Blood Bath Engulfs Most of Red China

HONG KONG (UPI)—Chinese Communist Radio broadcasts today said Red Guards are rampaging in the streets in many parts of the country.

British Tighten Positions Along Hong Kong Border

HONG KONG (UPI)—British troops today pulled back from a key point along Hong Kong's tense border with Communist China with the government tightened curfew restrictions along the entire frontier for the first time since 1949.

The military decided its position at Man Kam To, chief crossing point for vehicular traffic between the colony and China, was indefensible and started demolishing all buildings in the troubled area.

"We will withdraw to the hill overlooking the border where we will be in a better tactical position that will allow us to react immediately," Maj. Christopher Pike told a correspondent permitted to visit the restricted frontier today.

Gurkha troops in full battle dress were tearing down an Immigration office at the Man Kam To border bridge.

The crossing point has been the scene of several incidents in which Communist Chinese mobs crossed into British territory and stoned border guards and government buildings.

The colonial government said the new border curfew, which extends to persons living in the area, was imposed "in the interest of public peace and order."

Residents of the area must obtain special passes to venture out during the 10 p.m.-5 a.m. hours of curfew and passes will be issued only under "exceptional circumstances."

The change in the curfew was the first since the Communists took over mainland China in 1949.

Goad and Thomas Win Promotions

Patrolmen Jesse B. Goad and John L. Thomas today were promoted to sergeants in the Pampa police department, it was announced shortly before noon by Police Chief Jim Conner.

Goad and Thomas won promotions following a test given to five patrolmen last week and interviews yesterday and this forenoon with those who took the test.

Goad, a former lieutenant, has been with the department 16 years. He resigned in April of 1963 but returned as a patrolman in December, 1963.

Thomas has been a patrolman in the Pampa department for two years.

Conner also announced that Patrolman C. L. Wallace, a four-year member of the department, served notice today he was resigning effective Sept. 1 to take a post with the Gray County sheriff's department.

Canadians Think Murder Suspect Is A Neighbor

SHELL LAKE, Sask. (UPI)—Canadian Mounties methodically went about their investigation of the mass murders of nine members of one family while fear grew the killer may be a neighbor.

Doors never locked before in this farm and bush country on the fringe of the Canadian Northwest wilds were locked tight after the Royal Canadian Mounted Police indicated a resident may have turned killer.

"It's hard to fathom a stranger coming into an area like this, picking a farm and wiping out a family," said RCMP S. Sgt. R. E. Sondergaard.

"We have not ruled out the possibility it was someone in the area, although there is nothing definite on this yet," he said.

A friend of James Peterson, who along with his wife and seven of their children was murdered in their farm home, said he had never locked his door "until now."

Albert Belisle, a farmer near Spiritwood, a community only a few miles from here, said he now locks the door by jabbing a butcher knife into the door-frame so the handle will hold the door shut tightly.

The fears that it was no stranger who brought death to the Petersons were intensified by the RCMP announcement that Mounties were looking for "certain types of rifles," which would be test-fired and checked by ballistics experts.

"We don't have to just sweep up—we must complete repairs to the city's sewage treatment plant and other structures" before the paralyzing winter sets in, said Pat Ryan, a top aide to Gov. Walter J. Hickel.

"It will take a miracle to make this thing work," Ryan said. "But it will work. We have great leadership."

The Yukon city has been in a disaster status since Monday night when the Chena River, which snakes through the city, spilled over its banks. It is dropping slowly after leaving 18,000 homeless and damage estimated at $200 million.

Hickel said that as of today the death toll stands at three. However, unofficial reports placed the fatality count at seven.

The city's 30,000 residents got a boost from President Johnson Thursday. At the peak of the community a disaster area.

This paved the way for $1 million in low-interest loans for the mighty job of rebuilding.

A main stumbling block before restoration was the river itself. It is receding too slowly. The river dropped only one foot Thursday. At the peak of the flooding it measured about 18 feet above flood stage.

FLOODED LOBBY of a Fairbanks hotel forced visitors to wade. The hotel and other buildings were evacuated as six-foot floodwaters of Chena River poured through the Alaskan city.

SIX WEEKS TO GO Fairbanks Races To Rebuild Torn City

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (UPI)—Flood-ravaged Fairbanks is racing against the clock. In six weeks it will be so cold that repair and rebuilding will be out of the question.

The thermometer will hover around 50 degrees below zero, and the city will be frozen solid.

"We are being frustrated because the water is going down so slowly," Ryan said. "If the water would go down a couple of feet, we would be able to get autos around and get things done."

He said the 18,000 displaced persons were eager to get back to their homes so they could start their lives anew. Morale, he added, was extremely high.

Electricity was restored and the drinking water was declared safe but communications were still extremely bad.

"The company sent me information on new cases in Higgins, Happy, Gatesville and Clifton because I worked with them in January, 1966, when we investigated the case in Gray County," Baten said.

Baten explained the swindlers intend to approach elderly people and swindled an 86-year-old man in Clifton out of $282.

No injury was reported.

DeGaulle Policy Draws 'Appeal,' Chafes Assembly

Paris (UPI)—Valery Giscard d'Estaing, leader of the minority Republican Independent Party which kept De Gaulle in power after the last elections, issued an "appeal" to De Gaulle Thursday to consult with his coalition partners before making policy decisions.

The 42-year-old conservative leader punctuated his "appeal" with a threat that unless De Gaulle started consulting his coalition partners, the coalition might crumble.

In the March elections Gaullists failed to win a majority of seats in the French National Assembly, winning only 244 seats. D'Estaing threw his Republican Independent Party's 41 seats into a coalition on the condition that De Gaulle consult the minority party on government matters.

In a statement issued following a six-hour caucus by the Republican Independents, D'Estaing criticized De Gaulle's "singlehanded exercise of power."

D'Estaing cited De Gaulle's "Long Live Free Quebec" government's attack on Israel statement in Canada, and the French President's controversial economic and social welfare reforms.

Most French newspapers today praised D'Estaing's statement and some suggested D'Estaing as a "successor" to De Gaulle. Political observers doubted De Gaulle would alter his positions as a result of D'Estaing's statement.

Swindlers Sell Lightning Rods

Lightning may or may not strike twice in the same place, but Texas Ranger Bill Baten can tell you lightning rod swindlers can and have struck again.

Baten was en route to Higgins in Lipscomb County today to investigate another report of lightning rod swindlers talking Texans out of their money and never producing the lightning protectors.

"I'm pretty sure these men are not the same ones who were here before in 1966, but they are misrepresenting the same company, the Robbins Lightning Protection Co. of Maryville, Mo.," Baten said.

Baten explained the swindlers pretend to represent the company and "have certificates, metal tags, and everything," for identification, but never actually worked for the company.

"The company sent me information on new cases in Higgins, Happy, Gatesville and Clifton because I worked with them in January, 1966, when we investigated the case in Gray County," Baten said.

Baten explained the swindlers intend to approach elderly people and swindled an 86-year-old man in Clifton out of $282.

Curfew Is Ignored By Roving Negroes

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI)—Sporadic gunfire crackled through the curfew-hushed streets of Syracuse before dawn today on the second consecutive night of racial violence in this upstate New York university city.

Five persons were slightly injured by thrown rocks and at least 27 persons, three of them white, were arrested on charges ranging from drunkenness to burglary.

Police with "blanket permission to use whatever means necessary" to preserve order threw tear gas and fire warning shots to disperse bands of Negroes who were smashing windows and stoning passing cars.

A 10-hour city-wide curfew proclaimed by Mayor William F. Walsh was not fully effective, but it appeared to have curbed the burning and looting that marked Wednesday night's outbreak of violence here.

At least six fires occurred in the city Thursday night, four of them in the area where the rioting began.

A molotov cocktail started a minor fire at an urban-renewal construction site near Syracuse University. The flames were quickly brought under control.

The only looting reported Thursday night was a smash-and-grab raid on a liquor store by two Negroes who broke a display window, seized armloads of bottles and drove away in a truck.

Police used tear gas to disperse milling, jeering crowds and in one instance to drive three men out of a building.

City police were reinforced by 25 Onondaga County sheriff's deputies, and 95 law-enforcement officials in neighboring counties were standing by for possible duty.

"We feel that things are definitely under control, although this is no sign that we are out of the woods," said John F. O'Connor, the former New York City police official who was sworn in as Syracuse's chief of police at 11 p.m. Thursday.

O'Connor told a news conference he plans to recruit young men in predominantly Negro areas to "counsel and guide their fellow youths." "These lads will be acting members of the Syracuse police force," the chief said.

B52s Hit Targets In North Viet Buildup

SAIGON (UPI)—America's biggest bombers defiantly swung over North Vietnam today and bombarded Communist forces massing for an invasion of South Vietnam.

The Air Force B52 Stratofortresses staged two raids as far as four miles above the North-South Vietnam border after smaller U.S. jets cleared the way by knocking out anti-aircraft missile sites.

The B52 assault on troop camps, fuel and ammunition dumps and artillery sites capped a massive American effort to ruin the major North Vietnamese invasion route.

Earlier, Marine jets crisscrossed the border's Demilitarized Zone (DMZ), striking advanced Communist positions. U.S. Navy gunfire from the coast plowed into North Vietnamese troop concentrations.

Just below the DMZ Thursday American helicopters spread tear-gas in an attempt to rout a "phantom" Communist artillery piece harassing Marine fortresses strung out below the DMZ.

U.S. spokesmen said damage reports of the B52 raids were not yet available. There were no

By CARROLL RIGHTER

FOR SATURDAY, AUGUST 19
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today and tonight's full moon is fraught with all kinds of troubles unless you make a point to act with much care and caution and refuse to become involved in the arguments others so easily put into motion at this time. Show you can charm others out of their bad dispositions and you help the world greatly.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Being very helpful to close ties and friends is wise or there can be real trouble for them, including yourself, later on. Others may seem quite cold toward you. Prefer this to quarreling for the time being.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Higher-ups and kin are looking for a whipping boy, so be gentle or avoid as much as possible. Just keep busy at your own responsibilities. Show that you are industrious and all is fine.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Be sure that all statements are accurate and do not work so fast that you make errors, since your mind is extremely active right now. Drive with care or there is bound to be a serious accident! Be thoughtful of others also.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Take care you do not invest unwisely, whether money is yours or that of good friends. Try to cut down on expenditures of a regular nature as well. Look out your feet on the ground and start to advance.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You and associates do not agree at all today, so postpone conferences until a better day, otherwise there is much trouble all around. Keep busy at whatever is practical. Avoid severance of connections.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Be careful in eliminating whatever stands in the way of your advancement or you get in to more trouble. Don't feel that others are imposing on you. Keep your promises although they may be tedious for you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) Be sure to schedule your time wisely so that you can be helpful to friends, please kin and yet get your work done well in this way your present hurt feelings. Being particularly devoted to make it wise.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Don't take any risks where your nicest work ideas, job, or credit are concerned. Be very loyal to higher-ups and kin rather than finding something to complain about. Show that you are a generous, conscientious person.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Those new ideas you have should not be put in operation right now unless you have studied them further. Getting that important work done is also vital. Don't go running off on some tangent or other.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Trying to straighten out any personal problems with others today might lead to more than you can comfortably handle. Await a better day and time. Do whatever will show your devotion to kin.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Some action you take can be most helpful to partners now rather than be critical of them. Be very diplomatic in taking care of some duty out of doors. Don't get into any trouble that is best avoided now.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) With all that word ahead of you, don't get into some foolish pleasure junk that is best not in a very good mood. Make allowances for this and keep busy at own work.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he, or she, will be one of those fascinating young people who think big and do get big, since this clever mind weighs every fact and figure, analyzes others accurately, and brings things into the open to the satisfaction of all. A wonderful, honest, intelligent person here. An appointment with the government is fine here.

Golden Anniversary Convention Is Discussed for Altrusa Club Members

The patio at the home of Mrs. Thelma Bray was the setting for a patio party, arranged by the Altrusa Information Committee with Mrs. Genevieve Hedersma, co-chairman, in charge. The covered-dish supper was enjoyed by Altrusans in a very realistic setting for "Florida Fun Under the Setting Sun", made possible through the lighting effect, arranged by Mrs. Mildred Prince, in the yard shrubbery, surrounding the patio.

Following the informal hour of supper and visiting, the business of Altrusa was presided over by Mrs. Lora Dunn, president for 1967-68.

The program, under the leadership of Mrs. Elma Vanderberg, was a review of the highlights of the Altrusa International Golden Anniversary in Miami Beach, Fla. Pampa was represented by Mrs. Lora Dunn and Mrs. Elma Vanderberg as delegates and Mrs. Fidelia Yoder alternate. The theme of the convention, which was attended by Altrusans from 13 countries around the world, was "Communications."

Mrs. Dunn gave many interesting and factual items of interest to Altrusans. She reported that the total registrations was 1,062. She was impressed with a speaker from Puerto Rico, Dona Felisa de Gautier, Mayress of San Juan, Puerto Rico for many years. "She is a very capable and beautiful woman. At the conclusion of her talk, she was surprised to recognize an Altrusian Award, as an outstanding International Citizen. For the first time, Altrusa also recognized a man, who was Bob Hope for his extraordinary dedication to the philosophy of unselfishness," Mrs. Dunn said.

Mrs. Vanderberg gave highlights from several of the speakers at the convention: "The keynote speaker was Marie Rambo, a distinguished international figure, educator, philosopher, specializing in Social Science, editor and producer of educational filmstrips on Africa and Mexico to be used in the school systems of USA. Miss Rambo defined Communication as a fourway intersection — reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Listening is a very vital part of communications. Computers will change man's way of thinking and alter his way of living. She mentioned such "Miracles" of Communication as the talking typewriter, electronic libraries of science, medicine and law; language translators and the World Communication System via the communications satellites and television. The manner in which we use them will determine the world we will live in. Do not think of this world as nations, but think of it as a world of human beings. "The highlight of the luncheon on Monday was a talk by Malawi's charming princess Alice. Alice Siwundhla, a former Altrusa "Grants-in-Aid" recipient from Africa, who is a graduate student at the University of Calif., working on her Doctorate along with her husband. It was heartwarming to hear her tell of her search for knowledge and her educational opportunities made possible by Altrusa. She

Dishes Should Be Well-Checked

COLLEGE STATION — If you are buying dinnerware, you may be wondering what to look for in workmanship. Jane Berry, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist with Texas A&M University, says some quality features can be readily checked.

Colors should be even and decorative lines should be precise. Rims and edges should not be rough, warped or wavy. The foot and handle of the cup should be joined smoothly; tiny cracks at these points indicate weakness.

There should be no bumps, pits, blisters or tiny cracks (called crazing) in the glaze. A transparent glaze should be brilliantly clear so that colors come through in full strength. The dull matt and semi-matt glazes should not be muddy.

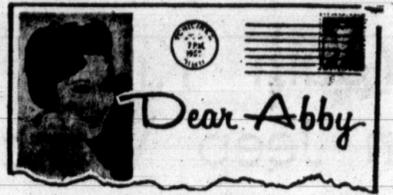

While checking quality, notice shapes and proportions. How does the cup balance in the hand? Is the handle comfortable to hold? How will the plates look with your other tableware? Finally, take your time. Shop more than one store. Question salespeople freely, and ask for brochures on the lines that appeal to you.

If a bargain interests you look at the seconds usually sold in discount pottery shops at 10 to 60 percent below list prices for first quality. Most of these are of foreign origin since producers, at home and abroad, export their mistakes to protect domestic reputation for quality. In fact, manufacturers of fine china seldom imprint their names on defective pieces. The fault may be an imperceptible warping of edges, an apparent discoloration, an error in the sequence of a design or some other similar failure in workmanship.

is the author of a wonderful book "Alice Princess", Mrs. Vanderberg stated.

These are the highlights from the address given by Mrs. Ernestine Milner, past president of Altrusa International, whose theme was "Around the World in Twenty Months", visiting 36 countries, filling 600 pages in a journal. Mrs. Milner limited her discussion to "Communications of Women" all over the world: learning from women in face-to-face conversation. . . She said that she saw eagerness with which women are learning to read and write. . . a surge for education everywhere. She believes that the most effective way to bridge the gap with people all over the world is the "Person-to-Person contact of dedicated Americans wanting to really build international friendship and understanding. This is one of Altrusa's projects.

Mrs. Yoder closed the program by giving many interesting side-lights of the Convention activities and describing the festivities of the luncheons, dinners and the president's banquet.

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Irving and I have been married for 9 years and we have four children. Irving has a hobby which takes up all his time. He is a pigeon fancier. He belongs to pigeon clubs, goes to meetings, gets all the literature, and of course, we keep pigeons.

If we go anyplace, it is over to some other pigeon fancier's house. I sit in the car while Irving looks at the birds and talks pigeon talk.

The last time we were somewhere that didn't have something to do with pigeons was at the Elks club last New Year's eve. Irving does not care to socialize with anyone unless they have pigeons.

Maybe I'm dumb, Abby, but even though it seems like all I am is a housekeeper, baby sitter, and someone to sleep with, I still love him. Please tell me what to do.

SICK OF PIGEONS
DEAR SICK: Your husband is obviously for the birds, but yours is a legitimate squawk! Tell Irving that he had better straighten up and fly right, or his selfishness will come home to roost.

DEAR ABBY: Our 12-year-old son sent for some kind of "art course" he saw advertised in a magazine. He signed his father's name to the contract, agreeing to return it within 10 days if he decided not to keep it.

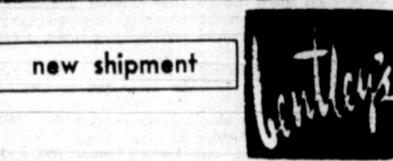

To make a long story short, this art school wrote to us demanding payment of $68 for the course. They claim they never got it back. Our son insists that he sent it back after keeping it only 2 days, but he does not have a receipt or anything to prove it. Now what do we do?

We knew nothing about this until we received a letter demanding payment. Our son then confessed what he had done. Please help us. Eighty-eight dollars means a lot to us right now.
WORRIED PARENTS
DEAR WORRIED: A minor is not bound by a contract. Neither are his parents bound by a forged signature. Write to the art school advising them of your son's age and the forgery. If they pursue the matter further, and serve you with a summons or complaint, see an attorney to file an answer to that complaint.
Or consult your local legal aid society. And tell your son that if he ever pulls a stunt like that again, he will have to pay for it by the sweat of his brow. P.S. It should also teach him to "insure" that which is being returned in the mail.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.

If you are anything except brunette, try lining your eyes with charcoal or with brown. Underlining for day should be nothing more than a dotted-on line between your lower lashes. Keep any extension short and straight, suggest beauty experts at Coty. You see? It's time to bury that just-off-the-barge on the Nile look.

Levelland Father And 14-Year-Old Girl Dissappear

LEVELLAND, Tex. (UPI) — A postcard from a father to one of his children has centered a hunt today for a transient farm labor contractor charged with kidnaping a 14-year-old Levelland girl in Gallup, N.M. Loren Blood, 36, was charged with kidnaping Debbie Feemster. The two disappeared Aug. 4.

Blood still has a wife and two children in Levelland, police said. A card from Blood to one of his children postmarked Aug. 10, said he and Debbie planned to attend an Indian celebration in Gallup the next day.

Police said Mrs. Blood and her two children packed and left Levelland for Gallup this week to look for her husband. Gallup police confirmed she had arrived in the northwestern New Mexico city.

Three days after Blood and the girl disappeared, Debbie wrote her parents from Juarez, Mexico saying she and Blood were planning to get married in the border city.

Intruders Burn Five In Bizarre Minnesota Plot

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (UPI)—Five members of a Pearl Lake area family were found burned to death in their home early today hours after the father was found outside the home tied spread-eagle to a post and shot, apparently by intruders.

David Haskins, 32, who was found by seven teenagers about 1:30 a.m., said four or five intruders broke into the home about 1 a.m.

Haskins was taken by the teenagers to a Pearl Lake store where he mumbled that his wife and children were still in the burning home.

Authorities said he was delirious and hysterical and he was taken to the St. Cloud Hospital with bullet wounds in the chest and shoulder.

Police could not confirm Haskins' story until about 7 a.m., when they found the bodies of the mother and children, ranging in age from two months to seven years.

Haskins later told authorities he was watching a late show on television when he heard noises outside the home. He said he thought it may have been a door slamming.

Four or five intruders suddenly entered, he said, then beat him and tied him to a clothesline post outside the home. He said they put a turkish towel around his head and shot him twice. He said that while he was left tied there, the intruders set fire to the home.

The teen-agers, who were driving in the area, said they heard screams and noticed the fire. They found Haskins tied and bleeding, mumbling incoherently and then took him to a store nearby.

The state crime bureau was called in to aid the Stearns County sheriff's office.

Pearl Lake is located about 18 miles southwest of here.

HUGE SQUASH
BUFORD, Ga. (UPI)—Farmer Jarvis Johnson brought his prize squash to town Wednesday but he needed some help. It weighed 132 pounds.

Johnson was proud of his super squash, but hastened to report that in his past he has raised a 4 1/4 pound cucumber and a 3 1/4 pound tomato.

3 Churches Plan Sunday Activities

Three Pampa churches have planned special activities for Sunday, have announced Sunday sermon topics and programs for Wednesday night services.

The 13th chapter of Hebrews gives Rev. Martin Hager, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, the textual basis for his sermon, "The Beginning of Morality," Sunday. The Old Testament Lesson is taken from the third chapter of the book of Jonah. Services begin at 8:30 and 11 a.m. and Church School at 9:45 a.m.

Ruling Elder N. Dudley Steele will assist with both services. Mrs. Fidelia Yoder, church organist, will present the offertory, "Ave Verum" by Mozart, as well as the postlude and prelude selections.

Preparations are being made for the Summer School of Faith which starts Aug. 27 and continues daily at 6:30 p.m. until Aug. 31. Dr. Ross Dunn, of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, will lead in this second annual School of Faith.

First Christian Church
Rev. J. W. Duke will deliver the sermon for the morning service at First Christian Church. Rev. C. M. Grow, associate minister, will assist.

Mrs. Stanley Hill will direct the choir in their special "Seek Ye the Lord" by Don Humphreys. Mrs. Paul Reimer will sing the solo part. Mrs. Dan King will accompany singers at the organ.

Rev. Grow is out of town this week attending Junior Camp with the following children: Debra Reimer, Pattie Sims, Evelyn Cash, Judy Parsley, Mona Williams, Judy Carruth, Denise Jagger, Douglas Jagger, Mary Breazeale, Terry Allen, Mark McPhillips and Jimmy Cox.

Those attending as counselors are Rev. and Mrs. Grow, Mrs. Jack Chisum, Charles Ely, Tim Dake, Chuck Lanehart and Gail Boswell.

God and Country Classes will begin at 5 p.m., snack supper 5:30 and Evening Youth Groups at 6 p.m. Sunday.

The pastor's cabinet of First Christian Church will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

First Baptist Church
The Rev. Dan B. Cameron, First Baptist Church pastor here, will preach for both services Sunday.

In the 11 a.m. service, he will begin a series of sermons on "Seven Deadly Sins" and the first subject will be "Pride."

Randall Purvis, minister of music, will direct the Chancel Choir in singing the anthem, "O Divine Redeemer" by Wilson and will sing a solo, "I Will Praise Thee" by Davis.

Miss Eloise Lane, organist, has chosen "Theme from Chorale in A Minor" by Franck for the offertory.

"Divine Healing" is the pastor's topic for his 7 p.m. sermon. Purvis will direct the chapel choir. Terry Scoggin, baritone, will be soloist and the organ offertory is to be "Andante Religioso" by Gade.

Mid-Week service is planned after the fellowship supper at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday. The pastor will continue teaching the book of Revelation and has requested the congregation study the 16th chapter for next Wednesday.

Zion Lutheran Church Plans 25th Anniversary Service

Zion Lutheran Church members will observe their 25th anniversary as an organized congregation Aug. 27 with two special speakers and former pastors at the church.

Rev. Henry Wolter, pastor of Zion Lutheran congregation in New Orleans, La., will speak in the first service at 10:30 a.m. Members and guests will attend a dinner in the Pampa High School cafeteria at 12:30 p.m. and a fellowship coffee in the parish hall at 4:30 p.m.

Rev. Arthur A. Bruns, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church in Schulenburg, will address the congregation at 3 p.m.

Anniversary committee chairman is Deck Woldt. The Lutheran Women's Missionary League members and other congregation members are assisting with food, decorations and serving committees.

"We are inviting former members and pastors and members of other Lutheran churches in the area to attend and participate," Rev. M. G. Herring, pastor, said.

Zion Lutheran Church, located at 1200 Duncan St., has been an organized congregation since Sept. 1942. It started in 1941 with the Rev. H. R. Frerking of Amarillo preaching services twice a month for Lutheran families.

The first families met in the Nelson Funeral Home chapel a year, until Rev. Frerking entered the Armed Forces as a Lutheran chaplain.

In 1942, after the Mission Board of the Texas district accepted Pampans' request for a full-time minister, three lots in the 1200 block Duncan St. were bought for $900, Rev. Herring said.

Rev. Wolter, a 1942 graduate of Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Mo., was the first resident pastor here. That same year, after the Nelson Funeral Home was converted into an apartment house, the congregation began using the first Duengel-Carmichael Funeral Home Chapel for its place of worship.

A schoolhouse in the Davis School District, 12 miles east of Pampa, was bought and remodeled for $4,000 in 1943. In 1944 the remodeled building was dedicated.

Before the dedication, Rev. Wolter transferred to Trinity Congregation, Martinsburg, Neb. Interim preachers were Rev. J. C. Rook of Borger and Rev. Donald Hafemann of Dumas.

The church's second pastor was Rev. Rufus Young, a mid-term graduate of Concordia Seminary who served the church until Aug., 1949, when he accepted a church in Burk Burnett.

During the second vacancy, Rev. Martin Hartenberger of Amarillo and Rev. H. F. Peimann of Borger, preached. When the third pastor, Rev. Bruns, arrived in December, 1949, the church had 32 communicants and 51 members.

In 1965, Rev. Bruns accepted the call to his present church and in April, that year, Rev. Herring was installed as pastor.

Since Rev. Herring's pastorate, an elder-deacon program has been initiated, a communion rail installed, acolyte program organized, and the congregation has grown to 209 communicants and 290 baptized members.

Capital additions have been the current parsonage in 1950, a parish hall in 1954, and the sanctuary in 1957.

John H. Wylie, architect of Amarillo, designed the present sanctuary, the church accepted Witt Construction Co.'s bid of $34,800 and work started on the new structure Jan. 15, 1957. The building was accepted in April, 1957 and dedicated in May, 1957.

Record Contributions
NEW YORK (UPI) — The giving of Methodist women to missions set a record total of $13,816,367 in fiscal 1967 (the 12 months ended May 31), according to Miss Florence Little, New York, treasurer of the Woman's Division of the Methodist Board of Missions.

This was an increase of $318,838, or 2.4 per cent, over the fiscal 1966 total of $13,497,529. The increase continued a 27-year upward trend and brought to $236 million the total Methodist women have given for missions and other causes since 1941.

Christian Scientists To Hear Lesson-Sermon

Christian Scientist Church members will hear a lesson-sermon on "Mind" in the 11 a.m. service Sunday. For scripture reference, verses from the New Testament chapter of Romans will be used. The final statement in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with a Key to the Scriptures," will also be read.

Gospel Singing Group to Perform

The Melonaires, one of Pampa's gospel singing groups, will sing during an all-night gospel singing session at Konawa, Okla., Saturday.

The evening of gospel music begins at 7 p.m. and continues until 5:30 a.m. Admission is free.

This year's session is the fourth annual presentation. Last year over 23,000 persons from 13 states attended.

Other groups scheduled to appear include The Inspirational Family, The Cooley Brothers, The Gospelaires Quartet, The Emmulaires Quartet and The Gospel Troubadors.

The Melonaires consist of Ann Winegart, first soprano; Carolyn Hudson, second soprano; and Lois Belote, alto. Phillis Cole is pianist.

The trio sings at school functions, civic organizations, and revivals. They are currently writing both words and music for several new selections.

The Melonaires appeared on television in Amarillo Tuesday to announce the program at Konawa.

Witnesses To Hear Ex-Pampan

The Pampa congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will hear Luther Plattor, former Pampa minister and serving in Amarillo, speak on the subject "Ancient Wise Sayings for Modern Life" at the 3 p.m. service Sunday, according to Charles Regal, presiding minister here.

"The ancient wisdom of the Bible book of Proverbs has practical value today," Plattor said commenting on his topic.

"It has up-to-date counsel for everyone regardless of age."

To illustrate this Plattor will conduct a 20-minute question and answer period for the audience to ask what specific advice Proverbs has for their age group and family position.

The public is invited to hear this message to be delivered at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 944 S. Dwight.

Secretary Suggests Church 'Open House'

NEW YORK (UPI) — The ecumenical possibilities of the "Open House" suggested for Oct. 29 as part of the 1967 observance of the 450th anniversary of the Reformation should be explored by all Lutheran congregations, says Dr. Malvin H. Lundeen, secretary of the Lutheran Church in America and president of the Lutheran Council in the U.S.A.

Dr. Lundeen, who is chairman of the Anniversary General Committee, said in many communities the beliefs and practices of the Lutheran Church are little known by Christians of other denominations.

"Invitations could well be sent to other churches in the locality to come to the neighborhood Lutheran church to learn more about their Lutheran neighbors on the occasion of the 450th Reformation Anniversary," he said.

Youths Plan Revival

Associate Minister
First Christian Church

"REMEMBER, YOU'RE NOT GOD"

"Has God left Heaven,
And left it up to you,
To judge if this or that is right,
And what each one should do?"

"Good News for Modern Man", The New Testament in Today's English, a recent translation of the Bible issued by the American Bible Society has this sharp reminder from Romans 12:19 — "Never take revenge, my friends but instead let God's wrath do it. For the scripture says, 'I will take revenge, I will pay back, says the Lord.'"

But Man often says, "Revenge is mine, I must get even with those who wrong me. I have a debt to pay." How often we forget to remember that we are not God!

Jesus gave us a reminder that we are not God when He gave these words to His disciples as a part of their prayer: "And forgive us our debts, as we have forgiven our debtors" He did not find it necessary to emphasize that we pray for God's name to be hallowed, or that His Father's come, or that His will be done. All these are of vital importance, but Jesus did not turn the spotlight on them. He did not emphasize our need for daily bread, yet without bread, we would die. But after the Prayer is completed, Jesus felt He should turn back and repeat one petition for special comment. Remembering the line, "Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors" He said: "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." God doesn't forgive on a reciprocal basis. Our forgiveness of others is not a condition to God's forgiving us. But it is a condition that works to condition us to be receptive to His mercy. Hatred toward another person may or may not hurt him, but it is sure to destroy the soul of the one hating.

Booker T. Washington knew this when he said, "I will not permit any man to narrow and degrade my soul by making me hate him."

"I think He's still in business,
And knows when to wield the rod,
So when you're judging others,
Just remember you're not — God."

Davalillo Just Like his Comic Book Hero

By United Press International
 Not only is Vic Davalillo a nut for Mighty Mouse comic books, but he's starting to believe what he reads.
 Just ask the Washington Senators.
 "That's my hobby," Davalillo says, "comic books." The Cleveland Indians outfielder sticks to the Spanish-language variety, but his favorites are all-American. "I like Superman and Superboy, but mostly Mighty Mouse."
 The comparison with his comic hero is too good to be true. Davalillo stopped growing before he reached 5-8 and just barely weighs in at 150. To make the picture complete, the pint-sized speedster showed Thursday night that he can do just about anything Mighty Mouse can.

Naive Li'l Abner
 Davalillo started off the night looking more like a naive Li'l Abner. He singled with one out in the fourth and when Tony Horton lofted a fly to center, Davalillo started trotting around the bases as though Horton's fly would be the third out. The ball was relayed back in to Washington second baseman Bernie Alton, who calmly trotted over to first and made the put out while Davalillo looked on aghast from third base.

 But in the long night to follow Davalillo did enough to poop out any mouse, even a mighty one. With the Indians down 3-1, Davalillo opened the eighth with a booming triple and went on to score as the Indians tied the game. A few hours later, Davalillo pounded out another triple, but this time with the bases loaded to highlight a five-run 16th inning that gave the Indians an 8-3 triumph over the Senators.

Bubble Gum Chewer
 In all, the 28-year-old Venezuelan, who's an avid bubble gum chewer on the side, collected four hits, drove in three runs and scored three more as the Indians completed a three game sweep of the on-surgng Senators.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Orioles whipped the Yankees 4-1 and the Tigers cooled off the Red Sox 7-4.
 In National League action New York split a two-night doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates, taking the opener 6-5 and losing the 14-inning nightcap by the same score. Philadelphia whipped Chicago in 12 innings and Houston blanked Los Angeles 4-0.
 Curt Blefary, once a Yankee farmhand, climaxed a three-run ninth inning with a bases loaded single as Gene Brabender stopped the Yanks on four hits. Brabender, celebrating his 26th birthday a day late, hurried shutout ball for eight innings and struck out seven as Fritz Peterson lost his 13th game in 16 decisions.

 The Tigers, who had lost the first two contests in their three-game set with the Red Sox, not to mention their hold on third place, moved past Boston and back into the No. 3 spot by exploding for three runs in the 10th inning.

 Norm Cash brought home the tie-breaking run with a triple and scored himself as the Sox let in two more runs when Joe Foy made a fielding and a throwing error on an infield grounder.
 Boston's Jim Lonborg and Detroit's Earl Wilson, each hoping to become the first 17-game winner in the majors, were both knocked out early as reliever Fred Gladding, who came on in the ninth, picked up his fourth win in eight decisions.

RANDY, RYUN PACE THINCLADS U.S. Tracksters Win

DUESSELDORF, Germany (UPI)—Jim Ryun, the Kansas stringbean who thrilled West German track fans with his famous last lap kick, led a United States contingent toward Viareggio, Italy today and an anticipated weekend sweep against a combined Italian-Spanish team which would cap a triumphant European tour.
 Ryun, the world mile king running in the 1500 meter run, and Texas A. & M. shotputter outstanding athletes in the U.S. victory over Germany in a two-day dual meet.

The Yanks started the overseas jaunt by annihilating Great Britain last Saturday winning 19 of the 21 events contested. Most of the members of the power-laden U.S. team are destined for action in the 1968 Olympics at Mexico City.
 Germany contained the visitors briefly when it trailed by only seven points after Wednesday's opening events. The storm broke Thursday, raining gold medals for the Americans as they won 10 of 12 contests and drowned the Germans 132-100.

30 Yards Ahead
 Ryun won the 1500 meter race by more than 30 yards as he came up from third place, where he rated himself most of the way, and sprinted the remaining yards for the victory in 3:38.2.
 The slim cinderman goes after new laurels in Italy when he tries the 5,000 meter distance for the first time. If he succeeds, experts believe many of the world records set by Australia's Ron Clarke will be in jeopardy.
 Matson, who holds the world record for the shotput at 71 feet 5 1/2 inches, threw the weight 6 feet, 1 3/4 inches to win his event.
 There were no world records broken during the two-day meet, partly because of the sloppy conditions that prevailed from a heavy rain just before the games started Wednesday.
 Pat Traynor of Riverside, Calif., set an American mark of eight minutes 32.4 seconds in winning the 3,000 meter steeplechase Thursday, bettering the old mark of 8:34.2 established by George Young in 1964.
 "Fight For Our Lives"
 "We went out there to win and had to fight for our lives the first day," said Bob Giegengack, head coach of the U.S. track team. "We went out to win on the second day and we did it decisively."
 The U.S. team completed 1-3 meter hurdles, 200 meter sprint and the shot put. Bill Toomey of Laguna Beach, Calif., captured the decathlon with 7,938, topping his previous high this year of 7,890 points.

 Tom Laris, Walnut Creek, Calif., won the 10,000 meter distance run in 28:33.4, second fastest time ever recorded by an American. Russ Rodgers of Newark, N.J. took the 400 meter hurdles in 50.5 seconds and John Carlos of New York City dashed away with the 200 meter honors in 20.5 seconds.
 Ron Laird of Pomona, Calif., was victorious in the 10 kilometer walk. Ed Carruthers of Santa Ana, Calif., collected the high jump medal with a leap of 7 feet, 1 1/4 inches, and the 1600 meter relay team won with a 3:04.9 clocking. The related squad consisted of Vince Matthews of Queens Village, N.Y., Elbert Stinson of Texarkana, Tex., Lee Evans of San Jose, Calif. and Rogers.

Red Raiders Club Being Formed
 A fellow who had more ability and guts than size, when it came to playing football, was selected Thursday as temporary chairman of the Top O' Texas Red Raider club.
 Reete Jackson, executive vice-president of the club, out of Lubbock, met with a group of 19 persons Thursday at noon in the Pampa Club in Coronado Inn.
 The persons present voiced their approval to form the club, made up of persons interested in helping boost the Texas Tech Red Raiders and help provide scholarships for college athletes.
 There is no minimum or maximum for joining the club—and you need not be a Tech-ex to join.
 Pampa City Manager Jim White, Pete Blanda and Victory Joyner of Miami were all selected to help Wilson form the club.
 Anyone joining the club has preference to all tickets available for Tech games and also receives the Tech football, basketball spring sports press booklets and the coaches letter each week.
 Films of all Tech road games will be shown at each weekly meeting.
 Anyone wishing to join may contact Wilson and time and place of the next meeting will be made shortly.
 Wilson was a star football player at both Pampa and Tech but 41 per cent of all members of the Red Raider club did not attend the school.

Waiting 8 Years
 The Jets' linebacker, of course, was referring to the meeting with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League Saturday night in Cincinnati.
 There are 10 exhibition games on tap between tonight and Monday night and four of them are inter-league affairs. In all, there were 16 scheduled for this exhibition season and three have already been played with the NFL teams leading 2-1. Currently, the Denver Broncos hold the lone victory, a 13-10 success over the Detroit Lions.
 All the excitement of inter-league play started last year with the Super Bowl game in which the Green Bay Packers clobbered the Kansas City Chiefs 35-10.
 The AFL players have been trying to get even ever since and prove they are not second class citizens.
 Weeb Ewbank, the Jets' coach, took the other view.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The Vietnam 'Stalemate'

"Stalemate" is a word increasingly heard of late in reference to Vietnam, and no scheduled escalation of American military power, no new pacification tactics, no election of a civilian government in South Vietnam promises to crack the stalemate.

Even U. S. commander Gen. Westmoreland admits puzzlement over the ability of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese to take everything this country has thrown at them and come back for more.

American troop strength will soon cross the half-million mark. Deaths have passed 12,000; nearly 75,000 men have been wounded; more than 800 aircraft have been lost. The war is being waged at the rate of $2 billion a month.

Yet there are now more of the enemy, better armed and more daring, than ever before. Helicopters continue to be shot down on the outskirts of Saigon. Soviet-supplied rockets make U.S. bases even more vulnerable to hit-and-run attacks.

Though U. S. troops can take the initiative anywhere they want to in South Vietnam, the country still belongs to the guerrillas at night.

The United States presents the picture of a muscle-bound giant bogged down in a swamp, flailing about with an awesome strength that makes it a match for the jungle—but often kills as many friends as enemies.

"No Communist bid for power in Vietnam, and no scheduled escalation of American military power, no new pacification tactics, no election of a civilian government in South Vietnam promises to crack the stalemate."

which forces the United States to pay such a high price for "victory" can be said to have been "defeated," writes Theodore Draper in a new book. "The idea that the frustration of a Communist bid for power in South Vietnam will be some kind of decisive setback for communism in Southeast Asia or even the world is a political fairy tale. . . . If the Communists of other impoverished, diminutive Southeast Asian countries could be sure of making us spend so much blood and treasure in frustrating them, we might well be faced with an epidemic of such wars."

In the end, the political, social and economic conditions in each country will determine the outcome far more than American political, economic and military power, says Draper, who is currently a research fellow at Stanford University's Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace.

IS THERE HOPE FOR THE HIPPIES?

Almost every time I turn on the TV or pick up a newspaper or magazine, someone is talking — usually deprecatingly — about the "Hippie Movement." One gets the impression that this is an entirely new phenomenon and that hippies have suddenly sprung, mutant-like, into being, and the press and everyone else whose voice is heard publicly is trying to explain their unusual behavior.

Not wishing to be left out, I, too, have an explanation to offer. I think these hippies are largely the logical product of an environment wherein parents, self-styled intellectuals, and nearly anyone in a position of authority has professed the view that one should live for the purpose of helping others, contributing to "society," and upholding traditional values. Those who mouth these platitudes are then observed to pursue their own private goals, which often take material form in better housing, clothing, and luxuries. Many of the hippies want to avoid hypocrisy, or at least this particular type of hypocrisy. So they reject their environment totally — nihilistically — and they start from scratch to discover their own values. And I'm all for that.

The problem seems to be that only a few search earnestly to find meaning and purpose for their lives, and the rest become so absorbed in their "movement" that individual values and goals are abandoned.

It is the few who continue to seek, to question, to reexamine customary values, who appear to give the hippie conglomerate significance. But these few, I think, will not remain hippies for long.

Because, rather than being concerned with movements and group efforts, they insist on their right to live their own lives and pursue values chosen, not by tradition or by authority, but by themselves. I think they might discover that a man CAN exist for his own sake without being a parasite and without harming anyone, by pursuing his own interests in the market; by gaining voluntary support to promote ideas and values. ("Market" is used here to mean free exchanges, whether of goods, services, or ideas.)

Let's not make the mistake of believing that productiveness consists of material contribution to one's self and society. The greatest values are produced by those who spend their time thinking — an occupation which is unpleasant and even painful to many people — and creating works of art, philosophic concepts, and scientific principles. But think-ins can be successful only when goal direction is employed. In fact, thinking which is NOT goal directed is not thinking at all!

If individual hippies are going to "make it," it will be because they recognize that comfortable social institutions — including their own "movement" — may be harmful to one's individuality, independence, and integrity.

Today's smile: A busy executive became exasperated with his new receptionist and said: "Miss Jones, you must answer the telephone whenever it rings." She gave him a deadpan smile and replied: "Of course, if you insist, but most of the calls are for you."

Thoughts while shaving: Encyclopedias, compendiums or universal knowledge, date back to ancient times. The first was compiled by Pliny the Elder, a Roman naturalist, and consisted of 37 books on science and the fine arts. The Encyclopaedia Britannica, accepted today as the foremost authority on knowledge was founded at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1768, but has been published in the U.S. since 1903. . . . SCHEME FOR TAKEOVER

Che Guevara, Fidel Castro's chief collaborator who dropped out of sight some time ago, apparently is secretly roaming through Latin American countries to coordinate guerrilla movements against established governments. A French journalist arrested on suspicion of work with anti-regime guerrillas in Bolivia has reported that he recently saw and talked with Guevara. He sees Guevara as the number one leader of "the coming revolution" in Latin America.

Guevara laid out his plans in a statement published in Havana a few months ago. He called for Latin American guerrillas to create "many Vietnams" in what he labeled "our America," meaning all the countries south of the Rio Grande. The plan is to set up several locations from which guerrilla bands would move out in various countries to kill and destroy. These locations would be united by one overall

Pull Up A Chair

By FRANK JAY MARKEY

The Lockheed aircraft Corp. now building the world's largest aircraft at its plant in Marietta, Ga., believes the C-5A Galaxy will someday be the world's biggest passenger plane. Lockheed is building 50 of the giants to carry out - size military cargo. As a flying ocean liner it will have three decks, staterooms, public rooms, offices, a sightseeing lounge in the nose and spiral staircases between decks. It will mean new standards of comfort for air travelers. Its speed will be about the same as today's jets. Its economy will be unprecedented. Lockheed's Bill Perreault explained what will happen when one of these jumbos pulls up to the terminal with 800 passengers. He pointed out that today 700 passengers frequently arrive at air terminals within a few minutes of each other. But they arrive in a half dozen different airplanes. Each plane has to have a place in the traffic pattern, a gate position to discharge passengers and completely separate facilities. The Galaxy will cut down airport traffic, he says. It will be like the Queen Elizabeth arriving at Pier 92 in New York's North River.

Today's smile: A busy executive became exasperated with his new receptionist and said: "Miss Jones, you must answer the telephone whenever it rings." She gave him a deadpan smile and replied: "Of course, if you insist, but most of the calls are for you."

Thoughts while shaving: Encyclopedias, compendiums or universal knowledge, date back to ancient times. The first was compiled by Pliny the Elder, a Roman naturalist, and consisted of 37 books on science and the fine arts. The Encyclopaedia Britannica, accepted today as the foremost authority on knowledge was founded at Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1768, but has been published in the U.S. since 1903. . . . Ever heard of a "peachery" . . . Just heard about a new type of fishing reel that has a built-in brake that operates on the same principle as a coaster brake on a bicycle. . . .

Reagan Performance a Hit With Fans in Washington

By DAVE BURGIN

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Odd, somehow, that a politician can verbalize all day long, capture thousands with rhetoric and then get into office and perform the opposite.

Here they're still admiring California Gov. Ronald Reagan for a masterpiece in the art.

Reagan put a big smile on California faces when he campaigned glowingly for less government spending and lower taxes. In office less than eight months, Reagan has just signed the largest budget and the largest tax increase in California history.

And he did it fairly easily. The cry, "But, Governor, you said last fall . . ." wasn't to be heard. "Beautiful," said Rep. Ray Blanton, D-Tenn., twitting GOP conservatives. Reagan's about face reminded him of a recent letter from a constituent.

The missive blasted federal "give-away" programs and wasted federal money, and warned Blanton that he would be watched closely by Tennesseans on all fiscal matters.

"Then came his postscript," Blanton said. "It read, 'I wish you bureaucrats in Washington would hurry up and get us approval on that federal grant for our sewage lines.'"

The Democratic and Republican slogan-thinker-uppers are cranking into action again. The conventions are now only a year away.

One young slogan-maker on Capitol Hill apparently had a good start but couldn't find that final spice to top it off. It began, "The mission of the minority party is . . ."

He went around the Senate and House floors, asking prominent Republicans to help him out by filling in the slogan with as few words as possible. GOP House leader Jerry Ford won. "The mission of the minority party," Ford said quickly, "is to become the majority."

When a man in public office continually finds himself defending or explaining a remark he made previously, it's a pretty good indication he wishes he hadn't said it.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey is now being bombarded from all sides concerning a statement he made defending disconsolate, ghettoed citizens. To wit: "I could lead a pretty good riot myself."

Recently, Humphrey lashed out at the Congress for "inactivity" which is largely responsible for ghetto ills and ghetto riots.

"Of course," one senator shot back, "you know who presides over the Senate."

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

Instant Coffee Contains No Harmful Ingredients

Q — A friend told me that instant coffee contains some ingredients that are harmful to kidneys. Is this true?

A — The caffeine in coffee is a mild diuretic (promotes the excretion of water through the kidneys) but this is in no way harmful. Your friend may have heard of a recent study that suggested that in diabetics coffee drinking raises the blood sugar level. The report was, however, inconclusive and the fact that in the study instant coffee was used instead of regular or drip grid was of no significance.

Q — In a recent column you stated that tea is a healthful drink and preferred to coffee. In what way is it healthful?

A — I did not say that tea was preferable to coffee, only that it is preferred by some persons. These drinks, taken in moderation, are healthful insofar as they enable many persons who dislike plain water to get the fluids they need.

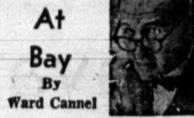

Q — I am 55 and drink five or six cups of coffee a day. My husband says this will increase the wrinkles in my face. What do you think?

A — Coffee gets blamed for everything these days.

Q — How serious is acidosis. My doctor says my acidosis is increasing. Is there anything I can do to reverse this trend?

A — The term acidosis is often used loosely. Properly speaking it is a condition that results when the amount of carbonic acid (a weak acid) is no longer completely buffered by the bicarbonate (a weak alkali) in the blood. Respiratory acidosis occurs when the elimination of carbon dioxide by the lungs is inadequate and metabolic acidosis occurs in advanced diabetes, failure of the kidneys, poisoning with wood alcohol and other chemicals or other less

Cannel At Bay

By Ward Cannel

Webster's Unacknowledged NEW YORK (NEA) — This is the season when the vacation snapshots start to come back from the drugstore. Consequently, we arrived home the other evening to find the wife pasting up the old photo album with the pictures she had taken during our trip to Cape Cod.

"Who are these children?" we inquired, pointing to a page filled with snapshots of various blond youngsters playing in the sand.

"I don't know," the wife said. "But I'm pretty sure many of them are Kennedy children."

"Nonsense," we said. "Don't be so sure," the wife said. "Statistics show that two out of three children born in the U.S. today are Kennedys."

What statistics she was referring to we do not know. But over the years we have learned not to question her definitions or sources of information.

Quite the contrary, we have made a practice of writing them down in a notebook. And we would like to reprint a few of them below in hopes of helping to clarify the present world confusion.

Average Citizen: A person who feels himself to be better than his neighbors and qualified to run the country.

Average Year: That 12 month period in which a corporation has scored its largest profits and greatest growth. See Below Average Year.

Childhood: In humans, the age from 1 to 27. Obsolete: An ailment usually outgrown while quite young.

City Planner: 1. A college graduate who cannot decide on a career. 2. One who solves the problems of overcrowding by keeping one-third of the population in transit at all times.

Deflation: A condition of the economy when people cannot save any money. Synonym's: Inflation, Depression, Boom, Bust.

Documentary: A video show without a plot, a stand-up comedian, or a panel discussion.

Family Doctor: A graduate of a medical school who has a wife and children among other things. See COUNTRY Club.

Five - Room Apartment: a dwelling place consisting of a living room, a bedroom and two closets.

Gross National Product: A substance found in the bloodstream of fat people.

Middle Age: The period from 27 to 39.

Old Age: Beyond 40.

Opinion Leader: 1. A person or thing who gets an advance copy of Time magazine. 2. Bobby Kennedy. 3. Jacqueline Kennedy.

Prime of Life: Aposthumous common causes. Many of these are serious but only after the cause in your case is determined can appropriate treatment be prescribed.

Q — After a hysterectomy are the chances of having cancer less? Should I still have periodic pelvic examinations?

A — If your uterus was completely removed it is still possible to get cancer in the adjacent tissues. For this reason it is especially important for anyone who has had a hysterectomy to have a checkup, including the Pap smear, at least twice a Women's styles may change, but their designs remain the same.

If you think it's hard to meet new people, try picking up the wrong golf ball.

They now have coffee dispensers for office use that look exactly like filing cabinets. These will match up with lots of coffee drinkers who look exactly like office workers.

Doctor—Your husband must have absolute rest and quiet. Here are some sleeping pills. Wife—Thank you, doctor. When shall I give them to him? Doctor—You don't give them to him. Take them yourself.

Perhaps a psychiatrist can explain why a mother dresses her little boy like his father, in long pants, and wears dresses shorter than those she puts on her 5-year-old daughter.

A secretary applying for a new job wrote under "Experience:" "I'm familiar with all important phases of office procedure, including bowling and collection taking."

Son — Dad, instead of buying me an expensive birthday present, why not give me something you've made yourself?

Dad — Like what?

Son — Money.

Isn't it a shame that future generations can't be here to see all the wonderful things the government is doing with their money?

designations applied to people between the ages of 27 and 72.

Retired General: A former military man who has beat his sword into rail shares. See disarmament.

Disarmament: See Dismemberment.

Riot: A means of exchange. See Money. See Barter.

Sex: 1. A point of sale device. 2. An impulse item. Sex Symbol: Anything.

Student Nonviolent Co - ordinating Committee: An off-campus group. See Drop - out. See Violent. See Unco - ordination.

Teenager: 1. A means of distribution of clothing and cosmetics. 2. A merchandising aid in the music industry. 3. A garbage - disposal unit.

Underdeveloped Nation: 1. A country which has a lobby in Washington. 2. A country that uses spears or nerve gas against its enemies. See Developed Nation.

Developed Nation: A country that uses napalm against its enemies.

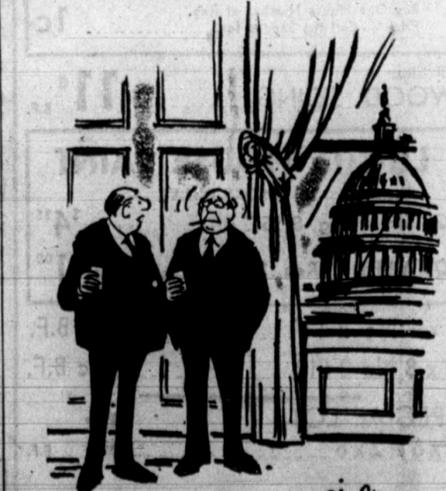

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Brass studs often found on dog collars are really relics of the past, says The World Almanac. In ancient times, pet dogs sometimes wore spiked collars to protect their throats against attacking wolves.

9 Gain in Lutherans

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lutheran Churches in North America reported a total of 9,170,298 members at the end of 1966, compared with 9,038,792 at the end of 1965, a gain of .79 per cent, according to the annual statistical summary of the Lutheran Council in the United States of America.

A breakdown showed 8,868,073 baptized Lutheran children and adults in the United States, an increase of 68,648 over 1965, and 302,225 in affiliated groups in Canada, up 2,858 members for the year.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Goodbody & Co. says current market conditions suggest a switch in leadership from the high flying volatile issues to the more conservative blue chips. The company feels this trend could continue for some time to come.

Wright Investors' Service says there is no precedent for a major stock market advance coming with a major tax increase and the company does not expect one next year. It looks for a "see-saw" market in 1968 with averages neither exceeding old highs nor penetrating old lows. It feels the key to success will continue to be selectivity.

Standard & Poor's feels the market could go higher but "its progress will be increasingly marked by cross currents." The company feels many of the glamor stocks will be risky investments but that it is still possible to find sound values with "promising appreciation potentials."

Workman Finds 3 Children Trapped In Refrigerator

DENVER (UPI) — A 49-year-old roofer who "played a hunch" found three youngsters huddled near death Wednesday in an abandoned refrigerator in their backyard.

"I heard a faint thumping and heard what sounded like a small child crying," said Ted Mosley, who was working on the roof of the Denver home where the youngsters lived.

Mosley said he searched a small playhouse in the backyard and "was heading back up to the roof, when I played a hunch and opened the door to the refrigerator."

Three children, Steven Gallegos, 13, and his brothers, Lawrence, 4, and Raymond, 2, all tumbled out when the door was open. Mosley applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to the youngest child and carried the oldest boy to the house where cold packs were applied to revive him.

The youngsters, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gallegos, then were rushed to Denver General Hospital for treatment of shock and heat prostration.

Officials said the three boys apparently had been locked in the refrigerator for at least two hours.

"If it hadn't been for the roofer, it would have been all over," said patrolman Fred Carter. "It would be just a matter of time before they would all have been dead."

Mrs. Gallegos, who said she had searched the neighborhood for more than two hours for the children, praised Mosley.

Selective Service Answers

EDITOR'S NOTE: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 702 Colorado Street, Austin, Texas 78701.

Q—I received my bachelor's degree in June. I have been accepted for graduate study in history in September. Will I qualify for II-S deferment?

A—This depends on your draft board's decision. If it defers you, the new regulations permit it to do so for one year only.

Q—Who decides he is satisfactory?

A—The school in which he is enrolled.

Banks Release All Claims Against Medders Bankrupt Homestead Farm

SHERMAN (UPI) — Three banks in Tennessee and Texas Wednesday filed disclaimers giving up interest in the home of bankrupt Ernest and Margaret Medders, a lawyer for the Medderses said.

Attorney Jack Gray of Denon said the disclaimers mean the banks have no further interest in the 185-acre Colonial Acres; the palatial estate the Medderses were trying to keep.

The banks which filed the action in Judge W. C. Boyd's 16th District Court were the National Bank of Commerce in Memphis, Tenn., the City National Bank of Wichita Falls, and the

Duck and Geese Season Set Same Length Time as 1966

AUSTIN (UPI) — The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission Thursday set the 1967 duck and goose seasons to run the same number of days as last year, but took steps to protect a dwindling supply of Canada and white-fronted geese.

The commission set the duck and geese season, and the American, red-breasted and hooded merganser hunt, for Nov. 18 through Jan. 6, the same 50 day length as last year. No open season will be allowed on block-billed tree ducks or full-wing tree ducks.

The goose and brant hunt was set for 75 days, from Oct. 24 through Jan. 7.

The goose limit was set at five with one ross, one white fronted or one white fronted and one Canada goose, or two Canadas for the areas west of U.S. 81.

But for hunts east of the highway, the daily limit may not include more than one ross and in the alternative not more than one Canada or one white-fronted.

At Springs of the department staff said the white-front and

Canada are "in bad shape" due to heavy hunting in the Dakotas and a poor nesting season. "This had been building for several years and had to come to pass," he said. "Their numbers are dwindling."

The duck bag limit was set at four with only one wood duck and canvasback and two mallards. The bag on American, red-breasted and hooded merganser ducks is five per day with not more than one hooded merganser.

The commission did double the hunting season for the sand bill crane from Del Rio to the Tex.-Oklahoma border. The season was set from Nov. 4 through Jan. 2, a total of 60 days.

QUEEN OR LSD

MONTE ARGENTARIO, Italy — Police today investigated a letter threatening that the hallucination-inducing drug LSD would be put in Port Ercole's drinking water unless authorities ask visiting Dutch Queen Juliana to leave.
