Breakfast Meet To Kickoff UF's 1966 Campaign

General solicitations for the United Fund will swing into action this week following a kickoff breakfast for workers at 7 a.m. Wednesday in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn. Ralph McKinney, UF campaign chairman said Saturday.

In putting the city's official stamp of approval on the 1966 drive, Mayor J. M. Nation Jr. said, "The United Fund drive, now getting underway, deserves the support of everyone."

"The goal of $78,000 is a challenging one, but it is one which the citizens of Pampa should attain. Every penny of this goal is essential if we are to meet the needs of the agencies serving our city."

The appeal this fall is to meet the 1967 needs of the following agencies: American Red Cross, $15,500; Boy Scouts of Adobe Walls Council, $21,000; Girl Scouts of Quivira Council, $15,000; U. S. O., $500; Pampa Welfare Index, $500; Pampa Milk Fund, $2,000; Gonzales Rehabilitation Center, $500; Texas Association for Mental Health, $200; Medical Research Foundation of Texas, $150; United Funds, $200; Cerebral Palsy, $100; Salvation Army, $18,500 and year-round operation of Pampa United Fund office, $3,850.

Commander Fears Viet Cong Attack

SAIGON (UPI) — The commander of U.S. Marines in Viet Nam said Saturday North Vietnamese troops are likely to make a large-scale attack soon across the demilitarized zone (DMZ) heedless of the cost in lives because "the Communists need a big 'victory' for propaganda purposes."

Gen. Lewis Walt made the prediction as U.S. warplane, ground forces and warships kept up the pressure on the Communists in the area of the six-mile-wide "no man's land" separating North and South Viet Nam.

Giant B52 bombers, blasting at Communist supply lines, rained tons of explosives on infiltration trails and storage areas in North Viet Nam along the fringe of the DMZ in the fourth such B52 raid of the week.

South of the border strip, U.S. Marines pressed a drive against a large North Vietnamese force of troops that has suffered at least 646 dead at the hands of the Leathernecks in the big drive known as Operation Prairie.

Fine Arts Ass'n Plans Art Tea

The Pampa Fine Arts Association is completing plans for an Art-Musical Tea to be presented Sunday afternoon, Oct. 9, in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn, according to Mrs. Fred Sloan, chairman of the Artists Committee, and Tracy D. Cary, Musician Arts committee chairman.

Mrs. Sloan has announced that the afternoon will feature a one-man showing of the art works of a well-known area artist, Maurice Bernson of Canadian.

Bernson, designer of the former J. C. Daniel home on North Duncan and of the interior of the domed auditorium in Borer, is currently assistant to the technical director for the WANT STREET PAVED?

Oct. 1 Is Deadline On Paving Petitions

Property owners who wish to have their streets included in the city's paving program for next spring and summer will have to file their petitions with the city engineer's office by the end of this week.

City Manager Jim White said yesterday the deadline for filing paving petitions has been set for next Saturday, Oct. 1.

White said it is anticipated approximately 120 blocks will be approved for paving construction that will be started next spring.

The city manager explained that although actual paving will not start for some time, detailed engineering and legal work must be done before contracts can be let for the street improvements program.

"In order to allow enough time to do the engineering details prior to letting the contract," White said, "persons wishing to have their streets included in the program must get their petitions in by next Saturday."

The city manager said every effort will be made to pave all streets where participation by property owners has been assured.

White added that the city's share of the street paving cost.

France Sets Off A-Bomb

PAPEETE, Tahiti (UPI) — France Saturday exploded a powerful "doped" atomic bomb at its testing ground 800 miles southeast of here. The test had been postponed 10 times previously because of high winds and generally poor weather.

A communique said the bomb "containing plutonium and limited quantities of thermonuclear materials" was detonated at 1 p.m. CST above the Fangataufa Lagoon. The "doped" atom bomb was in preparation for a hydrogen bomb test next year.

This was the fifth such doped bomb in the current series of tests designed to test the mechanisms to trigger France's first hydrogen bomb in 1968.

One more bomb remains to be detonated to bring the series to an end.

Saturday's test had been scheduled and postponed 10 times since the original date of Sept. 14 because of high winds and bad weather which could cause the fallout to hit South America.

Rising Food Prices Make Housewives More Selective

AUSTIN (UPI) — A recent increase in milk and food prices has without doubt "made the housewife more selective and shop conscious in her food purchases," the Bureau of Business Research said Saturday.

Food purchases last month dropped by 4 per cent from July, the University of Texas research group said, instead of the 1 per cent gain usually shown from July to August.

Consequently, the profit for Texas retail grocers dipped in the month even though they have little control over the prices themselves, the bureau said.

Despite the drop in food sales, the business activity across Texas during August still rose above the July total.

The start of a new school year sparked a wave of buying in such areas as school supplies, clothing and general merchandise and contributed much of the gain.

Gasoline and service stations, nurseries and liquor stores were among the few establishments which showed July to August decreases in sales.

Looking at the entire picture, Texas retail sales rose by 1 per cent from July to August. The U.S. Department of Commerce said retail sales were up about 2 per cent for the nation.

Mansfield Raps Soviet Minister's Reply to US Peace Plan for Viet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield rapped Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko Saturday for his "frozen" and "unbending" opposition to the latest U.S. peace proposal on Viet Nam.

Mansfield issued a special statement regretting Gromyko's rejection of the suggestion of U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg that the United States would be willing to de-escalate the war if North Viet Nam and the Communist Viet Cong would show signs of curbing hostilities.

The Montana senator commented: "Mr. Gromyko, who could, if the Soviet Union so desired, play a very constructive part in settling this problem, has chosen instead not to do so."

At another point, Mansfield said: "It appears to me that the Soviet foreign minister has continued to adopt a frozen point of view and an unbending attitude."

The statement also contained an oblique rebuke to former Vice President Richard M. Nixon who recently characterized the Johnson administration's efforts to settle the war as naive.

"It is unfortunate," Mansfield said, "that in the United Nations... the conciliatory, flexible and anything but naive offer of Ambassador Goldberg was not accepted in the spirit in which it was intended."

Goldberg spelled out the U.S. approach in a U.N. speech Thursday. Gromyko spurned the proposals the following day, declaring there are "still no signs testifying to the seriousness of Washington to seek for a settlement of this problem and to stop its aggressive people."

Connally Swings Full Weight For Carr's Campaign

AUSTIN (UPI) — Gov. John Connally has decided to swing the full weight of his statewide popularity behind U.S. Senate candidate Waggoner Carr in an effort to keep the wide split between Connally and a militant liberal minority of Democrats from serious hampering Carr's election.

This move became clear this past week, beginning with pre-state convention meetings in Austin between Connally and about 150 campaign coordinators who have been with him since 1962.

Some Carr supporters feel that Democratic U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, who opposes just about everything that Connally does, is working against Carr indirectly.

Yarborough and Connally have never been political friends, and the animosity between the two powerful Democratic leaders of Texas has grown in leaps and bounds in the past four years.

Most knowledgeable Texas politicians, including many of those supporting Carr, will admit privately that the Texas attorney general "is in trouble" in his campaign to oust Republican Sen. John Tower in the Nov. 8 general election.

Tower, completing nearly six years in the U.S. Senate, a seat President Johnson vacated in 1960 when he won the vice presidential nomination, has built up strong support in Texas with his backing of a solution in the Viet Nam war and his anti-government spending policies.

Connally apparently concluded within the past few weeks that Carr was in trouble unless the Connally forces lined up solidly behind the attorney general.

At the strategy meeting earlier this week, Connally told his party leaders that he is aware organized labor is sending letters around the state backing Tower.

Connally also was quoted as saying he is aware that Sen. Yarborough, a liberal Democrat, is "working indirectly against Carr," who is a conservative.

Yarborough sent a telegram to organizers of a Waggoner-Carr pre-convention victory dinner Monday night turning down an invitation to appear. But the senior senator "said concerning his support of Carr, 'as I have (See CONNALLY, Page 3)'"

Rampaging Rioters Beat Top Official

KINSHASHA, Congo (UPI) — A screaming, rampaging mob of 400 youths sacked and burned the Portuguese Embassy Saturday. They kidnaped and beat up the Portuguese charge d'affaires and two other embassy employes but later released them on direct orders from Congo President Gen. Joseph Mobutu.

U.S. Marine guards and employes at the U.S. Embassy 100 yards away stood by with fire extinguishers as ash and burning paper floated onto the embassy grounds. There was no attempt to attack the U.S. building but an embassy automobile parked nearby was one of three cars burned by the rioters.

The mob converged on the Portuguese diplomat in the report on Kinshasa (formerly Leopoldville) Radio that a Portuguese diplomat in the Congo was responsible for an assassination attempt on Holden Roberto, the Angola rebel chief now in the Congo. Rebel forces in the neighboring territory of Angola are trying to win independence from Portugal and a long and bloody guerrilla war has resulted.

In Lisbon, the Portuguese government said it considered the assault on the embassy as an "extremely grave" incident but a formal statement was withheld pending further details from the Congo.

The mob's anger was heightened by the belief that Portugal was supporting former Premier Moise Tshombe, allegedly plotting a comeback attempt from his exile in Spain.

Shouting "Down With Portugal" the youths smashed windows with rocks, surged through the main gates, battered into the building and tore up furnishings, setting fire to the splintered remains.

The Portuguese flag was torn down and trampled before a cheering crowd of about 1,000 Congolese who were attracted by the noise and smoke. The crowd yelled "Death to Tshombe."

The violence erupted two days after the Congo government protested to the United Nations the alleged presence of white mercenary soldiers in Angola. The government charged the mercenaries were being trained to invade the Congo and attack Lubumbashi (formerly Elisabethville) in a bid to give Tshombe a few footholds in the country.

Kenney Cancels Appearances
The senator learned of the disaster while in Manchester, N.H., where he was scheduled as keynote speaker at a Democratic convention. He cancelled his speaking and other weekend appearances planned in Vermont to fly back to Washington to be with his wife.

Seminar Shows 'Science In Action'

SCIENCE SEMINAR — Paul Sartwell, Celanese engineer, explains gas chromatography to area high school students attending a science seminar Saturday at the Celanese Plant.

Students from seven high schools participated in a science seminar Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Celanese Chemical Co. plant.

Celanese personnel served as instructors and four guides for the approximately 70 high school students and their instructors attending from Pampa, White Deer, Groom, Amarillo, Tascosa, Amarillo High, Phillips and Samnorwood.

Mrs. Elaine Ledbetter, science and chemistry instructor in Pampa High School, assisted with plans for the seminar.

Following a tour of the plant, students attended classes in Mass Spectrometry, Gas Chromatography, Industrial Finance and Distillation.

H. V. Wilks, plant manager, said he had long felt industry should work more closely with schools in showing young people how businesses are operated.

"Through this science seminar," he said, "we feel we have contributed something to the education of the participants, who have already shown an interest in the sciences, but who may not have had the opportunity to see science in action."

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY

Generally speaking, we have the best conditions at this time that I've seen in many years. An unusually cool spring resulted in a much better than anticipated wheat crop in spite of low rainfall. We missed the usual Monsoon season in June. July was still drier than normal. This resulted in many dryland milo farmers making failures in obtaining stands. The rains missed the range land completely.

By August the county had been declared a drought emergency area. Mid-August rains changed things in a hurry. From two to three inches were received over the county but the range land still came out short. The recent moisture was more general and somewhat heavier. Presently we have about 20 percent of our 99,298 wheat allotment up to a good stand with excellent prospects for wheat pasture. The dryland, hybrid milo crop was able to withstand the prolonged drought in June, July and early August. It has made a tremendous come-back. Acres are down somewhat due to dry weather at planting time.

I've seen some dryland milo crops that look better than the irrigated crops. Many irrigation farmers got off to a bad start on their milo crop because they failed to pre-water. Finally, in desperation they dry-planted milo because it was so late. They watered the milo up and the weeds came up at the same time. This caused a weed control problem. Our irrigated milo crop will be far short of the excellent one we had last year. Stands were not obtained on too many acres until late June and early July. For maximum yields an irrigation farmer should have his milo up from mid-May to June 1.

Forage crops are the best we have seen in years.

The cotton farmers have a similar situation to one Mr. John Haggard had recently. He called me for advice on what to do about his 1967 wheat crop. His volunteer wheat was not up because it had been so dry. Mr. Haggard was waiting to bed the land until he had the volunteer wheat up. He wanted to plant early enough to have wheat pasture but didn't have time to bed the land, irrigate and then tear the beds down to let the volunteer. When he confronted me with "What should I do?" my reply was, "Pray for rain." He was by the office Monday and said, "It sure worked." There is only one thing for the cotton farmer to do, "Pray for eight percent humidity, a clear sky, and a 20 MPH southwest wind."

The cotton crop has the greatest potential of any we have had in years if the right weather will prevail from now until a late frost.

Most of the range land is making a fast come-back. Cattle prices are exceptionally good on stockers. Finished cattle prices have been somewhat depressed. Most feeders are still making narrow, plus margins.

We are hearing more and more wheat farmers say that stocker prices are too high. Many of them plan to lease their wheat pasture out instead of buying cattle themselves. Market quotations from some of the eastern markets reflect a 50 cent per CWT drop on stocker prices. No doubt the combined opinions of many wheat farmers has had some effect on the market. However, if the excellent wheat pasture prospects develop as it appears, look for added strength to the market between October 15 and Nov. 15. If you plan to run stocker cattle on wheat, order them now and have them straightened by wheat pasture time. Chances are you will save $2 per CWT on them plus having forty to fifty pounds of gain on them by Nov. 1-10.

A final word... don't get scared into selling that wheat just because the market was shaky last week. Our carryover of wheat supply was reduced to 536 million bushels last July 1. This is the lowest level since 1952. Some prognosticators that are just guessing (like me) say our stock will be below 300 million by July 1, 1967. Some folks that think the additional 30 percent increase in allotment will be planted are "gonna" have some red faces when they add up the acres next harvest. Unlike other crops wheat doesn't respond to additional fertilizer and water.

Panhandle Water District News

By FELIX W. RYALS

NOTE: In our column last week we carried a portion of a statement by Joe Pate, of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. This week we are carrying the remainder of his statement entered before the Texas Board of Water Development Hearing on September 9, in Lubbock.

"The Water Board has hit the nail squarely on the head when it says that supplemental surface water for West Texas is the most URGENT, IMMEDIATE requirement facing the State.

We realize the magnitude of the task set for the Water Development Board. And we understand that the preliminary plan which we are discussing whatsoever that we suggest that there be a re-evaluation of both the amount of surplus water within the State and the most beneficial redistribution of available water.

First then we ask for a re-appraisal of how much surplus surface water is available for re-allocation. We feel that these calculations should be based on average run-off figures rather than drought period figures. In other words we believe that more surplus water is available than your report shows.

We, as farmers are accustomed to great variances and we are flexible enough to adapt to less water during drought years, but why let good water run into the gulf of Mexico during average wet years? We believe that the Texas Water Plan should be designed to capture maximum surplus surface water from all river basins, instead of being based on amounts available during drought period conditions.

Now, in case there are those who wonder or doubt if we have storage, let me say that we do have storage, not only for whatever surplus water we can get from Northeast Texas, but storage for even more water than the 18 million acre feet that the Board's preliminary report says we would need to develop our full irrigated potential.

Here are the dams and lakes and potential storage sites involved.

Some of them are in place, some about to be built, and others still in the potential category.

ry: Mackenzie 65,000 acre feet, White River 95,000 acre feet, Green Belt 105,000 acre feet, Meridith 1,500,000 acre feet, and with either one dam, or with four smaller ones, we can store another 20,000,000 acre feet in the Palo Duro Canyon at the head of our West Texas irrigated areas. And we can do so without destroying much of the natural scenic beauty there.

So much for surface water storage, a total of 21,765,000 acre feet, which is really only the beginning. Underground, in our Ogallala formation, we can store more water than all the man-made dams and lakes in the United States. For forty years we've been pumping from beneath almost 7,000,000 land acres to make room for imported water. Now all we need is the water.

Celebrity Or 'Twin' Takes Coffee Break In Local Restaurant

By DORIS E. WILSON News Staff Writer

Would you believe... Van Cliburn was in town Friday night? Well, if you won't believe that... would you believe it was someone who looked like the world-famous pianist? Shortly after 7:30 p.m. Friday, a car was parked diagonally in front of the Coney Island Cafe, 114 W. Foster, according to the owners, John and Ted Gikas. Three occupants got out of the car and strolled inside for cups of coffee.

One of the trio was a blonde-haired girl with a pixie haircut. The other was a man with a "JFK" crew cut, who had removed his coat, but was still wearing a tie. The third person bore a striking resemblance to the Texas-born pianist, Van Cliburn. He was a large man wearing a dark suit. He had long, dark, very curly hair and huge hands.

He seemed, according to the Gikas brothers, to be a man accustomed to fame and adulation, who carried himself with the poise and assurance of a celebrity. But, who was this thoroughly enjoying being incognito, relaxed and at ease?

They seated themselves in a booth at the back of the cafe and lingered over coffee. When asked if they would like a second cup of coffee, the curly-haired man said: "Oh, I thought you'd never ask. That is the slowest coffee pot west of the Mississippi."

"It's not the pot," the girl with the coffee pot answered. "It's the waitress." Mid-point in the travelers' coffee break, the man with the JFK haircut walked up to John Gikas at the cash register and asked for change for a package of cigarettes.

Gikas had cast inquiring glances at the trio in the booth... not wanting to intrude his question if they wanted privacy. But he seized the opportunity to ask: "Is that Van Cliburn?"

The crewcut man answered simply: "Yes." Other customers in the cafe, during this time, also thought they recognized the piano virtuoso, but were reluctant to impose a question or request an autograph.

As the three left the cafe, the curly-haired man stopped to chat with a small boy on the sidewalk outside of the cafe. He patted him on the head and then got into his car.

As the brand-new, tan Cadillac convertible sped off into the west, the big question was still not completely resolved... was it or wasn't it Van Cliburn???

Santa Fe Crews Have Derailment Cleanup Finished

WHITE DEER — Santa Fe crews have had a busy week in White Deer in clearing and replacing the railroad tracks which were the result of the recent car derailment. Damages will run in excess of $200,000 for the loss of Santa Fe property, in replacing track and the total and near loss of around 30 rail cars. Forty-two cars were derailed due to a burned-out journal which piled up cars from the Farmers Elevator west past Williams Bros. station.

Seventeen of the derailed cars were loaded with cotton seed meal, sodium sulfate, red wood lumber, potash and carbon black and sugar. The heavily damaged cargo was salvaged and Santa Fe had large holes dug a long the right-of-way to bury the carbon black to prevent it from blowing over the town.

No injuries resulted in the 5:15 a.m. derailment to crew members, and only a metal building at Farmers Elevator was damaged, other than Santa Fe property.

Temporary tracks were laid on Thursday following the accident to enable passage of other trains and not until the following Tuesday was the slow order through White Deer on the local tracks lifted.

This was the third derailment in or near White Deer for Santa Fe, with the other mishaps occurring in 1958 and 1960. Dollar-wise, damages in this recent accident was perhaps the greatest loss in White Deer except for a 1951 tornado.

The two crewmen riding in the caboose had the narrowest escape in the accident, which resulted only as an emergency stop for them.

A stimulating, eye-opening address from a recognized scientist, tops in his profession, has been promised for club members attending, according to Roy Sparkman, Club president. Reservations for purchasing dinner tickets must be made by 1 p.m. Wednesday at Malone Pharmacy.

Connally

However, Yarborough indicated in a speech a week ago at Fort Worth that he would do little to support Carr in his campaign.

"I'm going to make as many speeches for Waggoner Carr in his campaign as he's made for me in my seven statewide campaigns," Yarborough said at that time.

None could recall Carr ever openly supporting Yarborough in any of the senator's campaigns.

Thus, Connally's decision was made to throw his full support into Carr's campaign.

Some results may already be cropping up. This weekend the governor, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Speaker Ben Barnes all appeared with Carr in the Lubbock area.

Red Cross News

The Pampa United Fund is most ready to kick off for this year and it is the hope of the Red Cross that each person in Pampa will give enough so that all of our agencies can do good work during the coming year. Let us all work so that this year we won't have to have separate drives all during the year. If the goal for our organization of $15,500 is raised, we promise the community that we will not have a separate drive this year and we will do a good job with the funds allowed us.

The Water Safety Instructor class will close this week but we do not have the names of all of those who passed. Watch our column this next week for the names. Swesters and emblems were given to the new instructors to wear while teaching the classes this coming year by the local chapter.

A Standard First Aid Class for the men in the Safety Department at Celanese began this Wednesday evening with Jim King and the other FAI teachers in the class. Mr. Gilbert Grib-ble, FAI Trainer visited the group on their first meeting night and gave them many hints for increasing safety in the plants. Mr. Gribble plans to return to Pampa in the spring to reach a First Aid Instructor Class. He will also hold a re-training course for Water Safety Instructors while he is in Pampa at that time.

Thanks for the clothes that have been brought to our Red Cross office the past week. Our friends need to know that they are placed at the Welfare Index Store Room on the Amarillo Highway. It is good to work with Mrs. E. M. Stafford and with a friend such as Ted Gikas, president of the Index.

An old Texas superstition was that a red ant tied on a string around a person's neck was a good cure for a cold.

Center Wrap-Up

George Smith, Director

Each band will play for one hour from 8-11 p.m. These are top notch bands so you teenagers make your plans to be here October 29.

A new session of swim lessons at the Center will start on October 3 with a beginners and an advanced beginners course offered. Now would be a good time to purchase or renew that membership for another year. The center is open the year around which includes the swimming pool activities such as volleyball leagues, basketball leisure time activity. There is leagues, badminton, pool, ping pong, etc. are offered for your leisure time activity. There is never an additional charge to use the Centers facilities except for leagues entry fees.

Children under 8 years of age must be accompanied into the pool by an adult who is at least 16 years of age. Chaperone must be in swim suit. An individual membership is only $8 per year or $5 for six months and is available for persons 8 years of age or older. All memberships run for a full six or 12 months according to the purchase.

The dances will be held on Oct. 1, 8, 15, 21 and Nov. 5, 12, 19, and 26. Admission is only 75 cents and lasts from 7:30 to 10:30. The Manchids Band furnishes the music. This is strictly for Jr. High age group.

The second week of volleyball action thinned out the unbeaten ranks this past week with defending title holders immersing victorious. In women's league scores found La Bonta Beauty Salon over Malcolm-Hinkle 15-0 and 15-2. Cree's Insurance over Hopkins 15-5 and 15-12 while Cock O Walk bumped First National Bank 15-1 and 15-0.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI)—Show me a man who made high grades in college and was a campus leader to boot; a man who always hustles at work and keeps his head when all about him are losing theirs.

Show me such a man—and I will show you a dismal failure. According to some recently published psychological studies, any one of those traits would be enough to detour him from the road to success.

The studies indicate that not really trying may actually be the surest way to succeed in business. You just lie back and sink to the top.

Consider Article
Consider first an article by Jerome Bauer, a management consultant who prepares psychological tests for personnel directors.

Bauer wrote that the best way for a college student to land a good job is to be "a mediocre student and stay off the yearbook."

Many big businesses, he explained, are leery about hiring honor graduates and big men on campus.

This concept appears to be supported by a study conducted by a group of researchers in San Francisco.

They divided business executives into two categories. Ambitious, hard-driving climbers were designated "type A" and the more relaxed corporate officials were put in type "B."

"We found over and over that the president of a company is a 'B,'" their report said.

The report didn't mention this, but there also is a type of company president who is an "S" and an "O" as well as a "B."

This brings us to a study published this week in McCall's magazine. It deals with the ways people react to a crisis.

The main conclusion is that persons who appear to be "falling apart" actually are coping with the situation better than those who remain calm.

All of my life I have tried to be studious, popular, energetic and self-controlled. Which means, if these studies are correct, that I have four strikes against me.

But if I am a failure, it isn't my fault. My brother is to blame.

Another article I read this week contended that a person's "fundamental attitudes toward life" may be formed by the time he is 18 months old.

I was about that age when my brother hit me on the head with a Horatio Alger book.

Income Tax Questions, Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE—This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the Pampa office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published by The Pampa News as a public service to taxpayers.

Q—Are Revenue agents evaluated on the basis of their "production"—the amount of the tax increase—resulting from audits?

A—IRS agents are professional employees and evaluated by professional standards. No records by case count or dollars assessed are available to agents' supervisors. The purpose of an audit is to insure that the correct tax has been paid. The government wants no more than it is entitled to and certainly no less. Each year, audits result in refunds unexpected by taxpayers as well as assessments for additional taxes. Whether a Revenue agent recommends a refund or an assessment is immaterial to his professional progress in the Revenue Service.

Q—I've just been assigned by my boss to a job some 100 miles from here. As it will last for several weeks, I'm going to commute or at least come home on weekends. Will my rent and board while away from home be deductible?

A—If you work at this job for a short period, then your living expenses while away from home may be deductible. However, if the end of the job can't be fixed within a short period or is for an indefinite period, then the job location becomes your home for tax purposes and living expenses will not be deductible.

Q—Our son is helping out in our store after school. A neighbor told me we would have to withhold taxes from any money we pay him. Is that right?

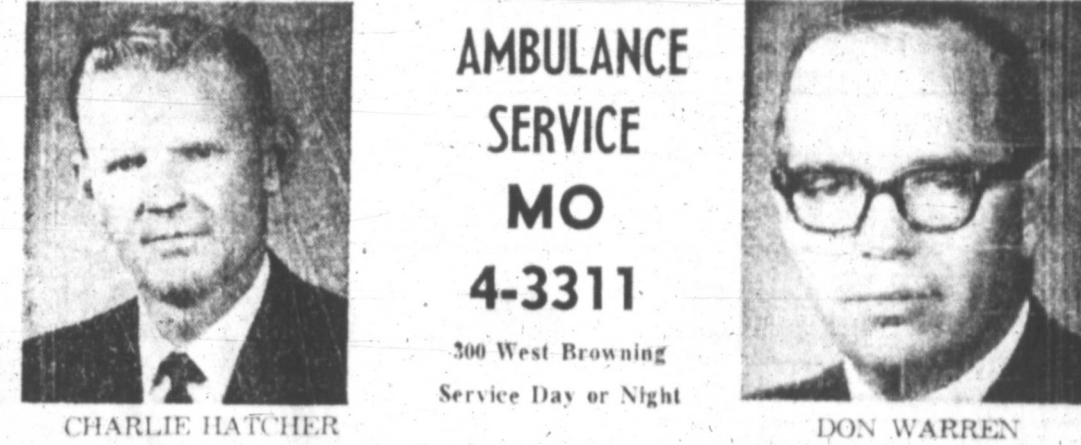

A—In the situation you describe of a minor child working for a parent, reasonable wages may be paid to the child. The wages are a deductible business expense for the parent and taxable income for the child. In this situation, the child's wages are subject to withholding for income taxes but not for social security taxes.

Medicare Questions And Answers

SERIES (3)

Q—I don't know whether my family doctor has signed up with the medicare program. How can I tell whether he can treat me under medicare? I do not like to ask him right out.

A—Medicare can pay toward the bills of any physician licensed to practice medicine in your State.

Q—I have already run up a doctor bill of more than $50 since medicare started with my family doctor. My doctor now suggests that I should see a specialist. Do I also have to have a bill of at least $50 with the specialist before medicare will start to pay toward his bill?

A—No. You pay the $50 deductible under the medical insurance plan only once a year. As soon as your covered medical expenses reach $50, your medical insurance will pay 80 percent of the reasonable charges for all additional covered services for the rest of the year. You can put in a claim for medical insurance as soon as you have any bills for covered services, but most people will prefer to wait until their bills go over $50, because no payment can be made until then. When you put in a claim, you will receive a notice that will show when you met the $50 deductible, or how much of the deductible you have incurred. You can show this notice to doctors and others from whom you subsequently receive medical treatment that is covered under the medical insurance plan.

Q—Does the medical insurance plan cover any home health care visits?

A—Diagnostic X-ray and laboratory tests, electro-cardiograms, basal metabolism readings, electro-encephalograms, and other diagnostic tests:—X-ray, radium, and radioactive isotope therapy; Ambulance services where normal transportation would endanger health; surgical dressings and splints, casts, and other devices for reduction of fractures and dislocations; rental of medical equipment such as iron lungs, oxygen tanks, and wheel chairs to be used in the patient's home; prosthetic devices, such as artificial legs, braces, and replacements for all or part of an internal body organ.

Q—My doctor says I need a certain kind of hospital bed to sleep in at home. I can rent such a bed or I can buy one. Will the medical insurance plan cover the purchase of the bed?

A—No. The medical insurance plan covers only the RENTAL of equipment that your doctor says is needed for your treatment at home.

Q—I am nearing 65 and in poor health. Will I have to pass a physical examination to be covered under medicare?

A—Definitely not. Regardless of your health, you will be eligible for participation in both the hospital insurance plan and the voluntary medical insurance plan.

Cornhuskers Throttle Utah State, 28-7

PAMPA DAILY NEWS
Sports

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Fifth-ranked Nebraska erupted from a sluggish three quarters of play Saturday to score three touchdowns in the final period and power past an aggressive Utah State, 28-7, before a record bandy crowd of 63,543.

The Cornhuskers had to fight for their lives most of the clash as the Aggie defense, anchored by 255-pound tackle Bill Staley, turned in a brilliant losing performance.

Nebraska sped to a fast lead, scoring with less than four minutes gone in the contest on a 150-yard plunge by junior fullback Charlie Winters.

The drive covered 31 yards and was set up by a 37-yard punt runback by 160-pound Larry Wachholtz, who also added a third quarter field goal after Utah State held Nebraska three times within its own one-yard line.

Later Wachholtz was to add icing to the cake with a 72-yard score on a punt return.

The Huskers nursed the 7-0 lead until halftime but after the intermission the fired-up Utah offense, spearheaded by scrambling quarterback Ron Edwards, knotted the score on a 71-yard drive. Edwards, who threw no less than 30 passes, sneaked in from one yard out. Jim Murphy converted.

Nebraska's offense still could not get going. Then the Husker defense busted the game open when middle guard Wayne Meylan blocked an Aggie punt and recovered on the Utah eight. Three plays later 200-pound halfback Ron Kirkland skirted in for the tally.

For minutes later Wachholtz, the country's No. 2 punt returner last year, exploded for a 72-yard runback for another Husker score.

With 2½ minutes remaining, junior halfback Paul Critchlow capped a 42-yard drive with another Husker score.

The destructive Nebraska defense, which last week yielded only 10 yards on the ground in an opening game win over Texas Christian, picked up where it left off. The Aggie offense was held to a net loss of 12 yards rushing the first half and couldn't do much better on the gridiron in the second stanza.

But Edwards gave the Husker secondary fits with his passing abandon. He set a new Utah State career total offense record of 2,447 yards in the battle.

Colorado Nips Baylor, 13-7

WACO, Tex. (UPI)—The University of Colorado fought off a last-minute passing blitz by Baylor's Terry Southall and beat the favored Bears 13-7 Saturday night.

The alert Colorado defense nabbed off four Southall passes and pounced on two of four Baylor fumbles to keep the Baylor attack from putting together more than one successful drive in the second period.

Colorado's alternate quarterback, Bernie McCall, guided the Buffaloes to second and fourth-period touchdowns, the latter coming after tackle Frank Bosch grabbed a Southall pass out of the air and gave the visitors the ball on the Baylor 27.

Colorado had ample opportunities to make good, starting drives seven times in Baylor territory.

McCall set up the go-ahead touchdown with a 24-yard pass to the Baylor one-yard line to Bosch, with big fullback Wilmer Cooks plowing through the field goal drive. Dave Bartel missed the field goal attempt, leaving the Buffaloes vulnerable with only a six-point lead at that point.

Rice Upsets Tigers, 17-15

HOUSTON (UPI)—Robbie Shelton, a sophomore playing his first college game, twisted 13 yards for the winning touchdown Saturday night late in the fourth quarter to give Rice a 17-15 upset victory over highly favored Louisiana State.

Shelton, a second string quarterback, picked up 50 yards in the 80-yard last-ditch scoring march.

The victory started the final year of Coach Jess Neely's coaching career on the right note. Neely, who came to Rice in 1940, seven years before Shelton was born has announced he will retire after this year.

Louisiana State, a 13-point favorite, led all the way until Shelton scored with 2:06 remaining in the game. Until that time, Nelson Stokley's six-yard scoring pass to end Tommy Morel was the margin in an apparent 15-10 victory.

LSU had scored in the second quarter when defense end John Garlington intercepted a Robert Hailey pass and ran it back to 42 yards and a touchdown. Steve Daniel had kicked a 25-yard field goal in the first quarter for LSU's other points. His two extra point attempts failed.

It was the first time Tulane has won two games in a row since 1958. Last week, the Green Wave shut out Virginia Tech, 13-0.

Duhon, celebrating his 20th birthday, swept left end for three yards and one score in the first period and jumped over from the one-yard line on a keeper in the third quarter.

In between, guard Vic Eumont recovered an Aggie fumble in the end zone for another Green Wave touchdown.

Matney kicked the conversion with 3:27 left in the first period for a 7-0 Pampa lead.

Arkansas Rips Tulsa, 27-8

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (UPI)—Senior safety Martine Bercher opened the scoring with a 64-yard punt return and tailback Bruce Maxwell blasted over for two short touchdowns Saturday to give Arkansas a 27-8 victory over Tulsa.

The win extended the Razorbacks' regular season winning streak to 23 games.

The Arkansas defense, sparked by tackle Loyd Phillips and middleguard David Cooper, bottled up Tulsa's passing attack, forcing fumbles and interceptions that led to two Razorback scores.

Maxwell's scoring plunges of two and one yards were both set up by Cooper, who recovered a fumbled Tulsa punt attempt and intercepted a pass on the Hurricane 37.

Maxwell was the game's leading rusher with 122 yards on 27 carries.

Bercher's dash on the second play of the second period followed a scoreless first period in which neither team threatened.

Tulsa's only touchdown came late in the final period on a six-yard pass from quarterback Glenn Dobbs III to end Brent Roberts. A 30-yard Tulsa field goal in the fourth period was nullified by a penalty.

All-Southwest Conference quarterback Jon Brittenum directed a near flawless attack and capped the Hogs scoring with a 13-yard touchdown pass to end Tommy Burnett in the third period.

A crowd of 41,000—the largest ever to see a game in Razorback stadium—watched Arkansas roll up 203 yards on the ground and 136 yards through the air.

The Tulsa offense, seeking a fifth straight national passing title, racked up 287 aerial yards, but was held to only 10 yards on the ground.

Starting Tulsa quarterback Greg Barton was hobbled by a hip injury through most of the game, but completed 13 of 24 passes for 122 yards.

Brittenum matched Barton by hitting 10 of 18 for 124 yards.

Texas Holds Raiders Strong Bid in Fourth

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI)—Halfback Greg Lott thundered 88-yards with the opening kickoff for a touchdown to get the University of Texas off to a lead the Longhorns never relinquished Saturday night and they out-lasted Texas Tech 31-21 in a Southwest Conference opener.

Texas rolled up the points in the first half on a 47-yard field goal by David Conway, a six-inch touchdown plunge by sophomore quarterback Bill Bradley, and a three-yard TD pass from Bradley to end Tom Higgins.

The Longhorns led at halftime 24-8 with the Red Raiders scoring after Bradley bobbled a punt. Quarterback John Scovell of Tech rifled a 43-yard touchdown pass to end Larry Gilbert and connected with Jerry Lovelace for the conversion.

The Longhorns, who have never lost a conference game to Tech since the Red Raiders entered the SWC in 1960, had all they could handle in the second half.

Texas ran the score up to 31-8 in the third quarter when Bradley dashed three yards for a touchdown around right end.

Texas Tech took advantage of an interference call against the Texas defense on the Longhorns' one-yard line to set up a touchdown plunge by halfback Mike Leinert.

The ball-hawking Red Raiders got the ball again in the final quarter and Scovell snapped a 13-yard touchdown pass to halfback Gary Golden.

Despite the loss, the Red Raiders scored more points against Texas than they had ever before managed. The previous record for them was 20 points in 1955.

UCLA Bruins Roar Past Syracuse University, 31-12

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI)—Quarterback Gary Beban passed for one touchdown, ran for a second and provided the aerial attack Saturday that bombed Syracuse 31-12.

Under Beban's direction, the Bruins ran up a fat 31-point lead before Syracuse scored in the third period.

Syracuse halfback Floyd Little scored both touchdowns for the Orangemen, tying the school record of 35 set by late Ernie Davis.

Bruin kicker Curt Zimmerman converted after all four UCLA touchdowns and also booted a 22-yard goal.

A Syracuse fumbled, a UCLA interception and a 49-yard Beban pass enabled the Bruins to go on a 21-point scoring spree in the middle of the second quarter. The fumble by Orange fullback Larry Csonka on his own 16 set the stage for Beban to score from the four-yard line five plays later.

Minutes later, Beban threw a 49-yard bomb to secondstring Harold Busby that put the ball on the Syracuse two. Fullback Rick Purdy ran across on the next play.

Scoring:
Syracuse 0 0 6 6-12

Michigan Downs California, 17-7

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Michigan's Wolverines, always the roughest when back inside their own 20-yard line, made it two straight Sturdy over West Coast opposition by defeating California, 17-7.

Carl Ward and Dave Fisher each registered a touchdown for the sixth ranked Wolverines and Rick Sygar booted a 28-yard field goal to close out Michigan's scoring. All came on sustained drives.

The Bears couldn't tally until there were 3:44 left in the game. Then sophomore quarterback Barry Bronk, taking over for the veteran Dan Berry, marched California 88 yards and ended the drive by hitting on a 12-yard TD pass to Jerry Bradley.

Prior to that score, Michigan had stopped the Bears on the nine, five and 10-yard str pes.

West Texas State went on a scoring spree Saturday night to whallop College of Pacific, 49-7. A film of the game will be shown at three different Buff Booster Clubs this week and over channel 10-TV Sunday night.

Sophs Toss ND By Purdue 26-14

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—Notre Dame's Coach Ara Parseghian took the wraps off a potent sophomore passing combine, Terry Hanratty to the Jim Seymour, Saturday and they sparked the Fighting Irish to a vengeful 26-14 victory over Purdue almost without other offensive assistance.

Hanratty, an 18-year-old quarterback, completed 16 of 24 passes for 304 yards, and three of his throws went to Seymour for touchdowns, once on a play of 84 yards, another covering 39 and the third for seven yards.

Seymour, 19, caught 13 passes in all for 276 yards, breaking two all-time Notre Dame football records.

Nick Eddy, a senior veteran, scored the other Irish touchdown on a 97-yard kickoff return which pulled Notre Dame back into a tie.

Only 14 seconds earlier, a freak fumble gave Purdue a touchdown. The Irish were threatening to score after Hanratty had passed twice to Seymour to move the ball 48 yards to the Purdue 14. Halfback Bob Bleier took the ball on a wide pithout to the left, fumbled and recovered when the ball bounced back to him, and then fumbled the ball high into the air when he was hit.

A Purdue sophomore, Leroy

Keyes, picked the ball out of the air on the Boiler-maker 6 and went 94 yards for a lightning bolt score which could have disheartened the Irish for the rest of the afternoon—except for Eddy's immediate counterpunch.

The Irish wanted revenge in this contest for last year's 25-21 opening game defeat at Purdue. And they wanted to even the score against the Boiler-maker star, quarterback, Bob Griesse, who completed 19 of 22 passes for 283 yards against them last year.

Notre Dame got what it wanted. Griesse finished the game with only 14 completions in 25 attempts and only 175 yards. He had one pass intercepted and his longest completion was only 31 yards, on a tackle-eligible play to Mike Barnes which carried to the Notre Dame 18, where the Irish defense stiffened and Griesse missed a 27-yard field goal attempt.

Griesse's only successful scoring drive covered 75 yards, in seven plays plus a 15-yard major penalty against Notre Dame. Flanker Jim Finley caught two passes for 38 yards in the march, split end Jim Beirne hauled in one for 14 yards, and sophomore fullback Terry Williams plunged from the one for the touchdown.

There's No Joy in Dumas as Pampa Romps, 20-6

By RON CROSS
Sports Editor

DUMAS — Pampa 20. Dumas 6. And mighty Casey has struck out.

There was no joy in Dumas Friday night as underdog Pampa carried the battle all the way and upset the No. 1 ranked AAA team in Texas.

But happiness abounded in the Harvester dressing room and even a shy sportswriter was nuzzled on the cheek by a happy coaches wife.

The Harvesters, giant killers after a dismal showing only a week ago, were cheered on their way to the dressing room and again from their bus to the cafe by an unexpectedly large number of roofers.

Inside the cafe they were given a standing ovation by the Pampa High School student body, parents and friends who saw fit to come to the game despite the fact Pampa was a 13-point underdog.

Even Tarzan and the Green Hornet couldn't have put on better shows Friday than the fighting Green and Gold.

They held a slim 7-6 lead through two quarters and should have had more, being stopped twice inside the Dumas five-yard line.

But Pampa was not to be denied this one as they established several firsts enroute to a satisfying victory.

They became the first Pampa team to whip a Dumas grid team and are the first club to score on the Demons this year, much less beat them.

The Demons were ranked at the top of their class, but no more with a 2-1 record, the same as Pampa.

Like in the Perryton game there were no standout performers, the victory being more of a team win with everybody doing just what they were told and a little more.

But credit must go where it is deserved. A wee mite of a fellow sped through the Dumas defense when he was asked to do so.

Halfback Sherman Mitchell scored his first touchdown as a varsity man and carried the ball just four times but ran for 34 yards for the night, one a 10-yarder for a touchdown.

And quarterback Gary Hyatt, who found out it's best not to handoff inside the five and scored twice, giving him a total of four for the year. Hyatt was on the mark on his passes, hitting four of seven for 86 yards.

Old "Twinkle Toes," James Matney continued to loot the ball with authority, punting just three times for an average of 49 yards per kick and he added two conversions.

Gary McCarrell, L. D. Rowden, and Teddy Heiskell looked like their old selves Friday night, picking up yardage each time they were asked with Rowden, still nursing a back injury, leading all rushers with 76 yards in 17 attempts. McCarrell had 69 in 10 tries and Heiskell 25 on just eight carries.

Pampa scored first, after driving to the Dumas five with the kickoff, and taking advantage of a break.

On the opening play Hyatt hit tackle Doc Corritt with a pass that covered 32 yards and carried to the 14. But the Harvesters could go no further than the five in the next four plays and gave up the ball.

Dumas drove to their own 33 where they had to punt and Pampa could muster but one yard through four downs.

Matney toed the ball 48 yards to the Dumas 19 where the Demons touched the ball but didn't pick it up. But D. D. Lofton clutched it in his arms and the Harvesters had another shot at the goal.

It took only four plays to score with Rowden getting a big chunk going from the 15 to the three. Heiskell carried to the one and Hyatt sliced in for the touchdown.

Matney kicked the conversion with 3:27 left in the first period for a 7-0 Pampa lead.

Buckeyes Down Frogs, 14-7

COLUMBUS (UPI) — Ohio State's defensive squad shunted three Texas Christian fourth period drives with pass interceptions Saturday to give the buckeyes an opening 14-7 intersectional football victory.

The Buckeyes, who lost the ball on fumbles five times, scored touchdowns at the beginning of the first and fourth periods but had to stop determined TCU drives late in the game to post the win.

The hero for Ohio State was sophomore linebacker John Mulbach, who caught two of the interceptions in the closing minutes. Veteran defensive back Tom Portsmouth stopped the other drive with an interception in the end zone.

Halfback Will Thomas set up Ohio's first touchdown with a brilliant runback of the opening kickoff that ended with a fumble on TCU's two-yard line. The Horned Frogs recovered the fumble, but had to kick out of danger.

It took Ohio State seven plays to cover the 47 yards, capped by fullback Paul Hudson's first of two touchdowns on a two-yard plunge with 4:50 elapsed. Gary Cairns converted to make it 7-0.

Texas Christian, which lost its second straight of the season after a 14-10 defeat to highly regarded Nebraska a week ago, knotted the score midway in the third period on a 67-yard drive in 13 plays 11 of them on the ground.

P. D. Shabay, whose passing kept pressure on the Ohioans, scored on a two-yard plunge and Bruce Alford converted, 6 The Horned Frogs, with Shabay taking to the air, appeared to have Ohio State on the run until the Buckeyes managed to generate a scoring drive early in the final quarter.

The Bucks marched steadily up the field, covering 78 yards in nine plays before Hudson bolted loose on a counter play for the final 18 yards. The kick made it 14-7.

But TCU wasn't finished yet. The Frogs, mostly on the arm of Shabay, moved to the Ohio State 18 before Portsmouth snagged the interception in the end zone.

Mulbach stopped the next drive with an interception on the 18 and came through when he grabbed a TCU pass on the Ohio State 44 in the closing seconds.

Sophomore quarterback Bill Long of Dayton passed brilliantly hitting 12 out of 14 passes, four of them on the drive for the winning score.

We said that the 57-0 Dumas win over Pampa in 1961 was the most points ever scored against a Pampa team but an ex-Borger Bulldog lets us know this isn't so.

He's right. In 1938 the Bulldogs plastered Pampa, 66-13 to score the most points against a Harvester squad. The 57-0 Dumas win is the most points, a Pampa has ever been beaten by.

Never Give Up

Those Bulldogs never give up. And neither did we mean to imply that Wheeler coach J. T. Hill had never played football. In fact he was quite a star at Canadian and also in intermural sports at college.

Next to the "I Lang" on the name card above Lizzy Lang's cubicle in the Philadelphia Eagles dressing room, someone has written in a firm hand: "Jim Brown."

But Lizzy doesn't believe it, saying, "I don't want to be him. I just want to be Lizzy."

But he is, at the moment, the No. 1 man to succeed Brown for rushing title with 179 yards in 32 carries, an average of 5.9 per carry.

The leading pass receiver in the National Football League is LA's Tommy McDonald, believed through a year ago, with 174 yards on 14 catches.

The best passer is none other than Don Meredith who hit 14 of 24 for 358 yards in a 'perfect' game last week.

Rick Goodwin, formerly of Pampa fame and now of University of Oklahoma fame, didn't play last week because of an injury but showed well again Iowa State Saturday.

The last time Texas A&M and Tulane clashed was in the Sugar Bowl of 1940 and none of the present Aggies were born then.

After last week's humiliating loss to Georgia Tech they probably still feel the same way.

And who would you pick in the World Series should it be Baltimore-San Francisco, Los Angeles or Pittsburgh?

The Orioles have slipped so the National League should have clear sailing no matter who gets there.

Former World Heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson is on the comeback trail once again and stopped Britisher Henry Cooper for the umpteenth time last week.

Ricky Marciano, retired heavy king, is also considering a comeback but is waiting to see what training will do to him.

Should they meet Patterson's comeback would end on a very sad note.

The 'Rock' could probably beat the brash mouthed Clay right now.

And a get well quick message to our good friend Ken Jones, the proprietor of Meat City, who is in Highland General Hospital after emergency surgery.

No, he isn't there from sampling any of his own stuff either.

Tex DeWeese, editor of The Pampa News, who admits he is no sports authority, picked the Dumas Demons to beat the Harvesters 38 to 0 last week. It was the first time he ever had switched from the Green and Gold and picked them losers. Now, he's trying to take credit for the Pampa victory by saying his 38-0 pick in favor of Dumas made the Harvesters mad. DeWeese says if that's what it takes, he'll pick 'em as losers from here on out.

But, the payoff came when he made plans to leave town after he heard what the Harvesters did to the Demons. Could be a case of too chicken to stay and eat crow.

Mustangs Scramble By Middies, 21-3

DALLAS (UPI) — Mac (the Knife) White ran and threw Southern Methodist to a 21-3 inter-sectional victory over Navy Saturday.

White, a senior quarterback who helped engineer a 32-28 upset of No. 1 ranked Navy on this same field three years ago, was at the throttle on SMU's first two touchdowns Saturday as the Mustangs made it five out of six over the Midshipmen in their series.

He gained 16 of the 23 yards in SMU's short scoring drive the first time it got the ball in the opening period, then sent Jim Hagle diving through right guard for the final yard and the touchdown.

After Navy solved his pet rollout-option play, White took to the air in the third period and hit sophomore end Donnie Denbow for 23 and 11-yard passes in a 43-yard third-period scoring surge.

White, who hit seven of 14 passes in all for 53 yards and ran a dozen times for 49 net yards, threw to end Harold Richardson for the touchdown after his own four-yard scoring burst was nullified by a motion penalty.

White's understudy, Mike Livingston, picked up the third SMU touchdown with a 23-yard run late in the final period and Dennis Partee kicked his third consecutive conversion.

Navy's only points came on a 36-yard field goal by Tim Coccozza in the second quarter after teammate Bob Havasy had set it up by recovering an SMU fumble deep in Mustang territory.

The SMU defense, which had manhandled Illinois of the Big Ten a week ago in a season-opening 26-7 victory, was just as formidable Saturday with nose guard John La Grone, tackles John Kimbrough and Ronnie Medlen and linebacker Billy Bob Stewart and Jerry Griffin playing in the Navy backfield much of the sunny

Pirates Hang Tough With 8 to 6 Victory

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ferguson Jenkins threw a temporary roadblock into the Los Angeles Dodgers' pennant express Saturday, pitching the Chicago Cubs to a four-hit 4-0 victory.

It was the first shutout for Jenkins in the major leagues and his fourth victory in succession since moving into Leo Durocher's starting rotation.

Jimmy Stewart drove home two of the Cubs' runs with a single and a ground out, and Ron Santo banged out three singles to lead the Chicago attack.

The loss left the Dodgers' magic number at seven as Pittsburgh defeated Atlanta, 8-6. The Dodgers have eight games left to play and the second place Pirates seven. Any combination of seven Los Angeles victories or Pittsburgh defeats will give the Dodgers their second straight National League pennant.

Giants 9, Houston 5
HOUSTON (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants came from behind on Willie Mays' 35th homer in the 9th inning and a five-run outburst in the 13th carried them to a 9-5 victory over the Houston Astros Saturday.

A triple by Willie McCovey and a two-run double by Jim Hart highlighted the lucky 13th.

The victory kept the Giants' hopes alive in the National League pennant chase. They are four games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers with seven left on the schedule.

Bucs 8, Braves 6
ATLANTA (UPI) — Roberto Clemente's two run home run capped a five run rally that brought the Pittsburgh Pirates from behind for an 8-6 victory over the Atlanta Braves within one and a half games of the National League lead.

The win was the second straight for the Bucs over red hot Atlanta and enabled them to gain ground on the first place Los Angeles Dodgers, who dropped a 4-0 decision to the Chicago Cubs.

The Braves, led by home runs by Denis Menke and Gene Oliver, led the Pirates by margins of 5-1 and 6-3 before Pittsburgh rallied in the top half of the seventh inning. In addition to Clemente, Bob Bailey also homered to lead the Pirates' 11-hit attack on three Atlanta pitchers.

Phil 5, Cards 4
PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Jim Bunning won his 18th victory Saturday night when the Philadelphia Phillies pounced on Al Jackson for five runs in the third and a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Jackson was rapped for five hits in the big inning but the heavy damage came on a two-run throwing error by Lou Brock which gave the Phils their winning margin.

Yanks 1, Bosox 0
NEW YORK (UPI) — Fritz Peterson pitched a six-hit shutout and Mike Hegan scored from third base in the sixth inning on Bobby Muecer's groundout Saturday night to give the New York Yankees a 1-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Juan Pizarro came in with a brief warmup and pitched Chicago to a 6-2 victory over the Washington Senators Saturday.

Pizarro came in the second inning when Bruce Howard sprained a finger and struck jumped over right guard for a two-yard scoring burst.

Twice in the first period, the Blue Devils were within striking distance of the goal line only to lose the ball on fumbles.

Neither team scored in the final period. Duke pushed from its 26-yard line down to the Pitt 39 but the drive was stalled.

Quarterback Ed James completed 15 of 30 passes for 205 yards to give Pitt a passing superiority over the Southerners. Duke's Todd Orvald completed six of nine passes for 50 yards. The Blue Devils gained 214 yards on the ground to 105 for Pitt.

Blue Devils Score Early To Edge Pittsburgh, 14-7

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Andy Beath scooted for 49 yards on a punt return and Jay Calabrese scrambled 14 yards on an end sweep Saturday to lead the Duke Blue Devils to a 14-7 victory over Pittsburgh in an intersectional game.

Beath fielded Al Zortea's punt in the opening seconds of the second period and broke away from several Panther defenders to tie the count at 7-7.

With about four minutes remaining in the third period, Calabrese drove around right end and broke away from a Pitt defender to cross the goal line. The Blue Devils drove 56 yards in 10 plays to insure their second victory of the season.

Last week they beat West Virginia in their opener. Pitt, crushed 57-14 last Saturday by UCLA, scored after the opening kickoff, marching 72 yards in 14 plays. The drive was capped by fullback Mike Raklewicz, who

Sooners Blow By Iowa State, 33-11

AMES, Iowa (UPI) — The powerful running of Ron Shotts and Eddie Hinton, and the passing of sophomore Rob Warmack led the Oklahoma Sooners to a 33-11 win over Iowa State Saturday in the opening Big Eight competition of the season for both teams.

The speedy Hinton gained 88 yards running, mostly on sweeps after taking pitch-outs, and grabbed eight passes for 115 more yards.

Shotts battered over for two touchdowns and was the man who carried the ball every time Oklahoma needed short yardage.

Warmack passed for two touchdowns and a two-point conversion play as the lighter but faster Sooners took an early two touchdown margin and held off the Iowa State attack for the rest of the game.

MSU Tumbles Lions, 42-8

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — Jimmy Raye, a quarterback they said couldn't pass, fired touchdown strikes of 36 and 50 yards Saturday to fire mighty Michigan State to a 42-8 rout of hapless Penn State.

Raye's long passes, both to star end Gene Washington, paced the season's second straight win for MSU, defending Big Ten and national champion. The Nittany Lions never saw light and didn't score until the final three minutes against a third-string defensive unit.

Raye connected with Washington, his huge right end, for the third Michigan State touchdown late in the second quarter. He threw the 36-yard pass into the end zone on the first Spartan play after Penn State lost the ball on a fumble.

Midway in the third period Raye dropped back from the 50 and flung the ball 45 yards to Washington who snared it and tumbled the final five yards into the end zone.

Penn State stayed near the powerful Spartans through only the first 10 minutes of the game. Then halfback Clint Jones, running to his left on a broken play, rambled 29 yards. He plunged the last eight yards in two tries for the first score.

Oklahoma managed to keep pass in the first half, but the heralded Iowa State passing attack under control for most of the game. Cyclone quarterback Tim Van Galde, completed 15 of 32 passes, but most of the completions came late in the game. At that point the Sooners were protecting their lead and yards. The Sooners intercepted three passes.

Warmack threw 15 passes and completed eight, two for touchdowns. He also carried the ball four times gaining 34 target and ISU's all-American candidate, on almost every play. Barney did not catch a yards.

Pampa again recovered a Dumas mistake, when the Demons failed to cover the second half kickoff, David Schaub did, on the Demons 27.

Pampa drove to the two, with a Hyatt to Heiskell pass good for 17, but on first and goal the Harvesters fumbled and the Demons took over.

But the Pampa defense held and Pampa took over on the middle field.

It took six plays for the Harvesters to push this one over with McCarrell's 16-yard run and a 15-yard penalty against

McLean Runs To Third Victory

LEFORS — Ever improving Silverton for a non-league game.

McLean took advantage of Lefors mistakes Friday night and remained unbeaten for the year, running their record to 3-0.

The Tigers took a 18-0 non-conference victory from Lefors, now 0-3.

McLean fullback Raymond Baker again proved his worth, gaining 123 yards in 17 carries, although he scored only once.

The two old rivals played a scoreless first period but Fred Hedgecock's Tigers dented the Pirates' goal in the second when quarterback Joel McCarty tossed 13-yards to halfback Ernest Smith. The try kick for conversion failed.

Near the end of the half the Tigers recovered a Lefors fumble and as the half ended McCarty went in from the two and a 12-0 McLean halftime lead.

Neither team scored in the third but Baker ended a 51 yard march for the Tigers by going the final 14 for the last score of the night.

McLean had 18 first downs and 263 yards rushing while the Pirates had six first downs and 102 yards on the ground.

McLean hosts White Deer next week in a non-conference outing while Lefors journeys to Terrell.

Bucks Ramble In 55-0 Romp

SANFORD FRITCH — White Deer had no trouble running up their third straight victory Friday night as they posted their first shutout of the season.

The Bucks scored at will as they levelled Sanford Fritch, 55-0 in a non-league contest.

Vernon Marlar, a fullback turned halfback and Wayne Burgin paced the Bucks scoring with two touchdowns each but Gary Stewart kicked seven conversions for seven points, the hard way.

Marlar scored the Bucks only first period touchdown, a 36-yard romp through the middle of the line and Stewart connected for a 7-0 lead.

The Bucks scored twice in the second period, on a 41 yard run by fullback Gary Smith and Stewart booted good and Marlar got loose again, this time for 31-yards and a 20-0 White Deer halftime margin.

In the third quarter, Burgin tallied from six yards out, Stewart kicked good, then Bruce Locke scampered 18 yards and Stewart again kicked good. The final third period tally came when a 'hurt' Ronnie Sargent ran 41 yards to pay dirt.

In the fourth quarter Steve Thomas ran 46 yards for the Bucks and Burgin went 16 yds.

Wheeler Takes Third Straight

WHEELER — It took 1965's second leading area scorer long enough to get back in the saddle but it couldn't have come at a better time.

Wheeler took full revenge Friday night for a loss handed them by Groom in 1965 that booted the Mustangs out of the 5-B championship.

Vanpool tallied twice and ran over two conversions as the class A club beat the 5-B champs, 29-0.

Wheeler led only 14-0 at halftime with Vanpool scoring both the Mustang touchdowns and adding a two-point conversion.

The Tigers had been pushed back to their own one-yard line in the opening period and were able to punt only to the 16 where Vanpool carried to the one on third down and then went in for the score. Bobby Rives the conversion and Wheeler led 8-0 after one period.

The Mustangs drove 76-yards in the second quarter with Vanpool going the final eight yard with 1:10 left in the half and it ended with Wheeler in front 14-0.

Passing became the name of the game in the second half with David Jamison connecting with Gary Hardcastle on a 29-yard scoring aerial in the third period. Vanpool ran over the conversion and Wheeler led 22-0 after three periods.

The final touchdown came when Bobby Ware hit sophomore Don Rives with an eight yard loss in the final period. Hardcastle kicked the conversion and it was all over.

The victory was Wheeler's third without a loss and Groom's first loss to go with

Green Bay Hosts Rams in One of Six NFL Games

By United Press International
The revamped Los Angeles Rams hope to become their apparent to the National Football League's Western Conference throne Sunday when they journey to Green Bay to meet the defending champion Packers.

Both teams have 2-0 records, but Green Bay is a nine-point favorite in the odds. However, the man who could upset the odds is quarterback Roman Gabriel of Los Angeles.

The St. Louis Cardinals, topping the Eastern Conference with a 2-0 mark, are expected to have their perfect record ruined by the defending conference champion Browns, who are seven-point favorites.

In other games, Philadelphia (1-1) is favored by 11 points over New York (0-1-1), Pittsburgh (1-0-1) is given a three-point edge over Washington (0-2), Baltimore (1-1) is given a two-touchdown advantage over San Francisco (0-0-1), Dallas (1-0) is rated seven points better than Minnesota (0-1-1) and Detroit (1-1) is 11 over Atlanta (0-2).

Quarterback Gabriel

The Rams have been turning out quarterbacks for years, but most of them were traded before gaining stardom. Gabriel might stick around long enough to lead Los Angeles to its first conference title since 1955.

Gabriel, who didn't get to start in an NFL game until midway through last season when Bill Munson was injured, has completed 35 of 56 passes for 509 yards in victories over Atlanta and Chicago. His top receivers are Tommy McDonald, who has caught 14 for 174 yards, and Tom Moore, who has 11 grabs for 87 yards.

Gabriel is expected to hook up in a duel with Green Bay quarterback Bart Starr, who is leading in passing accuracy with 69.4 per cent of his throws completed. He has completed 34 of 49 passes for 376 yards.

Boyd Dowler is the Packers' leading receiver with 10 catches for 134 yards, and fullback Jim Taylor, usually noted for his running, has caught nine for 85 yards. Taylor has accounted for 118 yards on 33 carries on the ground.

Kelly Green

Cleveland's Ernie Green and Leroy Kelly have taken up the slack since the retirement of fullback Jim Brown prior to the season. Green and Kelly have combined for 245 yards rushing in two games.

Frank Ryan's passes to flanker Gary Collins have provided the Browns' scoring punch with the combination clicking for four touchdowns.

St. Louis depends on the passing of Charley Johnson and the running of Willis Crenshaw.

Dallas' Don Meredith is the league's No. 1 passer with 14 completions in 24 tries for 358 yards and five touchdowns, and fleet backs Bob Hayes, Dan Reeves and Mel Renfro. Minnesota has a scrambling quarterback Fran Tarkenton.

Pittsburgh, also undefeated but once tied in the East, must face the Redskins without its top quarterback, Bill Nelsen, who was injured in the first quarter last week against Detroit. Young Ron Smith, who came off the bench to pass the Steelers to a 17-3 triumph, must again handle the passing chores.

Wildcats Blank Follett, 20-0

FOLLETT — Canadian had no trouble in winning their third straight game of the 1966 football season Friday night.

Johnny Walker and Kenneth Steine paced the Wildcats scoring attack with Walker scoring twice in a 20-0 romp.

The Wildcats scored all their points in the first half with Walker capping a 61 yard scoring drive by going in from the one. Terry Robinett kicked the conversion for a 7-0 first period Canadian lead.

Steine scored on a 4-yard run to cap a 77-yard march and again Robinette kicked good with 6:37 left in the half.

Walker ran nine yards for the final Canadian score with 2:16 left in the half.

LA Dodgers Have 'Togetherness'

By United Press International
It almost seems like the Los Angeles Dodgers do it with mirrors—but for the third time in the last four seasons, they can see the reflection of the rest of the National League teams behind them.

All the Dodgers can do is win. The Dodgers never look like champions on paper but always get the job done. Somehow on the field, they always get the job done.

Gene Mauch calls it "character." Maury Willis calls it "togetherness" and Phil Vulture Regan claims, "they told me all season not to worry because we'd win it in September or I've never seen a team look so different down the stretch."

Playing with a patch-up lineup including a Yankee reject at third, a taped shortstop with a wobbly knee and a pitching staff suffering from various arm ailments, the Dodgers have still roared down the stretch with an amazing 17-5 record under pressure in September.

Meanwhile, Pittsburgh is 11-10 and San Francisco 8-12 in September. That's the story of the race that was in the National League and the Dodgers moved a big step closer to wrapping it up with a 4-0, 4-2 sweep of the Chicago Cubs Friday.

Although Pittsburgh beat Atlanta 3-0, the Dodgers are still three games ahead in the loss column with nine games left.

Although the Dodgers blew a four game lead with seven left in 1962, Sandy Koufax was sidelined when they did that. He's now wincing on every pitch but he's well enough to make the Dodgers an almost sure bet to become the first team since Milwaukee in 1957-58 to win two National League crowns in a row.

It was back in mid-summer place that Koufax said, "as when the Dodgers were in third long as we're within two games going into September, it's then just a question of which team gets hot."

The Dodgers were three games out on Sept. 1 but they moved into first Sept. 11 and have been there ever since with the help of Don Drysdale, who's finally pitching like he's worth $100,000 and tossed a shutout at the Cubs.

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia edged St. Louis 5-4 in 12 innings and Cincinnati blanked New York, 7-0.

In the American League,

Boston edged New York, 2-1, Minnesota whipped Detroit, 12-4, Washington beat Chicago, 5-4, Kansas City blanked Cleveland, 2-0, and California blanked Baltimore, 2-0.

Drysdale, who is now 12-16, started five games in September and the Dodgers won all five. He has won the last three and Ron Perranoski and Regan got the other two victories in relief. The rest of the season, Drysdale looked like he was still in spring training after his long holdout.

Drysdale blanked the Cubs on eight hits in the first game Friday and the Dodgers scored all four runs in the first three innings as Dick Schofield, the third baseman picked up from the Yanks, scored two runs and drove in another.

Don Sutton, plagued with arm trouble, went just four innings in the nightcap but Regan went the final 2-3 innings to pick up the victory when John Roseboro cracked a two-run homer in the ninth to break a 2-2 tie.

Regan, in the minors last season, now has an incredible 14-1 record, the best in baseball. The Dodgers picked him up from Detroit in a trade for Dick Tracewski last winter.

Pittsburgh kept alive its slim hopes by taking the Braves as Bob Veale pitched a four-hit shutout and struck out 12. The loss was only the Braves' third in their last 22 games and ended a six-game winning streak.

Willie Stargell wrapped up the Pirate victory in the first inning when he hit his 33rd homer, a two-run blast. Veale is now 15-12 but the failure of the Pirate ace to win 20—has been a damaging blow to the Pirates.

Jim Maloney struck out 13 and gave up just five hits while pitching the Reds to their whitewashing of the Mets. The Reds decided the issue in the first inning when they bunched seven of their 14 hits and scored six runs. Vada Pinson chipped in with a two-run homer.

Dennis Ribant, who is now 11-8, was pulled after he failed to retire the first five batters.

Tony Taylor cracked a bases-loaded single in the 12th to give Philadelphia its victory over St. Louis. Taylor's hit came off loser Dick Hughes, who pitched the final 2-3 innings. Ray Culp, who went the final 4-2-3 innings, got the victory Jim Schaffer, recalled from San Diego Sept. 1 and needing just 38 days for his pension, cracked a three-run homer for the Phils.

CUT ROOKIES
CINCINNATI (UPI)—The Cincinnati Royals Friday cut three rookies from their squad to reduce the team total to 13. The rookies were third round draft choice Jerry Lee Wells of Oklahoma City, Billy Smith of Loyola and Rich Parks of St. Louis U. and Willie Merriweather of Purdue.

Poor Defense To Meet Best Offense in AFL

By United Press International
All Denver interim coach Ray Malavasi has to figure out Sunday is how to stop the American Football League's No. 1 offense with the poorest defense in the circuit.

If he manages to solve that toughie, he may have time to get around to another pressing problem confronting the Broncos—moving the AFL's worst offense against the league's stingiest defense.

Malavasi inherited these puzzles from Mac Speedie, who resigned unexpectedly last Sunday night. Speedie chose an opportune time to leave the scene—right before the New York Jets came to town.

The Jets have been overpowering this season and exhibited their might last week by blasting a strong Houston club 52-13. On the accurate arm of quarterback Joe Namath, the Jets lead the league in passing and total offense and rank first defensively behind their solid front four and agile secondary.

New York has averaged 245 yards a game through the air to boost its total attack yardage to 356 per contest. The Jets' passing and rushing fortifications have limited opponents to only 139 yards combined a game.

The Broncos, on the other hand, have managed only 99 yards per game offensively while yielding 366 yards a contest running and passing attacks.

Elsewhere Sunday, Oakland hosts San Diego, Buffalo entertains Houston and Kansas City visits Boston.

The unbeaten Jets perch atop the Eastern Division standings and are 14-point favorites to run their record to 3-0.

The Oilers attempt to rebound following their trouncing by New York. Buffalo quarterback Jackie Kemp, back on target after two sub-par games, led the Bills to a 58-24 rout of Miami last week. His Houston counterpart George Blanda, still going strong at 39, is second in the AFL in passing and is also dangerous as a kicker. Although the Bills have dropped two of three games, they are eight-point favorites over Houston.

San Diego has had a two-week layoff and is primed for the Oakland clash. Unbeaten after two games, the Chargers boast the high-scoring passing combination of quarterback John Hadl and flanker Lance Alworth. The Raiders, six-point underdogs, own the top receiving duo in the league in Clem Daniels and Art Powell.

Vols Tumble By Auburn Tigers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—Tennessee's Volunteers rode a strong right arm of Dewey Warren, the receiving end of Johnny Mills and Austin Denny and many Auburn mistakes to a 28-0 victory over the Tigers Saturday in the Southeastern Conference football opener for both teams.

Mills, a 6-3, 190-pound senior end from Elizabethton, Tenn., broke a Tennessee record for pass reception in one game by grabbing 11. He shared the old record of 10 with several others.

Mizzou Scores Late to Win

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UPI)—Jim Whittaker stole his second Illinois pass with just over two yards for the decisive score Saturday in a 21-14 win over minutes to go and raced 60 the Illinois.

Whittaker, a 188-pound senior from Kansas City, Mo., out-reached Illinois end John Wright to snag Dean Volkman's pass. Volkman had tossed to Wright for 17 and 16 yards on the two previous plays.

Missouri came from behind after kicker Bill Bates missed a field goal attempt from the Illinois 7.

National 4-H Week Observed By Gray County's Ten Clubs

Sept. 24, to Oct. 1, is National 4-H club week.

The 4-H program has been marked by change since it began 60 years ago. Designed originally for youth on the farm, it has expanded to rural, suburban, and city areas. There has developed a great variety of educational projects with appeal for city as well as rural youth.

Project areas in which 4-H members may participate are automotive, beef, career exploration, clothing, crops and soil, dairy production, dog care and training, electric, entomology, health, forestry, fire prevention, foods and nutrition, money management, household equipment, horse, housing and home furnishings, horticulture, junior leadership, poultry, parliamentary, photography, public speaking, and rabbits.

Other projects available are range management, recreation, safety, sheep, swine, town and country business, tractor, wildlife, learning about seeds, child care, woodworking, and riflery. A project guide is available for each project a member may choose. After training from county extension agents, adult leaders take project guides and teach four or five project members at a time.

4-H leaders make it possible for club members to "learn by doing". Just belonging to a club involves learning to get along with other people, and developing poise and self-confidence.

Volunteer 4-H leaders reap many personal satisfactions. They contribute to the growth of boys and girls and experience success while watching them develop. The community and country get the ultimate benefit.

Leaders learn themselves and receive assistance from extension agents. Available to them are educational aides, manuals and guides, and cooperation of community organizations and institutions.

Most people consider it good fortune to spot a four-leaf clover. But those who find a four-leaf clover with an "H" on each leaf are even more fortunate.

The well-known symbol of 4-H is a way of life. For boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 19, 4-H offers opportunities to develop wholesome character and leadership. They learn to work together and share responsibility. But most important, 4-H members grow strong together, learning to be responsible citizens and competent leaders.

There are 10 4-H clubs in Gray County with an approximate total membership of 250 members.

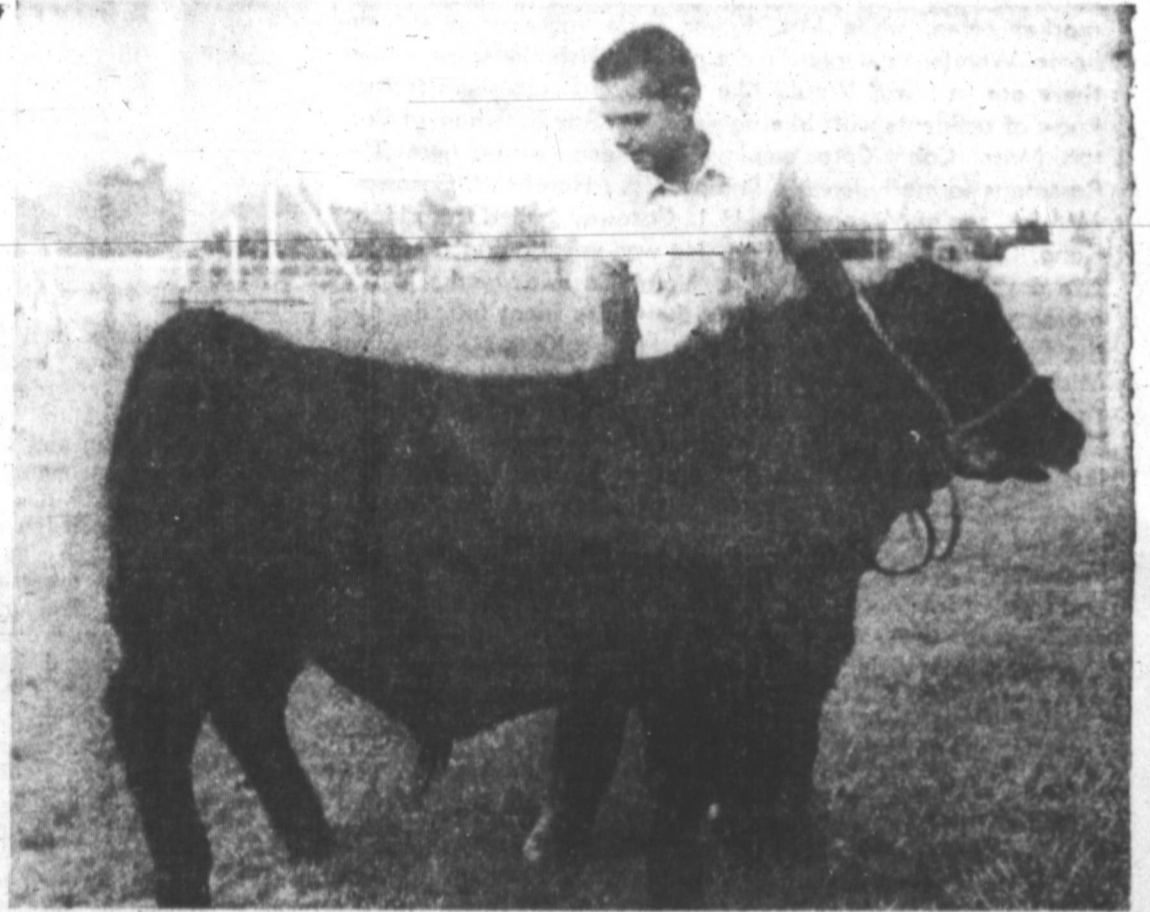

There are 6 clubs in Pampa. The Austin Clubbers are led by Mrs. Virgil Poole, 2421 Navajo. The Golden Spread 4-H Club leaders are Mrs. Johnny Duncan of 1909 N. Dwight and Mrs. Gloria Coughenour, of 1133 Cinderella.

Mrs. Robert Dial of 3013 Rosewood and Mrs. R. L. Kennedy of 1000 Terry Road are leaders of the Lone Star Clover 4-H Club. The new organization leader of the Lucky Star Club is Mrs. F. T. Pepper of 1064 Prairie.

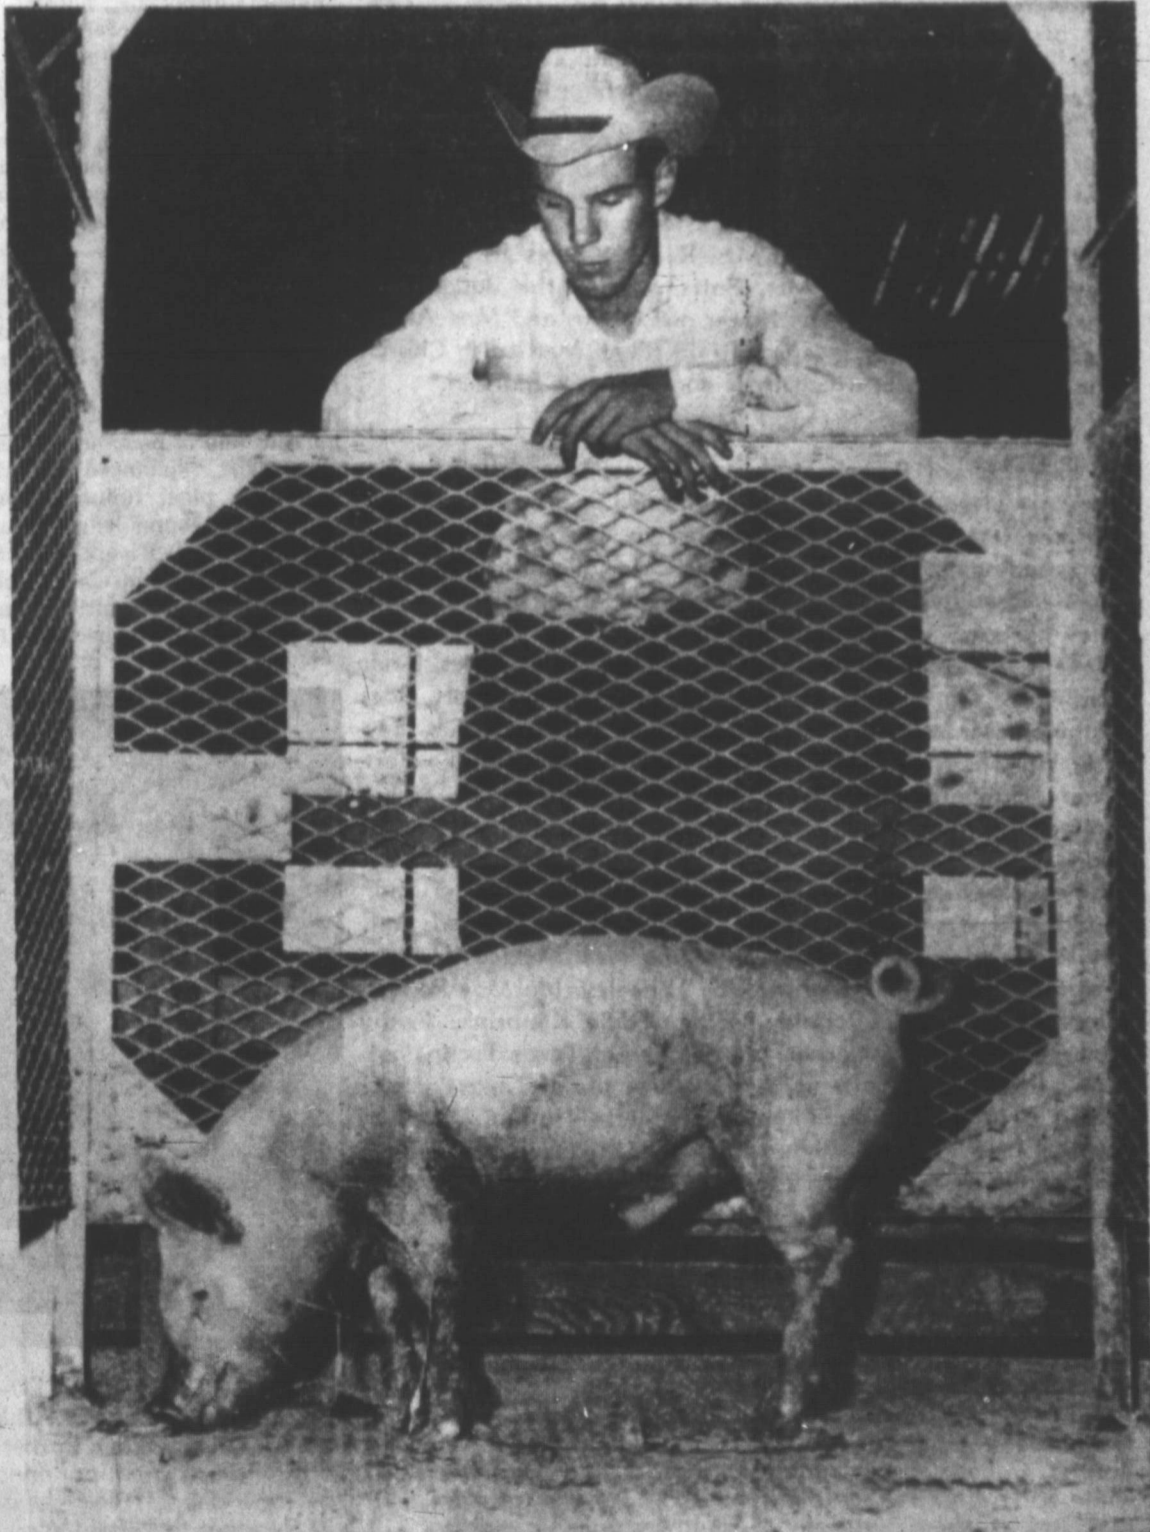

Organization leaders of the Sundowners Club is Mrs. E. R. Sidwell and Mrs. John Spearman. Mr. Tom Veale is the organization leader of the Top o' Texas 4-H Club.

There are 4 other clubs in Gray County. The 4-H Club at Alanreed is led by Mr. Leo McMahan. Mr. Harvey Riley is the leader of the Grandview 4-H Club. The Lefors 4-H Club leader is Mrs. Boyd Smith. Leader of the McLean 4-H Club is Mrs. George Saunders.

During the past year Gray County 4-H members have participated in many projects. (See NATIONAL 4-H, Page 14)

TED REEVES, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Reeves, works with his steer. Purpose of the beef cattle project is to learn to select, feed, train, and manage calves for exhibition.

DAVID WEBSTER, the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Webster, weighs his pig. Purpose of the Swine Project is to develop an understanding of and appreciation for the many problems of a swine operation.

CINDY WELCH and her mother, Mrs. Raymond Welch, are training one of their dogs for showing. The purpose of the Dog Project is to provide club members with an opportunity to develop initiative, dignity of work, decision making, dependability, pride of ownership, leadership, and cooperation.

KATHY TAYLOR and her mother, Mrs. H. B. Taylor, select material for Kathy to use in her Clothing Project. The purpose of this project is to provide an opportunity to learn to use the sewing machine, to use a pattern, to plan, buy and care for clothes, to be well-groomed, and to express self-confidence, develop personality, and gain satisfaction by planning a complete wardrobe.

Sunday Passing Show

By PEGGY JO ORMSON

"SOME MODERN girls show a lot of style and some modern styles show a lot of girl." This comes from the pen of the sage Wynn Veale who brightens the day of many Pampons by distributing small cards with clever witticisms. Mr. Veale is not only one of our town's top wits, but also presents a great program and can't be outdone as an M.C. His wife, Kay, is a warm, charming and vivacious person and her infrequent visits into the News office are always enjoyed. Pampa school received new honors in recent days. Supt. John Damron was named "Educator of the Month" by the "Texas School Business" magazine in its September issue. According to the article he is one of the rising young administrators in Texas and evidence of work accomplished since the brief period he has been superintendent of local schools would seem to be "proof of the pudding." Mrs. Elaine Ledbetter, who has received renown for her achievements as head of the Pampa High School science department, recently received one of the American Chemical Society's James Bryant Conant Awards in high school chemistry teaching, sponsored by E. I. duPont de Nemours and Co., Inc. Mrs. Ledbetter added this honor to others received last year when she was chosen top Chemistry Teacher in Texas and was named to the Look Magazine National Teacher of the Year Honor Roll.

DID YOU KNOW Pampa has two Mrs. E. E. Ethridges? One is Do-othv, widow of the late Edgar E. Ethridge, and the other is Maxine, wife of Eli E. Ethridge. They are near the same stature, wear their hair in similar style and wear glasses. Pictures appearing in the News it is difficult to distinguish which Mrs. Ethridge is which. One way to help remember who's who if only the F. E. initials are used, is that Mrs. Eli E. is quite active in club work and civic affairs and goes to Dallas to market often, while Mrs. Edgar E. is more of a stay-at-home. Wonder how many more persons with the same names there are in town? Would like to hear from readers if they know of residents with like names. Ray Rossman of Boston, Mass., Cabot Corp. employe, has been visiting here. The Rossman's formerly lived in Pampa. Harold W. Gasaway, MM.FA, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gasaway, called from Hong Kong, China, Monday evening. He was vacationing there for five days after 45 days in Viet Nam. Gasaway works in the main control room of the USS Oriskany. He spent four days in the Philippines prior to arriving in Hong Kong. The Michael Oates and son Mark of Odessa spent last week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Oates and Mrs. Jewel Dean Lewis. The J. E. Gilberts were honored a week ago last night at a dinner party. The event marked the Gilberts' golden wedding anniversary date. The honored couple was married in Durant, Okla., Sept. 17, 1916. Hostessing the event in the John Reeves home were Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Grace Morris. Mr. Reeves, Mr. Clark and the Gilberts' son Kenneth were also present to help celebrate the couple's fifty years of married life.

C. P. BUCKLER'S home has been filled with happy relatives the past week with the arrival of his daughter and family from Austin for last evening's wedding of granddaughter Mary Margaret Allen of Austin and Gary Douglas Cox of Arlington. The Russel Greene Allens, parents of the bride, lived in Pampa many years ago and the bridal couple thought Mr. Buckler's home town was the place to be married: Jane Buckler, Virginia Anne and Judith Frances Allen, along with their parents and Mary Margaret were joined last night by their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russel G. Allen Jr. of Amarillo. Miss Sandra Sears Braly of Dallas, who was a bridesmaid in the wedding, spent the weekend in the home of her uncle and aunt, Tom and Jean Braly. Mrs. E. L. Green Jr., Mrs. Buck Burdette and Mrs. Fred Hobart honored members of the wedding party, their families and out-of-town guests at a luncheon yesterday in Pampa County Club. Among those from out-of-town attending were Mrs. Ruth Barrett of Dallas and Mrs. R. E. L. Batts Jr. of Dallas, both former Pampons. Mrs. Batts, who is the daughter of the Fred Hobarts, was the flower girl in Mr. and Mrs. Allen's wedding which was solemnized in First Methodist Church, the same church in which their daughter was married.

A NUMBER of Pampa students, the colleges or universities they are attending, have been mentioned in previous columns. Believe residents will be interested in where students from surrounding towns are going to school. Following is a list of White Deer students and the colleges or universities at which they are enrolled. At West Texas State University are Karen Slavers, Alston Thomas, Donald Williams, Larry Bates, Linda Crawford, Floyd Cornelison, Bill Gann, Darryl Wyatt, Jack Dunivan, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Townsend, LeRoy Haiduk, Beverly Harlan, Monty McCreary, Wanda Moore, Phill Hart, Cindy Hubbard, Traylor Phillips, Bobby Richardson, Cal Johnson, Wayne Hughes, Sammy Jo Donney, Nan Harmon, Gary Kotara, Karen Matthews, Larry May, Mike Shoulders, James Wheeler, Susie Hughes, Wes Schultz, Gary Turner, Buddy Biggers, Joan Jarvis, Frank Williams and Judy Smith. Charles O. Smith is attending New Mexico Military Institute and Jean Hughes. Joe Wheeley, Ida Mae Powers, Tommy Buchanan, Ronald Major, Eddie Kleibrink, Penny Powers and Peggy Horner are enrolled at Texas Technological College. Those attending the University of Texas include Linda Bentley, Louise Hammon, Paulette Hinton, Carolyn Rvals, Dan Simmons, Richard Ulrich, Kim Wheatley, Phillip Stephenson, Douglas Rapstine and Nancy Ulrich. Pamphlet A&M has Ricky Butler, Carlton Alexander, Rondal Alexander, Monty Hawpe and Danny Lane while Johnny Mooney, Tammy Atkins and Roy McClendon are attending Frank Phillips Junior College. Carolyn Stewart is going to Amarillo College and Jane Bates Goodman and Beverly Heaton are attending North Texas State. Rita Spence is at the Lab Tech School in St. Louis, Mo., with Patricia Beagle and Tommy Horner attending Abilene Christian College. Seeking to further their educations at Wayland Baptist College are Tommy Dittbernes and Maureen Reed while Sally Banks is enrolled at East Texas State University. Gury Cook is attending Southwestern Bible School at Waxahatchie and Ruth Giesler is enrolled at Hardin-Simmons University. Attending Clarendon Junior College is Lynn McGuire with Carol Craig and Carol Ann Sugar attending Northeast Louisiana State. Guy McKissick is training at Bell Telephone School in Dallas and Marie Gallegly is attending Texas Women's University.

Allen-Cox Wedding Rites Solemnized

Mrs. Gary Douglas Cox nee Miss Mary Margaret Allen

Rev. Harry Vanderpool pronounced double-ring wedding vows at 8 o'clock yesterday evening uniting Miss Mary Margaret Allen of Austin and Gary Douglas Cox of Arlington in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Greene Allen of Austin. She is the granddaughter of C. P. Buckler of 410 Buckler. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas French Cox of Littleton, Colo. First Methodist Church altar was appointed with emerald palms, urns bearing arrangements of white gladioli and sixteen-branched cathedral candelabra for the pledging of vows. Cathedral tapers entwined with greenery appointed the choir rail while the communion rail was entwined with emerald greens. Wayne Pither, organist, presented appropriate nuptial selections for the ceremony. Entering the sanctuary on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of imported ivory peau de soie. The moulded basque bodice was fashioned with a decollete neckline edged in a banding of princess applique Belgium lace, and three-quarter length sleeves complimented by wrist-length ivory kid gloves. Tiny covered buttons fastened the back of the gown marked at the waistline by a narrow fold of peau de soie. The slim skirt, enhanced by side and back pleat fullness, swept to a full chapel-length train. Her veil of heirloom princess applique Belgium lace, lined with silk illusion, softly framed her face and extended the full length of her train. She carried an arm bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis which cascaded across the front of her gown. Attending as bridal attendants were Mrs. Russel G. Allen Jr. of Amarillo, sister-in-law of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Jane Buckler Allen of Austin, bride's sister, maid of honor, and Miss Virginia Anne Allen, Miss Judith Frances Allen, both of Austin and also sisters of the bride, and Miss Sandra Sears Braly of Dallas, bridesmaids. They were attired in moss green alskine gowns featuring a semi-empire bodice fashioned with a wide oval neckline and flared doublette sleeves and slim A-line floor-length skirts. Matching velvet bow coils enhanced by a full circle veil, and a cascading bouquet of bronze pom poms accented their costumes. Serving his son as best man was Douglas L. Cox while groomsmen were A. Marlin Keener of Dallas, James R. Guinn of Arlington and Russel

G. Allen Jr. of Amarillo. Ushers seating the guests included Michael B. Green of Borger and John Hubbs of Littleton, Colo. Guests were greeted in Starlight Room of Coronado Inn at the reception held following the wedding rites. The bride's table, covered with a white floor-length cloth, was centered by an arrangement of white gladioli and gardenias, flanked by five-branched silver candelabra. Baker's fern surrounded the base of the wedding cake and punch bowl and was entwined along the table edge. Mrs. E. L. Green Jr. presided at the punch service while Mrs. A. C. Green Jr. served the wedding cake. Guests were registered by Mrs. Ben H. Guill of Washington, D. C.

Prior to departing on a wedding trip to Lake Texhoma the new Mrs. Cox donned a blue three-piece suit for traveling. Upon their return the newlyweds will make their home in Arlington where Mr. Cox is employed as a sales representative. 'Along the Nature Trail' Program Is Presented for Garden Club Members

"Along the Nature Trail" was the program presented by Mrs. Thelma Bray to Pampa Garden Club when it met recently in the home of Mrs. L. M. Harrah. During the business session new-year books were distributed and plans were made for a rummage sale. Announcement was made of the public forum on the "Control of Bindweed" to be held Oct. 3 in Lovett Memorial Library with Foster Whaley presenting information on controlling this serious problem.

In presenting the program Mrs. Bray said "We must realize the necessity of preserving the beauty of the country side within our city for our own enjoyment and that of future generations. It has been fairly well established that the delinquency rate increases as the distance from a playground or park increases.

"Parks cannot cure delinquency but they can help. Most of us are interested in caring for our homes and the grounds surrounding them but we seem to ignore or tolerate unkempt areas in our community which could be made into spots of beauty."

She concluded by stating "Frederick Law Olmsted, who was perhaps our greatest landscape architect and the designer of many great parks including the Capitol grounds in Washington, D. C., followed certain fundamental principles. He preferred, for the purpose of refreshing the city population, undulating meadows fringed with trees, quiet far-stretching pastoral scenery, and groves in which underbrush and the rough surface of the natural forest be preserved. Paths, roads, resting places, be regarded as necessary facilities to enable people to enjoy the essential restfulness of park scenery; but he never allowed these features to become the objects of any landscape undertaking — only its necessary accessories."

Mrs. H. H. Boynton concluded the program with "Timely Tips" informing the gardener of the proper time for plantings and cuttings.

Dear Abby.... Food Seems To Be Her Biggest Problem

DEAR ABBY: I just have to lose weight or I will go crazy. I have tried starving, dieting (with and without a doctor's supervision), exercise, pills, shots—nothing works. I even started smoking instead of eating. I did lose weight, but I got so nervous I couldn't sleep at night, so I had a hypnotist treat me for smoking. He got me off cigarettes, but I started to drink like a fish. By the time he cured me of drinking I was my old fat self again. Last evening was the payoff. My husband took me to a dress-up affair. I wore a giraffe that pushed my spare tire up, and a bra that pushed it down. I was in agony until I went to the powder room and took everything off underneath. When I zipped my dress up, the zipper broke, the seams split, and, of course, we had to go home. Please, please help me!

"FAT" DEAR "FAT": It's back to the doctor for you! And this time listen carefully, take his advice, and no cheating! And if he sends you to a psychiatrist, go. What you put in your mouth is all in your head.

DEAR ABBY: Just one question: How does a mother part with her child when an institution for the incurably handicapped is the only answer?

A MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: She prays for the wisdom and strength to put aside all thoughts of herself, and to consider only what is best for her child.

DEAR ABBY: My sister sent us her 19-year-old daughter to get a job in this city. She has been here since the 2nd of June and has gone job hunting only once. She claims she can't find anything. This girl is big and strong. She sleeps until noon because she's tired out from watching the late, late shows on TV. She lays around the house all day reading trashy magazines and eating. She pays no room and board and won't even keep her own room clean. How much longer do we have to put up with her? I can't take much more of this.

HAD IT DEAR HAD IT: Give the girl some "required reading"—the want ads. And tell her she has exactly one week in which to find a job and start working at it. Otherwise out!

DEAR ABBY: I don't know what your husband's line of work is, but I know he isn't a minister or you wouldn't tell everybody with a problem to go "talk to his minister."

My husband is a minister and there are not enough hours in his day to do all the things expected of him. He has the financial problems of the church, Sunday school, sermons, hospital calls, shut-in visits, welcoming newcomers to town, funerals, consoling their families, weddings, pre-marital counseling, patching up family fights, kids in trouble, christenings, communions, and this doesn't even touch on all the community meetings and projects he is asked to help on.

Tell me, Abby, who do I send my children to with their problems? And who will sit and listen to mine?

WEARY IN WEST VIRGINIA Problems? Write to Abby, Box 6970, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 6970, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

LEE BACK-TO-SCHOOL NIGHT — Pam Martin left, mayor of Robert E. Lee High School, and Randy Marsh, vice mayor, are pictured with a poster inviting parents to attend Robert E. Lee Back-to-School Night Tuesday evening. The event, sponsored by the Lee P-TA unit, begins at 7 o'clock when parents will visit children's classrooms and follow their daily schedule of school classes and activities. Following the room visitation, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria. Miss Mart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Martin of 2417 Duncan. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Marsh of 2200 Evergreen are the parents of the vice mayor.

Thirty-eight club members won the right to enter district contests and 21 top winners traveled to College Station as contestants in the state contests.

Five club members attended 4-H Leadership Camp near Cloudford, N.M.

County-wide 4-H events include an annual 4-H picnic, and in November an Achievement Banquet to honor club members and leaders.

Through a unique organizational structure, 4-H is cooperatively sponsored by the Extension Service at three levels of government. It is carried on at the county level by professional extension agents and a corps of volunteer leaders and advisers. Statewide, the 4-H program draws upon the State Land-Grant University for educational resources and direction. Nationally, the U. S. Department of Agriculture administers the program as the youth phase of the Extension Service. Professional workers at all levels work with a half million volunteer adult and junior leaders in constantly adjusting the 4-H program to serve the interests and needs of youth.

There are rural youth organizations in more than 75 countries patterned after the ideals and principles of American 4-H Clubs. Whether these organizations go by the name of 4-D, 5-V, or 4-S all are based on the learn-by-doing concept that has characterized American 4-H work.

4-H is aiding scores of developing countries in the free world by introducing new agricultural techniques and better methods of homemaking. It is encouraging rural young people who have never been motivated before to live better.

All young people 9-19 years of age living in Gray County are invited to learn the opportunities offered by 4-H. They are invited to call at the Extension Office at the Courthouse Annex. During National 4-H Club week, Sept. 24 through Oct. 1 is a particularly good time to inquire about joining a 4-H Club.

Adult volunteer leaders interested in working with youth are needed. Men and women willing to assist boys and girls develop to the fullest their citizenship and leadership abilities, are encouraged to contact County Extension Agents Gail Sims and Jerry Harland at the Courthouse Annex.

CANADIAN (Spl) — Mrs. H. S. Wilbur Sr. was honored with a coffee at Vic-Mon Restaurant Thursday morning. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Harry Wilbur Jr. of Canadian, Mrs. Russell Carver of Hereford and Mrs. Earl Lee Wilbur of Dalhart.

The couple, who reside at 121 N. Warren, were honored at a dinner party last Sunday commemorating their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosts and hostesses for the event, held in Jackson's Cafeteria Club Room, were the honoree's children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Elsheimer of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Elsheimer of Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. An arrangement of gold and white mums flanked each side of the cake. Mrs. Elsheimer received a corsage of gold orchids and Mr. Elsheimer was presented a gold boutonniere.

The Elsheimers moved to Pampa in 1938. Mr. Elsheimer retired from Cities Service Gas Co. in 1962 following 34 years of service.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Pampa's United Fund Drive

The next three weeks have been designated by Mayor Jim Nation as United Fund Weeks in Pampa.

The UF campaign will swing into full steam ahead with an official kickoff breakfast scheduled for 7 a.m. Wednesday at Coronado Inn.

Some 200 persons, volunteer workers in the general solicitation, public employes and professional divisions are expected to attend the breakfast.

Minor Huffman, drive director, will brief workers on various needs of the 12 participating agencies.

A quota of $78,000 has been set. Financial assistance for the agencies has been pared to minimum needs.

The drive should not fail. United Fund money is needed to provide the many essential services for all agencies in one appeal. The campaign is designed to eliminate dozens of campaigns all year round.

The Pampa United Fund is under supervision of Pampa citizens who know the needs of the community. They set the goal. They head the campaign. They ask for your gift and they distribute what you give for those who need it.

The success of the United Fund now rests solely with individuals.

A View of the Poverty War

The war on poverty, about to close its second season, has become the target of criticism by individuals and groups from all segments of society, including those classed as poor and eligible for assistance under the various programs.

A recent Time magazine story reports that the two-year $2.3 billion effort to erase poverty from the land has reached in one way or another, about 3 million of the estimated 32 million Americans judged to be in need of assistance. For the future, Time projects, "... a spectrum of social-welfare commitments unmatched by any previous administration in U.S. history."

Coming from Time magazine, statements like that are strong medicine indeed. Time has never been known as an exponent of the conservative viewpoint and, since President Johnson escalated the war in Viet Nam, the administration has been Time's little darling.

The Office of Economic Opportunity is the official organization, headed by Sargent Shriver, charged with the responsibility for conducting the War on Poverty. Just what the minimum level of poverty in a nation must be nobody knows.

Certainly everyone is not capable of acquiring the skills and contributing enough to the economic stream of life to support himself.

The federal welfare system is heavily engaged in the poverty war with some 200 different projects under way and presently being administered by 21 different federal agencies.

Often, they're overlapping, in with each other. The OEO itself has developed a number of complex programs.

At a cost of $493 million, the Job Corps, one of the major poverty war programs, is designed to provide remedial education and job training to unemployed youths between the ages of 16 and 21 who are not attending school. Just over 25,000 trainees have been enrolled in 100 centers around the country.

Aside from being costly—$9,945 per enrollee a year and having a high dropout rate itself, the program has trouble with some of its trainees, highlighted by instances of ... sodomy, knifings, thefts, riots and vandalism in neighboring towns.

Time magazine warns that these difficulties are likely to continue.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps, designed to occupy needy teen-agers before or after they drop out of school with $1.25 an hour jobs in public institutions, has been plagued with difficulties. It has been estimated that one-fourth of the youths receiving employment under this $391 million program are far from being in poverty.

Launched with a modest budget of $17 million, project Head Start is claimed to have had considerable success. Set up for needy preschool children, the summer session classes, according to Time magazine, have resulted in marked intellectual improvements.

One of the biggest disasters has been the Community Action Program, organized to give those in poverty the power to run local poverty programs. Time observes, "City governments, bitterly resentful of any encroachment on their own powers, object that the poor are hardly qualified to dispense millions in antipoverty funds."

Asking the poor how to win the War on Poverty, cracked Communist Art Buchwald, "is like asking the Japs how to win World War II."

The goal of the OEO is to reduce the level of poverty to the irreducible minimum. Few would quarrel with this. But, the vast wealth and power accumulated by the U.S. was not created by the initiative of government. It was wrested and fashioned from a wilderness continent by an energetic, innovative, restless and free people.

The advance of this nation will continue so long as the incentives and vitality of its people are left unimpaired. Many critics feel that if the War on Poverty is fought by the federal government alone it will be lost. The needs of millions of Americans are too diverse to be met effectively by any central federal planning agency.

Could government letter direct its attentions to establishing rules which would harness the vitality of the free economy in fighting a War on Poverty?

Could tax incentives be given to employers who were willing to establish training programs and hire the underprivileged?

Perhaps encouragement could be given to local Chambers of Commerce to develop organized efforts in this direction among their members.

There is much to be said for the view that the vital forces that created the wealth of this nation in the first place must be given a very considerable role in any effort that is made to provide all Americans a fair opportunity to earn material benefits which abound in our free society.

Frustration Is LBJ's Cup Of Troubles

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) Some critics are saying that President Johnson's moves to curb inflation and ease credit are more political than economic.

They argue further that he is hitting at the surface of these problems and not their substance and thus fostering an illusion among the American people that things may soon be better than they have any real hope of being.

Actually, there can hardly be surprise in any president acting from political motives in a campaign year. Nor is it unique for a president to offer illusion in place of reality.

But Lyndon Baines Johnson seems at this moment to be more dependent than some of his recent predecessors upon the maintenance of certain illusions.

When he took office in late 1963, he learned quickly and painfully that he could not compete with the glamorous, martyred John F. Kennedy, whose assassination had thrust him into the White House.

But almost as swiftly he found compensations. He won great praise for accomplishing a smooth, effective transition in a time of shock and tragedy.

In 1964 he whipped through Congress two major items of Kennedy's unfinished business—a tax reduction bill and the most sweeping civil rights proposals in U.S. history. He went on to win election in his own right by a staggering 16-million-vote margin.

In 1965 he drove to passage another milestone civil rights act and a veritable avalanche of "Great Society" legislation embracing medical care, education, housing and other fields. Through all this time he presided over one of the longest and most impressive economic booms ever recorded.

The notion grew that in many "problem areas" of American life Johnson was operating with consummate mastery. The accolades to his skill were balm to the soul of a man who has found he is not widely loved and who finds reward only in work.

Yet, even as the signs of his mastery were multiplying, the untidiness of history was beginning to entrap him.

Negro riots roiled several northern cities in 1964, struck Watts in Los Angeles with huge force in 1965, and in the summer just concluded spilled all over the place.

U.S. endeavors in Viet Nam have been grimly transformed from a "military advisors' war" into a Korean-style conflict—costly in men and money, plaguing in its uncertainties.

As if this were not enough, the booming economy, burdened with too many tasks, began to overheat.

Suddenly all the great problems have an unmanageable look. The economy is misbehaving. The war drags on without clear motion. Cities suffering poverty, racial strife and general chaos seem hardly touched by massive federal effort.

The President discovers that his touted "biggest and best" in Medicare, education, housing and civil rights is at once not enough and too much. What he considers his prudent caution in war suffers the same range of judgment from hawk to dove.

Spoiled by the happy conjunction of earlier events, accustomed to the more controllable, closed world of his Senate days, needing the solace of huge achievement, the President can find only great pain in realities which mar his image as master because they defy his efforts to lash them into subservience.

Thoughts while shaving: The oldest trophy in American sport is the Stanley Cup, emblematic of hockey's championship. When it was first offered as an award back in 1894 it cost about $50. Back in colonial days preachers were paid in tobacco. They received 16,000 lbs. per year, which amounted to $400 when the stuff was sold in London. The going fee for performing a marriage was 200 lbs. and it cost twice that amount to get one to officiate at a funeral. Automation has struck the elocution field. They're now using a machine to teach shy and self-conscious businessmen how to become effective public speakers within a few weeks. The students listens to a professional recording of a prepared speech and then tries to imitate the inflections and facets of the professional's delivery. The sponsors guarantee results. James Buchanan had two distinctions as President of the U.S. He was the only bachelor to occupy the White House and also the only native of Pennsylvania to be elected to the office. Grover Cleveland doesn't qualify because he was married soon after Edward L. Bernays, who founded the profession of Public Relations, owns the foremost private collection of books on that subject in the world. At his home in Cambridge, Mass., he has more than 3,000 volumes on public relations, public opinion, propaganda, and similar fields. About 350 of them deal with Bernays' own work and writings.

Such questions are silly. Getty does not have any more dollars than many another person. His wealth, like the wealth of most rich men, is mainly in the form of shares of ownership in business enterprises. The only way to find out how much these shares are worth would be to sell them. But Getty has no desire to sell his shares in Tidewater, Skelly, Getty and other companies he owns, for to do so would be to get out of business, and business is his lifework. He is a billionaire only when his shares of stock, multiplied by the prices at which these stocks are selling on the stock exchange equal a billion dollars or more.

Being known as the world's richest man must be something of a nuisance. In "My Life and Fortunes," Getty tells how people by the dozens write him asking for money for all sorts of purposes, public and private. Of course he ignores most of these appeals. He and his companies give to charities and causes which they deem to be worthy, just as the rest of us do. Getty believes the best thing to do with wealth is to invest it in business enterprises, where it will help to produce more wealth, not for its owner alone but for employes, suppliers and consumers. He writes: "To me, the important consideration is not how much cash I have or what my rated wealth is, but what the money, the wealth is doing. If it's working to produce more and better goods and services for more people at lower prices, then all is well. To me, this is the point and purpose of having wealth and being in business."

Getty's single-minded concentration on business is reflected not only by his autobiography but also by the interesting biography, "The Richest American," by Ralph Hewins. Hewins quotes Getty's fifth wife as saying, "Money, as such, means little to him. He simply wants to win—whatever the enterprise—and the money comes with winning."

BUSINESS ENTREPRENEUR

J. Paul Getty Given Label As One of Greatest of Era

By OSCAR W. COOLEY

Until "Fortune" in 1957 labeled Jean Paul Getty the "world's richest man," he was just another business man. Overnight, he became a celebrity.

For any individual to amass a billion dollars of wealth, in these times of highly graduated income taxes, had been considered impossible, but Jo, here was a man who had done it. Reporters besieged Oilman Getty in his London hotel, asking such questions as, "Is it true that you have more than a billion dollars? Just how many dollars have you?"

Such questions are silly. Getty does not have any more dollars than many another person. His wealth, like the wealth of most rich men, is mainly in the form of shares of ownership in business enterprises. The only way to find out how much these shares are worth would be to sell them. The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT
Class Illnesses Inspire Valuable Health Lessons

A school in Detroit has a novel method of health education. When one of the pupils is ill, the class discusses the nature of his illness, its cause, how it affects a person, what the germ looks like if it is an infection, how the germs are transmitted and what preventive measures are applicable. By bringing such health instruction to pupils in kindergarten and first grade, keen interest is aroused and lasting impressions are made.

When the children ask questions about the heart, they are encouraged to listen to their own or a classmate's heart sounds through a stethoscope. One boy who had to be coaxed to wash his hands before meals, underwent a change of attitude. His teacher had him smear a clean slide with his fingers, then, after staining the slide, look at the dirt and germs under a microscope.

When taught in this way, concepts that would be difficult to teach with a textbook are easily grasped. Other visual aids used are plaster models of the heart and lungs painted in their true colors.

As a result these children get a clearer picture of themselves and how to protect their health. Furthermore, they come to think of their doctor not as a menacing stranger but as a friend who can help relieve some ills end prevent others.

Q—If a child swallows too much gum, might it cause appendicitis? What are the causes of this disease?
A—The old theory that swallowed gum, fruit pits and other indigestible matter would cause appendicitis has been exploded. The disease is caused by infection in an appendix that is obstructed, usually by scarring.

Q—Do you approve of pacifiers for babies?
A—The pacifier has come back in style for the very good reason that infants need to practice sucking even when they are not nursing. A pacifier often makes the difference between a baby's going to sleep promptly or lying awake crying. It is also preferable to thumbsucking. Most babies will outgrow the pacifier between three and six months of age. In any case it should be discarded when he has grown a few teeth.

INSANE ASYLUMS FOR PATRIOTS

Editor: It should be shockingly significant news that was reported the other day in the Allen-Scott report. Namely that by 1975 the Department of Health Education and Welfare proposes to have in operation 500 clinics for treatment of mental illness.

Recently Robert B. DePugh, founder of the Patriotic Party was arrested in Kansas City, Mo. His main offense, it seems, is that he is opposed to Communism. He is being held in Federal jail in Kansas City. The Federal Government reportedly is going to send him to a mental institution. Anyone who has read his Anti-Communist book called "Blueprint for Victory" (over Communism of course), will unhesitatingly say that this man is far from insane. Unless, of course, Communism has reached such a state of penetration into our governmental system that it has become "insane" to resist it.

With the grim possibility that these proposed "mental clinics" could become "asylums" for the incarceration of anyone opposing Communism, I think it would be well for patriotic Americans to reflect that:

If we will not fight the advance of Communism in our government, when we can easily win; if we will not fight for the restoration of the Constitution, when our victory can be sure, and not too costly; then we are sure to come to the moment when we will have to fight with all the odds against us and with only a precarious chance of survival.

There may even be a worse case. We may have to fight when there is no hope of victory. Therefore let us stand together against this Communist cancer in our government—NOW—lest we patriots disappear one by one, forever, in the "mental treatment clinics" being prepared for us!

Who Wants Losses?

(Industrial News Review)

There is not a person alive who does not live in the hope of profit—profit from his labor, profit from his experience or profit from his ideas. And yet, profit, at least when it accrues to others, is often resented. Political careers have been built on nothing more constructive than appealing to mass resentment against the other fellow profiting from his endeavors. When the instinctive urge to realize a profit is frustrated, as in communist-ridden dictatorships, a state of hopelessness, starvation and anarchy eventually ensues.

Nowhere does the resentment of profit pose a greater threat to normal progress and the preservation of private property than in the field on conservation. Those conservationists who advocate the removal of vast tracts of land from profitable multiple use, under private ownership, appear to be guided more by ancient prejudices than common sense.

In the words of a prominent spokesman for the timber industry, "... profit is the only tool by which we can progress soundly toward meeting the requirements of our people. Profit is the enabling legislation that permits private investors the luxury of long-range, well-founded resource management programs. Profit is the parent of multiple use. If we fail to make a profit, we fail our responsibility. ... There is a definite feeling ... that profits and conservation do not go hand in hand. In reality, the reverse is true."

The profit motive, properly directed, is one of man's greatest attributes. Whether we like it or not, civilization is founded upon the hope of profit that resides in all of us.

Now here's a sample of an ad that I thought complied with the law.

The moon is between its first quarter and full phase. The morning stars are Saturn, Venus, Mars and Jupiter.

The evening star is Saturn. American author William Faulkner was born on this day in 1897.

On this day in history: In 1513, the Spanish explorer Balboa crossed the Isthmus of Panama and became the first European to see the Pacific Ocean.

In 1926, the Ford Motor Company put its workers on an eight-hour day and a five-day week.

In 1959, the prime minister of Ceylon was shot by assassins and died the next day.

Larry—Do you see those two girls sitting in the center, there?
Harry—Yes.
Larry—Well, the pretty one I should call a vision of loveliness, but the other one—she's a sight.

State Fair To Feature Pop Art Ag Show

Would you believe a nine-ton black and orange centerpiece in an agriculture show — and it's not the Great Pumpkin?

"Would You Believe Texas Agriculture 1966?" will be theme of the way-out pop art Agriculture Show at the 1966 State Fair of Texas October 8 through 23 in Dallas.

And the giant centerpiece of the show — all designed strictly for fun — will be an old steam powered J.I. Case tractor which was manufactured around 1885.

Hal S. Smith of Crescent, whose hobby is collecting and restoring ancient steam tractors and other old farm equipment, is bringing the tractor to the fair from his farm "museum."

Like other machinery in his collection, the old J.E. Case tractor is in working condition. Its boiler is clean and firm, the gauges are accurate, the steel piston glides smoothly along the cylinder wall and the solid brass whistle will blow. Only the passage of time and the appearance of sleek crawler and wheel-type tractors with diesel engines and power steering has made the old steam rig obsolete.

It could still furnish power to run a sawmill or a cotton gin as it did around the turn of the century.

Smith bought the tractor from the Fort Worth Rehabilitation Farm about three years ago. Much of the work of restoring the 80-year-old machine was done by people at the rehabilitation center as part of their training program. The tractor, together with other antique farm equipment, had been obtained by the farm from residents of north Tarrant County where the machines were originally used.

Smith says the tractor is a one-cylinder, center crank model with a horsepower rating of 12-36. This indicates a rating of 12 horsepower on the drawbar with development of 36 horsepower on the belt.

"This horsepower rating was a little different in 1885," Smith explained, "since, at that time, horsepower meant the machine could pull load equal to what 12 horses could pull."

In East Texas, these tractors were used to run sawmills. Elsewhere, in the state, they furnished power for cotton gins and threshing machines.

BOY, DID I GET A WRONG NUMBER MAT 2 C

Bob Hope, master of the double-take, is at his best when he calls his country shack and finds that a luscious screen star answers the phone instead of his wife. "Boy, Did I Get a Wrong Number!" in which he stars with Elke Sommer and Phyllis Diller, opens today at the Capri Theatre. The United Artists release is in Color by DeLuxe.

Bob Hope Selects Best Film Of Motion Picture Career

With Edward Small's "Boy Did I Get a Wrong Number!" opening today at the Capri Theatre, a United Artists release in Color by DeLuxe, Bob Hope, who is co-starring in it with Elke Sommer and Phyllis Diller, starts on his second fifty pictures to make it an even hundred.

In an interview on the set the amiable comedian was asked which of his 40 previous pictures did he like best. Not which did he like best, or the public, or the theatre operators, but which did he, Bob Hope, like best?

"Out of the 50, Bob Hope thinks most highly of the following of his comedies, not necessarily in the order named:

"The Ghost Breakers," "Road to Zanzibar," "Caught in the Draft," "My Favorite Blonde," "Road to Morocco," "Road to Utopia," "Monsieur Beaucaire," "Seven Little Foys," and "The Facts of Life."

"I can be proud of those two forever because they represent my best work. I really threw myself into them. Of course, that's more than a coincidence, because the actress who starred with me in both was Lucille Ball."

"There's a girl who really makes you work hard in order to keep up with her. If you don't, she'll leave you standing on the corner with a funny paper hat on your head, and the audience won't even know you are in the picture."

While Hope had been making movies since "The Big Broadcast of 1938" — in which he and Shirley Ross sang the standard "Thanks for the Memory" — it is generally conceded in Hollywood that he did not make it big until the hilariously funny "The Ghost Breakers." In this he was directed, as he was also to be in four later pictures, by the veteran George Marshall. Marshall also wielded the figurative megaphone for "Boy, Did I Get a Wrong Number!" and while actors are famous for their reluctance to talk about a picture until the results are in, Hope is believed to be very high on its prospects.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Wally Cox will pop up this fall in a segment of television's "Lost In Space."

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Cliff Robertson will give a guest lecture at the Yale Drama School this fall on transforming classic plays to movies.

Motion Picture Industry Adopts Code

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Motion Picture Association of America Tuesday adopted a new code of self regulation that replaces the hays code of 1930 and establishes procedures for advertising films as "suggested for mature audiences."

Jack J. Valenti, MPAA president, said one purpose of the new code is to provide parents with more information about pictures to make it easier for them to decide which ones their children should not see.

The code takes pains to point out that censorship is "alien to the American tradition" and goes on to state its philosophy: "We believe self restraint, self-regulation, to be in the tradition of American purpose. This code, and its administration, will make clear that freedom of expression does not mean toleration of license."

The key guides for producers to follow in the new code were:

- The basic dignity and value of human life shall be respected and upheld. Restraint shall be exercised in portraying the taking of life.
- Evil, sin, crime and wrong-doing shall not be justified.
- Indecent sex relationships shall not be justified. Intimate sex scenes violating common standards of decency shall not be portrayed. Restraint and care shall be exercised in going on to state its philosophy: "We believe self restraint, self-regulation, to be in the tradition of American purpose. This code, and its administration, will make clear that freedom of expression does not mean toleration of license."

The modern American bicycle is built strong enough to carry 10 times its own weight.

BOOKS

A Jest of God, by Margaret Laurence (Knopf $4.95): A novel which reveals the inner life of a woman whom circumstances plus a possessive mother have forced into frustrating spinsterhood. Hounded by her teaching job with young children the stifling reality of small-town life, the petty tyranny of her mother, and her sexual longing, Rachel Cameron builds up under her calm exterior an explosive head of desperation.

A strong ray of hope breaks through when Nick, a childhood acquaintance, now a 38-year-old high school teacher, returns to town for summer vacation. Their all-too-brief romance starts Rachel on the road to a certain, freedom which turns sour and which she can view cynically as only another jest of God.

The story is simply and sympathetically told with a magnetism that holds the reader's attention.

The Best Jokes of All Time How to Tell Them, by George Q. Lewis and Mark Wachs, with illustrations by Art Pottier (Hawthorn $6.95): This book purports to be "2,500 of the world's best, time-tested jokes, plus authoritative instruction in the joke-telling methods used by the top pros." They are arranged handily in categories like "animals," "college," "drinking," "girls," etc.

If you need a thigh-slapper for an occasion, chances are you can find a ready-made one here. A sampling of the quickies: "She's a home-loving girl; she wants a home in Paris, and a home in Bermuda." "The big problem with money is not making it first but making it last."
