State Department Fears Brainwashing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department says it is concerned over the possibility American prisoners in North Vietnam are being subjected to brainwash techniques aimed at wringing "confessions" from them.

Without verification by neutral observers that prisoners are being treated according to the Geneva Convention, "Hanoi's professions of humane treatment cannot be accepted," department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey said Monday.

The statement was prompted by photographs published in the current issue of Life magazine, recent newfilm from North Vietnam and reports of American prisoners being paraded through Hanoi.

The Life article included a full-page photograph of a prisoner identified as Lt. Cmdr. Richard A. Stratton, a Navy pilot captured in January. He was shown dressed in striped pajamas, socks and sandals and bowing to reporters at a North Vietnamese news conference.

The Life story, written by freelance photographer Lee Lockwood, said someone who said he was Stratton read in "a voice unmistakably American" a five-page "confession" over a loudspeaker from behind a curtained doorway.

Then Stratton appeared and, at the command of a Vietnamese officer, bowed from the waist repeatedly at the audience, "like a puppet" and without speaking or changing expression.

Lockwood reported in interviews he was granted at Hanoi with North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong and Nguyen Van Ties, Hanoi representative to the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong in South Vietnam.

Lockwood said he asked both men what would happen if the United States stopped its bombing of North Vietnam. Premier Dong replied that a halt to the bombings would open the way to negotiations toward ending the war, Lockwood reported, but said Ten "was clear and emphatic in saying that a halt to the bombing would have no effect whatever on stopping the war."

"It was his view that the war could be halted only by direct talks with the National Liberation Front," Lockwood said.

McNamara Rejects Base Bombing Plea

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara, countering congressional pressure for the bombing of MIG fighter bases in North Vietnam, says no such raids are in sight "under present circumstances."

But the secretary added at a news conference Monday, "this belief can change as time goes by."

McNamara apparently aimed his defense of the decision not to bomb the MIG facilities squarely at the growing chorus of calls from Congress to do just that.

One influential military expert, Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., had elaborated on the need for such a step just a few hours earlier on the Senate floor, and another, Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., made the same recommendation over the weekend.

In brushing aside their arguments, McNamara said the U.S. aim was "to avoid widening the war, to seek to obtain our political objective, which is a very limited objective, with the smallest possible cost in American lives."

"Under present circumstances, and this belief can change as time goes by, we think the loss in U.S. lives will be less if we pursue our present target policy than they would be were we to attack those airfields," Symington, a former Air Force secretary, said the actual loss of U.S. aircraft to the MIG jet fighters was not the important factor. It was rather that the MIGs, "without firing a shot or launching a missile," force U.S. planes "to fly where the concentrations of ground fire are greatest, he said."

"This is the fire which has accounted for the bulk of our plane losses today," Symington said, suggesting that U.S. pilots be called to testify in Congress if the administration doubts the risks of continued restrictions on bombing.

The United States has bombed certain North Vietnamese MIG facilities; under construction, he has kept strictly away from raiding operational bases.

THE SECRET BALLOT — Only Mr. and Mrs. Olen Anderson, 310 N. Ward, knew for whom they voted as they placed their marked ballots in the Ward 1 box at City Hall in today's city election. Although election officials said the balloting was light, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were among approximately 400 Pampa voters who made their choices this forenoon for mayor and four city commissioners. Polls will be open until 7 p.m.

Powell May Move For Election Stay

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Adam Clayton Powell may move to stay a special Congressional election in Harlem next week if he wins the first round in his court suit for reinstatement to the House.

U.S. District Court Judge George Hart said that, "God willing," he would hand down a ruling on the suit on Friday.

The election is scheduled for next Tuesday to fill the vacancy created when the House voted March 1 to "exclude" Powell from the 90th Congress.

Sources close to the Powell camp said today that if Hart rules in their favor—meaning, for example, if he issues a preliminary injunction ordering Powell seated — the Negro preacher-politician may ask a New York court to hold up the election until the lawsuit is settled.

It was emphasized that the proposed step was still in the idea stage and any action would depend on the decision Hart handed down.

Meantime, the judge planned to listen to four hours of oral argument today from lawyers for Powell and from the attorneys the house hired to defend speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., and the other officials named in Powell's suit.

In written briefs submitted to Hart, one of which was delivered to his home late Monday night, Powell's lawyers argued that in excluding the Harlem Democrat the House went beyond the constitutional requirements for membership and deprived his constituents of their right to choose their own representative.

Voting Is Light In City Election

A light vote was being cast in Pampa's municipal election today, according to a check of election judges at the noon hour.

Voting was progressing slowly in the city's four wards in the balloting for mayor and four city councilmen.

Less than 400 votes had been cast city-wide in the first four hours of the 11-hour voting day. The polls opened at 8 a.m. and will close at 7 p.m.

Heaviest vote reported at noon was 151 in Ward 1 at City Hall. Most of these were counted before 10 a.m.

Ward 2 at the north fire station had 119 votes; Ward 3 at the Langley & Gray cabinet shop, had 47 and Ward 4 at the south fire station, 46.

Only the Ward 4 balloting was described by a judge as being "about normal" at the noon hour.

Voters were making their decisions for mayor between incumbent Jim Nation Jr. and F. Dale Pitts.

They also were choosing from Leon Holmes, Fred Carothers and Joe Taylor for Ward 3 commissioner and between incumbent Clyde Carruth and Elmer Radcliff for Ward 4 commissioner.

Commissioner M. McDaniel in Ward 1 and Commissioner Hugh Burdette in Ward 2 are unopposed in their bids for re-election.

Voting officials said they expected the balloting would become heavier during the two hours between 5 and 7 p.m. when store employees have for home and day shift industrial

Jury Selection Moves Quickly In Second Trial of Coppolino

NAPLES, Fla. (UPI) — Legal skirmishing at the opening of the second murder trial of doctor-hypnotist Carl A. Coppolino Monday indicated that a jury may be seated quickly, perhaps by today.

Defense attorney F. Lee Bailey seemed to be moving along as fast as his usual speed in jury selection—he usually is meticulous. However, Bailey exercised none of his 10 allowed preemptory challenges during Monday's session. He may use all today.

State attorney Frank Schaub used one of his. That was to throw out a young man with whom Bailey seemed to have established a rapport. The prospective juror was a small-plane pilot—like Bailey—and he quickly agreed with Bailey that circumstantial evidence, to be acceptable, must point only to guilt and not to any other reasonable theory.

Bailey, the sensational young attorney who won a Supreme Court reversal and trial acquittal for Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, appeared in court Monday without a vest for perhaps the first time in his career. This item had been sort of a uniform with the short, stocky Boston lawyer. Monday, his white shirt was slopping over his belt, perhaps as a salute to the gentle Florida weather.

Former Miamian In Philippines For Bataan Observance

MIAMI (Sp) — A former Miami boy, Hugh E. Branch, now residing in Cut Bank, Mont., will be among 500 U. S. ex-servicemen to go to the Philippine Islands this week for the April 9 observance of the 25th anniversary of the fall of Bataan to the Japanese.

Branch and his wife left Seattle, Wash., Sunday and arrived in Manila yesterday.

The Bataan Pilgrimage of the 500 servicemen who took part in the Bataan Death March will feature the commemorative event which is expected to attract 125,000 persons.

Branch is a native of the Texas Panhandle, born in Mobeetie. He attended school in Miami and was a 1935 graduate of Miami High School.

He was one of the luckier ones on Bataan, surviving the Death March and being liberated after three years in a Japanese prisoner camp at Cabanatuan in February, 1945.

Branch is a brother of Mrs. H. H. Keahy, south of Pampa, and Mrs. Joe E. Wheelley, White Deer.

Mao Groups Being Infiltrated By Anti-Mao Elements, Reports Say

HONG KONG (UPI) — Opponents of Chinese Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung have warned their way into the very organization that Mao formed to support his cause in the nation's great power struggle, the independent Hong Kong daily Ming Pao reported today.

The daily said anti-Maoists had infiltrated and damaged the unity of the tripartite alliance, "Mao's name for the union of Communist party, army and 'revolutionary' rebels"—his civilian followers—that was formed earlier this year to shore up the stormy "cultural revolution."

This revolution, a euphemism for Mao's purge of his "reactionary" opponents, engulfed today to have engulfed the nation's top propaganda official, Tao Chu.

A Communist document received in Hong Kong charged Tao with allowing vast numbers of refugees to escape from Communist China into neighboring Hong Kong during the lean years of 1961-1963. The Ming Pao Daily based its

AFTRA Postpones Talk Indefinitely

NEW YORK (UPI) — Negotiations between the networks and striking radio and television employees have been postponed "indefinitely."

The talks, arranged by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in Washington, collapsed after two days when representatives of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) walked out Sunday night.

Arriving in New York Monday, Donald Conaway, chief AFTRA negotiator, said the union would intensify pressures on all network employees to get them to respect AFTRA's picket lines.

Conaway said the negotiations were off "indefinitely" and charged that the networks had been "arrogant."

In Hollywood it was announced that the strike, which began last Wednesday, may cause postponement of the annual Oscar awards ceremony of the Motion Picture Academy.

During his campaign Mayor Daley lambasted King, thus drawing a charge from the Cook County Republican chairman that he was making a flimsy appeal to the white backlash.

Speck's Defense Says No One Saw Killings

PEORIA, Ill. (UPI) — The defense for Richard Speck, charged with killing eight nurses, will hinge on the contention he was wrongly arrested on circumstantial evidence by police galled by the horror of the crime.

Prosecutor William Martin made it plain the prosecution would build its case against the 25-year-old drifter from Dallas on the story of and killed eight young women with his hands or a knife. Martin, who addressed the jury for nearly an hour, related the events of that night, drawing mostly from Miss Amurao's recitation to police. His remarks included statements not previously made public and included:

"That Miss Amurao, in a hiding place under a bed where she escaped the notice of the killer, said she saw Speck make a sexual attack on Gloria Jean Davy, 22, Dyer, Ind., apparently the last victim to be slain.

—That she and two other Filipino nurses, Merlitta Gargullo, 23, and Valentina Pasion, 23, tried to hide in a closet, struggling to hold the door shut but came out when one of the American student nurses told them to do so, Marti said.

—That she could hear the screams of her fellow nurses at South Chicago Community Hospital, after they were led out of the bedroom where Speck allegedly had gathered them.

50TH YEAR

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — Prepare to move the hands of your nephews backward one hour on April 30, otherwise you'll not be in tune with the "times."

Texas, along with virtually all other states, is going on Daylight Saving Time for the summer months and until October 29.

A bill to exempt the state from provisions of the federal Uniform Time Act of 1966 (DST) was killed by a 56-90 vote in the House of Representatives.

House members debated the bill by Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont for more than an hour before rejecting it.

Federal law now requires DST from the last Sunday in April to the last Sunday in October except in those states which pass specific legislative exemptions. So far, only Michigan has voted exemption.

Broadcasters, railroads and airlines opposed the bill. They emphasized the need for uniformity of schedules among states.

Smith argued eloquently—but unsuccessfully—that DST is "an artificial, unnecessary thing."

Operators of theaters, restaurants and farms backed the exemption measure.

Opinions differ as to whether Texas, once on DST, can ever get off. Amendments calling for a "trial run" and for a statewide referendum on the issue were resoundingly defeated.

LONG TERMS, ANNUAL SESSION ADVANCED—House has approved and sent to the Senate two proposed constitutional amendments. First calls for four-year terms for all statewide officials; second for annual sessions of the Legislature.

An earlier long-term amendment was defeated by Texas voters in 1965. Issue will be re-submitted in November of 1968, if the Senate passes this bill.

Legislative sessions during even-numbered years would be limited to budgets, taxes and emergency measures submitted by the governor. Governor Connally strongly backs both bills.

BUDGET VOTE NEARS—Appropriations bills are nearing a vote in the Senate and House. Decisions—plus those on teacher pay bills to follow—hold the key to the size of the tax bills Texans soon will have to pay.

Senate bill calls for general fund spending in 1968-69 totaling $846,800,000 ($4,700,000,000 from all sources). This is $220,000,000 above the presently appropriated re-uses. But even that high figure is $64,600,000 below the basic general fund outlays recommended by Gov. John Connally.

Sen. A. M. Aikin of Paris, Senate Finance Committee Chairman, says the Senate bill is $1,000,000 to $19,000,000 above Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's latest income forecast. But apparently there is hope that Calvert will certify the measure without new taxes.

House bill, still in committee, is expected to be near the level recommended by Connally.

Teacher pay bill totaling $136,000,000 is being heard this week.

Senate bill would provide pay raises ranging from 18 to 30 per cent. It would also general fund money as follows:

Judiciary, $12,800,000; public schools and youth institutions, $202,800,000; executive and administrative departments and agencies, $143,200,000; education, $476,500,000; and legislative agencies, $11,100,000.

AG PRODUCTS TAX — A bill in the House would authorize producers of any agricultural commodity to conduct a referendum to determine whether they would levy on themselves an assessment of up to one per cent of their commodity's market value.

Funds from the assessment would be used to finance programs of research, education and promotion on that commodity.

Rep. Delwin Jones of Lubbock is sponsoring the bill. His proposal has the support of wheat, turkey, peanut, grain sorghum and egg producer associations. It is opposed by the Texas Farm Bureau.

INDUSTRIAL REVENUE BONDS — House has passed a resolution favoring a proposed constitutional revision which would allow the Legislature to authorize cities and counties to issue industrial revenue bonds.

Resolution by Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake would pave the way for cities and counties to build industrial plants, rents from which would be used to retire the bonds.

Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo was one who opposed the bill as a subsidy. He contended, "We will be subsidizing monopolies and industry against private industry."

WATER ADJUDICATION ACT PASSED — Both houses of the Legislature now have approved the water rights adjudication act to settle controversies arising from the statewide water plan.

A House amendment requiring appeals from Water Rights Commission decisions to be tried in the county of the parties involved apparently will require conference committee.

SUNDAY CLOSING TIGHTENED — A House approved bill tightening Sunday closing regulations was passed by the Senate and sent to the governor after an eight-hour filibuster by Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston.

It knocks out the emergency-purchase provisions of the present law under which many stores in major cities stay open on Sundays.

Present law prohibits the sale of 42 named items — including clothing, hardware, furniture, utensils, yard tools and toys — on penalty of fines up to $500 or six months in jail.

Under the new law stores could remain open either Saturday or Sunday, but could not stay open both days.

CONDEMNATION BILL DIES — Senate Jurisprudence Committee has killed a bill which would have allowed both sides in a condemnation suit to be represented on the special commission which sets the price to be paid for condemned land.

As the law now stands, when condemnation proceedings are instituted by the county, the county judge appoints three "disinterested parties" to judge the value of the land. Senate bill would have provided that the condemnor and condemnee appoint one each then agree on the third.

HIGHWAY BEAUTIFICATION PLANNED — Texas Highway Commission has approved a new highway beautification and landscape-planting program to screen 154 junkyards in 86 counties.

If the Bureau of Public Roads approves, the federal government will pay 76 per cent of the estimated $664,300 cost. Department began junkyard screening program with nine projects in 1966 and conducted an inventory of 1,220 junkyards, dumping grounds or other blight along federal aid highways.

States failing to cooperate in beautification work will be penalized by a 10 per cent reduction in highway allotments. This would amount to $20,000,000 a year in Texas.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED — Dr. Virgil Tweedie, Baylor University professor of chemistry, was appointed by the Governor to the State Board of Examiners in Basic Sciences. Dr. Tweedie succeeds Dr. Cornelia M. Smith, also of Baylor. Connally re-appointed Dr. W. Mayne Longnecker of Southern Methodist University to the same board.

Wright Matthews of Palestine was named to the Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS — Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held that the Alabama Coushatta Indian Reservation tribal council has authority to borrow money from a bank to improve the reservation's economic conditions and fair Commission.

Income. Loan subject to consent of the Texas Indian Affairs Commission.

—A constable cannot serve as director of a water control and improvement district.

—Waterworks and sewer system tax and revenue bonds of Harris County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 are not eligible collateral security for state deposits.

—An attorney named to represent a person previously acquitted of a criminal offense by reason of insanity and committed to a hospital is not entitled to state or county compensation for representing the same person under the same appointment at a subsequent sanity hearing.

—Out-of-county witnesses are entitled to fees and mileage at such sanity hearings.

—Parks and Wildlife Department agents may be designated park agents as additional duties.

COURTS RULE — Right of a Nueces County doctor to sue to force the State Board of Medical Examiners to renew his revoked license was upheld by a divided State Supreme Court in a decision reversing the Court of Civil Appeals.

High court refused to review the lower court decisions rejecting the suit of a Kirbyville man for injunction against a nearby cattle pen and loading chute which he claimed drew noisy auction crowds, in addition to being smelly.

In 1866, President Andrew Johnson signed a proclamation declaring an end to the "insurrection" in the South.

ALBANY, N.Y. (UPI) — Hampshire for the past three years has been using a sweepstakes tied to horse races twice a year to raise money for education. Estimated sales for the New York lottery go as high as $300 million a year. Some 30 per cent of the money will go for prizes and 15 per cent for administrative expenses. The rest was earmarked for education with a lottery. New York.

City Water Posts Left Vacant As Two Leave Jobs

E. S. Lowery, city water superintendent, has retired from his post and John Scott, assistant water superintendent, has resigned effective April 15 to take a job as water superintendent at White Deer.

City Manager Jim White confirmed today that Lowery had taken a medical retirement, and that Scott had resigned. Scott had been notified last Friday he would be promoted to replace Lowery.

On Monday, according to the city manager, Scott turned in his resignation stating he planned to take the White Deer post. No successor has yet been named to take over as superintendent when Scott leaves.

Band Clinics Scheduled For Schools

Two university band directors will conduct contest band clinics for Pampa High School and the two junior high schools here today and tomorrow.

Floren Thompson, band director of Eastern New Mexico University, Portales, N.M., will direct high school clinics. Junior high clinician is Gary Garner, West Texas State University band director.

The directors are to help school band students and directors with interpretation and style and try to catch any mistakes local directors have missed in contest rehearsals.

"We always call in a consultant to help us be sure we are ready for the region I University Interscholastic League band contest this month. The high school band competes April 13 at Hereford and the junior high, April 19 at Caprock High School, Amarillo," Harris Brinson, high school band director, said.

Bands that win both concert and sight-reading division I ratings will receive the UIL sweepstakes award. To be eligible for a sweepstakes honor, a band must have also won a first division in a regional UIL marching contest.

All three Pampa bands won their marching contest in October at the region I UIL marching contest at Canyon.

After the high school band returns from competing in the regional contest, it will start rehearsals for the Tri-State Music Festival at Enid, Okla., May 3-6.

The high school stage band, the Swing Kings, will also compete in the festival of bands, orchestra and choral students, but Pampa junior high bands will not enter, Brinson said.

At Enid, contests are planned in marching, sight reading, concert and solo and ensemble. Junior high band directors are Joe DiCosimo, Lee Junior High and Jeff Doughten, Pampa Junior High.

Pampa Jr. High Student Wins Oratorical Contest

A ninth-grade Pampa Junior High School student won first in the Optimist Club of Pampa's International Boys' Oratorical Contest last night.

Tim Duke, son of the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Duke, emerged winner from a field of six contestants speaking on the competition topic "Patriotic Citizenship Needs Optimism."

Warren Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, placed second with Larry Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Akers, third.

Tying for fourth place were Bobby Bird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bird; Phil Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Little, and Bryce Michaels, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Michaels. All are students in Robert E. Lee Junior High School.

Trophies were presented to first, second and third place winners.

Winning on the local level establishes Duke's eligibility to compete in a zone contest to be held in Amarillo on April 16. Winning there, the young orator would face district competition and finally International contests with a $1,000 scholarship as the winner's prize.

Serving as judges for last night's orations were Mrs. Virginia Myers, Pampa High School speech instructor, Mrs. Doris E. Wilson, News Women's Editor and Lloyd Kuntz, a local businessman, with Harold Moore, junior high school teacher and coach as timekeeper.

The 4-minute orations followed a dinner meeting of the Optimist Club of Pampa in Jim's Steak House. Approximately 100 Optimists and guests attended.

The Climbers, a Pampa High School girls' sextet, provided after dinner entertainment.

workers will have an opportunity to vote.

There still existed the possibility of a runoff election in Ward 3 where 3 candidates are seeking the councilmanic post. In order to win without a runoff the top man would have to have a majority of all votes cast. If not, there would be a city-wide vote on the two top men within the next month. Also, in that event, the current Ward 3 commissioner, Roy Kay, would serve until his successor is elected and qualified for office.

The city commission, meeting at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in special session, will canvass the votes cast in today's balloting.

Elected officials will be sworn in and take office at the next regular city commission meeting one week from today.

City Secretary Stanley M. Chittenden said the vote count is expected to be completed early tonight.

Mr. Stroud died shortly before 5 a.m. Monday in Highland General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Interment will be in the Canadian Cemetery, beside his wife who died in 1963.

Duenkel Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Palbearers will be Joe Fish, R. B. Crosier, Britt Oliver, Roy Eckles, Bryan Eckles and Fred Hensley.

Choir Students To Hear Minister During Banquet

Dr. Leon Hill, retired minister of Amarillo, will speak during the Pampa High School A Cappella Choir banquet at 7 p.m. today at the First Methodist Church Parlor Room.

Hugh Sanders, choir director, will honor the outstanding boy and girl choir students.

Jerry Trice, choir president, will introduce Dr. Hill. About 90 choir members are expected to attend the annual banquet, Sanders said.

Board to Discuss CoC Members' Annual Roundup

Pampa Chamber of Commerce board of directors will organize the annual membership roundup during a called meeting at 10 a.m. Thursday at the CoC office.

G. B. Cree Jr., CoC finance director, will direct the annual drive. E. E. Shelhamer, CoC president, said.

Through membership billings, the CoC has raised $27,600 of its $70,000 budget.

During the roundup campaign, members will call on prospective members and those who want to renew memberships.

Roundup starts with a noon luncheon May 8 in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room. CoC directors will be captains of four-man teams who will contact prospects.

About 650 Pampans are currently CoC members.

Civil Service Holding Food Worker Exams

The Pampa office of the U.S. Civil Service Commission announced today examinations are being held for a food service worker at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo.

Starting salary for the job is $1.82 an hour. No experience is necessary, but applicants are required to pass a written test, according to C. M. White, Civil Service examiner at the Pampa Post Office.

Truck Wreck Spills Milk

Spilled milk was mixed with gasoline last night at the intersection of State Highway 152 and U.S. 60 after a refrigerated truck trailer overturned about seven miles east of Pampa. Officers reported no injuries to the driver, Daniel Spieker, 21, of Canute, Okla.

Spieker, driver for the Kelly Milk Co. truck, was en route to Pampa and Amarillo before returning to Oklahoma on a milk route.

Highway patrol officers investigated the accident and directed traffic while the truck was put back on its wheels and removed from the highway.

The Central fire station emergency vehicle and one fire truck were called to prevent any fires erupting from the wreck, but their services were not needed, firemen said.

Spieker told investigating officers he must have been going too fast to make the right turn onto Highway 70. Several gallons of milk were spilled onto the highway.

The truck belonged to Gene Kelly of Elk City, Okla.

Justice of the Peace Ed Anderson fined Spieker $10 for speeding yesterday.

Former Pampan Charged With Murder Intent

A former Pampa Negro, Harold Norton, now of Amarillo, was being held today in Potter County Jail at Amarillo in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Norton was charged by the Potter County district attorney's office with assault with intent to murder as the result of a shooting Saturday afternoon in the Club Joy, Amarillo.

Norton was charged with the pistol shooting of Tom Manley, an Amarillo Negro. Manley was released from Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Monday afternoon.

Widely Scattered Thundershowers Slated for Pampa

After a few days of cloudy, but rainless skies, Pampa is expected to have widely scattered thundershowers tonight through Thursday.

Except for the shower possibility, weather outlook is fair and warmer through tomorrow with temperatures ranging from the mid-80s today and tomorrow to a low tonight in mid-50s.

BASKETBALL BEAUTIES — One of these Pampa High School seniors will be crowned queen at the Basketball Banquet 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the school cafeteria. Candidates nominated and elected by the squad are, from the top, Jeanie Bell, Anne Jamieson, and Jeanie Prock. The Hustling Harvester Award will also be presented during the banquet at which Gene Gibson, head basketball coach at Texas Tech, will be the main speaker.

In 1938, Japan resigned from the League of Nations.

$131,000 Could Increase Services

Capt. Robert Tritton, Salvation Army commander here, predicted an increase in services to underprivileged families if the new Salvation Army building here becomes a reality.

The Salvation Army Development Fund has reached $56,100 of its $131,000 goal.

"Our small, dilapidated barracks at 611 E. Albert is inadequate to handle the growing needs of families here. And facilities are hardly usable anymore," Capt. Tritton said.

Yearly, the Salvation Army here provides about 1,750 pairs of shoes to needy people, over 27,000 clothing items, 730 meals and several other services.

About 650 persons, some representing large families, have applied for help in a given year, he said.

Capt. Tritton said there are others who go without, either because of pride or because present quarters are not easily reached.

The proposed new building complex at 700 S. Cuyler would increase requests for help because of availability and improved facilities for handling applicants, Capt. Tritton said.

Damage Suit Filed In District Court

David Miles of Potter County filed a $67 and $100,000 suit for damages against Montgomery Ward and Co. of Pampa today in 31st Judicial District Court.

In the suit, Miles charged that C. K. Webster, Ward's credit manager, filed a complaint with the Gray County attorney charging Miles' wife with an alleged swindling with a worthless check of $30.

After Miles paid $30 restitution to Montgomery Wards and Co. Feb. 20, the county attorney dismissed the charge against Mrs. Miles.

According to the suit records, the $100,000 requested was exemplary damages. The $67 included $65 Mrs. Miles' bond from any $1 and $2 for a long distance call from Amarillo to Pampa to determine why Mrs. Miles was arrested.

1965: USAC-supervised tests proved that a '65 Ford rode quieter than a $17,000 Rolls-Royce.

1966: After comparison rides, owners of the world's most expensive luxury cars like Jaguar and Mercedes-Benz agreed that a '66 Ford was quieter.

1967: At the Lake Placid Olympic sled jump a '67 Ford took leap after punishing tests and rode away still quiet, still strong. Other '67 Fords went on a bone-jarring steepchase ride and a grueling trip up and down the Los Angeles Coliseum steps. The results were always the same: still quiet, still strong.

Year after year, you're ahead in a Ford - ahead in quiet, ahead in strength.

Year after year, we do things you'd never do to demonstrate Ford's quiet and strength. This year's tests were the toughest yet. But the durable Ford came through again—quiet and strong. That's because the 1967 Ford is the strongest, quietest Ford we've ever built. Over 150 important parts have been strengthened and improved. And the '67a offer plenty of convenience and luxury features too. SelectShift Cruise-O-Matic transmission that's fully automatic and fully manual. It all adds up to a pretty strong argument for saving at your Ford Dealer's now. Quieter because it's stronger...stronger because it's better built.

were involved in their usual plotting, in-fighting, back-stabbing and under-the-table dealings.

The students were disillusioned and in ferment.

In Kyung Mu Dae mansion on a heavily wooded Seoul hillside, the silver-haired president was just celebrating his 85th birthday.

Rhee, lapsing occasionally into senility, was listening to the assurances of those close to him that all was well in the land, that he was greatly loved, that the people were with him and the future of his regime secure.

That was Rhee's last chance to bow out gracefully and receive full credit for all he had accomplished for his people and his nation. Even his detractors probably would agree his accomplishments were many.

It is not far-fetched to draw parallels between Rhee and the South Korea of 1960, and Mao Tse-tung and the Red China of today.

The beginning of the end has begun for Mao, the 73-year-old chairman of the Chinese Communist party.

Rhee's end came swiftly once the forces of society had begun to gain momentum. The end was unkind, almost brutal, certainly pitiful.

Mao's end probably will not come so swiftly; perhaps not so unkindly.

But in terms of what he is trying to accomplish politically, his end will come just as surely, signs seem clear.

The signs seem clear that the aging Mao is fighting a losing battle.

More and more, he seems at the mercy of those around him, who pay lip service to him and his aims while turning back to the road of reality.

The threat of hunger has played an important role.

Mao has compromised, or has been forced to compromise.

But he has not given up the fight. He seems determined to push ahead with his grand plans for a truly Communist society.

But for all his tremendous accomplishments, Mao now seems to be misreading human nature.

The forces of the society he has handled so effectively in the past are working against him and his policies. They will overwhelm in the end.

In failing, or refusing, to recognize this, and continuing stubbornly with his program, Mao, like Rhee, may be missing his chance to bow out gracefully while he still is ahead.

Dear Abby... School Girl Has Right To Privacy

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13 year-old girl with a problem that may not seem important to some people, but it is to me. I have gym three days a week, and after gym, everyone has to shower or they get an "F." The gym teacher stands right there and watches you, so there is no way of getting out of it. Abby, there is one big room with four nozzles coming out of the wall, and 40 girls have to shower together.

I was raised to be modest and I just die when I have to stand naked in front of 39 other girls. I have talked to my mother about this and she doesn't like it either, but she doesn't know what to do. Can you help me?

thoughtless, but she's not a mind reader. For goodness sake, TELL her!

DEAR ABBY: You flatly said that if elderly parents caused a problem by living with their children, they should be placed in a nursing home. You seem to give no consideration to the feelings or wishes of the elderly parent. Is it of no concern to you that it might break the heart of an elderly parent? How cruel can you be?

It may be true that young parents cause "problems," but when children are growing up, do they not give their parents problems? And did the parents put them out for adoption?

This is characteristic of the American people. In Europe and Asia they have fewer material things, but the family ties and love for parents are much stronger than here. In this respect I think we have gone backwards. Remember the Commandment about honoring thy father and other.

ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ONE: I agree. Children should WANT to care for their aging parents at home, but I addressed my advice to those who tell me THEY DO NOT WANT THEM. To them I say, "Both you and your parents will be happier if they are placed in a nursing home."

How much "honor" is shown a parent who is not wanted and is made to feel it? Spare him the hurt and humiliation of being "tolerated" if you can afford it.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a lobe.

DEAR OTHER: The woman is Closing prayer by Mrs. Don Carter.

The serving table was appointed with a pink linen cloth centered with a pink rose bud in a white bowl.

Attending were: Mmes Bill Houghton, Vina Moore, Clifford Coleman, Susie Roberts, Irvin Brown, Ralph G'pin, Don Carter, Adolph Novotny, Ed Pannell, Paul Thurmond, and A. R. Baker, and E. W. Madows.

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — "This is the year of danger," says Edith Head.

The danger she refers to is the possibility that one of the female stars may show up on the Oscar telecast in a miniskirt evening gown or formal pajamas or some such far-out fashion. As costume supervisor of the Academy Award presentation, Edith Head is the official worrier.

Her job is to be available, should any of the girls who are making the presentations or may possibly be winning an Oscar wish to consult her about their gowns. There is no compulsion that they do so, but Miss Head stands ready to offer her advice and suggestions. And she is probably Hollywood's most respected designer. She has been costume supervisor since the first Oscar telecast. She describes the post as calling for the talents of a referee, to make a decision if two girls have the same gown, and a psychiatrist, when I have to tell a girl that she doesn't look her best in the gown she has chosen.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

What beautiful weather! 80 and 90 degrees, but it is still looking for that late snowstorm that we usually have in late spring.

On the sick list: Mrs. Ada Olson in Highland General Hospital and Mrs. C. L. Adams still unable to be out.

Mrs. D. H. Porter of Shamrock and daughter, Miss Ruth Porter, of WTSU, Canyon, were guests Thursday of their mother and grandmother Mrs. C. G. Miller and son, Bill.

Mrs. Phil Gates spent the Easter holiday with her sister Mrs. Edna Nunnally in Causey, N. M.

Maurita Taylor and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, had guests from Spearman, Mr. and Mrs. Gammill, on Easter Sunday.

Guests over the Easter holiday of Mrs. Genia Noland were a sister Mrs. Lightfoot of Amarillo; Mrs. Lightfoot's grandson, Bobby Lightfoot of Puerto Rico; and a friend of the Lightfoot's, Leland Chilton of Amarillo.

Vernon C. Lawrence of Los Angeles, Calif. is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawrence.

Mrs. Myrtle Enloe's children gave her an expensive pair of new shoes for Easter and is still complaining of sore feet!

Mrs. Alonzo Wilson of Jamestown, Ky. visited Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wilkie the first of the week. Mrs. Wilson is a cousin.

Mrs. Maggie Deal and daughter, Mrs. Frank Arthur, were shopping in Amarillo Monday. While there visited Mrs. Deal's sister, Mrs. Floy Dorsey and also Mrs. Posey's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sams.

A dinner guest Thursday of Mrs. Mollie Hethcock was her nephew Roy Bell from Booker.

I went out to the Pampa rest home Wednesday afternoon and had a nice visit with several, who formerly came to the Center; including Mrs. Mattie Seiber, Jerry Torvis and Mrs. Kate Humphrey. None of them are very well, do love company, drop in and see them. All had their TVs, which helps to pass the time and make it more interesting. Also visited briefly with C. R. Wilson who comes to the Center regularly.

Hostess this week was the American Legion Auxiliary of the Kerly Crossman Post. Serving cake, coffee and mints during the refreshment hour were Mmes. J. M. Turner, chairman, O. A. Butts, Sr. Estelle Wheeler, Eunice Pierson, Lee Horrah.

Door prizes went to Mrs. Fields who lives out at the rest home and Mr. Adair.

Red Cross volunteers, Mmes.

Edith Head: Oscar's Official Worrier

DESIGNER EDITH HEAD poses with some old friends, a group of Oscars. In her role as costume supervisor of the Academy Award presentations, Miss Head is the night's official worrier.

same colors — white or green — and they want to avoid that this year.

But it isn't the colors that worry Edith Head. She will, of course, try to have as great a variety as possible and to avoid having several girls in a row wear the same color. Her big concern, however, is that nobody show up in a kooky, far-out dress.

If a girl insists on it, however, there is nothing she can do. "You can't force a girl who has paid $3,000 for her gown," she says, "to throw it away and get something else. You can lead a girl to the closet, but you can't make her wear what you want."

As always, one of her concerns is that the telecast gowns be modest, not too revealing. She has a "crash crew" of seamstresses backstage at both the dress rehearsal, the day before the Oscars, and the actual presentations. Mostly, they sew flowers in low necklines. Edith Head also has a group of "spies" around the hall, so that they can spot nominees who haven't checked with her and report any potential danger spots.

"But that does not always help," she says. "Sometimes a girl appears in a modest evening wrap and when her name is called she takes it off and there she is, in a gown cut down to here."

With it all, Edith Head thinks of the Oscar ceremony as a majestic fashion show. Most of the girls commission their favorite designers to make gowns for the occasion, and the results are often stunning.

"This year," she says, "the top designers are being used. I think it will be the greatest fashion show of all time."

But there is that nagging danger that somebody will show up in something from out of darkest left field.

"I am hopeful," says Edith Head, "but fearful."

Expect to see sandals in abundance this spring. The trend is toward every variation on the sandal set on a pancake heel for wear on city streets and in the suburbs. That pancake heel is also an indicator of something new afoot. Heels are getting lower and lower and the days of the three-inch are gone, the days of the flat, wide heel are fast upcoming.

The Family Lawyer

Cheating Uncle Sam

Question: what is the difference between tax evasion and tax avoidance?

Answer: five years in the penitentiary.

This old joke is often used by lawyers to illustrate a basic principle of income tax law—that, although evading taxes is illegal, avoiding taxes is not.

In fact, avoiding taxes is not only legal in a technical sense but perfectly ethical as well. Judge Learned Hand once put it this way:

"There is nothing sinister in so arranging one's affairs as to keep taxes as low as possible. Everybody does so, rich or poor; and all do right, for nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands. Taxes are enforced exactions, not voluntary contributions."

Thus, the law itself suggests various ways of saving taxes: by splitting income between husband and wife, by investing in tax-exempt bonds, by using an accelerated rate of depreciation on property.

And there are many tax-saving methods which, even if not actually suggested by the law, are at least within its permissible leeway.

Then where does lawful avoidance end and unlawful evasion begin?

The most obvious evasion is simply to file no tax return at all. But there are other telltale signs—"badges of fraud"—that the law looks for.

One such sign is a double set of books—the first to show the government, the second to reflect the real facts of a business operation.

Another is a dummy bank account, in which to hide unreported income. And another is a fake claim of "charitable contributions," to fatten the amount of deductions from total income.

All devices of this kind have one thing in common: they indicate a dishonest state of mind, an intention to deliberately cheat Uncle Sam.

Of course, even the honest person may be tempted to venture close to the dividing line between avoidance and evasion. But outright skulduggery is relatively rare. The Internal Revenue Service says that 96 per cent of all returns are completely honest.

Perhaps some citizens, at least, share the sentiments of Oliver Wendell Holmes, who said:

"I like to pay taxes. With them I buy civilization."

County Cancer Unit To Distribute Leaflets

"Know cancer's warning signals" . . . a daily life-saving reminder.

Determined to make the public fully conscious of cancer's warning signals, the American Cancer Society has adopted a new leaflet, "Know Cancer's Warning Signals."

The leaflet, to be placed in homes throughout Gray County during the Society's 1967 educational and fund-raising Crusade now underway, is designed with warning signals listed on a special section which can be torn off and pasted on the family medicine cabinet.

Through national distribution, the leaflet is expected to reach at least 40 million homes.

"Getting people to read and retain the facts contained in a simple leaflet—even if the facts are vital and life-saving—has proved to be a real challenge," Don R. Lane, Gray County Unit Crusade Chairman said today. "We believe the new action pamphlet may widen public awareness."

"Our incentive is the fact that at present only 70 per cent of the people of the country can name even one of cancer's several warning signals, in spite of years of educational effort by the Society.

"The signals were designated by medical specialists after it became known that early detection and prompt treatment can greatly increase the number of lives saved from cancer.

"During the Crusade, when a volunteer urges you to post the warning signals, we hope you will do so, and, most of all, we hope you will heed them and take proper action if action is called for."

The Chairman pointed out that early diagnosis and prompt treatment is the fact that 1,400,000 men, women and children, cured of cancer, are now alive.

The warning signals are: unusual bleeding or discharge; a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; a sore that does not heal; change in bowel or bladder habits; hoarseness or cough; indigestion or difficulty swallowing and a change in wart or mole.

Missionary Couple Presents Assembly

Mrs. and Mrs. James Holden, interdenominational missionaries to the Andes, stopped at Pampa High School yesterday to present an assembly program on their work in South America and display arts and crafts from South America.

The displays included oil paintings on velvet, wood carvings, basketweaving, pottery, musical instruments, jewelry and bookends and other novelties made from onyx stone.

Since Mr. and Mrs. Holden went to South America in 1939 as interdenominational missionaries, they have built schools, missions and promoted medical and dental work with the natives.

Pampa High School is the 44th high school the couple has toured explaining the work. They left here yesterday for their home in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Announcing Buick's new GS-340.

If you read the paper, you know how great our new Buick GS-340 is. (It's the one in the background.) And you also know you don't get a GS-340 for peanuts. It's a great car. But it's just a little ride for some people. So we set to work and designed the GS-340. It has a smaller engine (and the whole machine weighs less, too) better in class and simple and tasteful. And it has its own ornamentation, paint job (see the jelly stripe and hood scoops), and, of course, all the GM safety features. So now you have a car that costs less than the GS-400, but one with its own special brand of excitement. How can you best that kind of a combination?

Claude Lodge 719 and Carson Lodge 1167 of Panhandle will receive honor roll awards, which are given by The Grand Lodge of Texas in recognition of outstanding attendance during the Fall series of Masonic Workshop programs: Groom, White Deer and Skellytown lodge members also will attend the meeting.

James W. Cabe of Canyon, chairman of the eight-county Masonic Workshop Area E-6, will present the awards and conduct the Workshop.

Bank Starts Drive-Up Construction

Sheriff Rufe Jordan deputized two Pampa firemen yesterday as special deputies to guard construction of the First National Bank's new drive-up teller windows.

Construction on the windows started yesterday across the street from the Post Office, on Ballard and Foster Streets.

Otis White and Finis Gee, special deputies, will alternate guard duty with their days off as city firemen.

White has had previous police training in Denver, Colo., Arthell Gibson, First National Bank cashier, said.

Temporary quarters for teller windows were moved to the bank's parking lot on the corner of Foster and Ballard Streets.

The bank's Foster street parking entrance will be closed during construction, which is expected to be complete within 90 days, Gibson said.

E. W. Hogan Construction Co. of Pampa started dismantling drive up windows today and will install three single drive ups, one with a walkup entrance.

The north side parking area with an entrance on Ballard is open for the bank's customers, Gibson said.

B & B Pharmacy Offers Best In Medical Products

As a gentleman of Freud pointed out a number of years ago that the things that really bug you, the things that really bug you, you never mention in public, but bury deep inside yourself. Finally they fester and mold until most everyone can see them. Thus, if you wake up in a cold sweat every third night after dreaming of that time when you were four and found mommy kissing Santa Claus, you tell no one and are forever barred from the sympathy of your fellow man.

Well, since the problems of man are complex... so are the cures. Whatever your problem might be, the entire staff of B & B Pharmacy can be your sympathetic friend. They understand the daily problems that confront you. They don't claim to be physicians, but they understand every item of your prescription. They can explain away your doubts about the modern medicines, restore confidence and encourage you to take care of yourself.

Every pharmacist makes it his goal to be pleasant and friendly to their customers. But the staff at B & B try just a little bit harder to satisfy. They offer their customers free delivery and work a little harder to please their customers. Just because their business has been here for a number of years, that doesn't mean they will slack and take life easy, but it inspires them to continue to work harder for their customers and offer Pampa a real "old fashioned" drug store catering to ill.

And for the man that has the "income tax plague" they offer free records of all prescriptions. Try their friendly service. They'll spoil you.

Mangum Rattler Hunt Set April 7-9

MANGUM, Okla. (Sp1) — Warm weather is already bringing out the "rattlers" around Mangum and from initial indications this year's hunt on April 7, 8 and 9 should be a good one. Since the first annual hunt last year was spoiled by bad weather, Greer County is practically virgin territory for rattlesnake hunters.

Three hundred dollars and trophies are being offered as prizes for the longest snakes, shortest snakes, most pounds caught and the most snakes caught. This year a marked snake will be released in the approved hunting areas. Besides being eligible for prizes, registered hunters may win valuable merchandise prizes at the drawing at the end of the hunt. All snake will be bought from registered hunters.

Registration of hunters will get underway at 8 a.m. daily. Instruction in hunting and handling rattlesnakes will be given each group before leaving for the approved hunt areas with their guides Friday night. The "Derby Princess" contest will be held followed by a "Go-Go" dance at Civic Center.

Special events on Saturday will be the dance to be held at the Gymnasium and the Country and Western Music get-together at Civic Center.

The Venomaires Reptile Hunters Club of Ft. Worth will operate the "Snake Pit", handling, explaining and making the snakes. The mission of the club is to "educate the public about snakes and to benefit sportsmen and landowners." Many of their members, as well as members of other hunt clubs in the Southwest, are planning to attend and hunt at Mangum.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) — Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., Monday urged his fellow Republicans to make the GOP the party of peace and not to wave "a bloody shirt."

In a convocation address on Vietnam at the University of Minnesota, Javits said if the GOP becomes the party of escalation, its chances of winning the 1968 presidential election will be slim.

Javits also said that the United States missed an opportunity to bring about peace negotiations in Vietnam during the lunar New Year's truce in February. The U.S. should have taken the initiative by declaring an unconditional cessation of bombing, Javits said.

O'Brien Proposes Converting Of Post Office Dept.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Postmaster Lawrence F. O'Brien Monday proposed stripping the Post Office Department of cabinet status and converting it into a nonprofit government corporation.

O'Brien said that he has made a general recommendation of this nature to President Johnson. The President "feels it's worthy of intensive study," the postmaster general said in a prepared speech.

Under O'Brien's proposal, the postal service would be set up as a non-profit corporation, operated by a board of directors, appointed by the President and confirmed by Congress.

The corporation would be managed by a professional executive appointed by the board, he said. It would be given power to revise postal rates along a fixed formula based on a percentage of costs.

O'Brien said he recommended the drastic change because it was the only way to achieve "postal service worthy of the American standard."

In his speech to the Magazine Publishers Association and the American Society of Magazine Editors, O'Brien said: "I know my proposal is far reaching. In fact, it has to be the most extensive proposal ever made in the history of the American postal service. But I am firmly convinced this is the only way to achieve the superlative postal service President Johnson has mandated, postal service worthy of the American Standard."

The Post Office Department has had cabinet status for 13 years. O'Brien said if the change is made, he would give up his cabinet post and not have any connection with the new operation.

BOMB IN BOOK

NEW YORK (UPI)—The note attached to the book that arrived in the mail of Charge d'Affaires Nicholas Rodriguez Astiazarian of the Cuban mission to the United Nations Rodriguez, 30, did as the note suggested. The book exploded, burning Rodriguez on the face, arms and chest. Officials of New York Hospital said his injuries were minor.

The police bomb squad and the Bureau of Special Services met with a wall of silence at the Cuban mission building, where Rodriguez returned after treatment at the hospital.

National Window

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International
Right now—today—would be the appropriate time for President Johnson to order up a medal of special distinction to honor Vice Adm. Hyman George Rickover. The occasion would be the Navy's completion of its Polaris submarine program.

The Polaris submarines are nuclear powered craft capable of launching subsurface Polaris missiles armed with atomic warheads. These Polaris submarines and the improved craft which will follow them probably will be the nation's first and best line of defense for many years to come.

If there is a resident genius in the Pentagon, it is Rickover. Special recognition of his service now would direct public attention to the fact that it was he who developed nuclear propulsion for the U.S. Navy without which the atomic missile would not be one tenth as effective as it has come to be.

Rickover's presence in the Navy to achieve nuclear propulsion as a vital part of the American defense system was purely a matter of chance. The foggy-headed cruiser and aircraft carrier Admirals were engaged 15 years ago in a sly, dirty little maneuver to drive

Rickover out of the Navy. Twice in succession the then Captain Rickover was passed over by Navy selection boards. It was the duty of those boards to recommend the best available Navy captains for promotion to rear admiral.

Rickover Unworthy

To the Navy's eternal shame, two boards found Rickover unworthy.

There were some reasons for that, of course. One cause of discrimination against Rickover appeared to be that he was a Jew. This could not be proven but it did seem likely at the time. More important, no doubt, was the fact that Rickover is an abrasive character. He is impatient of fools, disgusted with the slow-witted, a perfectionist who demands that others be perfectionists too.

So it was that Captain Rickover made enemies in the Navy. Powerful enemies! They ganged up on Rickover in a maneuver that was almost foolproof. If it had been foolproof, the Navy brass might have gotten away with it. The brass decided to ease Rickover out of the Navy and to do it by the book, the book of U.S. Navy regulations. It is almost a holy book in the Navy. The book requires that a twice passed-over Captain must retire.

Rickover Plotters
The plotters against Rickover would have gotten away with it but for alert members of Congress who cracked down just in time to prevent the planned career assassination. The Navy innocently argued that the book forbade Rickover's promotion to rear admiral because he never had exercised sea command as skipper of naval craft at sea. The man just wasn't eligible to join the exclusive company of Navy admirals, not one of whom was by half as necessary to the welfare and protection of the American people as was Rickover.

The Navy took a lovely licking in the Rickover battle. The action of the selection boards would have compelled Rickover, at age 53, to retire on June 30, 1953. President Dwight D. Eisenhower vetoed the boards by approving an order that Rickover remain in the Navy. His promotion to rear admiral came in due time.

Rickover is a vice admiral now. Few men in or out of the armed services can match Rickover's record of contributions to the welfare of his fellow citizens. LBJ should get cracking on that medal.

DRAFT STATUS

NEW YORK (UPI)—Columbia University trustees Monday approved a recommendation of the university council that class standings of students be withheld from Selective Service officials.

The trustees then voted to abolish class standings altogether.

The council, which represents faculty and administration, had objected to making available the standings to draft officials. Contending it "represented an intrusion into the political arena." The trustees decided Columbia could not properly refuse to furnish the selective service with class standings as long as they were maintained.

MALOUF ABRAHAM REPORTS

First Speech on Floor Made Against Term Bill

This week has seen a lot of action. The first shot out of the box was the Daylight Saving Bill. This has been a real problem and a lot of stir has been made about it. As you know, the bill to keep us on Central time was defeated by a big margin. If this bill could have been voted on early in the session, it probably would have passed. However, as all of our neighboring states have gone on the Daylight deal, the majority of us felt like there would be an awful lot of confusion if Texas was the only State in the Southwest to be on Central time, four of the counties in our District border Oklahoma and that would certainly create a problem.

I know this will be a hardship on some people, but I feel like the majority of the folks feel the same way as I. I sure had a strong urge to be absent when the vote came up.

The next big issue was on the Governor's bill to vote a constitutional amendment to give four-year terms to all statewide officers beginning in 1970. I was very much opposed to this bill for several reasons. First off, only 16 months ago the people of Texas voted this down by better than 55 per cent and the Panhandle was about 60 per cent opposed. This is the very same bill and I felt it was a waste of the people's money, $40,000 or so, and that it puts the Legislature in the position of trying to cram something down the people's throat.

I made my first speech on the floor against it but the heat was on and arms were being twisted real good. It took 100 votes to pass the House. They were 2 short on the first vote, but the next day they ran everyone through the grinder and came up with 104.

Another big objection to me is the fact that this just about insures a governor eight years in office if he keeps his nose clean and his hand out of the cookie jar. This enables 'im to have appointed all the boards, and jar. This enables him to have appointed all the boards and so, there is no restriction as to how many terms he can serve. This still has to get passed in the Senate before it can be put on the ballot.

I would especially like to hear from you as to your reaction to my views. If you feel like I do you better start letting your Senator know. Another objection is that with the Governor having four years and House having two year terms, if a Governor wasn't voting to suit the Governor, he could give him a lot of trouble in getting re-elected.

Shannon, Johnson Sparking Cards

United Press International
Mike Shannon went to third base like a tourist this spring while Deron Johnson moved back to the position like a guy going home.

But if Monday's exhibition games were any indication, the position is agreeing with both players despite their opposite backgrounds at third base.

Shannon, who had never played the position before spring training, rapped out 3 hits to boost his exhibition average to .364 as the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Minnesota Twins 6-1.

Johnson, who led the majors in runs batted in while playing third base in 1965 but slumped last year in the outfield, collected two singles and a double and drove in four runs as the Cincinnati Reds turned back the Detroit Tigers 6-4.

Career Fielder
Shannon has been an outfielder throughout the career although he has occasionally caught. ## Yanks Trade For Kennedy

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI)—The New York Yankees, plagued by shortstop problems since the retirement of Tony Kubek, have obtained slick fielding John Kennedy from the Los Angeles Dodgers in return for outfielder-first baseman John Miller, pitcher Jack Cullen and cash.

Yankee Manager Ralph Houk immediately installed Kennedy as his number one shortstop with Ruben Amaro being sent to the bench.

The Dodgers have sent Miller and Cullen to their pacific coast league farm at Spokane. Also going to Los Angeles' minor league affiliate is infielder-outfielder Roy White. White will remain a Yankee property, however.

Kennedy, a sure-gloved light-hitting infielder will be coming back to the American League after a two year absence. After the 1964 season he and Claude Osteen were dealt to the Dodgers from the Washington Senators in exchange for Frank Howard, Phil Ortega, Pete Reichert and Ken McMullen. ## ARMY OR NOT?

Ex-Champ, Clay May Sign Today

NEW YORK (UPI)—Cassius expected it will mark the second time Patterson has the most active heavyweight fought Clay for the championship. The 31-year-old ex-champ today was expected to sign for his 10th title defense, this one against two-time title holder Floyd Patterson at Las Vegas on April 25.

The 25-year-old Clay, who is scheduled to be inducted into the Army on April 28, was to make the bout official today at a noon press conference. Championship Sports Inc., headed by Tom and Al Bolan, was the promotional outfit hoping to get the bout in Las Vegas.

Until Monday Detroit was very much in the running for the fight, but the E&J Sports Club failed to get the necessary finances and didn't come to terms with Patterson over his share of the receipts.

The Detroit syndicate has not given up hope of landing the bout, but the attitude was definitely more in favor of Las Vegas at the present.

Late Monday night Mrs. Gene Wilson, head of the E&J Sports Club, said she would file an injunction to keep clay from fighting in Las Vegas. Mrs. Wilson claimed her organization was given until midnight Monday to square things with Patterson, but that Clay's people had phoned her early in the evening to tell her that the deal was off.

She said that the Clay camp clearly had violated the agreement and that she would try and prevent the fight from being held in Las Vegas if possible.

If the bout comes off as ponents by knockouts. He kayed Henry Cooper and club fighter Willie Johnson before scoring a first round knockout of Bill McMurray last week in Pittsburgh.

For Clay the Patterson fight will mark his third title defense this year. He decided Ernie Terrell at Chicago on Feb. 6 and knocked out Zora Foley in the seventh round at Madison Square Garden on March 22.

Davis went four for five at the plate, including a single, double and two triples and drove in three runs. Clabough singled, doubled and tripled and drove in four runs.

Aqueduct Facing Another Strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—Aqueduct racetrack faced a shutdown after today's racing following a vote by horsemen Monday evening not to enter horses until an additional one per cent of the betting was earmarked for purses.

At a meeting in a dining room at the track attended by more than 200 owners and trainers, the horsemen decided they were tired of talk and wanted action and felt the only way to get it was to stop racing. It was the biggest attendance at a New York Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association meeting since its foundation.

The New York division of the HBPA pointed out that purses had remained static for years despite rising costs and that the state's share of the mutual handle continued to rise. It demanded that it be given a bigger share of the betting pools.

Good Start
The HBPA had requested this in a letter to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The Governor, in his budget message to the state legislature, asked one-half of one per cent of the betting pools be allocated to purses and the horsemen decided to accept it as a start in the right direction.

A bill passed the state senate but it died in committee in the assembly and the horsemen were up in arms.

"Your board of directors recommends that nobody enters horses for Wednesday and not do it until we get some purse relief. We should not race under these conditions," Jack J. Dreyfus Jr. told the meeting.

All in Favor
The statement was greeted by clapping and cheers. When the vote was taken, almost everybody in the room rose to be counted as being in favor of the action.

Tax experts estimate that New York State will lose about $147,000 daily with Aqueduct closed down. And how long it will remain closed through lack of horses was problematical.

The legislature is not scheduled to reconvene until next Jan. 1 although it could be called into special session by the governor.

Shockers Down Samnorwood, 19-1

SAMNORWOOD — Pampa's Shockers rolled to their fifth victory in six outings Monday with a five-inning victory over Samnorwood.

Pampa, behind the one-hit pitching of Gary Parrish and the hitting of Tim Davis and Hal Clabough ripped the home team 19-1.

Parrish went the distance, striking out four and walking four.

Davis went four for five at the plate, including a single, double and two triples and drove in three runs. Clabough singled, doubled and tripled and drove in four runs.

East Grapplers Hold Slight Edge

By MIKE GERALD
Eastern wrestlers will be slightly favored to prevail at the 1st annual East-West Wrestling Classic to be held at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Saturday.

Two 11-man squads, picked from the top senior stars after last week's NCAA tournament, will compete in the classic, which will join the Superbowl as a sports "first" in 1967.

With the Mississippi River as the dividing line, easterners Michigan State and Michigan finished number one and two respectively in the nationals while western teams Iowa State and Oklahoma State finished third through sixth in the tourney. All will be represented in the East-West clash.

Two exceptions to the all-senior rule will be juniors Rich Sanders, 123-pounder from Portland State, and Dave Porter, 150-pounder from Michigan. These two were tapped since no outstanding seniors were available as opponents for 123-pound Bob Fehrs, Michigan, and heavyweight Curley Culp, Arizona State.

The Porter-Culp bout should be the highlight of the event since the two were expected to meet at the nationals at Kent State, Ohio, for the crown, but Porter, last year's champion, was upset in the semi-final.

Other national champs to appear in addition to Sanders and Culp will be Mike Caruso, 123 pounds, Lehigh; Jim Kamman, 152 pounds, Michigan; Vic Marucci, 160 pounds, Iowa State; George Radmann, 167 pounds, Michigan State, and Tom Schendorf, 191 pounds, Syracuse.

Coaches Cliff Keen, Michigan, and Gerry Leeman, Lehigh, for the east, and Harold Nichols, Iowa State, and Myron Roderick, Oklahoma State, for the west, were picked last fall after coaching the top four east-television appearances last Saturday when a few of the NCAA bouts of the previous weekend were shown on "Wide World of Sports." This provided an excellent opportunity for those who have never seen collegiate wrestling at its very best to do so.

Recapping the nationals with pre-season predictions, we find many upsets, and, as a result, a poor bit of picking. Although nine of the editor's eleven picks made the mid-season All-America slate, only four of these cop-

CHANCE TO HIT IT BIG

ARNIE, ARMY READY

Nicklaus Man to Beat

By United Press International
AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, the co-favorite, signed in, took care of a minor problem, and cited Jack Nicklaus as his next major one in the way of a fifth masters golf championship.

Palmer's immediate problem was getting a haircut.

"If I don't get one soon," he said, "they'll be handing me a violin."

But he had no trouble tracking down a barber, and then had equally little trouble over the familiar 6,900-yard Augusta National course as he got in his first practice lick Monday for Thursday's opening round of this four-day, 72-hole tournament.

There are 84 entries in the field and the oddsmakers like the chances of Palmer and Nicklaus best.

That's to be expected because between them they have monopolized seven of the last nine Masters' titles and whereas Palmer is shooting for his fifth win here, Nicklaus is going for his third straight.

Old Favorites
Palmer and Nicklaus both are pegged at 6-1 by the boys who sit down and come up with figures on these things. U.S. Open champ Billy Casper, Doug Sanders and Gay Brewer, a near-winner last year, are grouped at 8-1, while South Africa's little Gary Player and former U.S. Open titlist Julius Boros will go off at 10-1.

Of all those who signed their names in the official entry book Monday, none looked more relaxed nor more at home than the sun-tanned, trim-looking 37-year-old Palmer, who scored his victories here in 1958, 1960, 1962 and 1964.

From the way he's been playing, Palmer should look relaxed.

He has won two tournaments the Los Angeles and Tucson; he is at the top of the money winnings lists with official earnings of $54,673; he was 13 under par and finished third at Greensboro, N.C., this past week and there's something about the local course that always gets his adrenalin working.

As Good As Ever
"There's really no part of my game that I'm particularly concerned about," he admitted.

"Oh, I'd like to be a little more sure of my putting, and I'll work on it the next few days. But my scoring has been as good as it's ever been."

While Palmer was competing at Greensboro last week, Nicklaus was here practicing in his usual manner before the event. He went back home to Columbus, Ohio, Sunday but he still was on everyone's mind, including Palmer's.

"Who do you think is the golfer you'll have to beat?" Palmer was asked.

"You mean other than Jack," he answered almost automatically. "Well Jack is always ough and you know he's gonna be particularly tough on this course. After him, I suppose it'll be the same old gang. Fellows like Casper, Player and Sanders. Boros, too. Sanders has been putting especially well and Casper has had a long rest. He should be ready."

It was Casper who charged back from behind to beat Palmer in last summer's U.S. Open at San Francisco and Arnold isn't ever likely to forget that one.

Some of golf's old guard like Ben Hogan, Jimmy Demaret and Gene Sarazen already are on the scene here but aren't expected to pose much of a challenge to the younger lions.

Hogan, a stranger on the tour now, says he's still bothered by his putting. He worked on long and short ones Monday.

Now 54, Hogan has won twice here, his last victory coming in 1953 when he set a record with a 72-hole total of 274 that stood until Nicklaus smashed it with a 271 in 1965.

PALMER TOPS
PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—Arnold Palmer, professional golf's all-time money winner, regained the lead in the official winnings for 1967 Monday by virtue of his third place finish in the Greater Greensboro Open.

Borger Here For Net Meet

Pampa High School netters were playing their second home dual meet today against Borger and Friday and Saturday participate in the annual Borger-Phillips tournament.

Today marked the second time the Harvesters and Bulldogs had met in dual competition with the Bulldogs coming out on top in the first meeting.

Saturday Pampa Country Club will overrun with high school golfers when the Harvester linksters host the fourth round of district competition.

Monterey is the district leader with a three round total of 944 with Tascosa second at 941. Forger is third at 932, then comes Lubbock Coronado with a 956 team total. Amarillo at 974, Pampa 980, Caprock 1002, Palo Duro 1015, Plainview, 1017 and Lubbock 1033.

Harvester thinclads will be in Borger Saturday for the one day Bulldog Relays.

A total of 18 teams have entered the meet with two divisions set, AAAA and AAA teams will compete in the upper division and AA and A teams in the lower division.

Pampa, Sandies To Play Today

Pampa High's varsity baseballers were trying to break a one-game losing streak today when they played host to Amarillo at 4 p.m. in the first of three district games for the week.

Thursday the Harvesters go to Borger and Friday host Palo Duro at Optimist Club park.

Amarillo came into today's game with a 1-1 district record as Pampa, who beat Lubbock Friday but lost to Monterey Saturday.

Amarillo lost to Tascosa Friday but slaughtered Palo Duro Saturday.

Pampa is 13-1 for the season and Amarillo 9-6.

ig Brother Would List Everyone

Don't let anybody tell you Big Brother is not with us and aching out for more power to "giment the lives of all Americans. He is.

For openers, give a listen to the words of anti-poverty director Sargent Shriver before a Senate labor subcommittee which is studying the effects of a draft on the nation's manpower.

Shriver proposed that the Selective Service register all Americans at age 16 to help identify the poor and give girls a better chance for national service.

Registering and testing at age 15, Shriver said, would provide continuing census which could identify the "lost legion of American youth" who need help in shaking off "their heritage of deprivation and poverty."

Frightening, isn't it? Shriver was a little unclear on how his proposed "national assessment" would channel young people in fields of work and study approved by Big Brother, but that would be a simple matter, once they are registered, tested and classified. An official nudge would do it, say by the Selective Service System or something like it tailored to fit the need. You can bet on that.

Adoption of the Shriver proposal of a national manpower pool would mean a complete statistical rundown on every American boy and girl in the coming generation would go in to a computer for classification and designation where each would best serve the national interests.

Talk about a police state. We are heading in that direction and fast. The way things are going, it looks like the days of the individual are numbered unless we kick out the collectivists in Congress and replace them with libertarians.

The Shriver proposal would partially implement the strong, centralized federal government President Johnson recently said was sure to come. Here's how LBJ phrased it:

"What we are living through together are the birth pangs of a fundamentally new process in American government — federal-state interaction never contemplated by the founding fathers."

Johnson also took a swipe at states rights and defended a powerful federal government. Such issues as states' rights, he said, make for good stump speeches and good debates in the lecture hall, but they don't get us far down the road toward meeting the problems of modern America.

The President outlined his concept of future American government before a meeting of government officials in Washington and mentioned in passing that within the next five years federal aid to states probably would be quadrupled. Wow! Government printing presses will have to run "round-the-clock" to grind out that kind of money.

The Johnson formula for solving the problems of "modern America" is nothing new. Old hat, in fact. Since the advent of the Roosevelt administration in 1933, the federal government has acquired more power and spent more money than all previous administrations. Trouble is, they've solved nothing, but have only compounded the problems.

Now the bureaucrats tell us they need more power to regiment our lives and more money to stay in business. Don't say you haven't been warned what's ahead for our country. Anybody for individualism?

Women and Employment

Never underestimate the power of a woman—she is probably doing that well enough herself. Although the number of women working outside the home continues to rise (at 25 million, women now constitute more than one-third of the total labor force in the United States), the types of jobs women are NOT working at suggests that, in general, the fair sex sadly shortchanges its own capabilities.

Women represent only 18 per cent of the nation's college professors; 8 per cent of its college presidents; 6 per cent of its lawyers; 2.5 per cent of its representatives in Washington, and a mere 1 per cent (1 out of 100) of its senators.

Only among school teachers are women in substantial numbers. Here they are a majority — 69 per cent. Let it be charged that anti-feminist prejudice is responsible for this poor showing in the professions consider these facts:

In 1930 women earned 40 per cent of all master's degrees; in 1965, 32 per cent. In 1930, 15 per cent of all doctoral degrees were conferred on women, in 1965, 11 per cent.

RENTICARE vs INCENTIVE.

Before the year is out, many thousands of Americans will be moving into new or freshly renovated apartments. They will enjoy the wall-to-wall carpeting, the electric garbage disposal units and other niceties. These individuals will have special reason to enjoy their newfound comfort. The reason why is that the niceties will be paid for by the taxpayers.

The reference here is to the beneficiaries of the Great Society's rent subsidy program, sometimes known as Renticare. Under this program, poor families — or, in some cases, mothers with illegitimate children — will move out of the slums into taxpayer-financed housing. To qualify for this handout, a family must not have an income above $4,300 a year. The head of the household pays a fixed percentage of his or her income for rent; Uncle Sam pays the rest.

President Johnson says that Renticare is "the single most important breakthrough in the history of public housing." It would be more accurate to describe rent subsidies as the single biggest blow at self-reliance in many a year.

To be sure, there is rising congressional opposition to the plan because of the increase in the cost of defending Vietnam. But it will be a shame if opposition to Renticare is based solely on the general cost of government this year. Renticare is not only costly; it is wrong.

Why does one reach that conclusion? The answer is that a rent subsidy gives a man or woman a stake in being a ward of the government. If a bureaucrat gives a person a comfortable apartment with wall-to-wall carpeting, it isn't reasonable to suppose that a former slum dweller will want to leave such comfort and try to make a place for himself on his own.

We know from the record of welfareism in the United States that the army of welfare careerists is growing year by year. A New York "World Journal Tribune" writer recently cited the case of a woman reliever in New York City who openly admitted intending to take society for a ride in getting relief and other welfare benefits. The result, as the "World Journal Tribune" writer said, is an "unconscionable drain on your taxes and mine."

Renticare is the ultimate for welfare careerists. Once on Renticare, one can be sure that a public dependent will never get off unless forced off. Rent subsidy strikes at the incentive system of our society. If there is no need to work for the comfortable things in life, many people—the drone element, at least—simply won't work.

Rent subsidies should not be thought of as a small program. The "Wall Street Journal" reports that the program could cost up to $6 billion. As this money is spent, it will eat into the morale of our working people. What is John Doe, an industrial worker, to think about such a program? In all likelihood, he works as many hours as possible in order to get ahead and give his family a higher standard of living. Not every hard-working American enjoys wall-to-wall carpeting and electric garbage disposal units. If he sees a drone family given things he can't afford on the basis of his work, he is likely to become infuriated with the workings of his society. He will feel cheated, and rightly so.

Hard-working citizens are cheated by Great Society planners and administrators when more is given to nonworkers and drones than a working man can buy through his own labor. Indeed it is outrageous that productive citizens should be penalized so that non-productive people can have a free ride at public expense. Rent subsidies violate, therefore, the basic operational concepts of our free enterprise system. They strike directly at the concept of work and monetary returns in accordance with the amount one works.

The Wall Street Journal points out that the end of last year in one of the big slum areas of Cleveland where Renticare is operating there were more than 10,000 unwed mothers and 33,000 illegitimate children receiving welfare aid.

Why is the Great Society pushing the Renticare program? Well, it seems that there is more to it than meets the eye. For example, if the bureaucrats can place slum families in middle-class apartments, they have the power to upset and juggle neighborhoods, which is what they clearly want to do.

Statements by Harold Howe II, U.S. Commissioner of Education, make plain his determination to break up the neighborhood school system. One way of doing this is by busing of students. Another is by directly tackling the neighborhoods by sending slum families into the suburbs. Anyone who doesn't believe the masters of the Great Society wouldn't go this far in shattering our national way of life simply hasn't read the fine print in the Great Society programs. Renticare thus not only strikes at self-reliance but is a tool for breaking up the patterns of existing neighborhoods.

A thought for the day—German author Thomas Mann once wrote: "Opinions cannot survive if one has no chance to fight for them."

THE CONNALLY ACT

Published announcements state that the National Council of Churches will start a "drive to repeal the so-called Connally Act." This undoubtedly refers to the resolution providing for the adherence of the United States to the World Court of the United Nations. The Connally resolution provides that our country cannot be brought before the World Court unless our government gives prior consent to the action. It is not generally known that no communist nation adheres to the World Court, yet every communist nation may have one of its nationals elected to serve as a judge on that court. There are 15 judges, and 9 constitute a quorum in case there were 9 judges sitting. 5 could render a decision. It might well happen that all five would be communists.

What would happen to our country if we were tried by a World Court having a majority of communist judges? Suppose the USSR should claim Alaska, or Mexico should claim the southwestern part of our country. These territories formerly belonged to Russia and Mexico. Communist judges would of course authorize their return. Suppose we were hauled before the court charged with aggression in Vietnam. Suppose China brought an action in the World Court for the return of Taiwan, accusing the United States of seizing that portion of her territory. As long as we have the Connally resolution, we need not submit such cases to the jurisdiction of the World Court. But if that resolution is repealed, we would be the victim of the court's decision, not only in those cases, but in any other case that our enemies chose to bring against us.

If the Connally resolution is repealed, our country might well be dismembered and our sovereignty destroyed. The maintenance of that resolution is essential to the safety of the United States of America and its people.

Under the plan to be tested in the pilot project, the census takers not only will gather information but assist the elderly in finding employment and in other ways.

TEENAGER CENSUS — The census of teenagers will involve the registration and intelligence testing of youths between 16 and 18.

OEO Census Projected of Impoverished Among Both Senior Citizens and Teenagers

By ROBERT ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Johnson Administration wants a census of the nation's senior citizens and teenagers. (Editor's Note: Big Brother's checking again!)

If Congress provides the necessary funds, the registration and interviewing of all persons over 60 and youths between 16 and 18 will get underway before the end of this year.

Chief purpose of this unique census is to determine the number and location of the impoverished, these age groups and what is required to enable them to better themselves.

Under plans now being worked out at the White House, this census will be supervised by the Office of Economic Opportunity, which administers the anti-poverty program. Also participating will be the Census Bureau and private organizations.

As a pilot project, the National Council on Aging has been given a $1.25 million grant to conduct such surveys in several large city slums and depressed rural areas.

In addition to making a count of the aged and youthful poor, the council will also train older persons to act as census takers in the proposed nationwide census.

Known as Project FIND, this program was formulated by Jack Ossosky, assistant to OEO director Sargent Shriver, as a means to reaching the "most invisible of the invisible poor" — the elderly who have withdrawn from community contact.

CASTRO SPY RING — The head of a Cuban spy organization now operating in the U.S. has been identified as Enrique Tagle, one of Castro's prosecutors in the purges that followed the abortive Bay of Pigs Invasion.

CASTRO THE TROUBLEMAKER — Fidel Castro's Cuba, not content with continuing efforts to export Marxist revolution in the Western Hemisphere, is now engaged in trying to stir up trouble in a number of African nations.

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

Medical Aid Advisable For Pregnant Women
Q—I am pregnant and would like to get some reliable information — not just old wives' tales — about this subject.
A—Pregnancy is a normal physiologic state but, because of the many possible complications, every pregnant woman should be under the care of a physician. Your doctor is the one to supply the information you need or to recommend collateral reading.

Q—What are the first signs of pregnancy and how long does it take to know for sure?
A—The first and most consistent sign is the missed menstrual period. Some of the newer pregnancy tests are positive as early as four or five days after the missed period and the test results are available within a few hours after starting the test.

Q—How long can a woman carry a fetus in her uterine tubes before a diagnosis of ectopic pregnancy can be made? What are the symptoms of a tubal pregnancy?
A—When the ovum fails to reach the uterus for some unknown reason it may become fertilized and embedded in the uterine tube. Such a pregnancy proceeds very much as a normal pregnancy at first. Menstruation stops and tests for pregnancy are positive. After 10 to 12 weeks, pain in the pelvis, accompanied by small hemorrhages from the uterus, point to a probably tubal pregnancy. Soon thereafter the tube ruptures. This is accompanied by a sharp pain and severe bleeding. This necessitates prompt removal of the ruptured tube. If a positive diagnosis is made before the rupture, the tube should be removed to prevent further bleeding. If the opposite tube is normal, a subsequent normal pregnancy can take place.

Q—I have had my uterine tubes tied. Is there any chance of my becoming pregnant again?
A—No, it would require another operation (often unsuccessful) to re-establish the potency of the tubes.

Q—Can a 32-year-old woman who still menstruates regularly become pregnant?
A—Yes, but I would like to see her birth certificate. Pregnancy depends on continued ovarian function rather than on age, but it is extremely rare for the ovaries to function after age 30.

Q—Could a woman have a normal pregnancy and childbirth with a ruptured uterus?
A—Since rupture of the uterus occurs only during a difficult labor, I assume you mean a woman who has had a ruptured uterus in the past and a repair operation. She could become pregnant but her delivery should be by Caesarean section.

H. L. Hunt Writes

CASTRO THE TROUBLEMAKER
Fidel Castro's Cuba, not content with continuing efforts to export Marxist revolution in the Western Hemisphere, is now engaged in trying to stir up trouble in a number of African nations.

Arms and military missions have been sent into several countries. Technical advisors from Cuba have spread out over Africa. Political activities are directed from Cuban Embassies. Anti-western propaganda is airwaved from Cuba to Africa in English, French and Swahili.

Castro's efforts are tailored to the individual country. Support goes to rebel groups trying to overthrow existing moderate governments in the former Belgian Congo, Ghana and Cameroon. The Cuban communists work with leftists already in power in Brazzaville Congo, Mali, Guinea and Tanzania. And they strive to ingratiate themselves with regimes they think can cause trouble for the West, as in Egypt, Algeria, Iraq and Syria.

For example, in Guinea and Tanzania one of the functions of the Cuban missions is to equip and train anti-Portuguese rebels for attacks against Portuguese Guinea and Mozambique. In Brazzaville Congo, Cuban troops are the mainstay of the anti-U.S. government of Alpha Massamba-Debat. Numbers of Africans are being sent to Cuba for military, technical and political training. When they return to their home countries, they have of course been thoroughly indoctrinated with the communist ideology.

These are some of the results of allowing the cancer of communism to develop in an island just 90 miles from the U.S. mainland. Africa is said to be a continent in ferment, and the communists will keep it that way.
