Russian Spaceship Due to Land on Moon Today

MOSCOW (UPI) —The Russian spaceship Luna 8 raced toward the moon today for an intended soft landing shortly after midnight Moscow time (3:50 p.m. CST).

DOUBLE DATE, BY GEMINI! — Sketch above is an artist's conception of a successful climax to the unprecedented rendezvous in space planned for four astronauts in the Gemini-7 and Gemini-6 spacecraft.

Agna disappeared, would go into orbit to pursue and rendezvous with its mate, possibly as close as 100 feet.

May Start Early
The Gemini 6 program progressed so fast it was possible astronauts Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford would be able to blast off a day early — next Sunday — in the first attempt to rendezvous two space craft.

BETTER SUITED FOR SPACE — Astronaut Frank Borman and his partner James A. Lovell wore better space suits in their flight than previous astronauts. The new suits were lightweight, soft with cloth hoods and an enlarged face plate.

The Gemini 6 capsule was electrically "mated" to its Titan 2 rocket at 7:45 a.m. CST — a task originally scheduled for completion around midnight tonight.

The latest official Interior Ministry count gave De Gaulle 10,504,007 votes to 7,655,042 for Mitterrand. Final results were to be announced in mid-week.

DEAR ABBY...

Make Intentions Clear

DEAR ABBY: Just what is the difference between "flirting" and being friendly with a man? I have been accused of flirting when I have only meant to be "nice" to a fellow. I am single and people tell me I'm the type they feel like they've known all their lives only a few minutes after meeting me. Men do ask me out as soon as they meet me but I have trouble with them after that. They try to take liberties with me and I'm not that kind of girl. How can I be friendly enough to capture a man's interest, without giving him the idea that anything goes?

JUST FRIENDLY
DEAR FRIENDLY: "Flirting" constitutes encouragement!

above and beyond the platonic plateau. The girl who is constantly being misunderstood is a little too friendly. Don't be a tease. The man who mistakes the dating call for the mating call needs his hearing tested. Start by saying "No" very clearly.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter was selected to be one of a few for a big honor in her school. She had a lot of competition but Abby, she won it fairly and squarely. We later heard through the grapevine that the reason our daughter won was because we were friendly with some of the people who had a big say in picking the winner. I swear on a stack of Bibles that we never once mentioned our daughter or anything about that "honor" to these people. This sure does take the joy out of it for us. How can we let folks know that she won with no help from anybody?

HURT
DEAR HURT: Don't waste your time or energy. Your friends don't need to be assured and your enemies wouldn't believe the truth anyway. Credit it to the sour grapevine and forget it.

DEAR ABBY: Please be a pal and discourage people from sending out those boring five-page Christmas newsletters that seem to have replaced the lovely traditional Christmas card. I

However, if Cousin Ned was appointed to the Supreme Court, they will have read it in the papers. And who cares if Susie placed third in the frog jumping contest, and Grandpa Joe had all his uppers extracted? (Yich!) Yours, for the old-fashioned "Merry Christmas" cards.

DEAR LAKELANDER: Speak for yourself, I've seen some annual Christmas newsletters that were interesting, amusing and tastefully done. And those five-page duds make wonderful kindling.

cussing people. You said, "Intelligent people talk about ideas, not people." How true. And what a joy it is to be around them.

One of the loveliest qualities found in all truly great ladies is their reluctance to talk about absent parties in a manner which is uncomplimentary to them. This kind of behavior reflects good breeding and inspires trust and affection. It is something we all "know" but should be reminded of from time to time. Thank you for reminding us.

Scouting Scoops

By MRS. G. J. BOYD
The film "This is Girl Scouting" was shown to the leaders, representing twenty-four troops, during the conference last week. This film concerned the extension of the hand of friendship and exchanging ideas of service and responsibility of Girl Scouts. It pointed out that Scouting is "The good beginning for the woman to be . . . and the girl that is."

The group discussion followed, allowing leaders to exchange ideas and ways of solving problems that occur in their troops at different age levels. Trips were about the most talked about items. Destination range from Camp Mel Davis to Hawaii, Troop 151 from Phillips, Mrs. C. L. Garrett, leader, plans to go to Savannah, Ga. and Washington D.C. This is the troop that has already made a Hawaiian trip. So it seems that the Girl Scouts could adopt the Army slogan of "Join and see the world".

The panel, introduced by Mrs. James Crouch, gave a very informative program. Telling of their experiences with troops from the Brownie through Senior Scouts, Mrs. Jack Skelly, Mrs. Wynn Veale, Mrs. John Brewer and Mrs. F. J. Vendrell were members of the panel and quite qualified to discuss Scouting. Mrs. Skelly has seven daughters, all have been in Girl Scouts, and one son that is at Boy Scout. This is, indeed, a Scouting family. Mrs. John Brewer grew up in Scouting and has been actively working with them since that time. Such dedication is certainly to be commended.

Mrs. Jack P. Foster, guest speaker, gave a very inspiring explanation for the "need" of Girl Scouts. The apathy now shown youngsters and why the theme "Promise in Action" should be projected, "A basic accomplishment," she said, "should be set by the leader. She should, then evaluate the project . . . but leave the success of it to the troop members themselves."

Worthwhile suggestion overheard at the conference: "The Girl Scout program should be flexible to allow for the ability and capacity of each girl as an individual."

Junior Troop 4, Mrs. T. M. Whitely, leader, made the clever name tags for the leaders to wear at the conference.

Conference attendance: Mrs. Tom Eudy and Mrs. Milton Cotten, troop 124, from Turkey; Mrs. Thomas Cook, 140, Mrs. Tommy Saye, 182 from Clarendon; Mrs. Phil Jones, 71, Mrs. W. T. Sullivan, Mrs. Doyl e Wells, 70, from Claude; Mrs. Troy Hopkins, Mrs. Charles Bailey, 6, Mrs. Dale Richerson, 12, from Miami; Mrs. C. L. Garrett, 151, Mrs. D. Z. Jackson, Mrs. J. D. Thompson, 67, from Phillips; Mrs. R. C. Johnston, Mrs. S. P. Washer, 119 and Mrs. D. B. McDaniel, troop 104 from Borger.

Pampa troops were represented by these leaders: Mmes: Raymond Laycock, Jackson Black, 54, Donald Warminski, CARL TAKES JETS. SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Carl McAdams, a 6-foot, 3-inch, 217-pound linebacker from the University of Oklahoma, was signed Saturday night by the Football League. McAdams also was the first-round draft choice of the St. Louis Cardinals of the National League.

MORRISON INJURED. NEW YORK (UPI)—Halfback Joe Morrison, a 6-1, 212-pound veteran of eight seasons in the National Football League, suffered a fractured vertebra Sunday and will be lost to the New York Giants for the remainder of the National Football League season. Morrison was hurt during the Giants' 35-10 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Honeymoon Over For President, Congress

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It's beginning to look as if President Johnson was right when he told aides early in the year that 1965 might be his only chance to get major Great Society bills through Congress.

But it may turn out he was right for the wrong reason. According to reports which leaked out of his strategy huddle with top government lobbyists, Johnson said that if history was a guide his honeymoon with the heavily Democratic 89th Congress couldn't be expected to last more than a year.

The second term of the 89th begins to shape up as a war session. The U.S. commitment in Viet Nam has jumped fast to near-Korean proportions. Neither the President nor Congress is likely to worry much about further home front social and economic reforms while the fighting escalates, the casualty list mounts, and the defense budget soars.

In a weekend speech in Texas, Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., a key House leader, called for a slowdown on home front spending. Talk of further tax cuts is forgotten. Other congressional leaders are wondering if demands won't be heard soon for something like reimposition of a previous wartime special tax on excess industrial profits.

So far there is no suggestion of reimposing wartime economic controls. Johnson prefers encouragement of "voluntary" restraints—as applied in recent rollbacks of copper and aluminum prices.

The new year's appropriations requests for legislation already enacted are being subjected to a tight administrative scrutiny. And the second session of the 89th can be expected to give the governmental purse strings a much harder yank than did the open-ended first session.

Act (Continued From Page 1) contained in a report on early implementation of the four-month-old voting rights act, was the sharpest yet and the first to bring a reply from Katzenbach.

The reply, a 3,000-word letter to the commission's staff director, William L. Taylor, was also seen as an answer to attacks on the department by civil rights leaders.

Some Johnson administration officials feared the exchange would lead to further open conflict between the department and the commission, both of which are being given additional authority under a governmental reorganization plan. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has said the plan should end "confusion and duplication" in the civil rights field.

LBJ Approves Although the President is not likely to take sides publicly, there is little doubt he approves of the course followed by Katzenbach.

The commission's chief complaint against Katzenbach was that he has failed to send enough federal voting examiners into the South. Katzenbach replied that he has ordered, and will continue to order, examiners into any county where they are warranted.

Other commission claims and Katzenbach's rebuttal: Commission: Examiners should be assigned to all counties which reject voting or inadequate registration facilities. Katzenbach: Examiners are sent to such counties, and the commission knows it.

Commission: A study by the commission staff of 32 southern counties showed the need for further federal action. Katzenbach: The Justice Department has studied most of the 518 counties covered by the act and could have helped the commission gain a "more complete picture."

Commission: Katzenbach is not investigating complaints of voter discrimination. Katzenbach: "I am at a loss to know the basis for such a conclusion," since all but a handful of complaints received have been checked out thoroughly.

Commission: The Justice Department has prevented enactment of a federal program to notify all unregistered persons when an examiner is sent to their county. Katzenbach: "In each county to which examiners were sent there has been the most widespread publicity."

BOUL CANCELED. PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—A scheduled 10-round fight between Rafiq King of Nigeria and Gabriel Hernandez of Mexico Tuesday night has been canceled because Hernandez is under suspension by the California Boxing Commission.

Reports Given On PIF; New Board Nominated

A report on the activities of the Pampa Industrial Foundation and the selection of 10 director nominees featured the meeting of the organization's second annual stockholders meeting of the organization Monday in the Coronado Inn.

Bill Chambliss gave a financial report in which he stated that the Foundation's assets are about $254,900. During the past year, expenses ran $3,200 while income totaled $3,600.

President Frank Culberson reviewed the group's activities which included industrial promotion through the use of Texas Parade Magazine, direct correspondence, and billboards as well as direct contacts.

Culberson emphasized that we must keep our community alert to the possibilities of industrial expansion.

"When an individual or firm learns of a prospective industry, we must follow up the lead as quickly as possible," he added.

It was also stated that Form-U-Th's weekly payroll in its Pampa plant now runs between $12,000 and $15,000. The women's apparel factory was assisted in locating here about 20 months ago.

Following are the names of 10 people to be placed on the ballot to be mailed to all stockholders, from which five will be elected for three-year terms on the board of directors:

"DELINQUENT" DRAFTEES

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The head of the nation's Selective Service System says that local draft boards have the authority to draft those who violate the law—but not law-abiding demonstrators.

Lt. Gen. Lewis E. Hershey said during the weekend that there had been some confusion on the point because of a demonstration at Ann Arbor, Mich., which involved violations of the law. Some of the demonstrators were convicted of trespassing.

The procedure in such a case is to declare the man "delinquent," which means he is reclassified to 1-A and is available for immediate induction into service, Hershey said.

The San Francisco-New York jetliner limped safely into Kennedy Airport with 20 feet of its left wing gone. The only casualty among 58 persons aboard was a stewardess who sustained a bloody nose.

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dynex)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

TWO FOR THE SEESAW — Duke and UCLA meet Dec. 10-11 in Durham and Charlotte, N.C., in two important early-season basketball games. Edgar Lacey (54) of the Bruins and Jack Martin (24), inset, of Duke will be counted on heavily by the respective teams.

Duke Waiting For Shot at UCLANS

By United Press International
The Duke Blue Devils, off to a fast start and still looking to avenge a loss to UCLA in the 1964 NCAA final, get two chances this week to upset the first-ranked Bruins.

Fifth-rated Duke has whipped Virginia Tech 112-79 and Clemson 83-68 this season while UCLA romped over Ohio State 92-66 and Illinois 97-79.

The teams play at Durham, N. C., Friday night and at Charlotte on Saturday night. Sophomore Mike Warren, a 5-foot, 11-inch guard, has filled in brilliantly for graduated all-America Gail Goodrich. He scored 23 points against Ohio State and fired in 28 against Illinois while acting as playmaker.

Michigan, the nation's No. 2 team, has beaten Tennessee 71-63 and Bowling Green 108-70. The Wolverines paced by the rebounding and shooting of all-America Cazzie Russell, draw a couple of tough assignments against Wichita on Wednesday and San Francisco on Saturday.

The rest of the top 10 teams also got through the first week with unblemished records and meet rather unimpressive competition this week.

Third-ranked Minnesota, which beat North Dakota 73-59 and Iowa State 80-69, meets Drake on Tuesday, and fourth-ranked St. Joseph's of Philadelphia, after beating Hofstra 95-57 and Fairfield 100-74, takes on Belarmine on Tuesday and Bowling Green on Saturday.

Vanderbilt, sixth-ranked and hoping to repeat as Southeastern Conference champion behind 6-foot, 9-inch Clyde Lee, already has an 87-59 victory over Wittenberg and meets arch-rival Tennessee on Tuesday and North Carolina on Saturday.

Pampa Opens League Play Friday Night

Pampa, with one loss and a tournament championship and the other 3-AA clubs also open league action this week.

Tuesday the Sandies open at Palo Duro while Plainview (2-6) hosts Caprock (3-3) and Monterey (6-1) plays at Borger

(1-4) and district favorite Lubbock (6-1) is host to Tascosa (2-3), all on Tuesday night.

Friday Pampa opens district play at Lubbock and Amarillo plays at Caprock. Borger at Tascosa, Palo Duro at Monterey and Plainview is in tournament action.

Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. the Pampa Shockers host Lubbock Coronado.

Shockers Host To Coronado

Pampa's Shockers, averaging 81.2 points in their last three games, braced today for an invasion by Lubbock Coronado Tuesday at 5:30 p.m.

The Shockers, now 6-1 for the season, won the championship trophy Saturday night at the Phillips Invitational Tournament.

Coach Gary Griffin's crew knocked off Stinnett B., 88-20, Borger Junior varsity, 86-70 and Phillips B., 71-54, Saturday for the championship.

In the Thursday game against Stinnett Jim Cornutt paced the Shockers with 19 points. John Marsh hit seven and Steve Hamilton paced the losers with six.

In Friday's victory over Borger Marsh led the way with 21, Rich Foster hit 17, Cornutt 16, Bo Lang 16 and John Carols 15. Saturday night Marsh hit 13, Lang 12 and Carlos took game scoring honors with 14.

The Shockers bulged to an 18-5 first period lead and were never headed.

In Junior High action over the weekend Robert E. Lee eight fell to Borger Austin 43-26 on Friday and Saturday beat Borger Houston, 46-40.

In ninth grade action Lee ninth downed Sanford - Fritch, 56-40 Friday and Saturday were beaten by Borger Houston, 44-33.

Pampa eighth downed Borger Houston Friday and lost Saturday to Borger Austin.

Baltimore, Packers Showdown Sunday

By United Press International
The Chicago Bears, the hottest team in the National Football League, tossed their weight around Sunday and threw the Western Division race into confusion.

The Bears have won four straight, raising their record to 8-4 and keeping alive their slim hope for a Western crown. They blanked the division-leading Baltimore Colts 13-0 Sunday but more significantly, a pair of 250-pound Chicago linemen unintentionally ended the regular season for Johnny Unitas by tearing a ligament in his knee on a tackle.

What looked like a Western runaway for the Colts (9-2-1) now has turned into a showdown with second-place Green Bay (9-3) next Sunday, with Chicago mathematically alive. A victory by Baltimore or a pair of triumphs by the Packers would eliminate the Bears even if they win their remaining two games. Baltimore can win it all by whipping the Packers.

In other games, New York

walloped Pittsburgh 35-10. Cleveland whipped Washington 24-16. Los Angeles blasted St. Louis 27-3. San Francisco edged Detroit 17-14, and Dallas shaded Philadelphia 21-9.

Bear's Revenge

Rookie Gale Sayers scored the only TD of the afternoon for the Bears, who avenged an early season loss to Baltimore. Sayers took a pitchout from Rudy Bukich in the first quarter and raced 61 yards to score. Roger LeClerc booted 12 and 21-yard field goals for the Bears. Unitas was blitzed during the second period by husky Chicago linemen Stan Jones and Earl Leggett.

The Packers may be without the services of Bart Starr against the Colts. Starr injured his throwing hand in the first half but his substitute, Zeke Bratkowski, was more successful than Unitas' and fired the winning TD pass, a 27-yarder to Billy Anderson.

Rookie fullback Tucker Frederickson scored three TD's in the last 3:24 of the first half to help give the Giants sole possession of second place in the East. New York quarterback Earl Morrall hit Del Shofner with a 33-yard TD pass and sub Gary Wood fired a 28-yarder to Homer Jones.

Jimmy Tles Mark Jimmy Brown tied the NFL season touchdown record by scoring his 20th and also raced for 142 yards in 27 carries for Cleveland.

Roman Gabriel threw two first-half scoring passes to lead the Rams to their second straight triumph, both coming in the only game Gabriel has started.

The Forty Niners tallied a pair of last period TDs, one on a one-yard plunge by rookie Ken Willard and another on a 34-yard pass from John Brodie to Dave Parks, who set a club record of 62 season catches.

Mike Gaechter recovered a Philadelphia fumble on the Eagle 21-yard line and the Cowboys scored on the next play with Don Meredith passing 21 yards to Frank Clarke. Meredith also fired another TD strike and ran eight yards for touchdown.

CHARGERS, OAKLAND AND CHIEFS

Three Still In AFL Title Race

By United Press International
Three teams still have a shot at the title of the American Football League's Western Division but the chances for two of them are as slim as the paper the standings are written on.

The San Diego Chargers top the standings with a 7-2-3 record and a victory next week against the Houston Oilers would eliminate both the Oakland Raiders (7-4-1) and Kansas City Chiefs (6-4-2).

The Raiders kept their faint spark glowing Sunday with a 24-13 victory over the Denver Broncos and the Buffalo Bills, who wrapped up the Eastern Division championship last week, dropped the Oilers 29-18 on Pete Gogolak's five field goals. San Diego topped the New York Jets 38-7 Saturday. Kansas City and Boston were idle.

Clem Daniels won the hero's medal in the Raiders-Broncos game.

He scored what proved to be the winning points on a 60-yard pass from Tom Flores. Additionally, a Daniels pass reception for 35 yards kept one Oakland drive going and his sprint to the Denver 3 set up a touchdown for Alan Miller, who plunged over on the next play.

Denver quarterback Mickey Slaughter, who injured his right arm Nov. 7 and was sidelined until Sunday, lasted less than four minutes of the first quarter. Oakland blitzers Isaac Lassiter and Gus Otto caught him. Slaughter left the game with a dislocated left shoulder and sat it out with his arm in sling.

Gogolak's field goals of 47, 34, 19, 12 and 12 yards rewrote the Bills' record for most field goals in one game. Ray Carlton ran an 80-yard touchdown to establish the longest scoring play from scrimmage for Buffalo.

The other Buffalo TD came on a 74-yard pass from Daryle Lamonica to Bo Roberson. Buffalo coach Lou Saban played Lamonica in the first half and regular quarterback Jackie Kemp in the second. This was done to keep both signal-callers sharp for the title game.

Houston scored on a four-yard plunge by Jack Spikes, a 95-yard scoring pass from George Blanda to Dick Compton and a 41-yard field goal by Blanda.

Bucks, Keller To Meet Saturday

WHITE DEER (Spl) — Unbeaten White Deer, almost ridden to defeat by penalties Saturday night, meets Keller at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Snyder in the Class A state football semifinals.

An erroneous UPI story Saturday had them playing Three Rivers.

The Bucks are 13-0 and downed Coahoma, 27-23 Saturday night at Plainview while Keller was pulling an upset 20-6 decision over Forney to run its record to 11-2.

NEVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

'Just What I Wanted'

So Christmas has sneaked up on you again.

Here it is, right on top of you, and you have done nothing.

And even though this is the year common sense is to prevail and bankruptcy is to be thwarted, there are certain people you really ought to remember with a little something. The wife and kids, for instance.

No problem. One Texas department store has been doing your Christmas thinking for you. One short swipe at your checkbook, and your holiday shopping is done.

The Little Woman? How about a nice, warm wrap? Nothing fancy, but practical and utilitarian.

This shop has just the thing — a comfy coat made out of Russian barguzin pelts at only $75.000. A one-of-a-kind gift. It figures. You can go days without seeing a Russian barguzin, alive or pelted.

The baby sitter? Well, a handkerchief ought to do. After all, the main thing is to let the kid know you thought of her. How about a nice hanky of handspun linen? For $300. This takes care of that.

Your secretary? Got to watch it here. No black nighties or lace lingerie for this doll, to start office tongues wagging.

Something nice but unobtrusive, maybe even a bit cultural.

Well, the china department happens to have a quail porcelain teapot, fired by Dorothy Doughty, not in some common old public oven but in her very own kiln at home. A steal at $20.000.

Now, how about the mail carrier, the laundryman, the trash collector, the paper boy?

Here's the perfect answer. A Christmas party!

This store will fly you and up to nine friends to Athens (first class, natch) for 25 golden days and starlit nights (see they even guarantee the weather!) aboard the magnificent SS Romantica. Your own private cruise yacht. With 24-foot swimming pool, air conditioning, gourmet meals prepared by skilled international chefs. Ports of call: the islands of Greece, Turkey, Egypt.

How much? Probably not as much as you'd think. Only $145.802. Bet you thought it would cost at least $145.803. And think of the service you'd get out of those guys next year!

Well, there you are. All set. And you thought you had a Christmas problem!

Merry Christmas — and a prosperous New Year. You may need it.

No Pension for Whittaker

Charles E. Whittaker is an unusual man. A former justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, Whittaker was forced to retire from the court in 1962 because of ill health. In retirement, he was eligible for a lifetime pension of $19,750 a year.

Recently his health has improved, and even though he is nearly 65 years old, Justice Whittaker decided to get a job. "It grated on my conscience," he said, "to take a pension from the government when I was able to earn my own living."

He gave up his pension and accepted a job as a sort of umpire in the General Motors Corp. dealer-relations program. A dealer who thinks the company has been unfair may appeal to the umpire.

It's too bad some other governmental officials do not follow Whittaker's example. For instance, Earl Warren is receiving a reported $12,000 a year under the state employes retirement system, while drawing his $40,000 a year pay as chief justice of the nation's highest court.

Incidentally, it is unfortunate that Justice Whittaker is no longer on the Supreme Court to counter the thinking of the majority of the court. Recently he made the following comments on "equality," which should be repeated over and over:

"Our system of government never was intended to be a leveler of men. It permits, and was intended to permit, the gifted, the energetic, the creative, and the thrifty, economically at least, to rise above the masses and it intends to leave each man free to earn and find his own level on the stairway to the top. . . . If men really want permanent economic equality they may find it only in communism."

On Jones and should the report never turn up, Jones has had it. Should some other hapless wretch prove to be the culprit, Jones still is tarred with implied complicity.

The accuser always comes out spotless, as in the wife's use of "Jones, YOU threw away the report on the meeting, didn't you?"

"You aren't eating — you hate my cooking!"

This puts the burden of proof

WASHINGTON:

Ia Drang Was Test Of Tactics

By RAY CROMLEY

Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA)—Some notes have reached me from a man who once commanded the Ho Chi Minh Independent Mekong Regiment operating around Ia Drang-Chu Pong.

This former Ho officer, now on the side of South Viet Nam, says "the odds are that this regiment was the unit that has just tangled with the U. S. First Cavalry in the bloody Ia Drang battles."

"Our main base was in Cambodia, at Vocone Sai, about 50 miles from the Viet Nam border. There is an advance base at Bo Kheo, about 25 miles from Cambodia opposite Chu Pong."

"When I left Cambodia, I turned command of the regiment over to (Brigadier) Doan Trieng. I hear he's still in charge."

"Trieng was born in Cambodia, speaks Cambodian. I know him and his tactics well. A man doesn't change much in these things."

"If I figure it right, he was testing the First Cavalry. He wanted to probe American strengths and weaknesses under extreme pressure."

"Ho's officers can't get used to the idea that the Americans are different from the French. I couldn't either for some time. It's American aggressiveness in battle that's so surprising."

"I think Trieng's strategy was this. He pressed with human-wave attacks to put the Americans under heavy pressure. He set up ambushes to the American rear and flanks to hit the U. S. troops if they retreated or shifted positions under the pressure of his human-wave assaults."

"Trieng specializes in close-in fighting to make it impossible for air and artillery to operate effectively."

"This forces the enemy to withdraw to give its artillery and air a clear field."

"Trieng's ambushes also take advantage of these withdrawals."

"This Plei Ku-Plei Me-Chu Pong-Ia Drang Area was carefully selected. It was an alternate site to Dien Bien Phu for the hammer blow against the French in 1954."

"The area is close to the regiment's Cambodian base. There is local partisan guerrilla support. It was a Viet Minh 'liberated area' in the war against France."

"Trieng's human-wave attacks result in extremely heavy losses to the Viet Cong side."

"But if I know Trieng, he sent in local guerrillas and local Viet Cong regulars as the first suicide waves. They probably accounted for 75 per cent of the deaths."

"I'd guess that less than a quarter of the dead were from Trieng's Cambodian regiment."

"Right now, Trieng is busy collecting data, making innumerable reports to Hanoi on what the Americans did under each different type of assault."

"You will notice that in this series of fights the North Vietnamese attacked, then withdrew. A little later, they attacked again and withdrew. They repeated this maneuver time and again. Each time they were testing different techniques on the Americans."

"This is a costly way to learn. But it's Ho's method. After the battle, though, comes the analysis."

"This one battle series probably wasn't enough. There'll likely be five or six more of these exploratory campaigns elsewhere in the months ahead."

"You can do your own figuring on where these will occur. Each is likely to be in an area where the Viet Cong and Viet Minh have been strong for 15 years. Look back at where the 'liberated' (Viet Minh-controlled) regions were in the war against the French. Select those easy of access from Cambodia or from a major Viet Cong base in South Viet Nam. Then guess."

"But with all this, the Viet Cong can't afford to go on losing men at this rate."

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank Markey

The common cold still remains one of the great unsolved mysteries in medicine. That's mainly because what we know as the cold is in reality a group of related upper respiratory infections caused by at least 150 cold-causing viruses. Medical science says that no matter what you do nothing will actually cure a cold. The American Medical Association has said: "If you get a cold stay home in bed. Keep warm. Gargle to ease a sore throat; take aspirin for discomfort." None of this will cure a cold but it will make you feel more comfortable while your body's natural defense mechanisms are building up enough to overcome the cold virus.

Today's smile: A group of school boys were boasting about their parents. "My father cleans out a bank," said one. Another asked: "What is he, the janitor or president?"

but today there are only 3 million.

Thoughts while shaving: Although hunting is considered a dangerous sport, figures prove otherwise. Last year upwards of 14 million persons bought hunting licenses in the U.S. Yet, National Safety Council records show there were only 1000 accidental deaths while hunting. . . . One of the newer businesses since World War II is the coin-operated laundry. There are now upwards of 36,000 and they do a gross business of $750 million annually. . . . If you're wondering what this war in Viet Nam is costing, here's an inkling: It costs about $3 million to outfit a single U.S. Army tank company. . . . Shopping on New York's Madison Avenue we saw just the Christmas gift for the cocktail devotee. It's a cordless electric cocktail pump. Simply stick it in your martini pitcher or wassail bowl and pump the handle. It operates on a small battery. . . . The telephone company figures it takes the average American only two hours and 17 minutes to earn enough money to pay his monthly bill. And American phone rates must be low because the average Britisher must work six hours and his French counterpart more than 16 hours to pay theirs. . . . Alley cats won't like this, but the head of the U.S. Cat Fanciers Association advocates birth control for the species. We're all for it if it will cut down on nocturnal meowing. . . . We don't know how they counted 'em but a survey shows 84 million Americans wear eye glasses. . . . The Chinese invented decorative paper, but the Europeans were the first to plaster it on walls. That's how we got wallpaper. . . . The Bristol (Conn.) PRESS headlined a story: "Warden Defends Applying Whip To Unruly Cans." That's okay, but we favor paddling them.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Boys in Viet Nam Require More Than Public Tears

By SAM CAMPBELL
Business Editor

The professed sympathy of high and low for the "boys in Viet Nam" would be more impressive if the low were to insist upon a cessation of aid to the enemy and if the high were to take the initiative in this matter according to the authority already reposed in them.

The sacrifice of the young by the old has an ancient history. The prophets of the Old Testament decried against parents who caused their children to pass before the fire. This conjures a vision of children performing some ritualistic dance that the old-fashioned men of God for some reason found objectionable. The truth, however, is horrifying.

What the parents actually were doing was to offer their children as a flaming sacrifice to the God Molech. No wonder the anguish in the prophetic messages.

Likewise did the Old Testament writers cry out against the "high places," places of false religious significance that had such a grip on the minds of the people that not even enlightened and popular kings found it politically feasible to destroy them completely. And what were these high places? They were altars where the worshippers butchered their offspring to curry the favor of a deity they had created in their own minds.

The practice of infanticide did not pass with the coming of Christianity. The Prophet Mohammed campaigned against it among the bedouin tribes. It is recorded that one old sheik was so fiercely dictatorial in judgment upon his family that the only time he ever was known to shed a tear was when his three-year-old daughter reached up to brush a clod of earth from his beard as he was burying her alive in the desert.

That all happened a long time ago, we tend to say. But the tragic fact is that human beings have not changed very much. All the evil of the past has its counterpart, in a refined form perhaps, in the events of our own day.

What is the difference between the parent of ancient times who plunged a knife in the breast of his child during a religious orgy and the modern father who rejoices that the current war is such an economic "stimulant," a war that embraces the life of his son? I say the only difference is the distance between the man and the blood; one is an arm's length, the other is 8,000 miles. The moral responsibility is identical.

The person who exults to wine and dine on the dollar proceeds of Viet Nam or of subsidized trade with the enemy is not morally distinguishable from the cannibal who takes his gourd of blood directly from the battlefield victim.

Publicized anguish of the great and near great over casualties in Viet Nam would be a more useful emotion if it were accompanied by those simple and obvious decisions that are necessary to deprive the foe of his capacity to inflict the wounds that are wept for. In short, cut off the wheat, cut off the loans to the Red bloc.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

QUESTION: "Should an individual have any control, through deed restrictions, over land he has sold?"

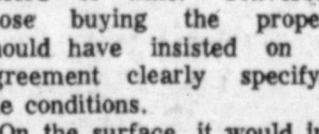

ANSWER: A deed restriction normally is considered to be placed on all properties in a given area. It is in effect an agreement that all parties will abide by the same rules. It would seem the seller should clearly have delineated which properties were to be included in the restrictions and for what period of time. Conversely, those buying the property should have insisted on the agreement clearly specifying the conditions.

On the surface, it would indicate, the seller was not being fair in insisting that the buyers conform to restrictions which were not binding on the seller.
