

Highlights and Sidelights From the State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Three pieces of major legislation passed by the House now have landed on the Senate's doorstep.

These include:

—Local option authority for financially distressed Texas cities to levy a one-per-cent sales tax. (Vote: 85-63)

—A stiff code of ethics for legislators and other state officials and employees. (Vote: 140-6)

—Repeat of "emergency purchase" provisions to put teeth in Sunday closing laws. (Vgt: 123-14)

Before passing the city sales tax bill, sponsored by Rep. John Traeger of Sequin, the House spent nearly three hours of continuous debate and waded through more than 30 amendment attempts.

Advocates predict a majority vote in the Senate, too. But no action is expected across the rotunda until after rules suspension eases way passage of the session's 60 day mark.

Code of ethics bill, by Rep. Jim Nugent of Kerrville, make its third trip through the House. Substantially the same bill has been approved by representatives in two prior sessions, but died in the Senate. Same fate is anticipated this time for what advocates term "one of the strictest codes in the United States."

Measure would require lawmakers to disclose personal interest in legislation, force legislators and state officials and employees to reveal substantial interests in private businesses and require identification of relatives on the state payroll.

Surprisingly, the strengthened Sunday closing law, introduced by Rep. Willis J. Whitley of Houston, cleared the House in seven minutes. Only one comment was made. Smooth sailing also is anticipated in the Senate. (What this law will do to tourists spending has never been mentioned.)

TIME OUT — First big break in one of the session's closest-fought contests — over whether Texas should go on Daylight Saving Time — came when the Senate state affairs committee approved the exemption bill.

Theater owners, restaurant operators and farmers backed the bill, by Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso, to continue Texas on Central Standard Time. (After April 1 the new federal Uniform Time Act goes into effect everywhere except where state legislators vote otherwise. Only one state, South Dakota, so far has passed an exemption act.)

Panel was unimpressed with arguments of television broadcasters, railroad and airline spokesmen that the state must stay in time with the rest of the nation.

Same bill, heard in House state affairs committee, was referred to subcommittee and has not yet emerged.

VETERINARY LABORATORY — Bill to create a Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory for Texas farmers and ranchers at Texas A&M University has been sent to the Governor for his signature.

Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria and Sen. Bill Patman of Galveston, sponsors of the bill, said the laboratory will be located on property which will be given to the state by the B&M Board of Regents. Purpose of the laboratory is to give speedy and accurate analyses of samples from possibly diseased animals to help local veterinarians diagnose and treat the animals.

MIGRANT LIVING — House Public Health Committee, considering a bill to set up state standards for farm-worker housing — heard testimony last week from state officials of the unsanitary living conditions of the 162,000 migrant farm workers in Texas.

Committee sent the bill along to a sub-committee, after such officials as Col. Egon Tausch of the migrant section of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission gave case studies of migrant conditions and pointed out that cases of infant dysentery often range as high as 30 per cent among the children of farm workers.

FEED LOT BILL MOVES — A feed lot license bill was approved by the House agriculture committee. Sponsor is Rep. Tom Holmes of Granbury.

It sets standards of sanitation in livestock feeding operations under authority of the Texas Animal Health Commission and fixes these annual licensing fees: $25 for lots that feed under 1,000 head; $100 for 1,000 to 3,000 head; $150 for 3,000 to 10,000 head; and $200 for over 10,000 head. Licenses are optional for lots feeding under 1,000.

Under amendments, the Commission would have to act in 30 days on license applications.

Water Pollution Control Board and Air Control Board regulations would prevail in matters falling within their jurisdiction.

Committee also approved a bill to raise fines and penalties (up to $200 per head) for improperly transporting animals from fever tick quarantine areas.

LOCAL OFFICIALS' RAISE — County auditors and precinct officials would make substantial monetary gains under a pair of bills being sponsored in the House by Reps. Vernon Beckham of Denison and Dick Cory of Victoria.

Beckham's bill would let county commissioners courts pay mileage reimbursement to county auditors for travel in their line of duty. House Committee on Counties referred that measure to a sub-committee for further consideration.

Cory's bill would allow commissioners courts to raise the salaries of justices of the peace and constables up to 20 per cent over what they now earn. Committee favorably reported this one back to the House floor where it now is awaiting action.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS — Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville and Rep. Charles Jungmichel of La Grange have introduced legislation to place greater emphasis on encouraging the construction, development and expansion of services and facilities of livestock markets in Texas.

Connally's bill would establish a charter-fee system to govern livestock markets and to create a seven-member Public Livestock Board in the state government to grant charters and supervise the markets where livestock are auctioned.

"We have seen in the past 10 to 15 years a vast improvement in bank facilities and an expansion of their services," the Senator said. "The same results can be obtained by providing the proper basis for establishing and developing livestock markets."

MOVIE REGULATION — Every incorporated city and town in Texas would be required to set up a "Motion Picture Classification Board" to preview every movie to be shown in that city and classify it as "suitable" or "not suitable" for persons under age 18 by a bill introduced in the House by Rep. Cordell Hull of Fort Worth.

Hull said that cities now have the authority for such regulation but his bill would make the board mandatory and would provide guidelines for classifying movies. Board would be composed of nine members appointed by the city's governing body for two-year terms.

TEACHING OF SPANISH — Rep. Ralph Wayne of Plainview has introduced a bill requiring public schools to offer courses in Spanish to students in the second, third and fourth grades.

Wayne's bill, now in the House Education Committee, would require that within five years after passage of the bill, every elementary school in the state has at least those three grades.

It also provides that the State Board of Education furnish textbooks and recorded Spanish exercises to the school districts without cost to the students.

COURTS SPEAK — U. S. Supreme Court rejected a challenge of the Texas law which provides penalties up to $1,000 a day for operating slant hole oil wells.

High court wrote no opinion in ruling that it would not hear arguments on the state law dealing with violators of the prohibition against angle drilling across another property owner's or lease holder's boundary.

A total of $304,800 in fines are involved in appeal. But petitioners claimed the state is seeking fines and penalties ranging into millions of dollars in 100 similar cases.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS — A $5,000,000 appropriation for the Institute of Texas Cultures at San Antonio's HemisFair '68 can be spent any time up to Feb. 19, 1969, and may be used for operating expenses. Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin held in an official opinion.

In other opinions, Martin concluded:

—Legislature may authorize a grant or loan of state funds to a governmental entity for sewer facilities and water quality control program planning and facilities.

—Board of Registration for Professional Engineers does not have the power to amend rules to permit the licensing of persons with degrees other than engineering.

MUSEUM FUND RAISED — A $200,000 private contribution was turned over to Governor Connally for a museum at Washington State Park near Brenham. This releases $500,000 more previously appropriated by the legislature under a matching arrangement.

Museum plans will begin immediately at the state's first capitol site.

Sponsors hope to completely restore the old city of Washington-on-the-Brazos as it was in 1838.

Motorists Have Five Weeks to Have Cars Inspected

AUSTIN — The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reminded motorists today that less than six weeks remain before enforcement begins on the 1967 vehicle inspection stickers.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., DPS Director, said that the law allows for no extension of the April 15 deadline and urged drivers to have their vehicles inspected before the last minute lines begin forming.

Garrison pointed out that some vehicles in Texas remain to be inspected in order to comply with state law. This amounts to approximately 14 vehicles per working day for each of the 500 official inspection stations.

"Undoubtedly," Garrison stated, "many motorists will wait until the last day, and it may be very difficult to find an inspection station that is not swamped with late-comers."

"In order to secure an orderly flow of the remaining uninspected vehicles through the inspection stations we would urge each motorist to have the inspection attended to as soon as possible. This can easily be taken care of during a routine visit to an authorized neighborhood inspection station."

should be reported on the joint return.

Taxpayers can save the Internal Revenue Service and themselves valuable time and money by carefully checking the 1966 tax return before mailing it, Campbell added.

Errors Delay Tax Refunds

Simple errors on Federal income tax returns delay refunds and cause taxpayers trouble, according to Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for northern Texas.

Campbell suggests this simple checklist:

1. Check arithmetic.
2. Attach Forms W-2 from all employers.
3. Sign your return. Both husband and wife must sign a joint return.
4. Print or type name and address, including zip code.
5. Use correct tax table.
6. Total your deductions if you itemize them on page 2.
7. List your Social Security number correctly. Both husband's and wife's number

Sweetwater Rattlesnake Round-Up Will Take Place This Weekend

SWEETWATER — The 1967 edition of the world's largest organized Rattlesnake Round-up has been set in Sweetwater March 10-12 with guided tours for persons interested in seeing or photographing one of the world's most unusual sports in action.

The Sweetwater Jaycees' Ninth annual Rattlesnake Roundup will kick off with registration at 8 a.m. March 10 at Round-up headquarters at Nolan County Coliseum in Sweetwater and will continue through 6 p.m. March 12 when awards for the largest and smallest snakes, and most total weight will be presented.

The annual hunt draws hunters from across Texas and the rest of the United States as well as foreign countries. Four foreign hunters were involved in last year's hunt which netted 4,000 live rattlers for a total of 3,400 pounds of wiggling danger. Over 12,000 spectators viewed the catch and various activities last year.

The tours for spectators and photographers this year will feature the actual working of dens several miles from Sweetwater. The hunters use gas to force the snakes from the dens and then nab them with special made snake catchers. The snakes are then boxed and taken to the coliseum where they are weighed and put into large plexiglass pits for viewing with safety by spectators.

Again this year, Patrick Burchfield of Ft. Knox, Kentucky, will conduct handling demonstration on live domestic poisonous snakes and exotic vipers.

After capture, the snakes are milked for the venom which is said "worth its weight in gold in research."

The contestants in the hunt battle for the largest and smallest snakes as well as total weight awards but they also receive pay from the Sweetwater Jaycees for snakes captured.

On the local level, dancing and a Queen Pageant to select Miss Snake Charmer highlight the affair.

The Texas Legislature commended the Sweetwater Hunt in 1965 for its service to farmers, ranchers and contribution to research to combat the effects of snake bite.

A snake steak concession does a brisk business at roundup headquarters. The snakes are hung up by their rattles and skinned. They are then cut up into two inch pieces to be fried. Some hunters say the rattlers taste like chicken while others say it tastes a little like fish. "It helps if you don't think what it is while you are eating it," one fellow said.

Pampa Jaycees To Elect Board

Pampa Jaycees will elect six new members to its board of directors at noon Tuesday during the regular meeting at the First Methodist Church.

Nominees for the board, selected in yesterday's meeting at Austin Elementary School, were Jerry Coley, Gail Houck, George Kilcrease, J. A. Martindale, Ed Roundtree, Jack Smith, Don Williamson, Ben Sturgeon, Morris Wilson and Charles Webster.

Members also voted yesterday to comply with an agreement by area Jaycees to send $5 per month to Girls' Town at Whiteface.

Sixth grade students at Austin school presented a musical program to the Jaycees to commemorate Texas Public School Week.

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's car got stuck in snow Tuesday so Rockefeller and his bodyguard began hiking from the executive mansion to the Capitol.

They came upon a car with its wheels spinning and Rockefeller went to the stranded motorist's aid. The 58-year-old governor applied his executive shoulder and sent the motorist on his way. He and the bodyguard then continued their hike.

The baseballers were "wind-blown" Tuesday as gusts, along with temperatures in the teens, blew into Pampa.

The Harvesters will be a busy bunch Thursday through Saturday. After the Borger tilt, Canyon comes to town for a single game...

Borger already has one game under their belts, and lost, 10-9, to Hereford, as the host White-faces scored twice in the final inning.

The Bulldogs are not without experience. They have 11 lettermen and nine starters back from 1966, including five pitchers who toiled on the mound last season.

Dick Mason, who has entered his first season as head baseball coach has Lynn Kelley, Sam Dalley, Steve Pruitt, Don Langan and Steve Connolly as experienced moundsmen.

Connolly and Pruitt did most of the hurling for the Bulldogs last season. Only one new face dots the Bulldog infield, that being Glen Park at second base.

IN BASEBALL WORLD

Exhibitions Start Friday

By United Press International What are the odds that Rocky Colavito sends Cleveland Indians' general manager Gabe Paul out to join Detroit's Al Campbell in Coventry?

Colavito waged a bitter fight with Cleveland against a 25 percent pay cut and finally settled for about a $10,000 slice in salary from last year's $65,000 when he signed Tuesday.

Where-joes that leave Paul in Colavito's estimation? The answer might be found in a hassle the outfielder had with Tiger GM Campbell in 1963 after a spring holdout. Rocky objected to being the No. 2 man to Al Kaline in salary that year...

Colavito was one of five Cleveland players who did not go to Mexico Tuesday when the Indians trampled the Mexico City Tigers 12-0. Fred Whitfield blasted a grand slam homer in the first inning as he, Max Alvis and rookie second baseman Gus Gil each collected three hits.

Back in the U.S., Jim Bunning, a 19-game winner for the last three seasons, opens Philadelphia's exhibition season against Cincinnati Friday. Third baseman Richie Allen, the club's lone holdout who is seeking to join the "Hundred Grand" club, has remained in Philadelphia. Owner Bob Carpenter conferred with him, but no details were disclosed.

Larry Jackson, Dick Ellsworth and Bob Buhl will go Saturday against Pittsburgh, which indulges in its second intra-squad game today. Steve Bias, Al McBean, Bob Veale, Luke Walker, Jim Shellenback and Pete Mikkelsen will go two innings apiece.

Hoyt Wilhelm, the 43-year-old Chicago White Sox knuckle ball artist, helps erminate intra-camp activity Wednesday when he makes his first appearance of the training campaign. The Rains Came Shower activity curtailed much of the action in Florida. The New York Mets cancelled their workout and manager Wes Westrum took the opportunity to go over the signs with the squad. JUST A RUMOR Davis Didn't Burn Glove

VERO BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — There's a story kicking around that Willie Davis soaked his glove in kerosene...

"Not true at all," the Los Angeles Dodger center fielder set the record straight today, "although I did give the glove away."

The glove Davis was talking about is the same one he wore last Oct. 6 when everybody was talking about him.

That was the day Willie wished the sun had never come up because before it went down again he committed three errors in one inning to put himself in all the World Series record books and Sandy Koufax out of commission for good.

Blinded By Sun Davis dropped both and still insists he never saw them due to the sun.

WILLIE DAVIS

suddenly turned the second World Series game around. "Why shouldn't I get the ball? I did it all year. But you can't catch what you can't see. I said it then and I say it again now."

For the benefit of historians, the glove was a Willie Davis model. And for the benefit of child psychologists, Willie's young son appreciated the gift.

As far as Davis is concerned, those three errors are almost completely forgotten. They didn't bug him during the winter and they certainly don't now.

It's a new lesson for everybody and that includes Willie Davis of the Dodgers who happens to be breaking in a new glove.

Davis is one of those diehards. He's still convinced there was nothing really wrong with his old one.

College Wrestling Near Season End

By MIKE GERALD ranked Lehigh beat defending runner-up and fifth-ranked Iowa State 16-13 but the Cyclones, who have lost three times, scared OSU, 16-15.

The clincher is that neither Michigan nor Lehigh will meet with either of the always-dangerous Oklahoma mat powers. Neither was there a clash between Michigan State or Michigan with Lehigh.

Remaining undefeated near the end of their mat schedule are Michigan and Lehigh Universities. Marred with only one loss are Oklahoma and Michigan State. Defending champion Oklahoma State closed out its worst season in ten years with a 16-21 record.

Predictions? Not on your life! Not when you consider that Michigan State, rated number one at mid-season by Amateur Wrestling News, was upset by sixth-ranked Michigan 16-14 that second-ranked Oklahoma beat third-ranked OSU twice and yet lost to the Spartans 15-12 while the Cowboys held MSU to a 14-14 draw. That fourth-ranked Lehigh beat defending runner-up and fifth-ranked Iowa State 16-13 but the Cyclones, who have lost three times, scared OSU, 16-15.

Upcoming Big Eight, Big Ten and East Coast tournaments should really "tell the tale."

As a note of some interest, the mid-season All-American state was recently released. Of the eleven top-seeded grapplers, nine were picked by pressmen by this editor as having best chances for an NCAA crown. Bets anyone?

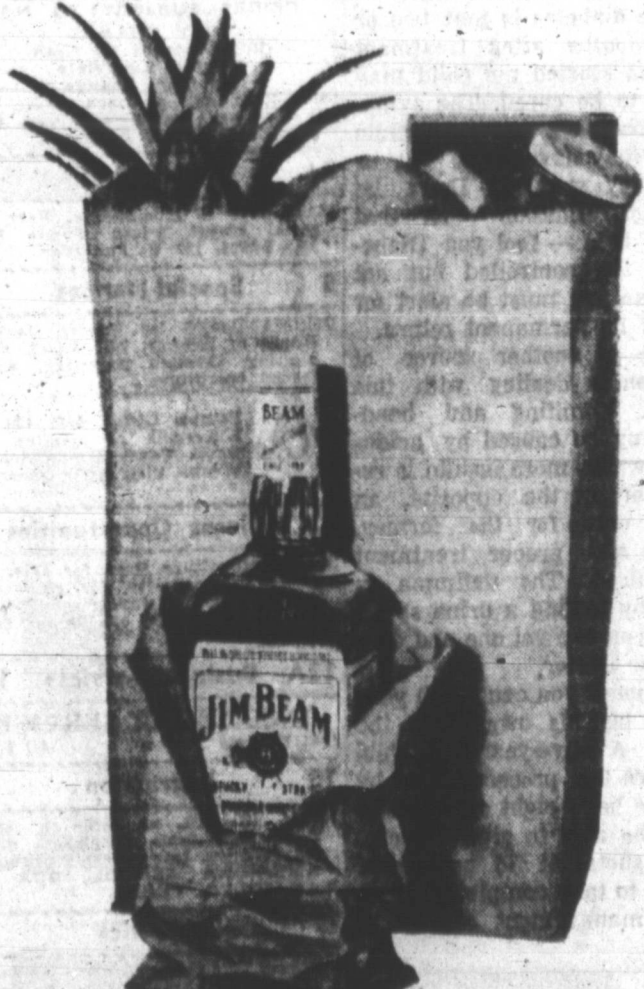

Regional and area tournaments between now and that time will no doubt take their toll in injuries to key personnel as they always seem to do. What may throw the proverbial wrench into the machinery of a good many of the top-ranked teams are the 115-pound and 191-pound weights which must see action in tournaments but are seldom used in regular season matches. This alone has wrecked Oklahoma's title hopes numerous times.

Nevertheless, the Sooners and the Spartans continue to appear as the most balanced teams and with the most depth, to use a couple of over-worked grid terms.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign News Analyst No matter what other events may intervene, it takes neither a crystal ball nor the talent of a soothsayer to predict that, in the end, Mao Tse-Tung's "cultural revolution" in Red China must fail.

The same reasons lie in the hard facts of economics are the same as those which the Soviet Union under Nikita Khrushchev finally had to give belated recognition and which remain the guidelines of Soviet policy.

This is the "revisionism" so hated by Mao which in Soviet foreign policy is manifested by the principle of coexistence and at home by a certain liberalization of the harsh laws of stalinism toward worker incentives.

Crucial Period For Mao, the next few months will be crucial.

That Mao and his followers realize this is indicated in the deliberate slowing of the cultural revolution purges and in orders to the army to assist in the plowing and planting of spring crops.

Virtually silenced have been the strident voices of Mao's wife, the one-time bit actress, Chang Ching, and Mao's heir-apparent, Defense Minister Lin Biao.

In their place with words of warning has moved the man in third place, Premier Chou En-Lai.

Peasant sabotage and a severe drop in industrial production forced Lenin into concessions which permitted Soviet peasants to sell their products on the free market and small owners to hold factories, shops and stores.

Millions Suffer Stalin's "war against the peasants" resulted in the starvation of some three million people and outright slaughter of an estimated 15 million others.

Khrushchev recognized the need for private incentive and his followers in office have increased incentives even more. Mao's cultural revolution now has been in full sway about a year.

But even before that he was cutting back or eliminating entirely the peasants' private plots.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Alexander Hamilton Institute says March probably will be a month of consolidation for the stock market. It also says there is a strong possibility of wide moves as investors weigh administration attempts to cope with the business slowdown.

The company believes it is a good time for investors who are willing to overlook short term market vacillations to purchase quality stocks yielding 4 to 5 per cent and selling at 10 to 15 times earnings.

Hutton & Co. says the Dow Jones industrial average probably will run into some stiff resistance in the 850-860 area since it closed within this zone in 12 straight sessions during February. The analyst feels it will take the rejuvenation of several of the lagging components in the average before it can surmount this barrier.

Colby & Co. says it does not foresee any decisive move for the market as a whole on the near term but takes a generally constructive attitude toward the list since it feels many individual issues retain a superior potential.
