

Wilson, Kosygin Pledge Vietnam Peace Efforts

LONDON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson today ended a week-long summit with a pledge to "make every possible effort" to bring about a Vietnam peace settlement.

Indications were that the two leaders failed however to break their deadlock on how peace can be achieved. Diplomatic sources said they decided to move independently in attempts to get Washington and Hanoi to the peace table.

The agreement to do so was announced in a 2,500-word joint communique — by Wilson and Kosygin at the end of a week of summit talks.

Kosygin flew back to Moscow today.

The communique was approved and signed after five hours of discussion, between the leaders Sunday night.

The statement called the Vietnam war a "danger to neighboring states and to the peace and stability of the region."

It also confirmed continuing British and Soviet support for the 1954 Geneva peace settlement which ended the war in Indochina. Britain and Russia are co-chairmen of the 1954 conference.

But the communique left it clear that Wilson and Kosygin failed to agree on ways and means of ending the war. It said they "set forth their respective views on ways to bring about peace in Vietnam."

"The two governments," the statement said, "will continue to make a close study of the situation and will make every effort with a view to achieving a settlement of the Vietnam problem, and will maintain close contact to this end."

In a farewell speech to Kosygin at Gatwick Airport, Wilson more or less confirmed that the views on Vietnam settlement remained deadlocked.

"We still have our own distinctive points of view," Wilson said. "However," he added, "we have come closer together."

The disagreement centered around conditions for getting Vietnam peace talks started.

Kosygin had insisted the United States must unconditionally halt the bombing of North Vietnam in order to get negotiations started. Wilson had backed the U.S. position Hanoi must match a bombing halt with a reciprocal military cutback.

Sheriff Thwarts Jailbreak From County Security Cell

Vessels One of Four In 'Razor Blade' Plot

By TEX DEWEESE

A four prisoner plot to engineer an escape from the maximum security ward of Gray County jail was revealed today by Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

The plotters, the sheriff stated, completely cut off a hinge of an emergency door to a shaft containing jail plumbing fixtures. They also had removed bolts and screws from a steel plate three-eighths of an inch thick on top of the shaft. The work to remove the plate had not been completed.

The plan then, according to Sheriff Jordan, would have been to crawl up through the opening and from the top of the tank, go out through a window and down a rope made of blankets knotted together and drop to the street, either on W. Francis or N. Russell.

The prisoners suspected in the plot have been removed from the county jail while welders are working to repair the door and make other security repairs on jail windows on the top floor of the court house.

Two were taken to Amarillo and placed under maximum security guard and two others were taken to the Carson County jail in Panhandle.

The four men involved, Sheriff Jordan said, were: Tom R. Vessels, Pampa, convicted rapist, awaiting action of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals on his appeal from a death sentence imposed by a Pampa jury last October.

Zane Leonard Evans, indicted with Henry D. Burton for the armed robbery of Ideal Food Store No. 3 last June 18.

Terry Nichols and Charles R. Blumerich convicted in District Court here last week and sentenced to five years each in the penitentiary, for two filling station robberies in McLean and a feed and grain store robbery in Groom last Aug. 21.

Nichols and Blumerich also face charges to be considered by the Carson County grand jury in Panhandle tomorrow.

Sheriff Jordan said today he first sensed something was "going on" in the east tank of the county jail a week ago Sunday.

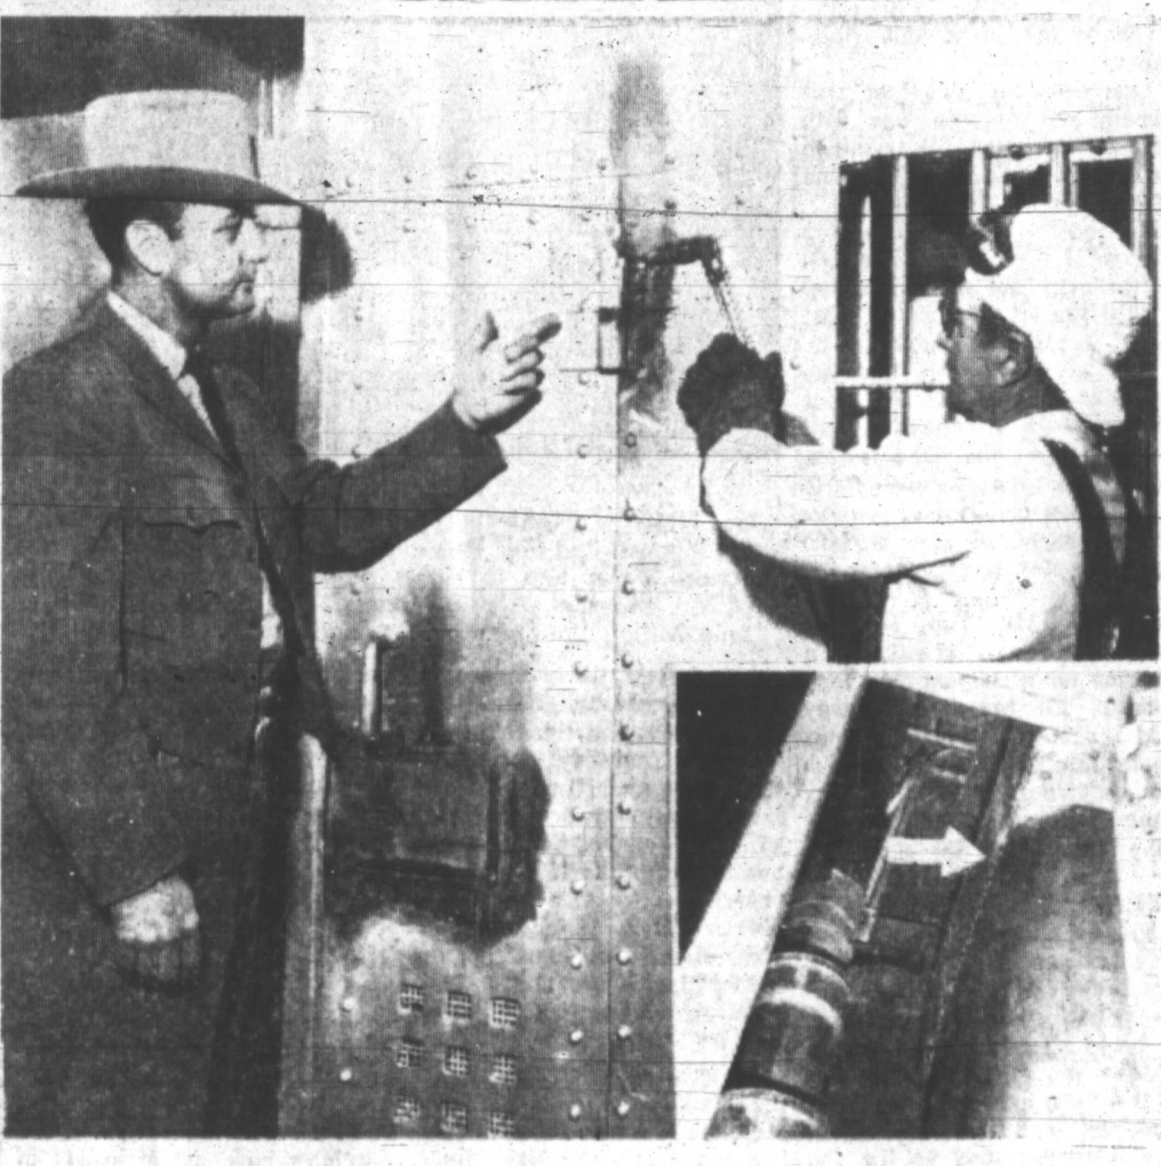

"We discovered a towel had been hanging on the hinge of the emergency door for more than a week," the sheriff said.

"The prisoners had been acting unusually well-behaved and I could tell by their actions something was going on."

"When the towel was taken off the hinge," Jordan added, "it was very apparent what was going on."

It was then the discovery was made that the hinge had been cut off. With the hinge off, it was easy for the prisoners to remove the door and go about the business of removing the bolts and screws on the steel plate.

(See PLOT Pg. 3)

BREAK IS FOLLED—Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Bowers points to the hinges cut away by Gray County jail prisoners in the maximum security cellblock as welder Bob Wright, 408 N. Zimmer, makes repairs on the emergency door. The inset photo arrow points to a steel plate from which bolts and screws already had been partially removed. The long and tedious jailbreak plot was foiled when discovered by Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

Cause of Apollo Fire May Never Be Discovered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Even if the mystery of what caused the flash fire that killed three Apollo astronauts is never solved, space officials feel they will be able to insure that "such an accident cannot be repeated."

Robert C. Seamans Jr., deputy director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), told the Senate Space Committee the United States will "not conduct manned flights until we have the highest assurance of their safety and success."

The testimony, released during the weekend, represented the second public report on the exhaustive investigation of the Jan. 27 accident which claimed the lives of Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom, Edward White, and Roger Chaffee.

"We may not be able to pinpoint the single source of ignition involved with the fire," Seamans said. "Even in that case, I believe that the care and skill with which the board and program office are conducting their investigations and review will provide the necessary assurance that such an accident cannot be repeated."

Dr. George E. Mueller, director of manned spaceflight for NASA, dismissed as "unfounded" any suggestion the astronauts were victims of a beat-the-Russians speedup in the Apollo moon program.

"We have never in my experience done anything which would increase the astronauts' risk," Mueller said.

Supporters of V.C. Mortar Attack Powell Plan Huge Strike

SAIGON (UPI) — A Viet Cong mortar team operating from the heart of Saigon killed or wounded 52 Vietnamese today and lobbed mortar shells to within 200 feet of its primary target: the headquarters of the U.S. military commander, Gen. William C. Westmoreland.

The pause in U.S. bombing raids of North Vietnam apparently was extended a second day beyond the expiration of the four-day Asian new year ceasefire. In South Vietnam fighting continued but no major battles were reported.

The Viet Cong terrorist team of two men and a woman was perched in a Saigon attic only eight blocks from the U.S. military headquarters where Westmoreland was working at the time. They fired three mortar shells through a hole sliced through the roof of the attic.

The first struck a warehouse in the American compound but did not explode. The second landed within 200 feet of the headquarters and in the midst of a Vietnamese airborne convoy. At least nine paratroopers were killed and nine others injured. The mortar shell set fire to fuel oil and phosphorus shells in one of the trucks.

A third mortar round landed two blocks from Westmoreland's offices and exploded in front of the home of Adrian Buxton, first secretary of the British Embassy. There were no injuries.

The terrorists then fled the building, leaving behind a time bomb to destroy the evidence. Twenty minutes later the building was shattered. Three persons were killed and 30 others injured in the blast.

One Terrorist Wounded

Three terrorists were seen leaving the building. One of the men aroused suspicion of a policeman and was shot at and apparently wounded as he fled. The other man and the woman left together.

In other developments today: —U.S. B-52 bombers swept over Communist targets in South Vietnam for the second straight day, striking targets in Binh Long Province northwest of Saigon. In the same area, U.S. 1st Air Cavalry troops pressed a search for two North Vietnamese battalions believed in the region. Initial reports said the cavalrymen have killed at least 27 Communists.

—Near the Cambodian border, U.S. spokesman said 25th Infantry Division troops uncovered a store of maps, and communication equipment hidden by Communists about 70 miles northwest of Saigon.

The company is the most widely-traveled Shakespearean repertory ever to tour the United States. Heading the cast of "Hamlet" are New York professionals.

Civil Rights Given Look By Johnson

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson, deploring the "curse of racism," met with a acting Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark and Negro leaders today to discuss the outlook for civil rights legislation in the 90th Congress.

The White House meeting was held at 1 p.m. CST.

Johnson, observing the 158th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth, said Sunday that racial hatred over the years has resulted in "crippled souls, in human creativity wasted on hate, in lost opportunities for growth and learning and common prosperity."

"It is man's ancient curse and present shame," Johnson said at a wreath-laying ceremony at the Lincoln Memorial.

There have been indications the President is giving serious consideration to breaking up the 1967 civil rights package into several bills in an effort to get at least part of the program through Congress.

The 1966 civil rights package founded with congressional opponents concentrated their fire on a proposed ban on racial discrimination in housing.

Dear Abby... Club Privileges Lost, Heaven Forbid!

DEAR ABBY: I have been legally separated from my husband for two years. He is a good father to our children and he meets all his obligations — financial and otherwise.

Everyone knows he wants a divorce so he can marry again. The reason I will not give him a divorce is because we have a membership to the country club, and as his wife I am permitted to use the club. If I divorced him, I would not be able to use the club.

My social life revolves around the club, Abby, and in order to eventually find another husband, the club privileges are important to me. Now wouldn't I be a fool to give it up?

NO FOOL
DEAR NO: If you put it that way, yes. But unless there are some eligible bachelors around your club, you're wasting your time because even if you begged some other women's husband, she'd never give him his freedom to marry you on account of losing her club privileges.

DEAR ABBY: Shortly before our 16-year-old daughter was to receive her driver's license, I made the statement that if she were involved in an accident that was her fault, or was arrested for a traffic violation, I would take her license away for one year. Everyone in the family heard me make this statement.

Last week my daughter was driving and my wife was with her. My daughter was trying to look at a road map as she drove.

Her mother told her to stop the car if she was going to look at the map, but she didn't stop — until she hit a highway post about five seconds later.

Now my wife feels that the one-year penalty was too strict to begin with. I believe it will not only teach the girl a lesson, but will serve as an example to the younger children. If you say the one-year penalty is too harsh, I may reconsider.

DAD
DEAR DAD: Yup, it's too harsh. A year is practically a lifetime for a 16-year-old. Personally, I'll bet the highway post taught your daughter more about safe driving than the reprisals of her pa. If it happens again, lower the boom. For the time being, lower the penalty.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the man who stopped dating a very nice girl because every time he saw her she was wearing a different outfit, and he didn't think he could afford to keep her in clothes.

I'll let you in on a little secret. The girl with the most extensive wardrobe may be the one who spends the least on clothes. All she needs is a sewing machine, a few yards of material, a little ambition, and a lot of imagination, and she can look like a million dollars.

LOVES TO SEW
CONFIDENTIAL TO C.W.M.: Nothing is more overrated than money. Ask anyone who has suffered a real tragedy, and he will tell you that no amount of money would have comforted him in his hour of sorrow.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1.00 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.

Local VFW Auxiliary Participating In 'Sewing for Survival' National Project

A communication from Mrs. Georgia White, VFW Ladies Auxiliary national president, read to members of the Ladies Auxiliary to Pampa Post 1657 Veterans of Foreign Wars, stated that the need is great in Vietnam centers for sewing machines as a means of livelihood for many widows and orphans there.

Mrs. White, requesting the local auxiliary to participate in the special project, "Sewing for Survival," adopted by the National Auxiliary at the annual conference in Washington, D.C., related "The Vietnamese use manually operated machines which are inadequately equipped. These women sew for servicemen there including making uniforms for the "Green Berets." This information was investigated by the Veterans of Foreign Wars senior vice commander-in-chief, Joseph A. Scerra, through the Vietnamese Veterans Legion, under the Civic Aid program with the approval of American authorities. The Ladies Auxiliaries are being asked to purchase the sewing machines and delivery will be handled through CARE. The Pampa Auxiliary voted to contribute to this project at its Tuesday evening meeting held in VFW Hall. Mrs. Carl W. Wright, president, presided over the meeting which was opened by the Chaplain's Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Mrs. Harry Hoyer Sr., patriotic instructor.

The February honor roll requirement was met by members voting to pay $1. per member to the State Veterans of Foreign Wars Cancer and Research program. The group also voted to present a flag to a deserving organization as an Americanism project with a program to be presented by the auxiliary on Americanism this month. The auxiliary also voted to make a contribution to Radio Free Europe.

Neighborhood meetings last week found plans being made for Juliette Low programs. Sunset will hold their neighborhood event on Friday of this week at First Methodist Church Education Building at 4 p.m. with 13 troops from Mann, Houston and Lamar to participate in the program.

Highland Neighborhood has decided to make improvement on the Girl Scout Little House as their Operation Sparkle project of the year. Landscaping plans have been drawn and the raking of the lawn has taken place. Troop 219 with leader Mrs. J. R. Newman were responsible for this needed service. Girls working on this project were Jan McIntire, Janet Romack, Marsha Foster, Gloria Newman and Kathy Gallman. All troops using the Little House are asked to co-operate and keep the yard clean and being sure all trash is securely placed in the trash container. A Girl Scout is to leave a place cleaner than she found it. Let's practice by applying this to Girl Scout property.

Organizational meeting for mothers of fourth-, fifth- and sixth grade girls from Baker School will be held Feb. 15 in the home of Mrs. Bill Watson, 305 Anne.

Reminder of the Brownie roundtable, Feb. 16, 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Little House. Leaders are asked to bring their Brownie Handbook and Leader's Notebook to this session. All planned to take the training should call the office MO 4-6862 for added information and to register.
