FDR ADVISES SWEEPING TAX CHANGES

SKYSCRAPERS MAY BE TIED UP IN STRIKE

TALLEST BUILDINGS IN WORLD MAY BE AFFECTED

BY TAYLOR HENRY, Associated Press Staff Writer.

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—On a wave of violence, striking building service workers sought today to drive through complete tie-up of the skyscraper-dependent life of America's largest city.

Flying squadrons of strikers, making lightning raids to force out employees who refused to answer the walkout call, battled guards and non-striking workers.

From the upper Bronx to Greenwich Village, police guards, answering night radio calls, found smashed doors, shattered windows and cut elevator cables.

Police recorded more than 300 cases of disorder, almost 100 arrests and a score of persons were injured and about a score more treated for scratches and bruises in fighting between pickets, police, and workers who refused to strike.

Radio patrols in the exclusive Central Park West residential section sought strike sympathizers suspected of having opened boiler valves, thus flooding a 15-story apartment building basement with live steam and scalding water.

With this and other apartment houses deprived of heat, a light snow fell and the weather became cold and damp.

Strike plans for today were cloaked in secrecy. Only clue was the announcement of James J. Bambrick, International Building Service president, as he left a conference lasting into the early morning hours. "We've got a startling surprise move for today."

His statement was interpreted to mean that he would order workers out in the tallest buildings in the world; the Empire State, the Chrysler, and the Rockefeller Plaza-Radio center.

Firemen manned elevators throughout the night, moving sick persons and calming tenants who were alarmed lest boilers in their buildings had not been properly tended.

Activities of the fire department were increased about 100 per cent, officials estimated. Extra men were detailed to all stations to carry on the extra-curricular duties.

Tenants in many strike-affected buildings, inexperienced in tending furnaces, kept the fires burning. Noxious fumes were reported, however.

Police received several reports of substitute workers and building superintendents being taken for "rides." They were not harmed or threatened; their captors simply arguing with them.

War On Speeders In City Declared By Commissioners

Speed Limit of 20 Miles Will Be Enforced

A declaration of war against speeders was sounded by the Pampa city commission last night at the conclusion of a lengthy conference with citizens.

One drive will be for the apprehension of speeders. With it will be a stiffer fine, $25 or more, according to the police record of the offender. Some Pampans have received several tickets and fines for speeding, but they still persist in the violation. For them, fines will be up to $50, or even more.

Speeding in school zones will be particularly costly for those who appear in police court.

The speed limit throughout the city is 20 miles per hour. Contrary to a rather widespread belief it is not 25 miles per hour in residential sections. There is only one maximum—20 miles an hour.

Many citizens, men and women, living in the Woodrow Wilson school area, urged placing of stop signs on East Browning avenue at the edges of the school campus. Such signs will be placed as soon as received. "Running" of these signs will be costly to offenders.

Another stop sign will be placed on east Francis and Ballard, on the east side of the intersection where visibility is poor.

Citizens present said they were not present in a critical mood, but to offer their support of and suggestions for a stern drive against speeding.

$15,000,000 City Rises for Centennial

A $15,000,000 city is arising around the old Texas State Fair park in Dallas, as 5,000 workmen labor day and night to prepare the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial exposition for its June 6 opening. The photograph shows steel of the $1,200,000 Hall of State in the foreground with building frames on the Esplanade of State, center traffic artery of the exposition, visible in the background.

CORPORATION PROFITS DUE FOR BIG LEVY

MOMENTOUS MESSAGE IS DELIVERED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—A tax revision program which stunned congress by its breadth was proposed by President Roosevelt today as a means of raising revenue for the farm program and the bonus.

In a special message, which was greeted coolly some democrats and condemned from within republican ranks, Mr. Roosevelt asked repeal of the present corporate tax system which brings in almost a billion dollars a year and urged substitution of a drastic tax on undistributed corporation profits.

This levy, designed to force billions of dollars into distribution among stockholders, was estimated to yield roughly $1,600,000,000.

Treasury experts said the new proposal would not only cover the taxes the president asked congress to repeal but would raise $20,000,000 a year additional for the farm program and the bonus.

This was the only permanent tax proposed.

The president also asked temporary processing taxes and a special "windfall" tax to replace the processing taxes which were lost during the current fiscal year amounting to $500,000,000 in round figures.

He told congress his proposals would not only simplify the tax structure but would plug up one of the biggest "leaks" in the present laws.

AGAIN EVIDENCING PAMPA HOSPITALITY: MISS NEIL PAMPAY, STATE MUSIC SUPERVISOR, WROTE TO Supt. R. F. FISHER THAT "I CERTAINLY ENJOY EVERY MINUTE OF MY VISIT AND LET ME SAY AGAIN THAT I AM PROUD OF YOUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE MUSIC FIELD. AS FAR AS I KNOW, THERE IS NOT A PLACE IN TEXAS DOING MORE OUTSTANDING WORK. PAMPA SHOULD BE DISTINCTLY ENTHUSIASTIC OVER SUCH A MARVELOUS MUSIC PROGRAM AS YOU HAVE INSTITUTED."

WORDS greatly regrets that, because of a conflicting meeting, no first hand account can be given of the vesper service Sunday by the Philharmonic chorus. That the crowd was small reflects unfavorably upon this city. Our musical participation through the schools is splendid, but as an audience the city as a whole fails to appreciate enough its musical organizations.

Local Centennial Plans Discussed

Centennial plans were discussed by the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce membership today. President A. J. Johnson called for a meeting of the board of directors at 7:30 o'clock on Friday night in the chamber of commerce rooms.

A letter of invitation for Pampa to send a large delegation to the regional Junior chamber of commerce meeting in Topeka, Kan., on March 13 and 14 was read by President Johnson. Members who can make the trip were asked to signify their intention at the next meeting.

Glenn Kendrick was received as a new member. Guests today were Dr. R. A. Webb and Lewis Goodrich.

SCHWARZKOPF AND HOFFMAN NEAR A BREAK

LEGISLATOR PUSHES A BILL TO PROTECT POLICE HEAD

TRENTON, N. J., March 3 (AP)—Governor Harold G. Hoffman's differences of opinion with Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the state police, over the merits of the police work in the Lindbergh kidnap-slaying, were close to the breaking point today.

Two unexpected political developments sharpened the edge of their disagreement.

Democratic minority members of the state assembly swung their strength against a bill, sponsored by a republican legislator, which was intended to defend any design the republican governor might have to see that Schwarzkopf is out of office by the end of June.

And a resolution was introduced in the assembly to investigate the administration of the motor vehicle department. Assemblyman Basil Bruner, republican, who brought up the resolution, said he was advised "several employes... are engaged in the Hauptmann case."

Schwarzkopf's letter to the governor, detailing his allegations, that state troopers who worked on the Lindbergh case had been approached with "promises and threats" by men who said they were agents of the governor, was on Hoffman's desk today.

The bill, which would protect Schwarzkopf, was introduced Feb. 8 by Henry Young, member of a group of republicans opposed to the governor's policies and highly critical of his activity in the Bruno Richard Hauptmann case.

It would keep Schwarzkopf in office until a successor had been named and qualified and thus prevent the governor naming an acting head of the department should a fight develop in the state senate over his successor.

Pampans Critically Injured As Local Airplane Crashes

Fee and Timmons in Hospital; Woman Also Hurt

Charles V. Fee was at Worley hospital in a critical condition today following an airplane crash last night on vacant lots in the 1300 block, on East Francis avenue. C. V. Timmons, pilot, also was critically injured but hope is held for his recovery. Mrs. Hazel Batchelor, the third person, was less seriously hurt.

The accident happened about 6:15 o'clock soon after the ship had taken off from the airport. According to witnesses of the crash, the plane never reached an altitude of more than 100 feet. The takeoff was from the west end of the field, thence to the east of the airport. The ship flew nearly to the Santa Fe railroad tracks and then banked to the left.

As it flew east it was seen to lose altitude. When near the ground, the ship turned north and then east again, settling to the ground almost flat. The nose of the plane was not driven into the ground. The landing gear, lower wings and the lower part of the motor were badly damaged.

The passengers were rushed to Worley hospital in Pampa Mortuary and Malone ambulances. Physicians worked until late in the night. Little hope was held for one of the men, but they rallied during the night despite their terrible injuries.

Fee, a cable tool driller and stepuncle of Timmons, was in the passenger seat of the plane. The impact drove him forward and apparently saved Mrs. Batchelor in the same seat, from more critical injuries. Fee received a compound fracture of both ankles and both feet, a fracture of a lower vertebrae, frontal and basic skull fractures, a brain hemorrhage, and cuts and bruises.

Timmons has a collapse of a lung, a lung puncture, a back injury, cuts and bruises, and is suffering from shock. He is a driller for the Noble Drilling company and has been here more than a year. He holds a student pilot permit and has more than 30 hours solo flying to his credit.

Mrs. Batchelor received a fracture of the left ankle, a back injury, cuts and bruises, and suffered severe shock. Her condition was favorable this morning.

The plane piloted by Timmons belonged to Monty Keenan, who was unaware the ship was in the air until notified at his workshop of the crash. Mr. Keenan purchased the ship two weeks ago from Ernest Medkief of Hereford, former Pampa resident. It was an

ENUMERATOR IS NAMED TO TAKE A CENSUS HERE

Census of Business in Gray County Planned

Roy D. Chase, supervisor of the census of business, today announced that the enumerator has been appointed in Gray county to present the census forms to business houses and help fill out the necessary information. This enumerator is Miss Margaret K. Carney.

Mr. Chase stressed the fact that information given enumerators will be held in strict confidence. All enumerators and other persons connected with the census work are under a drastic oath not to disclose or discuss any information submitted for census purposes. He stated that under the census law it is a criminal offense to violate this confidence, that no access to individual reports is permitted, not even to other governmental, state, and local agencies, and no information will be disclosed which would reveal any of the facts or figures in the returns. The census is the oldest bureau of the government, established nearly 150 years ago, and never has it been convicted of a violation of confidence.

He asked all business concerns to cooperate with the enumerators who call upon them for business census data.

Describing the value of the census, Mr. Chase said that from the results, banks and financial agencies are enabled to extend commercial credit more freely because of more accurate knowledge of what constitutes sound operating expenses and costs ratios. Newspapers are enabled to establish the consumer market in their circulation fields; wholesalers are able to make better appraisal of their immediate and potential trade territories and thus avoid unproductive expense; advertising agencies can determine comprehensive and accurate markets for various products; retailers are supplied with needed data on their competitive situation, not only in their particular field but also regarding the extent of other kinds of competitive business. Real estate values, proper rentals and the basis for percentage leases are frequently determined from business census data, which has great weight because they are strictly factual statements without prejudice.

As fast as reports are received they are sent to Philadelphia by register.

Italy, Ethiopia Asked By League To Quit Fighting

Otherwise, Sanctions On Oil Will Be Enforced

By JOSEPH E. SHARKEY (Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press.)

GENEVA, March 3—The League of Nations "committee of 13," representing every member of the council except Italy, decided today to appeal to Italy and Ethiopia for peace and gave the two nations one week in which to reply.

The date was fixed specifically as March 10, at which time the committee will meet again.

The members agreed unanimously to the text of the peace appeal. Its draft was discussed earlier in the day by Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, and Pierre-Etienne Flaudin, the French foreign minister.

League officials said the draft for the peace appeal suggested that there be negotiations for the cessation of hostilities as a preliminary to peace negotiations to be held in Geneva.

The "committee of 13" entrusted with the application of sanctions, now will suspend its sanctions until the replies come in from Rome and Addis Ababa.

However, on the motion of Eden, a group of sanctions experts will study constantly for an uninterrupted study of details on the possible application of further sanctions including an oil embargo against Italy.

The appeal, the draft of which

Summer Lawn Rate Ordered In Effect Now

Centennial Beautification to Begin Immediately

Turn on the water.

The city commission last night took note of the citizens' desire to beautify their homes before the June Centennial, and put the summer lawn rate into immediate effect.

To obtain the special rate, it is necessary to go to the city hall and sign an application at the water department. The rate is $3 for the first 7,000 gallons and 20 cents a thousand gallons for additional usage.

The rate, for those who sign for it, will be effective on the next billings. In other words, water may be used now at the special rate and the lower price will appear on the next bills received, providing application is made before March 20, when the meter reading begins.

The Pampa Garden club is launching a yard beautification contest and urging filing stations, firms, and individuals to use water and flowers in beautifying Pampa. Last night's action makes it possible to start watering lawns now—today—on the summer lawn rate.

But to obtain the lower rate for water used during the rest of this month, it will be necessary to sign an application bank at the city hall before March 20.

Farm-to-Market Road in County Given Approval

SAN ANTONIO, March 3 (AP)—Allocation of $170,877 by state works progress administration officials today authorized operation of 27 projects in various sections of Texas.

Farm-to-market road work was approved in Hill, Gray, Wichita, Jasper, Brown, Lubbock, Newton, Tyler, Houston, Plainview and Trinity.

School ground improvements included the building of a gymnasium-auditorium at Boyd, Wynn county, and landscaping of 42 school grounds in Tarrant county. A football field will be built at Crosbyton and general campus repairs made.

Projects approved today will not employ persons in addition to those already at work on WPA projects but will be started as currently-operating projects are completed, in order that workers may be transferred immediately to new projects without loss of time or pay, officials explained.

CRUISE TO NOWHERE

Chapter I

Jane Weston heard the cold wind and sleet beating against the pines as she dialed the Central Employment Bureau again. She said in a tired monotone, "Miss Weston calling," and glanced at the office clock.

It was 11:30. Every day for 30 days, while she was at this temporary job in the Oceanic Magazine office, Jane had called the same number. Regent 3000. Regent 3000. The sing-song refrain buzzed in her mind.

And each time, as now, she had received the same reply, "Sorry, No call for you yet, Miss Weston."

Jane sighed and put down the telephone. She began to type again. It was a relief from thinking about herself.

Or was it? It was maddening, counting off the hours from eight to six. A good, steady job that absorbed her was what Jane wanted. For more than a year she had taken anything—typing, holiday clerking, switchboard work, anything she could get. She couldn't admit defeat; she couldn't go back to that little midwestern town until she had found what she had been looking for when she set out alone for the city.

Back in Indiana Jane had been a girl of high, keen spirit. She was the middle child in a family of five and had neither the intense self-reliance of the first-born or the home-loving content of the last-born. She wanted to see things and do things that were beyond the ken of her companions in the town. And Jane was practical. When she wanted a thing, she went after it.

In the midst of the final letter in her wire basket, she looked up and saw Dickie Landon grinning at her. Dickie was no more than a glorified office boy, at his first job. He had tried to date her every day for a month.

"Have you ever been to Coney Island in the winter?" Dickie asked. "That's the best time. No crowds, no hot dogs, just the long sweep of the ocean and—"

"And a breeze so cold it'd freeze the marrow in your bones," she replied. "No, thank you. I'll take a cruise to the South Seas on a luxury liner."

She smiled knowingly, for she had just typed a letter to a very wealthy woman who had written the travel editor of the magazine, asking about cruises to the South Seas.

"Aw, come on," Dickie begged.

INCOME TAX DATA

A professional man may deduct all necessary expenses incurred in the pursuit of his profession. These include the cost of supplies used in his practice, office rent, cost of light, water, fuel, and telephone in his office, the hire of office assistants, and expenses paid in the operation and repair of an automobile, based upon the proportion of time it's used in making professional calls or for other professional purposes.

Many physicians use their residences both as their offices and their homes. In such instance the physician may deduct as a business expense the rental value of the rooms occupied for office purposes if he actually pays rent, and also the cost of light and heat furnished these rooms. Also, he may deduct a portion of the wages paid domestic servants whose time is partly occupied in caring for these rooms. Membership dues in professional societies are deductible. No Charges To Be Made for CC Dinner Thursday

No charge will be made for the Pampa chamber of commerce dinner Thursday evening. It was announced today. The session will begin at 7:30 at the First Baptist church.

Business men who expect to attend are asked to telephone the B. C. D. office by p. m. tomorrow so that the number of plates to be needed can be estimated.

The program will include a check on canvassing in the finance drive, election of an advisory board of 5 members to work with a similar board from the B. C. D., and outlining of a program of activity, including several current projects.

The meeting is open to all citizens interested.

This will be the organization meeting of the new chamber of commerce.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER. NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Lawyers may differ among themselves as to the breadth or narrowness of the TVA decision, but almost any one of them will still tell you he would give his right eye—or, at least a couple of minor toes—to know just what went on in the secret U. S. Supreme Court conferences which produced the opinion.

Aside from the long delay on the opinion, there is "evidence" that an original dissenting opinion was such as to cause a change. The concurring opinion of Brandeis, Stone, Cardozo, and Roberts, agreeing as to constitutionality, bore evidence that some of it had once been part of a dissenting opinion.

High up in the administration it is believed that certain external facts also finally influenced the court: 1—The definite romantic popularity of TVA, including common belief in its reasonableness, and the fact that to ruin it would be even more unpopular than the decision against AAA.

Such explanations cannot be taken as gospel, and the court guards its secrets well. But enough justices have whispered to their secretaries in time past to make it plain that the court sometimes fights and wrangles like a legislative body and that a majority opinion may be drafted ten or a dozen times before it is enunciated from the bench.

"Italian soldiers face temperatures of 140 and 160 degrees in Ethiopia." Now that we've put away the snow shovel, where's that recruiting office?

55 BOYS, SMALLEST IN HISTORY, REPORT FOR SPRING FOOTBALL

6 LETTERMEN TO COME OUT NEXT MONDAY

HEAVIEST MAN WEIGHS NOT MORE THAN 155 POUNDS

The lightest football squad to report to a Harvester coach in at least 40 years met Coaches Odu Mitchell and J. C. Prejean yesterday afternoon at Harvester field for the initial spring drill of the season. The 55 boys were from last season's Gorillas and boys with no previous football experience.

With the exception of three boys, the heaviest man to report to duty yesterday would not tip the scales at more than 155 pounds. Two of the "giants" were with the Gorillas last season and the other is making his first appearance in a football uniform.

The six Harvester lettermen have been instructed to report to duty next Monday when they will assist coaches with the green material which will be divided into squads of nearly equal weights. The lettermen will work along with the other boys but will not scrimmage with them until later in the season.

Most of the prospects reported to coaches in "pretty fair condition." This week will be set aside for calisthenics, limbering up, and teaching the boys how to fall and roll. They will be given a taste of handling the pigskin through punting and passing, however.

Fundamentals will feature the spring training period, although scrimmage work will be stressed. Actual scrimmages will not be held until the boys are divided into squads and dates are set for practice games.

The same determination which featured the Gorilla play last season, when fight had to overcome draws, could be felt at Harvester field yesterday as the little fellows followed the coaches' instructions in calisthenics and throwing the ball around. The idea that every place on the team is open has set the future Harvesters to work with a determination to make the team this year.

As he saw the determination, a smile could be seen on Coach Mitchell's face and one could figure out that he was thinking about the time he was a good little man and beat out some of the big fellows at West Texas State Teachers college, where he was a four-letter man for four consecutive years.

A few railbirds looked over the situation and appeared pleased. They seemed to like the smaller boys and remembered how the little Gorillas of Coaches Dick Denard and Bill Anderson tore into huge opponents and won the football game by beating one week they came back with the same fury against an even stronger team the next.

The Gorillas received excellent training under Coaches Denard and Anderson, and it is a good bet that the Harvesters will have an easy time with the boys who were taught to keep in condition. Seldon was a Gorilla injured in a game last season.

A few track and field aspirants will start training immediately. They will be boys from the football next fall. No coach has been named as yet.

Golf Wins Out Over Farming at Shawnee College

SHAWNEE, Okla., March 3 (AP)—Golf has won out over farming here at Oklahoma Baptist University.

Three years ago when times were hard and funds scarce the board of trustees voted to establish a farm on 40 acres of the campus and they proposed to raise proceeds for the school dining room.

A call was issued for plows, horses, seed, hoes, and chickens to trade for tuition.

But yesterday the board met and found the farm had been a losing proposition.

A professional golfer offered his services without charge to try out a golf course on the land.

His offer was accepted.

Favorites Win Border Olympics

LAREDO, March 3 (AP)—The University of Texas and Thomas Jefferson high schools of San Antonio today retained the only schools ever to win first honors in the International Border Olympic track and field meet.

Texas amassed 32 2-3 points last night to top first place for the fourth consecutive time and Thomas Jefferson counted 18 points to make it four wins in a row in the high school division.

Rice won second honors in the college division with 15 1/2 points and Southwest Texas Teachers took third place with 11 1/2 points. Other totals were: Texas Aggies, 10; North Texas Teachers, 8; East Texas Teachers, 7.

Other high school totals were: Breckenridge of San Antonio, 11; Donna, 10; Laredo, 8; Denton, 5; Kennedy, 5; and Edison 3.

Without Coach Badgers Begin 1936 Football

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A football squad without a regular coach is engaged in spring practice at the University of Wisconsin.

The unique situation resulted from the removal of both Dr. Clarence L. Spears, head football coach, and Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, athletic director, at the conclusion of an investigation of the athletic department.

So far, no one has been named to succeed Dr. Spears who signed as coach and athletic director of the University of Toledo. But more than 100 candidates are working out here anyway.

Assistant Carries On

Guy M. Sundt, backfield mentor, assisted by Bill Woerner, Russ Rippe, Art Manfield and Richard Redd Smith, is carrying on as coach pro tem, while Madison has settled down to talk about the weather instead of the embroiled athletic situation.

Spears, returning recently from Toledo, said he would take over spring football practice in his new post a month hence but will not remove his family from Madison until his contract expires on July 1.

Dr. Meanwell is non-committal about his plans after 24 years in the Wisconsin athletic department.

"I always have held that my personal plans were my own business and I intend to continue that policy," he said.

For the present Sundt says he intends to coach the squad in fundamentals and will develop a few simple plays—possibly from the single wingback formation which is basic in many systems and subject only to minor variations according to the system used.

He says that until the new head coach is named, it is obvious that no complete offensive system can be worked out for the 1936 eleven.

Until weather moderates, practice sessions are held in the university stock pavilion.

OLNEY, March 3 (AP)—E. W. Spearman, former football star at Texas Christian university, has announced acceptance of the head coaching position at Paducah high school. He coached at Olney high the last three years. Spearman's team won the class B district title last season and the school later was given class A standing.

HOUSTON WILL HOLD TRYOUTS FOR OLYMPICS

WRESTLING AND CAGE ELIMINATIONS TO BE HELD

For the first time since the United States began participating in Olympic events, Texas will be the scene of a district tryout Houston, through efforts of the Houston Y. M. C. A., has secured the Olympic wrestling trials in the Gulf and Southern association districts.

Trials will be conducted on March 24 and 25 and on March 26 if necessary. Seven divisions, namely: Bantamweight, 123 pounds; featherweight, 134 pounds; lightweight, 145 pounds; welterweight, 158 pounds; light heavyweight, 191 lbs; heavyweight, over 191 pounds, will be open for competition.

The event will be open to all amateur athletes who are either native born or naturalized citizens of the United States and have never represented any other country in former Olympics. Any one having been classified as a professional in any sport cannot compete in the Olympic games.

An entry fee of $1 must accompany each entry. Application blanks may be secured from the sports department of the Pampa Daily News or from Frank Fields, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., at Houston.

HOUSTON, March 3 (AP)—The fourth division of the Olympic college basketball tryouts will be held in Houston around the middle of March. Dr. Gaylord Johnson, business manager of athletics, announced today.

Invitations have been mailed to universities and colleges of Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas. Reports here were to the effect that Arkansas would decide today whether to enter its conference championship squad, which has won 11 out of 12 games this season.

Other teams expected to compete are Rice, Texas A&M, and Stephen F. Austin. Lumberjacks from Nacogdoches, Johnson has received no word from teams in Louisiana.

The champion of this division will meet the champion of the third division, comprising most of the old south, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Georgia and Florida.

Carey to Meet Dallas Tech in State Tourney

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—Eight winners of regional tournaments in the race for the school boy title were paired today for the state meet here Friday and Saturday.

Officials of the Interscholastic league drew places for the teams Roy B. Henderson, executive secretary, said the schedule was:

Friday—2 p. m., Cushing vs. Taft; 3:15 p. m., Carey vs. Dallas Tech; 7 p. m., Crews vs. Jeff Davis of Houston; and 8:15 p. m., Austin vs. El Paso.

Semi-finals will be played Saturday at 10:15 a. m. and 11:30 a. m. losers in those games will compete at 7 p. m. in a consolation match and winners will battle for the state championship at 8:15 p. m.

Senate Will Try Florida Judge

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—For the fifth time in history the senate will sit in judgment in impeachment proceedings—this time against Federal Judge Halsted L. Ritter.

At a time to be set by the judiciary committee, the southern Florida judge will face the entire chamber on charges of misbehavior, high crimes and misdemeanors.

The house yesterday voted 181 to 146 for impeachment in acting on committee charges that Ritter accepted $4,500 from a former law partner who was allowed a $75,000 receivership fee.

The average tax on gasoline has risen 260 per cent in the last ten years, says the California State Automobile association.

PHILLIPS TO BATTLE MIAMI TEAM TONIGHT

OILERS PREPARE FOR HEAVY SCHEDULE THIS WEEK

Miami basketball fans will see the crack Phillips 66 Oilers from the south Pampa field in action tonight when the tree-tops, who have lost only two games this season, play a Miami independent team. Game time will be 8 o'clock.

Every independent team in this section has been pointing to the Oilers, and Miami has been quietly adding strength and practicing long and hard for the big battle. The Oilers will probably be at full strength, Jack Bacaus' injured foot having responded to treatment' the last week.

The Oilers will meet the Gulf Oilers of Borger in the LeFors gymnasium tomorrow night. The Gulf team is composed largely of former high school players, members of the Bulldog championship teams of a few years ago.

Amarillo will be the scene of a game between Phillips and the Red and White team, leading quintet in Amarillo.

On Friday and Saturday the Oilers will go to Estelle where an invitation tournament will be held.

MIAMI, Mar. 3.—The Miami Independent basketball team warmed up for its crucial tilt with the Phillips 66 Oilers Tuesday night in the Miami high school gymnasium by defeating the Pirate Profs of LeFors, 37 to 25, Saturday night.

Locked le Miami attack with 19 points. Brown was high scorer for LeFors with 12 points. The LeFors team was not at full strength for the affair but substitutes played outstanding games.

The game with the Oilers will be the last of the season in Miami and a packed house is expected to turn out to see the visitors who have a record of 12 wins against two losses. Miami has been strengthening for the battle and expected to give the visitors a tough battle.

Owls Gain Second Loop By Beating Mus.

A soured and saddened man is Moe (Cholmondeley) Berman, late of Broadway, New York, but now of London, and disgust stamps his face as vividly as the in-square green checks on his ultra-English tweed suit.

Moreover, Moe is bewildered. He is hurt.

As a charter member of the Bronx Cheer club and the "In-the-Bag" fraternity, back home, Moe guesses he knows his rights and not only his rights but also the proper decorum for an irate prize-fight customer when the referee gives what Moe calls a cheesy decision.

For years, he has been calling them, "As I seen 'em," added Moe, and he shrugged gloomily. "But now—"

But now he is practically ready to give up his British accent, painstakingly acquired since his arrival a short time ago.

A misunderstanding.

"I don't unstan these limeys," he said. "They don't speak my language."

Moe's misunderstanding arose at Royal Albert Hall, when the referee gave Tommy Farr, of Wales, a doubtful decision over Tommy Loughran, veteran "Philadelphian" Phantom, who—as the critics afterwards agreed—gave young Farr a boxing lesson for 10 rounds.

The decision stunned even Farr's most ardent supporters. The crowd gasped, but with well-timed English reserve they merely murmured polite surprise.

"Boo-oo!" said Moe, on a foghorn note. It was, he said later with a touch of pride, undoubtedly the most spine-chilling Bronx cheer he had ever unsorted.

Slowly, the crowd took it up. Jeers and hoots leaped from dozens, then scores, then hundreds of throats. Moe led the chorus.

"Robbery!" he screamed, and looked around. The chorus missed its cue.

"In the bag!" bellowed Moe, prodding the bowler-hatted individual next to him. The bowler-hat started to murmur something, but Moe cut him off with a deafening cry:

"Frame-up! Bit Thick!"

It was then that Moe learned the difference between Bronx and British. The bowler-hatted individual addressed him:

"That's a bit thick, old chap," he said. "Rummy decision, and all that. But 'frame-up,' you know, Really—"

It simply, Moe learned, isn't done. Back home, yes. But not in England.

British sports writers, commented on the fight, guardedly agreed with Moe.

Loughran himself told the Associated Press man, in his dressing room just after the fight: "Really, I was so far ahead that out of a spirit of English 'fair play' I didn't try to cut him up. If I'd been fighting in a Latin country I could have understood a decision like that, but I didn't expect to get it in England."

ALLEN WANTS REVENGE FOR YANKEE DEAL

HE FIGURES HE DIDN'T GET A 'FAIR SHAKE' WITH CLUB

NEW ORLEANS, March 3 (AP)—Johnny Allen, who got his first big league chance by making it "cool" for a New York Yankee scout, is out to make it "hot" for the entire Yankee squad, including Manager Joe McCarthy, next summer.

Johnny figures the Yankees didn't give him a "fair shake." Now he wants revenge. His greatest desire next to helping Cleveland win the pennant is to blast the flag hopes of his former mates.

"I'm not a kicker because I'm tickled to get a chance to play for Cleveland under my old friend, Steve O'Neill," he said, "but I feel that I didn't get a fair shake with the Yankees. Just because I couldn't read mental telepathic messages from the manager, I spent most of my time on the bench while the manager lost games with rookie pitchers from the International league.

"Last season I won 13 and lost six, even though I knew from almost the start of the season that I was to be traded to some club. Well, I'll fool 'em this year. Johnny's after 18 or 20 wins and about four of them from New York."

Allen was a clerk in a tavern at Sanford, N. C., in the summer of 1927 when he made it "cool" for the Yankee scout. One blistering night he installed extra fans in the sun scorched room assigned to Paul Krichell, Yankee scout.

When the elated Krichell asked him what he could do for the summer of 1927 when he made it "cool" for the Yankee scout. One blistering night he installed extra fans in the sun scorched room assigned to Paul Krichell, Yankee scout.

Petty Squabble Of Exes Heard By 3 Governors

HOUSTON, March 3 (AP)—The Houston ex-students of the University of Texas clashed over a chamber of commerce issue and failed to elect officers even with the governors of three states present.

The organization's banquet last night ended in an uproar while Gov. Hill McAllister of Tennessee, Gov. Phillip LaFollette of Wisconsin, and Gov. James V. Allred as guests looked on.

An argument started when the nominating committee made its report.

Eugene L. Harris, former president of the association, objected to the nomination of Norman H. Beard, public relations director of the chamber of commerce.

"Let's not elect paid members of the chamber of commerce," he said. "There's been too much of this chamber of commerce running of the organization."

Beard withdrew his name, and the election was postponed two weeks.

Longhorns Will Aggie Saturday Night

By The Associated Press

The Rice Owls held second place in the Southwest conference basketball race today but had no way to protect the lead they gained over Texas that night when they defeated the Texas Christian Frogs, 47 to 29, at Houston.

The game was the final one for the Owls, while the Texas Longhorns have a chance to win a tie for second place honors in their contest Saturday at College Station with the Texas Aggies. The Aggies, however, may not be easy to handle. They planned their best game of the year last night in defeating the Southern Methodist Mustangs, 31 to 23 at College Station.

Southern Methodist and Texas Christian will meet at Dallas tomorrow night in the final game for both teams.

The Arkansas Razorbacks clinched the title last week in their final series with Texas. The Longhorn-Aggies contest will be the final conference game of the season.

Municipal Power Plant Talked as Strike Continues

EL PASO, March 3 (AP)—A movement for a municipal plant at El Paso was under way today as civic leaders sought to settle a labor dispute between union workers and the El Paso Electric company that resulted in a strike six days ago.

A petition asking city officials to study plans for a municipal plant was prepared for presentation today.

Strike pickets and armed guards remained on duty in the strike area, although company officials announced complete service had been restored. The officials said most of the damage to the plants and power lines after the workmen walked out had been repaired.

SUSPECTS SEEN TRAINING IN TRACK, FOOTBALL, BASEBALL BEGINS

Dance Men Will Have Reputation To Uphold

With the approach of spring, Pampa high school athletes are beginning training on spring events. Many are turning to track, on which work started today; many others will go out for the most recent sport to be taken up in Pampa high school baseball. About 50 boys are taking part in spring training for football.

While many men have reported for track, quite a few more are expected in the next few days. Although many of these students are rather new in the track business they are all good material, and will do hard work some of them should develop into state meet material. Men to handle the weights will be plentiful this season, as there are many huskies in school who are ready to put in some hard work with the weights.

Distance men will be the men who will have to do the heavy work this season if the Pampans want to uphold their reputation and the honors they won last year in the relay and in other distance races.

Coach E. N. Dennard will be in charge of baseball. Those students who plan to take part in the king of American sports will begin work next week. Many have already expressed their desire to play baseball. Several players will be returning from last season's nine. Last year was the first year for there to be a baseball team in Pampa high school. This year there will be a league in this district which will include Borger, Lubbock, Plainview, and Pampa.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Frejman are in charge of the spring football work. They will begin today after about 50 boys reported for suits yesterday, according to W. N. Anderson, who is in charge of athletic equipment. The first scrimmages among the lighter fellows will be held about the last of next week. The spring training will end with a game between the P. H. S. ex-students and the 1936 prospects.

L. L. Sone, Miss Branton, and the heads of the various departments select the students who rate highest in scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Grades of the students during their entire high school years will be averaged, the same being published fourth of the judges' decision. Character is understood to include dependability, respectability, and moral standing. Leadership and service include leadership in the class room and services rendered for the school.

NOTABLE NOTHINGS OF P. H. S.

By The Nimble Nil-Wits

Philip Nolan wishes it known that to anyone who pays him a dime he will reveal the identity of the girl who sat on Bob Drake's knee.

Blondie (the sea-hag) McMahan was justly rewarded for the many jibes tossed at her during play practice when she won in the one-act play tryout.

Helen Arndt has acquired the walk of Lucille Ball! Even her brother Jim admits it.

Meivin Qualls, Tom Rose, and yours truly claim the honor of being first to go in swimming this year. Mr. Qualls, Mr. Dennard, Mary Price, Lillian Rice, Pauline Gregory, Rex Rose, and a dozen others will testify to the veracity of this statement.

Jack and Marge are at it again, Oh, me!

WHAT IF:
Bob Mann remembered to bring his horn to band practice?
Rex Rose, D. C. Turner, and Don Foster didn't take their trucks or cars on the senior picnic?
There should be no senior prom, what's likely?
Arthur Bowsher made the all-state cage team?
Betty Bell, Ethel Wilder, and Colleen weren't constantly together?
Mr. Fisher didn't bestow upon students his ever-present smile?

The most prevalent question among the feminine students in P. H. S. is: "Did you get asked to be in the minstrel?" Many are the disappointed answers: "No, but I don't care, I didn't want to be in it anyway."

With things stacked up like they are seniors will evidently have an exciting semester.

ITALIANS KILL TEN THOUSAND BLACK TROOPS

NORTHERN ETHIOPIAN ARMY COMPLETELY DESTROYED

By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press.)

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY ON THE NORTHERN FRONT, March 3.—A series of severe encounters, carrying the Italian army to Amba Alaji and clearing out the Tembein sector with an estimated Ethiopian loss of 10,000 dead, shattered virtually all northern resistance today and opened the way into the heart of Ethiopia.

The last remnants of any Ethiopian organization left in the Tembein mountains are 5,000 men, absolutely surrounded but still holding out.

The third army corps of white Italian soldiers and the Eritrean army corps of natives are pouring artillery fire into the town. Planes are drenching the stronghold with bombs.

This last Ethiopian stand in the Tembein sector is being commanded by Ras Seyoum, holding forth at Abbi Addi, his birthplace, which he has declared he never will relinquish alive.

Ras Kassa, the second principal Ethiopian chieftain on the northern front, is believed to have escaped from the fascist offensive which crushed his army, but to be in headlong flight into the interior, with no more than 50 men as a bodyguard.

It is impossible to ascertain the score of the Italian victory. Ethiopian bands are fleeing in all directions. Fascist planes are following the retreating columns across the Takazze and Gheva rivers to the west, bombing them fiercely.

The Tembein sector is cleared for Italian organization and consolidation. A line is established from Amba Alaji, 40 miles south of Makale and more than 100 miles south deeper into Ethiopia, pressing their advantage. Even more startling developments and maneuvers are in prospect.

Marshal Pietro Madoglio is making careful preparations for attacks in all directions. The only question seems to be how far the Italians—not content now with their present penetration—want to go before the spring rainy season starts.

The Italian high command estimates that about 10,000 Ethiopians have been killed in the fighting, which began last Wednesday night, to not more than 1,000 Italians.

Italian aerial observers report that the Ethiopian warriors are throwing away their arms, swords and munitions to appear as peasants belonging to this terrible tortuous countryside.

Ras Kassa's army, estimated to have numbered between 30,000 and 40,000 men when the engagements started in the Tembein region, was virtually destroyed.

Song Copyright Is Withdrawn

AUSTIN, March 3. (AP)—Students and exes of the University of Texas sang their school song "The Eyes of Texas" on the anniversary of Texas' independence Monday without restraint of a copyright.

The issue whether the song could be copyrighted apparently was settled when C. C. Birchard and company of Boston withdrew a copyright it had obtained on a version arranged by Oscar J. Fox of San Antonio and Dr. Lota Spell of Austin.

Publishers notified the attorney general's department, which had prepared to file suit, that publication and sale of the arrangement would be withdrawn. Fox consented.

BIERMAN HIRED
HUNTSVILLE, March 3. (AP)—Bernie Bierman, head coach of the powerful University of Minnesota football juggernaut, will head the annual Sam Houston State Teachers' college coaching school July 16 to 23. Otis Barrett, business manager of the college, said Bierman had accepted but that other coaches for the school had not been named.

FEEL FINE
Mothers read this:

A CONSTIPATED child is so easily straightened out, it's a pity more mothers don't know the remedy.

A liquid laxative is the answer, mothers. The answer to all your worries over constipation. A liquid can be measured. The dose can be exactly suited to any age or need. Just reduce the dose each time, until the bowels are moving of their own accord and need no help.

This treatment will succeed with any child and with any adult.

Doctors use liquid laxatives. Hospital use the liquid form. If it is best for their use, it is best for home use. And today, there are fully a million families that will have no other kind in the house.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a doctor's prescription, now so widely known that you can get it all ready for use at any drugstore.

WARD SCHOOLS PRESENT TEXAS DAY PROGRAMS TO

TWO OUTDOOR FETES AMONG CELEBRATIONS

BAND MUSIC, SONGS, DRAMAS ARE ON PROGRAMS

A perfect Texas spring day contributed to the Texas Independence day programs in schools of the city yesterday, adding to the enjoyment of two outdoor fetes. Numerous visitors were present for special assemblies of all ward schools.

Woodrow Wilson and Sam Houston schools had their programs on the campus, while Junior high pupils went to the city hall auditorium to present a Texas history pageant.

At Woodrow Wilson school, every pupil took part in the songs and pageant. Plans were raised; the school band played, and short talks were heard.

A dramatization of preparation for defense of the Alamo was presented at Horace Mann school, and Archer Pullinger was a guest speaker. His subject, "The Centennial Begins," permitted him to trace events of Texas' fight for independence.

Texas Products Shown
An exhibit of native products and ones of Texas, collected by sixth grade pupils, was on display at the school. The program was directed by Miss Cleora Standard's class.

Songs were sung; Principal J. A. Meek spoke of the history of the Baker school; talks on Texas products were made by sixth graders; pupils from Miss Cleora Standard's class gave interesting facts about Texas; Doyle Parker played a harp solo; Wanda Downs gave a reading; and cowboy songs were sung by combined sixth graders.

Houston Is Honored
The birthday of Sam Houston was observed with that of the state at the school named for the Texas patriot. L. L. Sone, high school principal, was the chief speaker. He pictured Houston as a man of courage and devotion.

Junior choir members of First Presbyterian church were entertained at the church yesterday by Mrs. W. W. Strubling, their director. Games and songs were enjoyed, then ice cream and cake were served to the 20 boys and girls. A number of parents were guests also.

Black-Draught Good Laxative

Black-Draught has been kept on hand for all the family in the home of Mr. W. A. Lemons, of Independence, Va., since twenty years ago. Mr. Lemons writes that he takes it as a laxative in cases of "headache, dull, tired feeling, biliousness."
"And I take it if I feel uncomfortable after a heavy meal," he adds, "I especially use it for sick headache. It certainly is good."
When a man says "Black-Draught is good," it is probably because he remembers the prompt, refreshing relief it brought in constipation troubles. Its benefits are felt because it is a simple, herb laxative, so natural in composition and action that thousands and thousands of men and women prefer it when a laxative is needed.

DISTRICT HEAD TO HELP PLAN MEETING HERE

Outline for P-TA Convention Near Completion

Mrs. J. E. Griggs of Amarillo, president of eighth district Parent-Teacher associations, will meet with the Pampa Parent-Teacher council Thursday afternoon when detailed plans for entertaining the annual district convention here in April will be outlined.

The meeting will be in the city commission room of the city hall, starting at 2:30, half an hour earlier than usual. Members are asked to observe the changed meeting time. All convention committee members and all delegates to the council are asked by Mrs. J. M. Turner, president, to attend this session, as convention plans are reaching the final stage and must be completed soon.

WMS Circle Has Meeting in Home of Mrs. Dollard

Mrs. J. C. Dollard was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Isabelle McCullough circle of the Methodist Missionary society. A lesson on Evangelization was presented.

Mrs. E. N. Franklin, C. H. Harris, and J. W. Foster were appointed as a menu committee for the men's fellowship banquet which the society will sponsor March 9 at the church.

Others present yesterday to take part in the study hour were Mrs. E. L. Campbell, V. N. Osborn, J. E. Beard, Ben Ward, Earl Casey, P. M. Rushing, A. McClendon, C. W. Tolle, A. N. Rogers, Carl Ford, and H. L. Wallace.

Junior Choir Has Party at Church

Junior choir members of First Presbyterian church were entertained at the church yesterday by Mrs. W. W. Strubling, their director.

Games and songs were enjoyed, then ice cream and cake were served to the 20 boys and girls. A number of parents were guests also.

BAND PARENTS CLUB
The Band Parents club of Woodrow Wilson school will meet at the school auditorium this evening at 7:30. A program will be presented by band members.

Regular assembly at Sam Houston school will be at 9 o'clock tomorrow, directed by Miss Louise McLean, first grade teacher. It will also include Texas Day numbers. The following outline has been made:

Balloon Frolic; play, Spring Comes to Flowerland; and skits, Emblems of Texas, and Houston, by first grade pupils.

Reading, What Might Have Happened, June Cummings.

Song, When It's Roundup Time in Texas, Hollis Brown.

Reading, Flashy, Alta Jean Drake, pupil of Miss Wilma Chapman.

Story, Mrs. Lovell Davis.

Centennial dances, by pupils of Kathryn Vinc at Steele who are in Sam Houston school.

DAILY PRAYER PROGRAMS IN BAPTIST UNIONS START WITH LESSONS ON HOME MISSIONS

Annual week of prayer programs started in Baptist Missionary unions here yesterday, and will be continued at daily meetings through Friday. The topic for the week is "The Uplifted Christ, and study of home missions will be stressed."

At First Baptist church, an executive meeting preceded the study session. Reports from circles and committees were heard, and members planned a seated tea to entertain all women of the church on the afternoon of March 29.

Mrs. T. E. Morton was in charge of a program on Missions in Cuba. She was assisted by Mrs. C. E. Lancaster, W. B. Henry, and Morton, and by Mrs. J. W. Young, who conducted the devotional.

Present were Mrs. H. C. Wilkie, H. L. Watt, H. T. Cox, A. A. Neal, O. A. Davis, T. D. Alford, Charles Boyd, J. J. Simmons, Lewis G. C. Durham, Mary Binford, R. E. Gatlin, W. R. Hallmark, Joe Foster, Tom Duval, D. H. Coffey, Floyd

Yesger, A. L. Lee, Ismael Hill, Wilson Hatcher, T. W. Jackson, J. C. Roundtree, R. W. Tucker, F. G. Bennett, F. E. Leach, Marvin Frasier, Dee Campbell, P. O. Anderson, T. B. Solomon.

BRITAIN STUDIES 9-YEAR-OLD GIRL WHO MAY RULE REALM

LONDON (AP)—Britishers are talking seriously about the kind of queen Elizabeth of York will be if, and when, she is called to reign over them as Elizabeth II.

The public concern is centered more than ever upon this 9-year-old girl who by the death of King George has been raised to a significant position in contemporary history.

With Edward as monarch, Elizabeth assumes second place in the line of succession. She ranks after her father, the Duke of York, but what is more important she represents the second and not the third generation, as has usually been the case of child aspirants in British history.

Conclave Decides Schooling.
So concerned is the government over the future that the British cabinet has considered Elizabeth's education.

And so has the family of Windsor in royal conclave—King George and Queen Mary, the present king and the child's mother and father.

The Duchess of York at first pleaded that the little girl seek to a private school where she might receive the normal education of an English girl of the upper classes.

But the others persuaded her that Elizabeth must be educated to assume the crown of Britain.

Queen Mary herself has undertaken to teach etiquette and diplomatic conversation to Princess Elizabeth Alexandra Mary.

A governess, Miss Crawford of Scotland comes in every weekday morning at 9 and instructs Elizabeth in history and literature, which she does not. Then comes a governess for an hour of French conversation.

Plays With Few Children.
Princess Elizabeth, yellow haired, blue eyed, with "small ears" and "the whitest skin in the world," plays in the park in the afternoon but, except for her little sister and several cousins, has few child companions.

Even her birthday parties are attended by grown-ups seldom by boys and girls her own age. King George used to preside. She blew out the candles but the king cut the cake.

Elizabeth has a pony, a bicycle, ice skates, a string of coral beads, a jewel box, a globe, a doll house, a gramophone, and a dog named "Yorky."

She has opened a savings account at the London post office and a charge account at a Kingsbridge shop but instructions at the latter are she must limit her purchases to one shilling.

Goes for Tennis

Far from winter's buffets and clad for sunshine, one of the "princesses of Delaware," Miss Ethel du Pont, is shown here as she sauntered toward the palm-shaded courts of Nassau, in the Bahamas, for a tennis match. Miss du Pont is one of the heiresses to the vast du Pont fortunes, her father being Eugene du Pont, of Wilmington, one of the Delaware dynasty.

First Christian Women's council will meet: Group one at the church, 9:30, for a quilting; group two with Mrs. R. E. Abbott, 415 N. Yager; group three with Mrs. J. O. Gantz, 306 N. Somerville; group four at the church, 2:30, joining group one.

Altar Society of Holy Souls church will meet at the home of Mrs. D. C. Kennedy, 614 N. West, with Mrs. George Heller as co-hostess.

Episcopal Women's Auxiliary will meet at the parish house, 2:30.

Women's Auxiliary of Presbyterian church will meet in the annex, 2:30.

Ho-Lo club will meet for business and rehearsal at city club room, 4 p. m.

Girl Scouts of troop five will meet at the Little House, 4 p. m.

Business and Professional Women's club will sponsor a bridge tourney at city club room, 7:45.

Council of Women's clubs will meet at city club room, 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. O. H. Booth will entertain Queen of Clubs at her home, 617 N. Frost, at 2:30.

Parent-Teacher council will meet in the city commission room of city hall, 2:30.

Junior High P-T. A. and Band Mothers will sponsor a "fun night" program at the school gymnasium, 7:30.

Junior Treble Clef club will meet, 7:30, with Mrs. Curtis Koehn.

Mrs. Floyd Strickland will entertain Magnolia bridge club.

FRIDAY.
Mrs. E. A. Shackleton will be hostess to Priscilla Home Demonstration club, 2 p. m.

Order of Eastern Star will have a regular meeting at Masonic hall, 8 p. m.

OFFICERS WILL CONTINUE WITH DUTIES A YEAR

Official Election Is Conducted in BSP Chapter

Officers chosen when the Beta Sigma Phi chapter here recently were elected to hold their posts through the coming year, when the official election was conducted last evening in the home of Miss Frances Stark.

Miss Stark is president, Miss Clotilde McCallister vice-president, Miss Ann Clayton recording secretary, Miss Lorene Nicholson corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Era Smyth treasurer.

Appointive offices were filled for the first time. Miss Josephine Lane was named historian, Mrs. LaVena Wooley program chairman, Miss Myrtle Fae Gilbert membership chairman, Miss Myrtle Olive Montgomery social chairman, Miss Jewel Binford ways and mean chairman, and Miss Lane publicity chairman.

Plans for rush month were discussed, and also for founders day, which will be observed on April 30. Preceding the observance, members will correspond with other chapters in California, Colorado, Michigan, Iowa, and Oklahoma.

First Sermon in Revival Series Heard Yesterday

Evangelist C. C. Morgan preached his first sermon in a revival series at Central Church of Christ last evening, speaking on the subject, "God and the Bible." He will preach at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily during the services.

Last evening he said in part, "I believe in God because of his nature, reason, and intuition demand a God. All that has ever lived believed in some supernatural being."

"I believe in the Bible because its divinity is proved by the test of time. In the 1,600 years over which its books were written, and the 40 different men who wrote them, its most severe test, and therein lies the proof that God had a part in it."

The subject this morning was Humility. Mr. Morgan has announced that he will speak this evening on Accounting for Jesus, and tomorrow morning on A Christian Attitude Toward Sin.

Each afternoon after school a children's class will be conducted at the church, with all children invited. The minister, Paul A. Thompson, invites the public to hear the sermons during this revival.

Visitor Here Is Bridge Honoree

Mrs. J. A. Stevens of Electra, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Dickinson, was honoree at a bridge party recently when Mrs. Pat Crawford entertained. Mrs. Stevens was Miss Walden Dickinson, a bride of the past year.

The honoree received high score award in bridge. Mrs. Albert Brannon the floating prize, and Mrs. Dickinson consolation. Spring flowers decorated the rooms and were pictured on the tables for the games.

Mexican candy was served on the tables, and to close the evening an ice course was enjoyed by Mrs. Stevens, Dickinson, Scott Gray, L. P. Ward, M. A. McGowan, Owen Winton, Vernon Bruce, Charles Zernial, W. B. Bounds, Brannon, and Miss Ethel Hamilton.

Fellowship Hour At the Methodist Church Announced

Recreation in charge of Mrs. T. B. Barron, and music by a German band under direction of John Skelly will make up the program at the monthly fellowship hour of First Methodist church tomorrow evening. The hour will start at 7 o'clock with a covered dish supper in the church dining room. All members are urged to attend and get acquainted with their fellow-members and visitors are invited.

Quilting Party Is Enjoyed by Friends

Mrs. Joe Johnson was hostess at her home yesterday when a party of friends spent the afternoon quilting. Mrs. J. T. Miller and O. Mitchell were named honorees. Mrs. Johnson served a la mode and coffee were served to them and Mrs. R. D. Kennamer, Joe Kennamer, F. P. Hayes, J. Woolen, Harry Miller, L. E. Valentine, White, R. F. Mitchell, O. L. Bell.

NEW CHAIRMAN NAMED IN ONE W. M. S. CIRCLE

Full attendance marked circle meetings of First Methodist Missionary society yesterday afternoon when a study of Latin-American missions was continued.

Meeting at the church, 19 members of circle three had Mrs. O. W. Ferguson as hostess. Mrs. Roy Riley, C. W. Berry, and Clarence Coffin were enrolled as new members.

Mrs. Sam Sheppard was elected circle chairman to replace Mrs. Tom Weaver, who has moved to Lubbock. Mrs. Harold Wright was selected as vice-chairman.

Mrs. John Hessey gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Sheppard the devotional preceding the lesson led by Mrs. J. E. Kirchner. Topics were discussed by Mrs. J. E. Foster, Joe Gordon, W. D. Waters, A. L. Patrick and Paul Jensen. Mrs. John Skelly explained the duties of the baby special committee.

Mrs. W. Purviance and Mrs. H. B. Carson were hostesses to circle one at the home of the former. Mrs. Jno. Hodge gave the opening prayer. Mrs. Carson the devotional talk, and Mrs. Purviance led the lesson on Central American Provinces.

Evangelistic Movements in Central America, was Mrs. S. S. Via's topic. History and Development of South America was told in a paper prepared by Mrs. Ethel McGowan and read by Mrs. Purviance. Mrs. John Platt presented an interesting history of the United States in Panama.

Roll call was answered with current events by 16 members, who enjoyed delicious refreshments after the program.

Circle Two
Circle two had 16 members and a visitor, Mrs. Frank Shotwell, present at the home of Mrs. S. C. Evans. Mrs. Walter Daugherty presided for the business hour, when plans were made to prepare a "love basket" of gifts for a member, Mmes. Sherman White, J. M. Turner, and Joe Shelton were named on the committee.

Mrs. W. C. House led the devotional.

Chapter II Jane came back to earth with a start. "Let's get going," she said. "We have to make the round before dark."

After they had visited 10 agencies Jane's spirit flagged. "It's no use," she said. "We've done this so often it's like a damn routine."

Turning suddenly, she saw the young man. He was smiling and Jane realized—with a shock that he was the handsome man she had never seen. Like something that had stepped out of a movie.

Glancing away, she made mental note of his blond hair and blue eyes and a face that was tanned the color of russet brown. Evidently he didn't belong to the work-a-day canyons of the city.

"Where do girls meet men like that?" Jane asked, pointing out the smiling male personage. "Certainly not in an office! There's Jerry, who's worried sick about his own wife and two kids, and Dickie, the office boy, and—"

"Dreaming again!" Alice commented drily. "Why must you pick out a sardine prince to yearn after? What you want is a job!"

"I'm through at the office; there isn't any more job. Won't you come down and share my misery this afternoon?" Alice said. "Have you had your lunch?"

"No." "Well, you little idiot, go to Kramer's on Canal street and order some hot food. And wait for me there." Jane left the booth and entered the little white-table-top restaurant with its pleasant smells of vegetable soups and pastries.

Ignoring the continuous political circus in the capital, Washingtonians these days rush to view a rare sight, the breaking up of the great ice pack that had piled up at Great Falls on the Potomac. A group of sight-seers is shown watching huge chunks break off the pack like miniature icebergs and float seaward on the cold, swirling waters.

Keen interest being shown by New Yorkers in the Texas Centennial celebration is illustrated by this show window in downtown Manhattan. "Visit Texas and enjoy the statewide Centennial celebrations," the placard proclaims, and from all indications a host of New Yorkers will accept the invitation. Texas decorations have become a vogue in the metropolis.

Princely Smiles Flash as Kaiser's

Though a commoner guides the empire which was to have been ruled by them, the ex-kaiser's sons seem to be chery withal. Here, in a striking photo taken at Schloss Cecilienhof, Potsdam, four of Wilhelm's stalwart sons smilingly pose together. From left to right, they are: Prince August-Wilhelm, ex-Crown Prince Frederick-Wilhelm, Prince Oscar, and Prince Eitel-Fritz (known as the Hohenzollern Mammoth, because of his vast girth). The Kaiser was father of two other sons, Princes Adalbert and Joachim. The latter committed suicide in 1920.

Boulder Starts Its Own Niagara

A history-making event is pictured here, this huge cascade at Boulder Dam sending the first flow of water through a control valve below the mammoth structure, in a test closely supervised by government officials. More than 1000 second feet of water roared all the way across the canyon through the partially opened valve, one of six at the dam, in the test, indicative of the mighty power that can be generated at the great barrier.

Stirs Dispute

As Guy Standing Jr., son of the famous British actor, made his debut in New York in the title role of the first WPA theatrical presentation, "Jefferson Davis," he found attention divided between his work and a dispute over the advisability of showing the play in the north. Mrs. James Henry Parker, president of the New York chapter of United Daughters of Confederacy, believes the play will revive sectionalism in northern audiences.

Reunited Livermores Await Trial

Reunited with his mother, accused of shooting him in a quarrel over liquor last Thanksgiving eve, and with the family pet, Jesse Livermore, Jr., 16, son of the Wall Street plunger, is shown convalescing at home in Santa Barbara, Calif. The youth, who, for weeks after being wounded, was near death, will be chief witness against his mother when she appears for preliminary trial, March 14.

When You Climb Drifts With Ladder, That's SNOW

When drifts pile to such height that it's necessary to use a ladder to climb 'em to repair telephone lines, that's snow that is snow. So Illinois refuses to concede honors to any other state, in the record blizzards that have whipped the entire width of the country. This scene gives a vivid idea of the handicaps under which linemen worked on the state highway south of Freeport, Ill., where drifts piled from 10 to 20 feet high.

An Evening at Home for the Roosevelts

Like any other American family, the Franklin D. Roosevelts take their ease beside a crackling fire on winter evenings when the pressure of presidential duties and obligations permits. Pictured above, during a brief relaxation at their Hyde Park, N. Y. estate, are Mrs. Roosevelt, with her knitting; Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt the chief executive's mother; and the president.

'Old Grad' FDR Sees Son Initiated as Fly

It's hard to distinguish between them, but that is Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harvard '04 (and incidentally, president of the United States) who smiles so happily above. For a brief evening he dropped the cares of office to become an old grad and join his fraternally brothers at the exclusive Fly club of Harvard university in celebrating the 100th anniversary of its founding. Flanking him are his sons, James (left), F. D. Jr., and John (right), all members of Fly. John's initiation was a feature of the celebration. Most of the members of the club are reported to be New Deal fans.

Original 'Bull of the Woods' Dies

The original of the "Bull of the Woods," Charles T. Williams, right, 73, of Alliance, O., has passed away; but the make-believe "Bull," shown at left, lives on, to inspire awe among his workmen and delight among millions of followers of the famous comic, "Out Our Way." Back in 1914, James R. Williams, creator of the comic, worked for and admired Charley Williams (no relative), then Alliance machine shop foreman. Later, Jim Williams turned cartoonist, and obtained permission from his former boss to portray him as "Bull" in the "Out Our Way" machine shop.

Suit by Dancer Hits Financier

A suit for $100,000 has been filed in New York against Frederick H. Prince, Sr., above, Boston financier, by Florence Walton, war-time Broadway star, who charges he failed to keep alleged promises to pay her $100,000 for world rights to her autobiography and to make good losses she says she sustained on investments which, she charges, he recommended. Prince is chairman of the board of Armour & Co.

First Stop on Atlantic Airway

A tiny speck in the vast reaches of the Atlantic, Darrell's island, Bermuda, is being converted into a base for the first stop on the proposed trans-Atlantic airway modeled after the successful trans-Pacific route. The island, pointed out by arrow, is in Great Sound, near Hamilton Harbor, and will be only four to six hours from New York by plane.

Lions' Chief to Send Invitations

E. J. Osenbaugh, of Denver, international president of the Lions Clubs, told Dallas Lions, as they besieged him, he would send invitations to every chapter of the organization in the nation to attend the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens in Dallas June 6. He suggested they promptly presented him with a 10-gallon hat.

Excavation Started on Dallas Center's Showpiece

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Believe Boast Led to Slaying of Third Of His Clan

CHICAGO, March 3 (AP)—The slaying of Anthony Demory—third of his clan to meet a gangster's end—today was linked to the assassination of his half brother, "Machine Gun Jack" McCurn.

Supervising Captain John Stege and "Red" Demory died as he had boasted: "I know the guys that killed Jack, and I'm going to get them."

The striking similarity of the two executions prompted the official theory that they had been carried out by the same trio of gunmen.

Demory, 24, was playing cards with three others in a "Little Italy" pool room last night. Three men, their faces shadowed by overcoat collars, walked in. They brandished pistols.

Demory, wounded in the head, shoulder and side, died in a hospital within an hour. He was unable to talk.

Mrs. Josephine Gebardi Demory, mother of the victim, sobbed: "First Vincent, then Tony. My Tony, they didn't have to kill you."

Verdict for Schneider. A verdict of $6,100 for the plaintiff, Alex Schneider, was returned by a jury in 31st district court yesterday.

Mr. Pope Improves. Condition of Dave Pope, Pampa pioneer critically ill at Temple, was slightly improved today, following a "better night," according to a telegram received near noon.

FARLEY OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR FDR DELEGATES

'Brain Trusters' Are Defended by Ickes

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Orist from a quickening political mill today included a democratic declaration that an upturn in industry results from new deal policies and a republican assertion that the recovery problem is where it was March 4, 1933.

In industrial New England, Chairman James A. Farley of the democratic national committee, opened a drive for delegates pledged to President Roosevelt at the Philadelphia convention in June.

Speaking to Young Democrats at Manchester, N. H., he said "economic suicide for New England" would result from a sudden halt in emergency expenditures as demanded by new deal critics.

Rep. Mott (R., Ore.) on the other hand, said in a broadcast under the auspices of the republican congressional committee, that industrial recovery and farm solvency are "just where they were when the new deal came into power."

A defense of the "brain trusters" came from Secretary Ickes. Speaking at Howard university here, he said "entrenched privilege" was responsible for attacks on "men of trained intelligence," called in by the administration to meet the "social and economic crisis it had inherited."

Primary matters occupied the political observers in California, North Dakota and New Mexico. In California two members of the EPIC forces who had bolted from the democratic delegation to the national convention went back to the fold.

The men are J. Stitt Wilson and John Packard, both members of the Upton Sinclair group. With eight others they had quit when State Chairman Culbert L. Olson charged that Senator McAdoo would have control of the delegation.

Republicans in California were having primary difficulties. While a committee completed a slate of unopposed delegates, as favored by former President Hoover, there were threats of a competing slate pledged nominally to Gov. Frank Merriam.

Vallee Opposes Copyright Law. WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Rudy Vallee admitted today that his popularity and that of other songwriters would be only as great as the songs they sing or play.

The crooner told the house patents committee and a goodly representation of house office building designers that songs "must have that certain something," or they are worthless.

Vallee pictured virtually deserted night clubs, radio studios and ballrooms if the restrictions are placed on song-writers and asserted that radio organizations, movies, and hotel men are behind the measure. It would "kill the inspiration of those who write music," he asserted.

Centennial Stamp Sales Set Record As Demand Grows. GONZALES, March 3 (AP)—Uncle Sam made a good investment when he issued the special Texas Centennial postage stamps. At least, he sold lots of stamps.

An additional 300,000 stamps, commemorating Texas' 100th anniversary of freedom from Mexico, were ordered rushed here by special plane after the supply of 1,000,000 was exhausted in a few hours yesterday, opening day of the sale.

Robert E. Sellers, superintendent of the division of stamps, said he believed cancellations of more than 300,000 of the Centennial issue set an all-time sales record for one day.

The first stamp sold was placed on a package addressed to President Roosevelt, an ardent stamp collector. Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul bought the first stamp.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—The stock market paused for a brief period today to consider the administration's new tax program, then resumed its steady upward climb.

Automobile and motor equipment issues led the advance in the final hour. Many tops for the past five years were recorded with gains ranging from fractions to 2 or more points. The close was firm. Transfers approximated 2,700,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN. CHICAGO, March 3 (AP)—In a double direction market that developed late today, wheat scored a material advance for May contracts and a decided recession for July and September.

New crop deliveries of wheat were actively pressed for sale against simultaneous purchases of May. Flour mills and commercial interests were reported switching over their hedges, owing a good deal to Kansas rain predictions likely to enhance crop prospects on a big acreage.

Wheat closed irregular, 7/8 lower to 1/2 higher, compared with yesterday's finish, May 1.00 1/4, July 89 1/2, corn unchanged to 1/4 up, May 61, oats at 1/4 decline to an equal gain, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5 cents.

Refiners Draft New Tax Defense

NEW YORK, March 3 (AP)—Formation of a completely independent retail marketing organization for gasoline to replace present company-operated or controlled filling station systems figured today in plans of high leaders of the industry to escape chain store taxes held constitutional by the Supreme Court.

The tribunal decided yesterday that chain store taxes in West Virginia apply to filling stations leased by refining companies, thus destroying the first line of defense built by the big refiners against that type of impost.

Authorities in the petroleum trade pointed out that several producers with their own retailing systems had leased stations to managers, or similarly transferred the property, in an effort to escape taxes in the last few years. Such a move was hastened by a recent Supreme Court decision which held that the West Virginia chain store taxes applied to filling stations directly operated by the refiners.

American Eagle bi-plane, powered by a 220 h. p. Wright J5 motor. It was unlicensed. Timmons had flown the ship several times, taking it into the air for solo instruction on Sunday.

Cause of the crash has not been definitely established. A department of commerce inspector has been notified of the accident and is expected to arrive in Pampa today or tomorrow. He will hold a court of inquiry, send his findings to Washington from where a report on the findings will be issued.

The accident was the second in this section during the last year. Two men were killed when a small plane crashed into a wheat field north of Pampa a few months ago.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON. NEW ORLEANS, March 3 (AP)—Apparently getting some support from a better tone in stocks and grain the market moved slowly pointing-by-point in the quiet pre-noon trading and around noon was steady, unchanged to 4 points above the previous close.

Shorts covered and March moved up 2 points to 11.09. After easing slightly from the opening on hedge selling May recovered 3 points to 10.72, or one point above the previous close. New crop months were up 2 to 4 points.

Philip R. Pond, recovering from a serious operation performed in Worley hospital last week, was taken to his home, 820 N. Frost, this morning. Mr. Pond is business manager of The Daily News.

additional revenue of $620,000,000 on 1936 corporation incomes. The president told congress invalidation of the processing taxes left a deficit in the budget of $1,017,000,000 and that the cash bonus bill would add an annual charge of $120,000,000 a year.

"We are called upon, therefore," he said, "to raise by some form of permanent taxation an annual amount of $620,000,000. It may be paid, truthfully and correctly, that $500,000,000 of this amount represents substitute taxes in place of the old processing taxes, and that only $120,000,000 represents new taxes not hitherto levied."

Quoting from his budget message a statement that "the increase in revenues would ultimately meet and pass the declining cost of relief," Mr. Roosevelt said: "If we are to maintain this clearcut and sound policy, it is incumbent upon us to make good to the federal treasury both the loss of revenue caused by the Supreme Court decision and the increase in expenses caused by the adjusted compensation payment act."

"I emphasize that adherence to consistent policy calls for such action," the chief executive said he was leaving "to the discretion of congress" the formulation of appropriate taxes. But he invited the attention of congress to "a form of tax which would accomplish an important tax reform, remove two major inequalities in our tax system, and stop 'leaks' in present surtaxes."

Mr. Roosevelt then proposed the tax on undistributed corporate incomes "graduated and so fixed as to yield approximately the same revenue as would be yielded if corporate profits were distributed and taxes in the hands of stock holders."

The president did not mention a specific rate but said the treasury would submit estimates by which the desired yield could be realized. It was understood the treasury's proposal was for a graduated tax averaging about 2 1/2 per cent.

The president made it plain he expected the new corporation tax not only to cover the repeal taxes but to raise the $620,000,000 which he characterized as permanent levies.

Treasury experts explained that the proposed new graduated tax for undistributed net profits of corporations would not apply to reserves accumulated in the past but only to income currently allocated to reserves.

They said, however, that any current income in the hands of stock holders would be taxed regardless of the use to which it was put. They added, as an example, that if a corporation put $200,000 of current income into expansion of its plant this money would be taxed.

It was suggested that corporations might get money for expansion by issuing rights to stockholders and getting their consent to retain the profits for expansion purposes. The effect of this would be the same it was said, as though the money had actually been paid over to the stockholder in profits and reinvested by him. The stockholder would report his paid tax on the income.

GEORGE SEAY DIES. DALLAS, March 3 (AP)—George Mabry Seay, 53, wealthy business man, who died yesterday, will be buried here today.

Canadian News

CANADIAN, March 3.—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sparks and son, Ronald, returned yesterday from Trenton, Ill., where they were called because of the illness of Mrs. Sparks' brother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilbert were hosts at a dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burton, whose birthdays were last week. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Galloway, Roy Wheeler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Calvert Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Willis of Pampa visited here Saturday. Agnes Alford, Lavarre Sprague, Helen Helton, Fernaneta Sawyer, and Erben Crowell, all students from West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon, spent the week-end with relatives here.

Two fire alarms sounded here Sunday. One call was to the Christian church, where no damage was done. The other was to a building on the Abraham place, which burned down.

CHILD KILLED. COMANCHE, March 3 (AP)—One school child was instantly killed and two were injured here today when a heavily loaded lumber truck overturned as the driver swerved to avoid an automobile. The children were at the roadside, walking to school. Dorothy Louise Hicks, 12, was crushed to death. Hazel Thorp, 13, and Verbera Thorp, 11, sisters, were cut and bruised.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)
