Israel, Egypt Forces Go To War

Fighting Rages On 3 Fronts in Mideast

By United Press International

War broke out on three fronts today between Israel and its Arab neighbors. Tank battles raged along Israel's 626-mile border, and Israeli jets fought planes from five Arab nations over the cities of the Middle East.

The war quickly engulfed the holy city of Jerusalem and Jordanian troops captured the United Nations Headquarters on a height overlooking the Israeli sector. A later communique from Tel Aviv said the Israelis had recaptured the building.

Premier Levi Eshkol of Israel said "our entire country has become a battlefield." President Johnson issued a call for an immediate cease fire and warned of tragic consequences. Diplomatic sources in London and Britain were trying to arrange a big four summit conference — the United States, Soviet Union, Britain and France — to try to halt the hostilities.

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban conferred in Jerusalem with the big four ambassadors but said it was only for purposes of information. He did not elaborate.

It was Eban who said Israel had "suffered losses"—the first reported—but he added, "Our armed forces have not wasted their time."

Broadcasts by Kol Israel, the state broadcasting service, indicated Israel might have broken through Egyptian lines in the Sinai Peninsula.

The United States urged all American citizens to leave Israel at once and warned there was "no assurance" the U.S. government would be able to provide transportation "if the situation suddenly deteriorates further."

The Jordanian shelling of Israeli sectors of Jerusalem caught the city completely by surprise.

One of the hardest hit areas was Mea-Sheerim, the ultra-orthodox quarter close to the old city where many American tourists have thronged to buy souvenirs.

Roads leading to the Mandelbaum Gate in the non-man's land between the two city sectors were hit. Other major attacks were near Beersheba, south of Jerusalem. To the north, Syrian forces attacked several Israeli settlements.

The heaviest tank battles were in the Sinai Desert along the 117-mile border between Egypt and Israel. But Jordan reported war along its entire frontier with Israel while its planes and artillery shelled Israeli positions in Jerusalem and other cities.

First indications were that Israeli armor had scored some breakthroughs in Sinai but details were sparse and not confirmed.

Israel also was battling for survival on two other fronts—the Syrian and the Jordanian borders.

Major air battles were reported and both Israel and the Arabs claimed heavy enemy losses in the conflict which each side blamed the other for starting. Arab broadcasts said Egyptian, Jordanian, Syrian, Lebanese and Iraqi planes were battling the Israeli air force. Iraq said it was at war with Israel and that its planes were bombing Tel Aviv. Cairo Radio indicated the ground war had flared the entire length of the 117-mile Sinai Desert frontier with Israel. It said an Israeli attack was turned back at Kuntilla, 33 miles north of the Israeli port of Elath. Kuntilla is five miles inside Egyptian territory, an indication of a five-mile Israeli advance.

U.S. Calls For Immediate Halt To Mideast War

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States today called for an immediate ceasefire in the Middle East, warning of tragic consequences in the fighting between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

The White House, where President Johnson was awakened at 4:30 a.m. with reports of the outbreak of war, termed the hostilities "large scale."

The White House statement declined to fix blame on either side for starting the fighting.

"But we do know that the tragic consequences will flow from this needless and destructive struggle if the fighting does not cease immediately," it said.

Johnson summoned Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of State Dean Rusk to the White House for a conference.

He also ordered the Cabinet members to brief top House and Senate leaders from both parties after meeting with him.

The statement from White House Press Secretary George Christian confirmed what one official said earlier—"It looks like we have a war on our hands."

"We are deeply distressed to learn that large scale fighting has broken out in the Middle East, an eventuality we had sought to prevent," the statement said.

"Each side has accused the other of launching aggression. At this time, the facts are not clear. But we do know that tragic consequences will flow from this needless and destructive struggle if the fighting does not cease immediately."

The United States will devote all its energies to bring about an end to the fighting and a new beginning of programs to assure the peace and development of the entire area.

BOSTON RIOTING CONTINUES

10 Injured in Outbreak

BOSTON (UPI)—Sniper fire, rock throwing and looting erupted for the third consecutive night Sunday in the city's predominantly Negro Roxbury section.

Ten persons were injured and 36 were arrested in the rioting. Patrolmen and police dogs chased looters from stores whose windows had been broken by rock-throwing demonstrators.

Early today a plea for Gov. John A. Volpe to declare Roxbury a disaster area was made by state representatives who said there had been "millions of dollars" in property damages in the three nights of violence.

Young toughs were in the streets with placards reading "Every Black Man must be a Leader" and "Unity through Black Power." Deputy Police Supt. William Bradley said an anonymous tip that black power leader Stokely Carmichael was in the area was being checked.

Minor fires and false alarms sent scores of firemen to the neighborhood. Two incidents of sniper fire were reported. Police were pinned down by a volley of bullets from a third-floor window at Blue Hill Ave. and Quincy St. Three officers burst into the room and subdued a man armed with a pistol and rifle.

He was identified as John T. Jones, a 76-year-old Negro. He was charged with unlawful possession of firearms. No gunshot wounds or serious injuries were reported.

United Fund Gets Budget Requests For '67 Campaign

The budget committee of Pampa's United Fund went into session at 2 p.m. today to conduct hearings on budget requests from a dozen or so agencies which will participate in the 1967 campaign.

Ralph McKinney, chairman of the budget group, said the committee planned to meet all afternoon and tonight to work out the budgets and fix the overall quota for this year's drive.

Other members of the committee are Cameron Marsh, Jack Ault, Harvey Nensiel and W. A. Morgan.

McKinney said most requests have been made by letter but special hearings were scheduled today for representatives of four organizations.

They included the American Red Cross at 3 p.m., Girl Scouts at 4 p.m., Boy Scouts at 5 p.m. and the Salvation Army at 7 p.m. today.

McKinney said the meeting was expected to run far into the night and that it was the hope of the board to arrive at fund allocations for all of the participating agencies.

The figures will be submitted to the United Fund board, headed by A. A. Shuneman, for final approval, McKinney stated. The board then will set Pampa's United Fund goal for 1967. Last year's goal was $78,000.

"The people of this community are appalled at the violence, wanton waste and deliberate destruction of property," Democratic Reps. Royal Bolling, Michael E. Hayes, and Franklin W. Hotgate said in a letter to Volpe. The trio urged the governor to "declare this area a disaster area and put in motion the necessary procedures for the procurement of loans under the provisions of the federal law."

Bolling told UPI Roxbury merchants and businessmen suffered "millions of dollars" in damage.

Power Failure Darkens East

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—A massive power failure struck all of New Jersey and a large section of southeastern Pennsylvania today, one of the most populous areas in the United States.

Electric clocks stopped in Newark at 10:23 a.m. EDT. The New Jersey State Police communications office said all electric power was out including building lights and traffic lights.

They said hospitals had switched to emergency generator equipment.

There were reports of telephone failures, especially in public phone booths, throughout the area.

Among the cities affected were Newark, Jersey City, Trenton and Camden, N.J., and Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Allentown, Pa.

The last sizable power failure in the area was the November, 1965, northeastern blackout, which also knocked out power in a portion of New Jersey.

PRINCELY SPOTS

LONDON (UPI)—Seven-year-old Prince Andrew was confined to bed at Buckingham Palace today with a case of measles, court sources reported.

They said the illness of the son of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip was expected to run its normal course.

Tornadoes Lash Panhandle Areas

By United Press International
The third straight day of severe thunderstorms was forecast for northwestern Texas this evening. Tornadoes, inches of rain and high winds slashed through the Panhandle and South Plains Saturday and Sunday nights.

While the severe thunderstorms and tornadoes lashed parts of the Panhandle, Pampa received only .2 inch of rain Sunday, with more in the forecast.

Scattered afternoon and nighttime thunderstorms are expected, with 30 per cent probability for showers tomorrow during the performances of the Shrine Circus.

Rain fell heavier in the southern and southwestern portions of the city last night and moderate in the northern section. The police station in downtown Pampa recorded the .2 inch of moisture.

Plainview was still cut off from outside telephone communication late this morning.

The latest warning comes on top of property and crop damage that will run into the millions of dollars after tornadoes and torrents of water swept through the area last week.

A U. S. Weather Bureau forecast said locally severe thunderstorms could be expected this afternoon and evening in northwestern Texas.

Four girl scouts and their advisor were unheard from for 10 hours Sunday after they left on a canoe trip down the Canadian River not far from where a six-inch rain washed out roads in the Alibates recreation area near Amarillo.

They had begun the 10-mile trip from a bridge on Highway 287 about noon. Rescue and search parties were being organized when the scouts arrived at Lake Meredith.

It was the same area, about 12 miles north of Amarillo, where 6.31 inches of rain fell in two hours at the Pioneer Natural Gas Company's Turkey Creek pumping station. Water surged across State Highway 136 and washed out a bridge connecting the highway with the recreation area at Lake Meredith.

The washout caught about 40 persons in the area, and National Park Service rangers had to lead the stranded pleasure seekers to safety on foot at shallow spots.

Most of the vehicles were left there. Communications with Plainview were knocked out for hours by a crazy quilt pattern of tornadoes that sliced through major power lines.

Wind gusts of 70 miles an hour ripped through Plainview. What officials believe was a tornado dipped down south of the Plainview-Hale County airport.

The north doors from an exhibit building were blown away, as well as the entire south end of the building—formerly a hanger converted into the Hale County Agriculture Center.

Metal from the building was scattered about 700 yards into a field.

The telephone lines that handled all southbound communications out of Plainview were ripped out. Crews worked frantically all night and finally restored them late this morning.

A mile of telephone line that served rural areas of Plainview also was knocked out. Highway traffic toward Lubbock on all highways was closed for a time by high water, including U. S. 87 and Farm Road 400.

A grain storage tank in southeast Plainview was lifted and hurled into two combines, coming to rest on top of one. In north Plainview, a house was unroofed.

Its owner, Bill Hardin, said he had just left the house to seek shelter in a nearby school house. He said he turned to watch a low cloud and saw the wind pick up the roof of his house. It landed in an adjoining yard.

SAIGON (UPI)—At least 879 Viet Cong in a two-day fight on the outskirts of Quang Tri, 10 miles south of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) border. It brought the Communist death toll in major battles in the northern provinces over the weekend to 783.

U.S. officials had estimated that 2,500 members of the North Vietnamese 2nd Regiment were around the Hiep Duc Valley. About 5,000 Marines were airlifted into the area in a daring night assault Friday.

The region has supply and communications lines linking U.S. bases at Da Nang, Chu Lai, Hoi An, and Tam Ky. In the air war, U.S. spokesmen disclosed that two more Communist MIG interceptors were shot down Saturday over North Vietnam but they also reported the loss of two more American planes.

A U.S. Air Force F106 Thunderchief was "lost" to Communist ground fire Sunday in American raids over the north. A B57 Canberra jet bomber was reported lost to unknown causes during a night strike over the north Saturday.

The crewmen involved were listed officially as missing. Thunderchief pilots smashed a 20-truck convoy and missile launchers just north of the DMZ. The American airmen reported their bombs were "on target."

ARMOR FOR HANOI similar to this mobile ground-to-ground rocket unit is being supplied by Moscow, according to East European sources. The rockets are reported capable of hitting Saigon or American carriers off the Vietnamese coast.

DUMPING SAND from their shoes in a derogatory gesture, Egyptian hospital workers heckled crewmen aboard the Navy aircraft carrier Intrepid as the ship passed through the Suez Canal into the Red Sea. The Pentagon said it was headed for the Vietnam war zone.

Table Settings Grow Up In Beauty

By AILEEN SNODDY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — The beauty of the tableware field is growing up. A major reason for this is the importance of the table's continued eating out during the summer. This usually means your own patio or as guests of neighbors for a cook-out.

In many homes a well-designed melamine set of dinnerware bridges the gap between the family china and the place settings for guests.

Melamine designs and color have come so far that they truly fit the contemporary scene. A shrewd move on the part of the designers has been to select styles that best meet the use and material of such dinnerware. According to Joseph Runza, design director for the melamine division of Lenox, "We are designing melamine with a contemporary approach to informal entertaining. Instead of trying to duplicate traditional china patterns."

Sculptured effects are very important. In line with this look are new concepts with plates that are thin and appear highly lacquered, with a deep rim that allows for more surface design. An especially effective design in this field are cups that are straight-sided and stack. Because of his closeness to design, Runza often is asked to create table settings. For casual, colorful entertaining he offers these suggestions:

—Choose a theme. A simple motif, perhaps a floral design, sets the mood.

—Pick up accent colors from the dinnerware in selecting table coverings and napkins.

—Mix and match with contrasting napkins and tablecloth of prints with slides and prints.

—Sew your own decorations with inexpensive cottons or a sheet of vinyl that just needs cutting. Also shop for new designs in paper place mats.

—When selecting a centerpiece, go overboard with an oversized paper or cloth variety of flowers. They're very big, have many uses and fit unusual containers, such as a casserole dish, straw basket or gallon milk container.

No matter how beautifully you decorate a buffet, though, Runza points out it is only successful when set in a logical order so guests find it easy to serve themselves. An overly elaborate table setting is like an overdone hairdo that everyone is afraid to disturb.

Girls Auxiliary Has Picnic Outing

SKELLYTOWN — The GA Girls of the Skellytown First Baptist Church enjoyed a picnic and the rides recently at Thompsons Park in Amarillo.

Girls attending were Pam and Carla Duckworth, Sharon and Becky Davis, Renee and Debbie Allen, Denise Matthews, Perelene Moore, Colleen McCloud, Karen and Patty Ledford, Ronda Salvage, Wanda Garrison, Sarah and Kathy Lynch, Margie Sangster, Ramona Giesler, Kathy Tice, Judy Hassler, Teresa Campbell, Becky and Susan Fox, Sherry Pershall.

Others attending were Rev. and Mrs. Murie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Allen, Mrs. Mary McCloud and Curtis Prescott.

Attending were Meses. Adolph Novotny, Edd Pannell, Bill Houghton, Clifford Coleman and Howard Moore.

CASUAL BUFFETS TAKE on co-ordinated look with new designs in melamine dinnerware. These punctuate the fact that odd pieces of tableware and flatware no longer fit the mood of the modern hostess. Daisy motif here is in black and white with new design cups that stack, with or without saucers. Table-setting designers for Lenoxware recommend repeating daisy motif in floral centerpiece and a napkin lining in the bread basket.

tion day, which will be the 4th day, Thursday, of each session. Visitation Day buses will leave from the Girl Scout Little House at 2 p.m. and return at 8:30 p.m.

In spite of damp, cold weather—sixty-six Brownies and their leaders went to Camp Mel Davis for the Brownie Holiday of Highland Neighborhood. After the opening flag ceremony, the Brownies spent the morning learning to tie the knots, the correct use of a pocket knife and the safe way to build fires. Rebecca Secrest led the singing throughout the day.

After learning a table grace, Brownies ate lunches and then separated into small groups for the older Girl Scouts to show them points of interest while hiking at Camp Mel Davis. After singing and resting, they held the closing flag ceremony and the tired but happy Brownies departed, waving "good-bye" to Junior and Cadette Girl Scouts.

Brownie Troops attending were Troop 23 led by Mrs. George Broughton; Troop 16, led by Mrs. Jerry Elgar; Troop 10, led by Mrs. B. J. Hagerman and Troop 24 under the direction of Mrs. Don Kitterman.

The scouts helping were: Shermette Stephens, Pernie Fallon, Patsy Kelley, Cindy Gill, Sherry Collingsworth, Merrilyn Miller and Ruth Felter of Troop 1; Susie Stowers, Rebecca Secrest and Betty Felter of Troop 26; Eva Whiteley and Paula Homer of Troop 54; Diann Duesterhaus and Rosalie Kurtz of Troop 56. Leaders in charge were Mrs. Richard Stowers, Troop 26 and Mrs. W. J. Felter.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Last month my husband, Bob, took me to a popular night spot for dinner. As our dinner was served, a "Dr. S." as I shall call him, was introduced as the evening's entertainment.

Dr. X. was billed as "the only hypnotist with a 'Ph. D.'" He asked for volunteers, promising that no one would be embarrassed, and they would all awaken from the hypnosis feeling "refreshed."

My husband volunteered, resulting in one of the most shattering and exhausting experiences of his life. And I was subjected to humiliation beyond description, as I witnessed by husband and nine other subjects make fools of themselves for over an hour.

For example: All the subjects were told they were naked. One young girl tried desperately to "hide" herself behind another subject; an older married man was completely unnerved. At the same time, my husband tried to "cover" himself as best he could with a handkerchief, looking very miserable indeed.

Finally, the male subjects were told to return to their tables and to kiss their wives more passionately than ever before. My husband and I are newlyweds, so you can imagine the results. My husband proceeded to embrace me in a most personal manner, and I was powerless to stop him.

This may be too long to print, but perhaps if you printed part, the public might be made aware of this insanity and some legal measures can be taken to stop it.

INFURIATED IN SAN DIEGO
DEAR INFURIATED: Hypnosis is now recognized as a therapeutic technique when practiced by trained, responsible professionals, and if there isn't a law against it as "entertainment," there should be. Perhaps if enough citizens "suggested" it — by letter — to their legislators, there will be.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to a church luncheon today, but before I leave I will fix myself a cup of tea first, which brings me to the point of this letter.

I am an ardent tea drinker and I do not drink coffee. My cup of tea means as much to me as coffee means to those who just HAVE to have a cup of coffee. However, almost everywhere I go, only coffee is served. If you don't drink coffee, you can just drink water.

Many of the luncheons I attend are church or club luncheons and I pay just as much for my lunch as the coffee drinkers do. I wonder how many people would pay for their lunches if coffee was not served?

AN OLD TEA BAG
DEAR BAG: Since the absence of tea is a source of annoyance to you, you could either phone ahead and request tea, or tote your own tea bags. Your complaint is a valid one, and I'm with you all the way.

DEAR ABBY: "May Bride," who wanted her brother to be best man instead of her fiancé's brother because HER brother was tall and handsome, and her fiancé's brother was a "homely little sawed-off runt?"

All I can say is I feel sorry for the man who marries her. And since the height of a child is hereditary, what will she do if she gives birth to a son and he is a "homely sawed-off little runt?" Like his uncle? Kidnap the best looking baby in the nursery?

Boycott Staged Against US

MOSCOW (UPI) — Angry Soviet officials boycotted a U.S. exhibit in the Baltic Sea port of Leningrad and sent 200 demonstrators to the empty hall in a protest against the alleged death of a Russian merchant seaman in Vietnam.

The Soviets charged that a seaman named Rybachuk was killed and six other crewmen wounded Friday when two U.S. planes bombed and strafed the coal ship Turkestan at the North Vietnamese port of Cam Pha.

Rybachuk, an electro-mechanic, is the first Russian officially reported killed in Vietnam.

The exhibit in Leningrad, 400 miles northwest of Moscow, was to have opened Saturday. Speeches were scheduled by U.S. Embassy Charge d'Affaires in Moscow John Guthrie and the deputy mayor of Leningrad. More than 100 Leningrad officials also had been invited.

The deputy mayor cancelled his appearance and called off Guthrie's courtly call on him before the opening.

Later, about 200 noisy, sign-waving demonstrators showed up at the hall where the U.S. industrial design exhibit was to have opened. As U.S. officials stood alone inside the empty hall, the demonstrators paraded outside.

Tass, the official Soviet news agency, said the two U.S. planes dropped a bomb 300 feet from the Turkestan, then strafed it with "large-caliber bullets."

The official note said flatly the ship was "bombed."

U.S. spokesmen in Saigon and Washington said they had no information to confirm the Soviet charges.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
United Press International

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Sunday night's Emmy Awards show on ABC-TV was definitely not a rerun. It just seemed that way: countless trivial honors handed out with the few worthwhile ones, thereby downgrading the genuine achievements and making it almost impossible to remember who won what a few minutes later.

The annual affair, in which television gives prizes to itself did distinguish itself in several ways, however. It failed to bestow a single major award on CBS-TV's superb production of "Mark Twain Tonight." It failed to give a single major award to national educational television. And it somehow managed to overlook entirely the Carnegie Commission and Ford Foundation reports on public video, which were merely the most significant, and revolutionary developments in television in the past year.

On the other hand, I do remember several awards going to the Andy Griffith series, and another to a performance in "The Wild, Wild West," a hack western-spy show. In addition, the Andy Williams program won over the Dean Martin, Jackie Gleason, "Hollywood Palace" and "Tonight" series as best variety show. In short, the Emmy ceremony was true to its tradition, issuing a lot of sound and fury and signifying, for the most part, nothing. The honors for "Death of a Salesman" came a year after recognition by the critic's consensus.

To tell the truth, even television itself downgrades the Emmy stuff by not presenting it live across the nation. For example, here on the West Coast, it is seen on a three-hour delay basis.

The tone of the Emmy Awards might best be described in the words of an astute lady journalist who once wrote of a rising actress that she had "portentous gentility." The hosts, Joey Bishop in Hollywood and Hugh Downs in New York, were very competent, but the whole ceremony verges on the absurd, and is out of anyone's control. One would not be too surprised if there were an award for the best bad breath commercial of the year.

On the program's admirable side, there was a tribute to the late Walt Disney, and Lucille Ball's acceptance speech for her award punctured the superficiality of the evening with its warmth.

DDT Results

DDT residues in excess of recently established tolerance in milk have been reported in some areas of Texas. Improper application and/or the application of DDT in proximity of dairy farms and forage crops that are to be used as feed for dairy animals may be responsible for the trouble, explains C.W. Neeh, area Extension entomologist. He warns that DDT sprays used for crop protection should not be applied within one-fourth mile of dairy farms or forage crops.

Levy Moved To Hospital Ward

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (UPI)—Capt. Howard Levy, convicted of disobedience and disloyalty, waited in a hospital detention ward today while his attorney turned to the Army Department, seeking his release while his appeal is pending.

The 39-year-old doctor from Brooklyn was moved to the ward from a barred wire stockade because "accommodations there more closely conform to his status as an officer," the Army said.

"As an 'adjudged prisoner' he retains the privileges of his rank while his case is reviewed," a public information officer explained.

Levy, a dermatologist and former civil rights worker, was convicted by a 10-man court martial board Friday and sentenced Saturday on charges of refusing to train U.S. Special Forces medics how to treat skin diseases encountered in Vietnam and for spreading disloyalty by telling Negro soldiers they should not fight in Vietnam.

Levy was ordered dishonored from the service in disonor and sentenced to three years at hard labor. Authorities said his sentence, if upheld in appeals courts, probably would be served at the U.S. Army disciplinary barracks at the Leavenworth, Kan., federal penitentiary.

Levy had contended in his courtmartial that Green Beret medics were primarily combatants and not medics and it would be a violation of medical ethics to give them medical training. He also contended it was within his constitutional rights to criticize U.S. policy in Vietnam.

2-Car Crash Breaks Gas Line, Meter

A two-car accident on a rain-slicked highway last night near Pampa blocked off traffic four hours while workmen repaired a broken gas meter run.

No injuries resulted from the accident 1.8 miles west on Texas 152.

Texas Highway patrolman Douglas Wright said both cars were traveling east on the highway about 8:30 p.m. and collided when one tried to pass.

"A car driven by John Wayne Hughes, 22, of Spearman, slipped on the slick highway, spun around and hit a Cities Service gas-meter run. We held up traffic until 12:30 a.m. today while workmen repaired the broken gas line," Wright said.

Driver of the other car involved was Larry R. Bilyeu, 21, of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Judy Bilyeu, his wife, was a passenger, Wright said.

Hughes' car, which struck the gas meter, valve and pipe, sustained heavy damage and Bilyeu's, light damage, Wright said.

City police assisted Wright, DPS patrolman Stanley Schneider, and Bill Board of the Sheriff's office, but fire trucks were not required.

A. N. King, Cities Service Co. maintenance supervisor, said "not too much damage was done because it was a low pressure valve, with about 25 pounds residue pressure and it was raining, so the gas settled down."

Workmen were still repairing the broken pipe and meter today.

In calling the meeting, school board president H. Creel Grady Jr. said the purpose of the meeting is to brief trustees on the bill and how it will affect the local salary schedule and the school district tax rate. He said the briefing session will give board members an opportunity to study the local salary schedule in light of the state legislative salary increase before the regular board meeting on Thursday.

FEARS GAS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Israel has asked to buy about 20,000 gas masks from the United States, according to the State Department.

Department officials said during the weekend that the United States has already supplied Israel with some 20,000 masks.

There has been no explanation why Israel is stocking up on gas masks (it recently purchased 20,000 from West Germany, also). But last week the International Red Cross made public report charging that poison gas had been used in the Yemeni civil war, in which Egypt is involved.

Cash, Change Taken in Breakins

A service station and a grocery store were apparently burglarized by the same person or persons sometime between 9:30 p.m. Saturday and 7 a.m. Sunday, with over $60 taken from the two places, according to Pampa police.

Quick Stop Grocery, 915 W. Wilks, reported that they had been broken into and that $30 in currency and $30 in change had been taken from the cash register and Coke machine. No merchandise is believed to be missing.

Earlier, John Mitchell's Eneo Station, 900 S. Hobart, had been entered by a broken washroom window. The cigarette machine was pried open and an unknown amount of change taken. Sockets and screwdrivers taken from the station were used to break into Quick Stop.

George Swinford, 723 N. Zimmers, reported that someone had stolen a standard four-speed transmission from his car while it was in his garage sometime Saturday night. The transmission is valued at $225.

Hills, Michael Win Tourney

F. N. Hills and new partner Dan Michael overcame a four stroke disadvantage at the start of Sunday's play and won the Fourth Annual Pampa Country Club Partnership Tournament with a 61 Sunday to go with an opening round Saturday of 60 and 121 total.

Hills, who teamed with Lonnie Johnson to win the tournament last year, and Michael won by five strokes of Buster Carter and David Fatheree who carded scores of 58-68-126. Carter and Fatheree were tied with another team at the end of Saturday's round for second.

Most of the golfers found Sunday's scotch foursome round a bit harder than Saturday's handicap play.

Play Sunday was based on select drive, then alternating of shots. Partners added their handicaps together, then subtracted one-half of that, then subtracted the one-half from their scratch score.

Hills and Michael had a combined 21 handicap with one-half being 21. They shot a scratch of 62 and minus the 21 got their Sunday 61.

Carter and Fatheree had a combined 11 handicap and half was six and they shot a scratch 74.

The best scratch round of the day, however, was turned in by Tom Adkins and Malcolm Douglas, who carded a 72 over the 6,010 long PCC course. The pair finished in a tie for fifth with a two round total of 61-67-128.

Saturday's leaders Mark Heath and Tennie Reynolds, who had a 56 on opening day shot a 76 Sunday for a 36-hole total of 132.

The tournament, which saw silver cups go to the first two teams and gift certificates to the first six, drew 60 teams and 120 total players.

A GOOD DAY -- Don Michael, left, and F.N. Hills had a good Sunday as this silver tea service set shows. The pair teamed up to win the Fourth Annual Pampa Country Club Partnership golf tournament by firing a scotch 61 and win by five strokes.

Rebels Topple Spearman, 5-4

Pampa's Rebels had their sights set on Amarillo and Tascosa for Wednesday after bunting six hits for five runs Sunday to take their second victory in as many outings, 5-4 over Spearman in seven innings.

Dickie Henley went the distance, giving up six hits, two earned runs, striking out 10 and walking four in his first pitching assignment in more than two months.

The Rebels play Tascosa at Amarillo, beginning at 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Larry Turcotte drove in a pair of runs with a long triple and Henley got a pair of hits to pace the Rebel's batting.

Pampa picked up four stolen bases to give them a total of nine in two games. They beat Perryton Saturday night in their first outing.

Pampa went in front 1-0 in the first without a hit when Alvin Achord led off with a walk, stole second and third and scored on a passed ball.

The count went to 2-0 in the third when Sanders was safe on an error, stole second and scored on a ground ball.

Perryton made it 2-2 in the fourth when they pounded Henley for three straight hits.

But the Rebels came back for two in their half of the inning on singles by Achord and Sanders and Turcotte's triple, all after two were out. The score was 5-2 after six innings when in the sixth Henley doubled and scored on an error.

Spearman tallied twice in the seventh without benefit of a hit.

MOUTH TOO DRY Hill Wins One Drought Over

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Dave Hill was to walk twice for free today over the 6,466-yard piece of real estate that paid him $5,000 per trip during the four days of the $100,000 Memphis Open.

The boyish-looking pro from Jackson, Mich., who won $20,000 Sunday for finishing first in the 10th annual tournament, was among a field of 47 professionals and amateurs competing for 36 holes over the Colonial Country Club course in the sectional qualifying for the U.S. Open.

Hill, whose next stop is the Buick Open at Flint, Mich., proved the master of the short but demanding Colonial course during the first three days of the Memphis Open, but a case of the shakes almost cost him the lead in the final round.

"The toughest thing in the world is to lead a tournament, when everybody expects you to fall flat on your face," said the slender, dark-haired Hill after carding a three-over-par 73 on his final round.

"I almost quit breathing out there," he said. "I've normally been able to think of something to sing, but today my mouth was too dry."

Hill finished 72 holes at 272, eight under par, and two strokes ahead of Johnny Pott, who emerged from the pack with a blistering final round of four-under-par 66 for a tournament total of 274 to take second place money of $12,000.

South African Harold Henning was all alone in third place, three strokes back, while Randy Glover of Florence, S.C., and Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., tied for fourth at 276. Henning fired a 67 Sunday, while Glover had a 68 and Sikes carded a 71.

Hill's previous worst round was a 68 Saturday. He opened with a 65 on Thursday to take a one-stroke lead and widened his margin to four strokes on Friday with a 66.

Clay Refuses To Go In Army

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Ignoring the arguments of fellow Negro athletes, boxer Cassius Clay stood firm today on his refusal to serve in the United States Army.

He will go on trial in two weeks in federal court in Houston.

Former Cleveland fullback Jimmy Brown, UCLA basketball star Lew Alcindor, the Boston Celtics Bill Russell and seven other athletes held what Brown described as a "heated" discussion Sunday with Clay about his position on the draft.

Clay emerged from the meeting to report "nothing new."

"They know now I'm completely sincere," Clay said. "I actually believe in the Muslim religion."

Clay's final appeal for a draft deferment was on the grounds he was a Black Muslim minister to whom boxing was only a hobby.

The World Boxing Association stripped Clay of his heavyweight crown when he refused induction but the 24-year-old boxer said:

"I am still heavyweight champion in the eyes of 90 per cent of the whites in this country, 100 per cent of the Negroes and all of Asia, Africa and Europe.

Claims Wide Backing
 "Just because one man may not recognize me as champion means nothing when I have the backing of so many."

Brown, who arranged the meeting, said, "We heard his views and know he is completely sincere in his beliefs."

"Now he knows our feelings and we know his," Alcindor said.

Clay was indicted by a federal grand jury in Houston for refusing to be inducted into the Army last April 28.

If convicted, he faces a prison term of up to five years and/or a $10,000 fine.

Yanks Feel Sting Of McAuliffe Bat

By United Press International
 The batting style that produced 511 career home runs and made Mel Ott a Hall of Famer is making Dick McAuliffe one of the most feared hitters in the American League.

The unique way in which Ott used to lift his right leg as he eased into the life when he brought back to life when McAuliffe broke in with the Detroit Tigers in 1961. It has paid some handsome dividends for the spunky infielder ever since.

The New York Yankees felt the sting of McAuliffe's bat when he cracked his fifth lifetime grand slam in the 13th inning Sunday to give the Tigers an 11-7 victory in the second game of a doubleheader after New York took the opener 5-0. The win enabled Detroit to hold its slim lead in the American League.

Ott, the former Giant great who terrorized National League pitchers for 22 years, was the only player to use such an unorthodox stance in the majors until McAuliffe decided to give it a try.

Marathon Contest
 Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore tripped Washington 7-5 in 19 innings, Minnesota edged California 8-7 in 10 inns, Cleveland blanked Boston 3-0, and Chicago and Kansas City split a doubleheader, with the Sox winning the opener 2-0 and the As taking the nightcap 5-4.

McAuliffe's blast climaxed a tense struggle that saw the Tigers blow a 6-1 lead. Jake Gibbs sent the game into extra innings with a pinch-homer in the bottom of the ninth off reliever Fred Gladding.

In the first game Al Downing pitched a five-hitter and was backed by a two-run homer by Joe Pepitone in the first inning and an inside the park home run by Robinson in the seventh.

Homer Decides Game
 Andy Etchebarren belted a two-run homer in the 19th inning to give the Orioles a 7-5 victory over the Washington Senators in the longest game of the major league season. Bob Priddy, who gave up the deciding blow that ended the five hour and 18 minute contest, was charged with his third loss in as many decisions. Stu Miller, the last of five Baltimore pitchers who combined for 21 strikeouts, tied a major league record, picked up his first win of the season after four defeats.

Bob Allison laid down a squeeze bunt with one out in the 10th inning that enabled pinch-runner Ted Uhlaender to score the winning run for the Twins. A 500-foot blast off the facing of the upper deck in leftfield by Harmon Killebrew, highlighted a home run barrage that saw Rick Reichardt, Zoilo Versalles, Bob Rodgers and John Werhas all hit for the distance. Steve Hargan pitched a five-hit shutout and Leon Wagner smasher his eighth homer of the season to lead the Indians to victory. Hargan who has hurled four shutouts this year struck out six as he won his seventh game in 11 decisions.

Tommy John scattered five hits as the White Sox blanked the Athletics in their first game. Ken Berry drove in both runs in the opener with a four-inning single. In the nightcap, Jim Nash's single capped a four-run outburst in the fourth inning. Tommie Agee cracked his ninth homer of the season for Chicago.

It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Businessmen Should Fight Back

There is a message in the June 3 issue of Human Events that should be read by every American businessman.

It's a speech by Mr. Jerry Della Femina, vice president and creative supervisor of Ted Bates and Co., New York City. It was delivered recently before the Society of Communicative Arts in Charlotte, N.C.

In calling on the advertising industry to fight with all its power against government regulation and interference of all kinds, Mr. Della Femina carefully explained that he was speaking only for himself and not for his company.

Said he: "The business of business is being clubbed. And the only thing to do when you are being clubbed is to club back."

"How many of you have ever heard of Donald Turner? Well, what if I told you that if Mr. Turner, who is a member of the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice, has his way, advertising as you and I know it will be destroyed."

"What if I told you that if Mr. Turner and his friends in Washington have their way, in 10 years everyone in this room will be either out of work or regulated to being a creative clerk. It's happening. It's happening so slowly and so neatly that most people are not aware of it."

Mr. Della Femina charges that the Donald Turners in key government posts are slowly, but surely strangling the very business they live off—Advertising. He declares they're doing it in an immoral way—killing a business in the name of the public. The public that the Donald Turners contend is so stupid it can't make its own right decisions and, therefore, must be protected because it is gullible and powerless.

The plan is to do it by passing laws to protect the masses and making speeches and knocking some businessmen's heads together. Everybody knows businessmen don't fight back, they say.

Mr. Della Femina also said in his speech:

"I am proposing an alliance made up of every creative person and businessman in the United States to hit these people where they live. They live in Washington. And that's exactly where I want to hit them—in Washington."

"We all have a choice: you can either stand up and be counted or sit back and be buried."

Mr. Della Femina had much more than that to say and interested businessmen—those who care what is happening to them, should get a copy of the June 3 issue of Human Events and read the full text of his speech. Then write to Jerry Della Femina, Ted Bates & Co., New York City, N. Y., and ask him how you can help. Human Events' address is 410 First St., S. E., Washington, DC., 20003.

How the UN Serves You

"Man works from sun to sun, but woman's work..." That's what the old saw says. But it seems the United Nations comes up with a report that sometimes Mother gets to sit down.

According to the Women's Medical News Service, a 14-nation study made by the United Nations shows that mothers, both working and nonworking, in Communist and capitalist countries alike, have less free time than their husbands.

By free time is meant time to do what one wants to do as opposed to what one has to do.

For the United States, the study found that the working mother has an average of 2.8 hours of free time on weekdays and 7.1 hours on Sunday. The nonworking mother has about 3.5 hours free on weekdays and about 7.5 hours on Sundays.

The working father, in contrast, has about 4.1 hours of leisure time on weekdays and 8.5 hours on Sundays.

It's all very well, we suppose, if anybody cares. But some may ask, why in the name of common sense is the United Nations spending tax money for a study of that nature?

FCC Uses Its Club

Not everyone has heard of Carl McIntire.

Not everyone who has heard of him remembers who he is. Not everyone who remembers who he is sympathizes with what he says.

Not everyone who sympathizes with what he says agrees with the way he says it.

But whether you know him, remember him, agree with him or not, few would attempt to deprive him of the opportunity to speak out. Most Americans readily assent to the words often attributed to Voltaire. "I disapprove of what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it." Now let us put that famous doctrine to the test and see how many back away.

Carl McIntire is director of the 20th Century Reformation Hour Broadcast, editor-in-chief of the Christian Beacon, founder and chief spokesman for the American Council of Christian Churches, and pastor of a considerable congregation in Collingswood, N.J.

He is a salty-tongued denouncer of the World Council of Churches, the National Council of Churches and the Communist Party. He is a forthright critic of Billy Graham, most Protestant denominations and the Roman Catholic Church. In short, he is a very controversial person.

The question is: Shall he be silenced?

The main outlets for McIntire's opinions are radio. At times the 20th Century Reformation Hour network has numbered as high as 800 stations. The key station in this combine is WXUR - AM in Pennsylvania.

During his long career as a radio orator, McIntire has frequently criticized the Federal Communications Commission. Smarting under the McIntire lash, the FCC retaliated in two ways. First FCC attorneys have passed the word along that radio stations would find it to their advantage with FCC if they would not carry the 20th Century Reformation Hour. Second, the FCC ordered a hearing into McIntire's use of station WBUR for the raising of funds.

McIntire is resourceful. When liberal interests boycotted advertisers of a radio station, he appealed on the air for contributions and met the obligations of the station.

In the case of the inquiry into WXUR, McIntire demanded that the FCC permit the American Council of Christian Churches to become a party to the case.

The FCC refused although it permitted groups complaining against WXUR to enter the case on the other side.

At that point, McIntire called a protest rally and demonstration to be held in Constitution Hall, Washington, D.C., in order to explain his side of the case.

As far as the News is concerned, we support this man's right to speak. That entitlement is not different from any other man's right to speak. The effort of the Federal Communications Commission to use its power of regulation in an effort to diminish his voice, therefore, is an attack upon the person of every man. The FCC is the enemy of the people.

Nearly $2 Billion in U.S. Economic Aid in Past 15 Years Has Fed and Bolstered Economics of Arabs Now Shouting Aggressor at U.S.

ROBERT ALLEN

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — For there is searing irony in what is transpiring in the inflamed Middle East.

Nasser and the other Arab warlocks are outdoing themselves in venomous exhortation and castigation of the U. S. They are furiously branding it as "imperialistic," the "enemy," an "aggressor," etc. No vituperation is too harsh, no vilification too extreme.

Yet in the past 15 years, this country has poured close to $2 billion in economic aid in Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Jordan and Lebanon.

Of this huge total—around $1.5 billion was handed out between 1961 and 1966—in the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

These and subsequent figures include only those through June 30, 1966, the close of the last fiscal year. Figures on economic aid to these five Arab countries in the current fiscal year are unobtainable. Efforts to get this information at the State Department and the Agency for International Development, which administers foreign aid, was fruitless.

Officials refused to produce the figures on the ground they are "still classified." No explanation was given for this secrecy. Of the nearly $2 billion in economic aid to Egypt, Syria, Iraq, Jordan and Lebanon, more than one-half was in surplus food—paid for with local currency which remains in these countries. A small portion is available for U.S. diplomatic and other official expenditures there. But most of the current aid is earmarked for "development projects" in these countries. So, in effect, these surplus—grain and other food "sales" actually were given—ways paid for by U. S. taxpayers.

In every instance this aid saved these countries from grim food shortages, and at the same time powerfully bolstered their shaky economies. Without this U. S. food untold thousands of men, women and children in these lands would have suffered dire hunger and privations.

"UNCLE SUCKER" — The most vitriolic Arab beneficiary has received the most U.S. aid. Since 1967 Egypt's share totals more than $1.133 billion. Of this, $902.2 million has been in surplus food; the remainder in long-term, low interest loans and credits for factories and other projects.

These include $30 million for a power plant in Cairo, one of whose functions is to supply electricity for Nasser's hate-spewing and war-mongering giant radio station.

In many instances repayment of U.S. loans is in local currency that remains in Egypt. Of the dollar loans Nasser is millions in default on scheduled payments.

Surplus food shipments to Egypt soared under President Kennedy. In his three years in office, they totaled $398.9 million. In 1961 they jumped to $82.5 million from $42.7 million under President Eisenhower. In 1962 they again more than doubled to $174.5 million. In 1963 they declined somewhat to $141.9 million.

In addition to giving Nasser huge amounts of surplus food, the Kennedy administration also granted a $17 million long-term, low interest loan for the construction of facilities to store the bountiful supplies of grain Nasser was getting from the U.S., virtually for nothing.

Last year the Senate Subcommittee on Foreign Aid Expenditures disclosed that Nasser had sold large quantities of U. S. surplus grain to Communist countries—in direct violation of the Food for Peace Act and his signed pledge to abide by this law.

"In November 1964," the committee reported, "a two-year agreement was entered into between the U.S. and the United Arab Republic whereby surplus grains were to be furnished under Title IV of Public Law 480. Despite a written agreement not to do so, the UAR increased its exports of rice to Communist countries at a time when it was receiving wheat from the U.S. which it used for domestic consumption instead of rice normally consumed."

"The Department of State knew about these violations of the law and written agreement, but did absolutely nothing about them..." The State Department either finds a rationale for condoning the violations, or simply takes no action against a country which has violated its agreement not to ship foodstuffs to Communist countries during the period it is receiving food assistance from the U.S."

The Senate committee charged that while Nasser used U.S. surplus wheat, which he got in effect for nothing, to meet domestic needs, he exported Egyptian rice to Communist countries as follows:

Russia 131,000 metric tons; Red China 20,000; Cuba 62,000; Czechoslovakia 24,000; Poland 16,000; Rumania 17,000; Yugoslavia 16,000; East Germany 13,000; Hungary 6,000; Bulgaria 4,000; Indonesia 52,000; Syria 29,000; Lebanon 13,000; Iraq 4,000.

"OTHER FREE LOADERS" — Next largest Arab beneficiary is Jordan—which is largely dependent on the U.S. for solvency. Economic aid to this small country totals $517.2 million. Of this an unspecified amount is for budget balancing. Throughout the many years the U. S. has been balancing Jordan's budget its own budget has been billions in the red.

In addition to economic aid, Jordan has received $55.6 million in military assistance. The other three Arab beneficiaries have obtained the following:

SYRIA — $73.2 million in economic aid; $100,000 in military assistance. Most of the economic aid has been in surplus food, with the remainder in long-term, low-interest loans and credits, virtually all repayable in local currency. In other words, like the food "sales," they are actually give-aways.

IRAQ — $102.7 million in economic and military aid. The bulk of the former has been in surplus food. Most of the $46.6 million in military assistance was in 1963 to 1966 when the country was a monarchy. In the last several years U.S. aid to Iraq has dropped to little more than $5 million annually.

LEBANON — $87.9 million in economic and military aid. Of this total only $8.7 million has been for military assistance. Virtually all of the remainder had been in loans and credits, of which $4.7 million has been repaid.

In all of these Arab countries the best-kept secret is the immense quantities of food the U.S. has given them. The mass of people have no awareness of that, and the authorities do not publicize it and the U.S. does little or nothing to make it known.

On the other hand, Nasser and the other Arab rulers loudly and continuously extol aid from Russia and other Communist countries.

The Senate committee reported that the Egyptian press and radio made a great to-do when a Soviet freighter unloaded a small shipment of wheat at Alexandria. But a few weeks later when $17 million of U. S. grain arrived, not one word was said about that.

The Senate investigators established that Nasser barred all publicity about U.S. aid. The same policy is enforced in the other Arab countries.

PREDICTIONS — President Johnson will issue an executive order abolishing draft exemptions for graduate students. This edict will not apply to 1967 graduates, on the ground they have made preparations and commitments to continue studying. But the new rule will apply to next year's graduates—with the exception of certain fields such as medicine, dentistry, engineering, science. Governor Romney will address a Republican fund-raising dinner in Lincoln, Neb., June 23, while Governor Reagan will star at the Young Republicans convention in Omaha. Congress will take a two-week vacation starting June 30. Many members favor shutting down through all of August; but Democratic leaders turned that down because of the war in Vietnam and the lagging legislative pace. President Johnson's proposal to Congress for federal financing of election campaigns will be drastically revised. His plan has no chance of being approved. But Congress will definitely enact some form of government financing of political campaigns.

The time had come for the young man to start feeling his oats. He approached his father and said, "Young Man — Dad, I'm leaving home. I'm going to find fame, adventure, fortune, beautiful women... don't try to stop me, dad... my mind's made up."

The old man jumped from his chair. "Old Man — Who the devil is trying to stop you! I'm going with you."

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

Supplementary Thyroid Pills Are Helpful

Q—What causes a slow thyroid? Can it affect both men and women? Can thyroid pills be taken during and after the menopause? Should I take thyroid pills when I am sick with a cold? If untreated, can a slow thyroid cause a nervous breakdown?

A—I assume that your thyroid fails to put out enough thyroid hormone. This may be hereditary; it may be due to a failure of the pituitary to sufficient thyroid stimulating hormone; it may be due to surgical removal of too much of an overactive thyroid; or it may be due to a destructive disease of the thyroid. It can affect both men and women.

Neither the menopause nor a cold would affect your need for supplementary thyroid pills. Persons with underactivity of the thyroid that is not treated become dull and apathetic. A nervous breakdown would be more characteristic of an overactive thyroid.

Q—I am middleaged, overweight, have thin hair and a very slow pulse but otherwise I feel O.K. My doctor thought I might have an underactive thyroid but the function test showed a mildly overactive gland. Is an underactive thyroid the only cause of these symptoms?

A—The chief cause of overweight in middle-aged persons is a decrease in physical activity and an increased intake of food. Thinning of the hair is an accompaniment of age in both men and women. More often than not a very slow pulse is of no significance. It is much less dangerous than a very fast pulse. An electrocardiogram should be made and if it shows a normal pattern you need not worry.

Q—What would cause a person to feel chilly all the time even though dressed warmly in a room at 74 degrees, and to tire very easily?

A—The cause could be an underactive thyroid, a low-grade kidney infection, tuberculosis or some other chronic debilitating disease.

Q—What are the symptoms of an overactive thyroid? I had PBI test and the reading was 11. Is this very high?

A—An overactive thyroid may cause a fast pulse, a fine tremor of the hands, protruding eyeballs, jittery nerves and a sensation of being too warm in a room where others are comfortable. If the 11 (no 1.1) refers to the percentage of protein found iodine (PBI) found in your blood 72 hours after the test dose was given, this is very high.

U THANT'S BIAS

In tracing the roots of the Middle East crisis, informed citizens can hardly fail to observe that U Thant, Secretary General of the United Nations, precipitated one of the worst developments in the situation.

This was Mr. U Thant's immediate, affirmative response to Egypt's demand for withdrawal of the U. N. peace-keeping force from positions along the Israeli border. It was not necessary for U Thant to take this action, for the peace-keeping force had been created by the U. N. General Assembly and not by the Secretary General himself. With this sudden, irresponsible action, U Thant opened the door to direct action to Col. Nasser of Egypt. For example, with the almost overnight withdrawal of the U. N. troops, Nasser was able to send more troops to blockade the narrow straits which control Israel's access to the Red Sea and its markets in Africa and Asia. Automatically, war tension was increased.

Western peoples should not overlook U Thant's strange behavior. In the past the Burmese neutralist who heads the bureaucratic machinery of the U. N. has gone all out to assert the U. N.'s authority in international disputes. But he made no such assertion of authority against the Egyptians, who are sponsored by the Soviet Union. He didn't even attempt to delay an action that was bound to promote the communist goal of stirring trouble in the oil-rich Middle East.

U Thant's action in the Israeli-Egyptian crisis is in striking contrast to his actions and statements with regard to the war in Vietnam. The U. N. Secretary General has used his office to try to bend the United States to his will, virtually adopting Hanoi's position on the aerial bombing and suggesting that the U. S., by its air raids against the Red regime, was on the verge of starting World War III.

U Thant's behavior, in this and other situations, gives abundant evidence of where his sympathies lie. Nasser's Egypt, of course—is one of the revolutionary states of the world. It is very close to the Communist bloc countries. Nasser desires to oust the Western countries from their oil concessions in the Middle East, a goal which U Thant undoubtedly shares.

The bias U Thant has shown toward the Egyptians is all too graphically illustrated by the failure of his office—and of the Afro-Asian bloc in the U. N.—to pay any attention to other threats to the peace in the Middle East. Since the early 1960s, Egypt has had 50,000 soldiers occupying the little Red Sea country of Yemen, but U Thant and the U. N. have not condemned Egypt's aggression there.

For many months, Egyptian agents, infiltrators and saboteurs have been conducting a terrorist war against the vital British naval base of Aden at the Southern end of the Red Sea and against the South Arabian Federation. But the U. N. persists in seeing no evil.

It's Up To You

By HOWARD KERSHNER

A Nation of 'Sibphagists'

The generally accepted estimate of national income has risen from $181.2 billion in 1945 to $554.7 billion in 1965, twenty years later. This is a rise of 205 percent during the past twenty years, and would seem to be the occasion for rejoicing until we note that net public and private debt during the same period rose from $406.3 billion in 1945 to $1,267.5 billion in 1965, for a total rise during the period of 212 percent—just a little more than the rise in the so-called national income. Surely we must all be dismayed to find that debt has risen faster than income.

The awful truth now dawns upon us that we have been borrowing heavily, both as private individuals and as government units, and converting this debt into income. Of course it is not real income—it is mere splurging on borrowed funds. We are mortgaging the future to finance our current extravagance. Instead of storing up a patrimony for our children and our grandchildren, we are using up, not only the wealth we have, but are mortgaging their future. To put a Gothic noun root before a common Greek suffix, we might describe this practice as being that of a "sibphagist," that is, a creature which consumes its own young.

It is the normal desire of parents to leave the best cultural and material heritage to their children that may be within their power. Very few realize, apparently, that our rising debt, though it will be converted into income in our time, is actually the squandering of the heritage which we should bequeath to future generations. It is exactly as if one kept increasing the mortgage on his home and continued spending lavishly, with every appearance of prosperity until the mortgage was foreclosed, leaving the family homeless. That's what's happening to America. Every patriot will work and pray that the eyes of our people may be opened before it is too late to reverse the trend—the inevitable trend toward bankruptcy. We must learn to stop borrowing money and to live within our means, both as individuals and as local, state and federal units of government. There is no health or safety any other way.

Aden this spring, but refused to even consult with South Arabian Federation officials—the lawful authorities in the area. U Thant had no word of reproach for the U. N.'s emissaries. He was too busy trying to pressure the United States into backing down before the forces of aggression in Southeast Asia. In another situation, involving Syrian sabotage raids the U. N. Secretary General was equally blind to aggression by a pro-communist country.

U Thant's position is understandable, in one sense. No doubt his sympathies are in line with the policies of the majority of countries in the United Nations organization. The more than 100 countries in the U. N., after all, are largely nations from the communist world or the so-called Third World of backward, neutralist nations. Thus the majority of states in the U. N. fall into one of two classes: (1) communist or openly pro-communist nations, or (2) nations which envy America and want to penalize the U. S. for its affluence. Many of the new nations of Africa, which are so numerous in the U. N., belong to the second group.

The United Nations talks peace, but the U. N.'s definition of peace invariably is one which benefits the enemies of freedom. "Peace" for U Thant means Western withdrawal at every point and accommodation to the demands of the revolutionary states and movements. In short, U Thant's career as Secretary General clearly illustrates his anti-Western outlook—an outlook which he clearly shares with the majority of states in the U. N. organization.

The entertainers that please the younger set these days have to be "real gone" before they ever arrive.

A dime is a lot of money when you haven't got one.

Many Rewards Possible In Hairdressing

"If you want prestige," Bob E. Parker, owner of Pampa College of Hairdressing, stated, "a good income and a chance to use your designing talents, you can find all these rewards in hairdressing. Hundreds of hair stylists have become exceptionally successful, and many of them in their early twenties. Hairdressing is one of the few careers in which you can get ahead fast."

The course is six months long. The student must have three months of intensified class room instruction and procedures before they are allowed to work on patrons. They learn to shape the hair, shampoo, curl, straighten, bleach, (by the new machine method) color and create hairstyles by numerous methods and instruments. In addition, they give scalp and facial treatments, provide make-up analysis, remove superfluous hair, arch and tint eyebrows and give manicures and pedicures. Due to widespread public demand for experienced, capable wig stylists, Pampa College of Hairdressing is the first school in this area to incorporate the instruction, styling and retailing of wigs, postiches, falls and toupees.

The school guarantees each student a job when the course is completed and they operate a free job placement bureau. Parker invites both men and women to investigate the opportunities in this field. The registrar will be glad to give you all the necessary information without obligation. Call MO 5-3521 or visit the school at 716 West Foster.

Pampa College of Hairdressing has the largest enrollment of any beauty college in the state of Texas, having an average attendance of more than one hundred students.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — No one knows for sure exactly when, where or how the anti-car movement began. Historians agree, however, that the first protest demonstration was staged at Berkeley, Calif.

In what campus leaders described as a "walk-in," a group of students picketed the office of the American Automobile Association.

They carried signs reading "Make love, not cars" and "get a horse." Some burned their drivers' licenses.

At first it was believed the movement was confined to a few kooks, cowards, extremists and folk singers of the type generally referred to as "footniks."

First Reaction

After a cursory investigation, the attorney general of California issued a report belittling the movement as drawing its main support from "little old ladies in hiking shoes."

But when scientists, professors, Hollywood starlets and other intellectuals began speaking out against acceleration, it soon became apparent that the anti-car feeling was deeply rooted in American life.

The first open split within the government came when a prominent senator made a speech with the provocative title: "Should the United States Withdraw from Detroit?"

Soon the entire nation was divided. Those who supported the President's car policies were denounced as "mustangs." His critics were branded as "edsels."

Dissenter Court Martialled

At Camp Blowout, N.J., a motor pool sergeant was court martialled for refusing to give driving lessons to recruits who volunteered for a special force known as "the green crash helmets."

The heavyweight champion of the world failed his driving test and later declared he would go to jail before he would get behind the wheel of a car.

On Memorial Day, anti-car demonstrators from as far away as Seat Belt, Ariz., Stick Shift, Fla., and Snow Tire, Mass., converged on the Indianapolis Speedway.

In a speech before the general assembly, the Soviet ambassador to the United Nations accused the United States of "armstronging."

In Sweden, a self-appointed international tribunal headed by a British philosopher conducted a mock trial at which the United States was convicted of "car crimes."

QUETLY HAPPY ... SOUTH OXHEY, Envpand (UPI)—When he told Bill Martin last week he had won $38,920 in the Australian soccer pool, he whispered "hurray." Then he lapsed into a psychological silence which lasted seven days.

"I'm okay now," said Martin.

In another case, though, there was evidence that the defendant, when he realized detectives were on his trail, flushed his counterfeit money down a toilet.

This time, the defendant was convicted. The court found no reasonable explanation for this behavior except a guilty conscience.
