

THREAT OF MARTIAL LAW FACES FRANCE

PARIS—(AP)—Total casualties of the violence-studded French coal strike approached 200 today as the crippling walkout of 335,000 miners went into its twentieth day.

There were no incidents reported today, however, as soup kitchens were rolled out in Eastern France, signifying the Communist-led strikers were pulling in their belts.

Yesterday's bitter fighting in which scores of police and soldiers were injured brought a threat of martial law. Some cabinet ministers were said to feel Premier Henri Queuille should not only declare a state of siege in the coal fields, but should send more troops there and call up reserves.

An announcement last night that a policeman had been killed at St. Etienne in South Central France was retracted by police today. They said he was "near death."

Five hundred strikers surrounded a police station in Valenciennes today while their delegates influenced workers still on the job to quit work. Police stood by and took no action.

The bitter fighting took place yesterday at Grandcombe in Southern France when 6,000 persons overwhelmed police and soldiers, about 50 of whom were seriously injured.

Police finally fled the town, abandoning a large quantity of material including a truck loaded with helmets and rifles.

At Bethune in Northern France 12 police were badly wounded in a clash with 5,000 strikers who surrounded the local jail and forced authorities to release seven arrested strikers.

Police suffered heavier casualties than strikers who attacked with clubs and iron bars. Government (See THREAT, Page 7)

Two of the men were given jail sentences of 30 days in addition to $50 fines plus costs and the mandatory six-month suspension of driver's licenses.

Jailed were: A. F. Neuberg and C. A. Stanley, both of Pampa, who were riding in the same car when it struck and sidwiped another car on the Borger Highway Wednesday morning. Damage to the car Stanley hit was estimated at $800 or more.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Ruf Jordan arrested both men at the scene of the wreck.

The third man, Paul Kerbon, was apprehended Wednesday by State Highway Patrolmen on U.S. Highway 60. He drew a fine of $100 plus costs from the court along with the usual six-month suspension of driver's license.

Candidates Plan Last-Round Drive

By The Associated Press

One frankly political speech to vote voters to the "progressive forces" of the New Deal, and one non-political talk in general terms on the subject of racial discrimination, marked appearances of the two chief presidential candidates last night.

President Truman said last night the Republicans plan to put the New Deal "program for going forward."

"The time has come," he said in a radio talk, "for the working people and all the progressive forces of this nation to realize the grave danger that confronts them."

"Only from the Democratic Party," Mr. Truman said, can the people expect social legislation as that in the New Deal's "great progressive body of laws."

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey elected today to close his campaign with four big-city speeches and an election eve broadcast. The Republican nominee plans to wind up his drive for the presidency with a nationally broadcast talk from Chicago, Cleveland, Boston, and New York.

Between them, in the final ten days of the campaign, he arranged some barnstorming talks in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island.

But missing was any appearance in West Virginia, where Senator Chapman Revercomb, Republican, is struggling for reelection in a highly critical Senate race.

The consensus of Dewey's strategists was that Dewey has the presidential race won, and should not extend himself in the last few days.

The President spoke from the White House on a nationwide broadcast sponsored by the International Ladies Garment Workers Union. He was introduced by Actress Tallulah Bankhead from New York.

Mr. Truman did not mention Dewey by name but referred to him as the "chief prosecutor" of the New Deal on which he said (See CANDIDATES, Page 7)

Caylor Home Hard Hit by Misfortunes

CANADIAN (Special)—A series of misfortunes to the John Caylor home was climaxed with a death in the early hours of today.

Mrs. Imogene Nolen Caylor, whose husband has been hospitalized with a broken leg since last June 4, was found dead in bed at 1 a. m. today. She died from natural causes.

She was found by Mrs. R. T. Roe, who had been staying with Mrs. Caylor since her husband was hurt, had looked in on Mrs. Caylor about 11 last night, and saw that she was reading. When she arose around 1 this morning, she saw a light still in the woman's room. When she went to her bed, Mrs. Roe found that she had died. She was about 45 years of age.

John Caylor broke a leg as he started to leave Pampa's O'Leary Park here after a game last June. He was treated at Worley Hospital, and then was later confined at Canadian Hospital. Mrs. Caylor, since that accident, had fallen and broken an arm.

Mrs. Caylor is the last of the O. L. Nolen family. Her brothers, Sid and Russell, were once in the hardware business here. Russell died in a grade-crossing accident at Pampa on Nov. 11, 1941. The other brother died a few years earlier.

The Caylor had no children. They were prominent in the Methodist Church here. Services will be from that church at 2:30 Sunday. Burial will be here.

Jews Order Cease-Fire

TEL AVIV, Israel—(AP)—Israeli ordered her troops to cease fighting in the Negev desert at 3 p. m. today (6 a. m. CST), the government announced.

(The Egyptian government announced in Cairo it has informed the U. N. mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, that it has ordered Egyptian troops to stop fighting in Palestine in accordance with the U. N. order.)

The announcement came almost simultaneously with the wail of air raid sirens in Tel Aviv, the capital's first daylight alert in three months. Antiaircraft fire was heard but no planes were visible.

The cease-fire order met the deadline set by the acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche.

Egyptian artillery pounded Israeli-held roads in Southern Palestine this morning apparently in a last-minute blow before the cease-fire was to take effect, the Jewish army said.

Gunfire snarled traffic and halted a convoy of civilian cars which had been scheduled to take a party of newsmen to Beerseba, capture of which was reported by the Israeli army yesterday.

The battle of the Negev desert is a week old.

The cease-fire order was handed the government of Israel at 11 a. m., 14 hours before the deadline. U. N. officials said Israel has asked a 12-hour margin after receipt of the message to allow time for issuance of orders to advance positions to stop shooting.

Canadian Home Damaged by Fire

CANADIAN (Special)—The C. E. (Red) Williams home was damaged by fire shortly after 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

Fire Chief Carl Zybach estimated the damage at $800 or more. The fire was thought to be the result of a faulty gas connection on a small fireplace heater. The main damage centered in a closet full of clothes near the point of origin.

No one was at home when the fire started. Mrs. Williams having gone to see her sister about a block down the street. No insurance was in force to cover the loss.

Union Pickets Still Patrol Hughes Projects in Borger

Pickets were still patrolling the vast E. G. Hughes construction projects in Borger today with no more success in forcing the Hughes Co. to bend to their demands than before.

The picketing started at three a. m. Monday morning. Six pickets strong in an attempt to make the company recognize the union and bargain with them.

Dick Hughes, head of the growing Hughes building empire in the Panhandle, told The Pampa News this morning that despite the picketing by the Borger Trades Union Council there has been "more efficiency and more men actually working this week than ever before."

Hughes added that the picketing came about after the unions wanted him to make his men join the union and turn the project over to the union. Hughes also said he had no objections to any of his men joining the union, but that he wasn't going to force any man working for him to join a union.

"No man on my payroll has to pay for the opportunity of working if he doesn't want to," he said.

Hughes also denied the assertion of B. E. Hunter, business agent (See UNION, Page 7)

Currency Issue Delays Settlement

PARIS—(AP)—The six "neutral" powers on the United Nations Security Council called on Russia today to lift the Berlin blockade at once.

Dogget Named To Juvenile Officer Post

Police Patrolman H. A. Doggett has laid aside his uniform and police commission effective as of yesterday.

Doggett is not quitting law work. He has been promoted to county juvenile officer to take over the post vacated by the death of the late Paul D. Hill. County Judge Sherman White made the appointment and chose Doggett from a list of approximately ten applicants for the job.

"I decided on Doggett," Judge White said, "in view of his years of experience in working with children, together with the children's admiration for him."

However, Doggett will still retain several duties with the police Department. He will continue to collect meter money, repair the meters, and stand in plain clothes at his old corner at Sam Houston School, collecting the kiddies across the street corner from and going to school.

So, Patrolman H. A. Doggett is now actually the kid's cop in plain clothes and dealing with the kind of people he likes best—children.

International Relations of U.S. Viewed

Speaking to members of the Lions Club at the luncheon on yesterday, he pointed to only one course of action.

Congressman Eugene Worley said the present international relations of the U. S. are the future's determining factor.

He reviewed certain facts about Russia that partially have been responsible for the present action of the U. S. and also the future course of action.

The minimum estimate of Russian military trained men is three million, he said. The United States has approximately one-and-one-half million men.

Russian activities include developing long range bombers and jet fighting planes, he continued.

Before the end of World War II the Russians captured many of the German scientists in their attempt to uncover all of the latest war equipment.

Russia's reason for attempting to rid Berlin of U. S. forces is so she can move in and get the many resources she lacks, the spokesman said.

Worley then explained the power of the atomic bombs and gave illustrations to show what an A-bomb is capable of doing.

Thirty-five members of the Harvesters football team were introduced by Coach Tom Tipps.

In all, there were 49 visitors at yesterday's Lions Club meeting.

The Squaky Door Football Club, presented three selections—"Old Songs Medley," "You Call Everybody Darlin'," and "Bowery Boys." The quartet reminded the audience of the Barber Shop Quartet.

The quartet performed "Honky-Tonk," which will be presented at two performances here Saturday and Sunday.

Lion President H. P. Doster announced that Charlie Tut will serve as chairman for the Lions part in the tenth annual Pampa Girl Scout fund drive, Oct. 25 to Nov. 6. He appointed a committee from the Lions Club to work with that.

Phillips Stays By Increase

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP)—K. S. Adams, president of the Phillips Petroleum Co., reiterated that his firm has "no intention of backtracking" from a recent hike in crude oil prices.

The increase of 35 cents a barrel was posted by the company Sept. 28 in all areas where Phillips produces crude.

In a statement at Houston, Texas, last week, Adams said his company would stand by the hike.

"Nothing has happened since then to change the picture," he said in an interview today.

(The Tulsa Daily World reported Wednesday the company was "expected" to return to the crude oil prices it paid prior to Sept. 28.)

"The statement I made last week still stands," Adams continued.

In that statement he declared the oil pooling is a fundamentally sound as it was the day it was announced.

"Increased costs in finding, drilling and producing additional crude oil reserves are the basic reasons for Phillips' action in posting the oil price."

"An increased price at this time will help this country to develop its own domestic reserves for military and civilian use rather than to become dependent upon imported oil."

Payment of Law Officers by Fee System Before Voters

By HENRY GORDON
Pampa News Staff

Coming to the sixth amendment, the voter will face the age-old and highly discussed fee system practiced now by many counties in the state at the expense of visitors, travelers and new residents. It provides for the payment of all law enforcement officials on a salary basis in lieu of forcing them to make arrests and levy fines in order to make a living. (Gray County does not operate on a fee system, but voters would cast ballot to see if the practice should be state-wide.)

On the ballot, the proposed Constitutional amendment will read:

"For or against the Constitutional amendment of Section 61, Article 16 of the Texas Constitution providing that all sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, deputy constables, and other law enforcement officers now being compensated on a salary basis.

The amendment is elaborated on further in the statutes stating that all counties with a population of 20,000 or over shall pay their employees and officers on a salary basis, but in counties where there are fewer than 20,000 persons, according to the last preceding federal census, the county commissioners courts shall be authorized to say whether their county and precinct officers shall be paid on a salary or fee basis except that sheriffs, constables and other law enforcement officers, county or precinct, must be paid on a salary basis.

This amendment is aimed primarily at destroying what has become a public nuisance by law enforcement officers striving to increase their personal revenues by arrests and fines. Its passage will be a boon to visitors and new residents who, too many times, are arrested for the most trivial violation of a traffic regulation and fined by a local judge. (See PAYMENT, Page 7)

Barbershoppers to Invade Pampa for Weekend Jamboree

Pampa will ring with Barbershop Harmony over the weekend as registration gets underway at noon tomorrow at the Schneider Hotel when the ten Barbershop Quartets begin arriving in Pampa. Max Presnell, secretary of the second annual parade of quartets, said this morning.

The Barbershopper's Jamboree will hold its first performance at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the Junior High School Auditorium and its second program at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Tickets are now on sale at Harvester Drug, Berry's Pharmacy and Court House Cafe. Good seats are still available. If tickets are not all sold at the downtown locations, they will be put on sale at the door at the time of the show.

The Flying I Ranch Quartet, Tulsa, The Boreasome Foursome, Oklahoma City and the Keynotes, Newton, Kans., will arrive by plane tomorrow morning while other groups will come by automobile.

Presnell said the Boreasome Foursome will appear at the regular Sunday morning church service of the First Baptist Church and the men's class at the City Hall. The Flying I Ranch Quartet has made arrangements to sing at the First Methodist Church Sunday. The First Christian Church and the Church of the Brethren will also have quartets appearing at their regular Sunday morning services.

Any other church congregation desiring quartets should contact Presnell not later than tomorrow morning.

Loebbeck, the sponsoring chapter of the local group, plans to send a large delegation. Pampa is the mother chapter for the Amarillo, Borger and Canadian quartets.

The Top of Texas Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, host for the second annual parade of quartets, has arranged a program of America's best loved tunes. Each quartet will sing three selections.

Added attractions to the show will include group singing, which will be led by E. O. Wedgeworth during the eight-minute intermission at each performance.

"Those people were lucky," Fire Chief Ernest Winborne said this morning. He added: "This is just one of those things we have been warning people about for years. Gasoline fumes in a closed place without proper ventilation are more dangerous than dynamite."

Work Resumes On Hospital

There was an optimistic note from construction company officials with the resumption of work today on the Highland General Hospital.

C. J. Clark, construction superintendent for the contractor, Harmon Construction Co., of Oklahoma City, told The News yesterday afternoon that workers were being rounded up for resumption of work today, with enough cement on hand for concrete pouring at least today and tomorrow.

He said workers normally don't work on Saturday, but that, since the project had been delayed in the past entirely up until today, he thought they would work tomorrow.

Work for around 90 men had been halted 10 days ago due to lack of cement. The project, for all practical purposes, had been halted entirely up until today.

Clark expressed the hope that there would be more good news regarding cement supplies by next week.

Gas Price Increased

A new weighted average price for pipe line gas in the Panhandle field was arrived at during a hearing held by Chairman Ernest O. Thompson of the Railroad Commission at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo yesterday.

The new price is 4.326 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, an increase over the former price of 4.26 cents.

The price change was made necessary by a law passed by the last state Legislature permitting carbon black companies to manufacture black from sweet gas, provided they pay the average price paid by pipe line companies for gas for light and heating purposes.

C. C. Kuhne of the Texoma Natural Gas Company prepared and submitted a tabulation of the amounts of gas taken by the various pipe line companies and the price paid at the well head. The price considered for the weighted average were the royalty prices and the purchase prices of the companies.

The total gas represented by the computation for the first six months of 1948 was nearly 150 million cubic feet.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

"Probation After Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 24.

The Golden Text is: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold all things are become new" (II Corinthians 5:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And he is not conformed to this world; but he is transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may approve what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:2).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "But he, who is begotten of the behest of the flesh and worldly sense, can never reach in this world the divine heights of our Lord" (page 325).

Palestine History Worthy of Study

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D. However, I cannot go into this matter, because my work does not permit controversy.

The history of the Jews, or of Israel—in whatever way one speaks of it—is important and continues to be worthy of the deepest study, because of the moral and spiritual factors that are dominant.

These are manifest in individual lives, and in the records concerning them. They are enshrined in literature that is the result of keen discernment and courageous, honest judgment. And the effects of the right or wrong ways of life and conduct are so marked in the history of one people under constant moral and social scrutiny that the records constitute the most outstanding evidence anywhere available concerning the welfare and downfall of men and nations.

These factors, I think, stand out prominently from the time of Abraham to the present time, despite the historical and spiritual disruptions. Various correspondents have questioned my failure in these articles to make a distinction between "Jew" and "Israel" unity.

United Pentecostal Has New Pastor

The United Pentecostal Church is welcoming a new pastor, the Rev. Homer W. Fletcher, who was evangelist for the northwestern district of the United Pentecostal Church. He will begin his sermons Sunday.

Sunday School at the church begins at 9:45 a. m., morning worship is held at 11 a. m. Evangelistic services are held at 7:30 p. m. and a prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. is held each Wednesday.

Second, the evidence of what happens when the worship of false gods, and wrong ideals, displaces zeal for truth and righteousness.

Third, the evidence of what happens when differences and sectional rivalries develop into divisive strife and disruption.

What happened to the strong, consolidated kingdom of Solomon could happen to the strongest modern state if division and disunity developed as quickly and powerfully as they did in that ancient day.

* WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

She is a young mother pretty much tied down by housework and children. She's intelligent, well-educated, but lonely for mental stimulation. She isn't the club-woman type, but she does miss the kind of companionship she had during her college and job-holding years. How to get it? In one city a small group of young women who fit that description has solved the problem. And what they are doing young women in other towns and cities could do.

Twice a month they get together. There's no formality to their meeting; they don't elect officers, listen to dull reports, or go in for any fancy entertaining. They get together for lunch as a group of congenial businessmen might do. ONE BIG RULE. They have only one rule—and that's what makes their companionship stimulating. They don't talk "woman talk." Houses, babies, clothes, gossip are out. By making a little special effort these young women are helping themselves and each other to get the kind of stimulating companionship they felt that, as housewives, they miss.

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN

Try to make a deposit in your popularity bank every day. You'll be sure to be the belle of the school year.

You don't become popular by wearing the most expensive clothes or by being the prettiest girl in the class or by dating the handsomest man. Popular girls always lead selfless lives. In lending a helping hand to less successful classmates, they build up a great store of friends and their stock goes up on the popularity chart.

What do they get out of it? Most of them find that the inner satisfaction of helping someone and winning friends is by far their biggest reward. Further, they find their own problems seem to melt away. Here are ways you can become popular by the time-BLANK page.

BE KIND. Never hold up a girl to ridicule because she has a small wardrobe and smaller bank account or because her parents do not measure up to yours. She deserves the same respect as the wealthiest and most well-to-do girl in school.

BE CHARITABLE. Don't engage in gossip about any of your school chums. Try to look beyond the flaws to the good. And don't try to use the "analytical" excuse. This is when Mary says of her best chum Betty, "I'm so crazy about Betty but I wish she wouldn't be such a drip on a party." If Mary is crazy about Betty, she doesn't point up her flaws to anyone else.

BE REASONABLE. Don't always be ready with the harsh word. If someone gives you constructive criticism, accept it in the right spirit.

BE SWIFT. You will always get more with sugar than with vinegar. If someone is jealous of you and sorry for you, you are doing them wrong. You always can win out by keeping their attitude and being generous. This will serve to embarrass them into shelving their ugly campaign or it will at least keep others off their back.

BE HELPFUL. The Lord didn't give everybody a beautiful brain. Share yours with somebody else. You may save a dumb girl many unhappy moments by pointing out school problems which she cannot grasp in the classroom. If you are smarter than she, how can she ever be serious competition to you, anyway?

BE LOYAL. If a chum makes a mistake, she's by her side. Don't let her down because the school pack has turned up its noses. That is the time when she needs your friendship more than ever.

BE GENEROUS. Penny-pinching budget-minded people always lose and get the port. You don't have to give away your last sou. But by sharing with others less fortunate than yourself you are buying happiness, something your newly school friends can never purchase with their stuffed piggy-bank.

BE COURAGEOUS. When you are right stick by your guns. Don't back down when the going looks tough. And always be willing to admit it when you are wrong.

BE WISE. Pick the right companions as bosom pals. But don't make enemies, even of those who don't measure up to your expectations.

BE STUDIOUS. You are at school to study so don't use up your family's hard-earned cash by flitting your time away. You'll lose the respect of your more serious-minded friends if you do.

BE A GOOD SPORT. Learn to play games in the right spirit. To be a good competitor you should always want to win, but don't be a sore loser.

EMBELISHED IVORY. Pure ivory was considered so unattractive by ancient and medieval persons that they colored and gilded it, and frequently encrusted it with jewels.

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Silk is getting hard to get in Shanghai. A customer appeared at a store with the silk ration coupon of another man. The clerk refused to sell him any.

Engineers Talk--Beavers Do Job GLEN FALLS, N. Y.—About the same time the New York Power and Light Corp. began engineering a dam at Stewart's Bridge in the Southeastern Adirondack Mountains, a group of beavers went to work with a dam of their own in the Sacandaga River near here.

The industrious animals have now finished a 250-foot dam across the river while the engineers for the corporation are still talking about the proposed man-made structure.

AAUW Members Have Supper, Jury Discussion

The Pampa Chapter of American Association of University Women met Tuesday evening in the City Club Room for a covered dish supper.

The tables were decorated with brightly painted aluminum scarecrows wearing high top hats. A larger scarecrow stood amid a row of pumpkins on the serving table.

After the supper Miss Inez Webb presided at a short business meeting. Miss Josephine Thomas had charge of the program for the evening. The subject was "Jury Service for Women." Miss Jamie Eaton was announcer for the mock radio interview between Mrs. Dudley Hagle and Miss Frances Huff. The pros and cons of women as jurors were discussed.

It was brought out that 35 states now permit women to serve on juries and reports show that these states favor the practice.

Experienced judges believe that Texas women should be allowed to serve on juries, the interview disclosed. A bill will be introduced at the next Legislature to amend the Texas Constitution to permit women to serve as jurors in this state, they said.

Hostesses for the evening were Madeline R. H. Sanford, M. K. Griffith, Raymond Salmon, Misses Ruby Trusty, Ida Belle Bryant, Hela Eaton, and Nova Mayo.

Price-Rich Vows Spoken

Miss Bette June Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Price, Skellytown, recently became the bride of William M. Rich, son of Mrs. T. R. Remfo of Glasgow, Ky., in an evening ceremony, with Judge Sherman officiating at the single-ring service.

The bride wore a pastel blue two-piece dress with black accessories. She was a graduate of White Deer High School in 1948 and is employed at the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Pampa.

Mr. Rich attended school in Glasgow, Ky., and served in the Army. He is now employed with the Northern Natural Gas Co., Skellytown.

They are making their home in Pampa.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Darnell, Skellytown, and Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Lewis, 414 N. Starkweather, Pampa.

Top o' Texas Med Auxiliary Holds Perryton Meeting

The Medical Auxiliary of the Top o' Texas Medical Society met in Perryton, Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. G. L. Kengle. Mrs. D. B. Pearson, Jr., assisted her as co-hostess. They were also assisted by the Medaimes Sanford.

After dinner at the Masonic Temple, Mrs. H. L. Wilder, vice president took charge of the business session. A report disclosed that five patients visited the Immunization Clinic in the Health Department of the Pampa City Hall on opening day.

Mrs. Manse Wood, Perryton, reviewed Loula Grace Erdman's "Lovely Passage" in an original manner.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. L. M. Hamra, Dan E. Hampton, Borge; E. H. Snyder, Canadian; M. C. Overton, Jr., E. S. Williams, H. L. Wilder, O. Huff, and Helen Huff, Pampa; and Mrs. Wood, Perryton.

HORSERADISH SAUCE

To make horseradish sauce for cold boiled salmon, grate 3 or 4 tablespoons of horseradish; gradually add it to a half cup of thick cream that has been whipped with a half teaspoon of salt and a teaspoon of sugar.

SNAP BEANS

Young snap beans are delicious when cooked in fat in a heavy large skillet. Use 2 tablespoons of drippings for 4 cups of cut snap beans, add a teaspoon of salt and cook covered, but stir the beans frequently, until they are tender. This will take from 20 to 25 minutes. Very young beans, fresh from the garden, are perfect for this method of cooking.

Fish fillets of fish do not need to be turned during broiling. They may be topped with a cheese-and-parsley flavored cream sauce just before serving.

PAYMENT

a salary basis and providing that the usual court costs or arresting officer's fee be placed in the proper county fund toward payment of these salaries. It is expected to reduce the temptation of making uncalculated arrests in order to make a fee. It is designed also to insure that the cost of government in or out of justice of the peace to increase his income.

By placing these officers on the law enforcement branch will actually be borne by the law violator. It means, in full, that no matter how few or how many arrests are made, the arresting officer's salary, or the judicial officer's salary will be the same month after month. This amendment will directly affect many counties in West Texas where peace officers are compensated on a fee basis alone and will indirectly affect those persons who inadvertently run afoul of some trivial local regulation.

Next to the last amendment on the ballot—and in seventh place—is the companion tax amendment to the one heretofore discussed. It reads:

"For, or against, the Constitutional amendment of Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas to provide that no ad valorem tax shall be levied for state general revenue purposes after Jan. 1, 1951, and authorizing the several counties to levy additional ad valorem taxes, providing for a $3,000 residential homestead exemption and providing for tax levies in counties having tax donations.

This amendment of the statute books reads:

"From and after January 1, 1951, no state ad valorem tax shall be levied upon any property within this state for general revenue purposes. From and after January 1, 1951, the several counties of the state are authorized to levy ad valorem taxes upon all property within their respective boundaries for county purposes except the first three thousand dollars ($3,000) value of residential homesteads, not to exceed thirty (30 cents) on each one hundred dollar ($100) valuation in addition to all other ad valorem taxes authorized by the Constitution of this state, provided the revenue derived there from shall be used for construction maintenance of farm-to-market road or for flood control, except as herein otherwise provided."

This will mean the abolition of a state ad valorem tax of 30 cents for the general revenue fund and will authorize the various county commissioners courts to levy the additional tax when needed for county road building and repairs. West Texas in general will benefit by this act when the local government is given the authority to collect that additional revenue for local improvements instead of having the property tax money leave the immediate area for the benefit of other parts of the state. The sparsely settled counties will have a larger amount of ready money for county road improvement and maintenance than they now have because of the limited tax resources they have to spend on. This, then, is where the $3,000 homestead exemption shall apply. If the county levies this additional 30-cent tax, then the first $3,000 taxable value of a homestead is exempt, but it can be collected on the taxable valuation over and above that amount on homesteads. In other words, a man owning a home valued at $3,000 or less has no obligation to meet on the additional tax levy. A man owning a homestead valued at $4,500 would be taxed on only $1,500 of his property.

The long list comes to an end with the proposed amendment calling for a retirement system for judges and commissioners of the appellate and district courts. It reads on the ballot:

"For, or against, the amendment to the Constitution of the state of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for the retirement and compensation of judges and commissioners of the appellate courts and judges of district and criminal district courts."

forces retaliated with tear gas. Most of the clashes occurred when strikers attacked police and troops guarding the pits to keep safety devices operating.

Communist labor leaders ordered maintenance workers to quit the pits Monday. As a result at least ten mines already are flooded.

The Socialist Party leadership issued a statement last night condemning the Communist action and calling on all workers to resist the present strike. They declared the Communists "would destroy France if they were permitted to come back to power to serve Russia."

The striking National Confederation of Labor (COT) is demanding that the government withdraw a decree to fire ten percent of the surface workers as an economy measure. It also wants the minimum wage lifted to $4,000 francs ($50) a month.

CANDIDATES

The Republicans plan to do a "real hatchet job" if they win next month's elections.

The Republicans started their attack, the President said, by converting the Wagner Labor Act into a "constraint on business" by busting by anti-labor employers. They did this, he added, by passing the Taft-Hartley law over his veto.

In New York last night, the Republican nominee told a gathering of notables at a Smith Memorial Foundation dinner that this country must solve "in American terms" its problems of social injustice.

With political talks taboo, Dewey spoke in general terms about an issue that has split the Democratic Party wide open because of a Southern revolt against President Truman's civil rights program.

"From my experience in this state with the largest minority groups of the nation, I have found it possible to find peaceful, honest solutions to problems which faster when they are ignored or exploded if they are mishandled," the New York Governor said.

"By a simple rediscovery of our devotion to human rights and the protection of others from the abuse of those rights, we can draw a line through every conflict and draw it straight and true."

Even so, the construction work is going ahead, and no violence has been reported.

of this state on account of length of service, age or disability and for their reassignment to active duty where and when needed."

On the law books the statute reads virtually the same and is in keeping with prior amendments which have authorized retirement systems for state employees and is comparable to the retirement provisions being made available to other public officials. It is aimed at recognizing long years of services on the bench by judges of the district and appellate courts who have been practically forced to set salary from year to year and in many cases have been unable to participate in any side ventures to build up a financial reserve. The amendment also authorizes the Legislature to enact the proper laws to recall these judges and appellate court commissioners where they may be needed. It will also make it justly possible to retire a judge who becomes disabled during his period of service.

Red Efforts Boomerang

WASHINGTON—(P)—Russia's reported all-out effort to smother "Voice of America" radio broadcasts may be boomeranging.

American listening posts have picked up a total of 18 Soviet stations, mostly centered around Moscow and Vladivostok, which State Department officials say are used to "jam" the "Voice" programs.

The officials add, however, that they have reason to believe the jamming never succeeds entirely and that the reaction of Russian listeners therefore is one of intensified interest; they want to find out what information it is their government seeks to deny them.

The United States is making a special effort in its broadcast to Russia to tell Russian people all the news their government may not be giving to them.

There is evidence that this news is getting through, officials say, citing the Kasenkina case as an example.

When Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina jumped out of the window of the Soviet consulate in New York several weeks ago, the "Voice" picked up news reports of the incident and began broadcasting them to the Soviet Union within a matter of minutes.

Observers in Moscow reported later that within three hours, news of what the refugee Russian schoolteacher had done was widely known over the Soviet capital.

CURRENCY

ing instructions from the Kremlin.

Vishinsky was reported to be opposed to the section of the resolution providing for raising of the Berlin blockade before the issue of Berlin's currency is settled.

Russia heretofore has insisted the two actions must be simultaneous.

Bramuglia, however, was believed to feel this was a minor consideration which could be overcome by the apparent desire of both sides for a settlement.

The resolution was reported to call on the four occupying powers to establish a financial control commission on a local level in Berlin. This group would arrange for four-power supervision of Berlin's currency within 15 days after the blockade was lifted. The Russian Zone mark would be Berlin's sole currency under the plan.

Ten days after such a settlement the four-power Foreign Ministers Council would begin a discussion of all outstanding German problems.

Vishinsky was reported to have asked Bramuglia how Russia could be sure agreement could be reached on the currency question once she had ended her restriction on transport.

The fact that the Soviet delegate was discussing the details of the projected settlement rather than challenging the whole principle was taken as an encouraging sign in U. N. circles.

Mystery Game Bird Increasing

The status of the woodcock, one of the East Coast's highly prized game birds, at the start of the 1948 breeding season was the most favorable in recent years, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service has announced.

In Maine, a check of nesting areas showed the number of occupied breeding grounds to be 20 percent higher than in 1947, with more woodcocks observed than at any time in 12 years. The increase also was heavy in Vermont and New Hampshire, while Pennsylvania and New Jersey indicated a general upswing.

If such favorable reports continue, the service says, it may recommend a relaxation in hunting regulations on the popular bird for the 1948-49 season.

The woodcock of "Timber-doodle" nests from Southern Canada southward and concentrates in winter along the Gulf Coast. It has long been known as a mystery game bird because it has defied efforts of scientists to learn details of its life history.

Pampans Ready to Avenge 20-19 Defeat Taken Last Year

Tonight is "B" night! The night that approximately 1,000 Pampa High School students have been waiting for since Oct. 24, 1947. For tonight, the Plainview Bulldogs come to Pampa to open their 1948 bid for district supremacy against the Harvesters, whom they defeated 20-19, last year.

Crucial Stage Set Tonight in HS Football

The Bulldogs' high backfield, in which no one weighs over 250 pounds, may well be expected to try to pass its way to victory tonight, much in the same manner as it did last year. And ram-rodding the air route for the Bulldogs will be one of the chap who caused so much Harvester misery in 1947.

Jackie Howton, brother of Bill Howton, has proved an accurate passer this season, using as his receivers Wingen Donnie Roberts and Bobbie Kay.

Any type formation can be expected tonight, as the Plainview mentor, W. C. O. Harris, is noted throughout Texas athletic circles for his tricks. His short kick pulled against the locals last season, was the straw that broke the Harvesters' backs.

Marlin Miller and Bill Blair, two tight but fast men, have thus far been the Bulldogs' leading ground gainers, with Blair operating from the quarterback post and also causing trouble with his deceptive handoffs.

For the Harvesters, Coach Tom Tipps has initiated several changes, due to the sudden display of power and "high spiritness" of the second stringers.

Pete Cooper, 135 pound scabbard, has earned himself a starting berth, but will probably alternate with Co-Captain Jack Williams. Quarterback Lamar Lively will probably take turns with his Junior understudy, Carroll Smith. Both boys have accurate passing eyes and fit into Coach Tipps' and Noncasters' version of the "T" formation very well.

Jimmy Hayes, Carl Kennedy, or Harold Cox are the trio of athletes vying for the starting full-back post for offensive duty, while Leon Taylor's name will be added to that list on defense. Cox, high-stepping 160-pounder, was injured at the first of the season and has seen very little action since that time. Hayes, another 160-pounder, has filled the vacancy very well with capable assistance from Kennedy.

Wesley Keith, who is tied with Co-Captain Williams for the team scoring lead, continues to lead the candidates for his halfback post, although Dale Richardson may see lots of action at that position.

On the line, Bill Bond is still having trouble with his injured knee, so Gail Smith will again start at the left end slot, which he has ably filled since Bond's untimely injury. Co-Captain Derral Davis will hold down the other terminal assignment.

LeRoy Troop and Ralph Hutsell will start at the tackle posts, and Bo Jack Phillips will probably alternate with Troop. Phillip Payne, rugged 185-pounder, and Jimmy Hill, tipping the scales at 170, will occupy the two guard berths. Both have proved top notch defensive men all season. Bill "Bull" Runyon will again start at center, a position he has occupied all season.

The Harvesters' outwrestling the victors in almost every position and seem to have them out-classed in experience. But a sense of "cockiness" could prove very costly and tonight's game has assumed the earmarks of a real thriller.

Sports Round-Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Louis had come and gone and a lot of the boys on the boxing beat were setting around Harry Markson's office discussing the heavyweight champ's announcement that he'd fight again next June. Markson, now managing director of the 20th Century Sporting Club, still speaks with the frankness he employed as publicity man, so it wasn't surprising to hear him remark: "Louis would be silly if he didn't fight. He won't get hurt and he can make a lot of money—and no doubt Joe needs it." By way of further explanation, Harry added: "The fighters that are around now—like the fellows he's considering, Baksi, Charles and Lee Omas—wouldn't hurt him much even if one of them knocked him out. It would be different if there was a rising young Dempsey around. Then there might be a good rea-

Roughies Fenton, Parker Team Up Against Trout, Mobley

Dick Trout of Hollywood, Calif., will be making his second appearance in the local arena when he teams up with Borger's Rex Mobley in an Australian tag team match Saturday night at the Sportatorium.

Both Mobley and Trout have lost matches to their tag match opponents, Sailor Parker and Rod Fenton.

Mobley, who started wrestling around Borger quite a few years ago in the early boom days, lost to Parker here three weeks ago. And Trout made his debut last week by losing to Canada's own Fenton.

Trout showed every bit as much speed as the softer-looking Fenton, although he was not quite as rough, and he should be able to give the Canuck a battle tomorrow night.

In two warmup bouts before the match, Parker will meet Trout and Fenton will wrestle Mobley. Billy McEwin, who wrestled here early this year, will referee.

According to the rules of the team match, only one man from each team is supposed to be in the ring at the same time. The other two team members are supposed to hold to a rope stretched across one corner of the ring.

Teammates can change places if the one in the ring can manage to tag his buddy in the corner.

Those are the rules, but it usually happens that, as the wrestlers step in the ring, the rules are thrown out, and everybody has a merry time committing mayhem.

Claassen Says Michigan Tilt Will Be Close

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—Michigan was chosen the nation's No. 1 college football team this week. Coach Bennie Osterbaan followed that by announcing he would have his regulars playing as a unit for a possible trip to the Rose Bowl.

With that much at stake it will not be a walkaway for anybody, but it looks like Michigan.

Other predictions:

Notre Dame at Iowa: The Iowa probably will keep the score down but their attack isn't strong enough to outscore the Irish. Notre Dame.

Louisiana State at North Carolina: This is the day that Bernie Moore will be happy that he resigned as coach of the Louisiana Tigers. North Carolina.

Texas A & M at Baylor: who would have guessed in September that Baylor still would be unbeaten on Oct. 22? Baylor.

Syracuse at Northwestern: Here's where the Northwestern reserves get the chance to earn their letters. Northwestern.

Michigan State at Penn State: The Midwest eleven almost beat Michigan, bowed to Notre Dame after a fierce struggle. Penn State yielded two touchdowns to weak Syracuse. Michigan State.

Skimming over the rest in a hurry:

South: Georgia Tech over Florida, Maryland over George Washington, Mississippi over Boston College, Tennessee over Tennessee Tech, Virginia over Virginia Military.

Midwest: Kansas over Nebraska, Kentucky over Marquette, Cincinnati over Butler, Indiana over Pittsburgh, Missouri over Iowa State, Nevada over Tulsa, Oklahoma A & M over Temple, Purdue over Illinois.

Southwest: Southern Methodist over Santa Clara, Texas over Rice, Texas Christian over Oklahoma, Texas Mines over New Mexico, Texas Tech over Arizona, Oklahoma City over Mississippi Southern.

Guerillas Lose to Bullpups 6 to 0

The Plainview Bullpups turned a second quarter Guerilla fumble into a touchdown that enabled them to down the Pampa Guerillas, 6-0 last night in Plainview.

Both team seemed evenly matched as the Guerillas threatened twice, but never managed to shove across a score. The Bullpups fumbled three times, the Guerillas four, as the damp weather hindered both clubs.

Biggest Pampa threat occurred when End Gerald Matthews took a pass from Quarterback Dickie Cook in the third period. Cook heaved from his own 35, Matthews took it on the Bullpup 40 and drove all the way to the 15.

But there the Guerillo drive bogged down and the hosts took over on downs.

Reapers Down Buffs, 27-0, To Take Over District Lead

A superior team of Pampa Junior High School Reapers overpowered the Horace Mann Bulldogs of Amarillo yesterday afternoon in Harvester Park, 27-0, and by so doing, took the district lead away from the Buffaloes by one-half game.

De Wey Cudney, bruising Reaper quarterback, stole the show, scoring two touchdowns on brilliant runs and masterminding the potent Reaper ground attack.

In taking the victory, the Reapers remained in the ranks of the undefeated, although being tied twice. Their scoring punch has been visibly improved within the last two weeks as they whipped Borger, 24-19, last week. They were held to 0-0 ties in the first two outings of the season, once by the same Buffalo aggregation that they romped over yesterday.

Cudney and Fullback Charles Ely alternated in bucking the Amarillo lines, and with a hard-charging Reaper forward wall in front of them, went for several long gains.

Ely scored the first tally on a 20-yard jaunt in the initial quarter. Their attempted pass-conversion was no good.

Another score by Ely and a five-yard plunge by Cudney gave the Reapers a 19-0 lead in the third quarter as Derral Wilson added the extra point.

In the fourth quarter, Cudney, on a quarterback sneak, completely

Johnsons Take Charge of Court

AUSTIN (AP)—The Johnsons had a day of it in county court here.

When the jury panel was baffled the Buffaloes, swept around end, reversed his field and spun 40 yards to score. Bill Davis converted as all scoring ended.

When a six-man jury was finally chosen, the Johnsons were still in the saddle. It included D. W. Johnson, David Johnson and Chester Johnson.

For nearly an hour, these three youngsters, inmates of the psychiatric division of New York's Bellevue Hospital, crouched on this ledge, eight floors above the street. During a post-lunch play period, when children were allowed on the eighth floor playground, this trio climbed over the 10-foot wire fence to frolic along the parapet. They were lured to safety by a promise of lollypops.

Sense of Responsibility Found To Be Evident at 'Grass Roots'

Following a tour of the United States, Dr. Paul L. Essert, professor of adult education at Teachers College, Columbia University, has reported signs of "a new and democratic adult education emerging at the grass roots level."

Essert discussed his findings recently in a university lecture on the subject, "My Community, 'This of This'."

Essert said he recently had returned from a tour of 20 cities in 30 states during which he interviewed 400 leaders in educational, industrial, and civic life.

Conceding that he found considerable "ifs and buts" of the future among the adult population, the speaker said he felt sure that democracy still is at work among the "little people" and, however inconspicuously, is preserving American principles.

THINK FOR THEMSELVES

"Notwithstanding the prophets of gloom, I believe that the American people can think for themselves and that under competent leadership they can be entrusted with the problems that must be solved," he said. "I am convinced that a new and democratic adult education is emerging at the grass roots level. It isn't always obvious, but it is there. And I believe it can be applied to greater national and international problems."

Contrasting what he found with the "Communist line," Essert contended that "Communists know their pattern—every Communist knows just what the next step is." On the other hand, the American way is to arrive at decision through co-operative planning.

COMMUNITY BASIS STRESSED

"I think the people all over America can be taught to think," he continued. "Whether or not they follow the Communist line will depend upon how well you educate 'ifs and buts' of the future and I have inculcated in them the practice of thinking together and participating in the community."

Colleges, schools, libraries and civic groups are the "laboratories of democracy," accord to Essert, and there the people will solve the nation's critical problems.

"Your Constitution was born in a community. My freedom and responsibility, your freedom and responsibility were born in a small neighborhood," he added.

Analysis shows that there is no great difference in the nutcrack content of light-shelled or dark-shelled, but it is there. And I
