

Jones Successful in Revenge Plot as Lobos Whip Oilers

Stymie Retires After Injury At Monmouth

NEW YORK—Stymie, the horse that won $911,335—more money than any other horse in racing history—came to the end of the racing trail today.

The gallant old "Fride of Brooklyn" suffered a fractured scapula in his right forefoot in the Monmouth Park Handicap Saturday, and less than 24 hours later Trainer Hirsch Jacobs said the seven-year-old world's money-winning champion would be retired permanently.

When sufficiently recovered from the injury, Stymie will be sent to the Blue Grass country of Kentucky for breeding.

The powerful chestnut handcap star ran fourth to Bayard Sharp's Tide Rips in the mile and one-quarter mile Monmouth feature.

The crowd, which had backed him down to 70 cents on the dollar in his usual role of favorite, didn't realize they were watching the rugged old campaigner in action for the last time. As usual, Stymie hung back, then began passing horses. But he failed to come up with his characteristic stretch drive.

Jockey Bobby Permaine said "something was definitely wrong" after the race, and Jacobs announced a few minutes later that Stymie had pulled up lame. Yesterday X-rays disclosed the bone injury.

LOBO PARK, Lamesa—After waiting exactly 43 days, Bill Jones and his Lamesa Lobo buddies finally gained their long-awaited revenge from Foster White and the Pampa Oilers when the Lobos whipped the Pampanos 7-3 yesterday afternoon.

If Lesnevich Wins, Louis May Come Out

LONDON—(AP)—Within a few hours now, Light Heavyweight Champion Gus Lesnevich, more than likely will find himself the object of a fistie gold rush in which strong men will get trampled.

All the mild veterans from Cliffside Park, N. J., needs do to win off the sport, is to beat Britain's Freddie Mills tonight at White City and he generally is expected to do that well within the 15-round limit of their 175-pound title bout. The fight is scheduled to start between 2:30 p. m. and 3 p. m. (CST).

From the moment Gus' arm is lifted in victory conceding he fulfills expectations he is certain to become one of the most sought-after pugilists in the record book.

Mike Jacobs, twentieth Century Sporting Club, will want to use Lesnevich as the golden lure to bring Joe Louis out of his recently announced retirement.

The Run Down

Richie Ashburn, speedy Philadelphia outfielder, is caught between third and home in game with Cubs at Wrigley Field, Chicago. Roy Smalley ended attempted double steal by tagging Ashburn while Rube Walker, 8, and third baseman Andy Pafko, 48, stand ready to assist. Umpire Babe Pinelli called the play.

On June 12, Jones made his celebrated debut into the West Texas-New Mexico League after taking a vacation from all baseball responsibilities for almost 1 1/2 months. The youthful pitcher, who had a 2-4 record in 1947, was greeted back into the league by White and the Oilers as the Pampa twirler blanked the Lobos for a 6-0 victory.

Jones made another revenge attempt on June 21, but White again beat the Lamesa ace, this time 11-9.

From the very start of yesterday's contest, it was evident that Jones was "out for blood." He allowed the visitors single centers in the second, fourth, and seventh stanzas and received very capable aid from Chris Haskins.

By the Associated Press Victories were one-sided yesterday in the West Texas-New Mexico League, with league-leading Albuquerque and Abilene piling up the biggest margins.

Albuquerque defeated Berger, 19-2, while Abilene walloped Lubbock, 21-8.

In other games, Lamesa downed Pampa, 7-3, and Amarillo beat Clovis, 17-3.

Abilene scored 11 runs in the first inning to rout Bobby Layne and Fred Pollock. That was more than enough to offset three home runs by Lubbock.

Lamesa broke an eight-game losing streak when it defeated Pampa. The Lobos scored four runs in the first inning to take a lead they kept.

Bob Crues hit his 51st home run of the year to pace Amarillo to easy victory. Home runs by Mel Serafini and Ray Boyer accounted for all of Clovis' tallies.

Albuquerque blasted out 22 hits in running over Berger.

White left his mound position in the sixth. Merl Hubbard assumed the chores and allowed four hits and three runs in the two innings he worked.

Dave Teyema, Oiler leftfielder, accounted for one Oiler tally in the second when he poled one over the left field wall with the bases empty. Teyema led the Oiler stickwork getting two of the Oilers' six hits. Palmer got two out of four tries for Lamesa in the Teyema's percentage for the evening.

The two clubs conclude their three game series tonight at 8:15 when Avon Driggers starts on the mound for the Oilers against Paul Cooke for the Lobos. Driggers will be striving for his 14th triumph of the season. The contest will be aired by KPND beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Wrestler Slaps Teen-Ager As Harrell-Carter Win Bout

Saturday night's Australian Tag Match at the Sportatorium wound up with knots of angry people threatening mayhem and a wrestler being escorted out of town by police.

At the end of the match, a teen-aged spectator became enraged at Henry Harrell, who, with Jack Carter, won the match over the team of Gil Knutson and George Lopez.

The young man was so angry at the decision that he threw a piece of ice that hit Harrell on the chest. Harrell reached through the ropes and lightly slapped the youngster across the face about three times.

With angry crowds blocking the doorway, and several men outside threatening to "fix" Harrell, the wrestler had to be escorted to his car, where his wife and child were waiting, and to the city limits by police officers.

Although a State Wrestling Commission ruling provides a $25 fine against anyone who throws missiles at a wrestler, no charges have been filed in local courts.

US Athletes Are Anxious For Olympics

LONDON—(AP)—The final three days of training before the start of the Olympic games found most United States athletes at their peak today.

"Our fellows are ready right now," said Dean Cromwell, head track coach. "Most of them are a bit impatient."

He called for some time trials and throws for distance today. The squad then will taper off for the pageantry of Thursday afternoon when 5,000 athletes of 61 nations take part in the opening ceremonies at Wembley Stadium. Competition begins Friday morning.

King George will proclaim the year of the games. There'll be a fanfare of trumpets, thousands of pigeons will be released and a British runner—last of the hundreds who carried the torch from Greece—will enter the stadium and light the Olympic flame. The first Olympic games since 1936 will be underway.

For two weeks the greatest gathering of world athletes of our time will compete in 17 separate fields of activity for international honors.

Mrs. Charles E. and daughters, Phyllis and LaVerne, are visiting in Clovis, N. M., this week.

Industrial League Game Omitted in Sunday Schedule

Sox Climax Surge; Assume Lead in AL

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe McCarthy's blazing Boston Red Sox were riding high on the American League today after achieving a baseball feat almost equal to that of the Boston Braves' wonder team of 1914.

The Red Sox yesterday climaxed a sensational seven-week surge from a dismal seventh to first place—giving Boston teams the leadership in both major leagues.

The Sox wrested the No. 1 berth from the Philadelphia Athletics by defeating the Cleveland Indians, 3-0. Meanwhile, the Athletics divided a doubleheader with the Detroit Tigers.

Fred Hutchinson eased the A's out of the lead by pitching the Tigers to a second game 10-2 victory over Philadelphia and a split in their doubleheader. Joe Coleman had blanked the Tigers, 4-0, in the opener.

Joe DiMaggio cracked out two home runs, a double and three singles in seven times at bat to lead the New York Yankees to a double triumph over the Chicago White Sox 5-3 and 7-3.

Washington and the St. Louis Browns divided a doubleheader, the Senators winning the first game 5-1, and the Browns taking the second, 6-4 in 11 innings.

The pace-setting Boston Braves reined their five-game margin in the National League by gaining a split in their twin bill with the Cardinals in St. Louis. The Cards had come from behind with two runs in the bottom of the ninth to win the opener 6-5. They also led 6-4 after eight innings of the nightcap, but ninth inning home runs by Bob Elliott and Jeff Heath, the former with two on, gave the Braves an 8-6 victory.

Danny Murtaugh's grand slam home run in the eighth inning gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 7-4 second game victory and a split in their doubleheader with the second place Brooklyn Dodgers. The Braves won the opener 6-5. Cincinnati slugged out a pair

Pro's Still Dominating Golf Match

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Professionals continued their domination of the Texas cup matches here yesterday with a 14 1-2 to 11 1-2 victory over the state's top amateur golfers.

The amateur squad, captained by Felix McKnight of Dallas, had jumped into a one-point lead Saturday in doubles play.

Capt. Byron Nelson led his pro squad to ten victories in 16 singles matches yesterday to sew up the victory.

Nelson was five under par in defeating Earl Stewart of Longview, 6-5, in the top singles match.

The Chicago Cubs spotted the New York Giants a 3-0 lead then came from behind to defeat Leo Durocher's men 6-3.

Texas Girl Wins Fame As Designer of Dresses

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"This garment is designed by America's youngest producing designer," says a small tag attached to each of 13-year-old Marion Buckley's retail dresses.

The blonde, Amarillo, Texas, girl has been designing clothing since she was ten, and for over a year has been creating her own retail line of "Buckley Juniors."

She recently arrived in Los Angeles, accompanied by her mother, on her first buying trip. "I like it so much already," she said in an interview, "that I want to come back, when I'm older, and start my own manufacturing business."

During her stay, the junior high school miss will select fabrics, buttons, trims, slide fasteners and other paraphernalia used in the making of women's apparel.

In the past she has drawn on the supplies of her mother, Mrs. Thekla L. Buckley, a designer and manufacturer herself.

As her mother tells it, Marion began making clothes at the age of 10, while the family was on vacation.

"She needed a party dress," Mrs. Buckley said, "so she made a sketch of what she wanted, took the family scissors and cut a skirt and bolero jacket."

From that time on, Marion has made her own clothing. She showed such talent that her mother decided to turn it to profit. On her twelfth birthday, Marion's first group of creations was offered to retailers. Since then she has made 29 successful commercial designs.

On one occasion, Marion's judgment proved better than her mother's. She had made a tailored dress that Mrs. Buckley thought too severe. When Marion insisted it was good, it was put on sale. It did so well that it was held over for the next season.

Marion favors no particular types. "I like making sports clothes, party dresses, street dresses and tailored suits equally well," she says.

Her designs range in price from $29.95 to $80. The more youthful size 16s can be worn by 13-year-olds and up. The sophisticated models by college girls and older. Even grandmothers can wear the tailored models, she said.

To make it completely a family affair, her father, Mr. F. B. Buckley, is salesman for Marion's and Mrs. Buckley's designs.

Mr. Hatcher is a graduate of Pampa High School and served in the Navy four years. He is now associated with his father as a building contractor in Pampa.

Lyndelle Smith Is Betrothed to Floyd M. Hatcher

Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hatcher of Abilene, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lyndelle, to Floyd M. Hatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson A. Hatcher, 210 North Gillespie, Pampa.

The couple will be married at 6:45 p.m. Sept. 2 in the Southside Baptist Church of Abilene. The Rev. W. C. Ashford, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Douglas Carver of Pampa, will read the double-ring ceremony.

Attendants will be Billy Jean Smith, sister of the bride-elect, maid of honor; Mrs. H. C. Hale of Sweetwater, matron of honor; Martha Fonville, Etta Seright of Pampa, and Betty Gay Smith, sister of the bride-elect, bridesmaids; Charlie Hatcher, brother of the bridegroom-to-be, best man; and Bob Rose, Tommy Solomon, and Raymond Baxter of Pampa, Bob Erwin, Kenneth Jones and Charles Hufstader of Abilene, ushers. Claudia Jo Kenner will be flower girl and Jamie Veale will be ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride-elect.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Abilene High School and Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene. She taught in the Ovalo High School and for the past year has been a teacher in Pampa High School.

History Being Made in Europe

While attention in this country has been centered on domestic politics, history-making events are occurring in Europe. In Berlin the cold war has reached fantastic proportions attempting to starve out the British and American zone by blockading land routes into that city, while the latter seek to circumvent the Russians by establishing what is probably the world's greatest and most costly air freight system.

If the Western sector of Berlin and its nearly two million inhabitants is to survive without Russian supplies, a minimum of 6,000 tons of food and other necessities must be shipped in by air each day.

Two thousand tons of coal alone are needed at an estimated delivery cost of sixty dollars a ton. The aim of the Western powers is to get 400 cargo planes in operation.

In another sector of Europe, Yugoslavia's rebellion against Moscow and the new Communist empire is not all harmonious. Yugoslavia, under the leadership of Marshal Tito, is showing signs of a desire to free itself from the grip of Russian dictatorship, and turn to the West for economic aid.

It is too soon to get overly optimistic, but at least the myth of Kremlin infallibility is punctured. The people of Eastern Europe are growing increasingly restive. The inherent weaknesses of the slave state are beginning to appear in the Russian satellite countries just as they appeared in nations compelled to live under the Nazi terror. The feeling is growing that Russia will have her hands too full in Eastern Europe to make serious trouble elsewhere for some time to come.

'BOYS' LOSE INFLUENCE by Peter Edson

PHILADELPHIA (NEA)—If any doubts remain about times having changed, a look at the role of the labor unions in major party political conventions here in Philadelphia should remove the uncertainty.

At the Chicago conventions in 1944, union leaders threw their weight around considerably. Even the Republican convention welcomed such labor leaders as cared to show up and represent the voters who were producing the weapons to win the war. So the GOP platform of 1944 condemned arbitrary wage freezing by government agencies, the emancipation of the Department of Labor and the prevention of the Wagner Act by the wicked New Dealers.

At the Democratic convention four years ago, Phil Murray and the late Sidney Hillman of CIO Political Action Committee held court in the penthouse of a loop hotel.

They took their first beatings in 12 years at that convention. Their political fortunes have been going down ever since. LOST ITS OOMPH

Fair Enough.... by Westbrook Pegler

PHILADELPHIA—Having entertained national conventions of the Republicans, the Elks and the Democrats in that order, Philadelphia was apathetic toward the rites of a queer organization calling itself the New Party, held for the purpose of ratifying the nominations of Henry Wallace and Glen Taylor. This was no worse than fair because it was understood by all concerned that this was not a serious convention of a legitimate party but strictly an occasion for Communist propaganda.

It was to be a ratification gala rather than a nominating convention because Wallace and Taylor already had become the candidates in many speeches hither and yon across the country and had collected an enormous kitty by the methods which the late Billy Sunday practiced so well in his day.

The New Party, which was to be called the Progressive Party, was actually the Communist Party of 1948 with an uncertain fringe of political neophytes, privateers and renegades from the Democratic household. Old Doc Townsend, the tireless advocate of lavish old-age pensions for senior citizens, was the one who sighted lurking around the smelting room of the New Party's Platform Committee. Doctor Townsend, an ancient M. D., first turned up in the first term of Franklin D. with a formula so palatable, however absurd that he had to know where he was at, as he was the revolving hero of an enormous political whirlwind. It lifted him high, flung him into the 1926 convention of the wild men of that year of frenzy and eventually dumped him somewhere. He had not been heard of in years when he bobbed up again in Philadelphia claiming to have 50,000,000 votes in his pocket and willing to pledge them for a platform plank.

Except in the fact that it was a world chorus of rubber money and brought together most of the parasites from the European compounds of the city of New York, this one had little in common with the convulse of the nuts and bolts in Cleveland in 1936. That year a boil of rancors and yearnings drew into one excited mass for almost a week such opposite rivals as the Rev. Charles Coughlin, the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, Doctor Townsend and a world chorus of rubber money and serial killer fatness. The stars of the orgy, the Revs. Coughlin and Smith, waved all religious differences for the week and a hell of a time was had by all. Since then both of them have been absent from the city. Many were present then in Cleveland, and the priest has subsided and hasn't been heard from since the early forties.

The Rev. Gerald still trowels and electrical equipment, coal companies, natural gas companies, distilleries and many others. Even candy and chocolate factories were seized.

It is too soon to get overly optimistic, but at least the myth of Kremlin infallibility is punctured. The people of Eastern Europe are growing increasingly restive. The inherent weaknesses of the slave state are beginning to appear in the Russian satellite countries just as they appeared in nations compelled to live under the Nazi terror. The feeling is growing that Russia will have her hands too full in Eastern Europe to make serious trouble elsewhere for some time to come.

Common Ground by R. C. HOLLES

Here are further quotations from John W. Burgess' book "Recent Changes in American Constitutional Theory."

Under the chapter "Constitutional development or Transformation During the Period of 1914-1915" he makes the following observations: "Such were not only the tendencies, but actual advances, towards governmental autocracy at the opening of the year 1914. I say autocracy, let it be remembered, because, as I read political science and constitutional law, any government, no matter how chosen and constituted, is autocratic when there is no regular, legally organized authority back of it, which vests it with powers and limits it in behalf of individual liberty, and an elective government is little, if any, less dangerous than any other in this respect, and its autocracy is generally more vulgar and brutal."

"During that period of the Great War while we were neutral, that is down to April 1917, we maintained the force of our constitutional immunities, though somewhat impaired in their original strength by the sixteenth Amendment, but not the spirit of them. Ignorance, intolerance, anger, and hate were rapidly and increasingly manifesting themselves among our own people. Social ostracism and even business boycott were practiced against those of our citizens who wished to have the country take no belligerent part in the great struggle, and the title of Pdfist had become a reproach."

Cozy, What?

THE TRUE LIBERAL PARTY

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER
WASHINGTON — As the battle over which party is responsible for inflation opens on Capitol Hill today, Republican politico-economists plan to pin the blame on two New Dealish agencies composed of men appointed by ex-President Roosevelt and President Truman. These bodies face the supposedly non-political Federal Trade Commission and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Recent prosecutions and decisions by the FTC and the high tribunal, according to the GOP argument, have forced the manufacturers who voted for Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944 because of the opposition that recent and prospective increases in prices and wages stem directly from the anti-business complex of these Roosevelt-Truman groups.

PHILOSOPHY — The basis of the new Republican indictment, of course, is the FTC's decision in the famous "cement trust" case. Under that ukase, the industry's system for equalizing and stabilizing prices by absorbing a certain amount of freight rates was outlawed.

Conscription Means Unlimited Government
"Now the power in a government to conscript its citizens or subjects into its military service upon an occasion which it may, of its own motion, at any time, invent and perpetuate amounts to a power to hold the people of the country under a permanent military law, that is, to hold them under a law which is not limited by any constitutional limitations protective of the individual against governmental power, namely, the law governing the army, into which they may all be conscripted, which law Congress is authorized by the Constitution itself to construct and ordain without any limitations whatsoever."

FUNNY BUSINESS BY HERSHBERGER

"Do you mind? My waiter's a little slow!"

Shamrock

SHAMROCK (Special) — Large crowds are attending revival meeting at the Missionary Baptist Church.

The revival opened Sunday and services are being held daily at 8 p. m. and 3 p. m. by the Rev. L. J. Crawford, pastor of the church. Buck Lancaster of Wellington is conducting song services for the meeting accompanied by his wife. The revival will continue through this week and perhaps longer.

A number of young people and sponsors from the First Christian Church of Shamrock attended the opening week of the Julian Elvins Christian Camp, July 11 to 17.

Those who attended were: the Rev. and Mrs. Bedford W. Smith, Mrs. Carville Jones, Bedford David Smith, Joyce Tipps, Emma Crocker, Betty Tinsley, Wynema Hurt, Virginia Parks, Carolyn Kay Smith, Sherry Self, Bill Morris, Andrew Carver, E. D. Harrington, Jr., Rodney Sutterfield, Sanford Jett, James Conner, Peggy Loving, Teddy Loving and Rose Johnson.

Six of the Panhandle Christian Churches were represented at the camp. The two smallest of the six, Clarendon and Shamrock, had the largest number of men present, with 19 and 16, respectively.

The Shamrock Green Sox capitalized on errors to defeat the Briscoe club, 10-9, here a week ago in 11 innings.

The hard-fought game was a pitcher's contest. Ted O'Grady pitched seven innings for J. D. Cook of Shamrock and Cooper of Briscoe.

In a non-league game here a week ago the Sox bowed to the Wellington nukes for the second time this year. The count was 16 to 10 in the slug-fest, the Sox bunting too many errors to place them in the win column.

Edna Charlene, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oather Dale of Kelton, died Monday at the Wheeler Hospital, of burns the President for decisions by bodies over which he has no control, and by a man whom nobody can divine or control. But inasmuch as he has sidestepped the Dewey-Warren ticket for the alibi of misbehavior of the 80th Congress, the opposition figures that he hit the first blow below the belt.

That is the no-holds-barred kind of campaign it is going to be.

COMFORT — President Truman's political sides draw comfort from the fact that no nation known to Birmingham clasp of states rights rebels. They have concluded that this means the revolt will pour out save for Mississippi and Alabama. Senator Hatch, White House political spokesman, waiting around for a federal judge, has said that only those two commonwealths will break away next November.

But the more eminent Dixie explanation, Veterans Democrats men on Capitol Hill advance another do not want to rebel too openly for fear of the effect it may have on the rank-and-file voters, who still harbor a lingering loyalty and affection for the old party. But their silence now does work against that they will not work against, and perhaps speak against the Truman-Barkley candidacy.

Silence alone will be sufficient. If such illustrious Democrats as Byrd of Virginia, Hoyer of North Carolina, George and Russell of Georgia, and Hill of Alabama stay off the stump, President Truman faces hard times in their ballroom. And this does not take into consideration the side-by-side mouth advice which they may pass on to their lieutenants before Election Day.

REPUDIATED — President Truman has never repudiated that document or philosophy, even though it was promulgated by Mr. Wallace when he was a supposed responsible member of the official family. It may be unfair to castigate sustained Saturday at her home three miles east of Kelton. Friends of the family said the girl's clothing caught fire while she and her playmate were playing "cowboy."

Funeral services were held at the Kelton Methodist Church at 2 p. m. Wednesday with Rev. Homer E. Long, Shamrock circuit pastor, in charge.

Interment was in the Kelton Cemetery with Kirk-Mason Funeral Home, Wheeler in charge. Edna Charlene was born in Wheeler, March 3, 1945.

Survivors are: the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oather Dale, one brother, Londell, two sisters, Gayla and Donna, all of Kelton; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dale, also of Kelton; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bass of Texola, Okla.

The Texas Highway Department accepted from the contractors the new Highway 66 construction job through Shamrock and the road was opened Friday.

The new road extends from the east city limits to the Gray County line.

The 70-foot concrete slab divides into two strips in the rural area, separated by 40 feet of land. The only part of the road which has not been completed is the widening of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway underpass in the west edge of Shamrock. The contract for this project has not been let.

Wednesday's weather was good and bad. At 2:15 p. m. the temperature jumped to 108 degrees. At 9:30 p. m. a shower, measuring .14 of an inch, fell.

The fall brought the total since last Thursday to .51 of an inch, and for the year to 11.84 inches. Weatherman Burl Golson's figures show that July has been a hot month. The mercury has risen 10, or above, the 100-degree mark nine out of 21 July days.

Fire of unknown origin, about 9:30 p. m. damaged the home of Mrs. W. N. Pharis in Lela during the thunderstorm Wednesday.

All furniture in the living room was destroyed, and the inside of the house and attic was damaged by fire, smoke and water.

An average of 128 1-2 motor vehicles per hour or 3,084 per day travel U. S. Highway 66 in the Shamrock area, according to a survey made by the Texas Highway Department recently.

With the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, the highway department set up an automatic counter east of Shamrock.

Between June 27 and July 3, motor vehicles passed along the route. The heaviest traffic was on Saturday and the lightest on Wednesday.

The count shows that traffic takes a definite uptrend between 7 and 8 a. m. and begins to slacken between 8 and 9 p. m. The heaviest hour is between 4 and 4 p. m. and the lightest period is between 3 and 4 a. m.

SO THEY SAY

There is a growing tendency in America for special groups to get together to form a national good and ask government for subsidy support or special protection rather than for laws which increase competitive opportunity.

Leverett S. Lyon, chief executive officer, Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry.

To have accepted the Soviet insistence that Berlin currency is under their sole control would have been an abandonment of our rights in Berlin.

Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary.

There was an exchange of nods. A woman separated herself from the others and came over to him.

"Well, Marcus, darling, so you did finally get here," she said.

"If I supposed to?"

"If I've got anything on the ball when it comes to having my way, you were. Where's Miriam?"

"At home decently asleep."

"But why waste the superfluous adverb? So she didn't jell."

"Jell? Was Miriam supposed to jell?"

"To my little scheme to have you out here tonight? But of course! If I can't have you alone then I'll have to take you with Miriam. Don't tell me Miriam didn't even pass along my invitation! But of course she did. You said yes. She said no. Big fuss. You said you'd come alone and here you are, even if you couldn't make it until 1 o'clock."

"Sorry, Janet, but this is the first I've heard about it."

Janet Weirhaven's normally wide hazel eyes widened even more. "That little... excuse me, darling, but we won't call names." She glanced around. The three couples who had made up the rest of her party had gone on a short distance and were waiting. She dug fingers into Sterling's arm.

"Wait, Marcus, until I send that message to the boys."

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling owes Harry Bladie gambling debt of $10,000. He cannot pay. His wealthy wife, Miriam, has a plan. She comes home late after dodging Bladie all day. Miriam is out. Bladie phones that he will be over at 11 to collect. Marcus is wearing her fabulous diamond necklace. In order to get her out of the house, Miriam is asleep. Marcus gives her a dose of druggery. Kept up, she speaks cruelly to her room. At 11 on the dot, Bladie shows up. He demands the money under threat. Marcus, cornered, gets an idea. He goes up to his wife's room. Miriam is asleep. Marcus takes her diamond necklace from a wall safe. To make it look like a burglary, he seals a sealed package, then seatters the package. Bladie accepts the necklace as security. Marcus is to pay up Saturday. After Bladie leaves, Marcus sets the stage for robbery. A disconnected electric clock, set ahead to 1:00, will mark the time. Satisfied, Marcus calls for a cab to go to his club.

THE bartender was mixing Sterling's order. "Don't mind if we dash off our drinks," Shaw said. "We're turning in. Golf bright and early tomorrow." He looked at his watch, turned quickly to Crabbfield. "Hey, Pete, we'll have less than seven hours' sleep. It's almost 1 o'clock."

Sterling said, "If it isn't going to be a serious match, I'd like to join you."

"Staying out here tonight?" Shaw asked.

"Yes. Just came out, hoping I'd find a morning game. I'm rusty and need practice. But don't let me spoil your match."

BUILDING NEWS

Intelligent Planning Can Make Ugly Cellars Useful

Intelligent planning plus a small outlay can transform the cellar, usually the ugly duckling of the home, into the most popular and useful section of the house.
Until the 1930's, the space "down under" was often a hodgepodge of heating equipment, storage bins and naked pipes. The coming of radio and television and increased output of attractive, economical floor and wall coverings changed it from a necessary nuisance into a real asset.
Quality building materials in bright colors can now be used to dispel gloom in basements having small windows and little natural light. Most are in full color production after wartime lapses. For instance, ceramic tile, ideal for walls and floors in the converted cellar, is manufactured in about 100 colors.

There are as many uses for cellar space as there are home owners' ideas for them. In crowded postwar houses, a second living room can be formed by partitioning furnace and storage bins from the rest of the basement. Other uses are rummup rooms, game rooms, hobby rooms and even libraries now that waterproof floor and wall materials in many colors are available.
Materials such as real tile are ideal for basement rooms serving double purposes. Their good looks qualify them for party room or music room walls and floors, and their rugged, waterproof characteristics suit them for laundry or workshop separated from the more formal section by a plywood or plastic panel.

The cellar utility room, combining playroom, laundry, workshop, photo lab or even an extra shower room, is growing in popularity. This was indicated recently by a survey conducted at the New York Home Show by the Tile Council of America. Ten percent of 600 show visitors polled said they were planning utility rooms for their homes.

Fire Hazard Lessened by Insulation

Altho the average frame house is, due to its construction, a fire hazard, it can be made almost as safe as one constructed of brick or stone thru the scientific installation of rock wool insulation in the side walls and ceiling, says Earl D. Collier, of the Ladoo Insulation Co.
"The hollow walls of the usual frame house act as flues or chimneys," said Mr. Collier, "and once a fire is started it sweeps thru these flues with startling rapidity. Unless the fire is checked almost as soon as it starts, the whole house may be destroyed before fire-fighting apparatus can reach it."

"On the other hand, if rock wool is installed in the hollow wall spaces of an existing frame house, these flue-like spaces are closed with a barrier of fireproof material that smotherers the flames. Because rock wool is mineral in composition it is absolutely fireproof and is thus the ideal material to choose for insulating a ready constructed home whether they are of clapboard, stucco, brick veneer, or stone.

"Rock wool insulation also helps make the home fire safe in that it lessens the possibility of the house catching fire from overheated flues. With adequate insulation, furnace forcing, one of the common causes of residential fires, becomes unnecessary."
Fire safety is only one of the many benefits of rock wool home winter fuel economy and added property values are other important advantages to be gained from the insulation of a house with rock wool.

More Window Space Used By Builders

Windows are an integral part of the house, both structurally and architecturally. The preference today is for a vastly greater amount of window area; with location, number, size and type being determined by design of the house.

The most common window is double-hung, in which upper and lower sections slide up and down. Movement is controlled by springs, gears, ratchets or other mechanical counter-balances which are rapidly taking the place of the old-style weights attached to a rope of chain moving over a pulley in the casing.
Casement windows, widely used in period-style houses, are usually hinged at the side and swing in or out. A relatively new window treatment is the projected type which horizontal sections are pivoted on center axis for opening. This type and casements provide 100 percent ventilation when open. A double-hung window is only 50 percent effective because only one-half the total window area can be opened.

Fixed windows with no provision for opening are generally used where a broad unobstructed view is desired, and for this reason are called picture windows. Their use is growing every day.

The many recent improvements in the glass-making art include the development of nonbreakable panes, numerous kinds of glass block, and a window pane that seals dead air between two sheets of glass, thus eliminating the need for storm sash.
Many new homes use opaque glass to admit a maximum amount of light yet still afford privacy. This is especially useful on sides of a home having an unattractive outside view, or where the home is close to a neighboring house. Glass block is often used to erect large fixed light-walls which are decorative, smart and modern.
Another effective window treatment for a home in a wooded or garden setting is to build an entire wall of transparent glass. This literally brings the outdoors indoors. Small rooms can be made to seem much larger by placing two windows at right angles in a corner.

Permits Issued Friday for 3 New Buildings

Three building permits were issued Friday from the City Engineer's office for three buildings, each at an estimated cost of more than $10,000.

A five room frame residence will be constructed at 1224 Mary Ellen. Owned by V. S. Kenney, the $13,500 house will be 46 by 40 feet in dimensions. The Panhandle Lumber Company will be the contractor for the work.
A $11,000 40 by 60-foot frame business building will be erected at 202 E. Brown. The owners, H. C. Graham and Doyle Osborne, also will hire the Panhandle Lumber Company as contractor.
The Beacon Supply plans to build a $15,000 brick office and store at 734 S. Cuyler. The building will be 40 by 70 feet.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA (P)—Henry Wallace's Progressive Party will go down in political history for at least one thing—it has learned the secret of the American treasury.

This secret is that a lot of little people can fork over more dough than a few big people.
The money that one reluctant millionaire will disgorge in a moment of private appeal for the salvation of the Democratic or Republican Party is strictly limited.

But when Hank Wallace's fundraiser hits the platform in front of 30,000 or more cheering partisans the pocketbook appeal is unlimited.
The Progressive Party calls out the dollars from the common people on a program that offers the hope of pie here and now.

By tapping the wallet of the ordinary man Henry Wallace has caught up with the treasury— which long has known that the working man can pay more than the multi-millionaire. There just happen to be a sight more working men in the world than there are multi-millionaires.
Wallace himself has no direct connection, physically, with such considerations. He doesn't appear on the platform until the gilt and the gelt has been collected and delivered.

Then he comes out and talks about issues instead of dollars. He said nothing about the $30,000 including the federal amusement tax, which his supporters paid to hear him in Shibe Park Saturday night.

He said nothing, as he stood on a boxing platform behind second base while a golden moon rose over the right field fence, about the $50,000 the crowd had pledged for the purchase of radio time before he arrived.
He just shook the famous forelock out of his eyes, threw his head back for the cheers in a manner reminiscent but unequal to Franklin D. Roosevelt, and pitched again and again verbally for the century of the common man.

He talked of peace and plenty, conciliation of Russia, and banged the Wall Street scoundrels off the backboard.
But politicians always have talked of peace and plenty and hit the sawdust trail of accusation against Wall Street.

What they will be amazed at Wallace for this—that he got thousands of voters to pay money to hear him make an election speech.
Bureau Predicts Sharp Price Drop—If—
NEW YORK (P)—When prices do start down, the decline probably will be a sharp one, the National Bureau of Economic Research said today.

The observation is contained in a study of postwar prices made by the bureau.
The Trumpeter Swan, weighing about 35 pounds, is the largest flying bird.

PHILIPPINE SUGAR DOUBLED
MANILA, (P)—Philippine sugar production in 48-49 was officially estimated today at 650,000 short tons.
The amount available for export will be around 510,000 tons, more than double that of last year.

There were no accidents, or car mishaps during the race—leading officials to express gratification at the plans that had been laid beforehand.

radio addresses, made his position clear as he bowed out of the race.
"The people of Texas are capable of making up their own minds," he said solemnly, "how to vote in the second primary."
He said in a statement at Houston, "I shall not publicly announce my position or do anything that could be construed as an effort to influence the votes of the free, independent Texas citizens who honored me with their confidence and support."
It was not certain when Stevenson and Johnson were ready to square off to fight over Peddy's votes. Both said they were going to Washington first to attend the special session of Congress.
Johnson, Congressional representative from the 100th district, flew to the capital to sit in at the session. Stevenson said he would go sometime during the special session as an observer.
The congressman said he would return to Texas as soon as possible to renew the fight.
The young, energetic 39-year-old politician said when he got to Washington he would "find out what the President wants us to do, then I'll say how I stand," he told a reporter.
Stevenson went back to his ranch near Telegraph, Tex. More voters went to the polls
