Astronauts OK After Splashdown

Gemini 6 Lands Only 12 Miles From Ship

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — Gemini 6 astronauts Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford splashed down right on target and "in great shape" today from their historic space rendezvous with Gemini 7.

The capsule that blasted off from Cape Kennedy Wednesday morning for the space meeting 185 miles in the heavens plopped softly into the rolling Atlantic south of Bermuda and only 12 miles from the rescue aircraft carrier Wasp.

"We're in great shape," the space heroes reported.

Officials first reported splashdown 33 miles from the Wasp, then corrected it to 12 miles. From space, that was like hitting the bullseye.

They remained in the capsule and asked that they be hoisted aboard the carrier while still in their cabin. Astronauts on all previous flights have gotten out of their capsules and have been flown by helicopter to rescue vessels.

Navy swimmers rigged a flotation gear around the capsule to make sure it remained afloat.

"Old pro" Schirra, a 42-year-old Navy captain, and the 35-year-old rookie Stafford were so calm they played "Jingle Bells" on a harmonica and tinkling bells shortly before blasting out of space at the end of their 16th orbit.

They plunged through the 3,000-degree heat of friction in the earth's atmosphere.

At 9:26 a.m., CST an 84-foot, orange and white parachute popped out some 9,700 feet over the sea to drop the capsule toward a soft landing. It hit at 20 miles an hour.

The word from flight director Christopher C. Kraft gave Gemini 6 the record for the most nearly perfect landing in the Gemini program.

The pilots said again and again that they were in "fine shape . . . fine shape" as the recovery operations steamed toward a successful conclusion.

One of the rescue swimmers inflated a life raft adjacent to the capsule. Two others swam out to recover other parts of the Gemini craft which rode the parachutes down.

The Gemini 6 crewmen said they were in "good spirits, good health" and that they "can't wait to get aboard" the Wasp, officials reported at 9:49 a.m. CST.

The seas were gentle and the astronauts reported they were riding comfortably. The Gemini capsule normally jogs on the water like a cork, and at least two astronauts have come back after successful flights only to become seasick on the water.

The flotation collar was firmly attached around the capsule by 9:54 a.m. CST.

The swimmers plugged a special waterproof telephone set into the capsule and talked with Schirra and Stafford. The astronauts repeated they were in good health.

The Wasp immediately steered around toward Gemini 6.

"We are satisfied they are on the water," officials said about one minute later.

Splashdown occurred at 9:29:29 a.m. CST, right on the button. It was a storybook shot from start to finish.

There was no immediate visual contact, but Schirra and Stafford were in voice contact with the Wasp after a five-minute "blackout" period when speed and the heat of friction prevented radio communication.

Gemini 7 tried to photograph the moment at 8:53 a.m. CST when Schirra and Stafford were jolted out of their path at the end of their 16th orbit by automatically fired retrorockets.

But two maneuvering rockets on Gemini 7 got balky and Gemini 7 command pilot Frank Borman regretfully radioed Schirra, "We didn't get your picture."

The Wasp, with planes and helicopters already out like a protective umbrella over the brilliantly clear splashdown area, poured on speed and headed for the space capsule at 37 knots, some 630 miles south of Bermuda.

The capsule under its huge parachute plopped down at 20 miles an hour, officials said, that would be like jumping from a second story window.

Visual contact was made at 9:34 a.m. CST by observers aboard "Air Boss 1," an airplane hovering over the impact area.

The main chute had opened into an umbrella 84 feet in diameter at 9,700 feet. The smaller drogue chute had opened at 50,000 feet to start the slowdown process.

Between 8:53 a.m. CST and 9:39 a.m. CST, the Gemini 6 capsule had dropped from 17,500 miles an hour to dead stop in the water.

Rusk, Franco Discuss American-Spanish Relations

MADRID (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk flew in today from a NATO meeting in Paris to discuss Spanish-American relations with Generalissimo Francisco Franco and possibly the crisis in Southeast Asia.

Before leaving Paris, Rusk told newsmen the NATO Allies took "very seriously" the warnings he and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara gave on Communist China's nuclear threat—that within a decade Peking would have the means of hitting Europe and the United States with nuclear weapons. The American official scheduled a five-hour stopover in Madrid prior to his departure for Washington at 12:35 p.m., CST.

Rusk's visit occurred exactly four years after his first meeting with Franco, 73-year-old Spanish chief of state. Before leaving for home, the American official planned to confer with Franco, Foreign Minister Fernando Maria Castiella and Capt. Gen. Agustin Munoz Grandes, the Spanish vice president.

Spain is not a member of NATO. But informed sources said Rusk and Franco were expected to discuss the anti-Communist war in Viet Nam as well as Spanish-American relations.

There had been recent speculation that Rusk would discuss the possibility of integrating Spain more closely to the Atlantic Alliance. But the Spanish government let it be known there would be no immediate change in the present setup.

Death Takes Noted Author Somerset Maugham in France

NICE, France (UPI) — W. Somerset Maugham, one of the great storytellers of English literature, is dead at the age of 91. He leaves a rich legacy of novels, plays and short stories, including the classic "Of Human Bondage."

The end came in the early morning hours today at Maugham's beloved villa on the French Riviera shortly after the unconscious author was moved from the British-American hospital where he had lingered in coma since last Saturday.

Maugham chose his place of death years ago, telling friends he wanted to spend his last moments at Villa La Mauresque, the sumptuous home overlooking the Mediterranean Sea where he had lived since 1928.

Hospital doctors acceded to Maugham's last wish about 4

U.S. Marines Kill 16 Viet Cong In Brief Skirmish South of Da Nang

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. Marines sweeping the Phuoc Valley south of Da Nang killed 16 Viet Cong in a brief skirmish today, captured seven others and found the bodies of 25 more in a cave. The Leathernecks also captured another vast store of Communist supplies.

A spokesman said operation "Harvest Moon" in the Communist stronghold 20 to 30 miles below Da Nang had killed 152 Viet Cong by actual body count, 27 captured and 202 suspects detained. Estimates of the death toll inflicted by air strikes run into the hundreds.

The Marines captured 52 weapons including two 57 millimeter recoilless rifles and seized another large quantity of weapons and ammunition, uniforms, food and medical supplies in caves dotting the area. They had seized other large arms depots and a uniform factory earlier.

In Saigon a military spokesman said that Wednesday's air raid against the Uong Bi thermal power plant 14 miles from Haiphong, the second major city in North Viet Nam, had been far more destructive than first supposed.

He said the raid knocked out 23 per cent of the power to the capital of Hanoi and 33 per cent of the electricity for the port of Haiphong, 65 miles east of the Communist capital.

"We think it's a better strike now than we reported Wednesday night," the spokesman said of the attack on the Uong Bi Thermal Power Plant 14 miles north-northeast of Haiphong.

"The F105 Thunderchief pilots reported 'numerous secondary explosions' in the main generator hall and 'saw sparks leaping the entire length of the main generator yard,' he said.

Haiphong is North Viet Nam's most vital port and second in size only to Hanoi. The Uong Bi facility supplied

Reds Warned Of More Bombings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara warned North Viet Nam today that it will suffer more bombing attacks like the one that knocked out a key electric power plant near Haiphong Wednesday.

He blandly refrained, however, from characterizing the air strike near North Viet Nam's industrial heart as the start of significant escalation of the war.

Left unanswered was the question whether coming attacks will reveal a spreading air campaign against a new list of targets in the strategic Hanoi-Haiphong area.

McNamara's statements, made on his return from the winter NATO meeting in Paris, came as officials sought to discourage the idea Wednesday's attack opened a new phase in the bombing campaign.

The State Department said that aircraft had bombed that close to the port city of Haiphong before. But the targets were different—bridges and rail lines.

McNamara took the same tack in his planeside news conference, saying that the power plant bombing was "representative of the type of attacks we have been making and will be making against North Vietnamese targets."

Meeting the department's responsibilities for assuring compliance with Title VI is too important to be treated as anything less than the highest of priorities in our total program," Gardner said in a statement.

In related development, Justice Department lawyers were reported today to be examining the possibility of taking legal action against the alleged harassment of Negro pupils by their classmates at the predominantly white schools of Dorchester County, S.C.

Such action would mark the first time the government has gone to court on behalf of Negro youngsters already enrolled in integrated schools.

American Flags Waved After Rendezvous

By United Press International
Just after Gemini 6 astronauts Walter Schirra Jr. and Thomas Stafford roared into orbit Wednesday for their historic rendezvous with Gemini 7, the control room at the Manned Space Center at Houston suddenly bloomed with American flags.

"There must be 404 flags in here," said Paul Haney, the voice of Gemini Control. "Everyone is standing, standing at the consoles. You'd have to go back to the flight of Alan Shepard to find this kind of jubilation."

Across the country in San Diego, the flags gave Mrs. Walter Schirra Sr. "a lump in my throat . . . I'm proud to be an American today."

Millions of Americans got a lump in the throat. From President Johnson on down, it was a day of national jubilation.

"Today's accomplishment is a new declaration of the vigor of our society and the hope all of us have for the future." (See RENDEZVOUS, Page 3)

Swidler Defends Inter Connected Electric System

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman Joseph Swidler of the Federal Power Commission (FPC) told Congress today that inter-connected electrical systems are still this country's best bet for a reliable and cheap source of power.

"The lesson of the Northeast power failure," Swidler said, "is that we must strengthen our power grids so that they can hold together and continue service in any foreseeable emergency."

Swidler was the first witness at a House subcommittee's hearings on the massive power failure that blacked out the northeastern United States and parts of Canada on Nov. 9.

He said chaos resulted on Nov. 9 because the northeast said system was "not a true power pool." He suggested that Congress grant the FPC authority to set minimum standards for "system design and operation and for inter-system coordination."

Swidler said his agency was not yet ready to offer anything more specific.

Letters to Santa

DEAR SANTA CLAUS and Reindeer, — I don't know your dear's names. My name is Wesley Kent. I will soon be four. I have tried to be a good boy. Will you please bring me an airplane, a helicopter, a jeep and a tank. I need some green socks. Don't forget the other girls and boys. I have my stocking hanging up. We sure need some presents under our tree. Are you going to say "Ho! Ho! Make up, Wes?" Bring Jami and Brenda some flavo gum, grape, Jami wasn't good this week. She was just teasing me. "A nice now, I'll leave you some jelly and toast. Love, Wes Schaffer 228 N. Dwight not worry about my dog, Cindy, she will not bite you if you be good to her and not make any noise. Do not forget Mama and Daddy. I will put cookies and milk on the table for you. Merry Christmas Santa, Love, Jeff Davis Box 65

DEAR SANTA, Being only 2 years old I would just like to have some toys that a normal two-year-old would like. I would really like some educational toys and I can be smarter than my daddy, although that would take much. I have tried to be a good boy but sometimes that is impossible. I love you, Phillip Cross

P. S. I would like a present for Terry Cutley and all the basketball players, a district championship.

DEAR SANTA, I have tried to be a good boy, but being only a year old I find it harder to do everyday. I would like a boxing glove to fight off my big brother. I'd like some toys to play with and please let Pampa win the district 3-A basketball title. Thank you, John David Cross

Business Highlights

By United Press International
DETROIT—Sales of new automobiles in the first third of December rose to 247,748, a gain of 4 per cent from a year ago. Ford had the biggest gain—35.6 per cent.

NEW YORK—Directors of Commercial Solvents Co. and Reichhold Chemicals, Inc., approved in principle the merger of the two companies. It is proposed that Reichhold stockholders would get 0.278 of a share of Commercial Solvents $50 par 4 convertible preferred stock for each share of Reichhold.

CHICAGO—Directors of Brunswick Corp. have decided to write off $76 million of the company's investment in the bowling business because of declining demand for bowling equipment. This will slash Brunswick's retained earnings to $68 million from $144.76 million.

Wherever he travels, the President has the world's fastest and most reliable communications available.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
 United Press International
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—This often happens when I sit down to play the typewriter: I think of a good line for the next paragraph, but before I reach the next paragraph I have already forgotten it.

One conclusion might be that my memory is shot. Such is not the case, however.

I can recite for you stanza after stanza of poems that I memorized in the 5th and 6th grades. The fact that I can do this after more than 30 years proves that I have an excellent memory. Why, then, does it keep missing easy grounders now?

It is my theory that memory boxes have fixed capacities and that along about the onset, or onslaught, of middle age they begin to reach the saturation point.

If, in our youth, we clutter them up with a lot of bric-a-brac there is no room left for the things we need to remember as adults.

Fortunately, schools are beginning to recognize this. The other evening I picked up my daughter's sophomore English book and ran across a poem that will bring her much pleasure as she grows older.

Title "Love," by an anonymous author, it reads as follows.

"There's the wonderful love of a beautiful maid,
 "And the love of a staunch, true man,
 "And the love of a baby that's untried—
 "All have existed since time began.
 "But the most wonderful love, the love of all loves,
 "Even greater than the love for mother,
 "Is the infinite, tenderest, passion's love
 "Of one dead drunk for another."

The sun travels through space in a spiral path with other members of the Milky Way system.

Nativity Scenes To Be Lighted In Park Tonight

Pampa's annual Christmas Nativity scenes is scheduled to be lighted after sundown tonight for the 18th consecutive year.

The City Parks Department said the figures have been assembled and put into place for tonight's scheduled lighting program.

The Chamber of Commerce and Trueteens Service League will sponsor a lighting program at 7:30 p.m.

The scene will be lighted until 11 p.m., each evening except Christmas Eve and Christmas Day when the lights will remain on until midnight.

The popular scenes consists of seven life-size oil paintings telling the story of the birth of Christ; Annunciation to Mary, No Room at the Inn, Shepherds and their Flocks, The Wise Men, Nativity itself, King Herod's Court and the Flight into Egypt.

The figures may be viewed from automobile by driving around Central Park or walk ways will be provided for those who want a closer look.

Kansan In Gray Jail In Lieu Of $1,500 Bond

Doin Vick of Topeka, Kans., was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford's court this morning on a charge of removing mortgaged property from the state.

Vick waived preliminary hearing and bond was set at $1,500 awaiting action of the grand jury. He was remanded to jail in lieu of posting bond.

The accused man was returned to Pampa last night from Topeka by Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Bowers.

He was charged in a warrant with removing a mortgaged automobile from the state after buying it from a local auto dealer during a five-month residence in Pampa.

Most Pampans To Observe Long Christmas Holiday

With Christmas falling on Saturday this year most Pampans will enjoy a long holiday weekend next week.

Public schools will close down at the end of regular class periods on Tuesday, Dec. 21 and resume on Monday, Jan. 3.

The same Christmas and New Year holiday schedule will be observed at St. Vincent's Catholic school.

City, county and state public offices will be closed all day on Friday, Dec. 24 and will not reopen again until Monday, Dec. 27. The same hours will be observed on the New Year weekend.

Banks will remain open on Friday, Dec. 24 and Friday, Dec. 31, but will be closed on Christmas and New Year Saturdays.

Windows at the Pampa post office will be open all day on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve and there will be regular mail deliveries on these two Fridays. The post office, however, will be closed all day on Christmas and New Year's Day and there will be no regular mail deliveries.

Practically all Pampa stores will remain open until 6 p.m. on Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, but will be closed on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

Police and sheriff's departments will operate with slightly reduced crews during the holiday weekends but will maintain service around the clock, according to Sheriff Rufe Jordan and Police Chief Jim Conner.

Letters to Santa Claus

I would like to have a pair of shoe skates. And I would like to have some hangers for my Barbie dolls. And I would like to have a doctor kit set.

With Love,

Draft May Call Men Between Ages 26-35

AUSTIN (UPI)—Local draft boards soon may have to begin drafting men between the ages of 26 and 35. State Selective Service director Morris S. Schwartz said today.

In a letter to college and university registrars, Schwartz asked the schools to let draft board know immediately of college dropouts "so the nation can provide useful occupation for the perennial student who shows no progress."

He said he does not think raising the draft age to 35 will produce many inductees because "most men in that age group qualify for deferments on the basis in dependent children or for other reasons."

There are less than 3,000 men available for consideration in this category, he said.

On the other hand, more than 105,000 college students are being deferred. "We want to do everything we can to leave the serious, dedicated student in school to complete his work," Schwartz said.

Borger Man Gets Meredith Road Surfacing Pacts

Congressman Walter Rogers notified the News late yesterday that E. D. Baker of Borger has been awarded a contract to surface roads and parking lots around the Fritch Fortress and Sanford Yates of Lake Meredith.

Contracts for boat ramps and picnic areas have already been awarded.

The contract totals approximately $151,000, Rogers said.

Deadline Near For Entering Yule Contest

Persons wishing to enter the annual Christmas Lighting contest have today and tomorrow to decorate their houses.

Christmas Cake That Doesn't Need Aging

MARZIPAN RAISIN CAKE is a Christmas treat. By GAYNOR MADDOX, Newspaper Enterprise Assn. Here is really a jewel of a Christmas cake. Does not need aging. Rich with marzipan (sweetened almond paste) and raisins.

Half of the marzipan bakes in a delectable layer in the center of the cake, while the other half makes the stunning criss-crossed topping. The rich raisin batter has just a touch of spices for character, yet not enough to darken the cake or overpower the delicate sweetness of the almond paste. One extra egg yolk adds richness to the batter, while the remaining egg white is combined with the topping to make it workable.

CANDLELIGHT RAISIN MARZIPAN CAKE
 1/2 cup butter
 1/4 cup sugar
 3 eggs
 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/4 teaspoon cloves
 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
 3/4 cup golden seedless raisins
 3/4 cup dark seedless raisins
 3/4 cup diced mixed candied fruits
 1-3 cup halved candied cherries
 1 (8-ounce) can almond paste
 1/4 cup sifted powdered sugar
 Beat butter and sugar thoroughly. Beat in 2 eggs and 1 egg yolk. Blend in flour resifted with baking powder, salt and spices. Add lemon peel, raisins and candied fruits; mix well. Spoon half of batter into greased 7-inch spring form pan, spreading evenly. Mix almond paste with remaining egg white and powdered sugar. Roll half of mixture on sheet of waxed paper to 3-inch circle. Invert paper over batter in pan; loosen almond paste from paper with spatula and pat down onto batter. Cover with remaining batter, smoothing top. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) about 2 hours, until cake tests done. Immediately top with remaining almond paste rolled same way. With back of knife, mark crisscross pattern over topping. Bake 10 minutes longer, until paste is set. Cool 15 minutes, then carefully remove sides of

Roast Beef Need Not Be Seared

By GAYNOR MADDOX, Newspaper Enterprise Assn. Q—Should a roast of beef be seared before it is put in the oven to cook?

A—This is an old-fashioned notion. The thought was that searing a roast "sealed in" the juices. Research has proved this to be false. Actually, the high temperature used to brown the roast draws out the juices so you have a greater cooking shrinkage. Cooking a roast in a slow oven of 325 degrees will produce a beautifully browned, tender roast to carve and serve.

Q—We are having a standing rib roast for New Year's Day dinner. But my husband admits he is a poor carver. Can you give him any help?

A—First, place the roast flat side down, with the rib bones to the left of the carver. The rib ends should be toward the carver. Then, insert the carving fork, tines down, between the top and second ribs. Slice across the roast from right to left, making a 1/4-inch slice. Many people prefer the English cut. That is, very thin slices instead of 1/4-inch. Remove the knife and cut along the side of the rib bone to free each slice. Continue slicing and remove the rib bones as each is freed.

New Recipe for Corn Bread Dressing

By GAYNOR MADDOX, Newspaper Enterprise Assn. According to surveys, corn bread stuffing is the most popular. Here's a brand new recipe, one of the best we've ever tasted.

CORN BREAD DRESSING (For one 10 to 12-lb. turkey and one 1-qt. casserole).
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 1 1/2 cups chopped celery
 3/4 cup butter or margarine melted

1 pan corn bread, coarsely crumbled
 5 cups dry bread cubes
 2 teaspoons salt
 1 teaspoon pepper
 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
 1 cup milk
 1 egg, beaten
 Lightly brown onion and celery in 1/4-cup of the butter. Combine corn bread, bread cubes and seasonings in large bowl. Add onion and celery to bread mixtures. Add milk, egg and remaining 1/2-cup butter, tossing lightly to combine. (Use an additional 1/4-cup milk for a moister dressing.)

Lightly stuff about 2-3 of dressing into body cavity and neck region of turkey. Roast according to standard roasting directions. Bake remaining dressing in uncovered 1-quart casserole during last 45 minutes of roasting time.

OYSTER DRESSING: Follow corn bread dressing; omit milk. Drain 1 cup oysters, reserving liquid. Add enough milk to oyster liquid to make 1 cup liquid. Cut oysters in small pieces. Add to basic corn bread dressing ingredients above with oyster-milk liquid, tossing to combine. Stuff and roast turkey as above.

SAUSAGE - CHESTNUT DRESSING: Follow corn bread dressing, omit 1/4-cup of the butter, 1 teaspoon of the salt, 1/2-teaspoon of the pepper and the 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning. Lightly brown onion, celery and one 8-oz. can water chestnuts.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's food shopping buys for this weekend was prepared by the U.S. Departments of Agriculture and Interior for UPI.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Weekend shoppers will find well-stocked pre-holiday food markets. Meats, fruits and vegetables are all in good supply. This is the season for cooking.

Because of seasonal high demand, prices generally will be stable, or even rise slightly. A smart homemaker can still find buys—especially on plentiful foods, or on fish. Keep an eye out for specials and seasonal promotional sales. In meats, roasts, steaks, and stewing meats are good buys this week. Hams are in good supply in most areas, and vie with broiler-fryers and turkey for bargains. Eggs in larger sizes are good buys. Beets lead the parade of vegetable plentifuls, brussel sprouts, broccoli, carrots, caul-

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

For FRIDAY, DEC. 17
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Despite a tendency to argue, you also have a very good chance now to get a great deal accomplished in connection with others by the changing of the viality related into wise and intelligent directions. Be sure you keep in mind the spirit of the approaching Christmas season.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Don't be foolish and be critical of things or you certainly without any doubt will get into trouble. Be thoughtful instead. Keep rooted to sensible activity instead of following the epistemal.

TALIES (Apr. 20 to May 20) — While some new interest is of value, be sure to complete whatever you are now working on first. Keep promises to others. Jumping too early into the new can spoil it all.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — Pay your bills instead of finding excuses and be sure you are very thoughtful with those you love. Seek the right kind of recreation during spare time. This is especially true in P.M.

MON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Any professional affairs must be completed wisely and in a friendly fashion today. Be diplomatic. Avoid being associated and kin together or they are apt to argue.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) — Instead of arguing with co-workers, get busy and make improvements to regular tasks. Finish them early so you get shopping done. Can have a happy time with comrades. Be amusing. Take spirit of sill.

VIRGO (Sept. 22 to Oct. 22) — Take care of only those duties that are important so that you can enjoy the perfection of hobbies you like. Get finances well organized. It is not so difficult as you think now.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Simply be opposed to any arguing with others at home who are trying to be difficult. Improve health and charm and then get off for social happiness. Be more masterful.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Concentrate upon how to ingratiate yourself into the favor of superiors so that you get secret information you need. Study situations around you thoroughly. Then act to fit.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Exercise more economy today and be sure to get in touch with good friends for recreation you like. Don't try to show off by spending too much on yourself.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Stop trying to criticize one who has power over your affairs or you get into real trouble. Improve your credit appreciably. Make the future easier for yourself that way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — You are able to devise far more interesting plans for achieving that success you so desire. Take a trip if necessary. This can be very advantageous for you. Don't fuss.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — Don't count on that gregarious pal today but make headway through allegiance with experts. Use your intuition. A strange friend could get you off the track, if you permit.

COLOR-FAST CARPETS
Because of the excellence of dyes, American-made carpets do not fade easily. Give them the normal protection from direct sunlight which you would give any colored fabric, and you'll find that they hold their color well.

REROUTE HOME "TRAFFIC"
Do you have regular "traffic lanes" in your home? Most homes do—and changing these from time to time will distribute wear evenly on carpets. Shifting the furniture within the room will create a new traffic pattern.

BAN FIRE HAZARDS
Check your home for such fire hazards as: oily cleaning rags and paint rags, rubbish in the attic or basement and fireplaces, chimneys, flues and furnaces that are dirty and in need of repair.

Dear Abby...
Able-Bodied Lazy Lout Never Had It So Good

DEAR ABBY: I am 28 and happily married. My 25-year-old brother is able-bodied, intelligent, and unemployed. He lives at home and lets my parents support him. They buy his clothes, give him spending money and provide him with a car. He sleeps until noon, leaves his room a mess, and then takes off to play pool with his unemployed buddies all day. He tells my folks he's job-hunting. This has been going on for six months. My mother calls me constantly, moaning and groaning about how inconsiderate my brother is. He either doesn't show up for meals, or he brings home four of five free-loaders for a meal. All my advice to him has been ignored, and my advice to my mother (to throw him out) has also fallen on deaf ears. What more can I do?

"AUS-GESPIELT" IN MILWAUKEE
DEAR "AUS-GESPIELT": If a 25-year-old man chooses to be a bum, it's unfortunate, but his mother doesn't have to help him. You've done all you can. Please to refrain from bringing anything as your menu is complete. If she ignores your request and brings something anyway, serve yours and hers, too.

DEAR ABBY: Your suggestion that asking school children to make a "Family Tree" is an invasion of privacy, has drawn a great deal of fire, pro and con. Regarding the one from "Proud" in Virginia, who was thrilled and tickled to find proof of her "noble" ancestry, making her eligible to join the DAR: It was Daniel Webster who said, "It is only shallow-minded pretenders who make distinguished origin a matter of personal merit." Voltaire said it better: "Whoever serves his country well has no need of ancestors."

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who fancies herself as an expert dessert-maker. Whenever I invite her to my home for dinner, she insists on bringing the dessert and, of course, I have to serve it to my guests or she will be insulted. Abby, I hate to appear ungrateful, but this woman's desserts are not fit to eat. It isn't only my opinion. My guests will take a token bite and I can see that they have great difficulty choking it down.

Powerful One-Two Punch Hard to Stop

WHITE DEER (Sp) — White Deer will probably carry the underdog role in their 8 p.m. Saturday date with Willis Point in Wichita Falls, but the Tigers are going to have to go some to stop the Bucks powerful one-two scoring attack.

Of the Bucks 477 points scored in their 14 games, Vernon Marlar, 181 pound junior fullback and Randy Elliott, 120 pound halfback, have scored a total of 262 of those points.

Elliott has 112 and Marlar, 120. The speedy Elliott has countered six times in the four playoff games and Marlar five times.

Elliott is a junior as are three other Buck starters. Coach Colie Huffman has two sophomores and three seniors to round out his starting offensive unit.

The Bucks have been just as tough defensively as they have been scoring - wise on offense, although their defense has suffered somewhat in the four-playoff contest.

In 10 regular season games the Bucks gave up but 32 points and posted six shutouts but in playoff competition have been hit for 42 points.

On offense the Marlar - Elliott led Bucks have scored 477 points, 322 in regular season play and 95 in the playoffs.

Elliott, the Panhandle area's leading scorer and Marlar, the area's leading ground gainer, are joined in the backfield by junior halfback Gary Smith, a 170 pounder who was switched from guard, and Phil Hart, 140 pound senior.

Monte Hawpe and Ronnie Anderman man the end spots with Hawpe a 176 pounder and Anderson weighing in at 135. Tackles are Monty Kreis, 170 and Charles Smith, 185 pound junior; Guards are Gary Stewart, 158 and Burl Pipes, 138 and the center is Donald Williams, 175 pound senior.

Huffman will change his lineup a bit on defense with Danny Lane, 240 pound senior, Johnny Mooney, 210 pound senior, Lonnie Harris, 160 and Calvin Luman, 145 pounder, all going on defense.

Otto Wheeler, 136 pound junior and Ronnie Sargent, 166 pound sophomore will also be in for spotted duty.

Mooney does the conversion kicking for the Bucks and has split the goal posts for 44 points.

AGGIES STILL UNBEATEN

Matson's 19 Rips Rice

By United Press International Texas A & M got in a non-conference lick against Rice and Houston ripped Louisiana State in the opening evening of the Bluebonnet Classic basketball tournament at Houston.

The Cougars sank a torrid 60.6 per cent of their field goals and used their superior height to hoard rebounds in running away from LSU, 110-87.

Elvin Hayes hit 31 points for Houston.

Randy Matson and Dick Stringfellow got 19 and 22 points, respectively to spark the Aggies to an 89-81 comeback-victory over Rice.

Matson's 14 second-half points were a big help in the Aggies' surge that brought them from a 56-43 halftime deficit.

Bill Doty led Rice, winless in six games, with 22 points and Doug McKendrick had 19.

John Beasley got only five points for A & M before fouling out.

It was a rough game in which the Owls lost five players on fouls and A & M three.

North Texas' Eagles came from behind then stalled for the final four minutes to whip West Texas State, 65-59.

It was the fifth victory in six games for the Eagles, who won despite their worst shooting night of the season.

North Texas scored 40.7 per cent of their field goals. West Texas had 51.1.

Gail Simpson of West Texas led all scorers with 23 points and Willie Davis of North Texas had 16 points.

In other games, John Walls and Mike Canfield combined to rush St. Edwards past St. Thomas 96-72 at Austin. Walls hit 26 points and Canfield added 23.

Carlos Mendoza paced St. Thomas with 19.

Loss for Pan Am

Austin Peay of Clarksville, Tenn. took a 74-63 victory over 12th-ranked Pan American at Eginburg, handing the Broncos their fourth consecutive setback.

The Governors took advantage of many Pan Am errors to take a 33-32 halftime margin.

Austin Peay stalled the last five minutes and 40 seconds. But Pan Am stole the ball several times, only to miss field goal tries that had to count.

Southwest Texas snapped a four-game losing streak to hand Trinity's Tigers their first loss in five games, 85-73.

It was a game slowed considerably by 58 fouls and a five-minute timeout to repair one of the baskets.

Jim Bowles of Trinity bent the rim out of shape while trying to dunk a shot.

St. Bonaventure's Brown Indians whipped Texas Southern, 97-76 at North Tonawanda, N.Y.

Sayers Named On NFL All-Star Team

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gale Sayers became the first rookie since 1957 to crack the National Football League's all-star backfield, announced Wednesday and the man who last did it, Cleveland's Jimmy Brown, was a unanimous choice on the United Press International all-NFL team for 1965.

Sayers, the flashing halfback and punt-return artist for the Chicago Bears, shattered the league touchdown record with 21 in his first 13 games including a record-equalling six TDs last Sunday against San Francisco.

Brown, enjoying perhaps his finest overall season, has scored 20 times this year to increase his pro record to 125 TDs and already has wrapped up his eighth rushing title in nine seasons with 1,470 yards. He is the only player to be selected unanimously more than once, having received all the votes cast for the 1963 team.

A total of 42 sports writers—three from each league city who regularly covered the NFL—participated in the voting.

Baltimore's Johnny Unitas

was named the top quarterback for the fourth time and second year in a row.

There were six newcomers to the two-plateau team, four on the offensive unit and two on the defensive unit, which underwent a massive change last year.

Tight end Pete Retzlaff of Philadelphia, a 10-year veteran, made the starting 11 for the first time with a landslide margin over Chicago's Mike Ditka, who held the spot for the past three years.

Gary Collins of Cleveland won the flankerback spot for the first time and second-year pro Dave Parks of San Francisco was named split end.

The only new faces on the defensive squad were 261-pound Dave Jones of the Los Angeles Rams at end and Cleveland's Jim Hruston, a six-year guard from Ohio State.

Twelve of the 14 teams in the league were represented on the No. 1 teams, paced by Green Bay with five, Cleveland with four and Baltimore with three players.

New York and Pittsburgh were the only teams not represented.

The Governors took advantage of many Pan Am errors to take a 33-32 halftime margin.

Austin Peay stalled the last five minutes and 40 seconds. But Pan Am stole the ball several times, only to miss field goal tries that had to count.

Sports Parade

By MILTON RICHMAN UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI) — You'll never get the kids at Bellevue Hospital to believe there is no Santa Claus or that there are no real big leaguers among the New York Mets.

They'll never believe either of those rumors again because they saw differently with their own eyes.

For many of these kids in Bellevue, the surprise appearance of the Mets on Wednesday constituted the only Christmas party they have ever known and what made it such big occasion was the fact that the Mets brought their own Santa along.

Yogi Berra, Ron Swoboda, Ed Kranepool and Jack Fisher spent several hours going through the childrens' wards of the hospital.

They patiently signed autographs and talked with the youngsters as elderly Tom O'Brien, a Met employee perspiring in Santa's rig, handed out baseball caps, buttons and books with the help of National League umpire Tom Gorman and Dan Riley of the club's promotion staff, who was dressed as Mr. Met.

Berra derived almost as big a kick out of the proceedings as did the majority of the kids.

"I know what it's like to be cooped up in a hospital," said Yogi. "See this scar over my right eye? I got it when I was nine years old. They had a put me in a hospital when a bat slipped and hit me. I wasn't playin', only watchin'. It was girls' softball game."

Most of the youngsters the Mets visited were confined with far more serious troubles.

"It gives you a good feeling if you can cheer a little boy or girl at Christmas time," said Kranepool.

Fisher, father of two small daughters himself, added, "doing something like this makes you thankful your own children are fortunate enough not to be in a hospital."

Without any fanfare or publicity, the Met players visited several hospitals during the past 10 days and plan to visit a number of others in the next 10 days. Although they concentrate on the kids, they also manage to spend some time with adult patients.

The Christmas hospital visits were Riley's idea and he told one patient at Harlem Hospital, who was all strapped up and looked as if he had come out second best in an argument with a truck.

"We tip-toed by his bed quietly so as not to disturb him," recalled Riley, "but before we got past him, he hollered out: 'Whatever made you guys trade Charlie Smith?'"

The kids ask O'Brien for many things in his role as Santa and he knew one old fellow in the cardiac ward was coming along nicely when he inquired, "Hey, Santa, how about putting a fifth of whiskey in my stocking?"

Harvesters Host Palo Duro Friday

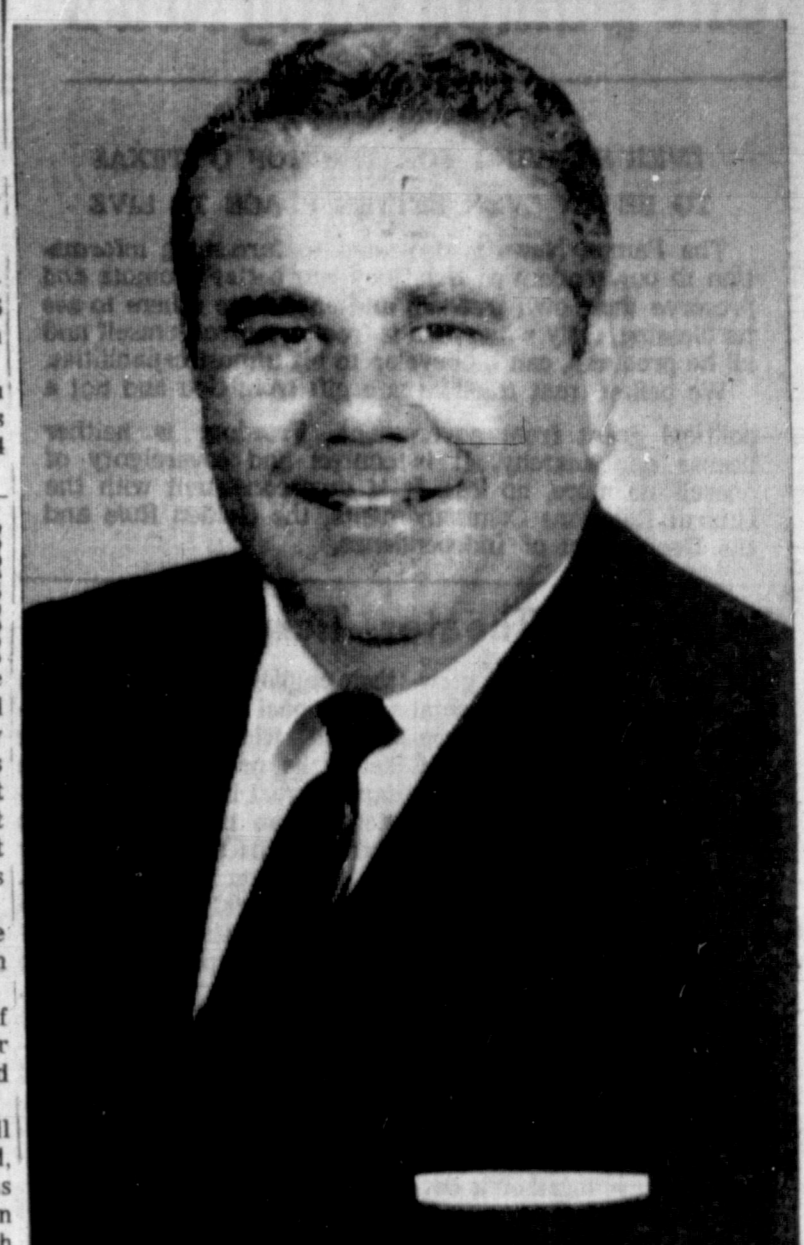

Pampa will attempt to get on the win side of the won-lost column in district 3-4A Friday night when they host Palo Duro, with a B game starting at 6 p.m.

The schools two varsity fives will begin battle at 7:30 p.m. in Harvester Fieldhouse.

Pampa, fresh from a victory over Borger Tuesday night that evened their conference record at 1-1 and sent their season mark to 8-2, will have their work cut out for them.

The Dons stand 5-3 and entered 3-4A play with a spotless record, but have dropped three straight. Palo Duro will be looking for the upset. In league play the Dons are 6-3 and are averaging 58.3 points per game for the season.

The Pampa Shockers shoot for their ninth in a row and 10th win in 11 starts when they meet the Palo Duro B team.

BANQUET SPEAKER — Joe Kerbel, head coach at West Texas State College will be guest speaker at 7 p.m. Saturday for the Pampa Harvester Football banquet. Tickets are still on sale for the event and may be purchased from any Quarterback club member or the high school business office.
