BUT WILL VOTE COUNT?

Poll Tax Not Necessary in Bond Election

By TEX DEWESE
The status quo of a city resident without a poll tax receipt as to whether he can legally cast a vote in Pampa's upcoming $2,900,000 bond election on March 8 was suspended in mid-air today.

Right now, he can vote absentee — but will the vote be counted on election day?
For an answer to the question, city election officials were awaiting the outcome of the current voter registration controversy in the Texas Legislature and a decision of the Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black on the Texas attorney general's application for a stay order from the judgment rendered by a three-judge Federal court which held the Texas poll tax laws unconstitutional.

That decision of the special court in Austin ruled that the state's constitutional and statutory provisions which require a person to pay the poll tax as a precondition to voting were unconstitutional effective immediately.

In asking Justice Black to stay the order, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr pointed out that various local special elections such as city, county and school bond elections already have been called for late in February and early in March. Pampa's bond election falls into that category.

"It is utterly impossible under any circumstances to compile new registration lists in time for these elections," Carr stated.

All of this leaves the Pampa bond election and other Texas elections in the immediate future facing a chaotic condition if the decision of the Austin court is made effective immediately.

As far as the Pampa election is concerned, City Atty. Bob Gordon said today that "in order to be on the safe side, persons wishing to vote absentee in Pampa's March 8 bond election may do so with or without a poll tax receipt."

Chittenden said this forenoon he would accept absentee votes from persons without a poll tax (See ELECTION, Page 3)

FAA Clears Crash Prone Boeing 727

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Boeing 727, involved in four crashes which killed 264 persons, is "completely airworthy" but the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) is recommending refinements in pilot practices.

The refinements and the declaration of air worthiness came Thursday from the agency after a conference with the nine airlines which use the T-tailed jet and the men who fly them.

The FAA left little doubt that while the crashes are still under investigation and no final causes have been determined, cockpit practices were the chief factor under suspicion in the four accidents.

Clifford Walker, deputy director of the FAA Flight Standards Division, briefed newsmen after the closed session which dealt with the crashes, training procedures and experiences flying the 727 for the three years it has been in service.

"We found nothing to indicate that the 727 is not completely airworthy and properly certificated," Walker said. "We have found no cause to be suspicious of the 727 as an airplane."

He said that "no training deficiencies" were found in airline programs to acquaint pilots with the 727, and described FAA suggestions for change as "refinements" rather

US Deaths Now Total 2,108 In Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A total of 103 U.S. servicemen were killed in action in Viet Nam in the week that ended last Monday, according to the Defense Department.
The figure brings to 2,108 the total of American combat deaths in the war. The tabulation, compared with 161 men the previous week. Fatalities not attributed to hostile action rose from 551 to 567.

Hershey in Hassle Over Reclassifying

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Selective Service chief Lewis B. Hershey may be edging toward a collision with Congress over his methods of dealing with Vietnams he claims break the law to impede the draft.

A hint of what may happen came Thursday, when Hershey clashed sharply with members of a House education subcommittee on his policy of reclassifying college students whose antiwar activities may go beyond legal grounds.

At issue was Hershey's insistence a draft board in Michigan was right in taking away the student deferments of a group that staged a sit-in at its office.

Although the Michigan case was an isolated incident, Hershey's stand carried broader implications, particularly in light of his plans to furnish local draft boards with new guidelines to use in deciding whether to defer students if draft calls increase.

The main objection voiced by congressmen to the Michigan case was that the draft board, in taking away the deferments, had in effect decided upon the guilt of the students without the benefit of a court trial.

Among the lawmakers who have voiced criticism of the action is Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., of the House Judiciary Committee. The panel would probably have jurisdiction over any legislation to revise the draft laws.

Celler joined Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., recently in asking the Justice Department to rule on the Michigan case. The department has given no indication when its ruling will be forthcoming, however.

Hershey said it was clear congressional intent to have persons who violated the Selective Service law go into the armed forces rather than face prosecution for the violations. His agency, as others, frequently makes administrative determinations without prior court decisions, Hershey said.

"I would like to have the name of any student who has been inducted or reclassified because of his opinions or his failure to express his opinions," he added.
Hershey said the forthcoming guidelines would be similar to those used during the Korean War. They include the ranking of students in their college class and their showing on a national test offered to draft-age student on a voluntary basis.

Rusk Terms Viet A World Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today the anti-Communist fight in Viet Nam was a worldwide issue because "we must make clear that the United States keeps its word wherever it is pledged."

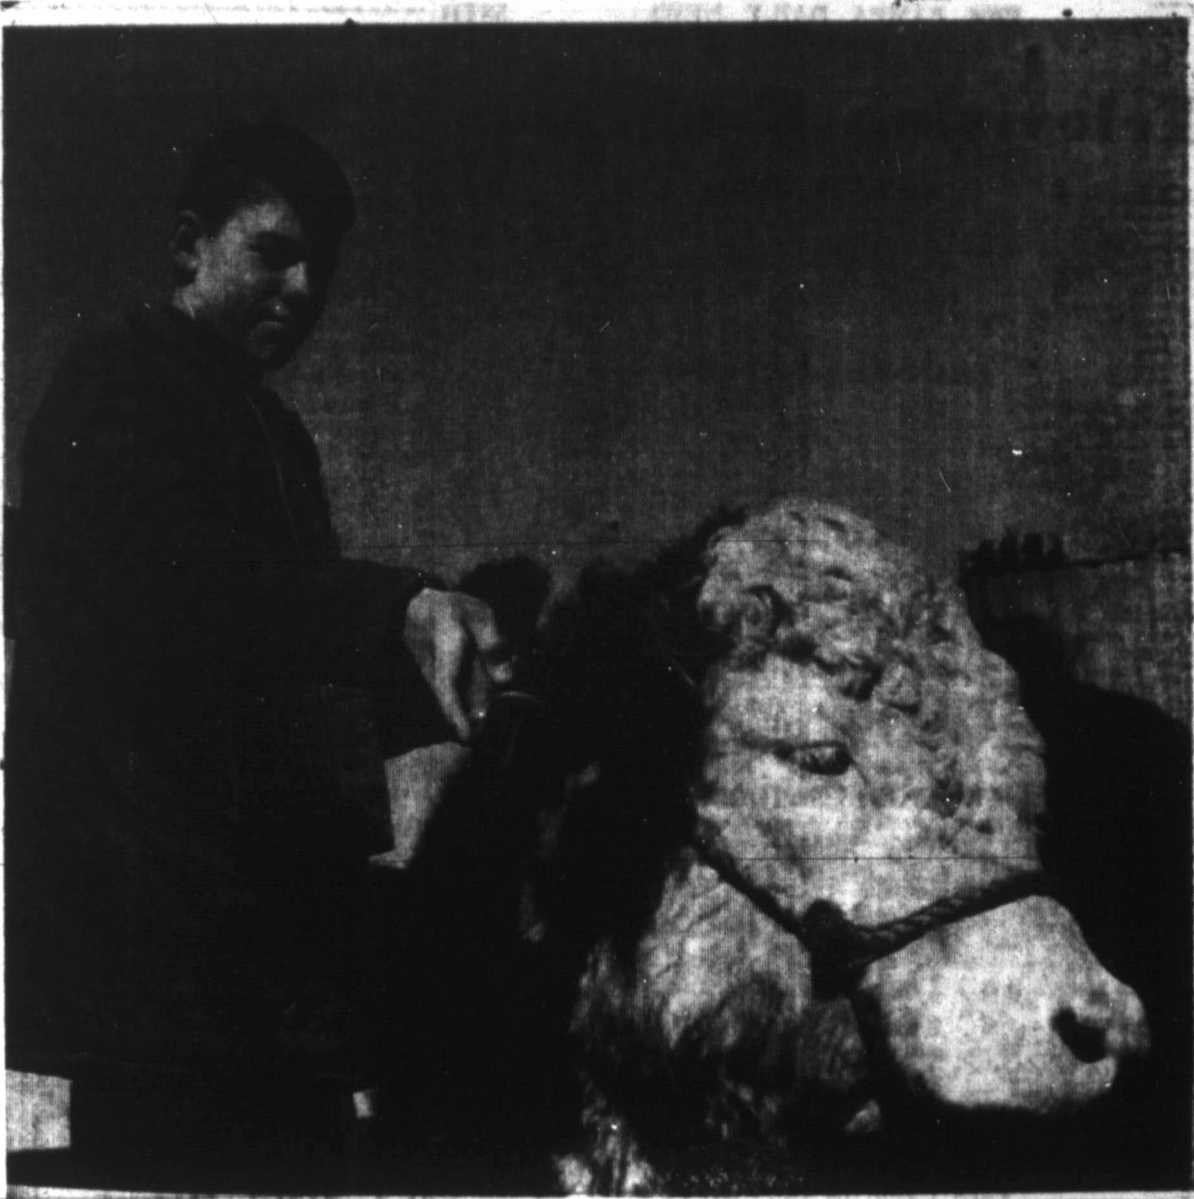

He said critics of President Johnson's policy miss the point when they say America is following a "static and sterile" course which ignores the international facts of life.

Rusk made the statements in his second lengthy appearance this month before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to defend the administration's handling of the Viet Nam situation.

He underwent four hours of questioning three weeks ago at the outset of the inquiry.

Taylor Supports Policy
Another leading supporter of administration policy, Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, spent 6 1/2 hours Thursday defending present strategy as millions of Americans—including President Johnson—watched and listened on television and radio.

The secretary, a favorite target for critics of administration policy in Southeast Asia, reminded committee critics that administration officials cannot simply formulate an "opinion" but must "decide what this nation shall do and shall not do and are required to accept the consequences of our determinations."

GROOMING TIME — Thirteen-year-old Guy Turner was busy this forenoon grooming the steer he has entered in the Top O' Texas Junior Stock Show March 7, 8, and 9 at Recreation Park. It's a daily task young Turner has to keep the steer sleek and slick for show day. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Turner. The photo was snapped on the Turner Ranch southeast of Pampa.

Red Deer Watershed Priority Gets Boost

MIAMI (Sp) — The outlook for the proposed Red Deer Watershed appeared brighter today following a public hearing on the project yesterday afternoon in the Roberts County Courthouse.

Examining officials, headed by Frank Gray, state conservation board member from District 1, said that a high priority recommendation would be made for the project when the state board meets in about six weeks. However, there are about 21 other such projects throughout the state that already have a high priority rating.

Some 85 representatives from Gray, Hemphill and Roberts counties, including ranchers, city and county officials, soil conservation people, a tax assessor, and businessmen, advocated the need for the watershed. They stressed flood control, water conservation, the recapturing of pasture land, wildlife and recreation, in their arguments in favor of the project. No one voiced opposition.

The area which would be included in the watershed project, runs west of Pampa to the creeks merging with the Canadian River just north of Canadian.

Conducting the hearing, in addition to Gray, were Harvey Davis, the executive director of the state board, and Bud Norton, staff member in charge of watershed work.

Ellis Lock, Miami rancher and vice chairman of the Watershed steering committee, presided.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said he expected no problems in passage of the measure.

He said he felt the senators would "join hands" and give the two-thirds vote necessary to make the measure take effect immediately. He predicted the matter would be decided by Wednesday "unless there is a filibuster," which was not expected.

Key Witness Has Doubt About Guilt of Cross

By DAVID ANDERSON
United Press International
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The state's key witness in the murder trial of James C. Cross Jr. today was described as having doubts about Cross's guilt even after the handsome university student "confessed" that he strangled two coeds.

Carlos Otera, a college friend of Cross, quoted detective Lt. George Phifer as saying "there might be a slight chance that he did not do it" a day or two after Phifer helped take the alleged confession.

It was Phifer whom Cross called and arranged to meet at State Police Headquarters, where the statement on the slaying was made. Cross is on trial for the slaying of two sorority sisters in his apartment July 18.

Pampa Burglary May Be Part Of Nationwide Ring

It is possible that the Wednesday night or early Thursday morning burglary of B & R TV center was part of a nationwide television burglary ring.

Texas Ranger Bill Baten and Pampa police Sgt. George Wallace made a trip to Amarillo Thursday afternoon to see if there was any connection between a burglary of a television shop in Amarillo and the one in Pampa.

Baten said that nine portable TV sets were taken in the Amarillo burglary last month and 10 were stolen from B & R. Entrance to the building in Amarillo was gained through a window while the burglars here pried open a back door.

Baten said that in the past few months reports had been coming in from across the U.S. of burglaries where portable TV sets or larger ones had been stolen.

Baten said it appeared a TV burglary ring was working across the U.S.

When asked how the looters dispose of their ware Baten said it was usually done through a fence.

"We know of no fences in this area," Baten said. "So how or where they'll sell the sets we don't know."
"Sometimes a reputable dealer in a town will work as a fence but we know of nothing like that being done in this area," Wallace said.

PLANE TIRE BLOWS

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI) — A BOAC Boeing 707 airliner with 101 passengers burst a nosewheel tire on landing at Mascot Airport today. The plane was landing in a heavy rainstorm with 51 British immigrants among the passengers. There were no injuries.

Morals of Slain Mossler Defended by Banker Friend

MIAMI (UPI) — A banker friend of murdered Jacques Mossler testified today that Mossler had idolized his blonde wife Candy and that it was inconceivable that he could have been a homosexual.

The witness, Arthur Lundeen of Miami, a director of Mossler's Central Bank and Trust Co., was the state's 65th witness in its attempt to send Candy Mossler and her nephew and alleged lover Melvin Lane Powers to the electric chair in the slaying of the millionaire financier.

Candy was 46 today—by the official records. She says there was a mistake in the birth certificates and actually she was 40.

The state contends that after the slaying on June 30, 1964, Candy at first tried to convince

CREEPING CONG — Although territory is of less importance than control of strong military centers, the Viet Cong tide has been rising steadily in South Viet Nam during the past four years. This newsmap compares areas controlled by the Saigon government with unsafe areas last year and at the start of 1966. Much of the land in disputed areas is dense jungle. Saigon is in firm control of all important population centers.

Business Highlights

WASHINGTON — The Commerce Department says business inventories increased sharply in the final months of last year, perhaps reflecting fear of price inflation. ### Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
 Broken windows gape in the low-lying modernistic building of glass and stone which is the U.S. Embassy in Karachi, remnants of an anti-American student demonstration a couple of months ago.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey could see them as he drove past on his way to explain to Pakistani President Ayub Khan the U.S. economic aid to Pakistan.

He also could see and hear other demonstrators along his route, some with signs reading: "We hate the U.S."

The broken windows, the placards and the cordial but scarcely enthusiastic official reception accorded the vice president were reminders that relations between the United States and Pakistan still have far to go before the close friendship of other years can be restored.

In the past dozen years the United States has extended some $3 billion worth of economic aid to Pakistan and another $1.5 billion in military aid, making her Pakistan's chief supplier.

Out of the Humphrey-Khan talks came a U.S. promise of a further $50 million in economic aid and the announcement that negotiations soon would start for shipment of emergency wheat supplies to help offset disastrous drought which hit both Pakistan and India.

India needs an estimated 12 million tons, Pakistan's 115 million people an estimated two to three million tons.

The $50 million will provide an immediate booster shot to provide Pakistan industry with badly needed raw materials.

But it is less than one fifth the amount planned under Pakistan's new five-year development program and suggests that, as with India, the United States plans to exert frankly the power of its economic aid against another outbreak of the Pakistan-India war such as occurred last September.

The difference between the United States and Pakistan can, most kindly, be attributed to a misunderstanding of terms.

Pakistan regards her SEATO and CENTO links and U.S. aid more as a guaranty against India than as part of a worldwide chain of defenses against aggressive Communism.

Ends Against Middle
 India, equally fearful of Pakistan, denounced U.S. aid to Today's average American lives 22 years longer than in 1900.

Pakistan but accepted it willingly for herself after Red China's attack on her own frontier. This in turn angered Pakistan which then began moving closer to Red China. The U.S. was caught in the middle.

Each in its own way, India and Pakistan were right.

For in the end they turned their foreign military aid against each other.

Persons who paid their poll taxes before Jan. 31 are not likely to get a refund even though the poll tax has been held unconstitutional in Texas.

County Tax Assessor - Collector Jack Back said today it was understood that an attorney general's ruling that the poll tax was an assessment rather than a payment for the voting privilege would forestall any refund.

"So far, although the legislature has taken no action on the question, we have received no other ruling on poll tax payments," Back said.

An Oklahoma man, Theodora L. Garver, was fined $100 and court costs and sentenced to three days in county jail today. Garver entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated.

Ballots cast without a poll tax receipt would be noted as such and it would depend on what transpires in the way of a decision on the attorney general's stay application as to whether the vote would be counted on March 8.

"We will accept absentee ballots from persons without a poll tax receipt," Gordon said, "and then follow any order or regulation which is handed down between now and election day. We will not prevent anybody from voting either way — with or without a poll tax."

"If on election day, March 8, the injunction has been stayed, a poll tax receipt would be required to vote. If there are no changes against the Austin court's ruling the injunction still would be in effect and no poll tax would be required to vote."

The city attorney added that "right now we don't know what the ruling will be or just what the situation will be on March 8."

Attorney General Carr also informed Justice Black that the State intended to appeal the Austin court decision to the U.S. Supreme Court and cited additional reasons why the stay should be granted.

The attorney general stated that until a new registration system could be put into operation in Texas, any elections held in the state would have to be conducted without proper voter registration lists, and the opportunities for illegal and fraudulent voting, such as multiple voting by the same voter, would be increased beyond compare.

Summing up the local voting situation in Pampa, City Attorney Gordon said: "We are going to accept votes with or without poll tax receipts—and then wait for the news to determine whether the ballots of those who do not have poll tax receipts can be legally counted."

The four-week trial was on only one of two indictments, involving the rape of the younger girl. The two men acquitted could be brought to trial on the other indictment.

The prosecution, in its closing arguments, demanded the death penalty for only two of the defendants—Charles Hunter, 26, and Franklin Wright, 18, who were named as ringleaders.

Since the electric chair was installed at the Tennessee State Penitentiary in Nashville, 34 of the 125 men executed were convicted of rape. But the state has not inflicted the death penalty since Nov. 7, 1960, when William Times was executed.

Dear Abby...

Let Husband's Harem Do the Punishing

DEAR ABBY: I have positive proof that my husband is running around with five women in this neighborhood. Three live on my block and all have good and faithful husbands. Then there is a divorcee down the street, and a young widow in the next block. Each thinks she is the only one. I hate to walk down the street because I know who they are. What should I do?

HIS WIFE: If you want to have his harem, invite them all for coffee and conversation and tell them what they have in common. That should cut down the membership considerably. And don't worry about punishing your husband. The others will take care of that!

DEAR ABBY: A real nice guy who works with me has been looking awfully tired lately, so I asked him if he had not been feeling well. He replied, "Our six-year-old boy has always slept with the wife and he becomes he's afraid to sleep alone." We bought him a dog that's part-German shepherd and part-Labrador, and the boy won't go to sleep unless he has the dog next to him, so I don't get much sleep in such crowded conditions. He was absolutely serious.

Abby, how idiotic can people be?

who lets his six-year-old son sleep with him and his wife, and then can't say no when the boy demands to include the dog, is in for many more sleepless nights. This "real nice" guy needs a "real good friend" to tell him what's what.

DEAR ABBY: Years ago I entered into a "shotgun" marriage. The agreement was that we marry to legalize the child's birth, the mother would raise the child, and we would go our separate ways. We never lived together.

Several years later my "wife" called me from another town to tell me that she had gotten a divorce and had remarried. I then remarried a lovely girl.

The other day my first wife mailed me some divorce papers to sign! She admitted she had lied to me about having obtained the divorce years ago, and she is just now getting it. Abby, I have a wife and family. How do I get out of this mess without a lot of publicity? Can we secretly marry quickly in another state? For obvious reasons I can't divulge my name, and I don't want to discuss this with a lawyer.

DESPERATE
DEAR DESPERATE: When people have a medical problem, they can't get a doctor fast enough. Why, then, when they have a legal problem, are they reluctant to get a lawyer? Laws are made to help people as well as to punish them, you know. And a lawyer can protect you by telling you what your rights are.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGNER

FOR SATURDAY, FEB. 15
GENERAL TENDENCIES: The confusion of yesterday can simmer down now and you would be wise to think out and prepare for some advanced course of activity in the days ahead that can bring you far greater success. It is wise to contemplate just how you can adopt more modern efficiencies to whatever your vocation is.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) - Getting away alone somewhere and concentrating on personal aims will open up a new way for you to bring them to fruitful realization. Try not to disturb one who is a good, but rather high-strung, friend. Be active.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) - Now is the time to think out just which individuals you most want to be allied with in the days ahead. Do what will make them come a runner. Some individuals make objectively for best results.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) - My careful study of the changes you currently make you can determine whether they are truly necessary and how they can be modified. Ultra-modern looking person could be very persuasive, but do not be fooled.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) - That blunt and honest manner you have can be very helpful in making the right decisions today. Be alert to what goes on around you. One close to you could be very trying in a critical way.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) - Associates who are feeling perturbed can be cheered by you, but don't be flippant or you will complain the opposite. Enter intuitively into entertainment plans of others. Being less serious will help you to have a wonderful time.
VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) - Be determined that nothing is going to upset or annoy you and then quietly analyze business and other affairs. Know what to do to win out. Any pranks where associates are concerned is not wise.
LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) - Get busy working on special hobbies in this free day so that you have all ready for competitions, etc. Be gracious toward others. This is especially true with relatives and friends who drop in while you are working.
SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) - Curb your temper with family servants, etc. or you'll really get into a pickle later. Take the time to get down on expenses somewhere. Buy a new fishing rod or something out of season. Save money.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) - Don't be critical of anyone you depend upon or you lose fine backing you regularly enjoy. If you have reports, etc., complete, do it by all means. Don't wait until the last minute for everything.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) - While you may feel that your salary is not sufficient, get a grip on yourself and be gathering data and grateful you have enough to meet your needs. Know what your position is with others. Plan better for days ahead.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) - You want to make a fresh start toward greater success in your personal aims but you must first follow through on what is expected from you. Be tactful in social life. People are highstrung right now.
PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) - Some situation has been bothering you for some time, but you have to use tact if you want to get rid of it easily. Then get into personal aims with enthusiasm. Use care in all you do.

Ruth Johnson
... Texas born fashion model

Texas Born Ruth Johnson Plays High Fashion Model in Movie 'Made in Paris'

Ruth Johnson is the daughter of a Methodist minister, the wife of a Methodist minister named James Bond, who is a graduate psychologist, and she is also one of America's most famous fashion models.

An accomplished singer, she has starred in the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Company, sung with the Roger Wagner Chorus, and is a member of a jazz combo that is a popular attraction in the Hollywood night club circuit. Her real work, she says, is as homemaker, mistress of a four-bedroom home and the mother of a small son, Jerry and daughter Joyce.

The slim beauty is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan College, Fort Worth, and was born in Magdalena, on June 21. Only a few years ago, it seemed that her titian beauty would be marred forever. An automobile accident cut and scarred her face. Then she met William Tuttle, head of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer make-up department, who in addition to working with famous Hollywood stars, applies his techniques to injured war veterans. He taught Ruth the art and magic of make-up. Today, her heart-shaped face, red hair, hazel eyes are on covers and pages of magazines throughout the world.

In the new MGM film, "Made in Paris", Miss Johnson models a series of Helen Rose designed gowns, among them a ski suit of Persian lamb, almost as startling as her beauty.

With her schedule of work and her outside interests, plus her home-keeping her 5'8" figure at its 123 pound weight poses few problems. Not even her Texas love for black-eyed-peas can add a pound.

When questioned about the compatibility of career and marriage, she shrugs: "I'm married to an unusually understanding man."

By VIRGINIA DEWITT

With license in hand, girls are taking advantage of one of the most popular weeks in the history of the world, Twirp week. But all said and done one problem remains. Where does a girl take her beau?

One likely answer for the Pampa High girl — is the sophomore play "Dirty Work at the Crossroads." The play will be presented tonight in the school auditorium. In addition to the old fashioned melodrama, the play will also include a Gay Nineties Revue of songs, skits and dances.

Each sophomore class puts on a play and uses the profits for future class projects. Senior members of Thespians direct the play.

"We've switched to this sort of thing this year (rather than three one acts) in an effort to encourage more actual sophomore participation," said Mrs. Don Myers, speech department head.

Paris Says 'Young,' Friends, So 'Young' It Shall Be

ders what will happen when their more sober clients get a look at themselves in the fitting rooms.

There are styles that will make a 17-year-old ecstatic, a 27-year-old wonder if she dares and a 40-year-old sad because she knows she doesn't dare.

Dresses for the most part still fall into the shift category. But subtle cut and soft fabrics make them closer to the figure than in the past. Dior's shift falls loosely in back from neck to hips. It clings from there down to the hem.

At Lanvin, Jules Grahy introduced the T-shape in jackets and coats with shoulders jutting out a good four inches, emphasized by colored yokes.

Coats in all the collections were comfortable, slender or semiwide. And the latest note is to show an inch or two of the dress worn underneath.

Most evening gowns, both long and short, have a slightly night-gownish look. They are made of layers of wispy chiffon with lots of flowing sleeves and flying panels.

Embroidery turned up massed at necklines in chunky collars and on straps and suspenders. The newest kind is done in iridescent coin-dot spangles.

Fabric favorites this time around are soft jersey, wool gabardine, pique and wool and silk satins for daytime. For evening there are sheers and silk organza.

Colors are sometimes brazen, sometimes soft. White dresses peek out from under geranium red, lettuce green, orange, apricot or yellow coats and vice versa. And the pastels are in make-up shades of rachel, peach and light tans.

There were the usual shockers — Cardin's nude look for day with bared midriffs and armholes scooped so far inward that it etop front of the dress

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM, COMFORTABLE, TOO

Los Angeles—Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming action border. A leatherstitched panel down each side of this girle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girle itself is a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, acetate and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim," in both girle and panty versions, is the peak achievement of the California designer-genius, Olga. They are available in our area at PARIS (NEA) — The Paris couture collections for spring showed once again that you CAN please all the women all of the time. There was "something for everyone" — as we always say.

For example, Michel Goma at Jean Patou presented a superb collection which will appeal to fashion-conscious women from 20 to 60.

But the big surprise came from Pierre Balmain and his dyed-in-the-wool conservative cohorts who have at least taken up the challenge the avant-garde designers have thrown at them. The short, short skirt was done by them all, and one won-

The End... Is It Near?

Minutes after the ascension of Christ to heaven... two men in white apparel appeared to those who witnessed the great event and prophesied His return. Throughout the New Testament the promise is repeatedly mentioned.

No one can tell just how near the return of Christ is. However, there are signs which we are told will mark the ending of the age. Many of these signs are more apparent today than ever before in history.

Among signs mentioned in the Bible is unbelief. 2 Peter 3:4 indicates people will say, "... Where is the promise of His coming; for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were..." Perhaps disbelief in the return of Christ has never been as great as today. Self-satisfaction, prosperity, and peace always give a false air of sufficiency.

Nevertheless, the fulfillment of Bible prophecy marches on. The establishment of Israel as a nation is given as a sign of the times. Troubles, wars, famines, and perilous times are also mentioned. But when Christ will return is not so important as being ready for the occasion.

If you are interested in Bible prophecy on the return of Christ, write for additional information.

Theologian Blunt About Age of Sell Out

By LOUIS CASSELS

United Press International
At long last, a prominent theologian has said it, out loud and in blunt language any layman can understand:

Christianity is being betrayed from within by some clergymen whose only God is "being ahead of the times."

"This is the age of the sell-out," said Dr. Robert E. Fitch, dean of the Pacific school of Religion, Berkeley, Calif., in a cover article for this week's issue of Christian Century magazine.

People go to church hoping to hear the good news of the Christian gospel. Instead they are apt to get a dose of "God-is-dead" theology from a preacher who is determined to prove he is right up to the minute with the latest fads.

"If we should dare to pass judgment on this well-acculturated Christian," asks Dr. Fitch, "what would be our most pertinent single objection?"

he deletes the deity, debases the Christ, disintegrates the church, explodes a Christian ethic. About such things—how could he care less? There is yet an objection to be lodged against his performance, and it can be expressed only by a plain American term: The whole act is a phony."

The phony begins, says Dr. Fitch, with the pretense that the so-called "new theology" is radical, original and profound.

On the contrary, he says, "it is the very genius of superficiality—a kind of theological yellow journalism that dishes up, all redolent before our nostrils, the latest and hottest sensation in sex, sin, atheism, the multi-versal, the secular city. The eternal is entombed beneath the topical and the trivial."

A U. S. dollar bill has an average life expectancy of 18 months in circulation.

Laws Must Complement 'God Bless This Home'

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
There's a plaintive little whine, which was stated by one who remembered her marriage with a twinge of disillusionment: "As soon as he took me for better or worse, He also took me for granted."

That could be one of the reasons for so many breakups in marriage. There are many others. The significant factor is that we have a serious problem which affects life in our nation.

Laws concerning marriage and divorce ought to be under constant scrutiny. There is an ironic farce that drives so many persons to some of our states or to Mexico for "quickie" divorces! That's not necessarily a criticism of the couples; it is a judgment on our own false piety that tolerates a legal system that doesn't deal with the situation.

Of course, divorce is a tragedy. The shattering of a marriage union creates spiritual, psychological and social problems that affect the husband and wife and foist dilemmas on the children. It's one thing to lament the situation; it's another thing to deal with it.

The simple truth is that marriage is not strengthened by unrealistic laws. When families from every echelon of society go through some fiction of residence, marriage isn't strengthened. When couples in some of our states consider fraud as a way of handling their problems, marriage isn't strengthened. Law is dynamic. It is always necessary to confront, examine and revise. To those who are concerned with the moral structure of our nation, there needs to be more consideration of honesty in dealing with the welfare of our homes and our families.

Years ago a devoted friend wrote a prayer for our own marriage. It reads: "We pray Thee, O God, that Thou wilt bless our new home, and write over its doorway, 'Peace be unto this household.' 'Dwell with Thy peace in our hearts, guide us in our daily lives, and prosper Thou the labor of our hands.

"Give us a love for each other that will ever rejoice in virtue, a courtship that will continue all our days. May our new home be a haven, a refuge, a miniature of the heavenly home to bring us cheer, contentment and peace."

To have this quality of family life is to enjoy riches beyond measure. You wish it for all. Since we don't have the ideal everywhere, we need laws that encourage reconciliation, that deal with realities, that inspire honesty and assist our citizens who live in the midst of so many devastating dilemmas.

Book of Acts Study Going

A special series of studies of the book of Acts will begin Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Highland Christian Church.

Gene Segroves, the minister of the congregation, will be conducting this series, expected to last approximately 30 weeks.

Segroves states that the book of Acts was written by Luke to Theophilus, for the purpose of continuing a discourse which he had started in the book of Luke. In the book of Acts, Luke tells of the origin of the church, the churches first growth, its first persecution, its early life, and expansion in Asia and Asia Minor. This book, covering about thirty years of history, from 33 A.D. to 66 A.D., centers around the work of two great apostles, Peter and Paul.

Also beginning Wednesday, will be a special Christian Youth Hour for study and fellowship, for children two years of age, thru the sixth grade. Assemblies and graded classes will be conducted by the ladies of the church.

The public is cordially invited to attend these classes. The Highland Christian Church is located at 1620 N. Banks.

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Joseph Cardinal Ritter's crest has been reproduced for the new Cardinal Ritter library at Notre Dame College in suburban Lemay, Mo.

Cardinal Ritter is Archbishop of the St. Louis Diocese. The four-foot-square reproduction of the prelate's coat of arms was executed in porcelain enamel baked on copper.

The coat of arms has three parts — the shield, the mottoes and the external ornaments. The mottoes read: "Guided by Her (Mary, the Mother of Jesus) you will walk without weariness," and "I am a soldier of Christ."

NEW YORK (UPI) — A conference on Church and Society will be held at the Ecumenical Center, Geneva, Switzerland, July 12-26, 1966.

The meeting, to be held under the auspices of the World Council of Churches, will be the first major international church conference on the subject in nearly 30 years. Theme of the Conference will be "Christians in the Technical and Social Revolutions of Our Time."

"YOUTH OLYMPICS" — NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor John V. Lindsay announced Thursday that a "Youth Olympics" will be held this summer in New York City, and he said he hoped the program would become a permanent event—moving to a different city each year.

Lindsay said he had contacted the mayors of more than a dozen cities about the program in which youths representing one city would compete against youths from other cities.

$34 MILLION IN AID — WASHINGTON (UPI) — More than $34 million in federal aid has been provided to aid Alaska in recovering from the devastating Good Friday earthquake of March 27, 1964.

In a report to Congress Wednesday, President Johnson said, "It is a tribute to the Congress, to the individual citizens of the state, and to the thousands of state and federal personnel who worked so diligently... that Alaska has today substantially recovered."

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Hope United Church of Christ announced the names of eight books added to the new library shelves. Teen-ager David Due said most of the young people tried to borrow the book "O Ye Jiggs and Juleps."

Jehovah Witnesses Reading Last 27 Books of Bible

The life and ministry of Jesus Christ, his apostles, and his disciples are recorded on the last twenty-seven books of the Bible. These books contain the advice of Paul, Peter and John on various problems that arose in the early Christian congregation, and since Christians today face many of the same problems it

Special Services Set for Lutherans During Lenten

Special services will be held at Zion Lutheran Church each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. during the Lenten season. The first service will be held on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 23, which marks the beginning of the Lenten season.

The Pastor of Zion Lutheran, Rev. M. G. Herring, will present a series of sermons on the theme, "On Trial."

The sermons will present man's problems, sin and opportunities in the light of the cross of Christ — and in a contemporary and meaningful way. Three Lenten sermons will offer testimony of witnesses for the prosecution of Jesus, and three testimony in His defense. In every sermon those who ponder what is said are asked to reach a verdict.

At the same time those who listen realize that the testimony might well be their own. The motto in this series is, "When the Christ of Calvary touches a man, he must reach a verdict." The public is cordially invited to attend these special services and to remain for the fellowship hour following each service.

The new members of Zion Lutheran Church will be honored with a fellowship social Sunday, Feb. 20, beginning at 7:30 p.m. All members, who have been received into the congregation during the past year, are invited to attend the social, which will be held in the Parish Hall.

Hurt of Healing Stripes Sermon At Presbyterian

"The Hurt of Healing Stripes" is the sermon subject at the First Presbyterian.

Members of the First Presbyterian Church gather for worship at 8:30 and 11 a.m. on Sunday, with Church School classes beginning at 9:45.

This Sunday the Pastor, Donald S. Hauck, will use the 5th Chapter of Matthew and the 11th Chapter of 1 Corinthians as the scripture basis for a sermon entitled "The Hurt of Healing Stripes". Ruling Elder Boyd Taylor will assist in the worship at both hours, and the Sanctuary Choir will sing "St. Francis Prayer", arranged by W. B. Olds, at the 11:00 service.

Following the second service, the congregation is called to meet for the purpose of hearing a report from the nominating committee and the election of two ruling elders.

The Evening Study of the Confession of 1967 and the Evening fellowships continue at their usual time.

Rev. Duke Sets Sunday Sermon

Rev. J. W. Duke will be in our pulpit this Sunday for our Morning Worship. Sunday morning he has chosen as his Sermon Topic "Distinguishing Features" Romans 8:31-31. Our choir under the direction of Miss Rosemary L. Worlton, has chosen as their Anthem "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" Howe-Steele accompanied by Mrs. John Gill and Mr. Jerry Whitten.

This week marks the beginning of Week of Compassion in the Christian Churches. The Disciples of Christ Christian Churches Gifts may speak through these areas: The World Council of Churches Program, Church World Service Program, and related programs with this observance of Week of Compassion.

The remainder of our church schedule will remain the same with Snack Supper beginning at 5:30; Youth Groups meeting at 6 and Evening Worship at 7. Rev. Duke has chosen as his subject for Sunday Evening "Compassion" Mark 12:41.

Bucks Sports Banquet Saturday

Tickets were still available today for the annual White Deer All-Sports banquet, slated for 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Robert E. Lee Cafeteria.

Lions club members have the tickets on sale at White Deer and Skellytown for $2.50 per person.

The $2.50 ticket price will get you a good meal, a chance to hear Texas Tech freshman coach Berl Huffman speak, see ex-Buck and all-American from the University of Oklahoma, Carl McAdams receive his all-American certificate from the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

This will also be the chance for everyone to meet a coach Colie Huffman and his Bucks, 14-1 for the past football season.

Besides McAdams award all the White Deer coaches are due to receive an award and the Lions club has a gift for their boy wonder, McAdams.

The OU senior has signed a professional football contract with the New York Jets of the American Football League and is believed to be the highest paid lineman in pro football.

McAdams, a 1962 all-state graduate from White Deer, will no doubt have a few words to say.

Just what Huffman, a coach at White Deer in 1928 will have to talk about has not been announced.

White Deer teacher Lawson Shaw will act as master of ceremonies and Winfield Powers will introduce Huffman. Putt Powell will represent NEA in presenting McAdams with his certificate for being an all-American.

Huffman, head baseball and freshman football coach for Tech and McAdams will have a kind of homecoming and will spend much of Saturday visiting all friends.

Wheeler, Briscoe In District Showdown

Miami, Allison Lose In Meet Semi-Finals

WHEELER (Sp) — Wheeler and Briscoe boys and girls cage teams do battle, starting at 7 p.m. tonight, in the finals of the district tournament.

Wheeler girls downed Miami, 50-36 and the Briscoe girls won their 25th of 29 outings with a 51-48 victory over Allison.

Briscoe's boys won their 31st straight contest with a 63-49 decision over Allison.

Wheeler's boys made the finals with a 59-50 win over Miami. Wheeler's girls (20-5) were paced by Lou Clark and Sue Richardson with 24 and 17 points respectively while Miami was paced by Beverly Weiss with 13. Sue Andrews with 11 and Linda Flowers with 12.

Miami closes its season with a 13-13 mark. Wheeler led all the way, 12-6 after one period, 26-16 at halftime and 35-25 after three periods. Miami couldn't buy a free shot, going 12-38 in the first game and 8-18 in the boys contest.

Wheeler boys (15-7) got 19, 18 and 14 points respectively from Villard Hunter, Dan Dorman and Chapman to toast to their victory.

David Bowers paced all scorers with 26 points and Charles Evans connected for 12 tallies. Wheeler led 17-9, then 30-16 at the half and 42-26 after three periods.

Briscoe's girls (25-4) had three players in double figures with Dianne Dodd totaling 23 points, Lou Meadows 18 and Helen Puryear 10.

Allison (15-14) couldn't win despite Sue Millers 27 points, 11 by Keeler and 10 by Kelly. Briscoe led only 14-13 after one period, increased it to 31-25 at halftime and led by only two, 37-35 after three periods.

The Broncos (31-0) had three players in the double figures with David Puryear pacing the attack with 21 points, Arnold Atherton pumped in 18 and Tom Hays had 15.

Groom Wins Star In District Meet

CLARENDON (Sp) — Groom won a couple of close district tournament contests Thursday night, 38-37 in the boys game and 44-43 in the girls contest.

Groom boys edged Samnorwood with area scoring leader Jerry Roberts pacing his team with 19 points while Boyd had 11 for the losers.

Groom was tied 9-9 after one period, led 22-13 at halftime and 28-26 after three periods.

The Groom Girls were paced by Suzie Lovelace with 22 and Hedley had two girls, Janie Evans and Nita Bailey with 18 each.

Hedley led 13-12 but fell behind 30-22 at the half and trailed 39-30 after three periods.

KING WILLIE — If Willie Mays puts together another season like he had last year, he could lead the Giants to the pennant they narrowly missed in 1955. Then Willie could wear that crown around San Francisco. It would go well with his other awards.

STRONGER PITCHING

SF to Press for First

By SANDY PADWE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PITCHING — Depth was a problem all last season, so this winter the front office obtained a lefty starter, Joe Gibbon, and one of the best right-hand relief men in the game, Lindy McDaniel. Gibbon (4-9) did not have a good year at Pittsburgh, but the Giants are willing to gamble on a comeback. McDaniel had a 2.58 ERA in 71 relief appearances for the Cubs. The starting rotation consists of Juan Marichal (22-13) and a 2.14 ERA. Bob Shwa (16-9), Bob Bolin (14-6) and Ron Herbel (12-9). Frank Linzy was one of the most effective relief pitchers in the league last year with a 9-3 record and 1.43 ERA. Gaylord Perry is still around but will be challenged by rookies Joe Overtun and Mike Davidson. RATING—B Plus.

Clay Appears Headed For Greatest Fight of Career

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — so that puts him right up there," said J. Allen Sherman, chairman of local board 47. "A lot depends on volunteers and right now we don't have any."

Clay is sure to appeal the board's decision although Sherman, a Louisville attorney, said he did not think a title fight would constitute a legal reason for a deferment. If Clay's appeal is turned down unanimously, then the champ has no recourse. But if it's a split decision, he can take his case to Washington.

OUTFIELD — Willie Mays will have to rest a little more this year. That means he'll miss seven games. Last year it was six. The other starters will be Jay Alou (.298) and Len Gabrielson who finished at .293 last season. RATING—B Plus.

CATCHER — Tom Haller didn't have an outstanding year in 1965 with a .251 mark. But his work with the pitchers — and on defense — compensates for the lower average. Dick Bertell is the No. 2 man and rookie Bob Barton has a chance to stick as the emergency replacement. RATING—B.

BENCH — Cap Peterson is a good utility man and a fair pinch-hitter. Don Landrum, acquired from the Cubs, will be Mays' replacement in the late innings. He's a capable pinch-hitter. Tito Fuentes is available for infield work. Ollie Brown, a home run hitter at Tacoma last year, could make it in the outfield. RATING—B.

SUMMARY — Herman Franks may not be a popular figure with the press, but with the players he is. Last year, without Cepeda, he guided them to a second-place finish. This season Cepeda is back. No one knows how healthy he is. The pitching still isn't that strong and neither is the middle of the infield. Prediction—3rd.

BANQUET GUEST — Former White Deer football star and Oklahoma University All-American Carl McAdams will be a special guest Saturday at the White Deer All-Sports banquet. The fete begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Robert E. Lee cafeteria.

Providence Falls To Tiny Rhode Island

By United Press International

The Providence Friars are the fourth-ranked basketball team in the entire country but only second-best in the nation's smallest state.

Unheralded Rhode Island University snapped the Friars' 30-game home court winning streak with an 84-61 triumph Thursday night. The Friars, who had not lost at Providence since 1962, suffered their worst licking of the season.

The Rams, who lead the Yankee Conference with a 7-0 slate, used a tough zone press and easily handled all the Friars except Jimmy Walker.

Walker netted 23 points but the next highest scorer for the Friars was Billy Blair with 11. The Cincinnati Bearcats raised their Missouri Valley Conference first-place record to 8-3 with an 88-63 victory over North Texas State, and Wichita State moved into the MVC runner-up slot with a 98-79 triumph over Bradley.

Take Close Win
Denver took advantage of Oklahoma City, playing its second game in as many nights, and shaded the Chiefs 84-83, while Syracuse, the nation's No. 1 scoring outfit, mowed down Pittsburgh 83-73.

Rhode Island won its 10th game in 21 starts by taking advantage of its sizzling fast break. Six-foot-five jumping Jack Art Stephenson ignited the attack with 14 rebounds and 29 points against the Friars, who are now 15-3.

The Friars, whose largest losing margin this season was 13 points to Houston, fell behind 39-32 at halftime and couldn't catch the inspired Rams after intermission despite Walker's 17 second-half points.

Wichita won its 13th straight at home and did it by whipping the defending league cham-

The Total's Much Higher

If you're like most of us you don't even pretend to understand the implications of a federal budget that amounts to $112 billion (the amount proposed for the upcoming fiscal year).

But it might surprise you—as it did us—to realize we don't even know the implications of a five-cent postage stamp purchase when the government gets its hands on the money.

We were well aware that the Post Office Department, among other "businesses" operated by the government, traditionally operates at a deficit. So we assumed the nickels, dimes and dollars taken in over the counter at the local post office were applied directly to defray the cost of operating that post office.

They are, but they aren't counted in the budget, which would run total expenditures far higher if they were.

Bad deal... making assumptions about how the government does things. We have discovered what really happens to the nickel we pay for a postage stamp. It, along with all other receipts from postal "retail" sales, goes back to Washington where it is dropped with hardly a splash into the gigantic pool of general funds under control of the United States Treasury Department.

And that isn't all. Other monies taken in by the government at the "retail" level go the same route.

Robert S. Allen of the Allen-Scott Report, for instance, tells us from his base in Washington that he has recently learned the Government Printing Office earns a "profit" each year from its sales of "hundreds, if not thousands" of publications including the Congressional Record. This profit, Allen reports, is turned over to the Treasury Department and becomes part of the general fund.

Likewise, returns from tens of millions of dollars worth of "retail" sales by the General Services Administration and hundreds of millions collected annually from the government's Commodity Credit Corporation's sales of surplus products are dumped into the general fund.

All of these "retail" dollars are placed in a "revolving fund" which is used to make up deficits in the red ink departments, such as the postal operations.

And it's all very, very legal. The insidious part of the setup is that the Washington bureaucrats—not the elected officials—have virtually built themselves a whole "other" budget which they can jounce, juggle and "revolve" just about any way they want to. And we don't have two cents' worth of say-so on how the funds are used.

There's no use even trying to understand a budget that tops $100 million until we begin to fathom the mystery of what happens to the nickel we pay for a postage stamp.

Who Finances The Parties?

Not too many years back, it was said that the Republican Party was the party of the "fat cats." We still hear it said that the rich men and big business are the supporters of the GOP, while the Democratic Party is the party of the "little people."

Perhaps this was true at one time. But times have changed. In the 1964 election, the Democrats got the "big money," while there were 650,000 individual contributions of $100 or less which came in to the Republicans.

The Citizens Research Foundation of Princeton, N.J., co-operating with Congressional Quarterly, a Washington news agency, said it was apparent that Barry Goldwater, rather than the Republican Party, drew the money from a personal following. When Goldwater became the candidate, a mail solicitation drew 380,000 replies with $5,800,000 in contributions.

The Democrats meanwhile were collecting larger amounts from wealthy contributors. There was the "President's Club" which was made up of those who paid in $1,000 each. The report says, "One area of gifts clearly moved toward the Democrats in 1964; leaders of large industrial and banking concerns who had traditionally given almost all their support to the Republican Party." In 1964 the Democrats received 69 per cent of total campaign gifts in sums of $500 or more, and 57.4 per cent of gifts of $10,000 or more going to both parties.

While the Republicans received 28 per cent of their gifts in sums of $500 or more, 72 per cent came in sums of less than $500. In 1964 the Democrats charged $15,000 a page for advertising in their convention program. They obtained 97 full pages of ads and total revenue of approximately $1.5 million.

Recently the party has promoted another advertising book about the "Great Society," and has collected large sums from industries which by law are prohibited from direct political contributions.

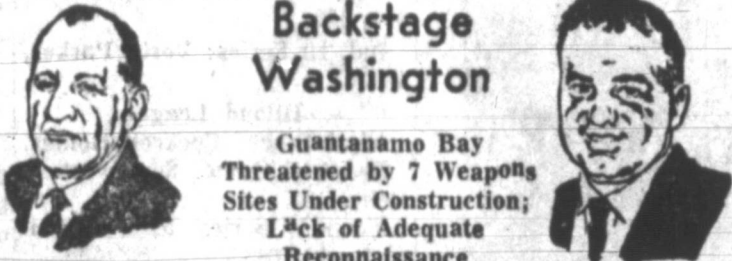

The Chicago Tribune comments: "The New Deal at its inception proclaimed itself the party of the 'forgotten man,' but it has become the party of the insiders who have a good thing through administration favor and contracts."

Guantanamo Bay Threatened by 7 Weapons Sites Under Construction; Lack of Adequate Reconnaissance

WASHINGTON — Russia is building seven mysterious underground weapons sites near the heavily fortified U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay.

The sites, suspected of being launching bases for new-type Soviet ground-to-ground rockets, are within three miles of this country's stronghold on the Communist-ruled island.

Latest information gathered by U.S. intelligence sources within Cuba indicates the underground "missile" sites range in size from 70 to 100 feet in length, 20 to 35 feet in width, and from 15 to 75 feet in depth.

Construction work, which involves the pouring of large quantities of cement, was started about three months ago and is continuing at an accelerated pace since the first of the year. U.S. efforts to photograph the sites have been only partially successful because of the limitations put on reconnaissance operations over Cuba.

Reconnaissance planes flying off the coast of Cuba are photographing the construction work at regular intervals, but none of the pictures show the deep side of the sites because of the angle at which they must be taken.

The photographs, now being carefully studied at the Pentagon, reveal that in all instances the side of the site closest to the Guantanamo base is the deepest part of the underground "missile" base.

Significantly, the far side of the site contains several man-made shelves in step-like formation from the bottom to the top of the "big hole," as the sites are being called in backstage intelligence briefings. These "steps" are being covered with a heavy layer of cement.

COMING MISSILE CRISIS? — In warnings similar to those given in advance of the 1962 Cuban missile crisis, intelligence experts are telling superiors that the sites are being constructed so that several missiles or heavy mortars can be installed and fired from each of them.

Cuban refugees, whose information is largely being ignored by high-level U.S. authorities, are frankly saying that Russian and Cuban technicians are working on the sites, and that they are part of a network of military installations that Castro is building to neutralize the powerful U.S. naval base.

These refugees "informants" contend that once the sites are completed and the missiles operational, Castro intends to issue an ultimatum to the U.S. to withdraw from Guantanamo or its forces there will be destroyed.

If this warning is accurate, as many of the refugees' past reports have been, the U.S. could by next fall face a missile crisis as sinister as that which rocked the world in 1962 during the Kennedy administration.

U.S. officials so far have done little about these mysterious installations, other than trying to figure out what the Russians and Cubans may have up their sleeves.

No high-level or low-level flights directly over these targets have been ordered because of White House policy not to "rock the boat" in Cuban waters while the Cuban refugee airlift program is underway.

SHUTTING OUR EYES—This intelligence gap could be as damaging to this country's security as the CIA's failure to overfly Cuba in July-August 1962, when eight Soviet bloc ships arrived with electronic, radar and construction equipment for IRBM sites.

A Russian ship added to the site mystery recently when it tried to steam through Guantanamo Bay without accepting a U.S. pilot. When a U.S. destroyer challenged the Soviet ship by crossing its bow, the Russian skipper backed down and two U.S. naval tugs then escorted the Red vessel back to the open ocean.

This Russian vessel, which had the capability of carrying missiles or large mortars, later discharged its cargo at another Cuban port rather than accept a U.S. pilot — a requirement for all ships enroute to two Cuban ports that can be reached only through Guantanamo Bay.

Since no U-2 reconnaissance flights are being made directly over Cuba except when ordered by the White House, no photographs were made of the cargo unloaded from this Russian ship.

"Unless the U.S. immediately resumes regular U-2 flights over Cuba," one intelligence expert warns, "President Johnson is going to wake up some morning faced with the same kind of missile crisis that confronted President Kennedy. The big difference will be that while Kennedy caught the Russians before they could get their missiles operational, Johnson won't be so lucky. He will find them pointing at the White House and their triggers cocked."

THE CRISIS AHEAD — The U.S. has an estimated 7,000 fighting men, civilian employees and dependents on the strategic naval base at Guantanamo. To beef up the defenses of the base, the Navy recently replaced a battalion of Seabees with combat-ready Marines.

Another powerful Marine group, scheduled as replacement for a landing team with the U.S. 6th Fleet, was abruptly recalled after setting sail for the Mediterranean and returned to its base on the East Coast. Pentagon officials will not say what was behind this sudden change in plans.

With the exception of a small number of Cubans still permitted to work on the base, the civilian work force now consists mainly of 1,500 Jamaicans hired for six months at a time. In Guantanamo Bay the number of bodies of Cubans who unsuccessfully tried to escape has dramatically increased in recent weeks. U.S. authorities believe these tragic discoveries are the result of a new reign of terror within his own military.

Ho's Price To U.S. Is Surrender

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) —

Though Ho Chi Minh's Jan. 24 letter to India's President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was called a "peace feeler," later secret reports from Hanoi to several nations make clear Ho does not want peace. He wants our surrender.

These on-the-spot reports from the capital of North Viet Nam say that Ho's attitude is the same as it has been. The officials of several of the countries receiving letters from Hanoi have concluded that Ho's purpose was to reaffirm and justify his position.

Ho is understood to have sent letters to about 30 countries on Jan. 24. These letters varied somewhat in content.

In general, in these letters, Ho asserts that the United States is breaking the Geneva Agreement of 1954 and committing aggression against North Viet Nam.

In most (possibly all) of the letters Ho suggests that if the United States wants peace it should negotiate with the Viet Cong.

He reasserts that the United States should accept the Viet Cong's "peace" program — which would put the VC in key government ministries, give VC districts in South Viet Nam virtual autonomy (and in a safe position to continue aggression against neighboring districts), bring the VC into major army posts and require the withdrawal of American forces.

Secret VC documents indicate that with those concessions made to them, they're certain they could control South Viet Nam completely in a matter of months.

Ho Chi Minh's clandestine radio broadcasts in South Viet Nam say "the essential point of this (Ho letter) is to point out that the war being waged by the U.S. imperialists in Viet Nam is a criminal and aggressive war and that the true nature of the so-called search for peace campaign launched by Johnson is nothing but a swindle and witchcraft, or a search for false peace in an attempt actually to intensify the war."

Diplomats from a number of the countries contacted by Ho believe that he is attempting to marshal world public opinion against the United States.

They suggest Ho's letters are his way of countering President Johnson's recent peace offensive — which made Ho look bad in some quarters.

One European diplomat suggests that Ho may be trying to build up steam for getting the United States to again stop bombing North Viet Nam.

This is not to suggest that Ho wouldn't like talks under some very favorable circumstances — with conditions laid down that would insure a Communist takeover of South Viet Nam.

ly tried to escape has dramatically increased in recent weeks. U.S. authorities believe these tragic discoveries are the result of a new reign of terror within his own military.

Tale of a Prospector Without Electricity

By AL BELLERUE
(No. 2 of Series)

The other day I received a visit from a long-time inhabitant of the desert area. Most of his life had been spent prospecting, never striking it rich, but always managing to take care of himself. He greeted me and said that he planned to improve his circumstances a little by having electricity hooked up to his cabin. A friend had given him a refrigerator and he was looking forward to lots of ice water and fresh meat during the hot summers. He had picked up a discarded radio at the dump which would provide considerable company. "Old age sure does weaken the eyes," he confessed, "and I sure will be glad to replace that coal oil light with an electric bulb, so I can read in the evenings." Then he told me that out of his total monthly income of about $40, he felt he could afford to pay only $3 per month for electricity, but that this would be sufficient to improve his living tremendously.

I explained to him that he was located in the "franchised" area of the Rural Electrification Cooperative and that the minimum payments for electric service were $10 each month for the first year and $6 per month thereafter. Obviously irritated, he said, "How about Edison? They have a minimum of $1.10 each month and a line that runs a right by my place. I don't care who I get juice from, DEC or Edison, as long as I get it."

I replied that Edison did not have a "franchise" as it is properly called, "a certificate of convenience and necessity" to serve the area he lived in, and that while the line he referred to was an Edison distribution line, state law prohibited Edison from serving consumers in the DEC area.

He exploded, "You mean to say I can't buy electricity from a company who is willing to serve me in the amount I want and can afford, and that I am forced to do business with another company in an amount I can't afford, or do without electricity at all?" "That's right, Hardrock," I answered. "Is the REA the U. S. Government?" he asked. I admitted that it was.

The Nation's Press

WE JUST CAN'T SAY 'NO' (Chicago Tribune)

Whom does Ambassador Goldberg represent anyway? We thought he was supposed to be our spokesman at the United Nations, but he's acting more and more as if he were running the U. N. lobby in Washington.

Since he has taken over Mr. Stevenson's job, we have abandoned our effort to make Russia and other delinquents pay their back assessments. Now we have voluntarily tossed in 24 million dollars as a donation to help meet the organization's accumulating deficit.

Secretary General U Thant had asked each member for a contribution equal to 80 per cent of its annual dues. The general assembly was unable to do anything to meet the deficit last year, he explained, because it was immobilized by our insistence that Russia and the other delinquents lose their votes, as the U.N. charter provides.

Yet Russia, the delinquent, still refuses to pay the controversial assessments and has answered U Thant's plea with only 5 million dollars, barely half its share. Few others have paid anything at all. And, who tried to help the U.N. collect what it had coming, get stuck as usual with the major part of the bill.

We can't see what the United States is achieving for itself or even for the U. N. by continuing to coddle that organization while others ignore it. What incentive will there be for others to pay their dues if they know that rich old Uncle Sam is always ready to pay enough to cover the dues of 100 other countries? The U. N. is ineffective enough now; of what possible use would it be if it were to become a wholly owned and financed subsidiary of the United States? Who in the world appreciates our perpetual generosity, except perhaps Mr. Thant himself?

We are suffering enough as it is from the delusion that another dose of federal funds can cure any problem, from the slums of Los Angeles to the mountains of Afghanistan. If the United Nations is going to get out of the mudhole in which it is submerging, everybody is going to have to pitch in and help. If there isn't enough will in the rest of the world to do so, we're only wasting our own money and prolonging the agony.

a part of it. He continued, "When I was a taxpayer, in my productive years I was forced to contribute to this thing whether I wanted to or not. True? Does it make sense that something I was forced to contribute to, by government, now be used against me, denying me the freedom to purchase the small amount of available electricity that I want?" I had to agree that it made little sense.

And, as he limped down the road mumbling to himself, I overheard, "Whole, danged system of government these days makes little sense. . . ."

You know, that really does make sense!

"CONSTRUCTIVE" SHREVEPORT TIMES, DEC. 3, 1950

The Shreveport Times especially calls attention of its readers to an article of December 3, 1950, written by Mr. H. L. Hunt, Dallas oil man who is nationally known for his long success as a "wildcatter" in the Southwest fields.

In this article, which has been published by Mr. Hunt as a small brochure, he tells of his search for a word which would define a combination of the best philosophies of all of our modern political parties and forces if they could be rolled into one objective and one philosophy for people of today. Mr. Hunt finds that the word "constructive" best meets the needs he had in mind, and, after reading his article, few will doubt that his search has been successful in his search for a word as he has been in his searches for oil.

What may be even more important than what Mr. Hunt has to say — and his article is very important, indeed, in the mind of the Times — is the fact that a man of great wealth, made possible by his own ability under the American system of free enterprise and unrestricted initiative — has turned his thoughts to social-political problems of today. Too many men, once they have achieved their own success, are content to enjoy it and let the rest of the world go by. Mr. Hunt's brochure is a modest effort in the other direction and one that obviously has been put before the public with some reluctance, for he is a man of such innate retirement and modesty that it took considerable persuasion for the Times to get permission to use his picture with the article. And, in publishing the brochure he specified in it that it could be used by anyone wishing to do so without credit to him.

The guns are likely getting thru, but thus far L.B.J. has frittered away his promise about the butter. I haven't had anything but oleomargarine for so many years.

Hollywood Like Romance Has Ironical Ending

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — It appeared to be a high school romance lifted out of a Hollywood script: The handsome football player courting the pretty cheerleader and becoming engaged.

But the love match soured late last year and the engagement was broken.

Hollis Victor Robison Jr., 19, brooded about his "lost love" and finally, he told police Wednesday, "love turned to hate." Then an idea came to him from a novel he had read.

Charged with assault with intent to murder, Robison calmly explained that he rigged a 16-gauge sawed off shotgun in a red attache case, disguised it as a Valentine and left it on the steps of 18-year-old Nancy Adams' house.

Nancy's sister, Patricia, 13, got to the package first, however, and was wounded in the feet by a shotgun blast when she opened the present on her doorstep because it was too heavy for her to carry into the house. She was listed in satisfactory condition in a hospital.

Investigators said the blast probably would have been fatal if the package had been opened on a table—at chest level—as intended.

"I don't know why I did it, but I knew if she opened that case it would kill her," Robison told officers.

The strapping youth, winner of a football letter last year, became a prime suspect in the case when Nancy, a high school senior, told police she had received threatening letters since her breakup with Robison.

The youth, described as a "quiet, average kind of boy," admitted the attempted slaying under intensive questioning, police said, and took officers to a rural spot where he dumped pieces of the shotgun he had to

Television in Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Unless NBC-TV cancels its March 12 showing of the movie "A Place in the Sun," viewers may be watching a crucial legal showdown concerning the insertion of commercials in televised motion pictures.

The situation arises because George Stevens, producer of the classic film, which is based on Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy" and stars Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Shelley Winters, decided to take the matter to court.

There in court, in Los Angeles, a judge issued a warning to the network which, if abided by and upheld, may turn out to be an historic occasion in the relationship of movies and television.

He cautioned that commercials must not be inserted in a way that would "emasculate" the artistic quality of the film. And you can well imagine what kind of an opening wedge this finally gives movie makers who long have winced over the assassination of their films by countless, ill-placed commercials on television — much as authors have long suffered at the treatment of their works by movie makers.

Actually, the full trial of the case is some months off — well after the scheduled NBC-TV remove to make it fit in the attache case.

showing—and the judge didn't feel one could ban commercials completely anyway. But he did take the rather monumental step of suggesting that badly arranged commercials—or if one wants to interpret freely, advertisements in general—can affect an artistic work on television, and, by implication, its creator's reputation.

This, of course, is not big news to anybody who watches video movies. There ought to be a law — and I mean a real, enforceable one, with plenty of teeth—against what some television butchers have done to the films.

An NBC-TV spokesman, by the way, said that not a single frame would be cut from the network's showing of "A Place in the Sun."

The Channel Swim: ABC-TV's one-hour program about Beethoven airs March 23 and is repeated April 24. The European figure skating championships, at Bratislava, Czechoslovakia, are seen on "NBC Sports in Action" Feb. 27. Mrs. Indira Gandhi, India's new prime minister, is interviewed in New Delhi on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers" March 13.

ILKESTON, England (UPI) — Mrs. Eileen Waltho was fined $11 for slapping a teacher who sent her daughter home from school for wearing knee-length boots.

SHORT SUDESD
LONDON (UPI) — A member of Parliament, Geoffrey Rhodes, has complained that Britons are being short-changed on beer. "Some brewers," he said, "sell low-gravity beer at high prices. The government should insist that the gravity is printed on bottles, cans and draught ale pumps."

FIRE HITS STATION
NORWICH, England (UPI) — A fire swept an underground bunker Thursday at a top security Royal Air Force (RAF) radar and signal station. One fireman was killed, two were missing and feared dead and seven others were injured. The station is in the middle of farmland and heavily guarded.
