Worried Lawmakers Open 89th Congress

Hopes For Strike End Evaporates

NEW YORK (UPI)—Negotiations called at City Hall by Mayor John V. Lindsay in a personal effort to end the 10-day-old bus and subway strike broke up without visible result today while another mammoth traffic jam built up in the city's streets.

About 6:15 a.m., EST, negotiators for the striking Transit Authority, and members of the mediation panel emerged from a meeting room, mostly without comment.

Chairman Dr. Nathan Feinsinger indicated there had been some narrowing down on all issues except the key one—money.

But Lindsay, drawn and haggard, the man who brought the talkers to City Hall shortly after 5 p.m., Sunday, said only: "The panel has declared a recess. There is no agreement. I will make a statement to the public after the noon hour." The TWU has called a noon rally outside City Hall, hoping it will prove a rallying point to demonstrate the solidarity of other unions' backing.

Lindsay indicated talks will resume later today at an unspecified hour, and they again will take place at City Hall.

Away from the press of negotiations, and occupied with the mounting pressure of autos funneling into the city's streets through its bottlenecks of bridges and tunnels, Traffic Commissioner Henry A. Barnes said that it appeared the crush might exceed the record concentration of Friday.

There were signs, based on reports from more than 30 mobile units throughout the city area, that motorists were making earlier than usual starts from their homes.

During the weekend, Barnes and Police Commissioner Vincent Broderick announced changes in the routing of traffic through tunnels and over bridges designed to open additional lanes for incoming vehicles. But getting to work was impossible for the city's slum-dwellers, miles removed from their jobs. And for them, the New York Commerce and Industry Association said, the strike had imposed the greatest hardship since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

PIF Elects Gene Green President

New officers of the Pampa Industrial Foundation were elected in a meeting this morning at the Chamber of Commerce conference room.

E. L. Green Jr., general manager of the Cabot Corporation was elected foundation president for the coming fiscal year. Green replaces Frank Culbertson, president of Culbertson-Stowers Chevrolet Co., who has been foundation president since its organization 18 months ago.

Culbertson was elected one of three vice presidents of the organization. The other two are Aubrey Steele, executive vice president of Security Federal Savings and Loan Association, and Hugh Burdette, member of the executive committee of Cabot Corporation.

New treasurers of the Industrial Foundation are Floyd Imel, president of Citizens Bank and Trust Co., and A. A. Schuneman, chairman and chief executive officer of the First National Bank.

Selected chairman of advertising and publicity was Bill Power, general manager of the Pampa Daily News.

E. O. Wedgeworth, general manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, was re-elected executive vice president of the foundation.

The Industrial Foundation was formed to attract new businesses and industry to Pampa

LOS ANGELES — Superior Court Commissioner Roland Truman last Friday granted Mrs. Dorothy Anne Waide a divorce from her husband, Daniel, on grounds of cruelty.

All Eyes Focus On Johnson And Critical Viet Nam Situation

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Lawmakers, worried about the war in Viet Nam, the one against poverty and the voters back home, assembled today for the opening of the second session of the 89th Congress.

Many members prepared for what promised to be an uphill road by attending a special congressional service at the National Presbyterian Church.

President Johnson joined them in seeking spiritual guidance before the opening gavels were sounded at noon.

After routine opening ceremonies both the House and Senate planned to forego any real business until Johnson delivers his televised State-of-the-Union address to a joint session at 9 p.m. Wednesday.

The big question was what Johnson would say about prospects for peace — or a hotter war — in Viet Nam and what sort of balance he proposed to strike between spending at home and abroad.

But the political jockeying on Capitol Hill had already begun. Outnumbered Republicans, who failed to dent Johnson's great society legislative program in the 89th's historic first session, made "guns or butter" their battle cry for the second.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen fixed his economy sights especially on the home-front antipoverly war. He said such domestic welfare programs just getting cranked up should be "cut back — put on ice — maybe cut out entirely" in light of soaring costs of the Viet Nam fighting.

Democratic leaders rallied their forces against crippling appropriations cuts in home domestic front programs. But they concurred with Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's judgment that little new domestic legislation would be pushed to enactment.

Voters Watching 425 Congressmen And 35 Senators

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Hopeful Republicans and cautious Democrats today began a congressional session that will bring 425 House members and 35 senators to an election day accounting with their constituents Nov. 8.

With history indicating the GOP has an edge, the Republicans hope the Viet Nam situation and any reductions in domestic spending that might be needed to meet the costs of the conflict.

As Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois put it today in an interview: "Parties do not defeat each other. Generally speaking, parties defeat themselves."

"A party becomes the victim of its mistakes and of its blunders because these are communicated to the public quickly through newspapers and news magazines."

Dirksen was setting the tone for his GOP associates who hope the Democrats might be hit hard by public disenchantment with the Viet Nam situation, should peace efforts fail.

Dirksen believes the GOP has a good chance to make substantial gains in the 1966 elections, wiping out some of the losses it felt in the Johnson landslide of 1964.

House Republicans are already talking about picking up 30 seats in the chamber where Democrats now have 293 seats to their 140.

Anything less, the Republicans said, would be a defeat.

Ike Makes Quick Pampa Stopover

Former President Dwight Eisenhower passed through Pampa at 9:15 Sunday morning aboard the Sante Fe Superchief. He did not get off the train but waved through a window at some 25 or more Pampans who gathered at the station to see him.

The ex-president was on his way to his Palm Springs winter home after a medical check-up at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

More than 100 persons awaited Ike in Amarillo, but again, possibly because of his health, he did not get off the train nor walk out on the rear platform.

Mrs. Billie Bruner, account number clerk, is explaining the importance of the card.

White Deer Resident Killed in Accident

A White Deer man was killed and two Pampans injured in an auto accident early Sunday morning near Elk City, Okla.

Dead was Floyd Glen Sharum, 37, of White Deer. Injured were Chris Walsh, 1229 Duncan, who suffered chest injuries and facial lacerations; Mrs. Walsh, with two broken legs; John Wilson Sharum, Berlin, Okla., a passenger in Sharum's car, fractured skull and facial lacerations; and Paula Faye West of Sayre, Okla., also a passenger in Sharum's car, fractured skull and facial lacerations.

All four of the injured were reported in satisfactory condition this morning at the Elk City Memorial Hospital.

According to Oklahoma State Policeman Elmer Williams, the accident occurred a mile and a half east of Elk City on US 66, where a new road is under construction.

The highway narrows to two lanes at the point where the accident happened, Williams said, and the Sharum car was in the wrong lane. He said Sharum knocked over five barriers in the center of the road before hitting the Walsh car head-on.

Both cars were demolished, Williams said.

CHILDREN BURNED — BEECHVILLE, N.S. (UPI) — Two teen-aged sisters died Sunday in a vain effort to save their little sisters from a fire which swept through their home in this town 10 miles from Halifax.

The blaze broke out in the home of Earl Dorrington and before 5 a.m. Dorrington and six of his eight children fled safely from their home but the two oldest—Barbara, 17 and Phyllis, 15, returned to the burning building to attempt to rescue Noreen, 5, and Pauline, 1.

Lynd said in an airport news conference that Hanoi had insisted that "an unambiguous decision by the United States to withdraw all its troops from Viet Nam" was a "precondition" to any negotiations on the future of the country.

But, he added, "every indication is that there is no explicit requirement of the physical withdrawal of all United States troops prior to negotiations."

Lynd also reported that he found no indication of a direct approach by the U.S. government to representatives of the

Yale Professor Claims Hanoi Will Negotiate Peace

NEW YORK (UPI)—A Yale professor returned from an unauthorized peace mission to North Viet Nam Sunday night convinced that Hanoi was willing to negotiate a settlement of the war in Viet Nam before actual withdrawal of all U.S. troops.

Staughton Lynd, 36, an assistant professor of history, spent 10 days in North Viet Nam in violation of State Department regulations. He was accompanied on the trip by Herbert Aptheker of New York, a leading communist theoretician who heads the American Institute for Marxist Studies, and Thomas Hayden, 26, of Newark, N.J., founder of Students for a Democratic Society.

They were processed routinely by Immigration officials at Kennedy International Airport although their passports were not valid for travel to North Viet Nam.

There was no indication at the airport of impending action against them by the State or Justice Department.

Capping Exercises Held For Vocational Nursing Students

Fifteen vocational nursing students were capped in exercises Friday evening in First Methodist Church, after completing their pre-clinical period in Highland General Hospital School of Vocational Nursing.

Mrs. R. O. Linville, R. N., director of the school, and Miss Verdel Meador, R. N., director of nursing service at Highland General, officiated the capping exercises.

The students began their study on Aug. 30, 1965. They are now starting the clinical area of study which includes experience working with medical, surgical, obstetrical, newborn nursery and recovery room patients. At the end of this period they will have completed 520 class hours and 1,354 experience hours and will be qualified for the State Board examinations to be taken in Austin. Their training period will be completed Aug. 29.

Mrs. Linville, class instructor, attended a 30 hour course in Techniques of Instruction, required by the Texas State Board of Examiners, at the University of Texas, receiving her certificate in November.

Dear Abby... Serviceman's Wife Created a Blizzard

DEAR ABBY: A colonel suggested that a service wife with a grievance against her husband would get quicker results by writing directly to her husband's Commanding Officer rather than to her Congressman. I am a retired Army major, and hear this:

One lady, whose philtering husband ran my operations section, wrote to me with her complaints. I called the sergeant in and we had a little chat. Then I sat down and wrote the wife the usual letter: "I have discussed the matter with your husband, et cetera, et cetera, et cetera." Well, it seems this gal was singularly unimpressed with my "et ceteras," so she unlimbered her typewriter and gave out with an encore. She wrote not only to her Congressman, but to both her senators, and to the Chief of Staff, and to the Adjutant General, and to the Chief of Chaplains, and to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense. And to top it off, she wrote to the President of the United States and Mrs. Eisenhower!

Students capped were Mary Audleman and Linda Crabtree of Lefors, Norene Carr and Esther Rowley of Canadian, Louella Hall of McLean, Joyce Martin of Shamrock and Wanda Carver, Phyllis Culbertson, Londa Etheredge, Doris Heller, Imogene Murrell, Evelyn Rager, Jewell Spence, Pottie Utzman and Joan Varnell, all of Pampa.

MAJOR, USAR (RETIRED)

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 years old and in our house we have this rule: Nobody can accept a telephone call during supper time. Well, I have told this to all my friends, but this one girl, no matter how many times I tell her, always calls me during the supper hour and I have to say, "I'll call you back later." But she says, "I just want to say this one little thing," and she goes right on talking, and then I get into trouble. I have even tried hanging up on her, but she calls back. My family would never just let the phone ring, so this puts me in a very awkward and embarrassing position. Please help me.

B. G. Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DEAR B. G.: Don't answer the telephone during mealtime, and if she calls, ask who ever answers the phone to say that you are having your supper and cannot leave the table.

DEAR ABBY: Will you please tell me why people will not make reservations for dinners at civic clubs and church dinners? Then they show up at the last minute, sometimes bringing a guest or two. They seem to think that "one or two more" won't matter, but if you have to feed 25 or 30 more than you planned on, it makes a whale of a lot of difference. I would like to have the hat they think we pull our food out of.

COLD - SINUS

Miseries?
Is your head pounding—nose running—are your eyes watering and are you sneezing—sneezing—sneezing?

Have you blown your nose until it is raw?

We're sorry you're suffering so because obviously you're not aware of our product SYNA-CLEAR and this is our fault.

SYNA-CLEAR is the original timed release tablet that gives up to eight hours of real relief from cold symptoms and clogged up sinuses.

We do not have millions to spend on T. V. to tell you about SYNA-CLEAR just this small ad. We do not gimmick our Advertising and product by offering twelve hours of medication. What is medication without relief?

SYNA-CLEAR is what we offer and it gives you eight hours relief per tablet or your money back in full.

We could go into detail how our product works and about the fine formula, but we would rather you ask the experts about SYNA-CLEAR. The druggist at the store listed below or your family doctor can tell you about the merits of our fine formula.

SYNA-CLEAR costs more ($1.50 & $3.00 sizes) because it does more. You're buying relief and not gimmicks.

Try SYNA-CLEAR as soon as possible—you know—all your miseries are all you can lose.

This little ad has an awful big job to do—to get you to try SYNA-CLEAR, so as a bonus, cut me out and send in with an empty SYNA-CLEAR carton and we'll mail you a check for 50¢ for just trying SYNA-CLEAR. If you have time to tell us about the results SYNA-CLEAR gave you, we would be pleased to hear from you.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR TUESDAY, JAN. 11
GENERAL FORECAST: You are now able to discard those New Year resolutions and first-of-the-year plans you have made in a working mood by putting every item and particular in its right place. Instead of expanding, reduce your ideas to a successful expression by a very conscientious course in which serving and doing the others is a part.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Apr. 18) - Getting on to the right places in order to accomplish what you have in mind to hold the battle now. Be more systematic. Impress others with your ability to deliver, no matter what the task on hand.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) - Getting into some hobby that you have enjoyed before will help you to relax and be "on" with your friends. Get some of those hidden talents out. Why not take a little time and experiment?

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) - Instead of being so critical, use energy to better all about you, especially at home. Please be kind. Know the cause behind your possible lack of progress and remove them. Get along faster.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) - A very busy partner has the right advice so you can get your problems cleared up nicely. Follow it. Sociability brings excellent results, even though you may not think so at the moment.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) - Carry through with systems that have proved successful in the past and increase present benefits. You have a clear picture of what you position is with others. Be generous of spirit with others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) - You are able to get fine new ideas and meet worthwhile persons, so keep right on the ball and get ahead. Don't procrastinate any further. Make plans intelligently and then push ahead on them.

ARIES (Jan. 21 to Feb. 18) - You have many responsibilities to meet, so get at them as quickly as you can. They are not so hard as you may think at the moment. Don't be reticent with mass - do what is, or the experts from you.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) - Long discussions with associates—such problems as how best to reach in the better understanding, more intelligent methods adopted. Get busy on civic or public work. Make the most of present good conditions there.

Scouting Scoops

By Mrs. G. J. Boyd

The annual council meeting is scheduled for Jan. 23 and all delegates should have their tickets by Jan. 18. They may purchase their banquet tickets during neighborhood meetings or at the Girl Scout office. The decorations for the banquet are keeping the following troops busy for the next two weeks...

Troop 2, Mrs. J. P. Brunley;
Troop 54, Mrs. Raymond Laycock;
Troop 56, Mrs. Charles Casey;
Troop 26, Mrs. R. W. Stowers and Troop 14, Mrs. E. A. McLennan.

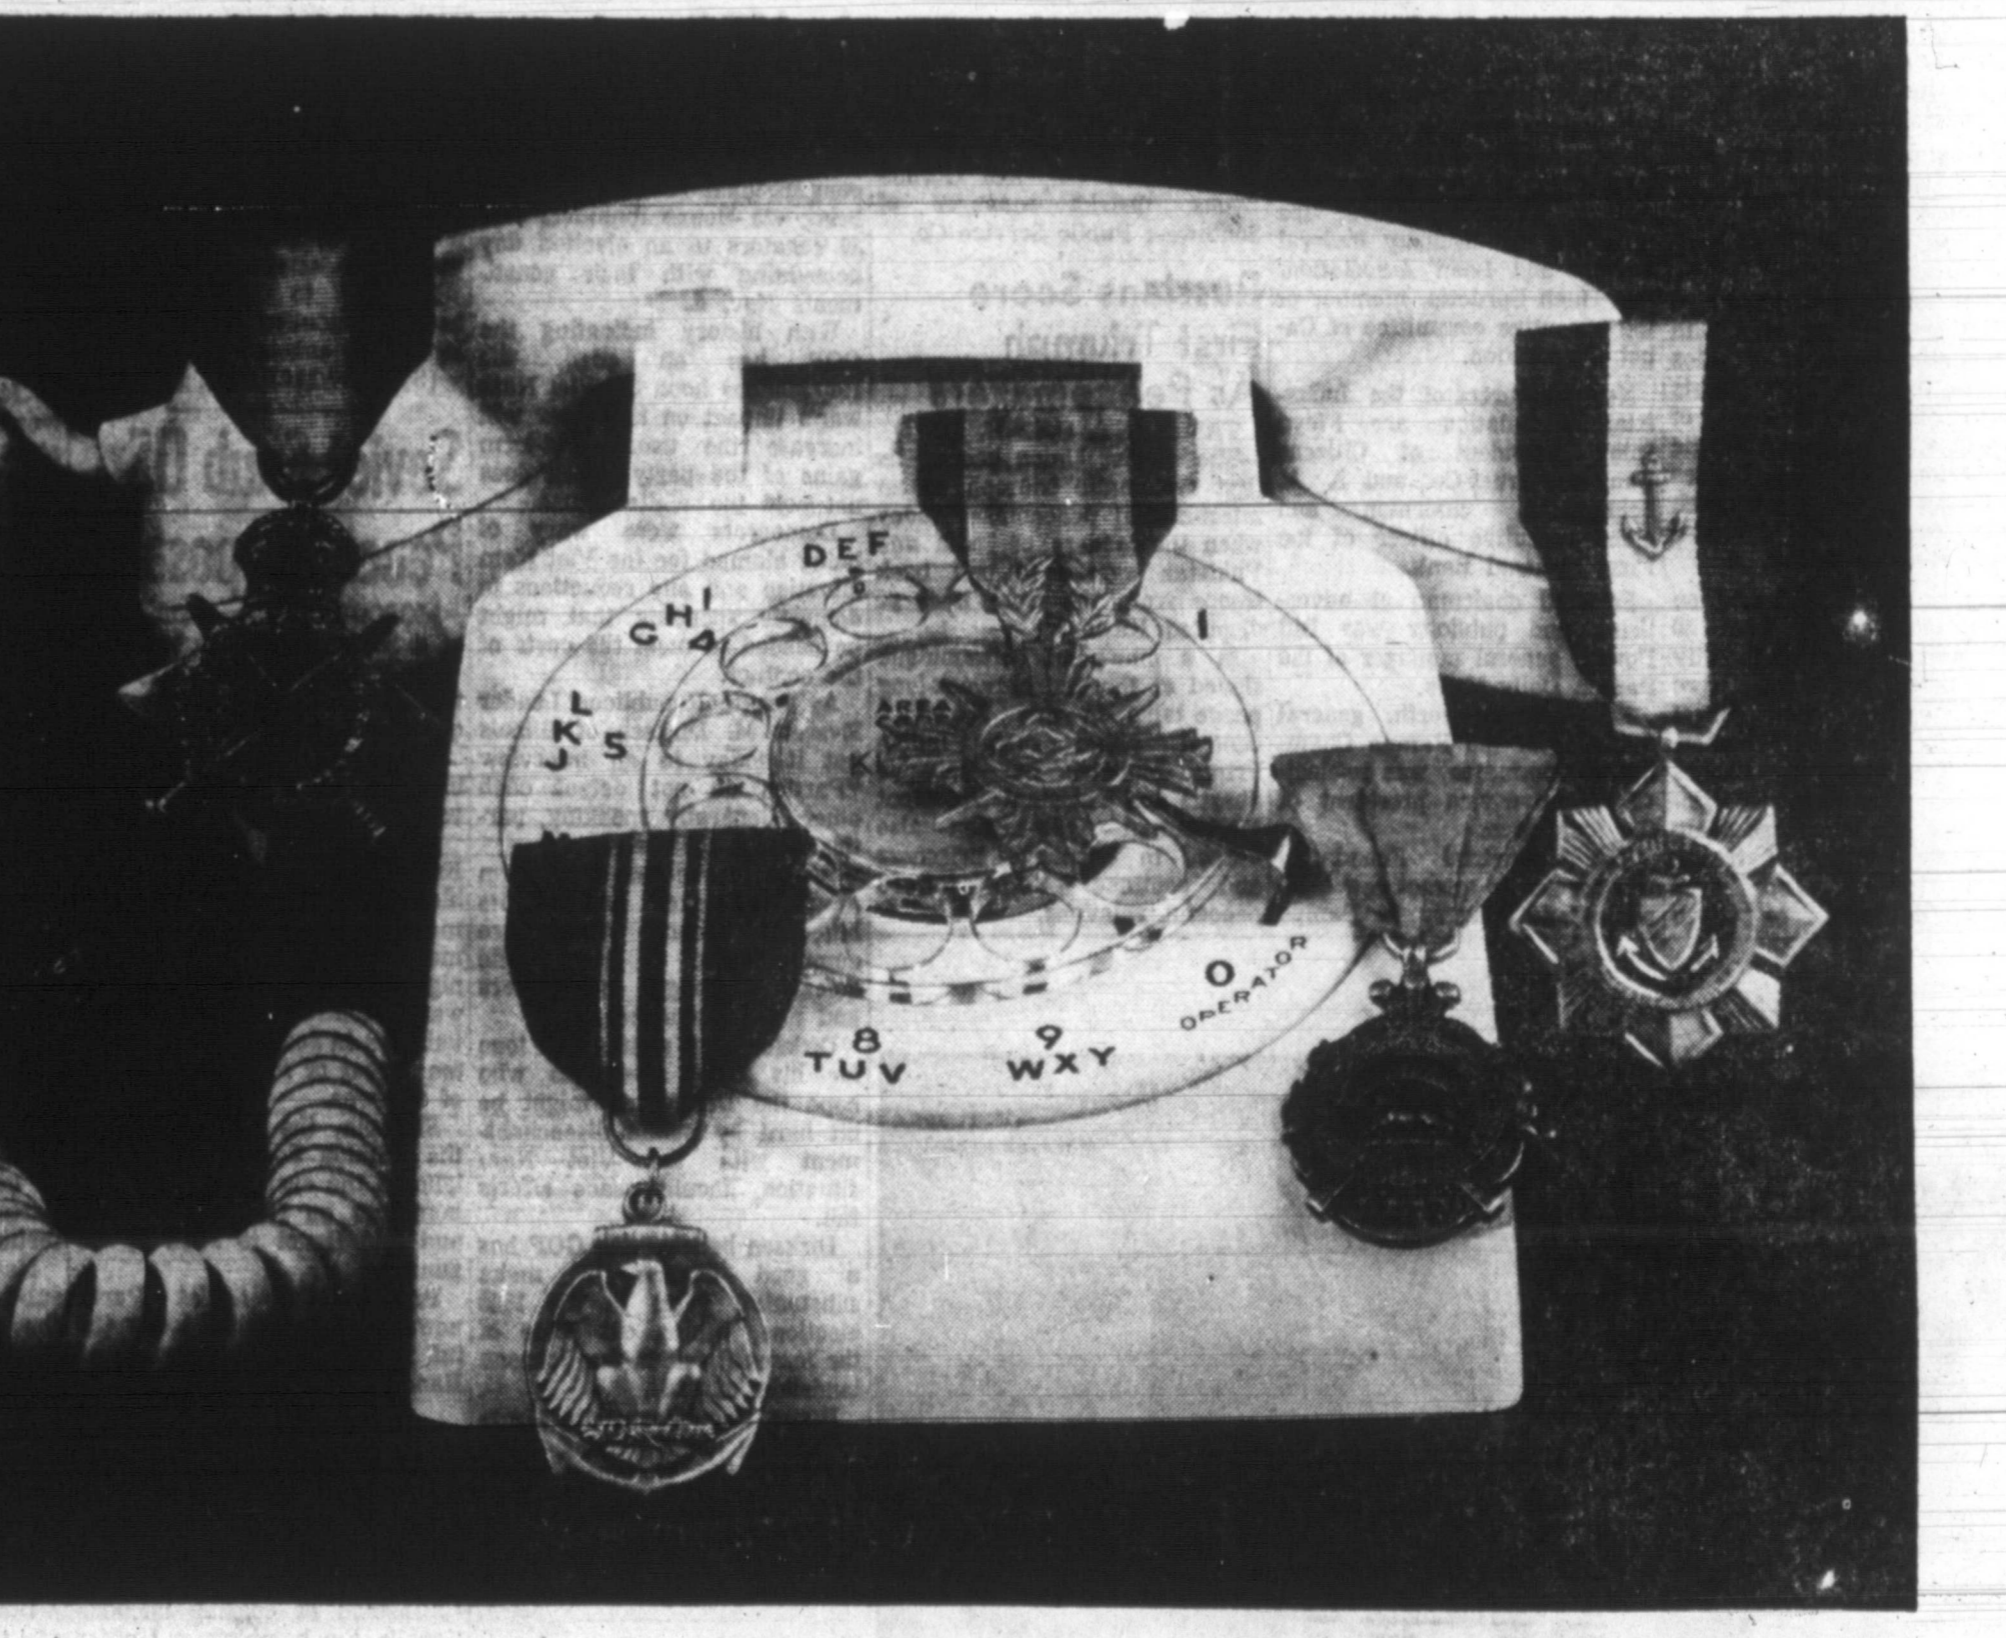

Understand the party held by the troops at Austin School was a great success. Junior troops represented were Mrs. W. J. Felter, Troop 1, gave a coral reading "Teddy Bear Blue"; Troop 218, Mrs. J. R. Newman, "Little Drummer Boy"; Troop 24, Mrs. Ben D. Fallon, all the verses of "Deck the Halls"; Troop 11, Mrs. W. R. Woodward, "Twelve Days Til Christmas" and Troop 12, Mrs. W. J. Craig, presented a short play "Best Gift of All". A cute skit "This is Christmastime" was acted out by Brownie Troop 27, Mrs. Jack Hall. Also a hilarious skit "Trials of Santa Claus", complete with bells and "Ho, ho, ho's", was presented by Cadette Troop 26, Mrs. R. W. Stowers, as leader. Troop 11 was responsible for the table decorations, home made cookies and punch were served to the group. Understand that the group singing, led by troop 26, was quite "lively" and was the hit of the evening.

The neighborhood meetings will be held at the Girl Scout Little House this week. Tuesday morning, 9:30, Sunrise Neighborhood and Thursday morning, 9:30, Highland Neighborhood. Leaders should make an effort to attend or have your troop represented by some member of your committee.

The Cadette and Junior workshop will be held on Jan. 17, 24, and 27 at the Girl Scout Little House. Starting time will be 9:30 a.m. and conclude by 2:30 p.m. Mrs. N. G. Kadingo and Mrs. Jim Terrell will conduct the workshop.

Mrs. Jackson Black reported that their troop will have finished the first aid course Saturday. This course has consisted of many meetings that lasted a hour and a half and the girls of Troop 54, their leader, Mrs. Raymond Laycock and Mrs. Black, assistant leader, and the instructor Mrs. Estes should feel quite proud. As their "Project in Action" project this troop has placed a bookcase complete with small books in the hospital.

The Girl Scout cookies will be on sale in March. Co-chairmen for the sales are Mrs. R. R. Jorlan and Mrs. Jack Miller. They will work directly with the chairman from each neighborhood in organizing the sales program. Much work and many details must be attended to before the Girl Scout rings your doorbell with those boxes of cookies.

Hero

Sure it is. The telephone helps save lives, catch criminals, put out fires, bring help and guard homes. It's had a hand in spreading the alert on tornadoes, floods and hurricanes. It can bring the doctor, the fireman or the policeman—in a hurry. And being a modest hero, it can also do less dramatic things. Like letting you talk with friends and loved ones around town or around the world, quickly and easily. Or letting you shop from your easy chair, call ahead for reservations and do a thousand other things that make life richer, more rewarding, more fun. Isn't it nice to have a hero around the house?

Convening in Washington, D.C., today is a war Congress awaiting the advice and counsel of a war President. War is the grim fact of life as the second session of the 89th Congress gets underway.

The war is a big one and growing. The American people do not know how they got into this war. For that matter neither do the leaders and spokesmen for the American people. No one knows either how to get out of the war in Southeast Asia.

In his great drive for government by consensus, President Johnson has failed utterly to obtain consensus on foreign policy. In foreign affairs, Johnson's policies must be written off for now as failures. They have failed in the two vital areas in which foreign policy must succeed— or else. LBJ foreign policies have failed to obtain enthusiastic, aggressive major support at home. They have failed abroad to accomplish the results sought.

So it is that the drive and direction of U.S. politics have contrived a 180 degree turn since the first session of the 89th Congress met in a false sense of partisan triumph one year ago.

One year ago in his annual message to Congress, LBJ was proclaiming the start of his Great Society. It had something for everybody, paid for with federal funds and at no cost to anybody at all, except of course the hump-backed taxpayer.

Times have changed. While the voters were contemplating the goodies being voted to them as a down payment on Great Society Asia was beginning to develop mean and frightening attributes under which the confidence of the nation's leaders seemed to melt away.

Meantime, the first session of the 89th was over-appropriating and over-promising in an effort to make good on LBJ's Great Society project. President Johnson and his well-disciplined Congress were baking cakes when they should have been moulding bullets. Promises of bigger and better life for all flooded out of the White House and the Congress on every mail and on every electronic wave length. Headed for No. 1 on the hit parade again was that old misleading theme song of FDR's 1936 campaign: Happy Days Are Here Again.
