South Won't Drop States' Rights Move

ATLANTA (AP)—Do not think the South will forget the States' Rights movement after the Nov. 2 general election.

Long after the last ballot has been counted, and no matter what the outcome, the issues which led to the Southern revolt against the national Democratic Party will still be around, namely:

- (1) Southern determination to maintain its present pattern of "white supremacy."
- (2) The South's historical stand, which States' Rights Democrats say they support, that certain powers belong to the states.

The election will settle neither for the South, but it will illustrate the fact that the South will seek revenge against anyone who runs counter to either of these positions.

W. W. Wright, Jackson, Miss., wheelhorse of the States' Rights movement, said recently, "States' Rights Democrats will take whatever steps are necessary to reestablish within the Democratic Party the Jeffersonian principles upon which it was founded. That fight will continue after Nov. 2."

The present Southern quarrel began when President Truman recommended an end to racial segregation, abolition of the poll tax, an anti-lynch law and a fair employment practices act.

Angered when these proposals were incorporated in the party's platform at the July convention in Philadelphia, delegates from two Southern states—Mississippi and Alabama—walked out.

They headed for Birmingham and there, July 17, the States' Rights Party was born. Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was nominated for the presidency and Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi (no son to W. W.) for the vice presidency.

As things now stand, the States' rights claim they will muster (See SOUTH, Page 10)

Canada and U.S. to Draft Alliance

PARIS (AP)—Top American sources said that soon after the United States elections the U. S. and Canada will draft a sweeping North Atlantic alliance for full military aid to the five-nation Western European Union.

Foreign ministers of the five-nation (Brussels) alliance—France, Britain, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg will meet here Monday and Tuesday.

Reliable informants said they will discuss the North Atlantic alliance and also another step for binding more firmly the non-Communist nations of Western Europe—the early convocation of a Western European parliament.

Reports in French circles said Britain finally had given her approval for calling together such a parliament.

(There was no confirmation in London but a Foreign Office spokesman said it was "fair assumption" the parliament would be discussed at the five-nation meeting.)

One undetermined factor in the North Atlantic alliance is the reaction it will stir up in the next U. S. Congress. However, the general approach by American planners has been on a bipartisan basis.

The European parliament enters into this aspect of the situation. It is felt the U. S. Congress would more readily approve funds for the contemplated military aid further signs of European unity, such as the calling of a parliament, make their appearance.

The North Atlantic alliance is expected to bind the United States and Canada to build up the air, land and sea forces of the Brussels alliance. This may cost American taxpayers $2 billion or more a year for three to five years.

American informants said the pact envisages a seven-nation unified military strategic command under an American commander-in-chief. They said it may be concluded by mid-1949 and would guarantee each country's territorial integrity in event of war.

Save Ballots—Paper A Room

This year's general election ballot in Texas is so big that it wouldn't take very many of them to paper a good-sized room.

In fact, it is just too much ballot for Wichita County Clerk Ford Albritton, the Associated Press reported.

Despite the fact that the county has six different sizes of containers, none of them will take the oversized 11-1/2 by 24-inch ballot.

Albritton has tried folding, bending, and rolling the sheet, but to no avail. Now he's hoping someone will invent right quick a can stretcher.

The ballot is believed to be the biggest in Texas history; it is eight newspaper columns wide.

It includes presidential and state candidates with district and local candidates inserted between them and the list of Constitutional amendments.

The unusual number of proposed amendments—eight—is the reason for the ballot being so long.

'Flight of Santa Claus' Parade Set

The Parade Committee of the "Flight of Santa Claus" which is sponsored by the Retail Trade Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce met Friday to further plans for the Christmas parade, Dec. 10.

Paul Beisenherz, chairman, informed the committee that 110 letters have been sent to different organizations including churches, women's clubs, fraternal groups, service clubs and Boy and Girl Scout units inviting them to participate in the parade.

Members of the Parade Committee will follow through by directly contacting each organization, Beisenherz said.

"In order to keep the true Christmas spirit in the parade," Beisenherz said, "there will be no commercial exhibits."

Committee man Roy Lewis was selected to serve as parade marshal and committee man Louie Allen will be in charge of traffic control.

Santa Claus will take part in the parade and will be surrounded by his helpers who will pass out candy to children witnessing the parade.

"We urge the organizations receiving letters to take care of this matter at their next meeting," Beisenherz continued.

With the many responsibilities of the parade it is necessary for the organizations to begin making preliminary arrangements for participation. Mrs. Ed Weiss will serve as chairman of the Clearing Committee on themes for different entries. Each organization must discuss its theme with her to prevent duplication.

Frank Wilson will head the committee in charge of recruiting bands and a Cappella choir to be entered in the parade.

Organizations desiring to participate have been urged to telephone Beisenherz at 1560 to register.

Prizes for parade winners will be in keeping with the Christmas spirit and will not have monetary value, Beisenherz concluded.

Other committee men present at Friday's meeting were Zello Osborn and Huelyn Laycock.

War Dog Finds Peace

HOUSTON (AP)—Fritz, a dog of war, may at last find the peace he had forgotten existed.

The veteran of a year and a half in the South Pacific as a K-9 dog has received a new lease on life.

He has found a new master, Buster Jones, operator on Houston's Arrowhead Park and a respite from death that now stretches indefinitely.

Fritz, a maladjusted veteran was doomed to death in the City pound gas chamber 5 p. m. Thursday. An appeal to the mayor's office from an unidentified woman won him a stay of execution.

Newspaper stories and pictures brought "hundreds of calls" from dog lovers who wanted to save the war veteran.

The dog pound received dozens of calls from towns as far away as El Paso and Louisiana.

Jones plans to use Fritz as a watchdog at the park, scene of his first racing in Houston. He has no fear that he will have to return his new pet to the pound as four other persons have done in recent months.

Fritz hitherto has proved intractable.

His former owner says the dog suddenly "went wild."

Today Fritz was being the perfect gentleman contentedly following his new master.

BARBERSHOP JAMBOREE IS CONTINUING TODAY

One of the most successful Barbershop Jamborees ever, was staged in the packed auditorium of Junior High last night as ten Barbershop Quartets presented the second annual Parade of Quartets.

The Top of Texas Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America was host for the event. Many of the persons attending the show last night say they plan to go again at 2:30 p.m. today. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

The program was opened by the Pampa and Berger Chapters' combined choruses, composed of 60 male voices. Directed by Ken Bennett, the choruses sang, "Our Cook," "Beautiful Dreamer" and "In the Spring."

Next, the Melody Menders, Pampa quartet, sang "Freckles," "Magpie Blues" and "Alexander's Ragtime Band." Knox Barter, H. C. Payne, C. V. Minear and Calvin Jones composed the group of singers. Pampa's other quartet, Squeaky Door Four, presented "Old Song Medley," "You Call Everybody Darlin'" and "Bowerly Boy." Pampa's co-ming Squeaky Door Four include Chick Hickman, E. O. Wedgeworth, Bunny Shultz and Wade Balhorth.

One of the highlighting quartets of the show was the Bore-some Foursome, Oklahoma City. The quartet proved to be anything but bore-some to the vast audience that heard it. The men sang for their regular numbers, "My Home Town," "Mother's Rosary" and "Shine." Then they were called back for several encores.

Two other quartets, especially favored by the audience, were Flying L Ranch, Tulsa, and the Keynotes, Newton, Kans. The Flying L Ranch quartet, sponsored by Governor Roy Turner of Oklahoma, whiffed the listeners with "The Whiffenpoof Song," "Gospel Boogie" and "By the Sea Medley." The Keynotes were contestants in the international contest last year.

All of the quartets pleased the audience and were called back on stage for encores.

Tri-City Serenaders, Berger, presented "Carolina in the Moonlight," "I Had a Dream, Dear" and "Old Black Joe," and were followed by the Helium City Four, Amarillo.

"Home on the Range," "Mandy Lee" and "Money Medley" sung by the Gavern-City Four. (See JAMBOREE, Page 10)

Army Holds Conference

Tom Braly, Gray County Army Advisory Committee last night reported an outbreak of "serious fighting" in the north just after a week of heavy battle with the Egyptians in Southern Palestine.

This time the fighting apparently was with the Syrians. The action took place north of Lake Hula in the small thumb of Israeli territory between Syria and Lebanon.

Who started the fight and who was on the offensive was not known here, but the army statement said the fighting was still in progress.

An Associated Press report from Haifa said some additional details were known there but rigid censorship was in force.

The announcement here said the Arabs had captured the height of Sheik Abdah, which dominates the highway over which the Jews supply a score of settlements, including Dan, Daphne and Kfar Gladi, in the Northern thumb.

The height is in the region of Manara where a Lebanese commando said Jewish forces with tanks attacked at dawn Friday.

The Lebanese said their heavy artillery joined the battle and that the Jews were repulsed after a full day of fighting. The Lebanese declared the Jews lost 200 killed and eight tanks.

The outbreak raised speculation among international observers here whether another serious breach of the Palestine truce might be in the making similar to that in the Negev Desert.

In the Negev, the Jews declared the fighting was set off when Egyptians attacked their convoys to their southern settlements.

Chairman Braly is 31st District attorney.

He offered to answer questions from members of his audience.

Bob Dodson, of the Firemen's Training School of Texas, also a speaker on the day's program, said that 93 percent of all fires are caused by carelessness. He is currently working with local firemen, teaching ways of better serving the community.

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—An Israeli Army statement last night reported an outbreak of "serious fighting" in the north just after a week of heavy battle with the Egyptians in Southern Palestine.

SOLOM CALLS FOR PROBE OF KERR DRIVE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Jenner (R-Ind.) has called for an early meeting of a Senate elections subcommittee to consider a report that nearly $60,000 more than the legal limit was spent on the primary election campaign of Robert S. Kerr in Oklahoma.

Jenner, chairman of the three-man subcommittee, wrote Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) and Myers (D-Pa.) asking for "the earliest possible date you may be available for such a meeting."

Committee Counsel B. Nelson Deranian reported to Jenner Friday that at least $65,500 was spent in the primary and a runoff election on behalf of Kerr who won the Democratic senatorial nomination. Oklahoma law places a ceiling of $3,000 on spending in each the primary and the runoff, a total of $6,000.

Deranian also told reporters the subcommittee has asked that primary election records in three Texas counties be preserved pending an investigation of charges by former Governor Coke Steven (See SOLOM, Page 10)

Coke Still Supporting Jack Porter

AUSTIN (AP)—Coke Stevenson, unsuccessful candidate for the Texas Democratic nomination for U. S. senator, said his contest filed with a Senate committee is not in conflict with his support of Jack Porter, Republican nominee for the post.

He also said he will document his charges of fraud in the Aug. 28 primary in which he lost to Lyndon Johnson by 87 votes in a state-wide radio broadcast Monday night.

"Some of my friends have asked me whether the contest I have filed with the United States Senate is in conflict with my support of Jack Porter for United States senator from Texas," Stevenson said in a prepared statement.

"My answer is that it is not. I am wholeheartedly supporting Jack Porter and I sincerely hope he is elected. I believe he is elected, that will settle the contest so far as the office of United States senator from Texas is concerned.

"But I still want an investigation to determine who is guilty of perpetrating the fraud and corruption which resulted in placing the name of Lyndon Johnson in office." (See COKE, Page 10)

Burdette Is Named Association Officer

Hugh Burdette, general manager of Cabot Carbon Co. here, was named regional vice-president of the Texas Manufacturers Association president to succeed H. A. Burrow, Bonham.

Main speaker at the conference was Dr. B. H. Beckhart, professor of banking at Columbia University.

He is one of seven regional vice-presidents named at the annual conference of the association in Houston.

C. C. Houston, president of the Texas Co., was named association president to succeed H. A. Burrow, Bonham.

Several minutes before that, a radio alarm went out through a state filled ether, but the two highway patrolmen were radioless. Their transmitter and receiver were taken out earlier Friday and didn't realize when they were stopping. Foldschneider himself was unaware of what had gone on or that the man he was giving a ride alleged had recently robbed the man let out near Shumett. Foldschneider drove on toward Pampa but by the time he got here police were only getting the call. A roadblock was thrown up, but Foldschneider had already gotten to Pampa and left the suspect.

Burger deputy sheriffs, together with the two highway patrolmen that stopped Foldschneider, got to Pampa a few minutes later. The man they had stopped was taken to a police station on a drunk Assistant Chief of Police J. O. Dumas and Patrolman Joe Wilkinson answered the call. When they got to the station to pick up the driver, they found the suspect. A search revealed over $90, six of which was in silver, six .32 calibre pistol and extra ammunition. Papers in the man's wallet listed him as John Travis Nicholson, 21, of Dumas Parks. (See DIMAS, Page 10)

Carrier Cabot to Be Recommissioned

Big City Votes Lure Dewey, HST

Millions of big city votes lure Governor Dewey and President Truman out on their final campaign tours this week. In the feverish last week before election day, both plan major speeches in four great centers—Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and New York.

The President ranged from one end of Pennsylvania to the other yesterday gunning for Dewey's defeat. He pitched into what he called the Republican nominee's "crafty silence" and "resounding misrepresentation." He called Dewey a man of "gall."

The New York Governor, who was nursing a head cold and a sore throat, pitched into the President's remarks would need him into changing his strategy, pitched on "unity" and "efficiency" in government.

Mr. Truman's scheduled departure from Washington tonight to Chicago tomorrow night, Dewey is to maintain the same follow-up position, finishing with a rally broadcast from New York's Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

Next Sunday will find the candidates in their respective homes.

Mr. Truman at Independence, Mo.; Dewey at Pawling, N. Y.

In his principal speech at Pittsburgh, Mr. Truman said that his opponent's campaign promises were "fantastic." He scornfully referred to "his soft talk and double talk" which he said insults the intelligence of the voters.

He got in other campaign shots at Johnston, Seaman and Wilkes-Barre.

Such thrusts did not appear to disturb the Republican campaign. Dewey's aides said he is confident he will be elected by a substantial margin of electoral votes. They said, too, they hoped to run up a big margin in the regular vote, perhaps as much as five million.

On his winding trip this week Dewey is expected to give speeches in the Pennsylvania and elsewhere in the state.

Pampans Go To States' Rights Meet

Leaders of the States' Rights Party were meeting today in the Peabody Hotel, Memphis, Tenn., in an effort to strengthen their ranks and organize the party on a nationwide basis.

Pampa Attorneys Curtis Douglas, State Executive Committee chairman, and Aaron Sturgeon, member of the State Executive Committee, left for Memphis Friday night to attend the meeting.

Sturgeon told The News Friday night that representatives from every state in the union have been called to the meeting and are expected to attend.

This latest development was the initial step in a series of moves by party leaders to keep the party together after the election scheduled in November. It came as no surprise since party leaders have openly stated on several occasions that they would go to work "in earnest" to organize the party on a national level regardless of the outcome of the November general election.

If they are successful, it will mean a possible full slate of candidates in ensuing elections.

Up until now, Democrats have firmly steered clear of supporting any candidates other than their presidential and vice presidential hopefuls, Govs. Strom Thurmond and Fielding Wright. However, Republican senatorial candidate Jack Porter Houston has declared his belief in states' rights during several speeches made in the Panhandle and elsewhere in the state.

Dumas Store Robbed, Owner Kidnapped, Suspect Nabbed

An armed man, who Friday night allegedly held up a Dumas liquor store and kidnapped its proprietor, was nabbed less than four hours later in the aPampa bus station by Pampa police following a chase from Berger to Pampa and an intense manhunt through Pampa streets.

A bandit got more than $90 in the gunpoint robbery then forced the liquor store owner, Roy Park, to close the store and jump toward Shumett. The two walked through Dumas to the Berger highway where they hitched a ride in a pickup truck, owned and driven by Slim Foldschneider of Dumas. About eight miles out of Shumett, the man told Foldschneider that Park wanted out at a tavern. Park got out and later notified police.

During the ride the bandit made it a point to sit between the two men in the pickup.

Near Berger, Foldschneider was stopped by State Highway Patrolmen for a reflector and drivers' license check.

Several minutes before that, a radio alarm went out through a state filled ether, but the two highway patrolmen were radioless. Their transmitter and receiver were taken out earlier Friday and didn't realize when they were stopping. Foldschneider himself was unaware of what had gone on or that the man he was giving a ride alleged had recently robbed the man let out near Shumett. Foldschneider drove on toward Pampa but by the time he got here police were only getting the call. A roadblock was thrown up, but Foldschneider had already gotten to Pampa and left the suspect.

Junior Red Cross To Start School Enrollment Soon

Members of the Junior American Red Cross will start enrolling their fellow classmates on Nov. 1 in public and private schools in Pampa, Sam A. Berger, chairman of the Pampa Chapter, JARC, said yesterday.

The enrollment will be conducted on a county-wide basis.

Individuals who are not enrolled to avoid excluding anyone who could not contribute, Berger said.

All funds over the enrollment fees will go into the JARC service fund, used for local, national and international Junior Red Cross programs. These funds are not used as are the funds donated by adult Red Cross members.

Berger said that the National Children's Fund has contributed greatly toward the health of children abroad in addition to the gifts sent overseas by local Junior Red Cross members.

Berger added the chapter hopes to see a 100 percent enrollment in all of the Pampa schools. "We believe," he added, "that our children, realizing vast accomplishments of young members in the past, will want to join the youth organization that has achieved such a fine record."

One Fined on Charge of DWI

Judge Sherman White in County Court yesterday imposed a fine of $100 plus costs on one man charged with driving while intoxicated and deferred sentence on a 17-year-old youth on a similar charge.

Bartley W. Hoover, Pampa, picked up by State Highway Patrolmen and City Police Friday night, was assessed the $100 fine and costs plus the six month suspension of driver's license.

Glenn Norwood Green, 17, also of Pampa, pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated but had sentence deferred until Monday. Green was picked up Friday night at Atchison and Cuyler by City Police where he crashed into a Yellow Cab.

Mama Named As Alibi for Ticket

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A woman was given a ticket for overparking.

She went to see Police Commissioner Roy Hyatt and offered this alibi:

When she parked the car, she left a note in the parking meter for the three limit rate. "Mama" went to sleep, the note in her hand, and they wound up with a parking ticket.

Hyatt tore up the ticket.

Alaskan Delegate Sees Territory As 'Open Door' for Communists

JUNEAU — Asserting that Communist Russian conquest of the U.S. lies through the "wide open door" of Alaska, E. L. Bartlett, Alaskan delegate to Congress, here recalled warning notes sounded by the late Brig. Gen. William Mitchell 13 years ago as follows:

"I believe in the future he who holds Alaska will hold the world, and I think it is the most strategic place in the world."

WARNED IN VAIN
Bartlett said that while Gen. Mitchell's warning was a fairly addressed to Congress in 1935 to prepare for possible Japanese aggression through uncharted Aleutian Islands, the situation remains virtually unchanged in relation to Russia.

The Alaskan delegate charged Congress and the national administration with "dereliction in building up a wall of national defense in the polar cap region as Army authorities called for withdrawal of 7,000 combat troops from the Alaskan defense command because of a lack of adequate winter barracks facilities."

Gregory Peck Relates How He Does It

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — Gregory Peck, who seems to keep a level head despite his rocketing rise to stardom, tells how he does it.

Other new stars have soared as rapidly in recent years but none has earned such a solid position in the movies. In fact, many of the stars who came up during the war years are now displaying the frailty of their popularity.

Not so Peck. The lanky La Jolla lad has not only firmly fixed a succession of important pictures. Not only that, he has become his own publicity agent.

He apparently expects to be here for as long as his producers think he is. He is never too busy to do favors or grant interviews.

Naturally, this phenomenon intrigued me. So I bearded him on the "Gregory Peck" set. Here is his philosophy:

If acting is an art, it is an art only as far as the director, Ramon, Ralph Richardson, Fredric March and those of a similar caliber practice it. There are no pitfalls, if you have a healthy respect for acting, if you keep in mind improving your work.

If there are more pitfalls in the picture business than on the stage or elsewhere, it is because of the abnormal spotlighting of personalities. If you realize the work is turned out on you is no more than part of the business, it ceases to be a pitfall.

Another part of picture technique that contributes a possible pitfall not noticed on the stage is the protection an actor enjoys in films. On the stage you are on your own for two hours in front of an audience. In pictures, if you let a scene drop in spite of retakes and direction, the matter comes up to the other actors for reaction.

Just keep your mind on your work and keep some of the real actors in mind and you haven't time for pitfall.

WELLS, Cherokee County, Tex.—(AP)—Uncle Bill Spinks was 100 years old Friday and the towns-

 Uncle Bill has been a lawyer 70 years, being admitted to the bar when three practicing attorneys gave him an examination at risk.
 "It cost me $5 and a quart of whiskey," he said. "But that doesn't mean I bribed 'em. The examination was plenty tough."
 An afternoon reception and cake with 100 candles was held for Uncle Bill. His wife, 81, shared the honors.

Panhandle Wins Over Spearman; McLean Falls

PANHANDLE — (Special) — Panhandle won its first District 1-B conference game against Spearman at Panhandle Friday night by a score of 19-12. It was Spearman's second conference game, and its second defeat following a loss to Wheeler last week.

Panhandle's first score was made in the first three minutes of play when Orville Davis flipped a pass to W. A. Mitchell, who romped 45 yards to score. The try for conversion failed.

The second quarter found Joe Knapp scoring with the second marker when he went through the line for 13 yards. This time the try for the extra point was good, and Panhandle led, 13-0.

The third touchdown was made in the third quarter when Davis caught a quick kick from Don Light and ran 19 yards to score.

Both Spearman's touchdowns were made by Cayton on end runs, one in the third quarter, and the other, which was aided by a 15-yard penalty against Panhandle, in the last quarter.

Houston University Given Large Gift

HOUSTON — The University of Houston has accepted a gift of $70,000 in printing equipment and a $50,000 scholarship fund.

The printing equipment was turned over to the university by R. F. (Bob) Smith, Houston oilman and former publisher of the Pasadena Times, while the scholarship fund was established to honor Jones, former secretary of the university, and his wife.

McLean's Tigers Lost to Berger's 'B' Team

McLean's Tigers lost to Berger's 'B' team, the Bull Pups, at McLean Thursday night by a whitewash score of 12-0.

Early in the second quarter, Wilkinson, seat quarterback for Berger, made the first score by an end-around run from the McLean 30. The attempt to run the extra point failed.

The other marker came in the third quarter after the Bull Pups had worked the ball from their own 39 to the McLean 5. From there Wilkinson tore through the right side of the line for the touchdown. His pass for the additional tally fell short.

Tiger Coach Al Duncan sent out only two of his regular starters. They were Bobby Kramer, regular end who was shifted to backfield and Bob McConagie, tackle. The other nine regulars did not even get into uniform.

Duncan used reserves to save his regulars for next Friday's contest with Memphis Cyclones in a District 2-A tilt.

Research Grant Made To Dobie for Study

AUSTIN — J. Frank Dobie, folklorist and author, has accepted a research grant for study leading to a book he plans, "The Mustang Horse."

Dobie will leave later this month to begin the work under the grant by the Henry Huntington Library in San Mateo, Calif.

Dobie was dropped from the University of Texas faculty last year after a dispute with the administration over his request for an extension of leave of absence.

Third Quarter Surge Gives Pampa First Conference Win

The Pampa Harvesters came unbuckled in the third quarter with two touchdowns to paste the Plainview Bulldogs with a 13 to 0 defeat in Harvester Park Friday night. The tilt opened District 1-AA competition for both teams.

Sandies Take Cubs, 21-0

Amarillo's Sandies, defending champions, opened this season's District 1-AA conference play with a 21-0 win over the Brownfield Cubs Friday night at Butler Field in Amarillo.

While the Sandies were playing without four regulars, all of whom were out with injuries, the standout star was Charles Seiber, big senior center, who made more than half of all Sandie tackles.

Marvin McNeil scored twice for the Amarilloans, once from the one-yard line to cap a 75-yard drive and again over right tackle from the 12-yard stripe. The third score was made by Charlie Priolo who intercepted a Brownfield pass to race 65 yards down the sideline to paydirt. Bobby Hudgins converted on all three touchdowns. Brownfield threatened only once when it drove to the Sandie three in the second quarter, but it was held scoreless.

There are 110 rookies among the 280 players carried on the rosters of the eight teams in the All-America Football Conference.

The Jackey Club in New York, the oldest racing organization in the U. S., founded in 1891.

Taking the ball on downs on their own 21 after holding the Bulldogs on downs, Lively, Williams and Kieth carried to the Plainview 22 where Williams took the ball on the handoff from Quarterback Lively and cut wide around left end over into paydirt. Davis' dropkick try for extra point was low.

The Harvesters' next march netted a total of 80 yards. Taking the ball on his 20 after Bill Blair, Plainview quarterback hefted over a touchback, Hayes picked up 19 yards at the windup of the surge to place the ball on the Plainview 11. Smith flipped one to Davis, the only Harvester pass, and the Harvester end lumbered over for the tally.

The march really amounted to 124 yards overall. In their initial bid the Harvesters got down to the Plainview 38 where Cox connected with the pitchoff from Lively and followed the sideline across the double stripe, but the play was called back and Pampa drew a 15-yard penalty for clipping.

On Pampa's last touchdown, Kieth ran the extra point over from scrimmage.

Plainview's passing game fell flat. The Bulldogs apparently had touchdowns in their hands at least a couple of times but dropped the ball like it was hot.

The Harvester backs cut the Plainview line to shreds, especially in the third quarter.

There are 110 rookies among the 280 players carried on the rosters of the eight teams in the All-America Football Conference.

Borger Takes Bartlesville By 18 to 0

The Borger Bulldogs trounced the Bartlesville, Okla., Wildcats, 18-0, in a last game at Borger Friday night, in which the lighter Borgans ran around, over, and through the slightly heavier Okies.

R. C. Dalton, Borger's left halfback, scored early in the first quarter on a 35-yard run around left end to give Borger a 6-0 lead at the half.

After the kickoff in the second half, End Kenneth Davis recovered a Bartlesville fumble on the Wildcats' 49-yard line, and, eight plays later, Back Jerry Glass went around left end for eight yards and a touchdown.

Later in the third quarter, Center Kenneth Hall recovered a Wildcat fumble, again near the mid-field stripe, on the 47-yard line. Two plays later, Jerry Chitwood, Borger quarterback, sped 40 yards before he was downed on the 2-yard line. A couple of plays later, Glass scored on a one-yard plunge.

Friday night's game, the first out-of-state game for Bartlesville, also marked Coach Burt Stidham's Wildcats' fourth defeat this year. Their record now is four losses, two wins, and one tie.

Borger evened its score Friday night with Sooner State teams after losing to Oklahoma City's Capitol Hill, 26-0, earlier in the season.

Demos Have Hopes In California

FRESNO, Calif. — (AP) — James Roosevelt says there is a "distinct possibility" of a Democratic victory in California in November and that the Democrats' chances in the nation are "improving daily."

The eldest son of the late president urged a Democratic rally to put the party's program of "practical idealism" over to the voters.

Michigan, Irish Win as Expected: Baylor, Texas in SW Conference Tie

Pampa News, Sunday, October 24, 1948 Page 7

Shamrock Irish Win Over Clarendon in District Tilt

SHAMROCK—(Special)—The Shamrock Irish won their third conference tilt in District 2-A high school football Friday night with an 8-7 verdict over Clarendon at Shamrock. The Irish now have two wins and one loss in conference play.

The Irish touchdown was scored about halfway through the third quarter, after an exchange of punts from the Irish 46. On a series of gains, the Irish carried to Clarendon's four-yard line, where William Barral, fullback, went around right end for the score. Left Halfback Donald Lee's attempted run for the extra point failed.

In the plays leading up to the Irish safety, Shamrock had carried to the Clarendon four, where Reeves fumbled and Wayburn Wilson, left end, recovered. In the first play after that, with the ball in Clarendon's possession, Jimmy Jenkins, quarterback, was caught behind scrimmage while trying to run around end. Shamrock's right tackle, Thomas Clemens, made the

Schoolboy Stars Face Spotlight

AUSTIN—(P)—Several schoolboy stars of 1947 will be in the spotlight when freshman football teams of the University of Texas and Southern Methodist meet here next Friday.

Reed Quinn of Austin and Byron Townsend of Odessa, two all-state backs, will be playing for the Texas yearlings. Henry Stoltenberg, a third all-stater, will be in the Colt backfield.

Other highly regarded freshmen backs on the Southern Methodist tackle. Clarendon scored about halfway through the fourth quarter as the Irish marched from its own 12-yard line. Clarendon drove steadily to the Irish 24, where Jenkins hit Gene B. Jiman, fullback, with a pass in the end zone for the score. Jenkins kicked the extra point, with Bulman holding. By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK—(AP)—Michigan, Notre Dame, North Carolina and Army came through with their expected football victories Saturday but what happened to Holy Cross and Mississippi State?

Michigan stormed to its 19th straight triumph by smothering Minnesota, 27 to 14, although the Gophers held the lead in the second quarter and again in the third.

Notre Dame, held to a minus seven yards via the air, ground out a 27 to 12 verdict over an Iowa team that moved 201 yards by passes. The game was the 23rd since the Irish suffered their last defeat.

Army, displaying a new outside-inside combination that brought back memories of the Blanchard-Davis combine, downed Cornell, 27 to 6, in a battle of unbeaten teams. Army's task was made easier when Hillary Chollett, Cornell's ace back, was carried off the field with a sprained ankle before the half.

Charlie Justice scored one touchdown personally and passed for two more as North Carolina romped to its 12th victory in a row, this one at the expense of Louisiana State by a 34 to 7 score.

For the first time in 30 years the Pittsburgh Panthers have a victory string of three, pushing over Indiana, 21 to 14, on a 65-yard play engineered in the final seconds by the passing combination of Louis Cecconi and Jim Robinson.

Ed Salem's 15-yard field goal in the second quarter gave Alabama a 10 to 7 margin over highly favored Mississippi State. Colgate gained its first triumph over Holy Cross since 1940 and only the second game the Red Raiders have annexed this season.

Some of the minor upsets found St. Bonaventure, little upstate New York college, spilling William & Mary, 7 and 6; Illinois tacking another defeat on Purdue's record, 10 to 6; Stanford losing to Southern California by only one point, 7 to 6; and Vanderbilt crushing Yale, 35 to 0.

Baylor, Texas Tie
By the Associated Press
Baylor and Texas went into a tie for the lead in the Southwest Conference football race Saturday as they scored victories over Texas A&M and Rice respectively.

Both had to come from behind to do it. Baylor tallied in the final period to beat A&M, 20-14—A&M's sixth straight defeat for the season. Texas roared back to tie the score at 7-7 then got two touchdowns in the last quarter to beat Rice, 20-7. A 78-yard pass from Paul Campbell to Byron Gillory featured the Texas drive to victory.

There were only two conference games Saturday. Southern Methodist and Texas Christian played intersectional opponents at night, the Methodists meeting Santa Clara at Dallas and TCU engaging Oklahoma at Fort Worth. Arkansas did not play this week.

land Park and Pat Knight of San Antonio. Texas has Red Mayes of Pampa, Bob Raley of Bowie, Jerry Robertson, Highland Park passing ace, Paul Williams of Lufkin and Gerald Miller of San Antonio.

Nevada Negroes Play

TULSA—(P)—Nevada's ferocious Wolfpack, led by passer Stan Heath, overwhelmed the University of Tulsa's spitting Hurricane, 65-14, yesterday. Negro players performed for the first time against a white team on an Oklahoma college football field.

It was Nevada's fifth straight victory and Tulsa's fifth consecutive loss.

Protected by his line and hitting his receivers with precision, Heath threw passes for four touchdowns.

Heath's Negro substitute, Alva Taber, tossed a fourth-quarter touchdown pass to Bob Collett that netted 45 yards and the Wolfpack's last score of the afternoon.

E. Texas State Wins
DALLAS—(P)—East Texas State College yanked a football game out of the fire in the last 56 seconds of play to defeat West Texas State College, 13-7, yesterday.

Bobby Wilkinson of East Texas threw only two passes during the game, both for touchdowns. Both were for 18 yards.

The outstanding offensive star, except for those two rifle shots, was Bobby Griffin, who passes set up both scores for the Lions. Griffin completed 12 for a total of 201 yards.

Matching him in spectacular play was Bill Cross, the 145-pound halfback for West Texas, whose long runbacks of punts and kickoffs set the Lions back on their heels on several occasions.

Rayon Gains New Advantage Over Cotton in Market

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rayon is gaining new advantages over cotton in the battle for the nation's fiber market, the Agriculture Department reported.

There have been marked improvements in rayon's strength, appearance and dyeing properties, the department said, with new processes for producing dull and semi-dull finishes as well as the glossy ones. Stretching and shrinkage of rayon fabrics has been reduced or eliminated, it added.

"Each of these developments has increased the desirability or suitability of rayon over cotton in some textile fields," the department said in a report on the outlook for cotton in 1949.

A slight reduction in domestic use of cotton but a possible increase in exports were forecast, The European Recovery Program is expected to give exports a lift. But the per capita use of cotton has decreased by two and two-thirds pounds since 1946, the department said, while use of rayon has increased one pound.

Since 1944, rayon prices have changed only four times, the report noted. On the other hand, it said, prices of raw cotton and cotton yarns change almost daily.

"This stable price of rayon is an important factor in its favor where rayon and cotton are competitive," the department said.

Writer Cites Figures on Increasing Government Cost

Swollen payrolls, waste, inefficiency and duplication of effort in many federal agencies have helped boost the national budget to the point where government is costing taxpayers nearly as much as food, says Charles Stevenson in the Reader's Digest for November. Federal expenditures today are equivalent to 26 percent of all privately produced income in the United States, as against about 4 percent in 1929, and less than 12 percent in 1937, the record year of deficit spending. In the past decade federal employees have nearly doubled in number.

Stevenson's article recounts the findings of a group of ex-FBI operatives, sent by the House Appropriations Committee this year to federal agencies to ascertain why federal agencies need a budget of $43,800,000,000.

This commission reports the State Department as employing 11,000 more persons than at the peak of the war. Inefficiency in State Department clerical procedure is illustrated by the handling of a single letter taken at random from the department's files. The letter—a simple request by a U.S. citizen for a transfer of funds abroad—went twice through three buildings and accumulated enroute "a multitude of initialings, forms, directives and copies. After 35 separate 'processings,' the letter had consumed the equivalent of 30 days of one person's time.

To "plan and safeguard expenditures" the State Department has paid 430 employees $1,449,000 annually, Stevenson states. "Yet bills have been sent to only a few of the Americans who, stranded abroad in the war, have been lent an estimated $22,000,000 so that they might return home. Though more than a thousand made overtures to pay, their letters have been filed without reply."

In the Agriculture Department, five different programs deal with soil conservation. Though national forest lands have increased only 11 percent since 1853, expenses of administering them have risen 280 percent.

The Veterans' Administration,

now spending a billion dollars for new hospitals, refuses to use Navy surplus hospitals capable of accommodating 20,000 veterans. To care for all its patients, 83 percent of whom have illnesses not connected with war service, VA employs 192,000 persons.

Illustrating how government agencies overlap in their functions, Stevenson states that no less than 29 are engaged in lending money, 24 in acquiring land, 16 in wildlife preservation, 12 in community planning, 28 in welfare, 14 in forestry, 65 in gathering statistics.

In an attempt to effect economy in government, Congress last year established the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch, with Herbert Hoover as chairman. The commission has sent leading financial experts, efficiency engineers and businessmen to examine federal departments.

Early Treatment Blemishes Urged

Three Philadelphia doctors writing in the American Journal of Roentgenology and Radium Therapy say that by treating birth blemishes early in life they can be made to disappear. Doctors usually have recommended that they be treated in later life, they said. "We do not believe in watchful waiting," said Doctors Eugene P. Pendergrass, James Katterjohn and James B. Butchart. "A hemangioma (birthmark) treated at three weeks of age requires less treatment and responds better than one treated at three months.

Famous Fort Is Being Restored

SIBLEY, Mo. — Fort Osage, an outpost of the white settler in 1808 and described as the most "important commanding fort west of the Mississippi until soldiers left it in 1825 to move on to Fort Leavenworth," is being restored on the south bluff of the Missouri River here.

Sponsors of the restoration project, the Native Sons of Kansas City, said the fort would be almost an exact duplicate of the stronghold built under the supervision of Gen. William Clark, member of the famous exploring team of Lewis and Clark.

Leon Cohen, center, and Bernie Custis, left half, are the prize sophomores on the Syracuse University varsity football squad.

J. Evetts Haley Writes Biography

NORMAN —(Special)—J. Evetts Haley, the Texas Panhandle cowman and rancher whose literary skill matches his ability as a rider and hunt expert, is the author of a new biography, "Jeff Milton: A Good Man With a Gun," published Friday by the University of Oklahoma Press.

Haley, who is at home in the saddle as much as any place else, tells in flavorful language the adventures—from boyhood to death—of "a good man with a gun," a law-enforcement officer who "never killed a man that didn't need killing" and "never shot an animal except for meat."

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Next to the presidential race, political attention is focussed on the question of which party will control the U. S. Senate in January. The Republicans now hold 51 seats to 45 for the Democrats. A net gain of four Nov. 2 would regain for the Democrats the control they lost in 1946. Hence rivalry is intense in a number of key states. Ernest B. Vaccaro, who has covered President Truman's campaign, and Jack Bell, who has traveled with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, report here on the Senate outlook.)

Dewey Skips Visit To West Virginia To Aid Senator

By JACK BELL
NEW YORK —(AP)—Although the struggle for control of the Senate is hot, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey plans to skip any visit to West Virginia, scene of one of the crucial races.

Dewey's aides tell newsmen privately that Republican Senator Chapman Revercomb's handling of the displaced persons issue is the real reason for this decision. He would not aid in revising the bill as Dewey wanted.

Ten days away from the Nov. 2 election, Republicans generally concede they are going to need every seat they can get to keep the reins in the Senate.

Dewey has swallowed some obvious personal differences to campaign for other GOP senatorial candidates.

Senator Joseph Ball of Minnesota, who bolted the Dewey-Bricke ticket in 1944, is a case in point.

Last night GOP National Chairman Hugh D. Scott, Jr., said in a speech at Huntington that the entire Republican organization—and the national ticket—"from top to bottom" wants Revercomb re-elected.

Even if Revercomb falls by the wayside along with some other GOP candidates, the Dewey strategists feel the Republicans still can retain Senate control.

They now have a 51-to-45 margin over the Democrats. That means a net gain of four seats would let the Democrats take over.

The main hope in the Dewey camp centers on saving two Republican senators—John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and E. V. Rouse of Montana.

Murray is opposed by Republican Tom J. Davis.

The Dewey strategists line it up this way: They are afraid they will lose three seats through defeats of Senators Ball in Minnesota and Revercomb in West Virginia and of Rep. Ross Ritzley, who is seeking the seat being vacated by Senator E. H. Moore in Oklahoma.

That would make the Senate lineup a 48-to-48 tie.

But if Cooper survives, Davis beats Murray in Montana and Robertso pulls through against Gov. Lester C. Hunt, his Democratic opponent in Wyoming, they would wind up with a 50-to-46 margin.

The Dewey strategists seem to have little hope of defeating Democratic Senators Edwin C. Johnson in Colorado and Theodore F. Green in Rhode Island. Neither do they expect Carroll Reece, former Republican national chairman, to win over Rep. Estes Kefauver, Democrat, in Tennessee.

On the other hand, they pool-pool Democratic contentions that there is any serious challenge to the reelection of Republican Senators C. Wayland Brooks of Illinois, George A. Wilson of Iowa or Homer Ferguson of Michigan.

Democrats Set On Recapturing Senate Control

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON —(AP)—President Truman's closest advisers say he is convinced the Democrats will recapture control of the Senate regardless of the outcome of his own race next month.

Talking privately, these men tell newsmen they expect Democratic senatorial candidates to outrun Mr. Truman in some states and to win in a couple he may not carry.

Congressional candidates themselves told correspondents traveling aboard the President's campaign train they felt they had been helped by the Chief Executive's repeated attacks on the Republican leadership on Capitol Hill.

Most Democrats—the President among them—take the view that the party will knock off GOP seats in Oklahoma, Minnesota, West Virginia and Wyoming.

These four would give the Democrats a 49-to-47 margin—provided they do not lose any of the other hotly-contested races, such as those in Tennessee, New Mexico and Montana.

Former Gov. Robert S. Kerr exuded optimism when he boarded Mr. Truman's campaign train in Oklahoma. He got off saying the President's talks there had boosted his own margin and made the state "safe" for the President, GOP Rep. Ross Ritzley is Kerr's opponent.

Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis campaigned in Minnnesota with the President who called Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball one of the "champions of reaction." Humphrey told newsmen he expected to beat Ball.

Mr. Truman came out of West Virginia with glowing reports of former Democratic Senator Matthew M. Neely's chances of unseating GOP Senator Chapman Revercomb.

Mr. Truman hasn't been in Wyoming since his cross-country pre-convention speechmaking. At that time, he said he was encouraged by reports that Democratic Gov. Lester Hunt could defeat GOP Senator E. V. Robertson.

Kentucky, in the eyes of the Truman strategists, looks better for the President than it does for the Democratic senatorial aspirant.

Rep. Virgil Chapman is trying to defeat Senator John Sherman Cooper (R) there.

The President let this reporter know that he is more optimistic than other members of his party about Democratic chances of unseating Senator C. Wayland Brooks (R) in Illinois. Paul H. Douglas is the Democratic candidate.

Former Senator Guy M. Gillette (D) of Iowa, said he has a fighting chance to beat Senator George A. Wilson (R).

The President—judging from his talks with newsmen—was worried about the Senate races in either New Mexico or Colorado.

However, he gave Clinton P. Anderson, former secretary of agriculture, a speaking lift in New Mexico where Republican Patrick J. Hurley is a candidate again.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D) talked so confidently of his own prospects when he rode the campaign train in Colorado that Mr. Truman's strategists consider him a sure bet to turn back Will F. Nicholson (R).

Senator James E. Murray (D) is having a hard fight in Montana with Republican Tom J. Davis, but the Truman people say Murray will pull through.

Johnny Hines was host to fellow employees of the Shell Oil Company at a delectable steak dinner party held Wednesday night at the Pampa Country Club.

A sumptuous banquet consisting of choice T-bone steaks with vegetables, hot biscuits, salad, pie a la mode, and coffee was served to satisfy the tastes of the following name guests:

J. W. Roche, Division Manager, Wichita Falls; J. W. Swygart, The President has had no first-hand look into the senatorial fight in Tennessee where Rep. Estes Kefauver (D) is opposed by former Rep. Carroll Reece, until recently GOP National Committee chairman. However, Truman staff workers say they are confident Kefauver will come out ahead.

PITTSBURGH —(AP)—Eighty-year-old John Hoopengardner enjoyed a four-hour ride to Western Penitentiary—his home for the next 10 years or more—but he hopes "it don't get no worse."

Hoopengardner yesterday began a 10-to-20 year sentence for second-degree murder in the shotgun slaying of 87-year-old Ambrose W. Fisher of McConnellsburg, Pa.

His steps shaky, the octogenarian squared his shoulders as he entered the jail.

"It's been a nice trip so far," he said to Sheriff Don Chestnut, "I hope it don't get no worse."

PONTIAC

Even Better than it Looks!

When we tell you that a Pontiac is even better than it looks, we realize that we are making a strong statement about Pontiac quality.

But here is an automatic, it's so thoroughly good that there is no practical limit to its usefulness, if it is given the proper kind of care.

Here is a car so good that even its second and third owners pay it the highest compliments.

Here is a car so good that its dependability lasts on and on while the miles and months roll by.

Here is a car so good that owners say they prefer its performance to that of any car they have ever driven. And here is a car so good that its price on a used car lot is often far higher than the price of cars which cost far more when new.

In short, here is a car so good that it would make you very, very happy—on every count!

Please remember this when you order your next car—and order a Pontiac... the car that is always good, and always getting better.

(Continued from Page 1) further help to Republican candidates for the Senate and the House. The present 51 to 45 Republican margin in the Senate can be widened or narrowed considerably by the balancing of votes from Tuesday.

Governor J. Strom Thurmond, presidential nominee of the State Rights Party, wound up a three-day campaign for Tennessee's 12 electoral votes with a speech at Knoxville. He has hammered persistently on the same theme that Mr. Truman and Governor Dewey espoused: the civil rights program to get votes.

Vice presidential candidates got in some speakmaking in their home states. Republican Governor Earl Warren stumped the interior valleys of California, and Democratic Senator Alben W. Barkley campaigned in Kentucky, speaking at Pikeville and Louisville.

The Progressive Party announced that Wallace will discuss atomic energy in a coast-to-coast NBC broadcast at 10:30 p. m. (EST) tomorrow night. He arranged to campaign in Paterson and Newark, N. J., today, speaking over the ABC network at 7 p. m. on "Peace and the U. N."

Norman Thomas, the Socialist candidate for president, declared in a Cleveland speech that the long range answer to war is the building of "a world of democratic socialism," where there is no discrimination between men on race, nation or color.

As an immediate program to meet the Russian crisis, Thomas proposed an American appeal for universal disarmament with international control of atomic energy along the lines of the Baruch plan, the encouragement of "underground railroads to help the escape of refugees and the entrance of trade for people who now sit in darkness," and an expression of willingness to negotiate with Russia on Berlin as soon as the blockade is lifted.

Stevenson is contesting the nomination of Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson for the Senate.

Under Texas laws, primary ballots may be destroyed after Oct. 27.

Deranian said committee representatives have asked Jim Wells, Duval and Zapala county officials to preserve all primary records. The subcommittee has the power to subpoena the records if county officials do not comply voluntarily.

Jenner sent copies of Deranian's report on the Oklahoma primary to public Friday, to Myers and Bricker. Myers immediately called the report "political."

Close associates said, meanwhile, that Jenner's decision to resign as chairman of the Republican National Committee's speakers bureau was based on a desire to do some Indiana campaigning, rather than because of the elections investigation.

Jenner's letter to the other two members, dated Friday, said he had ordered an investigation of the Kerr campaign after receiving four affidavits charging the former Oklahoma governor with excessive spending.

Their real strength appears concentrated in four states with a total electoral vote of 38—South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana. Any other states are doubtful.

The South is most bitter over segregation and FEPC proposals. They claim that the two would give Negroes social, economic and political equality.

Thurmond professes to have few objections to the economic angle, but said at Jackson, Miss., May 16 that it would mean Negroes in schools, churches and places of recreation.

Arguments used by Thurmond and Ex-Gov. Frank Dixon of Alabama, who keynoted the Birmingham convention, could be lifted almost bodily from debates of the decade 1850-60 between Stephen A. Douglas and Abraham Lincoln in Illinois.

Dixon has declared passage of the proposals would mean an "amalgamation" of the races, "a mixing with inferior people." So did Douglas, only he was talking of the proposal to free slaves.

Douglas, like Dixon, said action on the Negro question would mean invasion of homes and neighborhood of Negroes.

Lincoln's answer at Chicago was, "I reject forever the counterfeit argument that because I do not want a Negro woman for a slave (or social equal), I do want her for a wife."

Lincoln went on to say it was his understanding that the Negro could exist as neither, but only as a person. Lincoln added that "with God's guidance we can leave each other alone... and do each other much good."

An Oklahoma City investigator was ordered to Austin last Wednesday by Nelson B. Deranian, chief counsel of the Rules Subcommittee on Elections. He talked with Dan Moody, former governor and a leading member of Stevenson's legal staff, Thursday and told him he had nothing to discuss with the press.

The investigator reported his findings Thursday night to Deranian in Washington. His activities since then have been kept secret from the press.

Stevenson told the Associated Press he has not talked with the investigator.

Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.), chairman of the subcommittee, said the first meeting will be in Omaha, Neb., Nov. 8. He said the second will be later in El Paso, Tex., but did not announce the date.

In Mexico City, the group will study methods being used by a joint commission of United States and Mexican experts to control foot-and-mouth disease. Mexico

Miss Groves, Mr. Wallace Wed at Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wallace

Baskets of yellow chrysanthemums, assorted flowers and candelabra decorated the church for the wedding of Miss Mildred Lavern Groves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Groves, Lertven Leese, and Jimmy Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pearce, Lubbock.

Dr. Douglas Nelson officiated at the single-ring candlelight ceremony in the Pampa First Presbyterian Church. Candelighter, Miss Anita Lane, wore a blue tweed suit and navy blue accessories with a pink carnation corsage. Miss Bonnie Shelton, maid of honor, wore a dark aqua suit with brown accessories and a red corsage.

Best man was Neal Riger, student at Texas Tech in Lubbock. Ushers were Ray Redman and David Plank.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a fitted beige gabardine suit with dark brown accessories and an off-the-face hat. She carried a white Bible topped with tallismans roses which were tied with gold and brown satin streamers.

Mrs. Groves, mother of the bride, wore a brown suit with brown and yellow accessories. Her corsage was of yellow pom-pom mums.

The bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Y. Carroll of Abilene, attended the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. A lace cloth covered the table which was centered with a wedding cake and topped with bride and groom figurines. Sherbet punch and mints were served by Miss Janet Ehridge and Miss Shelton.

After the reception, the couple left for their home in Lubbock.

Mrs. Wallace was graduated from Pampa High School in 1947 where she was selected "Band Sweetheart." "All School Favorite" and Las Creasas Club president. She attended Draught's Business College and is now employed with Allied and Boedeker, law firm in Lubbock.

Mr. Wallace served several years in the United States Marines until March 1948. He then attended Draught's Business College. He is now a trucking contractor in Lubbock.

Parents Who Held Son's Hand in Gas Flames Are Fined

PITTSBURGH —(AP)— The parents of eight-year-old Edward Kremer thrust the youngster's left hand into the open flames of a gas stove to punish him, they told a judge, not to "really burn him." Edward testified Friday: "Because I stopped to play with some of my friends and was late coming home, they were angry. My father grabbed me and held his hand over my mouth and my mother held my hand over the fire."

Owner Objects to Tenant's Motives

Chicago —(AP)— John Bardo, 78, owner of an apartment building told Municipal Judge John T. Zuris that one of his tenants wants to marry him to avoid paying her rent.

Bardo, a widower, said it's embarrassing because the tenant, Mrs. Pecia Strane, 68, a widow, says she won't pay the rent until he marries her. And if he marries her, he said, he won't get the rent, anyway.

Bardo was in court on a disorderly conduct complaint signed by Mrs. Strane after he had refused for the sixth time to marry her and insisted she pay her rent.

Judge Zuris dismissed the complaint. He also suggested Bardo think over Mrs. Strane's proposal.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous disease. It works this way: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, lousy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing the flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalisers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait until the best of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

By LORENE OSBORNE LOCKE
Science tells us that oil and water will not mix, but a Miami man has proved that oil and flowers will. James B. Saul, who for over 23 years has been wholesale agent for the Continental Oil Company in this section, is the acknowledged dahlia grower of Roberts County.

Someone has said that men love big flowers and little women, while the women love big men and little flowers. Whether this is the true explanation for the showy, colorful dahlia's popularity or not, the fact remains that it has gained such a following of both men and women that a national society is devoted to its interests.

Jim Saul is proof that raising flowers does not make a man a sissy. He is a big man, six feet tall, weighing over 200 pounds, with a broad, jovial face and about as much hair as Mr. Tack. He is an inveterate pipe-smoker. One never sees him, either walking or riding in the big Conoco truck without his pipe, and with his dog, either crowding his heels or standing, placidly viewing the world from the window of the truck cab.

People like Jim Saul. He shuns publicity. Neither is he much of a talker, except when questions arise concerning his pet interests—flowers, economic problems and national politics. Then he can, with keen insight, carry his end of the discussion with anyone. A game of dominoes is his favorite pastime, and he discomfits his opponents by his "razzing" as much as by his skill.

Saul began raising dahlias in 1927. He started with only a few bulbs bought from Mrs. J. K. Redman of Pampa, who has been called the "dahlia queen" of the Panhandle. Today he has nearly 2,000 bulbs representing most of the 100 varieties known to be peculiar to this part of Texas.

Jim got his love of growing things as a small boy on a New Mexico ranch. His father was an expert with horses and a successful rancher. His artistic sense and urge for beauty, he inherited from his mother who was an accomplished homemaker and needle artist. Jim is a brother of Mrs. J. P. Osborne of Pampa, and of Mrs. T. J. Boney of Plainview.

The Sauls have two sons, both veterans of the recent World War. Both were in the Air Corps. James T. who now lives in San Francisco, was stationed in England more than three years. Eldon L., who is now a student in Texas Tech, Lubbock, was a radar operator in the Philippines and Japan.

The Saul garden hobby did not begin with the dahlia. Jim has what they call a "green thumb." He can make anything grow. He was noted for his beautiful zinnias and other flowers before he centered his interest in the dahlia. His skillful landscaping surrounding the Saul home has attracted visitors for years. The rockwork in fences and backgrounds, and a unique lily-pool are now the main beauty spots as the heart of his dahlia culture has been moved to the oil station grounds.

"The trees in the yard were crowding out the flowers," Jim explained. "Dahlias need a great deal of sunshine. There was too much shade in the yard." So he moved most of the dahlias.

This is only part of the truth, as the gardener's heart could not bear to see all that fertile soil in the company grounds lying sterile. He carefully kept it clean and free from weeds, but this was not enough. He began raising vegetables; all grew bountifully for him. But one must have beauty, too. He added zinnias. Then the thrill of the dahlia culture crowded out the other things.

While the dahlia garden is not and the highway where casual passers-by would be attracted by its beauty, there are many visitors who have heard about the Saul flowers and come to see them. Even people who come to the station on business remain to admire the riot of color massed around the huge storage tanks and to loiter amid the gorgeous blossoms.

During the blooming season no Sunday service in the Baptist Church, where the Sauls are members, is complete without a bouquet of the Saul dahlias. In fact, all the churches and social functions, weddings, showers, clubs, as well as the sick and convalescent, share in his treasures. Jim is very generous with his flowers. Each year he gives away hundreds of tubers and bulbs.

Like most nature-lovers, Jim is good-natured, slow to anger. "One morning I really got mad about my flowers, though," he said. When he came to the station he found that someone had gone among them stripping the blossoms from the plants with no regard for the damage. "I would have given them every flower I had rather than have my garden destroyed so carelessly," he added. He had a pretty good idea who got his flowers, though he never accused anyone. "It was not deliberate vandalism or a boyish prank," he explained. "Someone wanted the blooms and didn't care whether any were left for anyone else or not."

The dahlia is native to the high, dry regions of Mexico. Hence, it must have not too wet a soil, though it is a tropical-looking flower. Ferdinand Hernandez is thought to have been the first European to see the dahlia in bloom. He discovered the beautiful plants growing in the gardens of the Aztecs in ancient Mexico, and reported his find to Philip II of Spain. Hernandez was so struck with its beauty and wrote so vividly concerning it to his monarch that it was easy to identify his discovery as the type of flower later named for Andreas Dahl, the Swedish botanist. Dahlia culture is simple, thinks this successful grower. "They must first have good soil, well-drained and rich. I use fertilizer every other year. In this country they need a windbreak.

New Cub Scout Pack Organized

The Adobe Walls Area Council recently added a new Cub Scout pack, Paul Beisenherz, executive, said yesterday.

Ten Cub Scouts and eight leaders have formed the pack at Phillips-Hansford Plant, which is near Guymon, Okla. With the additional Scouts, the total number of Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Senior Scouts for the council is 2,200, Beisenherz said.

Plenty of sunshine and plenty of water. I water mine about twice a week—a real soaking, and mulch the ground with straw or leaves if possible."

Jim has left his bulbs in the ground the last two winters, but the weather was mild. They must be buried quite deep, if the ground freezes to any depth. In May he digs them, prepares his ground, and the first of June plants them in deep holes, covering them with a few inches of soil. As they grow, he gradually fills up the holes. Stakes which are to support the dahlia later on may be driven into position when the tuber is planted to avoid piercing the roots later.

"To be distinctive, the dahlia should be made an individual part of the garden," Saul says.

It is easy to see why people drive many miles to see the Saul dahlias in bloom.

Doctor and Wife Reunited by Song

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—A physician and his wife gave prayerful thanks for their reunion credited to a cafe juke box's playing of "Because."

Like a love song their story was a pensive one. Home after the absence of 19 months, Dr. William Aston, 34, amnesia victim told of regaining his memory upon hearing the song.

In March of 1947 he had left for the Mayo Clinic at Rochester Minn. Since his departure he had not been seen by friends nor could he account for what happened.

His wife, Patricia, 282, mother of two children, meanwhile returned to her old hospital job as nurse hopeful her husband would return some day.

Dr. Aston heard the juke box play "Because" in a Chicago restaurant one night this week. The song was played at their wedding in 1940 just before both entered the Army.

"All I know is that Bill is home and that everything is fine again," Mrs. Aston said. "I thank God for that."

CARNIVAL By DICK TURNER

Churchill Had His Own Security

HOBART, Tasmania — (AP) — Sir James Bissett, former captain of the liner Queen Mary, says Winston Churchill planned his own death during the war rather than risk falling into enemy hands. In a speech at Launceston, Bissett said he was responsible for the safety of Britain's wartime prime minister on three voyages on the Queen Mary.

Always, he said, a special life-boat crew was standing by to take Churchill should the liner be sunk. In addition, a man stood by with a loaded pistol with orders to shoot Churchill should his capture by the Germans seem imminent, Bissett said.

(In London, Churchill's secretary said Churchill had "no comment at all.")

SIAM CHARGES INVASION

BANGKOK, Siam — (AP) — Siam's provincial officials charged 100 French soldiers crossed the Siamese border from Indochina and killed a police constable and two Siamese civilians Oct. 18.

Driver Not Drunk—Only Shaving Self

PASADENA, Calif. — (AP) — Motorcycle Officer D. B. Gleason says the car was weaving down the highway. The driver had only one hand on the wheel and seemed to be rubbing his face with the other.

As Gleason pulled alongside the driver dropped a razor, plugged into the dashboard.

"Everything's okay. Just shaving," volunteered the driver. The officer rubbed his own chin understandingly and told the man to drive on. Didn't even bother to take his name.

Highway Patrol Set for Most Dangerous Driving Season

As the first step in a concerted offensive against the hazards of winter traffic, which invariably bring an increase in fatalities, each member of the Texas Highway Patrol has received a personal letter from Public Safety Director Homer Garrison urging redoubled efforts to keep this year's toll from exceeding that of last year.

The 1947 fatality toll was 1997. There has been a slowly rising increase this year, which, if not reversed, is expected to bear out the earlier prediction of 2180 deaths for 1948.

The text of Colonel Garrison's letter to the Patrolmen follows:

All this year we have been fighting a slightly upward trend in Texas traffic fatalities. Now we have arrived at the beginning of the crucial period that will determine whether we can hold 1948 fatalities down to last year's total of 1997 or whether another hundred or more lives will be lost.

Darkness, fog, rain, snow, ice, drowsiness, drinking—these are the hazards that confront us during the remainder of the year, three deadly months of bad weather and increasing accidents.

The Department of Public Safety is joining with the Texas Safety Association in an effort to bring home these dangers to drivers and pedestrians alike. Educational material will be disseminated through the cooperation of the press and radio. You can contribute materially to this educational effort by stressing, in your daily contacts and in the safety speeches you make to schools, clubs and other groups, the dangers that are peculiar to this time of year.

This educational effort will merge with your enforcement work and will necessitate some seasonal revision in the pattern of selective enforcement in your patrol area. You will want to stress the following factors:

Any careless or reckless driving at dusk or in the early hours of darkness is particularly hazardous. Speed too fast for conditions, as distinguished from ordinary speed limits, will play an important part in serious accidents the rest of the year. Please emphasize, now and always, that the highway speed limits are maximum speeds allowed under normally favorable conditions and that any impediment or hazard should be compensated for by a lessening of speed. This is especially true at night when driving is three times as dangerous on a mileage basis as daytime driving.

Texas motorists have shown good sportsmanship in complying with the law requiring headlights to be dimmed when meeting another car at night. Now, with darkness coming earlier and more driving being done at night, a more complete compliance with

Production of Chicks Lower Than Year Ago

AUSTIN — (AP) — Commercial hatching of chicks in Texas reached a figure of 1,800,000 last month 17 percent below September production the previous year, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported.

During this season, the bulk of the hatch is for broiler production, and demand for chicks was very strong, the reporting agency said.

The average price per 100 for straight run chicks on Oct. 1 was $18.85 for heavy breeds; $14.80 for light breeds; and $15 for cross-bred chicks.

Texas farm flocks laid 172 million eggs in September compared with 174 million in September a year earlier, but the rate of lay at 9.4 eggs per hen was more than last year's of 9.1.

State Polio Toll 121

ARE PRICES COMING DOWN?

—You people who are waiting for lower priced houses—autos—refrigerators—or what have you, may have to wait a long time—I don't think you will see that time come in the near future no matter what political power comes into office—We aren't going to have lower prices and keep this nation a going concern—Why—I'll give you just four reasons—1st. The circulation of 253 billions of dollars in bonds, with an annual interest rate of over 5 billions per year—2nd. The necessary expenditure of over 15 billions of dollars a year to build up our armed forces in order to keep an eye on Russia—3rd. An annual cost of over 7 billions of dollars a year to take care of our veterans of the last two wars—4th. The 40 billions of dollars that it takes to run our government a year.

—All these expenditures means a great deal of money in circulation, and with plenty of money in circulation, you know what that means—In 1932 and '33 our national income was around 43 billion dollars—the total national income last year was over 212 billions—this year it is running over 250 billions of dollars—and it will take 20% of that figure in taxes alone to run this government—At the present time the citizens of this United States have over 325 billions of dollars in buying power.

—Now it will take the nation's leaders several years to determine whether prices are too high, and to determine what the price schedule should be—it took six years after World War One, and it may take longer this time—the government can control prices in peace time by controlling the amount of money in circulation—but controlling the amount of money in circulation now will be difficult until the country is in a position to call in all the bonds and pay of the war debt—And if the above still hasn't convinced you, then how about labor—you know labor is now in a position to control production—and last but not least is our increase in population—you know we have about 12 million more mouths to feed than we had before the war.

NOW FOR SOMETHING SERIOUS ---

—If you are fixing to call me up over the telephone for anything just don't do it—I'm not even here—call Jim Arndt just—he's big and strong, and ought to be able to take care of the business for a few days—I stood it just as long as I could, but sometimes the best of work horses will play out—you know when I told you several days ago that the secretary and janitor had resigned and I was having to do it all—well on top of that Jim left the office and went deer hunting—then I was up and left for Hot Springs, Ark.—Ewert flew of to some foot-ball game, and of course I couldn't depend upon Kirk too much since he is still on his honeymoon—anyway it happened, and now I'm having to take the baths again—I feel better already, and I think with about 4 more of the mud kind, I'll be ready to start selling real estate again—I'm really indebted to this Mr. Roscoe Pirtle here in Pampa—he's a fine young man—if it hadn't been for Mr. Pirtle's kind generosity I might not have been able to write this ad—you see Mr. Pirtle agreed to drive me all the way down here to Hot Springs, New Mexico just in order for me to take these baths—and not only that, he went out to that lake that is located some-where around here, and brought me in one of the finest looking fish, that I've tasted in some time—with enough fish and baths behind me, I should be strong enough to be ready for anything by the time I get back.

—Here's something that just came in—I have a gentleman friend that will be in the 1st of November—he wants to rent a nice room in some good home here in Pampa—ants it in a good location. If you have something like this get in touch with Jim Arndt.
