By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal government plans to swing the weight of its multi-billion-dollar farm price support program next year behind a drive to enforce perhaps the strictest crop controls ever.

Flood Control Discussion Set Here Wednesday

Representatives from the city and county governments, the state highway department, and the T&P Railroad are scheduled to meet tomorrow to discuss a flood control program for Big Spring.

The meeting is slated for 10 a. m., and City Manager H. W. Whitney stated that it will last possibly all day. The sessions will be held at City Hall.

An invitation to attend the meeting has been sent to the area office of the U. S. Corps of Engineers and also to Freese & Nichols, consulting engineer firm which made a flood control survey here more than a decade ago.

Decision to call the flood control and drainage conference came several weeks ago. On two occasions this spring, heavy rains in and west of Big Spring caused inundation of an area of several blocks in the western part of the city.

Much of the flooding was due to heavy runoff from the Elbow Creek and Sulphur Draw watersheds, both of which drain through Big Spring along the T&P Railway right-of-way.

A master plan for control of drainage, prepared by Freese & Nichols, includes a diversion levee eastward from Highway 87 north of Big Spring, and retention dams to slow the Elbow Creek and Sulphur Draw runoff.

Wednesday talks also will be concerned with the cleaning of the drainage channel through Big Spring, to facilitate faster run-off.

Red China Chief Leaves Geneva, Will Meet Nehru

GENEVA (AP)—Red China's Chou En-lai—last of the big-name figures still at the Far Eastern conference—prepared today to quit Geneva and leave the parley mainly to the French and the warring Indo-Chinese factions.

Reports from New Delhi said Chou will stop off in the Indian capital en route home for a hand-to-hand meeting with Prime Minister Nehru. The Indo-China peace problem was expected to loom large in their talks.

Indian sources said Chou and his party were scheduled to leave Geneva Wednesday morning, arriving in New Delhi on Thursday.

TO WILD APPLAUSE

Shivers Attacks Labor Leaders At Lufkin Rally

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff
Gov. Allan Shivers, called a "trooper to the Democratic Party" at a Corpus Christi labor convention, received wild applause when he criticized labor leaders to open his formal campaign for re-election.

Shivers, at an old-fashioned political rally in Lufkin Monday night, accused Ralph Yarborough, his principal opponent, of being the hand-picked candidate of the CIO's Political Action Committee and said:

"The CIO wants to get rid of Allan Shivers! Why? Because I am in their way. They want to substitute a man in the governor's office who will do their bidding. They have their candidate in this race, and they are backing him to the hilt—with poisonous propaganda, with paid workers, and with more outside money than has ever before been spent in a political race in Texas."

As Shivers got his campaign under full steam, young Dudley T. Dougherty, rancher-silviculturist-politician, began the month-long dash he hoped would put him on the U. S. Senate.

Dougherty scheduled a 37-station radio broadcast Tuesday night originating in San Antonio in which he said no punches would be pulled.

Churchill Is Quizzed On Visit To U.S.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill declared today Britain does not propose to lose any opportunity of improving relations with Russia "but this must be more than a one-way affair."

He made the statement in reply to a questioner just two days before he flies to Washington for a conference with President Eisenhower.

Churchill said plans for his meeting with Eisenhower were under way before the Geneva conference on Korea and Indochina had bogged down.

Laborite William N. Warbey asked the Prime Minister: "Mr. Dulles (U. S. secretary of state) appears to have misunderstood the purpose of this visit and will the Prime Minister make it clear that he is not going because he regards the Geneva conference as a failure?"

Churchill replied: "The proposals to go to Washington were made on April 20 before the conference had hardly assembled."

Churchill pointed out there would be no fixed agenda at the Washington conference "but I hope we can have an exchange of views on all subjects of major current importance."

The Churchill government faces a full dress foreign affairs debate in the House tomorrow. Churchill and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden are scheduled to fly to Washington Thursday night.

Churchill is now ready to commit Britain to join the proposed Southeast Asian defense alliance against communism after the Geneva conference ends, an authoritative source said today.

Churchill's Cabinet, which met this morning, was understood to have approved such a commitment during Churchill's conferences in Washington this coming weekend with President Eisenhower.

Thus far the British have agreed merely to examine the desirability of setting up the contemplated Southeast Asian Treaty Organization, a military alliance linking the West with non-Communist countries in Asia.

That agreement was reached when U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles conferred here in April with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

The Foreign Office declined comment on the report the commitment will be extended.

Jury Being Picked In Murder Case

LORDSBURG, N. M. (AP)—A jury was to be completed today in the trial of Marvin Vaughan, 33, of West Virginia, charged with murder in the Feb. 13 shooting of an unemployed Arizona lumberjack.

Nine members of the district court jury had been picked when court recessed last night. Another panel of 12 potential jurors was named from which the other three were to be selected.

Monahans Man Seriously Hurt In Crash Here

A. B. Bruce, deputy sheriff at Monahans, apparently received serious injuries this morning as a result of an automobile accident on West Highway 80 on the outskirts of the city.

He was admitted to emergency surgery immediately on arrival at Malone & Hogan Hospital. Doctors could not be contacted this morning concerning his condition, but they called for "five or six pints" of blood for emergency transfusion.

Attendees said he suffered from shock and was semi-conscious. Extent of internal injuries was not known immediately.

Bruce was driver of a 1954 Ford headed east on the highway. His car was in collision with a truck cab operated by Ralph Wayne Davis, 1410 Mesa, who was headed west.

Highway Patrolman Jimmie Parks said the two vehicles sideswiped one another, and that Bruce's car rolled several times as a result. Davis was seriously damaged, and Davis was uninjured.

Gene Overby, whom Bruce was bringing to Big Spring to give blood to a hospital patient, apparently escaped serious injury. He was given first aid treatment at the hospital this morning.

Overby was the only other occupant of Bruce's car. Davis had no passengers.

The collision occurred about 10:30 a. m. Patrolman Parks said Davis tried to stop his truck behind another car which had stopped in front of him. The truck swerved, colliding with Bruce's Ford, Parks stated.

Aug. 1 Target Set For Verdict On Schine Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—The senatorial "jury" in the McCarthy-Army hearings agreed today to try for a verdict—or verdicts—by Aug. 1.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), announced after a meeting of the hearings subcommittee that there was "a general recognition" that unless findings are reached within a week after Congress adjourns, it may be impossible to reach them until after the November election.

Mundt said the subcommittee had unanimously assigned Ray H. Jenkins, its special counsel, and Charles Manser, his aide, to draft "a balance sheet of testimony" to guide the subcommittee in writing the report.

The "balance sheet," Mundt explained, will list "salient points of controversy" between Sen. McCarthy and Army officials, the "pro and con" points made in the testimony, and have an index showing where the pertinent evidence is to be found in the two million word hearing record.

Mundt said Jenkins estimated he could complete the synopsis in three or four weeks.

The senator told a news conference that the subcommittee also agreed to consider at a later meeting:

1. Whether a demand by H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary for fuller vindication than he feels the subcommittee has given him, merits special consideration in writing the official report or verdict.

2. To ask the Defense Department why it has withheld for more than a year requested security clearance for two members of the regular staff of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee which McCarthy heads.

TV Commentator Discovered Dead

NEW YORK (AP)—CBS TV commentator Don Hollenbeck was found dead of a heart attack in his Manhattan apartment today and police said it apparently was a case of suicide.

Hollenbeck lived at the Midtown Hotel, 148 East 48th Street in Manhattan.

Police said there were five open gas jets in the apartment.

Both Guatemala Sides Sound Victory Claims

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—Government and rebel forces trumpeted rival victory claims today in the four-day-old battle for Guatemala. Both sides appeared to be mobilizing for a major fight over the key rail town of Zacapa.

President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's Communist-backed government claimed a success for its armed forces at Gualan, east of Zacapa about 20 miles inside Guatemala. It said the rebels were run out of town after a brief skirmish, but mentioned no casualties.

The "liberation radio" speaking for the anti-Red invasion forces of exiled Guatemalan leader Col. Carlos Castillo Armas claimed the rebels held 25 towns in Guatemala.

Associated Press dispatches from Guatemala City said Arbenz' troops were massing in the area of Zacapa, a city of some 6,000 on the main rail line between the capital and the Caribbean port of Puerto Barrios.

A rebel flier interviewed near the Honduran border said Castillo Armas men also were moving by truck towards Zacapa. He said the invaders headed for the rail center after seizing the cathedral town of Esquipulas in a five-hour battle. Three Guatemalan soldiers were reported killed in that engagement.

An informed source at Tegucigalpa indicated a fight for Zacapa was shaping up. He predicted the rebels would abandon their guerrilla tactics within the next 24 hours and seek a pitched battle with Arbenz' army.

The source also said: 1. At least two Guatemalan pilots have fled their country in training planes since the invasion began Friday.

2. Two railroad bridges at Gualan had been destroyed; sabotage along the line between Gualan and Puerto Barrios has increased; a train which left Guatemala City for the port of San Jose has "simply disappeared."

3. The rebels have taken over the rail town of Morales, some 50 miles from Puerto Barrios.

4. A rebel plane machine-gunned and dropped grenades on San Jose. The rebels also announced that their planes had bombed Coban.

The ambassador reported his government had sent a cable late yesterday to the U.N. informing the Security Council that "aggression" was continuing and asking the Council to do something about it. The delegation did not request another meeting of the Council at this stage.

In Washington, it was disclosed that Guatemala had withdrawn completely her complaint of "foreign aggression" lodged with the Inter-American Peace Commission. Apparently this was done pending the effect of the U.N.-ordered cease-fire.

The delegation spokesman said a barge loaded with war material, machine guns, dynamite, explosives and small weapons had been captured by Guatemalan government sources at Puerto Barrios.

He said information received from his government this morning had stated another barge apparently loaded with similar material was standing off Puerto Barrios beyond the three-mile limit.

The spokesman said government forces were in contact with the "aggressors" at Chulimula on the Honduran border and they were driving them back.

He said two men parachuted into the Pacific port of Champerico and were captured by the government. He said the men carried two bags filled with explosives and maps on them indicated they had intended to blow up fuel tanks at the small port.

Statement Of Shursen Barred

MIDLAND (Special)—The state, with one of its key points ruled out, asked for a recess this morning in the murder trial of Lloyd O. Shursen, Big Spring painting contractor.

Shursen is charged with the fatal shooting of Kenneth H. Landrum, 41-year-old carpenter, near the Blue Grille Cafe on East Front Street here on Dec. 18.

District Attorney Warren Burnett sought to introduce a statement allegedly made by Shursen to Midland police officers shortly after his arrest in a Big Spring hotel the morning after the shooting.

Detective Sergeant Jack Fillyaw testified that he had taken the statement.

"Did you tell the defendant that this statement could be used for or against him?" asked Defense Attorney Leonard Howell, Midland.

"Yes," answered Fillyaw. Howell objected to admission of the statement on the grounds that the "for or against" phrase constituted a promise to Shursen. H. C. Hooser, Big Spring, also a defense attorney, told the court he could cite cases in point.

After a conference in the chambers of Judge William C. Deadrick, the objection was sustained. The district attorney said that this development came as a complete surprise since the state had based its case in good part upon the statement. Over defense objections, the court granted his motion for a recess until 1 p. m.

Burnett expected an officer from the Texas department of public safety to arrive momentarily. As the time of his arrest in Big Spring, Shursen had a .22 calibre pistol in his possession.

Truman Sits Up This A.M.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Harry S. Truman, recovering from a Sunday operation in which his gall bladder and appendix were removed, sat up about 45 minutes today reading telegrams and letters.

Mrs. Geraldine Blakemore, a nurse, said the former President was feeling much better this morning after a good night's rest.

Dr. Wallace Graham, Mr. Truman's physician, visited him briefly early today. Mrs. Blakemore reported Mr. Truman's temperature was down from yesterday when it was reported above 100 degrees.

Dr. Graham said last night Mr. Truman is getting along as well as expected but added, "It's a pretty rough situation."

The 70-year-old Truman, however, was talking about getting out of the hospital.

He underwent the operation for removal of his gall bladder and appendix Sunday.

He is expected to remain in Research Hospital for at least 10 days.

Mrs. Truman, who spent much of her visit to her husband's room reading the many telegrams he's received, said, "I think he is progressing. He was comfortable and he wasn't bothered by the heat today."

Claude Batchelor Court-Martial Set

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Cpl. Claude Batchelor, 23, former POW who first chose to stay with the Communists but changed his mind, will face a general court-martial.

But Lt. Gen. I. D. White, 4th Army commander, said yesterday the Kermit, Tex., youth's life was not at stake because he was directing that the trial be held on a noncapital basis.

The Army held Batchelor in custody while his case was investigated.

Charges against him include conferring with the enemy concerning a subversive organization to be established in the United States after the Korean armistice, making speeches and writing articles to persuade fellow prisoners to believe Red propaganda, and writing letters to promote disloyalty.

The 4th Army said the trial, to be open to press and public, is expected to start sometime in August.

Major Fight Due At Key Rail Town

Steel Wage Talks Hit Serious Snags

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. Steel Corp. and the CIO United Steelworkers of America have hit a snag in 1954 contract talks, a source close to the negotiations said today.

The source who declined to be quoted by name said the trouble could be considered serious. No indication was given as to what issue was involved.

Officials of union locals across the country, the source said, have received unofficial word to lay preliminary arrangements for a strike.

The union's contract with U. S. Steel expires June 30. The union would call a strike anytime after that. The source said however, there is great confidence on both sides that a strike will be averted.

HARDLY SUMMER

Presidio Declares 107 Not Really Hot

PRESIDIO, Tex. (AP)—Shucks, it was only 107—so anybody could tell the reporter was kidding when he asked how people were standing the heat on the first day of summer.

"Aw, this isn't hot," said Oliver Harper, 54, the hardware man and weather observer. "Lots of times it gets up round 113 or 114."

In fact, it got up to 111 June 10, when people most places were still wearing suits to work. So you can see summer started off downright cool yesterday, especially in comparison with places like Phoenix, Ariz., where it was 111. Presidio often is the hottest place in the country.

"Why, I've been to Dallas when it was only 98," Harper said, shaking his prematurely white head. "I tell you, that damp heat hurt me worse than 113 does here."

This is an adobe town of about 1,300 persons nudging up to the Rio Grande in the Big Bend of West Texas. They grow cantaloupes in the dusty fields nearby and lead an easy-going life in the town nobody has ever bothered to incorporate.

Security Council Action Is Sought

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Guatemalan delegation to the U.N. reported today government forces are driving back the invaders on all sectors of the fighting in Guatemala. But the delegation said aggression against Guatemala continues and asked the Security Council to take further measures against it.

Ambassador Eduardo Castillo-Arriola announced through a spokesman that nothing had been done by the aggressors to comply with the Security Council resolution approved Sunday requesting an end to the bloodshed in Guatemala.

The ambassador reported his government had sent a cable late yesterday to the U.N. informing the Security Council that "aggression" was continuing and asking the Council to do something about it. The delegation did not request another meeting of the Council at this stage.

Greatest Flood Crest Ever On Stream In Iowa

DES MOINES (AP)—The greatest flood crest in history rolled down the Des Moines River Valley in central Iowa today as the state-wide peril from marauding rivers continued.

The only cheerful note in the disastrous four-day-old floods was a forecast of generally fair weather for several days.

New rains in central Iowa yesterday added to the flooding strain on the Des Moines River. In the northwest the Floyd River was expected to crest for the second time in three days at Sioux City today.

More than 1,000 families were homeless in Iowa and the number was expected to multiply. The death toll was one lone drowning. However, the loss in property and rich farmland will total millions of dollars.

The greatest threat was on the Des Moines River which cuts through the heart of Iowa from Fort Dodge, Boone and into this capital city.

At Boone, 40 miles north of Des Moines, the river was expected to crest today at an all-time high of 23 feet, nearly four feet above the previous record.

Des Moines' new levee system will get its first serious test when a crest of 27 to 28 feet, four feet above flood stage, strikes late Thursday. The previous record stage was 27.3 feet in May 1903.

National Guard companies were doing emergency duty at Fort Dodge, Webster City and Boone, where a battle to save the water works is being made.

At Sioux City a crest two feet higher than the 20.3 level of Sunday was expected today. The Floyd rolled near the tops of levees but officials were optimistic they would hold. Trucks loaded with 3,000 sandbags stood by if a leak should occur.

Another series of flood crests surged down tributaries of the important Cedar and Iowa rivers in northeastern Iowa. Waterloo and Cedar Rapids prepared for crests later this week.

The Iowa office of the federal Soil Conservation Service estimates 725,000 acres of crop land has been under water during the last three weeks from torrential rains. However, this figure does not include the overflows of the last two days.

Nebraska Town Struck By Polio On Epidemic Scale

ANSLEY, Neb. (AP)—A country doctor who travels 15 miles daily from his home at Broken Bow to this little town of 711 persons is working alone to inoculate the entire population against polio.

He is Dr. Clyde Wilcox and he said last night he expects to have the job done by the end of the week. He started on it last week after five confirmed cases and four suspect cases of polio were reported. So far he has treated 125 children and adults.

It is the first mass inoculation covering an entire community, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis said.

Dr. Wilcox said, "Everybody got scared but beyond that there isn't much exciting about it." He said he thought the situation was under control now.

Studebaker, Packard Announce Plans For Merging Companies

By DAVID J. WILKIE AP Automotive Editor
NEW YORK (AP)—Stockholders of Packard Motor Car Co. and the Studebaker Corp. will vote Aug. 17 on whether to combine the two pioneer auto companies.

IT HAPPENED

Suitcase Surprise

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Someone sneaked a suitcase from a car in front of a hotel here yesterday. The suitcase was full of suits, but what he actually sneaked was a snake. And what a snake! Harry Albacker, a traveling entertainer, said the suitcase contained a 60-pound, 10-foot python he uses in his act. He said he had just fed the snake and that it probably won't move until it gets hungry in a couple of days.

Treasure Hunt

BALTIMORE (AP)—Several months ago, Demonic Nesci decided to hide his savings of $10,000. So the 68-year-old retired railroad worker hid the cash in 10 four-ounce lighter-fluid cans and stuffed $1,000 into each can. He put the cans into a metal box and buried the box under the metal shower stall in his second-floor bathroom. Yesterday, Nesci told police, he opened a clothes hamper and found the metal box. It was empty.

O' Give Me A Claim

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Uranium brokers here report that they've found a new clientele—tourists.

maintaining "independents" among the car makers has been approved by their directors. The plan, scheduled to be announced today, calls for election of James J. Nance, 53-year-old president of Packard, as president and principal executive officer of the new company.

You Never Know

WATHAM, Mass. (AP)—Police are under orders from Chief Asa E. McKenna to show the words "Waltham Police" on their handbags, shirts and blouses. The idea is to keep people from confusing them with taxi drivers and gas station attendants, Chief McKenna said.

Penalty Of Fashion

TOKYO, (AP)—Pale blue incense rose toward the gilt ceiling. Low chanting spread through the dim temple, and a little silver bell tinkled behind the sanctuary. Kimono-clad women knelt on the white straw mats and bowed deeply and reverently before the great golden image of Buddha. They were the beauty parlor operators of Kyushu, asking forgiveness — for cutting off all that mountain of girls' hair in the Audrey Hepburn mania that has swept Japan's island chain from Kushiro to Kagoshima.

The new organization would be known as the Studebaker-Packard Corp. Technically the program proposes the purchase by Packard of Studebaker's assets.

Paul G. Hoffman, 63-year-old Studebaker board chairman, will become chairman of the new company. Harold S. Vance, 63, president of Studebaker, will head an executive operating group.

Principal headquarters of the new company will be in Detroit, home of Packard.

Submitted to stockholders will be a proposal for reclassification of Packard stock on the basis of one share for each five presently held. Then Studebaker stockholders, if they approve the proposal, would get 1 1/2 shares of the new company stock for each share of Studebaker common they now have.

The net result of the stock transaction will be that the new Studebaker-Packard organization will have about 6 1/2 million shares of stock outstanding.

Two distinct and separate sales organizations will be maintained to handle Packard's medium and high-priced lines and Studebaker's low and low-medium priced cars and over-all truck line.

The projected Studebaker-Packard combination is the latest move among the smaller concerns in their fight against the almost overwhelming competition of the industry's larger concerns. Last year Kaiser-Frazer and Willys-Overland joined forces. A few weeks ago Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson combined to become American Motors Corp.

Guatemala Gets Protest Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—In a change of diplomatic signals, revolt-torn Guatemala has induced the Inter-American Peace Commission to set aside her own protest against "foreign aggression" until the effect of a United Nations "cease-fire" order can be gauged.

The five-nation commission unanimously agreed late yesterday to the Guatemalan request, filed hurriedly just two hours before the peace group met to consider the complaint.

This was the latest in a series of diplomatic maneuvers by Guatemala since the Red-tinted government announced late last week the opening of an attack by Guatemalan exiles. She named Honduras and Nicaragua in her charges.

By winning a delay in consideration of her complaint, Guatemala apparently gained time to decide whether to make her main fight in the commission or the U.N. Security Council.

Federal Reserve Board Relaxes Bars On Credit

By FRANK O'BRIEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board has relaxed a little further its checkrein on the money market, promising in effect to keep business credit cheap and plentiful for the foreseeable future.

The Reserve Board, whose basic function is to regulate the supply of money and credit, announced yesterday it will drop reserve requirements enough to unleash a new flow of credit amounting to a potential nine billion dollars.

The change is to be made gradually over a six-week period for the 6,700 banks which are members of the Federal Reserve system. They do a majority of the nation's banking business.

The board's action was, by its own words, hatched to the economic outlook created by:

1. A recent Treasury announcement that the government will borrow 10 billion dollars during the next six months to meet its cash needs during the low period of tax collections.
2. Business and other needs for credit, such as state and municipal borrowing and crop marketing, which might be difficult to satisfy in competition with such massive Treasury borrowing.

The Reserve Board's move followed close on last week's announcement of an upturn in industrial production in May for the first time since last July.

It was evident that the board was moving to head off any possible tightening of credit which might nip the business revival in the bud.

A reserve board spokesman said banks could lend up to six times the amount of the reserves released. The board's announcement estimated that about 1 1/2 billion dollars in reserves now frozen would be thawed. To what extent credit would actually be increased would depend upon the action of member banks.

French Wipe Out Guerrilla Force
HANOI, Indochina (AP)—Tipped off by a Vietminh prisoner of war, French commandos early today wiped out a rebel guerrilla force trying to seize the Song Van De River southeast of Hanoi.

A French army spokesman said the Vietminh were stringing huge mines on wires across the river channel to trap French gunboats.

PAUL HARVEY

Legion To Hold Division Meet This Weekend

ODESSA — Paul Harvey, ABC commentator, will be on the program with State Commander L. E. Page, Carthage, and other American Legion leaders at the annual Fifth Division convention to be held here Saturday and Sunday.

The Fifth Division is composed of Legion posts in the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 21st Congressional districts.

Saturday at 3:30 p.m. the convention parade, headed by the champion American Legion color guard of Morton and U. S. Air Force Band of Big Spring, will start. Also on the afternoon program will be a 40-and-8 wreck; a social hour and a tea honoring the state auxiliary president, Mrs. Fred White. That evening three dances will be held featuring square, round and hillbilly numbers.

Sunday morning a rehabilitation conference will be conducted by Robert Sisson, Lubbock head of the Veterans Administration and Albert D. Brown Jr., Austin. This will be followed with a joint session of the Legion and Auxiliary with State Commander Page the principal speaker and State Chaplain, The Rev. Bryan Keathley, conducting memorial services.

This will be followed with a chuck wagon feed at noon. At 1:30 p.m. Harvey will talk to the convention on world affairs. This will be followed with separate business sessions of the Legion and Auxiliary when new officers will be chosen and delegates selected to the national convention to be held in Washington, D. C., Aug. 30-Sept. 2.

Jap Doctors Strike

TOKYO, (AP) — Thirty doctors staged a sit-down strike in front of the Welfare Ministry today in an attempt to block proposed cuts in fees charged patients under a government-sponsored low cost hospitalization program.

Riding THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

Mr. David Dorward says that when he moved to Borden County and started cowboying 60 years ago there was some mesquite in that country, but nothing like it is now.

He recalls that between Gail and Fluvanna there was almost a forest of old dead mesquite trees, none of them so very large. He was told then, 60 years ago, by an old Mexican horse wrangler that the wrangler's father had told his son, that about 85 years before that, which would make it about 1805, a great prairie fire had swept through that country and killed all those mesquite.

Mr. Dorward recalls that "when Lubbock started building up" and everything that Lubbock had was being hauled by wagons and teams from the railroad at Colorado City, that the freighters always made it a point to travel through this dead mesquite and load up as much as they could of it for fire wood. That was back there in the cow chip days before anybody had ever dreamed of butane trucks, and it wasn't so long ago, either.

Something of an old landmark was taken away from Gail recently when the telephone was removed from the Dorward Drug Store.

For years it was the only telephone in Borden County and so could be used for long distance calls only. And it was always available to whoever wanted to use it. Many a time Mr. Dorward has gotten somebody to watch the drug store while he put on his hat and went out into the street, or over to the Court House, to hunt up somebody wanted on the telephone.

During more recent years he had a private line to the Court House across the road to save him so much walking. He would call somebody at the Court House on the private line to tell them they were wanted on the telephone that was Borden County's only communication with the outside world.

Now the Poka-Lambo Telephone Co-Op with headquarters at Tahoka, has installed telephones, operating through the Snyder exchange, at both the Court House and at Aubrey Rogers' filling station. They have also installed other telephones in Borden County.

Right around Gail about seven inches of rain has been received this year. In other parts of the county there has been more or less. Up toward Fluvanna, north-east of Gail, it has been considerably heavier, but then it usually is in that area.

Grass on the low places and on the Borden County plains is coming back pretty well, but it is slow in making much of an appearance on the ridges. Ranchers are reported to be slow in restocking either sheep or cattle.

Jim York is receiving some cattle on his ranches from his son who is ranching near Fort Sumner, because of the drought out there in New Mexico.

Livestock specialists are warning ranchers to be on the watch for screw-worms, because of the mild winter through which we passed. Such a winter encourages an early worm build up. All wounds should be treated immediately to prevent infestation.

Most of the specialists appear to be agreed that EQ-335 smear will do the best job. It contains Lindane which gives it a lasting killing effect, and they say that one application a week, except in severe cases, can be calculated to do the job in fine fashion.

Screw-worms multiply lots faster than rabbits once they get started.

If you want to see some real cowboys, and lots of them, old-timers and their younger counterparts, just drop in on the annual Texas Cowboy Reunion at Stamford, the first five days in July.

Since the Fourth of July falls on a Sunday this year, it will be mainly given over to visiting, but there will be big shows on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday. There will probably be as many as 500 of the real oldtimers on hand for the big event. At least 500 of the younger cowboys are expected to take part in the rodeo, which will be held every night with an afternoon performance on the last day, July 5.

If a man ain't a real cowboy he won't be in the arena at Stamford.

Farmers in most parts of Dawson County, as in many other West Texas counties, have been worried by the blowing. One day a small patch shows up in the field. Next day it has covered an acre or two, and then it spreads as the winds continue. In some fields changes can be seen in a few hours.

In the Key Community farmers report the lice infestation has been a heavy one for the time of year and size of cotton. Some of them doubt that it is letting up much. Some of them also report jumbo grasshoppers, but on the whole they have the best crop prospects for this season, since 1949. They can take a little more moisture now whenever it comes, says C. H. Williams of Key.

Feed and cotton crops over the area look very good, and whenever it's growing, Sudan is making a fine appearance and promise.

Unlike city residents, and those who live beside Highway 80, the people at Gail and Key on Highway

There are a great many tourists who drive right on through places the size of Big Spring where parking is a problem (and costs a nickel) and stop at the little places along the highways. Now that REA has been so widely spread over the land they know they can get a cold drink or ice cream at one of these places just as well as in the city—and there is plenty of free parking space for their cars, and space where the children can safely be turned loose to romp and run down the energy they've built up while riding along in the car.

Engineers Viewed Shirking Civic Duty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The new president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers says that engineers do all sorts of things with the slide rule but do next to nothing about governing their country.

A. C. Monthelt of Pittsburgh told the institute's convention yesterday that only two of 96 senators are engineers and none of the 48 governors is an engineer. One outstanding exception, he said, is Charles Wilson, secretary of defense.

U.S.-Russian Chess Games Erupt In Heated Arguments

By GEOFFREY GOULD
NEW YORK (AP)—The U. S. Russian chess tournament, hailed as promoting cultural understanding between the two countries, erupted early today into a heated and wordy argument over time clocks.

Two protests were lodged, one by a Russian player and one by the top American. Referee Hans Knoch overruled the Russian, but argument on the other protest went into the wee hours of the morning. A final decision was left up in the air until later today.

At the same time the Russians pulled into a commanding 13-4 point lead midway through the third round of the six-day-old tournament, which had been completely decorous and polite up to this point.

They need just eight points more to clinch the 25-game tourney.

The American protest was lodged by Samuel Reshevsky when it was discovered that a faulty time clock apparently gave his opponent, No. 1 Russian player Vassily Smyslov, 13 extra minutes. The game still is not completed.

Reshevsky, as the five-hour evening session neared its end, had to move feverishly to get in his required 40 moves. The Russian, because of the out-of-kilter clock, was not pressed for time at all.

In the other protest, Russian Yuri Averbach forfeited his game to young Donald Byrne because he made only 39 moves when the time ran out.

He said he hadn't understood that his 40 moves had to be completed before a small flag on the face of the clock dropped down.

Knoch, who is an American, overruled him on the basis that the flag signal was plainly described in the written ground rules.

A cluster of gesticulating officials, players and even spectators crowded around the referee.

American chess authorities and Russian players and officials carried their argument over the Reshevsky dispute upstairs to the Russian suite in the Hotel Roosevelt, where the tournament is being held.

Dmitri Postnikov, non-playing Russian team captain, did most of the talking through an interpreter. The American captain, Alexander Biano, suggested the game be called a draw, but the Russians didn't consider this fair. The matter was referred to a committee of Russian and American team officials.

Besides Donald Byrne's decision over Averbach, the Americans drew one game and lost two. Byrne is the only U. S. player head of his opponent at this point.

'Miracle' Less Than Genuine, Police Find

ANGRI, Italy (AP)—Pilgrims crowded into Salvatore Ferraioli's kitchen yesterday to see a picture of the Madonna of Syracuse to which miracles had been attributed.

Antonio Tortora led in his friend, 35-year-old Giacinto Gallo, saying Gallo was semiparalyzed and a mute. Gallo stood rigid for an hour, then raised his arms and shouted some words.

A special committee investigating the picture's purported powers insisted Gallo accompany them to a doctor for proof of his "cure."

The doctor's verdict: Gallo hadn't been either deaf or paralyzed to begin with.

Angry villagers set upon Gallo and his friend. Police rescued them and led them off to jail. Officials said they confessed they had hoped to take the miracle cure, then pick the excited pilgrims' pockets.

The family home of President Dwight D. Eisenhower in Abilene, Kan., is being turned into a museum.

Arlene Dahl, Lamas Plan Quiet Wedding

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It will be a quiet wedding for Arlene Dahl and Fernando Lamas. That's what they claim.

I saw the two lovebirds in the commissary at 20th Century-Fox, where she was finishing up "A Woman's World." The redhead was ravishing in a low-cut dress, and the Latin lover looked dashing with his graying locks. After a brief separation, they decided they couldn't live without each other and announced plans to wed.

When will it be?
"We aren't saying," replied Miss Dahl. "It's our secret."

"Everybody expects us to have a big wedding," he said, "because I'm such a publicity hound. That's what they say. It doesn't occur to them that I have never had my own press agent. So how could I have a publicity hound?"

"When we get married, it's going to be done very quietly. I think Bob Taylor and Ursula Thielis did it very wisely."

It seems to me that Lamas and the Dahl are talking sense. If they really want a quiet wedding, it can be done with little fuss. All they have to do is go somewhere out of town and retain some element of secrecy. That is, don't call every columnist before they leave.

This reminds me of Lana Turner's third wedding—or was it the fourth? She complained bitterly in her memoirs that the press made a mockery of the affair, turning it into a carnival. They recall the dozen strolling fiddlers who played Lana's favorite tunes and the sumptuous spread, which included a glazed ham on which "I love you" was spelled in pimentones.

It would have been very simple for Lana and her husband—I think it was Bob Topping—to have had a quiet wedding. All they had to do was leave town.

It was the same with Marilyn Monroe and Joe DiMaggio. If they really wanted privacy, they could have wed in some hamlet, not in the heart of San Francisco.

All of which brings us to this issue: do movie stars really want to be alone?

Or, as it has been observed, why do actors strive most of their lives for recognition, then wear dark glasses so they won't be recognized?

Or, if they don't want to be stared at by the public, why do they drive red convertibles?

I think it is safe to say that those stars who really cherish their privacy can achieve it. The others may complain about the glare of public scrutiny, but you'd hear them squawk if they were turned off.

Lawmen Arrest Marie McDonald

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Actress Marie McDonald was ordered into court today after a stormy session with police officers, who said her car struck four other autos.

Miss McDonald was booked yesterday under three sections of the motor vehicle code: driving while under the influence of narcotics, hit-run driving and having no operator's license.

Police said the shapely movie player screamed, tried to bite two officers who took her to a cell and then removed a shoe and shattered a light fixture. Lt. John Hankins said she kicked him in the groin when he tried to remove her to another cell.

Miss McDonald said she had taken two nembul and four second capsules, the police report showed. Her physician confirmed her statement that he had given her a prescription for the sedatives.

Police reported her car struck three parked cars and then hit a fourth auto which had been halted for a traffic light.

She was released without bond when her husband, wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl, and his attorney came to the police station. A newsreel cameraman and a press photographer complained to police that Karl tried to run them down when he and his party left the station.

Miss McDonald and her husband separated recently and then became reconciled.

CBS Plans TV In Color

BOSTON, (AP)—More than 40 major CBS television network programs will be broadcast in color beginning Aug. 22, Hubbell Robinson Jr., vice president in charge of network programs, said today.

In an address to the Advertising Federation of America, Robinson said the first color telecast will be of Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town on Sunday, Aug. 22.

About three or more different programs will be presented in color each week, he said. The programs will originate in New York City and Hollywood, Calif.

CBS presented a sample of its color shows today, a 15-minute closed circuit telecast of The New Revue, originating in New York and seen in 10 receivers in the Hotel Statler here.

By early fall, Robinson said, between 60 and 70 stations affiliated with CBS television will be equipped to broadcast the color programs.

Building Clothed In Record Tempo

NEW YORK, (AP)—A New York builder has achieved his goal of putting up the aluminum outside walls of a 22-story office building in just one day.

The job was done by 61 workmen in nine hours yesterday. Normally it would take eight to 10 weeks, said Norman Tishman, president of the realty firm that is constructing the building at 57th Street and Park Avenue.

Hundreds of watchers gathered on sidewalks and stared in amazement as the aluminum sheets, each two stories high, were bolted into place on the previously constructed framework.

Three B47 Jet Bombers In Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Three American B47 jets, built to carry the H-bomb, touched down today at the huge Yokota Air Base after a 6,700-mile nonstop flight from California—more than the distance from Minneapolis to Moscow.

It was the first flight to the Far East for the six-jet, swept-wing Boeings.

The stratojets were slightly more than 18 hours in the air from March Field, Calif. They were refueled in the air twice, over Hickam Field Hawaii and over Midway in the Pacific.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

Close view of a section of sun.

It is my belief that the total eclipse next week will be seen by more people than any other in history.

For that belief I have two reasons. In the first place, the path of darkness will go through the three most thickly-settled continents—North America, Europe and Asia. In addition, there is the outlook for television. The eclipse will offer material for a "live" program of amazing interest.

As I write these words, well in advance of the great date, I know that plans are afoot for televising the total eclipse from some stations. How far these plans will spread, I can only estimate. It seems to me that every TV station ought to feature this event.

Those who live in the pathway of darkness can be expected to get up early and go outdoors. If the sky is clear, they will see a sight to remember.

In most places on this continent, also in Europe and Asia, the residents will watch only a partial eclipse. Using dark glasses, dark pieces of photo film and so on, they will look at the sun and see part of it in eclipse.

Running through the Twin Cities of Minnesota, and through western Ontario, the coming total eclipse will offer a stirring sight to millions of persons on this continent. In addition, the dark pathway will run through Oslo, Norway, and various cities and villages in Russia and Pakistan.

The eclipse will be seen in the morning in North America. In Europe it will be observed around the middle of the day. People in Pakistan will see it late in the afternoon.

The time of total darkness will be less than a minute in Nebraska. In Canada the total phase will range from one and a half minutes to two minutes. In southern Norway, the darkness will have its maximum, which will be two minutes and 35 seconds.

Tomorrow: Darkness of Moon.

Atom Secrets Ban Might Be Loosened

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The man who helps the Atomic Energy Commission decide what technical information should remain secret predicts that "it is inevitable that peacetime nonweapons technical information will in time be essentially completely unclassified."

In fact, declared Dr. James G. Becherley, director of classification for the AEC, "at the present time it is apparent that a restrictive policy on the publication of nonweapons technology is of questionable value," because of demonstrated Russian progress in the weapons field.

WHY MERCURY'S NEW V-8 ENGINE IS THE FINEST IN ITS FIELD!

MORE RESPONSIVE (unique, new 4-barrel carburetor)—Only 2 barrels are used for normal driving. But the 2 extra barrels cut in instantly when reserve power is needed. They are vacuum-controlled for smoother response, greater economy.

SMOOTHER OPERATING (5 bearings, 8 counterweights)—Mercury's method of precision molding crankshafts of alloy iron permits a full set of counterweights (8 rather than the usual 6). The result: better balance, virtually no vibration.

MORE EFFICIENT (special high-turbulence combustion chambers)—Wedge-shaped combustion chambers, the result of 5 years' research, swirl the fuel-air mixture past the spark plugs in a miniature cyclone for fast, complete combustion—for more power from less gas. This is the most powerful yet the thriftiest Mercury ever—with 629 hp for every inch of its 256 cu. in. displacement . . . the highest ratio in Mercury's history.

UNMATCHED FOR SHEER RUGGEDNESS (new deep-skirt block)—Mercury's new block extends almost 3 inches below the crankshaft's center line—gives far greater crankshaft support. New short-stroke (3.1") pistons cut engine wear, give 29% more mileage for same amount of piston travel.

A Bible Thought For Today

We cannot all analyze an argument, but by instinct we often can measure the integrity of a person. "I know whom I have believed."—II Tim. 1:12.

Selection Board Wouldn't Have Found Indifference Hereabouts

The locating board for the new Air Force Academy finally settled on three sites from which to make a final choice—one in southeastern Wisconsin, between Chicago and Milwaukee, a second near Chautauque, Ill., and the third around Colorado Springs, Colo.

Landowners and summer residents on the Wisconsin site threw a double back-action duck fit. They did not wish to be disturbed by having the countryside cluttered up with a half-billion-dollar education factory.

Last week landowners and residents on and around the 10,000-acre Illinois site made strident objections to the project. Landowners Association Against the Air Academy, assuming to speak for 99 per cent of the residents of the area, pointed out it would displace hundreds of families and subject the area, as well as the academy itself, to possible atomic attack in case of war. Besides, all benefits flowing from the academy would gravitate to St. Louis and Alton, they asserted.

We are not familiar with the attitude of Colorado Springs and vicinity, but the protests from Wisconsin and Illinois make it likely that Colorado Springs will get the new school—unless property owners and residents there out-do those in the other localities.

While the attitude of the area residents is understandable, it does sort of grate upon the nerves. The academy must go somewhere, and it would be welcomed in thousands of communities in all parts of the country. It appears that one faction would welcome the academy as a good sound business proposition, while the other faction doesn't want to be bothered with it for reasons of personal comfort.

Most Texans feel it should have come to Texas or some other Southwestern state, as far as possible from the threat of atomic bombers coming over the polar ice cap. Texas in particular is long used to military activities of all kinds, and welcomes them for patriotic as well as other reasons.

You could line up a 10,000-acre site within 50 miles of this or most any Texas city without a cent of cost to Uncle Sam, if Uncle were interested—complete with wide-open arms of welcome.

Political And Military Command Are Two Very Different Things

Henry R. Luce's Life & Time magazine gave ardent and effective support to the Eisenhower candidacy in 1952, and in general the magazine has continued that support insofar as the President personally is concerned. But in recent months the Luce publications have shown signs of distress, and this week Life comes out with a broadside directed mainly at Republicans in Congress, but with a few shafts aimed at the President himself.

Life, noting that the Eisenhower administration is in trouble over its legislative program, blames it largely on the "independent-mindedness" of the Republicans in Congress. None of the present GOP senators served in the Hoover administration, it points out, and only 14 members of the House "can remember what it was like to support a Republican President." Gist of Life's point: the sitting GOP representatives and senators have been in the opposition so long that it has become a habit, and they can't break the habit of opposition to the White House.

"The bill of particulars against Eisenhower as a Republican political leader includes his failure to speak up on basic issues," the magazine goes on. "He dilly-dallied with the McCarthy problem for 20 months. He has been faint in his endorsement of the Randall Commission's recommendations on foreign trade. Privately, Eisenhower is firm on both these questions. But Republicans, listening for cues from the White House, often have assumed their party's leader does not much care either way."

Mr. Eisenhower, the Life article continues, lacks the instinctive touch and there is still a "great deal of political ineptness around him."

Perhaps the political touch the President lacks isn't the instinctive kind, but that which springs from experience. A lot of people who resented any reference to Mr. Eisenhower's lack of political experience during the campaign are just now beginning to understand how great a handicap it can be. His entire training and experience had been in the orderly, channel-of-command military field, as different from the pull and haul and the horse-trading of politics as daylight from darkness. U. S. Grant, a great and good man, encountered frustrations and defeats in the White House for the same reason. Mr. Eisenhower is coming face to face with some of these annoying but real differences.

Administration Considers Plan To Halt Commies At Thailand

WASHINGTON — A plan to guarantee Thailand against Communist aggression is now taking shape within the Eisenhower administration. The purpose, of course, is to contain the consequences of the smashing Communist victory that now seems likely in Indochina.

A similar idea has long been current in the British government. Hence it is certain that the project of the guarantee to Thailand will be one of the themes of the Eisenhower-Churchill - Dulles-Eden talks this week.

The chances are good that the final decision will be to offer a military guarantee to Thailand. If so, other Asian nations will certainly be asked to join in the guarantee. Whether or not the French will also be asked to do so, depends on the policy of the new premier, Pierre Mendès-France, and on developments in Indochina. The French attitude is important, since the American and British policy makers still hope to include the small states of Laos and Cambodia in their scheme, and thus to salvage these states from the general wreck in Indochina.

Laos is a hilly little kingdom populated by a people of Thai blood. Cambodia, to the south, does not have a predominantly Thai population, but has close links to Thailand. Cambodia's border provinces moreover, once formed a part of Thailand. These two states, where only very small Communist forces are operating as yet, lie along the Thai border.

Together, therefore, Cambodia and Laos would form a valuable buffer between Thailand and the main Indochinese state of Viet Nam where the Communist rot is now so far advanced.

The idea, then, is to join Laos and Cambodia with Thailand, in a federation that would collectively undertake the common defense against Communist attack or infiltration. The whole federation would be guaranteed. This scheme of federation is now reported to be favored by the kings of Cambodia and Laos. It has long been actively advocated in Thailand. The American Ambassador to Bangkok, Gen. William Donovan, has recently been in Washington to press the federation idea. The difficulty remains, however, that Laos and Cambodia, like the state of Viet Nam, are members of the French Union. Putting it very mildly, it is doubtful how Paris will react to a scheme for federating two of the French Union's member-states with Thailand which has no connection with the Union; and then giving the resulting federation an Anglo-American-international guarantee.

The British attitude, on the other hand, was made clear some years ago, in one of the earlier Indochinese crises. At that time, the French authorities were enraged by the appearance of British agents in the Cambodian and Laotian capitals, Pnomh Penh and Luang Prabang in just the sort of program that has been set forth above. In short London has always thought of a resistance line on the Laotian-Cambodian border as a possible ace-in-the-hole in the dangerous game being played in South Asia.

In Geneva, accordingly, Foreign Minister Anthony Eden has firmly persisted in excluding Cambodia and Laos from the discussions of an Indochinese settlement (which might better be called the discussions of an Indochinese surrender).

The Communist efforts to infiltrate Laos and Cambodia have been stepped up in recent months, but have met with no great success as yet. On this ground, Eden has insisted that Cambodia and Laos are in quite a different category from Viet Nam, which is the scene of the main Indochinese struggle.

But besides the very important question about the French attitude to the Thai-Laotian-Cambodian federation, there is another question of even greater importance. Eden's insistence on placing Cambodia and Laos in a special category have been met, at Geneva, with downright brutal counter-insistence by Molotov, Chou En-lai and the Vietnamese delegation. They have never receded from the position that Cambodia and Laos must be included in any general Indochinese settlement.

In other words, as the stepped-up pressure on these states also indicates, the Communists seem to be determined to grab Cambodia and Laos as well as Viet Nam. How hard will they fight to get what they want? Are Britain and America willing to fight to prevent the Communists from getting what they want? And what will the new French government do in this situation?

There are no sure answers to these questions. Hence it is not as yet clear whether the Thai-Laotian-Cambodian federation project will come to anything. It could provide the occasion for drawing a line, and saying to the Communist side, "Thus far and no further." But Laos and Cambodia could also be left out, and a guarantee could be offered to Thailand alone.

Unhappy Ending

Even Congressmen Know Little About Hush-Hush Central Intelligence Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—This country's superagency outfit, the Central Intelligence Agency, is so secret that even Congressmen, which votes money for it, knows less about it than about any other major government agency.

Only five or six members know how much money Congress votes for CIA every year. Congress as a whole doesn't know. The funds are scattered and concealed among the appropriations for other agencies.

There have been guesses CIA spends between 500 and 800 million dollars a year. But even the number of CIA's employees is secret. Guesses on this run from 8,000 to 30,000.

That much is publicly known of the CIA:

1. It does its work overseas, spying on the Communists. Its job is to find out what they're up to day by day and, in case the Reds plan an attack, to give this country plenty of warning.

2. It coordinates the information gathered by six other government agencies which have intelligence agents of their own: Army, Navy, Air Force, State Department, Atomic Energy Commission and the FBI.

At about that point, outside knowledge of the CIA stops. Because of the dark wall around it, the CIA cannot very well publicly claim credit for its successes. By the same token, any failures are concealed.

The CIA was roundly criticized in 1950 on the grounds it failed to give this country warning about the Communist attack on South Korea. Shortly thereafter Truman replaced the CIA boss, Rear Adm. Roscoe Hilsenroetter, with Gen. Walter Bedell Smith.

When Eisenhower took over as president he moved Smith over to the State Department as under-secretary and made Allen Dulles head of the CIA.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) has talked cryptically of Communist infiltration of the CIA. Dulles says this is false. McCarthy has talked of investigating the CIA. He started to do so once before but Dulles blocked him.

Last March Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) offered a resolution backed by 20 other senators to set up a joint committee on central intelligence. It would be composed of five House members and five senators. Its purpose: To make a continuing study of CIA's activities and problems. The members of this committee then, without divulging details that had to be secret, could inform both houses on what should be done to aid for the CIA.

The Atomic Energy Commission, almost as secret as the CIA since it controls this country's atomic development, is under constant check by a similar congressional committee, a relationship which has worked well.

There has been no action on the Mansfield resolution and probably won't be this year.

There's Wine For All Moods, Even Whimsy

PARIS (AP)—It was twilight, my favorite hour in Paris, when I came to dear old Le Petit Pied Chaud, my favorite left bank sidewalk cafe, and sat down wearily in my favorite chair.

(This is the chair that has the worn seat marks of Ernest Hemingway reverently outlined with an indelible pencil each morning. The seat marks of Oscar Wilde are preserved on a mauve chair in the cafe around the corner.)

"Will m'sieu have a bit of his favorite wine?" inquired Macques, my favorite old sommelier (we call him "Mac"), who paints postcards for tourists in his off hours. Clean postcards, too—not a speck of dust on them.

I hesitated. In America what one drinks often determines how one feels. But to us sons and habitues of the left bank it is the other wines what we drink. It is the difference between savagery and civilization.

"At the moment, Macques, I don't know which is my favorite wine," I confessed. "My mood is mixed."

"Perhaps m'sieu desires the crimson excitement of Burgundy, or the nutbrown wonder of Anjou," suggested Macques. "Does the hurried sunshine of Bordeaux call to m'sieu, or the crunchy goodness of Alsace? Not Perhaps, then, the clangor of Cotes du Rhone?"

"Ah, no, Macques, I do not wish to be difficult, but their sounds fall upon my palate."

"I understand. It is possible that m'sieu demands the pale cold consolation of a jeraobon of champagne?"

"It makes me hiccup," I said coldly. "Besides, you know champagne is only for brides, tourists and... and breakfast."

"No, Macques, I am weary of all known pleasures. A million taxi horns resound in my ears, and I have barely escaped death this day from 10,000 maddened bicyclists. I feel insecure. Have you no wines that will wipe away the present, bring back my youth and summon up sweet remembrances of things past?"

"Ah yes, but two brands in all our cellar," said Macques. "They are very rare. But I do not like to see you troubled, and since you are a true connoisseur I will bring you them."

"Vintage?" I asked, suspiciously. "But yes," said Macques offended. "Their bouquet is so delicate it is measured by the month as well as the year. If m'sieu will permit, I would suggest May, 1951 for the one and, yes, November, 1953 for the other."

"Well, bring me a glass of each," I said. "I might as well be broke as feel the way I do." When he put the glasses before me, the rising aroma swept the air with softness. I sipped from one glass, and remembered the day I ran crying to my mother and she put a bandage on my knee. I tasted the other glass. The vision of my curly-haired kindergarten sweetheart swam before me. Well kid, even if she did have to marry her way out of grammar school.

With each sip the barnacles of time fell away from me, and when old Macques came to pick up the empty glasses I felt as warm and happy and young as a grasshopper in a hayfield.

"They are marvelous," I told him. "Do you enjoy these wines yourself?"

"When the boss—that pig—looks the other way, I sometimes manage to sneak myself a mouthful," whispered Macques. "It does wonders for my arthritis."

"How about selling me a couple of bottles to take back to America?"

"Impossible! It is a sacrilege even to suggest such a thing. If Americans knew there were such wines, they would come here in such numbers as to crowd all France."

"At least let me have the corks as souvenirs," I begged. Macques agreed to—for a fee.

"Do not show them here where the other patrons can see them," he said when he returned. He slipped two small objects in my hand. I got up, strolled casually around the corner, and there, under a lamplight, studied the two tin caps in my fingers.

One said "Coca-Cola." The other said "Pepsi Cola."

Long-Time Dallas-Fort Worth Feud Might Have Gone To Dogs

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

That time-honored feud between Dallas and Fort Worth appears to have gone to the dogs.

Apparently Dallas is having a lot of fun with the latest development, and it must be embarrassing to Fort Worth.

A television program from Station WBAP revealed the fact that Fort Worth was out of money for its animal shelter, opened a scarce eight months ago, and that a bunch of dogs on hand would have to be killed because there wasn't any money with which to buy feed for them.

Dallas couldn't resist that challenge. "Send us those dogs. We can feed them and take care of them and find them good homes," shouted Dallas even offering to send a truck to Fort Worth to provide the transportation.

So now, that score of dogs that the Tarrant County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals couldn't feed, are happily housed at the shelter of the Dallas County Society, which some claim should be renamed "The Dallas County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Tarrant County Dogs."

And at Dallas these dogs are all together in a separate pen and on this pen is a great big sign saying: "Fort Worth Dogs."

The dogs are described by The Dallas Times-Herald as "strays of almost every size and mixture." And, they're very, very happy in their new home.

It looks like Dallas has put it over on that big, old friendly cowntown that couldn't rustle up enough scraps to feed 20 stray dogs.

Mrs. Emille Schuyler, who founded the Dallas SPCA some 20 years ago says she and some of her Dallas associates may have to go to Fort Worth and put the humane society there on its feet again. "It takes intestinal fortitude," she declared, "but we in Dallas have it." To this a canine chorus, with tails wagging, have barked a happy "Amen!"

But the Fort Worth folks have an explanation. They claim there are so many burglars in Dallas, and so many prowlers, that everybody in Dallas wants a watch dog and that the SPCA won't have any trouble in finding prowler-jittery homes for these dogs.

Anyway, it will be long remembered, that when Fort Worth couldn't feed its stray dogs, good old Dallas gave them shelter and something to eat, and the folks in Dallas aren't likely to ever let the folks in Fort Worth forget it.

These Days - George Sokolsky

Investigative Work One Of The Required Functions Of Congress

The McCarthy-Stevens hearings raised the issue of the role of the informer in the American government. If the Congress wishes that there should be no informers inside the administration, it should not have appointed any committees to investigate the administration. After all, the only way to investigate is to find leads to corruption, graft, subversion or espionage. A congressional committee cannot know where to look unless somehow it is brought to the committee's attention that something has gone wrong. Someone must tell.

Congress has two functions in this connection: First, it must investigate all government departments not only to obtain data for future legislation but also to determine what appropriations are to be allotted to the various departments; secondly, it acts as a watch-dog agency to see how the laws Congress passes are enforced.

Army Counsel Joseph Welch seemed at no time to understand why the congressional investigative committee exists. Perhaps he did not want to know. Perhaps had he admitted, even to himself, that such committees exist to investigate, he could not have tried his case. It was startling to listen to weeks of this hearing and to note how little a distinguished Boston lawyer knows about the workings of Congress.

When he made his "sick-em Stevens" appeal and various others that as soon as anyone knew of a subversive in the Army, he should go to the Pentagon and shout, "I know of a subversive," he could not have grasped that the business of a congressional investigative committee was not to go to the Pentagon but to start an investigation. And the essence of such an investigation would have to be to discover why the officials charged with the responsibility did not act themselves.

I could not understand, during the weeks that this subject was moving back and forth, why this fact was not brought out clearly. To repeat, a congressional committee is not itself an informer. It exists to obtain information. Mr. Welch and particularly his counsel Mr. St. Clair acted as though a congressional committee did not exist under the law.

As the Communist conspiracy developed in the United States after 1934 when the Harold Ware cell was organized to infiltrate the government of the United States, anti-Communists became active, observing, scrutinizing and evaluating the work of the Communists in government. Many of these voluntary efforts were fruitless. Some were ridiculous to the point of accepting every rumor as a fact; some took on a vigilante characteristic. Some such voluntary activities were of the greatest value.

Out of it, as the years passed, men and women appeared inside our government who came to be known as the "pro-American underground." There is no organization by that name; there are no groups that meet in secret. There is no conspiracy. But that such men and women exist is clear from the fact that Whitaker Chambers found his way to A. A. Berle Jr. when Berle was in the State Department to tell him about Alger Hiss nearly ten years before Hiss was tried; somebody knocked on Representative Karl Mundt's door to tell him about Alger Hiss; somebody tipped Bert Andrews who took Representative Richard Nixon to the Maryland farm where he found "the pumpkin papers."

Someone tipped Senator Joe McCarthy about the Fort Monmouth spy. A number of men in the Voice of America tipped David Schine to Communist activity in that organization. Somebody is always calling attention to high crimes and misdemeanors in government.

It is not surprising that this should be so, nor does it point to a disgruntled government employe. There are persons in every branch of government who use private judgment when they believe that the country is being harmed and that officials have a way of covering up a bad situation. We are a free people and no one loses his citizenship by taking a government job.

The question rightfully arises whether such a person should not first go to the Department of Justice. Perhaps he should. But many do not trust the Department of Justice, while many do. Those who do not, prefer to go with their information to a chairman of a congressional committee.

But this is certain: As long as there is corruption or infiltration an agency must exist to investigate. Perhaps it is to the advantage of the country that several agencies should exist.

Some Advisers Tell Stevenson To Announce As Candidate Now

CHICAGO — How does a defeated candidate, holding no public office, keep himself in the public eye so that he will have a chance to run again? That is Adlai Stevenson's problem and it is a frustrating and difficult one. No one, with the possible exception of Stevenson himself, doubts that he will run again.

Some of his closest advisers are just now urging him to declare himself a candidate. They are saying that he cannot in fairness to his loyal following around the country leave the same last-minute doubts as to his intentions. But others just as devoted to Stevenson's candidacy in '56 are saying that he should NOT publicly announce his plans. Rather, they urge, he should make known to key political figures in states with large delegations his firm determination to seek the Presidency again. Then well in advance they will be able to avoid last-minute uncertainties in the frenzied atmosphere of a national convention.

In his first two years as citizen-without-portfolio Stevenson has struck a pretty fair balance, thanks in part to his round-the-world trip. That solved the immediate problem of what to do in the wake of the big letdown after the November defeat. As he moved from capital to capital around the globe his visits made news. Another problem for the candidate out of office is an income. Stevenson is dipping into a dwindling reserve of capital, from a family inheritance, to maintain his office here.

While he earns some income from writing and speaking, his talks have been mostly for the Democratic party or in behalf of public causes in which he believes. Stevenson has a rugged streak of independence, which makes him resist and resent demands that he toe the "liberal" or "conservative" line. One of those who worked closely with him in '52 believes that he is, in fact, more conservative than his liberal advisers.

Another characteristic that sets him apart from the hurly-burly of politics is a scrupulousness that amounts sometimes to perfectionism. He has written a book of more than 200,000 words on world trends based on his tour. A publisher to whom he made a tentative commitment is clamoring to publish it. But Stevenson has decided against publication since he believes that the whirlwind of events could easily invalidate his conclusions. Instead he has approved publication in book form of the Godkin lectures that he gave at Harvard this spring.

He will take an active part in the Congressional campaign this fall, his activities being gauged to the needs and desires of the Democratic campaign managers in states where there are critical contests. One of those states is, of course, Illinois where Senator Paul Douglas is running for re-election with a Republican opponent, Joseph T. Meek, who will wage a hard and a savage fight.

After the campaign he feels he must resume in some form or other the practice of law which he interrupted when he ran for governor. That, as he sees it, is an economic necessity. But first and for the immediate future he is thinking like millions of Americans at this time of year of a vacation and the dream of getting away from it all for a while. With his youngest son, John Fell, he hopes to go to Alaska and to Vancouver Island off British Columbia for fishing and camping. If he achieves this vacation, it may be the pause between past and future for an American who still lives under the shadow of a destiny puzzling and perplexing but one which he cannot seem to escape.

Complete Derrick, Start Work

Mrs. Arch Ratliff, president, and Mrs. G. C. Broughton Jr., vice president of the Desk and Derrick Club, have completed the derrick in background, which was built during the installation ceremony for the officers of the club. Pictured with them is Mrs. Pauline Redding, center, area co-ordinator, Odessa.

Installation Held For Desk, Derrick

A small derrick was built as officers of the Desk and Derrick Club were installed Monday evening at a dinner at the Wagon Wheel. Beginning with the committee representative, each added a part of the derrick in ascending order up to the president. Mrs. Pauline Redding of Odessa, area co-ordinator of Desk and Derrick Clubs, was the installation leader. She explained the purpose of the club as one of gaining a clearer understanding of the work in oil and allied industries. She gave the history of Desk and Derrick Clubs, and she gave precautions to take in the carrying on of the organization. "Women are more sensitive to the atmosphere of an office than men are," members were told, "and it is through these clubs that a better understanding can be brought about." Chances for improved achievement can be increased by the work of the women in Desk and Derrick, also, Mrs. Redding reminded the group. The bulletin committee of the Odessa Club accompanied Mrs. Redding. This committee is composed of Ina King, Mrs. Rita Amisler and Mrs. Betty Ferrell. The dinner was held in the Candlelight Room, where the tables were decorated with the club colors, pink and black, using arrangements of pink asters and pink candles in crystal holders. Favors were books of matches in the club colors. Forty attended the dinner, for which Mrs. Ray White was chairman of the arrangements committee. Officers, in the order in which they were installed, are Mrs. Alma Goelitz, Mrs. Billie Smith, Marguerite Cooper, Mrs. Bonnie Lindley, Mrs. G. C. Broughton and Mrs. Arch Ratliff.

Laura B. Hart Chapter To Have Officer Institution

About 300 members of the Eastern Star are expected Wednesday from surrounding towns for the institution of the Laura B. Hart Chapter of U. D. A banquet at the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church at 6 p.m. will precede the ceremony, which will be conducted by Chauncey Penix, assistant grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Texas. He will be assisted by Mrs. Eunice Connell, assistant grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Texas. Other officers of the Grand Chapter will be in attendance. The following will be installed: Mrs. Margie Wright, worthy matron; Mrs. Mary Hughes, assistant matron; E. A. Fiveash, assistant patron; Mrs. Dorene Cahoon, secretary; Mrs. Connie Felts, treasurer; Mrs. Gladys Fiveash, Conduress; Mrs. Ollie Puckett, assistant conductress; Mrs. Osa Green, chaplain, and Mrs. Rachel Eckler, marshal. The organist will be Mrs. Velma Griese. Star points are Mrs. Lorene Tuckness as Adah; Mrs. Myrtle Hinson, Ruth; Mrs. Letta Mitchell, Esther; Mrs. Josephine Burns, Martha; and Mrs. Anna Sue Elliott, Electra. Mrs. Pearl Gage will be the warder, and W. B. McKee will be the sentinel.

Wanted: Old Fashioned Family Working Together

What this country needs, says an expert on juvenile delinquency, is a good old-fashioned family that has its fun together. "There is definite trend away from family activity," insists William N. MacKay, parole officer of the Connecticut Third District Juvenile Court. "The mother has her interests, the father his, and the child goes his own way. Family activities in which parents and children work and play together are fast disappearing from the American scene." MacKay thinks that in this breaking up the family unit, our American culture is also promoting juvenile delinquency. It has two basic characteristics, he says, which cause most of our trouble with youngsters. They are: 1. Selfishness. "Delinquency, neglect, divorce, desertion, immorality, alcoholism and the acquisition of money to the neglect of family solidarity are all symptoms of our culture that are based on selfishness." 2. Our social thinking lags behind our ability to create. "We must teach our children to develop their social thinking so it can compete with their scientific skills. We can build a car that

WSCS Has Luncheon, Program

The invocation was given in Spanish by the Rev. G. G. Guerrero at the meeting of the First Methodist Church WSCS luncheon Monday at the church. Rev. Guerrero, who is pastor of the local Methodist Mission, was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mary Helen. Mrs. Hayes Stripling presided at the luncheon, which marked the opening of a new study, "Within These Borders," by John R. Scottford. Circle leaders and members were recognized, and the group was taught a Spanish song and a prayer in Spanish. Carmen de Leon gave a Mexican folk-dance, attired in costumes from Mexico. A skit, played by Mrs. Nancy Dickson and Mrs. Mary Ellen Collins, portrayed some of the problems of the Spanish-speaking people in the United States. The devotion was given by the Rev. Richard Deats. For the covered dish luncheon, tables were decorated with summer flowers and laid with Mexican mats. There were Mexican baskets, pottery of various kinds and small straw burros at intervals along the tables.

Dusty Choate Has Birthday Party

Movies of Dusty Choate's first birthday party were shown at his second birthday party recently, when his parents entertained for him in their home. ### Mrs. Morris Gives Talk On Japan

The combined circles of the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Women's Association met Monday evening for their monthly meeting. After the opening devotional, Mrs. R. N. Heine introduced the speaker, Mrs. R. L. Morris. Mrs. Morris has recently returned from two years in Japan, where her husband was stationed with the United States Air Force. Her talk centered around the Japanese women with whom she worked while living there. She told of their struggle against religious, social, and political barriers to gain independence for themselves. Mrs. Morris also gave a review of the Shinto and Buddhist faiths and how they affect and influence the lives of each Japanese follower. With her talk, Mrs. Morris showed articles of Japanese clothing and household goods familiar to most Japanese households. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Bobbie Peters and Mrs. Carolyn Johnson.

Mary Vinson Feted On Eighth Birthday

The Candlelight Room of the Wagon Wheel was the scene of a party honoring Mary Vinson on her eighth birthday. Her mother, Mrs. Herbert Vinson, was hostess to the group. Prizes were won by Carolyn Sue Kelly, Darla Moore, Pat Roberson, and Barbara Weiner. Other guests at the party were Ronnie Weiner, Phillip Morris, Sandy Wuerz, Paula Gregg, Jane Ann, Glenda and Arthur Farris, Velma and Tricca Stiner, Ralph Kern, Randa Blanchard, Larry Lethcos, Johnnie Sue Lee, Judy Vinson, Tony and Billie Lattie, Martha Glockman, and Billy Word. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, and punch were served to the group.

VFW Auxiliary

Initiation of new members will be held by the VFW Auxiliary at their meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the VFW Hall. All members are urged to attend.

Actress Gives Pointers On How To Live Relaxed

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Virginia Mayo has been so busy in Hollywood making pictures and going on personal appearance tours, that she had forgotten what it was like to be idle until she had her baby. "Before the baby came I just stayed at home with nothing to do so I ate more than I should have," Virginia told me recently when I visited her in her dressing room at Warner's where she is making "The Tallman." "The doctor worried that I might have a hard time getting back into shape." Virginia was wearing a period costume but I could see that she

"Now that I've started working it's easy to diet but I do understand what a temptation it is to nibble when you are around the house. I gained twenty-five pounds but in five weeks I was back to normal," Virginia explained. "My doctor gave me a wonderful diet. It was not difficult to stay on it because I was allowed enough so that I was never hungry. When I felt like eating something I could have lemon sherbet which was made from a non-fattening recipe. "But I hate to exercise and it took sheer will power to do the routine which he worked out for me, and which is designed to go with the sherbet diet," she added. "How long did you have to exercise?" "Only ten or fifteen minutes," Virginia explained. "But it's doing the exercises every day which gets you back into shape." We were interrupted several times with people telling Virginia about changes in the shooting

Denton Eagles Tied For 3rd

By MAX SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP) — Southern Methodist's Mustangs did not figure in pre-tournament predictions but they held a two-stroke lead in the team title race today as the final round of qualifying play began in the National Collegiate golf championships.

While most of the individual favorites were adding strokes to par, the Mustangs and 19-year-old Fred (Rick) Jones Jr. of Ohio State took command in yesterday's opening round.

Jones, Ohio State's No. 4 player this spring, took medalist honors for the first 18 holes with a four-under par 68. The Mustangs meanwhile were making themselves at home by posting a four-under par 284 team total. Oklahoma A&M was second at 286.

Tied for third place at 287 were North Texas, Louisiana State and Texas.

Defending champion Stanford found five of its six players over par and the Indians held 11th place at 300.

Stewart Carrell, a 20-year-old junior from Dallas, paced Southern Methodist into the leadership at the half-way mark with a three-under 69. Floyd Addington, the Mustangs' No. 1 player, settled for a 70 after seeing a drive go into a bayou on the 16th hole.

Tom Towry had a par 72 and Bryan Honts a 73 to round out the SMU team score.

Don Albert of Purdue, one of the few pre-tournament favorites to finish among the opening day individual leaders, matched Carrell's 69. Tied with Addington at 70 were Davis Love of Texas and Ab Justice of Oklahoma A&M.

While today's round was to determine the team championship, the 64 low scorers begin match play tomorrow to find the 1954 individual champion.

Fifty-four players had a three-over par 75 or better yesterday. Nineteen others, including the 1953 individual title holder Earl Moeller of Oklahoma A&M, were grouped at 78.

Also in the 76 group were Bob Benning, the Big 10 champion from Purdue; Bruce Cudd, Portland University ace who reached the National A m a t e u r Tournament semifinals last year, and Ed Wallace, the Eastern Intercollegiate champion.

The 77 group included Doug Lund, the Skyline Conference king from Utah, and Hillman Robbins, Memphis State's Southern Intercollegiate champion.

Jones, a sophomore from Youngstown, Ohio, fashioned his 68 with a 35-33. He had par under control all the way. After using a six-foot putt to birdie the 8th hole, he moved onto the back nine and sank putts of 12, 25 and 10 feet to take a stroke off regulation on the 12th, 13th and 15th holes.

Carr-ll, the Mustangs' No. 2 man, had only one bogie, a 5 on the 377-yard 12th, where he missed a four-foot putt. His birdies came on the 3rd, 9th, 11, and 18th holes with putts of 20, 12, 15 and 12 feet.

Albert three-putted two greens and had trouble with wood shots on a couple of other holes while posting his 69 that included seven birdies and four bogies.

Ohio State held sixth place in team totals at 292. Purdue had 296 and was followed by the University of Houston at 297. Southern California, 298, Trinity of San Antonio 299, Stanford 300, Iowa 303, Yale 304, Colorado and Denver 307 each, Kent State and Memphis State 311 each, Wichita 312 and Utah 315.

Cook Trounces Cosden, 12-1

Jim Watts led the Cook Appliance Company team to a 12-1 victory over Cosden here Monday evening in YMCA City Softball League play.

Cotton Mize set the Oilers down with three hits. Ellis, who got two of those, drove in Thompson for Cosden's only run in the third.

Wesaver got the other blow off Mize.

Cook's big inning was the fourth, when the winners got six runs. Watts hit a grand-slam home run in that round. Jimmy also had a single.

Ted Gross also managed two hits for the winners while Jimmy Hollis had a single and Pete Cook a double for Cook's.

Managers of the City League will meet at the YMCA at 5:30 p.m. Friday in a business session. League Supervisor Pete Cook has announced.

Abilene Blue Sox Wins Double Bill

The Pampa Oilers Monday night hauled themselves into first place in the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League in an 11-inning thriller as they whipped former league-leader Clovis 5-4.

Meanwhile, Abilene won its first doubleheader in two years by whipping Abilene 3-1 and 16-4. Lubbock and Borger split a pair with Lubbock winning the first 6-5 and Borger taking the second 14-

Landy Breaks Bannister's Mark

This is how John Landy, Australian mile star appeared on January 21 of this year as he competed at Melbourne. Landy has displaced Britain's Roger Bannister as the king of the mile, by running the mile in three minutes and 2 seconds at Turko, Finland. Landy's effort shaved one and four-tenths seconds from Bannister's recognized world record and made him the second man in track and field history to negotiate the distance in less than four minutes. ## AFTER GREAT RUN

That's It, For A Year, Says Landy

By STIG HAEGGBLOM

TURKU, Finland (AP)—John Landy, the second man in history to crash the four-minute mile barrier, rested today after his record-shattering 3:08 performance and announced that he probably would do no better—at least for this year.

"I have kept my present top shape for more than nine months," Landy said. "After using a six-foot putt to birdie the 8th hole, he moved onto the back nine and sank putts of 12, 25 and 10 feet to take a stroke off regulation on the 12th, 13th and 15th holes."

Carr-ll, the Mustangs' No. 2 man, had only one bogie, a 5 on the 377-yard 12th, where he missed a four-foot putt. His birdies came on the 3rd, 9th, 11, and 18th holes with putts of 20, 12, 15 and 12 feet.

Albert three-putted two greens and had trouble with wood shots on a couple of other holes while posting his 69 that included seven birdies and four bogies.

Ohio State held sixth place in team totals at 292. Purdue had 296 and was followed by the University of Houston at 297. Southern California, 298, Trinity of San Antonio 299, Stanford 300, Iowa 303, Yale 304, Colorado and Denver 307 each, Kent State and Memphis State 311 each, Wichita 312 and Utah 315.

"I'm almost too happy to be able to speak," said Landy, whose breathtaking career has included nine mile races of under 4:03. "If it hadn't been for Chris Chataway chasing me around the track I never would have made it."

"I knew he was immediately behind me and that he would not hesitate to pass me if I slowed up for the very least."

Ironically, Chataway, an Englishman, was the runner who pushed Bannister to his 3:59.5 effort.

In the process of breaking the mile record, Landy also lowered the world 1,500-meter mark to 3:41.8. Both records must be recognized by the International Amateur Athletic Federation, but there was no doubt that the recognition would be a mere formality.

In London, Bannister commented: "It is a wonderful achievement. Landy has tried as hard as anyone to run the mile under four minutes, and I am glad he has succeeded."

Landy changed his tactics slightly

Maureen Connolly Launches Wimbledon Title Defense

By TOM OCHILTREE
WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Maureen Connolly—regarded as the tennis world's nearest thing to a dead certainty—begins the defense of her Wimbledon title today on the Ivy-entwined center court.

The hope of Wimbledon officials is that her opponent, Miss J. Scott, of South Africa, will be able to make a match out of it.

For the last couple of years the early-round players against Miss Connolly were frightened and nervous before they even took to the court against San Diego's "Little Mo," who is aiming for her third straight Wimbledon singles championship.

So great is the Connolly domination of the women's field that she is hardly expected to have a close match before she reaches the quarter ly yesterday. Instead of setting the pace all the way as he usually does, he hung back in second place until just before the half-mile mark and finished in a blaze of speed. He showed no signs of exhaustion as spectators carried him from the stadium on their shoulders.

Caldwell Still Going Strong

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Earl Caldwell, who's supposed to have been in the sunset of his professional baseball career for a decade, may be having his best season yet—and he's now in his 29th campaign.

The 41-year-old former major league pitcher started the season as manager of Harlingen in the Big State league. He won five and lost one pitching in relief before he quit. He said they didn't give him the ball players to do any good.

He signed immediately with Corpus Christi and now has won five and lost one hurling for the Clippers.

Although old enough to be the father of many teammates and opponents, Caldwell still has plenty on the ball and General Manager Bob Hamric of Corpus Christi says "he's in better shape than some of our young players."

Caldwell looks trim for his years, but like a middle-aged golfer, not like a successful pitcher in a young man's game. You can tell he's 47—until he starts pitching, with his pinpoint control and sufficient stuff in the tight spots.

"I try to do a little running and a little throwing every day," Caldwell explains his good physical condition, "but not enough to hurt. I keep on running in the winter. I just happened to be one of those lucky guys with a good pair of legs. I need to take off about 15 pounds. I weigh about 210 now. I can't bend over to throw sidarm like I used to."

Al Rosen, Avila's teammate, is second with a .345 mark. Then come Nellie Fox of Chicago, .328; Frank House, Detroit, .325; and Minnie Miñoso and Vera Stephens of Baltimore, with .322 each.

ter finals in this two-week tennis carnival.

The second-seeded, Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., will open against Georgie Woodgate, a British player.

Louise Brough, of Beverly Hills, Calif., meets Mrs. Dorothy Gotsa, Britain. Miss Brough, seeded third, is a three-time winner of the title. Shirley Fry, Akron, Ohio, seeded fourth, plays Mrs. V. Alvensleben-Rigillet, of Switzerland, and Mrs. Margaret Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., seeded fifth, opposes Valerie White, Britain.

First and second-round singles matches are on top in the women's division along with several men's doubles and a sprinkling of mixed doubles.

The top seeded men's pair of Rex Hartwig and Mervyn Rose of Australia, is pitted against two Italians—Giuseppe Clerici and Orlando Sirola

Joe Riney Gets Warm As Tribe Trips Broncs

MIDLAND (SC)—Big Spring's ace hurler, Mike Rainey, showed the effects of the 16-inning game he recently hurled when Midland clubbed him and the Broncs for a 10-4 victory here Monday night.

The two teams are booked to meet here again tonight, with Bertie Baer taking the mound for Big Spring in quest of his 11th win.

Harold Hacker squared his personal record at 7-7 as the Indians won their fifth in a row.

Joe Riney former Big Spring infielder, led the attack on his old mates with four hits in four trips. Riney brought in Midland's first run in the opening frame singling behind singles by Bud Hull and Pat Waters. In the fourth he drove in another run in a four-run frame and in the sixth he tripped and scored when the relay was mis-played.

Walks kept Harold Hacker in trouble through the early stages of the game. Pepper Martin walked in the second and brought in the Broncs' first run when Bob Doe singled.

After Midland forged ahead, 4-1, in the last of the second an infield single and two walks got Hacker in trouble again. This time Jim Zapp drilled a single into left scoring two runs.

With the score 5-4 in favor of Midland in the fourth the Indians led it with six straight hits to send Rainey to showers. Reliever Frank Maren was touched for four of the blows.

Frank Ryff Looks To Bout With Zulueta After Win

NEW YORK (AP)—Frankie Ryff, a shiny new face in the lightweight division, is ready to step up in class after his impressive victory over Brian Kelly.

The 22-year-old New York lad, unbeaten in 12 pro fights, won a lopsided fight from Kelly last night at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway. He had the Niagara Falls, Ont., boxer on the floor in the eighth round.

Teddy Brenner, Eastern Parkway matchmaker, hopes to pair Ryff with Orlando Zulueta, the clever high-fanked Cuban, or Ralph Dupas, the New Orleans schoolboy flash, in an Aug. 9 bout. He must wait that long because Ryff probably will have to take a six-week lay-off as the result of an inch cut over his left eye.

Ryff is handled by Gus D'Amato, the manager of Floyd Patterson, unbeaten Olympic champ. "The kid is ready," said D'Amato. "He did a fine job on Kelly."

Referee Mark Conn and Judge Americo Schiavone each scored it 9-1 and Judge Joe Eppy 8-2. A crowd of 1,050 paid $2,450 to see the 3-1 favorite come through as expected with left hooks and left-right combinations.

Italo Scorticchini finally grabbed a decision, although a split verdict, over Pedro Gonzales at St. Nicholas Arena, and he could hardly believe it.

"You won, you won," Charlie Johnston, his co-manager, told the Italian Import before the decision was announced. "And you'll get it here."

Scorticchini thought he was "robbed" when he was held to a draw by Carmen Basilio at Miami Jan. 15. The fans raised the roof at the Garden Feb. 12 when he lost a split decision to Joey Glambra.

Scorticchini didn't like decisions against him by Carmine Fiore March 27 or a defeat by Basilio in a Syracuse rematch May 15.

Scorticchini suffered a cut at the side of the right eye last night. He swept the early rounds, brushing past the left jobs of the Rankin, Pa., middleweight to pound at the body with both hands. Although Gonzales solved Italo's style in the late rounds he started too late.

Judge Joe Aguello had it 7-5 and Referee Al Berri 5-4, both for Scorticchini. Judge Harold Barnes scored it 5-4 for Gonzales.

GEORGE MAHON

Mahon Asks Continuation Of Support

Congressman George Mahon goes unopposed again this year for election from the 19th district, but he has sent a message of greetings and request for support to the people of his district. He has filed in all counties of his district.

"I want to announce for re-election, and at the same time thank the people for their generous support and good will through the years. I will be grateful for your support in the July primary," the representative said. "I am always mindful of the fact that public office is a gift of the people and should never be taken for granted." Mahon is one of the senior members of Congress from the standpoint of years of service in Washington. His record in behalf of the people is well known to West Texans. "In some undertakings," he said, "I have failed. Other efforts have been successful. I have tried in big and little matters to do the best possible job in behalf of our Nation and the people of our District." In his statement Mahon said, "If re-elected, and I use this means to solicit your continued favor, I shall go my whole limit to do a good job. I want to contribute everything within my power to the cause of decency and good govern-

Government Reports Slight Increase In Cost Of Living

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that living costs edged up three-tenths of one per cent in May due to higher food prices. The increase brought the index compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics to 115.0 per cent of the 1947-49 average, or the same level as was recorded for last August, November and February. In May of last year it was 114.0. The increase meant no change in hourly wages for one million railroad workers whose pay rates are geared by labor contract to the May index. They had stood to loose one cent an hour if the May index was below 114.8.

PO Box Rent May Be Paid By Year

Post Office box holders may now pay box rent by the year instead of quarterly as in the past, Postmaster Elmer Boatler has announced. The change becomes effective July 1. The change has been allowed in all U. S. Post Offices, he said. Notices advising box holders of the change have been placed in all local boxes. A number of persons had requested that the change be made, Boatler said. Payment had been on the quarterly system since the establishment of the Post Office system.

Ex-Official's Rites Planned At Snyder

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Snyder for Clifley Lockhart, 79, who died here yesterday. Lockhart was former state treasurer and was active in Texas politics despite his height of 45 inches. He served as state treasurer from 1939 to 1941, when he retired because of ill health.

Miss Truman Draws Raves

MOUNTAINHOME, Pa. (AP)—Margaret Truman was hailed as the "darling Marge" of the summer theater circuit following her dramatic debut in the Pocono Playhouse last night. Miss Truman appeared in the role of Katie Grey, a young American schoolteacher who finds love briefly and unhappily on a European vacation, in the play "Autumn Crocus" by Dodie Smith. Her performance drew such audience comment as "smoothly done" and "very professional." She was greeted off-stage by cameramen and newsreel crews. A critic for Variety Magazine said, "Her character portrayal and acting was gracious and honest. She made the character she portrayed truly shy and drab as it should have been." The critic, who declined to be identified, predicted Miss Truman would become the "darling Marge" of the summer theater circuit.

The daughter of the former President remained in hourly telephone contact with her father, recovering from an operation in a Kansas City hospital. She had decided to go on with her scheduled performance after a check with her mother Sunday. She plans a full nine weeks of similar stock appearances, winding up at Philadelphia Playhouse in the Park late in August.

Refreshments Served At Service Center

Two local organizations served refreshments to Webb AFB men over the weekend. Child Study Club served Saturday and Ladies of the Presbyterian Church served Sunday. Approximately 35 persons attended each event, held at Servicemen's Center.
