Rhodesia Declares Independence

British Prime Minister Declares It Is Treason

By MICHAEL KEATS
SALIBURY (UPI) — Rhodesia declared its independence from Britain today. It was the first national to issue unilateral declaration of independence (UDI) since the United States did so in 1776 and it presented the British Commonwealth with a grave crisis.

British Prime Minister Harold Wilson told the House of Commons in London that Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith's action meant Rhodesia is in active treasonable rebellion against the British crown and constitution.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson told Parliament today Rhodesia is in active, treasonable rebellion against the British crown and constitution.

Wilson told a packed House of Commons:

—The British government has dismissed Smith and other Rhodesian ministers.

—Britain would have no dealings with the rebel regime. The British high commissioner will be withdrawn and the Rhodesian high commission in London has been asked to leave.

—British aid to Rhodesia will cease. Rhodesia is being removed from the sterling area.

Britain immediately called for a meeting of the United Nations Security Council to discuss the implications of UDI and dispatched Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart to New York to take part in the meeting.

Almost every nation in the world opposed Smith's action designed to perpetuate white rule in the colony in south central Africa and grave consequences were feared. Britain itself took action to impose economic sanctions and cut off aid which could cripple the economic life of the country. Wilson said Rhodesia was "hell-bent on illegal and self-destructing action."

In a nation-wide address Smith said the course of history has shown that it had become necessary "to assume amongst other nations the separate and equal status to which they are entitled." He said the justice of the decision "is beyond question."

Much of the world thought otherwise. Britain, the mother country, had urged that the four million black Africans, ruled by 220,000 whites, should have a voice in the government of the colony in lower Africa.

The motion for Pampa to join PSEO was made official in a formal vote of the board today. It will be on a one-year trial basis.

Sen. Byrd Quits Post In Senate

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI) — Gov. Albert S. Harrison said today that U.S. Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., has resigned his Senate post.

Harrison said the resignation was effective Wednesday night upon receipt of a letter from the 78-year-old senator announcing his retirement.

Byrd was appointed to the U.S. Senate on March 4, 1933, and became one of the most powerful political figures in the country.

The text of Byrd's resignation said:

"It was 50 years ago this month that I first was elected to the Senate of Virginia. Since then through the partiality and generosity of the people of Virginia I have served as governor of our Commonwealth and for nearly 33 years I have served in the United States Senate."

"I have concluded that the time has come for someone younger to bear these burdens and shoulder these responsibilities."

He gave arthritis as his main reason for giving up his Senate post.

WEATHERWISE

Rain, Fog Prevail Over State

Pampa's on-again-off rain peppered the city last night and early this morning.

Rain gauges failed to measure anything but a trace shortly before noon. However, the weather bureau forecast increased shower activity.

Most of the northern half of Texas was chilly this morning and most of the southern half was warm with showers.

Thunder and lightning accompanied the slight trace of moisture last night and early today. A bolt of lightning struck one cement corner of the Hughes Building about 9:30 a.m.

No other reports of lightning damage was reported.

Winter wheat farmers were thankful for the moisture with their only regret being "it just wasn't enough."

Most of the farms north of Pampa have measured between one and one and a quarter inches of moisture during the past week.

Forecasters expected temperatures to remain stable until turning cooler in the Panhandle Friday. Overnight low readings ranged from 44 degrees at Dalhart to 70 in Corpus Christi.

Skies were partly cloudy this morning in Southwest Texas and mostly cloudy over the rest of the state. Other rainfall measurements included .25 at Alpine, .03 at Victoria, .10 at Palacios and .09 at Kingsville.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said a weakening high pressure ridge stretching from South Texas northeastward would move slowly eastward. Southerly winds were expected to increase in the western part of the state.

Drizzle and light showers fell on Alice, Palacios, Corpus Christi, and McAllen before dawn.

The fog was particularly bothersome in cotton crop areas, where workers could not do their picking until the wet bolts dried off somewhat. Fog also made driving hazardous.

The forecast was for Texas skies to be partly cloudy to cloudy through Friday. Scattered showers are likely over the entire state. Highs were forecast in the 60s.

Wednesday, fog forced some airplane schedule changes, delayed harvest of the multi-million-dollar Panhandle cotton crop, and made driving visibility poor enough to slow traffic drastically in the South Plains.

A Braniff International flight from Amarillo to Dallas was waved past the Lubbock airport and a Continental flight from Dallas had to land at Midland instead of Lubbock. The air craft got to Midland just before that airport, too, was socked in Wednesday.

Most other nations, with the exception of Portugal and South Africa, were expected to follow suit. Wilson has stated he would not use military force against Rhodesia unless outbreaks of violence or civil insurrection made it necessary.

In his speech, Smith declared: "It now falls to me to tell you that negotiations have come to an end. No one could deny that we have striven with might and main and at times leaned over backward to bridge the gap which divides us from the British government."

POWER BLACKOUT

Congress Plans Full Scale Look

By DANIEL RAPOPORT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress, concerned that a handful of saboteurs might be able to destroy the nation's power supply was moving today toward a full dress inquiry into Tuesday's blackout in the northeastern United States.

Chairman Warren D. Magnuson, D-Wash., of the Senate Commerce Committee was awaiting results of investigations by the Federal Power Commission (FPC) and the Office of Emergency Planning (OEP) to start an inquiry by his group into the massive failure.

Magnuson said Wednesday he had asked for reports on the two agencies' findings "as promptly as possible." He said his committee would make "a thorough analysis of the event and its causes."

"The security, welfare and safety of the people have been placed in jeopardy," said Magnuson. "We must be certain that it does not occur again anywhere."

Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., chairman of the power subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee and one of the first to call for a congressional investigation, said that the blackout showed a few persons bent on sabotage could inflict similar damage.

Rogers said he did not believe "anyone knows" at this point whether sabotage was involved in Tuesday's failure. He said it did show, however, that the nation's power system was vulnerable.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., said the failure was an indication there was no effective central control of the recently interconnected power systems in the northeast.

Jackson, who is chairman of the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, said it must be determined if there is a need for improved communications and control apparatus for both public and private power transmission.

Among other senators who joined Magnuson in a call for an inquiry was George D. Aiken, R-Vt., whose state was one of those hit by the power loss. Said Aiken: "I'm glad it happened. I hope it wakes us up."

"It is unthinkable that one person could immobilize the entire northeast in the event of national crisis," the senator said.

Rogers Says Power Supply Is Vulnerable

AMARILLO (UPI)—U.S. Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., chairman of the Power Subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee, said Wednesday more attention should be given to power and water supplies in regard to sabotage.

Nobody knows whether sabotage caused Tuesday's power blackout of a vast area of the northeastern United States and parts of Canada, Rogers said.

He added the blackout proved how vulnerable power supplies are.

Rogers said he expects Congress will look into the power failure early next year and will explore whether new laws are needed for safety and regulation.

A few persons with sabotage as their object could bring a massive power tieup, Rogers said.

UNDER INTENSIVE CARE

Eisenhower Suffers Recurring Attacks

United Press International AUGUSTS, Ga. (UPI) — Doctors indicated they may disclose today the seriousness of recurring chest pain suffered by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

A team of heart specialists attending the two-time President and retired five-star general scheduled a medical briefing for newsmen late this morning.

The briefing was scheduled for 11 a.m. EST.

The 75-year-old Eisenhower was placed under an oxygen tent again Wednesday when he had another attack of chest pains which hospitalized him early Tuesday morning.

Dr. Thomas Mattingly, Eisenhower's personal cardiologist, said Wednesday night "the general has been comfortable since 6 p.m." an hour and a half after the new attack.

The attack Wednesday, described as "more prolonged or of more duration" than the pains Tuesday, apparently took doctors by surprise. Earlier, plans were announced to transfer Eisenhower from a five-room suite at the nearby Ft. Gordon Army Hospital to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington. These plans were suspended after the second attack.

Vacation Broken
Eisenhower, vacationing with his wife, Mamie, at the Augusta National Golf Club, was hospitalized after he suffered chest pains for 30 minutes.

In view of his severe heart attack in 1955 during his first term as president, doctors made thorough tests Wednesday and reported later that Eisenhower "had a period of coronary insufficiency, from which he is making a good recovery."

Mattingly said the former President had not suffered a heart attack "as we ordinarily use the term," but the condition rather was more closely related to angina pectoris. This ailment results from an insufficient supply of blood to meet the demands of the heart and is commonly referred to in older persons as "hardening of the arteries," doctors explained.

Aluminum Industry Gives In WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Johnson administration's battle with the aluminum industry over its price hikes appeared to be all but ended today with the government the winner.

Acting in the face of administration plans to flood the aluminum market with surplus federal supplies of the metal, Aluminum Co. of America (ALCOA), the industry giant, announced Wednesday night that its price increases, in effect since Monday, "were rescinded as of tonight."

Reynolds Metals Co., the nation's No. 2 producer, quickly followed suit saying in a statement issued from its Richmond, Va., headquarters: "We have no other recourse."

Officials of Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. and Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. indicated they would do the same, probably today. "Nobody else can do anything but follow," said Kaiser Vice President Ward C. Humphreys. An Olin Mathieson spokesman said, "we have no choice but to deal competitively."

Capital Improvements Plan for Schools Set

Public school administrators are working on a long-range plan of capital improvements and educational needs. School Superintendent Jack Edmondson told school board members today.

The superintendent's statement was in reply to a request of Board Member Joe Reid for an administrative report on what plans are in the making for Pampa schools as a follow through to recommendations filed last Spring by an evaluation committee of educators who spent two days studying the local school system.

"There is a lot more study and planning going on than is apparent," Edmondson said.

McHenry Lane, public school curriculum director, stated that plans for the future are going ahead but have not been completed.

A report on evaluation plans for the future are expected to be ready by Dec. 1 for a report to the board, both Edmondson and Lane stated.

Reid said he thought at least a 5-year plan should be prepared.

"We need a plan of action, a coordinated effort," Reid said. "I want to be able, when someone asks me, to supply answers on what we are doing about future planning for the schools."

Lane also explained that current planning for the Pampa school system to join PSEO had affected overall plans. PSEO is the Panhandle Educational Service Organization being set up to administer federal financial aid for the education of children of low income families under Title I of the Elementary Education Act of 1965.

The motion for Pampa to join PSEO was made official in a formal vote of the board today. It will be on a one-year trial basis.

Arkansas Leads Area In Public Housing
FORT WORTH (UPI) — Arkansas had the most public housing started in October among four states in this area, the regional director of the U.S. Public Housing Administration said Wednesday.

Director T. H. Callahan said the total for Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas and Colorado was $246 million in October, of which $115 million was in Arkansas, largely from low-rent dwellings projects in Dumas and Helena. Colorado had $749,579 and New Mexico $281,000 and Texas $244,000.

Officer Faces Court Action

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—A committee of Army officers today began a study of charges filed against 2nd Lt. Henry H. Howe of Boulder, Colo., accused of demonstrating against U.S. involvement in Viet Nam.

Officials of Ft. Bliss, Tex., where Howe is assigned to the 31st Engineering Battalion, said the panel of officers would decide whether to court-martial him.

Charges were filed by Lt. Col. W. P. Schneider, Howe's unit commander.

Howe is accused of carrying a placard in a downtown El Paso demonstration last Saturday.

DURING BLACKOUT

National Television Shifts to West Coast

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — This was the major problem caused at the television networks Tuesday night by the massive power failure in the Northeast part of the nation:

New York City, the chief control point and center of transmission of network shows across the country, was virtually immobilized.

Thus, for those viewers who wondered how they were able to receive their regularly scheduled prime time programs Tuesday night, the answer is this:

Los Angeles became the chief control point "feeding" the entertainment shows cross-country.

As for the evening news broadcasts that are usually centered in New York, Washington became the main assembly point. Furthermore, several of these newscasts that were transmitted west out of Washington were then received in Los Angeles updated, re-assembled and beamed out of here.

One special network program, CBS-TV's "National Citizenship Test," an audience-involvement hour, had to be postponed (until Nov. 23) because it was to include "live" elements anchored in New York. The program was to be a nationwide television test of citizens' knowledge of their rights, obligations and responsibilities with 42 questions and on-the-air groups taking the quiz in Washington, St. Louis and Philadelphia. The test center is in New York.

As a replacement for this postponed hour, CBS-TV Tuesday night presented a Washington-centered special report on the power failure.

NBC-TV, meanwhile, at 11:30 p.m. EST — and live across the nation — managed to corral just about enough power to transmit, with almost spookily inadequate lighting, a special report from New York.

Appendix Beaten ... Just By A Nose

By WAYNE C. SARGENT
NEW YORK (UPI) — The lights went out at 5:27 p.m. and 10 minutes later I had a broken nose.

People are pretty inefficient in the daytime. At night, with no electricity, it is worse. Everyone has an idea: Put cold packs on it. Put hot packs on it. Call a doctor. Send for an ambulance — none available in an emergency that affects millions.

My nose was broken by an unfriendly radiator over which I stumbled in the dark. That was at 5:37 p.m. EST Tuesday. It was 8 p.m. before I got help, which is nobody's fault.

First Problem

The first problem is how to get off the 11th floor of a building which is pitch black. That problem arises when you conclude no doctor is coming to you.

After a loyal associate leads you down a darkened staircase like a seeing-eye dog, you are on the street. Cars are bumper to bumper. They seem to offer some hope. I commandeered one of them with a plea to "Get me to a hospital."

The car was driven by a nice Chinese gentleman, whose intent was fine, but who was helpless in the traffic.

We moved one block and I decided to get out and walk — it was faster.

It was only 18 blocks to Bellevue Hospital. I could always find my way back by the trail of blood I was leaving. (And why is it in situations like this you always try to keep your shirt - front clean?)

No Generator

Bellevue is one of New York's larger hospitals. Surely they will have emergency generators and lights, you think. It's not true.

With the aid of my own cigarette lighter and the doctor's candle we hiked up four floors to a surgical room. There, by light of cotton swabs dipped in alcohol, the doctor fixed the nose.

He said he isn't sure its going to be exactly straight. But who can blame him? The light was bad.

I sound ungrateful. I am not.

Court Denies Suit Against Lamb Doctor

AUSTIN (UPI) — The state Supreme Court rejected the appeal of a Lamb County couple who sued their physician for allegedly leaving a gauze surgical pad inside his patient during an operation 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart sued Dr. F. W. Janes, now of Bullhead City, Ariz., for an operation Janes performed on Mrs. Stewart in Littlefield, Tex. in 1945.

The Stewarts said Janes forgot to remove the gauze pad before closing an incision in Mrs. Stewart's abdomen.

The trial court and the Amarillo Court of Appeals accepted Janes' contention that the Stewarts could not sue now because they had failed to do so within two years after the operation.

The Supreme Court rejected the Stewarts' appeal without comment.

Appellate Court Throws Out Heroin Conviction

AUSTIN (UPI) — The Court of Criminal Appeals threw out a Lubbock man's 20-year prison sentence for habitual possession of heroin.

The court said hearsay evidence was improperly admitted at the trial of Ignacio Ramos over the objections of his court-appointed lawyer.

A prosecution witness was permitted to testify that "he had received information" that Ramos could be found "shooting heroin" in a service station rest room in Lubbock, the court said.

The court reversed the conviction and sent the case back to Lubbock for a new trial.

In 1908, Arturo Toscanini made his American debut, conducting "Aida" at the Metropolitan Opera in New York City.

In 1932, the most famous vaudeville theater in America, the Palace in New York City, closed its doors. It was opened later for movies.

Chicken Marengo, Classic of French Cuisine, Was Favorite of Napoleon

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

If you enjoy history with your meals, especially your party dinners, Chicken Marengo is just your dish.

It is a classic of French cuisine. The dish takes its name from the Battle of Marengo in which Napoleon defeated the Austrians in 1800. Supposedly, food was scarce after the battle and Napoleon's chef created the dish from one small hen, six crayfish, four tomatoes, three eggs and a little garlic and oil.

In the traditional French manner, Chicken Marengo is served on a large platter surrounded with a garniture of fried eggs on toast and cooked shrimp or lobster tails in the shell. The modern version given below is based largely on convenient frozen foods and simplifies the preparation but assures fine flavor.

Meanwhile, add mushrooms and onions to the chicken drippings and saute until onions are soft but not browned. Blend in flour. Add wine, tomato sauce, tomatoes, 1 teaspoon salt and thyme. Cover and simmer 15 minutes.

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 3/4 cup frozen sliced mushrooms
- 3/4 cup frozen chopped onions
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 cup dry white wine
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 can (1 pound) whole tomatoes
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon crumbled thyme
- Partially defrost chicken and lobster tails in unopened packages (approximately 6 hours in refrigerator or 2 hours at room temperature). If desired, remove skin from chicken breasts. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Heat olive oil and butter in a large skillet. Add chicken and saute until golden brown on both sides. Remove from skillet and place in a baking dish. Cover and bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes, or until tender.

CHICKEN MARENGO

- 2 packages (1 pound each) frozen chicken breasts
- 1 package (9 ounces) frozen rock lobster tails
- 3 tablespoons olive or vegetable oil

Turkey Becomes A Year 'Round Dish

NEW YORK (UPI) — The traditional holiday bird has become a year-round feature on American dinner tables.

Ten years ago, 75 per cent of the turkeys sold in the United States were marketed during the November-December holiday season. Roy C. Ritter, president of the National Turkey Federation, told food editors meeting here. This year, 53 per cent of the estimated total sales for 1965 were made during the first 10 months of the year, nearly half that percentage during the summer.

Americans also eat turkey in a greater variety of forms now than was customary in the past, said H. G. Prussman at the same meeting. Prussman is northeast regional sales manager for a frozen food manufacturer.

"We sell turkeys in component parts," said Prussman, "we tray pack legs and wings, and the first two joints of the wings, for braising, frying and tricasseeing. Individual turkey breasts can be cooked like whole turkeys."

Prussman added that tray packed turkey dinners have become a million dollar business within the $300 million turkey growing industry, and that boneless turkey roasts introduced three years ago are increasingly popular.

A four-pound boneless turkey roast contains sliceable meat equivalent to that of a 12 to 13 pound whole turkey, he said, and it cooks in one-third the

Apples Turn Out A Great Autumn Cake

FOR APPLE LOVERS -- This cake gathers in the golden flavors of autumn. The recipe for Apple Upside-Down Cake is the accompanying story.

Autumn is the time of the great harvest of beautiful apples. The season brings to mind the delicious homespun favorites such as Apple Pandowdy, Apple Pie and Apple Dumplings.

While apples are plentiful and cooler days have renewed your zest for baking, try something different. Apple Upside-Down Cake is the suggestion from Imperial Pure Cane Sugar.

This recipe is an unusual apple version of that old favorite, the upside-down cake. Brown sugar, apples and pecans combine to harvest the irresistible flavor which ends up on top when the cake is turned out of the pan. The batter is light, spiced and has a buttery brown sugar flavor.

APPLE UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 3 medium apples, pared, sliced
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter

Nutty Dressing

Rolling oats in this wild rice stuffing for a capon gives the stuffing a nutty flavor.

Wash and cook 1 cup of wild rice as package label directs. Sauté 1/4 cup of chopped celery, and 1/4 cup each of chopped onion and chopped green pepper in 1/4 cup of butter until lightly browned. Mix with cooked, drained rice. Add 1 teaspoon of salt, 1/4 teaspoon of sage and 1 cup of uncooked quick or old-fashioned rolled oats. Toss lightly.

Dissolve 1 chicken bouillon cube in 1 cup of boiling water. Add to stuffing. Fill body and neck cavities of a 5 to 6-pound capon lightly, allowing room for stuffing to swell. Truss and roast in 325-degree oven 22 to 30 minutes per pound. Makes 6 servings.

- 2-3 cup brown sugar
- 1-3 cup granulated sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 cup buttermilk
- Whipped cream

In 9x9x2 inch pan, melt 2 tablespoons butter; spread 1/2 cup brown sugar in bottom of pan. Sprinkle with pecans; arrange apple slices on top; cover with lemon juice and put aside.

Soup and Garnish Go Well Together

Dress up vegetable soup with blue cheese and whipped cream garnish. Serve in heavy crockery or oven-proof bowls that can withstand broiler heat.

Mash one tablespoon of blue cheese in one cup of whipping cream. Whip until cream stands in soft peaks. Fold in 2 tablespoons of chives. Spoon desired amount onto bowls of steaming hot soup. Place bowls in broiler with top two inches from heat source. Brown about one minute or until topping is lightly browned. Watch closely to prevent burning. Serve immediately.

Cream together 1/2 cup butter and remaining sugars until fluffy, light. Beat in egg and vanilla thoroughly. Sift together remaining dry ingredients; add alternately with buttermilk. Spread batter over apple slices. Bake at 375 degree F. for 45 minutes or until done. Place on cooling rack 10 minutes, then turn upside down on plate. Serve warm. Cut into squares and top with whipped cream.

To measure brown sugar, always pack firmly.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's food shopping buys for this weekend was prepared by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Week-end shoppers will generally find good supplies of November harvest vegetables and fruits. Careful shoppers who check their shopping centers for specials and for sales, should find good buys in the meat sections for poultry.

Across the nation, steaks, roasts, pork chops, hams, spareribs, and broiler-fryers are available to most shoppers in good quantities and at reasonable prices.

A good choice in vegetables awaits the weekend shopper. Brussel sprouts, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, carrots, celery, lettuce, onions, potatoes, radishes and sweet potatoes are in good supply in most areas.

Generous quantities of apples, bananas, grapes, grapefruits, oranges, and pears are available. Many items are just being harvested, and retailers are offering special buys.

Check your local market for those special price buys. Fish sticks and portions continue to be plentiful throughout the nation.

By LYLE WILSON
 United Press International
 Mayor-elect John V. Lindsay of New York City has another star in his crown, a blinding sparkler bestowed by the left wing political machine known as Americans for Democratic Action (ADA). Republican Lindsay earned it with a straight ADA voting record.

ADA announced the award to Lindsay in its annual rundown of congressional voting records. In the first session of the 89th Congress, ADA selected 19 roll call votes as the basis for judging the political orientation of members of the house of representatives. Each representative was graded plus or minus on each vote. His overall record on the 19 roll calls determined what ADA calls the member's "liberal quotient for 1965."

On four of the 19 roll calls, Lindsay was absent. On the remaining 15 he was recorded each time as voting in harmony with ADA policies and principles. Fifteen left wing ADA plusses for the Republican mayor-elect of New York City! Impossible? Not at all. Nothing could be easier to accomplish. Lindsay runs for office as a Republican and votes ADA. Or to put it differently, he registers as a Republican and seeks office as the nominee of the very left Liberal Party of New York City. Lindsay had the 1965 Liberal nomination as well as the Republican nomination for mayor.

the far left Farmer's Union, Robert R. Nathan, former CIO economist, and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

ADA is as much a part of the Democratic Party as is the Democratic national committee. There is nothing wrong with that. What wrinkles conservative patience, however, is how to define Lindsay's politics. Is it possible for a Republican to accept a Liberal Party mayoralty nomination and uniformly support in Congress the policies of Americans for Democratic Action and still remain a Republican?

A nestor of the Republican left answered that question last week in a widely syndicated column. He wrote that the truth of the matter was that John Lindsay was a Republican in the main line of Republicanism as it comes down from Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt.

The impression is being created by the liberal establishment that those who question Lindsay's Republicanism are kooks whose most recent escapade was to kidnap the Republican Party in 1964 in behalf of Barry Goldwater. Maybe so.

In 1933, the United States and Russia established diplomatic relations.

WARLIKE CHINOOK—The Chinook helicopter, already on duty in Viet Nam as a transport, is going to get a warlike look in a new armed version. The new model, scheduled for an early test flight, will be equipped with grenade launchers, mounts for fixed-firing weapons and rockets and machine guns on flexible mounts. One gunner situated over the rear loading ramp will be able to protect the Chinook from ground fire after passing over a target.

Tower Pledges Continued Right To Work Fight

IRVING, Tex. (UPI)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said yesterday he intends to continue fighting repeal of the so-called "right-to-work" section of the Taft-Hartley Act and predicted repeal efforts will fail next year also.

Tower, one of the leaders in the successful effort opposing repeal in the 89th Congress, said "we should not any more make a man join a union to hold his job than we would force him to work for a specific firm if he wants a job."

Roy Hofheinz of Houston Honored As Top Salesman

FORT WORTH (UPI)—The "father of the Astrodome," Roy Hofheinz of Houston, was honored as a top salesman Tuesday night and told an audience of the Sales and Marketing Executives Club Texas needs to sell itself to tourists.

"We can make Texas one of the greatest lands of opportunity for enjoyment during vacation," Hofheinz said.

Hofheinz, former mayor of Houston, was the man who got the domed stadium moved from planning to reality in Houston. He said Texas represents a wide potential for tourism dollars and the state's best salesman should help advertise the state.

The association also honored Mrs. Janey Jones for having thought up "Operation Gift Lift," a plan to get Christmas presents to the servicemen in Viet Nam.

West Texas U. Students Face Bomb Charges

CANYON, Tex. (UPI)—Three West Texas State University students were scheduled for arraignment in Randall County court on charges of bombing the campus postoffice.

The postoffice was bombed Monday night. Bobby Hudson, chief security officer at the University, said they put a sock of garbage in a mail box along with an M-80 military bomb, two inches long and an inch in diameter.

When the bomb went off, it damaged five mail boxes and plastered the walls, ceiling and floor with garbage.

The boys, all freshmen, are from Fort Worth, Brownfield and Houston. Two were picked up within an hour-and-a-half of the bombing. The third was arrested Tuesday.

A. W. Pfanmiller, postal inspector at Amarillo, said the boys were turned over to county court because they "should be punished now." He said federal dockets are too crowded, it might take 10 months in federal court.

The university said it plans to take "disciplinary action." The bomb apparently was put in the box of a student who had left school.

Hudson said the bomb had to have been put there by someone who knew the lock combination. As it turned out, one of the boys involved had been a roommate of the student who originally rented the box.

'Katy' Winning Survival Fight

DENISON, Tex. (UPI)—The Missouri-Kansas-Texas (Katy) railroad has progressed enough the past few months so that the question now is not if, but when, it will win its fight for survival. John W. Barringer, president of Katy, said Wednesday.

Barringer recently set 1,100 carloads a day as the "breaking point" between loss and profit.

General Superintendent Raymond B. George said the traffic volume for Katy was "generally improved."

WHISTLE-STOP
 LONDON (UPI)—For lack of a whistle, a train load of commuters were 40 minutes late in arriving to a London station Wednesday. The delay was caused when the whistle broke down and the engineer refused to proceed until it worked.

Secret Service Altered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Treasury Wednesday announced a reorganization of the U.S. Secret Service. Chief James J. Rowley will get the title of director in the new setup. Four new assistant directors will report directly to Rowley, the Treasury said.

One of the assistant directors will be Rufus Youngblood, the agent who has been in charge of protecting President Johnson. It was Youngblood who pushed Johnson to the floor of his car when President John F. Kennedy was shot to death in Dallas.

Youngblood has been given general supervision of all the service's protective details, including those that watch the President, the Vice President, former Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman and Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Youngblood has been succeeded on the White House detail by Thomas L. Johns, who was No. 2 agent in the presidential guard.

Walter Young has been named assistant director in charge of gathering intelligence, Thomas J. Kelley has charge of the service's counterfeits and other enforcement activities. A fourth assistant director will be named for administration.

Erhard Rejects French Try to Cut U.S. Ties

BONN (UPI) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard yesterday rejected French attempts to cut European ties with the United States and demanded an end to "unjust" NATO discrimination against West Germany.

Erhard pledged to continue the closest political and military cooperation with the United States while he denounced point by point French President Charles de Gaulle's plan for unraveling European unification and replacing it with "old-fashioned" alliances.

The 68-year-old chancellor made only a passing and general reference to West Germany's 1963 treaty of friendship with France. But he devoted a major portion of an hour-long policy speech to Parliament to explain why he refuses to abandon his goals of alliance with the United States; military—including nuclear — integration of NATO; and political union of Europe.

De Gaulle is opposed to all these ideas. Of most immediate interest were Erhard's demands for nuclear partnership. Erhard intends to put these directly to President Johnson in Washington later this month. He will make these views clear to De Gaulle in Paris in January.

Porter Killed Over Eviction

FORT WORTH (UPI) — An angry apartment house tenant shot and killed a porter Wednesday night when the porter delivered a note from the landlady ordering him to move. Bartie Reynolds, 52, the tenant, shot porter Walter Richardson, 66. Mrs. Vallie Dunsford, the landlady, said the note was the result of a disturbance earlier in the day that Richardson had reported to her. Richardson had worked for Mrs. Dunsford 46 years.

Panel of Editors Will Check on Texas U. Paper

AUSTIN (UPI) — A committee of 12 newspaper editors yesterday went into closed session to consider the fate of the University of Texas student newspaper, the Daily Texan.

Robert Jackson of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times said the panel would "interview a number of students, and there may be questions of competence. We don't want to embarrass them at a public hearing."

He added that the committee considered itself a private group, since members are paying their own expenses.

Jackson promised to brief reporters later on the results of the closed-door session.

The board of regents appointed the committee Oct. 26 to study all campus publications, but especially the Texan.

Texan editors have frequently tangled with some regents over editorial comments, but the editors' committee has asserted it would not become involved in any attempt to censor the newspaper.

One of the questions the committee was asked to determine is whether the Texan should continue as an activity open to all students or become a "laboratory" for the journalism department.

Now! '66 Chevelle Malibu by Chevrolet

Two racy new hardtops

Take your pick of 12 racy-looking new Chevilles in all, including a clean-sculptured new sport coupe with recessed rear window, and— for the first time—a 4-door Chevelle Sport Sedan.

Not only will you find more variety in the '66 Chevelle lineup, but even more of what makes a Chevelle a Chevelle.

Say, for instance, you pick a new Malibu Sport Sedan and specify the new 220-hp V8. You've got yourself quite a machine.

Or pick a Malibu Sport Coupe, equip it with the new Strato-bucket front seats and order the new 275-hp V8. You've got yourself even more machine.

Or maybe you'd like to pick a new black-grilled SS 396 Coupe or Convertible. (Standard engine is a Turbo-Jet 396 V8 with 325 hp. And there's also a 360-hp version you can specify.) Now you've got yourself the most.

Which '66 Chevelle for you? The answer to that covers a lot more ground than we can here. And that's where your Chevrolet dealer comes in.

Dear Abby....

Rewarding and Bribing Are Entirely Different

DEAR ABBY: Do you think parents should pay their children for getting good grades? Somehow I can't seem to convince myself that it's right, but other parents do it and get results, so maybe I'm wrong. Our son needs some sort of motivation to do better in school. Richard has as much intelligence as any of his classmates who make the honor roll, yet he barely gets by and it doesn't seem to bother him. My husband thinks we should offer him money as an incentive. Richard is only 14, but he's saving for a car. Do you think $50 for every "A" he gets and $25 for every "B" is too much?

RICHARD'S MOTHER: DEAR MOTHER: I think the whole idea of paying a child for the privilege of getting an education is "too much." First, Richard needs to learn the value of knowing things, not having things. It's all right to "reward" a child for a job well done — but "bribing" him for doing what he should do for nothing makes no sense at all. Motivate, when one can do better, calls for discipline.

DEAR ABBY: I work, and I live alone. I get very tired of eating out all the time, so I frequently invite a friend or two over to dinner at home. I appreciate having someone offer to help me with the dishes afterwards, but how would you like it if your guest took the dish towel out of your hands and said, "Get out. I'm doing the work!"

There are two people who push me out of my own kitchen this way and it irritates me. Should I just go in the other room and sit down? Or should I say, "This is my home, and if you want to help me, fine; otherwise you go in the other room. I'm staying."

DEAR IRRITATED: Your "helpers" mean well. They're just a trifle heavy-handed. Tell them if they want to "help," they're welcome, but you are in charge of K.P. in your own kitchen. And out some authority in your voice.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for a year. Before I was married I was a pretty sad case. (I guess you'd say I was "promiscuous.") My husband knew about this because I was going with him at the time. When we were first married, I lied to him a few times about where I was going. I really did not cheat on him those times, but I was going with some girls I knew he didn't like. I've been 100 per cent true to my husband since our marriage and always will be. Well, he found out I lied to him, and now he won't trust me.

Yesterday our telephone rang three times. It was the same person calling a wrong number. My husband was sure it was a man for me and I was trying to cover up, so he said, "Why don't you call your boy friend back and tell him I'll be gone all day tomorrow?" Abby, I love my husband and want him to believe me, but how can I when he's so unreasonable and suspicious?

NOT TRUSTED: DEAR NOT: You earned your husband's distrust and now you will have to win back his confidence. This can be accomplished in only one way — performance. If you consistently tread the straight and narrow, in time your "bad" reputation will fade, and a better one will replace it. It can be done, but you must avoid not only evil, but the appearance of it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "M" AND "M": Goethe put it this way: "Love is an ideal thing, marriage a real thing; a confusion of the real with the ideal never goes unpunished." There is no perfection. Don't expect too much.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 6970, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Actress Proves She's a Designing Woman

By HELEN HENNESSY
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Actress Gail Kobe (Doris Schuster to viewers of ABC-TV's "Peyton Place") has a fashion problem.

"I'm an odd size and can't buy anything off the rack," she said. "But I can't afford couturier clothes, either."

Her dilemma is legion. But we aren't all equipped to solve it the way she does.

Detroit-born Gail is a painter and sculptor and she turns her artistic talents to designing. She sketches the fashions and shops for the fabrics for all the clothes she wears both on and off camera.

"And then with the help of a blessed woman with a single name, Hansi, who does all the sewing, I end up with some marvelous clothes."

But Hansi notwithstanding, it seems to me that the "marvelous" wardrobe is a direct result of the flair and imagination Gail shows when she chooses a piece of fabric.

For example, in her role of Doris Schuster she plays the wife of a minor executive who is trying to look like the wife of a major executive. So a little money she has to look like "big time." Her wardrobe must be chic but not costly.

One delightful morning at home dress she designed for the role was a combination of two tablecloths — one red and white and the other black and white.

"For a party sequence at the Schuster's house," she recalled, "I used a black Spanish mantilla I bought the last time I was abroad. I made a beautiful lace gown out of it and wore it over a flesh-colored slip."

Eye Bank Committee Named by Rebekahs
Mrs. Bobbie Brummett, Mrs. Hazel Cullen and Mrs. Hazel Franklin were appointed to serve on the Eye Bank Committee of Pampa Rebekah Lodge 355 when the group met recently in IOOF Hall.

Mrs. Eunice Maddox presided as noble grand and Mrs. Alice Chitwood as vice grand during the business session at which a report was made of 111 members with 15 visits made and a committee consisting of Mmes. Alice Hays, Bea York, Paul Thornhill, Eunice Maddox and Alice Chitwood was appointed to secure new members. Plans were discussed for the presentation of 25-year pins to three members at the next meeting and members were asked to bring food to the next two meetings for Thanksgiving baskets.

Mrs. Hazel Radcliff and Mrs. Mildred Rice were initiated into the Lodge by the degree team with Mrs. Hazell Lockhart serving as team captain. Mrs. Bertha Chambers' name was drawn from the "Friendship Fund."

MISS DEB

... answers questions about Junior Miss etiquette, grooming and interests.

Q. I'm having my picture taken next week and I don't know how to prepare. I'd like to do something different with my hair. Do you have any ideas?

A. The natural looks is in and the picture is of you! So wear your hair and make-up in the usual way. If you are about to try a new hairdo anyway, decide on it at least a week before your picture is taken, so you can get used to it and be sure you like it. On the big day, be sure your hair is clean and your makeup perfect. Use a light-colored lipstick. Wear a dress or skirt and blouse with a simple collar or round neck and a minimum of jewelry. The photographer will tell you exactly how to pose, so all you have to do is look your loveliest.

Q. When I go out right after school, I have to carry my makeup in my purse. It's heavy and bulky, and I sometimes forget things at home or at school. I don't use that much makeup, but I like to put it on fresh before going out.

A. Be an all-day-long beauty with a beauty box in your school locker. Keep essential cosmetics like lipstick, powder, and hair

ACTRESS-DESIGNER — Gail Kobe, who plays Doris Schuster on ABC-TV's Peyton Place, chooses off-beat fabrics for her Three-piece ensemble (left) and made from two tablecloths.

Miss Kobe's penchant for using off-beat materials isn't restricted to her television wardrobe. She has a two-piece suit made of drapery fabric in white which she wears with a flowing polka dot scarf. For a handsome print costume she chose upholstery goods.

"I started out in this venture inexpensively," she admitted. "It should be that way because it's easy to make mistakes in the beginning. I, for instance, had to learn what camera angles and lighting do to certain styles and fabrics. If I had gone overboard in buying fabrics at that time, I could have lost a lot of money."

Gail Kobe says she has discovered that you can find duplicates of imported fabrics here at great savings. "It's just a matter of shopping until you find what you want. It's time-consuming but pays off."

She carefully watches the clothes of the top designers so she will know what is up-to-the-minute. "I've never copied anything in toto," she said, "but I am not averse to purloining an occasional skirt line."

Designing her own clothes gives Gail Kobe a feeling of security. She doesn't run the risk of seeing herself coming and going all over town.

"If that kind of thing can happen to Elizabeth Taylor and Sophia Loren — and it has — it could sure happen to me."

So get hence to the drapery departments, home sewers. You, too, can be different.

Bucks Try to Clinch Title; Groom Can Cinch Tie

By RON CROSS
News Sports Editor

White Deer will try to wrap up their second straight 2-A title Friday night and Groom will be out to clinch at least a tie for the 5-B championship.

The Bucks host Memphis in the final game of the regular season for both teams. Deer is unbeaten in nine starts this year and are 4-0 in league play. Memphis has won six of nine contests and have split four conference games for a 2-2 mark.

White Deer's only challenger is Wellington, who lost to the Bucks, 40-0. The Skyrockets are 3-1 in league play and 7-1-1 for the season. Wellington ends its season Friday night at Clarendon, 2-2 in conference play and 4-5 for the season.

In the other 2-A contest McLean hosts winless Canadian. The Tigers have won three of nine regular season games and stand 1-3 in league action. The Canadian Wildcats are 0-3 for the year and 0-4 in league play.

The Bucks have one of the most potent offenses and defenses in the state. White Deer has scored 341 points in their nine games and have limited opponents to 26 points. The Bucks have scored shutouts in three of their last four games.

The Bucks have been led offensively by speedy Randy Elliott, the area scoring leader. Elliott has 18 touchdowns and one conversion for 110 season points.

Also high in the scoring chart is fullback Vernon Marlar with 72 points and J. Smith with 42 points. The Bucks have one of the most assured extra point kickers in the state in Johnny Mooney. Mooney has booted home 34 of 40 tries.

In 5-B action a win Friday night against Follett would assure Groom of at least a tie in 5-B, for the Tigers are unbeaten in four conference games.

Groom stands 4-0 in league play and 7-0-1 for the year. Wheeler, the 1964 champ is 8-1 for the season and 4-1 in conference action, having lost only to Groom.

The Mustangs are idle this week while the Tigers host Follett, 7-1-1 for the year and 3-1 in conference play.

In other 5-B games Miami hosts Lefors and Booker plays at Darrouzett.

Miami is 2-5, season-wise and 0-4 in conference action while the Pirates have won only one game in eight season starts and stand 1-3 in 5-B action.

Groom follows the Follett contest by winding up the season at Darrouzett in a game that will probably decide the 5-B champion. The Tigers have been led in the backfield by halfback Larry Lamberson. The senior speedster has scored 10 touchdowns and four conversions for a season total of 68 points.

The Tigers also have five other players scoring in double figures and have scored a total of 186 points while giving up only 52 for a 7.3 defensive average.

HE'S NOT NERVOUS NOW

Houston Excited Over McVea

By PAUL FREEMAN

HOUSTON (UPI) — After a faltering start as one of college football's most publicized players, the flashing little fusi of Warren McVea may be on the track to an outstanding college career.

The 173-pound sophomore speed specialist made a disappointing start this year in his first varsity season for the University of Houston. Playing against Tulsa in the ultra-modern domed stadium before a national television audience, McVea fumbled four times and said "I lost the ball game."

McVea was then taken out of the Cougar starting lineup due to his nervousness and to a couple of leg injuries.

Moving from running back to split end for Saturday's game against the University of Mississippi, McVea fought off his nervousness and snatched six passes for 201 yards. Two of his catches went for touchdowns of 80 and 84 yards.

University of Houston football coach Bill Yeoman was ecstatic about McVea's performance. "He was doubled on at first... He just went whoosh!" Yeoman said.

In Demand

McVea came to Houston after rejecting scholarship offers from 70 schools across the nation. He picked Houston mainly because it is near his San Antonio, Tex., hometown.

McVea's high school football at San Antonio Breckenridge was history-making. McVea, a 9.5 sprinter in the 100, gained 1,332 yards in 127 carries as a senior, scoring 46 touchdowns and running for 78 extra points.

His senior year the all-state ballots from the Texas Sports Writers Association read: "Select McVea and 10 others."

The only Negro on the University of Houston squad, McVea says he hasn't been uncomfortable.

"The fellows couldn't be nicer to me," McVea said, and his teammates "tried to keep my spirits up" earlier this season when the going was rough.

He had made himself ready for possible racial slurs, before the Mississippi State game but they failed to come. "Mississippi State was the cleanest team we played this year," McVea said. "They talked to me during the game and were real nice."

A physical education major, McVea had a "C" average his freshman year. He is the only one of five male children in his family to become a college athlete, and comes from middle-class San Antonio parents.

McVea now ranks fourth in line with averaged 235 pounds. He didn't carry the ball from scrimmage against Old Miss and his 3.0 yards per carry average was made earlier in the season when the going was rougher, and before he was switched to split end.

'SUGAR MAN' BEATEN AGAIN

Archer Wants Title Shot

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Joey Archer deserves a shot at the middleweight title.

These words were uttered Wednesday night by a man who should know — Sugar Ray Robinson, vanquished in a rousing 10-round battle by Archer, a fellow New Yorker 18 years his junior.

Setting up cross rights with deadly lefts, the 27-year-old Archer dazzled the valiant but tiring Robinson.

Archer was asked if the 45-year-old Robinson, who held the middleweight title five times, was the toughest opponent he had ever met.

The 159-pound Archer parried the question with the same deftness he eluded Robinson's blows in the ring.

"Well, I'd say he was the most experienced," he said. "I've seen him fight several times and he never fights the same."

Told that Robinson said he should be matched with Middleweight Champion Dick Tiger, Archer nodded his head in assent.

"Bring on Dick Tiger now," he said emphatically. "I'll fight him now and if I have to I'll fight anybody in the way of my match with Tiger."

Archer, winning his 48th of 49 fights, floored Robinson with a right cross to the head in the fourth round and the ex-champion took a count of nine.

"That blow was the one that lost the fight," said Sugar Ray's manager, George Gainsford.

Robinson, weighing 160, wanted to make this fight — the 200th in his career — the stepping stone to a match with Tiger in hopes of realizing an ambition to wear the middleweight mantle the sixth time.

Robinson was reluctant to discuss his future plans in boxing and said he would "need a few days to think this thing out."

Archer said he had no master plan for the fight.

"I never go into a fight with a plan because you'll often find a different kind of battle than you expected and then your plans go out of the window," he said.

"When I knocked Sugar Ray down in the fourth round, I kind of expected him to stay on the floor. He surprised me when he got up at the count of nine."

A crowd of 9,023 at the Civic Arena paid a gross of $40,193 (net $34,802) and got its BUCK RUNNERS — White Deer's two top scorers will help the Bucks end regular play Friday night when they host Memphis for the 2-A championship. Randy Elliott (22) is the Buck's top scorer and also first in the area and Vernon Marlar (34) is the area's No. 4 scorer.

Modest Willie 'Thrilled' at Winning MVP Award

BOSTON (UPI) — Now you know why they call Willie Mays wondrous — he made Sandy Koufax finish second.

Mays, at the not-so-tender age of 34, has been named the National League's Most Valuable Player for 1965. In the process, he scored a 47-point victory over ace pitcher Koufax who had been a healthy favorite for his second MVP title in three years.

Mays, Rookie of the Year in 1951 and MVP choice in 1954

while his San Francisco Giants were still in New York, captured the award Wednesday by gaining nine of 20 first place votes and being chosen not lower than third by the two writers from each city.

The Giant center fielder didn't appear at all surprised that he had prevented a repetition on the 1963 Koufax sweep when Sandy won both the Cy Young "Best Pitcher" award and the MVP title.

Koufax was named 1965 Cy

Young award winner last week. "Beating Sandy is a great thrill. I thought I'd be a candidate because this was one of my best years. But he's a great pitcher," Mays said.

Hopes Are Dim for McAdams To Start Against Missouri

NORMAN, Okla. — "As of today, he's on real thin ice. I'd guess he probably can't play. But he heals fast. I wouldn't count him out yet."

Ken Rawlinson, Oklahoma's trainer, was talking Monday night about Carl McAdams, crack Sooner linebacker who sprained his right ankle late in the fourth quarter of the Iowa State game. McAdams may not play against Missouri Saturday.

Dr. Don F. Robinson, Sooner team physician, prescribed whirlpool and ultra sound Monday and tripled the treatment Tuesday. A splint cast of rubber, manufactured by Rawlinson in the Sooner training room, goes on McAdams' foot after each treatment. He was still on crutches Monday.

"Although this is the most severe injury he has had, he has lots of desire to play and could make it," Rawlinson thinks.

McAdams has recovered this season from a bruised back, an elbow that had to have fluid drained off it, and a knee injury in spring practice. He never missed making the next game or scrimmage after any of them.

Don Kindley, a squad man from Cushing who has played only a few minutes all year but intercepted a pass against Kansas State, will probably replace him and call defensive signals, says Coach Gomer Jones.

The Sooners are scheduled to fly by Braniff DC-6 charter to Jefferson City, Mo., arriving at 1:05 p.m. Friday and working out at the high school field and staying at the Missouri hotel. They will go by bus to and from Columbia, Norman arrival time is 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Jones Expected Back for SMU

By United Press International
Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles, remarking how "fast this season has gone," admitted he may change his mind if the Hogs have trouble with Southern Methodist-Saturday.

But he had an encouraging note.

Speedy wingback Harry Jones is expected to make the SMU game at Dallas.

Jones suffered a bruised hip against Rice last week and had been doubtful.

"It's hard to believe only 10 more days remain in the regular season for us," Broyles said Wednesday.

"But I might change my mind in the next 10 days," he said.

The Razorbacks need victories over SMU and Texas Tech to round out their second consecutive undefeated season.

At Dallas, the Porkers' foes, SMU, were "really fired up."

That is what Information Director Junior Edridge called their state of mind.

"It was a very spirited workout," Edridge said. The Mustangs battled their freshman squad in a contact drill Wednesday.

The Ponies have lost only one player from the starting squad — center Charles Standifer, a junior letterman from Dallas, Dallas.

Standifer broke his hand in Monday's drill.

Rice's Owls whipped through a light contact workout but David Ferguson, starting quarterback, was out. He hurt his ankle against Arkansas last week.

Former Trinity Player Going Good for Cowboys

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
DALLAS (UPI)—The National Football League was never meant for players the size of Obert Logan.

Nobody 5-foot-10 inches and 180-pounds is supposed to survive in a jungle of man-mountain linemen, skyscraper offensive ends and punishing 225-pound fullbacks.

But thrive he does.

The Trinity University free agent has been a gnat in the eyeball of every team Dallas has played since the smallest cowboy crashed the lineup against Cleveland.

"He's done something great every game and has never been beaten badly," Larry Karl, Dallas publicist, said of the Gonzales Tex., defensive back. "He hits people."

Like Chewing Gum

Against Cleveland, off-safety Logan blocked a field goal, creamed the quarterback on a safety blitz, and survived a head-on tackle with none other than Jimmy Brown, a train officer disguised as Cleveland's fullback. Brown later commented that trying to get over Logan was like "stepping on chewing gum."

Even more impressive was Logan's performance Sunday against the San Francisco 49ers won by the Cowboys 39-31.

Logan made several jarring tackles, almost broke for a touchdown with a blocked field goal, and stole the ball on a leaping interception to kill a drive.

Long-time Dream

The 23-year-old Logan said playing pro ball was something I have dreamed of since I was a boy.

Logan realizes his lack of experience and size are handicaps, but figures he can make up for it with aggressive play.

"The harder I hit the less I get hurt," Logan said. "The harder I deliver a blow, the easier it is on me."

"I sometimes get the feeling out there (on the field) that it's a big man's world, but I've been playing against bigger guys all my life. I really haven't thought too much about it."

Then he asked "is there any other way?"

Sports Notes . . . It looks as if there won't be any female letterwomen on the Arlington State swimming team this season. Dashedel Maines of Burleson lettered last year, but Rebel coach Don Esterling said the squad will be all-male this year.

Dub Malaise, Texas Tech's All-Southwest Conference basketball guard, has been picked on the second team pre-season All-American team by Dell Sports Magazine.

The Dallas Cowboys say they may draft Texas A&M's Randy Matson as a future this year although he's spending his time throwing the shot and playing basketball. Matson's size and quickness have impressed Dallas although Matson has not played football since high school.
