. S. Riley of Big Spring and Jose R. DeLeon of Corpus Christi to the Hospital Licensing and Advisory Council; and Everett J. Grindstaff of Balinger, J. R. # 'What Has Happened to the Word Patriotism?'

By MYRON FEINSILBER
United Press International

For 25 years, J.B. Koch has been a member of the Cleveland County Selective Service Board in the college town of Norman, Okla. He sees a lot of boys. He does not like what he sees now. "I don't know what has happened to the word 'patriotism,'" says Koch. "but it sure isn't in the vocabulary of today's youth." Every day he is confronted, he says, with "pampered and overprotected youths who do everything under the sun to get out of being drafted."

He said the father of one threatened to kill him after the Norman board drafted his son. Another boy got a deferment on the grounds his father needed him on the farm, then married, moved to another town and used the marriage as an excuse for deferment. (That was before President Johnson's executive order eliminated the escape by the marriage route.

Viet War Unpopular
In Georgia, Col. Harry Smith,

state draft director, found the same pattern. "I personally have more calls than I've had in two years from people wanting to know if they got back in school would they have to go. They claim hardship or just anything.

This thing has built (since the Viet Nam war intensified)... the thing is this particular war is now unpopular with the people as a whole."

United Press International asked selective service officials in a spot check across the country whether they were under increased pressure to grant deferments. Despite all the news of destroyed cards and students halting troop trains, despite the observations of Georgia's Col. Smith and Oklahoma's Koch, most officials said No.

"American youngsters aren't much different today from what they were a quarter of a century ago when it comes to patriotism," said Al Clarke, a draft official in Chattanooga, Tenn. with 25 years' experience. "Some boys are a little slow reporting but that's nothing new."

In Louisville, Ky., Leon Seidman, chairman of board 42, said: "These kids don't like to fight somebody else's war. But as far as pressure is concerned, I can honestly say we have received none. We have taken them from some of the biggest families in town—the so-called power structure—and never received a telephone call."

Rumors Destroy Confidence
In every hometown, every young man hears rumors—the son of a legislator whose father pulled strings to get him deferred, the boy who faked a back injury to fall his physical. These rumors, false though they may be, are easily believed by boys who want to believe them.

Then there are the athletes, symbols of muscular attainment, who flunk their physicals because of a weak knee. This news disturbs a lad who never considered himself hefty enough to try out for the high school football team, but is found healthy enough to serve his country.

Annoying, too, for the boy about to be drafted is the statistic that approximately four out of every 10 men ever don the uniform. Most of those who don't serve fail to meet the military's physical, mental or psychological standards. Others are deferred until they've passed draft age.

All of these factors gnaw at a boy who is about to be drafted. He feels he is being singled out, and he doesn't like it. (Tomorrow: Can the draft be ended?)

GRAY COUNTY BOARD

Possible January Call Of Married Men Seen

All married men, age 19-26, with no dependents living within jurisdiction of Gray County may be inducted into the armed forces in January.

Kathleen Zmotony, local draft board clerk said, "Indications are at this time that it may be necessary to draft all married men, age 19-26, living within jurisdiction of our office by January." She said that if this becomes necessary, the induction will include ALL married men classified 1A.

Mrs. Zmotony stated that a recent directive from Washington ordered that all married men, age 19-26, with no dependents be reviewed and classified 1A. She said new classifications cards have been mailed and should be received within the next few days.

The jurisdiction of the local draft board covers Gray, Roberts, Wheeler and Donley counties.

Mrs. Zmotony said the draft order, if issued, will affect 182 men living within the four counties.

She emphasized that the order has not yet been issued, but that indications now are that it will be issued by January.

"However, even though a man is drafted," Mrs. Zmotony said, "he may still volunteer or enlist in any branch of service he desires, providing proper procedures are taken."

She said if a man is drafted he may come to the draft board office and through proper procedures be allowed to volunteer.

Currently, the board is taking single men between 19-26 years of age, she said.

Students will receive deferments if they are certified as pursuing a fulltime course of instruction in a certified college or university. She said a student may also receive a deferment if he is certified as pursuing less than a fulltime course and the local board finds that he is making satisfactory progress towards attainment of a bachelor's degree in four successive calendar years, or five successive years in course requiring five years of study.

"For example," she said, "if a student working his way through school is satisfactorily pursuing a parttime course of not less than nine semester hours and will take five or six hours in summer session, he could normally meet his degree

Most casual observers, who consider the insect world as comprising flies, bees and butterflies, are unaware that the majority of insects are below the size that attracts the human eye, many of them being microscopically minute, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

PEACE PROTESTER JAILED
PORTLAND, England (UPI) — Terence Spencer, 19, told a court Wednesday that he illegally boarded two warships Sunday in the Portland Naval Base for "personal satisfaction." Spencer, a sympathizer with the campaign for nuclear disarmament, was jailed for 10 days on a charge of entering a prohibited area.

Comets AND Cats Have Fiery Tails!

BRESCIA, Italy (UPI) — A factory fire was caused Monday by a cat which brushed its tail against a high tension wire. The cat was electrocuted, and more than $11,000 in fire damage was caused.

Iron Curtain Cardinal Urges Freedom

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Jozef Cardinal Slipyi, the Ukrainian prelate confined 17 years by the Russians for his religion, today urged the Ecumenical Council to proclaim religious liberty for the sake of those who still suffer persecution for the faith.

Cardinal Joseph Ritter of St. Louis backed the plea and warned "the eyes of the entire world are on Rome at this moment." The council debated its controversial declaration on freedom of worship for the second day since opening the assembly Tuesday.

Unexpectedly strong opposition to the declaration persisted as seven prelates from six countries talked against it. Another nine bishops urged its proclamation.

Cardinal Slipyi, who was released from behind the Iron Curtain in 1964, said "Freedom from coercion is necessary not only for the church, but also for every state lest peoples be laden with intolerable burdens."

The declaration, which states no man should be forced to believe against his conscience or be prevented from worshipping according to his belief, should be passed "in the light of present-day persecution," the Iron Curtain prelate said.

Cardinal Ritter called the declaration "a cause for great rejoicing" and said charity, justice, and fidelity "could brook no delay in its passage."

In 1938, at least 450 persons were killed in a hurricane that battered the coasts of New England and New York.

Smoke Screen of Education Control
News emphasis and publicity on President Johnson's "Anti-Poverty" program have been directing the public interest toward the attempt of government to eradicate unemployment and to improve living conditions in several areas. This approach seems to play upon public sympathy and thus generate support. This emphasis, also, aids in screening the amount of tax funds being spent for other purposes included in the Act, that may or may not generate public criticism. Due to come before the House of Representatives is the "Economic Opportunity" amendments of 1965 (HR 8283).

A brief comment on the intent of this legislation and the amounts being considered for expenditure are contained in a recent issue of the "Washington Outlook on Education," published by the National Education Association. Although the program authorizations of the Economic Opportunity Act were for three years after the date of enactment, August 20, 1964, the appropriation authorization was for the first year only. Thus, a new authorization must be enacted for fiscal 1966 before additional funds can be requested or appropriated. HR 8283 provides for the 1966 authorization for the over-all additional year to August 20, 1968 (except for Title IV), and for a number of minor substantive changes in the basic Act.

As We Sow, So Shall They Reap
It would be going too far to say that India and Pakistan, two growing powers of the East, would not now be at each other's throats had not the means been put into their hands by the anxious powers of the West. The nationalistic and religious antagonisms that lie behind the 18-year-old dispute over Kashmir are of such a nature that the present conflict can rightly be feared and hatreds of men and the ineffectual machinery of international peacemaking, some kind of violent outbreak was inevitable.

Bugology's Triumph
Those who are alarmed at the growing sophistication of electronic snooping and spying devices will be glad to hear that technology is equal to the challenge which technology created. No need now to fear that the olive in somebody's Martini is really a radio transmitter in disguise. For a couple hundred bucks you can protect your personal business or diplomatic secrets with a gadget called the Antibug Mark II.

Coal is not a true mineral. It is an organic compound of many types formed from the remains of living trees, shrubs and plants that flourished millions of years ago during periods of mild and moist climate. The carbon in the plants which later became coal was manufactured in the cells through the action of the coloring material, chlorophyll. Most coal was formed about 250 million years ago.

Newspaper Guild Strikes Against New York Times

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Newspaper Guild went on strike today against the New York Times. The walk-out could cause six other major dailies to suspend publication because of a publishers' pledge to present a united front against the union.

About 30 pickets appeared in front of the building housing the Times' editorial offices promptly at 8 a.m., the strike deadline set by the Guild.

Nightlong negotiations failed to break a protracted contract impasse between the Times and the Union and, at 7 a.m., the bargaining was recessed for three hours.

Thomas J. Murphy, executive vice president of the New York Guild then announced: "The strike is definitely on..."

However, chief mediator Theodore W. Kheel remained confident that some agreement might be reached before "any practical interference with publication" of the newspaper would occur. The Times, a morning newspaper, is not scheduled to go to press until late today.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Granville Market Letter suggests that since the Dow-Jones industrial average has climbed comfortably above the 900 level, the odds are still in favor of a bull market but cautious that some profit-taking should take place as the market consolidates before an assault of the record high.

Bache & Company feels that a pause for profit-taking to digest recent gains and consolidate for an assault on old highs would be rewarding. The company believes that any pause would be temporary since the underpinnings of the market remain firm and that such a pause would allow time for heavier commitment in selective issues.

Indicator Digest Inc. believes that the "glamor stocks" have been moving at such a terrific rate lately that when and if the Dow-Jones average approaches its old high, there might be a sharp reaction by traders to the highly overbought high-flyers.

CONVOY PASSES SAFELY
BERLIN (UPI) — A battalion of 600 American soldiers drove through East Germany to West Berlin Wednesday without difficulty. A U.S. military spokesman said the 140 trucks and jeeps in the convoy passed speedily through Soviet checkpoints at each end of the 110-mile Helmstedt-Berlin highway.

DINNER FOR TWO
DUFFELD, England (UPI) — When Graham Spencer, master of the railway station here, goes home for dinner so does his staff.

Spencer has only one employee, the station porter, who also cooks his meals since she's his wife.

SONG FOR CONG — With a non-issue item, his guitar, conspicuously slung over his shoulder, a trooper of the U.S. first Cavalry Division disembarks from a landing craft at Qui Nhon, South Viet Nam.

NO CASE
DENVER (UPI) — Mrs. Barbara Prieto, 18, testified at her divorce trial that her husband, Antony, had slapped her and threatened her life. As she stepped from the witness stand, Mrs. Prieto approached her husband, yelled "I hate you," and knocked him to the floor with both fists. The judge dismissed the case.

IN MOSSLER SLAYING

Separate Trials Sought

MIAMI (UPI) — Blonde Candace Mossler and Melvin Lane Powers, accused as lovers who plotted the slaying of wealthy Texan Jacques Mossler, want to be tried separately.

In a two-hour, 34-minute court hearing Wednesday, six attorneys representing the two filed a dozen motions, including one requesting separate trials on the first degree murder charges against both the widow, 46, and Powers, 23, her nephew.

Circuit Court Judge George E. Schulz said he probably would give his decisions in 10 days to two weeks, after reading up on the mounting legal file in the case.

Prosecutors have charged Powers and Candace killed her 69-year-old husband because he interfered with their love affair. Both are free under $50,000 bonds. They came to Miami Wednesday for the hearing by separate planes.

Percy Foreman, Texas' defense attorney for Powers, argued in presenting the motion for a separate trial for Powers that to try him and Mrs. Mossler together would be "like shooting a rabbit tied to a string. It's unsporting and unfair."

Arguing for Mrs. Mossler, Houston lady attorney Marion Rosen said that if the two are tried together, Mrs. Mossler can neither cross examine Powers if he appears as a witness, or force him to testify if he chooses not to.

Foreman also said the two sets of attorneys are antagonistic. State Atty. Richard Gerstein pointed out that Mrs. Mossler is paying Powers' legal fees and that this does not indicate any reason for antagonism between attorneys.

The other motions filed by the defense attorneys include ones asking for a better bill of particulars from the state, seeking further inspection of prosecution evidence, and asking a more complete list of witnesses.

Foreman charged that Gerstein's office has a list of people living in Miami and had threatened Mossler, and could have killed him. Gerstein angrily denied there was such a list.

In 1873, financial chaos reached a climax in the panic of 1873, and the New York Stock Exchange closed its doors.

Dear Abby.... He's Overdoing It When Shame Turns to Anger

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I went on a two-week vacation trip. We didn't want to take our three kids because they are all under five and hard to handle, so we left them with my mother, who is a widow and has nothing to do anyway. We also have a dog, which we left on our back yard. It's fenced in and there is a dog house there in case the dog needs shelter. We asked my mother to run over every day to feed the dog and give it fresh water, then we locked the house up tight. Well, my mother got nosy and she got into the house somehow, gathered all the dirty clothes, washed and ironed them and laid them on the bed. Now I say if ever my wife had a right to get mad at my mother, it was right then. Our dirty clothes were none of my mother's business. We only asked her to keep the kids and feed the dog. I was as mad at her as my wife. I wish you'd write something about nosy mothers who overdo the domestic bit. Thanks.

DEAR ABBY: In 1958 I started going around with a well-to-do married man who told me he had nothing in common with his wife any more. He said he loved me and if I would wait we would be married someday. I was married at the time and had a seven-year-old son. I gave up my husband and son to be available whenever this man wanted to see me. All this time he told me we had to be careful not to be seen together because if his wife ever found out she could take him for every dime he had. I would cook dinner for him in my apartment and we never went any place. Suddenly he quit coming around. I just learned that he is not married and never was. Tell me, Abby, what protection does a working woman, who can't afford to hire private detectives, have against a snake like this?

DEAR ABBY: A few girls in my class at the school are

Embroidery Teacher 'Needles' Pupils for Coming Days

By AILEEN SNOODY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — For adults their first job at crewel embroidery may be like "pating your head with one hand and rubbing your tummy with the other." For an enthusiastic teacher of the craft, this problem makes crewel ideal for child's play, because of the two-handed dexterity it requires. Yet in today's compressed society, even fun classes have serious overtones.

Eleven years ago Erica Wilson was lured from the faculty of the Royal School of Needlework in London to instruct the Needlework Guild of Millbrook, N.Y. Since then she has been the prime catalyst for revival of crewel embroidery in the United States. She reaches adults of all ages through a correspondence course, private classes, lectures at New York City's Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art and in department stores.

Erica Wilson began embroidery when she was five in her native England and finds it a smasher that British magazines are doing stories on "how crewel embroidery is being done in America."

This coals-to-Newcastle development in the office in which I work, including myself, would like your opinion of the following.

Do you think it is right for an employer to expect an employee to lie for him? When he does not wish to be disturbed, or talk to someone or see someone, he asks us to say that he is "out."

Is there anything we can do about this? Naturally, an employee must follow orders, but this doesn't seem right.

DEAR ABBY: I am worried about something I said to my only daughter who is having her first baby in about three months. She asked me what childbirth is really like and if the pain is as bad as it has been described in books she has read. Through her obstetrician has told her she'll come through it like a breeze, she said she is afraid of the pain. I told her that it was painful and now I think I shouldn't have said so.

ANSWER: It can't very well be called fun. However, it's not so awful either. At least it was not for me. How was it for you? Because I think all we can tell a child who is approaching motherhood for the first time is how childbirth was for us, reminding her that everyone is different so that nobody can ever say: "This is what it's like."

I also think that daughters in this situation need to be reminded that they don't want to go on forever waddling about with distended abdomens and never seeing their feet. We rally to the pain of childbirth out of some mysterious commitment to it as a promise of joy in the baby and a promise of release from the discomfort of pregnancy.

Myself, I think that the ordeal of childbirth is not pain. I think it's lack of sleep. I would so tell a daughter so that she could arrange to let all nonessentials go in order to get as much sleep as possible before and after the baby's birth.

I would say: "Healthy babies do a lot of kicking in the month before they are born. So your night's sleep is disturbed. When they finally get themselves born, they have to be fed every few hours so that your sleep is broken again. In the first weeks of new motherhood, we often wonder if we will really ever be able to sleep again."

SUMMER FUN — Crewel embroidery teacher Erica Wilson (holding thread) shows off some of her young Nantucket Island pupils.

oping pleases her. But tickling Miss Wilson's artistic fancy more is her current project — introducing this centuries-old craft to youngsters.

"There's a whole generation," she explained on a day when she nipped into muggy Manhattan from her summer retreat in Nantucket Island, "that missed being taught handcraft. Few, if any, of the mothers of my pupils have a background of any handwork."

She strongly believes, though, that today's children must get more instruction in handcraft.

Like so many educators she recognizes the need for a creative hobby a person can follow through the years.

F. B. Carters Are Feted on Anniversary

McLEAN (Sp1) — The children of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carter hosted a golden wedding anniversary celebration recently in the couple's honor in the home of Mrs. F. L. Dalton.

A large wedding cake decorated by Mrs. Earl Brooks, centered the table which was covered with a crocheted cloth over yellow net. A silver coffee service centered an adjoining table.

Amanda V. Barker and F.V. Carter were married on March 3, 1915, at the Gate City, Va. courthouse. Attending the couple was Cynthia Carter, sister of the bridegroom, and R. P. Carter, cousin of the bridegroom. The ceremony was performed by Brother Tom Carter, cousin of the bridegroom.

Four children were born to the Carters: Cecil, Lester, Warren and Cynthia Virginia.

and has helped stir interest in crewel in California. Lorraine, now eight, conducts her own classes in La Jolla. Miss Wilson uses her husband, furniture designer Vladimir Kagan, as her guinea pig for crewel embroidery instructions. Her teaching approach to children reevaluates around the child's short interest span.

"Crewel embroidery is ideal," she says, "because we don't attempt things too enormous or discouraging. I work out patterns, and the pupils do, too, that they can finish during a two-hour class or with only a few hours work at home. The designs don't involve endless repetition so characteristic of most embroidery or historic sampler designs."

Ten and 11-year-old pupils have very sophisticated tastes, she says; especially in the colors they select. Adults generally are less definite about what colors they should work with.

To cut costs in this handcraft she recommends use of scraps and burlap.

Auto Lamp Lightens Shuttling

CHILD'S TRAVEL AID — Easing the waiting - and - traveling time with young children cooped up in a car, are small but important items such as coloring books, crayons, snacks and a new high-intensity lamp which plugs into the car's lighter or into an ordinary outlet. The automobile lamp bulb throws a light intensity equal to about 150 watts.

By KAY SHERWOOD
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

When we talk of traveling with children, it usually is related to the annual vacation trip in the automobile. But any mother knows far more hours and mileage are run up during a year of local trips and errands on which willingly or not, the children are passengers.

With a lack of daytime baby sitters or a reluctance to add their wages to the cost, most of us can tick off the predictable periods we will be traveling with children: driving to doctor's appointments, marketing, shopping in the city or downtown centers, waiting for commuter trains and buses, picking up another child to play and then talking him home. With more than one child each outing begins to require a tour director's scheduling and tact. Younger ones must be carted along on the errands pertaining to older children.

Well, it seems inevitable that most of us will spend half our lives during the age-before-drivers-licenses in the auto with a group of children in varying stages of happiness. "Driven to distraction" has a very real meaning for most when trying to negotiate late-afternoon traffic while a battle royal rages in the back seat.

Rules of the road are probably as needed a discipline as table manners. My own are far from perfect but have been hammered out as a necessity. Our children generally sit in the back seat, for example. If a car-sick-prone child must sit in the front, the seat belts are automatically fastened. Arguments are discouraged, sometimes feebly, as distracting to the driver.

When waiting periods are predictable, amusement is a help. I try to keep a newspaper and a magazine in the car; our youngest, who is often my companion, takes along a book, a comic magazine or coloring books.

Snacks of fruit, chips, pretzels or popcorn have found their way into the hurry-up-and-wait routine that characterizes so many of our trips to doctors, dentists and orthodontists.

The early dusk that finds us waiting for a laggard patient, scholar or commuter clamps down on the in-auto activity. Recently, I was delighted to find the small, compact high-intensity lamps also have an adaptable version that can be plugged into an ordinary electric outlet - or into the lighter in the car. My first, happy reaction was based on several years' experience with my traveling salesman husband. He always complained of the lack of reading light in the hotel room and the dangers inherent in an unlighted attempt to change a tire at night. Here at last is a compact unit which could ride on a front car seat and be carried into a hotel at

Pythian Sisters Honor District Deputy at Supper

Pampa Temple No. 41, Pythian Sisters, met in regular session Monday evening in the Knights of Pythias Hall. Preceding the meeting a salad supper, honoring Mrs. Ruth Moore, district deputy, was held in the A. L. Weathered Home.

Members from the Borger and Amarillo Temples were guests. During the business session, Mrs. Bernice Goodlett, most excellent chief, Mrs. Moore outlined tentative plans for the District Three Convention to be held in Amarillo Oct. 9.

Grand master at arms, A. L. Weathered, reported on the homecoming held Sept. 5 at the Pythian Home in Weatherford. Final plans were formulated for a rummage sale to be held Oct. 28-29.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, refreshments were served to approximately 25 Sisters and Knights.

night. The light from the lamp is strong enough to read by (comparable to a 150-watt bulb). The adaptable version will provide light within the car or outside (it has a magnetic base to anchor on a fender) from power supplied through the cigarette lighter socket.

These days we trundle our little lamp from its usual spot on the bedside table to the car if we know good illumination for reading or serving a late picnic or coloring a comic will be needed.

Miss Patterson Gives Merten Club Program

Merten Home Demonstration Club met recently in the home of Mrs. E. P. Templin, with Mrs. J. Lloyd Laramore, president, leading the members and guests in the club prayer.

Mrs. V. Smith, secretary, called the roll and members answered with "An Interesting Vacation Experience." The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County home demonstration agent, gave a very interesting and informative program entitled, "What Do You Know About Bones?" She explained that the different shapes of the bones in the meat we eat, tells us whether to cook that particular cut of meat in dry heat or in moist heat, to have the most tender and delicious meal.

Attending were Mmes. Jack Howard, A. M. Nash, Tony Smith, G. B. Hogan, T. G. Groves, Jack Prather, J. Lloyd Laramore, V. Smith, David Rife, J. A. Knox and Miss Patterson.

The National Restaurant Association reports that the food service industry consists of about 550,000 away-from-home feeding establishments. This amounts to one public eating place for each 350 persons. More than 15 billion meals are served each year by these establishments.

School And You

By SUSAN LIGHT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The sands of vacation time have run out, and millions of children across the nation are heading back to school. Some may drag their feet, a bit, but most are ready, willing, and, yes, eager to tackle their books.

The first day of school, even more than New Year's Day, marks a new beginning for children, parents, and teachers. The slate is clean, report cards are blank, and the corners of the room are empty of obstreperous boys. It's a time for making resolutions to assure a happy, successful, and rewarding school year.

If you're a parent, resolve here and now to take a positive attitude toward your child's school and schooling. We all know there's a lot that needs improving in any school system, but by and large, our schools and teachers are doing a conscientious job of educating our youngsters.

Last spring, for example, "Grade Teacher" magazine polled a representative sampling of elementary school teachers across the country on the question: "If you had a million dollars to spend for your school system, what would you spend it for?" Overwhelmingly, the teachers voted for books, audiovisual aids, better school buildings, and other educational materials and facilities. Salary increases for themselves ranked low on their list of expenditures.

This should silence the critics who complain that all teachers care about is money. In most cases, their chief concern is children—and how to give them the best education possible. They may fall flat on their faces at times, but they try and try again. Certainly they deserve your co-operation and good will.

Resolve, too, to keep up on everything that affects your child's school life. Know what courses he is taking, his extracurricular activities, who his teachers are, his academic strengths and weaknesses, his school friends, and the like. Make a special effort to attend school functions to which parents are invited.

At a summer orientation program for incoming college freshmen and interested parents, I noticed that almost every student was accompanied by a vitally concerned mom and dad.

Rider Raiders Have 'Do Everything' Tailback

By RON CROSS
News Sports Editor

When Wichita Falls Rider invades Pampa Friday night to help the Harvesters open their home football season most of the players' eyes will be on the Raiders No. 43.

Bud Deerinwater is a 212-pound senior tailback who can do just about everything a good football player is supposed to. Take last Friday for instance when Deerinwater personally carried his team to an opening game victory over one of the top rated AAA teams in the state.

Ali Deerinwater did as complete three of five passes, one for a touchdown, and score twice himself. The 17-year-old Indianan carried the ball 35 times for an average of 8.7 yards per carry.

Coach Tyler welcomed back three starters and 11 lettermen. The Raiders have depth, not much experienced depth with several good boys up from an undefeated B team.

Rider will start a line averaging 171 pounds per man and a backfield with an average of 179 pounds per player.

Wichita Falls is an experienced club with eight seniors on the starting lineup, the other three being juniors.

The Raiders will pass, when they have to, from the I formation with Deerinwater tossing the ball.

At ends the Raiders have Glenn Bowers, a 165-pound senior and Skip Mobley, a 151-pound senior. The tackles are John Estes, a 175 pound senior and another senior, 185 pound John Meyers; Guards are Gerald Hodges, 165 pound senior and Danny Mullins, 180 pound senior. At center is Mike Arp, 170 pound junior.

Junior Highs Play Today

Football season got underway here today for Pampa's Junior High teams with three games on tap today and one Saturday.

Pampa Junior High opened at 4 p.m. today, at home, against Groom and the Harvesters; practice field was the site of an eighth grade game between Pampa and Phillipa.

The Pampa seventh grade plays at 6:30 p.m. today at Groom.

Lee Junior high ninth grade opens their season Saturday at 10:30 a.m. at White Deer. The eighth grade is idle and the Lee seventh grade shoot for their second win with a 4 p.m. game at Lefors.

Horned Frogs to Open With Veteran Quarterback Saturday

Veteran quarterback Kent Nix will be the man-under for the Texas Christian Horned Frogs Saturday in their Southwest opener against the highly touted Nebraska Cornhuskers.

TCU coach Abe Martin made the assignment Wednesday after the team went through a light drill emphasizing all phases of the offensive and defensive game. Bruce Alford looked sharp in kicking drills, Martin said.

Texas Tech went through its last contact drill Wednesday in preparation for the University of Kansas Sophomore Andy Reed appeared to have the starting fullback position nailed down, Tech coach J. T. King said, and sophomore halfbacks Mike Leinert and Kenny Baker looked good.

Texas A&M worked out in secret again Wednesday night, practicing on special assignments. The Aggies, who play Louisiana State Saturday, will have another under-the-lights practice today.

Rice laid off heavy work Wednesday to avoid getting any more players injured before Saturday's contest with Louisiana Tech. The Owls may have as many as nine sophomores in the starting lineup either offensively or defensively, coach Jess Neely said.

The Southern Methodists also had a light workout Wednesday, but coach Hayden Fry said the drill was only mediocre. The Poniais play Miami University Saturday.

LSU Drills In Shorts
"We want to get away from the pads," coach Charles McLendon said. "I believe this will help our kids have more stamina and reserve strength by game time."

Punter Gerald Brown looked good. The offense concentrated on its goal line attack and the defense checked varied offensive formations.

The Mustangs opened the 1965 grid season last week with a 21-18 victory over Mangum, Okla. Erick, a class C Oklahoma team will probably be easy prey for Wheeler, as they lost their opener, 40-8 last week to class B Sayre.

MISSOURI IS STRONG TOO Best in Midlands; It's Nebraska

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—There's a word of caution this fall in the midlands. Look out for Nebraska!

The Cornhuskers, tabbed by many pre-season forecasters as the nation's best collegiate football team, are favored to win their third consecutive big eight crown and will bid for a fourth straight post-season bowl appearance.

Missouri is almost as strong. With a glossy backfield and rugged defense, the Tigers will make a strong run at Nebraska.

Tulsa, already off to a "passing" start with a 14-0 win over Houston, will be challenged by defending champion Cincinnati for the Missouri Valley title.

Success is nothing new for Nebraska since Coach Bob Devaney arrived in 1962. Devaney is the nation's winningest active major college coach and his chances for another banner year look almost too good.

Mays led off the ninth and was safe when Bond let his legs into right field for a two-base error. McCovey promptly slapped a line shot down the first base line which Bond deflected into right field, allowing Mays to score from second with the winning run.

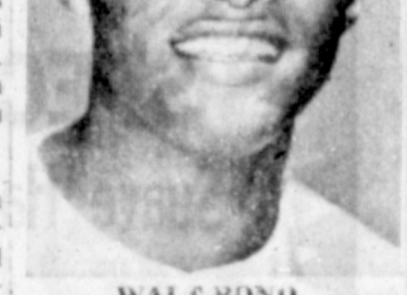

From last year's squad which finished 9-1 before losing 10-7 to Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. Middle guard Walt Barnes, a 252-pounder, tackle John Strohmyer (243) and end Langston Coleman are among nine returning defensive starters and defense is where Nebraska is the toughest. The Cornhuskers finished second nationally in total defense a year ago.

Ends Tony Jeter and Freeman White are the best in the conference and fullback - halfback Frank Solich, even at 155-pounds, is a proven ground-gainer.

While most feel Nebraska is the favorite, almost as many believe if any team can sidetrack the Cornhuskers, Missouri has the manpower to do it.

The 100 block of S. Cuyler street will be roped off for the event. Dr. Joe Donaldson will be master of ceremonies.

Reserve tickets for the home opener are still on sale and may be purchased from members of any Pampa civic club.

WALT BOND... bad error

Area Teams Prep For Friday Games

With defending champion White Deer idle this week, after two straight victories, the area spotlight shifts to Erick, Okla. where another champion, Wheeler, tests its second Sooner state team.

Bob Veale, a 16-game winner, was tagged with his 11th setback. The Chicago Cubs scored three unearned runs for a 6-6 victory by taking advantage of three Los Angeles Dodger errors in the fifth inning.

It was the third straight loss for the Dodgers and their sixth in the last 13 games.

Cincinnati bids for a third straight crown but the loss of quarterback Brig Owens and fullback Al Nelson is the Bearcats' biggest problem.

Wichita, under new head Coach Alex Karras, may be on the move with Louisville and North Texas State following.

But, the game to watch for in the midlands will be Nebraska's invasion of Missouri Oct. 30.

Pair Share Lead In National Amateur

TULSA, Okla. (UPI) — Jim Vickers and Jim Grant, an oilman and a college boy, carried a one-stroke lead into the second round of the 65th National Amateur Golf Tournament Thursday, but favorite Deane Beman was among a half dozen golfers applying heavy pressure.

Grant, 23-year-old University of Houston star from Wethersfield, Conn., and Vickers, a 36-year-old Wichita, Kan., oil firm executive, played early Wednesday and recorded identical two-under-par 34-35-69's before the big field wore down the greens and the temperature rose to 100 degrees.

BUCS GET THIEF

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday announced the acquisition of George Spriggs, an outfielder for the Columbus Jets who led the International League in stolen bases with 66 this season. He was obtained in exchange for pitcher Phil Cunningham.

LAWN TENNIS

WEMBLEY, Eng. (UPI) — Andres Gimeno, a former Spanish Davis Cup player, downed Pancho Segura of Ecuador 6-4, 6-2 in the quarter finals of the London Professional Indoor Lawn Tennis Championships Wednesday.

Twins Cut Down Victory Margin

By United Press International
The Minnesota Twins swept to within six victories of the American League pennant Wednesday with a marathon three-hour 7.5 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

It was the Twins' seventh straight victory. The A's battled back from a 5-1 deficit to tie the score in the top of the eighth inning. But the Twins retaliated with two runs in their half of the eighth to win.

Rookie Ted Ulander singled home the go-ahead run and another pinchhitter, Joe Nossek, drove in an extra tally with another single.

The Twins rally tagged John Wyatt with the defeat. He walked Don Mincher with one out in the eighth and Rich Rollins and Uhlender singled for runs. Don Mossi relieved and Nossek greeted him with a single that scored Rollins.

John Klipstein, fourth of five Twin pitchers, picked up his eighth victory. The A's also used five pitchers.

Kansas City hit three home runs, Ken Harrelson poking his 21st and Larry Stahl his third in the sixth inning to rout starter Jim Per. y. Bill Bryan hit his 13th during a two-run rally that tied the score in the eighth.

Dave McNally's five-hit pitching and Boog Powell's fifth home in his last five games carried the Baltimore Orioles to a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers. McNally allowed a leadoff homer in the second inning to Willie Horton and a roundtripper by Norm Cash to start the ninth. Powell's blast came with one on in the first off loser Dennis McLain.

Lou Clinton's pinch homer and a three-run blast by Chuck Hinton carried the Cleveland Indians to an 8-4 comeback victory over the Boston Red Sox. Steve Hargan hurled the last three innings, allowing just one hit, to win his fourth game in seven decisions for Cleveland. Dennis Bennett (5-4) was the loser.

Mel Stottlemyre gained his 18th victory of the season with a five-hit, 5-3 victory for New York over the Washington Senators. Bobby Richardson collected three hits and drove in two of the Yankee runs while Clete Boyer socked his 17th home run. Ken McMullen hit his 16th roundtripper for the Senators.

Danny Cater, Bill Skowron and Pete Ward accounted for six runs and enabled the Chicago White Sox to trip the California Angels 8-1 in their first game of a doubleheader.

EASY IS—Top-ranked Margaret Smith of Australia makes it look easy and effortless as she returns a shot to Canada's Louise Brown. As a matter of fact it was—easy, that is. Miss Smith took this one, 6-1, 6-0.

Washington Redskins find out in a hurry Sunday if their dreams of ending a 20-year championship drought stand much chance.

Those dreams collide with the reality known as the World Champion Cleveland Browns—poised, powerful and even improved over the 1964 team that clobbered mighty Baltimore in the National Football League's title game last year.

Washington is one of two NFL Eastern Conference teams being classed as legitimate challengers for the division crown. The St. Louis Cardinals are the other in what appears to be a below-par loop for the new season.

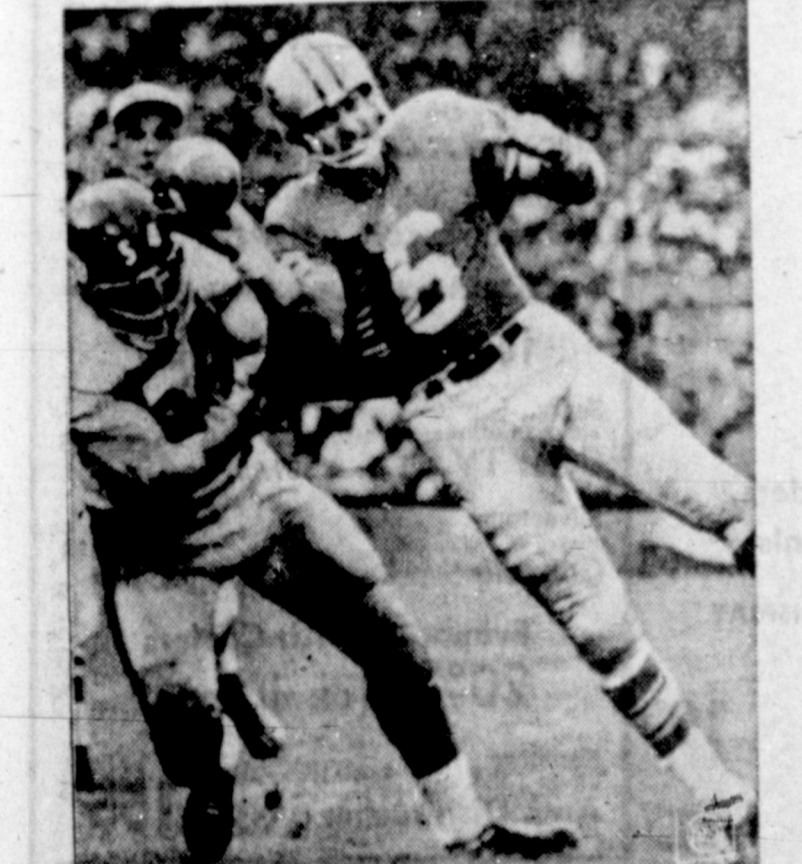

The last time the Redskins won a division title was in 1945, which to Washington fans seems almost as long as the last time the Indians beat the U.S. Cavalry. But D.C. Stadium will be jammed Sunday with a sellout crowd sensing that this could be the best Redskin team since the glory days of the forties.

Redskins Face Stiff Test Against Browns

The Browns rate a four-point favorite, although they'll open the '65 campaign with two key injuries on their high-powered offensive unit. Wide end Paul Warfield still is out of action from an injury suffered in the College All-Stars game in August, and his replacement—Clifton McNeil—is doubtful because of strained knee ligaments.

Big Tom Hutchinson or Walter (The Flea) Roberts will start at the wide end post and the Redskins are expected to concentrate their defensive efforts on flanker Gary Collins and a guy named Jim Brown who plays fullback.

Washington has its own injury problems. Lonnie Sanders, an experienced cornerback, is sidelined. The Tribe's punting game also is suspect, with Pat Richter sidelined indefinitely by a ruptured kidney. Ron Snidow, a reserve defensive end, has been kicking all week but Coach Bill McPeak can be forgiven if he hopes the Redskins won't have to punt much.

STOPPED PLUM DEAD—All a pro quarterback needs is an extra pair of eyes when guys like New York's Olen Underwood take to sneaking around. The Giants linebacker moved in from Milt Plum's unprotected rear to drag the Detroit passer down.

Sports Parade

By MILT RICHMAN
NEW YORK (UPI)—Pickin' the weekend winners:
No sense listening to the players, they all talk as if they're going to win. No sense listening to the coaches, either, they all talk as if they're going to lose. So you go by what they call "the pre-season dope" and sometimes that's misleading, too.

The best possible advice, however, is don't bet on football games. If you do, you'll find your money takes a lot of funny bounces.

HE'S ZANEY

Little Rock Boss On Way to Top

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—When the annual musical chairs game begins for major league managers this fall, one of those who may slip into a vacant seat is Frank Lucchesi of the Arkansas Travelers.

Lucchesi is one of the most experienced managers in the minor leagues. He also is one of the best and, at times, one of the zaniest.

He has hit an umpire in the back of the head with a resin bag, staged a sit-down strike on home plate, climbed 80 feet up a light pole to watch a game after being ejected and managed with a walkie-talkie behind an outfield fence after being suspended.

His ability is attested by the fact that he has been named "Manager of the Year" four times in the last five years, including last year in the Pacific Coast League.

It is further supported by the fact one of his teams has not finished in the second division since 1954 and he missed two months of that season after being hit in the head with a line drive in batting practice.

His teams have won pennants in 1957, 1960, 1961, 1962 and 1964.

Yet Lucchesi is only 39, young for a manager with 15 years experience. He started at the age of 24 while playing center field for Medford, Ore., in the old Class D Far West League.

Lucchesi was born and reared in the bay area of San Francisco where Joe DiMaggio grew up, and as a youth his ambition was to be a Yankee. He signed with Yankee scout Joe Devine in 1945. But he turned out to be a good field, no hit prospect.

"Joe (Devine) told me, 'as close as you'll get to Yankee stadium is seeing it on a postcard. You'll go a lot farther as a manager than as a player,'" Lucchesi related.

"I've always been a good listener and, after thinking it over, I decided to take his advice. He was the greatest scout there ever was."

"My goal when I was in Class D was to manage in Double-A," he said.

Does he want a job in the majors?

"I'd be a coward if I said no. It'd be a challenge and I've never turned down a challenge. But I'm working for Philadelphia and I'm happy with what I'm doing right here."

Crimson Tide Gets Nod Over Georgia

ATLANTA (UPI)—Alabama opens defense of its national collegiate football championship Saturday minus Joe Namath and some of last year's top interior linemen but still bearing the stamp of a winner.

The Crimson Tide starts out for the seventh straight season against the Georgia Bulldogs while playing a strictly regional schedule that includes eight Southeastern Conference opponents, independent Florida State and South Carolina of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The odds - makers list Alabama as a nine point favorite over Georgia - which would make Saturday's battle between the two the closest since 1957. Georgia hasn't been nearer than 25 points to the powerful tide in the past four years.

All 11 Southeastern Conference teams open their seasons this weekend but Alabama, Georgia is the only conference game.

The weekend gets underway Friday night with Tulane, in its last year in the SEC, at least a two-touchdown underdog as host to Texas which was rated No. 5 nationally last year before beating Alabama in the Orange Bowl.

Saturday afternoon, defensive-minded Auburn is favored over aerial-minded Baylor at Auburn; Florida figured to be one of the strong teams in the South, is a touchdown underdog at Northwestern of the Big Ten, Kentucky, figured to be another southern toughie, is a touchdown underdog at Missouri of the Big Eight; and rebuilding Tennessee is favored by a touchdown as host to Army.

Saturday night, Louisiana State, No. 7 last year, is rated two touchdowns better than Texas A&M at Baton Rouge; Ole Miss is favored by two touchdowns over independent Memphis State in the first game played in Memphis' new 50,000-seat stadium; Mississippi State is favored over Houston (beaten 14-0 by Tulsa) in the Astrodome; independent Georgia Tech is the favorite at Vanderbilt; and independent Miami (Fla.) is favored over Southern Methodist in the Orange Bowl.

Alabama's backfield, even without Namath, should be great.

The huge British-built planes, out of service for several years, are believed destined for use as ferries for rockets and missiles from factories to launching sites.

MONTREAL MODEL—The Man the Producer pavilion, one of the major theme buildings for the 1967 world exhibition at Montreal, Canada, will look like this model. Its structure based on "truncated tetrahedron" elements, the pavilion will stand on an island in the St. Lawrence River and will house exhibits illustrating man's advances in applied sciences.

PAPAL GARDEN—With the dome of St. Peter's looming in the background, a workman scurries along the roof of Vatican Palace where a private roof garden is being laid out for Pope Paul VI. Connected with the pope's apartments directly below by an elevator, the garden will enable the Pontiff to take the air without leaving his palace.

BALANCING ACT—It's called a "Loa Surf" and it's the current rage of the Italian Riviera. It can be either paddled or towed but first, as visiting Fabiola Leclerc of Belgium discovers, you have to get your balance.

FITNESS CHAMP—James Steinger, 9, of Vincennes, Ind., has been named National Physical Fitness Champion by the Amateur Athletic Union after racking up 161 points, highest in the nation for his age group, in the A.A.U. Physical Fitness Testing Program.
