Pine Tree Features Repealing The Laws of Logic

By Butler D. Shaffer The political mipi is intriguingly facile. To see the politicians do a 180 degree turn while on a dead run without losing a step is to witness the ultimate in maneuverability.

Remember back, if you will, to the 1964 presidential campaign. Lyndon Johnson, the champion of "peace," was berating his opponent for suggesting that the war in Vietnam ought to be stepped up. The implication arose that anyone who favored escalating the war was an "extremist." Now, however, that to believe that anyone who

The Weekly Message

Of Inspiration

J. R. MANNING Associatt Pastor First Baptist Church

Someday everyone will realize the fact that these bodies are merely "temporary dwellings". God calls them "taberna, is" or "tents". All around us are signs of the uncertainties of life which reveal this truth. One man has said, "the only guarantee that can be made is that everything is uncertain."

Accidents take the lives of our loved ones, crops fail, fruits are ruined by frost, ships founder in the storm, fires consum e, stocks tumble, conquerars fall, kings are exiled, millionaries go bankrupt, and our estates are alienated. The precious health of body that we have fails us. We can deal successfully with one ailment and then another, but a day will arrive when we come to undertand that we live in clay tenements. We survive many of the storms, but one will come and destroy before foo long.

Man stands in jeopardy every hour. Man holds a faint grasp upon the treasures of this earth. Ps. 90:5-6 declares this truth when it says, "Man in the morning they are like grass which groweth up. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth". All science and medicine cannot restore this tent when it collapses. Jeremiah said, "my tent is spoiled and the cords are broken there is no one who can lift it up again."

This is a sobering fact. We need to face it with intelligence and understanding. The collapse of life is sudden! The collapse of life is irreparable! and the collapse of life is personal! We live in a world of misfortunes. The newspaper daily records tragedies; however, they are in distant places and affect strangers, Someday the tragedies; will affect us as individuals "MY country is at war". "M fortune is gone" "MY health is broken". MY son, MY daughter, MY wife, MY husband — gone," With the psalmist we will cry, "I am bereft and desolate".

Things go so smoothly we never believe the "troubles" we are "born to" will ever overtkae us. However, there will come a time when the hour strikes, the bounds are broken down, the floodgates are opened and the tide will rush in upon us.

The POSITIVE SIDE OF THE PICTURE is found in Ps. 27:5 which read, "For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavillion; in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock." The dwelling place we have after this life is permanent. It defies time, no destroyer can get to its foundations, no thief can break in to steel, and no storm can sudbue it. "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almigthy."

Are you ready to face this hour when it comes to you — (not "if it —comes but WHEN it comes)?
