

Milwaukee Violence Fomented By Priest

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—A militant Roman Catholic priest whose open housing followers were hauled away kicking and screaming from a burned out "Freedom House" issued, in effect, a challenge to police to repeat the action tonight on church grounds.

The Rev. James E. Groppi vowed he would hold a rally tonight on the grounds of St. Boniface Roman Catholic church where he serves as an assistant pastor. The church is in a heavily Negro neighborhood which formed the heart of last month's riot scene.

A rally Wednesday night led to a third night of violence in connection with open housing demonstrations by the youth council of the Milwaukee chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The rally was in defiance of an emergency prohibition of marches, demonstrations and parades between 4 p.m. and 9 a.m. daily.

Groppi shouted charges that Mayor Henry W. Maier was the "dictator of a police state" when heavily armed police stormed the burned-out ruins of the council headquarters and hauled about 53 Negroes off to jail. Thirty of the arrested were adults, the rest juveniles.

Police said they were only enforcing the hastily passed proclamation which placed the city in a state of emergency for 30 days because of racial violence for the second time within a month.

The ordinance was passed to prevent open housing marches by the militant civil rights group to the south side Polish neighborhood where Tuesday night marchers were met with rocks, bottles and eggs, tossed by part of the 13,000 whites who met them.

Groppi, firebrand militant priest whose action has drawn a rebuke by his archbishop, replied to police Wednesday night, "all we were trying to do was gather for a few speeches and some prayers. Is this America?"

Police said the proclamation was violated by the sustained jeering, singing and general commotion of the youth council members gathered on the porch outside the charred shell of their headquarters, firebombed while they marched to the south side Tuesday night. Firemen fighting that fire were pinned down by sniper fire before they could fight the blaze.

Under Mayor Maier's orders, Police Capt. Arnold Kramer led 50 to 75 officers into the freedom house area where an estimated 200 slogan-shouting, sign-carrying demonstrators had gathered.

Kramer declared the gathering an "unlawful assembly" and ordered it dispersed "in the name of the mayor." For an answer, a rock was thrown from the darkness. It struck Kramer under the eye and there was blood on his face as he directed the action which followed.

Senate Confirms Marshall New High Court Member

WASHINGTON (UPI)—When Thurgood Marshall takes his seat at the junior end of the Supreme Court bench Oct. 2, the court's philosophical scale will tip toward the liberal side.

Marshall, confirmed by the Senate Wednesday as the first Negro Supreme Court justice, is expected to bolster the liberal bloc headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren.

Justice Tom C. Clark, whom Marshall succeeds, was considered a mild conservative.

The Warren group usually includes Justices Hugo L. Black, William O. Douglas, William J. Brennan Jr., and Abe Fortas. But Black lately has indicated he feels the civil rights movement needs a brake.

He has voted in several cases with the conservative wing composed of Justices John Marshall Harlan, Potter Stewart, Byron R. White and Clark.

Marshall's arrival will give the Warren bloc a majority regardless of which way Clark goes.

Marshall himself has said he is not attached to any legal school of thought, but adds "I am not a conservative."

In the field of criminal law, however, he may be inclined to vote for preservation of government authority. As U.S. Solicitor General, he urged the Supreme Court to give the police more leeway for searching private premises in criminal investigations.

After his confirmation on a 69-11 roll call, the 59-year-old Marshall said he was "greatly honored" by the appointment and its confirmation.

Southern Senators who opposed the former civil rights lawyer's nomination to the High Court talked against his appointment.

Drowning Victim Funeral Service Friday Morning

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in Harkrah Methodist Church for Little Kristi Dawn Palmer, who drowned Wednesday evening.

Pampa police said the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Palmer, 709 N. Nelson, apparently wandered off from home about 5:45 p.m.

She was found floating in a swimming pool at Glenwood Apartments, 800 N. Nelson, by her brother, Stanley. The 10-year-old boy saw his sister floating in the pool, pulled her out and immediately called for help.

After being given artificial respiration the little girl was taken to Highland General Hospital by ambulance where she was pronounced dead on arrival at 6 p.m.

The Palmer's had moved to Pampa from Amarillo only six months ago. Mr. Palmer is employed by Pan-Tex Outdoor Advertising Co.

Rev. Walter White, assisted by Rev. Luther Kirk, will officiate at the funeral service. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery under direction of Carmichael-Whately Funeral Home.

Other than the parents and brother, survivors include a sister, Anna Denise, of the home; maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harding of Amarillo; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Faye Palmer, Stratford.

Rockwell's Body Secretly Cremated After Plea for Nazi Military Rites Is Denied

ARLINGTON, Va. (UPI)—The macabre quest to give American Nazi Party "fuhrer" George Lincoln Rockwell the last rites he wanted is over—at least for now.

His body was secretly cremated late Wednesday in a local funeral home and his followers smuggled the ashes into their shabby hilltop headquarters here after a 24-hour search for a gravesite came to nothing.

At the headquarters, with Nazi, Virginia and American flags at half-staff, they "enshrined" the ashes and solemnly pledged "to rededicate ourselves to the great cause he (Rockwell) served."

The small but strident party of the 49-year-old one-time navy pilot founded in 1959 is dedicated to the "elimination of the Jews Hitler missed" and the Negroes.

A onetime party stalwart, John C. Patter, 29, was to appear in Arlington County court today charged with Rockwell's murder. Three court-appointed psychiatrists were to report on whether more mental tests were needed.

Rockwell was shot down by a sniper last Friday noon in a shopping center ambush, an act (See ROCKWELL, Page 3)

President Besieged With Demands To Escalate War

Auto Union Will Name Target For Proposed Strike

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers Union today names the auto company that will be its strike target in efforts to win the biggest contract gains ever sought by the UAW.

Ford Motor Co. remained the most likely target. There was a possibility that UAW president Walter P. Reuther might decide to tackle the industry's most profitable firm, General Motors Corp.

The decision was to be announced at 4:30 p.m. CDT.

The national UAW councils of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler Corp. were holding separate meetings today to hear reports from the union's International Executive Board and formally reject contract offers made by the three companies Tuesday.

The IEB, headed by Reuther, flatly refused industry's offer Tuesday.

The councils also were scheduled to get the word on which company would be the target and receive instructions on procedures leading up to the strike deadline, midnight next Wednesday.

The council of the target company would be told to gear for a strike. The other two would plan strike support action.

Emotionally, the union would like to pick General Motors as the target firm to demonstrate it is not afraid to tackle the biggest manufacturing corporation in the world.

But Ford was considered the most likely firm because it is the middle company. Chrysler is too small and its profits much smaller than either Ford or GM.

Financing a strike against General Motors would use up the UAW strike fund in about seven weeks but a strike at Ford could be financed for considerably longer.

ANTI-MAO FORCES GATHER

Canton Readies For '10-Day Bloodbath'

HONG KONG (UPI)—Anti-Mao Tse-tung rebels backed by army troops have threatened a "10-day bloodbath" in Canton to wipe out pro-Mao red guards supported by the air force and navy, travellers quoted by rightwing Hong Kong newspapers said today.

The arrivals from South China's largest city said Canton is in a virtual state of anarchy. They said top officials were rushing to Peking for emergency meetings to head off the scheduled Friday start of what could become civil war, the newspapers reported.

Arrivals from Canton were quoted as saying air force and naval authorities had issued more than 30,000 firearms, including machine guns, to Maoist forces for their defense. They said Maoists also seized large quantities of bazookas destined for North Vietnam.

The anti-Mao forces were said to be capable of mobilizing at least 100,000 men for a coordinated assault on Canton by land and water.

According to the arrivals, anti-Maoists have left Canton proper to organize assault forces in the suburbs. Headquarters was said to be in nearby Fa-Yin county, where peasants have pledged full support.

The travelers said the Canton garrison of the Communist Chinese army, previously reported to have mutinied against the authority of party chairman Mao, was backing the anti-Maoists.

The nation's air force and navy, neither particularly potent, were said to be aligned with pro-Mao elements.

The rightwing papers said Peking reportedly sent 65,000 new troops into Canton. But the force declared itself neutral and refused to line up with either side for the feared battle, the reports said.

Depressed Prices Being Protested By U.S. Farmers

WASHINGTON — "The 35,000 farmers who protested low farm prices at a National Farmers Organization meeting in Des Moines, Iowa, two weeks ago were simply reacting to the effects of the many anti-agriculture maneuvers of the U. S. Department of Agriculture," Congressman Bob Price, a member of the House Republican Task Force on Agriculture, said today.

"Farmers are angry over the depressed prices they receive for the commodities they raise, and justifiably so. The farm parity ratio has dropped to depression-year levels, farm production expenses are at an all-time high, and farm income is severely lagging behind non-farm income," Price said.

"In fact," Price noted, "the Department's own figures show that net farm income skidded from $16.4 billion in 1966 to an annual rate of $14.6 billion in the second quarter of this year. Therefore, it's not surprising that 35,000 farmers gathered together to call attention to these deplorable conditions caused by USDA and Administration decision makers."

The Panhandle congressman pointed to recent examples of how the Executive Branch has dealt American agriculture harsh economic blows by:

- Dumping huge stocks of Commodity Credit Corporation grain upon the domestic market in order to break and depress grain and livestock market prices.
- Delaying the necessary action to reduce price-depressing dairy imports, then failing to cut back permissible imports to the average 1961-65 level.
- Underestimating cattle numbers by 4 million head and the turkey population by 5 million birds, thereby bringing an already weak market down further.

Stennis Urges Plan By 'Military Men'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson is coming under increasingly intense pressure for yet another stepup in the U.S. bombing raids on Communist North Vietnam.

The latest demand for an expansion of the bombing campaign Wednesday from Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, in a speech before the American Legion national convention in Boston.

"I see no prospect of early success under a policy of applying military pressure in a limited, gradual and piecemeal fashion," Stennis said. "This only lengthens the war."

The Mississippi Democrat, whose subcommittee has been conducting hearings on the air war in Vietnam over the past two weeks, urged that an overall plan for winning the war be developed by "military men."

The plan should include "the use of all conventional ground, naval and air power necessary to win as quickly as possible and bring our men home."

Though the Stennis subcommittee's hearings have been closed, enough testimony has been "leaked" to point to the existence of a split between the joint chiefs of staff and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara on the bombing strategy.

In a public statement last week, McNamara said that an all-out air war in the North would not slow the pace of the war in the South and would involve unacceptable risks of a confrontation with Red China or Russia.

But the military men told the subcommittee they would like to mine the North Vietnamese port of Haiphong, force ships to unload their cargoes into barges outside, then bomb the barges as they moved into shore.

Marine commandant Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. has been the most outspoken member of the joint chiefs in public. In a speech to the Legion Tuesday, he said bombing is the "principal means of striking the enemy's sanctuary," and he urged that "the pace be maintained."

Cong Attacks Continue In Saigon Area

SAIGON (UPI)—Viet Cong guerrillas ambushed about 800 U.S. assault troops defending Saigon, slaughtered a group of civilians in one terror raid and kidnaped 39 more in another attack aimed at spoiling South Vietnam's elections, official spokesmen said today.

They said eight GIs were killed and 44 wounded in the 10-hour battle Wednesday night 14 miles from Saigon's center and only 10 miles from where President Johnson's blue ribbon election-inspection team was getting its first look at Vietnam's political scene.

In what U.S. intelligence reports judged a drive to ruin the Sept. 3 presidential voting, the Viet Cong killed at least six Vietnamese and wounded 50 more in an invasion of Thanh Binh Monday night, according to reports only now reaching Saigon. The Viet Cong spirited away 39 young Vietnamese men of military age from another coastal town Wednesday in a bid to frighten voters.

In the air U. S. jets flew 157 missions against North Vietnam Wednesday, hitting the Hoa Lac MIG base near Hanoi, artillery sites and a key rail bridge. But spokesmen said Communist gunners shot down two American planes.

Warning To Cut Weeds Sent To Property Owners

City Hall took another step in its war against weeds yesterday when letters were mailed to a score of property owners notifying them weeds must be cut by Sept. 9 or the city will cut them and place a lien on the property.

Approximately 100 such notices have been sent to property owners in all sections of the city this summer, according to R. B. Cooke, public works director.

Verlone Ward, secretary to the works director, said today good cooperation was being received from property owners when notices were mailed.

"We have already had several phone calls this morning," Mrs. Ward said. "They were from persons to whom the latest notices were sent informing us that the weeds already had been cut."

Mrs. Ward said practically all cases where there was no response to the weed cutting order was on property where the owners have moved away.

Carsbad Cavern Bats Are Dying

CARLSBAD, N. M. (UPI)—The bats are mysteriously dropping dead at Carsbad Caverns National Park.

Cause of this "bat fallout," which has claimed 400 in the past week, is not known, according to park Supt. Neal G. Guse. He said he thought the deaths were probably caused by the bats' eating insects which had been sprayed with chemical bugkillers.

However Guse did not rule out the possibility the deaths might be from a rodent-form of the hantavirus plague.

The cavern's 300,000 bats make nightly flights to the Pecos river several miles away to drink the water and feed on insects. They then return in the morning to their day-time habitat. Some 900 to 1,200 visitors at the park gather to watch these evening "bat flights."

Specimens of the dead bats have been sent to New Mexico State University at Las Cruces for tests to determine the cause of the deaths. Word on the results was expected by early next week, Guse said.

Forest Fires In West Contained

By United Press International

Fire fighters laboring in 120-degree heat gained the upper hand on Southern California's two big brush fires today as blazes persisted in ravaging forest and grassland in the Pacific Northwest.

The 6,000-acre Castaic fire in Los Angeles County was reported to be 95 per cent contained. Full control was expected by nightfall. Firemen claimed 65 per cent containment of the 4,000-acre blaze near Piru.

In all, more than 200,000 acres have been blackened in the West and British Columbia the past month. Many of the blazes were started by lightning. Both Southern California and the Northwest have had virtually no rainfall during fires.

However, the weather bureau in Washington, D.C., predicted Wednesday there would be above-average rainfall in the Pacific Northwest during September. Forecasters labeled the current dry spell "unusual."

Arlene Is Slowly Building Up In Eastern Atlanta

MIAMI (UPI)—Tardy Arlene, the season's first tropical storm, inched across the far eastern Atlantic today probably building to hurricane force.

Forecasters at Miami's National Hurricane Center, who watched the disturbance building slowly during the day Wednesday, expected the winds to grow to hurricane velocity of 75 miles an hour.

Packing highest winds of 60 miles an hour and flinging gales 200 miles to the north and 75 miles to the south, the disturbance was located at 5 a.m. (CDT) near latitude 22.5 north, longitude 49.0 west, or about 1,200 miles southeast of Bermuda. The storm was lumbering toward the west-northwest at about 15 miles an hour.

Arlene was expected to develop into a hurricane within a day, but would not be a threat to any land area for at least two days.

Hurricane hunters said the storm was relatively small, with an eye five miles in diameter, and presently is of "principal interest only to shipping."

Break-ins Solved With Arrest of 3 Local Boys

Three Pampa boys, ranging in age from seven to 10-years-old, admitted to Pampa police Wednesday nine burglaries in this city during the month of August. Three, one aged 7, one aged 9 and the other 10-years-old, were released in the custody of their parents. Pampa Patrolman Charley LaFever broke the case Wednesday after several days of investigation. The youths admitted burglarizing the Bell Fruit Market, 501 S. Cuyler, on two different occasions. Fruit and pennies, all valued at over $35, was taken. Approximately $35 worth of frozen meat was admitted taken by the boy from the Jerry Noel residence at 945-E. Maume on July 22. The boys admitted taking chewing gum after entering Western Tire Co., 901 S. Barnes, early this month through a window. The boys also admitted taking milk from the Pampa Milk Co. on August 9, tires and tubes from Stokley Tire Co. Aug. 9 and rummaging through a storehouse on S. Cuyler Aug. 23. The biggest haul apparently came out of a garage at the Jack Ironmonger residence, 10-18 Schneider on Aug. 22. Over $50 worth of fishing equipment was taken out of the garage. The youths, while showing a taste for food, admitted taking instant chocolate milk from a garage at the Joyce Barnes residence, 939 S. Reid on Aug. 22.

LUBBOCK (SPL) — Texas Tech's two art departments become one Sept. 1, according to Chairman Bill C. Lockhart. When the university begins its fall semester, the Department of Architecture and Allied Arts, now in the School of Engineering, will be split. Allied Arts and the Department of Applied Arts, now in the School of Home Economics, will combine to become the Department of Art under jurisdiction of the School of Arts and Sciences. Dr. Lockhart views the move as typical of Tech's "progressive attitude toward higher education and increasing recognition of the role of the arts in a university setting."

Rotary Club Views Airport Booster Film

"The Best Investment We Ever Made," was the title of a film viewed by members of the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday in the Coronado Inn. The film, which stressed the importance of adequate airport facilities to community growth, was narrated by Arthur Godfrey.

Pampa Chamber of Commerce Aviation Committee chairman Wynn Veale said that the value of an airport to a city can be measured in three ways: (1) attracting new industry; (2) retaining present industry; (3) attracting the transient dollar. Special guest at the luncheon meeting was Trevor Roberts, a past president of the Takapuna, New Zealand, Rotary Club. He and his wife are house guests of the Dr. Joe Donaldsons while visiting in Pampa. The Robert's daughter lived with the Donaldsons while she attended Pampa High School as a foreign exchange student several years ago.

More Showers Predicted for Pampa Area

Prospects were for thunder-showers throughout the state through Friday with cooler temperatures in the western half after showers fell in the Panhandle and parts of the South Plains yesterday and early today. Pampa received .70 inch of rain in an early morning shower today.

Panhandle received .57 inch in 40 minutes yesterday afternoon during an electrical storm accompanied by marble-size hail. Amarillo Air Force Base received .01 inch, which caused the cancellation of a parade.

Other parts of the Panhandle received a trace of moisture with light drizzles throughout the day. The rain and cooler temperatures resulted from a cold front that pushed into the Panhandle yesterday. The forecast for Pampa and vicinity calls for considerable cloudiness with a few isolated thundershowers through tomorrow. High is expected to be near 80, with a low in the lower 50s.

Wellington Man Named To State Industrial Post

AUSTIN (Spl) — Don R. Raburn has been named Senior Industrial Development Consultant for the State of Texas by the Texas Industrial Commission.
 Headquartered in Austin, Raburn will continue to have primary responsibility for the Commission's activities in East Texas, but now he will also coordinate the efforts of consultants for the whole state.
 A native of Wellington, Raburn majored in Economics at North Texas State University and is a graduate of the Institute for Organization Management at the University of Houston. After graduation he was instructor in Finance in the Basic Industrial Development Course at Texas A&M. Prior to joining the Commission, Raburn was manager of the Farmer's Branch Chamber of Commerce.
 The Texas Industrial Commission is a state agency which endeavors to attract new industry to Texas and to assist local communities in organizing good industrial development programs.
 The industrial consultants, of whom Raburn is now head, travel to cities and towns throughout the state to work on specific problems and to promote industrial development in general. Upon request by a community they will arrange an intensive day-long planning seminar in Austin. Later they will conduct a follow-up meeting in the community itself.
 The seminars, according to Raburn, are full of specific proposals, suggestions, and aids for getting an industrial devel-

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vacation travelers traditionally collect souvenirs along their routes to remind them of the fun times they had during their trips. My sainted mother was a great hand at this.
 Recently, while visiting the old homestead, I came across a whole drawer full of her travel mementos.
 The collection was stratified, like a geological formation. It was built up in annual layers of picture postcards, brochures, paperweights, alabaster light-houses, replicas of the Liberty Bell and so on.
 An archeologist digging down through the years would successively uncover artifacts from Niagara Falls, the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone National Park, Pike's Peak, Carlsbad Caverns and other natural wonders.
 That is the trouble with conventional souvenirs. They are either put away and forgotten or buried beneath the fruits of the next year's vacation. Thus they fail their purpose of bringing back pleasant memories.
 To His Credit
 This is why I rely on gasoline credit cards to keep the high points of a journey fresh in my mind.
 During the course of a recent 5,000-mile cross-country trek, I must have signed 40 to 50 gas tickets. Judging from past experience, it will be several months before all of them clear the IBM machines.
 Next December, when there is snow on the ground, I am certain to open an oil company statement and find there is a ticket I signed this summer in sunny El Paso.
 El Paso? Oh, yes. That was the place where I broke a shock absorber. While writing the check I will relive the incident, which otherwise would have been mercifully forgotten.
 I also can look forward to receiving a ticket signed in Silver City, N.M. A ticket for 18.2 gallons of gasoline and tow charges.
 It was on a mountain road near Silver City that I hit a dip and knocked the exhaust pipe loose from the muffler.
Fond Recollections
 When the ticket comes in from Central, N.M., I can fondly recall the night we were camping nearby. Camping in what we thought was a dry creek bed.
 There is a old Indian legend that rain will cause water to rise in dry creek beds. The legend has been handed down

Lutheran Observers At Catholic Congress

The Battle of Brandy Station, Va., June 9, 1863, is regarded as the first true cavalry battle of the Civil War.
 The original territory of Virginia was established in 1609.

SURVIVORS of a sky-diving disaster. Bernard Johnson, 30, West Richfield, Ohio (left), and Bob Coy, 29, Springfield, Ohio, told of the ill-fated jump by 19 divers into the waters of Lake Erie. The two were picked up a few miles from shore by a boat after 15 minutes in the water.

South Vietnam Skeptical About American Observers

SAIGON (UPI)—South Vietnam's 10 civilian presidential candidates expressed general skepticism for President Johnson's decision to send 22 prominent Americans to observe Sunday's Vietnam national elections. The observation team arrived in Saigon Wednesday.

Quizzed by UPI, the civilian hopefuls indicated they felt it unlikely the American observers would have much success in their effort to see that the balloting is conducted honestly and fairly and not influenced by the military regime.

The observation team, led by former U.S. ambassador to Vietnam, Henry Cabot Lodge, was to meet today with Bunker. It then was to be free to observe as it wished the preparations for Sunday's vote. "They can't inspect the areas which are insecure and these are the very places where fraud is likely to occur," said Tran Van Huong, a former premier considered the leading civilian presidential hopeful.

Ha Thuc Ky, another civilian given an outside chance to beat Chief of State Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu in the presidential race, said, "Even thousands of observers cannot control cheat-

Postal Service Is Helping With MD Fund Drive Again

For the 14th consecutive year, the Postal Service will help with the fight against Muscular Dystrophy, according to Lee Thomas of Skellytown, president of the Greater Plains Chapter. Thomas said the U. S. Post Office Department has authorized the public to use the simple address "MDAA, Inc. In Care of Local Postmaster" in making contributions to the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America.

Thomas stated additional telephone help is needed to contact women to work on the muscular dystrophy drive slated in Pampa on Sept. 7. Women willing to make this contribution to the community are asked to contact Mrs. Leonard Cannon, 101 S. Dwight or telephone MO 4-4172.

is trying to meddle in Vietnamese affairs."

Phan Quang Tan, a leading vice presidential candidate running with Phan Khac Suu, said the team would "help us to cut down on irregularities."

"Of course, it will be difficult for them to go into the districts and villages and even if they go there they won't know who's who. But their presence will help," said Dan, a Harvard and Paris-educated doctor.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thomson & McKinnon says, considering the news background, the stock market is not turning in a "bad" performance. The analyst suggests low volume in the declining market indicates an absence of buyers rather than company says the Dow Jones industrial average should find support at the 880 level.

Arthur Wiesenberger & Co. notes fall business prospects become more discernible around Labor Day and any disappointment developing in the face of an expected improvement would have an effect on market sentiment and prices. The company suggests that investors keep a balanced portfolio with individually attractive stock, some inflation-deflation hedges and "defensive" securities.

Oppenheimer, Newberg & Neuman says it is not optimistic of the stock market and suggests a further setback is a "reasonable expectation." The analyst advises investor to diminish speculative commitments and build up buying power to take advantage of possible further sharp declines.

Urban Flow Is Chaotic, Says Freeman

DALLAS (UPI)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman said yesterday the nation faces chaos unless it checks the flow of people to the city from the country.

Freeman spoke to a press conference in Dallas on a trip that will take him to several Texas stops in two days, including College Station tonight.

"I am not calling for a mass return to farms, but only a revitalization and better use of our vast raw areas," Freeman said.

He said the flow to the cities "is self-destructive. Recent explosions in the cities demonstrate visibly what the result of this mass exodus can be."

He added, "Right now, we have too many people in too little space and too few people in too much space." In 1945, Admiral William Halsey, aboard the battleship "Missouri" led the U.S. Third Fleet into Sagami Bay, 30 miles from Tokyo, the first step in Gen. MacArthur's occupation of Japan.

Hurricane Arlene Now Developing In Atlantic

MIAMI (UPI)—The first tropical storm of the season sprung up in the Atlantic yesterday but forecasters—while reluctant "to take anyone off the hook this early"—said chances were "rather remote the storm will affect the mainland."

Named Arlene, the fast-building disturbance was generating top winds of 60 miles per hour and was expected to blossom into a full fledged hurricane with 75 mph winds by late last night.

Arlene was long overdue,
 according to the form sheets.

The hurricane season officially starts June 1 and it has been 26 years since the initial storm of a season waited until this late to put in an appearance.

A late (noon EDT) advisory on Arlene placed the center of the disturbance more than 2,000 miles east-southeast of Miami near latitude 22.5 north, longitude 45.0 west. This is about 1,400 miles southeast of Bermuda.

The storm was moving on a west-northwest course at about 15 mph, with gales extending out for 150 miles from its center.

A spokesman at the National Hurricane Center classified Arlene as a small storm and said it was so far off shore that it could pose no threat to any land area for at least two days.

"We don't want to take anyone off the hook this early because we have little information to work with but looking ahead the chances are rather remote that this storm will affect the mainland," said
 Gordon E. Dunn, chief forecaster of the center.

A Navy hurricane-hunter plane flying out of Puerto Rico flew to the storm area to obtain on-the-spot information. An Air Force hunter plane had to turn back to its Bermuda base Tuesday 200 miles short of the disturbance because its fuel was running low.

Fresh Fruit Makes Hot Weather Dessert

Now is the time to translate summers' wealth of fresh fruits into a luscious dessert. Here's a combination as attractive to serve as it is convenient to prepare.

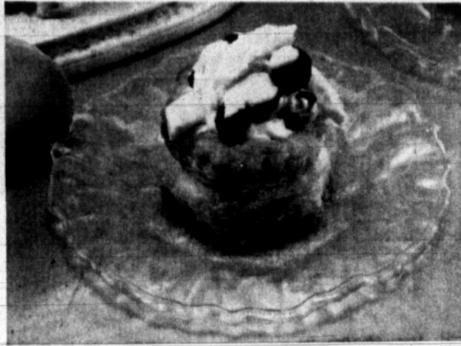

Choose fruit flavor - partners picked at their peak of ripeness - peaches and blueberries, peaches and strawberries, green grapes and nectarines, for example. Combine with brown-sugar-sweetened sour cream and heap into freshly baked pastry shell nests. Garnish with additional fresh berries or slices, sun-bright and inviting to the eye as well as the taste.

You'll love the pastry shell cups because they may be made ahead, and their old-world richness and flavor bring elegance to your table. Their butter-layered dough, folded and refolded before it reaches the freezer, rises to magnificent heights when it bakes in your oven. Making puff pastry is something only the most courageous women brave in their own kitchens. And why should they when these frozen delights are virtually foolproof, besides saving hours of work?

Flaky pastry shells serve as the base for year-round desserts. Once the harvest is past, try the following recipe with canned drained fruit cocktail, with canned mandarin oranges and pineapple, or with a combination of frozen fruits.

HARVEST FRUIT DELIGHT
1 package frozen pastry shells seductive. Poets love to write about them, artists to paint them, and there's a rumor that those famous tarts the Queen of Hearts once made were stacked with fresh red cherries.

FRESH CHERRY TARTS

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
2-3 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
1 cup sliced fresh sweet cherries
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
8 baked tart shells
1 cup pitted fresh sweet cherries, cut in half
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon cornstarch
Whipped cream for garnish

Soften gelatin in cold water and set aside. Combine 2-3 cup sugar, salt and eggs in saucepan or top part of double boiler. Stir in milk. Cook over very low heat or hot water (not boiling) until mixture coats metal spoon. Remove from heat. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Fold in 1 cup sliced cherries, whipped cream and vanilla. Turn into baked tart shells. Chill until ready to serve. Mix remaining 1 cup cherries (that's half) with the 2 tablespoons sugar. Let stand 1 hour. Drain

COOK'S TOUR

By JEANNE LESEM
UPI Food Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — Travel broadens travelers' food horizons but it also tends to obscure food origins.

"We've lost the true identity of a lot of food with so much movement these past 40 to 50 years," says Helen Peterkin, a radio commercial writer in Guyana — the only English-speaking country in South America.

Mrs. Peterkin's husband Fred, is Guyana's traffic department chief and manager of the Police Male Voice Choir. The couple were here during a goodwill tour of the United States following the choir's appearance at Expo '67.

In an interview, Mrs. Peterkin described some of the local food and food customs of her country, which became independent last year after 152 years as the British colony of British Guiana.

Most Guyanese today are of East-Indian or Negro descent, according to the World Almanac. But local cookery is drawn not just from India and Africa but also from England, China, the U. S., Portugal and other European nations and Guyana's indigenous Amerindians. Versions of some local dishes, including pepperpot and souse, are found on nearby Caribbean islands whose populations are like Guyana's — international.

Mrs. Peterkin described Guyana's pepperpot as an Amerindian dish that dates back to the days when families hunted for food instead of shopping for it. "They put whatever meat they had into a pot with condiment made with cassava," she said. "They'd add more meat as the hunters brought it home."

"Just about everybody makes pepperpot at home now," with beef, pork, onions, pepper, salt and cassaree — that's the cassava condiment that looks like soy sauce but is thicker and peppery.

Juice into a measuring cup and add water to make 1/2 cup. Add cornstarch and mix until smooth. Cook until clear and slightly thick. Cool. Arrange cherries over tops of tarts; spoon over cherry glaze. Chill. Garnish with whipped cream if desired. 8 servings.

"You boil pepperpot like a stew, and eat it with rice or bread, and you may eat plantains (cooking bananas) with it, too. Amerindians throw farine on it. Farine looks like corn meal."

Mrs. Peterkin compared Guyana's cook-up rice to Spanish rice and East-Indian nasi goreng as it is served in neighboring Surinam. Each usually contains rice, vegetables, meat and seafood cooked together. She said local cooks generally make it with peas and rice cooked in water with salt beef, bacon and shrimp, with coconut milk added toward the end of the cooking period. The variety of peas depends on each family's preferences — they may be green peas, blackeyed peas or yellow split peas.

Other local dishes include temgee, a stew of African origin that contains cassava, sweet or white potatoes, salt beef and salt or fresh fish and flour dumplings, all cooked in coconut milk; Indian curries and roti, which is unleavened bread; and Portuguese garlic pork — fried pork first marinated in vinegar and garlic.

Ochro soup is another Guyanese favorite that's virtually a one-dish meal. Mrs. Peterkin described it as a thick soup whose ingredients include okra, a spinach, like green called callalu, beef, dumplings, crab and eddoes — brown-skinned root vegetables with white flesh that turns purple when boiled.

Not all Guyanese food is so exotic. Mrs. Peterkin said her son, 12, hates rice but likes hamburgers, steak, hot dogs, ham and eggs and all kinds of desserts, including ice cream, cake and chocolates. Because her husband also is a big meat eater, their family dinners usually center around steak, chops, a roast or fish.

"Most Guyanese women cook

Ham and Cabbage Make Main Dish

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Use main dish salads to solve the "what-can-I-have-for-dinner-tonight" problem in warm weather. A hot soup in cups might be served first, then the chilled "foody" salad and an assortment of crispy rolls.

Shredded cabbage makes an excellent base for this kind of salad. Here are two good examples.

CABBAGE AND HAM SALAD

3 cups finely sliced fresh cabbage
1 cup sliced cooked ham
2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh onion
1/4 cup finely chopped fresh parsley
2 teaspoons caraway seeds
1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
1 teaspoon cider vinegar
Head lettuce
Radishes for garnish

Combine cabbage, ham, onion, parsley, seasonings, mayonnaise and vinegar in salad bowl. Toss lightly. Serve on lettuce as main-dish salad. Garnish with radishes. Six servings.

TOSSED FRESH FRUIT AND CABBAGE SALAD

1 quart shredded fresh cabbage
1/2 cup diced fresh celery
1 cup diced unpeeled red apples
1 cup fresh pineapple wedges
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon sugar
Salad greens

Apple slices for garnish
Combine cabbage, celery, apples, pineapple, salt, and black pepper. Mix mayonnaise, lemon juice, and sugar. Pour over cabbage and fruit. Toss lightly. Serve in salad bowl lined with salad greens. Garnish with apple slices. Serve with cold sliced ham or turkey. Six servings.

DEAR ABBY: My mother sends our children big gifts every year for their birthdays, and she also sends my brothers and me a birthday card with $20 enclosed, but she NEVER sends our wives anything. This makes them feel hurt, and starts fights in our homes.

It's not that mother doesn't know when her daughters-in-law's birthdays are because we know she does.

What can we do to keep peace in the family?

THE BROTHERS FOUR DEAR BROTHERS: You could let your mother know that your wives are "hurt" at being overlooked on their birthdays, which would probably produce some forced and therefore insincere gifts.

For your mother to slight your wives deliberately is small. But it does not justify "fights" in your homes. A wise and considerate wife would not hold her husband responsible for what his mother does, or does not do.

DEAR ABBY: I know this letter has a very slim chance of getting in the paper, but with your answer it will surely help other teen-agers with aunt problems.

My aunt (I'll call her Peggy) brings her two children (ages 4 and 6) to our house every Tuesday and Thursday, then she and my mother take off and play golf, leaving my sister and me to baby sit with the children.

My sister and I are sick of it, and we told our mom to tell Aunt Peggy that we are going to start charging her for baby sitting. My mother said, "Don't get smart."

So my sister and I are going to tell Aunt Peggy ourselves. What do you think of this? May-

DEAR ABBY: I am a middle-aged widow who is very much in love with a widower my own age who claims he loves me, too. (I'll call him George.) We both lost our mates within the past three years.

George has a 20-year-old daughter who resents me. George says his daughter hasn't a thing against me, personally, that she would resent any woman her father showed an interest in.

I would like to marry this man, but how can I work around his daughter? He will not marry without his daughter's blessings.

DEAR INTERESTED: How the daughter feels about you is relatively unimportant. How does George feel about you? If his daughter's unjust resentment is keeping him from marrying you, who needs him? He and his daughter deserve each other.

CONFIDENTIAL TO PINKY: The proof of the pudding is not always in the eating. It's whether he comes back for seconds. A lot of very mediocre pudding has been consumed for lack of choice.

Skellytown WMU Circles Schedule Church 'Work Day'

Two WMU Circles of Skellytown First Baptist Church, which are "The Kezzia Mae Searight" and "The Elizabeth Cash" met together recently in the church Fellowship Hall with Mrs. O. H. Grant as hostess, and set a church "work day."

Attending were Mmes. Price, Thompson, M. L. Mercer, Grant, J. C. Jarvis, Bill Campbell, Irvin Brown, M. L. Mills and Roy Paul Thurmond.

DEAR SISTERS: If your mother's reaction to your complaint was, "Don't get smart," I don't recommend complaining to your aunt. I agree, you are being taken advantage of, but occasionally we must all put up with situations which require us to give more than we get.

IN PAMPA HOME New Zealand Couple Visit Daughter's Foster Parents

By WANDA MAE HUFF Women's News Editor Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Roberts of Takapuna, New Zealand, stopped in Pampa this week to visit with Dr. and Mrs. Joe Donaldson, who were foster parents for their daughter, Evelyn Roberts, while she lived here as an American Field Service student four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts have worked in the AFS program since 1955. Eleven years ago, Daphne, another of their daughters, lived and studied at St. Paul, Minn.

"We have had several Americans in our home, including Susan Manning, an AFS student from Knoxville, Tenn. For eight weeks, Kathryn Kirk, a teacher from Springdale College in Houston, stayed with us. Last summer, while our winter school term was on, the teacher was sent to observe our educational system, to guide AFS officials in selecting youths to send to New Zealand," Mrs. Roberts explained.

When AFS students arrive in New Zealand, they usually meet Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, for they are among several in New Zealand who offer assistance and encourage students to apply for overseas scholarships, Mr. Roberts said.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts believe the AFS program, which sponsors an educational exchange of students, is one way to build better international bridges of friendship among the world's countries.

"We think the exchange of ideas among young people, will improve conditions of the world. During our stay in America, we have met many people connected with the AFS movement, and as president of the Young Men's Christian Association in New Zealand, we have tried to meet others who were working in YMCA for welfare of youths," he said. This year, 34 students have been interchanged between America and New Zealand. Since the program started there, about 1955, about 200 students have traveled to and from the Pacific island and America.

New Zealand is a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations and is located in the South Pacific Ocean, about 1,200 miles east of Australia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left New Zealand in April, have spent two months touring western European countries, one month in England, Ireland and Scotland, went canoeing in Canada, stopped to see the International Exposition, '67 in Montreal, Canada and plan to visit in California before returning home in September.

While in Pampa, Mr. Roberts attended a Rotary Club meeting Wednesday and Mrs. Roberts attended an Altrusa Club meeting Monday.

They have a son, Ralph Roberts, who has represented New Zealand twice in Olympic games in yachting races, and is representing New Zealand again Sept. 9 through 16 in the Flying Dutchman World Series in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will be in Pampa for a few days before returning to New Zealand.

Boston Leads by 17-2

By United Press International
Everybody's heard about the miracle of Coogan's Bluff, but how about the Spirit of '46? That's the Boston Red Sox cry these days—if you stretch your memory to the days of Ted Williams, Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr.

However, Eddie Stanky, the Little Old Miracle Worker of that 1951 New York Giants team which opened their National League pennant drive 3½ games behind in second place in late August, figures his Chicago White Sox can make it yet.

"We may be No. 4 today," said Chicago skipper after his team cracked a two-game losing streak by besting the Washington Senators 5-1, Wednesday night, "but we try harder."

Boston Pulls It Out
Boston completed 40 innings of hard-fought baseball in just under 24 hours Wednesday afternoon by edging the New York Yankees 2-1 in the 11th inning.

Carl Yastrzemski's 35th homer of the season broke up the game in the 11th and provided relief pitcher John Wyatt with his eighth victory in 14 decisions. Wyatt worked the final four innings in relief of Jerry Stephenson.

Minnesota, beaten by Baltimore 4-2 in the 10th inning, trails the Red Sox by 1½ games as does Detroit, which lost to California 3-2. The White Sox are 21 games out. In the other American League game, Kansas City nipped Cleveland 6-5 in 12 innings.

The short stay Tommie Agee spent riding the White Sox bench may have been the cure-all for his weak hitting. The White Sox' centerfielder collected three hits, drove in one run and scored two others.

Fred Klages yielded five hits in the six innings he worked before giving way for a pinch-hitter, Bob Locker finished up and held the Senators in check.

California came up with two runs in the ninth inning to best the Tigers. Bubba Morton doubled in Jimmie Hall and scored the winning run on Bill Skowron's infield grounder.

Earl Wilson, an 18-game winner, was coasting along on a two-hitter until Morton's double started him to his 10th defeat. Danny Cater's fifth straight single scored Mike Hershberger, who opened the 12th inning with a double, with the deciding Kansas City run. It was the A's third straight extra-inning game.

Frank Robinson's 26th home run with Boog Powell on base pinned the defeat on the Twins. Robinson's four-bagger tagged Dean Chance with his 10th defeat as he made his first start since his no-hitter last Friday against Cleveland.

Kerbel to Miss First Contest

By RON CROSS
CANYON — The only thing missing at the annual West Texas State Press Day Wednesday was the head Buffalo, coach Joe Kerbel.

In a terse announcement Sports Information Director Tom Drew said that Kerbel would not be present when the Buffs opened practice today nor would he be present when the Buffs open the season Sept. 16 against rugged Montana State.

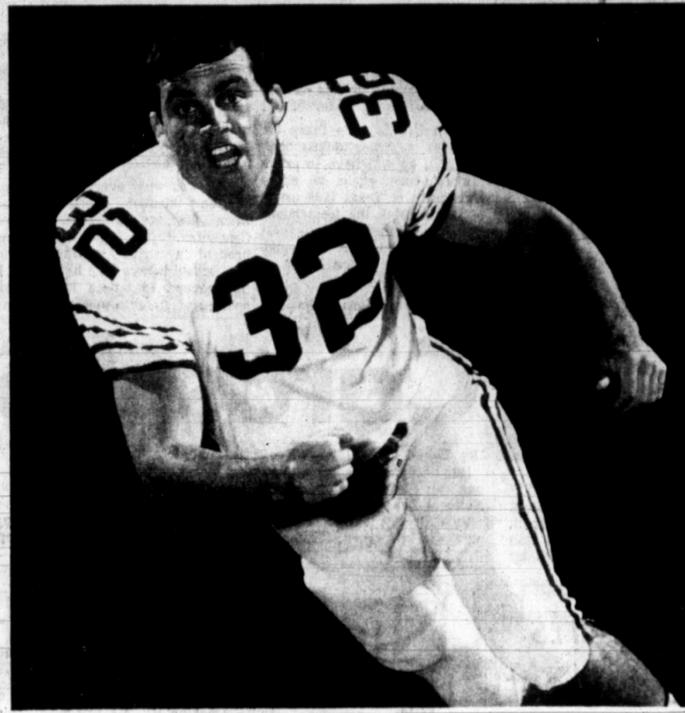

Kerbel suffered a heart attack July 30 at his home.

Assistant coaches Jack (Sleepy) Harris and C. E. (Dirk) Dierking will be meeting daily with Kerbel so he can direct the fall workouts without actually being present on the practice field.

"It's just impossible to tell you right now when Joe will be back. I'm not to be around him too much, because it's hard to leave, especially when we start talking football," Harris said.

"He is recovering rapidly at home and appears in fine condition. But the doctors feel he needs more rest before returning to his coaching duties," Sleepy stated.

"As you all know Joe has an exceptional close contact with his staff and we all know what to do in the other's field. Thanks to Joe's organization, foresight and knowledge we are prepared to do the job and we will."

ON THE CORNER for the West Texas State Buffaloes this fall will be Gary McAtee, a 170-pound sophomore from Canyon. McAtee will start at cornerback for the Buffs, the same position he held last year.

Levias Appears Ready To Start

By United Press International
Texas A&M and Baylor begin pre-season training today, but it may already be too late. Jerry Levias, Southern Methodist University standout, already appears in mid-season form.

Levias, an all-Southwest Conference pick as a sophomore last year, scored three touchdowns in a controlled scrimmage Wednesday. He gained 129 yards on six carries, two of them for touchdowns, and scored once on a 40-yard pass from Mike Livingston.

Junior letterman Mike Richardson of Fort Worth was right behind Levias with 113 yards in seven carries.

SMU, which opened practice Monday, meets A&M at College Station in a nationally televised game Sept. 16. On the same day Baylor will be at the University of Colorado.

More than 80 players turned out Wednesday at the Aggie camp to run a "qualifying mile" before beginning practice today.

Junior halfback Bob Lang of Paris had the best time at 5:06. All the Aggies were under the 6:18 minimum set by coach Gene Stallings.

Twenty lettermen return for the two-day practices at College Station.

Wimbledon Repeat on Tap For Forest Hills Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—A Wimbledon repeat is in prospect for Forest Hills.

Mrs. Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., and Australia's John Newcombe, easy Wimbledon winners, rate as No. 1's all the way in the 86th U.S. lawn tennis singles championships opening today.

They're not only top-seeded on their reputations but top-favored on current play after teaming with other partners to score in the recent U.S. doubles at Chestnut Hill, Mass.

While those two favorites are waiting for their starting turns on Friday today's opening program brings out 31-year-old warhorse Roy Emerson of Australia, fourth-seeded Nicola Pietrangeli of Yugoslavia, fifth-seeded Cliff Drysdale of South Africa and America's chief hope seventh-seeded Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio.

Emerson, 1964 winner and current holder of the Australian and French crowns, was down for a breather against George Goven of France, Pilié against Lamar Roemer of Houston, Drysdale against Lt. Ed Newman of the U.S. Marines and Graebner with Sherwood Stewart of Baytown, Texas.

With Army Lt. Art Ashe absent, Graebner, eighth-seeded Chuck Pasarell Puerto Rico, Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., and Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Texas, represent about all the strength the U.S. can muster in an effort to keep the title from going overseas for the 12th straight time.

On the distaff side, Mrs. King will have to contend with a strong foreign contingent including Ann Jones of England, Françoise Durr of France, Lesley Turner of Australia and several American girls.

Miss Nancy Richey, of San Angelo, Texas, 18-year-old Rosemary Casals of San Francisco and Kathy Harter of Seal Beach, Calif., are among the top contenders along with Kerry Melville of Australia and Virginia Wade of Great Britain.

Speedy Streak Top Trotter

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI)—Speedy Streak, a horse with athlete's foot, Wednesday won harness racing's top 3-year-old trotting stake, the Pambletonian.

It was the first evidence that Speedy Streak warranted the lofty $113,000 he brought on the sales block as a yearling, when the fact that he was a full brother of Speedy Scot sent the price soaring.

But Speedy Streak's purchasers, Gainesway Farm of Lexington, Ky., and K.D. Owen of Houston, Texas, were unaware of a fungus infection on the heels of both front hooves, which limited competition for the horse as a 2-year-old.

He went to the gate only 18 times and won only twice and during the winter received radium treatment in a lead-lined stall at Purdue University.

In 1967 he'd been out only nine times, winning twice, as the fungus infection of the feet returned. Now his treatment consists of a lotion developed by a 64-year-old groom, Don Echeberry of Republic, Ohio.

Speedy Streak led almost the last half mile to win the first heat of the $122,650 stake in 2:00, and his driver Del Cameron brought him winging out of the turn into the stretch to grab the second heat in 2:01 for the winner's payoff of $60,098.50.

Keystone Pride, driven by Billy Houghton, was second in the first heat and third in the next for an overall second place and $30,049.25, while Speed Model, piloted by Art Hull, was seventh and second to finish third for $14,423.64.

Rain Helps, Hurts Top O' Texas Meet

Rain in Colorado Springs yesterday meant something bad while it had both its good and bad points in Pampa early this morning.

The rain in Colorado washed out the first round of the National Amateur tournament while here it made Pampa Country Club's course even better for play in the Top O' Texas tournament, which starts Friday with a practice round.

Another bad part comes from the fact that the half-way point cut would have been made in the National tournament today and those golfers not making the cut would have headed for Pampa and the 30th annual tournament here.

Now it appears we'll have to wait until late Friday (weather permitting) before tournament officials will know for sure just who will be here and who won't.

When the cut is made Friday several Pampa golfers will probably be flying to Colorado Springs to pick up golfers.

One thing is known for sure, defending champion Steve LaCrone will be back to defend

'Superbill' Has to Prove Himself

AUSTIN, Texas (UPI)—He was once called "Superbill" and "Mr. Everything," but a knee injury hobbled him and a fickle public turned to his Texas Longhorn running mate.

When Bill Bradley takes the field as a junior quarterback this fall, he will have to prove himself once again to many University of Texas fans, some of whom think the tremendous ballyhoo—one of the biggest ever given an untested sophomore—was just a bunch of noise.

There are fans who still believe the 5-foot-11-inch Palestine, Tex., native is among the best in the nation. Coach Darrell Royal is no exception.

"Bill has unusual ability," Royal said. "He has the ability to do a lot of things the ordinary guy can't do in all forms of athletics."

That was what everyone said of the talented quarterback when he signed with the Longhorns. The 185-pounder brought a string of startling high school honors with him. He had earned 15 letters in four sports and gotten a multitude of scholarship offers in three sports.

As a freshman at Texas, Bradley averaged 7.1 yards per carry, scored five touchdowns and passed for five more in five games. In fact, he led the frosh in all statistical departments but pass receiving.

The superlative really picked up after the spring intrasquad game that year, when Bradley ran a punt back 73 yards, ran from scrimmage 80 yards and threw a few touchdown passes.

But the young signal-caller failed to get a chance to shine in the 1966 opener, with Southern Cal keeping the ball most of the way. When he did get a chance, he made the usual first game mistakes, distinguishing himself only once by engineering a 91-yard touchdown drive.

Not many Longhorn fans got to see him against Texas Tech the next week, when Bradley scored two touchdowns and passed for another, and it was the third game against Indiana that put him in the hospital.

Meanwhile, sophomore Wingback Chris Gilbert—expected to play in Bradley's shadow—gained over 100 yards playing only the second half against USC, and began a sizzling year in which he piled up more than 100 yards in seven of 11 games.

Bradley missed the Oklahoma game and was "only a man" playing with his injury until the last two games of the campaign.

It was those mid-season games most fans remember, and Bradley was far from "super." He could hardly run. He did sparkle like the Bradley of old in the Bluebonnet Bowl victory over Mississippi to close the campaign. He and Gilbert each gained over 100 yards, and Bradley made believers of a few Doubting Thomases.

Bradley was kept out of spring training just as a precaution, and is reportedly ready to go once again.

He'll get a "second chance" against Southern Cal Sept. 23 in Los Angeles, this time without the publicity pressure.

But before the season is over, it is generally felt that Texas fans will be yelling for Superbill once again, and pulling for one of the greatest 1-2 punches in any college backfield.

Cards Look Unbeatable

By United Press International

Humphrey, the baseball fan, has an impersonator in the National League.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey is a frequent visitor to the Minnesota Twins' clubhouse and on a recent occasion he even dared to enter the inner sanctum of the Chicago dressing room after the White Sox had lost a close game.

But it still had to come as a surprise to St. Louis pitcher Larry Jaster when he entered the Cardinal clubhouse Wednesday night and was informed that Humphrey was waiting to see him.

And sure enough he was, only this man was not the vice president but Jaster's stepfather, Humphrey Berg, who had traveled from Midland, Mich., with his wife to see the game.

"I didn't even know they were here until the game was over," said Jaster, who received credit for the Cardinals' 2-0 victory over the New York Mets that enabled them to maintain their 10-game lead over second-place Cincinnati.

Philadelphia, Milt Pappas, now 14-9, was credited with the victory.

Stargell Stars

Willie Stargell drove in four runs and Gene Alley three and Matty Alou added four hits and over the New York Mets that enabled them to maintain their 10-game lead over second-place Cincinnati.

Nick Pockets $50,000

HARRISON, N.Y. (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus conquered Arnie's Army with relative ease Wednesday but had a tougher time with Dan Sikes' rearguard action.

Sikes, who had withdrawn twice last week only to get a reprieve when rain washed out play for three days, was almost unnoticed by the gallery as he teed off with Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer in the final round of the $250,000 Westchester Classic, the world's richest tournament.

But while the expected Nicklaus-Palmer duel fizzled quickly when Palmer blew up on the front nine, Nicklaus found himself fighting off a dramatic bid from Sikes before he finally won the $50,000 first prize with a 16-under-par total of 272, at the par 72, 6,648 yard Westchester Country Club course.

Money Record

The victory enabled Nicklaus to set a single season money winning record of $156,748.00, surpassing the record of $140,732.14 he set in 1965.

Nicklaus also displayed the class of a true champion as he won even though he wasn't in top form. He started the round at 201 with Sikes, Roberto Devicenzo and Gary Player three strokes back and Palmer, Bob Charles and Frank Beard four behind.

Nicklaus had to scramble to get a 71 and was actually tied by Sikes after 12 holes but managed to play steady enough to beat out Sikes, who finished with a 69 for a 273 total, by a stroke.

"I generally feel fortunate to win because I wasn't sharp today," Nicklaus said. "I guess I was just tired after all the postponement."

Skip Carling

Nicklaus said he only planned to play in a "couple more" tournaments this season and is skipping the 200,000 Carling Open in Toronto this weekend.

Palmer, who was two-over on the front line but carded four birdies on the back nine to match Nicklaus' 71, finished fifth at 276.

Sikes, with birdies on eight and nine and two more on 11 and 12, had tied Nicklaus and remained in a deadlock as both golfers parred 13 and 14.

But on 15, Sikes slammed his drive into the rough and then hit into a trap. His recovery shot left him with a six-foot putt but he just missed it for a bogey that cost him the title as both golfers parred the final three holes.

Sikes couldn't really complain since he wound up with $30,000 for second place in a tourney he had withdrawn from twice.

Devicenzo came in with a 78 to finish at 274 and gain third place while Player was a stroke back at 275 after 71.

Following Palmer in fifth was Doug Sanders at 277 and Lee Trevino and Chi Chi Rodriguez both were at 278. Charles and Beard finished at 279 with Charles Coody. Mason Rudolph ended in a four-way tie at 280 after a 71.

Rudolph, who lost a 69 and a 67 to the rain, and Devicenzo, who had a pair of 67s washed out, would have finished 18-under-par, two shots better than Nicklaus, if it hadn't rained.

BOXERS NAMED

KIAME SHA LAKE, N.C. (UPI)—Promising heavyweight Forest Ward was one of five amateur boxers named to the United States team that will compete against West Germany on Monday night in New York.

Others who were named to the team were Martin Berzowski, Bob O'Brien, John Tijrens and Sam Goss.

You, Your Child and School

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Generally, students are aware of their new teachers' names. They have probably heard rumors concerning the attitudes and personalities of the teachers. It is important for parents to reassure students when they seem upset about their teachers. Parents can help their children to realize that it is the individual's relationship with the teacher which is important and not the rumors which are heard in the halls and on the playground.

A New Start
This is also an excellent time to remind students that the new school year is an opportunity to begin a clean slate. An organized plan for study and play will lay the foundation for a successful and pleasant school year.

Preparing for the first day involves obtaining certain items which are necessary. Make sure that appropriate clothing is clean and accessible. The clothes which allow them to with regard to weather conditions. Party type clothes are not proper for school. Children should be neatly dressed in clothes which allow them to participate freely in normal school activities. Naturally, if the school prescribes a particular uniform, it should be obtained and worn the first day. Not doing so might embarrass your child.

Notebooks, etc., should only be brought in advance if the school requires them. Too often children purchase two-hole loose leaf books when the school uses three-hole paper and vice versa. Waiting for directions can save money and unnecessary difficulty. Necessary items for the first day are simply a pencil, pen in the upper grades, small notebook for listing assignments and other information, and an eraser. Preparation should be made to purchase other materials after school on the first day.

A student who will be attending a new school should know several items in advance. Check with the school office concerning hours, bus routes and class assignment. Find out if school is open a full day and what are the lunch procedures.

Registration should be accomplished before the first day.

This will avoid confusion on the first morning which is usually hectic in the school office. School offices are usually open previous to the first day. You can check with the superintendent's office.

Tension cannot be completely eliminated. There will always be some fear of the unknown. It can be reduced with some effort on the part of the student and his parents. The extent of preparation which is needed will depend on the particular child. Parents should be aware of this problem and meet it directly as it arises.
