Beulah's Rains Flood South Texas Rivers

Corpus Will be Spared

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (UPI) — The Rio Grande and six other Texas rivers, swollen to record levels by the rains of Hurricane Beulah, flooded for 200 miles Saturday en route to the Gulf of Mexico, where Beulah, one of history's greatest storms, started it all.

The Rio Grande was at 10 feet above flood level, the highest in 34 years. The Nueces to the north was rolling the highest flood in its history toward Corpus Christi, where bays on two sides were expected to rise but spare the city itself.

Hundreds of thousands of persons were homeless in Texas in an area of 43,000 square miles turned earlier into virtual a vast lake by Beulah's rains, of more than 2 inches.

The death toll was 39, including nine in Texas and 28 earlier in Mexico and the Caribbean. Total damage was expected to approach $1 billion and the weather bureau called Beulah one of history's three greatest storms.

Lost Everything
Throughout south Texas and Mexico, hundreds of thousands of frightened people sat in shelters. Many lost everything they had.

The Navidad, Guadalupe, San Antonio, Arkansas and Lavaca Rivers also were flooding, but water was going down in areas flooded by the downpours themselves as the rivers struggled with the staggering rainfall.

And there were signs that the worst might be over.

The Rio Grande had crested and was going down. Channels and flood diversion levees above Brownsville were expected to hold.

Five Drown In Deadly Squall
A deadly squall sneaked unexpectedly Saturday into a northern section of Lake Michigan crowded with weekend boaters and fishermen, drowning at least five persons.

Two others were missing, the U.S. Coast Guard said.

There were hundreds of boats on the lake when the storm hit. A Coast Guard rescue plane was sent from Traverse City at night after two men were heard shouting for help in the dark, still choppy waters off Point Betsie.

Lt. Gov. William Milliken toured the area and said the "situation though serious, is not nearly as bad as first reports had indicated."

He released two units of the Michigan, were identified as William Meekoff, 38, Wyoming; Bernard Van Koeveing, 23, Grand Rapids; Arthur de Harte,

Marines Hit Viet Hard

SAIGON (UPI)—Field reports Saturday said the most intense American bombardment of the war had knocked out one North Vietnamese gun emplacement and heavily damaged two others in the muddy wastelands of the Demilitarized Zone.

Monsoon floods produced some shortages of food, water and medical supplies for U.S. Marines holding off a possible ground invasion.

A top Marine commander on the battleground, Brig. Gen. John Metzger, said American artillery and air power could never completely destroy the North Vietnamese howitzer and mortar positions which have rained thousands of shells on U.S. outposts for the past month.

Metzger said a force of as many as 35,000 North Vietnamese was apparently massing for a major assault on Con Thien, the Marine bastion just south of the DMZ.

Despite the successful raid on the three gun positions, Metzger said the North Vietnamese had almost 100 more big guns trained on Con Thien and rising American casualties were reported in new barrages.

The U.S. Command, in a communique Saturday afternoon, said North Vietnamese artillery killed six Marines and wounded 56 in a 24-hour period ending Saturday morning.

Since Sept. 1, more than 700 American fighting men have been killed or wounded under the "Communist artillery onslaught, most of them at Con Thien.

The Saturday afternoon communique indicated a general lull in ground fighting elsewhere in South Vietnam. But American and South Vietnamese forces reported killing 18 Viet Cong in a northern province battle Friday near the town of An Hoa while not suffering any losses themselves.

U.S. Headquarters announced the start of a new search-and-destroy mission called Operation Rolling in the hill country 250 miles north of Saigon. It involved troops of the U.S. 173rd Airborne Brigade. First reports (See MARINES, Page 3)

'Foul-Up' Robs Pampa Band Of Trip To Play At Game in L. A.

By TEX DEWESEE

Pampa's Harvester Band will not get to make that trip to Los Angeles for the Dec. 17 Rams-Colts NFL football game after all.

And it's all because of a mix-up in which both the Ram's publicity office and the Pampa band got caught in the middle.

But, the Pampa band as a result of the fouled-up scheduling in the Rams' office will have an opportunity to pick its own date for a half-time show at one of the Rams' home games in the fall of 1968.

Harris Erinson, director of the Harvester Band, Saturday explained what happened.

He said John Bedreau, in charge of half-time activities for the Los Angeles Rams, had called him several months ago and asked if the Pampa Band could play at a game on Oct. 8. Brinson said he couldn't accept because it was too early in the season. The matter was left open for further negotiation.

"Then last week," Brinson said, "Bedreau called again and said he had cancelled out an organization that had been scheduled for Dec. 17 and would be in Pampa for the Rams-Colts half-time show that date."

Bedreau said it was necessary to have an acceptance within 24 hours. The acceptance was telephoned within that time to the Rams office in California.

Bedreau said he would give final confirmation on Friday.

Brinson said Bedreau called late Friday and told him, apologetically, that so much pressure had been brought on him that he was forced to re-schedule the band he had cancelled for the Dec. 17 date.

"He did tell us, though," Brinson said, "we could have our pick of dates to play half-time at the Rams game next year."

That decision, Erinson said, will be made later.

The performance of the Pampa band at Friday night's Wichita-Pampa football game here scheduled for Dec. 17 and would be in superb. Cheer leaders were the Pampa Bank come for the Rams-Colts half-time show in Pampa.

Teens Hailed as Heroes

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI)—Fourteen teen-agers raced into a flaming, smoke-choked nursing home early Saturday to help rescue 53 patients from the fire, which claimed the lives of four elderly persons.

The death toll from the fire, caused by either a discarded cigarette or a short circuit, was kept down by the efforts of the teen-agers and police and firemen. They fought thick, choking smoke to carry, lead and drag the patients, many of whom could not walk, out of the building.

The 53 rescued patients were taken to hospitals throughout the city for treatment of smoke inhalation.

Police and firemen praised the teen-agers and credited them with saving many lives.

The dead were identified as Louise Lucas, 8, Elizabeth Schaeffer, 71, Maria Braacmonte, 61, and John Powers, 75. No addresses were given.

The fires struck the Craycroft Nursing Home on the city's East Side about 2 a.m. The nurses on duty attempted to rescue the patients in the fire joined other rescuers as they entered the smoke-filled building. They could not be pulled to safety and died in their beds.

When police and firemen arrived full scale rescue operations were started, and two carloads of teen-agers who had flowed the fire equipment from an all-night restaurant

Public Hearing on Budget Set Tuesday

A public hearing on Pampa's matters are scheduled for the Tuesday meeting.

The 1967-68 budget for fiscal 1967-68 is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. Tuesday at the regular meeting of the Pampa City Commission in City Hall.

The commission also is scheduled to adopt an emergency ordinance setting the 1967 tax rate at $1.72 per $100 assessed property valuation.

The budget increase over 1966-67 amounts to $270,685 and the tax rate will go up 12 cents from the current $1.60 to $1.72.

The new fiscal year begins Oct. 1 and runs through Sept. 30, 1968.

Commissioners at the Tuesday meeting will consider the request of Southwestern Public Service Co. for an approximate 7.62 per cent increase for domestic and commercial electric consumers in Pampa.

The formal request will be made by Gordon Lyons and David Tucker, representatives of the local SWPS branch office. Three or four other routine

Former Pampan Greeted by Beulah

Richard McCloskey, a 1967 graduate of Pampa High School, got a good initiation when he enrolled last week at Texas A&I University in Kingsville.

One of his first contacts was with Hurricane Beulah. Beulah hit Kingsville, southwest of Corpus Christi, on her inland sweep from the Gulf.

As a result, McCloskey was "boxed in" in his boarded-up dormitory for the past several days. Floodwaters were nearly a foot deep all over the place.

McCloskey said in a telephone conversation he finally was able to get through Friday night to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland McCloskey, in Pampa.

Floods Claim Lives, Fruit in State

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Flood waters began receding here Saturday and many persons left the shelters they had been driven to by Hurricane Beulah despite warnings to stay away from stricken areas.

"You just can't keep people away from their homes I guess," said Red Cross volunteer Mrs. C. K. Moore.

Floods in the San Antonio area claimed at least two lives. Two middle-aged women, Del Ralls and Margaret Kissling, drowned moments after their car was engulfed by the swirling waters of Six Mile Creek. Witnesses reported a third person in the car, but authorities said it could have been a poodle one of the women was known to have.

Roads south of Bexar County had been temporarily open Saturday, but the Department of Public Safety said they had again been closed by floodwaters, and warned persons safe in shelters to remain there.

"All roads leading into the Rio Grande Valley are closed," a sheriff's officer said.

Dick Bolyard, of Houston, coordinator for nine hurricane districts along the Gulf Coast, said about 2,200 evacuees were in shelters in San Antonio Saturday, compared to 2,900 Friday night.

"In Laredo, the number of evacuees was very large, but the number is now way down.

"We're going to have only one shelter open there (Laredo) tonight," he said.

"We'll move field kitchens from there and Zapata down into the Valley, where people from Mexico are pouring in. There are about 6,000 in tiny Rio Grande City alone, and a pata last night had 2,500, and it is just a wide place in the road."

Bolyard said since roads were closed south to the Valley, the rescue units would take U. S. 81 to Laredo and go down U. S. 83 to the Valley.

RUINED CITRUS CROPS in Texas were caused by Hurricane Beulah's destructive winds. Near Harlingen, Tex., Joe Kutzenberger looks at grapefruit that are his share of what's estimated at a $50 million loss.

Youthful Japanese Riding High as Cowboy

By LEON DANIEL
NAKASHIBETSU, Japan — (UPI) — Taketoshi Ito, a high school dropout who became a Japanese version of a cowboy, views the world he lives in from beneath the smartly pointed brim of a western style hat.

Purists may not consider Taketoshi, who probably would prefer to be called Tex, a cowboy.

But because he is 19, rides a horse he calls "Ponko" and watches a lot of American westerns on television, Taketoshi sometimes sees the world he lives in as something it is not. Taketoshi sees himself as an "Amelkajin cowboy."

Actually Taketoshi rides a herd on only a few hundred milk cows.

"I think being a cowboy will be my lifetime occupation," said Taketoshi with the wide grin of confident youth.

You can climb a steep hill overlooking the Konsen Plain of Japan's northernmost island of Hokkaido and see most of the 2,500 acres of the Kaiyodal Ranch which is owned and operated by the town of Nakashibetsu.

Costs 50 Yen
Farmers in the area graze their Holsteins there at a cost of 50 yen, 14 cents a head per year. The program, subsidized by the town and the prefecture of Hokkaido, permits farmers to make better use of their land by temporarily getting rid of cows that are too young to milk.

Taketoshi sleeps in a bunk house, albeit one with tatami floors for sleeping instead of bunks, with 14 other cowboys. There currently are 900 cows on the ranch.

The cowboys get up at 5 a.m. and work until 6 p.m. with one day off every 10 days. The town pays its cowboys 1,800 yen a day—about $3.20—the same as it pays day laborers.

The ranch is part of an effort to develop Kikkai-ko. The government loses money on the ranch since it costs 72 yen a day to graze a cow and the farmer pays only 50 yen.

There are 11 such ranches in Hokkaido, which is roughly the size of South Carolina.

No Brands
The black and white cows on the ranch are not branded. They are identified by numbers dyed on their hindquarters.

Since he has been a cowhand for the past four years, Taketoshi has spend more time in the saddle than behind books.

His command of English is limited, but when he rides he yells things that sound a lot like "giddyap" and "yippee," words he learned from the television set in his bunk house. If asked, Taketoshi will say that he is single and likes horses.

He describes his fast, stumpy little horse as "a mixed breed - Anglo-American and part Hokkaido horse."

"You ever see John Wayne in the movies?" he was asked. "He is my favorite actor." Taketoshi said reverently.

And then he pulled his hat very low over dark eyes that a westerner would say are slanted, slumped his horse "Ponko" on her flank and rode off into the sunset in search of some straying-but very docile milk cows.

Pampa Chamber Fall Luncheon Stated Monday

The first fall membership luncheon of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow at noon in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn. An estimated 150 people are expected to attend, according to E. O. Wedgeworth, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Rev. Dan Cameron will be the guest speaker. He will speak on "Winning Is Not Everything — It Is Everything." "Dr. Cameron is a firm believer in the theory that a person should strive mightily for his best, and we hope his speech will give impetus to our membership and especially the United Fund drive," Wedgeworth said.

Luncheon music will be provided by Mrs. Sue Higdon at the organ. Reservations for the luncheon will continue to be received until 10 a.m. Monday morning, and ladies are invited to attend with their husbands, Wedgeworth said.

New Synthetic Hydrocarbons Head Named

DALLAS — W. F. Kieschnick, Jr., has been named head of a newly created Synthetic Crude Hydrocarbons Division of Atlantic Richfield Co., Louis F. Davis, senior vice president and manager of the firm's North American Producing Division, announced today.

A Dallas native, Kieschnick joined Atlantic Richfield (then the Atlantic Refining Company) in 1947 and in 1959, was appointed assistant to the general manager of exploration, and manager of NAPD's South Louisiana District in 1961.

He advanced to Central Region manager in 1963 and was elected a vice president of the company in April, 1964.

Dr. Fryar Named Vice-President of Kerr-McGee

OKLAHOMA CITY — Dr. Robert M. Fryar has been elected a vice president of Kerr-McGee Corp., D. A. McGee, board chairman and chief executive officer, announced today.

Fryar, who joined Kerr-McGee in July, 1966, is in charge of the company's nuclear division. Included in this division are the company's nuclear fuel materials facility in central Oklahoma and the sales of uranium concentrate produced by the company's uranium mining and milling operations. The nuclear division is also responsible for the construction of the uranium hexafluoride plant which is now in the engineering and design phase of construction.

In 1965, Hurricane Betsy swept into Florida from the Bahamas. The high winds and rain pounded Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana for four days, killing an estimated 75 persons.

Bugging Devices Get Backing in Crime War

WASHINGTON — An organization of over 1,000 Federal career employees, all active in law enforcement, has broken with the Johnson Administration on the question of court-authorized electronic surveillance. The group voiced support for legislation which would permit court-supervised wiretapping and bugging in the investigation of certain major crimes.

Rep. Bob Price, a member of the House Republican Task Force on Crime, Saturday released the text of a statement by the Association of Federal Investigators on electronic surveillance. "It is enormously significant that this Association supports legislation" which would give law enforcement a vital investigative tool under strict court control and that, at the same time, they "deplore the Attorney General's obstructionism towards federal investigations," Price said.

"Until now the only federal spokesman on this issue has been Attorney General Clark," Price said. "But now, a group of more than 1,0 federal career employees active in law enforcement has spoken out in direct opposition to his view. To me, the federal investigators have utterly destroyed any basis for the Administration's position."

John P. Diquid, counsel to the Association, called the Republican-sponsored Electronic Surveillance Control Act of 1967 "a major step" in the war on organized crime.

In a related matter, Rep. Louis C. Wyman (R-N.H.), also a Crime Task Force member, told the House that the National Association of State Attorneys General had also recently adopted a formal resolution supporting eavesdropping legislation conforming to Republican proposals. He urged the House to enact this legislation, cosponsored by Price and other Republicans, as a matter of priority and before the end of the current session.

In 1513, Spanish explorer Balboa crossed the Isthmus of Panama and became the first European to see the Pacific Ocean.

Tesoro Acquires Stock In Intex

Dr. Robert V. West, Jr., president of Tesoro Petroleum Corp., San Antonio, and Jakob Isbrandtsen, chairman and president of Bell Intercontinental Corp., jointly announced that Tesoro has purchased for $25,000,000 shares of common stock of Intex Oil Co., Eakersfield, Calif. These shares represent 45.9 per cent of the outstanding common stock of Intex. He also announced that the remainder of Bell Intercontinental's holding of Intex 96,050 shares of common stock representing 13.5 per cent of the outstanding shares, were purchased by a group of private investors identified with Tesoro.

Tesoro, which previously announced its interest in negotiating a merger with Intex, owns working and royalty interests in 536 producing oil and gas wells in the United States and Canada and owns two crude oil refineries in the United States.

Intex Oil Company is engaged in the exploration and drilling for the production of oil and gas.

Issues Narrowed In School Strikes

COMING BACK — Bryan T. Clemens, 1952 graduate of Pampa High School and now assistant dean of men at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., has been named dean of men at Wayland College in Plainview, Clemens, an ordained Baptist minister who has pastored churches in Texas and Indiana, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Clemens, 906 Christine.

TRADE SLIPS — PARIS (UPI)—The French government said Saturday while trade with most countries has climbed from 10 to 20 per cent, exports to the United States have slipped by one-half per cent. The national foreign trade study commission blamed bad news promotion as much as politics for the decline.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Negotiators in New York City's public school strike Saturday narrowed to three the number of issues blocking an agreement to end the walkout by 50,000 teachers.

Bargainers for the United Federation of Teachers (UFT) and the Board of Education Saturday went into another marathon session with state mediators. A spokesman said it was hoped to accomplish in one day "what it took 4½ months to do before."

A contract has been agreed upon but disputes have arisen over its wording.

Three Remain — Friday night and early Saturday negotiators reached agreement on 21 separate issues. Only three remained but neither side would say what they were.

State Mediation Board Chairman Vincent D. McDonnell pointed out that after the last teachers contract it took 4½ months "to put the contract into written language."

Schools Supt. Bernard Donovan was being held at an undisclosed site.

The strike, most damaging in the city's history, will be three weeks old Monday. It began Sept. 11, flinging the nation's largest school system into chaos.

An oral agreement was reached last Wednesday but the UFT demanded that it be ready members by Friday. When the board was unable to comply, Shanker said all bets were off and "we're not going until they give us everything."

Schedule Rally — The teachers scheduled a mass rally today. Schools were closed Thursday and Friday after limping along for the first eight days of the walkout, which affects 1.1 million pupils.

The union has won a $135.4 million pay package over a 26-month contract.

Shanker and two other union officials face possible criminal contempt charges for ignoring a court injunction against the walkout. They could be jailed for 30 days and fined $250. The $100 a day for each day of the strike.

Harold G. Israel, a labor relations lawyer called into the talks by Mayor John V. Lindsay, declared Saturday that "I am hopeful we will have the teachers back on Monday. We have resolved a great many of the issues."

Veterans in School Due to Get Increase

Veterans now in school will soon receive automatic increases in their GI Bill education checks, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said Saturday.

The new amounts will be included in checks scheduled to arrive in November, the new rates having become effective Oct. 1.

The rate increases were provided in Public Law 90-77 signed last month by the President. Single veterans taking full-time courses have been increased from $100 to $130, veterans with one dependent from $125 to $155, and veterans with two dependents from 150 to 175. A additional $10 will be provided monthly for each dependent in excess of two.

CANCEL VISIT

ISTANBUL (UPI)—The archbishop of the Greek Orthodox Church, Patriarch Athenagoras, cancelled his plans to visit Moscow later this month, the Turkish foreign ministry said. It gave no reason for the cancellation.

Floods

The Nueces had crested and the Guadalupe was believed near a crest.

The Texas dead included six killed in winds and tornadoes earlier and three persons washed away in the floods.

Unconfirmed Reports — There were unconfirmed reports of seven deaths on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande — three drowned at Valle Hermosa, three killed by collapsing walls in Reynosa and an electrical company worker killed by a live wire in flood waters near Rio Bravo.

Highways were under water at 80 points in the flooded and marooned Rio Grande Valley.

Teams of doctors and nurses were airlifted into the lower Rio Grande Valley from northern points. Military planes flew tons of food from Agriculture Department stocks to the shelters.

Many towns were evacuated but pets were left behind. Dogs and cats swam desperately in the flood waters in Three Rivers, smashed by the Nueces, Rio and Atascosa Rivers.

Rescue workers in boats pulled some out, but others drowned. Cattle struggled out of four-foot water to higher ground.

VISITS W. GERMANY — BELGRADE (UPI)—Zvonko Lucic, head of the West European section of Poland's foreign mission, flew to West Germany Saturday for a visit prior to taking a post as head of the Yugoslav mission in Bonn.

Obituaries

Claud Demus Jeter, 75, died at 11:20 a.m. Friday at Highland General Hospital. A resident of 717 Lefors, he was born May 1, 1891, in Denton.

A Pampa resident 22 years, he was a retired carpenter. Mr. Jeter moved here from Earth in 1945 and was married to Mary Jettie Thompson, May 11, in Memphis, Tex.

Survivors include his wife Mary Jettie Jeter of the home; three sons, Herman Jeter, Pampa; Clarence Jeter, El Cajon, Calif.; and Claud Jeter of Chula Vista, Calif.; three daughters, Mrs. Inez Duke, Rush Springs, Okla.; Mrs. Myrl Reed, Lamesa, Calif.; and Mrs. Mildred O'Rear, Chula Vista, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. W. L. Gann, Chickasha, Okla.; Mrs. R. S. Duke, Fremont, Calif.; Mrs. Beeler Roe, Fremont, Calif.; and Mrs. Jewell Holt of Pleasant, Calif.; 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in Carmichael-Whately Colonial Chapel with Rev. Jack Hayes, pastor of Primitive Baptist Church, Briscoe, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Bill Odell, Jimmy Carson, J. E. Davis, K. W. Ward, J. E. Walker and C. H. Kelly.

The appointment of such a high official is considered an indication Belgrade wants to upgrade its Bonn representation. The post has been vacant since July when hard feelings developed over West Germany's rejection of a candidate for the post.

Marines

(Continued From Page 1) told of little significant contact with the enemy. Five Communists have been killed, headquarters said. U.S. losses were one killed and four wounded.

In the air, U.S. planes flew 107 missions against North Vietnam on Friday, concentrating on the area inside and just north of the DMZ and the panhandle zone stretching from the border to a point south of Hanoi. One raid hit the Nam Dinh Rail Yard, 40 miles south of the North Vietnamese capital.

U.S. Air Force B52 stratofortresses carried out three against the DMZ Friday night and Saturday morning, hitting some targets only three miles from Con Thien.

In 1841, all members of President John Tyler's Cabinet — except Secretary of State Daniel Webster — resigned in protest over the veto of a banking bill.

Three Hurt In 2-Car Crash

Three Pampa girls were injured, none seriously, Saturday afternoon in a two-car collision on Somerville.

Admitted to Highland General Hospital, but listed in good condition was Rita Bromlow, 15, of 935 E. Murphy, with facial lacerations.

Treated and released was Jackie Rippetoe, 16, of 1012 E. Foster and Sonja Malear, 15, of 1009 E. Murphy.

Miss Rippetoe suffered facial lacerations.

According to investigating police officer Jerry Poston Miss Rippetoe, driver of one of the vehicles failed to stop in time to avoid a collision with a car driven by Arnold Baten, 24, of 940 E. Francis, who was stopped for a red light on Foster.

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY
 I have just returned from one of the sessions of the National Association of County Agricultural Agents in Omaha, Neb. where Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman made the principal address.

Several very important points were released in a press conference by Freeman just prior to his speech before an audience of over 1,400 County Agricultural Agents from 49 states. Other items and hints of things to come were released by him for the first time at the press conference and his speech that followed. I will briefly summarize his key points. Many of the items he talked about are of tremendous importance to you whether or not you agree with him.

Freeman Denies
 Secretary Freeman vigorously denied that farm commodity surpluses held in government hands were being used to keep farm prices down. He said very few farm products had been sold within the last year; only grain going out of condition and other grain on the West Coast to meet certain commitments we have in Far East.

He admitted selling quite a sizeable supply over a year ago when the market was in a rising condition.

The Secretary pointed out that only forty percent of agricultural commodities were under government programs.

Price-Boosting Steps
 He pointed out a number of steps being taken to bolster falling farm prices:

An announced ten per cent cut-back in wheat acreage allotment for 1967-68.

Over 725 million dollars presently being mailed to wheat farmers in government payments.

Freeman pointed out that all government owned stocks of grain and soybeans were off the market with the exception as mentioned above.

We give you his exact words with reference to the 1968 Feed Grain Program. "It's too early to make an announcement yet, but it seems likely that adjustments will be made in feed grains and soybean acreage, too, for next year."

No mention was made on whether diverted acre payments would return to the scene for 1968.

Candy Barr Back To Do Her Act At Prison Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE — From the night club circuit, to prison and back to the night club circuit is the story of Candy Barr, entertainer and singer, who returns this season as one of the featured attractions at the 38th annual Texas Prison Rodeo here each Sunday in October.

A Prison Rodeo favorite for two years while serving her prison term, Candy was a highlight during the 1966 series while on parole.

This year, the former stripper is back on the night club circuit in Hollywood where she is belting out her own brand of songs before record crowds.

Now that Candy has received her full pardon, she still wants to do her part to help her former inmates by appearing at the Prison Rodeo all five Sunday performances of the 1967 series.

Mias Barr is the first former inmate of the Texas Department of Corrections to return as a rodeo performer.

"I am looking forward to my return engagement at the Prison Rodeo," she commented. "To me it is doing something to help others on the road back to a better life."

In 1959, the Prime Minister of Ceylon was shot by assassins and died the following day.

Panhandle Water Conservation News

By FELIX W. RYALS
 This column reported last week that a group of water officials and a state legislator had recently visited the state of California to look over the water projects underway in that state. The group of West Texans are looking for some of the answers needed toward solving the water needs of West Texas, Eastern New Mexico, and Western Oklahoma. All members of the group making the tour were amazed at the immensity of the water projects under construction in California.

The first tour of a water project was made of the Orange County Water District, just south of Los Angeles at Anaheim. Howard W. Crooke, manager of the district, was very helpful to the tour group from Texas. The Orange County District has problems similar to those found on the High Plains and Panhandle areas of Texas, depending upon underground water for its existence.

Semi-Arid Region
 Crooke told us the following: "The Orange County Water District is located in a semi-arid region, and I will share with you Texans some of our experiences in placing in effect the planned ground water management program which has proven very successful in the Orange County area."

"As far back as the early 1920s, it became apparent to leaders in the field of water supply in the Orange County area that the economic growth of the county would be limited unless supplemental supplies of water could be impounded, conserved, transported, and made available for beneficial use. Our people created a number of committees whose purposes were to review the experiences of other areas and to recommend procedures that could be utilized in securing supplemental supplies of water. These committees made extensive studies in searching for information as to possible methods and procedures which could be adopted to finance and secure these supplemental supplies of water."

Future Growth
 "It was concluded that the area would be in a better position to gain a more rapid expansion of its economy by adopting a 'philosophy of plenty' — plenty of water for the future growth of the area. A determination was reached that it would be necessary to take immediate action to obtain a supplemental supply of water and, concurrently, to provide the means of financing purchases of large quantities of these supplemental waters for ground water replenishment."

"In 1958, that portion of Orange County that contained 99 per cent of the assessed valuations was annexed to the Metropolitan Water District which provides supplemental water from the Colorado River. The Orange County Water District in 1958 had an area of 180,000 acres and an assessed valuation of $688,000,000, and a population of 550,000 inhabitants. By contrast, the valuation in 1953 was $199,000,000. The 1967 valuation is now $1,069,000,000,000 with a corresponding growth in population. In 1958, two-thirds of the water requirements were for irrigation, and the remaining one-third was for domestic, municipal, and industrial purposes."

Texas Future Bread-Basket
 At this point in the talk to the Texans, Crooke pointed out

Cougars Smash Michigan State, 37-7

EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI) — Sophomore quarterback Dick Woodall fired touchdown passes of 77 and 76 yards Saturday as underdog Houston blasted Michigan State 37-7, dealing the Spartans their first regular season loss since 1964.

Speedster Warren McVea streaked 59 yards for one Cougar touchdown and Mike Simpson completed the humiliation of the once mighty Spartans by intercepting a pass with 35 seconds left and racing 59 yards for a score. It was Michigan State's worst defeat in 21 years and punctured the high flying standing of the Spartans who reigned among college football's elite the past two seasons.

The victory was the second straight this season for Houston, coached by Bill Yeoman, once an assistant under Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty. Woodall hit end Ken Heber with a 77-yard touchdown pass and fired 76 yards to flanker Don Dean for another score. Ken Bailey, Woodall's substitute, scored another touchdown for Houston on a two-yard plunge.

Michigan State was a forlorn shadow of the hulking team which swept the Big Ten titles the past two seasons, lost only in the Rose Bowl in 1965 and battled Notre Dame to a 10-10 tie last season in a contest billed as the "Game of the Century."

Michigan State's ground attack stumbled, its air game failed and the team was hit by penalties at crucial points. The lone Spartan touchdown came on a 48-yard end run by sophomore Lamar Thomas.

The Spartans drove to the Houston five in the second period but the Cougars smashed four straight Michigan State thrusts at the goal line.

Houston—McVea, 58 run (Hebert kick)
Houston — Hebert, 77 pass from Woodall (Hebert kick)
Houston — Dean, 76 pass from Woodall (Hebert kick)
Houston — Bailey, 2 run (Hebert kick)
Houston — Simpson, 59 pass interception (kick failed)

Irish Crush California 41-8

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — Terry Hanratty, passing for two touchdowns and running for one, led Notre Dame Saturday to a 41-8 romp over California in the opener of the fighting Irish bid to repeat as college football's No. 1 team. The passing combination which made Notre Dame great in 1956—Hanratty to end Jim Seymour—clicked with precision again in a 17-point second period scoring effort which wrapped up the 11th consecutive game without defeat for the Irish. Seymour hauled in six passes for 69 yards during the match to become the fifth leading receiver in Notre Dame history and the fourth leading ground gainer on the Irish record book. Hanratty's first pass of the game was intercepted and he had to throw five times before one of his receivers could hang onto the ball. But he played 40 minutes on offense, completing 15 of 30 passed for 208 yards. One of his throws covered nine yards to Seymour for a touchdown and another went 14 yards to Bob Bleier for another six points.

Between these two efforts, Hanratty scrambled 12 yards around end for a score himself. Hanratty also was at the helm when Dan Harshman crashed two yards through the line for a touchdown and for the first of two field goals by Joe Azzaro, a 23 yard try.

Irish coach Ara Parseghian went to his second string signal caller, Coley O'Brien, with five minutes remaining in the third period and O'Brien kept the Irish on the ground while Azzaro, who converted after every Irish touchdown booted a 22 yard field goal.

Memphis State Upsets Ole Miss

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Memphis State University, getting a true taste of victory for the first time in 22 outings, defeated Ole Miss 27-17 Saturday night with a wild second half scoring spree.

The tight defensive game that turned into a near rout broke open with about a minute left in the first half when Mississippi's Jimmy Keyes booted a field goal from 31 yards out to give Ole Miss a 3-0 edge.

Memphis State junior tailback Nick Pappas snared the resulting kickoff on his 7-yard line and romped 9 yards for the first touchdown.

Mississippi realized when sophomore Bo Bowen, playing in his first collegiate varsity game, took the second-half opening kickoff and ran 89 yards for a touchdown.

Memphis State added another long run late in the final period when senior wingback Bob Baxter grabbed a Rebel punt and trotted 75 yards for the score.

'Bama, Florida Tie

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Alabama's 17 - game winning streak, the longest in the nation, was ended Saturday night in a free-for-all scoring battle with Florida State that ended in a 37-37 tie.

Florida State quarterback Ken Hammond threw his third touchdown pass of the night to halfback Bill Moreman to set up the tie with only two minutes remaining in the final quarter. Grant Guthrie, who kicked three Seminola field goals earlier in the game, booted the game-tying extra point.

LOOKING FOR A HOLE is Wichita Falls Riders' Roger Whittington during the Raiders' 55-6 conquest of Pampa Friday. D. D. Lofton (37) starts around end to make a tackle. Notice No. 71, Pampa's John Stokes, being grabbed around the ankles by a Rider player.

Mizzou Powders SMU

COLUMBIA, Mo. (UPI) — Twisting quarterback Gary Kombrink's power on the ground, a pass interception and a 6-yard punt return pushed Missouri to a 21-0 victory Saturday over Iowa on 20 carries as Missouri outgained the Mustangs on the back accounted for Missouri's third touchdown. He grabbed the sectional football classic. Kombrink rushed for 128 yard ground 285 yards to 50 before a crowd of 53,000. Roger Wehrli's sensational run on 20 carries as Missouri outgained the Mustangs on the back accounted for Missouri's third touchdown. He grabbed the punt on his own 37 and scampered through the bewildered Mustangs to the goal line. Sophomore John Davis spearheaded a pass from SMU's Inez Perez on his own 47 and returned it 53 yards untouched for Missouri's first touchdown in the second quarter.

Missouri counted for their second touchdown in the opening minutes of the second half with Kombrink guiding the Tigers 55 yards on ten plays with Barry Lischner bulling in from the 6-yard line.

FROGS LOSE OPENER

Iowa Rambles by Christians

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — Junior quarterback Ed Podolak scored one touchdown and passed for another Saturday in directing Iowa to a 24-9 win over Texas Christian.

Podolak passed eight yards to end Gary Larsen in the second quarter and scored the final Hawkeye touchdown on a six-yard run in the third period.

Tailback Silas McKinnie bucked two yards for Iowa's opening touchdown to break a 3-3 tie. Bob Anderson put the first points on the scoreboard early in the second quarter with a 35-yard field goal for Iowa, which was matched five minutes later by another 33-yard field goal by TCU's Rodney Marek.

The Horned Frogs scored their only touchdown with 4:15 left in the game on an 18-yard pass from substitute quarterback Dan Carter to end Fred Nix. A two-point conversion try failed.

TCU completed an eight-yard pass to the Iowa five-yard line on the final play of the game as Hawkeye Coach Ray Nagel, starting his second year at Iowa, poured in substitutes.

The scoreless opening quarter ended with the two teams appearing about equal, with Podolak's passing and option plays moving the ball for Iowa and TCU strong on power plays through the middle.

Utah State Overwhelms West Texas State, 44-27

CANYON — Alde Taylor's 105 yard kickoff return in a six touchdown first quarter tract meet, gave the Utah State Aggies the momentum they needed to roll past the West Texas State Buffaloes and take a 44-27 victory here Saturday night.

Sparked by the rushing of MacArthur (Truck) Lane, who ripped off 207 yards on 20 carries, the Utahs picked up 269 yards on the ground to go with 160 in the air for a total offense of 427 yards.

The USU defense gave up 75 yards to West Texas State. The Buffs scored with the game only 58 seconds old on a 27-yard run by Eugene Morris. On their first play from scrimmage.

Utah State took the lead for good three minutes later on a seven yard pass from quarterback John Pappas to Garth Hall. The score set up on a 4-yard run by Lane. This made it 21-14.

Sooners Win, 21-0

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — Brilliant Bob Warmack directed Oklahoma to three touchdowns and then watched from the sideline as the Sooners slammed Washington State 21-0 Saturday afternoon before 51,700 sun-drenched fans in Owen Stadium.

Warmack, who earned his quarterbacking post last year as a sophomore, scored a first-quarter touchdown on a 15-yard right-end scamper and tossed a third-period 17-yard scoring pass to wingback Eddie Hinton.

Tackle Fred Rafa and Lance Olsen were the mainstays in the war the Purdue defense waged against the cadets, but the whole front line had a hand in the shackling.

For the afternoon, Warmack completed seven of 11 passes for 118 yards, and added another 44 yards rushing on 11 carries. He left the game with just under six minutes remaining in the third quarter as alternate Jim Bugar took over to give the veteran a rest.

Washington State, a 49-0 loser

LSU Comeback To Beat Rice

By CARROLL TROSCLAIR
BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Sophomore halfback Glenn Smith dated six yards with 29 seconds left in the game to give Louisiana State a 20-14 comeback victory over the underdog Rice Owls Saturday night.

At that, Hargett hit a 60-yarder to Bob Long in the final quarter to keep it close after Char-terception runback by linebacker Bill Hobs had kept the Aggies in the running.

Quarterback Robby Sheldon took Rice to a 14-13 fourth quarter lead with a mixture of flashing running and passing that baffled the Tiger defenses.

PARACHUTE CHAMP
BATAVIA, N.Y. (UPI) — Billy Lockward, a member of the U.S. Army Golden Knights parachute team from Ft. Bragg, N.C., won the over-all competition Sunday in the first annual North American parachuting championship with 2,765 points.

SMU penetrated inside the Missouri 20-yard line five times in the first half but failed to score.

He edged Floyd Glover of Phoenix, Ariz., who picked up 2,550 points.

Sheldon rolled up 248 yards on 14 pass completions and added another 103 yards running.

Scovell scored again in the fourth on a four yard run around right end to climax a 54-yard drive in five plays. A 36-yard Tech in business on the Iowa State 36 and Metalich took four plays before, passing eight yards to end Bobby Allen for the final touchdown.

Twins Keep First Place

Baltimore 7, Bosox 5

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Brooks Robinson slammed a two-run homer in the eighth inning Saturday night, giving the Baltimore Orioles a 7-5 victory over Boston and dropping the Red Sox to third place in the air-tight American League pennant race.

Frank Robinson started Baltimore's winning rally with his third hit, a single off John Wyatt, with one out in the eighth. Brooks then connected for his 22nd homer of the year to snap a 5-5 deadlock.

The Red Sox and Detroit Tigers, who had an open date, are now both one-half game behind the league-leading Minnesota Twins but Boston is one percentage point below second-place Detroit. Minnesota is 89-67, Detroit 88-67 and Boston is 89-68. Minnesota lost to New York 6-2 Saturday afternoon.

Cubs 6, Reds 3

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ferguson Jenkins, seeking to become the first 20-game winner for the Chicago Cubs since 1964, posted his 19th victory of the season Saturday as the Cubs outlasted the Cincinnati Reds 6-3.

Braves 2, Cards 1

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Hank Aaron doubled home the tying run and scored the tie-breaking run moments later on third baseman Mike Shannon's throwing error in the seventh inning Saturday to give the Atlanta Braves a 2-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mets 1, Astros 0

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jerry Buchek singled with the bases filled and none out in the ninth inning Saturday night to give the New York Mets a 1-0 victory over the Houston Astros behind the three-hit pitching of Tom Seaver.

Buchek's hit gave Seaver his 16th victory—the most ever by a Met in one season—against 12 losses. Seaver struck out nine and walked three. It was Seaver's second shutout of the season.

New York at San Francisco (Only games scheduled)

Yanks 6, Twins 2

MINNEAPOLIS—ST. PAUL (UPI)—Rookie Tom Shapay cracked his first major league homer, a three-run shot, and Joe Pepitone belted a two-run homer Saturday to give the New York Yankees a 6-2 victory over Minnesota, sending the Twins into a temporary tie for first place in the American League.

Shapay, playing in his fourth major league game, homered in the fourth inning for a 4-0 lead against Dave Boswell. Pepitone homered in the eighth. Fritz Peterson, who was forced to retire in the sixth inning with a twisted ankle, beat the Twins for the first time in four decisions this season. He is now 8-14.

Giants 8, Bucs 4

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Willie Mc Covey's second grand slam of the season featured a seven-run eighth inning rally Saturday which gave the San Francisco Giants a come-from-behind 8-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Chisox 8, Tribe 0

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Joel Horlen pitched a three-hitter for his 19th victory and Rocky Colavito drove in four runs with a single and double Saturday as the Chicago White Sox moved to within one game of the American League lead with an 8-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

The triumph enabled the White Sox to chop a full game off the Minnesota Twins' first place lead. The Twins lost a morning game to the New York Yankees.

Lee Seventh

Wins Pampa's First Grid Game

Lee seventh grade poured it on Borger Houston Friday behind the running of Ricky McGuire while Pampa seventh lost a heartbreaker to Borger Austin.

Austin squeezed a 20-14 victory as Pampa had to play catch up.

Austin went in front 14-0 before Richard McCampbell ran in from six yards out.

Austin made it 20-6 but Allen Keaton scored from 20-yards out and Allen Atchley tallied the conversion.

McGuire scored four times for Lee on runs of 58, 41, 32 and six yards for the winners. Wayne Ramsey tallied two, two point conversions.

A. J. Brewer ran the other Lee score. Rick Musgrave ran two conversions.

O-State Pops Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—Oklahoma Stat fullback Jack Reynolds crashed 13 yards for the game's only touchdown early in the fourth quarter Saturday night to give the Cowboys a stunning 7-6 upset victory over the Arkansas Razorbacks.

A stubborn Cowboy defense held the allegedly-impotent Razorback offense to only two field goals, and snuffed out two final Arkansas drives that went deep into Oklahoma State territory in the last 11 minutes.

Reynolds, playing before a hometown crowd in his native Little Rock, scored standing up on the eighth play of the final period.

Ruby Husted Wins PWGA

Pampa's Mrs. Ruby Husted took top honors Friday in the Panhandle Women's Golf Association tournament at Pampa Country Club.

Mrs. Husted defeated Amarillo's Mrs. Mildred Neill, 1-up for the championship flight trophy.

Mrs. J. R. Brown of Amarillo beat Mrs. Chet Robertson of Amarillo 4-3 to win the first flight and Mrs. Eural Ramsey of Dumas 2-1 for second flight honors while Mrs. Jack Hood of Pampa won 6-4 over Mrs. Don Stafford of Pampa in the third flight.

In consolation play Mrs. Floyd Nunley of Amarillo beat Mrs. Adrian Johnston 2-1 for championship flight consolation honors.

Mrs. F. L. Carson of Borger won 4-3 over Mrs. Eva Kitchens of Pampa in first flight while Mrs. George Burnett of Dumas won the second flight consolation 2-up over Mrs. W. A. Gipson of Pampa. Mrs. W. F. Nidifer won 5-4 over Mrs. J. F. Akin.

PENGUIN SIGNER
BRNTFORD, Ont. (UPI)—Veteran defenseman Leo Boivin signed a one-year contract Friday with the Pittsburgh Penguins, one of the six new teams in the National Hockey League.

Boivin, how started his pro hockey career with the Pittsburgh Penguins in the NHL with the Boston Bruins and Detroit Red Wings.

With a letter more than eight minutes to play, Arkansas drove to the OSU 6-yard line but substitute quarterback John Eichler fumbled and OSU tackle Bill Young recovered to kill the threat.

The final Arkansas drive failed when quarterback Ronny South missed a field goal with 10 seconds to play. South had earlier kicked field goals of 21 and 26 yards.

The missed field goal was tried from 49 yards.

The Razorbacks scored the first time they got their hands on the ball. They took an OSU punt at the Cowboy 42 and marched to the 4, where South booted his 21-yard field goal.

With 1:1 left in the first period South kicked his second field goal, a 2-yarder. Arkansas' drive from the OSU 4 had been highlighted by a 21-yard South to David Cox pass.

Arkansas drove inside the OSU 4 twice during the second period but was forced to punt both times.

Cutbirth led the Cowboys across the 50-yard line for the first time and to their first first down midway in the second period. That drive died at the Arkansas 4-yard line.

Reynolds broke 40 yards to the Razorback 20 in the third quarter, but back Bruce Scott fumbled on the next play and Arkansas halfback Gary Adams recovered. The Cowboys drive to the Arkansas late in the period and Craig Kessler missed a 50-yard field goal attempt.

Eichler, went most of the second half at quarterback for Arkansas. South, the starter, was not injured but he did not see second half action until he attempted the late field goal.

Syracuse Nips Baylor

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—Senior fullback Larry Csonka scored third-period touchdown and teamed with sophomore quarterback Rich Panczyzyn to lead Syracuse to a 7-0 victory over Baylor Saturday.

The Syracuse win avenged last year's opening day 35-12 loss at the hands of Baylor in Texas.

Csonka scored from the one-yard line three plays after Steve Zagalia forced Baylor quarterback Ken Stockdale to fumble with Dave Casmay recovering for Syracuse on the Baylor 18.

Quarterback Rich Cassata ran for two yards, and wingback Tom Coughlin for 16, just short of the goal line, setting up Csonka's touchdown.

Panczyzyn, a 6-foot-2, 180-pounder ran for 47 yards on five carries in the first half and a total of 88 yards on 17 tries for the game.

He was stopped on the one-yard line as time ran out in the first half and he later engineered a drive stopped when, with fourth down and one yard to go for a score, Syracuse was penalized for illegal procedure.

In the first half, Syracuse outgained Baylor 217 yards to 89, but two pass interceptions and a fumble recovery by the Bears' Jackie Allen kept the Syracuse attack sputtering.

Baylor threatened only once when the Bears drove to the Syracuse 16-yard line in the first quarter, but on fourth down Zagalia dropped Stockdale back on the Syracuse 20-yard line.

Csonka, who gained 1,012 yards rushing last year, gained 93 yards on 24 tries and needs only 806 yards to break Floyd Little's all-time Syracuse rushing record of 2,704 career yards.

In the second half, Syracuse held Baylor to minus 12 yards rushing. Baylor gained only 117 yards from scrimmage and Syracuse 354.

Collins Takes Classic Lead Again

CLIFTON, N.J. (UPI)—Big Bill Collins, a club pro with an abundance of tournament experience, refused to buckle under pressure Saturday and regained sole possession of the lead in the Thunderbird Golf Classic by firing a four-under-par 68.

Collins, a strapping ex-Marine who limits his tournament play because of a history of back problems and surgery on his shoulder, broke a log jam in first place by posting a 54-hole total of 209 to lead by one on the cold, windy Upper

Before the third round started on the cold, windy Dupper Montclair Country club course, Collins a pro at Braey Burn Country Club at Purchase, N.Y., was tied with six others for the lead.

Bruins Bomb Pitt 48-0

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Sophomore halfback Greg Jones stole the show from All-American quarterback candidate Gary Behan Saturday, scoring one touchdown, setting up two others and gaining 161 yards to guide the power UCLA Bruins to an easy 48-0 victory over inexperienced Pittsburgh.

Jones, a 6-foot-1 18-pounder from South San Francisco, who gained 135 yards last week in his debut against Tennessee, carried 19 times, including a 43-yard touchdown jaunt.

Behan, whose 27-yard touchdown run gave UCLA a 20-16 victory in the opener with the Vols, scored twice on runs of nine and two yards. Otherwise, he surprisingly, was held in check by the Panthers, rushing for 15 yards in 13 tries. He completed five of 10 passes for 69 yards before leaving the game in the third quarter with the Bruins ahead, 24-0.

Behan's passing efforts gave him a record career total of 2,904 yards breaking the mark of 2,857 set by Larryeno.

UCLA, now 2-0, suffered a case of fumbleitis in the first half, starting with the opening play when Behan passed to Jones for 34 yards and Jones fumbled. Bruins twice had drives stunted by fumbles but the sophomore-studded Pittsburgh team, playing its first game, was unable to capitalize on the miscues and committed two of its own that led to two first-half Bruin scores.

Navy Wins 23-22

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (UPI)—Quarterback John Cartwright, dazed early in the second period and forced to the sidelines, came back in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to Rob Taylor—the second with 37 seconds remaining—to give Navy a dramatic 23-22 victory over Penn State Saturday.

Cartwright's winning score came 47 seconds after Penn State had taken the lead with 1:44 remaining in the opening contest of the year for both teams on a 20-yard TD pass from Tom Sherman to Bob Campbell.

Rider Raiders Topple Harvesters, 55-6

By RON CROSS

Color the Pampa Harvesters sad again. Wichita Falls Rider proved no easier than Dumas did last week as the Raiders ran their season record to 2-1 Friday night with a 55-6 victory over the puzzled Harvesters.

The Raiders appeared at first like they might try for Dumas record 69 points by going into a 27-0 first quarter lead. But after trailing 40-0 at half-time the Harvesters played the Raiders to a 15-6 last half.

The Pampa defense has now given up 145 points in three games, all lost, while the Pampa offense has tallied 12 points, all of them by halfback Chris Kenny.

Kenny got his second in as many games Friday night when he scooted up the middle for 19 yards and pay dirt in the third quarter.

The Harvesters were held to exactly zero first downs and minus four yards rushing in the first half, but came back for six first downs and 70 total yard rushing for the game.

Quarterback Dwight Rogers found the air lanes a dangerous play to be, having four passes intercepted while completing four of 14 for 27 yards. The Harvesters also lost a couple of fumbles.

While Pampa's defense could not cope the Raiders single-wing type offense and the likes of backs Tommy Clanton, Jim Biggs, Roger Whittington, Roger Deerinwater and others, they did have the Raiders in the hole early in the going.

Wichita Falls took the opening kickoff and marched almost untouched for 59 yards in seven plays with Mike Phillips racing in from 31 yards out for the first score.

Larry Sims kicked the first of four conversions with 9:39 left in the opening period.

Pampa punter Larry Elledge, about the only bright spot for the Harvesters all night as he got away punts of 56 and 42 yards the first two tries. Elledge ended up with four punts for 170 yards, an average of 42 yards per boot.

The Raiders were on the Pampa three yard line thanks to an Elledge punt, but Clanton broke over the right side and gunned 97 yards with 4:14 left in the first period. Sims kicked and it was 14-0.

The Harvesters fumbled the following kickoff and the Raiders Bobby Dove recovered on Pampa's 25.

Clanton went in five plays later and Sims kicked to make it 21-0, 1:59 from the end.

The Raiders ended their first period scoring when Steve Read intercepted a Rogers pass on the first play from scrimmage and returned it 38 yards for the score with 1:42 still left. Sims missed his conversion to make it 27-0.

The Raiders took the ball at the start of the second period and marched 66 yards in 15 plays with Roger Deerinwater going in from the two with 6:11 left in the half. The kick failed again and it was 33-0.

Another Rogers pass was intercepted, this time with 4:11 left and the Raiders went in from the 30 in seven plays with Jim Biggs carrying the last three yards. Sims booted home this time to make it 40-0 at halftime.

The Harvesters were forced to punt on their first series to start the second half and Elledge boomed one 48 yards, the Raiders fumbled and Rogers fell on it at the Raider 20.

After Rogers gained 10 to the lone Pampa score with 9:44 left in the period.

The next time Pampa got the ball Rogers was trapped in the end zone for a safety. The Raiders tried a field goal next from the 31 but missed.

They did intercept a Rogers pass with 4:20 left and Roger Whittington went in from the one to make it 46-6.

The Raiders drove 65 yards in the fourth period for their final score with Bobby Dove carrying the last two. Mike Valenta kicked the conversion to end the scoring.

Pampa travels to Plainview next Friday for a non-conference game.

Claude Upsets White Deer

CLAUDE — White Deer halfback John Paul Guinn was reported in good condition in Groom hospital Saturday, recovering from a broken leg. Friday night Claude pulled the upset of the young football season, sinking White Deer, 10-8 on a 26-yard field goal by Billy Campbell with just over eight minutes left in the game. Guinn, the Buck's leading scorer and rusher was carried off the field early in the first period.

Claude drew first blood after the two teams battled to a 0-0 standoff in the first period. Jim Fields carried in from the six inch line on a third down play capping a 45-yard drive. Campbell booted the extra point to give Claude a 7-0 halftime lead. The Bucks came storming back in the third period with sophomore Lonnie Lane, subbing for Guinn, going in from seven yards out. The Bucks had driven 60 yards in eight plays. Quarterback Stan Bush passed to Grange for the conversion and the Bucks led 8-7 after three periods.

But then came Campbell's winning field goal to hand White Deer their first setback in three games and the first regular season loss by White Deer in two years.

After Campbell's kick the Bucks drove to the Claude nine yard line and Jesse Martinez' field goal try was wide and to the left.

White Deer drove to the Claude 15 in the first period but lost the ball on downs and three other times were inside the home team's 20-yard stripe but couldn't push the ball over.

In Claude's touchdown drive Fields picked up 20 yards on an end run and the Bucks were penalized 15 yards to move the ball to the 17. Another penalty, a five-yarder moved it to the 12 and from there Claude took it in three yards at a time.

The 160-pound Guinn, who played quarterback for White Deer last year will be out six to seven weeks.

SCORES BY QUARTERS:
White Deer 0 0 8-8
Claude 0 7 0 3-10

SCORING:
Cl — Fields, 1-yard run. (Campbell kick)
W.D. — Lane, seven yard run. (Grange pass from Ware).
Cl — Campbell, 26-yard field goal.

McLean Claws Lefors 30-12

MCLEAN — Lefors got a tiger by the tail Friday night as McLean clawed its way to its first scoring of the young season and posted its first victory 30-12.

Fullback Thacker Haynes tagged the Tiger's first tally of the season on the board when he dashed for 70 yards with 5:44 left in the second period. Haynes ran across for two and the Tigers were out front 8-0 down to a defensive battle until late in the second quarter when McLean quarterback Joel McCarty took to the air and lofted a 51-yard touchdown pass to halfback Earnest Smith. McCarty ran the ball across and the score stood 16-0.

The scrappy pirates came and returned the ball to the 49. Quarterback Jim Gilbreath then engineered his charges to the McLean 26 and went to the air. He found scrambling 130-pounder Weldon Read in the end zone and Read caught it there with one second remaining on the board. Conversion attempt was no good and the half time score stood at 16-8.

Neither side was able to muster a threat until late in the third quarter when McLean cranked up another drive behind workhorses McCarty and Haynes. The Tigers capped a 60-yard drive when Haynes drove across for the three. McCarty ran for two and McLean led 24-6.

Both sides played see-saw until the final stanza, when McLean started the offensive fireworks again, by capping a 50-yard drive with a 22-yard pass from McCarty to diminutive end Mike Darsey. The conversion attempt failed and McLean led 30-6.

Lefors, with a seeming propensity to muster offensive charges near the end of each half, reacted and came charging back to tack one more on the board. Fullback Gary Smith zigzagged the 20, and the stalwart Gilbreath then worked his team. Smith plunged over from the two with 1:03 remaining in the game, and with failure of the conversion attempt, the score stood 30-12.

The clock ran out before either team had time to move but the jubilant Tigers could have cared less. They had posted points on the board and scored their first victory in three outings.

Canadian Rolls Over Follett Tigers 32-0

CANADIAN — The Wildcats left 32-0 behind the running of coach Dwayne Currie raced backs Johnny Curtis and Gary to their second straight victory Friday night and a 2-1 season record.

Curtis got the 'Cats off and Canadian roared past Follett running by going in from the one in the first period. The TD capped a 56-yard march by the 'Cats. The run try for the conversion failed.

Still in the first period Purser raced 14-yards through left tackles for the second Canadian score. A kick try for the conversion failed but the 'Cats held a 12-0 lead with 3:26 left in the first period.

The last first quarter score came when Curtis capped a 64 yard Canadian drive by scooting in from the 12. The run try failed for the conversion, but at the end of one period it was 18-0 'Cats.

Canadian scored their final two touchdowns in the second period to take a 32-0 halftime lead.

Purser shook off tackler after tackler and reambled 71-yards for the score. Terry Robnett who kicked a field goal last week split the uprights to make it 25-0.

Curtis got the final tally on a 30-yard run just before intermission and Robnett kicked good again.

The second half was a defensive affair with Canadian letting everybody get a little experience.

Wheeler Wins Third By Crushing Groom

GROOM — Wheeler cruised to its third straight victory with-out defeat Friday on the Running of halfback Frankie Rogers.

The Mustangs rolled up a 21-0 halftime Margin and sailed by winless Groom, 35-0.

Groom held Wheeler to one first quarter score when Dan Rives scampered in from nine yards out after the Mustangs had recovered a Groom fumble on the 25. The kick try for conversion failed.

In the second period halfback Dave Britt capped a 65-yard Wheeler drive by going in from two-yards out. Dwight Ford caught a pass from Bob Word for the conversion to make it 14-0.

Still in the second period Rogers ran the first of three touchdowns, going in from 14-yards out to top off a 40-yard, eight play Wheeler drive. Fred Goad, limited to kicking only, booted the conversion to make it 21-0 at halftime.

In the third period Rogers went in from seven yards out. The drive started on the Groom 48 when the Tiges got off a short punt. Goad booted again to make it 28-0 after three periods.

Rogers capped the scoring in the fourth period by taking a 24-yard pass from quarterback Bobby Ware. Goad again kicked good.

The Mustang defense, improving every week, held Groom to only 110 yards rushing, 90 in the last half.

Wheeler, who had two other drives stopped picked up 204 ground yards in the game.

Miss Ruth Ann Davis, Harold Lin Engle Jr. Say Double-Ring Vows in Church Ceremony

Miss Ruth Ann Davis and Harold Lin Engle Jr. were united in marriage in a double-ring candlelight ceremony in First Christian Church Sept. 9. Rev. C. M. Grow, associate pastor, performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis of 1137 S. Dwight. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Engle Sr. of 445 Hughes.

ing Prayer," and Mrs. Ruby Ruddick, vocalist, sang "Whithou Guest."

Church decorations included blue and white carnations, blue candles and a white bow adorning the mothers' pew.

RECEPTION

For the reception at the church following the ceremony, Mrs. Hall also provided music. Mrs. Martha Jonas, aunt of the bride, served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom on top.

Sherill Reynolds registered reception guests while Margaret Fewell, the bride's aunt, assisted at the punch bowl. Louise Davis, an aunt of the bride, also assisted with the reception.

For a honeymoon to Red River, N. M., the bride traveled in a blue three-piece jersey suit, and wore a white carnation corsage.

The couple's home will be at 615 W. Browning.

The bride attended Pampa High School and is employed at Marie Foundations. The bridegroom, a 1967 graduate of Pampa High School, is employed at The Pampa Daily News.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a shower given by Cleo Downs and Carolyn Heffinger July 29 and a shower Aug. 9 given by Peggy Stone, Geneva

Hinderson, Margie Mitchell and Lorraine Pierce.

Quivira Girl Scout Council Selects Mrs. Ronald E. Graves as 'Pied Piper'

Who is the Pampa Piper of Quivira Girl Scout Council? This is the question that has been asked for the past 10 days throughout the local communication systems. The time has finally arrived to answer the query. The Pampa Piper is Enlendam Sevarg. Whoops! Mrs. Madeline Graves.

Who is the Pampa Piper of this period, and as a Senior Scout served as counselor to the Day Camp. Last year she served as Troop Leader of a local Junior Scout Troop.

Mrs. Graves is married to Ronald E. Graves and is qualified to be the Pampa Piper, for she has been associated with Girl Scouts since she was seven years old. She started, as most girls do, as a Brownie, and progressed up the ladder to Senior Scout. She attended Girl Scout camps each summer during

There are several goals and purposes which she and the Girl Scout leaders of Pampa have set forth to accomplish. They are: 1) That no troops shall disband because of lack of leadership; 2) That the percentage of Brownies, Juniors and Cadette Girl Scouts bridging to the next level shall be increased; 3) That every troop shall be at the size recommended for good program; 4) That the number of new troops organized in the least well served areas of the council shall be increased.

Miss Dempsey Says Vows With John Guy Folley

CANADIAN (Sp1) — Miss Dana Dempsey, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hutton of Canadian was married here recently to John Guy Folley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Amarillo. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Folley of Canadian.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Troy Noland in the sanctuary of the First Baptist church before an altar decorated with candelabra and flanked on either side by tall baskets of white mums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, wore a floor-length bridal gown of white satin, lace and organza. Her veil of illusion cascaded from a cluster of pearl luster flowers. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Bob Dillman. Mrs. Troy Noland sang "All My Love" and "O Perfect Love" with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Dillman.

Mrs. Kenneth Thrasher was matron of honor. Robert Johnson of Pampa was best man.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Hill of Denver Colo., sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Cleveland.

Flower girls were Holly Hill of Denver, a sister of the bride, and Sherry Fisher of Tyrone, Okla., a cousin of the bridegroom. Brad Hutton of Amarillo, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Groomsmen were David Cook of Canadian and Clay Walser of Wheeler. Ushers were Mike Giesler of Pampa and Tom Fisher of Tyrone, Okla.

The bride's attendants were dressed in floor-length gowns of emerald green chiffon fashioned with long sleeves and an empire waistline. Their veils fell from green lace caplets. They carried bouquets of white mums.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall at the church following the ceremony. The serving table was centered with a floral arrangement of white flowers and greenery. Guests were registered by Mrs. Richard G. Hutton of Amarillo. Mrs. Robert Johnson of Pampa presided over the punch bowl. Mrs. Buddy Hobby and Mrs. Wayne Cleveland served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was square and iced in white and trimmed in green. It was topped with wedding bells.

The bride is a graduate of Canadian High School. The bridegroom graduated from high school at Gruver. They both plan to attend West Texas State University.

College Graduates Will Attend AAUW Fall Salad Supper

The Pampa Chapter of the American Association of University Women will open its 1967-1968 year with a salad supper in the home of Mrs. Nicholas Kadingo, 1201 Charles, at 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Traditionally the September meeting is an organizational one and Pampa chapter invites all college graduates to attend the informal program and social hour.

Of the four study subjects proposed for this year, the Pampa chapter has chosen "The Arts". All branches of the arts will be examined, visual, written and performing. The programs are planned to include current trends rather than historical aspects.

College graduates intending to attend the supper could contact Mrs. S. B. Flowers, Mrs. Lonnie R. Kenney or Mrs. Kadingo.

Candy Strippers In Lefors Have Business Meeting

LEFORS (SPL) — The Lefors Candy Strippers met in the home of Mrs. Johnny Spert of Pampa recently for a business meeting for the new year and a pizza party. There was one guest Mrs. Jo Ann Linville of Pampa.

The business meeting was called to order by Paula Wall. Paula Beck gave the devotional.

Mrs. Spert suggested they have fund raising program or have a booth at the Halloween carnival. Members discussed club dues and uniforms for their new year.

Brenda Barnes was elected chairman of the refreshment committee. Paula Beck and Pat Monox will bring refreshments for next meeting, Monday, in the high school auditorium. Mrs. JoAnn Linville will be the guest speaker.

Speaker Addresses Civic Culture Club

The Civic Culture Club met recently for its first meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Emmett Osborne. Mrs. Kermit Lawson of Pampa second vice-president of the "Top of Texas Federation" of Women's clubs, was guest speaker.

The luncheon table was appointed with sweet peas and orchid candles, carrying out the club's chosen flowers and colors. Favors were book markers made by Mrs. Carl Axelson. The program committee were hostesses.

Mrs. Osborne, president, presided and announced projects of the federation for the coming year. She said the Wednesday Study club of Wheeler had invited the club to be their guests April 10.

Mrs. A. C. Houchin, vice-president introduced the speaker. Mrs. Lawson had as her subject, "Join and be Merry - Opportunities of Federation."

"We think we're busy this day and time, but do we make time for fun, just for fun's sake? I am beginning to wonder if more and more people are taking time just for fun's sake. When we look around at the crowds at church on Sunday and look for some one to take a civic responsibility or a woman to do a club task — and hear the comment 'but I just want to have time to do just the things I want to do for a change,'" Mrs. Lawson said.

"Our ancestors were much too busy to allow themselves a party just for fun. But they were smart enough to know that party spirit and party fun made work go better and faster — so there were corn-huskings, log rollings, quilting bees, apple butter bees and the like," she said.

Mrs. Lawson stated the old fashioned method of doing things to promote togetherness and accomplishments might well be used now. She gave examples of current clam bakes, wiener roasts, southern fish fries and bar-b-ques and said many such gatherings are now used for political purposes. Continuing, the speaker said "Until the Industrial Revolution, women had little time for recreation. Women were more than just merely occupied with the day-to-day business of running a household and rearing a family. With this leisure they began to look about for outlets for their energies. Some entered trades and professions and boldly demanded equal rights with men. Others banded together to sew for the poor and do good works. But a precedent was set 200 years earlier by the matrons of Rome who gathered to talk — to discuss art, literature, and social graces. Was this not an actual forerunner of the Women's Club movement in America?"

The speaker stated the first women's club to be organized with a constitution and laws was the Minerva Club in New Harmony, Ind., in 1859. She traced the organization of federated clubs from the Sorosis and June Crowley Clubs in New York City to the present time. Mrs. Lawson discussed accomplishments of the federation such as: community improvement, Lola B. Munday Scholarship Loan Fund at West Texas State University, sponsoring safety legislation pure food laws.

The speaker concluded by saying to the accomplishments "is added the hours each member spends in improving her mind while preparing her particular program for a club meeting, as well as the hours each member spends listening to other programs."

Members present were Mmes. Carl Axelson, A. B. Cross, Frank Grantham, A. D. Hills, A. C. Houchin, John McKerney, George Neef, Emmett Osborne, W. C. Scott, Katie Vincent, H. W. Waters, Chester Williams, Floyd Pennington. Guests were Mrs. L. W. Rugg from Ventura, Calif., and Mrs. Kermit Lawson.

ABWA Sponsors Fall Friendship Program

The American Business Women's Association held the Fall Hand of Friendship Tea last Sunday afternoon in the Hospitality Room at Citizens Bank.

The table was covered with a gold net cloth trimmed in black with a gold floral centerpiece centered on a black runner. Mrs. James Quay poured at the punch bowl and Mrs. J. G. Shelton was at the coffee service.

Guests were registered by Mrs. O. G. Smith and Mrs. Eunice Maddox. The Executive Board was introduced by Mrs. C. P. Redd, tea chairman. Mrs. Ted Mastin, president, gave the welcome.

The program of ABWA was presented by several members. Mrs. Ed Wylie explaining educational and social part of ABWA's program, said, "We do stress the education side, because one of our purposes is to help advance ourselves in our jobs and increase our earning capacities. One of our main objectives is to gain better recognition for women in business through education and understanding."

ing constructive attention to specific areas. ABWA stresses that superior personality pays six times as much in money as does superior knowledge.

Mrs. Shirley Nichols discussed the savings on vacation costs provided with a membership, and the insurance protection that ABWA has arranged for each member.

Mrs. Alta Mae McElreath concluded by itemizing benefits and privileges of the program. Mrs. Vernon Graham was given special recognition as the chapter's "Woman of the Year". The membership committee signed three guests for membership application. Mrs. James F. Webb, Mrs. Melvin Bailey and Mrs. Hazel Nordene will be installed as new members at the next dinner meeting in October.

The Groom Lions Club sponsored a pancake and sausage supper last Friday in the public school cafeteria. Proceeds from this supper will be used to help pay expenses of the summer Youth Program.

Area Students Plan Home-Coming Events GROOM (SPL) — The Ex-Students Association of Groom has selected Friday, Oct. 27, as Homecoming Day for ex-students of Groom Public Schools. This is the date for the Groom-Booker football game to be played here.

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Six months ago I discovered that my husband of 19 years was having an affair with a young married woman in his office. We have made a serious effort for the sake of our children to rebuild our marriage, which was a good one. The girl agreed when they broke up that she should get another job, but so far she is still working in my husband's office. My husband says he cannot fire her, but I can know no real peace as long as they are in daily contact. It would be so easy for them to re-establish the old relationship to the destruction of our big happy family. What do you advise, Abby? I want to keep hands off, but I am still . . .

IN THERE FIGHTING DEAR IN: No matter what your husband says, as long as that girl remains in your husband's office, he hasn't fully given her up. Tell him that you do not expect superhuman restraint from mere mortals, and if he is sincere in his efforts to rebuild your marriage, he will send her on her way immediately, with excellent references.

DEAR ABBY: I hope you will not think this is a stupid question for a 16-year-old girl to ask, but you are the only person I can ask who won't laugh at me. Is it all right to kiss a fellow good-night on the first date?

DEAR CONFUSED: That depends. The kiss itself is not as important as the motivation behind it. If a good-night kiss is a mutual sign of affection, it is nothing wrong with it. Even on the first date. But if there is no feeling for the other person — only a desire for self-gratification, it is cheap and meaningless. A girl should never kiss a boy because she thinks she "owes" him something for having dated her. Neither should a boy expect a girl to kiss him for that reason.

DEAR ABBY: I am 43 and for Home Makers Attend Meeting in Skellytown SKELLYTOWN (SPL) — Skellytown Home Makers Club met in the home of Mrs. W. B. Berry recently. A short business meeting was conducted by the vice president Mrs. W. S. Berry. One member, Mrs. Dona Crawford, was reported ill and in the Worley Hospital. The next meeting will be Oct. 3 with Mrs. J. M. Grange as hostess.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Gertrude Huckins, J. M. Grange, Bob Heaton, Ethel Hunt, Bob Lawrence. Guests were Mmes. Carl Cade, Hardy Boyd, Bill Graham, Ina Horst, L. E. Jordan, Leroy Snodgrass and daughter Robin and W. S. Berry.

THE ABOVE SWEDISH EXERCISES, created by Muriel Grossfeld, fitness consultant for the Campbell Soup Co., are as simple as they look. Holding a bean bag in each hand and kneeling (upper left), lean as far forward as possible, touching bag to sand. Draw an imaginary circle by moving arms and torso from your left side to overhead, leaning back, to the right and return to forward position. Bending forward from waist with arms stretched out (upper right), swing your arms around and behind your left leg. Bags should be as close to the right foot as possible. With feet apart (bottom) and arms extended, swing torso, head and arms to the right. Count two and swing left.

Pampa Family Explains Life, Customs in Libya

By MRS. D. C. READ
Pampa News Correspondent
LEFORS (Spl.) — Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Spradlin and family, formerly of Pampa and now living in Pampa at Coronado Inn, were evacuated from riot-torn Tripoli, Libya, in June with instructions to carry only one suitcase and a blanket. They were among about 7,000 American families of the air force and oil companies, who were taken by air under the "Operation of Safe Haven." Oil company personnel were to proceed to Wheelus Air base by caravan with everyone thinking that they would spend one week there and return to their homes.

In explaining the evacuation Spradlin said, rioting had broken out in Tripoli on June 5 and most of the downtown stores were burned and many Jews were killed. The riot continued until June 6, when martial law was declared. The Cairo radio was urging the Arabs to turn on the Americans, as they were reportedly sending planes to bomb Cairo and retaliate by getting rid of the Americans. The planes were supposed to be coming from Wheelus Air Force base. The Spradlins were flown to Naples, Italy on June 9 and then took a plane from Rome on the 10th. They arrived in Amarillo June 11. Mr. and Mrs. Spradlin have recently been to Lefors and gave talks to the men and women at First Baptist Church and showed films which were taken while they were in Libya for 18 months. When asked to relate some of their experiences while there, Mrs. Spradlin said she wanted to write a book some day on their life while there. Mrs. Spradlin stated the country looks much like southern California, with a climate similar to the Panhandle summers except during January and February when they experience the rainy season. It is like stepping back into history several hundred years because 90 per cent of the people cannot read or write, but many of them could speak at least six languages and have excellent memories. Much progress is made in every area of life because of the oil revenue. If it is continued, there will be a different face to Libya in 10 years, she said. The government has a program outlined in housing and education; there are millions of dollars spent on new schools, new housing and encouraging the Arabian people to send their daughters as well as sons to school. New roads are becoming more prevalent with hotels. Tripoli government gave the police the authority to take any boy or man who had long hair to the barber shop to have it clipped and the authority to arrest any one wearing a "Mini Skirt," she said. There is a Union Church and English "Church of the Christ the King", a Bible Church, three Catholic churches with one of their priests speaking English. A Southern Baptist church, with Brother Rock Blankenship as pastor, is the only Southern Baptist church in all of North Africa. Rev. Blankenship is the associate missionary of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention. The WMS Women work in the medical mission station in the "Old City" where 100,000 people live in a mile-square area, inside the walls of the city. Many of the Arabs have never been outside the city because of tradition, fear or religion. The Arabs say they have freedom of religion. They do for foreigners, but for them, there is no separation of church and state. To be a Libyan you are a Moslem. Even the Italians born in Libya cannot be citizens they must get exit and re-entry visas from Italy to stay legally in Tripoli. Very few Arab women are seen in public. Because of tradition they still wear "Baracans" and completely wrap up in them so that only one eye shows. Some of the more modern women wear coats and black veils, but the very few educated women do not wear these and neither do they get out in public. The Queen wears western clothes entirely. "It still costs a young man about $4,200 to buy the dowry needed before he can buy a wife to marry. Because of this many of them go into Egypt to buy a wife where it cost about $300," Mrs. Spradlin stated. The people show every respect for their old people, whose life expectancy is 40 years of age. Some of the places the Spradlins toured were Holland, Paris, Rome, Naples, Madrid, and Zurich. Their children toured Rhodes, Athens, Istanbul, Crete, Cairo, Alexandria, Egypt, Bierut, Lebanon and Bybalos on school cruises. On one of the cruises the oldest daughter, Rebecca, was met by Turan Soy Le Meg. Turan was a foreign student in the exchange program a few years ago and attended the Pampa schools with Rebecca and lived with Dr. J. B. Veale, while in Pampa. Mark Spradlin, their son, en-

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Discusses Area Convention in Model Meeting

Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met in the Hospitality Room of the Citizen's Bank and Trust Co. for a Model Meeting recently. Mrs. Charles Potter, president, requested all reservations for the Northwest Area Convention in Amarillo be turned at this meeting. Mrs. Price Smith introduced Mrs. Scott Nisbet who spoke on Loyds of London. Mrs. Kenneth Freeman, vice president, introduced the special guests to Beta Sigma Phi, its meaning and purposes. Mrs. Potter introduced the following guests: Mmes. Don Tinney, George Wood, Kenneth Heflin, Edward Orsak, E. C. Jenkins and Ronald Fox. Mrs. Potter explained the tradition of Engagement Chocolates to the guests and engaged the guests to Beta Sigma Phi by presenting them and the members with a box of chocolates. Secret Pals for this year were drawn. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Fred Epperly and Mrs. Weldon Carter, from a table decorated with a large gold key and two gold locks flanking an orange and yellow floral centerpiece. Members present not previously mentioned were: Mmes. Robert Brogdon, Jack Byrd, Charles Ellis, Glen Gold, D. L. Hinkle, Bill Kindle, Carol Lyman, James Ownsby, Jack Stafford, B. L. Stephens and Charles Swart Jr.

Lefors 4-H Club Selects Officers

LEFORS (SPL) — Lefors 4-H Club elected Cindy Youngblood, president in a recent meeting. Other officers are Elaine Webb, vice president; Vicki Cochran, secretary-treasurer; Skipper Youngblood, reporter, and Mignon Nickel, council delegate. During the business session with Mignon Nickel, outgoing president, presiding, the group discussed regular meeting dates and places, national 4-H week Sept. 30 through Oct. 7, and various money making projects. Plans were made to attend "Rural Youth Day" at the Tri State Fair in Amarillo, where Elaine Webb was featured on the Cotton John Show, as bake queen. During the meeting in Lefors Scout House, Alpha Elliott was appointed entertainment chairman and Niona Nickel and Susie Williams were appointed refreshment committee chairmen. Miss Nickel reported on the district council camp held Aug. 3-4 in Amarillo. Club members attending included Alpha Elliott, Niona Nickel, Susie Williams, Vicki Cochran, Jaylene Wallis, Mignon Nickel, Cindy Youngblood and Skipper Youngblood, and the adult sponsors, Mrs. K. L. Nickel, Mrs. V. C. Webb and Mrs. Boyd Smith. Next meeting will be held Oct. 12 at 4:15 in the Civic Center.

Checking In At Lovett Memorial Library

By BARBARA COCKRELL, Librarian
Are you interested in many things? Do you have an inquiring mind? Are you tired of trouble, television and dull routine? Would you like an opportunity to study the great works that you have always meant to read? Would you like to join others who feel as you do—who like to read, think and exchange opinions with others?

If your answer is "Yes," then your public library has something for you, for the opportunity to read and discuss the world's greatest books with other people is now available in Pampa. A Great Books Reading and Discussion Group is now being formed, and registration is open to everyone. The group is sponsored by Lovett Memorial Library in cooperation with the Great Books Foundation, a national non-profit educational organization. The program is especially designed for busy adults who are interested in ideas. The reading selections are short and packed with ideas relevant to today's problems. You need have no educational qualifications in order to join; there are no fees for joining a group. The only charge is the paperback cost for books used in the discussions. Taking part in a Great Books group is a unique educational experience. Participants learn to read more carefully, to think more critically and to communicate more effectively—skills useful both at work and at home. Discussion groups, once formed, are relatively small, and the discussion is informal. Each group has two co-leaders who act as moderators to ask questions and stimulate the discussion. There is no instructor—no formal classroom atmosphere or procedure. Each group consists of people exactly like yourselves—people who enjoy thinking for themselves and like to express their ideas. Any adult interested in joining a discussion group is asked to contact Lovett Library, giving his name and phone number. An open house meeting is planned,

Wilson P-TA Plans Introduction Night of School Faculty

The executive board of Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association met recently at the school with Mrs. Walden Havens, president, presiding. Members discussed the "Meet Your Teacher Night", which is planned for Thursday, the first general P-TA meeting night this year. During the "Meet Your Teacher Night," all teachers will be introduced in the 7:30 p.m. meeting, which will be followed by visitation at 8 p.m. All parents are requested to attend and see the classrooms.

Board members planned the Oct. 27 "fun night" and appointed chairmen from each grade to be in charge of booths. Chairmen are Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. Carl Oney, first grade; Mrs. Donald Stafford, Mrs. Clyde Wells, second; Mrs. Jerry Davis, third; Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. B. G. Rape, fourth; Mrs. R. T. Ledbetter, Mrs. Jack Chisum, fifth, and Mrs. Charles Brazile and Mrs. Lavelle Best, sixth. Mrs. Norman Allen was named hospitality chairman for "Fun Nights."

the Drama of DRUGS

by Tom Beard

The progress being made in recent years by pharmaceutical and medical science in the treatment of degenerative illness, sickness that seems to come with age, has been startling. Previously, it was believed that such afflictions as strokes, heart failures and hardening of the arteries were the inevitable accompaniment of old age, but great strides in the field of gerontology, the study of the diseases of the aged, are being made. Fifty years ago the average life expectancy was about fifty years; today, the expectancy is that a person will reach the age of seventy. Although, some of this is due, undoubtedly, to the decrease of infant mortality, a great deal is the result of research into the causes and treatment of old-age ailments....

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP OF TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing...

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself.

'Involuntary Virtue' Absurd

A swift and sure path to confusion and controversy is to toss off an interpretation of the Holy Scriptures.

That is especially true in any case where the word "poor" is mentioned. The great giveaway programs of the past quarter century have generated an army of "poor folks"...

For many the condition has become a way of life with a promising future as the politicians scramble to gain favor with the growing multitude of welfare clients.

"Opportunities in poverty" are the innovators in thought and sociological theory who have managed to sell their ideas to those in position to put them into practice.

Socialists, Fabians, Marxists and fascists, all have one basic precept in common: Individual freedom is anathema to them.

Not all intellectuals, of course, take such a doubtful view of the sovereignty of the individual. But those who do have been winning the ballgames.

Karl Marx and Bertrand Russell, Sen. Fulbright and Earl Warren, Adlai Stevenson and Thomas O'Leary, Bishop Pike and Eleanor Roosevelt, they and others like them, have supplied the theory and the action that have done so much to destroy faith in the individual, not to mention faith in God. The

Those Independent Manx

The Isle of Man in the Irish Sea has cats with no tails, sheep with four horns, a gambling casino, a pirate radio station, an enchanted bridge, half a million visitors a year, a parliament that meets on a hill, and 48,000 fiercely independent citizens.

Manxmen are fiercer than ever about independence these days. They resent British efforts to glance a bootleg station that broadcasts without license from a ship anchored off the Isle.

The British Parliament has banned all the so-called pirate stations to protect the government's B.B.C., but the Manx legislature rejected the bill.

Though the Isle of Man is one of the British Isles, it is not an integral part of the United Kingdom. Canon E. H. Stanning, the former Archdeacon of Man, has firmly explained: "It is a separate kingdom, and by lucky historical chance the Monarch of Great Britain happens to be also Lord of Man."

The Isle remains a dependency, however. Great Britain handles its defense, foreign affairs, and currency. Manxmen make their own laws, and supposedly are free to veto British legislation that affects them.

Man's government is vested in the Court of Tynwald, a two-house parliament that the Norse established 1,100 years ago. Manxmen have managed to preserve this legislature through a succession of feudal lords and British kings.

On July 5 every year, the Tynwald gathers on a sacred hill to proclaim in English and Manx the laws it has enacted.

PINE TREE FEATURES

HOW TO DRINK SOUP Individuals in various positions on the political spectrum will support the view that the purpose of government is to minimize coercion. In addition, some will state that government should be limited in size and power to the point which effectively minimizes or, ideally, eliminates coercion. So it logically follows that the actions of government should be limited to the elimination of coercion.

This is a laudable goal. Few people, if any, would argue that coercion is good. Therefore a system directed toward doing away with undesirable actions would be performing a generally beneficial service.

But let's take a closer look at the statement. It actually says two things: (1) Government should be limited at some point, and (2) Coercion should be minimized.

Now what is our primary concern? Is our goal to ascertain the acceptable ratio of governmental power to coercion, and then limit government at that level? If that is correct, then any increase in coercion will demonstrate that government has failed in its role, and the only remedy is to INCREASE the size and power of the political agency in order to maintain the desirable ratio of government to minimized coercion.

So at each sign of failure we move to expand the very system that has proved its inability to perform its single designated task. This is very strange.

Can you imagine anything else we do that is analogous to this? If you tried to drink soup with a fork and were dissatisfied with the results, would you get a bigger fork? If you attempted to extinguish a fire with a particular chemical and the blaze increased, would you add greater quantities of the same chemical?

I believe our problem is that we are directing our attention and energies to the first part of the statement, and in so doing we are accepting the wrong tool for the job. We are in effect saying, "I will only try to drink soup with a fork."

We should instead be concerned with part two of the statement: the minimization of coercion. In other words — what is the best way to drink soup? If we accurately define our purpose, then we have a much better chance for success.

If political government can, in fact, deal effectively with coercion, and if we do not want coercion, then it follows that we should not seek to limit government; rather we should seek to increase it!

If political government cannot deal effectively with coercion, then we should ignore it and look for other means which WILL be effective. If political government is, in fact, a coercive power in itself, then we have to re-formulate the statement into a question: Do we want to minimize coercion or do we want government power?

It may well be that our selection will determine how much of the alternative we will actually get.

Question Box

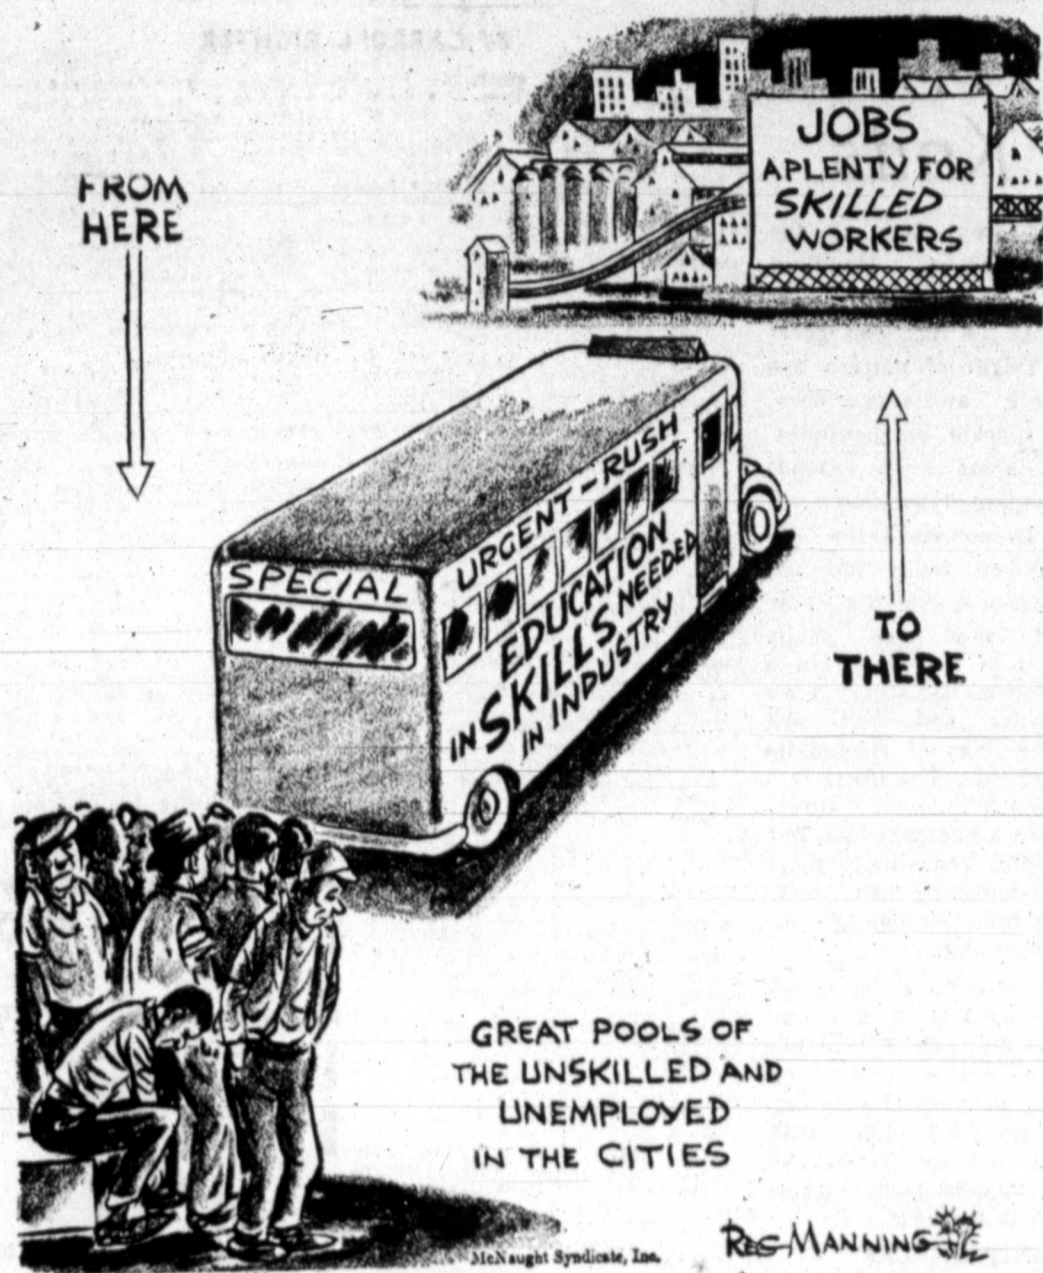

[We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.]

QUESTION: Why do so many employees not use more of their creative initiative in producing what they are paid to produce?

ANSWER: Those that do not do so seem to fail to realize that they are not working for their employer, but they are working for themselves; and the employer is only marketing what they produce. They also fail to realize that if the employer does not pay them more as they produce more, there are nearly five million other employers who will be competing against this employer to get those employees who do produce more. In other words, the free market for labor, as with everything else, determines the fair price of what the individual is willing to pay for a single service.

The big problem is to get more people to realize that they are really working for themselves and their families and not working for the employer.

The Kind Of "School Busing" America Needs

It's Up To You

By HOWARD KERSHNER

A Higher Purpose Having just returned from inspecting an exhibit of modern art, I believe we are suffering from a sense of confusion and frustration. We could see no meaning to it. In vain we tried to convince ourselves that a whole area of knowledge and perception had been blocked off from our minds, and was unavailable to us.

We saw a canvas containing certain blobs of color, called "Great Waters." No water was in evidence, nor was anything suggesting water. These blobs mingled with one another in irregular patterns and with varying degrees of intensity, and looked as if a child might have been playing with paints and spilled them on a piece of paper spread on the floor.

One exhibit was labeled "A Crucifix." Its grotesque ugliness suggested suffering. Possibly that was the intention of the one who created it. There was nothing of the dignity with which our Lord went to the cross, and one gained no sense of the triumph he achieved. The grotesque mis-shapen head was like a wart on the body, with no graceful connecting neck. The legs below the knees were more than twice as long as the thighs.

Those who witnessed the Crucifixion of Christ were inspired by the sublime sense of human dignity and triumph over cruel suffering. Isn't that really the purpose of art — to inspire and uplift? Those who disagree with us say that art should be realistic — should convey the impressions to the mind as they are, and make people feel terror and depression. We disagree with that concept. The purpose of art, it seems to us, is to enable, to inspire, to lift the minds of men to higher and more beautiful things. We don't need to wallow in the grotesque — in depravity and baseness. These tendencies are hard enough to overcome at best. It is the purpose of art, it seems to us, to lift men above the sordid, the base and the mean, and to give them concepts of beauty, perfection, sublimity and glory.

Backstage Washington Nuclear Missile Defense System Studied For Western Europe, Japan; Outgrowth of 'Thin Line'

WASHINGTON — The U.S. is studying the feasibility of a defense against nuclear missiles for all or part of Western Europe and Japan.

Administration officials say that, although there would be many problems associated with such a move — political, financial, and technical — it could be done.

They estimate the cost at anywhere from $3 billion to $12 billion, depending on the size and type of such an "outer ring" missile defense system.

Thus far the U.S. has not committed itself to such a program, but is merely investigating its feasibility in case its NATO allies and Japan express interest.

NO FINAL DECISION — Although President Johnson authorized the discussions with NATO nations and Japan, he has taken no formal position on the need for a missile defense system outside the U.S.

Proponents in the administration look to such a system as a possible unifying factor among Western Europe, Japan, and the U.S. Also it could, they say, extend and improve the proposed missile defense system for the U.S.

Opponents contend Western European and Japanese leaders have in the past showed little interest in developing a missile defense system because of the huge cost, and have, instead, appeared content to rely for defense on the deterrent power of the U.S.

Building of a European missile defense system would again raise the question of putting nuclear missiles into West German hands.

'WAIT UNTIL DARK'

Stage Play Coming To Pampa on Oct. 4

A real rarity in stage entertainment, a goose-pimpling stage thriller, will bring Phyllis Kirk in person to the stage of the Pampa High School auditorium Wednesday, Oct. 4.

It is the chills-and-screams provoker called "Wait Until Dark," which kept New York audiences gasping on the edges of their seats for eleven months in 1966 — the first successful suspense play since the early 1950's, when Agatha Christie's "Witness for the Prosecution" and Frederick Knott's "Dial M for Murder" were teasing audiences with shuddery delight.

"Wait Until Dark" pits the courage and ingenuity of a lovely blind girl against the desperate schemes of three thugs who invade her Greenwich Village apartment in search of a rich prize the girl doesn't even know she has in her possession. It turns out to be something concealed in a doll that these depraved men will do anything to get—not excluding torture and murder.

They try to take advantage of her sightlessness through trickery, but ample use of her other senses foils them. After several preliminary demonstrations of terror, the psychopathic master criminal prepares a gory end for his victim, in a scene that all the New York critics agreed provides the most exciting suspense that has been experienced in a theatre for many years.

Miss Kirk will be playing the plucky heroine. She is the TV favorite who for two and a half years acted opposite Peter Lawford in the "Thin Man" series, acted numerous roles also in many other television dramas as on such programs as Schlitz Playhouse, Ford Theatre, Robert Montgomery Presents and The Loretta Young Show. She is remembered for numerous interviews she conducted on "Monitor," while moderating a five-times-a-week program called "The Young Set," for numerous film and stage roles.

Others in the cast will be James Tolkan, William Traylor and Joseph Mascolo as the crooks who try to overwhelm the beautiful, blind bride, Gemma Dennis as a neighbor's impudent daughter who is a shopping guide and general seeing-eye for the blind girl, and Richard Branda as Miss Kirk's affectionate husband.

Windsor Lewis, director of "Time Limit" and numerous other New York plays, has staged the production that pits innocence versus ruthlessness, and Fred Voelpel designed the scenery and intricate lighting effects.

PHYLLIS KIRK will play the heroine in the melodramatic stage hit, "Wait Until Dark," being brought to Pampa Wednesday, Oct. 4, by the Pampa Fine Arts Association.

"Wait Until Dark" is being brought to Pampa by the Producing Managers Co. of New York. Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m.

Tickets for "Wait Until Dark" are on sale at the Pampa Chamber of Commerce office and the Las Pampas Galleries.

Federal Aid Is Texas' 'Angel'

AUSTIN (UPI)—The federal government is the state's number one financial angel, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported today.

Federal aid contributed twice as much to the state treasury as any other source in fiscal 1967, Calvert said in a report to Gov. John Connally.

The federal government supplies 27 cents of every state revenue dollar in the year ending Aug. 31.

The next biggest sources of state money were the sales tax, the gasoline tax, and gross receipts and production taxes on minerals and utilities. Each of these three sources contributed about 12 cents of the revenue dollar.

Other income listed in the state revenue dollar were:

Cigarette and tobacco taxes 6 cents, corporate franchise tax 3 cents, fees and permits 4 cents, auto licenses 5 cents; sales, rentals and royalties 3 cents, ad valorem tax 3 cents, alcoholic beverage taxes 3 cents, interest and dividends 3 cents, insurance company tax 2 cents, other sources 2 cents.

The federal government contributed $574 million to the state government, most of it for highways, public welfare and education.

The rest of the state's money appears to come about equally from consumers and business.

Five taxes on consumers—the sales tax, cigarette taxes, auto license fees, liquor taxes and auto sales taxes—account for 29 cents of the revenue dollar.

Five business sources—gross receipts and production taxes, the corporate franchise tax, receipts from sales, royalties and rentals, fees and permits, and the insurance company tax—contribute about 24 cents of each state dollar.

Double Blow

Other taxes such as motor fuel and property levies, hit business and consumers alike.

Calvert's breakdown of state spending shows that almost 46 cents of each dollar goes for education—the public schools and colleges and universities.

The next biggest share—26 cents—went for highways. Public welfare took 14 cents, prison hospitals and other institutions 4 cents, and all other state services 9 cents.

Such activities as the legislature, the judiciary, the executive, law enforcement, regulation of business and industry, conservation, parks, and state employe retirement each got less than 1 cent of the state's revenue dollar.

Center Wrap-Up

George Smith, Director Pampa Youth and Community Center

TEEN DANCES — The Center will continue its sponsorship of the Teen dances during the school year. The dances will be held on Friday and Saturday nights and after the football games when playing at home. If the Harvesters are playing away, the dances will be held as usual from 8-11 p.m.

The dances are well attended affairs and are very well chaperoned. An off-duty policeman attends every dance and the young people are not allowed to come and go but must stay in the dance or out.

The schedule for bands is: Sept. 29 The Motifs; Oct. 6 The Souleekers; Oct. 13 The Tiaras; Oct. 20 The Cords; Oct. 27 The Motifs; Nov. 3 The Souleekers; Nov. 10 Casuals; 17 Jekyl and the Hydes 24 The Tiaras; Dec. 1 The Souleekers; Dec. 8 The Casuals; Dec. 15 Motifs; 19 Cords; 22 Tiaras and 29 Jekyl and the Hydes.

WOMEN'S SWIM TIME — The Center has scheduled something extra special for the women. This is a swim period which runs from 10-11:30 a.m. on Monday and Fridays. This is a time when you women can come with no one around but you, and enjoy a good swim. We have several women who are already taking advantage of this swim time. You need only be or become a Center member to take advantage of the activity. Just come to the Center and we will fix you up for a good swim.

CENTER MEMBERSHIPS — The Center is a private organization and derives its revenue for operation by selling memberships. The Center is not tax supported and must make its way on its own. Memberships compared to other YMCAs are down right economical. In a survey made our memberships for the same facilities as other recreation buildings have is some 75 per cent less in cost.

The Center has two types of memberships — individual and family. An individual membership is for those people who are 8 years of age and over including adults. The memberships sell for $5 for six months and $8 per year. The family membership includes all members of the immediate family and sells for $12 for six months and $2 per year. You need only come by to pay the dues and membership cards will be issued.

RED CROSS WATER SAFETY COURSE — The Center will co-sponsor the Red Cross Water Safety Course this coming week, Sept. 25-29 from 7-10 p.m. The pool will be closed to all ages swim this week from 8-10 p.m. for this course. All ages swim will be from 7-8 p.m. each evening.

If you are 18 years of age and are interested in teaching swim lessons, please contact Mrs. Libby Shotwell at the Red Cross office. She will explain full details to you and enroll you. There is no charge for the course.

SWIM LESSONS — The Center teaches swim lessons the year around because the pool is indoors and is heated during the cooler months. Lessons are taught by a qualified Red Cross Water Safety Instructor. Classes are free to those who have memberships and $3 per person for non-members. Classes meet on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays after school is out.

Classes offered are:
Oct. 2-18 at 4 p.m. Beginners
Oct. 23-Nov. 8 at 4 p.m. Beginners; 5 p.m. Intermediates.
Nov. 13-Dec. 1 at 4 p.m. Beginners; 5 p.m. Swimmers.
(This class will not meet Nov 23 or 24 Thanksgiving week)

VOLLEYBALL RESULTS — The Fall volleyball season kicked off Monday night with the women playing to be followed on Thursday nights by the men. Results found La Bonita thumping Jonas Auto Sales 15-0 and 15-4 while Yellow Cab took Malcolm Hinkle 15-1 and 15-1.

On Wednesday night the Mixed Volleyball tournament was held with several exciting games. The Branscum's took top honors by losing only one game all evening and that being the first. Results found the Independents defeating the Misfits 15-7 and 11-6; Branscum's taking the Mix-Ups of Amarillo 11-15, 14-3 and 9-4; Branscum's over the Independents 7-3 and 10-7; the Mix-Ups spiking the Misfits 8-2 and 12-10; the Mix-Ups bumping the Independents 10-2 and 15-4 and finally in the championship showdown Branscum's again defeated the Mix-Ups 7-5 and 14-4.

Television In Review

By VERNON SCOTT UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—There are a lot of unanswered questions about motion pictures and television, mainly because no one asks them.

Let's ask:
Why doesn't Jim Arness win an Emmy every year for best actor in television?
Why do movie critics go ape for mediocre foreign pictures and soundly rap the Hollywood product?
What happened to Yul Brynner's hair?
Why hasn't Marlon Brando had a hit picture in years?
Is Eddie Fisher really still legally married to Elizabeth Taylor?
Why do networks tremble over the Nielsen TV ratings which sample the tiniest fraction of viewers?

Comebacks And Censors

Why hasn't Cary Grant ever won an Academy Award?
Who has had more comebacks than Judy Garland?
Will Chuck Connors run for the U.S. Senate?
Why hasn't Hollywood instituted its own film festival?
How much more nudity will the censors allow on the screen?
Is Jackie Gleason losing weight?
Who has the best dentist—Kirk Douglas or Burt Lancaster?
Who will win the skinny contest, Twiggy or Audrey Hepburn?
Will Hayley Mills marry a man old enough to be her father?
Which new TV show will be the first cancelled this year?

Card of Thanks

E. S. LOWRY
He would not want the ones he loved to grieve for him today. We must not say that he is dead, for he is just away.
Away upon a journey to a land that is bright and fair.
And though we will miss him here, we know he's happy there.
And memorials of him will bring new comfort every day.
As we recall, he is not dead, for he is just away!

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement and to express gratitude for the beautiful floral offerings. ## Selective Service Answers

Q — We have a farm, most of which is planted in wheat. Should there be a shortage of wheat this year, would this be a factor for receiving an agricultural deferment?
A — Under the new law, surpluses and shortages of agricultural commodities may now be considered by a draft board in reaching its decisions on agricultural deferments.

Q — How do I apply for deferment as an undergraduate college student?
A — You can get a convenient form called "Request of Undergraduate Student Deferment" (SSS Form 104) from your draft board. Some college registrars also have it. A letter to your draft board requesting student deferment will also be accepted.

Q — My father, an Army Sergeant, is being transferred outside the U.S. I won't be 18 until after we've departed the country. What do I do about registering with Selective Service?
A — On your 18th birthday or within five days thereafter, present yourself to the nearest diplomatic or consular officer of the United States and he will register you.

Q — Are 19-year-olds inducted first under this new law?
A — No, not now; but they could be later.

In 1850, Congress passed the Fugitive Slaves Act allowing a slave-owner with a certificate to reclaim any slave who escaped into another state.

Boyd, a squadron administrative officer, is a member of the Pacific Air Force 461st Bomb Wing at Amarillo and he was assigned to the 461st Bomb Wing at Amarillo AFB. The lieutenant was commissioned in 1964 upon graduation from Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

A 1959 graduate of Columbus High School, he received a B.S. degree in business administration in 1963 from Northwestern State College, Natchitoches, La. Lieutenant Boyd's wife, Patricia, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pierce of Wheeler, Tex.

Seaman Elmore Completes Basic

SAN DIEGO — Seaman Recruit Michael P. Elmore, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Elmore of 1815 Hamilton St., has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

In 1926, the Ford Motor Company put its workers on an eight-hour day, and a five-day week.

Norman Green's Crew Helped In Evacuating Liberty Casualties

USS AMERICA — Commissioned 3-C Norman W. Green, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Green of 1127 S. Farley and husband of the former Miss Dolores I. McElroy of 111 Duncan circle, West Monroe, La., returned to Norfolk, Va., today aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS America after an extended deployment with the U. S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

During the past eight and one half months the 77,000-ton America has steamed nearly 55,000 miles, participating in exercises with air and naval units of our North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

When the Middle East crisis flared, the America came to the aid of the communications ship USS Liberty after that ship was mistakenly attacked by Israeli aircraft and torpedo boats on June 8. The next day crew members assisted in transferring wounded Liberty crew members to the America and rendering medical assistance.

The ship recently added more laurels to her record by winning the Battle Efficiency Award for Atlantic Fleet attack aircraft carriers for 1966. The award is presented to the attack carrier which, through competitive exercises, proves to be in the highest state of combat readiness.

America's ports of call during the deployment included major seaports in Greece, Italy, Spain, Malta and Turkey.

Canadian Cadet Enters Senior

U. S. AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. — Cadet Walter W. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Adams of Canadian, has started his senior year at the U. S. Air Force Academy and has been named as a squadron element leader with the rank of cadet first lieutenant.

He was selected for this position in recognition of his leadership abilities and effectiveness ratings.

Cadet Adams will be commissioned a second lieutenant and awarded a B.S. degree upon his graduation from the academy. He is a 1964 graduate of Canadian High School.

RETURN TRIP

ALGIERS (UPI)—American Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael arrived back in Algerian radio announced to-day. Carmichael had previously visited Algiers on his current travels to socialist and Communist capitals. He had previously visited Havana and Hanoi.

In 1898, Empress Elizabeth of Austria-Hungary was assassinated by an anarchist.

Wilson Serving

Petty Officer First Class William T. Koen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Koen, 17 8N. Hobart, is currently serving on the Polaris submarine USS Woodrow Wilson, based at Holy Loch, Scotland.

In 1940, Adolf Hitler promised the German people he would invade Great Britain.

remit any funds given to us for this work. It's sad that this great need comes as we are ready to kick off with our UF effort, but with the big hearts of our citizens, we can do both. Remember, a part of each dollar given to the United Fund for Red Cross goes to disaster preparedness and for actual disaster needs. "You are there", when you give to Red Cross when there is a great need for help. Red Cross is feeding 50,000 to 200,000 in our feeding station and giving shelter to persons evacuated from their homes for safety purposes in 220 shelters. The rehabilitation period is a costly thing and we must help our organization meet this need.

The young people of Pampa High School will meet in Hereford Sept. 30 for their first council meeting. Persons interested in going to the meeting should call the Red Cross office and transportation will be provided. Kathy Miller of Hereford has sent invitations to Pampa, inviting our officers of Pampa High Red Cross to be present at this important meeting.

The Water Safety Instructor Course that was scheduled for Sept. 25 has had to be cancelled. Bud Bradley, instructor trainer, is on the south coast. Tuesday evening Sept. 26 in the Red Cross office a meeting of all of the First Aid Instructors who will be working in our Standard First Aid classes, will meet to work out plans for the program. Time, 7 p.m. — "Be sure and be present," Ted Gikas, chairman, states.

We have a new First Aid Instructor to work with us for our community First Aid class beginning Oct. 2 at the Pampa Jr. High School. Manny Holden has

New Books on Shelves At Public Library

New books on the shelves of Lovett Memorial Library Sept. 25, 1967 are:

"Tales From the Big Thicket" — Frances E. Abernethy; a collection of essays portraying the Big Thicket of Texas and its people, as characterized in the past and present.

"Miracle Hill" — Emerson B. Mitchell and T. D. Allen; a Navaho boy relates the story of his early life, from his birth in a hogan until he became of age, of his introduction to, curiosity about, and attempts to enter the white man's world.

"The Steamboater's" — Harry Sinclair Drago; is a thrilling, coast-to-coast story, not only of the steamboats which played a great part in opening the trade routes of the U.S., but also of the steamboaters, the men who in one way or another were associated with them.

"The Rochemer Hag" — Louise W. King; an engrossing Gothic novel set in England in the 1800s.

"The Eagle" — Ann Fears Crawford; the autobiography of Santa Anna.

"Texas Riverman" — William Seale; a biography of Andrew Smyth is the documented story of an obscure Texas riverman, who gives life to the struggles of a Texas frontiersman to establish himself in business and to achieve what he considers the good things for himself and his people.

"The New Land" — Phillip Viereck; discover, exploration and early settlement of north-eastern United States, from earliest voyages to 1821, told in the words of the explorers.
