SEVEN PAMPANS ARE INJURED IN COLLISIONS

QUICK PAVING OF OIL FIELD ROAD SOUGHT

PURPOSE OF MEETING IS TO OBTAIN PAVING

All the power of votes, influence, and statistics will be put behind an effort to obtain hard-surfacing of the unpaved portion of the Pampa-Borger road. It was decided at a meeting here Friday.

Present were Borger and Panhandle representatives and others here for a session on the oil counties' Centennial exhibit.

The group agreed that hope of obtaining work on the basis of a PWA project had vanished. Men eligible for WPA employment in the three counties affected are already assigned. Moreover, there does not appear to be any funds available for a WPA road project.

To clear the way for WPA, the state highway commission several months ago withdrew the temporary designation which had been granted the Pampa-Borger road. Now that no WPA projects have developed, road men will seek replacement of that designation or a commitment of equal or greater value.

Repeated assurances have been given by the highway commission that the road will be built. Starting at least a part of the paving will be sought immediately.

Those present at the session here included C. E. Stahl, Howard Arrberg, Monty Wolford, and Clyde Caruth of Borger; County Judge Jackson of Panhandle; Wilt Springer and C. O. Greene, McLean; L. G. Daugherty and W. K. Cottin-gue, Dumas; J. W. Knorrp and Mr. Martin of Groom, and the Pampa delegation.

It was brought out that there are considerably more votes in Rutehinson, Carson, and Gray counties than in many of the well-known cities of the state. These counties have approximately 12,323 voters this year, according to poll tax payments.

The oil-county Centennial exhibit will probably be based on a huge animated map of this territory, with highways, industries, and railroads shown in colored neon lighting, keyed with a motion picture story of this area. Plans are being drawn and prices estimated.

John White Is Candidate for Commissioner

John R. White of Laketon has authorized The NEWS to announce his candidacy for the office of commissioner, precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. White said that he will base his campaign on his record in the office during a six-year tenure. He stated that he believes in lowering taxes instead of raising them. Mr. White is a long-time resident of precinct No. 1.

Charters To Be Awarded Masons

Grand High Priest J. H. Moore will constitute Pampa chapter Royal Arch Masons and Pampa Council Royal Arch Masons, and Masters, delivering new charters tomorrow. The Grand Chapter will open at 1:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple in the White Deer Land building. Installation of officers will be followed by the conferring of degrees on several candidates.

Everyone eligible to attend is urged to be present at the afternoon session or at a night meeting which will be held.

Alton Sewell was to leave Pampa-Jarrett hospital today.

'Ad' Manager of Radio Station Is Joe Bryant

That rangy, active young man rushing about on Pampa streets with contract blanks in his hand is Joseph Houston Bryant, assistant manager of radio station KPND and its commercial manager. He comes here from Longview.

Bryant is seeing prospective radio advertisers and exchanging merchandising ideas in preparation for the opening of KPND early next month. Joe, as he is best known, has had much radio merchandising experience and is an expert continuity writer.

A number of merchants are closing negotiations for choice spots in the station's daily program.

Until the studio is completed, Bryant is making his headquarters at The NEWS building, along with R. McKenzie, station manager. Work on all phases of the station's construction is going forward.

The station officials may be reached over The NEWS' telephone, 666 and 667.

COOK STOVE NEEDED
An oil cook stove is needed for a worthy relief case here. Any person having a stove they would give to the family should get in touch with the local office of the Texas Relief administration in the basement of the city hall.

From Hamburgers To Oil Riches Is Pat's Story

MOUNT PLEASANT, Feb. 15. (AP)—Ten days ago John Patrick Temples bent over a greasy cook stove in a side street restaurant, stirred stew and earned his $4 per week.

Today, Temples continued to stir stew and serve "the best hamburgers in Titus county"—and thumb a brand new bank deposit book that may soon list him as a moneyed man.

Pat's stew stirring was interrupted ten days ago when excited customers relayed the news of the Talco oil discovery 12 miles north of town. It was big news for Pat for the Temples family farm is located not far from the well site.

Oil lease hounds poured into the tiny restaurant, interrupted his cooking and dish washing with offers that reached $20,000 even in the first stage of the boom.

Pat kept the job and reports were that he had already banked $6,000 but was holding back on the major portion of his property to await results at the Peveo wildcat test next Wednesday. Lease and royalty trading has been wild in the section since oil spouted from wildcat derricks. It is 60 miles from the nearest producing field.

ILLNESS FATAL TO W. J. BROWN, LOCAL PIONEER

Funeral To Be Held On Tomorrow Afternoon

W. J. Brown, 58, longtime resident of this section, died in a local hospital late Friday night. He had been in failing health for some time and only recently returned from Arkansas, where he had gone in treatment. He underwent an operation two weeks ago but it was unsuccessful.

In 1898, he married Miss Laura Della Price and to them was born 12 children, 11 of whom still live. A daughter, Irene Brown, died in 1908 and was buried at Barton Springs, where the family then resided.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to the Panhandle in 1909, settling on a farm near Pampa. There they raised their family, the boys being particularly prominent in athletics in Pampa high school.

Mr. Brown was an active member of the Odd Fellows lodge. He held every office in the Pampa lodge, was a district deputy, and held memberships and offices in the Encampment and Canton. Odd Fellows from the entire Panhandle will attend the funeral and will conduct services at the grave.

Surviving Mr. Brown are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Mary Ellen Lewis, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Mrs. Myrtle Lucille Atkinson, Pampa, and eight sons, N. Park Brown, James Arthur Brown, Joe Franklin Brown, Redgie Cleo Brown, W. J. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon in the First Baptist church of which Mr. Brown was a member. A lifelong friend, the Rev. H. R. Whaley of Haskell, and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the Baptist church here, will officiate. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery in charge of the G. C. Malone Funeral home. The body will lie in state at the funeral home until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

War Threatens After Another Mongolian Clash

SOVIET UNION TO STAND PAT ON ITS LINES

DIPLOMATS CONFIDENT SITUATION WILL BE UNTANGLED

(By The Associated Press.)

A new border clash between Russian-Mongolian and Japanese-directed Manchoukuos brought fresh alarms of war to the Far East.

But diplomats of Russia and Japan said there was no cause for alarm; that they would straighten everything out through diplomatic channels.

An obstacle immediately imposed itself in the way of diplomacy, however, when Moscow suggested that neutrals be called in and Japan insisted negotiations be direct.

TOKYO, Feb. 15. (AP)—A foreign office spokesman said tonight that "nothing serious" was indicated by reports of a new battle between Mongolians and Manchoukuos at the three way juncture of Soviet Russia, Mongolia, and Manchoukuo.

The reports, brought to Tokyo by the Doshu (Japanese) news agency, said 1,000 Mongolians had attacked a military post at Assalsumu, within Manchoukuo.

The border between Manchoukuo and Mongolia is ill-defined. Among the reasons for the present frontier conflicts is the fact that each side claims the other is violating the frontier.

MOSCOW, Feb. 15. (AP)—A government spokesman reaffirmed tonight the soviet union's intention to stand pat on the present border lines in the Far East.

His statement, made on the anniversary of the formation of the soviet frontier troops, came as a new clash along the Mongolian border was reported in Tokyo.

Although Russian government officials expressed belief that a peaceful settlement would be reached in the frontier dispute between Mongolia and Manchoukuo, the official communist party organ, Pravda, warned that:

"Any imperialists attempting aggression will find it fatal to tamper with the soviet frontiers."

The government spokesman said establishment of a mixed commission to investigate border incidents must await word from Tokyo as to whether the soviet suggestion that neutrals be included is acceptable.

The Tokyo and Moscow governments had agreed in principle, it was officially announced, to the formation of such a commission to inquire into the year-long series of clashes.

J. M. Broughton, of counsel for the objectors, filed the appeal notice immediately after the farmer-jury brought in its verdict upholding the contested last testament, which bequeathed the major part of the Statler heiress' half-million dollar estate to her husband, H. Bradley Davidson Jr.

SENATE SENDS FARM BILL TO HOUSE

Getting Warmer

$10,000

Cash and pledges in the Pampa chamber of commerce drive yesterday 1932. The main collecting will not begin until tomorrow. It is the desire of its sponsors that the drive be closed this week.

McNary contended the bill was "unworkable and unconstitutional." He predicted after the senate quit for the day that some state would challenge it in the courts.

Supporters argued it was constitutional under the Supreme Court's interpretation of congress' appropriating authority in its decision killing the AAA which the soil bill is intended to replace.

The bill, introduced by Senator Smith (D., S. C.) as a substitute for a somewhat similar measure by Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) would authorize expenditure of half a billion dollars in federal subsidies to farmers based on their acreage of crop land, soil improving and erosion-preventing crops, changes in farming practices, and a percentage of normal production entering domestic channels.

FUND TO BUILD PAMPA GAINING DAILY IN DRIVE

Total of $962 Given In C. of C. Campaign

The drive moves on, and up. A total of $962 had been pledged yesterday in the finance campaign of the new Pampa chamber of commerce, which is the membership fund affiliated with the B. C. D. and open to all Pampa area folk.

The campaign, however, will be really getting under way tomorrow. Most of the canvassers assigned territory have not yet seen most of the persons on their lists. This week will be the intensive portion of the campaign. Reports will be asked of all workers daily.

Contributions yesterday included: Jones-Everett Machine shop, $50; Lunford Bit shop, $25; L. E. Brickell, $10; Cobb Parts & Equipment company, $25; Wm. T. Fraser company, $50; L. Burney Shell, $5; City Steam Laundry, $25; Ayer Mattress factory, $5.

Previously the following had been received: Johnson Hardware, $25; D. Bozell, $10; Henry L. Jordan, $12; H. W. Waters, $5; Dick Hughes, $10; M. P. Downs, $25; Walter S. Russell company, $20; Chas. Maisel, $25; Panhandle Insurance Agency, $100; J. S. Wynne, $100; Clayton Floral, $25; Cullum & Son, $100; Charley Burton, $25; J. R. Roby, $25; Texas Furniture, $50; Burrows Bakery, $25; M. A. Graham, $25; Pampa News, $50; C. H. Walker, $50; Pampa-Jarrett Hospital, $10; C. D. Knight, $10; J. L. Nance, $10; C. D. Nance, $10; John Bradley, $10; Dr. R. A. Webb, $10.

The purpose of the drive is to put at the disposal of the chamber of commerce the funds necessary to carry out the program which will be adopted at the periodical meetings of all who join the chamber. A directorate of five men will be chosen to serve with five B. C. D. members. This group will consider all kinds of projects and be advisory to the B. C. D. and the chamber.

The group is the answer to the speech of R. L. Thornton of Dallas, who recently said here that "co-ordinated manpower" was needed to build the kind of city Pampa can become.

Membership contributions are not specified as to amounts. Firms chiefly are being solicited, although many individuals will give $10 or more. However, it is emphasized that memberships, rather than contributions, are most desired from individuals.

Firms have been divided according to classifications, listed below. The persons whose names are shown are expected to see all firms under

SENATE GIVES APPROVAL TO SOIL MEASURE

'UNCONSTITUTIONAL' ACT IS PASSED 56 TO 20

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. (AP)—Plowing under bi-partisan opposition by an almost three to one margin, administration forces today won senate passage of the $500,000,000 soil conservation-subsidy brand of crop control.

The bill now goes to the house. The senate vote, climaxing eleven days of debate during which the measure's constitutionality was challenged and defended, was 56 to 20.

Forty-nine democrats, five republicans, the farmer-laborite, Benson, and the progressive, LaFollette, voted for the bill. Nine democrats and 11 republicans opposed it.

Just before the last roll call, a motion by Senator McNary, the republican leader, to send the bill back to committee with instructions to report out a new proposal in three weeks, was rejected 54 to 21.

McNary contended the bill was "unworkable and unconstitutional." He predicted after the senate quit for the day that some state would challenge it in the courts.

Supporters argued it was constitutional under the Supreme Court's interpretation of congress' appropriating authority in its decision killing the AAA which the soil bill is intended to replace.

The bill, introduced by Senator Smith (D., S. C.) as a substitute for a somewhat similar measure by Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.) would authorize expenditure of half a billion dollars in federal subsidies to farmers based on their acreage of crop land, soil improving and erosion-preventing crops, changes in farming practices, and a percentage of normal production entering domestic channels.

After two years, permanent state-aid plans with the same objective would become operative in any state whose legislature approved a formula prepared by the secretary of agriculture. States could join the permanent system, however, at any time during operation of the temporary plan. No aid would be given after Jan. 1, 1938, in any state whose legislature had not adopted a plan.

Peace Parley Is Proposed By FDR

American Presidents Are Invited to Buenos Aires

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. (AP)—President Roosevelt tonight authorized a proposal for an extraordinary inter-American conference, encompassing twenty Central and South American governments and aimed "at permanent peace on this western continent."

In almost identical personal letters to the presidents of the various republics, the chief executive suggested the parley be held at Buenos Aires, Argentina, at an early date. The cause of peace in the new world, he said, is a matter of "vital concern."

"These steps, furthermore," he said, "would advance the cause of world peace, inasmuch as the agreements which might be reached would supplement and reinforce the efforts of the League of Nations and of all other existing or future peace agencies in seeking to prevent war."

BANDITS ROB PRINCIPAL OF NEARBY CITY

Value's Worth $600 Are Taken From Panhandle Teacher Near Skellytown.

Nervously shouting repeated threats to kill him, two highway hold-up bandits, posing in the role of good Samaritans, robbed Kellus Turner, principal of Panhandle high school of valuables worth more than $600 and a small amount of change, about 7:30 o'clock last night on the Borger road near Skellytown.

Mr. Turner, driving from Borger to Pampa to transport Panhandle basketball players home from the district tournament, stopped to change a flat tire. Soon, two men drove up near his car and stopped, asking Turner if he needed a tire.

The boy who was scared, Turner said, told him if he threw his watch away he would shoot him. They took a diamond which Mr. Turner said had been appraised at $500. He said he paid $52.50 for the watch. The teacher said he would recognize the youth if he ever saw him again. A complete description of the bandits was given local officers.

Before driving away in their own car to the bandits ordered Mr. Turner to stand in the road with his hands up until they backed down the road with lights of their car turned off. Then they turned around around and their car roared away. Two cars stopped during the hold-up, and asked if he "needed help," but at the direction of the bandits who threatened to shoot him, he lowered his hands each time and said, "No."

County officers drove to the scene of the robbery, and returned to Pampa. They said they had no immediate clues.

Mr. Turner with the assistance of Supt. Rumph of Skellytown, changed the tire and drove on to Pampa.

W. A. Hodges was taken to his home yesterday afternoon following a major operation at Pampa-Jarrett hospital.

FOOD TAKEN TO TOWNS IN FROZEN AREA

Aid Sought By Dozen Towns In Northwest; Dynamite Used To Blast Snow.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—Airplanes and dynamite sped food and fuel to starving prisoners of the snow in the northwest tonight as zero cold sank deeper into the east.

Pleas for "pretty quick" aid from a dozen towns hurried ski-equipped planes into the air and over huge drifts that blocked land rescue crews.

GATLIN HURT CRITICALLY ON McLEAN ROAD

DR. WILD'S CAR HITS TRUCK; 2ND CRASH IS NEAR CITY

THE INJURED
H. S. Gatlin, skull fracture and broken ribs; Dr. W. B. Wild, shoulder injury; Mrs. Jim Meredith, local nurse, fractured thigh; Oscar Dial, crushed knee cap; Art Swanson, knee injury; W. H. Peters, torn ribs and cuts.

Two automobile accidents last night sent seven Pampans to Worley hospital for treatment and only two were able to be taken to their homes following emergency treatment.

Most seriously injured was H. S. Gatlin, employe of the Sun Oil company, who, with Dr. W. B. Wild and the latter's office nurse, Mrs. Jim Meredith, was en route to Oklahoma City where he was to receive special treatment for an arm injury received recently.

The car, driven by Dr. Wild, crashed into a truck on the Pampa-McLean highway four miles southeast of LeFors about 8:30 o'clock last night. The truck was owned by an oil supply company of Muleshoe.

Dr. Gatlin's condition was critical, attending physicians reported. It was necessary to take 27 stitches in his scalp. Other injuries included a skull fracture, broken leg, and arm, and probable internal injuries.

Dr. Wild has a badly injured shoulder, although no bones were broken. Mrs. Meredith suffered a thigh fracture. Both were badly bruised and a crushed knee cap. Gatlin was brought to Pampa in a G. C. Malone ambulance. Dr. Wild and Mrs. Meredith were picked up by passing motorists.

In the other accident, about 8 o'clock, Oscar Dial of Cabot Co., received a crushed knee cap, bruises. Art Swanson of the same company was able to be taken home after having five stitches made in a knee abrasion. Miss Lorene McClintock was uninjured although suffering from shock. W. H. Peters, driver of the other car, received a neck abrasion and torn ribs. He operates the filling station at the site.

The crash was on highway 60 on the west outskirts of Pampa where the highway intersects Swanson, Dial and Miss McClintock.

Weather Delays Work on Local Building Jobs

Freezing temperature yesterday prevented pouring of concrete for the footings of the municipal bridge east of the Sam Houston school.

Cold weather also is slowing work on the municipal race track at the fairground park. About 30 percent of the dirt has been moved, according to City Manager C. L. Sline. The men are paid when weather is too rough for work, and this lowers the total available for the project. Frozen ground has made grading slow and arduous.

Asphalt topping will be placed on the municipal tennis courts to complete them as soon as warmer weather arrives.

The temperature yesterday reached the minimum of 11 degrees above zero at 7:30 a. m., according to the reading of the recording thermometer of the Central States Power & Light Corporation. In that previous 24 hours, the high was 28 degrees. A new project superintendent must be appointed to succeed John B. Hessey, who has resigned to become district investigator for the Texas Old Age Pension Assistance commission.

Coach Odus Mitchell ceremoniously removing his shoe, sock and a lemon drop sticking to the sole of his foot, at the district tournament yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Buckingham back in the seats they have occupied in the gym at basketball games for the last five or six years and knew that the Harvesters could not lose. That's a fix that can't fail.

THIS IS SAFETY DAY IN PAMPA -- CHURCHES TO HEAR TALKS

BPW DRIVE IS GOING STRONG IN THIS AREA

MANY GROUPS AIDING AND FIRMS ARE FOR IT

Today is SAFETY SUNDAY in Pampa. Members of the local Ministerial association have set this day as one in which to stress the moral obligation of the individual with reference to automobile deaths and accidents.

"Thou shalt not kill!" The Pampa Lions, through a safety committee headed by Joe Burrow, sought the cooperation of ministers and Sunday school superintendents and teachers, and furnished data for talks and sermons.

The county-wide safety campaign was initiated by the Pampa Business & Professional Women's club, which has general management of the most thorough campaign attempted in this section. Mrs. Gladys Robinson is president of the club and Irene Irvine and Frances Stark compose the safety committee.

Women are interested. Women's clubs of the community are stressing the drive in their February programs. Recently Mrs. Grace Pool and Dee Polson appeared before the county commissioners and obtained cooperation through placing of more stop-markers on county roads, especially on the LeFors road and Amarillo highway. The commissioners promised full cooperation.

Boy Scouts have constructed bullet-board for safety posters, which will be displayed in prominent places about the city, including the lobby of the Schneider hotel, the Combs-Worley building, and post office.

Mrs. Stark will edit a weekly bulletin during each week in February, giving statistics on local accidents.

Rotary Offers Prizes. Pampa Rotarians are liberally supporting the campaign, offering prizes of $5, $3, and $1 at each Pampa school for the best papers written on topics pertaining to traffic safety. In the papers, the students must answer nine questions, which will count 50 per cent if answered correctly, and discuss the question, "If you had the necessary authority, what would you do to reduce accidents in Pampa?" These papers must be signed by one parent or guardian of the writer and given to school authorities by tomorrow. Final winners will be announced later in this week. Odus Mitchell is the Rotary safety committee chairman.

P. A. Selby heads the Kiwanis safety committee, which has obtained a film from the National Safety Council which will be shown at La Nora theater, probably February 23, when safety posters will be displayed in all lobbies of theaters here.

Veterans Dress Windows. Veterans of Foreign Wars, with O. K. Gaylor as safety chairman, is securing cooperation of business men in dressing of "safety windows." Stores included in so far are Southwestern Public Service company, Texas Furniture company, L. T. Hill company, De Luxe Cleaners, Bert Curry Refrigeration company, Penney's, and Murree's Inc. Displays will yet be placed at Thompson Hardware company, Montgomery Ward & company, and Central States Power & Light corporation.

The Jaycees, through Jack Dunn, a member has secured cooperation of the Panhandle chapter of A. P. I., which will meet at the city hall February 18, at 8 p. m. D. A. Howard of the Empire companies at Bartlesville, Okla., will come here to talk on safety, and a member of the Phillips company staff will bring films. Inspector R. H. Routh of the Highway patrol will explain the new driver's license law. The public will be invited to attend. The city commission is cooperating.

CUBBING TRAINING COURSE WILL CONTINUE THIS WEEK

Parents of Younger Boys Are Urged to Prepare for Organization Work.

The next training course for parents who are interested in the Cubbing program for boys of 9, 10, and 11 years of age will be offered Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evenings, 7:30 o'clock at the Sam Houston school.

Any parent may take the course. It is being suggested that both parents take the course. Training before organization is the policy of the movement according to A. L. Patrick, Cubmaster. Interest in the program for younger boys is growing. At the conclusion of this course, plans will be completed for registering of Pack No. 1.

Cubbing is a home-centered program of activities which encourage boy hobbies and natural learning. It is preliminary training for Boy Scout experience, but is complete within its scope. It is a leisure-time program including healthful and pleasurable learning activities, associations which develop character, use the home as its center, and develops early leadership. It treats the boy as an individual and as a social unit.

The STRANGE CASE of JULIA CRAIG

Chapter XII
When Royal Nesbitt had administered a stiff brandy by the excited Obo he went immediately aboard the yacht so that Captain Blakely could give him adequate first-aid from the medical kit.

At the lodge, under the direction of Woodford, preparations for leaving were swift indeed, Julia was certain that it was not the seriousness of Nesbitt's wound which prompted the sudden breakup of the party. It was, she felt, the wound itself that worried Woodford, but rather its implication. She was almost sure that Hugo Nash's aim had been calculated — and obviously the Lee girl thought so, too. There had been something vaguely furtive about the three men as they returned that morning. It was as if they had come to an agreement of silence before the women.

But Julia's thoughts were directed more toward Tom Payson than toward Royal Nesbitt. As she hurriedly packed her bag she planned an attempt to see him before the Wood Nymph should leave the little bay.

It proved an easy matter to leave the lodge without being seen. Nash and Woodford had already gone to the yacht, while the widow and Cintra, who were still in their coats getting their luggage packed for Obo to take down to the beach, Julia slipped quickly out the door and down the path she had taken the night before. She felt somehow that Payson was on Evergreen Island—where he could keep in touch with her.

Mindful that the Wood Nymph would be leaving within the hour, she ran along the path as swiftly as the clucking foliage and overhanging boughs would let her. Soon she was within sight of the boat. She placed ahead, then the blue waters on the other side of the island. The path ended at the beach, and there were marks where the bow of a small boat had cut into the sand. But beyond this there was no indication of the recent presence of a boat. What he had called "his island" was within shouting distance, but Julia could see nothing but a thick green wood. Not even a spiral of smoke hinted at habitation—and there was no small boat moored on the shore opposite.

She stood there, uncertain whether to return to the yacht or stay behind in the hope of seeing Payson again. Somehow it didn't seem fair to leave on the Wood Nymph without one word—and yet, what assurance did she have that Payson was still camping on the adjacent island?

Showing her hands helplessly into the pockets of her skirt she encountered a cool small cylinder which was a silver pencil. Amy had given her months ago. But neither of the pockets revealed even a scrap of paper on which to write a message for Payson. Then her glance happened to fall upon a piece of driftwood on the beach. Its surface ing in the drive, and Don Conley, chairman of the city traffic advisory committee, is very active.

BAKER SCHOOL WILL SPONSOR MINSTREL PROGRAM ON FRIDAY

A program that is to be sponsored by the B. M. Baker faculty February 21, at 8 p. m. in the Baker auditorium will have varied numbers.

The main attraction is a negro minstrel with Roy McMillen as the middle-man and in charge of the arrangements. His end-men will be Guy McTaggart and the Rev. E. C. McKenzie. Others with black faces will include Horace McBee, Paul Hill, Wayne Kinnison, and H. W. Waters. The minstrel was recently presented at the Woodrow Wilson school, where the crowd was filled to capacity. A similar crowd is expected at Baker.

Another attraction for the pleasure hour is a number of jokes by Harry Kelley. Mr. Kelley is well known here in town for his humor.

COOPERATION OF PUBLIC IS BEING ASKED AS COUNTY TAX SURVEY ENTERS FIELD WORK

The Gray county tax survey sponsored by the State Tax Board is proceeding under the direction of Henry L. Jordan, who is devoting part of his time to supervision while continuing his private work.

About a dozen men of various skills are employed on the WPA project. The tax survey was endorsed and sought by Governor Allred and state tax authorities. Most of the work done to date is office work, but field activities will begin soon.

The state is furnishing forms on which all data is collected. Oil development has changed titles so often that exhaustive work is required in many instances to record the data. However, oil leases and mineral rights are not included in the present set-up but may be later. Oil tax assessing is done by a special firm retained by the county and school districts.

Classified information as to taxable properties of the county is expected to be of value in equalizing taxes. The purpose of the survey is to arrive at the facts, and not to raise or lower taxation. It is hoped

EDUCATION CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD AT CANYON ON MARCH 6-7

CANYON, Feb. 15.—The Northwest Texas Conference for Education, which is going to hold its third annual meeting at the West Texas State Teachers college March 6 and 7, is a unusual organization. It is not a teachers organization.

The conference was planned in 1933 by Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon. He first consulted many leading citizens throughout the 26 northwest counties of the state. Then, with their aid, a conference was planned in order that friends of education from all professions and all walks of life could get together for a two-day consideration of current problems of education.

Supt. Ferman Sawyer of Canadian was first president of the conference which attracted about 1,000 people. In 1933, 1,500 attended the meeting, and this year even more are being provided for. The ideal of having representative citizens consider together for a time their own problems is strictly adhered to in making the program. Health, the rising generation, the state's part in education, civic, educational, and controversial subjects are among the matters for discussion.

Dr. Hill stated this week that he will be greatly disappointed if this year's conference is not attended by more than 1,000 people. He said that the trip turned out like this:

"I'm sorry, I thought you weren't going before an hour."

Woodford told her.

"Puzzled, Julia followed him down the path. She had never seen him like this and she was moved to ask how Nesbitt was getting along."

"He'll be all right. It wasn't serious."

Then why, Julia wondered, all Woodford's seriousness? Perhaps he was only piqued because his vacation jaunt had broken into troublesome fragments. But she could have asked him no more questions even if she'd wanted for he rushed on down the path quite as if the Wood Nymph might leave without its owner. In a moment she saw Captain Bakely waiting in the stern of the power boat.

Cintra Lee was the only one in sight aboard the yacht except the members of the crew. When the tender reached the larger craft, Woodford and Bakely went at once to the wheel house, and Julia snatched aft to where Cintra sat smoking a cigarette.

"I had a little surprise when I saw you in the boat with Woodford," the dancer said.

"Why?" Julia sat in the deck chair beside Cintra, felt the sudden vibration of the engines as the Wood Nymph got under way.

"I had a notion perhaps you'd decided to stay marooned with that handsome young man who tried to rescue you last night."

Julia turned to the girl. "You won't say anything?"

"It's no affair of mine."

"I almost wish I had stayed."

"Personal reasons?" interrupted Woodford, and laughed. He faced her squarely, leaning forward in his chair. "I think I know what you mean, Julia. And I think you're right about it, too. The truth is that I'm glad you're resigning. You see," he smiled, "I don't like the idea of making love to my secretary. Perhaps it's because these cartoonists make so much fun of men who do."

"I'm afraid I don't understand you."

"I think you do, Julia. All you have to do is decide whether you'll let me make love to you."

"I can make that decision very quickly, Mr. Woodford. It's no. You mean, Julia. And I think you're interview with Smith Garland," he went on quietly. "And I wouldn't object to your having a career."

Her face white, Julia got to her feet. Anger rushed full into her throat and choked her words.

"That's really big of you, Mr.

Woodford—and now let's not discuss ourselves for the rest of the cruise!" She turned on her heel and hurried to her stateroom.

BORGER LOSES TO PANTHERS IN AFTERNOON

TURKEY TURKS WILL PLAY HERE ON TUESDAY EVE

By ARCHER FULLINGIM, City Editor, THE NEWS

One of the greatest basketball teams in Harvester history, beat the Panhandle Panthers at their own slow, devastating game last night, and won the title championship the second time in a row. The Pampa tree-tops vanquished the Carson county lads 33 to 20 in a game that was in doubt only a few minutes.

The lads will represent this ten-county district in the regional tournament at Canyon where their probable foes will be Friona, Crowell, Lamesa. The latter's team has been the jinx of the Harvesters for nearly a half-dozen years.

The Harvesters who were slightly upset but not defeated by the Panthers, Friday night, turned on the heat in a calm, cool, deliberate manner last night. They adopted the Panthers' delayed offense and used it to slaughter the Carson county entry. Once the score was 25 to 17 and that was as close as the Panthers got to the local team, after they got started.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 7 to 4, at the half, 14 to 7, at the third quarter 23 to 11. Coach Odus Mitchell's guards, Roy Lee Jones and Albert Ayer, smoothed the way forward, and C. Sparks, center. All the baskets they made last night were "impossible" shots from near center. Easily, they were the outstanding guards of the tournament.

Stokes Green, forward, led the scoring with 13 points. Junior Strickland, center, was second with 8, and Moose Hartman and Ayer each made six. Rogers made a free shot and three baskets to be high-point man for Panhandle.

All-District Team At the conclusion of the game, Supt. P. L. Mize of LeFors, chairman of the district interscholastic league executive committee, presented trophies to the winner and runner-up and announced the all-district team, which included eight men, as follows:

Forwards—Jones, Borger; Green, Pampa; Hartman, Pampa; Centers—Strickland, Pampa; C. Sparks, Panhandle.

Guards, Rogers, Panhandle; Pace, Wheeler; Ayer, Pampa. This writer picked the same team, but included nine players, and added Roy Lee Jones. Obviously, it was not exactly regular to name four of the Pampa players on a first team and leave out the other one. In this writer's opinion, there is no difference in the players on the Pampa team. Jones is just as good as Ayer, and Ayer is just as good as Jones.

Green was the leading scorer of the tournament with 59 points. Moose Hartman followed him with 52; Sparks was third with 48 and Jones of Borger was fourth with 46. Pace, Wheeler guard, scored 43 points. Strickland of Pampa, 32; Cain of Wheeler, the fans' choice for the player displaying the best sportsmanship in the meet, 34. Junior Strickland was easily the outstanding center, and Jones and Ayer the outstanding guards. Strickland got the tip on every center he opposed, and his defensive work was even more valuable than his offensive tactics.

To Play Turkey Tuesday Pampa will play again the only team that has beaten them this season. Al Duncan's Terrible Turkey Turks, here Tuesday night. It will be the rubber game of a three-game series. Pampa having won one and Turkey one.

The tournament victory was the Pampans' 36th in 36 starts.

Borger Eliminated Panhandle advanced to the finals by walloping Borger 26 to 22 in a bitterly-fought contest. The whipping was hard to take because Borger previously had beaten Panhandle twice. The Panthers and the Bulldogs were favorites to win. The Panthers, with two regulars back from last year's first string, were devastating in their slow, delayed offense. They clawed the Bulldogs to pieces at small's pace. Finally, Borger, their best player, and nerves worn to a frazzle, became panicky in the last quarter and slammed the ball from one end of the court to the other.

Coach Fouled Jones was the scoring star for Borger, but he lost a key under the basket when he grabbed three rebounds and converted them into points. He scored a total of 12 points, compared with 10 points chalked up by Panhandle's C. Sparks. Both men vied for the honor of being the outstanding center of the tournament.

The games was a thriller and a continuous yell came from the stands. Before the battle ended, the officials had won the enmity of both the Borger coaches. Coach Pat Gerald of Panhandle sitting on the sidelines was assessed a foul for making a remark which one of the officials overheard. Previously Coach Knowles of Borger had strenuously objected to decisions of the officials. Panhandle was assessed six fouls and Borger 12. The score at the half was 15 to 8. Panhandle took the lead in the first few minutes of the game and never relinquished it. The lead maintained by the Panthers ranged from three to eight points. It was Borger's second game of the day, having nosed out Wheeler at 9 o'clock. It was Panhandle's fourth and Bor-ger's sixth games of the tournament. The Panhandle Panthers threw a mighty last, the Harvester's quiet Friday night in the last quarter, but the tall Pampa lads chalked up a 36 to 28 victory and advanced into the finals. Coach Pat Gerald's boys, maintaining a deadly pace until the final whistle, cut down a 13-point lead in the last period when the Harvesters appeared more or less exhausted. The Panthers proved to be the toughest foes the Pampans played during the tournament.

The Harvesters led 11 to 2 at the end of the first quarter; 20 to 8 at the half, and 30 to 17 at the third quarter. Most of the scoring was done by Green and Hartman. Stokes made 10 points in the first half, and his scoring stopped. Moose scored 9 points in the first half and 8 in the last. Strickland who usually concentrates on basket-shooting, centered all his attention on guarding C. Sparks. After the first jump at center, Junior controlled the tip, and in addition played a fine defensive game, holding Sparks, Panhandle center, scoreless in the first half and to three baskets in the last half.

Roy Lee Jones bottled up Day, the other Panhandle shot-maker, but Rogers got loose for 6 baskets. Ayer held his man scoreless. Panhandle out-scored the Pampans 20 to 12 in the last half. Six of the Panhandle points were made from the free-throw line, while the Harvesters made only 3 gift shots. The officials assessed 11 fouls against the Harvesters and five against the Panthers.

Cain Is Favorite Just before the Pampa-Panhandle game, Wheeler trounced Miami 36 to 20, with Cain, forward, and Pace, center, virtually winning the game single-handed. An unusual feature of this game was that Ford, Wheeler center, missed 9 free shots. Pace and Cain did 90 per cent of the ball hustling and scored 22 of the 36 points. Cain was one of the outstanding players of the tournament—certainly the most admirable. A withered left hand probably accentuated his ability. He was a specialist in long-distance shooting and in taking the ball away from the enemy.

At four o'clock Friday afternoon, Wheeler eliminated Spearman 35 to 25 in another upset, with Conner and Ford starring in scoring roles for the Mustangs. From a spectator standpoint, the Mustangs were the favorites in the tourney. The fans wanted Wheeler to win. In the first game Friday afternoon, Borger eliminated Canadian 35 to 20. Wheeler advanced to the quarter-finals, despite tough luck in the schedule and in officiating. The Mustangs were eliminated by Borger's Bulldogs 28 to 27 yesterday afternoon. The game was a close one, but Borger led throughout the first half, and Wheeler led until two minutes before the final whistle. Wheeler suffered the loss of Ford, tallest man on the team and most-of-the-time leading scorer, in the second half. Davies of Borger also went out on personal fouls, but in the fourth period.

Miss 21 Free Shots It was the second time Borger defeated Wheeler in the tourney. In the first game, the Bulldogs won by two points, 26 to 24, and in that game Cain, Wheeler's star player, went out in the third quarter on personal fouls. Wheeler's greatest weakness was in failure to make free shots. In the first Borger game the Mustangs missed 12 free shots, and in the second missed 9. Jones was Borger's outstanding player, but he was unable to do much against Wheeler. In the first game with the Mustangs he scored 7 points and in the second, 4.

Outstanding players in the tournament up to the semi-final game were Green and Hartman of Pampa, in four games advanced to the finals each in four games; Pace, guard and Cain, forward, of Wheeler, who scored 43 and 34 points respectively in five games; Jones of Borger who accounted for 34 points in five games. Strickland made 46 points in four games advanced to the finals over Panhandle, and they would have had to play three games yesterday, a practice frowned on by the interscholastic league. Obviously it is difficult to draft a three-day schedule for 11 teams. At least one of the clubs entered the tourney less favored than other teams. In this tournament, Wheeler was the goat and Panhandle was the lucky team. Borger, too, played five games before reaching the semi-finals, but Borger's schedule previous to Saturday was not as crowded as Wheeler's.

Any team, including both Wheeler and Borger would have had to play seven games, three on the last day to enter the finals. It goes without saying that it is not fair to force a team that has already played two games in one day to go up against a team that has not played a single game that day. Assuming that Wheeler had defeated Borger and Panhandle in the quarter-finals and semi-finals, it would have been lamentably unjust to have forced the Mustangs to battle the fresh Harvesters. The same could be said for Borger. To reiterate, however, it is extremely difficult to draft a fair schedule for 11 teams, 10 of which must be beaten twice. The Panhandle-Pampa game was Pampa's 35th of the season, and the Harvesters' 34th victory.

GRIMM TRIES TO APPRECIATE WARNEKE JOKE

MANAGER IS WORRIED OVER ARM OF HIS PITCHER

By PAUL MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer CHICAGO, Feb. 15 (AP)—Manager Charlie Grimm, a great joker himself when he isn't out on the third base coaching line shouting for base hits, was in deep misery today because he wasn't exactly sure of Lonnie Warneke's Ozark humor.

En route by automobile to the Cub spring training camp in California, the star right-hander, a very droll fellow at times, stopped off at Phoenix, Arizona, long enough to get a tank full of gas and to impart the information to a newspaper reporter that he was worried about the condition of his pitching arm which fell limp in the fifth game of last fall's world series. Grimm read it in the morning papers with a sinking heart.

"I don't know whether to laugh or cry," moaned Grimm as he read and re-read the story "But I'm hoping hard it's just another one of Lon's little jokes. If his arm is still bad and stays that way, it'll be the worst blow we could take. For our lineup, Warneke is the best pitcher in baseball today. He's good for 20 to 25 games a year. Losing him would be like falling into a 20-game losing streak."

Well aware of Warneke's jokes and habits, Grimm said he hopes the Phoenix report came about like this: "Lon probably was asked about his pitching arm one thousand times since that world series game. He got sick of answering and assuring everyone that his arm was okay. When he was asked about it again, he probably said the opposite for a joke. Right now, I hope he is laughing about this commotion."

Coach School Faculty Named

PORT WORTH, Feb. 15 (AP)—The faculty for the annual coaching school of the Texas High School Coaches' association, to be held in Dallas Aug. 3-8, has been completed. H. N. (Rusty) Russell of Masonic Home, president of the association, announced Saturday.

The school will be closed on Saturday night, Aug. 8, with a football game between all-stars from the upper and lower bracket of the interscholastic league. Twenty-two boys will be selected for each team.

HE DID WIN LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15 (AP)—Mrs. Silas B. Mason's He Did win the $25,000 added derby today beating out Valiant Fox by a head, with Gold Seeker third.

GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Feb. 15 (AP)—Great Britain pinned its hopes on a defensive game today and virtually won the Olympic hockey championship by holding steady against the United States to a scoreless tie in a game which went three overtime periods without anything like a decision.

The result put things into a mess so far as the spectators were concerned, for as soon as the game ended the announcer proclaimed England the winner of the gold medal. He seemed premature, however, since America retained a bare chance of winning the title according to all previous announcements.

The tie game automatically eliminated Canada, which had won every previous Olympic hockey series, but the Americans still are in the running provided they can whip Canada tomorrow by a big enough score.

Great Britain now has five points in the United States three and Canada two. A victory tomorrow would give the Americans five and the decision in that case would rest upon the scoring records.

GOLFERS ARRIVE In Houston for Annual Tourney HOUSTON, Feb. 15 (AP)—The nation's golfing spotlight turned tonight to Houston tonight as the great and near great of amateur golfing started pouring into the city for the twenty-second annual Houston Country club invitation tournament opening Wednesday.

Several top-rank Simon Pures already engaged in practice rounds at most of the other entrants were expected tomorrow and Monday. Tournament officials predicted it would be one of the classic bands of amateurs ever to compete in a Texas golfing event.

Gus Moreland, title holder, will be unable to compete. Johnny Dawson was hovering close to par in both warm up sessions, and was much longer from the tees than he was last year. The brilliant Chicagoan won the title two years ago. The contingent of early arrivals from Chicago also included Gus Novolny, former western amateur champion, Warren Dawson, brother of Johnny, and Hank Bowber.

CHARLIE TRIGG NAMED LINE COACH FOR METHODIST TEAM

McLean's Grid Eleven Awarded Miniature Balls

DALLAS, Feb. 15 (AP)—Charles Trigg, one of Southern Methodist's football greats of nearly a decade ago, today was named varsity line coach of the Methodist, mythical national champions of 1935 and losers to Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

Athletic director Jimmy Stewart and head-coach Matty Bell announced the elevation of Trigg from the freshman coaching job and the hiring of two additional coaches.

Roswell (Little Hig) Higginbotham, gridiron legend of Texas A. and M., eight years' freshman football coach and five years' varsity baseball coach at Aggie, was named freshman football coach, varsity football scout and varsity baseball coach.

Harry Shuford, fullback of the 1935 Mustangs and one of the Southwest's greatest all-time ball-carrying and blocking honors, was selected varsity backfield coach for at least during the spring training season and probably next fall. His regular appointment was contingent upon whether he returned to Southern Methodist next fall for a post graduate law course. He may attend the University of Texas.

"We culled through a great pile of applications for the varsity line coach job and found the best man available right in our own back yard," said Bell in announcing Trigg's appointment.

He replaces Vic Hurt who recently resigned to accept the head coach's position at Tulsa University. Trigg played end and tackle on Methodist teams in 1926, '27 and '28, and won all-Southwest conference mention. He served three years as assistant coach at Highland Park high school, in Dallas county, three years as head coach and one year, in 1935, as freshman coach at Southern Methodist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duncan of LeFors were Pampa visitors yesterday afternoon.

Nichols of Louisiana State, will be the lecturers on general questions. Raymond (Bear) Wolfe of T. C. U. will give line play and Matty Bell of S. M. U. will lecture on defense. J. B. # 3 GAGE GAMES TO BE PLAYED ON TOMORROW

LEFORS GYMNASIUM TO BE SITE OF TILTS MONDAY NIGHT

Three basketball games will be played in the LeFors high school gymnasium tomorrow night, and all for the price of one.

The first game will be called at 7 o'clock when a team composed of Pirate Lassies and faculty members play an independent team of former Pirate Lassies.

The LeFors junior and the Skellytown juniors will meet in the second tussle.

Meeting for the third time this season, the Pirates, Profs and the Skelly Olers will play the "rubber" game. Each team has a victory over the other.

Both quints will be at full strength for the important battle. The Olers won a lopsided game from the Profs early in the season but the teachers got revenge two weeks ago.

No. 3—MIST AND FOG So long as there is light we may skip around at a lively rate over this old globe of ours. We may span oceans in surprising time. We may cross the continent from sun-up to sun-down.

But every now and then Mother Nature decides to put us in our place, and of all her devices to make us slow down, none is more effective than mist and fog.

Now we may not have to contend with fog and mist very frequently, but we're bound to now and then, and when we do, it can cause us a lot of annoyance and trouble.

When a good heavy fog comes on land, at sea or in the air—everything that moves moves with caution. The ocean liner slows down several knots an hour. Lightships signal, buoys sound and foghorns boom. Airlines ground their planes and cancel trips.

Even trains on tracks reduce their speed, and we drivers on the highways, too, must make our way cautiously through that baffling screen. For one thing is true. In spite of all our progress, transportation still depends on pairs of eyes in human heads.

Scientists who have studied fog, say that it is composed of tiny drops of water. These drops are so small and light that they hang in the air, and so close together that light can hardly get through them. Instead, these little drops act like tiny convex mirrors. When we try to pierce them with a beam of light, a great deal of it is thrown right back at us, so the effect is just like a great, gleaming white curtain in front of us.

Experienced drivers say that the first thing to do is to get our lights right. The main thing is to direct the beams downward. If we have them shining straight ahead, those little mist-drops reflect the rays back in our eyes. But if they're pointing downward, the rays are deflected toward the road.

Then they say it's a good idea to guide by the road edge at our right, and if we have a spotlight on our car, to focus it right on that road edge, close to the front of the car, so the edge will be clearly lighted. But we have to keep a good weather eye ahead, too, because fog veils more than the road. It hides not only things on the road but such things as roadside warnings of curves and hills and intersections. Even the traffic light's red and green signal rays have the same hard time that our headlights do getting through that strange haze. In fact, in a good heavy fog, the best we can do for our vision is none too good. And so the main thing is to slow down. The ships have to do it, the trains have to do it, and we have to do it, too. If we won't make up our minds to that, they tell us the best thing we can do is to pull off the road, or if we have not yet started out, we had better just stay home.

But seeing in fog and mist is only half the story. We not only have to see, but we also have to be seen. Our headlights properly adjusted are strong enough to do their duty in pointing us out to people coming from the opposite direction. And, in addition, some drivers use their horns like foghorns by giving them a toot every now and then. But another thing we have to think of is to be sure drivers behind us see us. That's why the so important to have our stop-signal and tail-light working when we're driving in fog. And so it's a good thing to make sure that these lights are working and to wipe off those little red glasses if they happen to be covered with mud. If the weather's clear and our tail-light has gone out, the fuser fellow's lights may point us out fairly well. But if his headlights are fighting fog, they can't do much to protect us.

So, when all is said and done, driving in fog is just a matter of having our headlights and tail-lights right and being a little more careful. If we do that, we can drive our cars safely, even through Nature's stubborn obstacles of mist and fog.

COUPLE BARELY ESCAPE DEATH BY FREEZING IN OCHILTREE

ROTARY CLUB AT CANADIAN TO CELEBRATE

IMPORTANT NEWS OF TERRITORY IS COLLECTED

Three men held-up Charles Hill at the Hill Service Station at Canadian about 1 o'clock last Sunday morning, obtained close to $25 two quarters of oil and seven gallons of gasoline, according to a report made by Mr. Hill to Sheriff Walter Jones.

Canadian Rotary club will celebrate its tenth birthday at a dinner to be held at the W. T. U. building and other guests, Jim Farwell, president of the Amarillo Rotary club and the board of directors of that club have been invited. Also, Rue Parcels of the Amarillo Rotary club.

The Amarillo Rotary club sponsored the local organization. Other guests invited include District Governor Jim Willson of Floydada, and Walter D. Cline of Wichita Falls.

Death, by freezing, was narrowly averted by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cannon of Rocky Ford, Colo., while afoot and wandering aimlessly about for nearly three hours in a blizzard and dust storm in Ochiltree county, Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon were in a truck, with closed cab when the radiator became frozen. Fearing death by remaining in the car, they left the truck about 8:30 o'clock and started to walk, not knowing where they were headed nor in what direction they were going.

It was close to 11 degrees below zero and even though Mrs. Cannon was warmly dressed in winter boots she soon became cold and numb. They walked nearly three hours and had passed houses back from the road which they were unable to see. About 11 o'clock they found the Flowers school house. Mr. Cannon had been dragging his wife for more than an hour. He found wood and built a fire. There was no water or food. Mrs. Cannon was delirious all night. Saturday afternoon, Mr. Cannon got his truck started and then came on to Canadian, stopping at the Moody Hotel.

Mrs. Cannon was in a nervous exhaustion and a physician was summoned.

Mr. Heath since coming to White Deer from Friona, where he was superintendent for several years, has actively promoted a number of enterprises calculated to enlarge and firmly establish the school both here and at Sikes.

Fire completely destroyed the Dozier Gin in Collingsworth county Tuesday afternoon. The fire was thought to have started in the bale presses and was discovered at 5 o'clock. By dusk the entire building was in ashes, and the only thing saved was some cotton and the gin office. The gin was located 20 miles northwest of Wellington.

Ether Johnson, noted pianist, who will give a lecture-concert at the high school auditorium at 10:15 a. m. Tuesday, Feb. 18, is being brought to Panhandle under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association.

The second rabbit drive of the season for farmers of Beaver county, Okla., is scheduled for Friday, February 21, one mile south of Turpin, according to Walter M. Schmelze, county agent of Beaver county. The drive will start at 2 p. m. Four sections will again be covered, the north line being one mile south of U. S. Highway 64, and the east line on Highway 83, running from Perryton to Liberal.

To recall the pioneer days of No-

Man's Land, the Guymon Junior chamber of commerce is sponsoring a "prairie schooner" model-making contest this year. Money prizes will be awarded on several of the best miniature covered wagons.

The Perryton council of Royal Arch Masons has been invited to Pampa on Monday, February 24, for the installation of a new chapter. Judge Moore, Lubbock, state high priest of the R. A. M. will be present to deliver the charter. All six degrees of the initiatory work will be given, starting at 1:30 p. m.

H. H. Fimmel, regional conservator of the United States Soil Conservation Service, headed a group of officials from the regional office at Amarillo on an inspection tour of the work being done in the Perryton area by the Perryton ECW camp, Tuesday.

They were conducted through the local territory by David E. Autry, superintendent of the Perryton camp. The party stayed Tuesday night in the city, a conference being held at the camp in the evening.

Scout Drive Over
Eight-eight contributors to the Boy Scout work in Canadian have pledged a total of more than $560 for this year, according to a report made this week by H. E. Wilbur, finance officer. Now that the money is assured to carry on, Mr. Wilbur says workers are needed to assist Scoutmaster Fred Dawson with conducting tests for the scouts and other duties that will require more than one man's time.

National Hereford sale record
Sawarded recently as Southwestern stockmen bid fancy figures for the H. A. Talley stock in the auction at the Tri-State Fair Grounds at Amarillo.

The sale average for 33 animals was $402, the highest since December. The 18 females brought an average of $427.50, and the stocky young bulls averaged $227.50.

Donna Anna 44th, a September yearling, brought $1,100, the best price paid for a female in many months and the highest for a heifer in more than a year. She was purchased by A. D. Jones Hill, Roswell, N. M.

Commissioner Injured
Grover R. Ingram, commissioner of precinct 2 of Carson county for many years, who lives southwest of Panhandle, was severely injured last o'clock Thursday morning of last week when he was thrown off a horse.

Mr. Ingram was riding a horse regarded as about half wild and was out in the pasture near a tank. The horse began pitching and threw Ingram off on his head.

Centennial Fele Planned
A Centennial celebration for Collingsworth county was planned at a recent meeting of the County Board of Development, according to announcements.

Mrs. Ninnie Gribble, 65, of Panhandle, widow of the late A. L. Gribble, died at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, at her home in Panhandle.

Sidelights on the life of Abraham Lincoln and a brief sketch of his general history were given by Jack Adkins, principal of Weatherly school, at the luncheon meeting of the Berger Rotary club yesterday.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Feb. 15 (AP)—A hesitant stock market today was thumped into life by a last minute expansion in steels, rails, and several of the non-ferrous metals.

Higher prices, some of them the best in several years, snapped the volume for the short session to 1,373,295 shares, a bit more than the previous Saturday and substantially better than the hourly rate for Friday.

A factor was the increase yesterday by two of the largest copper producers of the metal price to 9.50 cents a pound from 9.25 cents and the announcement today of similar action by another producer.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Feb. 15 (AP)—Notwithstanding that no relief from extreme cold is in sight, wheat values sagged at the last today, most traders being inclined to await crop developments.

Wheat closed easy at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 cent lower. May 98 1/4-1/2, corn 1/4-1/2 off. May 61 1/2-3/4, oats at 1/2 decline to an equal advance, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents down.

Corn, oats and provisions ruled easy with wheat.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 15 (AP)—U. S. D. A.—With adverse weather conditions prevailing at most midwestern markets, receipts of cattle dropped off around 28,000, as compared with last week and were about the same as the corresponding period a year ago. The rank and file of steer and yearling offerings cashed at 7.00-9.50, with the best weight steers in Chicago realizing 12.65 and yearlings in the same market making 11.35. Majority of heifers sold from 5.00-8.00. Bulk of stocker and feeder steers cleared from 5.75-7.50.

Pat lambs moved at prices 15-60 lower for the period. Choice lambs early in the period made 11.00, with bulk from 9.50-10.85. Choice yearlings brought 10.00, with most sales from 9.00-9.75. Choice fed western eyes reached 5.25.

Values in hogs ruled unevenly 25-75 higher. St. Louis realized a late top of 11.10.

NATIONAL BUSINESS SURVEY
(By The Associated Press)
Basic strength of American business and industry was proved last week in the battle against the elements.

Although the worst weather of many years smothered the nation, industrial activity more than maintained its own, and retail trade expanded during every rift in the hampering storms.

Rural areas were particularly hard hit by snow drifts which made travel difficult, but where roads were clear or blizzards lifted there was a response which merchants said exhibited the need for merchandise and the nature of the restrictions on purchasing power.

The department of commerce in its weekly survey covering 32 cities for the week ended Wednesday declared: "While much of the country re-

HAUPTMANN'S REPRIEVE ENDS AT MIDNIGHT

ONLY HOPE LIES IN NEW INFORMATION ON CASE

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 15. (AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, who saw two death dates pass, faced another tonight as he awaited an interview with the lawyer who broke his stoical calm.

Saved the first time by appeal and the second by a 30-day reprieve from Governor Harold G. Hoffman, Hauptmann's only hope of escaping the third appeared to lie in any new information throwing additional light on the case.

To his death house cell tomorrow will go Samuel S. Leibowitz, New York criminal lawyer, who is seeking "the truth" and the Rev. John Mathiesen, Hauptmann's spiritual adviser, the lawyer said.

Mr. Mathiesen, who visited Leibowitz in New York City yesterday, said he would go with the lawyer to the death house at 2 p. m. but declined to say for what purpose.

Neither would he discuss his New York visit, except to say he talked with Leibowitz.

It was Mr. Mathiesen who told the New Jersey court of pardons, which refused the prisoner clemency, that Hauptmann "does not fit into the framework of circumstantial evidence." He made his statement after 15 "very intimate and soul searching interviews" with Hauptmann.

Leibowitz left New York shortly before noon today for Washington. Whether he intended to confer with Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean, prominent society woman who Leibowitz said interested him in the case, was not known.

speculation that he himself might attend the projected conference. This conjecture drew no confirmation from either the white house or state department. The possibility nevertheless remained. Informed quarters it was generally considered certain that Secretary Hull would attend in any event. The secretary of state personally headed the American delegation to the all-American conference at Montevideo in 1933.

In his various letters, the president particularly stressed the recent peaceful settlement of the long standing Chaco conflict between Bolivia and Paraguay, and added that he cherished the sincere conviction that the moment has now arrived when the American republics, through their designated representatives seated at a common council table, should seize this altogether favorable opportunity to consider their mutual responsibilities and their common need of rendering less likely in the future the outbreak or the continuation of hostilities between them, and by so doing, serve in an eminently practical manner the cause of permanent peace in this western continent.

Mr. Roosevelt suggested three possible avenues of approach to the problem by such a conference—the prompt ratification of Pan American Peace instruments already negotiated, the amendment of such acts; or the creation of new agreements.

Two Blazes Are Extinguished by Fire Department

Two more alarms were answered by the fire department on Friday. Loss was slight and no difficulty was encountered in extinguishing the fires.

The first call was at 2:35 Friday afternoon to the Kelley apartments where fire had broken out between the floor of one of the apartments and the ceiling of the garage. It was believed the fire started after water pipes in the garage had been thawed.

An alarm was turned in at 11:30 Friday night from the alley at the rear of the Lone Star cafe where a car had caught fire. The blaze was extinguished before it had gained much headway.

Man and Children Accused of Theft

DALLAS, Feb. 15. (AP)—A modern Fagin and 14 children accused of theft were arrested today. Police said the 41-year-old man maintained an apartment as headquarters for his band of child thieves. Once the lads were in his power, officers reported, they were never allowed to reform.

Hitler Urges Nazis to Look To U. S. Ways

BERLIN, Feb. 15. (AP)—Reichsfuehrer Hitler, opening the national automobile show today, directed the attention of the German people to the United States' solution of the problem of motorization.

He suggested that Germans could do much toward the amelioration of their food problem by more motorizing, pointing out that Germany's food storage was due to the fact that "we are too many people on too little land."

However, he avoided any specific discussion of Germany's attitude toward colonies.

At the same time, newspapers throughout Germany printed a semi-official editorial praising President Roosevelt's "vastly conceived, sound, and healthy" Pan-American peace project.

The editorial contrasted President Roosevelt's plan bitterly with Europe's growing network of "pacts for the maintenance of mistrust." Hitler told the thousands gathered for the motor show that "the Marxist ideology of European governments was concentrated on 'soaking the rich' motorist with taxes and on regarding automobile manufacturers as caterers to the capitalist class during the post-war years. At the same time, he said, the industrial genius of the United States was transforming the population into a nation of motorists."

Clintock was returning from Amarillo. Both cars were badly damaged. The injured persons were taken to the hospital by passing motorists.

Mr. Swanson had returned by plane to Amarillo from a trip and met by Mr. Dial and Miss McClintock, who drove to the airport to bring him to Pampa.

Dr. Wild's nearly new Buick coupe was brought here last night, apparently damaged beyond repair. The engine and front end were telescoped, the windshield splintered, the steering wheel bent nearly double, and the steering post driven forward. The car had skidded a considerable distance, with brakes set, before hitting the truck.

County officers and County Attorney Sherman White investigated the crash near LeFors and questioned an eye-witness, a Mr. Scott of Wichita Falls. Mr. Scott said that a passing car probably blinded Dr. Wild, who after passing it had not enough time to turn out on the way of the parked truck. He said two men were in or at the truck, but that he did not have time to talk to them because of his haste in helping the injured.

BORGER FIRE DESTRUCTIVE

BORGER, Feb. 15. (AP)—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Moose lodge building here today. Loss was partially covered by insurance. The fire started in an area outside the building where a piece of tin had been pulled loose from the wall. Plans were laid to start reconstruction immediately.

SWANSON WORSE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. (AP)—The grave illness of Secretary Swanson of the navy department still was regarded with concern tonight, even after he fought back from an early morning sinking spell. The aging cabinet official, who is suffering from pleurisy, was reported by naval hospital physicians to have had "a temporary setback" between 6:30 and 9 a. m., but as the day wore on he regained the strength previously lost.

'PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 5' KILLED BY PISTOL MEN

Was Accused of St. Valentine's Day Massacre

CHICAGO, Feb. 15. (AP)—A tangle of gangland hostilities—extending back seven years to the St. Valentine's massacre of 1929—unmashed tonight the hunt for the slayers of Dapper "Machine Gun" Jack McGurn.

"Public Enemy No. 5" on the original Chicago list, he died early today, just twelve hours past the exact anniversary of the septic killing of George (Bugs) Moran henchman which spotlighted him in national notoriety.

There were "just too many reasons" why the death of the chief machine gunner of the Capone "syndicate" could have been desired to make it easy to trace his killers, said Mal Goghlan, assistant state's attorney.

"Police will have to untangle many phases of his life before we can even get started toward a solution," he added.

In his dozen years as a major gangster, the frequent target of bullets himself, McGurn was credited in underworld boasting with the death of at least two dozen men, the extortion of thousands of dollars, a favorite with his chief "Al" Capone (now in federal prison), which bred jealousy among his own associates, and a suave ruthlessness with enemies of his gang which incited hopes of vengeance.

In all these and their ramifications, authorities dug for clues. They quickly rounded up the widow—once Louise Rolfe, "blonde alibi" whose testimony cleared him in the St. Valentine's day killings—and eight others for questioning. But gangland's wall of silence intervened when searching queries were put to them.

"My God, they shouldn't have done it" the widow exclaimed but she said she had no idea of who "they" might be. She said the $3.85 found in her husband's pockets along with two unused prize tickets and a "piece of a book" (horse race betting enterprise) represented their entire estate from McGurn's 12 years gunning in the gang wars.

Accident Victim Is Able to Talk

TEXARKANA, Ark., Feb. 15. (AP)—Eight-year-old Patty Kincaid, speechless for 103 days, today uttered her first words since an automobile overturned with her and her parents Nov. 4.

She turned eager eyes to her nurse, Miss Era Nolan, and said plain, "I love you."

Until a few days ago she had been unable either to move or speak. Last week she took her first steps, assisted by the nurse.

Cardenas Warns Mexican Labor

LAREDO, Feb. 15. (AP)—President Lazaro Cardenas of Mexico warned 5,000 workers in another mass meeting at the Apollo theater at Anahuac today that all trouble must cease at once.

He asked labor leaders, union workers and those free laborers who have been classed as communists to lend their aid in bringing about a solution of the labor troubles which have racked the state of Tamaulipas.

He announced 3,000 hectares of land would be given away next week in an effort to end the land controversy in the Anahuac section. Members of the United Syndicate of Laborers will draw for 2,000 hectares, and free laborers for 1,000 hectares, a representative of the federal government supervising the drawing.

BUICK SAFETY LEGION PLEDGE IS SIGNED BY AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

The Buick Safety Legion, which was launched recently by the Buick Motor company and with the full co-operation locally of the Tex Evans Buick company, is proving very popular and is expected to contribute considerably to safe and courteous driving.

Many local Buick owners have signed the pledge and secured the emblem which is furnished free of charge by the local Buick dealers. Drivers of other cars are also taking an interest and are invited to join the present group in a pledge of safe driving according to Hugh Johnson, local Buick manager.

The project will be part of a major safety campaign to be carried on among more than 2,500,000 Buick owners of the United States throughout the year.

The campaign will be one of safety education and will be carried on through the medium of the Buick Magazine, a company publication circulating currently to approximately 40,000 Buick owners and reaching through reader circulation several times that number.

Purposes of the Safety Legion are the promotion of safe and courteous driving among Buick owners and to encourage them by their own example and by their influence in their local communities, to become leaders in a movement to reduce accidents on the highways.

All owners of Buick cars are eligible for membership in the Legion, the requirements being the signing of a membership card pledging courtesy and care in the operation of a motor vehicle and careful observance of local and state traffic laws.

All members of the legion will be entitled to display on their cars a membership emblem which will be supplied without cost. This consists of a metal medallion or disk, which can be attached to the license plates of the car.

"The starting point of a safety program is the man behind the wheel," commented President Curtis of the Buick Motor company. "A great majority of automobile accidents, in fact practically all of them, can be prevented by intelligent care and courtesy on the part of the driver."

BUICK SAFETY LEGION PLEDGE IS SIGNED BY AUTOMOBILE OWNERS

The Buick Safety Legion, which was launched recently by the Buick Motor company and with the full co-operation locally of the Tex Evans Buick company, is proving very popular and is expected to contribute considerably to safe and courteous driving.

Many local Buick owners have signed the pledge and secured the emblem which is furnished free of charge by the local Buick dealers. Drivers of other cars are also taking an interest and are invited to join the present group in a pledge of safe driving according to Hugh Johnson, local Buick manager.

The project will be part of a major safety campaign to be carried on among more than 2,500,000 Buick owners of the United States throughout the year.

The campaign will be one of safety education and will be carried on through the medium of the Buick Magazine, a company publication circulating currently to approximately 40,000 Buick owners and reaching through reader circulation several times that number.

Purposes of the Safety Legion are the promotion of safe and courteous driving among Buick owners and to encourage them by their own example and by their influence in their local communities, to become leaders in a movement to reduce accidents on the highways.

All owners of Buick cars are eligible for membership in the Legion, the requirements being the signing of a membership card pledging courtesy and care in the operation of a motor vehicle and careful observance of local and state traffic laws.

All members of the legion will be entitled to display on their cars a membership emblem which will be supplied without cost. This consists of a metal medallion or disk, which can be attached to the license plates of the car.

"The starting point of a safety program is the man behind the wheel," commented President Curtis of the Buick Motor company. "A great majority of automobile accidents, in fact practically all of them, can be prevented by intelligent care and courtesy on the part of the driver."

Accident Victim Is Able to Talk

TEXARKANA, Ark., Feb. 15. (AP)—Eight-year-old Patty Kincaid, speechless for 103 days, today uttered her first words since an automobile overturned with her and her parents Nov. 4.

She turned eager eyes to her nurse, Miss Era Nolan, and said plain, "I love you."

Until a few days ago she had been unable either to move or speak. Last week she took her first steps, assisted by the nurse.

Cardenas Warns Mexican Labor

LAREDO, Feb. 15. (AP)—President Lazaro Cardenas of Mexico warned 5,000 workers in another mass meeting at the Apollo theater at Anahuac today that all trouble must cease at once.

He asked labor leaders, union workers and those free laborers who have been classed as communists to lend their aid in bringing about a solution of the labor troubles which have racked the state of Tamaulipas.

He announced 3,000 hectares of land would be given away next week in an effort to end the land controversy in the Anahuac section. Members of the United Syndicate of Laborers will draw for 2,000 hectares, and free laborers for 1,000 hectares, a representative of the federal government supervising the drawing.

THE FRUIT OF WAR: All they that take the sword shall perish with the sworn.—Matthew 26:52.

Neutrality and Profit Motive

With England embarking on a preparedness program described as frenzied and with many nations similarly inclined; with Russia and Japan shadow-boxing with increasingly serious incidents reported; with U. S. Statesmen shouting that Japan has her eyes on Alaska; with Italy expanding by force of arms, France ringing her frontiers with steel and concrete and Germany hers with subterranean airplane hangars; with dictatorships permitting a few men to determine the destinies of nations; with communism gaining ground and all manner of loose thinking rampant in the United States, citizens of today's world may wonder what is the price of peace while paying the awful price of past, present, and future wars.

Although measures designed to encourage U. S. neutrality apparently have little chance for enactment in Congress this session, the subject remains a grave and pertinent one. After the world war, disarmament was regarded as one road toward peace. In demilitarizing Germany, the allied nations promised to disarm in large degree. Their failure to keep this promise is being used by Germany as an excuse to re-arm. The chain of circumstances includes Russia's vast war machine and Japan's demand for naval equality as a major power. So the race goes on, while human backs creak under the heavy tax load. And we must not forget that the same circumstances over 30 years led to the world war.

The world war to date has cost Uncle Sam 55 billions directly and much more indirectly. How we got into the war is being widely debated, but nobody seems to deny that we got very little out of it for the money and 350,000 lives. We fought for freedom of the seas and safety for the little nations. But we are no nearer these goals than we were before the war.

And, having been so thoroughly disillusioned in the world war, Americans are demanding legislation to keep us out of the next one in Europe. We can build up our military machine to make us impregnable in case of attack; we can cooperate with other nations in steps toward peace (watching lest we go to war to enforce peace), or we can maintain strict neutrality by keeping our citizens and our money at home. For war usually follows the pocket-book.

Defensive preparedness is necessary. But it is impossible to build a war machine strong enough to guarantee peace. More and more we are turning toward social legislation—old age pensions, unemployment insurance, etc.—and we will need our money for this program.

We can cooperate with other nations to a limited extent. But when we get into the European checker game, played by skilled politicians for stakes in which we are not interested, we have much to lose and little to gain. We can cooperate in the application of sanctions only at the cost of becoming a participant in Europe's quarrels. Half-hearted cooperation is likely to be more dangerous than none at all. Having chosen to stay out of the League of Nations, we are in no position to make enemies without having the League members as pledged allies.

Europe has long based pacts on achieving balances of power. Secret treaties are not uncommon. New diplomatic alignments are taking form. Italy is no longer the close ally of England, France is torn by difficult choices, and the new English king is definitely pro-German in sentiment.

Hence neutrality legislation by the Congress appears desirable, especially as recent revelations have shown the need for it. Of course, legislation is an inflexible statement of policy and imposes difficulties in emergencies. It is being proposed that the United States puts embargoes on arms and munitions to nations engaged in armed conflict. And most anything is a munition of war. It is proposed that exports be licensed, that loans to belligerents be forbidden, that no passports to war zones be issued to American citizens, that American ships be forbidden to carry munitions of war. Such rules would cost this country billions, but the bigger cost of warfare must be remembered. The price of peace in the immediate period of war is always huge. The price of peace is the holding of one's temper, individually and as a nation. "Insults" must be ignored in some instances.

It is to be expected that neutrality legislation will be opposed by those who profit from war. It is to be expected that the dangers of defining neutrality in advance will be paraded. But in every general war in Europe we are going to get insults, our ships will be blockaded, our citizens will be killed if they go into war zones. The rights of neutrals are never respected by belligerents, for war is war, and anything goes in the interest of national safety.

Neutrality legislation should be based on the theory that while national isolation in peace-time is undesirable, isolation in wartime is the only road to peace. We must be prepared to pay, in money, or peace. But money and even hunger are mild when compared to war.

When war is declared by our European customers, our exports naturally drop, but if we choose one side and sell billions of dollars worth of war supplies to it, we are selling on credit and risking more repudiated debts.

War hurts whether a nation is participant or neutral, but the cost of neutrality is but a small portion of the cost of war.

"There never was a good war, or a bad peace."
Ask the boys who lived in the trenches.

BY BOYCE HOUSE, Author of "Were You in Ranger?"

Color? The Ranger oil boom of 1919 and 1920 fairly reeked with it! One visitor, unable to find even a cot in a hallway, paid $2 to spend the night in a barber chair.

An old prospector fainted on the street and was carried into the nearby police station where it was found that he had $700,000 worth of oil and mineral stocks in his pocket.

A linotype operator relates this incident: Because of the housing shortage, some of the members of the Ranger Daily Times for the banks in the newspaper building. Early one morning, they were awakened by shots in the alley, where they found a man mortally wounded. They discussed the occurrence a little while and then returned to sleep.

He remembers being "marooned" in Desdemona for three days, roads being paralyzed. Supplies ran low and the restaurants went on short rations.

The owner of a well simply couldn't understand it. Just half the progress that ought to be made in drilling was being accomplished and all the hole was being made in the "night tower." He decided to investigate and, concealing himself, soon learned what was happening.

The night crew, upon arriving, would inveigle the day shift into a poker game, not for money but for the hole that the day workers had made. The night "tower," being better poker players, would receive their own credit the number of feet that the day boys actually had drilled and then lounged around until time to quit "work."

A visitor to Ranger was Capt. Leonard Wood (son of Gen. Wood, chief contender for the republican presidential nomination in 1920). Young Wood's pockets were picked and he lost money, keys and baggage check. He searched through several thousand pieces of luggage in the station and found his trunk. Some years later, incidentally he was credited with making $20,000 in the stock market - cabling instructions to his brokers from the Philippines.

The newspapers chronicled the amazing success of two brothers who owned a confectionery in a small Oklahoma town. After looking over the Desdemona area, they interested seven friends in putting up a few hundred dollars, matched the amount and bought 520 acres of leases. An offer of $275,000 for 90 acres was refused but a deal was made (according to the journals) whereby $35,000 was received by the fortunate nine for the 90 acres and, as further remuneration, they were to receive the entire output of the first well and half the production from additional wells.

Another success story was that a captain, who on being discharged at the conclusion of the world war went to the Mexico fields, heard of Desdemona and hastened there with $3 in his pocket. He obtained a lease, organized a company capitalized at $150,000 and brought in a good well.

George M. Church, who had been a tennis star, banded a group of his former associates in the air service into a company and bought the Baggett lease near Gunsight. A sensational profit was made on a 76-acre tract that H. B. Furr and others sold to the Brown Oil company. The lease, a million-dollar Breckenridge brought $200,000. Sixteen months earlier, the tract had been sold for $2,000.

Walker & Caldwell leased 100 acres, just northeast of Breckenridge, to the Cooper-Henderson company for $25,000.

These were just "run-of-the-mine" prices. There were innumerable transactions involving far greater sums.

For 1,600 years the "pagoda" has been closely associated with Buddhism, which disapproves of fighting. But modern China is building pagodas to glorify the deeds of men-at-arms and to encourage young China to become war minded.

Hunny rabbits are getting rare in Kansas, a check by L. D. Wooster, professor of zoology at Fort Hays state college, shows in recent rabbit drives, it was found only one cottontail was killed to every 1,000 jackrabbits.

Many Wells in East Texas Get Marginal Basis

KILGORE, Feb. 15 (AP) - The better wells in the East Texas oil field received an increase in allowable and middle class wells suffered a decrease under the proration order and new potential contour map of the field, effective February 1. Records of the Railroad commission's engineering department here revealed that the new proration order allowed a daily flow of 2.85 per cent of the hourly potential.

Wells having an hourly potential of more than 700 barrels profited under the February order on the basis of comparison with the 2.7 per cent allowable of January. The new potential contour map transferred 274 wells to marginal classification. Marginal wells, numbering 11,017 February 1, were allocated an allowable of 20 barrels a day, the lowest for wells the depth of those in the East Texas field under interpretations of the Texas conservation law. Marginals, under the 2.85 per cent order, include those having an hourly potential of 700 barrels or less.

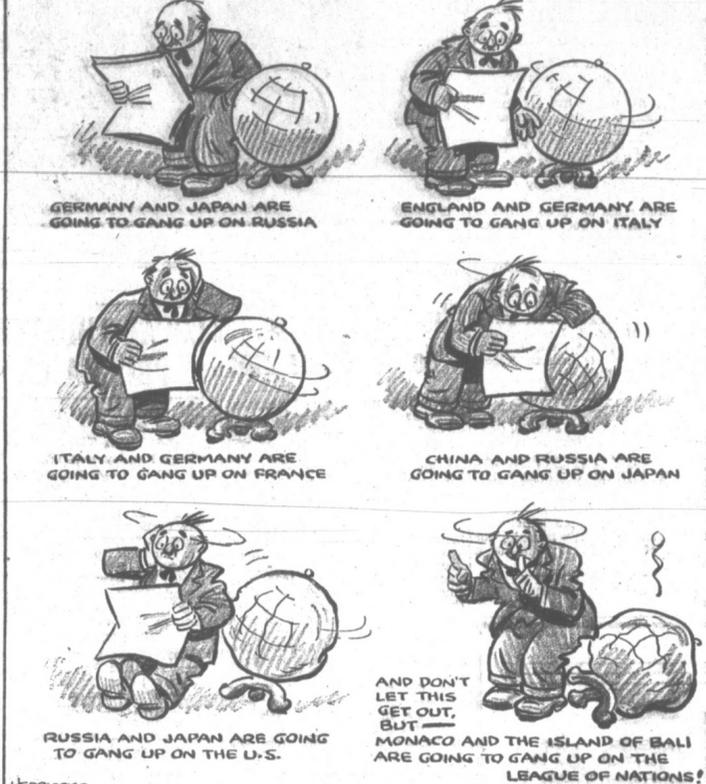

The commission records show the field had a daily allowable of 433,381 barrels from 19,702 wells as of February 1, compared to 436,111 barrels on January 31, the last day of the 2.7 per cent basis and the old contour map. Potential calculated on the latter was 14,704,070 barrels while it is 11,937,020 on the new map.

The new maps show 1,000 barrels hourly potential for the middle of the field as in January. The 11,017 marginal wells have a total hourly potential of 4,461,885 barrels, an average of 405 barrels, and the 8,896 non-marginal and hourly potential of 7,467,135 barrels, an average of 860.

The commission's engineering records show 195 wells completed in January for a total of 19,702 January 31.

There were 393 Poles and 395 Americans in German schools of higher learning the first half of this year. Rumania was third with 352.

COTTLE GETS DEEP TEST IN WILDCAT AREA

Childress Again Hopes to Become Oil Center - Alma Oil Co. Drills.

CHILDRESS, Feb. 15 - The Yarbrough No. 1 spudded in this week on the Buckle L Ranch, 8 miles southeast of here.

Starting regular towers last night, a crew of 15 drillers and roughnecks, a tool pusher, and Wayne Exley, superintendent of the Alma Oil company, started putting down the deep test, which will probably determine whether or not Childress becomes the center of an oil field.

The Yarbrough No. 1 is located 1,900 feet west and 590 feet south in section 546, Cottle county. It is one-fourth of a mile south of the Childress county line.

Tool pusher on the Yarbrough is George Kennitz, brother of "Swede" Kennitz, who is a member of the firm drilling the Knorrp No. 1 in Childress county. "Harp" Rawson, day driller on the Alma Oil company's abandoned Mollie Low test, will drill for the Noble Drilling company, and Tom Brown will also drill one tower.

Harold "Jelly" Lovelace, formerly with the Loffland Bros. Drilling company, under contract with the Hill county, is with the Noble Drilling company crew on the new test.

A straight electric rig, equipped with heavy machinery for deep drilling, started the Yarbrough No. 1. It is the property of the Noble Drilling company, under contract with the Alma Oil company to put down the Buckle L test.

The Alma company drilled the Mollie Low wildcat south of Kirkland in Childress county last spring and found a showing of oil around 5,600 feet, but could not separate the oil from the water in the hole. The new location is six miles southwest of the Low site.

The derrick used on the Low well has been moved to the new site and drilling is to start soon. The well, 6,000 feet, will be drilled in 8,000-acre block under lease by the Alma (Watchorn) interests and is scheduled to go 6,000 feet. The test is believed by Alma geologists to be in the same structure as the Mollie Low.

Smith, speaking for the opposition: "But in town they run red lights, stop in the middle of the street to let out passengers, park irregularly, and fail to give proper signals."

Thompson Says Commission Will End Gas Waste

On receipt of a petition from Panhandle citizens concerning waste of gas in the Panhandle, Chairman Ernest O. Thompson of the Railroad commission replied as follows early this month:

Austin, Texas, Feb. 3, 1936.
Mr. David M. Warren, Panhandle, Texas.
Dear Mr. Warren:

I have received a copy of your petition signed by yourself and many others in which you ask that the gas wastage in the Panhandle be stopped, and I thank you for sending me the copy of that petition.

It is with pleasure that I can tell you that apparently we are going to be able to stop all this preventable waste. The reason it has not been possible to stop it before now is that the courts have issued injunctions against our carrying out the wise conservation law and our orders issued pursuant to that law in many of these instances. However, there is no criticism that can be justly made of the courts, because every person has the right to test out the law of our orders before the courts of our land, and if the law or our orders are unconstitutional, then the courts can point that out.

The process of regulating the production of oil and gas is one with no precedent or guide posts to direct us and we have to make these landmarks for ourselves as we go about our work. This is being done very fast. It may seem slow but it simply cannot be rushed. That is one of the safety valves of our form of government.

Real progress is being made. All departments of the state of Texas are cooperating to the end that the conservation laws can be strictly enforced, and I feel sure that before very long we will get all injunctions against the law dismissed. You may be sure we are exerting every effort to that end.

Again I thank you for your interest. Respectfully yours,
ERNEST O. THOMPSON,
Chairman Railroad Commission of Texas.

PIRATES ARE GIVEN "TAME" SWEAR WORDS

'CAPTAIN BLOOD' COMES TO LOCAL MOVIE HOUSE

Even nicest pirates swear, according to the best histories on the subject, but in motion pictures their language must be censored according to the tastes of the time.

Not the least of the troubles encountered by Scenarist Casey Robinson, in the adaptation of the Rafael Sabatini novel "Captain Blood" for the screen, was the manufacturer of mouth-willing synthetic oaths which would carry the vehemence and effect of reality without offending any member of the any prospective audience.

It was no easy task. "Captain Blood," the Cosmopolitan picture, now playing at La Nora theater, as a First National release, is full of action, a story of violent hates and desperate loves, of sea battles.

Yet one can search the whole script of the picture and not find a single offensive or profane word. "Dammie" is as far as any character comes to swearing.

King James of England, one of the villains of the story, is called a "fifty fellow" by Peter Blood, during his mock trial for treason before the infamous Lord Jeffreys, the "hanging judge." He is sentenced to hang for that.

On the Island of Jamaica, where Blood and others are eventually exiled as slaves, Governor Steed, suffering from gout, raves at the island doctors who are trying to serve him. He calls them "clumsy louts" and "thick fingered jackasses," both of which are rather soul-satisfying phrases at that.

But it is after Peter Blood and his companions have escaped and turned pirates that the dialogue louts and "thick fingered jackasses," both of which are rather soul-satisfying phrases at that.

Blood calls his friend Hagthorpe, "you son-of-a-Yorkshire-steer" as a term of affection. Speaking to the French pirate, Levasseur, who has captured him, Lord Yilloughby says: "Be cursed for a filthy pirate."

Later Blood refers to the lovely Arabella, for whose life and honor he is staking everything in an argument with this Levasseur as "an attractive baggage." Still later he shouts, "Ye muckrake," at the same enemy.

Hagthorpe is made to say, in another place: "We're not yet such lily-livered scum as to be afraid of Colonel Bishop." "Scurvy traitors," says another pirate, referring to a threatened mutiny.

The pirates were a fearless group of embittered men, but their language appears to have been continuously above reproach.

The cast includes Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Lionel Atwill, Basil Rathbone, Ross Alexander, Guy Kibbee, Henry Stephenson, Robert Barratt, and others.

Michael Curtiz directed.

PEPPER IS HOLDOUT
OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 15. (AP)—John Leonard "Pepper" Martin, St. Louis Cardinal baseball star, said today he planned to send his 1936 contract back to President Sam Breadon unsigned for the third time. Although the terms of his contract have not been announced, it is understood Martin is asking for a raise of from $1,000 to $4,000 a year.

Captain Blood Lives Again

story. The picture is at La Nora theater today.

Churches Asked To Honor Patriot

A call is made for all churches in Texas to observe Sam Houston's birthday on Sunday, March 1. The observance of this special day will offer to churches, lodges and schools an opportunity to honor the principles which have strengthened and preserved Texas for these 100 years.

It is one of the objectives of the interdenominational committee of Texas Centennial revivals that all churches observe the state and national holidays during 1936 with emphasis on the spiritual values that have had a vital part in the growth of the state of Texas. A two-fold observance is possible in this special day for it may be combined with an observance of Texas' independence.

In the romance of the life of General Sam Houston there is a revelation of the spiritual triumph over drink, profanity, and self-sufficiency. Such results from the prayers of his wife caused more than three thousand ministers of America to rejoice. His stopping the horse on which he rode that he might get down in the dust to ask forgiveness for loss of temper and the utterance of an oath made a profound impression of John H. Reagan, with whom he was riding. This story deserves to be told as extensively as that of the sublime prayer of Washington at Valley Forge.

Helps for the observance of Sam Houston's memorial in services have gone to all Baptist preachers from the Baptist state headquarters. Anyone interested can obtain an outline of this proposed service from the Baptist minister of his community.

Let Texas write a new "Declaration of Independence"—Independence from the lawlessness and vice which are striking at the heart of civilization. Let us rally to the cause of righteousness, law observance and worthy citizenship in this Centennial 1936!

State PTA Notes Call Attention To Varied Topics

"Parent-Teacher associations can assist in placing youths now unemployed in private employment by contacting potential employers and emphasizing the importance of absorbing unemployed youths in industry as rapidly as possible," said Lyndon B. Johnson, director of the National Youth Administration in Texas. Mr. Johnson urged that local associations in this state sponsor the projects by which the NYA is now providing employment for some 20,000 youths. The types of these projects are community and recreational, rural, public service, and research.

"Financial aid has been made available to more than 8,500 high school students and over 5,500 college students who without this aid could not attend school. At the close of the school year these youths should be given employment. I can think of no more worth while undertaking for a local P.-T. A. than to arrange for the gainful employment of those youths at the end of the school term," the director concluded.

The 96,537 members of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers are centering their attention this month on the celebration of the thirty-ninth birthday of the national organization. This educational movement, which has grown to world-wide proportions, was started in Washington, D. C., February 17, 1897, by Mrs. Alice McLellan Birney and Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst. Local associations throughout the United States are this week honoring the founders and stressing re-education to promote child welfare in home, school, and community, to raise the standards of home life, to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children, and to bring about home and school cooperation to the end that every child will have the best advantages in physical, mental and spiritual education.

Miss Elizabeth Rosell of the state department of health, Austin, has announced that she is receiving many requests for the one-act play "As We Like It," written by Mrs. L. E. Ledbetter and Miss Celia Moore, also of Austin. The play is furnished free and deals with the work of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers in their efforts to send children to school free of remedial diseases.

"Whole Truth" Is AAUW Club Topic

A. A. U. W. members will be entertained at a "truth meeting" Tuesday evening at Schneider hotel. A program is being arranged by Mrs. Allen Hodges and her committee.

The feature will be a play, The Whole Truth Club. Other numbers will include dances by Jane Robinson and Betty Ann McTaggart.

Ninety-four per cent of the visitors to Yosemite National park in 1935 traveled by automobile.
