MIGs Down Two Planes

SAIGON (UPI)—Two U.S. planes, one already crippled by ground fire, were shot down in dogfights with Communist jet fighters near Hanoi during one of the worst anti-aircraft barrages of the war, American military spokesmen disclosed today.

At least one and possibly five MIG jets were shot down in the aerial battle, which took place Wednesday. Details were withheld until today in hopes the downed American pilots could be rescued.

The fight took place 37 miles south of the Communist capital. U.S. airmen encountered the toughest anti-aircraft defenses since the war began as both they and the Communists took advantage of clearing skies marking the end of the rainy season.

Ground action in the south slackened today but U.S. officials said B-52 bombers pounded Communist troop concentrations in six raids since late Thursday. It was one of the heaviest 24-hour bombardments ever carried out by the eight-jet Stratofort.

One of the B52 assaults was inside the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) and four others just to the south of the buffer zone in an area where an estimated 7,000 North Vietnamese regulars were believed positioned. The B52s also blasted targets in the central highlands.

Viet Cong guerrillas attacked nine allied vessels in the crowded Saigon sea channel, possibly in retaliation for the first U.S. air raid on the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong Thursday.

Hardest hit by the recoilless rifle and small arms fire was a U.S. Navy transport whose crew was Japanese. One Japanese was killed and four wounded.

Five Wounded
Five American sailors were wounded on other vessels attacked Thursday evening in the ambush on the Long Tau River 12 miles southeast of Saigon.

(In Washington, the Pentagon estimated that more than half of North Vietnam's electric power output has been knocked out by U.S. planes. The estimate followed Thursday's raids which severely damaged two power plants at Haiphong and blacked out the city.)

U.S. airmen have knocked down 39 MIGs in duels over the Communist nation. The American losses were not announced until today because officials hoped the missing pilots could be rescued.

Great Plains Beauty Show Slated Sunday

From 330 to 500 hairdressers and cosmetologists from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico are expected to be in Pampa Saturday and Sunday for the Great Plains Beauty Show.

The event will mark the first time the district show has been held in Pampa.

Activities will get underway at 8:30 p.m. Saturday in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn with a contest scheduled among the 30 top stylists from the tri-state area.

Also on tap Saturday is a style contest in which stylists will be blindfolded.

Activities will begin again at 8 a.m. Sunday and at 9 a.m. Mayor Jim Nation will address the convention.

Texas Observes San Jacinto Day

More Texas flags than usual were flying today in statewide observance of San Jacinto Day. In Pampa state offices and banks were closed marking the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto on April 21, 1826. It also was recalled in history classrooms.

The battle was the deciding factor in the Texas Revolution. It was at San Jacinto that the Mexicans under Santa Anna were defeated by Gen. Sam Houston's forces with the battle cry, "Remember the Alamo."

The Mexicans were routed with a loss, according to Houston's report, with 630 killed, 280 wounded and 780 captured. Practically the entire Mexican force was killed, wounded or taken prisoner.

The Texans sustained a loss of nine killed and mortally wounded and 30 less seriously wounded. Santa Anna fled from the battlefield but was captured the next day.

Few military battles in North America have had greater historic effect than that of San Jacinto. It led to the independence of Texas and later to its annexation to the United States.

Political Foes Of Constantine Jailed

ROME (UPI)—The Greek army seized control of Greece today in the name of King Constantine. The Turkish news agency Anatolia reported the 27-year-old monarch had declared himself a dictator.

The army sealed off Greece from the outside world but reports reaching Yugoslavia said troops were patrolling the streets of Athens and that sporadic fighting was heard, the first indication of resistance to the coup.

Reports reaching neighboring Turkey said the army had begun arresting Constantine's political foes and had placed Premier Panayotis Kanellopoulos under protective custody.

An army announcement over Athens Radio said the military seized control in a midnight coup in an attempt to bring political stability to the nation that has been torn in recent weeks by rioting between pro- and anti-monarchists.

Among the first persons arrested were former Premier George Papandreu, who will be 90 this year, and his son Andreas Papandreu, a one-time California University economics professor who once held U.S. citizenship. They are die-hard opponents of the monarchy.

While the finance panel was working to catch up with the House Appropriations Committee which says it will have its version of the one-year plan ready early next week, the rest of the Senate was in recess.

House members studied a long list of uncontested bills.

Rep. W. S. Healy of Paducah, chairman of the House spending panel, apparently has been working for some time on Connally's plan. He said immediately after the governor's Wednesday night speech that it would take $450 million from general revenue.

Alkin, made his decision only after a conference with Lt. Gov. Preston Smith Thursday morning, and then announced "that is not what I want to do"...but, "there is no sense in blowing the whole session" trying to fight Connally.

IN RECENT YEARS

Marriage Popularity Growing in County

In Gray County, the institution of marriage has been growing in popularity over the years. That is what the latest figures show.

As a result, a greater proportion of the local population is

Some 78.4 per cent of the men in that age group and 76.2 per cent of the women are listed as married.

The ratio compares favorably with the average elsewhere in the United States, where the married portion of the population amounts to 67.5 per cent of the total. In the State of Texas, it is 69.1 per cent.

The Census Bureau's survey, which covers 1966, reveals that 3.2 per cent of all women in the country and 2.3 per cent of all men, above age 14, have been divorced and have not remarried.

By way of contrast, back in 1890 it was only 0.4 per cent of the women and 0.3 per cent of the men.

During the span of years, however, the proportion of married women in the United States increased 8 per cent and proportion of married men 9 per cent.

Thus, the married group gained about 3 1/2 per cent while the divorced portion was rising by only 2 1/2 per cent.

As elsewhere in the country, Gray County's divorce rate is higher than it once was. With a total of 251 men and 283 women who are divorced, according to the statistics, approximately 2.5 per cent of the local area's adult population are divorced.

This compares with an average of 2.3 per cent in the West South Central States and 3.2 per cent in Texas.

Local's Walkout May Spur Strike By All Teamsters

CHICAGO (UPI)—A nationwide trucking strike with a possibility of a resulting food shortage loomed on the horizon today as a result of action taken Thursday by one Chicago Teamsters union local.

A walkout by Teamsters Local 705 against eight local and suburban truckers brought a halt to the already deteriorating contract talks in Washington.

Some industry spokesmen said they feared the walkouts, if expanded and coupled with lockouts, would result in halting of food and produce trucks and may even cause a repeat of the violence that marked the Chicago area lockout of last week.

Some of the local trucking company officials affected said they did not expect a return of their truck drivers today.

The five trucking associations which collectively claim membership of all area truckers, set a meeting for 9 a.m. (CST) Saturday, with their Washington negotiators participating.

The initial walkouts Thursday were made against the Willett Co., Frank Cordray Motor Service Inc., and Lasham Cartage Co. The owners of the Willett and Lasham companies are two of the prime negotiators participating in the bargaining sessions with officials of the International Teamsters Union in Washington.

The Washington negotiators have been talking in terms of a 70-cent-an-hour wage and benefit increase package, but Chicago drivers have been demanding a 90 cent an hour package over the three-year life of the new contracts.

International Teamsters Union leaders, who were reported in favor of accepting the 70-cent offer, held off on the national agreement for fear the Chicago settlement would be higher and would bring them at odds with the rest of the 450,000 workers who would be covered under a national contract.

Three Major Rubber Firms Hit by Strike

AKRON, Ohio (UPI)—Nearly 50,000 workers across the nation were idled today in a strike by the United Rubber Workers against three major rubber firms.

The strikes were called at midnight Thursday against B. F. Goodrich, Uniroyal and Firestone after negotiations failed to produce contract agreements.

In negotiations with Goodyear in Cincinnati, the union agreed to continue working on a day-to-day basis.

Negotiations were to resume there at 9 a.m. CST today.

Union representatives had met with Goodyear and Uniroyal in Cincinnati, Firestone in Cleveland and B. F. Goodrich in Columbus. There was no immediate word when the negotiations would resume.

The fifth firm of the rubber industry's big five, General Tire and Rubber, began negotiations Tuesday, working toward a May 15 contract deadline.

Company and union representatives refused to discuss issues, although wages were said to be the chief matter of dispute.

A long strike could affect the auto industry and defense production. Contracts with the big five

White Hecklers on Rampage For Fourth Straight Evening

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—More than 1,000 angry white hecklers, target of tear gas grenades for a fourth straight night, overturned a vacant police car Thursday night and threw "cherry bombs," rocks and bottles at police while some 75 housing demonstrators were being arrested.

Some 100 persons in all were taken into custody during the demonstration in the all-white Beechmont section of the city. The demonstrators were charged with violating a court order against nighttime demonstrations.

Among those arrested as hecklers were two members of the American Nazi party who were charged with distributing hate literature.

Shortly after the demonstration ended, three civil rights leaders, including the Rev. A. D. Williams, King, brother of Dr. Martin Luther King, were arrested at a bail bondsman's office.

They were charged with disorderly conduct and loitering. King and several other leaders of the movement for open housing legislation are to appear in circuit court today to answer contempt of court charges arising from their marches in defiance of the court order.

Following his arrest Thursday night, King threatened "if this sick attitude is not corrected, I'm afraid Louisville is headed for something it doesn't realize—a very hot summer."

King alleged that police treated him roughly during the

SEATO Policies Tighten Vise On North Vietnam

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A noticeable stiffening in allied ranks plus the first bombing within the city of Haiphong today indicated another step-up in the campaign to tighten the vise on North Vietnam until it is forced to talk peace.

The new mood of militancy has marked the four-day series of meetings here of the United States and its Asian partners fighting in Vietnam.

There has been greater emphasis than heretofore on the need to apply increased military pressure on the Communists. Representatives of most of the nations involved in the conflict are agreed that Hanoi has no intention of talking peace on any terms in the foreseeable future.

The "Manila Pact" countries—the seven nations actually involved in the Vietnam war—wind up their talks today with a communique expected to reflect Secretary of State Dean Rusk's opinion that they must dig in for a "long, hard haul."

The seven-nation conference followed a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO.

The SEATO session ended with a declaration so toughly worded that Britain, one of the pact's members with no troops in the conflict, insisted on the insertion of additional language emphasizing the search for a "peaceful solution."

The foreign ministers of the "Manila Pact" countries, in discussions Thursday afternoon and evening, reviewed the peace efforts made so far and pledged to continue exploring every avenue that might lead to the conference table.

But their principal interests at present, as reflected in the speeches reported by sources attending the closed meetings, focused on these points:

37th Annual Texas Cowboy Reunion Set July 1-4

The 37th annual Texas Cowboy Reunion will be held on July 1-4 this year in Stamford, with three night performances and a matinee on the afternoon of the 4th.

Traditional with ranching people, "laying by" on Sunday is still observed when a Sunday intervenes with dates of the show. However, there are always a lot of "free" shows and activities going on all day at the arena.

The Palomino Horse show is scheduled for 9 a.m. Sunday, July 2, at the quarterhorse arena, according to Cecil Eager, chairman for this part of the show. The American Quarter Horse Shows will be on Monday and Tuesday under supervision of Charles Stenholm, chairman. Improvements at the fine plant are now under way and will be ready when the opening day parade gets under way at 4:00 p.m. Saturday, July 1.

Reservations from a number of out-of-state visitors have been received and expectations are for a fine show.

The grizzly bear has practically disappeared from most of the United States and remains only in a few areas, such as Yellowstone National Park.

Physician Helps Prevent Child Disease By Using Biblical Rule on Neighbors

B LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
Dr. Robert A. Hingson is a Cleveland physician who takes seriously what the Bible says about loving your neighbor as yourself.

Because he does, millions of children in Africa, Asia and Latin America will be spared from the ravages of such diseases as smallpox, tuberculosis, polio and leprosy.

Dr. Hingson is Professor of Anesthesiology at Western Reserve University, a Deacon in Cleveland's First Baptist Church, and the founder of an extraordinary organization called "Brother's Brother."

Each summer since 1961, he has spent his vacation in some undeveloped country, giving free inoculations to all who want them. He usually is accompanied by 30 or 40 other doctors, nurses and medical students who have caught his contagious vision of a world freed from preventable disease.

Changes Name
These expeditions are sponsored by "Brother's Brother," which started life as "Brother's Keeper," but changed its name because "no one wants a keeper."

Doctors who volunteer for three to six weeks duty not only donate their professional services; they also pay their own travel expense. Nurses and medical students may have their expenses paid out of the organization's shoestring budget of $40,000 a year, mostly contributed by local churches and synagogues that have heard about the project.

Although Dr. Hingson himself is a devout Baptist, he emphasized that "Brother's Brother" is an interfaith enterprise.

"We have had Protestants, Catholics and Jews on every mission," he said in an interview. "Once we had a Moslem. We welcome anyone who is motivated by religious convictions to seek practical ways of serving his fellow men."

Dr. Hingson gave a definite stress to the word "practical." Compassionate intentions, he believes, are best realized when they are accompanied by a in the service. Mrs. W. B. Franklin is G. A. Director and she has been assisted by Mrs. John Damron during the Focus Week activities.

IS JESUS COMING AGAIN

One of the most important doctrines in the Scriptures is the second coming of Jesus Christ. This importance is emphasized in the Bible by its repeated mention.

Paul, in his epistles, refers to baptism only thirteen times, but of the Lord's return fifty times. One verse in every thirty in the New Testament speaks of Christ's second coming. The Old Testament refers to it twenty times to one of His first coming. In all, 318 verses in the Bible speak of the second coming of Christ. There is a great array of testimonies in the Scripture that prove the Lord's return.

- I. THE TESTIMONY OF CHRIST HIMSELF
"For the Son of Man shall come in the glory of His Father, with His angels; and then shall He reward every man according to his works." (Matt. 16:27)
"In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself . . ." (John 14:2-3)
- II. THE TESTIMONY OF HEAVENLY BEINGS.
"And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus which is taken from you into heaven shall so come in like manner as we have seen him go into heaven." (Acts 1:10-11) This same Jesus shall return in like manner! It will be visible and personal. (Heb. 2:2)
- III. THE TESTIMONY OF THE APOSTLES
1. Paul's testimony. "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ; who shall change our vile bodies that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body." (Phil. 3:20-21) "Looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." (Titus 2:13) Christ came first to save our souls, the next time He comes, it will be to save our bodies.
2. John's testimony. "Behold He cometh, with clouds; and every one shall see Him, and they also which pierced Him and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of Him." (Rev. 1:7)
3. James's testimony. "Be patient therefore, brethren unto the coming of the Lord . . ." (James 5:7) "Enoch also, the seventh from Adam prophesied of these saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of His saints." (Jude 1)
- IV. THE TESTIMONY OF THE LORD'S SUPPER
"As often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till He comes." (1 Cor. 11:26)
This wasn't a permanent feast, but a memorial feast looking back to the cross, and forward to His coming. These are facts, and testimonies proving that Christ is coming again. Are you saved and looking for His coming back to earth again? Are you ready for the Lord to come this very day? If not, then do as the Bible says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." (Acts 16:31)
Lazarus in his bosom." (Luke 16:23) (Psa. 9:17)
1. God prepared it, Jesus taught it, the apostles preached it and I know it's a real place.
- V. BECAUSE JESUS MAY COME AT ANY TIME
"Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up. Therefore be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh. (Matt. 24:42-44)

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow funeral director. My late husband and I have had this business for over 35 years. I have a very nice looking, single embalmer who has been with me for two years. He is engaged to be married to a fine young school teacher.

My problem is a 21-year-old mentally retarded girl who has a crush on my embalmer — in fact, on ALL men. She chases after them, and so far she is lucky she hasn't been taken advantage of.

At funeral hour, which is sacred for the family, this bold girl stands outside the funeral home dressed in stretch pants and a tight sweater (in summer she wears short shorts and a skimpy halter top) and she just stares at my embalmer. My curbsmen are instructed to tell her to move on, but they can't budge her.

How can I get rid of this boya-crazy girl? She is ruining the dignity of my funerals and embarrassing my embalmer.

NEBRASKAN
DEAR NEBRASKAN: Don't worry about your embalmer — he can take care of himself. I would be more concerned about this poor girl. She needs to be protected and supervised for her own good. Call on her parents and put them wise before something happens to her.

DEAR ABBY: I have been seeing a psychiatrist for several months. I think I know what is at the root of my trouble, but I am too ashamed to tell him. I have been shoplifting for a long time. Not anything very expensive — just little things. I have never been caught, but I think some of the clerks suspect me by the way they look at me.

I have made up my mind to stop completely, but I am so sick with guilt feelings that I am on the verge of a nervous breakdown. If I tell my doctor, do you think he would report me to the police? I will do anything to be cured, but I would not want to shame my family with any publicity. Please, please help me.

ASHAMED
DEAR ASHAMED: Tell your doctor and be assured that your secret will be safe with him.

DEAR ABBY: When I married Mike he knew that I HATED to get up in the morning. I have always worked the 4 p.m. to midnight shift (waitress) and now I can't suddenly change my way of living, even though I don't work anymore. Well, Mike has to be on his job at 8 a.m., so he expects me to get up at 6:45 a.m. to fix his breakfast. I tried a couple of times, but I spilled the coffee, dropped things and burned myself.

I am just no good in the morning, Mike can't seem to understand this. Abby, it is ruining our marriage. I love Mike very much, but he says I am selfish, that sleeping late is a habit, and I could re-train myself if I really wanted to. If you tell me to try, I will, but I honestly think he is expecting the impossible.

SLEEPYHEAD
DEAR SLEEPYHEAD: Mike is right, if you really wanted to, you could change your sleeping habits. (New mothers do!) If you require more sleep, take a nap in the afternoon. It's not easy, but it's not impossible either.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90009. For a personal, unpublished reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1.00 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90009.

Sandwich Surprise
Surprise your youngsters with a lunch box treat. It's easy to whip up a flavorful sandwich spread that's sure to be a hit with your young scholars. Blend two jars Junior Beef with two tablespoons softened butter and season to taste.

"X" Marks The Spot For Failing School Students

By PATRICIA McCORMACK, United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Make way for the innovation revolution underway in hundreds of high schools nationwide signs: —No more "F"—for failure—on report cards at University City High in Missouri. The new bad news grade is "X" and it means course requirements were not met. Students get a chance to erase the "X" by completing requirements.

—Students test and select their advisers at John F. Kennedy High in Fremont, Calif. The pupils also are permitted to use free time for recreation and socializing. Hub of the social program is the student center furnished with juke box, student-operated store, games.

—Trimesters instead of semesters keep students at Nova Schools in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in school 210 days, from August until June. During this longest high school year, students progress at their own rate.

—A national survey of more than 7,000 accredited high schools was undertaken by the Institute for Development of Educational Activities and the North Central Association.

—The typical high school reporting in the survey used six of a possible 27 innovations—ranging from team-teaching to non-graded instruction. In between are such things as educational television, language laboratories, use of computers, telephone amplification.

—Highlights of the survey report: —Television instruction, meaning one of more classes regularly uses open or closed circuit television as a means of teaching courses for credit. About 16.5 per cent use such instruction.

—Teaching machine, meaning a mechanical device which presents a computerized educational program designed to teach a student through controlled communication. About 13 per cent of the schools indicated use of some kind of teaching machines.

—Language laboratories, meaning tapes and tape recorders to help a student learn. More than 71 per cent of the high schools reported use of such equipment.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The Great Giveaway

Ever since World War II our officials have tried strenuously to get rid of this nation's wealth by throwing it around to nations all over the world. And it must be admitted that they've succeeded beyond the wildest nightmares of America's taxpayers. Between 1946 and 1964 our politicians have succeeded in giving away more than $80 billions to some 100 nations.

In case you think that astronomical figure doesn't affect you, guess again. That $80 billions represents a charge of $400 against every man, woman and child in the U.S. And that isn't all. As of January 1, the Treasury Department reported that 17 nations still owe us $21 billions from World War I (that was father's money). And various nations owe us another $19 billions for World War II (that was our money). Want to bet that we ever collect a dime of it?

The most notorious deadbeat nation is, as you might suspect, la belle France. Not only is France letting us hold the bag for many billions, but has the unmitigated gall to demand gold from our fast disappearing Fort Knox reserve. Under DeGaulle, France has called on us month after month for gold until today our reserves have dropped to a 29-month low.

Dwindling gold reserves are only one indication of the fact that we no longer are the affluent nation we used to be. Our national debt is now $332 billions, as of April 4 (that's our children's money). And don't ever swallow that political soothing syrup that "we only owe it to ourselves." You will make a small token payment on the interest on our nation's debts on April 15, but the politicians wouldn't dare tell you how much you really owe. They would rather leave that to some later administration — to collect from your children and their children. After all they can't vote the current crop of politicians out of office.

A change for the better could be made if our politicians would do two simple things. First, stop giving away everything they can lay their hands on. Second, when Big Charlie and the other deadbeats show up, tell them to go away and come back when they've squared old accounts. Keeping politicians in 100 countries solvent is too much. We didn't even vote for them!

Buck Up, Taxpayer—It's Almost Here!

"Tax Freedom Day" will be May 5 this year. Until that date, every dollar you earn will have to go for Federal, State and local taxes. That's four months and four days you'll be working this year for the tax collector before you can call one dollar earned your own.

To dramatize high taxes, Rep. Edward J. Gurney (R. of Florida) introduced a joint Congressional resolution along the lines of one he sponsored last year authorizing the President to proclaim May 5 a national holiday — officially, "Tax Freedom Day."

In introducing his resolution, Gurney told the House that, in the year since he last proposed a Tax Freedom holiday, taxes have grown to eat up four more days of earnings for the average American. Tax Freedom Day last year was May 1.

"We ought to hurry up and pass this bill before the date of the (tax) holiday begins to interfere with the preparation for our Christmas season," he said. Referring to the high cost of government, Gurney asked: "What sort of monster have we built that takes $4,281 to feed it every second?" He noted that a man has to earn $20,000 a year just to pay enough taxes to run the government for just this ONE SECOND.

'Eternal Vigilance'

During the past several decades, a revolution has occurred in industry-government relations. It is a revolution that is far-reaching, and no one can as yet determine the final outcome. Today, in many instances, government agencies and functions are steadily expanding in competition with private citizens. In other cases, whole industries have been singled out for punitive attack and regulation.

All along the line, restrictions and controls are impending that if enacted and enforced will work another revolution in government-business relations — a revolution that could well be the final step from "umpire" to "partner" to "master."

It has been said that the price of freedom is eternal vigilance. Isn't it about time we begin questioning a system which must be eternally watched?

Rising taxes, soaring government expenditures and big government became issues that gave rise to the fear that we were drawing away from American ideals of private initiative under "limited" government. This fear was expressed not only by businessmen, but by millions of prudent citizens, as well.

Now, however, almost overnight these issues seem to have gone into the background. Seldom do we hear of government as an "umpire." It has become a "partner" according to many prominent business and political leaders. A quiet revolution has been consummated and businessmen, many of whom have served in government in one capacity or another, are doing their ignorant best to help make the "partnership" work.

The founders of this nation never intended that the federal government should assume the role that is playing today — a

Any lawyer will tell you that punctuation is important and in a legal document can sometimes prove expensive in one way or another. Uncle Sam learned that some years ago when Congress drafted a tariff bill and in enumerating articles to be admitted free of any duty included all foreign fruit-plants," etc. Copying the bill, a clerk omitted the hyphen and placed a comma after "fruit," causing the tariff bill to read, "all foreign fruit, plants," etc. The error wasn't rectified until the next year. Meanwhile, millions of foreign fruits such as lemons and grapes entered the country duty-free.

Maybe you don't give a hoot about it, but owls are not as wise as they're cracked up to be. A recent study by wildlife biologists revealed that owls have a very low IQ and their chief aid in hunting at night is a highly endowed sense of hearing that guides them to their prey. They also disproved the long-held belief that owls can't see in the daytime... Scotch and soda is more intoxicating than Scotch and water. Seems the carbon dioxide in the soda speeds the alcohol in the whiskey from the digestive system into the bloodstream. Water mixed with whiskey slows down the process. That's good to know.

And it may not be a comfort to New Yorkers, who just had a hard winter, that Manhattan is actually farther south than the French Riviera... Icemaking is a common function of home refrigerators these days, but it was not a standard practice until the middle 1920's. For more than 100 years before several inventors patented ice-making machines, but none of them were practical for home use... A florist tells us the most popular houseplants are the philodendron, pothos, ivy, geranium, African violet and nephthytis. He also said the only new plant to gain general approval in recent years is the ficus decora, a type of rubber plant with a slight orange tint to its leaves... Passes to the theater and sporting events are called "Annie Oakleys" because they are perforated. They were named for the famous crack shot artist whose favorite trick was to shoot out the five hearts on a playing card at a distance of 50 feet. The perforated cards came to be known as "Annie Oakleys" and were highly prized souvenirs... The St. Petersburg (Fla.) TIMES asked in a news story: "Review your social contacts for the past week. Were they all that could be sired?" Well, hardly.

Country Editor speaking: "The difference between a man and a woman is simple — the man knows what to say and says it; the woman knows what not to say and says it."

BERRY'S WORLD

Cannel At Bay

By Ward Cannel

A Poll that Didn't Save Face NEW YORK (NEA) — The human face being quite limited in its construction between the brow and the jaw, it is only natural that many people look like each other.

Our next door neighbor, for example, looks like Ronald Reagan. Ronald Reagan, of course, looks like George Gipp. And about us it used to be said by some in our bachelor days that we looked like Steve Allen.

And, doubtless, Ronald Reagan has taken a similar interest in George Gipp. Why it works that way is very hard to understand. It may be that people exist only in the eye of the beholder, their lives being merely the average of public opinion. But whatever the reason, as we always say, show us a person and we'll show you somebody else.

We have gone into this matter in some detail by way of explaining a rather severe shock we received the other evening. It was on the way home from a cocktail party, and the wife was discussing one of the other guests: "I really can't stand him," the wife said. "And besides, he looks like Steve Allen." We were stunned, of course. It had always been our understanding that the wife thought Steve Allen very attractive. "Oh, I used to," she said. "But I've changed my mind." Well, we simply could not believe it. It is unreasonable to think that your allure — whatever name it goes by — can slip away like that.

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

Gout is Controllable Error of Metabolism Q—How serious is gout? What causes it and can it be cured? A—Gout, like diabetes, is an error of metabolism and, like diabetes, it can be controlled but not cured. Gout may be caused by an overproduction of uric acid or an interference with its elimination through the kidneys. If the disease is not controlled serious damage to the kidneys may result. Other complications include high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries and coronary heart disease.

The American Way

By HARRY BROWNE

Meanwhile, back at the political stand, two important news items from California provide biting insight into the nature of political government. Governor Ronald Reagan has been carrying on a campaign to have voluntary contributions finance the building of a new governor's mansion. To this former - Governor Pat Brown replied, "The state of California is a rich state; it does not need charity."

Do you understand what he is saying? He believes that a tax money — not voluntary contributions — should be the means of financing the project. Let's translate his words into those that describe exactly what he means: "The state government in California is very powerful. It has enough guns, enough tax collectors, enough control over the lives of its residents that it does not have to ask politely for anyone's help. Whatever it wants, it can take — without the voluntary consent of the giver. We do not have to ask the people to give voluntarily; we have the power to take from them — whether or not they approve."

Get the point? Thank you, Pat Brown, for reminding us of this. Sometimes we forget the nature of the beast that you ran for eight years. The second news item you probably won't believe — but I'll tell you anyway, because I enjoy telling it so much. I heard on the radio that the state of California (with its conservative governor) was going to pay off "Medi-Cal" claims at 97 cents on the dollar. "Medi-Cal" is the little welfare state's version of the federal "Medicare" program. I naturally supposed that the paying of claims on a 97 percent basis meant that the fund was financially short and was paying patients, pharmacies and doctors what was available and spreading the financial shortage accordingly. Not good — but then you can't expect government trust funds to be solvent, can you? Then, I read the complete story in the paper and was astounded to learn that the fund was not presently financially short. Why, then, would they pay only 97 percent of the face value of each claim? (If you're not now sitting, please sit down before reading the rest of this.) The reason: The bureaucrat in charge of the program was having trouble checking the validity of all of the claims that had been submitted. So he made a spot check of a few hundred that were on his desk.

HUNT FOR TRUTH

By H. L. HUNT

NEW OUTBREAK AT BERKELEY The latest fantastic outburst on the campus of the University of California at Berkeley provides unmistakable proof of the folly of trying to appease irresponsible agitators. A policy of appeasement has been followed by University of California authorities ever since the "student rebellion" two years ago. This policy is similar both in its presuppositions and its practice to the foreign policy of appeasement toward the external communist foe so long practiced by the State Department.

Question Box

QUESTION: The squib under your Question Box seeks questions on "economic and government functions that will harm no one and benefit everyone." Will you please answer without evasion what government functions harm no one and benefit everyone? If there are no such government functions how can we question them?

ANSWER: The only kind of a government that we can think of that would qualify as harming no one and benefiting everyone is a government supported on a voluntary basis. This would mean that individuals paid for only the services they thought beneficial and would not get the government services they did not pay for.

Those who would prefer a police department because they would rather pay for it than carry a gun would get its services. Those who wanted no government protection would not get the services of the police. Those who were willing to self-defense. Those who were not willing would not be entitled to the mutual defense.

It's Up To You

By HOWARD KERSHNER

A Return to the Middle Ages The free market system of economics has proven that short hours — eight hours a day or less, five days a week or less, high pay, good housing with modern improvements, good education and medical care — all and more are possible. If the free market had not done this, the socialists never would have dreamed that such things were possible, but would have continued as in the late Middle Ages a system of working from sun to sun, living in hovels with barely enough food to preserve life, and with a death rate that made unnecessary any thought of family limitation. That's all that socialism ever accomplished. Then came the concept of the free market under which hours were shortened, wages raised, housing improved, food made abundant; education for everybody became possible, and art and culture were diffused generally to the masses.

Whereupon, this having been achieved by the market economy, the socialists rise up and demand to take over on the specious plea that they will do ever better. They cannot point to an example anywhere in the history of the world of having done half so well — and yet they demand to be trusted by the people and given full authority in the hope that they will do even better than the free market. Actually they will wreck the accumulation of the past 200 years, and somewhere, sometime, a generation of poverty stricken people, as a result of socialism, will have to begin the slow painful climb back to abundance by means of the free market economy.

If the people would only get their eyes open and see the facts as they are, they need not go through this long nightmare of hardship. Actually, the people are not principally to blame. The main fault is with the politicians who play upon the ignorance of the masses, deceiving them with false promises in return for votes. If Dante were writing today, he probably would reserve the lowest spot in hell for those who are willing to bring this terrible tragedy upon the people in return for a few short years of power with the emoluments they thereby acquire.

He found that 3 percent of those he checked were not valid. Therefore, they decided to pay 97 percent of the face value of each claim — rather than checking all the claims and throwing out the bad ones. Whew!

It's nice to know I can turn on my TV tonight and return to the world of logic and reason with Batman and Robin — instead of Ronnie and Pat.

Those who were willing to self-defense. Those who were not willing would not be entitled to the mutual defense. Thus all parties would make a profit materially or spiritually. It would be self-government where those who willingly bought the service and those who sold it would both benefit by making a profit.

Wit and Whimsy

An old-timer sat on the river bank, obviously awaiting a nibble, though the fishing season had not officially opened. The game warden stood behind him quietly for several minutes. Zeb (the old-timer) — You the game warden?

Mrs. Jones (the game warden) — Yep. Unruffled, the old man began to move the fishing pole from side to side. Finally he lifted the line out of the water. Pointing to a minnow, wriggling on the end of the line, he said: "Just teaching him how to swim."

Mother — When the naughty boy threw stones at you, why didn't you come to me instead of throwing stones back at him? Little Son — What good would that do? You couldn't hit the side of a barn.

Michael — What is your dog — a setter or a pointer? Steven — Neither. He's an up-setter and disappointment.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Traitor, subversives and underground resistance fighters have often been referred to as a "fifth column," says The World Almanac. The phrase originated during the Spanish Civil War (1836-1939). Emilio Mola, one of Franco's generals, said that he was leading four columns of troops against Madrid and then declared that he had a "fifth column" of supporters within the city who would help him during the fight. # Pitching Falters, Cards Lose First

By United Press International
The Dodgers sure know how to hurt a guy. But they couldn't break him. Gary Nolan, who was pitching high school ball a year ago, came within one out of whitewashing the National League champions at Los Angeles Thursday night when a pinch-double by Jim Hickman drove home Jim Lefebvre with the run that tied the score at 1-1. Nolan wasn't around when the game finally ended in the 13th inning, but his Cincinnati teammates came through with a 3-1 victory. Although the decision won't appear in his records, Nolan earned a lot more than can be shown in the win column.

after the game that Nolan "was faster than Ken Holtzman (of Chicago Cubs) and is a coming youngster." In National League day games, the San Francisco Giants handed St. Louis its first loss of the season, beating the Cardinals 7-5, and the New York Mets trimmed the Cubs 6-1.

Tito Fuentes drove in three runs for the Giants and Lou Brock collected his sixth homer of the season. Bob Be in gained credit for the triumph. Rookie righthander Tom Seaver, with eighth inning relief from Don Shaf, gained his first major league victory for the Mets. The score was tied 1-1 when Ken Boyer put the Mets ahead for good with a sixth-inning single. New York added three more runs in the eighth, two coming across on a bases-loaded single by Bud Harrelson.

WILLIE MAYS playing again Cincinnati in the 13th inning with singles and reliever Gerry Arrigo limited Los Angeles to one hit over the final four innings to gain his first victory. The Reds had scored their first run in the fifth on Lee May's double—Cincinnati's first hit off Bob Miller—an infield out and Leo Cardenas' single. The Giants, with Willie Mays back in the lineup, snapped a six-game losing streak while halting a six-game winning streak of the Cards. Mays, who had been sidelined for five games with a pulled muscle, got the Giants started on a five-run second inning rally.

7ers Need Only 1 Win for Title

By United Press International
The Philadelphia 7ers, a superior blend of fitness and muscle, today needed only one more victory over the San Francisco Warriors to clinch the National Basketball Association title. The titans of the Eastern Division will go after it at home.

Hal Greer, one of the league's most fantastic shooters when it comes to hooping the 25-footers, wrecked the Warriors with 38 points Thursday night to help grind out a 122-108 victory and give Philadelphia a 3-1 bulge in the best-of-seven game series. The club met again Sunday afternoon at Philadelphia's Convention Hall where the 7ers grabbed a quick 2-0 lead in the playoffs before bowing to San Francisco, 130-124, at the Cow Palace Tuesday.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Hits Ring Out in AL

By United Press International
Dick Tracewski called it a simple play but it provided a spectacular finale for the Detroit Tigers Thursday night. Tracewski, the infield handyman, was sent into the game against the California Angels at shortstop in the top of the ninth inning by manager Mayo Smith after Ray Oyler was pulled for a pinch-hitter. He then proceeded to combine with catcher Bill Freehan on an unusual, game-ending double play that nailed down the Tigers' 4-3 come-from-behind victory over the Angels.

poor play as relief pitcher. Minnie Rojas wild pitched the tying run home in the last of the eighth and center fielder Jay Johnstone dropped Jerry Lumpe's sinking liner in center to allow the winning run to score. In the other two American League games, the Cleveland Indians moved into a tie for first place with New York at 4-2 by blanking the Kansas City Athletics 2-0 and the Chicago White Sox blasted the Washington Senators 8-4. The Baltimore-Minnesota game was rained out.

Foreign News Commentary

By LEON DANIEL
United Press International
TOKYO (UPI)—Knowledgeable American sources are wondering what price the communists will try to extract from Ryokichi Minobe for their part in his election as the first leftist governor of Tokyo.

Another key question is whether Minobe will pay that price.

Minobe sought Communist support. He said there were no strings attached to his acceptance of that support.

But that was window-dressing. A politician who claims to be anything less than his own man would be rare indeed.

Those same knowledgeable American sources take some comfort in the fact that Minobe is trying to portray an image of himself as a man who won't be bossed by the Communists—or anybody else.

That is little enough to take comfort in and an honest appraisal would indicate that Washington must view Minobe's victory with apprehension.

The Communist vote was more than the difference between Minobe's total and the votes received by Dr. Masatoshi Matsushita, the conservative candidate he defeated.

The Communists were useful to Minobe and he benefitted from their excellent electioneering machinery. But he also incurred a political debt that could change the face of Japanese politics.

Postal Certificates Will Cease to Earn Interest Soon

United States Postal Savings certificates totaling $2,569,000, which are on deposit at the Pampa Post Office, will cease earning interest for 117 local depositors on April 27, 1967, Assistant Postmaster in Charge Carl English said today.

Nationwide, the Post Office Department is holding more than $90 million in the now obsolete program which was discontinued by the Congress on March 28, 1966.

As of April 27, a year ago, Postal Savings were discontinued, and no deposits were accepted by the Post Office Department. Certificates whose anniversary dates have been reached since last April 26 have earned their final interest payment, Assistant Postmaster in Charge English said. On June 30, he said, all remaining funds in the program will be turned over to the Treasury Department to be held in trust until liquidated. There they will remain available for payment without time limitation whenever proper claims are received.

Assistant Postmaster in Charge English urged that all Postal Savings depositors close out their accounts and invest funds into United States Savings Bonds or the new Freedom Shares, which on May 1, will pay 4.7 per cent interest.

Holders of Postal Savings Certificates can arrange to redeem them by simply applying at the post office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster there, he said, will provide guidance and necessary forms to assist in cashing the certificates. All transactions
