

Dear Abby

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Here is my problem: A young woman who lived across the hall from my husband and me came over for coffee. I asked my husband to go to the doughnut shop for something to go with coffee. This neighbor asked him if she could go along for the ride. (Two blocks away).

Coffee was made, and the time passed. I was going out of my mind wondering what had happened to them. If they'd had a smoochup I would have heard the ambulance.

Two hours later they came back. He had lipstick on his mouth, and her blouse was all wrinkled up. They said they had "car trouble." (They forgot the doughnuts.) She went home in a hurry, and my husband said the lipstick must have got on him when he took a few drags of her cigaret. Later he admitted they kissed a few times, but he said, "What can a guy do when a woman falls all over him?"

"Abby, I am heartsick. This happened 16 years ago, and I can't forget it. He's been a good husband, father, and grandfather. We've moved four times since then, but I'm still tormented. Do you think he was unfaithful?"

TORMENTED DEAR TORMENTED: Your husband's "unfaithfulness" probably began and ended with a few kisses and a lot of conversation. You can forget by not dwelling on it. And that shouldn't be too difficult after 16 years of good married life.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have two pre-school children, and when we need a sitter we ask our neighbor's teen-age son.

Lately we have noticed the smell of cigaret smoke in our house when we come home. We are sure this boy has been smoking without his parents' permission or knowledge.

What should we do? Should we tell his folks, or just mind our own business? We hate to see a boy of his age take up smoking and get the services of a handy sitter, which is probably what would happen if we told his folks and they cracked down on him.

CONFUSED DEAR CONFUSED: Tell the boy you've been getting his smoke signals, and unless he is permitted to smoke in his own home, you don't want him smoking in yours.

How has the world been treating you? Unload your problems on Dear Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal, unpublished reply, enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Hey! You With the Knobby Knees

By HELEN HENNESSY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK (NEA) — Ever since the miniskirt made the scene there have been more fashion-disasters than traffic can bare. There's a continuous comedy of errors on every city street.

There's nothing wrong with the short skirt in itself. What is wrong is that too many women think "short skirt" and not "total look." And too many others hike the hemline above knees as plump and dimpled as a baby's derriere.

Another offender against good taste is the gal who does not have the sense to take off her high heels when she puts on her short skirt. She looks like a member of the oldest service industry.

To wear a miniskirt successfully you must team it with mini-type underpinnings and have a mini-type figure to boot.

Designers are so serious about the unbroken line from hem to toe that many have designed their own matching hose or boots to wear with their short-coordinated pants to wear under the little skirt.

Lingerie-manufacturers offer panty hose and minislips. Yet every day one sees someone in a short skirt wearing ordinary hosiery where the stocking welt shows below her hem. Then there's the woman who dons a regular-length slip, pulls it up under her bosom, adding bulk to an already thick midriff. And when the slip slides down (and it will) there is a full inch of underpinning showing below the skirt.

WHOOFS, MY DEAR! Everything, but everything is showing.

Would you believe long-leg pantie girdles with short skirts? It happens. In the New York subways you can look across the aisle and see two or three sets of pale beige knees, topped by gleaming steel garter grips, topped in turn by an inch of white girdle and then a bright, short skirt.

There's no need to be a sheep where fashion is concerned. If you haven't got good legs and a good figure, forget the miniskirt. It doesn't make sense to point up your weak spots. Although you are wearing a new fashion, you will look pretty silly, not chic.

But if you have the figure to carry off the miniskirt, do it properly. If a slip is necessary, wear one designed for short hemlines. Otherwise wear a pair of tight garters that give you a lean, leggy look with no unbroken line between leg and hem, preferably in the color of your skirt.

The newest fashions for fall are in dark shades with stockings and shoes in the same colors. The stockings are opaque, the short hem does not break the silhouette and the look is a good one.

But if you insist on making every mistake in the fashion book by wearing last year's underpinnings with this year's clothes, for heaven's sake, don't bend over. Walk straight as a ramrod and have a gentleman along at all times to pick up anything you may drop.

If you don't, you'll have a starring role in the bad play that's going on in the fashion world today.

House Cleaning Has Been Simplified

House cleaning fever can be seen in varying degrees at almost any time of the year.

The remedy? A basement-to-attic attack on dirt. This has been greatly simplified since grandmother's day, says Jimmie Lou Waincott, Gray County Home Demonstration Agent.

Modern finishes, fabrics and a general trend toward simplicity in decor have eliminated many of the tedious tasks once associated with home cleaning.

Whether the home is a tiny apartment or a large house, there are certain aids and pieces of equipment considered essential for ease of cleaning. These include floor and furniture waxes, an all-purpose vacuum cleaner with attachments, a heavy duty detergent, window cleaning fluid, sponge and dust mops and a quantity of soft cloths.

In addition to these, there are many work-saving products and equipment, such as lightweight and portable vacuum cleaners, floor scrubbers, polishers and buffers, upholstery cleaning foams, rug shampoos and applicators, both manual and electric.

It takes approximately three hours to weave a hula skirt, the life of which is three days.

Take Lap Trays On Vacation Trip

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — Before starting on a vacation trip in the car, slide several lap trays under the seat. When you stop at snack bars or hamburger stands it will be much easier to eat that gooey sandwich or drink from a shaky paper cup and it will keep the car much cleaner.

—SRNA

Polly's Problem DEAR POLLY — On a windy day I thoughtlessly threw some grease out my back door. The grease blew back onto a window screen and I want to know if there is some way I can get the grease out of the screen.

—ARLENE

ARLENE — My right-hand helper, Betty, wonders if you tried hot soapy water and a scrubbing brush.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — If Mrs. J. W.G. will soak her creased photograph in water until thoroughly wet and then place between two blotters and press under weight until dry, the creases will disappear.

—LYN

DEAR READERS — I used white material instead of blotters and found it wise to move the photograph from damp spot to a drier one every so often and the job was soon finished.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — I had one of those large plastic clothes baskets with lattice-like sides. The lattice finally became broken in several places and the basket collapsed. I told my son to cut a two-inch lip all around the good strong bottom and now I have a rainy-day holder for wet boots.

—MRS. F. S.

DEAR POLLY — I needed some pretty paper in a hurry to wrap a small present. I sprayed both sides of a paper towel with gold paint which dried quickly and the textured pattern of the towel was very effective after being painted. Of course, silver spray could also be used and this works as well on newspaper or ordinary brown wrapping paper.

—MRS. S. O.

Astrological Forecast

By CARROL R. RIGHTER

FOR SATURDAY, AUG. 5

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Until mid-afternoon you need to be very careful that you do not get into a real head-on at least an argument — with another that can have serious repercussions in important part of your life. You also might become involved in an accident that could prove costly but by the use of care, self-control you can avoid such.

ARIES: (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Instead of being critical of what some charming person you like says or does, be gentle and you find you have better rapport. Try not to be extravagant where pleasure is concerned. Show you have good sense.

TAURUS: (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Show restraint at home as well as be devoted and show that you are a grateful person as well. Those big plans for the future do not start paying off until tonight. Just do whatever work is necessary on them.

GEMINI: (May 21 to June 21) — Although you may have something important to do, be sure you do not hurry too much and run it or have some accident in driving, walking. Keep an eye on your purse when out shopping. Do not take any chances.

MOON CHILDREN: (June 22 to July 23) — Don't fall into an investment trap that could prove much too expensive for your pocketbook. Learn to be more economical. Be practical and carry through with ideas advisors give you that are excellent.

LEO: (July 24 to Aug. 23) — Show consideration for others instead of trying to force them into doing what you want them to. Then all improves for you. Evening is fine time for any social outlet that intrigues you. Dress in fine style.

VIRGO: (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) — It may not be until later this afternoon that you rid yourself of some vexing problem. Keep working calmly during day. Be of more assistance to others as well. Show advanced attitude toward male in p.m.

LIRA: (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — You have a clever idea that can help you to gain your aims in a.m. and tonight you can step out and gain further benefits for yourself. Be sure you first know what it is you want to accomplish. Then head straight for it.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) — You have to show understanding and consideration for the other fellow during day, and then tonight you can have a care-free, happy time. Get credit improved. Be sure you pick right company for the p.m.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Avoid that individual who wants to sell you a wrong bill of goods and then you retain your fine equilibrium, right mental attitude. Await a better time before starting new ventures. Results come from trading your intuition.

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Your associate is not in a good mood during day, but tonight all changes and you get future plans nicely framed out. Get civic matters cleared up during day. Evening can be a most delightful time.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — You have a great deal to do during day, so get an early start, and then you can follow own inclinations in p.m. Be with co-worker during p.m. also, since you are apt to get in an argument earlier. Show wisdom.

Pisces: Feb. 20 to Mar. 20 — Entertainment is best relegated to the evening and day makes vital work easy for you. Sidelap an argument with loved one during day hours. This could lead to something rather drastic if you don't control your temper.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he, or she, will be one of those angle-working young ones who is apt to have a pretty sharp temper as well, so teach early to use orthodox methods and realize that a sweet word gains more benefits. However, be encouraging with your progeny since there can be much success in this chart once a mature attitude is adopted.

Playmate Is Nabbed On Prostitution

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A stunning platinum blonde, Playboy Magazine's June Playmate of the Month, goes on trial Aug. 23 on a prostitution charge, police said Thursday.

Blue-eyed Joey Gibson, 21, was arrested in a West Hollywood apartment July 12 with another woman and a man. Officers said she gave her name as Nancy Cole and said she was employed as a secretary in nearby Santa Monica, where she resides.

Miss Gibson could not be reached for comment, but friends said she denied the charges.

The June issue of Playboy listed Miss Gibson as a psychology graduate of Santa Monica City College and said she also had studied criminology. The story accompanying her nude centerfold photo said she likes to romp on the beach, enjoys playing tennis and likes Hindustani jazz and the Rolling Stones singing group.

The publication said she delights in browsing in book stores and has a taste for health foods such as carrot juice and sunflower seeds. She has one goal in mind, the magazine said—"the pursuit of intelligent pleasure."

"I am my own woman," the magazine quoted her. "I lead my life according to no social standards other than my own."

She also was quoted as stating she does not worry about tomorrow because "I'm having too much fun with my today."

A Playboy Club spokesman expressed shock at her arrest. "This is the first time, with all the playmates we've had, I've ever heard of this happening," he said.

In Chicago, Helmut Lorsch, publicity director at the magazine's headquarters, said "certainly we're surprised." But he said he "definitely" felt the arrest would not stain the girl's next-door image of the playmates. "We certainly cannot control what they do," he added.

Pampan Found Dead in Bed

A 72-year-old Pampan, Felcy L. Leonard, 701 S. Gray, was found dead in his bed late Thursday by a neighbor.

Gray County Coroner Ed Anderson ruled Leonard died from natural causes.

Pampa police received a call about 7:14 p.m. yesterday from Alfred Willis that he thought a man was dead at 701 S. Gray.

Policemen Stanley Belt and Roger Scott arrived at the scene and found Leonard dead, lying face down on his bed.

According to the officers' report, it was believed Leonard had been dead since late Wednesday.

Leonard, a retired custodian of First National Bank, moved to Pampa 28 years ago from Waco. He was a member of Waco Union Baptist Church and a veteran of WWI, serving with the U.S. Army in France.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Evelyn H. Leonard; and two sons, Leon L. Leonard and Felcy L. Leonard Jr.; a half-sister, Mrs. Hallie Watson, and two half-brothers, Doyle and Duke Hayes, all of Waco.

The body is being sent to Waco by Carmichael-Whitley Funeral Directors for funeral arrangements.

didn't have to do it." His problem, he explained, was having to "cut, tax and borrow" to finance the war and needed civilian programs.

He told Congress in his special message that without his tax measures, the federal budget deficit for the current fiscal year could top $28 billion, not counting $700 million in added interest on the public debt by then.

Even with higher taxes, he said, the fiscal 1968 deficit now is expected to range between $14 billion and $18 billion, unmatched since the all-time high of $57.4 billion in 1943, when the United States was fighting a global war. It also would exceed the "peacetime" record of $12.4 billion in 1959, toward the end of the Eisenhower administration.

Water, Inc. Names New PR Director

LUBBOCK (Sp1)—Jake Street, projects director for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce since December 1966, has been named public relations director for Water, Inc. in Lubbock.

Water, Inc. is a newly formed organization which will devote its efforts to obtaining additional water for West Texas. Several plans have been submitted to achieve this goal, but definite plans for moving water from areas with more water have not been finalized. Main offices are maintained in Lubbock.

Street is a graduate in Business Administration from East Texas State and served as chamber of commerce manager in Hamilton and Dumas before joining the WTCC staff. He has also had several years experience in the radio business before entering chamber of commerce work.

Street will assume his new position on Sept. 1.

Rain Still In Forecast

With a Canadian air mass moving slowly southward across the Panhandle today, more rain is still forecast for Pampa and vicinity tonight and tomorrow.

Scattered thundershowers are expected through tomorrow, with 30 per cent probability of showers. Pampa had received .50 inch of moisture early this morning, with intermittent rain still falling.

In the Wheeler area, 1.40 inch to 1.50 inch had fallen from a slow, gentle rain. Farmers reported that the rain was "much needed."

The rain had cooled off much of the hot weather after Pampa had a high yesterday of 94 and an overnight low of 66. Temper-

Braves On Home Run Binge

By United Press International Elston Howard can take Clete Boyer's word for it, he won't miss the pinstripes.

Boyer obviously feels he's lucky not to be a Yankee. Several hours after Howard was shocked when the New York Yankees traded him to the Boston Red Sox Thursday, Boyer slammed two of Atlanta's seven homers as the Braves crushed the Chicago Cubs, 10-3.

Boyer, traded away by the Yanks last winter in another phase of their rebuilding program, said, "the greatest thing that has ever happened to me was being traded, I think every player should get the chance to move around a bit."

Tito Francona, Torre and Boyer connected for homers in the first inning off Joe Niekro, the loser. Denis Menke homered in the second and Hank Aaron drove in the 1,500th run of his career with his 27th homer of the year off Curt Simmons in the third. After Torre doubled, Boyer hit his second homer.

Elsewhere in the abbreviated major league schedule, Boston edged Kansas City 5-3 and Detroit blanked Baltimore 5-0 in a game called in the top of the eighth inning by rain. The California-Kansas City game was rained out.

Chicago White Sox with their victories. Boston now trails Chicago by two games and Detroit by three. Mike Andrews drove in three runs with a homer and a single to pace Boston to the victory over the A's.

Denny McLain shut out Baltimore for the second time in eight days as the Tigers blanked the Orioles. McLain, boosting his record to 13-12, allowed only three singles, including two by Brooks Robinson. He never permitted a Baltimore runner past second in his seven innings of work before the game was called by rain in the top of the eighth. Detroit scored two runs in the fourth on doubles by Al Kaline and Jim Northrup and Bill Freehan's single. That was enough to pin the loss on starter Bill Dillman.

IN PAN-AM GAMES

U.S. Seeking Baseball Title

WINNIPEG, Canada (UPI)—The Yanks are hitting, the Cuban pitching staff seems tired out—and all of a sudden the United States has a surprising chance to wrap up the Pan-American games baseball championship today for the first time in history.

With five track and field finals on the Friday program, the United States has a splendid chance to shove its total of 97 gold medals over the century mark for the third time in the history of the games. All the series are big ones—but the biggest one for the U.S. athletes here is that baseball title.

TIME OUT for a short visit from two Minnesota Twins' ballplayers was taken by Vice President Humphrey, himself a Minnesotan while the Twins were in the nation's capitol to play the Senators. The players are Zollo Versalles, left, and Sandy Valdespino.

But when they opened the championship round Thursday night—the three-game "would if there was a 'sure thing' in these fifth Pan-Am games, it was supposed to be the Cuban baseball team—and that seemed surer than ever as Cuba walloped the U.S. team in two meetings in the preliminary round.

The Yanks had to grit their teeth and take it in the preliminary round—as Cuban fans snake danced in the stands, chanting "Coo-ba, Coo-ba, Coo-ba" and standing in front of the U.S. dugout after the game to yell at the U.S. players.

TASCOSA STAR SHINES Johnson Paces North

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—Little Randy Johnson of Amarillo Tascosa, playing in the shadow of a classy band of running backs, stole a page from the Southern all-star ball-control book Thursday night and rammed it right down the South's throat.

But once the second half began, it was all north. Johnson wound up completing 10 of 15 passes for 100 yards, almost all in the first half, and Hodge grabbed eight of those passes (the most ever caught by one player in the all-star game) for 85 yards.

The North used up 17 minutes of the second half and two lengthy drives but only one resulted in a touchdown. That came on a 14-yard fourth down pass from Johnson to Hodge. Dallas Woodrow Wilson's Randy Cooper kicked the game-winning extra point.

Packers Rate Solid Choice

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers and the 1967 College All Stars tangled tonight in soldier field for the 34th meeting between the pro champions and the best of the collegians, and as usual the pros were solid favorites.

The Packers, who lost two of 14 regular season games last year before downing Dallas for the National League Crown and Kansas City in the "super-bowl", were rated 14-point favorites to rack up their sixth win in the all star series.

The South, with running backs like all-state Steve Worster of Bridge City, Houston Westbury's Dave Elmendorf and Calvin Hinderman of Beeville, went into the game a favorite—figuring to control the ball with a relentless ground attack.

Sixty Pampa Little League baseball players will be presented trophies in ceremonies at 8 p.m. tonight in Optimist Club Park. The Optimist Club youngsters represent All-Star teams from the East, West, North and South leagues in Pampa.

MANAGER Bill Rigney has the California Angels challenging for the lead in the American League. The Angels had a poor start, but have been playing excellent ball of late.

Sports Briefs

LAGUNA WORKS OUT NEW YORK (UPI)—A Challenger Ismael Laguna of Panama worked six rounds with three opponents Thursday in preparation for his world lightweight championship fight against Carlos Ortiz, Aug. 16 at Shea Stadium.

Laguna sparred with Tommy Garrison, Mike Cortez and Eddie Limardo, all of New York, in the main ring at Madison Square Garden and then spent a full hour with the punching bags.

THREE SIGN

HERSHEY, Pa. (UPI)—Halfback Tim Brown, guard Bob Brown and tackle Lane Howell signed their 1967 contracts Monday with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

General Manager and coach Joe Kuharich also said that center Jim Ringo is expected to sign soon but that defensive halfback Jimmy Nettles may play out his option.

Congress Shaping Up New Social Security Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress was shaping up a $3.2 billion package of higher social security benefits today for delivery to more than 23 million Americans, possibly by Christmas. The increased benefits, approved by the House Ways and Means Committee Wednesday and sent to the House today, were a good deal smaller than those in the $4.4 billion package requested by President Johnson last January. But the bill was virtually assured of House passage unchanged since it had the unanimous support of both Republicans and Democrats on the tax-writing committee. Passage could come within two weeks.

Other than efforts to liberalize the measure, which might tie it up in lengthy debate, little difficulty was foreseen in the Senate. Ways and Means approved an across-the-board 12.5 per cent increase in benefits. Johnson had asked for a minimum 15 per cent increase. Correspondingly, the higher payroll taxes needed to pay for the increased benefits were lower than Johnson recommended. Under the proposed committee plan, the minimum $44 a month benefit payable under present law would rise to $50. The committee dropped Johnson's plan to provide $70 minimum payment immediately and a $100 minimum for people paying into Social Security for 25 years before retirement. Currently, the maximum monthly pension benefit that a single person aged 65 or older can receive is $168. This would go up to $212 under the committee's formula. The benefits proposed by the committee would be payable within 60 days after Congress enacts the bill and it is signed by the President, probably in October if all goes smoothly.

Sea Lion Lost Down Pool Drain

CHICAGO (UPI) — Lincoln Park zoo officials had hoped for a better fate for a baby sea lion lost in the big city. But Thursday the unhappy news was learned. The 7-week-old sea lion, which had disappeared last week down the drain of its swimming pool in the zoo, was found dead. The baby sea lion was found caught by a screen that separates large objects from the water at the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago's West Side treatment plant in suburban Stickney, 10 miles from the zoo. The sea lion, which weighed about 15 pounds, had barely learned to swim when it went down the drain. It had ventured into the deep end of its pool while the water was being drained, and was carried away by suction.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign Analyst

Presumably non-aligned India has been anything but non-aligned in its attitude toward the Arab-Israeli conflict. During United Nations debate on the subject, India's delegate enthusiastically endorsed every Arab and Soviet proposal which would have blamed Israel for the six-day war and would have forced Israeli forces to withdraw behind old truce lines.

The result is that Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, who retained her job after last winter's disastrous elections only by party compromise, is coming under new fire from persons high up in the ruling Congress party at home. Sharp criticism Among the critics has been Mrs. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, one-time chief Indian representative to the U.N. and former ambassador to the Soviet Union. Her criticism is the more noteworthy since she is a sister of the late Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, Mrs. Gandhi's father. So sharp has been the criticism that at one meeting of the party's executive committee Mrs. Gandhi, with a flash of her father's temper, declared she might as well not attend future meetings and threatened to take her case to the people. There is doubt she would fare any better there than within the party.

Officially, the government explanation for its all-out support of the Arabs and especially United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser is that Nasser foiled attempts by Pakistan, Jordan and Saudi Arabia to form a Moslem bloc which would be poised against India.

A second reason is that a friendly Arab world is necessary for the progress of India's political and economic relations. Therefore, the reasoning goes, it is in India's national interest to support the Arab cause. Beyond the generalities, there is a simpler explanation. Most of India's foreign policy is based upon her relations, or lack of them, with Pakistan with whom two years ago she fought a war over Kashmir which is 90 per cent Moslem. Cultivation of the Arabs has been to prevent them from lining up with Pakistan, which, like the Arabs, also is Moslem. Neutralizing the Arab states, then, is the main objective of India's "non-aligned" policy.

Accused Raider Goes Into Hiding After Release

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI) — Chris Tijerina, who turned himself in Wednesday to state officials, remained a wanted man Thursday. Tijerina, the only person accused in the June 5 courthouse raid at Tierra Amarilla who remained at large, surrendered at the Santa Rosa, N.M., court house and was released immediately in a $5,000 property bond. However, federal authorities still have a warrant out for his arrest. Tijerina, who returned to Albuquerque following his surrender, apparently went into hiding to await a Monday federal court hearing. Tijerina is the younger brother of Spanish-American land grant leader Reyes Tijerina. His friends had made arrangements for the surrender and the bombing earlier Wednesday with Dist. Judge Joe Angel. Tijerina said he had been hiding out in the mountains for the past two months. Like his brother, he denied participating in the Tierra Amarilla raid. Tijerina told a newsman he turned himself in because he was scheduled to appear in federal court on previous charges Monday. "I don't want to be in contempt of court or fail to appear so I decided I would surrender myself to Judge Angel and let him decide whether to let me go on bond," he said.

Quotes In The News

By United Press International
A SHOT OF RIOT
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—If AA can't do it, a riot can.
John W. Steinhilber, superintendent of the Milwaukee rescue mission, said today he hasn't seen a drunk in three or four days. The ban on liquor during several days of racial strife is the reason, he said.
"I feel sorry for the fellow who's shaking it out," a spokesman for Alcoholics Anonymous said. "He's got enough fears without being afraid he'll get shot walking down the street looking for a drink."
MOON LIGHTING
KIRKISH, Ireland (UPI)—Farmer William Nethery found out why Archie, the bull, hadn't been looking so perky of late and moved his 2-year-old Hereford to a field where he could be kept under surveillance.
Nethery also put an ad in a local newspaper warning farmers they had better stop sneaking their cows in to mate with Archie to avoid paying for Archie's services.

THE IRRESPECTIVE SEX
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—City Health Director Ellis Sox clamped down on the bearded and long-haired hippie set Thursday during a hearing on sanitary conditions at restaurants in the Haight-Ashbury district.
He said a current law requiring women to wear hair nets who preparing food would be enforced "irrespective to the sex of the individual."
REMAINS A MYSTERY
NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (UPI)—Detectives sorted the bones to try to determine who they belonged to, and it looked as if they had something big on their hands. A bag containing the bones was brought to police Thursday by a resident who said they had been found in a car.
Sgt. John Savonis theorized the bones appeared to belong to "something big, like a dinosaur," possibly 90 feet long. As an afterthought, however, he suggested they might be the remains of a cow.
