

No One Predicting Outcome of Vote To Seat Powell

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House members gathered today for a historic vote to decide the political fate of Adam Clayton Powell. No one was predicting the outcome—it was that close.

The verdict was not all that was in doubt up till the last minute there was no word whether the man himself would return from his Bimini hideaway for the debate on a special committee's recommendation that he be seated, fined and censured.

The vote was expected about mid-afternoon.

Powell has until March 13 to take the oath of office if the House decides he may take the seat. It barred him from last Jan. 10, pending an investigation.

The nine-member select panel that investigated Powell recommended that he be seated, then stripped of his 22 years of seniority, publicly censured, and fined $40,000 in $1,000 monthly installments—all for allegedly padding his payroll and traveling for pleasure at the taxpayer's expense.

Prior to today's vote it was learned that the once-powerful preacher-politician had decided to go to court if the House votes to keep him out or if it goes beyond public censure in disciplining him.

Democratic and Republican leaders, all of whom support the committee's recommendations, were fearful that the House might override the panel and vote to throw Powell out altogether.

Key GOP lawmakers predicted the Republicans in the House would split about evenly. Democrats were making no predictions for their side, but some have said that if 90 to 100 Republicans vote in favor of the committee's recommendations could carry.

V.C. Launch Gas Attack

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. infantrymen engaged in the war's biggest campaign met the heavy resistance they long expected and killed 18 Viet Cong in bitter fighting which left more than 100 American dead or wounded, military spokesmen said today.

U.S. military officials said the fierce battle Tuesday in War Zone C raged from daybreak through midnight and was marked by the heaviest tear gas attack ever launched by Communists in Vietnam.

The fighting broke out in several areas along the Cambodian border region about 70 miles northwest of Saigon where more than 35,000 American soldiers have been engaged in the week-old search and destroy operation called Junction City.

The bloodiest conflict erupted early in the day, spokesmen said, when a 1st Infantry Division squad received fire from a well-entrenched guerrilla force of an estimated 200 men.

The infantrymen pulled back. Air strikes and artillery were called in. Then a company of about 200 U.S. infantrymen moved in for the fight.

Resistance was stronger than expected and the battle went on for 12 hours.

Spokesmen said the Americans suffered "heavy" casualties in the fight, meaning more than 50 per cent of the unit was killed or wounded. But the Communists finally broke contact and left behind 130 dead, spokesmen said.

The Viet Cong tear gas attack occurred only a short distance away where a U.S. armored contingent and an infantryman unit forced the guerrillas into a trap. Spokesmen said it was the first time in the war that Communist used the irritant gas in quantities sufficient enough to require Americans to don gas masks.

Under the cover of the gas, spokesmen said, the guerrillas quietly retreated into the jungle. It was only about the fifth time in the war that Communists have used the gas. American units do so more frequently to flush guerrillas from hiding places in bunkers and tunnels.

In the coastal plains about 320 miles northeast of Saigon, a U.S. Marine force which landed in an amphibious assault made its first contact with enemy troops. Spokesmen said the leathernecks battled a guerrilla force of unknown size Monday.

There were no reports of casualties in ground fighting, but a Huei helicopter was shot down in the area and one of its U.S. crewmen was wounded.

Tax Bill Near Approval By Texas House

Passage by Senate Is Still Uncertain

AUSTIN (UPI)—Sponsors of the local option city sales tax bill plan to push the proposal to final passage in the House today and send it to the Senate where it awaits an uncertain fate.

The proposal, by Rep. John Traeger of Seguin, won tentative approval Tuesday by a vote of 84-63. But his move to suspend rules and finally pass it Tuesday fell 3 votes short.

Wednesday's House calendar contained three relatively uncontroversial Senate bills and a "conflict of interests" bill by Rep. James Nugent of Kerrville which first must see action before Traeger seeks final house action on the city sales tax issue.

Attorneys Rally Behind Judge's Press Restrictions

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI)—The trial of Richard Speck accused of murdering eight nurses resumes today after a 24-hour recess called when the defendant was rushed from court with stomach pains.

Opposing attorneys in the case lined up during the recess behind Judge Herbert C. Paschen who was accused in an Illinois Supreme Court order of violating constitutional guarantees of "free dom of the press" by instituting restrictions on reporters covering the trial.

Paschen replied to the Chicago Tribune's suit late Tuesday: "The order in no sense impinges on the right of newsmen to attend the trial. The order does however, attempt to assure that the trial will be conducted with appropriate judicial calmness, solemnity and dignity and free of a carnival atmosphere."

Hoffa Attorneys To Try Last-Ditch Attempt Today

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (UPI)—U.S. District Judge Frank W. Wilson meets today with attorneys for teamsters president James R. Hoffa and an assistant U.S. attorney to discuss a last-minute motion to keep the labor leader out of prison.

Hoffa lost another legal round in his fight to stay out of jail Tuesday, but his attorneys opened a new avenue by filing the motion. The meeting was slated for 5:30 p.m. EST.

Judge Clifford O'Sullivan of the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals handed down the ruling against Hoffa in Port Huron, Mich. Hoffa faces an eight-year term for jury tampering.

James Hoffa

O'Sullivan rejected a plea that Hoffa be permitted to remain free on bail while he appeals the conviction. Hoffa could be ordered to prison imminently.

FATHER WILL RETIRE

Johnson Names Clark New Attorney General

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson has named Ramsey Clark to be Attorney General, prompting his father, Justice Tom C. Clark, to announce he will retire from the Supreme Court to avoid any conflict of interest.

Johnson ended five months of speculation late Tuesday when he announced the younger Clark 39, was his choice to succeed Nicholas B. Katzenbach, who resigned as Attorney General last October to join the State Department.

A short time later, Justice Clark, an 18-year veteran on the high court and the last of the Truman appointees, said he would retire sometime in the next several months to clear the way for his son.

Upon Senate confirmation, Clark would become head of the Justice Department and the government's chief legal representative. Most of the Supreme Court's cases involve the government.

Justice Clark, who is 67, said he and his wife were "filled with both pride and joy over Ramsey's nomination." He himself served as Attorney General from 1945 to 1949, when he was named to the Supreme Court.

The Attorney General designate later told a news conference his "greatest challenge" in his new post would be assuring equal rights for all Americans. A civil rights advocacy he shares with his predecessor, Katzenbach.

'Liquidation Group' Formed by Maoists

HONG KONG (UPI)—A Communist Chinese radio broadcast said today supporters of partly Chairman Mao Tse-tung have formed a "liquidation group" in Shanghai to crush anti-Mao organizations, arrest their leaders and confiscate their property.

The broadcast by Shanghai Radio followed other Communist reports of fresh violence in rich rice Kwangsi Province. Red Guard terror in the countryside and new trouble for Red China's barbone economy.

The Shanghai broadcast said the "liquidation group" was formed by pro-Mao forces which claimed to have taken control of China's largest city in January.

It said some groups claiming to be "revolutionary rebels" supporting Mao actually were opposing him. The broadcast said these groups "must be exposed and denounced and their influence must be eliminated."

Mississippi Sheriff, Klan Head Are Indicted for Civil Rights Slaying

MERIDIAN, Miss. (UPI)—A Mississippi sheriff, his chief deputy and the head of the nation's most militant Ku Klux Klan group faced federal conspiracy charges today in the 1964 slayings of three young civil rights workers.

The three men were among 19 persons arrested Tuesday on indictments returned by a federal grand jury after a week of secret testimony.

All but one was arrested by U.S. marshals and taken before a U.S. commissioner for arraignment.

Negroes to Confront Suspicious Klansmen

NATCHEZ, Miss. (UPI)—Rewards totaling $36,000 have been posted in connection with the Jackson killing, which Gov. Paul Johnson labeled a "heinous and senseless murder." Johnson assigned state investigators to the case.

Officials of Natchez, where national guardsmen were sent to keep racial peace for several weeks last year, vowed that every effort would be made to apprehend the persons responsible for the "dastardly crime" that shattered six months of tranquility.

Evers, whose brother Medgar was killed by a sniper at his home in Jackson in 1963 after attending a civil rights meeting, led about 2,000 Negroes to the Armstrong plan Tuesday night.

But guards had closed the gates of the chain link fence. The demonstrators then went to the place where Jackson died.

"This is the spot. I will always remember that a Negro gave his life here because he was trying to provide a better life for his wife and children. The Negro can no longer be brutalized or killed," Evers said.

The right-wing daily New Life Evening Post of Hong Kong, meanwhile, said wall posters in South China's largest city announced the arrest of Tseng Sheng, mayor of Canton, and Chau Tse-yang, vice governor of Kwangung province in which Canton is located.

Most of the other defendants, including sheriff Lawrence Rainey of Neshoba County and his chief deputy Cecil Price, were indicted on similar charges two years ago. The original indictments were thrown out in 1966 because of legal technicalities.

The new indictments were returned Monday by a 23 member bicameral panel in Jackson, but were kept secret pending the arrests. The jury also returned an undisclosed number of new indictments in another major civil rights case—the firebomb death of Negro leader Vernon Dahmer near Hattiesburg last year.

Among those arrested was

Negroes to Confront Suspicious Klansmen

"We're going to meet the klansmen face to face," Charles Evers, Mississippi field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), told 2,000 Negroes Tuesday night.

Evers said Negroes would march to the Armstrong Rubber and Tire Co. plant at a distance of 3 1/2 miles away—surrounded by a caravan of 30 Civil rights leaders.

Dr. Donald Burhans, who treated Speck, said the defendant apparently suffered an attack of gastritis, an inflammation of the stomach lining, mated to a plant job formerly held by a white man, Jackson, courthouse cell 30 minutes later.

The answer said in a constitutional sense "representatives of the news media have no greater rights than other members of the public."

Speck's attorney, Public Defender Gerald Getty, and a prosecutor, Cook County States Atty. John J. Stamos, both filed petitions with the state supreme court asking permission to intervene on the judge's behalf for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), told 2,000 Negroes Tuesday night.

The slow process of jury selection was continuing Tuesday when Speck turned several shades whiter than his normal pallor. He was rushed to a clinic 3 1/2 miles away—surrounded by a caravan of 30 Civil rights leaders.

Dr. Donald Burhans, who treated Speck, said the defendant apparently suffered an attack of gastritis, an inflammation of the stomach lining, mated to a plant job formerly held by a white man, Jackson, courthouse cell 30 minutes later.

Speck was turned to a pale, almost white man, Jackson, courthouse cell 30 minutes later. He was to have been a pole three blocks from the courthouse when it exploded.

A similar blast in 1965 seriously injured George Melton, another Negro worker at the plant, who had been active in civil rights.

Just published under hard cover by Arlington House is "Hysteria 1964: The Fear Campaign Against Barry Goldwater." (By Lionel Lokos, 208 pages, $4.00.)

Hysteria 1964 is written from the standpoint of a Goldwater pronship. But the pages re' partisanship. But the pages are crowded with quotations from the unlovely hate-mongering the reprehensible smearing and the indefensible journalism of misrepresentation suffered in 1964 by a good American citizen.

Goldwater had presumed to seize Republican party leadership if ever so briefly, from the moderate and left of center cantains who had so ingloriously led the party to disaster for many years.

For example, Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown contributed the statesmanlike observation that Goldwater's acceptance speech had "the stench of fascism."

The NAACP's Roy Wilkins contributed this: "Those who say that the doctrine of ultra-conservatism offers no menace should remember that a man came out of the beer halls of Munich and rallied the forces of rigidity in Germany. All the same elements are there in San Francisco (Republican national convention city) now."

The AFL-CIO political arm, COPE, passed this judgement: "A victorious Goldwater and his extremist supporters would speedily make life all but unbearable for working people, for the poor."

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Cal.) condemned Goldwater on charges of trying to reshape the Republican party "in the image of the John Birch Society" and into the pattern "of political parties in totalitarian states."

This was a basic theme of the campaign to create a hysteria of fear of Goldwater. Columnist Joseph Alsop contributed: "If Goldwater becomes president, the abolition of the Health, Education and Welfare Department is bound to be given serious consideration. But one can foresee that, pending the final decision, this department will be cofided to the safe-and-sure hands of Robert Welch—provided he does not consider that heading the John Birch Society is a higher duty."

Alsop scored again on June 26, 1964, as follows: "Gov. William Scranton as run, head on, into the hard fact that stopping Barry Goldwater means changing the minds of Goldwater (convention) delegates whose minds are seldom accessible to reason, because so many of them are fanatics."

Author Lokos notes that: "A more rational analysis was made by Vermont Royster, writing in the Wall Street Journal: 'Far from being the crackpots of the stereotype images, the supporters of Sen. Goldwater are mostly lawyers, doctors, small businessmen, farmer and white collar workers with a sprinkling of those from the more skilled labor groups. The secret of Sen. Goldwater, if that's the word for it, is simply that he speaks for this somewhat amorphous middle class.'"

Fascists' fanatics? John Birchers? Insane men out to destroy?

It all depends, no doubt, on the point of view. One fact has emerged from the 1964 hysteria. Nearly 27 million voters wanted Goldwater over Lyndon B. Johnson and the conservative movement in the United States did not die with the counting of Johnson's enormous majority.

A fact which does not emerge from Lokos' book is that Goldwater contributed to his own troubles by talking too much, (b) a habit of imprecision in what he said, and (c) by seeming to invite trouble with audacious comment.

Price Supports Farm Minimum Wage Revision

Pampa's congressman Bob Price Tuesday expressed complete agreement with a House Committee on Agriculture resolution which recommends a revision of minimum wage laws to exempt farm workers until farm income rises.

Price, a member of the committee, had this statement: "Farmers employing workers now being blanketed under the minimum wage, unlike employers in industry, are unable to set the price of what they produce to cover increased wage costs, but must continue to take whatever the market offers."

The 18th District representative added, "with the farmers' parity of income at its lowest level since the depression this is no time for the government to start adding extra burdens. On the side of the laborer, the creation of unemployment and the uprooting of people in rural America will greatly outweigh any advantages the employe might gain through advocacy of the minimum wage."

"For this reason, I will join in the bipartisan effort to have the Fair Labor Standards Act amended to exempt farmers from paying a minimum wage until the parity of income reaches 100 per cent." Price concluded.

DALLAS (UPI)—Lonnie Williams was let out of the Dallas County jail after a professional bondsman put up his $3,500 bond.

But a few minutes later he walked back in, saying he would rather be in jail than pay the bondsman's interest rates.

"His 'stability and maturity' so impressed a U.S. commissioner that bond was lowered to $2,000. A friend then bailed him out—at no interest charge."

Commission Seeks Airfield Improvement

Gray County commissioners voted today to hire the consulting firm of Merriman and Barber of Pampa to survey Perry-Lefors airfield for improvements to existing facilities. They agreed to pay the firm $2,000 for the survey.

The study of the airport needs of Gray County would include consideration of improving terminal facilities and extending the runway to meet FAA standards for modern air travel.

C. S. Youngblood, a member of the county airport board, suggested the proposal.

Gene Barber represented the consulting firm.

County Judge S. R. Lenning Jr. swore in the new Pct. 2, Place 1 Justice of the Peace, G. L. (Nat) Lunstford.

KoC to Sponsor Essay Contest

An essay contest on the topic "American Citizenship... What It Means To Me" is being conducted by the Texas State Council, Knights of Columbus, according to Grand Knight Hub Homer of the Pampa Frank Keim Council, KoC.

He said all Texas high school students are invited to write essays on the topic. Prizes will be $100 and a $50 U.S. Savings Bond and 20 honorable mention citations.

Students desiring copies of the rules can obtain them by calling members of the Knights of Columbus chapter here or Homer at MO 9-9211, MO 4-3596.

Willard Green of Temple, head of the Catholic men's organization in the state said essays would be judged by a panel composed of qualified representatives of the Protestant, Jewish and Catholic faiths and the names of the judges would be made public on conclusion of the contest.

"The contest rules are simple," Green continued, "in that the writers must be bona fide, full time students of a Texas high school and under 20 years old. The essay cannot exceed 300 words and should be signed by the student with his or her full name, age, school, class, home address, telephone, city, state and zip code."

"Further, students should list their parents' name, address and telephone and the same information on the school principal. The essay must be mailed before March 31 directly to the Essay Contest Committee, Texas Knights of Columbus, 1111 Majestic Building, San Antonio, Texas 78205" he said.

Gardening News

By THELMA BRAY

A delightful idea to help gardeners in their constant battle with insects can be found in the February issue of Organic Gardening. Tansy, a fragrant and ornamental perennial herb, can be a valuable "watchdog" in the garden. It protects the crop it stands near. Not only do insects avoid tasting tansy leaves, but because of the strong smell, they are kept out of the immediate neighborhood. To us, though, the scent is aromatic — powerfully clean, perhaps. (Arboretum leaves are supposed to smell the same: in old-time Maine logging camps, the bougays were used for bedding, as much for the fragrance as for their softness.)

A clump of tansy near the foundation or back door keeps ants and flies from the house. Dried and crumbled tansy leaves sprinkled in the cellar and attic is supposed to help to eliminate ants and other insects.

NEW WAY TO BE SUDDENLY SLIM, COMFORTABLE, TOO

Los Angeles:—Are you a woman whose figure is on the good side but might look perfect? You'll be thrilled by the new easy way science has discovered for you to become Suddenly Slim and yet completely comfortable. If you're more than 15 pounds overweight, then this idea is not for you. If your weight problem falls within this range, then you can realize a new, smoother figure today, without diet or exercise.

Suddenly Slim is an all-new kind of 4-oz. girle constructed of science fibers. One startling innovation is the sheer nylon front panel. This is permanently stiffened by a science process and cannot give or sag. It's surrounded by a slimming-action border. A featherstitched panel down each side of this girle will contour your hips if they are a problem.

The girle itself is of a "wonder" Lycra spandex blend. It's a new power net consisting of nylon, spandex and spandex. It is so comfortable, but has such slimming strength, it gives your figure everything that's possible with a foundation.

"Suddenly Slim" is both girle and pony versions, in the pink achievement of the California designer-garner, Olga. They are available in our own at Wright Fashions

Tansy does spread but it never becomes an invasive pest like golden glow, nor does it self-sow all over like dandelion. Every few years, the woody center portion of a clump should be dug out and removed, letting the new outer growth continue. Old parts may be chopped up and used as a pest-repellent mulch.

Let tansy stand guard in several positions throughout your flower and vegetable gardens. It has a coarse fern-like foliage that would be attractive in any garden. Its Latin name is Tanacetum vulgare. Do not confuse it with other less pleasing tansies.

Prized in medieval times for its medicinal properties, tansy was brought to this country by the early English colonists in the 17th century. Even though its medicinal uses are seldom recognized today, a stimulating tea may be brewed of the bitter leaves.

The monthly news letter of the National Association for the Protection and Propagation of the Purple Martins and Bluebirds of America, Inc. announces that the first Purple Martin scout reported was seen in Winter Haven, Florida on Jan. 19; the second report came from New Roads, Louisiana on Jan. 23. This newsletter also says that if you need help in building a Martin house, write to R. K. Walker, Box 833, Belleville, Ill. He has a complete house plan available for a four, eight or twelve-room house, along with a complete description of this beautiful bird, its habits, tips on house location, etc. You can have the complete house plan and other information simply by sending 25 cents and a self-addressed stamped envelope to Mr. Walker at the above address.

According to a Dallas newspaper that city must be a blaze of color with the flowering quince at its peak now. We notice the bushes around Pampa are loaded with buds; it should not be long before they are in full bloom. One thing that could add to the overall beauty of Pampa would be mass plantings of flowering shrubs along the Red Deer Trail being developed. Naturally homeowners can do their part by planting the flowering shrubs and trees on their own grounds.

Dear Abby... Circumstances Can Change the Picture

DEAR ABBY: I was invited to spend a week-end at a friend's home. I arrived on Saturday morning and spent a lovely day with my hostess and her husband.

On Sunday morning I came down for breakfast between 8 and 8:30, and no one else was up. I had never been in their home before, so I searched around in the cupboards and refrigerator trying to find something to eat. All this time my hostess was upstairs sleeping. Since I was an invited guest, was it not up to her to get breakfast for me? Or have times changed?

DEAR WONDERRING: Times have not changed. Common sense still transcends protocol and etiquette. Something should have been said about plans for breakfast before you retired. But since it wasn't: Was there a restaurant across the street? Or were you in the wilderness? Did you have a car? Or were you stranded?

Was your hostess young and healthy and you elderly and ailing? Or per chance was your hostess elderly and ailing and you young and healthy? Circumstances would determine my answer. Fill me in and I'll tell you what I think.

DEAR ABBY: How does a man get rid of a woman he does not love? I have lived with my wife for 10 years and have given her every excuse in the book to throw me out, but she keeps on "forgiving" me. We have three kids who are getting the worst of it because I can't keep my mind on being a good father.

DEAR CO-WORKERS: She was. Anyone who would exit so abruptly after nine years because she didn't get a "going away present," gave you one. Her departure.

I keep telling my wife I don't love her, never did, and can't love her but she says she loves me anyway — no matter what. I have told her I am having my fun and she should have hers, but she doesn't see it that way. I really think she's a mental case, but I don't dare tell her that because she'll accuse me of trying to put her in the state hospital just to get rid of her. What can I do?

DEAR END: I don't know whether your wife is more intent on punishing you or herself, but whichever it is, she is yours, forevermore. So relax and enjoy it.

DEAR ABBY: A woman worked in our office for nine years. During that time, she asked—and received—many favors of her co-workers. Yet, the day she was transferred to another department (same building, different floor) she ran out the door like she was going to a fire. She didn't even have the good manners to say good-by to any of us.

We later heard that she was burned up at the lot of us because we didn't give her a "going away" present. Were we in the wrong, or was she?

DEAR CO-WORKERS: She was. Anyone who would exit so abruptly after nine years because she didn't get a "going away present," gave you one. Her departure.

The Frank M. Carter scholarship for an Area I Future Farmer of America member will be awarded during the FFA Livestock judging banquet at 5 p.m. March 7 in the Pampa High School cafeteria.

The $500 scholarship to Texas Technological College was awarded in 1966 to Ken Dawson of Spring Lake High School. Dawson is a sophomore majoring in agriculture at Texas Tech.

Quentin Reynolds and J. P. Smith, chairmen of the contest, will make the award. Joe Gordon is chairman of the judges panel to select the scholarship winner.

The winner is selected on the basis of his scholarship, citizenship, and personality and must live in Area I, which includes all of the Texas Panhandle north of Lubbock.

Banquet speaker will be Douglas Davis, district manager of the American Cyanamid Company of Dallas.

State Senate Okays Hazlewood's Road Naming Proposal

AUSTIN (UPI) — A resolution naming the state highway leading into Palo Duro Canyon State Park as the "Charles Goodnight Trail" was approved recently by the Senate. The proposal by Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, honors Goodnight who built one of the state's biggest empires in the Panhandle in the late 1800's.

Banquet tickets are available at the chamber of commerce office and from all association directors.

Association officers are Gordon Whitener, Wheeler, president; Earl Breeding, vice president; Frank Carter, treasurer; and E. O. Wedgeworth, executive secretary.

Barbecue, Dinner Scheduled Here For Stock Show

Two banquets are scheduled during the annual Top O' Texas Livestock Show next week.

The first is the Top O' Texas Rodeo Association barbecue for all junior exhibitors at 7 p.m. Monday and the other is the Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders Association banquet Tuesday.

The association is hosting the barbecue Monday in the stock show area for exhibitors in the Top O' Texas Junior Livestock Show.

The Pampa Shrine Club will cater the barbecue, a traditional event with the livestock show.

More than 500 attended the barbecue in 1966. Tickets may be purchased at the door, Bill Tidwell, association president, said.

The program includes parading of show champions and awarding prizes and trophies. The Swing Kings of Pampa High School, directed by Harris Brinson, will present special music.

About 250 members and guests of the Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders Assn. are expected to attend the association's 22nd annual banquet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room.

Douglas Davis, district manager of the American Cyanamid Company of Dallas, will speak on recent developments in raising cattle.

'Bedroom Shootout' Irks Representative

AUSTIN (UPI) — The way to "avoid a shootout in the bedroom" is to repeal the law that permits it, according to Rep. Cletus A. Davis, of Houston.

Davis told the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee Monday that repealing the 56-year-old "Paramour law" would keep irate husbands from taking the law into their own hands.

The 1911 law allows a husband to kill his wife's lover if he catches them in the act of adultery.

However, Rep. Bob Bass of DeKalb, Tex., is sponsoring another bill that would give the wife the same rights now granted only to the husband.

Davis' bill was sent to a subcommittee.

Sale of Easter Seals Under Way In Gray County

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Gray County, according to Paul Keim, Easter Seal representative of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

Keim serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as treasurer of the Easter Seal appeal in Gray County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The Society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Keim pointed out today that all these programs are important if Texas is to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1966, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services to 11,045 children and 4,896 adults who were in need of rehabilitation services. These services are available to anyone disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Keim stated.

The Easter Seal campaign will run through Easter Sunday, March 26. Keim urged increased support for the Easter Seal Society and its program of services to crippled children and adults.

Walker Has Scouts Waiting With Pens

By United Press International
 Jimmy Walker improves at the rate of five points a season and pro scouts are excitedly talking about his ability to reach a 35-point average in the NBA with a few seasons under his belt.

Walker ended his regular career on a Providence court Tuesday night with a 38-point outburst that enabled the NIT-bound Friars to edge DePaul 68-67.

The scoring output gave Walker a total of 746 points in 25 games this season for a 29.8 average. The Friars ace, second behind Lew Alcindor of UCLA in the scoring parade, built the margin with brilliant performances in his last three games. He hit 46 against Rhode Island and 47 against Holy Cross coming up to the DePaul game. He gets a chance to improve his average in this month's NIT.

Walker had a 20.5 average during his sophomore year at Providence, as the No. 53 scorer in the nation for the 1964-65 season. The brilliantly coordinated marksman rose to the top 20 in 1965-66 with a 25-point game average and was named to the United Press International All-America team.

One-Hand Artist
 Defying the defense to step outside and stop his one-handers, Walker has a better than even chance to reach the 30-point mark before he completes his collegiate career.

Walker netted 14 of 25 field goal attempts Tuesday night as Providence won its 19th game in 25 starts. It remained for his two free throws with 33 seconds left, however, to settle the issue. Mike Norris netted 24 points for DePaul.

Elvin Hayes, battling Walker for scoring honors, poured in 41 points as sixth-ranked Houston hammered out a 106-64 triumph over Loyola of New Orleans.

The clawing Cougars prepped for their NCAA postseason carnival appearance with a 51.7 shooting percentage. Hayes scored 22 points by intermission and added 19 more before leaving the game with 41-2 minutes remaining and Houston assured of its 22nd victory in 25 games. Jim Jackson and Dan Bell combined for 36 points in a losing Loyola cause.

Tenth-ranked Boston College struggled to an 807 win over determined Canisius and hoped the victory wasn't a costly one. Steve Adelman, the team's leading scorer, injured his right arm early in the game and was held to five points.

Seconds To Go
 Sophomore Terry Driscoll took up the slack with 6 points for BC, which has an NCAA regional tournament date in Rhode Island Mar. 11. Doug Hice canned two foul shots with seven seconds to go to finally nail down the decision after the lead had changed hands 17 times. Andy Anderson and Bert Carr paced Canisius with 17 points each.

In conference races still to be decided, Northwestern moved into a second place tie in the Big Ten by beating Wisconsin 91-8. The Wildcats, tied with Michigan State for the runner-up slot, are a game back of Indiana.

Another Flag For Baltimore

By SANDY PADWE

PITCHING — Nobody is making cracks about the Orioles pitching any more. Not after last October. Maybe it was luck. Maybe the Orioles did get four well-pitched games in a row. But the 1966 World Series has to boost the confidence of youngsters like Dave McNally (13-6), Jim Palmer (15-10), Wally Bunker (10-6). If Steve Barber's arm is sound again, Orioles will be much stronger. Steve was 10-5 last year. Series hero Moe Drabowsky (6-0) will pitch more this season. Ed Barnowski, Frank Bertaina may be ready, finally. Bullpen loses Dick Hall, but retains Stu Miller (9-4, 2.25), Eddie Fisher (5-3, 2.64), Eddie Watt (9-7), Gene Brabender (4-3) complete-relief corps. RATING — B plus.

INFIELD — Scouting reports predict superstardom for powerful Mike Epstein (29 HR, 102 RBI at Rochester). He'll have to push Boog Powell (.287, 34 HR, 109 RBI) off first. Not many people push 6-3, 240-pound Powell around. The battle should make spring training quite lively. Orioles' baseball bills will be up. That's certain. Rest of infield status quo. Dave Johnson (.257) at second, Luis Aparicio (.276) at short, Brooks Robinson (.269, 23 HR, 100 RBI) on third. None better. RATING — A.

OUTFIELD — Frank Robinson won triple crown last season (.316, 49 HR, 122 RBI). Repeat would be asking quite a bit. Nevertheless, Frank doesn't think it's impossible. Paul Blair (.277) set in center field. Speedy, good fielder. Curt Blefary (.255, 23 HR, 64 RBI), Russ Snyder (.306) the other outfielders. RATING — A.

CATCHING — Andy Etchebarren had fine rookie year despite .221 average. Was exceptional handling pitchers. Charley Lau, out with a bad elbow most of last year, has the good bat. Not as strong defensively. Vic Rozovsky, Larry Haney will battle for third spot. RATING — B.

BENCH — Basically same as last season. Add Epstein. Bob Johnson, spare infielder, reliable pinchhitter. Sam Bovens has power. Woody Held can play infield, outfield, Mark Belanger could stick as infield utilityman. RATING — B.

SUMMARY — If Barber makes full comeback, Orioles will be unstoppable. If no, Twins could make it close. But Baltimore still has enough talent to win it. PREDICTION — A dynasty? 1ST.

Stankey, Bristol In Good Mood for 1967

APPEARING TO be in need of some greasy kid stuff, George Washington's Terry Grefe, No. 32, managed to sneak between West Virginia's Bob Benfield, 25, and Carl Head, right, to grab rebound. That's using your head, Terry.

By United Press International
 Eddie Stankey and Dave Bristol are happy managers today because Gary Peters is in top physical condition and Sammy Ellis has the right mental attitude.

Peters was one of the Chicago White Sox' top stars with a 12-10 record and the American League's best earned run average in 1966 while Ellis was one of the Cincinnati Reds' b disappointments with a 12-19 record and an earned run average of more than five runs a game.

The White Sox were concerned about Peters' physical condition because he missed the last month of the season with a back injury and the Reds were concerned about Ellis' mental attitude after the first poor season of his major league career.

Stankey took one look at Peters Tuesday and announced that the fast-balling left-hander was the most advanced pitcher in camp. He said the Peters would be the first pitcher in the White Sox' opening intra-camp game Sunday and will stay on the mound for six outs, working for both teams.

A Cinch
 "The way he looks, he's a cinch to win 20 games this year," enthused Stankey. Ellis, a 22-game winner in 1965, impressed Bristol with his realistic attitude toward his poor 1966 campaign.

"I have been in this game six years and I hope to stay in it 10 more years," said Ellis. "I didn't expect to go through 16 seasons without having a poor one."

The world-champion Baltimore Orioles signed outfielder Curt Blefary, second baseman Dave Johnson and utility infielder Bob Johnson but first-

Briscoe Girls In Regional Play

Briscoe extended their girls basketball season Tuesday night and ended Darrouzett girls' season.

Briscoe pushed their season mark to a glossy 26-4 with a resounding last half victory over Darrouzett, 39-36 in a bi-district clash at Harvester Fieldhouse.

Briscoe will now play in the class B regionals at Canyon Friday and Saturday.

Briscoe trailed after two periods, 10-7 after one and 21-18 at halftime but came back for a 28-22 third quarter lead and more or less coasted in for the victory.

Diane Dodd had the hot hand for the winners scoring 20 pts. and Helen Puryear added 12 while Kathy Howie tallied 19 for the losers and Carla Hanshu added 12.

Darrouzett, the district 3-B champ ended the season with a 28-6 record and Briscoe was the district 2-B champion.

NBA Players Threaten Strike

NEW YORK (UPI) — The long-simmering unrest among National Basketball Association players exploded Tuesday when they threatened to pull out of the playoffs if their pension demands aren't met — but NBA president J. Walter Kennedy said he hasn't been notified of the threat.

The Players' Association, led by spokesman Oscar Robertson and attorney Lawrence Fleischer, called a press conference to announce they had rejected what they termed a "final" offer of the owners for a pension increase.

They said they would call a strike — illegal since their contracts are for the entire 1966-67 season including the playoffs — and refuse to play in the post-season playoffs in their "minimum" demands aren't met.

Kennedy then called his own press conference at Madison Square Garden during an NBA doubleheader Tuesday night and insisted the owners latest offer hadn't necessarily been "a final one."

Don't Understand
 He claimed the owners and players have been conducting a series of meetings and he didn't understand why the players had suddenly announced their demands to the press without informing him first.

Kennedy said he hadn't been informed of any strike threat and said his only knowledge of the new development was a telegram he received signed by Robertson.

It read: "Players Association at a meeting today voted unanimously to turn down proposals of Board of Governors in reply to our requests."

Kennedy said he expected to hear from attorney Fleischer today to find out exactly what the players' demands are. Kennedy said if Fleischer doesn't contact him within the next couple of days, he will take the initiative himself and contact Fleischer.

"I am willing to consider any requests reasonable or other — that the owners and me," he said.

KREIS HONORABLE MENTION

SWC All-Stars Named

By United Press International
DALLAS (UPI) — The 1967 United Press International all-Southwest Conference basketball team, including two from champion Southern Methodist and one each from Baylor, Texas Tech and Texas Christian, offers proof that scoring isn't everything.

The mythical first team composed of Charles Beasley and Denny Holman of SMU, Darrell Hardy of Baylor, Vernon Paul of Texas Tech and Mickey McCarty doesn't boast as potent a scoring potential as the second team:

But, most observers figure that the edge would have to go to the polished, all-around ability crammed onto the first five if it was to meet the second unit made up of Bill Doty of Rice, Jimmy Turner of Baylor, Noel Stout of Texas, Tommy Rowland of Arkansas and Lynn Phillips of SMU.

The college sports publicists who helped the UPI pick the honor teams selected only one player, Hardy, on the first unit with a per game scoring average of more than 15.5. But, they picked four players on the second unit above that figure.

Hardy, perhaps the top all-around hand in the league with his scoring, rebounding and defensive ability, and Beasley, who would push him for such capabilities, were the only unanimous choices and both were repeaters from the 1966 team.

Holman lacked only one first-place ballot of being unanimous; while the vote was extremely close among the next four players — Paul, McCarty, Doty, and Turner in that order.

Stout and Rowland were just five points further back and Phillips, the only sophomore among the top 10, was well ahead of the rest of the nominees although 11 points behind Stout and Rowland.

From the voting it was evident that these 10 stood out.

The first team had an aggregate scoring average of 80.6 points per game with Hardy's 21.0-point average being tops. Holman was averaging 15.5, Beasley 15.1; McCarty 15.0 and Paul 14.0.

In contrast, the second unit averaged 67.6 with Turner's 21.2 the best in the league. Rowland was averaging 18.2, Doty 18.1, Stout 15.8 and Phillips 14.3.

Throwing out the non-conference games, however, the first unit showed an 85-point potential to 84.8 for the second group in conference games only.

Paul and McCarty off the first team and Turner on the second are only juniors and will be back next year along with Phillips.

Hearing on Illinois Is Scheduled for Thursday

CHICAGO (UPI) — The University of Illinois' appeal of a Big Ten order to fire three coaches or get out of the conference comes before a faculty group tomorrow, and there was no clue what action they would take.

Actually some of the conference's faculty representatives began their annual spring meeting today, but only in committee sessions dealing with other subjects. Still the matter of Illinois' appeal will be uppermost in casual conversations.

The full group of faculty will convene early Thursday and will hold the meeting open for the appearance of Illinois representatives at any time.

James Costello, legal counsel for the university, president David D. Henry and Leslie Bryan were expected to present the brief for the Illini.

It was understood that Illinois' approach to the matter first would be to seek mitigation of the penalty levied last week by the athletic directors, to tire the coaches or "show cause" why its conference membership should not be ended.

Should the faculty fail to modify this penalty, then the university would attempt to "show cause" why the coaches should not lose their jobs.

The directors found that football coach Pete Elliott, basketball coach Harry Combes and assistant basketball coach Howie Braun were involved in distribution of illegal aid to football and basketball players from "slush" funds to $21,000 which were founded in 1962 and 1964.

Copies of the evidence compiled by Big Ten investigators and laid before the athletic directors have been sent to all faculty representatives.

Hence it was believed there would be no review of this evidence and that Illinois' petition would be the only material heard by the faculty.

Rice grabbed an early lead but couldn't hold as Baylor closed the gap to 38-35 at half. The Bears went ahead to stay late in the second period.

Baylor's Darrell Hardy had a season's high of 21 rebounds and scored 25 points. But the game's scoring honors went to Rice's Bill Doty who dropped in 27.

The SWC season ends Thursday night with the league's top two teams, SMU and Texas, meeting in Dallas. Baylor travels to Arkansas, Rice plays at home against Tech and A&M is at TCU.

In other Texas basketball action Tuesday night, sixth-ranked Houston bombed Loyola of New Orleans 106-64 behind Elvin (Big E) Hayes, and Hardin-Simmons ran away from McMurry 111-61.

Hayes poured in 41 points and grabbed 13 rebounds in leading NCAA bound Houston to its 22nd victory in 25 games. Jim Jackson topped Loyola with 20

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) - Leslie Pollack of Reynolds & Co says perhaps part of the explanation of the market's strong performance in the face of gloomy economic news may be that the Dow Jones industrial average is no higher than it was two years ago. The analyst says it can be termed a long-term consolidation and seems to reflect the long-term consolidation of the economy. For the near-term, Pollack feels as long as the industrial average stays above the 825 area, odd letters continue selling on the balance and short interest stays high, he will regard the market as in basically sound condition. The Alexander Hamilton Institute looks for a selective and consolidating market over the next few weeks but the company does not feel investors should be concerned about holding stocks that are covering dividends by satisfactory margins.

Goldberg Suggests N. Vietnam Under Pressure

TAIPEI (UPI) - Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, said Tuesday North Vietnam may be under pressures from its Communist neighbors but could make an "independent decision for peace" if it wanted. "It's entirely up to Hanoi whether peace should come in Vietnam," Goldberg said on his arrival in this capital city of Nationalist China on Formosa. It was the third stop on a five-nation Asian tour taken at the request of President Johnson. He told newsmen Washington realizes North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh is subject to pressures from his Communist neighbors "but Hanoi can make an independent decision for peace if they want it."
