Pampa School Population Near 6,000

There are 5,982 students enrolled in the Pampa Independent School District, according to John Damron, superintendent of schools.

A break-down of figures, according to schools, shows 473 students enrolled in Austin; 423 enrolled at Baker; 124 at Garner; 329 at Houston; 402 at Lamar; 390 at Mann; 527 at Travis and 430 at Wilson; bringing the total elementary school enrollment to 3,101.

Seventh grade classes at Robert Lee Junior High School have 305 students enrolled; eighth grade, 318 and 57 ninth grade, 275, totaling 898 students. Pampa Junior High enrollment indicates 263 students in the seventh grade; 192 in the eighth grade, totaling 455 enrolled at Pampa Junior High School.

Senior High School figures reveal 486 sophomores, 402 juniors and 356 seniors for a total of 1,244 students enrolled.

Twenty-four students are listed in Special Education classes in Pampa Schools.

Another group of statistics, released by the superintendent's office, is in regard to the residence locations of junior high school students.

Electrical Unions Reach Agreement

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Contract agreement has been reached at the national level between General Electric Co. and 11 unions. Unresolved local issues, however, today kept alive the threat of strikes against vital defense plants.

The company would not comment on the details of the agreement but a spokesman said, "we are very pleased with the settlement."

The 5 per cent increase in the GE pact appeared to give new strength to the belief that the administration's wage-price guidelines were moving to that level—and away from the 3.2 per cent level which had governed its determination of inflationary wage boosts.

Since the summer settlement of the mechanics strike against five major airlines, new wage pacts for union members at the 5 per cent level have escaped administration criticism. Those above have been criticized.

Tentative agreement on a new three-year contract calling for a five per cent increase in wages and benefits was reached Friday afternoon just hours after the offer was proposed by the company.

The International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), representing 80,000 of the 120,000 union workers involved in negotiations, will vote on the contract at a conference board meeting in New York City Sunday.

The 10 other unions will send the agreement to their membership after all local contract issues have been settled.

Failure to settle local issues could easily result in strike against local company plants despite agreement on the national issues.

WEATHER
PAMPA AND VICINITY—Clear and warmer. Not quite as cool as Saturday with increasing cloudiness. Probability of rain 10 per cent tonight and Monday High today upper 60's. Winds 10 to 15 mph.

Reds Vow to Destroy US by Mao Thoughts

Russia Is Included In Communist Threat

HONG KONG (UPI) — Communist China marked the eve of the second anniversary of its first A-bomb explosion today by vowing to destroy both the United States and Russia with "the spiritual atomic bomb of Mao Tse-tung's thought."

Without referring directly to the Oct. 16, 1964, blast in western China, the Communists also: —Condemned anew the forthcoming Manila summit conference and U.S. Viet Nam policy —Boasted the militant Chinese Red Guards were "determined" to fight alongside the North Vietnamese against the United States.

—Hinted at new dissension in the armed forces by calling for a campaign of "criticism and self-criticism" in the military services.

The developments came in excerpts of editorials in the Peking Peoples Daily and the Liberation Army Daily.

One editorial repeated Chinese charges Russia was collaborating together with the Russian revisionists for holding peace talks on the Viet Nam problem, are only tricks for deceiving the world's people."

A separate commentary dealt directly with Mao's "thought."

"The Chinese people first of all depend on the spiritual atomic bomb of Mao Tse-tung's thought for defeating and destroying the American imperialists and the Russian revisionists," it said. Mao is chairman of the Chinese Communist party.

Under Mao's leadership, China has exploded three primitive atomic bombs, the first Oct. 16, 1964, and the most recent last May 9.

At a Peking rally commemorating the second anniversary of the execution of a Viet Cong terrorist in Saigon, a girl member of the youthful Red Guards "sternly condemned" the United States and a Viet Cong representative termed the Manila conference a meeting of gangsters serving the interests of U.S. imperialism.

Air Strikes Set Record

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. planes dropping huge bombs struck North Viet Nam with a record air raid of 175 missions Friday.

Spokesmen said the Phantom was on a night rocket run when, for some puzzling reason, it crashed. "There was no ground fire, no anti-aircraft fire," a U.S. official reported Saturday.

The jet went in on the rocket run and just did not pull out. It is unusual, but we are calling it a combat loss."

Besides the more than 400 planes downed over the north since the first raids Aug. 5, 1964, three of the American helicopters that fly pilot rescue missions have been lost, spokesmen said.

The Soviet magazine Ogonyok reported Saturday North Vietnamese pilots trained in the Soviet Union had shot down U.S. planes over North Viet Nam.

The magazine claimed the North Vietnamese airmen were being trained to handle supersonic aircraft capable of firing missiles in aerial dogfights.

In addition, the United States has lost 128 airplanes and 214 helicopters in South Viet Nam, the spokesmen said.

U.S. Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots dealt most of their punch in the record raids against the military facilities funneling men and equipment to the Communist forces fighting in South Viet Nam.

Many of the missions hit the southern panhandle supply network north of the demilitarized zone (DMZ) and eight others hit inside the six-mile wide zone itself. But authorities said none of these hit in the easternmost sector of the zone where Americans suspended air assaults to give international inspectors a chance to check the extent of Communist infiltration in the zone.

Soviet Party Head Rejects Johnson's 'Be Friends' Plea

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Communist Party Chairman Leonid I. Brezhnev said Saturday President Johnson was laboring under a "strange and persistent delusion" if he thought relations with eastern Europe could be improved despite the Viet Nam war.

The Kremlin leader bluntly rejected Johnson's recent call for better U.S. relations with the Communist nations of eastern Europe. He said he agreed with the chief executive that Cold War tensions should be eased but said this was impossible because of the Viet Nam situation.

"If the United States wishes to develop mutually advantageous relations with the Soviet Union, and in principle we would like to do that, too, it is necessary to remove the main obstacle on this road."

Brezhnev told a friendship rally honoring visiting Polish leaders.

The obstacles, he declared, can be cleared away by "stopping the piratical raids on the socialist country the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam, by stopping the aggressive war against the Vietnamese people, not in words but in deed."

Observers noted that neither Brezhnev nor Polish Communist Party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka, who also spoke, specifically demanded immediate U.S. troop withdrawal from Viet Nam.

W. T. FRASER
W.T. Fraser, 63, Collapses, Dies

William T. (Bill) Fraser, 63, developer of the Fraser Addition and founder of William T. Fraser and Co. Insurance, suffered a heart attack and collapsed at 10:45 a.m. yesterday in his office in the Fraser Bldg., 114 W. Kingsmill.

He was pronounced dead on arrival at Highland General Hospital at 11 a.m. Efforts of ambulance attendants to revive him by administering oxygen proved futile.

Mr. Fraser resided at 102 W. 18th St. He was born Sept. 8, 1903, in Gray County. His birth was the first recorded in the county. Mr. Fraser attended Pampa schools and was graduated from Texas Military College at Terrell.

Commissioners Ok County Budget

In a special Saturday morning session, Gray County Commissioners okayed a $1,090,964 budget for the new fiscal year beginning Jan. 1, 1967.

The budget will be for expected expenditures to include $3,349 for jury expenses $473,058.80 road and bridge fund; $175,812.68 general fund; $50,000 permanent improvement fund; $272,235.95 office salaries; $116,458.25, interest and sinking fund.

Craig said the property tax valuation in Gray County is $57,501,184, which is the figure used to levy taxes to bring in the necessary funds for the budget. This is an increase of $763,504 over last year's tax valuation.

He said the county tax rate is $1.28 per $100 property valuation; the same rate as last year, but down six cents over the 1964 rate.

County Judge Bill Craig said that the county would become debt-free in March, 1967 with a $50,000 final payment in February on hospital bonds and a $65,000 final payment on road bonds.

Tornado Rips Iowa Community

BELMONT, Iowa (UPI) — This northern Iowa community of 2,500 persons lay in ruins today—the victim of a devastating tornado that swept down suddenly Friday from murky skies.

The twister left at least six persons dead and possibly up to 200 injured. It virtually destroyed about 75 per cent of the town, including all of the buildings in the downtown business district.

National Guardsmen—highway patrolmen and local officials searched through the ragged debris of homes and businesses for any dead or injured who might have been overlooked in an intensive search Friday night.

Most of the town's residents were evacuated.

Gov. Harold E. Hughes was scheduled to fly to Belmont today to view the damage and destruction, which Adj. Gen. Junior Miller said was the worst he had ever seen in Iowa.

"I think Belmont should be declared a major disaster area," Miller said after taking charge of the rescue and security operations in the community.

The twister swept down in mid-afternoon. It concentrated on the business district along U.S. 69 but there was hardly a home or building anywhere in town which didn't sustain some damage.

Dr. Samuel P. Leinbach of Belmont, the president of the Iowa Medical Society, estimated that up to 200 persons were injured mostly cuts from flying glass and debris. Only 26 persons were actually hospitalized.

'DID NOT WANT TO HURT ANYBODY' Youths Spray Rifle Shots into Traffic

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (UPI) — Three boys sprayed rifle shots into traffic on the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike Saturday, hitting an auto and two school buses. A schoolgirl was wounded.

A shot from one of their 22 rifles creased the scalp of a girl in a bus, injuring her slightly. She was in a crowd of students headed for the State Fair of Texas, in Dallas.

"It was lucky they were about three-quarters of a mile away and only using a .22," Grand Prairie policeman B.D. Ware said.

The boys, one 12 years old and two 11, were caught quickly by Grand Prairie policeman Dwight Carrington. They were held for juvenile officers. They had two rifles.

The 12-year-old told police he shot six times, one of his companions fired 10 shots, and the third boy fired around five times.

"I did not think we could hit the cars because they were going so fast and were so far away. We did not want to hurt anybody," police quoted the older youth.

Gerald F. Thomas of Arlington, driver of one bus, walked up to a turnpike station minutes after the shooting. He was shaking with rage.

In his hand he held a flattened .22 slug. There was hair matted on it.

He told the men at the station the bullet had gone through the window of his bus and grazed the head of Johnny Lynn Smith, a 16-year-old Arlington girl, giving her a slight scalp wound.

If it had been a second earlier it would have hit the girl right in the face," the bus driver told J. F. Bush at the station.

Glass fragments splattered into students' laps.

The girl was given first aid but did not require admission to a hospital.

Another bullet punctured the window behind the driver's seat of the second bus and lodged "right over a woman's head," police said.

Nobody was hit in that bus. An auto driver heard something hit his auto and thought it was a rock. He got out and saw a bullet hole. He drove to a turnpike station, reporting the incident, and went on to his destination, Tyler, Tex.

The vehicles hit by the gunfire were separated by a few minutes of each other on the 70-mile-per-hour turnpike. One of the boys' rifles had sights and the other did not. Ware said. They told him they stood or sat on the ground and zeroed in on the turnpike.

Second Dr. Sheppard Trial Will Be in Same Courthouse

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, victor in a series of legal battles which finally won his release from prison, has suffered his first setback and will go on trial a second time in the same courthouse where he was convicted of the 1954 slaying of his wife.

Sheppard's new trial, originally set for next Tuesday, was postponed until Oct. 24 Friday by Judge Francis J. Talty, who also turned down a request for an immediate change of venue.

Dr. Talty, who will preside at the trial, ordered an examination of jurors to determine if Sheppard can receive a fair trial in Cleveland.

F. Lee Bailey, Sheppard's chief counsel, had sought the change of venue on grounds any jury selected here would be prejudiced by local publicity.

But Talty, who has been a judge for less than two years, said, "It is the court's belief that the examination of the jurors affords the best opportunity for a fair trial." (See SHEPPARD, Page 3)

Sen. Yarborough Criticizes National Agriculture Department Bureaucrats

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., charged recently Agriculture Department bureaucrats were so out of touch with cotton planting in his state they didn't know what type of planting was practiced in dryland counties.

This ignorance, he said, resulted in calculations used for production and diversion payments that could bring a 30 per cent penalty to growers.

The miscalculation, Yarborough said in a Senate speech, concerned spacing of skip-row planting. Historically, two rows are planted and four skipped. But from 1962 through 1965 because of the cotton program then in effect, farmers skipped fewer rows. This year they returned to the historic pattern.

Center Wrap-Up

George Smith, Director
Pampa Youth and Community Center

Parents are reminded that the Center participation is based on memberships and they are always available for the whole family. By purchasing a membership there is never another charge to swim, to take the swim lessons, play basketball or volleyball in the gym or to use any of the Centers facilities. The Center has shuffleboard, pool, ping pong, basketball goals, volleyball courts, a large recreation hall, an indoor heated pool and dressing room facilities.

Family membership is the best plan for a number of two or more. The cost is only $20 per year or $12 for six months for all members of the family, no matter how many. Children under eight years of age must be carried on a family membership because the Center does not sell memberships but to eight year olds and older. Individual memberships are available at a cost of $8 per year or $5 for six months. Come by the Center now and join.

The Center's full swim lesson schedule has been finalized for the rest of the year and is as follows: Oct. 24 to Nov. 9 at 4 p.m., beginners and at 5 p.m., intermediates while from Nov. 14 to Dec. 2 we will offer at 4 p.m., beginners and at 5 p.m., swimmers.

Enrollment for any of these classes is now available with a 20 number capacity in each class. Enrollment is free to Center members while non-members are charged an instructional fee of $3 per child. Classes meet on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays. Enrollment is now going on.

The Center will sponsor their third Battle of the Bands Contest and Dance on October 29 from 8-11 p.m. Three top bands have been lined up against each other to compete for the prize money offered. Bands entered in the contest are the hometown Essex—the Velasquez Brothers from Wheeler and the Cinders from Amarillo—the top band in that area. You young people can save 25 cents by purchasing your tickets early. Advance sales will be $1.50 each but tickets at the door on the 29th will be $1.75.

For your basketball players who are in the process of organizing your teams here is some valuable information. Many of the basketball players has asked for the starting dates and practice information. Our organizational meeting will be on Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. where entry fees, referees, rules and other business pertaining to the leagues will be finalized. Wednesday nights are now available for practice with volleyball to end for sure on Nov. 17 which then would leave every night open for practice thereafter except Fridays. Entry fees will be on the same line as last year.

The tie for first place was broken this week in the women's league with Cock O Walk taking over first place with a 5-0 record. La Bonita was second with a 4-1 record. Scores were 16-14 and 15-0 Cock O Walk over La Bonita; Cree's Ins. over 1st National Bank 15-3 and 15-2 while Malcolm-Hinkle won their second match of the season taking Hopkins 15-11 and 15-4.

In the men's league Furr's still rules the roost with another victory over The Village 15-2 and 15-6. Furr's record is 5-0. In second place is Skelly Ollers 4-1 who took James Feed Store 6-15, 15-8 and 15-6.

Candidate Miller Calls Price Vote Poll 'Misleading'

Dee Miller, Democratic candidate for Congress from the 18th Congressional District, issued a statement Saturday concerning results of a poll announced by his Republican opponent's campaign chairman at a news conference Friday.

The full statement follows: "It is obvious my opponent's statement to the press media of this so-called poll was intentionally misleading. The statement was deliberately worded so as to misrepresent the actual results. When read correctly, it is obvious that the Kansas Republican is in very serious trouble.

"His own poll shows that after four solid years of campaigning, he claims only 42 per cent of the total vote. In an effort to mislead the voters of this district, they chose to describe this as 56 per cent of 75 per cent of the vote, but it all boils down to the same thing — his per centage is even less than he received in 1964 when he was defeated by Walter Rogers.

"I am confident that when the real poll is taken on Nov. 8, my opponent will be asking for a refund of the money he spent on his poll — if a poll was taken at all.

Wind Snaps Pole, Causes Car Damage

Friday's gusting 65 m.p.h. winds caused a lightpole to snap off at the base and fall on a car parked near the intersection of Russell and Louisiana around 1:30 p. m., city police reported.

The pole hit the hood and left fender of a late model car belonging to Dale Hawkins, 1100 Russell, police said.

There was approximately $100 damage to the car, according to investigating officers.

Patrol Reports Rural Accidents For September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 24 accidents on rural highways in Gray County during September, according to Sgt. J. W. Wilson, highway patrol supervisor of the Pampa area.

The crashes resulted in 18 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $12,645.

The rural traffic accident summary for Gray county during the first nine months of 1966 shows a total of 169 accidents resulting in 4 persons killed, 97 injured, and an estimated property damage of $92,295.

From past experience, Wilson stated, October signals the increase of traffic accidents in Texas due to shorter days and longer nights.

Winds will be a gentle 10 to 15 m.p.h.

Today's high will range in the upper 60s making a strong bid for the lower 70s, according to the Amarillo weather station.

Taxes Paid to Government Agencies In Gray County Listed by Association

Current annual taxes paid to the various government agencies in Gray County totaled $44,277 the Texas Railroad Association announced recently.

That amount was the county's share of the nearly $10,000,000 the railroads paid in Texas on their own right of way and other property.

The biggest railroad contribution was to the school systems throughout the state. Large sums were also distributed to city, village and county governments and for road and bridge funds.

In addition, of course, was the large total in taxes the railroads' nearly 35,000 Texas employees contributed on their own property. The vast majority of rail workers, many of whom live in Gray County, own their own homes.

"With the future of our country and state depending to a great extent upon the education of our youth, I am delighted that nearly half of the taxes paid by the railroads go to support the schools," said Walter Caven, general counsel of the Texas Railroad Association. "Recognizing this need for education, many of the railroads operating in Texas also make scholarships available to a large number of students every year."

Workshop Set For School Custodians

Custodial and maintenance employees for Pampa Independent School District will be attending morning maintenance workshops beginning at 8:30 a. m. Monday and continuing through Thursday. The sessions will be held in Sam Houston School.

Vallon L. Voight of the school plant section of the Texas Education Agency will be here to instruct employees in "tricks of the trade" with regard to economy in time, effort, and money.

School principals will attend similar sessions in the afternoon.

Foreign Policy

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UP) — Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus, considered a possible opponent of Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., in 1968, Thursday criticized the Johnson administration recently.

Faubus forecast trouble for the administration if the situation in Viet Nam isn't improved by 1968 — and said hearings on Viet Nam by Fulbright's Foreign Relations Committee were "open encouragement to the enemy."

The governor admitted he is becoming known as a "war hawk" and said he agrees with former President Dwight Eisenhower — at least in the belief the U. S. should try harder to win the war.

Faubus said if the war hasn't taken a turn for the better by 1968, whoever is in power is in trouble.

He said he didn't think the use of atomic weapons should be ruled out in Viet Nam, but he added it would be difficult for him to analyze that factor any further.

Arkansas Kills Steers on Field Goals; Plainsmen Nudge Harvesters, 7-6

Razorbacks Skim By Longhorns, 12-7

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Arkansas Razorbacks survived a severe case of fumbleitis in the fourth quarter Saturday to hang on for a 12-7 Southwest Conference victory over the University of Texas.

Texas had its own problems hanging onto the ball in the hard-hitting, head-cracking clash, losing the ball three times out of a total of seven fumbles.

Razorback quarterback Jon Brittenum accounted for the winning touchdown late in the third period, hitting his favorite receiver, end Tommy Burnett, in the end zone from 22 yards out. Brittenum tried to run the two-pointer, but failed and the scoring ended there.

Kicker Bob White put the other six Arkansas points on the scoreboard with 22 and 37-yard field goals in the first half.

Texas' Bill Bradley, the sophomore whiz playing his first game in three weeks because of a knee injury, drove the Longhorns 66 yards late in the first half for their only score. Chris Gilbert went the final yard with 53 seconds left in the half and David Conway's kick put Texas ahead at the half, 7-6.

It was the second consecutive week for Texas to lose on the basis of field goals. A week ago the Oklahoma Sooners used four field goals to make up the difference in their 18-9 win over Texas.

Arkansas fumbles in the final period, but could never make any of them count. The Longhorns also grabbed two Brittenum passes, but lost the ball twice themselves — in the fourth quarter on Arkansas pass interceptions.

Brittenum hit six of 11 passes, including the one 22-yarder to Burnett in the end zone, for a net of 93 yards. The Brittenum to Burnett pass-

Purdue Turns Back Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — Purdue, outclassed on the ground and outpassed in the air, turned Michigan mistakes into a safety and a fourth period touchdown Saturday to edge the Wolverines 22-21.

The cliff-hanger 22-21 when Michigan missed a 35-yard field goal attempt in the final minutes.

Michigan's mistakes botched a strong upset bid after the Wolverines, bulled into the lead in the third period on the strength of Dick Vidmer's passing and the running of backs Dave Fisher, Carl Ward and Jim Detwiler.

Michigan's Rick Sygar grabbed a Purdue punt on the Michigan 1 and was trapped in the end zone for a Purdue safety, cutting the Wolverine lead to 21-16 late in the third period.

Then Michigan puner Stan Kemp, backed into his own end zone, kicked as the Purdue line closed in. Purdue linebacker Frank Burke blocked the kick, caught the ball and stepped over the goal line for the winning touchdown.

Houston Rips Mississipi St.

HOUSTON (UPI) — Bo Burris, a lanky quarterback and Dick Post, a pint-sized fullback, led the unbeaten University of Houston Cougars to an easy 28-0 victory over Mississippi State Saturday night.

Burris, a 6-2 senior completed 14 of 27 passes for 128 yards and a touchdown setting a school career offensive record in the process.

Post, the Cougars' 5-9 captain, made 82 yards in 17 rushes, including one of nine yards for a touchdown.

Paul Gipson and Warren McVea, a pair of fleet Negroes, and reserve fullback George Nordgren scored Houston's other touchdowns.

Gipson ran over from the one for the first score. McVea, who was injured in the second quarter, caught Burris' 12-yard touchdown pass.

NO TOUCHDOWNS have been given up by the White Deer defensive unit this season as the Bucks have rolled to a 5-0 record and downed Sunday, 52-0 Friday night. Part of the defensive unit is shown above in Mike Hawpe, Kenny Carter, Gary Stewart and Monte Kreis. (See story page 8).

Spartans Edge Buckeyes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — Michigan State's ace quarterback Jimmy Raye hit three key passes in an 83-yard scoring drive during a blinding rainstorm Saturday to lead the No. 1 ranked Spartans to an 11-8 Big Ten victory over stubborn Ohio State.

The Buckeyes, 10-point underdogs, gave the unbeaten Spartans all they could handle in the bruising contest witnessed by 24,282 rain-soaked fans.

Sooners Kick Kansas

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI) — The new look-Oklahoma Sooners pushed across two clinching touchdowns in the third quarter and coasted to a 35-0 Big Eight Conference victory over Kansas Saturday for their fourth win in a row.

The ambitious Sooners, who face Notre Dame in a showdown of unbeaten powers next week, uncorked another strong passing game with two of the touchdowns coming through the air.

Oklahoma scored in each of the first two quarters, then blasted the game open in the third.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — Surprising Texas A&M used an opening, minute touchdown on a pass interception and the deadly long-distance accuracy of Edd Hargett's passes Saturday to rout Texas Christian 35-7.

The victory broke an eight-year TCU jinx over the Cadets and put A&M, picked in pre-season polls to finish seventh, at the top of the Southwest Conference race with a 2-0 mark. It dropped TCU's league record to 1-2.

Defensive halfback Lawson Howard, who picked off two TCU passes in the contest, stepped in front of TCU end Charles Campbell on the Frogs 19 on the second play of the game and dashed into the end zone with an aerial from TCU quarterback Rick Bridges.

Hargett hit end Tommy Maxwell for 55 yards and Bob Long for 21 yards for two of the Aggie tallies. Hargett dived over

Notre Dame Crushes Tar Heels

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — there wasn't much doubt about the eventual winner.

Second-ranked Notre Dame crushed North Carolina 32-0 with the merciless running of Larry Conjar and Nick Eddy Saturday to rack up its fourth straight win.

It was the second loss for the Tar Heels in four starts, and once the unbeaten Irish backs began to pour through the line midway through the first period quarter when sophomore quarterback Bill Long hit his favorite receiver, end Billy Anders, on a pass that covered 47 yards for the touchdown.

The big play came moments after Dick Kenney recovered a lead pass from center on the Spartan one and punted out to the Michigan State 47.

Michigan State's first score came in the third period when Kenney kicked a 27-yard field goal to give the Spartans the lead for the first time, 3-2.

Tech Falls To Fla. State

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) — Sophomore quarterback Gary Pajcic drove Florida State to the Texas Tech goal line the first five times. The Seminoles had the football Saturday night and fullback Jim Mankins scored on four of the drives, sparking the Seminoles to a 42-33 victory over Tech.

Pajcic, leading the Seminoles in only his second game launched an aerial attack the Raiders were unable to contain and Mankins rambled more than 100 yards during the Seminoles first half scoring spree.

Mankins plunged into the end zone from the nine, two and one yard lines and scored on one five-yard pass from Pajcic. Pajcic passed 58 yards to halfback Larry Green for another Seminoles score and scored second string quarterback Kim Hammond launched a 52-yard pass to Ron Sellers from the final Florida State score.

Kicker Pete Roberts connected on all the Seminoles extra point attempts but failed on a fourth-quarter field goal attempt.

Florida State's offense blunted by a fired-up Buckeye defense and the miserable weather, threatened to score only once in the half, but defensive back Jim Neen intercepted one of Raye's passes to stop it.

Kenney attempted three field goals from the 40, 47 and 49 yard lines but was off the mark on all occasions.

Tailback Ron Shotts carried 10 times for 33 yards during the drive.

Kansas came back strong in the second quarter and drove to a first down at the Sooner 9, but the Jays failed to punch it across as Oklahoma tackle John Titsworth nailed quarterback Bob Skahan on the 5 on fourth down.

The Sooners, as in their first three victories, showed a well-balanced offense, gaining 143 yards rushing and 146 passing on 12 completions in 17 attempts.

Monterey Squeeks To 3-4A Victory

LUBBOCK — Monterey got every break there is Saturday afternoon and noised Pampa, 7-6, in the opening north zone league clash for both teams.

The Plainsmen made the best of Pampa mistakes, recovering three fumbles and intercepting three passes, plus getting the benefit of a doubtful call on Pampa's run for the conversion attempt.

The Harvesters had to play in their own end of the field most of the afternoon and crossed the 50 only twice.

Pampa's defense couldn't have looked better as they spent more time on the field than did the Harvester offensive team, and held Monterey from inside the five-yard line four different times.

A Pampa fumble, one they didn't lose, could have been the difference in the whole game.

A Harvester fumbled the opening kickoff and Pampa found themselves with a first and 10 at their own six-yard line.

They could move only to the six, where L. D. Rowden got off a 45-yard kick to the Plainsmen's 41.

But Monterey, thanks to the passing of quarterback Jimmy Stiles, who hit nine of 13 for the night for 98 yards, moved to the one-yard line but lost three yards on fourth down.

Pampa tried to run, couldn't and were forced to punt again with Monterey taking over on the Pampa 47.

The Plainsmen moved this time to the four where Pampa held again.

But the Harvesters fumbled at the eight two plays later and Monterey recovered.

It took three plays for the Plainsmen to score with halfback Randy Surratt going in from the one. Stiles kicked good and with 8:41 left in the half Monterey led 7-0.

A pass interception spoiled Pampa's next possession and right before halftime they lost the ball on a fumble after moving from their own 19 to the Monterey 4.

Pampa's lone score came as the result of a Monterey fumble with Dickie Henley and Doc in with one official signaling good but an official behind the play ruled the run failed.

The rest of the third and fourth quarters both teams had fouls stalling with Pampa having two passes and one fumble recovered by Monterey.

Early in the fourth period Monterey drove to the Pampa one but the defense again came through and held the Plainsmen.

Pampa took over and drove to the 47 where they fumbled.

The Harvesters now stand 3-3 for the season and 0-1 in league play while Monterey is 4-2 for the year and 1-0 in the north zone.

Pampa journeys to Amarillo Friday to tackle the Sandies in a league game.

Methodist's Nose By Rice Owls, 28-24

DALLAS (UPI) — Mac (The Knife) White guided Southern Methodist 91 yards against the clock Saturday night, then threw a five-yard winning touchdown pass to Jerry Levias with nine seconds left to give the Mustangs a 28-24 Southwest Conference victory over Rice University.

While came off the bench to engineer three furious last quarter touchdowns for the Methodists and offset another brilliant performance by Rice sophomore quarterback Robby Shelton and the Owls in the conference opener for both clubs.

The Methodist turned back Rice's final bid with 3:03 left on the clock and White rolled right and left with his option plays for 55 yards and hit Larry Jernigan with a key 24-yard pass in the drive.

yard burst around left end for a touchdown. He totaled 85 yards in eight carries for the game.

As usual, the Irish struck with frightening speed on each of two North Carolina misplays.

Eddy's touchdown dash came on the first scrimmage play after John Pergine intercepted Carolinian Tim Karris' pass, and when Notre Dame's Kevin Hardy recovered North Carolina's only fumble of the day, by Dick Weselowski on the Irish 44, another touchdown followed.

This tally came on a brilliant pass play by the Irish sophomore stars, quarterback Terry Hanratty to split end Jim Seymour. North Carolina had three men defending Seymour, but when Hanratty faced back and let go with the ball, Seymour was behind all of

Georgia Tech Boots Auburn

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—Seventhranked Georgia Tech, stopped cold by a tenacious Auburn defense in a driving rain storm, rallied in the second half Saturday to win 17-3.

Tech quarterback Kim King scored on a 4-yard run in the third period a few minutes after Bunky Henry had booted a 29-yard field goal to tie the score 3-3.

Speedy wingback Jimmy Brown iced the Yellow Jackets' fifth straight win in the fourth period with a sparkling 59-yard touchdown run on a punt return.

Auburn, hampered on the ground without its ace fullback Tom Bryan who was injured, scored on a 39-yard field goal by Jim Jones following a fair catch fumble recovery late in the second period and led at halftime 3-0.

The heavy autumn downpour soaked the field and its 54,000 fans in the first half, turning the turf into a sea of mud and slowing down Tech's potent attack led by tailback Lenny Snow.

Snow, who led the nation in scoring during the early part of the season, was shut out for the second straight week by Auburn's inspired defense led by Robert Margeson.

Minnesota Sinks Hawkeyes, 7-0

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—A 95-yard run by a tackle, a pass and a field goal gave Minnesota a 17-0 homecoming victory over Iowa Saturday for its first Big Ten triumph of the season.

For Minnesota it meant a 1-0 record in the conference. For Iowa, it was a record 15th consecutive Big Ten loss and the Hawkeyes ran their string of scoreless quarters in the conference to 15.

It's Bama, 11-10

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Third-ranked Alabama, withstanding a last-ditch Tennessee thrust, scored all of its points in the final period Saturday to overtake the 13th-ranked Vols 11-10 in a thrill-packed Southeastern Conference football game. Quarterback Kenny Stabler sneaked over from the half yard line early in the last period for Alabama's first score and then threw a pass to Wayne Cook for two vital ex-

Kelly Directs Buffaloes to 41-21 Victory Over I-State

AMES, Iowa (UPI)—Quarterback Dan Kelly scored three touchdowns Saturday as he passed, ran and directed Colorado to a 41-21 Big Eight Conference victory that spoiled Iowa State's homecoming.

The Buffaloes, off to a 20-0 halftime margin, had to beat off a second-half rally that pulled Iowa State to within six points of the visitors.

The elusive Kelly, a junior who had been an understudy to senior quarterback Bernie McCall until this game, put on a flashy display of ball-handling, running and passing. Even when he could not find receivers open downfield, he often eluded or outran tacklers in

HOMECOMING CROWD WATCHES

Nebraska Squeezes Past Stubborn K-State, 21-10

Lincoln, Neb. (UPI)—Big fifth win of the season, and 15th straight regular season triumph, Kansas State has now lost 16 games in a row.

The Cornhuskers gained a 14-0 halftime edge, but couldn't score again until late in the game. The touchdowns came on a four yard slant by senior fullback Pete Tatman, a blocked punt recovered in the end zone by a scrambling Wayne Meylan, and a 68-yard drive featuring a five-yard scoring run by halfback Ben Gregory.

Kansas State refused to buckle in spite of the fact the Wildcat offensive line was outweighed by 16 pounds per man and the defensive wall by 22 pounds.

Slow Tigers Shutout Oklahoma State, 7-0

COLUMBIA, Mo. (UPI)—Versatile Ray Thorpe soothed Missouri's frustrated offense Saturday when he sped 42-yards to pay dirt on a unique later-at pass play that gave the defensive minded Tigers a 7-0 Big Eight football victory over stubborn Oklahoma State.

The win kept Missouri unbeaten after two starts in the Big Eight, and left the 14th ranked Tigers 4-1 for the year. Slowed by a pass interception in the first half, Missouri uncanceled in the third quarter when Thorpe caught quarterback Gary Kombrink's pitchout and race untouched for the touchdown on a play that spanned 49 yards.

The loss dropped the Cowboys to 1-3 for the season and 1-1 in the Big Eight. Oklahoma State stopped cold most of the game, by Missouri's aggressive defense, threatened only once in the second half, before running out of downs at the Missouri 34.

The Tigers took the second half kickoff and drove 80 yards in ten plays for the games only score. Facing a third down and two from the Cowboy 49, Kombrink swept left end on an option play, bounced off two tacklers on the 45 and then pitched to the trailing Thorpe at the 42.

Thorpe, the five-foot-eight, 179 pound workhorse of Missouri's patched up backfield, who has played at three other positions left two Cowboy defenders far behind in completing the run.

Kombrink, whose running on option plays, was the meat of Missouri's offense, came up with two key runs in the drive. He ran nine yards on a third and one situation from the OSU 32 and gambled on the next play, sneaking for a first down to the 42.

A pass interception by Terry Brown, at the Cowboys' 30, killed a Missouri threat in the initial quarter. And defensive tackle Terry Bacigalupo, recovered a Missouri fumble at the Cowboy 24 to thwart another drive with 43 seconds in the half.

Missouri had gained possession at the OSU 49 with 2:16 in the half after Brown shanked a one-yard Oklahoma State punt out of bounds.

The Cowboys only serious threat came on their first possession of the game, with quarterback Ronnie Johnson running for 14 and 9 yards and passing for 10, all on key third down plays, the Pokes drove to the Missouri 26 before Craig Kessler missed a 32 yard field goal attempt.

Missouri's bill Bates missed two long range field goal attempts from 54 and 53 yards. Both boots had plenty of distance but were barely wide to the right. Kombrink led all ball carriers with 94 yards as Missouri turned out 250 yards rushing to Oklahoma State's 101. The Tigers out-first-downed the Cowboys 15-11.

Lefors Downs Erick, Okla.

LEFORS — Pirates are tougher than Bearcats and Erick, Okla. found this out the hard way Friday as they lost a non-conference game to Lefors. The Pirates played Erick a close first quarter before exploding for a 40-8 triumph. Gary Smith got the Pirates on the scoreboard in the first period with a 2-yard run and then ran the points. Gary Parrish tied the score by going in from seven yards out for Erick and then ran over the conversion and the quarter ended in a 8-8 tie. The Pirates scored three times in the second quarter and didn't make a conversion. First Dale Finney blocked a punt for a safety to make it 10-8 then Tony Pittman ran 80-yds., Darby Keith went in from the one and Marvin Finney ended the first half scoring with a 20-yard run to make it 26-8 at halftime. Lefors scored once in each of the last two periods when Finney scampered 10-yards in the third quarter and Glen Hix kicked good and then James Podd scored on a 10-yard run in the fourth period and Hix kicked good to end the scoring. The victory was Lefors second straight and gives them a 2-3 record.

on a pass interception and thus was scored against their offensive team. Sunray didn't even get close to scoring and in fact crossed midfield only twice both times with the help of penalties and both times in the second half. So stingy was the White Deer defense that the Bobcats managed but six first downs, five in the second half, 71 yards rushing, 63 in the second half. Halfback - fullback Vernon Marlar led the scoring parade with four touchdowns and a conversion run for 26 points. Quarterback John Paul Guinn tallied once and ran across three conversions. Fullback Randy Elliott scored once and ran a conversion before he was carried from the field in the second quarter and Bruce Locke scored a touchdown. White Deer ran up a 30-0 first period lead, again thanks to their defense, which kept harassing the Bobcats punter. The first three times Sunray tried to kick the Bucks scored. After running three plays the Bobcats kicked, but only 16 yards with the Bucks taking over on the Sunray 30 yard line. Four plays later Guinn ran in from the 10 with 9-40 left in the period and then ran over the conversion. Sunray tried to punt but the Bucks blocked this one and took over on the 21. It took only two plays with Locke scoring from 20 yards out with 6:35 left. The kick for the conversion was no good but White Deer led 14-0. Sunray ran three downs and fumbled with Marlar recovering on the Sunray 23.

Marlar ran three straight downs, the last one going 17 yards for the score with 4:30 left. Elliott then ran over the conversion for a 22-0 lead. Three downs later Sunray booted again, this one went 18 yards and White Deer had possession on the 39 yard line. The Bucks wasted no time and Marlar went the distance on the first play and then ran over the conversion and with 3:06 still to go in the first period the Bucks led 30-0. In the second period the Bucks took over on their own 46 and the best play of the night followed. Guinn hit end Bobb Rapp with a screen pass at the line of scrimmage and Rapp handed the ball to Elliott who outran four defenders down the east sidelines to score. Guinn ran the points over and with 6:40 left in the half it was 38-0.

White Deer's Gary Stewart recovered a Sunray fumble with two minutes left and the Bucks moved 16 yards in three plays with Marlar going over from 10 yards out. The run-try for the conversion failed and 1:45 from halftime it was 44-0, the way the half ended.

Bottoms played his second and third team in the final half. It might be fair to point out that just as the half ended halfback Steve Thomas ran 14 yards on a third and nine situation for a touchdown, but it was nullified on a penalty. White Deer's final score came on their first possession in the second half when they marched 56-yards in seven plays with Marlar busting through the line for the final 38 yards. Guinn ran across the conversion and with 8:05 left in the third period the Bucks had 52 points on the scoreboard. In the third period Sunray drove to the Bucks 39 yard line but failed on a fourth and four situation and near the end of the game went to the 44 where White Deer held again. The Bucks, who picked up 272 yards rushing, face Canadiana next week in the Wildcat's home lair in another district game.

McLean Crumbles Claude, 24-12

MCLEAN — The McLean Tigers drove to a 16-6 first period lead and rolled over Claude, 24-12 Friday night in a 1-A district game. The Tigers ran their record to 5-1 and conference record to 1-0 while Claude suffered their second loss of the season and now stand 0-1 in league action. Once again it was fullback Robert Baker pacing the Tiger offense as the big junior rambled for all three Tiger scores. Claude jumped in front when they tallied first on a 75-yard run by fullback Bill McBartley. The run-try for the conversion and the Mustangs held a short-lived 6-0 lead. McLean got rolling when they took advantage of a bad Claude punt that gave the Tigers possession on the Mustangs 20-yard line. Baker traveled the last eight yards then ran over the conversion to put McLean in front for the first time, 8-6. Claude punted again, or tried to, but the Tigers blocked it and took over on the 15. Again Baker went in, this time from 12 yards out and Jim Hester ran the conversion to make it 16-6 as the first period ended. McLean concluded their scoring with a second period touchdown when they recovered a fumble on the Claude 30. Baker went the last three yards and ran the conversion. Claude got their last tally in the final period when McLean was called for pass interference and Edwin Campbell carried in from the two. The Tigers trailed in yards rushing 159-130 and first downs, 8-6. McLean plays at Clarendon next Friday in a conference affair.

Wheeler Rambles By Silverton

SILVERTON — Wheeler continued to roll along in merry football-style Friday night as they won their first district class A game ever and ran their season record to 5-1. The Mustangs tallied 24 points in the second quarter and went on to down Silverton, 44-12. Fullback Fred Goad, halfback Bobby Vanpool and halfback Dan Rives scored twice each for the Mustangs. The two teams played to a scoreless first quarter but both broke loose in the second period. Bobby Vanpool tallied from two-yards out to cap a 65-yard march for Wheeler and Goad ran the points for a 8-0 lead. But Silverton came right back and Lannie Arnold scored on a 20-yard pass from John Montague. The conversion failed and it was 8-6. But Silverton gained its only lead of the night when Pardy Hughes went in from the five to make it 12-8 in favor of the home team. But Wheeler quit fooling around and Rives scored on a 15-yard run. Goad added the conversion and then Rives scored again, on a five-yard run and David Jamison ran the points to make it 24-12 at halftime. Neither team scored in the third period but the Mustangs Goad scored from one-yard out and the conversion failed, then Vanpool scooted 50 yards and Goad scored from 35-yards out and Vanpool added the conversion for the final 44-12 score.

The host team and Pampa played to a scoreless first period but Booker broke loose for two second period scores. Jay Trosper scampered five-yards and Johnny Rogers ran the conversion in the first Booker score. Trosper tallied again just before halftime and the run failed for a 13-0 Booker lead at the half. Trosper scored the final Booker tally in the third period when he ran 17-yards and then kicked the extra point.

Pampa started basketball workouts Saturday and if you want to see the Harvesters you'd better do so before November 19.

When the season starts it'll be a long time before Pampa plays in the comfortable confines of Harvester Fieldhouse.

On the Road

Pampa will play its first four games away from home, starting Nov. 19, a Saturday, at Hereford, then play the following Friday in Quanah, then play the next Saturday, Nov. 26 at Vernon and travel to Perryton Nov. 28.

The first Harvester home game will probably be Dec. 1 when the Top O' Texas Tournament begins its three day run.

The Harvesters will play in two tournaments during the season with the second Dec. 28-31 in Hobbs, N.M. The Shockers will be in a tournament at Phillips while the Top O' Texas is going on.

Some new and good teams have been signed for the ToT with Pampa, Borger, Dumas, Childress, Canyon, Channing, Burk Burnett and Elk City, Okla. making up the list.

In the Hobbs affair Pampa will be pitted with Hobbs, Roswell, Plainview, Odessa, Permian, Lovington, Las Cruces and a team from Midland.

The Harvesters are a young inexperienced team for the most part with only one senior starter returning and that being Steve Williams, a 6'1 guard who might see a little forward duty.

Steve has the distinction of being the only letterman returning, something Terry Culley wishes he wasn't.

Robert Carr, 6'2 1/2, Tommy Capps and Miron Porter are other seniors returning who were on the traveling squad last season but didn't get in enough time to letter.

Rick Will Help

Pampa should be helped with the addition of Rick Foster, a 6'2 senior, who wasn't eligible to participate in varsity basketball last season, because of transferring here.

If Rick comes through in basketball as he did for the baseball team then the Harvesters stock should rise.

One thing Culley does have, or should we say two, is that winning attitude and a crop of fine young juniors who had an outstanding sophomore season last year.

There is the smallest man on the court, 5'9 Alvin Achord, John Carlos, 6'2; George Bailey, 6'3 and Bo Long, who has grown a mile and now stands at 6'4 and Jimmy Cornutt who is 6'1 when he doesn't have his arms in the air and has arms that are just about six-foot long.

There is a young man coming up who will probably be of great help to Pampa next season.

He is a Bo too, but has a Bond at the end of it. He stands 6'6 barefooted and weighs 202 pounds.

Bo is a junior and didn't play junior high basketball because nobody asked him too. He went out last year but was so awkward that Culley had him do nothing but practice by himself on dribbling and shooting baskets.

The improvement is amazing and Culley speaks about Bond with a sparkle in his eye.

With all this talent next year could be the year.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)

Among the many services that journalists perform is the ending of eras. This is done by mourning the passing of something.

Over the years I have been involved in more than my share of these nostalgic rituals, and they have taken a lot out of me. Ending eras leaves a person drained emotionally. But I have never shirked.

In many cases, if one of us sentimental newspapermen didn't mourn the passing of it, people wouldn't even realize that an era had ended. I couldn't bear that.

It is heartless to leave an era just hanging there in thin air. Somebody has got to end it. And if nobody else volunteers to mourn it, I will.

A year or so ago I was one of the chief mourners at the passing of Burma Shave signs, which ended the era of the verse by the side of the road.

A few months ago, I led the mourning over the passing of union suits, which ended the era of one-piece male underwear.

And today, having waited in vain for other mourners to step forward, I have taken it upon myself to mourn the passing of jokes about the Fuller brush man.

That era ended a few days ago when Fuller announced that it would start hiring women as door-to-door brush salesmen.

It is true the company said that recruitment of "Fullerettes" would be limited and that the Fuller brush man would "remain the mainstay of the business." But does anybody seriously believe that will last?

Soft Sell

Fuller brush men, at least the ones who knocked on our door, were disciples of the "soft sell." If you didn't want any brushes, you could give them the brush-off.

But one of the Fullerettes hired during the trial program called at our house recently and my wife told me she has noticeably more aggressive than any of the men had been.

I'll lay odds that by the time the first American lands on the moon Fuller brush men will be in a minority if not extinct.

This means that a 60-year stockpile of jokes will be rendered pointless.

It may be that a few new gags about Fuller brush ladies will start making the rounds, but the punch lines will have to be a lot different.

It's the end of an era.

Q— I just returned from military duty in Viet Nam. What do I do about a tax return? I have not filed yet.

A— You have an automatic extension of 180 days from the time you left Viet Nam before your return has to be filed. For servicemen who are hospitalized outside the U. S. as a result of wounds, disease or injury incurred while serving in a combat zone, the 180 day extension begins after discharge from the hospital. When filing your return be sure to attach a statement showing the inclusive dates of combat zone service or hospitalization.

Q— My wife and I were just divorced. Is there any way I can take an extra exemption for withholding purposes to make up for the alimony I'm paying? Unless I can, I'm going to be greatly overwithheld.

A— At present, there is no provision for you to take an extra exemption for this purpose. However, starting next year, taxpayers who have deductible expenses that substantially exceed the standard deduction may file a new Form W-4 for an additional withholding allowance.

Q— If a person is in the hospital for 90 days early in a calendar year, does he have to wait until the next year to be eligible for further hospitalization?

A— No. If you are out of the hospital for 60 consecutive days, you would be eligible for another 90 days since this would be considered a new "spell of illness."

Q— Most insurance policies specify what hospital services are covered. I have received my identification card, but am not sure just what is covered. If I do have to enter the hospital, what will it pay?

A— Except for the first $40, benefit payments will cover the cost of your room and board in semi-private accommodations, ordinary nursing services, and the costs of drugs, supplies, and most other items of service customarily furnished by a hospital. Your medicare handbook gives a specific list of the covered health insurance services.

Q— Does a 65 year old person have to be a citizen in order to be eligible for Medicare?

A— No. An alien may be eligible for Medicare although he is not entitled to monthly benefits. However, he must prove that he was legally admitted to this country for permanent residence and that he has lived here continuously for the last five years. This restriction on Medicare benefits for aliens does not apply if the alien is entitled to monthly social security benefits.

Pampan's Daughter Marries in Houston

Harmony Wedding Chapel of Houston, was the scene for the Sept. 30 wedding of Mrs. Jamie Ann Guy Gafford to Donald Ray Miller. Rev. Maurice E. Turner officiated at the candlelight ceremony. The traditional Mendelson's Wedding March and "On Promise Me" were played by Mrs. Turner, organist. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Watson H. Crawford Jr. of Houston and James Bryant Guy of 1633 N. Faulkner. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Miller of Brownwood. The chapel was decorated with 32 candles, greenery, baskets of white gladioli, mums and ferns. A white kneeling bench was also used. Given in marriage by her adoptive father, Watson H. Crawford Jr., the bride wore a street-length gown of imported French crepe peau de soie of soft powder blue, with alencon lace, featuring the empire style, with long-petal sleeves and a rounded neckline. It had a straight crepe skirt. Her only ornamentation was a brooch, gift of the bridegroom. For something borrowed and held, the bride placed a 1787 King Carlos Spanish peseta in her shoe, which has been in the family for generations and has been used by brides of the family for many generations. She wore the traditional blue garter. She had a headdress of silk illusion in the form of a tulip. The veil of silk illusion was just long enough to partially cover her face. The bride carried a large tapered bouquet of white carnations and trailing ivy held together with powder blue satin ribbons. The bouquet was made in a way that part of it could be used to throw to her bridesmaids. Bridesmaid's dresses were of rainbow colors. Miss Jerry Burke, of Pasadena, maid of honor, wore blue. Mrs. Glenda Neview of Houston, matron of honor, wore canary yellow; the bride's sisters, Henrietta and Linda Jeffers of Columbus, Ga., wore green and pink respectively. The brides' attendants followed the traditional Empire style in French crepe peau de soie with alencon lace. Roy Early of Ellington Air Force Base, served as best man. Richard Dolan of San Antonio, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Lawson Miller, brother of the bridegroom of Brownwood, served as ushers for the ceremony. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Non-commissioned Officers Club at Ellington Air Force Base, with Roy Early announcing the guests as they arrived. The tables were covered with white taffeta silk and tulle garnished with greenery and blue ribbons and white wedding bells. The bride's table held the three-tiered cake topped with traditional bride, with the bridegroom dressed in Air Force Blue uniform. The cake was snow white with blue rosettes. Within the cake there were two sets of traditional favors for the bridesmaids and groomsmen and ushers. Crystal service was used to serve the cake and punch from the heavy silver punch bowl. Decorative napkins with bride and groom and the names Jamie and Don inscribed were used. Members of the houseparty included Mrs. Dudley D. Blankenship of Pasadena who poured coffee; Miss Linda Lee of Houston served punch; Mrs. Richard Dolan of San Antonio served cake; Miss Melinda Jane Sanderford of Pasadena served. Mrs. Jewell Dean Lewis B&PW 'Woman of the Week'

Business and Professional Women's Clubs across the nation are observing National Business Women's Week which began today and will conclude Saturday. Mrs. Jewell Dean Lewis was chosen by the local B&PW Club as its "Business Woman of the Week." Women of today have an important role in the business world. Throughout history the influence of women can be clearly traced, but certainly at no time in the past have they played such an important role as they do today. Women have taken their place in almost every profession, field of business and industry. The Business and Professional Women's Clubs organization has had a lot to do with giving women the incentive to improve their positions and to meet the greater challenges of today. The B&PW theme, "You in Action, Planning for Progress" helps carry out the motto of "Better Business Women for a Better Business World." Purposes of the organization are to elevate the standards, promote interests, bring about a spirit of cooperation and extend opportunities along the lines of industrial, scientific and vocation activities. These aims are accomplished through an active participation in fields of individual development, community concern, national awareness and hemispheric cooperation. B&PW Clubs membership includes approximately 175,000 working women in over 3,500 clubs throughout the nation's 60 states, the District of Columbia, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. The organization is a member of the 24-country International Federation of B&PW Clubs. Gordzelik-Stevens Vows Are Pledged

On October 1, at 7:30 p.m., in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of White Deer, Miss Janie Gordzelik and Mrs. Jessie Stevens exchanged wedding vows in a double-ring ceremony with Father Jerome Hancock officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gordzelik Sr. of White Deer. Mr. Stevens is the son of Mrs. Jessie Stevens of Skellytown. The candlelight ceremony was performed before an altar decorated by tall arrangements of white gladioli. The bridal aisle was covered with a white cloth and the pews of honor were marked with tall three-branch candelabra entwined with strings of smilax. Mrs. Rosemary Eakin, organist, presented a program of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Carolyn Rapstine as she sang "Ave Maria" and "Hail Mary." Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white peau de soie dress fashioned with a sheath skirt, a portrait neckline and the traditional petal point sleeves. The cathedral train swept from the neckline in an overskirt fashion. The bodice, skirt, and train had appliques of imported alencon lace re-embroidered in seed pearls and crystal beads. Her veil and French alencon lace cap was embroidered in pearls identical to that of the gown. The French illusion veil fell to the length of the train. The bride's bouquet was of pink elegance roses with streamers which cascaded down the front of her gown. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Eileen Gordzelik, sister-in-law of the bride and bridesmatron, Mrs. Paula Branch and Mrs. Sylvia Armstrong were dressed in identical floor-length dresses with a shocking pink velvet bodice and a lighter pink chiffon skirt. They wore Dior bows with three-year-old son Mark. Born in Marlow, Okla., Mrs. Lewis moved to Pampa in 1946. She is the widow of the late Wesley Lewis. An active member of the Pampa B&PW Club since 1950, Mrs. Lewis now serves as chairman of the legislation committee. In previous years she has served as chairman of the world affairs, public relations and women in government committees. She has also served the club as president, vice president, corresponding secretary and program coordinator and was a 1964-65 District Nine director. Altrusa Golden Anniversary Scroll Is Signed in Lubbock by Mrs. Inez Carter

District Nine of Altrusa International Inc. will adjourn a three day conference in Lubbock today. One of the impressive highlights of the meeting was the signing of the Golden Anniversary Scroll yesterday morning in the Ko Ko Palace where the sessions are being held. Mrs. Inez Carter signed the Scroll for the local club. In commemoration of Altrusa's 50 years of service, the Scroll was introduced at the Dallas convention last year by Edith Driver Harper, chairman of the Golden Anniversary Committee Altrusa International Inc. First signers were members of the International Board of Directors and past international presidents at the convention. It then started on its two year journey to district conferences to collect "signatures for service." Its final destination will be the 1967 convention in Bal Harbour, Fla. The Scroll is made of fine linen-like cloth on which is hand lettered the following message: "As this Golden Anniversary Scroll travels around the world - symbol of friendship among the representatives of our clubs, pledge anew more effective service to our communities, countries and world. Therefore, with pride in past accomplishments and inspiration for the future, we offer our signatures for service." Each Altrusa club in International will have a representative to sign for her club. Mrs. Carter was designated for the honor by Altrusa Club of Pampa. She is a charter member of the organization and has been very active in all its projects. For many years she has given

India's Educational System Described For American Business Women's Assn.

Mrs. Mike Muigal, native of Punjab, India, spoke on "The Educational System of India" at the Tuesday evening dinner meeting of American Business Women's Association. Mrs. Vernon Graham, president, presiding. The guest speaker was introduced by Mrs. Ted Mastin.

Mrs. Muigal, Vejay, to her friends was married on Jan. 16, 1965, in Punjab. Her husband is an employe of Cabot Corp. The Muigals arrived in Pampa on April 12.

Mrs. Muigal is from an upper class family. Her father is a lawyer, her sister a doctor, as is her brother-in-law. One of her brothers is employed with the government, and she has two younger brothers at home. Mrs. Muigal attended Punjab University where she received her BS Degree in Education and her Masters Degree in Economics.

She stated that India is the seventh largest nation in the world and second in population, consequently India's economic problems are food shortage, unemployment and housing shortage. She also mentioned that India is a large democracy, and education is a necessity to democracy. Education there is qualified as primary, middle, and high and after that enrollment in the Universities.

India has a social security and retirement plan similar to the same program in the United States, although there are no homes provided for the aged. They are cared for by their families, customarily by their sons rather than their daughters. When a divorce is granted in India each party must remain single for seven years before remarrying, the speaker concluded.

Mrs. Kenneth Butler in a vocational speech told of the courses she had taken in oil painting so that she would be qualified to help her husband in their photographic studio.

The National Convention of ABWA, which is being held Oct. 14, 15 and 16 in Tulsa, will be attended by Mrs. Vernon Graham, delegate, Mrs. James Quay, alternate, and Mmes. T. A. Mastin, Arville Hayes and Homer McNeil.

Mrs. Roy McHone, chapter member who resides in Miami, has tentative plans for moving her family to Washington, D.C., in November. She will be working for Congressman Burleson who is chairman of the House Administration Committee on the House Administration Staff in the Capitol Building. Her office will be just to the left of the Rotunda on the third floor. Mrs. McHone's official title will be assistant clerk on the committee. She will be working with two others, Chief Clerk Julian Langston and Vivian M. Robinson. There are 25 congressmen on the House Administration Committee. Mrs. McHone's friends may write her at the House Administration Committee, 328 Capitol Bldg., Washington, D. C. 20411 or call her at 202-225-6605.

The president, Mrs. Vernon Graham, installed in a candlelight ceremony nine new members. They include Mrs. Shirley Nichols, sponsored by Mrs. James Culpepper; Mrs. C. W. Coffin, sponsor, Mrs. Elmo Hudgens; Mrs. Walter Spoonemore. (See INDIA'S, Page 14)

Varietas Members Present Program On 'Americanism'

Mrs. Luther Pierson introduced Mrs. J. E. Kirchman and Mrs. Sherman White, who spoke on "Americanism" at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of Varietas Study Club.

The meeting, held in the home of Mrs. Ralph Thomas, was presided over by Mrs. S. C. Evans, president.

Mrs. H. Price Dosier, attending after an extensive illness, was given a special welcome.

In introducing the speakers, Mrs. Pierson used the reading, "No bird soars too high if he soars with his own wings."

The first talk was given by Mrs. Kirchman, who spoke on "Stand Proud and Free". She gave a history of Americanism, stressing that our country was founded by people who chose to come here and who desired freedom. She led the group in a recitation of the Preamble to the Constitution, after which she discussed present-day privileges and duties of Americans. She emphasized her points by quoting Abraham Lincoln's "You Cannot" in which he says, "You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help man permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

The second speaker was Mrs. Sherman White, who presented a paper prepared by Mrs. Luther Kirk on the topic, "The History of Our Flag Emblem." She gave the history of flags as emblems, from the Middle Ages down to the present. She discussed the uses of the flag for various occasions, gave the code for its display, and presented many interesting facts about the flag of the United States and of other countries.

How to Remove Make-up
In removing make-up, the first step should be to cleanse away eye and lip colors so they don't get smeared over the rest of the face. When this is done, begin cleansing the face and neck. Remove all traces of your cleanser with a tissue and smooth on a beautifying lotion or moisturizer.

Mrs. Robert McMurrey of Houston, Kennedy In-Law Not Involved in Politics

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — There is one in-law of the Kennedys who is not, absolutely not, involved in politics.

She's hazel-eyed and beautiful Mrs. Robert McMurrey, 27, of Houston. She's the sister of Joan Bennett Kennedy, who is married to Edward M. Kennedy, the Democratic Senator from Massachusetts.

Mrs. McMurrey's husband, an attorney, is a Democrat, she said, but ruefully added that "most of my friends are Republicans." Her husband's parents are Republicans, but not militant about their politics. And she numbers an in-law who was a cousin of the late President Herbert Hoover.

Neither brunette Candace (Candy) McMurrey nor her husband, who's 30, is active in politics, she said, although they are allied to the Kennedy family where political life seems second nature and where relatives and in-laws traditionally pitch in to help campaign. Her campaign is for culture, especially on behalf of the Houston Museum of Fine Arts. She and seven other Texas women are to be honored for their cultural contributions with the first Chemstrand award of merit.

The presentation is set for Friday night with a gala fashion show and review of the famous Texas State Fair, opening Oct. 9, in Dallas.

The other women are Mrs. Worth; Mrs. Ethan Stroud of and Mrs. John Blaffer of Houston; Mrs. Walter McAllister Jr. of San Antonio; and Mrs. Wallace Scott Jr. and Mrs. Frank Denius of Austin. I talked with Mrs. McMurrey during a recent trip she made East which included a visit with her sister in Washington.

Mrs. McMurrey, now a mother of two small boys, is a graduate of Bennett College and studied also at the Tobecoburn school for fashion careers.

Once, during a visit to Hyannis Port, Mrs. McMurrey recalled that President Kennedy gave her and one small son a lift into Washington — she was going for a visit with her husband's parents in College Park, Md., nearby. The lift was in Air Force One, the presidential plane.

"I said to Joan 'what'll I call the President?'" said Mrs. McMurrey. Her sister answered, "call him Mr. President and he'll probably say, 'call me Jack.'" Which is exactly what he did.

The late President, then a Senator, was best man and Mrs. McMurrey was maid of honor when her sister and Edward Kennedy were married in November, 1958.

Men's Wear Offers New Muted Colors

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — What's new in suits and sports jackets for fall? Well, in the first place a man who is color blind, bashful or just plain ignorant can buy a carefully coordinated outfit which blends suits, shirts, shoes, socks, ties etc., into a well got up entry.

Stripes are very much in and so are double breasted suits and blazers. Vests are back in all categories with fancy ones for teen-agers. Deep side vents are in.

Glen plaids are out — except for very expensive suits where they are very in. The most popular fabrics are hopsacks and oxfords which have a basket weave. Iridentrics are out and so is plain black — except for formal wear where it is in.

"Country suits" are considered new although they were around years ago and are merely making reappearance. These are three-piece tweeds, shetlands, chevots and saxonies in patterns ranging from meek and mild to wild and woolly. There are also fancy pockets, such as patch.

There are still three basic categories of suits — the traditional or natural shoulder-Ivy League style, the middle-of-the-road three-button padded shoulder type for the safe and sane middle aged banker from Milwaukee and the contemporary which is new, avant garde and can cover a multitude of sins.

Men may not have realized it but the traditional has always had a slight waist suppression. It is called natural shoulder because the shoulder seam is behind the shoulder and the cloth rests directly on the shoulder. The "forward pitch" has the seam forward and gives a more athletic appearance.

This fall waist suppression has crept into the middle-of-the-road suit — but not much, but they do appear in two button models and the pleated pants which marked the suit for years have now pretty much disappeared. They are also shown with vests which is unusual. And when there is waist suppression, two deep side vents and slanted pockets they call it the English Look.

The contemporary offers a lot for the young businessman who is tired of the same Ivy League styles he wore in college and the range is all the way from slightly modified shoulders to extreme forward pitch. One of the latter comes in a dark blue pinstrip has one button, a nipped in waist, deep side vents and is worn with a double breasted grey flannel vest.

Some of the new colors are the whiskey, wheat and honey tones but light shades look bad in the evening or at a cocktail party, especially with brown shoes which aren't supposed to be worn in the city after six after Labor Day.

Dark blue and dark grey are the best shades for fall but there are overlays of green on black, burgundy on black and blue on blacks which are milder than they sound. There are also blacks shot with orange which are called tiger-tones but are as mild as a kitten.

Teal greens and teal blues show up a lot and a new shade called lovat blue which has several colors blended in. Many stores have coordinated these colors with such furnishings as shirts and ties which pick up the tones. And if the store hasn't a really good salesman could coordinate it for you.

Sportswear manufacturers have gone all out on the coordination program and offer plain pants which match the patterned sport jacket in color, fabric or both. A plaid shetland jacket, for example, is shown with hopsack slacks which pick up the main color of the jacket. A double breasted blazer might be worn with a pair of glen plaid slacks in the exact color tone. Sweaters and socks are in the same tones — and so are fabric leisure hats.

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR SUNDAY, OCT. 16
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A Sunday to think out and to make plans to get rid of whatever does not serve you rightly and to win over those by a high standard of living that are an example to you in whatever way you feel can open new doors for you. Avoid that tendency to war a campaign of severity and then late to-night much better influences occur.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Your ideas can be quite wrong at this time, so check everything over carefully against the findings of those in high position. A day for self-improvement. Evening can prove to be a most romantic one.

TALRES (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Whatever displeases you whose partners are concerned during day you had better shut your eyes to and carry through with own obligations. All can clear up by tonight and find agreements reached. Cooperate enthusiastically.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — Doing for others willingly without feeling it is a sort of martyrdom is the only way to get the right results now. Be sure to get other duties done, also. It is best to take it easy in the evening.

SCORPIO CHILDREN (June 22 to July 23) — It's time to go out for recreation. A bit only with those persons you admire, since this is one of those days and evenings when you act very quickly. Don't spend much. Relax in p.m. and be happy.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 23) — While you are desirous of making radical changes at home, it is best you study them well first today, and then sleep on them to-night as well. Kin are apt to be in a funny sort of a mood. Show patience.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 23) — Driving excessively could bring much, save your way, so slow down and use good common sense in all that you do and say. Confusions are confusing you during day. By evening all clears up very nicely.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) — You get fine ideas for increasing your income, but you must first work them out more thoroughly before putting in operation. By evening you get true clarification. Work enthusiastically.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 23) — Although you feel others should get out of your way to do what you yourself want

Dear Abby.... It's Time to Use Some Common Sense

DEAR ABBY: I am 29 and have never had a boy friend. I've had many dates, but I make it clear from the start that I am a good girl and they had better not try any monkey business and that's the last I see of them. You'll probably faint when you read this, but every word is true, so here goes:

I am considered beautiful in figure and face. I have high moral standards and everyone is always wanting to fix me up with men, but nobody ever does. My mother doesn't allow me to date divorced men, or stay out after midnight. Also can't go out with a man she doesn't know, which limits my opportunities because mother is 74 and doesn't get around very much.

I have a good secretarial job, but if I spend one more evening playing scrabble with my mother I will crack up. Please help me.

NOT KIDDING
DEAR NOT: First you'd better sever that cord which has been running between you and your mother for the past 29 years. And change your pitch. It's all right to be 99.99 percent pure, but you needn't begin every date with that commercial. Use your own judgment, choose your own friends, and grow up. You're a big girl now.

DEAR ABBY: We are elderly people, retired. We live in a neighborhood where there is a recent widow. I remarked to my husband, "Mrs. — is getting thin. The trouble with living alone is that you don't bother to cook for yourself. I would like to send her some little things I cook when I have extras."

My husband sounded annoyed and answered, "Why do that? She will think we think she can't take care of herself." Believe me, Abby, that idea never crossed my mind. Who is right? BROOKLYN

DEAR BROOKLYN: You are. But one who lives alone misses more than food. He misses companionship. Do something for the widow's spirit as well as her stomach and invite her to join you.

The simplest meal, with company, will be more appreciated than the finest delicacy—alone.

DEAR ABBY: My young grandson eats only one thing at a time. If there are four things on his plate, he will first eat all his meat, then all his vegetables. He will not take one bite of one thing unless he has finished the other. He positively refuses to mix his food. Now isn't this ridiculous?

When I call him on it, his mother and grandmother give me the horselaugh. It just does not look right to me. I don't know whether this comes under the heading of etiquette, or health, or what, but it just doesn't look right to me. I wish you would classify this and set me straight. Sign me.

OLD FASHIONED
DEAR OLD FASHIONED: I would classify this as nitpicking. Children come in for enough criticism during their childhood without having something as inconsequential as this being called to their attention. Skip it. What's the difference? Be glad he's healthy and can eat everything.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old boy and I think I have a venereal disease. Can you please tell me the name of a good venerologist? I can't sign my name.

NAMELESS
DEAR NAMELESS: Any doctor can help you. Or go to the public health department in your city for immediate medi-

SCHOOL LUNCH SERVES THE NATION in city schools, suburban schools, and in country schools. For 20 years the National School Lunch Program has been helping to provide nutritious school lunches to youngsters in every State and U.S. territory. Since passage of the National School Lunch Act in 1946, the program has grown steadily until it now reaches 19 million youngsters in over 71,000 schools. Federal donations of food and cash enable children to buy for about 30 cents a nutritious plate lunch worth an average of 50 cents. Needy students unable to pay the regular price receive free lunches. The National School Lunch Program, administered by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service in cooperation with State and local officials, is available to about 75 percent of the Nation's school children. Those attending old, poorly-equipped city and isolated country schools without lunch service are usually the ones most in need of good food. Successful Federal, State and local efforts, of recent years, to begin lunch programs where none were possible before have shown that much can be done to close the nutrition gap between the majority of American youngsters and their less fortunate neighbors.

MECHANIZATION has almost taken over California's tomato production with up to 85 per cent of this year's crop being harvested mechanically. One major firm, Heinz, is harvesting its full crop with huge rigs such as at left, shown working a field in the rich San Joaquin Valley. Below left, tomatoes are scooped up on a conveyor belt which carries them up to a sorting table, right. One harvesting machine can handle up to 150 tons per day as against a maximum three tons for a hand picker.

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY
Lloyd Barrett was by our office last week discussing a water problem that has become quite acute over the Panhandle of Texas. He has been bothered with an algae formation in his irrigation ditch. Felix Ryals, manager, Panhandle Underground Water District, happened to be in our office and he advised Lloyd to treat his pumping plant soon after cutting off his well. The algae formation in the ditch was strong evidence the well was affected also. It is very expensive to treat a well. Failure to treat an infected well will result in decreased pumping efficiency and decreased yield. A sumpersible pump can be ruined by the algae formation locking the pump down. We have seen one such case. Now is an excellent time for all irrigation farmers to take care of this chore. Follow directions closely. In drafting our 1967 plan of work we hope to place considerable emphasis on our educational efforts with reference to all phases of water.

It has been estimated the annual production in the Panhandle of Texas could be increased by twenty million dollars if we could prevent all losses of water due to irrigation tail water runoff and loss by evaporation from playa lake evaporation. These figures were recently published in a very comprehensive study made of the Panhandle Economic Program by our Farm Management Specialist, James Murphrey, extension service, Amarillo.

A fully developed irrigated agriculture would increase production by one hundred million dollars.

A more timely and accurate application of irrigation water could add twenty-five million dollars to the Panhandle income.

A figure that all Chamber of Commercials should make a special note on is this one: $350 million dollars could be added to the value of products produced in this area if processed and manufactured in the Panhandle of Texas.

A coordinated effort to push the Panhandle Economic Program will be made through all county program building committees. The County Program Building Committees are the advisory groups to the County Extension Service Staff.

We are very much for this local self-help program.

Soil Scientist Reports Amount Of Water Stored From Playa Lakes

"Eighty-four acre feet of water have been stored in the Ogallala formation from the two playa lakes at the High Plains Research Foundation thus far in 1966. The water conserved is enough to apply four inches per acre on 353.8 acres," according to Jim Valliant, Soil Scientist, who completed his B.S. in Agricultural Engineering at Texas Technological College.

Five hundred and eighty-one acre-feet of surplus lake water from rain and tailwater runoff into the playa lakes have been placed underground through recharge from 1959 to January, 1966. This does not include the 64 acre-feet recharged this year. The 581 acre-feet amount to 27.6 percent of the total amount pumped from all four wells on the Foundation farm during this time.

Grasses and other crops such as hybrid grainers are being studied as a means of clearing water in the playa lakes and to obtain income from an otherwise unprofitable area on the farm.

Texas' only Indian reservation houses the Alabama and Coushatta tribes.

Panhandle Water Conservation News

By FELIX W. RYALS
On Tuesday of the past week I attended a meeting, called by Governor John Connally, to discuss the proposed Texas 2020 Water Plan. He also discussed the proposed constitutional amendments dealing with the water situation in Texas. I came away from the meeting feeling that he is now more fully aware of the "left-outness" of West Texas in the preliminary 2020 Water Plan. He gave assurances that something would be done about providing the needed water for the High Plains and Panhandle area.

At the present time the Texas Water Development is limited to $200,000,000 for its entire program of investment, including loans and acquisition of storage space. This amount will be increased to 400 million if proposed constitutional amendment No. 11 is approved on November 8, 1966. Funds used to provide this financial assistance to local governments for approved water projects do not come from state appropriations of tax revenue but are obtained from the sale of Texas Water Development bonds.

Before each $100 million in bonds can be issued, the legislature must grant authority by a two-thirds vote of the membership of each house.

The Texas Water Development Fund is available for use by any political subdivision—city, water district, or river authority—in the state which desires to increase and improve its water resources or facilities but is unable to finance the project through regular commercial channels. It may be used for either surface water or underground water storage and development.

Upon selection of a water project, the municipality, water district or river authority files its application for a loan with the board and presents its plan for development or improvement.

The price at which the board can sell any conservation storage is prescribed by statute and must include the Board's original investment, annual interest on that amount at the cumulative average effective rate on the Board's bonds to the date of sale plus 1/2 of 1 percent, plus the Board's cost of maintenance and operation, less any income from sales of water.

Under the Board's water storage acquisition program, the Board acquires what amounts to an undivided interest in storage reservoirs after finding (1) that there is a future need for the water to be impounded, (2) that the local sponsor is financially incapable of developing the reservoir site to its optimum potential, and (3) that the public interest will be served. The board must pay its pro rata share of the cost of the reservoir.

SUNDAY MORNING GRIST

From the Editorial Mill

AN INVITATION to attend "open house" at a garbage disposal plant might not be considered the most inviting invitation a fellow could receive... First thing that comes to mind is a trip through a smelly place with a pine-needle clothes pin on your nose... This is to explain that it doesn't always work out that way... Especially when you take a guided tour through a swanky, modern sewage treatment plant such as the one just played in full operation here in Pampa... Newsmen who went along on the "open house" trip conducted Friday by city officials at the new $500,000 plant out beyond the country club, came away with the conviction that a rose is a rose is a rose... The chamber of commerce hosted a coffee for those who made the trip, but it was held in the chamber offices downtown... The hosts decided it would be better to serve refreshments there instead of at the plant on account of some folks might be skittish about sipping their caffeine while the city's sewage was being treated nearby for b.o. ... Let's just say it's a fine plant and not at all what you would expect to see or smell on a sightseeing and sniffing trip through a garbage disposal factory.

A BLOW-UP story all out of proportion in an out-of-town newspaper has caused some Pampans to get the idea construction is to start real soon on a junior college building here... We don't know where the newspaper got the idea, but nothing like that is in the cards now... No plans have been drawn... The junior college plant is only in the dream stage... All that has happened so far is that the junior college district, approved by voters back in 1944, has been reactivated and to keep it active, night school vocational classes are being started in classrooms at Pampa High... So, for the time being, forget about construction of a new junior college building... That's something that will take a lot of future planning and it could be

THE GUEST PEN:

Note to a Public Servant

By D. R. SEGAL
Editor, Brownsville Herald
I do not know Mr. John R. Kingsbery of Austin, Texas, but I wish I did.
Mr. Kingsbery has written a letter to his friend John Connally, a state employe and close associate of another public servant who ranches some in Texas and does other business in Washington. Mr. Kingsbery's text is that the sun would not halt in its flight nor the cuckoo bird pause in its labors if plans for the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library, Building and Lyndon Baines Johnson School of Public Service of the University of Texas were to come to a crashing halt.
Mr. Kingsbery says he has searched his memory and he can recall "no man in public office who has had any such vast sum expended on a memorial to him by his state, with the possible exception of Huey P. Long."
It is not my intention to compare the relative statesmanship of Mr. Long and Mr. Johnson and draw therefrom certain conclusions. The comparison is suggested by Mr. Kingsbery, not by me. I don't think they're even in the same ball park. But Mr. Kingsbery says that instead of having the taxpayer buy some high-priced real estate in Austin and erect a lavish memorial to Our Leader (cost $6-10 million), might it not be more appropriate for Mr. Johnson's host of followers to purchase some cheap land around several years away... Or, maybe not at all.

THERE IS highly interesting article on this page today by the Allen-Scott team of writers who do such an excellent job of keeping you posted on what's going on behind the scenes in Washington... Today's column has to do with disclosure there are several dozen still-secret documents and papers in the Warren Commission investigation of the President Kennedy assassination which never have been made public... The column is intriguing reading and you may find there are some things cooking you hadn't heard about... Once we started reading the Allen-Scott copy for today's paper, there was no stopping until we had finished it... Among other things, it was a bit electrifying to learn about the feelings of Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy as they relate to President Johnson... But, read it for yourself.

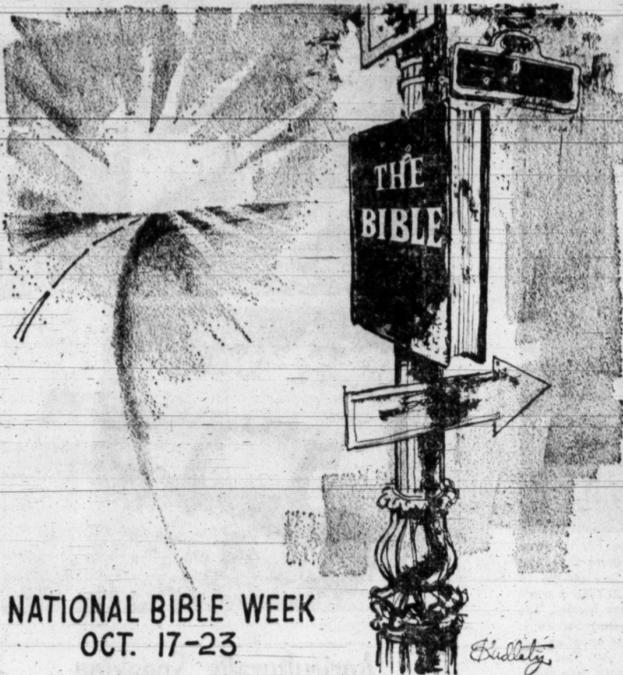

OFFICIALS and workers for Pampa's United Fund are hoping the goal can be reached by the Monday night deadline... It won't unless the "fair share" theme of the campaign has been achieved... Think about it, you may want to add a little to the contribution already made... Plaudits should go to the 99 Southwest Bell employees who hit above the $2,000 mark in their individual contributions and to the public employees who went over the top on their quota... There are many others, we know, who gave their fair share... Today the campaign is in its last stage... There is need for every volunteer worker to make call backs and be sure every contact, has been made... What happens between now and Monday night may make the difference in topping that $78,300 goal.

ONE FINAL note or two... The City Hall deal still is working on the deal mentioned last week but has no report... And, believe it or not, we have been subpoenaed as a witness for the defense in that upcoming Vesels trial.

his alma mater, Southwest Texas State College in the town of San Marcos, and build thereon whatever structure they can afford through their efforts at voluntary contributions?
Mr. Kingsbery goes on to tell his friend Mr. Connally that he does not think the 40 out of every 100 Texans who voted against Mr. Johnson at the last opportunity to express themselves will derive any satisfaction in having their tax money spent on the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library, Building and Lyndon Baines Johnson School of Public Service. Indeed, says Mr. Kingsbery, there is good reason to suspect that the 40 per cent figure has grown since 1964.
"I believe," he wrote Mr. Connally, "that it is an affront to all of these voters and taxpayers, that their money should be spent to memorialize a man still in public office, whom they voted against and would vote against today."
I don't think Mr. Connally is going to send me a carbon of his reply to Mr. Kingsbery and I don't imagine Mr. Kingsbery's letter is going to be catalogued in the files of the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library Building either.

Controversy Shaping over Blanket Disclosure of Still Secret Warren Commission Staff Papers

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — As the third anniversary of President Kennedy's assassination nears, a headline-making controversy is shaping up here over whether several dozen still-secret documents and working papers of the Warren Commission's investigation should be made public.
This backstage debate, underway for weeks at the highest levels of the Johnson administration, was touched off this summer by Congress' passage of the Freedom of Information law.
Although this new Federal Public Records statute doesn't become effective until July 4, 1967, the Justice Department is interpreting White House instructions for implementing it as a mandate to make available to the public nearly all the presently classified documents of the Warren Commission probe.
On Aug. 17, 1966, the Office of Attorney General asked the National Archives "to apply the same standards of public accessibility to the working papers and administrative reports" as to other public documents it has received from the Warren Commission.
Initiated by Assistant Attorney General Frank Wozencraft, head of the department's Office of Legal Counsel, this little-noticed move could clear the way for the publication of hundreds of secret FBI, Secret Service, State Department, and Warren Commission staff papers dealing with the assassination.

In most instances these documents already have been carefully combed by William Manchester, the Baltimore writer picked by Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy to do a family-authorized book on the Dallas tragedy.
Manchester, who knows a good story when he sees one, predicts that his book will cause a major sensation. Friends of the writer report this may be an understatement. They say Manchester not only deals with the actual deed but relates the assassination to a wider context of events leading up to and immediately following it.
According to these friends of Manchester, his book covers the six crucial days from Kennedy's last public appearance at a White House function before leaving Washington for his Texas tour to after the state funeral.
"UNRESOLVED ISSUE — Still secret — and the center of the present debate — are several dozen government investigative reports and documents of the commission barred from the public "in the national interest."
Only a directive from President Johnson can rip the secrecy seal from these papers, including one from the Central Intelligence Agency calling it the Soviet Secret police, to assassinate or discredit Western leaders actively opposing Russia's foreign policy.
Other documents still under lock and key at the National Archives are CIA and FBI reports which, if published, would reveal investigative techniques and sources of these agencies both in this country and abroad. For example, one of the more sensational documents reportedly includes the names of several Russian sources that furnished some startling but still uncorroborated information about Oswald and his widow, Marina, during the time they lived in the Soviet Union.

PROS AND CONS — In the sharp debate now raging in the administration, Under-Secretary of State Nicholas DeB. Katzenbach has taken the lead in arguing for publication of all documents on the grounds that sooner or later these papers or their contents will leak to the press. He is still attorney general when his aide called for disclosure of the still secret commission documents.
Katzenbach's position is supported by a number of officials, especially in the Justice Department, who are holdovers from the Kennedy administration. They believe publication of these papers will revive interest in the late President's death and indirectly help the political fortunes of Senator Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y.

It is common gossip among these officials that Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy, in a profound if not wholly explicable fashion, holds President Johnson partly responsible for her husband's untimely death.
This is said by her friends to be the explanation for Mrs. Kennedy's consistent refusal to meet President Johnson or even his wife socially ever since the state funeral, despite repeated friendly overtures on their part. She has the feeling, they say, that had the then Vice President not been so insistent on her husband's making the famous trip to Texas he might be alive today.

THOUSANDS OF DOCUMENTS — In their arguments against full disclosure of many of the Warren commission's working papers, FBI, Secret Service, and CIA officials informed the White House they were opposed because of the security implications.
One high-ranking administration security official charged that blanket release of the working papers would be like making the "raw" files of the FBI or the CIA available to the public. These documents, he stressed, contain a number of unproven statements and allegations.
The size of the sorting problem is indicated by the amount of papers turned over to the National Archives by the Warren Commission.
Twenty governmental agencies, furnished more than 300 cubic feet of paper to the Warren commission. There were over 1,500 Secret Service interviews or reports. In addition, the FBI alone sent the commis-

As this administration controversy begins to come out in the open, President Johnson will have to decide personally on whether all the Warren commission papers will be made public, and when.
Regardless of the decision, he makes, many long-time Washington observers believe it will spark a public controversy that could shake this country from coast to coast.

Foreign Aid Always Turns Out To Be One-Way Street

By OSCAR W. COOLEY
By Assoc. Prof. of Economics
Ohio Northern Univ.

The House of Representatives has voted another $3,000,000,000 for "foreign aid."

During the last two decades, the United States government has given over $100,000,000,000 of the American peoples money to other governments.

Many Americans — a majority, I would guess — oppose and resent the continuation of this gigantic free-lunch. It was begun shortly after World War II to help nations recover from the devastation of the war, but that object has long since been accomplished.

The American people are not lacking in generosity. Quite the contrary. They do not begrudge a gift. Rather, the main reason they oppose foreign aid, I think, is because they sense that it goes contrary to the principle: "As ye sow, so shall ye also reap." Aid-giving United States sows and sows, but reaps not.

This might be called the "economic principle." Economics is the science of man using his unlimited wants. Thus, man economizes; he pays only as he expects to receive, and if he receives he expects to pay. This is the way of the economic world.

Economic transactions are like traffic on two-way, not one-way, streets. Not all the vehicles are going; some are coming. For example, we do not get goods from stores without paying for them, either now or in future. We do not put forth work for an employer without receiving wages. We lend money only as we receive interest.

And we feel that this is no more than just. Americans believe that paying for what you get and getting what you pay for is a fair and honest way of life, conducive to peace and maximum production.

Again, this does not mean that one should never give a gift, expecting no return. It is good to give gifts. It makes for goodwill and happiness. But the economic world is not founded on gift-giving. An occasional, impulsive gift of a relative or friend to another is one thing, but taking over the support of an able-bodied friend on a long-term, apparently unending, basis is quite another.

Good relations between nations, as between individuals, are based on respect which each has for the other. And such mutual respect grows out of the consciousness that each is "hoing his own row" as best he can — that neither is leaning on the other.

Imagine what would happen in a community if all began to deliver goods to people without receiving payment, and the wage-earners all worked for employers without receiving wages, and the farmers hauled their grain to the elevator and returned empty-handed. Not only would the economics of the community get all out of whack, approaching chaos, but those on the losing end of the arrangement would hate and despise their exploiters. And very likely the gainers would lose all respect for the losers. What a contrast to the harmony and reciprocity which prevail in a community where everybody contributes, according to his means and talents, and everybody receives!

What is true in a town of people is true in a community of nations. Every nation has something to contribute. Like Switzerland, it may have little in natural resources but it has people who are capable of doing useful work. These people can sell and give their goods and services to other nations and with the proceeds buy the goods and services that others specialize in producing. Thus, the streets between the nations will all be two-way streets, with wealth flowing both ways.

Every nation's well-being then, will depend on its own self-reliance, not on hand-outs which the government of some other nation may, or may not, choose to give. Free trade and communication between nations is not merely the best way to bring world peace and prosperity; can you think of any other way?

The "economic principle" I have described is the viewpoint of the one who first stated the Golden Rule: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. This rule, it will be seen, is reciprocal in nature. Its author was realistic; he knew that the only sound society depended on everyone treating others as he would be treated.

In such a society, everyone pays his debts, so that he is justified in asking his debtors to pay him. He keeps his contracts, so that others will keep their contracts with him. If he is a merchant, he gives honest weight, so that his patrons will continue to patronize him. If he works for wages, he does his level best for his employer so that the latter will pay and promote him. The economic world says Leonard Read, president of the Foundation for Economic Education, "is dependent on the practice of the Golden Rule."

The fatal weakness of foreign aid is not that it is draining the United States of wealth — we are, in fact, getting richer by the minute — but that it is leading people of foreign countries to spurn the Golden-Rule economic principle and to assume that the traffic of a sound world economy can flow on a one-way street.

SEND YOUR PROTEST NOW!

(The Daily Oklahoman)
There is no time to lose. Congress is all set to pass a measure which will add at least $100 billion to the national debt. The bill to give away billions of dollars to a selected list of 60 or 70 cities already has passed the senate by a vote of 53 to 22. Sens. Mike Monroney and Fred Harris voted for it.
A committee in the house has voted approval of the bill and all house members will vote on it in the next few days.

The government could not possibly give hundreds of millions of dollars and even billions to 60 or 70 cities without ultimately adding all rival cities, large or small.

The bill provides for a complete remodeling of these cities, including widening or elevation of streets, establishing new parks, setting up public transportation systems and doing anything else which a bureaucratic government can think of.

The government does not have a dollar for this vast project. It already is running huge deficits every month. It was announced that we need a supplemental appropriation of $13 billion for the war in Viet Nam. Either huge additional bond issues or a great increase in taxes would be necessary to provide the billions for remodeling our cities.

There is ONLY ONE WAY TO PREVENT this financial disaster. Voters in all states must rise up in protest and swamp all our congressmen with demands for a vote against this gigantic give-away.

Every person's protest will help. Post cards or letters can be signed by several persons. The message should say VOTE AGAINST SENATE BILL 3708 GIVING BILLIONS TO DEM.

When I read where the Senate completed Congressional action on a bill authorizing $1 million in aid to museums, I first thought this somewhat crummy legislation was due to money needed to win the war in Viet Nam.

But after thinking it over, I guess it was proper action at that, we really do need to maintain institutions devoted to preservation of grand old out-dated relics. Particularly ancient documents like the one stating something about government of the people, by the people and for the people.

Walker and North Star In 'Maya' Adventure

One of the most unique and fascinating motion pictures ever brought to the screen, "Maya," new King Bros. production, is a thrilling, pulsating adventure drama, the warm story of the friendship between an American and Hindu boy who set out together on a perilous quest, and finally, a breath-taking experience in the jungles, mountains and exotic cities of India in settings never before photographed for a feature film.

"Maya," which stars Clint Walker and Jay North and introduces the talented twelve-year-old Indian actor, Sajid Kahn, was filmed in Technicolor and Panavision entirely on locations in southern India.

Here is unfolded the moving story of Terry (Jay North) who comes from Wyoming to visit and self him for a fortune, are among the most hair-raising ever depicted on the screen, involving the burning of a village, the flight of the youngsters from a pursuing mob of enraged natives, the astounding battle between Maya and two ferocious tigers in an effort to protect her offspring, and an equally thrilling climax in which Hugh, who has been seeking Terry, redeems his honor.

The fascinating locales for the action of "Maya" include the colorful city of Mysore, Chamarajaneer Station, where 5,000 natives participated in the Bazaar at Nanjangud, the Festival of Holi, magnificent Cauvery Falls, the Mangudi jungles and such other exotically named places as Mudunjal, Ootacamund and Manabali Puram. It is doubtful that any motion picture previously has offered such unusual and arresting back-grounds.

Together with Sajid Kahn and I. S. Johar, the cast features such noted Indian players as Sonia Sahni, one of her country's most popular actresses, and Jiraj, who scored in "Nine Hours to Rama."

Produced by Frank and Maurice King, "Maya" was directed by John Berry from a screen play by John Fante. Enriching the film is a brilliant musical score by Riz Ortolani in which the noted composed utilized authentic Indian instruments.

The most ambitious of the successful productions made by the King Bros., "Maya" is a picture which will hold tremendous appeal and excitement for every member of the family. It is film-making at its most wondrous.

THIS IS JAMES BOND, oriental version. Agent 007 is disguised as a Japanese fisherman in order to invade the lair of the villain in "You Only Live Twice," now being filmed in Japan.

Sally Ann Still Bats A Pretty Eye

GLENN CORBETT

By JOAN CROSBY Newspaper Enterprise Assn. NEW YORK (NEA) — Sally Ann Hawes is pretty sure her mother is going to be delighted when she sees her daughter in Brigadoon, the 90-minute version of the Lerner and Loewe musical set for tonight on ABC.

"I have sprung back to the old me," Sally laughed. "For a while my hair was getting blonder and shorter and my eyelashes were getting thicker by the day. My mother said she hoped I would soon be out of my 'Zsa Zsa Gabor' period."

who has made New York her home since she replaced Julie Andrews in "My Fair Lady," is now deserting New York for Hollywood.

"I have a little apartment in New York that I intend to keep," she said. "But unless you do just stage, there is nothing here. Last year I spent so much time flying back and forth to California that I could have bought a house with my hotel bills."

When Sally signed with Robert Goulet's Rogo Productions to appear opposite him in Brigadoon—she also signed to do a movie with Goulet.

Then one day a friend asked me to join him in a drama class. I wound up in a George Bernard Shaw play. Next came "The Cat" Mutiny Court Martial, and I wound up getting a top role.

"So I mustered up courage to tell my wife I was quitting school. We sent letters and pictures to 10 agents. Out of the 10, I talked to five and two came to see me in 'Caine Mutiny.'"

"I eventually got a screen test. Sam Fuller gave me a job in 'The Crimson Kimono.' He told me he saw the test, but he was going to take a chance anyway."

Repeater — HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Richard Conte has almost become a regular on the new "Jean Arthur Show," making four guest appearances in the series.

"Well, I'm letting my hair grow, and it's not so blond and I'm getting back to normal. I'm not ready to give up my eyelashes yet, though. I still like them."

Sally Ann Hawes, a friendly, irrepressible English actress

There are two films for which Sally is being discussed. "But I don't want to talk about them," she said, "because I may not get them."

Glenn Corbett thinks maybe he is the sore thumb of the gang on NBC-TV's "The Road West."

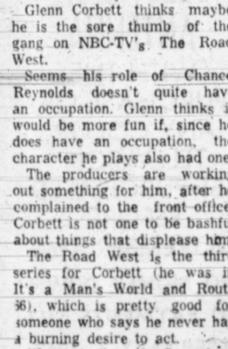

Seems his role of Chance Reynolds doesn't quite have an occupation. Glenn thinks it would be more fun if, since he does have an occupation, the character he plays also had one.

The producers are working out something for him, after he complained to the front office. Corbett is not one to be bashful about things that displease him.

The Road West is the third series for Corbett (he was in "It's a Man's World and Route 36"), which is pretty good for someone who says he never had a burning desire to act.

TEAMING UP on ABC's Brigadoon will be Robert Goulet and Sally Ann Hawes.

PATRICIA ANN BROWN

"GONE"

We miss her in the place of prayer. And by the hearth-fire's light. We pause beside her door to hear since none but angels "Goodnight". There seems no longer there. A dimness on the stars of night. Like eyes that look through tears. Her smile no longer there. One thought both reconciled: That he whose love exceeded ours. Had taken home His child. And let her neighbor be. Her mother's love between. Our human hearts and Thine.

We wish to thank our neighbors friends and to anyone who in any way, during the recent loss of our beloved wife, mother, daughter and sister. A special thanks to Carmichael-Walby, Rev. O. E. Wright of the Pampa Church of God, William Bill Sparks of Pampa for the impressive last rites.

May God bless each and everyone of you.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Indonesian Justice:

From Jakarta comes word that execution is practically a certainty for Dr. Subandrio, former Indonesian foreign minister, deputy premier and pro-Red Chinese confidante of President Sukarno. On the basis of past performance, there seems little doubt that Subandrio was deeply immersed in the plot to remove the Indonesian army as a political influence. By Western standards, however, the fairness of the trial he received was open to considerable doubt. Before the trial even had started a high court official remarked to UPI, "It will take about 10 days before we convict him." With Subandrio out of the way, it is not expected the new regime will follow up any trail which might implicate Sukarno in the same plot. So long as he do business at the top with the Kremlin, Viet Nam or no.

figurehead president until the 1968 elections.
Worrisome Prelude:
Stevan Cardinal Wyszynski's outspoken criticism of the Polish government is worrying the Communist leadership. The regime is extremely hesitant to crack down on the prime of Poland because of his great popularity with the masses. But Western diplomats are wondering how much the Red leaders can take from the fearless cardinal.
Open Door:
WHAT ARE THE CHANCES of the Brezhnev-Kygin team accepting President Johnson's invitation to Washington Nil, according to diplomats in Moscow bestplaced to know. As one put it, "There'll be no rush for visas." This diplomats see the gesture by LBJ's way of demonstrating that the United States is still anxious to do business at the top with the Kremlin, Viet Nam or no.

THESE STRANGE OBJECTS resemble fancy millinery creations but their purpose is far more deadly—anti-submarine warfare. They are electric circuit boards for a device which simulates the maneuvers of enemy undersea craft so that appropriate action may be taken. Here, the circuits are checked out in final assembly at Clevite Corp. in Cleveland, Ohio.
