Twinkles
Congressmen are reported to be getting short tempered. But not short-winded.

—Dust-storms are no longer new—except to trickle along to the wheat markets to keep the price up.

An office-leaker is advocating free auto license plates. It isn't the cost of the plates that matters; it's the taxes represented by the license.

The Townsend Old Age Pension club of Dalhart has issued an ultimatum to Congressman Marvin Jones, threatening to endorse some other candidate. But the farmers may still have need of Mr. Jones' services.

More rackets are needed, says the West Foster group, for the average man. Who now, we may add, must make his own.

Musing of the moment: New York's Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor has aroused caustic observations on its estimate of the budgetary needs of the "poor working girl." It estimates, for example, that dresses will cost only $16.50, winter underwear $0.20, summer underwear $1.20, and a first-class housewife needs only $32.50 a year for clothing. Of course, clothing is cheaper in New York, but the weather is more severe. And what about the cost of winter and spring coats?

Brevitaries

ALTHOUGH FEBRUARY and March winds always cause some damage to wheat, there is currently room for much optimism as the crop outlook is surveyed. Moisture is greater and deeper around Pampa and on the plains than for several years. Kansas prospects, according to information just received, are equally good. Seventy-five years ago, Kansas produced only 180,000 bushels of wheat. Not until the Russian Mennonite colonists arrived from Russia, bringing 25 bushels of "Turkey" wheat did production assume commercial importance. This was in 1873. In 1931 the states of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado, and Texas produced a record crop of 500 million bushels. Only Russia and China produced more wheat than these states.

It is estimated that the U. S. wheat acreage this year is 47,525,000 acres, of which 30,520,000 acres is in the southwest. A crop of 530,000,000 million bushels is possible, if the dusts do not do more damage than expected and if late winter or early spring moisture is received. Nearly 6,000 country elevators are interested. These, with terminal elevators, have a storage capacity in the southwest of nearly half a billion bushels. Obviously considerable exporting will be necessary to keep prices up. We must still look to our neighbors for a goodly portion of our market for wheat and cotton.

OPTIMISM CAN be found, too, in the complete statistics just becoming available for 1935. Improvement last year was even more than Roger Babson predicted and calculated. Total retail sales increased 14 per cent over 1934 to reach a grand total of $32,600,000,000. This is about two-thirds of the total retail sales volume of 1929. The largest increases in sales were made by mail-order houses (26 per cent), and automobile dealers (25 per cent). Automobile sales showed a hike of 45 per cent over 1934. Sizeable increases also were shown by the furniture and household group, lumber and building-hardware traders, restaurants, and jewelry stores. Variety stores, which suffered less than most firms during the depression, held a favorable position but without the sensational gains shown by other businesses. Grocery classifications improved partly because liquor dispensers were placed in that group.

It is worth noting again, too, See COLUMN, Page 8

I Heard . . .

John I. Bradley telling the best one of the year. John and Mrs. Bradley, accompanied by Miss Margaret Baldwin, local teacher, drove to Arnett, Okla., Miss Baldwin's home Sunday and then went to a rabbit drive. More than 4,000 persons surrounded a 10-mile area and started beating brush toward the center where a valley was located. Everything went fine and the thousands of hunters reached the top of the rises surrounding the valley and there below them was one rabbit. John swears to the truth of the statement. Mrs. Bradley agrees and Miss Baldwin sheepishly admits that one rabbit was corralled.

FARM MARKET HIGHWAYS ARE BEING BUILT

936 ARE EMPLOYED ON ROADS IN THIS DISTRICT

Safer and faster driving conditions over approximately 160 miles of farm-to-market roads will result from the activities of the Works Progress administration laborers in this district. Director A. A. Meredith of Amarillo estimates. "Discomfort and uncertainty of travel in this area will be greatly diminished by the hard-surfaced roads which are being installed through 19 projects now operating in this district." Mr. Meredith said. "State WPA officials have allocated $292,387 for the improvement of roads in the counties comprising the district, and sponsors have indicated their enthusiasm by pledging expenditures of $113,141 to aid in completing the work."

Now employed on WPA road work in the district are 936 men formerly on relief rolls, district officials disclosed. Representative of the road projects being undertaken in this area is improvement now underway on the Wheeler county road which extends from five miles east of Wheeler to the Oklahoma state line. Shifting sands in this section of the Panhandle are being spanned with a 10-mile hard-surfaced road which will serve rural residents in the thickly populated area and through traveling routes entering Texas from neighboring states. Wheeler county officials have indicated that this is considered the outstanding WPA project in that section of the district. Not "cutting away of sand dunes and surfacing over hills and valleys of 'creep' sand will shorten driving to market areas, facilitate safer and quicker school bus travel, and expedite the delivery of rural mail, sponsors assert."

The project employing 141 men, is being financed by WPA expenditure of $45,500 and by sponsor's contribution of $19,500. Among other outstanding road projects included in the WPA program are: The Potter county farm-to-market road jobs in four precincts; the Roberts county road extending northwest from Miami; the Magie City road; the Moore county road from Dumas to Highway No. 41; the road from Lipscomb to Darrozzett, connecting Highways Nos. 213 and 117; Ochiltree county's precinct 3 road traversing a thickly populated diversified farming section; the McLean-Hedley and Alanreed-LeFors roads in Gray county, slicing the road extending north from between these points and serving school and mail transportation systems; the road going north from Spearman, affording relief from muddy roads to thousands of habitual users of the route; Hemphill county's 14-mile road extending north from highway 60, through a well populated area; the Fresno road in Collingsworth county, extending south from highway 81 to Dodsonville; Dallam county's farm-to-market road.

MURDER MYSTERY Stirs Orleans on Mardi Gras Day. NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25 (AP)—Mardi Gras day dawned in revelry upon the mysterious slaying of Mrs. Estelle Hughes, 29, a visitor from Panama City, Fla., who had been staying here for the past two months with her 9-year-old daughter, Janelle Hughes. Her body, with a bullet hole in the temple, was found in a grassy spot in a remote section behind the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad station with evidence that she been shot some distance away and dragged into the grass dead or dying. Three persons, Jack O'Day, 26-year-old jockey riding at the fairgrounds race track here, Otto W. Gray, 25, of Baykins, Va., a cook aboard the U. S. S. Arkansas, and Mrs. Ethel Bernard, 26, who police said were companions of Mrs. Hughes last night, were questioned in connection with the slaying.

Dallas Women Object To Statue Of Buffalo Bill

DALLAS, Feb. 25 (AP)—Indignant members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Friday to protest erection of the Mrs. Gloria Vanderbilt Whitney's famous statue of Buffalo Bill on the grounds of the Texas Centennial exposition here. "Buffalo Bill is all right in his place," said Mrs. J. C. Turner, president of Bonnie Blue Flag chapter, "but his place is not in a featured place of the exposition, the primary purpose of which is to celebrate the 100th anniversary of our state and pay tribute to its history and the heroes who made it. "Instead of these heroes, we would be commemorating a union spy." The announcement by Dr. Robert Harshie of Chicago, Centennial

For Pampa CITY, COUNTY HEALTH FOUND TO BE GOOD

No Quarantined Case Exists in Entire Area Now

Pampa and Gray county generally are enjoying excellent health, although colds are common and mumps can be found in several communities. But contagious diseases, excepting mumps, are entirely absent so far as reports are made to Dr. R. A. Webb, city and county health officer. There is no quarantined case in Pampa and none in the county, Dr. Webb said today. Ordinarily, some cases of measles and scarlet fever can be expected at this season, but there is no such case now, he said. Rumors that there are quarantined cases in the county are entirely false, he added.

New Victories Are Claimed by Ethiopian Chiefs

ADDIS ABABA, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Ethiopian government announced today that its troops had invaded the Italian colony of Eritrea, Feb. 19, destroying an Italian base. The base was described as located at Amaga on the Setit river in the northwest border of Ethiopia where Ethiopia, Eritrea and the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan meet. The purported victory appeared to be a continuation of a northward thrust by Ethiopian troops in which he government said 668 Italians had been killed in two previous clashes.

Gloria's Mother Files Appeal in Supreme Court

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt appealed today to the Supreme Court to give her sole custody of her 12-year-old daughter, Gloria, over whom a colorful legal battle has been waged for months. She appealed from a decision of the appellate division of the New York supreme court giving principal custody of the child to her paternal aunt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. The petition filed by her attorney, Edmund M. Toland, of Washington, asserted: "The order below (the New York court) is unprecedented and extraordinary. It condemns this child to a most abnormal life; the child can not leave the confines of New York state; she must spend five days a week with a stranger (who never told the slightest interest in her until June, 1932), and the remaining two days with her widowed mother; she is exposed to this atmosphere of hostility and antagonism; she is shuttled back and forth each week like a tennis ball; her life is hedged and regimented by rules and regulations."

Pair Killed in Crash at Vernon

VERNON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Two persons were killed and three injured last night in a collision between a sedan and a truck where state highway No. 5 crosses the Pease River. Both vehicles were demolished. Miss Bernice Thrash, 22, Vernon, and Gerald Hennessey, 29, Tillman county, Okla., were fatally hurt. Vivian Thrash, the victim's sister, was bruised and cut, and her companion, Floyd Spraggins, 24, Davidson, Okla., similarly injured. Herman Rice, truck driver, was hurt slightly. The four young people were returning to Vernon, and the truck driver was going to his home in Chillicothe. Funeral services for Hennessey have been tentatively set for this afternoon at Frederick, Okla. Miss Thrash is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thrash, a brother and five sisters. Bill Johnson made a business trip to LeFors today.

SOLON NAMES ARMY GENERAL OF NEBRASKA

HAGOOD OUSTER STIRS BIG STORM IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—A charge that Major General Frank C. Bolles, commander of the 7th corps area at Omaha, Neb., was "actively engaging" in politics developed today in senate debate on the suspension from duty of Major General Johnson Hagood as 8th corps area commander. Senator Hastings (R., Del.) had termed the action in relieving Hagood of his command an "illustration of terrorism in government" when Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, hurled the charge about Bolles. He coupled it with an assertion that Senator Hastings (R., Del.) was "instrumental" in sending Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, former air corps chief, "to his grave without the restitution due him."

The debate springing out of the suspension of Hagood involved a hail of denials. Robinson literally stormed out of his words in heated reply to Hastings. He asserted that Hagood "violated" the army code in taking part in politics by criticizing the administrative agency. "And there is at least one more corps commander," Robinson shouted, "who is actively engaged in politics who has a candidate of his own for the presidency and boasts he is making efforts in his behalf. "Is he a new dealer?" interrupted Hastings.

"No," snapped Robinson, "he is an old dealer like yourself." He gave Gen. Bolles' name in response to a direct question from Hastings, but did not name the candidate he assertedly supported. Turning to the Mitchell case, Robinson declared Hastings had held up action for a year on a bill the majority leader had introduced to "remove the stain" from the record of Gen. Mitchell, who was court-martialed for his supposed desertion of army leaders he held responsible for lack of air corps development. Hagood, in what already has threatened to become a political issue, ordered home to "await orders" shortly after leaving his post during committee work Progress administration funds were "stage money."

OIL ALLOWABLES FOR TEXAS FIELDS RAISED

AUSTIN, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Railroad commission today granted the Texas Panhandle an increase of 24,005,000 cubic feet daily in its sweet gas allowable for March. Allowable production of sweet gas for the east and west Panhandle zones, respectively, was set at 179,853,000 and 669,000,000 cubic feet daily, compared with 199,045,000 and 625,202,000 cubic feet daily in February. The Panhandle sour gas allowable was boosted to 56,825,400 cubic feet daily to 435,518,400 cubic feet.

AUSTIN, Feb. 25 (AP)—The Railroad commission today increased allowable oil production from Texas fields to 1,110,480 barrels, effective March 1. It was 6,480 barrels above the federal estimate of market demand and 43,488 barrels more than the February 1 allowable. East Texas production was continued at 2.85 per cent of the average hourly potential, estimated to permit a flow of 439,942 barrels on March 1, compared with 432,264 barrels on Feb. 1 and 435,038 barrels on Feb. 17. Virtually every request for increased allowable filed at the state-wide proration hearing was granted by the commission. The state allowable for next month represented a net increase of approximately 12,450 barrels from permitted production on Feb. 17. Numerous revisions and changes and normal increases because of new production were allowed during February.

Allowables by districts and changes were: Barren, 500, same; Panhandle, 58,800, same; Moore county, 1,500, same; Osborne area, 1,000, same; North Texas, 58,500, same; Ford county, 500, same; West Central Texas, 147,965, decrease 376; West Texas, 147,965, increase 13,647; East Central, 50,225, increase 1,018; South-west Texas, 132,159, increase 15,830; and Gulf Coast, 168,774, increase 1,691.

In a special order, the commission limited the time for filing potential forms to not more than five days after completion of the tests. Forms would be filed with the commission's district offices. Retest forms filed later than the 15th day of the month would not be used in proration schedules for the succeeding month. The commission granted application of Edwin M. Jones to repressure the 2,100-foot gas sand in the Greta field through his No. 1 gas well on the J. M. O'Brien lease in Refugio county. Gas would be taken from 5,100 foot sand well.

Snow Avalanche Kills Three at Colorado Mine

OURAY, Colo., Feb. 25 (AP)—Historic Camp Bird gold mine, where the late Thomas Walsh "struck it rich" in 1893, was a shambles today, caught in the crush of the Colorado Rockies' second death-bearing snow avalanche in eight days. A snow-slide three miles wide shot down "Chicago slick" and crashed through the camp yesterday, killing three persons and injuring at least four. On February 16 the Hesperus gold mine, 50 miles south of here, was struck by an avalanche that killed six. Breaking loose from the craggy peaks rimming a canyon above here, the Camp Bird slide swept through the lower floor of a two-story bunkhouse, demolished a $100,000 mill and a snow-tunnel connecting buildings of the camp and piled up a half-mile farther down the mountain. A second slide narrowly missed the camp, then joined the first avalanche to pile tons of snow, battered timber and other debris against the mine entrance, temporarily trapping 25 miners on the lower level. They freed themselves. Mrs. Rose Israel, the camp cook, was killed when, hearing the slide "crack loose" a half mile above camp, she stepped on a porch to watch the down-rushing snow. She was enveloped in the mass and her body was carried 40 feet down the mountain where it was recovered later.

Young Democrats To Hold Meeting

A meeting of the Young Democrats will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the courthouse. Phillip Wolfe, local attorney, will speak on New Deal Democracy. A short discussion or debate will be held on the subject of unicameral vs. bicameral legislatures. An important decision concerning the district convention of Young Democrats here in May must be made.

EDITORIAL

IT WOULDN'T HELP 'EM MUCH

The Avalanche-Journal sympathizes deeply with citizens of Western Oklahoma who are having trouble getting any sort of recognition from the political powers that be in Oklahoma City, their state capital.

Having seen West Texas similarly "laid over a barrel" by our own Texas "down staters" for lo, these many years, we know exactly how our Sooner cousins feel. We don't blame them for "raising sand." We can see, perfectly, why they would like to form a separate state and why they think they'd be better off annexed to Texas. But in the latter suggestion we offer a word of warning and of counsel, simply because while they might not be any worse off attached to Texas, they wouldn't better their condition one whit.

Out here in West Texas—a part of Texas ever since there has been a Texas—we can't get a fair share of recognition and don't show any possibility of getting it until we reach the point where we have the political strength to force it. Since that is true, what would be the chances of an annexed territory to get any sort of a just deal?

The question answers itself. Of course, there probably will be no serious move to form a new state out of Western Oklahoma counties and neither will there be any great chance of Texas taking on any added territory.

This state already is too unwieldy and could gain nothing by biting off a chunk of Oklahoma. And certainly our Oklahoma friends would be disappointed, even if they did attach themselves to Texas. While they might get the same recognition this section of Texas gets, they still wouldn't be getting any more than they're now getting from Oklahoma City.—Lubbock Journal.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Perhaps the old men of Congress are not hurrying us into war. But they are doing considerably less than nothing to keep us out of it.

As late as a month ago, it appeared that drastic, permanent neutrality legislation was certain as a result of strong congressional sentiment backed by overwhelming and articulate popular desire.

Now the atmosphere suddenly has become little short of jingoistic. Congressional leaders and the administration are ditching previous neutrality plans in favor of extending the relatively weak and supposedly "stopgap" neutrality act now in effect.

Theoretically responsible statesmen are hollering warnings against the Japanese. Others are bellowing that "freedom of the seas" must be preserved at all costs.

There are several reasons for the change-of-outlook. But no factor is more interesting—not to say significant—than the cast of characters involved, which reveals that the contest over neutrality is, and has been, a startlingly definite conflict between the young men of Congress and the old.

The young men are willing to have their country sacrifice trade, profits, and neutrality rights to avoid the ravages of war. The old men, it appears, are not.

The first statesman to challenge the Senate Munitions committee was Senator Carter Glass of Virginia. Glass is 78, the oldest of the senators.

One of the chief fears that led the administration to feel that the neutrality issue might well go over until after election was the belief that Senator William E. Borah, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, might try to make a burning issue of it if there were any curtailment of America's traditional—not actual, as England learned to her profit—insistence on "freedom of the seas" and other neutral rights.

Borah might have embarrassed the administration and cost it votes. Borah will soon be 71 years old.

The man who split the whole business wide open in the Senate was Hiram Johnson of California, who announced he would fight any abandonment of "neutral rights" to the bitter end.

It was Senator Johnson, too, who publicly revealed the supposedly secret and bitterly denunciatory anti-neutrality program statement by John Bassett Moore, international law expert, to the Foreign Relations committee.

Johnson is 69 years old. John Bassett Moore is 75 years old.

Foremost among the fighters for strict neutrality—some of them war veterans—with their ages, are: Chairman Nye of the Munitions committee, 43. Senator Bennett Champ Clark of Missouri, 46. Senator Homer Bone of Washington, 52. Chief Investigator Stephen Raushenbush of the Munitions committee, 39. (His staff averages under 30.) Congressman Maury Maverick of Texas, 40. Congressman Vito Marcantonio of New York, 33. Congressman Byron Scott of California, 32.

Baseball holdouts who have been given their freedom, Dora believes, might try out for the Liberty League.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Feb. 25 (AP)—State officials have not abandoned plans for construction of a state courts building to relieve unsatisfactory conditions in the Capitol.

The state has joined with the Texas bar association in seeking a federal loan and grant of several hundred thousand dollars for the building and sponsors are hopeful the project will be approved. The building would house the Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals, Third Court of Civil Appeals, the attorney general's office, and the law libraries.

Construction of the building would provide room for departments now badly congested but still would not be sufficient to house rapidly expanding agencies in real free quarters.

Three large and several small departments now are quartered in office buildings while the new pension administration has set up offices in the state headquarters building of the Texas federation of women's clubs. The tax commission, liquor control board, national state employment service and the cosmetology board are included in the departments housed in private buildings.

If the state's legal department was moved from the Capitol it virtually would vacate the entire top floor, all of the third floor except a few offices, about one-fourth of the second and about one-fourth of the first floor.

Orville S. Carpenter, pension director, was amused at the contents of a fictitious pension application received at his office a few hours before the old age assistance law became effective.

The application was filed by "I Wantlots" who lived on "Gimme Street" in Spenden, Bolomey county. "Wantlots" who was the father of 14 children whose names he had forgotten. He said he believed he could recognize his progeny, however, if he saw them.

"There was no money," he responded to the question of income while the question of ownership or interest in property he answered, "I have an interest in all of it but don't own any of it."

His total assets were a ten-cent pocket knife and he sorrowfully wound up his application by stating he could not find no one to verify his statements.

HARVESTER FOES MAY HAVE KEENER PLAYING EDGE IN REGIONAL TOURNEY

QUINTETS HIT SEASON'S PEAK IN TOURNEYS

RAMPA PRACTICES FOR STRUGGLE WITH FRIONA

The man-sized Abernathy quintet, the tall, heavy Friona Chiefs, and the giant-killers from Carey may have the advantage of the harvesters in the regional meet this week-end at Canyon, as far as a keen, sharp playing edge is concerned.

The Harvesters have played only one game since the district tournament, held here a week before tournaments were held in the other districts, and in that single game, played at Perryton last Friday night, the Pampanians performed negligently and leisurely. Also, the team has not practiced enough to maintain top form.

Now, Abernathy, Friona and Carey should be in top form. They reached their peak in the district meets, and should not lose it this week. Of the three, only Abernathy was hard pushed to win. Carey and Friona beat opponents by large scores.

To Play in Morning.
Coach Odus Mitchell plans to send his boys through intensive rehearsals today, tomorrow and Thursday. The Pampa mentor was informed by letter yesterday that the Harvesters and Chiefs would clash in the first regional tournament battle Friday morning at 9 o'clock. If they win, they will meet Friday night, the winner of the Carey-Abernathy tilt. If they lose, they will play the loser. The Harvesters practiced basketball shooting and plays an hour and a half yesterday afternoon. They will continue to lard the leather at the net the rest of the week.

The psychology of the team is not as good now as it was at the close of the district meet. There needs to be a re-birth of the good humor that prevailed during the tournament, and unless enthusiasm and teamwork that made the Harvesters unbeatable before the district meet returns there are going to be reverses at Canyon.

Carey Routed Opponents.
The Carey Cardinals were the surprise of the Chidress tournament. They beat Quanah 31 to 24 in the final game. Two of Carey's stars, Foust and Redwine, were placed on the all-district team. The Carey team won its way into the finals with victories by wide margins over Paducah, Thalia, Chidress, and Crowell. Quanah beat Quitaque and Williams. The latter's team eliminated Lakewood. The major disappointment of the meet was the failure of the Lakewood crew, heralded as one of the best in the Panhandle. In both their games, the Lakewood five failed to show any exceptional work on either the offense or defense. The Harvesters beat Lakewood by six points in Pampa last week. Carey beat Crowell 34 to 16, and Quanah beat Williams High 34 to 29. Foust and Redwine were the leading scorers for Carey with Graham, center, third, Midleton and Hunt were the guards. Hout of Abernathy.

The stand-out player of the Lubbock tournament was "Speedy" Houpt, 200-pound Abernathy center.

BASS, WHITE PERCH FISHING IS GOOD NOW ON GULF COAST

who was the unanimous choice of the three officials and the scorer for the "most valuable" award, his work being considered unusually outstanding. He also was unopposed as all-tournament center. Havenhill of Abernathy entered the tournament forward. In the final game with Lamesa, which Abernathy won 21 to 20, Houpt did not score a single point, but made it possible for his mates to score nearly every tally. Abernathy entered the finals by winning over Shallowater 42 to 40, but without Houpt they couldn't have won. The names of the four top regulars in the Abernathy lineup start with H—Havenhill, Hall, Houpt, Hardin. Tarver, a guard, is the other starter.

Lamesa Stalls Fatally.
Abernathy was the best-looking team in the tournament from a physical standpoint, but lacked finesse and technique, according to Collier Parris, Lubbock sports writer. The Antelopes, this what they call themselves, lacked polish and a smooth defense, but they crowded all opposition with an abundance of hustle and determined energy, and they could hit the basket—any team can hit the basket superlatively. In the semi-final and final games, the Antelopes scored points as follows: Havenhill 13, Hall 19, Houpt, 16, Hardin 2, Tarver 10. Shallowater led Abernathy 21 to 20 at the half, and Lamesa led the Antelopes 11 to 6 at the half.

Lamesa helped beat itself. For the last four minutes of the first half, after they had gained a three-point lead, the Golden Tornadoes drew down below of bones by stalling in their front court. The stalling tactics were broken up in the second half, Coach Baubion of Abernathy apparently telling his boys something between halves.

DALLAS, Feb. 25 (AP)—Small-town basketball teams predominated Monday among the 32 high school aggregations competing in regional tournaments this week-end.

Friona's 29 to 21 win over Amarillo, Forsan's 18 to 16 victory over Abilene, and Nocona's 29-14 defeat of Wichita Falls were striking examples of the basketball prowess developed in smaller cities.

Regional matches Friday and Saturday will trim down the number of contenders for state championship honors to eight teams and they will fight it out a week later in the state interscholastic tournament at Austin.

Pairings for the regional tournaments:
Region one: Friona vs. Pampa; Abernathy vs. Carey.
Region two—Abilene: Forsan vs. O'Brien; Crews vs. Milburn.
Region three—at Denton: Nocona vs. Denton; Dallas Tech vs. Waco.
Region four—at Longview: Guber vs. Hughes Springs; Kilgore vs. Cushing.
Region five—at Huntsville: Bryan vs. Colmesneil; Jeff Davis (Houston) vs. French; Beaton six: Del Rio vs. Breckenridge; Austin vs. La Grange.
Region 7—at Kingsville: Victoria vs. Taft.
Region 8—at Alpine: El Paso vs. Fort Stockton; Brown vs. Fort Davis.
Denton high school, winner of the 1935 state championship, is ranked among the teams likely to be running strong for this year's title. Denton came through the district play-offs with a 17 to 9 victory over Springtown.

Terry Does Not Believe Leiber

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—Hank Leiber New York Giants center fielder may be serious about his announcement of quitting major league baseball to coach at the University of Arizona but Manager Bill Terry does not believe it.

"Hank should think up a new story," declared Terry, himself possessor of quite a reputation as a holdout. "I used that one myself years ago when I was trying to get a raise." Terry made his statement from the Giants' training camp at Pensacola, Fla.

Leiber, who batted .331 last year in his first full year as a regular, is supposed to be demanding $15,000, an increase of $7,000 over the salary he is generally believed to have received last year. The Giants are said to have offered him $10,000.

LeFors Gym Will Be Site of Court Battle

BRITAIN WANTS GERMAN AND AMERICAN TO JOIN HER

It will be the Skelly Oilers versus the Phillips 66 Oilers tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the LeFors high school gymnasium.

The above announcement is expected to fill the gym to capacity. The two quintets are among the strongest in the southwest and they will battle for supremacy in the mythical Panhandle league. A win for the Phillips boys will just about perch them safely on the top rung.

Once before this season the two teams met with the Phillips crew having an edge on the scoring although the game was evenly fought. Both teams have been on recent winning sprees and confidence radiates from both camps.

Phillips will probably line up with Tip Windom and Laycock, forwards; Slim Windom, center, Baccus and Christian, guards.

The Skelly lineup will more than likely be Fred and Art Hayward, Hayes, center; McCollum and Smith, guards.

Jockey Wright Says Top Row Is Greatest Horse

DALLAS, Feb. 25 (AP)—Jockey Wayne Wright landed there early today, stretched his legs and opined "Discovery never had a chance against Top Row."

The 20-year-old jockey said "sure he's the greatest horse I ever rode," in speaking of Top Row's sensational victory in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap last Saturday.

What was the matter with Discovery? "Discovery just didn't run his race," Wright said. "He didn't have a chance against Top Row that day and he'll never beat him. Top Row is the greatest horse I've ever seen."

En route to Miami for the Hialeah racing season, Wright said he didn't know when Top Row would race again. He said the swift horse had come out of the handicap with several leg cuts, none of them serious.

"That was the greatest thrill of my life—by a long way," grinned Wright in talking of the handicap. "I don't suppose I'll ever have another thrill like the one I got when we came down the stretch ahead of the field."

Billy Evans To Be Head of Red Sox Farm System

BOSTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—The faucet that has poured almost four millions of dollars into the American league probably closed suddenly today following the appointment of Billy Evans, former Cleveland Indians general manager, as head of the Boston Red Sox farm system.

Evans who has discovered on sand lots players as capable of those Owner Tom Yawkey spent hundreds of thousands for will expand the Red Sox' farming properties immediately. They key to the ownership of the Rocky Mount club in the class B Piedmont league and working agreements with the Syracuse International league club and Little Rock and Memphis in the Southern association.

Evans' appointment was announced by Yawkey's general manager, cunny Eddie Collins, who hastened to explain that the Red Sox did not intend to copy the highly successful methods employed by the St. Louis Cardinals.

"We do not plan any extensive farm system, such as the St. Louis Cardinals operate," said Collins. "We want contacts and agreements with minor league teams. That is why Evans was sought for the position."

THREE-POWER NAVAL TREATY IS PROPOSED

Caravan on Wheels Is Seen Here

BRITAIN WANTS GERMAN AND AMERICAN TO JOIN HER
BY CHARLES F. NUTER, Associated Press Foreign Staff.
LONDON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Great Britain, anticipating failure for the four-power naval conference, has proposed an Anglo-German-American naval agreement, it was learned today from authoritative sources.

Members of the United States delegation, asked to confirm this report, refused to discuss it.

High naval sources described the proposal as one of the most important affecting the United States, Great Britain, and Germany since the world war.

The agreement would limit the sizes and types of ships and guns among the three countries concerned and would provide for an annual exchange of information on construction programs.

Word of the Anglo-American proposal came shortly after the injection of the Italo-Ethiopian war question into the naval conference as a fresh barrier to the achievement of a naval limitation treaty.

Authoritative sources said the Italian refusal to accept the League of Nations sanctions against Italy were discarded and the proposed British fleet withdrawal from the Mediterranean.

The substance of the proposed agreement among the United States, Great Britain, and Germany would be the same as that now under discussion among the United States, Great Britain, France, and Italy in the present four-power conference with battleships limited to 35,000 tons and 14-inch guns.

It was understood that the agreement could be effected either in the form of signed treaty or by the exchange of notes.

The original source for this information stated that the agreement would not be an alliance.

Oklahoma Will Schedule More Texas Elevens

NORMAN, Okla., Feb. 25 (AP)—You can take it from head coach Lawrence "Biff" Jones that Oklahoma will schedule more Texas elevens with the Big Six conference.

His remarks were made today in reports that the Sooners might cut loose from the Big Six to join the Southwest conference.

"A few alumni has live in Texas and severing its 'agrable' connections" with the Big Six conference.

Eden Side Steps Sanctions Issue

LONDON, Feb. 25 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden's much-heralded house of commons speech, which side-stepped a stand on the oil sanction issue, aroused belief today that a slender chance remained of Britain pressing for an embargo against Italy.

General satisfaction greeted some sections of Eden's maiden speech to the commons as foreign secretary, especially his proposal for a world-wide system of collective security, rather than a policy of European "encirclement."

Disappointment spread in political circles, however, because Eden gave no indication of the government's final intentions concerning an oil sanction, uppermost question in the League of Nations campaign against the Italo-Ethiopian war.

Jones said the Sooners hoped to schedule more Texas teams in football in 1936.

Already on the University of Oklahoma football schedule for 1937 are the University of Texas Longhorns and the Rice Institute Owls.

'BIG TRAIN' TELLS SON HE IS NOT READY FOR BIG LEAGUES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 (AP)—A 20-year-old rookie hurler, going through his paces before one of baseball's greatest pitchers, wound up, slung his body into the pitch and threw.

"Son," said the "Big Train" as Walter Johnson Jr., turned around, "you've got a strong arm, a good fast ball and a fair curve, but you are some years away from big league baseball."

The six foot, three inch boy smiled.

"You're right, I do need lots more experience," he said as he walked over to sit beside his father on a pile of logs.

The scene was the "Big Train" farm at nearby Germantown, Md. Walter, Jr., who travels south Friday for a trial with the Philadelphia Athletics, had come from his Washington home to the farm here to throw a few and talk things over.

"He needs a couple of years to develop, to get himself ready to pitch," the old fire ball king explained to the youngster's friends.

Walter things the 195-pound recruit is "right" for a small class league, one where the pace isn't so fast he has to throw his arm out.

"He's got a good arm, yes, a very good arm, but he needs the experience one can get only in a baseball game," Johnson said. "He's the type that comes along fast and in two years he will be developed, and will know whether he's a real pitcher or not."

Walter, Jr., will have to work on his curve ball, his father says. He hasn't the speed that enabled the "Big Train" to throw past batsmen all day.

Pirate Profs Defeat Gulf Quintet 27 to 24 at LeFors

Caravan on Wheels Is Seen Here

The LeFors Pirate Profs made it two in a row over the Gulf quintet of Berger last night in the LeFors gymnasium when they eked out a 27 to 24 win. In a previous meeting in Panhandle, the Profs led by one point at the whistle.

Led by Bronson and Smith, with 12 points each, the Pirate mentors clung to a slim margin gained in the last period after the lead had changed several times throughout the hectic battle. Shaw and White, former Bulldog stars, led the Berger attack with 4 points each.

Hill, LeFors guard, was out of the lineup with a severe attack of influenza. Fouburg, Brown, Duncan and McCluskey rounded out the LeFors teams.

The game was the last of the season for the Pirate Profs unless challenges are hurled at the teachers.

Kidnap Threat Is Made Against Hollywood Girl

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 25 (AP)—The home of Virginia Bruce, film actress, was under police guard today, after her two-year-old daughter, Susan Ann Gilbert, was reported threatened with kidnaping.

Glady's Hall, film writer and Miss Bruce's personal representative, told detectives an unidentified woman had warned her the "blond player and her child were in a great danger and must be notified."

Miss Hall said the woman approached her at her home and insisted that she be given Miss Bruce's telephone number and street address.

When Miss Hall told her to contact the actress through her studio, the woman reportedly exclaimed, "no, no, they are watching the studio. If I should see her there, I would have to leave town to escape them."

Miss Hall said the woman intimated there was a plot to kidnap Susan Ann, Miss Bruce's daughter by her marriage to the late John John Gilbert. The woman left hurriedly when she attempted to question her further, Miss Hall said.

The actress, Gilbert's fourth wife, was bequeathed with her daughter the bulk of the late actor's $250,000 estate.

GIRLHOOD IN HOLY LAND IS DESCRIBED TO WMS BY GUEST

SECRETARY OF DISTRICT ALSO VISITS GROUP

JOINT MEETING OF ALL CIRCLES IS CONDUCTED

Memories of home life in the Holy Land, where she was born and spent her childhood, were brought in interesting fashion to First Methodist Missionary society yesterday by Mrs. Charles Bookzee, Pampa resident who is a native of Syria.

She told of homes and schools as seen by a girl growing up there, of wars between her country and the Turks, and of conditions during the World war. After her talk, Mrs. Bookzee answered numerous questions from the society members.

All circles of the society met together at the church, and the program followed a general business session when Mrs. John Hessey, president, called for reports from officers.

Bilious Spells

In bilious spells, one of the first things to do is to take a dose of Black-Draught to relieve the attending constipation. You can rely on Black-Draught whenever a laxative is needed.

Mr. T. L. Austin, of McAdenville, N. C., tells of having used Black-Draught for a long time. "There is a box full on my mantel, now," he writes. "I take it for biliousness. If I did not take it, the dullness and headaches would put me out of business. It is the quickest medicine to relieve me."

Black-Draught is purely vegetable. It is one of the most economical laxatives. Sold in 25-cent packages containing 25 doses.

From Breakfast To Supper Paris Will Wear Suits

PARIS (AP)—Paris has launched the biggest suit season the fashion world has seen in years.

At recent spring openings, tailored models were shown for every occasion from breakfast to supper—the one clean-cut trend in a widely fitted, box or swager model that ends with the hipbones and is youthful in cut and effect.

Some of the models were shown for every occasion from breakfast to supper—the one clean-cut trend in a widely fitted, box or swager model that ends with the hipbones and is youthful in cut and effect.

Shoulders Wide, Skirts Slender. Shoulders are bold with wideness achieved through tucked, gathered or padded sleeve tops. Skirts are nearly always slender and straight, their only departure being in a waistline which sometimes mounts higher in front.

Black and navy blue are prominent colors. So are russet, gray, and grayed greens and blues. Beige and brown have been thrust into the background. Soft wools and tweeds are favorite fabrics, with many chickens-foot plaids, shadow plaid and checked jackets.

This year's suits may combine either a skirt or a dress with a jacket which is often of contrasting material. Rose, gray, and black plaid jacket with a black wool frock and white checked jacket with a navy dress are typical combinations.

Many Fabrics for Blouses. Blouses run all the way from youthful round-necked puff-sleeve models to high-necked shirtwaists and are made in as great a variety of materials. Organdy, linen, figure surah and bright flowered challis are all used with suede and linei vests added for variation.

Afternoon suits are fashioned of soft black or navy taffetas or cravats, silks, or printed artificial silks and surahs stamped with small geometric patterns combining black with white, oyster white, pearl gray or pale blue.

Some of the same fabrics, as well as heavy black crepes are used to make cocktail and dinner suits with bolero jackets and tailored skirts. Some of them have a decidedly Spanish effect with colored belts swathed over a white shirt blouse under a bolero jacket. Others have a more formal air, enhanced by flowered challis or beaded blouses.

The STRANGE CASE of JULIA CRAIG

Chapter XX At Julia's direct question, Smith Garland's pleased expression was replaced with one of poorly hidden astonishment. Then he shrugged away his embarrassment.

"What difference does it make who put up the money for the White Club? It's success now—and you're a success with it."

"Tom Payson backed you, didn't he?" Garland nodded sheepishly. "But I don't see what difference it makes."

"It does make a difference," Julia told him quickly. "It sort of spoils it all."

"But why?" She sat down weakly. "I suppose I was being a fool. But I—I felt I was helping you put something over."

"But you have, Nadine. You've done just what I needed."

Julia shook her head. "No," she answered. "All this was just a whim of Tom's. It wasn't what I thought, at all. I was fool enough to think that you got the idea, and aw me, and—worked it all out."

"Look here, Julia..." He strode across the room to her chair, nestled down before her as though he were a child. "It was my idea, and it came to me when I saw you all dressed in white out on Latta's rambling ship. Of course, Tom teased me to you—so naturally I thought of him when the question of finances came up. I couldn't wind it alone, but I'll pay Tom back in time. He knows that."

Julia smiled slowly, and when she spoke again it was with a wholly irrelevant question. "Did you know you called me Julia—instead of Nadine?"

"Yes... And you've always been Julia to me. Ever since the first day I saw you."

Something in Smith Garland's eyes warned Julia, but there was no way now to stem the sudden flow of his words.

"I love you, Julia. I—I tried to blind myself to it during these weeks of work. But all along it's been there... underneath. I've got to tell you now. His hands outstretched, clutching her knees. "I've—"

The door had opened suddenly, revealing Tom Payson. "Sorry," he said, slowly closing the door behind him. "Of course I should have knocked."

Garland rose to his feet, reddening furiously. "It's quite all right, Tom. I was just trying to explain things to Julia."

LENTEN SEASON TO BEGIN WITH SPECIAL MASS

Series of Evening Sermons Will Follow

Observance of the Lenten season will open at Holy Souls Catholic church tomorrow morning with the blessing and distribution of the ashes at the 7:30 mass.

The ashes are from the palm branches blessed at the previous Palm Sunday. In signing each with ashes on the forehead the Biblical words, "Remember, man, that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return," are quoted.

The sermons will be given by the Rev. Eugene Mauseh, a member of the Augustinian order from Villanova University in Pennsylvania. Father Mauseh is filling an appointment this year on the teaching staff of Price Memorial college in Amarillo.

The sermons will be heard each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, starting tomorrow. A question box will be a feature of each service. An invitation to the public is extended by the Rev. Joseph Wondery, pastor.

Bedlam Reigns For Mardi Gras In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25 (AP)—New Orleans became a bedlam of carnival hilarity today. The whole city joined once more in mass celebration of Mardi Gras.

Business paused as young and old took to the streets to pay homage to Rex, lord of misrule, and his consort in a setting of glamorous parades, singing and dancing by grotesquely costumed maskers and impromptu pageantry.

Reuben E. Tipton, vice president of the Lykes Brothers Rice Steamship company, ruled as Rex, king of carnival.

Mardi Gras' greatest social honor, that of being queen, fell to Miss Caro Jahncke, daughter of former Assistant Secretary of the Navy Ernest Lee Jahncke.

Thousands have converged on the Louisiana metropolis to frolic for a day.

For more than a century New Orleans has observed Mardi Gras. Millions of dollars and innumerable hours of labor have gone into the celebration. And this year is no exception. In fact it is the most elaborate carnival since 1931.

The three major parades were more elaborately planned than any in the past five years. The floats a year in preparation, represented an expenditure of between $15,000 and $20,000 for each parade.

Davis girl went on. "Of course, we're all very fond of him."

"I—I should think you would be."

Theresa Davis laughed. "He's quite a trial, you know. I mean to his friends. One never knows what he's going to do next. He's—"

She made a quick gesture, her scarlet nails flashing, "well, Tom is quixotic idealistic. He's always helping along some girl who works in a shop or a cigar counter or something." She laughed indulgently. "We're pleased he's promoted himself to a night club singer."

"Do you really consider it a promotion?" she asked Julia.

"Indeed, yes." The girl seemed surprised. "We can at least accept a night club singer."

Julia shook her head. "Would you excuse me, Miss Davis? I think I'll save you the trouble of accepting me."

With that she was gone, hurrying through the crowded room, her eyes flitting with angry tears. Halfway to the lobby she met Payson, made possible for her and Amy. As she entered the elevator she was startled to see Cintra Lee.

"Why... Cintra?" The Lee girl smiled. "I got here just ahead of you, Julia. I happened to see the little drama at the club. Don't let it worry you."

"You mean—?" "I mean Tom Payson's friends. I'll tell you something, Julia. Women like that are usually dull enough to make their men scream to high heaven. But when they see a girl like you getting dangerous they have one weapon. It's snobbery, and they use it. Just remember it's all they have—and pity them."

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter

A letter from Robert Ripley in reply to a telegram sent protesting his recent statement in "Believe It Or Not" that 1940 would not be a leap year, was read at a meeting of Beta Sigma Phi last evening in the home of Miss Frances Stark.

The letter assured the young women that they would be permitted leap year privileges in that year.

Mrs. Charles Wooley was in charge of the program, acquainting members with purposes and privileges of the recently organized sorority. After her introduction, Mrs. Hol Wagner, a guest, told what the average sororist means to its members, and Miss Stark outlined the history and traditions of Beta Sigma Phi.

An initiation service was planned for Friday evening, at a dinner at Schneider hotel. The meeting closed when an ice course in the chapter colors, black and gold, was served.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25 (AP)—Definite support of some merchants believe that the chain store trend toward voluntary associations of separately owned units came today from one of New York's largest chain store organizations.

In taking steps to convert itself into voluntary chain of 2,000 independent stores, the James Butler grocery company expressed belief that the trend is in this direction.

A somewhat similar view was expressed recently by John A. Hartford, president of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, operators of the largest chain store system in the country.

Hartford took the view that separate ownership is the simplest method of escaping "chain store taxes" in the several states where laws call for higher rates on store groups under single ownership.

NEW TREASURER WILL FILL VACATED OFFICE

A report of the Texas Agricultural association was given by Mrs. J. M. Daugherty of Priscilla Home Demonstration club to the County Council of Home Demonstration clubs at its monthly meeting Monday.

She said the theme stressed by the association was that farmers must now meet and plan their programs as a group, and not continue as numerous separate, unrelated units.

Mrs. R. W. Taylor of Merten resigned as treasurer of the council, as she is to move soon to Gladewater. Mrs. Oad Gaultin of Laketon was elected to fill that office.

A joint meeting of the Home Demonstration council and the farmers' council of this county was announced for 2 p. m. Thursday at the home demonstration agent's office.

At this time the two councils will plan community meetings for surveying the effect of the adjustment program on farm homes.

Representatives from Priscilla, Merten and Kingsmill clubs were present in the council, others being detained by the sandstorm. Mrs. O. G. Smith presided for the business session.

YEP, THEY'RE SCARCE CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The hard part of Miss Joyce Henry's feat of throwing a dollar across the Charles river was finding a dollar. Her sponsors visited six banks yesterday before they located a coin. The 18-pound Radcliffe college senior had little difficulty sending the dollar spinning across the 220-foot river.

Governor Allred's Proclamation!

To early Americans, the word "Tejas" meant friendship. Today the word "Texas" still means friendship, and more. It means opportunity, a land of fabulous natural resources, of rolling ranges, of loamy black farmlands, of unsurpassed climate, and—BEAUTY. 'PUSH AROUND' BATTLE IS WON BY MAE WEST Declared Victor In Latest Bout With Lubitsch

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25. (AP)—Mae West's manager, forced a "strategic retreat" during the latest bout of star vs. producer. In her absence, her old friend, William LeBaron, replaced Lubitsch as production-chief at Paramount, her home studio.

"After all, she was in the show business long before Lubitsch ever thought of being."

Lubitsch, 46, started his career in the German theater in his teens. He will become a unit producer under Paramount's new arrangement.

Informal sources said Lubitsch and Miss West "never got along."

BLOWS AIMED AT NEW DEAL FARM PHASES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Two phases of new deal farm activity—the vast tree belt projected for the plains states and a cotton production report—were surrounded by controversy today.

The house appropriations committee decided that $1,000,000 designed to carry on the tree planting this year should be withheld; Rep. Johnson (D., Okla.) said many members felt it would be "a waste of money."

Rep. Treadway (R., Mass.) was hammering away with his charge that the agriculture department had "doctored" the cotton report, released on Feb. 4, because portions of the original document might have caused adverse reaction to the AAA program.

From Dr. A. G. Black, chief of the bureau of agricultural economics, came the statement that only "some very minor changes" had been made and that Secretary Wallace had not suggested any of them.

Treadway demanded that the house be given "a complete and unexpurgated copy," which Black indicated would be done.

Besides lopping off the $1,000,000 asked to carry on the tree shelter belt, which was designed to extend from the Texas Panhandle to the Canadian border to check wind erosion, the house appropriations committee acted to make sure the money is not obtained by transferring other funds.

It stipulated that no money provided in the agriculture department supply bill, which went to the house floor yesterday, shall be used for the purpose.

Unusual Test Is Made at Ward's

Pictured above is one of the startling tests conducted at the Montgomery Ward store as part of the discussion in the agriculture section of the county school board members and county superintendents with Noel McDade, county judge of Moore county, presiding.

Elva Fronberger, principal of the Canyon elementary school, will preside at the grade school section, and Miss Esther Sorenson, district home economics supervisor, will preside and lead the discussion in the home economics section.

B. H. Hopkins of Hereford and J. M. Hill of Clarendon will lead the discussion in the agriculture section of which Prof. Frank R. Phillips of Canyon is chairman.

Besides the discussion, each section program has on it at least one outstanding speaker. The county superintendent section will hear Dr. Frank W. Heart of the University of California.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25. (AP)—Charles A. Beard, author and historian, told educators today that attempts to bar the study of "controversial" subjects such as communism represent "an effort of selfish and narrow interests to conquer the schools for their own purposes and ends."

Beard, who addressed the department of superintendence of the National Education association, urged a vigorous defense of the values of scholarship against outside pressure. Nearly 10,000 educators are attending the department's convention.

"Does anyone really believe there can be a true history of the United States, for example, that does not deal with the great issues of banking, tariff, taxes, budgets, agriculture, industry and labor that have formed, and still form, so much of the substance of American history and practice?" he asked.

"Surely no intelligent American believes that European history should be deliberately falsified by omitting all references to communism, and by teaching, as one school persecutor has urged, 'only the geographical facts of Russia.'"

"Such perversion of instruction in the schools is more than a betrayal of knowledge and truth. It assumes that knowledge and truth are of no importance, that a nation can live by lies and deception."

Beard said schools over the country are being attacked "by highly organized and well-financed minorities that seek to brow-beat legislators, the congress of the United States, school boards, and teachers."

ANADARKO, Okla., Feb. 25. (AP)—The defendant's story that her father beat her "just like the stock," was written today into the record of the murder trial of Emma Willis, 18-year-old patricide.

"With rocks, sticks, anything he could grab, he used to beat me," said the Caddo county high school girl, who shot her tenant farmer father, I. H. Willis, with a shotgun as he lay sleeping in their humble farm home last December 21.

"He was just as brutal to me as he was to the stock on the place," she continued.

Mrs. Zona Willis, the girl's mother, said her daughter's story of mistreatment was true.

Emma's face crimsoned and she cast her eyes down as she testified her father made improper advances toward her and that on the night before he was killed he "told me that if I'd do what he wanted he would be easier on me and the family and see that I got to go places and wouldn't have to work on the farm."

HAGOOD MIXUP IS CONDEMNED BY DEMOCRATS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The swift removal of Major General Johnson Hagood after he criticized the new deal work relief threatened today to become a major political issue.

Republicans accused the new deal of a "reign of terror" while democrats split on the order relieving the army's third ranking general officer from command at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and sending him to his Charleston, S. C., home to "await orders."

High new dealers were silent on the order, issued "by direction of the president." Some in the capital believed Hagood, who told a house sub-committee that WPA funds were "stage money," and that there would be "nothing permanent" to show for much of it, might be kept on the inactive list until he reaches retirement age of 65 next year.

Declaring that he would fight the war department "to a finish," for what he called an "infamous, dirty, damnable and inexcusable outrage," Rep. Blanton (D., Texas) demanded the impeachment of Secretary Dem. General Malin Craig, chief of staff, and Assistant War Secretary Harry H. Woodring.

While army officers said Hagood's removal was "routine," Rep. Lehlbach (R., N. J.) charged the general was a victim of "the reign of terror" because he "said something which might injure Candidate Roosevelt."

But Rep. Bankhead (D., Ala.), democratic leader, said "a man in a non-political branch of the government ought to be very careful in statements he makes."

Rep. Maverick (D., Texas) said the "general may have talked a little too much but that is nothing to what some admirals have been getting away with. Admirals can almost provoke a war of create civil disorder and that seems to be all right. They get away with murder."

He added that Hagood is a "damn good man" and the army has been a "little hard on him, comparatively speaking."

The American Liberty league declared there was "nothing surprising in the incident." It said in a statement that "suppression of free speech and a free press... are the universal weapons of dictatorship."

PAMPA, TEXAS, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1936.

HARVESTERS MUST OVERCOME STRONG OPPONENTS AT CANYON TO BE ENTRY IN STATE MEET

Pampans' Fate To Be Determined This Week-End

The Harvesters will play their hardest game of the season this week-end when they meet top-notch cagers from all over the Panhandle in the regional meet at Canyon.

Four of the best teams in this region are entering the tournament from which will emerge one of the contenders for the state title. The Priona Pirates won the right to enter in the regional meet when they defeated the Golden Sandies last Saturday evening 29 to 21. Another of the hard fighting quints which will be represented are the fighting cagers from Abernathy.

The dark horse of the tournament is Carey, the team that defeated Quanah last week-end in the final round of the district four tournament. Little is known of the Carey team, since its district victory came as a surprise. The players had won only a few games when they marched with their county meet and then charged into the district race and won there also.

The Harvesters will be favored in the regional meet so far as percentage of wins may mean anything. The locals have won 39 out of 40 games this season.

Last Tuesday the Harvesters defeated Lakeview 30 to 22. The Lakeview team had defeated the only squad that had succeeded in defeating the Pampans.

On Friday evening the Harvesters traveled to Perryton to play the Rangers. The Pampa subs defeated the Ranger subs by a slight margin in the last few minutes of play in the curtain raiser. In the main event the Harvester starters defeated the Ranger first-stringers, taking the lead from the start and holding it until the final whistle.

A large crowd is expected to accompany the Harvesters to Canyon. The tournament will start Friday evening in Burjon Gymnasium in Canyon.

Campaigning for Class Favorites Features Chapel

Campaigning for candidates in the favorites contest featured the assembly program Wednesday.

The sophomores presented their candidates in such a fashion as to indicate what students should not vote for and what they should vote for, using "horrible examples" to illustrate the former.

The juniors displayed each candidate as though he were in a portrait, appropriate music being played for each candidate.

Senior candidates appeared on a flag-decorated platform, and campaign speeches were made for the candidates.

Prior to the campaign period, the Rev. Lance Webb spoke on the life of George Washington. Musical numbers were given by the Little Orchestra and by the boys' quartet made up of Tom Rose Jr., Red Fanning, James Herring, and Arvo Goddard.

Aggies Judge at Shamrock Meet

Coaches J. L. Lester and A. E. Frazier accompanied 17 of the agricultre boys to Shamrock Saturday to the livestock meet to judge fat hogs, fat hogs, and a number of draft horses. The boys who judged were J. G. McConnell, Foster Kin- nard, and Charles Shelton. None of these boys had ever judged before. According to Mr. Lester, the boys made excellent grades.

The boys who pay their F. P. A. dues by Monday, March 8, will be given a free trip to the fat stock show in Amarillo, March 9, at which a representative from the agricultural college at Stillwater, Okla., will judge fat stock. It appears that there will be more than 200 fat calves besides the hogs and sheep at the show.

The vocational agriculture teachers are urging that all F. P. boys pay their dues before the date set so that they may go.

Monday Last Date To Enter Contest

Monday is the last possible date for turning in entries to the Walter Woodul Historical Essay contest, now being sponsored over the state. All essays must be turned in to either history or English teachers by that time. School officials are urging that students complete in the contest.

Special points will be given by those teachers according to grades made on themes. Prizes are being offered to winning papers in county and state contests, the largest award being $200.

HYGIENE URGED
A hygiene campaign is being carried on by members of the high school band, its chief object being sanitary care of instruments. A number of signs have been placed in the band room as reminders to students to disinfect their horns before playing.

Size and Weight Of Average Girl In PHS Figured

Whether or not she may be the perfect girl may depend on the opinion of individuals but the average girl in Pampa high school weighs 117.3 pounds and is 5 feet, 3.2 inches tall.

These figures were arrived at after the weight and height of 115 girls in physical education classes were compiled by Miss Kathleen Milam, physical education instructor.

There are not many girls, the records showed, who approximate these figures. Dorothy Jackson, Berntha Wilson, and Leta Fitch came nearest.

Those who had exactly the average weight were Anna Stein and Mildred Martin.

Catherine Barrett, Bernice Adcock, Ora Beryle Brandon, Lillia Mae Redman, Neva Belle Minatre Helen Curtis, Leta Fitch, Bessie Grace, Sibby Canfield, Betty Shyrack, Wilma Dee Abernathy, Doris Davenport, and Geraldine Hyatt proved to be of the average height.

TEXAS RELICS MAY HELP WIN CASH AWARDS

Students to Compete By Furnishing Information

Students who have or know the location of Texas relics may enter a contest in which cash prizes as high as $100 will be given, according to word received here yesterday.

The occasion is a state-wide contest being conducted by the Historical Exhibit Department of the Texas Centennial Exposition. High school and elementary students are eligible to enter the contest. Cash awards will be made in each of ten Texas districts and in the state-wide contest.

This contest is being held in order to bring to light many old relics, documents, and pictures which may be important links in Texas history.

To enter the contest, the student must submit all available information about some Texas historical relic, document or picture which was in existence before 1900 and which is not included in any public collection. There are definite rules for the submission of material. Ernest Cane, of the department of history, will give information about the rules to students interested in the contest.

The student is not asked to send in any actual relic. All that is needed for entry in the contest is the proper information correctly submitted. The relic need not be the property of the contestant.

Any student may submit as many different entries as he wishes, but no person will be awarded more than one prize.

In each of the 10 districts of 25 counties each, high school and elementary divisions will have prizes of $50, $20, and $10, and fourth and fifth-place winners will receive medals. Prizes in the state contest will be $100, $50, and $25.

Safety Contest Winners Chosen By Rotary Club

Hazel Bath, Irma Pitchford, and Vernon Kidd have been designated senior high school winners of the Safety contest recently sponsored by the local Rotary club, L. L. Stone high school principal, said yesterday.

No announcement was made of the order in which the three winners were ranked. That announcement will be made tomorrow at a Rotary luncheon to which the winning students have been invited.

Cash prizes of $5, $2, and $1 will be given to winners in each of Pampa's school units. The contest had as its primary purpose the stimulation of a thoughtful attitude toward the problem of traffic safety.

Local Information Compiled by Class

Information on local organizations and industries is being compiled by students in the journalism class as a part of their regular work.

Among the files being made up are lists of county and city officials, officers of school church, and community organizations, and leading companies representing various local industries.

This information is being gathered for reference in writing news stories, for practice in gathering facts, and for its practical value as information that every student should know. Accuracy in the spelling of names and use of titles will be stressed in short quizzes.

The lists will be made available to anyone wishing to use them as soon as they are complete.

Apple a Day Keeps Wolf Away

By munching apples day in and day out P. H. S. students have helped keep the wolf away from the door of their less fortunate schoolmates.

By the sale of apples to high school students, $200 has been raised for the student loan fund, sponsors of the activity said yesterday.

Profits made by the sale have increased the fund at the rate of $1.50 to $2 a day.

Needy students who must have assistance to stay in school are aided through loans from the fund. No loan made has exceeded $70. Some loans have already been repaid. About $50 is not loaned out at present.

Students wanting loans or work after school hours have been requested to see Miss Eranson or Mrs. Alexander. Citizens who can use student help may communicate with either of the sponsors.

FACULTY MEET WILL BE HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Junior High Students To Stage Texas Pageant

A general faculty meeting will be held Monday evening in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. All teachers in the Pampa Independent school district will attend.

The program, based on the Texas Centennial, will be furnished by the history department of the junior high school. A pageant, "We Are Texas," will be presented under the direction of Miss Juanita McAllister. A cast of 141 students will take part in the pageant, which will trace Texas history from its discovery until the present. Music and chalk sketches will complete the program.

This meeting will be the third general faculty session of the school year, with one of the city school's being in charge of the program on each occasion. The three remaining meetings will be under the direction of ward schools.

Typing Teams Will Compete Thursday

The typing team had their first meet Thursday when they went to Deer to compete with the high team there. The following students went: Mary Douglas, Marquerite Jones, Charlotte Watson, Virginia Roberts and David Seyffert.

The team as a unit was beaten, but Mary Douglas took individual honors at 32 words a minute. White Deer is coming here Thursday for a return meet, and this time Pampa's team hopes to carry off the honors.

According to Frank Monroe the same students may not compete this time. Another speech test will be given Wednesday and the students making the highest average will be the ones who will compete.

Band Will Play in White Deer March 4

Classical numbers will be played by the Pampa high school band when the organization goes to White Deer March 4 for a concert. The band members have been practicing diligently on these selections since they received the music about two weeks ago.

Among the pieces to be played at White Deer are "Princes of India," and "Wedding of the Winds." Marches will be included; Arvo Goddard will play a bass horn solo, and Borden March will give a clarinet solo.

White Deer will return the program by staging a concert in Pampa sometimes this spring.

GO TO ST. LOUIS

Supt. and Mrs. R. B. Fisher left Friday morning for St. Louis where Mr. Fisher is in attendance at the sessions of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education association.

CLIMAX OF CLASS RIVALRY IS REACHED DURING ELECTION OF THE HIGH SCHOOL FAVORITES

Full-Page Pictures of Winners Will Be In Annual

Friday's noon hour held the climax of the year's class rivalry. P. H. S. students frenziedly sought votes for their class favorites in the popularity and beauty contests until 12:45 o'clock, when the favorites whose pictures will fill four pages of the annual were declared elected.

The brisk demonstration of class loyalty ended with rejoicing for some classes while others were faced with defeat. The winning candidates, however, are generally representative students.

ANNUAL'S FINANCIAL PROBLEM LARGELY SOLVED BY SUCCESS OF PHS FAVORITES' ELECTION

Many Devices to Get Votes Used By Campaigners

There was much more enthusiasm this year over the beauty and popularity contests than there has ever been before. The sophomores, juniors, and seniors all entered into the spirit of competition and used many methods to put their contestants over.

The juniors sold coat hangers. The seniors peddled candy, and some of the classes sold rags to the Pampa Daily News office. Most of the votes came from the students in the high school, but some of the money came from citizens of Pampa. Some students who really wanted to put their candidates over went so far as to campaign among business men and women of the town and ask for votes.

There was so much enthusiasm shown in the hall. Many of the students were constantly active in behalf of their candidates throughout the election period.

One junior even attended a senior class meeting and passed around the hat to get votes for Moose Hammer. It was reported that he left the meeting hurriedly but not empty handed.

SENIOR CLASS TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS SOON

Nominations Will Be Made in Form of Petitions

Seniors may begin nominating class officers for the second semester by petition, class sponsors announced yesterday.

Petitions must be signed by at least 50 members of the class. It was urged that petitions be drawn up immediately nominating persons for all offices. Officers to be chosen are president, vice-president, and secretary. Elections will probably be held next week if nominations are made this week.

Seniors who have not yet paid their dues have been asked by class officers to pay them immediately to Evelyn Bicknell, secretary-treasurer.

No Substitute for Common Sense

The most pitiful phase of any accident is that it might have been avoided.

Safety appliances and mechanical aids to precaution help, but they lack the human intelligence to adapt themselves to conditions and circumstances.

Only when we give care and forethought to their use can they render their greatest service.

Carelessness is the advance agent of nearly all accidents. For the good of others and for our own benefit, we should be mindful of the little things as well as the big ones that may lead to disaster.

It is a little thing to see that a match is extinguished, but it is a very big thing to suffer loss of life or property if the flame burns on unnoticed.

It is a little thing to be careful when working around machinery. It is a big thing if through neglect a hand, arm, or life is lost.

It is a little thing to exercise common sense and not get in too great a hurry when driving a car. It is no little thing to either driver or victim if the driver gets in too big a hurry to get somewhere so he can start loading sooner.

Many books on Texas history have been received recently in the library. Miss Latimer said yesterday. Various phases of Texas life are dealt with in these books.

The books received were "Parade of the Pioneers" by Hanson; "With Milam and Pannin" by Ehrenberg; "Log of a Cowboy" by Adams; "Tall Men With Long Rifles" by De Shields; "Life of Billy Dixon" by Dixon; "Texas History Movies" by Patton; "History and Geography of Texas as Revealed in County Names" by Pullmore; "Heroes of San Jacinto" by Dixon; "Art and Artists of Texas" by O'Brien, and "Texas Writers of Today" by Forrester and O'Brien.

Gorillas Lose Tilt To Panhandle Foes

Panhandle's second team won over the Gorilla basketball squad in a return game played at Panhandle Friday night, the score being 20 to 16.

The Pampa line-up included McKay and Enloe as forwards, Reynolds at center, and Morrow and Kilgore as guards.

The Gorillas will play prior to the faculty-Phillips 66 game Friday night.

Yearbook Is Assured Of Size Equal to That of 1935

Returns from the election of high school favorites which ended Friday totaled $120.13. Mrs. Hol Wagner, faculty adviser to the annual staff said yesterday.

Approximately $125 was necessary in order to insure the production of the same type of annual as last year's book, so the election produced enough to defray the remaining expenses on the yearbook. Only $88 was raised in the contest last year.

Winners in the election were: Mary Price, senior, most beautiful girl; Jimmy Hamill, sophomore, most handsome boy; Martha Price, sophomore, most popular girl, and J. R. Green, senior, most popular boy.

Mrs. Wagner expressed her appreciation of the fine class spirit shown in the election. Students supported their class candidates loyally in spite of friendship with other candidates. Good sportsmanship shown in the election has been the subject of much comment; especially were candidates in the preliminary election complimented for their action in assuming the lead in working for the class nominees.

A number of activity pictures will be made this week. The quartet's picture was taken yesterday, and the band, Little Orchestra, H. Y., and P. H. A. pictures were scheduled for today. Volley ball coaching staff, and football ball coaching staff, will have its picture made tomorrow. The Gorilla football team will have its picture made as soon as the sweaters are presented.

It's a funny world. If a man gets money, he's a grafter. If he keeps it he's a capitalist. If he spends it he's a play-boy. If he doesn't get it he's never-do-well. If he tries to get it he's a communist. If he doesn't try, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it, he's a parasite. And if he accumulates it after a lifetime of hard work, he's a sucker.

Night . . . a ship cruising peacefully along . . . a submarine silently gliding underneath . . . both unaware of danger.
Crash! The steamship hits the submarine on her port side. The submarine sinks within three minutes with a swirling, gurgling sucking of waters.
Divers are summoned to salvage the wreck and to find if any life survives in it as it lies in the 130 feet of water.

In the book "I Like Diving," by Tom Eadie, the thrills and dangers of divers on several famous rescue and salvage diving jobs are interestingly told. Mr. Eadie gives such realistic descriptions of deep-sea diving that while reading his book one easily imagines being one of those fearless men in awkward-looking diving suits.

"I Like Diving" is one of a recent order of books received by the high school library. Don't miss it!

BARN'S BARN TO HIM
INDEPENDENCE, Kans. (AP)—Sheriff Mel Gibson is looking for a man who misplaced his hay. The officer said a farmer complained that someone took advantage of his absence last summer to store 200 bales of hay in his barn. It was all right during the winter, explained the sheriff, but now the farmer wants to use the barn himself.

WARMER, BUT UNSETTLED
PATERSON, N. J. (AP)—Louis Grandies, landlord, told police Louis Monti came home in the wee hours and complained, "your place is as cold as outdoors." A few minutes later there were strange noises upstairs and smoke. Grandies found furniture burning in the middle of Monti's room, but Monti was gone. Police, searching, said they wanted to ask Monti if the room got "too hot" for him.

11 COMBS-WORLEY HEREFORDS WILL BE ENTERED IN SHOW

FORT WORTH, Feb. 25.—Live-stock entries in the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show, March 13-22 at Fort Worth have been received from virtually every section of Texas and several other states, John B. Davis secretary-manager announced today. Entries from Pampa include eleven Herefords belonging to Combs & Worley.

A feature of the stock show at Fort Worth this year will be the Federer Cattle sale at 10 a. m. March 18. Bidders from the northern and eastern states as well as the corn belt and cattle sections of the southwest will attend this sale. It is also expected to attract many farmers who have decided that the best way to market their grain is on the hoof, Davis added.

Cowboy mounted football, a new western sport played in accordance with the rules of the gridiron game in so far as the use of horses will permit will be introduced at the world championship rodeo of the forty-fifth annual stock show. Larger premiums and added classes are attracting the nation's finest show horses.

Herman Waldman and his nationally known dance orchestra will play at the Rainbow Garden where a floor show assembled from Paris, New York and Chicago, will be presented.

The outstanding Hereford, Short-horn, and Aberdeen-Angus show-ings of the nation have already been entered in the beef cattle division and more dairy cattle, sheep, goats, swine, poultry, pigeons and rabbits will be exhibited this year than at any previous show, Davis stated.

Reservations for rodeo-horse show tickets to date have been three times as heavy as last year.

Townsend Club Here to Meet

The Pampa Townsend club will meet in regular weekly session Tuesday in the county courtroom at 7:30 o'clock.

The charter has been received and some literature will be here for distribution.

Judge Phillip Wolfe will speak after a short inaugural program. Meetings are open to the public.

women of the city. The plan is to make the event a Panhandle-wide exposition, with entries by all interested communities. The parade, especially, will permit wide representation.

When all the personnel of the set-up has been appointed a blueprint will be made and displayed in local stores so that everyone may know where each responsibility rests.

Mr. Hughes said that his investigations had convinced him that the city and area wished the Centennial and oil show, that the Jaycees should incorporate and take the lead in plans, and that "now is not too soon to begin intensive work."

He said that tentative plans were to localize the celebration and honor Panhandle pioneers for their sustained courage and ability as builders.

An advisory committee composed of representatives of various clubs and organizations will be set up to review various proposals of committees.

"Majors" who have been appointed already are at work. Carl Benefiel, as publicity chairman, made the most comprehensive proposals today, including newspaper, radio, and billboard publicity, a sound truck, special stationery and cowgirls as glad-handers.

was said, all have been successful. One of them will be brought to Pampa for display and demonstration. The Board appointed men familiar with combines to go thoroughly into the proposal.

Endorsement of a city hostess project was asked by Mrs. Shanklin, who has had experience in this work. The matter was referred to the advisory board of the new chamber of commerce.

Members of the Board discussed the chamber of commerce drive and approved plans outlined by C. P. Buckner, J. S. Wynne, Ferris Oden and Tom Rose for pushing the campaign to a conclusion this week. It was shown that hundreds of dollars has been pledged but not yet reported by canvassers. Illness and bad weather have hampered covering of assigned territories.

Rice, McLean, 5 calves; Farris Hess, McLean, 2 calves; Wilbur Lee Wilson, McLean, 1 calf; Maurice Wilkins, McLean, 1 calf; James Corbin, McLean, 1 calf.

The Delaware senator referred to a recent Supreme Court decision as being "very helpful as far as freedom of the press is concerned," and added:

INCOME TAX DATA

A head of a family is defined by income-tax regulations as "an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more persons who are closely connected with him by blood relationship by marriage or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation." The exemption allowed a head of a family is $2,500. The phrase "one household" may be interpreted as meaning the taxpayer's personal residence, an apartment, rooms in a boarding house, hotel, etc.

Under certain circumstances it is not necessary that the taxpayer and his dependents live under one roof during the entire taxable year in order that the taxpayer may claim the exemption. If the common home being maintained, the parent is away on business, or a child away at school or on a visit, the exemption is allowed. Moreover, if a parent is obliged to maintain his dependent children with relatives or in a boarding house, while he lives elsewhere, the exemption still applies. If, however, without necessity, the dependent makes his home elsewhere, the benefactor is not the head of a family.

The same ruling applies to husband and wife "living together." If occasionally and temporarily the husband is away on business or the wife on a visit, the common home being maintained, the $2,500 exemption still applies. The unavoidable absence of husband or wife at a sanatorium does not preclude the exemption. But if the husband continuously makes his home at one place and the wife at another, they are not living together within the meaning of the revenue act.

Wilentz Coming Back to Answer Hoffman Charges

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 25. (AP)—The man who told the Flemington jury Bruno Richard Hauptmann "will be thrown out when he hears 'the switch'" sped back to New Jersey today to make sure the convicted killer of the Lindbergh baby will not escape the chair.

Attorney General David T. Wilentz was scheduled to arrive here from Florida this afternoon to face from the shoulders of Hunterdon county prosecutor, Anthony M. Hauck, Jr., the burden of replying to Governor Harold G. Hoffman's attack on two of the state's witnesses against Hauptmann.

Hauptmann is under sentence to die the week of March 30, but prosecution officials believe any reprieve may be granted unless they act quickly to forestall further attacks on the case they presented against Hauptmann.

Wilentz is expected to tell the governor the latter's attack on the integrity of the two state witnesses, Millard Whited and aged Amundus Hockmuth, is not grounded on fact.

ENGLAND'S CROWN ADJUSTED TO FIT KING EDWARD VIII'S HEAD

LONDON (P)—King Edward's head has been carefully measured as one of the first steps in preparations for coronation ceremonies to be held next year, possibly in June.

The head measurements were taken to a small factory where the court jewelers will adjust the royal crown to fit.

This is but one item in the task of getting ready for the event. Another is that the "court of claims" must meet to allot coronation duties and hear disputes on privilege.

Claims will be made for the task of tasting the king's wine to see that it isn't poisoned; for the right to challenge to mortal combat anyone who declares the king is not the rightful monarch; for the right to provide a glove for the king's right hand; for the title of "master of the silver scullery."

Public interest in the ceremony has already begun to manifest itself. Reservations for seats along the supposed route of the procession are being made, more than a year in advance, with money being paid down in some instances.

Westminster hospital, which has capitalized on three past coronation ceremonies, is to erect a grandstand seating more than 2,000 persons.

By selling seats at Queen Victoria's coronation the hospital gained $20,000. The crowning of King Edward VII placed $35,000 in the hospital's treasury and $65,000 was netted in 1911 when King George was formally invested with the authority of the throne.

Resolution of Respect
To the officers and members of Pampa Lodge No. 934 I. O. O. F.: We, your committees on resolutions, beg to submit the following:

Whereas, on Feb. 14th, 1936 the hand of God removed from our midst and from the scenes of his earthly labors our beloved Brother W. J. Brown, Sr.

Whereas, we acknowledge the wisdom, love and mercy of Almighty God; by whose kind providence he lived to love and care for a devoted family, blessed our community and promoted Christianity, and was faithful to his order.

Be it therefore resolved: The will of Almighty God be done and that we invoke the blessings of his comforting spirit upon the bereaved family.

Be it further resolved that thru his death the community has lost a dear and loving citizen, the family a loving companion and father, and Pampa Lodge No. 934 a loyal and faithful member.

We grieve, yet a greater one than he said; Come up higher, so let us bow our heads in humble submission and say "All is Well" for in our Father's house are many mansions, and tomorrow we too will join that innumerable throng that moves steadily on to the Great beyond.

Be it further resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge, a copy tendered the family of our deceased brother, and a copy furnished our local paper.
