Auto Union Headed For Showdown Strike

Big Three Denying Conspiracy Charge

DETROIT (UPI) — Chrysler Corp. today rebuffed an 11th-hour union demand and strongly denied Walter P. Reuther's charge that the big three car makers "conspired" to shut down the industry in the event of a United Auto Workers strike.

Lynn Townsend, Chrysler president, told newsmen in Chicago that he was spurning Reuther's demand that the firm break the industry front and accept a UAW offer exempting Chrysler from consideration as the union's strike "target."

15,000 Mexican Divorces Filed During August

CIUDAD JUAREZ, Mexico (UPI)—On the 32nd day of the three civil judges rested the crumpled hands the rest of the "world record" numbers what God hath joined and New York state refused to part.

The great American divorce rush of '67 was over today. Up to 15,000 decrees were granted in August.

The assembly line divorces made the state of Chihuahua millions of pesos richer, enough to finance all operations of its court system through the next decade.

Holding their cramped wrists and signing like dervishes, judges' three civil judges Thursday processed about 1,000 quickie divorces, almost all of New Yorkers scrambling under the wire to shed their mates before the Empire state's new divorce law took hold today.

The new law greatly liberalizes the grounds for divorce, where formerly only adultery was a valid reason, but legal experts were divided on whether an obscure residency clause in the law made Mexican "quickie" divorces illegal in New York. It takes from four months to two years to obtain a final decree in New York courts.

Court officials claimed "a world record for sure" in processing the "stamp-stamp-sign here, senior... next... divorces."

"During the month of August we processed somewhere between 12,000 and 15,000 divorces, mostly for New Yorkers," the Juarez city secretary said today. At the peak, the judges signed 2,478 in two days.

A strike against the target firm appeared probable with the union and industry still at odds on nearly every issue after 40 days of bargaining for a new three-year contract.

Reuther charged Thursday that General Motors Corp., the industry giant, had "blacklisted" Chrysler and Ford into a secret "conspiracy" under which all three companies would shut down if one of them is struck.

Reuther's strategy is to strike only his "target" firm and let the other two keep operating. He offered Chrysler exemption from consideration as the strike target Thursday, provided the firm would agree to extend the present contract in effect a guarantee that it would keep its factories running after contracts expire at midnight Wednesday.

When Chrysler replied that contract extensions should be decided later, Reuther interpreted it as proof that the car makers were conspiring to close the industry and lock his union out. He gave Chrysler 24 hours to agree to his terms.

Otherwise, Reuther said, he would pick the target today. He said a strike appeared nearly inevitable.

Chrysler told Reuther today it would keep its factories open and running beyond the strike deadline "if it is possible" to do so.

Wreckage of Plane Found Near Ardmore

ARDMORE, Okla. (UPI) — The wreckage of a private plane, missing on a flight from Dallas to Wichita, Kan., has been found on a ranch near Ardmore with the two occupants today.

One body identified as the pilot, Richard F. Plippen, Dallas, was found inside the plane and the second, his passenger, identified as William G. Dean, Wichita, was near the wreckage. The Flight Service Center in Oklahoma City said the plane left Dallas at 7:15 a.m. Thursday and was due in Wichita at 11:15 a.m.

VOWS TO HOLD RALLY Priest Arrested In Milwaukee Disorder

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—A firebrand white priest vowed today to hold another open rally to hold another open march, despite an aborted march Thursday night which sparked arson, rock throwing and mass arrests.

"We'll never stop," said the Rev. James E. Groppi after he was released on $1,000 bond on charges of resisting arrest, battery of a policeman, profanity, disorderly conduct and violation of the mayor's proclamation against night time marches.

The 36-year-old priest, who was ordered to appear in court today, said another church rally would be held again tonight. Asked if another march would follow, he answered, "Possibly, possibly."

The rally was planned for 5 p.m. CDT. The rally was planned for 5 p.m. CDT. The rally was planned for 5 p.m. CDT.

During the fracas, at the intersection of 10th Street and North Avenue in the area where racial rioting erupted early in August, a squad car was set afire. More arrests followed when police tried to clear the area.

County Judge Christ T. Seraphim, sitting as magistrate, set bail for Groppi and told him he had persisted in "violating the law day after day, week after week. The public has a right to be protected from a repeater."

Thursday the rally was held to raise funds to aid those arrested Wednesday. But Groppi told the 400 persons who attended St. Boniface Church, where he is assistant pastor, "If you are afraid to go to jail or afraid of tear gas or afraid of dying, you shouldn't have come to this rally."

"Some things are more sacred than life. We are going to see the mayor about our constitutional rights to demonstrate and demand National Guard protection for that right."

Wall Street Is Disturbed Over Big Speculation

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Securities and Exchange Commission, disturbed by the rising amount of stock market speculation, is investigating the activities of about 300 brokers.

The SEC is focusing its inquiry on trading in about 100 stocks, including several listed on the New York Stock Exchange, more than 30 on the American Stock Exchange, and more than 50 in the over-the-counter market.

The prices of many lower and medium priced stocks have risen sharply in recent months. The SEC said that in a number of instances, the booming prices "do not appear to reflect any significant developments in the prospects or operations of the issues."

BLAMED FOR WAR DRAG

Senate Escalates McNamara Attack

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate hawks have escalated their attack on bombing strategy in North Vietnam with charges that Defense Secretary McNamara has shackled U.S. air power to the detriment of the war effort. The Senate preparedness subcommittee, in a report signed by all seven members and implied that his policy of restraint had cost American lives.

"The long delay in approving targets in North Vietnam has almost certainly cost our aircraft and pilot losses since it gave the Vietnamese the time to build up air defenses," the report said. The panel said that "anti-aircraft Surface-to-Air (SAM) and MiG fighter planes" had been assembled by the Communists to meet the most deadly defense the world has ever seen."

In unusually strong language, the subcommittee asserted that McNamara as civilian head of the Defense Department had ignored the recommendations of his top professional military advisers on strategic efforts such as closing the port of Haiphong, cutting North Vietnam's communication lines with Red China, and permitting U.S. aircraft to strike "all meaningful targets with a military significance."

The Pentagon said McNamara would have no comment on the report, the result of three weeks of closed hearings by the subcommittee during which it heard from the Joint Chiefs, the U.S. commander in the Pacific and the defense secretary himself.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., in a speech given shortly before the report was made public, defended McNamara and told his colleagues that an attack on the secretary was an attack on President Johnson.

McNamara told the subcommittee that striking at Haiphong might draw Red China or the Soviet Union into the conflict. He also said that closing or neutralizing the port is "unimportant from a military standpoint."

Chief of Staff Predicts End of Vietnam Combat

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Army Chief of Staff Gen. Harold K. Johnson was reported today to believe that gradual withdrawal of U.S. forces from Vietnam could begin in 18 months.

It is the first administration official in a long time to hazard even a rough, highly conditioned and unqualified prediction of a timetable for winning the war, sending telegrams to each of the major steel producers urging them to hold the line on prices. He warned that higher steel prices could lead off a new inflationary spiral.

"Very thoughtful attention was given to Mr. Ackley's comments before changing the price of bars," U.S. Steel said in announcing its price increase.

In view of cost increases, there was no alternative found except to change some of our prices, including the base price on bars which has not been adjusted since 1963 except for minor changes last year," U.S. Steel said.

Ackley's statement marked the first time he had publicly called for a halt to rising steel prices since increases began in the industry last November.

Administration sources said the statement was a warning to all other industries and labor to hold down both price increases and wage demands.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has curtailed the border whitening season to four days this year. And, as usual, a crowd is expected for the first two days in the Lower Rio Grande valley, the main hunting area.

Hotels and motels in the valley are booked up for the weekends. The season is Saturday and Sunday for 1 p.m. to sunset and the same two days next weekend.

So, mourning and whitening hunters may have to look harder to find good concentrations of birds because of recent heavy rains, but officials report there will be an abundance of birds.

Cong Step Up Drive To Panic Electic

SAIGON (UPI)—The Viet Cong today kidnaped 143 civilians, killed and wounded scores more in raids in Saigon and the provinces and mortared the main barracks of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division in a murderous attempt to upset the South Vietnam's presidential election.

U.S. bombers flying 140 missions against North Vietnam Thursday struck the Haiphong, hitting a missile site. But Navy jets were shot down in a Haiphong raid. American planes lost country. The three listed as missing.

Government spokesmen swarmed northern provincial villages, "drifted" odd young Vietnamese Cong rans, raising them to 100 the number of shanghaied youths in Saigon guerrilla wrecks a school, old woman, four government officials and mangled theater where guard killed one terrorist.

According to officials more than 1,000 civilians have been wounded. U.S. Cong drive to spoil it set for Sunday.

Network Walkout Averted By Last-Minute Proposal

NEW YORK (UPI) — Spokesmen for union technicians and two major television networks met today to head off a strike which could sharply cutback programming for the new fall television season.

The deadline for the strike against the National Broadcasting Co. and the American Broadcasting Co. originally was set for last midnight by the National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians (KNABET), but a last-minute offer by the networks averted the walkout, at least temporarily.

The conferees were resuming their talks in Miami Beach at 9 a.m.

Reports on negotiations were being released by the Union and Networks in New York where a KNABET official said Thursday night the latest offer was "way below" union demands.

Details of the newest offer were not revealed. The Union already has rejected an offer of a $21 weekly wage increase, spread over two years. The KNABET is seeking a $255 maximum, which is $37 above the current top maximum.

VOWS TO HOLD RALLY Priest Arrested In Milwaukee Disorder

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — A forebrand white priest vowed today to hold another open burning rally and "possibly" a march, despite an aborted march Thursday night which sparked arson, rock throwing and mass arrests.

It was the fourth consecutive night of racial strife in Milwaukee.

Well never stop," said the Rev. James E. Groppi, after he was released on $1,000 bond on charges of resisting arrest, disorderly conduct and violation of the mayor's proclamation against nighttime marches.

The 36-year-old priest, who was ordered to appear in court today, said another church rally would be held again tonight. Asked if another march would follow, he answered, "Possibly... possibly."

The rally was planned for 5 p.m. CDT. Father Groppi and 136 others were arrested during the Thursday night march, most for violating the edict of Mayor Henry Maier, who banned demonstrations, marches and picketing between 4 p.m. and 9 a.m. daily.

Twice an officer read aloud the emergency proclamation. But Groppi and his followers, who had progressed only four blocks on their way to city hall, would not break stride. The order to start making arrests was given and Groppi was the first to be seized. He was carried off bodily to a police van.

During the fracas at the intersection of 10th Street and North Avenue in the area where racial rioting erupted early in August, a squad car was set ablaze. More arrests followed when police tried to clear the area.

County Judge Christ T. Seraphim, sitting as magistrate, set bail for Groppi and told him he had persisted in violating the law day after day, week after week. The public has a right to be protected from a repeater.

Some things are more sacred than life. We are going to see the mayor about our constitutional right to demonstrate and demand National Guard protection for that right."

The dispute arose when the two vessels, encountering massive ice floes on their planned route, sought to pass through the Vilkitski Strait between the Siberian mainland and the southern tip of the Russian island of Severnaya Zemlya.

The passage is 22 nautical miles wide and fully overlapped on both sides by the 12-mile territorial waters which the Soviet Union has traditionally claimed.

Japanese Graduate Student Visits Pampa, Gets 'New Idea' of Texas

Pampa has another visitor from a small island this week. A guest in Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Laycock's home, Miss Tomomoe Matsumoto, 24, is living with the Pampa family as an Experiment in International Living.

Miss Matsumoto, a graduate of Hiroshima Jogakuin College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English, plans to do graduate study at the University of Texas, El Paso branch.

She will get her masters degree in English literature while attending the UT college, known as Texas Western, Mrs. Laycock said.

"She is living with us a month to become more familiar with the American way of life and customs in the American home before she goes to school. We will take her to El Paso Sept. 9 for her to register Sept. 11, she said.

After graduation, Miss Matsumoto plans to teach college English in her home, Hiroshima, which has a population of 540,000.

When she first arrived in America at Los Angeles, Calif., she stayed a week with friends of her family before coming to Texas Aug. 7.

"At first I think I should say I was impressed by the vastness of Texas. Japan is so much smaller than Texas and is so jammed with people that when I first saw a vast plain that continued to the horizon, I was actually moved by its size," Miss Matsumoto said.

Since her brief stay in Texas she has experienced a variety of Texas' past-times.

She has "for the first time taken my first long motortrip, visited Texas museums, ridden a horse, milked a cow and gone fishing. I caught two catfish," she said.

Like other Japanese people, she got most of her early impressions of Texas from the Hollywood movie version of the Old West.

"I like movies, and didn't know Texas was so modernized. I expected to be out on a ranch with cowboys and wear 10-gallon hats. I thought life would be like it is in western movies," she said.

Like other visitors to America, she "was impressed by similarities and differences of the two countries. "In Japan, housewives go to the shops and markets daily and buy food for that day. There, each meal is served on a different plate, therefore plates are small," she said.

Comparing Japanese and American homes she said, "here, your homes are quite functional. It is easier for a housewife to do her housework for there are so many electrical appliances—the freezer, the dishwasher, the vacuum cleaner and electric can opener."

Rooms in American homes are bigger than in Japan and are painted more colorfully, she said.

Commenting on American and Japanese manners, she said, it is "impolite and an insult to appear in front of people, while shopping, to go out of the house with hair rollers, or in slacks or shorts."

Comparing casualness of fashions, she mentioned "more colorful clothes, knee knockers, bare feet and canvas shoes. They (Japanese) only use canvas shoes in elementary school or in physical education sports, not just everywhere."

Eastern or Western, Texas or Japanese, women still talk about the same things—their children, clothes, new patterns, materials, colors, stores they shop in, ways to decorate their homes, new recipes, whether or not they slept well, and gossip about their friends," she said.

During her visit this month Miss Matsumoto has toured Central and West Texas, been to Southern Methodist University, Six Flags at Dallas, the Astro-dome in Houston, and seen the Battle ship Texas and NASA (National Aeronautics Space Administration).

Betty Canary Auction Case History

By BETTY CANARY
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

I gave up auctions quite some time ago because it is a fact that each individual can afford only so many human frailties. I decided that moving into old houses was something I simply could not overcome and the family has learned to live with it. But, I made an agreement with Bob that I would give up my one woman old furniture rescue league.

My friend Arlene (another addict) joined with me in fighting my problem and we formed a sort of auctions anonymous. This was a period which brought real happiness.

It was a relief having my home to myself once again. This was a time when there was no more making room for old crockery or that adorable little rocking chair with the rungs gone or the battered chaise that needed just a bit of fixing to be good enough to send off to the Salvation Army store.

But like a not so reformed drinker, I had to attend an auction just to prove to myself that I could take them or leave them. Arlene was weak and she went with me.

And right here I want to take issue with those people who accuse auctioneers of taking advantage of them. You know, the ones who say they scratched an ear and bought a Victorian loveseat. They talk as though they are lambs being led to slaughter. Not this sheep! I bound and leap and beg for the axe.

We agreed we would not bid on anything. After all, this was a test of will power and sales resistance. It didn't work.

Home Makers Club Meets in Skellytown

Skellytown Home Makers Club met recently in the home of Mrs. John Simmons, north of Skellytown for a regular session with the club president, Mrs. Floyd McCoy, residing over a short business meeting.

Members will meet in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Huckins at 1:30 Sept. 5.

Refreshments were served to Meses. Everett Crawford, Gertrude Huckins, W. S. Berry, Ethel Hunt and Floyd McCoy.

DEAR ABBY: Through a club my husband and I belong to, I recently met a handsome, young, unattached man I'll call Randy.

First, let me tell you that I'm 5 feet, 1 inch, weigh 96 pounds, am bow-legged and have no figure to speak of. I am not witty or cute, or anything special. Take my word for it, I'm not being modest.

Anyway, this Randy person always greets me with outstretched arms, a big grin, and a compliment. He has told me I'm sweet, adorable, desirable, and 96 pounds of woman! I know he's feeding me a line, but after being married for 9 years to a man who has never given me a compliment, it's delicious.

When Randy could have any woman at the club—single or married—what in the world does he want with me?

YOUNG AGAIN
 DEAR YOUNG: He may want 96 pounds of (married) woman but I doubt that he wants the ton of trouble that would come with the deal in this case.

DEAR ABBY: Will you settle an argument for us? Do you think women dress to please men or to please other women?

TWO WOMEN
 DEAR WOMEN: Which woman? Some women dress to please men in general. Other women dress to please their boyfriends or husbands, specifically. Still others dress in the latest fashions because they want to be "in." (They please only the merchants.)

The wisest woman of all knows what looks best on HER and she wears it.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow, living on a limited income. A neighbor of mine (and her children) are always asking me to buy tickets, chances, greeting cards, etc.

I simply can't afford to buy things I neither need nor want just to please her, but I am running out of excuses. The last time I refused, she told me I was "unneighborly."

Abby, I feel it is unneighborly of her to keep pestering me and putting me on the spot.

I don't enjoy refusing to buy. It's necessary. What is your opinion?

CAPTIVE CUSTOMER
 DEAR CAPTIVE: When you are asked to buy something you don't need and can't afford, simply say you can't afford it, and that should be the end of it. If you offer "excuses" instead of reasons, you'll continue to be pestered.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAD" SACK IN SAGINAW: No one said it better than Mark Twain. "Grief can take care of itself, but you get the full value of joy, you must have someone to share it with."

Commissioners Allocate Funds

Gray County Commissioners this morning divided the county tax rate of $1.25 per $100 evaluation into funds for various offices and made changes from the previous announced division.

County Judge S. R. Lenning said that only two changes were made in that the Road and Bridge fund went from six cents to ten cents and the Permanent Improvement fund was set down from 17 cents to 13 cents.

The jury fund is two cents, Road and Bridge special is 15 cents and general fund is still 55 cents.

In other business the Commissioners paid salaries and monthly bills and set their next meeting for Sept. 12.

Consumer Credit Code Seminar In Amarillo Soon

A seminar to explain the Consumer Credit Code passed by the 60th Texas Legislature will be held at 2 p.m. on Sept. 13 at Holiday Inn West in Amarillo.

The seminar will be sponsored by the Texas Retail Federation; registration fee is $15 per company.

The Consumer Credit Code establishes regulations over practically all forms of consumer credit and directly affects every merchant who offers retail credit, according to Michael R. Moore, Executive Secretary of the Texas Retail Federation. He said grantors of installment and revolving credit are "particularly affected by the law and should make every effort to learn of the changes that will be required in his operation."

"Most merchants will have to make some changes in the forms they are presently using for credit agreements," Moore said.

"The law establishes limits on the amount that can be charged for revolving or installment credit," Moore said, "and the method for computing these charges."

Additional information and registration materials may be obtained by calling or writing the Texas Retail Federation, 308 West 15th St., Austin, Texas. Registration at the door will be permitted.

NEW PATROLMAN for the Pampa area is Gary Davenport, 1613 E. Buckler. The 23-year-old Davenport is an August graduate of the Department of Public Safety. He replaces Stanley Schneider, who recently resigned from the highway patrol.

Presbyterians In Conference Favor $1.50 Hour Wage

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — The Texas synod of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Thursday approved a motion favoring a minimum 1.50 an hour minimum wage for all day church workers and a resolution that advocated practicing "conscientious disobedience" only as a last resort.

The Rev. David Zacharias of Dallas introduced the minimum wage motion. The motions were passed in the final session of a three-day meeting of the synod, which directs the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. in Texas.

The Rev. James Mahon of Amarillo introduced a resolution calling for church members to take part in public dissent on social issues "as a last resort to practice conscientious disobedience, realizing the serious responsibility placed upon those who disobey and accepting legal consequences."

An amendment was introduced to water down the resolution by inserting the phrase "within the established channels and structures," but the amendment was turned down.

Fischer To Speak On Traffic Laws

Texas' new traffic safety laws will be explained next Tuesday when Joe Fischer, insurance man, addresses a noon meeting of the Pampa Jaycees in First Methodist Church.

Titled "Texas On The Move," the talk describes revisions in the driver licensing law, plans for an expanded driver education program and improvements in the vehicle inspection requirements. Each one of the 5 1/2 million licensed drivers in the state will be affected by these changes.

Fischer will use the latest information compiled by Texans for Traffic Safety, a state-wide coordinating organization dedicated to the prevention of traffic accidents.

Gen. Johnson's assessment came to light after he expressed it in an "off the record" talk to a group of chaplains Monday at Fort Lesley J. McNair on Washington's waterfront.

An account of the talk appeared in a Washington newspaper, the Evening Star, on Thursday.

The Pentagon had no comment on the story. But it was reliably confirmed that the general held such views and had told the chaplains in essence: "That providing no new countries such as Red China enter the war and that it continues in its limited form."

—And that providing steps are taken to keep up the present military "momentum" of U.S. and allied forces.

—Then it is not unreasonable that in a year and a half the back of North Vietnamese and Viet Cong "main force" units in the South could be broken so that they no longer posed a significant threat, and —U.S. withdrawal by stages could then begin. But there could be a continuing problem of local guerrilla insurgency, and final U.S. withdrawal could take many years.

—All this was a cautious assessment rather than a firm prediction.

Wall Street

But G. Keith Funston, retiring president of the New York Stock Exchange, said he doesn't feel the current market activity is comparable to the situation in 1961. Many small investors were hurt that year when electronics stocks and other "glamour issues" took a sharp dive.

Funston said mutual funds and other institutions have been mainly responsible for the big upswing in trading this year.

Paul and Funston all made their views known in letters to Rep. Harley O. Staggers, chairman of the House Commerce Committee. Staggers has been seeking to determine the factors involved in the record activity in the stock market.

The average daily volume on the New York Stock Exchange, for instance, has been 9.9 million shares daily for the first seven months of the year, compared to a 4.1 million daily in 1961.

Los Angeles, Kansas City Go Tonight

By United Press International
 The sudden success of the Washington Redskins and the misfortunes of the Buffalo Bills were a thing of the past today while other professional football teams geared for the final big weekend of tuneup tests.

Washington, winner of three straight exhibition outings, felt the sting of defeat for the first time in exhibition play Thursday night as neighboring Baltimore, led by incomparable Johnny Unitas, beat the Redskins 23-17 in the nation's capital.

Buffalo broke into the win column for the first time as the Bills snapped a four-game losing streak by beating the New York Jets 31-23, in a game played at Mobile, Ala.

Exhibition action continues tonight with the big game taking place on the West Coast where Kansas City of the American Football League tangles with Los Angeles of the NFL in a battle of unbeaten clubs.

Six games are scheduled Saturday and Sunday's slate includes an AFL league opener with Boston at Denver.

Bay area rivals San Francisco and Oakland also tangle Sunday in an NFL-AFL exhibition game.

In other Saturday action New Orleans and Miami play at Charleston, N.C., while Houston is at Dallas and Pittsburgh plays San Diego in a pair of inter-league games.

Cisco Has Bosox Number

By United Press International
 This is the age of the specialist in baseball but Cisco Carlos does seem to be overdoing it a bit.

He specializes in pitching for Chicago against the Boston Red Sox before 35,000 fans until the seventh inning when he's lifted even though he's leading 1-0.

The White Sox then blow the lead but come back to win even though Carlos doesn't get the victory.

It sounds a bit improbable but that's exactly what happened to Carlos—a veteran of seven seasons in the minors who was called up from Indianapolis by the White Sox earlier this month—in his first two major league starts.

Carlos made his first start against the Red Sox last Sunday before 34,580 fans in Chicago and was lifted after going 6 1-3 innings with the White Sox ahead 1-0.

Bob Locker replaced him, gave up the tying run in the eighth but got credit for the victory when the Sox won 2-1 in the ninth.

Thursday night, Carlos started against the Red Sox before 35,138 fans in Fenway Park and didn't even allow a hit for six innings. But he was pulled in the seventh inning while working on a one-hitter and leading 1-0.

DeVicenzo Not Looking for Rain

WOODBRIDGE, Ont. (UPI)—Roberto de Vicenzo isn't practicing what he preaches this week.

De Vicenzo, the easy-going British Open champion from Argentina, usually accuses the American pros of working too hard and playing in too many tournaments.

But De Vicenzo is still entered in the $200,000 Carling World Golf Championship starting today on the par 71, 7,027-yard Toronto Board of Trade Country Club course even though he had a rather exhausting week at the Westchester Classic.

De Vicenzo played six rounds of tournament golf from last Thursday through Wednesday at the Westchester Classic—and had two rounds of 67 washed out.

De Vicenzo, who would have been 18 under par if it hadn't rained (Jack Nicklaus won it with a 16-under-par mark) continued to play well despite the frustration of losing two good rounds and finished third-winning $18,500.

"I like the money but I don't like the work," De Vicenzo grinned.

Rain Still Hampers Amateurs

COLORADO SPRINGS (UPI)—Bob Dickson lost the 1965 U.S. Amateur golf championship because of something extra in his bag. This year, though, the "something-extra" in his bag could mean victory.

Two years ago a 15th club—he used to spark the U.S. to one too many—was placed in Walker Cup triumph over Dickson's bag by mistake and Britain last spring, the lanky when he discovered it, he had to Oklahoma conquered the brutal take a four-stroke penalty which elements and jumped into a led to his one-shot loss to Bob Murphy.

This trip his added equipment includes a pair of soft leather winter golf gloves and a pair of plastic shirt bags dug out of resident pro Dow Finsterwald's garbage can—and they're in his bag. This year, though, the "something-extra" in his bag could mean victory.

This trip his added equipment includes a pair of soft leather winter golf gloves and a pair of plastic shirt bags dug out of resident pro Dow Finsterwald's garbage can—and they're in his bag. This year, though, the "something-extra" in his bag could mean victory.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RESULTS Reds Have Good 'Bench'

By United Press International
 The Cincinnati Reds are dead set on producing the best bench in the National League.

They can already boast the only legitimate one.

That would be 19-year-old rookie catcher Johnny Bench, whom the Reds brought up recently from the minors and who is already proving he doesn't belong where his name implies.

The youngster stroked a clutch double off southpaw Mike McCormick to drive home two runs in the seventh inning Friday night and help the Reds maintain their hold on second place with a 3-1 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

Bench batted .247 at Buffalo with 19 home runs before being brought up to the majors.

Handing pitchers hasn't seemed to bother the youngster either. He called a good game Wednesday night as Milt Pappas and Ted Abernathy combined to beat the Phils and he handled Jim Maloney perfectly Thursday night as the Reds' righthander spun a four-hitter at the Giants.

In other NL action Thursday, league-leading St. Louis beat Houston 5-1, Atlanta edged Los Angeles 5-4, Pittsburgh trimmed Philadelphia 6-4 and Chicago nipped New York 2-1 in 11 innings.

Cepeda Leads Cards
 Orlando Cepeda was the big to hold only one two-hour session for the Cardinals in their season Thursday. But Coach Hayden Fry said all injured players were back in uniform.

Warm weather greeted the 80 A&M candidates who turned out for the first workouts. The Aggies went through two sessions Thursday.

Next to the weather, the best thing about the first day was the good effort we got from everybody," Coach Gene Stallings said.

Seventy-six players turned up for Baylor's workouts, which consisted mostly of limbering up exercises and going over offensive and defensive assignments.

Purple Heart To War Veteran After 50 Years Wait

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (UPI)—Red tape delayed the presentation of the Purple Heart to war veteran Frank S. Wiczorek, by about 50 years.

The 68-year-old former soldier was wounded in a crossfire at Chateau-Thierry in France during World War I. But at the time of his discharge in 1919, Army officials had no record of his being wounded.

A search of the records was begun five months ago at the request of his daughter, Mrs. Ernest M. Morrell. And after a half-century of waiting Wiczorek received the Purple Heart Wednesday.

Foreign News Commentary

By RICHARD C. LONGWORTH
MOSCOW (UPI)—The Russians, losers in many a game of African roulette, are cautiously betting that the federal government will win the Nigerian civil war.

If the bet pays off, it could give Russia a new base for influence in West Africa and indirect control over a source of Western-world oil.

The Nigerian government has bought a number of Soviet MIG jet fighters. Russian technicians are in Nigeria now, assembling and servicing the planes, and training pilots to fly them.

Unconfirmed reports say the government has acquired 15 or 20 MIG15s, plus dozens of technicians.

Radio Ghana has said Soviet pilots will fly the planes, but diplomats here doubt that the Russians would commit men to an African clash after keeping its pilots out of the Mideast and Vietnamese wars.

The Soviet government itself has refused all comment on arms aid to Lagos, but to diplomats here, the aid makes a tangerous kind of sense.

In the past decade, the Soviet Union has had bad luck in West Africa. Mali and Guinea have proved uncertain allies. A promising foothold in the Congo faltered when Patrice Lumumba was killed and the Soviet Embassy closed.

The heaviest blow of all was the 1966 coup that toppled Ghanas Kwame Nkrumah and his pro-Russian government. The coup left the Kremlin without a reliable base of influence in West Africa.

The Nigerian war presents a new chance.

The decision to send the MIGs to Nigeria was sealed last month in a secret visit here by chief Anthony Enahoro.

The Soviet aid so far is small, because Soviet intervention is still in the bet-hedging stage.

But the MIGs are regarded here as a sure sign that the Kremlin believes the federal government will defeat Biafra.

The United States and many African nations are dismayed by this turn of events. It injects the cold war into a new area of African politics and, given the instability of that continent, could provide a mischievous precedent for the future.

STUDENTS HELPED
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Nearly 500,000 students will receive aid from the National Defense Student Loan program during the coming academic year, according to the U.S. Office of Education.

The education office said Wednesday that $189 million had been allocated to 1,701 colleges and universities for operation of the program during fiscal 1968, which began July 1.

REDS SHIPMENTS OFF
LONDON (UPI)—The increased tension between Britain and Communist China has been reflected in a marked drop in Communist Chinese exports to Britain, trade figures showed today. Chinese shipments in July total $4.93 million, about 40 per cent less than the average for each of the first five months of the year.
