Goldberg Asks UN To Accept LBJ Program

OFF WITH A BANG — Posters went up today announcing the Pampa Chamber of Commerce sponsored Independence Day Program and fireworks display. Janice Hankins, 1325 Coffee, and Iris Day, 1113 Mary Ellen (left to right) get the information about the program which will be held July 4 at Recreation Park.

Ambassador Wants 5 Points Endorsed

UNITED NATIONS (UPI) — U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg asked the General Assembly today to endorse President Johnson's five-point peace program as the basis for a permanent settlement in the Middle East.

Goldberg put Johnson's program before the assembly in the form of a resolution after Secretary General Thant disclosed Israel had refused to accept U.N. peace-keeping forces on its territory after Egypt demanded their withdrawal. Israel in part blames the withdrawal for start of the war.

Goldberg rejected a resolution offered Monday by Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin demanding that Israel withdraw its forces from captured territory and pay reparations for war damage.

Goldberg said that resolution would "run the film backward" to conditions before the June 5 outbreak of hostilities.

Kosygin was not present for Goldberg's address. The Soviet premier arrived at the United Nations five minutes after Goldberg finished.

The U.S. resolution, like the Soviet measure, would leave future action up to the Security Council where the five permanent members have veto power. The five are the U.S., Britain, France, Russia and Nationalist China.

Goldberg's measure would have the assembly endorse the Security Council cease-fire, declare that its objective must be a "stable and durable peace and that the objective should be achieved through Israeli-Arab negotiations with appropriate third party assistance."

He said these objectives should be based on the five point outline Monday by President Johnson:

- Recognized right of national life.
- Justice for refugees.
- Innocent maritime passage.
- Limits on the wasteful arms race.

—Political independence and territorial integrity for all.

Goldberg requested that the Security Council "keep the situation under careful review."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who had conferred before the meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko on the dwindling possibility of a Kosygin-Johnson meeting, was present for Goldberg's speech. But he left as soon as President Nureddin Atassi of Syria began to speak.

Thant made his disclosure on the U.N. troops before Goldberg spoke.

Rusk Trying To Arrange Summit Talk

NEW YORK (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today talked with Soviet and other officials in an effort to determine whether a meaningful summit meeting is possible between President Johnson and Kosygin.

Rusk flew here from Washington Monday night amid a flurry of reports from administration sources that prospects for such a conference were dim in view of Kosygin's rejection of the President's initial invitation to meet at Washington or Camp David.

The secretary and other officials were said to feel, however, that there was still some possibility of a worthwhile summit and further exploration of the Soviet attitude was necessary.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko was among the foreign officials Rusk planned to see within the next day or two. The exact schedule was still being worked out this morning.

Rusk concerned Monday night with Arthur J. Goldberg U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, and also talked with Llewellyn E. Thompson, U.S.O. ambassador to Moscow. Thompson and the Soviet ambassador to Washington, Anatoly F. Dobrynin, have handled the initial summit feelers between Johnson and Kosygin. Now Rusk apparently wants to test the diplomatic climate directly with Gromyko.

Johnson's aides made it clear to Kosygin late last week that the President is interested in a serious discussion of a broad range of major problems, including Vietnam, a treaty to prevent further spread of nuclear weapons and some agreement on limiting development of anti-ballistic missiles.

Arms Policy Due Review

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A sweeping review seemed in prospect today for U.S. arms policy in the Middle East in the light of President Johnson's urgent plea for a limitation on the arms race in the turbulent area.

Commenting on the Chief Executive's proposal Monday that the United Nations begin a public accounting of all weaponry shipped to the Middle East by its members, Pentagon officials said they believed the United States ranked fourth among arms suppliers to the region.

Russia is the largest supplier, though there have been indications in recent days that the flow of Soviet arms to Egypt is tapering off, a Defense Department spokesman said.

France, he added, is probably second and Britain, with its longtime commitments to Jordan, possibly ranks third.

It was estimated that the Soviet Union had sent upwards of $2 billion worth of arms to the Middle East over the past 10 years. U.S. shipments during the same period would amount to about one-fourth as much.

The only exact figures available, mostly culled from Pentagon and congressional records showed that the United States has extended $345.9 million in military aid to the Arab countries from 1950 through last June 30.

During the same period, Israel has purchased $27.6 million worth of arms from the United States on credit.

In addition, the Arabs and the Israelis have made military purchases in the United States outside of the aid program, but these were described as "modest."

County Officials Select Jury List

Three county officials today selected 40 jurors for the July term of court for Gray County. Jurors selected by lot were on the county registration list or on the tax rolls of Gray County.

Officials selecting and listing the names today were County Judge S. R. Lenning Jr., Deputy Sheriff D. L. Day, and Deputy County Clerk Mrs. Wanda Carter.

The new term is for July, August and September.

TV Documentary Blasts Garrison Assassination Probe

NEW YORK (UPI) — New Orleans Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's investigation into the Kennedy assassination, was described on nationwide television Monday night as a case founded upon lies, threats, fear, suspicion inducements and exploitation of the public.

Shortly before the NBC News documentary went on the air Garrison issued a statement characterizing the program as "the big lie."

The New Orleans prosecutor added: "all the screaming and hollering now being heard is evidence that we have caught a very large fish."

Garrison has charged that Clay L. Shaw, a New Orleans businessman, took part in a conspiracy to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. He said Lee Harvey Oswald, Jack Ruby, the late David W. Ferrie and unnamed Cubans participated in the alleged plot. Shaw has been indicted for conspiracy.

Falls Lie Test
The NBC program, "The JFK Conspiracy: The Case of Jim Garrison," presented the following conclusions:

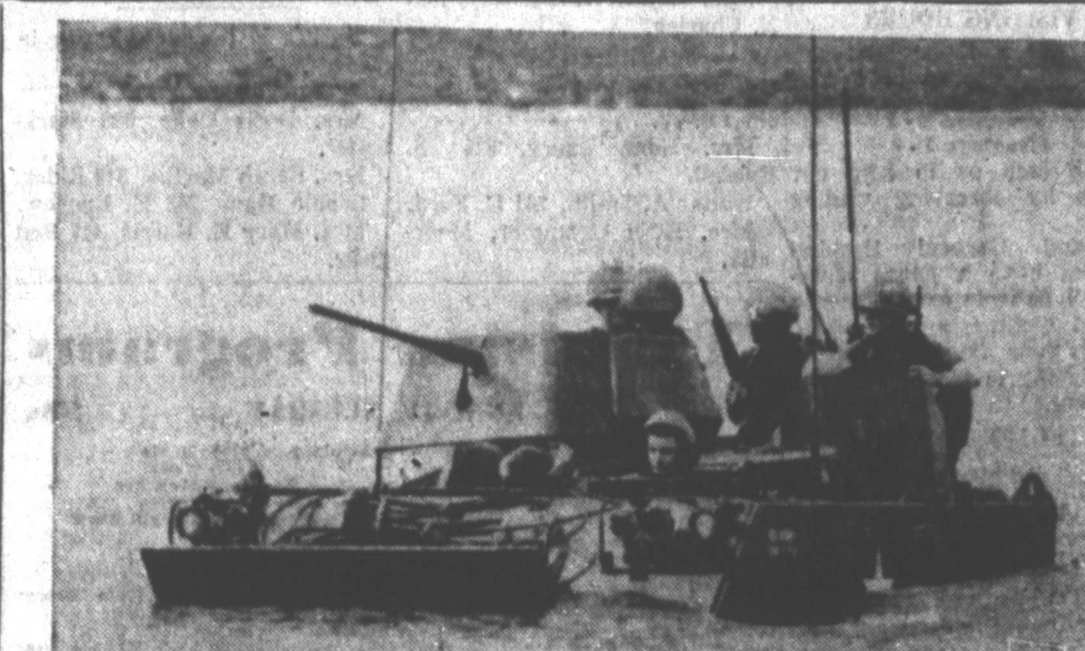

1. "The case he (Garrison) has built against Clay Shaw is based on testimony that did not pass a lie detector test. Garrison ordered—and Garrison knew it. One prospective witness admitted he was going to lie."
2. "Members of Garrison's staff, in trying to strengthen the case against Shaw, have threatened and offered inducements to potential witnesses."
3. "The results of his four months of public investigation have been to damage reputations, to spread fear and suspicion, and, worst of all, to exploit the nation's sorrow and doubts about President Kennedy's death."

In his statement Garrison said the NBC report had been "presented with a great deal of pomposity in order to try and make it more digestible."

"It is obvious that there are elements today in Washington, D.C., which are desperate because we are in the process of uncovering their hoax," he added.

Perry Russo, one of Garrison's key witnesses in the case against Shaw, has identified Shaw as the mysterious "Clay Bertrand" who is alleged to have taken part in a conspiracy to kill Kennedy.

However, the documentary said: "Clay, or Clem Bertrand does exist. An NBC News reporter has seen him. Clem Bertrand is not his real name. It is a pseudonym used by homosexuals in New Orleans. He is not Clay Shaw." NBC said it would not disclose

ROCKING THE BOAT would appear unwise at this stage of the game, but actually the Army's M113 Armored Personnel Carrier is made for watery going such as this, where troops of the 10th Cavalry ford a river in Vietnam's Phu Yen province. The APC can do about 35 m.p.h. in water and 40 on land. The boat is similar to the ones used by the U.S. Navy to aid infantrymen in killing 196 Communists Monday in a river battle near Saigon.

196 Communists Killed in Battle

SAIGON (UPI)—The U. S. Navy using gunboat tactics borrowed from American Civil War strategy teamed with U.S. infantrymen to kill 196 Communists Monday in a river battle only 17 miles south of Saigon, military spokesmen reported today.

The battle was one of five that raged from the Mekong Delta to the fringes of the demilitarized zone (DMZ). The Communists lost 368 dead in the five battles and American soldiers and Marines counted 49 dead and 216 wounded.

The air war flared with new intensity and U.S. planes bombed the Bac Giang fuel burning plant 27 miles north of Hanoi for the ninth time Monday in a "highly successful" raid. Other planes hit the Hai Duong road and rail bridge linking Hanoi and Haiphong and Hanoi.

Communist MIGs took to the air but did not attack the American raiders and no U. S. losses were reported.

Called Monitors

Navy Lt. Augustine Marano, 37, Clearfield, Pa., who disclosed the use of the Civil War techniques, said the gunboats used were called "Monitors" after the Union "cheesebox on a raft" that fought a five-hour draw with the Confederate Merrimac on March 9, 1862. The Confederates burned the Merrimac in May to prevent its capture; the Monitor sank in a storm off Cape Hatteras in December.

Actually the flotilla "has been hidden history for the past two weeks" Marano said. He did not elaborate on other actions but said the gunboats are heavily armed with 40 and 20 millimeter cannons and machineguns to protect troops aboard troop carriers and command boats.

U. S. infantrymen have been training aboard barracks ships since February in preparation for carrying the war to the rivers and marshlands of the Mekong Delta. For the battle they switched to floating troop carriers that carried them along the Rach Cat River below Saigon.

The troops landed in waist high waters of the marshland and attacked the Fifth Viet Cong Independent Battalion. With South Vietnamese troops supporting from the south, the infantrymen poured in from the north and west and began the seven-hour battle that ended at midnight Monday.

Close From River

The Monitors closed in from the river and attacked the trapped Viet Cong from barely 100 yards away. Marano said the gunships poured 2,000 rounds of 40 mm cannon fire on the Communist position as well as 70 mortar rounds and a large number of grenades and small arms fire.

Vacations Are Less Restful on Expenses

With the vacation season at hand and with many Gray County families planning automobile jaunts to various parts of the country, the question of cost becomes a prime consideration.

Whether the destination is to be Expo '67 or some of the scenic spots in the United States, the cost will be higher than it was previously.

According to the American Automobile Association, which surveys the situation every two years, practically everything has

Murder, Suicide Are Suspected In Attorneys' Deaths

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Former Dist. Judge Jo Ann McInnis Hennessy, 40, and her estranged husband, attorney William A. Hennessy, 44, were shot to death Monday in a downtown Oklahoma City law office, C. C. Miller, chief of detectives for the Oklahoma City Police Department, said it was an apparent murder-suicide. He said witnesses heard the shooting when Mrs. Hennessy apparently turned on an office intercommunication system connected through out the second floor of the building.

However, he said, no one was believed to have seen the shooting.

Police said Mrs. Hennessy's former husband apparently shot her repeatedly, then turned the gun on himself. Police said all six shots from a .38 caliber revolver chamber had been discharged.

A witness told police she heard a shot, a scream and other shots.

Mrs. Hennessy, the first woman judge in Oklahoma County, took office Jan. 1, 1965, after an extra judgeship was created in 1964. She was defeated in a re-election bid last year.

She and Hennessy were married in January of 1966, and nine months later were divorced during an 8-hour proceeding. Both alleged incompatibility.

Amarillo Woman Leaves $65,000 For Charity Use

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI) — Mrs. Anna Moore's mother died when she was three years old and she was raised by friends of the family. Later in life, she suffered from arthritis and her husband was incapacitated from diabetes.

"She had her own troubles but became interested in those less fortunate than herself," said Mrs. A. C. Morris, who distributed checks Monday to people and organizations Mrs. Moore remembered in her will.

She left $65,235 to charity. All but $14,000 of it was a surprise to those who received it.

The $14,000 she gave to Scottish Rite Hospital for Crippled Children in Dallas.

Mrs. Moore died in July, 1966, but the money was distributed only Monday.

She left $17,500 to Amarillo Children's Home, $17,867 to Amarillo Mental Health Association, $14,367 to Amarillo Cerebral Treatment Center and $3,500 to the First Church of Christ Scientist in Amarillo.

Mrs. Moore, whose husband, James Moore, a Santa Fe Railroad telegrapher died in 1947, lived modestly in a lower middle class neighborhood.

"She befriended many unfortunate in her lifetime" said Mrs. Morris, "but was most concerned with orphans and crippled children."

The bequests to charities represented her entire estate with the exception of $3,500 left to the families of people in Kansas who cared for her as a child.

Walter Johnson, baseball great pitched 113 shutouts during his 21-year major league career.

Police Check 2 Prowler Reports

Pampa police were investigating today two incidents of prowling in Pampa homes and another report of youths attempting to take hubcaps from a parked car.

Kenneth Mason, 1005 E. Kingsmill, reported to police last night a man entered his house about 9:30 p.m. yesterday, but left by the back door when Mrs. Mason called out the name of a friend she was expecting.

Police records also showed a prowler had entered the J. C. Killgo residence, 501 Warren St., earlier this week.

Mrs. Glen Kerr, 1001 E. Fisher, reported last night youths had tried to take hubcaps off her car while it was parked at her home.

Police Chief Jim Conner said today he had no further leads on an anonymous report of a Pampa school teacher being beaten June 12, and as far as he knew, no charges had been filed in the case.

Obituaries

Bill Mullinax
Bill Mullinax, 83, a retired building contractor, died in his home 403 N. Somerville at 1:45 a.m. today after an illness of several months.

Arrangements will be announced later by Duenkel Funeral Home.

He was born July 1, 1883, near Woodbury, Tenn., and came to Pampa in 1912 from Grady, N.M. He was a member of First Methodist Church.

Mr. Mullinax, who built several of Pampa's larger office buildings, retired in 1950.

He is survived by his wife, Callie, of the home; three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Kerr, Miss Lillian Mullinax, both of Pampa, Mrs. June Fields of Houston; and 11 grandchildren.

Former AFS Student On Texas Visit

Christer Jonsson of Sweden, American Field Service student who spent the 1961-62 school year in Pampa, is visiting with friends in Pampa and Spearman this week.

Jonsson is currently assigned to escort approximately 93 AFS Swedish students back to their homeland after a year of study and living with American families.

In Spearman, Jonsson has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Coy Palmer and son, Mike, formerly of Pampa, with whom he made his home in 1961-62. The former AFS student plans to leave Thursday for a tour of the West Coast before meeting the Swedish students in New York City on July 11.

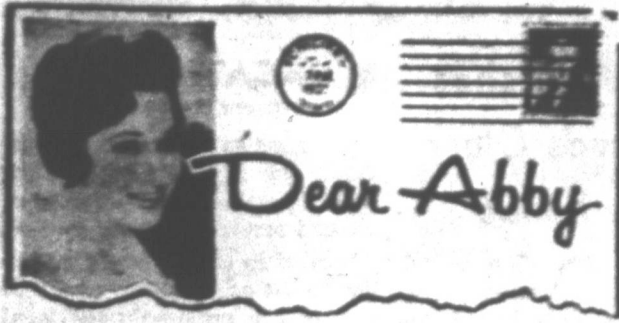

He is accompanied by his fiancée, Evie, who is a school teacher in Sweden.

Since leaving the United States in 1962, Jonsson has completed an additional year of high school and his military service requirement. He is attending a Swedish university where he is majoring in political science preparatory to a career in the diplomatic service.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: Several months ago we learned that our baby was retarded. We were stunned and heartbroken, and all we could do was pray for the strength to do everything we could for him. According to our doctor, a retarded child has a better start in life if he lives at home, so we decided to keep him home.

Abby, you wouldn't believe the remarks made to us by friends: "Why don't you put him in an institution? He'll be better off with his own kind." And, "Aren't your other children embarrassed by him?" Abby, our other children are not embarrassed. If anything, it has given them a better understanding of life and problems and how to accept the inevitable.

There are dark moments, of course, but what I really want to convey is that a retarded child needs love and affection as much—if not more—than a normal child. And more people should realize that it means more to parents of a retarded child to have their friends inquire about him. It is so much kinder than all the hypocritical evasions and pretenses that the child is normal.

Just putting this down on paper has made me feel so much better. Thank you.

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Thank you for your wonderful letter. Millions of people will see it, and you will never know how much kindness you and your retarded child have inspired in otherwise well-meaning, but thoughtless people.

DEAR ABBY: I am buying a house from a friend of mine for $55,000. He asked me if I would do him a favor and state, the house as $35,000 in the agreement of the sale, and give him the balance in cash.

He said he didn't want his wife to know how much he was actually getting for the house because she's the kind who spends a thousand if she thinks they have a hundred.

Would there be anything wrong with my doing this for him as a favor?

HIS FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Yes. Plenty. Do not falsify the price of the house on the agreement unless you want to be a party to a fraud. Tell your friend he'll have to work out the problem of an extravagant wife some other way.

DEAR ABBY: Although it's been nearly a year since I COOLING OFF

LACONIA, N.H. (UPI)—Occupy Lemieux, 34, a motorcyclist from Stratford, Conn., was arrested here over the weekend while riding in his undershorts.

Lemieux explained in district court Monday that his friends stole his clothes while he was taking a dip in Lake Winnepesaukee. He was fined $35 for disorderly conduct.

Gin originally was known as Genevieve, the French word for juniper berry.

Miss Sparkman, W. D. Kendrick Say Vows In Double-Ring Nuptial Rites

GROOM — Bowman Chapel, First Methodist Church in Lubbock, was the setting for the Monday afternoon, June 2, wedding of Miss Pamela Ann Sparkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sparkman of Alexandria, Va., and William Donald Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Kendrick of Groom. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Phil Widmer.

Miss Helen Kott was maid of honor and Robert Kendrick, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Tom DeLoach, brother-in-law of the groom served as usher.

The bride wore a three-piece linen suit with mint green accessories. The jacket was loosely belted and had a portrait neckline. The skirt was styled with a modified A-line. Her brief veil fell from a double organza bow. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses atop a white satin Bible.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor. The table was draped with a lace cloth centered with an arrangement of white daisies. Miss Jane Steadman presided at the punch service and Mrs. Pat O'Brien served the wedding cake.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Technological College, where she was a member of Women's Residence Council, Pi Sigma Alpha, Phi Alpha Theta, and the Women's Service Organization. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Texas Technological College where he was a member of the American Society of Agriculture Engineers.

After a wedding trip to Red River, N.M., the couple are at home at 2222 Country Club Rd., Apt. 30, Duncan, Okla.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

In a chat with Mrs. Maggie Deal, the turmoil in the near East is brought closer to home. Her daughter, Miss Glenna Deal, is working in the Embassy in Cairo, Egypt. We have heard and read of Arabs blaming America for all their troubles, including losing the war against Israel, and storming and looting the Embassies. Miss Deal and the other Americans barely got out with their life. All workers were shipped out in a ship escorted on each side by ships of our Navy and landed safely in Athens, Greece. A harrowing experience which Miss Deal will always remember I am sure, as well as the others.

Mrs. Gladys Hollie, who is spending some time with her father, Frank Carter, went down to the farm near Mineral Wells for a few days last week. Mr. McMillan was saying good bye to his friends at the Center Thursday as he was leaving the next day to spend the summer with a daughter in Arkansas.

Lowell Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Sutton, who is working with the Government Supply over in Thailand is expected home soon. His home is in Shawnee, Okla.

New members this week are Mmes. Rosalie Wedge and E. W. Sheffield; J. L. Holt, who is visiting his daughter Mrs. John Best, was a visitor. Mr. Holt lives in Lubbock. Was good to have Mrs. Gertrude Shaw back with us. Mrs. Shaw has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jim Norton and family in Norton, Colo. The Nortons have just moved to Colorado from New Mexico.

Guests of Miss Lucy Herliach last week were her niece

FOR WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21
GENERAL TENDENCIES:
 Today's full moon brings all kinds of upsets unless you are very careful and keep any promises you have made as well as refrain from criticizing others and realizing that a tension that brings very adverse results can be built up unless you are as wise as the serpent and as harmless as the dove. Be cautious.

ARIES: (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19)
 —Try not to get into trouble with one whose ideas differ from yours but whom you need in an advisory and other capacity. Keep promises made instead of trying to wench on them. Stop changing your mind so often in romantic matters, too.

TAURUS: (Apr. 20 to May 20)
 —Instead of putting your check book down again, get busy and write out those checks that get you out of the credit red. Be more agreeable with mate also. Why argue so much when you may be in the wrong?

GEMINI: (May 21 to June 21)
 —Associates very likely feel as pugnacious as you today, so you had better be the first to cool off, act courteously. Wait for some one to invite you before going out for pleasure. Then have real fun.

MOON CHILDREN: (June 22 to July 21)
 —Don't get out of important responsibilities—they would only catch up with you later on and be far more expensive, even fairly painful. Don't put but get busy yourself. One you love is having difficulties; be of real assistance.

VIRGO: (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)
 —concentrate upon how to get rid of some problem at home that is causing much dissension and you instantly have real harmony again. Uptrend in business is delayed until you clear up some outside problem. Do so with alacrity.

LIBRA: (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22)
 —Very important you drive, walk carefully today, otherwise you can get into serious trouble. Analyze certain factors in your business if you want to operate more successfully. Be thorough.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)
 —Don't feel that money will buy you out of anything. Find a less expensive and more ethical way to solve your problems. Show that you have principle. Assist others to gain their practical aims.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)
 —There is no better time than now to get your most personal matters attended to but don't begrudge yourself the time spent on them. Postpone social affairs for now. Be better prepared for same.

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)
 —Get rid of that feeling of being limited and restricted by getting busy with small tasks ahead of you. Be more direct with others. Then you find you get back on the beam and increase happiness.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)
 —Avoid those pals who can be quite irritating now and get busy on whatever is practical tactfully. A little wit and humor can do much to rid yourself of tensions, irritations. Be cheerful.

PISCES: (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)
 —Much care must be taken in business activities or you can jeopardize backing from influential persons. Be of assistance in that civic matter. You are very acute right now and can do much.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he, or she, will be a blunt young person who has to be taught early to be more diplomatic, kindly toward others, and while the honesty in this nature must not be lost, it has to be tempered with understanding. Also teach that to keep silent is sometimes the greatest form of honesty. Trouble-shooting professions best here.

Parsons Now Marine Officer

Marine Reserve Second Lieutenant Gary A. Parson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parson of 1801 Zimmer, graduated from the U. S. Marine Corps Basic School in Quantico, Va., during ceremonies held at Little Hall. The ceremonies climaxed 21 weeks of intensive training in tactics, leadership techniques, first aid, map reading, personnel administration and communications.

He is among 231 Marine officers now awaiting orders to duty stations throughout the Marine Corps.

LONDON (UPI)—A British newspaper has published a suggestion from one of its readers that the United Nations, when considering demands on Israel, should also call on Russia to set an example by returning to its pre-war frontiers.

The call has struck a chord in the memories of diplomats who have not forgotten the vast territorial gains made by Russia after World War II, both at the expense of its enemies and friends.

The Soviet Union incorporated in its borders an area of more than 180,000 square miles with a population of nearly 24 million between 1940 and 1945.

NATO's authoritative publications, listing the details of these conquests, show that Russia has taken not only most of East Prussia from pre-war Germany, but that it also has incorporated almost half of pre-war Poland into the U.S.S.R. It also has taken Rumanian and Finnish territory plus the three Baltic republics of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

Millions of people have been either forcefully taken over by Russia in this process or have been expelled, or to use a courtesy title, "exchanged" or allowed to go.

Gone are the Germans from East Prussia. The Poles in former eastern Poland—taken over by Russia to straighten out its strategic frontier—have been resettled in former German territory, which has been taken by Poland.

The territories of east Poland annexed by Russia amount to nearly 70,000 square miles with a population of nearly 12 million people, according to the NATO yearbook.

The former German areas, now taken over by Poland once had a population of over 6 million. Most of them have gone.

All this happened not centuries ago, but little over 20 years ago.

BOB PRICE

WASHINGTON (Sp) — The futility of the U. S. "soft line" toward communist-bloc nations was dramatically emphasized by recent events in the Middle East. Years of diplomacy and billions of dollars in foreign assistance efforts apparently went down the drain with the rapid collapse of Nasser's United Arab Republic, although the U.S. carefully avoided any direct participation or involvement.

The Soviet Union is well aware, too, that neither the U.S. nor Great Britain had anything to do with Israel's lightning attack on Arab airfields. Our aircraft carriers were hundreds of miles from the area and under close surveillance of Soviet ships.

But the Russians will, as usual, accuse us along with the Israelis of aggression during the crisis session of the General Assembly of the United Nations. And already Libya has demanded liquidation of our Air Force Base which represents a $72 million investment. Yugoslavia, who we have so generously aided and India who demands that we feed their starving millions say they "share identical views" on the Middle East and charge that the United States and Britain are solely to blame for the crisis there.

Furthermore, we can expect little relief from continuing world tensions from the UN debate of the crisis. The Soviets will attempt to salvage what world prestige they can from the Arab disaster they were so instrumental in provoking. So let us hope that our response will be firm and that we will counter the communist propaganda barrage with an insistence that the blame be placed where it belongs as far as aggression is concerned.

The Israelis obviously had little choice but to attack if they were to survive the combined threats of an overwhelmingly superior force by which they were surrounded and whose intent to annihilate them had been made perfectly clear. A man with a cocked gun pointed at him has little choice but to fight for his life.

After the UN "peace-keeping" force had been hurriedly withdrawn at the insistence of Nasser it was obvious that the UN could do nothing to prevent the armed conflict that was inevitable.

For the past six years and particularly under the present Administration, the U.S. has extended extensive aid to the United Arab Republic and some of it after Nasser had told us to take our foreign aid and "go jump in the lake."

This included:

More than $900 million in food-for-peace aid.

More than $25 million in commercial guarantees for the United Arab Republic.

More than $63 million in letters of credit for commodity shipment between June 1966 and January 1967.

Additional millions of dollars worth of military and commodity aid to other Arab nations.

Other commercial guarantees by the Export-Import bank include:

Iraq $14.0 million
Jordan 2.6 million
Lebanon 4.6 million
Saudi Arabia ... 8.9 million
Sudan 3.2 million
Syria 3.4 million

The House added a Republican amendment to the Foreign Assistance Act of 1966 which required the President to report to the Congress within 30 days of his finding that aid to the United States and that such aid would neither directly nor indirectly assist in aggressive acts by the United Arab Republic. But since that time over $1 million in technical assistance foreign aid has been extended to the United Arab Republic—but no public report or announcement has been sent by the President to either the House or the Senate.

It should be obvious by now, even to those who insist that we keep pushing our aid on those who are aligned with the communist bloc that the Russians have not changed their policy of agitation in the world and especially in a crisis such as this which we leaned over backward to avoid.

So while we furnished the Egyptians food and other assistance, the Russians armed them and egged them on until an over-confident Nasser pushed the United Arab nations over the brink of disaster. The Russians quickly changed their tune when Arab resistance collapsed and called for a cease fire to prevent total collapse of the Arab nations and asked the UN to end a war it had been powerless to prevent.

Let us hope now we will stand firm in the face of Soviet face-saving efforts and possibly by so doing convince the Russians and the world that any true and meaningful peace in the world will come only when they change their policy of stirring up trouble between other nations and add their efforts to ours in making the UN a real peace-keeping body of nations.

SKELLYTOWN — Story hour for Skellytown Branch Library began at 9:30 a.m. today at the IOOF Hall. Stories were "The Case of the Hungry Stranger" by Crosby Bonsall and "John Henry the Steel-Driven Man" by Adele deLeeuw.

About 80 children are registered in the summer reading program, Mrs. Clifford Colman, librarian said.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

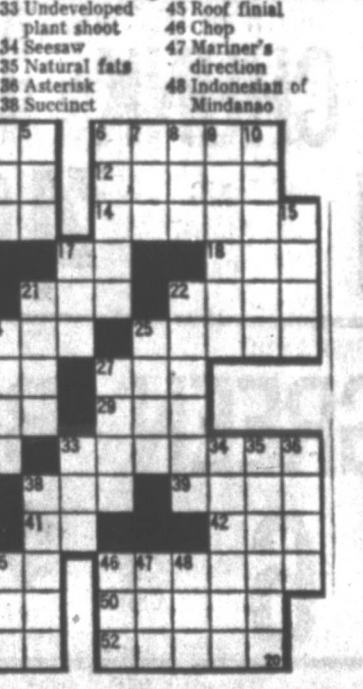

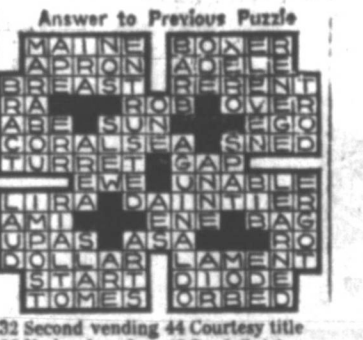

The term "Mach 1" designates the speed of an airplane flying at the speed of sound. When flying twice the speed of sound, the term "Mach 2" is used. The prefix Mach comes from the name of Ernst Mach, a Czech-born German physicist, who contributed to the study of sound, says The World Almanac. The speed of sound is usually placed at 1,088 feet per second at sea level at 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Indians May Be Pulling Biggest Trick Of All

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer
Joe Adcock has learned how to pull a rabbit out of a hat but his Cleveland Indians may be pulling an even bigger trick on the entire American League.

The Indians, never figured as a contender this season, surreptitiously crept into a tie for third place in the American League standings Monday night from the Kansas City Athletics.

Adcock's moves worked perfectly in both games as the Indians chalked up 2-1 and 4-3 triumphs to move into a tie with Minnesota, six games behind the league-leading but idle Chicago White Sox and just 2½ behind second place Detroit.

Adcock, who had run into problems handling his players in his first season as manager, laughed after the sweep, "when you reach into a hat and pick out a rabbit, you're doing all right."

Pitcher Homers
In the first game with two out in the ninth inning and one on, Adcock let his pitcher, Steve Hargan, bat with the score tied 2-2. Hargan promptly slammed his first major league homer to win his own game.

In the second game with the Indians trailing 1-0, Adcock didn't let his pitcher, Sonny Siebert, lead off the eighth inning. He sent Don Demeter up to pinch-hit and Demeter homered to tie the game. Fred Whitfield singled in Lou Mays pater in the inning to decide the contest.

The Indians have now won seven of their last 11 games to move above the .500 record with a 32-31 record and Adcock thinks the Indians are in the race.

Hargan boosted his record to 8-6 in the first game by pitching a four-hitter and slugging the homer that beat Chuck Dobson.

In the second game, Sonny Siebert allowed six hits in eight innings to gain the victory that evened his record at 6-6 and Bob Allen finished up in the ninth.

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore split with Minnesota, losing the first game 4-0 and winning the second, 9-5. Detroit split with California, losing the first contest 2-0 and winning the second 5-1 and the Boston-New York game was postponed by rain.

Cards Edge Astros
In the National League, San Francisco edged Cincinnati 6-3. Pittsburgh topped Chicago 4-3. St. Louis nipped Houston 5-4 in 11 innings and Los Angeles topped Atlanta 3-2.

Denny McLain pitched a four-hitter to boost his record to 8-7 and give Detroit the victory over California in the second game. It was only the third victory in the last 13 games for the slumping Tigers. In the first game, Rick Reichardt hit a two-run homer in the eighth inning to give Clyde Wright his second straight victory this season AA-both over the Tigers. Minnie Rojas relieved Wright in the eighth and nailed down the victory. Mickey Lolich lost the opener, his ninth loss of the season and seventh straight.

Dave Boswell pitched a three-hitter in the opener to give Minnesota the triumph over Baltimore but Paul Blair led the hitting attack that handed Baltimore the second game.

Tony Oliva hit a two-run homer in the sixth off Tom Phoebus to give Boswell all the help he needed in the opener. Blair collected two singles, a double and a triple and scored three runs to pace the Orioles triumph in the nightcap. The Orioles-shelled loser Jim Grant and four other Twin pitchers for a rout. Wally Bunker pitched the first five innings for the Orioles to get the win and Bill Dillman hurled the final four.

Among those seeking to unseat Houston, which has won the team title nine of the last 11 years, was Brigham Young, Louisiana State, Florida, Oklahoma State, Southern California and Wake Forest. San Jose State, runner-up last year, also was rated an outside chance.

There was the belief in some quarters that because of his relative youth and inexperience, Williams might have to take a lot of back talk from some of his minnows. Some even thought poor Williams would throw up his hands in surrender by July.

"Ridiculous," he says. "I've had, to disciplinary problem whatsoever. My players and I see eye to eye and the front office lets me run things the way I like. I haven't had one bit of interference from Mr. (Tom) Yawky, Mr. (Dick) O'Connell or Mr. (Heywood) Sullivan. Each one has been completely cooperative. Each has been great."

Williams comes up with a quick answer anytime anyone asks him which one particular player has been most responsible for the Red Sox success.

"All 25," he replies.

Pressed, though, he does say Carl Yastrzemski and Rico Petrocelli have been outstanding and that big Jim Lonborg has pitched extraordinarily well.

"I'm proud of my whole pitching staff," says Williams. "It was supposed to have been poor; I think it's been great."

Williams makes no claims about how high the Red Sox will finish.

"I think we'll win more than we lose," he insists. "And when we do that, we'll let nature take its course about where we finish."

There isn't any doubt at all about the way Williams feels about his job.

"I love every minute of it," he says.

"You can tell that by looking at him."

Shawnee - On - Delaware, Pa. (UPI) - The East meets the today in a tune-up match for the 70th annual NCAA golf championship on his resort course in the Pocono Mountains of northeast Pennsylvania.

The actual 72-hole tournament, the nation's oldest golf tourney, gets underway Wednesday with a record field of 250 collegians representing 72 universities tee off on the 7,000-yard par-72 course at Shawnee Inn.

The major intercollegiate golf championship features competition for team and individual honor with Houston University, perennial collegiate golf powerhouse, and the defending champion, heavily favored to take the school title.

The team title will be decided Thursday after 36 holes of stroke play while the individual 72-hole winner will be crowned on Saturday. The huge field will be cut to the low 60 scores and ties on Thursday.

Today's East-West match will put a number of two-man teams from each sector against each other in best-ball play. The West squad, which features John Miller of Brigham Young University and Kemp Richardson of Southern California, was ruled a slight favorite over the East, paced by B. R. McLendon of Louisiana State and Jack Lewis Jr. of Wake Forest, the only Walker Cup player in the tourney.

Among those seeking to unseat Houston, which has won the team title nine of the last 11 years, was Brigham Young, Louisiana State, Florida, Oklahoma State, Southern California and Wake Forest. San Jose State, runner-up last year, also was rated an outside chance.

Extra Inning Win
Roger Maris doubled home Tim McCarver with the winning run in the 11th as the Cardinals boosted their lead over second place Cincinnati to one-half game. McCarver singled off Houston reliever Barry Latson with one out and came all the way around to score on Maris' drive to right-center.

Dick Schofield, a seldom used utility player, singled home Jim Lefebvre with one out in the ninth inning to pace the Dodgers to their third straight victory.

Schofield, who also homered in the contest, got his game-winning hit off reliever Dick Kelley after the Atlanta southpaw had walked Lefebvre and pinch-hitter Jim Hickman.

Willie Mays and Jim Hart homered off rookie sensation Gary Nolan to power the Giants to victory over the slumping Reds in the only afternoon game.

Mays' ninth homer of the year came with a man aboard and put the Giants ahead 4-1 in the third inning and Hart's 10th of the season sent the 19-year-old Nolan to the showers in the same inning.

In other National League games Monday, St. Louis edged Houston 5-4 in 11 innings. Los Angeles nipped Atlanta 3-2 and San Francisco topped Cincinnati 6-3.

Cleveland swept a two-night doubleheader from Kansas City 4-2 and 2-1. Minnesota blanked Baltimore 40 before losing 9-5 and California shut out Detroit 2-0 then lost 5-1 in American League games.

Alou's third single of the game scored the deciding run in the seventh inning as the Pirates won their third straight. Southpaw Bob Veale received credit for his eighth victory in 10 decisions while Ferguson Jenkins suffered his fifth loss in 13 decisions.

Red Sox' Boss Never Satisfied

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI)—Give some guys an inch and before you know it they want a whole acre.

Dick Williams is a guy like that and that's only one reason he's such a good manager. He's never satisfied.

The Red Sox avoided finishing 10th last year by a mere half game and only because wasn't possible for them to be any worse than the Yankees.

Williams, with no previous major league managerial experience whatsoever, was brought in for this year and generally was looked upon as a lamb being led to the slaughter.

Nobody could ever budge 'em up in Boston, people said. Too many prima donnas. Too many players doing what they liked. Why it was more like a country club than a ball club.

Williams knew exactly what he was getting into, but he welcomed the chance. Now here the season is approaching the half-way mark and the Red Sox are up there in the first division where many feel they have no right to be.

Still Not Satisfied
They're playing .500 ball which is something no one ever really expected of them, but Williams isn't satisfied.

"Damn right I'm not," says the freshman, 36-year-old Boston boss, who gets the personal vote here as the American League manager of the year up to this point. "Maybe some people are surprised we've done this well but I'm not. If anything, I'm a little disappointed."

Why?
"Well, because we're still missing on some fundamentals. Don't get me wrong, we're much better on them than last year, but you can always get better. We just lost three out of four to Washington because we left runners on third base with less than two out and because we failed to bunt."

"A little thing like the bunt can kill you," Williams went on. "We're doing okay on most of the other fundamentals, but we haven't been bunting well or sacrificing. I'm trying to get it across to my pitchers that they can help themselves and stay in there longer simply by being able to lay down a bunt."

For the most part, however, Williams is happy with the overall performance of his Red Sox.

"My biggest problem was getting the club to play as a team, not as 25 individuals," he says. "We're doing that now. We're more aggressive; we're doing more running, more stealing and more squeezing. We're not sitting back and playing Fenway Park ball; we're playing baseball."

It shows.
There was the belief in some quarters that because of his relative youth and inexperience, Williams might have to take a lot of back talk from some of his minnows. Some even thought poor Williams would throw up his hands in surrender by July.

Williams comes up with a quick answer anytime anyone asks him which one particular player has been most responsible for the Red Sox success.

"All 25," he replies.

Pressed, though, he does say Carl Yastrzemski and Rico Petrocelli have been outstanding and that big Jim Lonborg has pitched extraordinarily well.

"I'm proud of my whole pitching staff," says Williams. "It was supposed to have been poor; I think it's been great."

Williams makes no claims about how high the Red Sox will finish.

"I think we'll win more than we lose," he insists. "And when we do that, we'll let nature take its course about where we finish."

There isn't any doubt at all about the way Williams feels about his job.

"I love every minute of it," he says.

"You can tell that by looking at him."

Testimony Begins In Clay Vs. The Army

HOUSTON (UPI)—Testimony operator, a housewife, a department manager for Nieman-Marcus and a Sinclair Oil Co. employe.

There were no Negroes on the jury although 11 Negroes were included in the panel of 80 for Clay's trial.

Jury selection was completed Monday in Clay's trial for refusing induction on the grounds he is a Black Muslim minister.

"Terrell was much easier," Clay said, comparing his court struggle with his title bout with the former World Boxing Association champion.

Quick Jury Seating
The selection of the six men and six women jury took less than two and a half hours, although the start of the selection process was delayed more than five hours Monday.

The Clay jury includes a deacon in the Disciples of Christ Church and a dean in the Lutheran Church. Both replied to questioning they would give Clay as fair a trial as they would give members of their own church.

The jury includes a banker, a personnel representative for a chemical company, an inspector for Hughes Tool Co., an Armaco Steel employe, a cashier at Armaco, an employe relations man for Humble Oil and Refinery Co., a switch board

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Rural Urban Balance?

The professional planners who seem to think they know more about how people should live than the people themselves know, are worrying about the "rural-urban balance."

Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman whose farm program seems to please neither city dweller nor the farmer, had this comment recently: a policy of rural urban balance is desperately needed if this nation is to fulfill the American dream of opportunity for each man to develop his talents to the fullest possible degree, to achieve personal excellence.

Freeman seems to fear that Americans will continue to jam into "super cities," which the planners have been referring to as a trend toward megalopolis, strip cities or something else.

Freeman proposes to spread the cities across the land, achieving less concentrated population and industrial growth and thereby bringing the country to the people and jobs to the country. He says such a policy would solve problems of smog, "ghettos," shortages of "essential services" in rural areas, services which some regard as inadequate in mushrooming urban areas, and of course, not enough natural beauty for all.

Since people thus far have been moving from place to place voluntarily, there apparently is only one way to solve it. The politicians will tell the people where they must live and work. That's the only way they will get people to live as the all-wise planners think they should.

Incidentally, as we read Mr. Freeman's comments, we thought they sounded familiar. So we looked at a publication of 1848. It suggested in part:

"Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries gradual abolition of the distinction between town and country, by a more equitable distribution of the population over the country."

The authors were Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. The statement is the Ninth Plank of the Communist Manifesto. Regional planners, please note.

You Know What I Think? Well . . .

This flap-eared fellow who makes mini-public opinion polls by listening to what people are saying to each other in public places has come in with another report.

Here's what he overhears: —There is no credibility gap between income taxpayers and these know-it-all computers the Internal Revenue Service is using. The form-filler outers believe what they have read — that the computers can spot a leaky report like unceanny. Result: Never have so many been so careful about so much.

—Junk mail is getting to be a bigger nuisance every day. Why not cool it by heating up the mailing cost?

—Has anyone ever planned down these student stirrer-uppers on just exactly what it is they want to make them happy?

—That, says our snoopy surveyor, is what the people he overhears are saying to each other. Could one of them have been you?

ME Pragmatic?

One of the inmost IN words right now is "pragmatic."

So someone says that Mr. Smith is pragmatic, and someone else nods understandingly. But what is the speaker actually saying?

That Smith is involved in affairs of community or state? That he is officious and opinionated? That he is practical and matter-of-fact? Or that he's just a plain old busybody?

Time to Be Objective

Following the news from the Middle East, in a crisis that exploded into warfare and still sizzles, calls for a special knock. Readers must be wary of being swept away by reports of attacks from one side or the other, downing of scores of planes and sensational break-throughs.

We read that one of the latest plans of the poverty warriors is included in a grant of $200,000 to teach the Zuni Indians of New Mexico how to convert their present jewelry handcraft to automation.

portunity estimated that there would be a market of $150,000 a year for the new mass produced trinkets. An informant tells us the OEO bureaucrats overlooked the fact that current annual sales of the beautifully hand-made products total $2,000,000.

Smith can, in fact, be any of those if he is really pragmatic. The dictionary says so.

So unless the precise intent of the word is made clear, or the speaker doesn't mind a punch in the nose, it might be more pragmatic for him to come right out and say that Smith is practical — if that's what he means, and he usually does.

Valachi Testimony Was High Priced, Over Publicized 'Bomb,' Rooney States; reports Stoolie Back in Federal Prison

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department's most highly publicized stoolpigeon has laid a costly egg.

For more than three years, Cosa Nostra Defector Joseph Valachi has talked a lot but said very little.

Although the government has lavishly spent more than $100,000 for his security and comfort, the convicted hoodlum has furnished federal prosecutors no information about the crime syndicate not already known to the FBI.

In fact, not a single prosecution has resulted from Valachi's three years of "talking" despite those published reports of his "sensational revelations" on the hidden operations of organized crime.

These are the highly critical findings of Rep. John J. Rooney, D-N. Y., chairman of a House Appropriations subcommittee which has been studying the Justice Department's velvet-glove handling of Valachi.

In a report prepared for Congress, Rooney also reveals that even Justice Department officials have finally become disenchanted with Valachi and the information he has been giving them.

After coddling the convicted criminal with TV and other special privileges in a private cell at the District of Columbia jail, Rooney reports, the Justice Department has quietly returned Valachi to federal prison in Milan, Mich.

This silent treatment was in sharp contrast to the big publicity build-up arranged for Valachi when then Attorney General Robert Kennedy brought him here late in 1963 to tell his story.

At the time, Kennedy pushed Valachi into the spotlight for the specific purpose of creating an atmosphere favorable to congressional passage of his request for wiretap legislation — a proposal he has since abandoned.

THE FINAL NOTE — In revealing the ending of the Justice Department's "VIP" treatment of Valachi, Rooney reported: "I am happy to advise that Mr. Valachi, that stoolpigeon who did not, with all the talk and publicity engendered by officials, assist in the successful prosecution of one criminal, is no longer in the D.C. jail. Mr. Valachi is back as a member of the population of the federal prison in Milan, Mich."

"Nothing developed from that nonsense, and they had him down here in the District jail with extra guards for more than three years. The additional cost to the government was $30,000 a year."

"The Justice Department is now opposing his lawsuit to publish a book which includes a lot of names which have already been mentioned and which belong to one particular race that has been maligned too often by too many people."

In testimony before a closed door session of Rooney's subcommittee, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover has concurred in these findings on Valachi's uselessness to federal authorities. Under questioning by Rooney, Hoover confirmed that the FBI obtained no new evidence from Valachi, but the FBI chief cautioned that the Cosa Nostra danger should not be underestimated.

In his own report to the legislators on the crime syndicate, Hoover stressed that the Cosa Nostra or Mafia is the largest organization of the criminal underworld, with a national membership exceeding 5,000, with more than 2,000 members of the syndicate in New York.

For several years prior to Valachi's defection, Hoover pointed out, the FBI had gathered massive information on the Cosa Nostra's intrusion into legitimate business operations.

He said latest estimates were that there are "some two dozen" individual Cosa Nostra families that control or have large business investments.

EMERGENCY FOOD PLANS — The continuing Middle East crisis is causing President Johnson to take another look at those portions of his farm program designed to curb food production.

They may be sharply modified or eliminated entirely.

For that purpose, the President has asked Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman to carefully review restrictions on acreage of grain crops, including wheat. These studies are to be submitted to the President as quickly as possible.

This precautionary move was strongly urged by Vice President Hubert Humphrey, who kept close contact by phone with the President while convalescing from his recent operation.

Humphrey reported he had ascertained that many of the Middle East countries have less than 30-day reserve supply of food.

"Our food surplus is one of our greatest cold war weapons," Humphrey told the President. "I suggest that your top advisers formulate an overall plan on how best to use our remaining surplus food to combat communism throughout the Middle East, particularly in helping refugees in the area."

The President agreed to do this.

MIDDLE EAST FALLOUT — Big remaining mystery of the Israeli-Egyptian fighting is: Why did the Egyptians never fire and Israel never bomb the 300 ground-to-ground rockets in Nasser's possession? U.S. intelligence authorities believe the action would have brought intense air retaliation against the offenders' homeland, the contingency both feared. The Kremlin is still delaying announcement of its latest five-year plan covering 1967-1971. Only a one-year plan for 1967 has so far been published. U. S. diplomatic sources in Moscow report that Soviet party leaders don't want to commit themselves to a final five-year plan until they know more about the probable course of the Vietnam war and the crisis in the Middle East.

Pull Up A Chair

Every vocal group from Mitch Miller's songsters to the barber shop quartet in your home town include "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now" in their repertoire. After nearly 60 years it remains one of America's greatest song hits. It is generally believed that Joe Howard, who introduced the song in 1909, was the sole composer, but when a movie company planned a film about the entertainer's life and good times the truth came out. Harold Orlow, himself a movie producer, went to court and proved that he had written the song when employed by Howard as an accompanist, arranger. Orlow could have gained heavy damages because millions of copies of the song had been sold, but he said he didn't want any money. He only wanted credit for being the author of a hit song.

Today's smile: Two youngsters were playing and a small girl with blue eyes and blonde curls walked by. One said to the other: "When I'm old enough to stop hating girls, she's the one I will stop hating first."

If Cassius Clay is forced to relinquish his title as heavyweight boxing champion we wonder how he will be listed in record books of the future. Only Gene Tunney and Rocky Marciano retired voluntarily as undefeated champions. And both were credits to the sport. . . . And, the name Cassius Clay recalls to us that another by that name distinguished himself in U.S. history. He was the U. S. ambassador to Russia 100 years ago and did much to help this country in the purchase of Alaska. Since both were natives of Kentucky it's likely that the present bearer of that name was named after the earlier one.

You frequently hear the term "community property" in connection with California law. Editor. We as high school students would like an opportunity to express our views about the present situation in our city. The situation we are referring to is the complete integration of the school system including the faculty and elementary school children. Even more than this we are concerned about the HEW representatives from Washington whom we feel know nothing of the situation here in Pampa. We quote this statement from the Pampa Daily News: "The HEW representatives were asked if they were visiting other school districts in the Panhandle and if the Washington office had received specific complaints regarding the local school district." To both of the questions one of the HEW representatives replied, "We are not at liberty to answer." We would now like to ask why they were not at liberty to answer. In talking with our parents, we have decided we would rather give up the federal aid than to inconvenience every citizen in Pampa and be dominated by the federal government. For instance when one of the HEW representatives was asked what would happen if the people of Pampa decided to forfeit their federal aid, he replied that they would be prosecuted by a federal judge and that they had never lost a case. We also think that this and other statements made by one of the HEW representatives were sarcastic, rude, and showed disrespect for the judgment of the citizens of Pampa and no respect for their wants and needs. We feel that in many ways our freedom is being taken away from us. Unless the HEW representatives knew the wants and needs of the Negroes in Pampa, the changes they want made could not be said to be fair to either the Negroes or Whites. We want you to understand that we are not against the Negroes. What prompted us to write this letter was the fact that we believe that the federal government is taking over everything. We feel it is time for the citizens of Pampa to wake up and realize that the HEW representatives are here only to stir up trouble in our peaceful community. Sincerely, Three High School Students (Names on File)

Question Box

(We invite questions on economics and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

QUESTION: What do you mean by "democracy of the market" and "political democracy"? What is the advantage of one over the other?

ANSWER: The word democracy is a combination of two Greek words: "demos," the people, and "kratein," to rule. Therefore democracy means rule of the people.

By "democracy of the market" we mean the condition where all people rule themselves. That is, each individual is free to make decisions affecting himself and to act upon them. Every individual rules himself. That is true rule of the people. . . . all the people.

By "political democracy" we mean the condition where decisions are made for all people according to how a majority votes. By this means, a few people rule all the people. This is not true rule of the people.

The unbeatable advantage of the democracy of the market is its complete lack of initiated coercion. Nobody is forced to buy or forced to sell. Each man buys or sells because he believes it will be profitable for him to do so. He believes he will be happier for having acquired what he bought or for having the money for what he sold.

On the other hand, in a political democracy, initiated coercion is used on those people who do not have the majority. They have to pay for what the majority thinks they should pay for whether they want to use it or not.

Every government that is based on initiated coercion eventually goes to pieces. But to the degree that the democracy of the market is used, where there is no coercion (and there couldn't be coercion and it remain democracy of the market), to that degree people prosper and endure.

In democracy of the market everybody is free to buy or not buy, to sell or not sell. Nobody needs to buy the same kind of beans or kind of fruit that any other person does, if he doesn't want to use it. Nor does he have to attend or support any certain church.

In a real political democracy, when it gets strong enough the rulers even tell you whether you can have a church or not; and if they say you are to have one, you are compelled to help support it and may be compelled to attend.

The rulers in a political democracy start out by being the majority, gradually, they become simply the politicians and bureaucrats and finally there is a dictator, a single bureaucrat who is stronger than all the others.

Yes, there's a lot of difference between the democracy of the market and a political democracy. Democracy of the market helps everybody prosper. Production goes up because there are no wars or wasted energy. In a political democracy there are wars and waste of energy and life.

TROUBLE IN PUERTO RICO

A plebiscite will be held in Puerto Rico on July 23 to set the future governmental course of that island. The people will vote on three propositions: one proposing to retain the present Commonwealth status, another to extend statehood, and a third to establish an independent nation. If the last one carries, it will have to be voted on by the U.S. Congress.

Officials of the Commonwealth have warned that several groups of communist-oriented revolutionaries are planning a terrorist campaign to disrupt the July 23 election. This is not surprising, since communists hate and fear free elections. The threatened terrorism in Puerto Rico could bring the same kind of violence that has afflicted other Latin American countries in recent months.

The Puerto Rico revolutionaries claim that they are in favor of independence for the Commonwealth. The kind of independence they would bring may be judged by the fact that they champion Fidel Castro and have a permanent representative at the Cuban headquarters of the Tri-Continental Congress. This is the organization established in January 1966 to coordinate what its founders call "wars of liberation in Asia, Africa and Latin America."

What the revolutionaries are really calling for is civil war in Puerto Rico. They may not be able to bring that about, but they could cause enough trouble to check the economic progress that has been taking place there. One of their aims is to reduce employment, thus creating discontent among the people. They are using the coming election as a focal point for their disruptive efforts.

balanced diet. In addition he should take special care to avoid becoming overweight and thus putting an extra burden on his weight-bearing joints. The other extreme — underweight — should also be avoided to prevent undue fatigue and lowered resistance.

Q—Can taking cortisone or Butazolidin for arthritis cause loss of calcium in the bones or cause the hair to fall out?

A—All drugs of the cortisone group may cause a loss of calcium unless the dosage is carefully adjusted and periods of about one week in four without the drug are observed. They are more likely to cause a growth of hair on the face than to cause you to lose any hair.

With phenylbutazone (Butazolidin) it is important to watch your blood count. It will not deplete your calcium or your hair.

Q—Would a vibrator do any good for arthritis? Would bone meal tablets help?

A—Neither remedy has given any proven benefits.

Q—Will drinking cranberry juice benefit arthritis? If not, is there any food or drink that will? Is it harmful to eat citrus fruits if you have arthritis?

A—No to all three questions. Beneficial results from vinegar, honey, cranberry juice or what have you is a bit of wishful thinking that pops up with a regularity that is amazing in view of the fact that it is groundless. A person with arthritis should, like everybody else, get a well-
