

THREE RUNOFFS LOOM IN COUNTY RACES

Local Running Soap Box Derby Today Constable Pct. 2 Still Undecided

Race Starts 1:30 on Old Miami Highway

This is D-Day. D-Day, that is, for 56 boys from 11 to 15 years of age, who have their sights set on a free trip to Akron, Ohio, next month for the finals of the All-American Soap Box Derby.

The participants in this, the sixth, Pampa running of the "greatest amateur racing event in the world" got their "feel" of the "Derby Downs" yesterday afternoon when each boy was given a test run down the hill north of Pampa on the Old Miami Highway.

Gill Defeats Hubbard in Close Contest

MIAMI (Special) — The most spirited race at the Democratic Primary in Roberts County yesterday was between Evelyn Gill and Ruth Hubbard running for county treasurer. For some time the contestants ran "neck and neck" and it seemed as if it might be anybody's victory.

In the final tabulation for Roberts County, Gill defeated Hubbard 249 to 157. The election was one of the largest ever to be held in Roberts County. Three-hundred-eighty-six votes out of an eligible 410 were cast in Miami and Green Lake. At press time all county votes had been tabulated except about 50 eligible votes in three minor precincts.

The high vote was attributed to the fine weather. Nearly everyone in the county was at Miami last night awaiting election returns.

County votes included 170 for J. E. McDonald and 73 for James D. Griffin for commissioner of agriculture. For the associate justice of Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District of Texas, Ernest O. Northcutt received 102 votes as compared with 154 for James G. Lumpkin.

For county commissioner, Precinct No. 1 of Roberts County, W. G. Ehmman got 237 votes, and W. E. O'Loughlin received 121 votes. W. H. Carr got 352 votes for sheriff, tax assessor and collector as compared to Everett T. Hodges' 57 votes.

Unopposed, M. M. Craig, Jr. received 335 votes for county and district clerk. The Roberts County judge race left Woody Pond with 308 votes as compared with J. A. Mead's 106.

For state representative of the 124th Legislative District of Texas, William J. Craig of Roberts County received 335 votes, Paul Tiny Teague, 10, and John H. White, 9. In the race for United States senator, Stevenson received 279 votes, Peady, 28, and Johnson, 25. In the gubernatorial race, the top three men were Jester with 296 votes, Evans with 18 and March with 14. Shivers got 229 votes for lieutenant governor while Walker got only 27 votes.

For chief justice of the Supreme Court, Hickman got 176 to Rowland's 145. For associate justice of the Supreme Court (place 2) Hart received 213 votes and Rawlins, 104.

Jarges got 188 votes for state treasurer while Lloyd got 59.

Stevenson, Johnson In Senate Runoff; Jester Is Winner

By The Associated Press
Coke R. Stevenson who campaigned in a friendly, hand-shaking walk, ran the fastest in Texas' U. S. Senate campaign. Lyndon Johnson's vote totals in the first Democratic Primary climbed apace, and a runoff between the two men in the second primary, Aug. 23, seemed assured.

Judge's Race Develops in Hemphill

CANADIAN (Special) — A hotly contested write-in campaign developed this past week in the race for county judge of Hemphill County.

According to unofficial reports, announcements of the incumbent, H. M. Wood, attempted to raise an old tax-paying issue as the subject of a smear campaign. Friends of Wood were able to successfully refute the charges, which took some of the wind out of the campaign, informants said last night.

Nevertheless, F. A. Blue received 436 write-in votes against Wood's 870.

Another write-in campaign developed late in the race for county commissioner, Precinct 2, in which supporters of Bertram Lambert wrote his name on 46 ballots. R. H. Williams took the race, however, with 56.

These unofficial figures from Hemphill County represent 12 of the 13 voting precincts. The unreported box contains about 20 votes, which, according to other votes, would hardly be enough to materially change the results.

One of the races in which considerable instantaneous interest was shown, was the race for associate justice of the Supreme Court.

20 Calves Donated for Show's New Event—4-H Calf Scramble

Ranchers, farmers and businessmen of Pampa and the Top of Texas area have donated 20 calves to be used at calf scrambles in the fourth annual Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show, W. E. Price, president of the rodeo association said yesterday.

Five calves will be given away at each night's performance of the rodeo to the lucky 4-H Club boys who are able to catch and put halters on them.

The committee rules and regulations set up by the committee are: Members of 4-H Clubs of Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donnell and Collingsworth counties and all counties of the Texas Panhandle north of these counties are eligible to compete.

Application must be made on entry blanks furnished by the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association and must be approved by the county agent of the county where the boy is enrolled, and minor release must be signed by parent or guardian.

Boys will compete in age groups 10 to 11 and 12 to 14, inclusive, on the following nights: Aug. 10-11, Aug. 12-14, Aug. 15-16, Aug. 17-18, 19-20, 21-22, 23-24, 25-26, 27-28, 29-30, 31-1.

Contestants will pay regular admission to the rodeo. Boys who do not win a calf in the first scramble are eligible to compete in the second scramble within their age group. A minimum of four calves will be turned loose each night.

In order to win a calf the contestant must catch the animal with his hands and put on a halter that he must provide.

No other boy can interfere with another boy while he has his hands on a calf. If it is determined by judges that two or more boys catch a calf at the same time, the calf will be turned loose. If the calf is not placed on the calf within two minutes after the calf is caught, the animal will again be turned loose.

Winners must care for and feed the animals to the best of their ability and enter the calves in a show to be held in connection with next year's Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show.

Entries should be mailed to Calf Scramble, Box 1942, Pampa. Entries must be in the hands of the committee by 12 noon Wednesday, Aug. 4.

Jester to Attend Rodeo and Show

Governor Beauford A. Jester, above, will attend the fourth annual Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show's evening performance of Friday, Aug. 6, Joe F. Key, president of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, announced yesterday.

The Governor will ride a white horse in the Grand Entry this evening. The subject of a short talk the Governor will deliver is not yet known, Key said.

SPEAKER COMES TO DEFENSE OF RIGHT TO MAKE PROFIT

"It's time for us to defend the right to make a profit."

That was the challenging assertion of Finney Vineyard, operator of Sunshine Dairy Foods, when he appeared as guest speaker before the Kiwanis Club at the First Methodist Church Luncheon Room Friday.

Vineyard said he was awakened to "the threat to our democracy" a few months ago, when he saw written on the block of a new automobile a vulgar name attached to the company that made the car.

He said that when men who gain their living from making such machines and feel that way about capitalism, or management, it is time for the entire country to stand where it stands.

He told the club he was not making an anti-labor speech that "labor is right in lots and lots of cases, and as capital, we have some house-cleaning at home to do."

Nothing that he thought to be some of the threats of democracy he saw in the top of Texas argue the day when taxes would take 50 cents of Americans' dollars.

He raved the "power of one man, John L. Lewis," who, he said he had been told by a senator who knew, called the recent coal strike to reduce the above-ground supply of coal to two weeks.

He rapped at the government philosophy of writing into law a provision for a smaller work week.

He said the country is not nationalistic by virtue of the fact that a segment of commerce, like transportation, can strike and tie up many segments of the economy.

To solve these matters of tie-up, he explained, many citizens have been heard to say: "Turn it over to the government." That, he said, is the philosophy of fear, the ultimate end of which is nationalization and abrogation of personal freedom, especially personal freedom to make a profit.

He spoke of the "insidious forces in America that want to turn our school system over to the government."

Urging the thought that the people ought to do something about these matters, he said: "The government is not the government if you, therefore, we as citizens of a democracy, should take part in our government."

He employed a story to emphasize his belief that God should play a part in our daily lives.

Vineyard was introduced by Bill Kelley.

Quiet Returns to Mississippi Town After Threat of Negro-White Battle

Forces Face Each Other Across Creek

HAZLEHURST, Miss. (AP)—Threat of a shooting battle between large groups of Negroes and whites at a small farm community near here ended with daylight yesterday after a night-long line-up of opposite camps.

The white men to posse estimated by a sheriff's deputy at 200 gathered in search of two Negroes wanted in the shooting of Sheriff Julius Harper.

He was shot attempting to arrest a Negro after an altercation with a white stock-raiser and his wife. The woman said she was snatched by the Negro who had drawn a knife on the man.

The posse entered Turkey Creek woods near Dentville. Afterward 50 to 75 armed Negroes went out the woods on the opposite side of the creek. Both groups were armed with rifles, shotguns and pistols. They remained lined up during the night.

At daybreak the posse divided into three sections. One pressed into the woods. Another group surrounded the cabin of an elderly relative of the hunted Negroes.

A third began searching Negro homes over the area.

The Negroes scattered through the woods.

At least a dozen Negroes were taken to jail at Hazlehurst for questioning and interviewing.

Chief Deputy Sheriff F. L. Egan said they were held to keep them away from that mob at Dentville.

Dentville is a farming hamlet 12 miles west of Hazlehurst. Hazlehurst is 30 miles south of Jackson.

Around 8 a. m. (CST) the community approached normalcy. Negroes appeared on the roads and went about their business, and the posse dwindled to about 10 highway patrolmen and two sheriff's deputies. The remainder went home.

District Attorney L. S. McClaren, of McComb, arrived to take charge of the search and said it had been localized to an area of five square miles.

He said the men being sought are John Fulgham, a Negro about 60 years old, and Ferman Fulgham, his son, about 20. He said they and two others were engaged in an altercation at the store of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Templeton and that Ferman drew a knife on Templeton and slugged Mrs. Templeton.

Sheriff Harper said he went to the Fulgham house to arrest Ferman and that while he and several deputies were in the house, he saw a Negro approaching with a gun. He ordered the Negro to drop the gun but the Negro fired instead. In an exchange of shots the sheriff said, he was struck in the thigh by a .38 caliber bullet.

Dixiecrats Plan Entering All States

ATLANTA (AP)—The states rights Democrats Steering Committee decided to try to enter presidential ticket in all states.

The announcement was released through George McNamee, press secretary to Gen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Thurmond was recommended at the Birmingham convention July 14 to carry the Dixiecrat fight on to the national level.

His running mate is Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi.

The announcement said the Dixiecrats will campaign in all states where a majority of Americans are of the opinion of voting for their candidates.

This is the most feasible way to preserve the Jeffersonian Democracy, Party. We are dedicated to the preservation of states' rights and the liberties of all.

Thurmond said he would make his first speech at Cherry Hill, S. C., July 31 at the Watermelon Festival.

The Governor also disclosed the party's official title, "States Rights Party Democrats."

Kid Pony Entrants To Hold Practice

"We urge the boys and girls to enter now in order to save last minute confusion," Ferman said.

So far the Kid Pony Show for the fourth annual Top of Texas Race and Horse Show has received approximately 28 entries.

The total entries for last year's show were 47, Ferman said.

In Hazlehurst, all was quiet. No one was around the outside of the sheriff's office, and the sheriff said, he was struck in the thigh by a .38 caliber bullet.

Andre Marie To Head New Government

PARIS (AP)—Andre Marie became premier yesterday with a vote of confidence from the National Assembly.

He will form a government uniting all parties except the Communists and the extreme right wing followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

"My government will be a stable government which will restore the confidence of the people of France in their institutions," Marie told the assembly. He is a moderate conservative of the Radical Socialist Party.

There are 620 deputies in the assembly. An unofficial tally gave Marie 370 votes, with about 200 against him and the rest abstentions.

He told the assembly France must look toward the day when the European Recovery Program must end.

"What will then be the destiny of our workers, thrown into unemployment by the closing of the factories through lack of raw materials?" Marie asked. "A government which does not have its eyes fixed on that day, perhaps closer than we realize, is committing a crime against the nation."

Paul G. Hoffman, the European cooperation administrator, told a Paris news conference the ERP will last four years, irrespective of the American election result, and that at the end of four years, "we're out."

Marie urged France to increase production, put her finances in order and obtain foreign exchange against the day American aid ends.

Two Children Die In Farmhouse Fire

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP)—Two small children, alone while their parents were at work, burned to death Friday when a farm house near Point in Rains County caught fire.

They were Rodney Edward Bailey, eight-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bailey, and Jerry Ann White, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry White.

The area of South America is estimated at 7,500,000 square miles, slightly less than North America.

Unrepentant Youth Admits Six Murders During 14 Days

CELINA, O. (AP)—An unrepentant youth admitted in a heavily-guarded jail cell here Friday admitting participation in six cold-blooded murders in 14 days.

Good-looking, nattily-dressed Robert "Muri" Daniels, 22, said he had only two regrets. He was sorry his chain-murder partner, John C. West, 22, was dead, slain by police. And he was sorry he hadn't had a chance to shoot it out with authorities.

Sheriff F. Ray Shaffer of Van Wert County captured Daniels without a struggle Friday near Van Wert, O., as he slept in a new car atop the automobile-hauling truck the gunmen stole in an attempt to elude a gigantic road block.

West, the bespectacled trigger-man, received a bullet between the eyes in a wild gun battle in which two officers were wounded, one critically.

While Shaffer was arresting Daniels, West jumped out of the driver's seat of the truck, crouched behind the steel door and blazed away with an automatic pistol at Sgt. L. D. Conn of Van Wert Police, who was aiding Shaffer in a road block.

Conn was wounded, but continued to fire from the ground with a sub-machine gun, killing West. Frank Fremoth, Van Wert County game protector, had rushed to help—although unarmed. He was hit in the right shoulder before Shaffer could throw him a rifle.

Conn, shot in the lungs, rallied after an operation in Van Wert Hospital and was reported "considerably improved."

"If I hadn't been caught sleeping," Daniels snarled from his jail cell. "I'd have killed all those cops."

Daniels signed a confession, admitting the cornfield slayings of John E. Niebel, 50, Mansfield reformatory farm superintendent; his wife, Nejana, 52, and their daughter, Phyllis, 21.

He said West shot and killed Earl C. Ambrose, Columbus tavern owner; James Smith, a young Tiffin, O., farmer; and Orville Taylor, Niles, Mich., father of four, who was driving the automobile haulaway.

Michigan State Police said they were convinced the pair did not murder Frank Krech, Flat Rock, Mich., tourist camp operator. West and Daniels also had been sought for the holdup-slaying of Krech.

Daniels, known as a "well-mannered, cheerful, soft-spoken fellow" by neighbors, had pride in his voice as he described how he shot down the Niebel family last Wednesday.

"Johnny (West) and I planned this for three or four months," he said. "We wanted to beat hell out of him (Niebel), and if they'd have wiped 'em all out, those — at the reformatory."

"We really went to the reformatory the other day to get Red Phillips (a guard), but we couldn't find him. We killed the Niebels about 1:30 a. m. I went to the door, which Niebel answered, and told him our car was broken down and asked if I could use the phone. He let me in, and I covered him with my gun."

"Then Johnny came in and covered him while I went upstairs and got the women. They were all fully clothed, and we drove right through Mansfield with them. We made them undress in the car, and throw their clothes out along the road.

"We finally got to the cornfield, and told them to walk in. There was no criminal attack on the women, and we didn't slug anybody. He (Niebel) told the others not to offer any resistance, and they didn't."

"I told them to line up. Then I shot him, then the girl and then the woman."

Wallace Accepts Nomination Of New Progressive Party

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia — (AP) — Henry Agard Wallace formally accepted the nomination of the new Progressive Party and proclaimed: "If I were president, there would be no crisis in Berlin today."

He said it twice. And he invited America to march the troops out of Berlin, give it up "militarily in a search for peace."

Atom Report Shows U. S. in World Lead

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman said he has ordered every effort to keep this country's "leading position" in the atomic field.

He further said tests on Eniwetok Atoll "demonstrated beyond question that our position in the field has been substantially improved."

Mr. Truman also said that he had not given up hope of international control under which military use of the A-bomb could be prevented.

Russia, he said, is the stumbling block to progress toward such control.

And pending world control, "We cannot as a nation afford to disclose the secrets which make this new force the most deadly form of weapon."

The President's remarks were in a statement with the fourth semi-annual report of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Stressing that he favors civilian control, Mr. Truman said:

"As President, I regard the continued control of the atomic energy program, including research, development and the custody of atomic weapons, as the proper functions of the civil authorities."

In its report to Congress, the commission:

1. Declared that the Eniwetok tests of atomic weapons of improved design "confirms the fact that the position of the United States in the field of atomic weapons has been substantially improved."
2. Disclosed that the Eniwetok tests involved "nuclear explosions" thus discrediting speculation that the tests involved non-explosive weapons.
3. Said industrial power from the atom may be a decade or more away.
4. Described some established and potential benefits from isotopes—radioactive or stable by-products of A-bomb development that are used for "tracer" research in many fields and some for the direct treatment of certain diseases.

Boothill Graveyard Inspires Truman

TOMBSTONE, Ariz. — (AP) — Epitaphs in Boothill Graveyard here tell some of the story of early Tombstone—the town "too tough to die."

President Truman gave national prominence to the Western lore of the cemetery when he paralleled his White House efforts to the life of a cowboy whose headstone reads, "here lies Jack Williams. He done his damndest."

Many of the original epitaphs of the men who died with their "boots on" were collected by souvenir hunters before a watch was kept over the graveyard.

Boothill's first group of graves mark the climax of the famous Clanton-Earp feud which ended with blazing gun play 67 years ago. The single marker reads: "Tom McLowery, Frank McLowery, Bill Clanton—Murdered on the streets of Tombstone." That's the quoted opinion of Clanton sympathizers.

Then there's George Johnson who had a sad demise. He was "Hanged by Mistake," or so his marker reads. Other hangings weren't accidental with an 1884 head board attesting to the legal execution of Dan Dowd, Red Sample, Bill Delaney, Tex Howard and Dan Kelly. Trial of the five, accused of killing four townspeople during a holdup, was conducted legally, but mob justice had its say.

"Died of Wounds" ends one man's story, with "Ambushed by Apaches" and simply "Killed by Indians" vividly telling another Western history chapter. Dumped unceremoniously in his final resting place, a cowboy's epitaph tells of his death: "John Blair. Died of smallpox. Cowboy threw rope over feet and dragged him to his grave."

Booze and Bullets' Binge Is Staged

BANGKOK — (AP) — Latest reports from a "tiger" gang party in North Siam sound more and more like a Hollywood script writer or a binge.

That was the party at which Siamese police wined and dined with 1,000 guests, then started shooting it out with the host-chieftains of the notorious "tiger gang" of bandits.

One host was killed on the spot. But his brother took to an elephant's back and crashed off into the jungle via pachyderm.

Altogether the booze and bullets binge—held to warm two fancy new houses the "tigers" had built—cost 16 lives, 10 gangsters and five villagers, including two children. Four police were seriously wounded.

Lima, Peru, was the home of Saint Rose, the first native inhabitant of the Americas to be canonized.

Child Recovering After Fall From Moving Auto

Bill Hubbard, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hubbard, 408 Magnolia, is improving following a fall from his father's car near Hobbs, N. M., his father reports.

Riding in the back seat when the Hubbards were enroute to Pampa Tuesday night, Bill opened the back door and fell out. The car was travelling about 60 miles per hour, Hubbard said.

Bill was badly skinned and suffered two severe cuts in his head necessitating 41 stitches. He has since been removed from a local hospital to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard's two daughters, Nancy, six, and Jane, two, also were riding in the car.

Revenue Bureau Opens Civil Service Post

Civil Service examinations will be held in the near future for the position of zone deputy collector-office auditor for the United States Treasury Department, Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Application forms may be obtained and filed from July 23 until the close of business August 16, the announcement said. The forms are available at any first or second class Postoffice, or from the director, 14th U. S. Civil Service Region, 210 S. Harwood Dallas.

The oldest known manuscript of the Bible, a Fourth Century copy, was found in Mt. Sinai, when the accident occurred. Hubbard is owner of the Alpacos Construction Company.

THE DRILLER'S LOG

By KEN BENNETT

Because several people have been asking about what is going on in the Elk City, Okla., area I'd like to pass on the following information. Shell Oil has contracted William T. Payne of Big Chief Drilling Company to begin drilling immediately at J. I. Long No. 1. A third well will begin operations in a few weeks at a location approximately one mile from the Walters No. 1. Shell has a 28,000-acre block of land five miles north of Elk City in Beckham County. They have leased space in Elk City for offices. They will begin drilling at once in Section 15 and it is expected to continue until the field is fully defined and developed. The company feels that in that area they will have one of the richest gas condensate reservoirs ever discovered. The Walters No. 1 was completed in December of 1947. The well was tested for two months and shut down in February so that the company could formulate an exploratory drilling program to determine the extent of the reservoir. The company felt that further operations at that time would be a waste of condensate and gas. The Walters No. 1 was completed at a depth of from 9,260 feet to 9,360 feet in the Granite Wash formation of the Pennsylvania Age after drilling to a depth of 13,133 feet. It is capable of producing approximately 110 barrels of condensate per million cubic feet of gas produced under proper processing procedure. The shut-in bottomhole pressure at 9,377 feet was 3,996 pounds per square inch and, flowing at a rate of 235 barrels of condensate and 3.1 million cubic feet of gas daily through a quarter inch choke, was 3,695 pounds per square inch. Casinghead and tubing head pressures were 2,706 and 2,801 pounds respectively during the flowing test. As drilling proceeds in the block, it will be necessary for Shell to shut in each well as it is completed until the field is fully defined. The field will put in full production as soon as sufficient data is secured to justify the expenditure for a processing plant.

What's new on the Carruth well? Nothing! Boyce House has forwarded some interesting information from Eastland, Texas, area. He states that six wells some wildcats, and others have drawn a lot of interest in that district. There is a wide search on there to discover and match the Kirk pool discovered last January, and the Kleir pool opened up a few weeks ago. These drilling operations are at Desdemona. One of the wells intends to go to the Marble Falls which is below the Desdemona sand where a former well was found several years ago. Near Nimrod an Ellenburger test will also be drilled on an 84-acre block assembled by one of the land owners. Right at Eastland's doorstep a new well is believed to have been uncovered by the Bradford well which after flowing wild has been turned into tanks after having been shut in for several weeks and flowed 40 barrels the first hour without acidization.

Contract to construct the Wichita Falls-Cushing, Okla., section of the Jal-Cushing 20-22-24-inch pipe line system has been awarded by The Texas Pipe Line Company to Smith Contracting Company of Fort Worth, it was announced by R. B. McLaughlin, president of the pipe line company. Work is scheduled to be started August 15 on the Wichita Falls-Cushing section of the line, which will be 170 miles in length and built of pipe 24 inches in diameter. The big line is owned on an undivided interest basis by The Texas Pipe Line Company, Shell Pipe Line Corporation, Empire Pipe Line Company and Sinclair Refining Company.

News items from here-at-home: Mrs. W. C. Hutchins of Cities Service camp has returned from a trip to Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Boosa made a trip to Oklahoma City to bring their daughter Ann back home. She had been there visiting with her grandmother. E. D. Scott, Humble roustabout, is now on a three-week vacation. C. C. Graham, another Humble roustabout, has just returned from a two-week vacation. Two visitors at the Skelly plant this past week were Joe Wood and Jim Hurley from the Shell Chemical Research Laboratory in Pawhuska, Oklahoma. Ray Johnson, Shell district petroleum engineer, leaves Monday for a two-week vacation. R. H. Miller also leaves Monday on a three-week vacation. J. W. Roche, division manager for Shell Wichita Falls, and G. L. Stinnett, head of Shell's Personnel and Industry Relations Department of the Tulsa office, accompanied by Joe La Barge, assistant, came to Pampa to see the Soap Box Derby

Skelton Reviews Texas Oil News

By MAX E. SKELTON
HOUSTON, Tex. — Old-time wildcaters may not believe it but automatic oil drilling equipment is being tested on the flat coastal plains of Texas. It is possible for drilling crews to place a 90-foot section of drill pipe into proper derrick position simply by pressing a lever. The hazards of tightening and releasing pipe and bits are practically eliminated by remote control power tongs.

The derrickman is seated on a movable platform high in the derrick with only a control handle to operate while stacking pipe on the derrick floor.

An automatic control allows the driller to set the weight he desires on a new high fluid velocity bit by setting a dial.

Last week a group of industry officials and newspapermen inspected the equipment for the first time at Humble Oil and Refining Company's experimental "lab" in the Sugar Valley Field, 50 miles from Houston.

During the tour, the drilling crew on the No. 1 Anne B. Taylor well at Sugar Valley was cutting through sand and shale at 45 feet an hour through use of a new high-velocity bit.

Actual drilling time for around-the-clock crews, Humble officials said, has been increased from the normal 25-percent to 30-percent and the speed with which the automatic-controlled bit cuts through the earth saves approximately 21 days of operations on a 9000-foot hole.

Statistics—Crude oil production in 1947 was 2,555,000 barrels from W lines Sec. 29, Blk. 3-T, 9 miles SE of Coldwater. Phillips Petroleum Company, Featherstone No. 1, T & NO Survey, 330' from W and 2319' from N lines NE-4 Sec. 10, Blk. 2-T, 3 miles N of Bryden.

129 New Oil Wells Drilled in Week

AUSTIN — (AP) — Drilling of 129 oil wells, 13 gas wells and 39 dry holes was reported by the Railroad Commission last week. Oil well completions this year total 3946 compared with 3122 a year ago; gas well completions, 355 to 325; and dry holes, 1832 to 1430.

Four wildcat oil wells were drilled, one gasser, and 26 dry holes. Forty dry holes, three gasser and 51 oil wells were plugged.

Sun Oil Brings In New Discovery

MALLEN — (AP) — The Sun Oil Company announced completion of the discovery well of a new field in Northwestern Hidalgo County, on the Arrowhead Ranch recently purchased by T. P. Lee. The well, Sun No. 1 Benzen Brothers, in El Benadito Grant, is flowing 44.2 barrels daily from sand at 5,967 to 5,969 feet, the firm said. The name "Arrowhead" has been recommended for the new field. Sun already has started a second test in the same area, the No. 1 Guerra.

A transcontinental South American railroad ending in the west at Lima, Peru, is at one point 15,000 feet above sea level.

Nevada and Southern California. The 26-inch line would run 485 miles from Farmington, N. M., to Salt Lake City, and 855 miles Basin gas fields to cities in Utah, westerly to San Francisco.

Texans Like Roads at Home

LA GRANDE, Ore. —(AP)—Three Texans, shaken by the loss of the great spaces, shuddered into an auto court here and appealed for a native driver to take over the curves.

Mrs. William B. Brown, Fort Worth, Texas, and her father and mother, who had driven this much of the 2,000-mile journey to Seattle, said they just couldn't stand it any more.

"You can see cars ahead and behind for miles and miles. But up here the car just ahead will be in view one minute and lost from sight the next."

"I can't tell whether it has followed a dip in the road, raced around one of those hairpin turns, or plunged over a cliff. So how do you know where to drive?"

A veteran hairpin curve negotiator, Norm Brackett, volunteered to take the wheel for the rest of the trip to Seattle, where Mrs. Brown, her mother, and the car will embark for Japan.

As for the Texas man, he climbed into the car beside Brackett and shuddered. "If I ever get back to Texas," he commented, "Down in Texas," said the man, "you'll never get me out of there again."

And with that the car disappeared around a corkscrew curve so fast nobody ever found out his name.

They'll Have a Raft of Fun

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— The young mother—she couldn't have been more than 20—calmly pulled out a plump breast and fed her three-month-old child.

Nobody in the crowded corridors of Convention Hall paused to stare.

An elderly bare-footed man padded past her without a glance. A weary crippled man, body bent into a lifelong question mark by illness, sat unheeding in a wheelchair.

In a side corridor of the vast hall 69-year-old Mrs. Katherine DePaul, known as the "goat lady" of Miami, Fla., walked back and forth carrying a wooden sandwich board sign which said:

"Fear, trust and love God—with all your might."
"Americans have false gods. They trust the dollar more, and worship Demon Nicotine. Therefore they have degenerated and cannot comprehend the true God. "Repent! Repent! Repent!"

This was the setting as America's newest political baby—the party of former vice president Henry Wallace and Sen. Glen Taylor of Idaho—was born under circumstances confusing to any hospital.

They named the child "The Progressive Party."

The father, however, was named Anger, and the mother was Fear. The baby itself was a cross-section of American discontent and post-war frustration. But the 10,000 faithful who saw the baby born thought its godfather and godmother were—Mr. and Mrs. Hope. The birth took place amid hillbilly music, strummed on a guitar, and powerful pleas for world peace and an end to race prejudice in the United States. There was fervor and evangelism.

An old man and his wife clapped loudly at a speaker's demand for a $100 a month pension for the elderly. A young man in a polo shirt wearing a white handkerchief around his head ran up and down the center aisle cheering a platform condemnation of the draft and Universal Military Training.

Representatives of 19 nationalities within the American Melting Pot were there, and they were calling for an end to political and economic discrimination against racial minorities. And they put the dark problem of the Negro first.

There was no doubt that the new political baby was a "people's party." Many of the delegates were so short of cash they hitchhiked here. Large numbers slept in automobiles to save the price of a hotel room.

They had depth of feeling, they had enthusiasm—but for all the hillbilly musical atmosphere they were guided by no amateurs. The speeches bore the marks of polished literary skill.

It's Old Yen For 'Whiskering'
CHICAGO —(AP)— The fur industry believes it has found out why women have a weakness for fur coats.

It's because men don't sport beards any more—and women love to be "whiskered."

Paul Majerus, executive director of the Associated Fur Industries of Chicago, said this finding was reported to him by Dr. O. M. Willard, Ph. D., after a study of the subject.

The organization's press agent (a woman) suggested that if you can't afford a sable, fox, mink, muskrat, or even rabbit fur coat for your wife—then quit shaving.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug-gist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barrestrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 47 Pounds
"When I commenced to take Barrestrate, I weighed 212 pounds. I now weigh 165. I feel so much better after losing that weight. I think it is a wonderful medicine and thanks to Barrestrate."—Mrs. George Greer, Chalmers Courts 4, Apt. 1, Austin, Texas.

Lost 20 Pounds

Oilers Score Seven in Ninth To Win Opener From Loboes

Oilers Lose to Abilene Blue Sox 5-4

ABILENE—Jim Sweet, Blue Sox right hander, weathered a 12-hit storm for his second straight victory as Abilene won a 5-4 verdict over the Pampa Oilers here Friday night.

Trailing until the seventh, the Sox took advantage of two Oiler bobbles on the same play and joined them with two hits and a sacrifice to zoom into a 5-3 lead they never lost. Roy Parker, Oiler southpaw, was the victim after a desperate ninth inning Oiler rally fell short of one marker. The win enabled the Sox to salvage the final of their three-game series with the Pampans.

Displaying potential power that was held under cover for eight and one-third innings, the Pampa Oilers sent 1200 Lamesa baseball fans back to their homes last night with a feeling of utter despair as the Pampans broke loose for seven runs in the top half of the ninth inning to whip the Loboes 15-7.

Red Sox Shake AL With Twin Killing

The amazing Boston Red Sox shook up the topsy-turvy American League pennant race with a double victory over the sagging Cleveland Indians Saturday and the repercussions could be heard around the circuit.

Ironically, though, the double win wasn't enough to boost the Red Sox into first place. That went to Connie Mack's equally amazing Philadelphia Athletics who won a single game from Detroit.

As the result of the day's play, the A's took over the league lead by two percentage points ahead of Boston. The Cleveland Indians, who have led the league since June 1, dropped to third, a game behind the A's. The Red Sox did everything the hard way as they came from behind twice to scalp Cleveland 6 to 5 and 2 to 1.

It was Ted Williams who carried the big bat for the Red Sox. In the opener, Williams singled in Dom DiMaggio with the clinching run in an eighth inning rally that gave Boston a 6 to 5 win. In the nightcap, Williams doubled off the left field fence to score DiMaggio, who had walked, with the tying run. Bob Feller then relieved Sam Zoldak. After Feller threw three straight balls to walk Bobby Doerr and Sam Mele, Russ Christopher then came on to pass Bill Goodman to force in the winning run.

Dave Ferriss was the winner in the opener, Bob Lemon the loser. Mel Parcell won the second game, Zoldak was the loser.

The double win boosted Boston's winning streak to eleven straight games. The Philadelphia Athletics grabbed first place from the sagging Indians as they beat Detroit 8 to 6, coming from behind with a five run eighth inning rally.

Pitcher Carl Seib acting as a pinch-hitter, climaxed that rally with a single with the bases loaded.

The A's pulled their 107th double play of the year in the ninth inning to cut short a Detroit rally.

The fourth place New York Yankees remained two and a half games off the pace as they were held to an even split by the lowly Chicago White Sox.

The Yanks won the first game 6 to 2 behind the six hit pitching of Frank Shea. The White Sox came back to outlast the Yanks in the nightcap, 8 to 4 in ten innings.

In the second game, the Yanks came from behind in the last of the ninth with two runs to tie the score in a rally that was climaxed by Phil Rizuto's single. The White Sox came right back, though, to score four runs off relief pitcher Joe Page in the top of the tenth.

Pat Scerrey, who hit four home runs in a game last Sunday, struck out seven times in today's double-header, but he also got a single and his 12th home run of the year.

The St. Louis Browns drubbed Washington 13 to 2 with a 20-hit attack and a first inning triple play.

With the bases loaded with Senators in the first inning, Tom McBride slashed a liner back at Fitcher Bill Kennedy. The ball caromed in the air to shortstop Ed Pellagrini who threw to Bob Dillinger to catch Eddie Yost off third. Dillinger's throw to Chuck Stevens at first caught Gil Coan.

In the National League, the New York Giants and the Chicago Cubs split a double-header.

The Cubs won the opener 3 to 1 as Doyle Lade bested Clint Hartung in a neat pitchers duel. Clarence Maddern hit a home run for the Cubs.

New York won the nightcap 3 to 0 on Dave Koslo's five hit shutout pitching. Bob Rush was the loser.

The Philadelphia Phillies beat Cincinnati 7 to 5 scoring seven runs in the first four innings at the expense of Johnny Vander Meer. Young Curt Simmons pitched two hit shutout ball for the Phils for seven innings but was routed in the eighth when the Reds scored all five of their runs.

Brooklyn and Pittsburgh were not scheduled yesterday while a game last night between Boston and St. Louis rounded out the schedule.

Lippy the Giant

Lippy Leo Durocher grins in his new uniform, after succeeding Mel Ott as manager of the New York Giants. Durocher, who piloted the Brooklyn Dodgers since 1939, thus completes a cycle of New York city ball clubs, as he first broke in as a New York Yankee shortstop. (NEA Photo).

Eight Games Scheduled at Lions Park

The first regular week of Industrial League Softball action under the lights at Lions Park is scheduled to start tomorrow night with only one game since Texas Elf has recently withdrawn from league competition.

All team rosters must be turned in to Speedy Foster by July 27 so that no team, reaching the final rounds, can change its line-up.

Skelly is the only team to have virtually a cinch of reaching the playoff since it has lost only one game through the complete season.

Eight games are slated for the week's action at Lions Park and one game is scheduled for the Skelly diamond. The length of the remainder of the schedule necessitates the playing of some of the games at Skelly and Phillips diamonds.

The complete schedules for next week's play and the season's standings are as follows:

Monday—Master Cleaners vs. Magnolia.

Tuesday—Pampa News vs. Cabot Shops.

Wednesday—Ideal Food vs. Furr Food; Skelly vs. Phillips.

Thursday—Jaycees vs. Pampa Bus; Humble vs. Magnolia.

Friday—Furr Food vs. Skelly; Ideal Food vs. Phillips; Cabot vs. Jaycees at Skelly.

Caldwell Twins Provide Tough Competition in Net Tournaments

By WILBUR MARTIN
LONGVIEW (AP)—A couple of sandy-haired, freckle-faced twins are making it double tough in Texas tennis tournaments.
 Shirley and Sharon Caldwell, two look-alikes who think alike on the courts, have combined six weeks coaching, a friendly tip from a pair of old campaigners, and natural ability into an impressive list of championships.
 Right now the 17-year-old twins are Texas' top doubles prospects. The twins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Caldwell of Longview, have come along fast in the last three years. That's when they gave up swimming aspirations for tennis titles.
 "I didn't have anything to do with their taking up tennis," their dad said. "But I'm sure glad they did. Tennis is the one sport I know something about. When I came over from Ireland twenty-two years ago, I used to go out to Forest Hills in New York. Tennis was the only sport I knew what the players were doing."
 With their dad supplying the best of equipment, the twins started putting in long hours on concrete courts. They've developed into an uncanny combination, knowing just what the other is going to do and when.
 Most of their triumphs have come in junior doubles play, but both enter singles competition regularly and also take flyers into women's doubles.
 The twins are poker-faced players, never changing expression from the start of the match until the finish. Their titles in junior doubles include:
 1946—Gulf Coast Tournament.
 1947—Gulf Coast Tournament, Sabine, T.A.A.F., Rock Hill, and Southwestern.
 1948—Texas Sectional.
 Magda Rurac, Rumanian star, and Mary Jensen were hard pressed to beat the twins in the women's doubles division of the Heart of America Tournament at Kansas City this year. They went on to win the title.
 Jimmie Langham, formerly professional at the San Antonio Country Club, but now at Bandera, gave the twins six weeks coaching.
 Then Fred Kovaleski, Hamtramck, Mich., and Bernard Bartzen, San Angelo, saw them play. They gave them some friendly advice:
 "Always go into the net to hold every year since except in the war years of 1943 and 1944, when the wartime ban on gas usage of pleasure cars forced its postponement.

Lesnevich Declared Favorite

By GAYLE TALBOT
LONDON (AP)—Gus Lesnevich is a firm 1 to 2 favorite to beat Freddie Mills in their world-light-heavyweight title bout Monday night at White City Stadium, and many expect Gus to score a knockout.
 The prize at stake, provided Lesnevich wins decisively, is a possible shot at the heavyweight championship, probably against Joe Louis in September. The fight crowd gathered in London fully expects Joe to come out of "retirement" if Lesnevich is the bait.
 Gus, who has held the 175-pound title since before the war, stopped Mills in the tenth round of their bout here last year. As he fully expects to flatten Freddie, he has had some difficulty making the weight. He still has two more pounds to grind off and his manager, Joe Vella, says "he'll probably make it with a few ounces to spare."
 Whatever happens, this could be Gus' last defense of the 175-pound title. He has grown into a natural 180-pounder, and it was at the latter weight; more or less, that he knocked out Mello Betina and Tami Mauriello.
 He is thinking of nothing now except going through with the Mills contract and then taking aim at the heavy crown.
RUSSIAN GRENADES
SEOUL (AP)—The U.S. Army said Russian hand grenades were used by North Koreans in ambushing American soldiers near the occupation boundary Monday. A private from Brooklyn was killed.

Tragedy Hits Duluth Club

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Seven members of the Duluth Baseball Club of the Northern League were killed and ten others were injured Saturday in a head-on collision of their bus and a truck.
 The machines collided in a small rise in Highway 86 between Western and Dale Avenues, in open country at the northern outskirts of St. Paul.
 The wreckage burst into flames. Some of the victims were burned horribly before passersby could pull them out.
 The bus was carrying 17 members of the Duluth ball club, known as the Dulkes, from Eau Claire, Wis., to St. Cloud, Minn. The team had played in Eau Claire last night and was scheduled to open a series in St. Cloud last night.
 Together and always come back together."
 Taking this advice, Shirley and Sharon started clicking.

Air Arm Is Expanding

BERLIN —(AP)—The Americans and British are swiftly expanding air bases in Western Germany to handle combat planes while their diplomats seek a peaceful solution to the Berlin crisis.

An Associated Press survey showed Saturday that airmen in the west are being enlarged for using bombers and jet-propelled fighters as well as swarms of air-lift transports.

The transports, flying more and more supplies to Soviet-blockaded Berlin, will gain time for the Western power negotiations with Russia. The bombers and fighters apparently will be ready in case negotiations break down to the point of war.

Some of the airfield expansion projects were forced by the aerial supply of Berlin but others are being designed for use by giant 3-29 Superfortresses and "Shooting Star" jet fighters. Thirty Superfortresses already are in Germany and 60 more recently arrived in England. A total of 100 jets are en route to Germany. 18 flown across the Atlantic to England last week and 84 others being shipped by sea.

BRANCHING WHEAT

MOSCOW —(AP)—Experimental work on "branching wheat," which is a wonderfully new type, is being carried on in the USSR. Last year a small amount of the new wheat was planted in the Krasnodar region of Kiev. This year about two hectares were planted on a collective farm near Kiev.

Even Pigeons Face Housing Shortage

Probably the only thing that could make two self-respecting pigeons build their nest overlooking a stuffed monkey is the housing shortage. The courageous birds made a home stop a tool box in the workshop of the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia. The monkey is part of a future exhibit.

Writer Recalls Great Scenes of Vintage Movies

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD —(AP)—What great movie scenes stick in your mind? Average movie fans are suffering waves of nostalgia these days, since reissues of old pictures are now glutting the film market. Having become a fan as early as I could lift a grubby hand up to the box-office, I have a warehouse of movie memories from years past. Four other sarsaparilla and listen to them:

Irene Dunne posing as a burlesque queen in "The Awful Truth".
Barbara Stanwyck tripping Henry Fonda in "The Lady Eve".
The earthquake in "San Francisco".
Margo growing old as she leaves Shangri-La in "Lost Horizon".
James Cagney flopping dead through a door in "Public Enemy".
Paul Muni disappearing into the darkness at the end of "I Am a Fugitive".
The locust plague in "Good Earth".
Humphrey Bogart listening to "As Time Goes By" in "Casablanca".
Walter Huston realizing he had discovered gold in "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre".
Jimmy Stewart and Katharine Hepburn taking a drunken dip in "Philadelphia Story".
Rita Hayworth's strip tease in "Gilda".
Gene Kelly's dance with his double in "Cover Girl".
Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald having a nip together in "Going My Way".
Larry Parks singing "April Showers" to Evelyn Keyes in "The Jolson Story".
Gary Cooper walking down the dugout as Lou Gehrig in "The Pride of the Yankees".
The fight between Pauline Goddard and Rosalind Russell in "The Women".
Robert Taylor and Vivien Leigh dancing by candlelight in "Waterloo Bridge".
The death of Flag in "The Yearling".
Fredric March's drunk scene in "The Best Years of Our Lives".
Dana Andrews seeing Gene Tierney for the first time in "Laura".
Ronald Reagan learning of the loss of his legs in "Kings Row".
John Garfield musing at the piano in "Four Daughters".
Robert Donat crawling out of the dungeon in "The Count of Monte Cristo".
Ronald Colman addressing the crowd before his execution in "A Tale of Two Cities".
Clark Gable telling off Vivien Leigh in "Gone With the Wind".
Claudette Colbert hitch-hiking in "It Happened One Night".
Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers dancing to "Night and Day" in "The Gay Divorcee".
I did I heard someone say "they don't make pictures like they used to".

US Ship Down In Berlin

BERLIN, Sunday —(AP)—At least two persons were killed early today when a two-engine American transport plane carrying flour and other supplies over the Russian land blockade crashed into a street in the U.S. sector of the city. The plane sheared off several trees and then hurtled into a bomb-damaged block of apartment houses. Two hours after the crash, German firemen and U.S. military police removed one body from the wreckage and located a second body. Apparently, no residents of the apartments were injured. It was believed there were no passengers aboard. The twin-engine transports usually carry a crew of two. The cause of the crash was not immediately known.

HEMPHILL COUNTY RACES

Justice of the Peace Court, in which E. O. Northcutt and J. G. Lumpkin, both of Potter County, were opposed. Hemphill County gave Northcutt 522 votes against 418 for Lumpkin.

The total vote will run close to 1,350, unofficial informants predicted.

W. J. Jackson, unopposed for county attorney, received 1,304 votes. Hiram Park also running alone, received 1,310, and Miss Verne Reagan received 1,311. No figures were available for Harold Reed, for justice of the peace for Precinct 1; Ross Adeock, for county commissioner for Precinct 4; and for Thomas Jones, for chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, but they are running unopposed.

In the three-way race for sheriff, assessor and collector of taxes, which in Hemphill County is one office, Clyde Risley received 660 votes, Henry Estlin received 468, and Clint Ward got 189.

Frank Cole received 537 votes for county commissioner, Precinct 1, and Bert Northrup received 309.

In federal and state races, Hemphill County gave Stevenson 542 votes, and his nearest competitor, Johnson, 374, for United States senator. Eugene Worley, unopposed from the 18th Congressional District, received about 1,273 votes.

Paulford H. Jester, running for reelection to the governorship, received 772 votes against 126 for E. Q. Adams. Shivers, for lieutenant governor, received 748 votes, and Walker was given 246. No figures were available for the chief justice of the State Supreme Court, but in the race for associate justice, Precinct 2, Hawkins received 62 votes against 384 for Hart.

In the race for treasurer, 658 votes were given to Jesse James, and 268 to Bruce Lloyd, according to these unofficial figures. Grady Hayswood, running for state senator of the 21st Senatorial District, and Thomas C. Brady for district attorney of the 31st Judicial District, both unopposed, received about 1,000 votes each.

Countywide Offices of County Clerk, Treasurer, and Assessor-Collector

The countywide offices of county clerk, county treasurer, and tax assessor-collector were free rides for their incumbents, Charlie Thut, Ola Gregory, and F. E. Leach. District Attorney Tom Brady also had no hurdles for his second term as 31st District prosecutor.

Clear skies and a warm day met voters as they sporadically passed through the precinct voting booths. No incidents were reported by any of the judges, although two judges had to have the supervisors system explained before they would permit the "watchers" to sit at their precincts. The petition signed by 16 candidates was filed to the required 25 before midnight Friday and the "watchers" were admitted to the polls. Voting was light in the early morning hours, but increased toward noon. Near closing time lines formed outside many of the larger voting places.

In the statewide races, Gray County, whose totals were unavailable by press time, remained true to Governor Beauford H. Jester by a wide margin and showed marked approval of sending Coke Stevenson to the U. S. Senate. Scattered returns, untotaled, showed Lyndon Johnson leading slightly over George Pedy for second place to Stevenson.

Last minute interest showed in the District 7 Civil Appeals Court race at Amarillo with James G. Lumpkin seeking reelection and Potter County Judge Ernest O. Northcutt attempting to unseat him. Totals from Gray County were unavailable by midnight. Grainger McIlhenny took an early lead over Carl B. Morris in the 122nd Legislative District race and wound up at midnight polling 2,204 Gray County ballots to Morris' 1,111.

21 of the election judges, whose precincts were not complete by midnight, signified they would return today to complete tabulations. Some of the judges who reported complete returns also indicated they would recheck their counts today. Precinct boxes reporting complete by midnight were Precincts 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15. Precincts 2, 9, 16, and 17 were reported incomplete and Precinct 18, the county's smallest, made no report.

Oxford University in England is a federation of 21 colleges each with its own government and teaching staff.

To the Citizens of Gray County:

Henry L. Jordan wishes to express his appreciation and THANKS for the votes given him in the Democratic Primary election.

NOT DUTY, BUT A PLEASURE—The editor said I should say something in this weekly piece about the Soap Box Derby which will be the big thing out on the old highway to Miami north of town this afternoon . . . The trouble is that the least said about our house is best, because the boy is wild about the idea of making one of those things; and he's too young to be in the race. . . It's made to fit a mother's highest expectations: she can find the kid around the house once in a while if he makes a racer. . . It's a pleasure to mention the Derby.

BEST REMARK OF THE WEEK—"My wife is known for her even temper—she's always mad." (Honest, I heard it said.)

AND YE SHALL KNOW THEM—Floyd Imel—"By jiminy!" . . . Mrs. Raymond Harrah, always attractive and never wearing perfume. . . J. Ray Martin—"Let's sing an Irish song." . . . Allene Boehm—"And I have one just like it." . . . Consistent good nature of Dorothy Barrett. . . Oran Payne—"All we've got to sell is service." . . . Natural beauty of Mrs. George Shelton.

OVERHEARD—1st man: Had the time of my life last night—went to the ball game by myself. . . 2nd man: How did that happen? My wife always tags along with me. . . 1st man: It's easy—just take your wife out for two or three consecutive nights and she'll be too tired to go with you. . . 2nd man: Not my wife—she'd catch up in the day time—I'd be wore out!

PERILS OF PEG—Had been hearing how ideal were the drive-in theaters for the entire family. Finally talked Papa into taking the children and me over to the Sandy City to see how we liked the outdoor theater. Packed the kiddos cozily in the back seat and also packed a substantial lunch, for they've never been known to get past the mail box without bending double with hunger pangs. As soon as we had driven in, parked the car and had the volume control installed, they set up a mad chatter about the wonder of the whole thing. The thing they appreciated was the fact they could watch the show, eat and do hand stands all at the same time. Even so, I settled down and knew that I was going to enjoy every minute. There was one thing certain. Papa wouldn't indulge in his usual habit of napping through everything but the newscast. But there was one thing I hadn't calculated, and that was the supplementary sound effects. When the villain was stealthily stalking the hero, the children would scream, "Stop that man—look behind you, ya' dumb bunny!" And worse still, when the hero took the heroine into his arms and kissed her . . . in perfect union, my little kiddos would give out with a resounding am-m-m-a-a-ck. Presently Papa got out, walked around the car and had me move over to the driver's seat, so he could sit by the volume control. Suddenly I heard a familiar noise . . . it couldn't be . . . but it was . . . Papa had gone to sleep, and his vociferous snoring was drowning out the hearing device. I turned up the volume (to drown out the snoring) for this was a particularly touching moment on the screen; but to no avail, for at this moment the children were doing a matchless job of mimicking their father's snoring. Just then it started raining. It was too much! Have you ever tried watching your favorite movie star emote while your husband was snoring, your children mocking him and the windshield wipers doing a whirling dervish? I shifted the gears and applied the gas when I realized the volume gadget had to be released from the side of the car. I tore around the car amidst the rain and wind, removed that highfalutin' radio box and drove like mad for Pampa. There was quite a fuss getting my three sleepers out of the car and into bed. By that time I was a wee bit worn myself. Even so . . . I'll be glad when we get one of those things in Pampa.

PAMPA PANORAMA—Saw the Walter Bierys and the Sid Pattersons back in town for a visit—I can remember when the girls were Dorothy Dousette and Dorothy Harris, two of the most popular girls in Pampa High School. . . Now they are equally as attractive as matrons with children waist high (and more). . . Here we go: what couple around town deserves our wishes for happiness. No, they aren't married yet, but I understand wedding bells will ring in September. . . James and Sue Hyde have entertained this past week while visiting Sue's mother, Mrs. T. F. Smaling. . . A bridge party at the Ray and Gladys Lafferty's. . . The Vernon Hobbs family is vacationing in Florida, and will return by the northern route through the Central States. . . My idea of one of the cutest homes in Pampa belongs to Donna Jo and Clinton Evans—out in the Fraser Addition. (It's the one with the cool shade of green.) . . . Mesdames Dockery, Smith, Primmore, and Neslage were out in their suits—but not in the pool—at the CC this past week. . . Good to see Mildred Lafferty's daughter, Vivian, back. . . Bob Westbrook is visiting here from Fort Worth. Bob was the former head of the Texas Railroad Commission in Pampa, and is now with Gulf in Fort Worth. . . Saw proud papa Geo. (Dr., that is) Snell. The new heir was born Thursday and mother and son are doing nicely. . . Please ask Mrs. Paul Crouch when they are moving into their new home. It's a sore spot. . . And—definitely don't mean the home . . . For a pleasant personality, see Emma Lou comedienne at Bert's. . . Bill Kelley just back from a business trip to Austin, saying it's hot down there! . . . Sorry to hear about you, Betty Julliard. Hurry up and recover from an appendectomy at Worley. . . Finally Dr. Phillip Gates got the grass to grow enough to mow it and he's really proud of it. It's a wonder he's got time to do the work since having the office to himself the past week. Lucky Doris Wedgeworth is proudly displaying her newly acquired gift from Gates: a set of 1847 Rogers Brothers. . . Reason: she won a contest of possessing the most pieces from the oldest set of 1847 in Pampa. . . The George Heffners will return soon from Canada. . . Visitors in the home of the Leon Camps were the Dick Foringers (former Pampanos) and now living in Arkansas. . . And I leave the scoop of the week: Gov. Jester will be up around Pampa during the rodeo season. Ride 'em, cowboy!

Well, I'll see you at the Derby But I'll lose in the heat! PEG O' PAMPA.

National Officer of FHA Brings Home Report of First National Meeting

Miss Naneen Campbell, 17, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, 1830 Christine, who was elected chairman of national projects in the Future Homemakers of America at the first national convention held in Kansas City, Mo., July 6-9, has returned with reports of some of the highlights of the meetings.

She is the first Texas girl to hold an office in the national organization.

Miss Campbell and other officers were installed at a formal banquet in the arena of the Municipal Auditorium at which time also honorary memberships were presented and degrees were conferred. Miss Jeanne E. Harter, vice dean of home economics at the University of Tennessee, gave the address of the evening. At the close of the ceremonies the Hawaiian delegation sang "A Lei of Love" and, in traditional Hawaiian fashion, presented orchid leis to the incoming officers.

The promotion of international goodwill is one of the purposes of the organization and this was the theme of the general session at which Senor Roberto de la Rosa, cultural agent for the Mexican government, was the guest speaker.

The entertainment one evening was given under the title of "The Parade of States," with delegates from the various states presenting skits and stunts, many of which revealed the resources or characteristics of their respective states. Sub-regional meetings were held to give consideration to the proposed program of work, national projects, plans for a national FHA Foundation, ratification of the national constitution and the election of the sub-region's national officers for 1948-49. Eighty-five chartered buses carried the delegates on a three-and-a-half hour sightseeing tour of Kansas City. Three thousand girls representing 225,000 members in 45 states and the territories of Hawaii and Puerto Rico attended the convention. Texas was represented at the

Fall Show-Stoppers

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Show-stoppers of fall fashion collections are guess-what? Nice Nelly knickers which step out with new suits. These knee-buttoned, gassy pants which sheathe the legs to the calf are designed to keep a girl's gams snug when wintry winds blow. Teamed by designer Adele Simpson with matching blouses, the Nice Nellys make bright color foils for jet black woolen suits with sweeping "solar" skirts. One suit style (below) with blouse and knickers of pink jersey, features a brief button-up belted jacket and a solar skirt stitched to give the illusion of multiple-goring. . . .

The "swashbuckler" (above), another Adele Simpson style which makes hews, gives a spectacular build-up to a full jacket posed above a slim-jim skirt. Oxford gray wool plaided with autumn green and wine red makes the short jacket, which looks full with or without a wait-cinching leather belt. Embroidered with it are a wine red jersey blouse and a skirt of oxford gray woolen. —EFSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

Lay That Hammer Down, Ma; Lay That Paintbrush Down!

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Once upon a time there lived a very eccentric housewife. She used her frying pan to fry in. She used her carpet sweeper to clean with. She went to the retail store and bought new furniture to furnish her house with.

If you can believe it, this housewife never painted her skillets apple green and used it for a silent butler. She never dismembered her carpet-sweeper, hung it on the wall and grew grape ivy in it. She never haunted storage warehouses looking for an old kitchen table which was really, under the paint, Chinese Chippendale.

But this housewife died a long time ago.

Nowadays an American housewife can't look at a simple thing like a wheelbarrow or an empty medicine bottle without figuring some way she can turn it into both into home-made objects d'art.

People used to boast about their Hepplewhites and Sheratons. Today they can't wait to swing the conversation around to how they turned grandmother's washstand into a wing-backed period piece with hand-quilted slip-covers. If they are really ingenious, they can write pieces about their ad libbing for the magazines.

Beginners usually start making coffee tables. A coffee table is any four-legged piece of furniture with the legs sawed off. The lower to the floor you drink coffee these days, the more chick you are. It's never cricket, however, just to saw off the legs of an old table and let it go at that.

Everybody who is doing this thing has to refinish the piece whether it needs it or not. Experts never skin their knuckles or get tired muscles, either. One rule in the game is to disguise the original purpose of the article as much as possible.

Currently there's a magazine piece about how one young couple (young-marrieds, they call them) practically furnished an entire apartment with an old-fashioned dining room table they bought for $6 (on a second-hand place, natch).

First, of course, they cut off the legs and made a coffee table. With the left over pieces of legs they produced (this wasn't too close to home) a VERY expensive-looking lamp. Then they took the left-over leaves from the table and made those into a dining table. It might have been easier to use the leaves for a coffee table and rest off the dining room table, but it wouldn't have been a magazine piece. They'd received a cot for a wedding present.

This young couple didn't have any suggestions on how to use old cow bells, discarded nail legs, or coddled egg cups. They did, however, dye some old sheets for use as drapes.

The other day a newspaper asked readers for suggestions on what to do with six old tennis rackets. Answers rained in, and ranged from making a "clover" leaf design to frame pictures" to "sportsmen's ash trays." Nobody even suggested restringing them for tennis.

All this is fine, but what about the second-hand industry of America? People are afraid to throw anything away. Now even old tin cans can be used to grow strawberries in.

Add to hot mixture, stir until dissolved. Add grated orange and lemon rind. Chill until beginning to thicken. Put egg whites into small MIXMASTER bowl. bridge players will start to reassemble at the Hotel Stevens in Chicago to compete in the summer season of the world and national championships contract bridge tournament. One of the most colorful of these players is Harry J. Fishbein, New York, who will be on hand to defend the world championship mixed team-of-four title, which he holds with Mrs. E. J. Seligman, of New York, Mrs. Ruth Chase Goldberg and Ludwig Kabakjian, of Philadelphia.

Not only is Fishbein colorful in his play, but his quick analysis of bridge hands adds a great deal to a tournament. Today's hand is one that he gave me recently, and I will give it to you as he told it to me.

The sight of clubs is the opening lead. You must be afraid of a seven-card club suit in the West hand, so declarer must win the first trick with the ace of clubs. Now you lead a small spade and when West plays the king, you must win it with dummy's ace. But no more spades. If you do, East will win with the queen of spades, lead the club, another club will come back, and you can't shut out the ten-spot.

After winning the ace of spades, you must cash four heart tricks. On the fourth heart East is helpless. If he does not trump, you throw a club away from dummy. Now you lead a spade, and East has to call it a day, according to Fishbein. He might as well go up with the queen of spades. Now he leads a club which West wins. If West comes back with another club, declarer is going to get a bluff and a ruff. West's best defense, says Fishbein, is to underlead the ace of diamonds. North has no other play than to go up with the king.

A well-played hand!

Crime Doesn't Pay; Neither Does Law

BANGKOK—(AP)—When you call a policeman in Bangkok, be sure you get a $2 a month man, not a two-bit one. One group joins the force voluntarily. These make 30 ticals a month. That's slightly less than two U.S. dollars. The rest of the force, about 6,500 are conscripts assigned by the Army. They are paid four ticals a month—about 25 cents. The police director-general, Mafor General Luang Chatrakarn Kosol, says this disparity in pay makes the conscripts unsatisfactory policemen. He asked the finance ministry for more money. The budget boys turned him down.

Marshall Plan Depends on End Of Berlin Crisis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

That was a cheering rainbow we glimpsed through the international storm-clouds when from Washington, London and Moscow came reports which seemed to encourage hope for peace.

President Truman declared prospects for world peace are good. U.S. Secretary of State Marshall and British Foreign Secretary Bevin both announced they will use every diplomatic means to a peaceful settlement of the Berlin imbroglio.

And sources in Moscow said chances for a meeting of America, Britain, France and Russia seemed brighter than at any time since Russia clamped the blockade on Berlin five weeks ago.

A solution of the German crisis is essential to the Marshall recovery plan. A healthy and united Germany is necessary because the Reich long has been the keystone of the continental economic structure.

So the outcome of the Marshall Plan depends on whether Russia and the Western democracies can reconcile their differences.

Before the establishment of standard time on November 18, 1883, American railroads were using about 100 different standards of time.

SHAMROCK —(Special)—Miss Patricia May Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bertram of Shamrock, became the bride of Francis Devon Brigman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Brigman of Borger, Tuesday evening, July 6, at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Edward C. Derr, pastor, officiating.

An elaborate setting was arranged at the altar for the singler service. Plumes fern and tall white baskets of white gaidoll against a white background was completed with two rows of burning candles along the choir rail. The nuptial space was marked with wrought iron candelabra and floor baskets of gaidoll. The bridal aisle was marked with candelabra bearing lighted tapers tied with bows of white satin ribbon.

Candles were lighted by Robert Joe Robinson, cousin of the bride, and John R. Southerlin.

Preceding the impressive candle-light service, Miss Pasty Porter sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because." She was accompanied by Miss Dorothea Braxton, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Elsie Matlock of Borger was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress of pink taffeta designed with a scalloped neckline, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. With this she wore a pink satin headdress and carried a bouquet of orchids.

Women With 'Mousy' Hair Need Not Fret

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Are you one of those girls whom Nature endowed with "mousy-colored" hair? If so, stop fretting because your hair isn't as eye-catching as that of your blonde or red-headed friends. Remember that you can wear much stronger dress colors than these friends can. Moreover, you will discover, if you will experiment with bright crepe shades, that many will bring up glints of red or gold in your hair which you never suspected were there.

Give blue in various dress shades a trial. Also give rich green shades a chance to bring up hidden color in your hair.

The best way to try out colors is to make the test with crepe paper collars in the various colors with which you want to experiment. Crepe paper is available in colors which almost exactly duplicate many of the popular dress colors worn today.

To determine which colors will do the most for your hair, view the effect of your crepe paper collar in a mirror held up in strong sunlight.

Capers make an excellent addition to potato salad; they should be mixed in with the salad dressing.

Paris Observes Three-Day 'Think'

PARIS —(P)—The French Parliament has agreed it takes three days to think clearly.

The assembly, resembling the House of Commons and the House of Representatives, passed a bill authorizing release of a number of government workers. The bill was passed after 32 hours of debate and sent on to the council of the republic for review. The council of the republic can't veto a bill, but is described as a "reflective body," whose opinions on laws passed by the assembly must be given attention.

The assembly demanded that the bill be treated as "urgent," and be acted upon by the council in the same time as the assembly. The council denounced such pressure tactics and refused to think so fast. A constitutional crisis was threatened.

Finally a joint body of the two organizations met and decided that the council could take three days to reflect on a bill. Only after that would it become law arbitrarily. Moreover, it was agreed that the council doesn't have to think on Sunday. If Sunday intervenes as one of the three days, it doesn't count.

 Borger Junior Chamber of Commerce, for help in recruiting sponsors for boys of that city.
 Davis Chevrolet, Borger, for help in assembling cars for inspection, and for transportation to Pampa, both for boys and for cars.
 (There may have been other firms and individuals that helped in some way whose names have not been transmitted to The News. We would like to have those names for public recognition. —Editor.)

Beauty Spots

Spots before your eyes can be inspiring, especially if Ila McAvoy is inside them. Ila wears a two-piece swimsuit made of leopard-printed fabric, designed by Claire Rose of Miami, Fla.

Safety Measures Taken at Race

Safety is the watchword in the Soap Box Derby. For instance, the All-American Soap Box Derby, Inc., Rules Committee, Detroit, this year eliminated windshields from cars because last year most of the accidents reported involved a boy and his windshield.
 Cars are built wide so they won't turn over; cars are built not to turn more than four inches either way off-center, so that the boy won't swerve his car enough to turn it over.
 There are many safeguards written into the rules—safeguards that don't show at first inspection.

Two Boys Run in Each Derby Heat

The winner of a Soap Box Derby race is determined by heat—down the hill before the other boy or other two boys racing against him in that particular "heat" or race.
 Time does not determine a winner. Time is recorded in races to give more interest to spectators.
 Time would not be a good basis on which to determine winners, because the racers are very susceptible to wind resistance and other factors.
 A boy may run a thousand feet in 37 seconds during one race, while in the next he may make the same distance in 33 seconds. The difference is usually difference in wind resistance.

Shell Gives Party for Derby Boys

Fifty-four of the possible fifty-seven participants in this year's Soap Box Derby attended a pre-race ice cream party sponsored by the Shell Oil Company's Pampa office, Friday night in the Palm Room in the City Hall.

C. L. Stinnett, personnel-industrial relations manager from Tulsa, gave pointers on use of Shell's new Derby lubricant. The lubricant was road-tested under racing conditions. It was developed especially for Soap Box racers, and is designed to overcome friction and to 'stay put' on bearing surfaces, he said.

Stinnett also gave the boys last-minute information on Shell's track service. Uniformed attendants will be on hand to assist the boys with final oil and lubrication jobs.

"The Magic of Youth," a motion picture taken by Chevrolet at last year's National Soap Box Derby at Akron, Ohio, showed the dramatic finish of the race, and also traced the steps in making a racing car.

The meeting was presided over by J. W. Swygart, superintendent of Pampa's Shell district. Paul Brown, district officer, gave the boys last-minute general instructions for this afternoon's race. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, and soft drinks were served.

Roll large leaves of lettuce, after crisping in cold water and draining well, and cut in thin ribbons with a sharp knife; use as a bed for lobster or chicken salad.

There's Lots of Work to Staging Soap Box Derby

Running of a local Soap Box Derby is no small operation. It requires a lot of planning and then carrying out of those plans. Boys must be encouraged during the time they are building their racers, and they must be coached when they miss the rules of the book.

All this takes manpower, and that is where the Pampa Lions Club, co-sponsor with The Pampa News and Chevrolet Division of General Motors. For about three months boys are visited by advisory groups.

The Lions Club has handled much of the planning of this race, as it has those of past years here.

General chairman of the Lions Club said they are smuggled past immigration officials.

Some purchasers are prostitutes who buy young girls as "insurance" . . . calculated to mature when their own earnings fall off," the department said. Some purchasers adopt girl slaves but force them to continue as servants.

This is "the first official statement in several years that the sale of female children is continuing despite efforts of British authorities to halt it."

The smallest of the South American countries is Uruguay, with an area of 72,153 square miles.

Jungle Club Now in City

OKLAHOMA CITY —(AP)—When anyone mentioned the Oklahoma City Police force, the Jungle Club always laughed.

It was just outside the city limits.

Coppers could resent its bootleg whiskey and illegal dice games. But resenting was as far as the boys in blue could go.

Until Friday.

Suddenly Jungle Clubbers were started to see a city vice squad smashing in the doors. "hey! we're in the county. . . you can't do this to us!"

"The heck we can't," came back Chief of Detectives Dwight Brown, as his crew seized a dice table and 102 pints of Scotch and bonded whiskies.

"The city annexed you guys three days ago."

Contestants Have Troubles With Losing Weight

Two contestants who hope to take part in today's races on the Old Miami Highway have had their portion of difficulty.

In the first place Joe Hadley Watson and Ivan Peacock are not small boys. Their weight runs around the 145, 150 mark. Therefore, they had a problem to start with.

The rules of the Soap Box Derby say a boy and his car shall not weigh more than 250 pounds. Both these boys had to build light cars in order to be eligible for the race.

Last Wednesday they turned up total car and boy. From the looks of their ears, it was not possible for either to take any weight off the vehicles. That left only one source of weight-reducing — the boys themselves.

They've been reducing. Ivan did all right by just looking at ice cream and cake and soda pop at a party Friday night, given by Shell Oil Co. While Joe Hadley took "helpings," he took a little more out of his car than Ivan did.

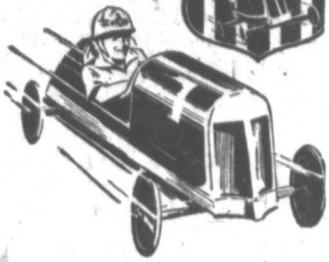

Both boys will have to be weighed again today—due to the fact they were so close to the weight line. If you see wood and steel flying at Hilltop, it will be Joe Hadley and Ivan making one last effort to stay in the races!

Slave Sales in China Continue

SINGAPORE —(AP)—The Social Welfare Department has announced that scores of young girls purchased in China for an average of $5 (U.S. money) each are being sold as prostitutes and child slaves here.

They are retailing for $500 on secret slave markets, the depart-

In Hollywood

By ERKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Modern Tarzans Errol Flynn and other daring young men of the screen can go hide in embarrassment.

"I've been talking to Elmo Lincoln, who was Tarzan back in 1918. Brave? Errol was a sissy compared to Elmo, who wrestled and killed a live lion in the first Tarzan picture, 'Tarzan of the Ape'."

So what if the lion had been doped up a little and was wearing a set of false teeth? There was still a lot of life in the old boy. And they had to shoot the scene twice. The first time they gave Elmo a butcher knife to perform the coup de grace.

"The butcher knife," Elmo said, "bounced off the lion's hide like one of those rubber daggers. So we did the scene again and I used a heavy English bayonet that had been converted into a dagger. That was the end of the lion and it was almost the end of me when I saw all that blood."

I found 59-year-old Elmo, still barrel-chested and still a movie actor, on the set of the 25th Tarzan picture, 'Tarzan and the Arrow of Death.' He was playing a bit in support of the latest Tarzan, young Lex Barker, the 10th actor to play the character.

STYLES CHANGED

It was obvious that styles in Tarzans had changed. Elmo is short and stocky, as he was when he was playing tag with the apes in 1918. Lex's six-foot-four towered over him. But in the chest department, Elmo was the better man.

In fact, it was Elmo's ape-like chest heaving which won him the first Tarzan role. As he bellowed, "There were no other actors in Hollywood at the time who could heat their chests without knocking themselves out."

They finally took care of Irving Sindlar, prop man for Sam Goldwyn who has become a Hollywood character through his record of getting his name, either by signs or dialog, in all of Sam's pictures for the last 25 years. They built a big street set for "Enchanted," fronts "Irving Sindlar & Son," in big letters on one of the store and Irving, of course, has his name the sign read.

But until they were ready to shoot the scene, Irving didn't notice that the store front next door also had a much smaller sign. "Clem Woodrige & Son." Clem is Irving's assistant. Came time for the shooting and Director Irving Reis focused his camera on a closeup of David Niven and Tarzan Wright standing right beside the sign reading "Clem Woodrige & Son." "Irving Sindlar & Son" was photographed.

QUEENS' ROW

Columbia studio has a hot feud on its hands after naming Barbara Britton "Queen of the Westerns." Dale Evans had the title ever since she landed in that list of 10 top money-making Western stars.

The Bob Cummings-Oscar Cummings lawsuit still hasn't been decided by the courts (I was badly informed). And if what I hear is true, Oscar has been done a grave injustice by people attempting to force an out-of-court settlement.

Economy note? Mickey Rooney is now dating a gal his own size, five-foot Milius McCulure, a Pasadena Community Playhouse graduate. Mickey usually picks 'em a foot taller.

Glad to see Bob Armstrong getting the breaks again. He has a comedy role in "Lucky Stuff," with Dottie Lamour. Marjorie Reynolds is back in town from England with a new blonde hair-do. Norman Productions' "The Eagle on the Cactus," story of the Mexican revolution, will be filmed entirely in Mexico. Another big location trip in September will have Ben Goldman paying the bills. He's sending Farley Grainger and Cathy O'Donnell to Kentucky for two months to film most of "Rosanna McCoy," story of the McCoy-Hatfield feud.
