Los Angeles Still Sits on Potential Racial Powderkeg

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Small bands of rock throwing Negro youths roamed the streets of Pacoima in the suburban San Fernando Valley for more than three hours Thursday night. The riot-scarred Watts area on the other side of the city remained quiet.

"Unusually large numbers" of Negroes were on the streets of Watts until the early hours of this morning, police said, but no major incidents were reported. Temperatures rose into the 60s.

Pacoima and Watts are about 30 miles apart, and contain large numbers of Negro residents.

A 16-year-old youth was arrested in Pacoima on suspicion of battery against a policeman. Several car owners reported their windows had been shattered by rocks.

Extra police sped to the scene and dispersed several groups of 10 to 15 persons. A 10 p.m. curfew normal for Pacoima—sent the unruly teen-agers home early.

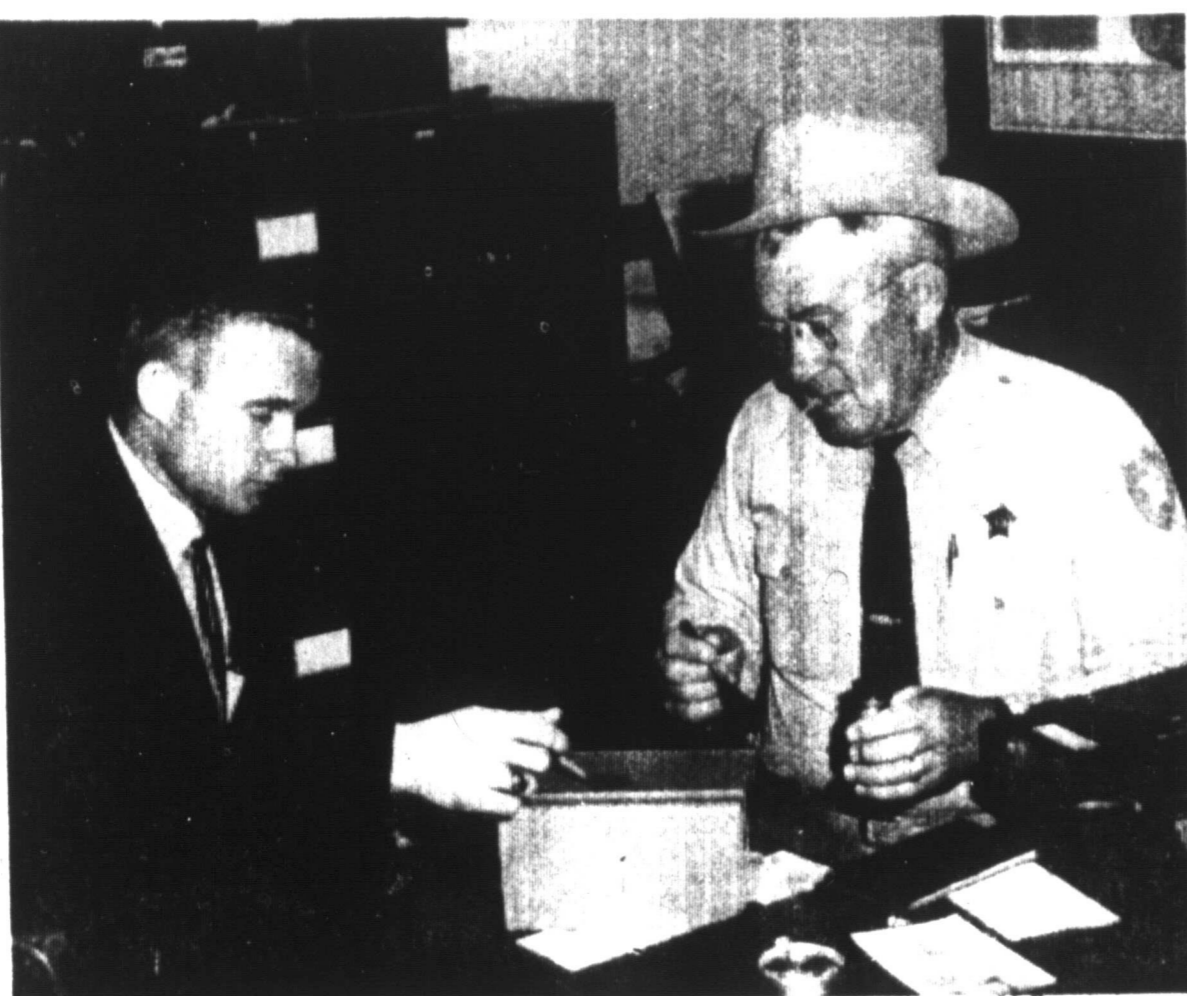

Authorities said most of the targets of the rock tossers were Caucasian motorists. Streets in the area of mixed business and residential structures are poorly lighted.

Police remained in control of the Pacoima situation, preventing it from mushrooming into a major disturbance such as last Tuesday night's rioting in Watts where two persons were killed, 25 were injured and at least 56 suspects were arrested. Thirty-four persons died and 900 were injured in a devastating riot in Watts last August.

Relative calm in Watts Wednesday night led police to close down their riot control center. But police officials indicated a massive show of strength could quickly be brought to bear should the need arise.

There also was community concern that with warming temperatures and the arrival of the weekend, with its leisure time—the possibility of renewed trouble in Watts could not be discounted.

Police said that along with code 77—a police radio call that pours all available units into a specific trouble spot—used Tuesday and due to be used again if necessary—Negroes within the area appeared to have become more cooperative with police.

Demolay Takes Over Duties of Government

Youth filled the City Hall and County Court House offices today along with positions in the Fire Department, Education system and other offices.

At the police station two young men listened to the dispatcher explain how the police radio system worked.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan today scratched his head and joked with two young men ready to "take over" his department.

All over the city, in all the municipal and county offices, young Pampa Chapter Order of DeMolay members were observing their Civic Day by assuming positions in government and other fields.

DeMolay members and their positions are: Larry E. d. s. Sheriff; Lewis Meers and Doug Abbott, Deputies; Ronnie Carson, District Judge; Richard Tallant, District Attorney; Mike Collingsworth, County Judge; Richard Goddy, County Attorney; and Neil Brooks, County Clerk.

Howard Jones, County Treasurer; Benny Lash, County Tax Assessor; Jimmy Ryals, County Juvenile Officer; Ronnie Mortimer, Justice of the Peace; Jim Maul, Constable; and Alvin Bellow and Dennis Mortimer, Highway Patrol.

Mike Ward is Superintendent of Schools. City Policemen are Monty Elkins, John Stroker, and George Poole. Firemen are Ronnie Meers and Dandy Stubbs. TONY TEASSEL is City Engineer and Don Whitney takes a position in Corporation Court. Pat Warden fills the City Attorney's shoes.

Vickie Autry Selected Irish Queen Runner-up

Vickie Autry of Pampa was named second runner-up in the Miss Irish Rose Contest Thursday in the climax of the Shamrock St. Patrick's Day Celebration.

Vickie, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Autry, charmed onlookers and judges while riding the Top O' Texas Club's float in Shamrock's mile long parade.

The Top O' Texas Club float bearing Miss Autry and members of the club was named third in the community service club division of the parade float contest.

The Pampa Leather and Lace riding club placed second in the parade's riding club division.

This brings the total number of arrests to four, Jerry Ray James and Clifford H. Bowen, both of Midland, were arrested shortly after the attempted burglary and Fred C. Hedges, also of Midland, was arrested Wednesday afternoon.

Law officers from three states slackened their search a bit Thursday afternoon to give themselves a rest and give the suspects a chance to make a move.

Officers from Oklahoma and Texas, numbering as many as 100 at times searched rough areas from Mobeetie and along the Red River between Magic City, Kellerville and McLean for almost three days.

Bonds of $50,000 were posted in Wheeler for the three suspects in jail there but Wheeler County Sheriff Bus Dorman, who conducted the search and had gone without sleep the two days, refused the bonds put up by Austin attorney John Flanagan.

Bowen and James have been charged with car theft and burglary while Hedges is charged with burglary. Bonds of $10,000 on each charge was set.

Operation Started in Spain To Recover Missing H-Bomb

MADRID (UPI) — Armed U.S. Navy ships ringed an area five miles off the Spanish coast today while American underwater and surface craft began operations to recover an H-bomb found 2,500-feet down in the Mediterranean Sea.

Informed sources said it would take about three days to raise the nuclear device lost Jan. 17 in the collision of a U.S. B52 bomber and jet tanker over southeastern Spain. Three other bombs aboard the B52 fell to earth and were recovered shortly.

Disclosure Thursday that the bomb had been found—apparently intact and with no deadly leakage—ended an intensive two-month search that cost the United States millions of dollars and sparked an unfavorable foreign reaction in both Communist and non-Communist capitals.

The sources said the two-man submersible "Alvin" found the weapon, with its parachute still attached, lying on a 70-foot-long slope about five miles offshore. The Alvin took underwater pictures of the device.

Search Is Narrowed To One

BULLETIN

Amarillo sheriff's officers notified area officers this afternoon that a suspect had been arrested in an Amarillo motel. Officers said that they were sure the man was one of the gang but that positive identification had not been made at noon. One officer said the motel had been under surveillance since Wednesday.

PANHANDLE (Spl.) — Law enforcement officials intensified their search today for one remaining member of a gang of bank burglars but the site of the search switched from near Wheeler to near Panhandle.

Panhandle officers arrested James T. Overton, 25, Austin, one of five men believed to have been in on the attempted bank burglary Tuesday night at Mobeetie, in a vacant house just a few miles east of Panhandle about 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

This brings the total number of arrests to four, Jerry Ray James and Clifford H. Bowen, both of Midland, were arrested shortly after the attempted burglary and Fred C. Hedges, also of Midland, was arrested Wednesday afternoon.

Law officers from three states slackened their search a bit Thursday afternoon to give themselves a rest and give the suspects a chance to make a move.

Statistics Statistic

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Statistic of the week: It costs the federal government about $160 million a year to prepare statistics.

A House subcommittee headed by Rep. Robert N. C. Nix, D-Pa., reported today that about 15,000 federal employees were engaged in the task.

Astronauts Head Home to Help Find Out 'Why?'

REGISTRATION ENDS

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI) — Hard-luck astronauts Neil Armstrong and David Scott headed home today to help solve the mystery of the Gemini 8 spaceship that turned into a bucking bronco and forced them down in danger of their lives.

Unofficial speculation listed sources of possible reasons, mostly mechanical, for the abrupt end of what had been an historic linkup between two objects in space. But the scientists who must decide said they simply did not know why yet.

Tapes that outlined the nightmare through the voices of the astronauts and their helpers on the ground gave no clues. All they revealed was a close call for the astronauts.

"We consider this problem is serious," they radioed in a first inkling of trouble.

Bucking and veering while docked with Agena target satellite, they managed to disengage. But their two-ton capsule rolled, tumbled and "gyrated wildly."

"We were just barely able to hold our own," they reported on (See ASTRONAUTS, Page 3)

Gray County Registers 900 More Voters

An estimated 900 voters signed up to vote during the special 15-day voter registration period which ended Thursday, Jack Back, Gray County Tax Assessor said today.

Back said the 900 new voters are about 10 per cent of the number of voters who paid poll taxes.

The special 15-day voter registration period ended Thursday at midnight.

Back said the new voter figure for Gray County was "just about an average for other counties in the state."

The Texas voter force swelled to about 2.5 million for the 1966 elections today with the addition of an estimated 340,000 who registered during the emergency period before Thursday's midnight deadline.

A United Press International survey of a cross-section of Texas counties showed almost twice as many residents qualified during the last seven days of the 15-day period than in the first week, when 116,000 signed up.

However, qualifying and voting are two different things, and Dallas County Tax Assessor-Collector Ben Gentle summed up the feelings of officials.

"The big question is if they will vote. I sure hope they do."

County tax officials sampled agreed registration was smooth. Officials reported no problems and no long lines although they kept their offices open until the stroke of midnight Thursday to give all persons a chance to sign up.

Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, FBI agents monitored registration in 43 Texas counties. Most tax assessor-collectors did not know any FBI agents were around, and those that did said the brief visits were routine.

The 340,000 registrants will join an estimated 2.2 million who got poll taxes or exemptions before the January deadline to vote in the May 7 primary.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr obtained a 30-day stay of the federal court ruling outlawing the poll tax as a voting requirement, but that will end midnight March 25.

Carr has appealed the federal court decision and if the U. S. supreme court reverses the ruling and voters turn down a constitutional amendment for annual registration in November, the free registration will be for naught.

King Says Negro May Be President Within 25 Years

DALLAS (UPI) — The United States will get over its racial prejudice so thoroughly that within 25 years voters might even elect a Negro President, Martin Luther King predicted Thursday.

King spoke to the Dallas Pastors Association and at a news conference.

"We must make it clear that segregation is a cancer that must be removed," King said. "Religious leaders must take the lead in correcting social injustices of the day."

He added, "Any notion of black supremacy is just as dangerous as white supremacy."

The Georgia desegregation leader said the church should take it upon itself to work against the status quo and against segregation.

World problems also demand attention, King said, particularly the need for "cooperation and understanding" among nations.

He said he was awed by scenes in India of the poor and hungry sleeping on sidewalks. One third of the people of India never see a doctor or dentist, he said.

Jakarta Seized In Ouster of Red Influence

SINGAPORE (UPI) — The Indonesian army appeared to seize control of Jakarta today in a lightning thrust apparently aimed at crushing Communist influence in President Sukarno's government. Reliable reports received here said army tanks rumbled up to the presidential palace and trained their guns on it.

There was no indication whether Sukarno was inside. But reliable Singapore sources, with their own communications facilities to Jakarta said a coup atmosphere prevailed in the Indonesian capital.

The sources said army paratroopers and soldiers moved swiftly to take control of Jakarta airport and all radio and television stations on orders from Lt. Gen. Soeharto, the anti-Communist army chief, to whom Sukarno ceded "political power" last week.

Soeharto gave the signal for the action earlier today when he announced the arrest of Foreign Minister Subandrio and 14 other leftists in the Sukarno cabinet, it was reported.

Kennedy Returns to 'Ole Miss' Battleground

OXFORD, Miss. (UPI) — Robert F. Kennedy, once commander of federal desegregation forces in the South, today urged Mississippi youth to forget the past and fight to end racial bias and poverty.

At the University of Mississippi, where U.S. troops brought integration in a bloody struggle, Kennedy said in prepared remarks that such "troubling burdens" were American, not Southern, challenges.

"Racial injustice and poverty, ignorance and hope for world peace are to be found in the streets of New York and Chicago and Los Angeles, as well as in the towns and farm lands of Mississippi," he said. He acknowledged too that before solutions are found there may be more strife and trouble across the North as well as the South.

Kennedy, once attorney general and now U.S. senator from New York, was making one other Southern appearance today, at the University of Alabama.

Both schools were scenes of integration crises while he was attorney general under the late President John F. Kennedy. The brothers directed the federal intervention at "Ole Miss" in Sept. 30, 1962 to force the admission of the school's first Negro, James Meredith.

Within a few hundred yards from where Kennedy spoke today, two persons were killed and hundreds wounded, including 180 of the 500 federal marshals sent to "enroll" Meredith against the wishes of Mississippi officials.

Kennedy still gets much of the blame for what happened at the University of Mississippi in the 1962 riot, and his appearance drew sharp criticism from diehard segregationists.

Kennedy was due about noon at the local airport, where the 101st Airborne Division troops and federal marshals landed to quell student rioting. The campus was calm for the Kennedy visit, his first to Mississippi—but feelings were sharply divided over whether the law school speakers bureau should have invited him in the first place.

Campus security eased perceptibly after a white supremacy group, the Association for the Preservation of the White Race, called off a "ride in" and anti-Kennedy rally here.

Pampa School Board Rehires Teachers

The Pampa School Board met with school administrators Thursday evening and voted to rehire members of the present school staff, L. J. Edmondson, superintendent of schools announced this morning.

Violence Victim — Under protection of riot guns, police pick up the body of Joe Crawford, killed in renewed disorder sweeping Los Angeles' tense Negro ghetto of Watts. Police said Crawford was felled by a sniper when a crowd gathered at an intersection.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The fast and riots are weapons interwoven with the political history of India. And so it was nothing new that India's first woman prime minister, Indira Gandhi, faced in her first few weeks in office the same problems her father, Jawaharlal Nehru, faced in the first 15 years of an independent Indian republic.

Mohandas K. Gandhi—no relation to the present prime minister—used the fast effectively against the British. Nehru, who inherited Gandhi's mantle, decried the fast as an unfair means of coercion, even worse than the riot.

Nation's Fabric Reth
Indira faced both. And how she faced them could well determine the future of India, for involved were the weaknesses in the fabric of her nation, scores of languages and dialects and a criss-cross of religions going deep into the emotions of all Indians.

Within a matter of days her government faced Communist-agitated food riots in West Bengal, a secessionist battle against Mizo tribesmen close to the border with Burma, and more rioting in New Delhi and the cities of the Punjab arising from the decision to establish a new Punjabi-speaking state dominated by the Sikhs.

Since 1955, India has been committed to a system of states carved out along linguistic and cultural lines. Since Indian independence, the state's approximately 7 million Sikhs have been agitating for a state of their own.

The movement is led by Master Tara Singh, currently under arrest as a danger to state security, and Sant Fateh Singh who brought the current situation to a head by threatening to fast for two weeks and then burn himself to death unless the central government agreed to creation of a Sikh state. Mrs. Gandhi and her government advisors yielded.

Fearing Dilution
The warlike Sikhs, famed as fighting men since their resistance to the Moguls in the 17th century, feared loss of their identity and dilution of their religion so long as they remained in a predominantly Hindu state.

Opposing them is an equally militant Hindu organization called the Janh Sangh (Peoples Party), which would abolish Pakistan and place the whole sub-continent under exclusively Hindu culture. Its strength lies mainly in the streets.

When Nehru died the question immediately arose whether any other could hold the divergent cultures, religions and languages in a single state. The question remains a valid one today.

Cotten Conviction Reversed by Court

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Court of Criminal Appeals yesterday reversed the conviction of Dearl Ray Cotten and ordered the case dismissed because an automobile is not a "fixed place."

Cotten was fined $500 and given a six-months jail term by a Brown County court for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

He was convicted of encouraging a young girl "into a place where intoxicating liquors were kept, drunk and used."

The appeals court reversed the ruling, stating that a car was a movable object and the word "place" in the law applied to a "fixed" location.

 Agency has also been lodged against the trio and a bond of $25,000 was set on this charge.
 FBI agents from Amarillo and Lubbock were in Wheeler and Mobeetie Wednesday and Thursday but would not answer reporter's questions.

Flanagan said by telephone Friday morning that he was waiting on Dorman before he made his next move to free his clients.

"I think the other day (Wednesday) when I was in Wheeler Sheriff Dorman was just tired and in a bad mood. I'm sure he'll let the boys out on their bonds," Flanagan said.

Flanagan drove the car the would-be bank burglars were in in Mobeetie to Amarillo Wednesday night but Amarillo police impounded the car.

A suitcase was found in the car which contained a high speed drill, a hand operated cylinder key cutter, key blanks, two unmounted diamonds, a directory of state banks and an instruction book on opening safes, according to police.

The Austin lawyer said that he had taken the car as part of his fee for representing the men.

Law officers from Enid and Elk City, Oklahoma and sheriffs from Wellington, Gray County, Memphis, Berger and Ozona were on hand for the manhunt.

Sheriff Dorman said he had warrants for the three men in his jail from Upshaw county and that other warrants were out on the men from Wichita, Kan. and a governor's warrant had been sent down from Mississippi for armed robbery. The warrant for Kansas is on an armed robbery charge.

Dorman said the five men are believed to be part of a gang of nine or 10 of the Southwest's most notorious bank robbery gangs.

Dorman said the men are wanted for questioning in three states on unsolved bank burglaries.

Overton almost made good his escape. He stole a county-owned dump truck parked near Lela Lake, 13 miles west of Shamrock Thursday afternoon and ditched it near the vacant farm-house he was found in.

Federal officers, Texas Rangers and sheriff's officers were in Panhandle Friday morning to question Overton.

 The tapes released by the federal space agency Thursday. Their voices were calm, assured and authoritative on the tapes.

Officials said the tapes were as received. Although they were not made public for 18 hours, officials said they were not edited.

While the astronauts made their way back via Hawaii toward the U.S. mainland by airplane, scientists began checking miles of radioed information and Gemini 8's final voice tapes in quest of a clue to the trouble.

Armstrong and Scott, who had to dash back to earth less than four hours after a triumphant first-ever linkup with another satellite in orbit, were delivered to Okinawa Thursday by the destroyer USS Mason, which recovered them 500 miles east of that Pacific island.

Leave For U.S.
 The astronauts left Naha, Okinawa, aboard an Air Force jetliner to the cheers of 1,000 Americans and Okinawans who turned out in a heavy rain to see them off. Armstrong and Scott grinned.

Physicians reported them in excellent physical condition and fine spirits.

Officials said the astronauts would return to Cape Kennedy on Saturday and to their homes near Houston sometime Monday.

But the pilots were carefully kept away from the public. And it would stay that way, agency spokesmen said, until they could finish their "debriefing" and face a news conference about eight or nine days from now.

Possible clues to the mishap, which began when Gemini 8 was linked with the Agena 185 miles above earth Wednesday, were sought in the voice transmissions to ground stations and through on-board recorders that "memorized" information when Gemini 8 was out of range.

Dear Abby... Teen's Mother Should Forgive and Forget

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 and I have just started keeping a diary. I used it to let off steam, thinking no one would ever see it but me. Well, when I came home from school one day I thought my mother acted kind of strange. She denied that anything was wrong. Finally, a few days later she told me that while she was looking for something else, she accidentally came across my diary, which I keep hidden. She said she was not the least curious about its contents, but while moving it she bent one of the pages with her long fingernail, and while straightening it out she saw the word "battle-ax." And wondering who I would call a "battle-ax" she read that page. I had written some horrible things. Abby, because I was awful mad at her at the time, but I really didn't mean them. She said the feeling was mutual, and from now on I shouldn't depend on her for anything. I do love her, Abby, and I feel just terrible. What should I do?

Everyone is entitled to his private thoughts. I hope your mother will forgive and forget. She should. Perhaps she, too, spoke in anger and haste. My advice to you is to keep "letting off steam" in writing. But not in a diary. Use scratch paper, and destroy it immediately.

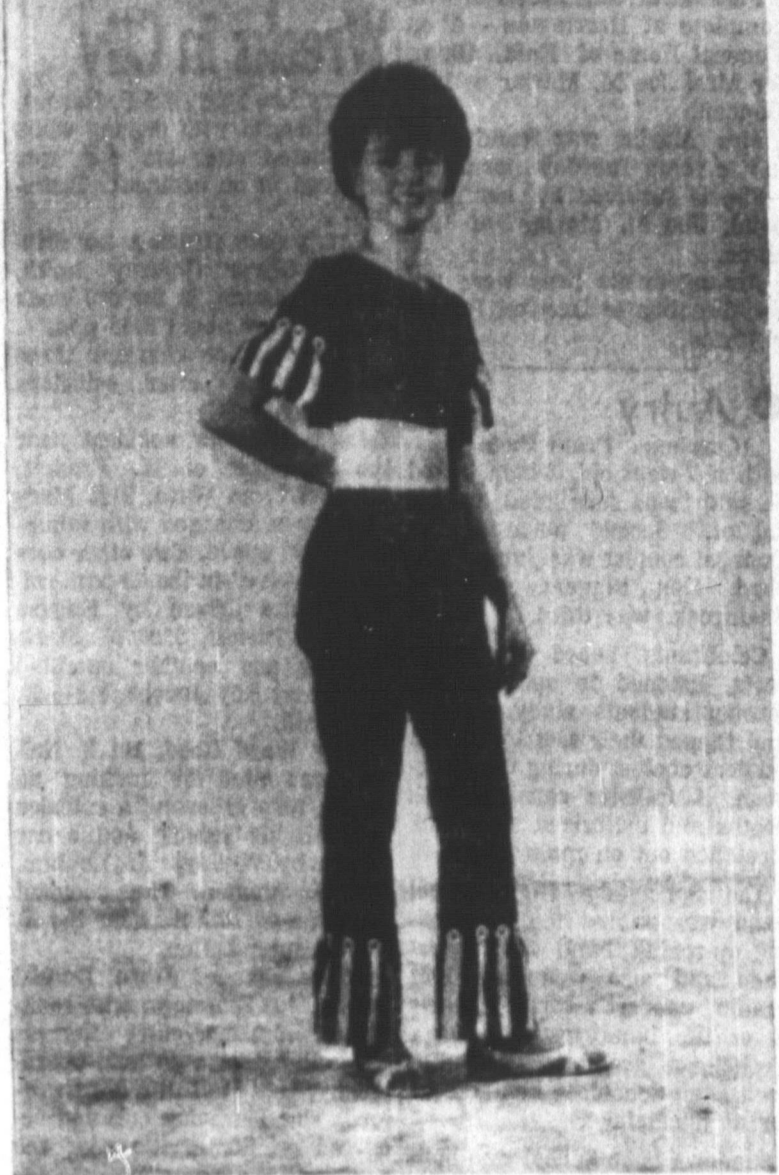

DEAR ABBY: What does one do when a couple drops in at precisely the time for our favorite TV show? It is a half-hour afternoon program. My husband, who will be 90 next summer, says, "Next time I am going to turn it on anyway." Wouldn't that be rude?

WONDERING: GREET your callers with, "Hello, you are just in time to watch our favorite TV program with us. Sit down." Then watch the program.

DEAR ABBY: Our neighbors have curtains which can be pulled and you'd never know it. They put on some pretty embarrassing scenes right in front of the windows, with the lights on and the curtains wide open. The woman sometimes has next to nothing on. We have teenage children who have plenty of time to learn the facts of life without getting a demonstration. They have these youngsters of their own so you would think they'd be more careful. The only thing we can figure out is that they are trying to convince us that things are running smoother now since the po'ce had to come out and stop the husband from slapping his wife around.

Pampa High School Campus News

By VIRGINIA DEWITT

Plunging into the third week of the fifth six weeks, it is already evident that the coming weeks will be marked by contests in the different high school departments.

This weekend the band and choir will be faced with contests. March 5 twenty-eight choir members took top honors at the International League Solo and Ensemble Festival in Canyon, and they are just determined to do the same this time. Hugh Sanders directs the choir, and Harold Brinson directs the band.

Another contest of a different type is in full swing among the Junior Class. Today is the last day that students may turn in petitions for running for Student Council president. All candidates must obtain at least 25 signatures on their petitions, and file the petitions with James Hulet, SC sponsor. Candidates may begin putting up posters today. Campaign speeches and the general election are slated for April 1.

Five Council delegates will attend the Texas Association of Student Council convention next weekend. The state meeting will be held in Hurst.

Delegates attending are Mike Carr, Jim Cornutt, Larry Stephens, Will Walls and Kenneth McWilliams, SC president.

At the same time journalism delegates will be attending the Interscholastic League Press Conference in Austin. The school paper, Little Harvester, and the school yearbook, Harvester, are entered for competition. Individual entries will also be judged.

The Little Harvester won first place in its division at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association held last week in New York. The convention, which lasted the entire week, is the

No End Seen To 12-Day Old Boston Newspaper Strike

BOSTON (UPI) —Boston's newspaper strike dragged into its 12th day today.

Mayor John F. Collins, Gov. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., Traveler and Record-American met late Wednesday with mediators but reported they had been unable to come up with a solution to the strike that is estimated to be costing the Boston economy $1 million a day.

Printers and mailers unions went out March 6, shutting down the Globe, Herald-John A. Volpe, and Sen. The strike already is the second longest against Boston newspapers.

Bergman, Cummings & Co. says that while there may yet be some spectacular upside convulsions to come from the dying cycle, it would regard these as opportune for short term speculative trading only and suggests that investors plan to utilize such strength to further reduce high-risk equity positions.

Interfaith Group Meets On Red Admission in UN

By LOUIS CASSELS
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Delegates to an interfaith conference on peace moved today toward approval of a list of foreign policy recommendations which included admission of Red China to the United Nations and opposition to expansion of the Viet Nam war.

Some 300 Protestant, Catholic and Jewish leaders met for the final session of the three-day conference. Administration spokesmen came in for sharp criticism at the meeting.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey paid an unscheduled visit to the conference late Wednesday night. In an informal talk, he said:

"I did not come here for debate, yet I recognize your right to dissent from the government. I know that we see things differently but I have respect for different points of view."

Humphrey assured the religious leaders that "my doors are open to you." He said he would be glad to "engage in an exchange of views."

"We might find that we may have more in common than we realize."

It was evident during the three days of discussions that conferees covered a wide range of attitudes, from outspoken religious pacifists to those who felt that the United States has a moral obligation to resist Communist take-overs in countries such as Viet Nam.

The nearest approach to consensus appeared to be on the question of relations with Red China. There was strong sentiment in favor of ending the diplomatic isolation of the biggest Asian power, and of supporting its admission to the U.N. as a step toward realistic negotiations for easing of dangerous Far East tensions.

Your Child And School

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Is your child at a properly supervised party, is he participating in wholesome social activities or is he on the brink of disaster? Recent investigations have uncovered widespread use of narcotics by students in prominent suburban communities as well as the previously known use in city slum areas. It is a serious concern for all parents.

Your community may be fortunate not to have a serious problem. However, this does not make it immune. Even one occurrence is serious. A community cannot sit back and assume that nothing will happen. Aggressive steps to educate and protect children are essential.

What can the school do? An educational program should exist. Students and parents should be involved. At least one or more assemblies might be held with follow up discussions and lessons in the classrooms for the students. Existing programs should be studied to determine what additional steps might be taken.

Through the cooperation to police departments with school administrators, there should be thorough investigations of all leads to possible incidents regardless of how vague or questionable they may be. Anyone in the community who suspects a possible incident should report it to the school administration and the police. Information is usually held in the strictest confidence.

Parental influence plays a major role in any effective program. Parents must participate if there is to be 100 per cent success. This is the absolute minimum which can be accepted.

As long as one child is involved there must be concern. The following suggestions may be helpful to parents:

1. A direct discussion of the harmful effects of narcotics should be held with your child. It does not have to be in terms of threats but should be with understanding, firmness and respect.
2. You should be aware of some of the symptoms of drug addiction. They are watery eyes, sniffles, drowsiness, stomach reaction to food, continuous yawning, and needle marks on the body. Obviously these symptoms are not unique to drug addiction. However, if they are continuous, if you have any suspicions, or if you have any doubts, consult your physician.
3. Your child should be warned not to take any pills of any kind from teenagers or anyone else. He should also be urged to report any incident or suspicious overture to you.
4. Be extremely careful to supervise the use of your car or the child's own car. Care should also be taken to ensure proper supervision if your child is going in a friend's car.
5. Know where your child is and that he is properly supervised especially at parties or other social affairs.
6. Be alert, not anxious and alarmed. Use good judgment and develop a mutual respect. There can be the needed success if everyone works cooperatively to educate and protect our children. A full program must involve the total community including the home, school, physicians, police as well as the church and synagogue.

Assembly of God To Hear Missionaries

Retired missionaries J. C. and Mrs. Morrison and their daughter Jeraldine Morrison, will present services at the Bethel Assembly of God Church Sunday.

Rev. William F. Blakley is pastor of the church located on Hamilton at Worrell St.

Rev. and Mrs. Morrison worked in southwest China and northern Burma 38 and 42 years respectively. There they raised a family of four children and helped the natives physically as well as spiritually.

Rev. Morrison taught them better means of agriculture and animal husbandry. However, their prime motive was to win them to Christ and this they did for in their lifetime of ministry there they were responsible for the conversion of 30,000 souls.

Most of these were of the Lisu and Irwaddy tribes. Since their retirement they have made their home in Waxahachie, Tex.

Jeraldine Morrison, their daughter, has just recently arrived in the U. S. from Burma. She continues to minister among these tribal people of northern Burma.

On Saturday at 7:30 p.m. the Morrison's will be showing their slides of Burma. And on Sunday they will minister in both services. Mrs. Morrison will tell of their escape from China when Communism first took over and Rev. Morrison will relate the Communist persecution of the Chinese Christians.

One couple was shot by their own children who had been poisoned by Communism and another man was skinned alive when he attempted to re-enter China and rescue his family. These are some examples of their experiences. The services in which they will minister on Sunday begin at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Strong men blanched and trembled. Women reached for their smelling salts to avoid swooning. Little children huddled fearfully at their mothers' knees.

Was it a tornado that made them cringe so? The abominable snowman? The Loch Ness monster? One of Milton Berle's jokes?

Nay, it was something even more horrifying. It was the news that the nation is facing a shortage of black-eyed peas.

Gad, sir, this is a catastrophe of the first magnitude. If Robert E. Lee had known it was coming he would never have let Kirby Smith surrender in the Trans-Mississippi district.

Grim Tidings

The grim tidings were related to the House Agriculture Committee by John Craddock, a Bells, Tenn., food processor, who said black-eyed peas already were in "extremely short supply." And that is not the worst of it.

The same thing is true of crowder peas and certain other succulent legumes that are lumped together botanically, and on the dinner table, under the title of "field peas."

Once President Johnson becomes aware of the emergency, I am confident he will take any steps necessary to correct the situation. Formation of a national pea policy may be underway.

Release of black-eyed peas from the national stockpile is one possibility, assuming the stockpile managers were foresighted enough to recognize them as strategic materials and put some in storage.

THE WHY of MORAL TRAGEDY

II Kings 17:7

Those acquainted with the history of Israel know that from the death of Solomon until the captivity there was a gradual moral and spiritual decline. Soon after the death of Solomon, the kingdom divided. The ten northern tribes pulled off from the old political kingdom and were known after that as the kingdom of Israel. Two tribes continued together and were known as the Kingdom of Judah. When the ten northern tribes broke away from the old political organization, they also broke away from the religious worship of God in Jerusalem. They erected two altars and worshipped Idols. The gradual decline in morals soon set in.

No man can break away from the church and its worship of God without feeling the effects of it in his own soul. If you see a man begin to worship or serve the god of money or pleasure or fame, you will observe that very soon there begins a moral as well a spiritual decline.

Church attendance is optional as far as choice is concerned, but it is obligatory as far as moral and spiritual welfare is concerned. When Adam and Eve sinned, they failed to meet God at the appointed hour of worship. God was there but Adam and Eve were elsewhere. The first steps to a happy life are the church steps. When we absent ourselves from His place of worship we do so at our peril.

Peter, following Jesus afar off resulted in his denying Christ and the use of profanity.

Israel went on the rocks and the historian here is giving us the cause of its fall. "And it was so because the children of Israel sinned against Jehovah their God". You may write over the door of every prison cell, over every ruined life, over every broken name these same words.

1. First of all there was the base sin of ingratitude.

God had blessed Israel in so many ways. When we cease to praise God from whom all blessings flow, for His wonderful loving kindness, when there is no gratitude for the blessings of God man is in grave danger.

2. Sin of blindness. They failed to see the consequences of their course in life.

Your may spurn and reject God's counsel to save you, but moral tragedy will over take you if you fail to come to God.

Yankees Not The Same Guys

PORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—Times have changed and so have the New York Yankees, which means they don't rate as sure things anymore.

There was a time the mere mention of the Yankee name used to frighten all the other clubs in the American League. That's all changed, too, and all it took to do it was their sixth place finish last year.

Here and there in the other Florida training camps, you'll hear some manager say, "don't discount the Yankees." But you get the feeling he's saying it more out of habit than anything else.

At least four and possibly five other AL clubs look stronger than the Yankees, who are saddled with more question marks than at any time in their recent history.

General Manager Ralph Houk claims the Yanks can win. He's an eternal optimist. Field manager Johnny Keane isn't making any pennant predictions. He's more the realist.

For the Yankees to be anywhere near the factors they once were, Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris, Joe Pepitone, Elston Howard, Al Downing and Jim Bouton will have to do far better than they did last year and someone will have to come along to replace the retired Tony Kubek at shortstop.

That's a tall order, maybe too tall for even the once dominating Yankees.

Mantle, 34, is taking it slow and easy following a recent shoulder operation, and if he isn't ready to go by opening day the Yankees' starting outfield could be composed of Tom Tresh, Maris and Lou Clinton or Roger Repoz.

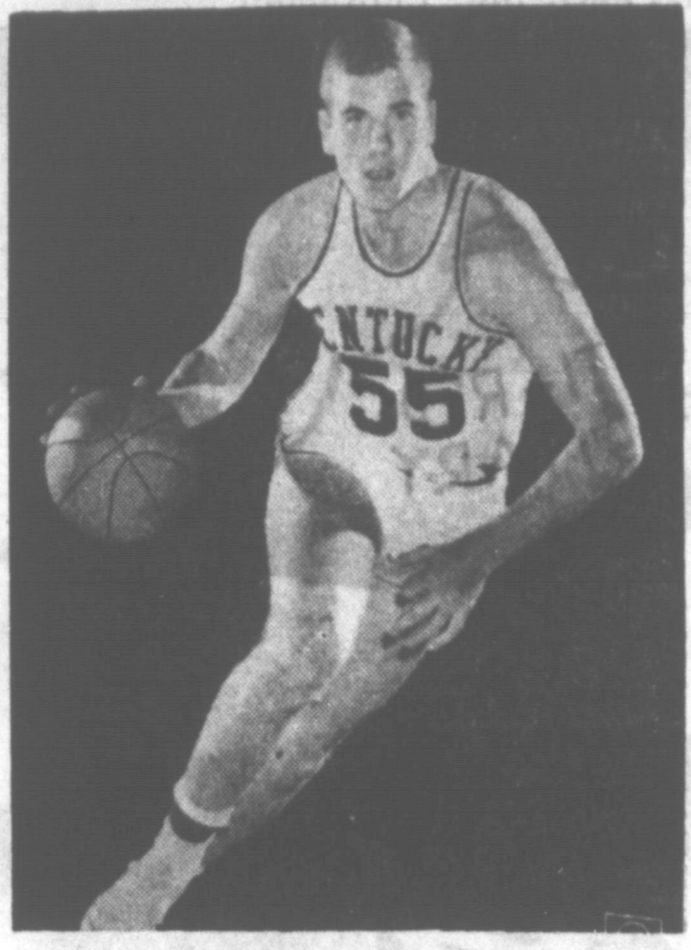

Clinton and Repoz put together are a long way from equalling a sound Mantle even though Mickey dipped to .255 last year. Clinton was with three clubs last year, the Angels, A's and Indians, and failed to hit better than .243 for any of them. Repoz, who might make it some day, batted only .220 in 79 games with the Yanks although he hit .287 for Toledo.

That leaves Tresh and Maris to do it all. Tresh, rapidly becoming the club's top performer, had 74 RBIs and 26 homers to go with his .279 average while Maris, out most of the year with injuries, put together only 27 RBIs, eight homers and a .239 mark in 46 contests.

Hector Lopez (.261) will be the sixth outfielder and might wind up with as much work as last year when he appeared in 111 games.

Pepitone, a recent bridge-groom, is back at first base, determined to improve on his disappointing .247 average and dependable Bobby Richardson will be putting in his last season at second base. He also hit .247 last year and would have quit this winter except both would not retire the same year.

Shortstop is wide open. Ruben Amaro, obtained from the Phillies, for whom he batted .212, has first call because of his fine glove and greater experience but 19-year-old Bobby Murcer could wind up with the job. Murcer hit .322 with Greensboro and .243 in 11 games with the Yankees at the end of the year.

CATMAN — University of Kentucky center Thad Jaracz is only 6-5, but coach Adolph Rupp says he's "as quick as a guard." Jaracz, a sophomore, is the tallest starter for "Rupp's Runts," who this season became one of the Baron's best teams.

Brigham Young To Meet NYU in NIT

NEW YORK (UPI)—Brigham Young, which was whisked into the National Invitation Tournament on a silver platter, and New York University, a local team which had to beg, borrow and steal its way into Madison Square Garden, will meet Saturday for the championship of the nation's oldest post-season basketball tournament.

Brigham Young, the top-seeded squad in the original 14-team field, battled from behind to oust tenacious Army 66-60 and the Violets, one of the last clubs to be selected, stunned Villanova 69-63 in Thursday night's semifinals.

The Cougars, 13-point favorites, had to battle for the lives against the aroused Cadets, the smallest but scrappiest team in the tournament.

Trail At Half
Trailing 31-24 at halftime and 56-54 with three minutes remaining in the game, Brigham Young tied the score at 58-58 when Dick Nemeika was fouled by Army's Bill Helkie and sank both free throws. Substitute guard Jim Jimas, a 6-foot-1 junior making his first appearance in the NIT, stole the ball from Army's Bill Seigle and insured the victory when he dropped in two quick shots in the final seconds.

Brigham Young, averaging 96.7 points per game, had been completely throttled by the aggressive, swarming Army defense in the first half and had left the court trailing 31-24. But Jimas and Steve Kramer, a 6-foot-5 forward who led all scorers with 23 points, recovered from the disastrous first half to lead the Cougars into the finals for the first time since 1951 when they won the tournament in their initial appearance.

Defense Melchionni Well NYU, which hadn't made the finals since 1948 when it finished second to St. Louis, performed an effective defensive job on Villanova's Bill Melchionni, the tournament's high scorer, to earn the berth

Duke, Kentucky Rated Even in NCAA Semi-Finals

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (UPI)—Kentucky and Duke—college basketball's No. 1 and No. 2 teams—were rated even today for their collision course showdown in the opener of the finals of NCAA championship play. Third-ranked Texas Western was favored over unrated Utah in the second contest of tonight's play.

A sellout throng of 14,000 was assured for the Kentucky-Duke battle at 8:30 p.m., CST and the Texas Western-Utah game at 8:30 p.m., CST. The winners will meet for the championship Saturday at 9 p.m., CST.

The pairing of Kentucky's Wildcats (26-1) against the Duke Blue Devils (25-3) had the makings of 1966's basketball epic in the view of most court experts. But no one was discounting the title chances of Texas Western (26-1) or the underdog Utah Redskins (23-6) who scrambled their way into the final foursome on the strength of the red-hot scoring of Jerry Chambers.

In two preliminary tournament games, Chambers has poured in 77 points for the U's and stands a chance to crack the four-game tourney scoring record of 141 set by Clyde Lovellette with Kansas in 1952.

In the Kentucky-Duke struggle, the game of comparative scores indicates virtually nothing. The Wildcats of Coach Adolph Rupp trimmed Michigan 84-77 last weekend to gain the finals. Duke beat the same Michigan team by an identical seven-point margin, 100-93, in an overtime contest during regular season play.

Duke beat Virginia twice, 75-72 and 81-55. Kentucky rolled over the same foe, 96-73. Against Notre Dame, Duke won 65-73; Kentucky did likewise, 103-63.

Powell's Diet Is Helping in Hitting

By United Press International
Baltimore's Boog Powell will never be mistaken for the "thin man" but his close calorie count this past winter has reduced Manager Hank Bauer's spring headaches by one.

Powell, the Orioles' mammoth first baseman, had a serious weight problem last season which caused him to hit only .248 and belt just 17 home runs after leading the American League in slugging percentage in 1964.

Upon Bauer's insistence the slugging first baseman watched his diet this winter and reported to camp at a respectable 240 pounds. Now his sacrifice at the dinner table seems to be earning favorable results.

The 24-year-old star crashed two home runs Thursday, giving him three so far for the spring, to pace the Orioles to a 7-2 triumph over the winless Washington Senators.

Loss Sixth Straight
Powell, who hit 39 round-trippers during the 1964 season, also had a double as the Orioles smacked out 14 hits to hand the Senators their sixth straight exhibition loss. Frank Robinson and Sam Bowens also homered for Baltimore while Ken McMullen connected for Washington.

In other camps: Harmon Killebrew and Don Mincher hit back-to-back homers for the second time this spring to lead the Minnesota Twins to a 5-1 triumph over the New York Yankees. The victory was the first for the Twins after seven straight losses.

Minnesota also made its first cuts of the season, reducing its roster by seven. Infielders Ron Theobald and Ron Clark, catcher Paul Ratliff and pitcher Don Gregson went to Denver while pitcher Chuck Nison, infielder Jim Jenkins and catcher John Sevcik went to the Twins farm camp at Melbourne, Fla., for further assignment.

Dennis McLain and Bill Monbouquette combined on a three-hit shutout as the Detroit Tigers upended the Cincinnati Reds 1-0. The Tigers scored their only run in the sixth on a triple by Jim Northrup and a single by Don Demeter.

Braves Blank Chisox
The Atlanta Braves got even stronger pitching from Denny Lemaster and Ken Johnson as they one-hit the Chicago White Sox 2-0.

Lemaster, a southpaw, became the first Braves pitcher to work four innings. He allowed only an infield single to Ken Berry while Johnson walked two and hit one batter in a five-inning stint.

Tom Reynolds cracked a home run with one out in the ninth inning off Pete Mikkelsen to propel the Kansas City Athletics to a 3-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The triumph was the A's fifth straight after an opening loss.

Rusty Staub slammed a three-run homer to lead the Houston Astros to a 7-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Staub's blast came in the third inning following a single by Lee Maye and a walk.

The St. Louis Cardinals bunched five of their eight hits with a damaging error for four runs in the first two innings to whip the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3. The Dodgers, who have not won a game in five outings, ended a 34-inning scoreless skinn when Jim Lefebvre hit a three-run homer in the ninth.

The New York Mets and the Philadelphia Phillies, who played an 18-inning scoreless tie last September, went 15 innings deadlocked at 3-3 before the game was halted. Clean Jones homered for the Mets.

Cleveland's ace lefty Sam McDowell was tagged for three runs in the seventh inning as the Chicago Cubs topped the Indians 8-6. The Cubs slugged 15 hits off Gary Bell, McDowell and Bob Allen while the Indians countered with 12 hits off Cub hurler Chico Salmon hit an inside-the-park homer for the Tribe.

The San Francisco Giants, despite the absence of Willie Mays, ran their exhibition string to six straight as they walloped the California Angels 13-1. Rookie catcher Bob Barton led the Giants' 20-hit attack with two singles, a double and a triple.

Giant Vice-President Charles (Chub) Feeney also said that he had contacted holdout pitcher Juan Marichal but was "still far apart" in negotiations with the ace hurler.

Mickey in Three Way Tie at 68

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Former golfing queen Mickey Wright was in a three-way tie for first going into today's second round of the $10,000 St. Petersburg Women's Golf Tournament in her battle for an unprecedented third title.

The long-ball hitting Texan was tied with veteran Marilynn Smith of Jupiter, Fla. and Carol Mann of Towson, Md., at three-under-par 68.

Two strokes off the pace after the first 18 holes was July Kimball of Dallas, while three players were tied at 72. They were defending champion Kathy Whitworth of San Antonio, Judy Torluemeke of Key Largo, Fla., and Ruth Jensen of Seattle.

Miss Wright, Dallas, went into semi-retirement last summer to return to college, but she looked in great shape in Thursday's first round.

She toured the par 71, 6,294-yard Sunset Golf and Country Club course in 35-33 — 68 with five birdies and two bogeys.

Snead Fires Sizzling 66

ORLANDO, Fla. (UPI)—Old pro Sam Snead isn't particularly impressed by the sizzling 15 that made him the leader going into today's second round of the $110,000 Citrus Open—richest tournament so far this year on the PGA trail.

"Shucks," said the 53-year-old West Virginian, after trimming five strokes off par on the tough Rio Pinar course Thursday, "that'll never hold up."

Then, without appearing concerned about whether it would or not, Snead, who has been golfing for cash for 32 years, got out his fishing pole and headed for a nearby lake.

QUESTION: "Is it true that if one seeks happiness for himself it will flee from him, but if he seeks to be of service to others, happiness will be his constant companion?"

ANSWER: That seems to be the history of happiness. That the man who has regard for other people, as well as himself, and believes that every transaction should make both parties happy and profitable is in a position to be happy.

Solon Asks for Probe Of Paper Price Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. James J. Howard, D-N.J., asked the State and Justice Departments Tuesday to investigate major Canadian newspaper producers who have raised prices by $10 per ton.
Howard acted at the request of Thomas B. Tighe, president of the New Jersey Press Association and general manager of the Asbury Park (N.J.) Press.
In a telegram, Tighe complained that "American newspapers, their advertisers, and their readers cannot afford to be captives of a Canadian newsprint cartel."
Meanwhile, however, three American newsprint producers also announced that because of rising costs they would follow the lead of the Canadians by increasing prices of paper used in the printing of newspapers.
Howard said he was uncertain whether the Canadian and American producers were in the wrong in hiking prices, but he assured Tighe "I do understand your concern over the situation."
He said he asked the congressional liaison officer handling Canadian affairs at the State Department to investigate the situation along with the Antitrust Division of the Justice Department.
He also said he planned to ask Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and its antitrust subcommittee, to see if a full congressional investigation is warranted.
Celler told a newsman that his antitrust subcommittee tried to investigate newsprint prices some years ago and ran into a blank wall when Canadian producers shifted their records outside the United States.
The Kimberly-Clark Corp. of Chicago and the Great Northern Paper Co. of New York both announced newsprint price increases of $6 a ton. International Paper Sales Co., Inc. of Montreal announced an increase of $7 a ton to $141.

Tighe said the Canadian action will amount to cost increases to American newspapers of at least $75 million. He said the result would be either smaller newspapers or higher circulation and advertising charges.

Television in Review

By RICK DU BROW
Unifil Press International
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —Each Friday in this town, one can pick up the two daily show business trade papers and, by turning to a weekly section of real estate ads, understand a little more the dreams of movie and television people.
For here are the sometimes other worldly temptations and lures that require big money, plenty of it in an unending supply—the expressions of glamorous material desires that may prompt fierce battling for, say, a television series.
It is not too unusual to see occasional ads for homes that are priced near $200,000, but since tax time is approaching it seems a little indecent to talk in such terms, so here are some examples of ads that are more modest, yet still hold the siren call.
One of my favorites said: "Fantastic! Beverly Hills. $5,000 full down! Star's former estate. 11 room mansion—pool. Cable car—spectacular view. Beverly Hills Hotel." Needs work—bargain. Near Beverly Hills Hotel."
Out of curiosity, I called up, made an appointment to see the place, and it was fantastic indeed, although it did need a little work. Among the choice attractions were a ballroom and a splendid old-fashioned section for billiards, as well as a spellbinding collection of other unusually arranged rooms. I was told the house once belonged to Lionel Barrymore. The full price, I was also told, was about $90,000.
Consider this appealing ad: "A stunning new home in old Bel Air for the person who demands privacy plus an exquisite panoramic view of ocean & city. A modern castle of your very own—yet built for elegant informal living at its best!" Price: $125,000.
Women in Mexico voted for the first time in the 1958 presidential election.

Francois Villon, French lyric poet, was known as the "vagabond poet."
"Whiskey" is a word came into common usage in the 13th century.
