In throwing up a barrier red tape against Prime Minister Ian Smith of Rhodesia, who has been invited to speak at the University of Virginia, the U.S. State Department has given evidence concerning the Johnson administration's fear of Mr Smith's effectiveness.

The invitation to Prime Minister Smith came from the highly respected University of Virginia Law Forum. Mr. Smith accepted, with the understanding that he would face critical as well as sympathetic questions. He was not afraid of close questioning. The State Department aparently IS afraid; however.
