Texas Supreme Court Holds Cigaret Tax Constitutional

LIQUOR VOTE VALID, RULES JUDGE EWING

McLEAN AND ALAN REED PRECINCTS WILL REMAIN DRY

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—The Supreme Court today held the state's cigarette tax act constitutional and valid in a decision in the case brought by Glenn W. Musser, operating as the Texas Tobacco Company. In a special sitting the court announced it reversed judgments of the state appeals courts insofar as they attempted by injunction to protect purchasers in use and consumption of the cigarettes sold by Musser. The injunction was dissolved. The court of civil appeals decision was affirmed in other respects.

Issues in the case involved determination of whether cigarettes shipped into Texas from another state were subject to the state tax which was levied upon use and consumption. Musser contended that feature of the tax was invalid.

Musser, P. W. Worth dealer, distributed cigarettes from his warehouse in Ardmore, Okla., to salesmen in Texas cities and alleged he was doing an interstate business not subject to the state tax. "Plaintiff admitted he had adopted this method of doing business in Texas solely for the purpose of claiming the protection of interstate commerce laws, and to evade payment of the taxes under the cigarette law," the opinion by Judge S. H. German said.

"In our opinion, the trial court and the court of civil appeals in granting and affirming the injunction protecting such purchasers in the use and consumption of the goods, and in their possession for such purposes, as against the state comptroller, and those acting under him and by his orders and directions, unquestionably erred."

The court affirmed its statement in the ex parte Kimberlin case that "when the cigarettes were finally delivered by the salesman to the respective purchasers and the purchase money was paid to the salesman, they ceased to be in interstate commerce and became a proper subject for taxation under the provisions of the cigarette law."

It held that "plaintiff is in no position to raise the question of the validity of the provisions of the law which impose a tax upon the purchaser, regardless of whether the tax is imposed upon the use or the sale of the cigarettes by him."

Validity of the McLean-Alanreed local option election has been sustained in a ruling by Judge W. R. Ewing of 31st district court on the contested balloting. The judgment was in the contest suit of B. H. Blair against Sherman White as county attorney. The effect of the ruling is to sustain the election.

The county attorney argued at the hearing that the election contest could concern only happenings on election day, and that the boundary question raised would have to be attacked in some other way. It was the contention of the plaintiff that the boundary of the precinct has never been correctly defined.

It was believed this morning that an injunction to halt putting the ban on liquor sales into effect would be asked during the day. This would open the boundary question as a relevant issue, with the result in doubt.

The south side of the county has consistently voted dry.

Validity of the McLean-Alanreed local option election has been sustained in a ruling by Judge W. R. Ewing of 31st district court on the contested balloting.

EX-PRESIDENT HITTING LOW, SAYS SENATOR

HOOPER DELIBERATELY 'MISSTATING,' SAYS SEN. ROBINSON

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—The high command of the new deal was locked in a verbal struggle with Herbert Hoover today on government financial policies. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, majority leader, in a broadcast defense of administration expenditures declared the former president sought to "destroy" confidence.

"Hoover, in New York, at the same time reiterated his insistence on a stable currency and a stable credit system."

In a speech last night, Robinson said Hoover took every opportunity "to question the financial policies of the federal government and to raise doubts in the minds of people who have a little money invested."

"Mr. Hoover claims now that he turned the depression in June of 1932, whereas in August of that year he was accepting renomination with the pious hope that he might be able to turn the tide if given another chance."

Robinson declared the "smoke stacks are belching forth smoke" in the industrial regions because the administration "put money in the pockets of farmers."

He accused Mr. Hoover of "gross misstatement" in quoting a newspaper as saying the rural resettlement administration spent $350 in overhead for every $60 of relief. Robinson declared the paper later had published a correction, but that Hoover never corrected his statement.

In his broadcast before the Life Underwriters' association of New York City Mr. Hoover declared life insurance should be free from taxation.

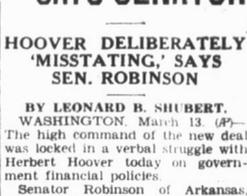

The tax collector has found that it is a fertile field for easy taxes," he said. "And such taxes come out of the poor."

Actively on the primary front included a statement by Col. Frank Knox at Dallas, Texas, that "at present time the contest lies before Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas and me" for the republican presidential nomination.

Knox did not mention Senator Borah of Idaho, who will oppose him in the primaries of Illinois.

"We are very much alike in viewpoint upon issues," Knox said of Landon, "and agreed that no factional quarrels shall shake party harmony this year. We shall endeavor to keep it together and support whoever receives the nomination."

Completed, Norris Dam Begins Impounding Lake

By October 1, 1933, the $36,000,000 Norris Dam on the Clinch river in East Tennessee is shown above, officially completed, just before President Roosevelt, in Washington, pressed a button, sounding off a siren signaling workers to close the eight sluice gates, shown near the foot of the spillway section, with water pouring from them. Immediately, the dam began impounding 3,600,000 acre feet of water, which eventually will provide a 705-mile shoreline reservoir for flood and navigation control. Fourth largest dam in the world, 355 feet high, 1,872 feet long, and 294 feet wide at the base, Norris is complete but for powerhouse and 22-foot bridge roadway over the spillway section.

Supported by four court attendants, the Indian-blooded physician stood white-faced before the bench as he heard the verdict which sent him to the gallows.

"The jury decided he had throttled his wife to death, dismembered her body and tossed it into a lonely ravine near the Scottish border."

Ruxton was also charged with having killed the nursemaid, Mary Jane Rogerson, after she saw the physician choke his wife.

The close of the crown's case against the physician came exactly four months after he had been arrested for the "beef-tub" murder.

With its decision, the jury brought to a climax the 11-day trial during which witnesses for the prosecution had told of finding clothes, carpets, and walls of the doctor's home spattered with blood.

The crown's case based on circumstantial evidence which Ruxton disputed by saying the blood came from a cut in his hand, was ended yesterday.

Justice Singleton told the jurors the crown had built up the strongest possible case against the physician on circumstantial evidence.

Near the end of his long, sunning-up, the judge referred to testimony that part of one body was found in the ravine called the "Devil's Beef-Tub" had been wrapped in a romper suit of one of Dr. Ruxton's children.

He said to the jury: "Does it not establish the case for the prosecution as a case has never been established before on circumstantial evidence?"

Justice Singleton also pointed out to the jurors that the dismemberment of the bodies had been done "by a person of some anatomical skill."

The Pampa chamber of commerce finance drive went well beyond the $5,000 mark today on receipt of a number of sizeable contributions.

Additional receipts are expected, many of them to be equally large. Money received today included: Fox Rig & Lbr. company... $ 50.00 Dunigan Tool & Supply... 100.00 Bovard Supply... 100.00 Tex Evans Bulk company... 50.00 M. K. Brown... 100.00 P. M. Motor Freight... 50.00

MANCHESTER, Eng., Mar. 13 (AP)—Dr. Buck Ruxton was convicted today by a jury of the "devil's beef-tub" murder of his wife and immediately sentenced to death by hanging.

The jury deliberated an hour and two minutes.

Supported by four court attendants, the Indian-blooded physician stood white-faced before the bench as he heard the verdict which sent him to the gallows.

RUSSIANS AND FRENCH WOULD PUNISH HITLER

CRISIS IN EUROPE IS NEAR SHOWDOWN AT LONDON

By FRANK H. KING
(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press)

LONDON, March 13—Reichsfuehrer Hitler's envoy to London, Ambassador Von Hoesch, went to the foreign office today and the British simultaneously announced: "The door is still open for Germany to make any kind of an offer it wished."

Von Hoesch was followed into the big building on Downing street by J. A. C. Avenol, secretary-general of the League of Nations, and Nicholas Titulescu, foreign minister of Rumania and the leading figure in the little entente.

Authoritative sources said they believed Germany was about to be given its last chance to remove troops from the Rhineland before the signatories of the Locarno treaty and the other members of the League of Nations took action.

Soviet Russia already had thrown its support to France in the latter nation's demand that the troops either be pulled out of the long-demilitarized zone or that Germany be punished with military and economic action.

New Message Possible
Ten minutes after Von Hoesch entered the foreign office, he was followed through the door by Pierre-Etienne Flandin, foreign minister of France, Joseph Paul-Boncour, minister of state of France, and Ambassador Dino Grandi of Italy.

Speculation was aroused as to whether Ambassador Von Hoesch might participate in a session of the Locarno treaty powers and whether he might present some new message from Reichsfuehrer Hitler.

Representatives of the Locarno powers, after indicting Germany yesterday as a violator of the Locarno pact and the Versailles treaty by its occupation of the Rhineland, met again to determine what action to recommend to the League of Nations.

They talked nearly two and a half hours and adjourned at 1:45 p. m. to reconvene again at 5 p. m. in the foreign office.

Ultimatum Considered
With France and Russia both pressing for severe penalties, informed sources said the powers were considering issuance of a virtual ultimatum to Adolf Hitler, giving him 24 hours to reply to a demand for evacuation of the Rhineland before the League council proceeded tomorrow on its course against the reich.

An authoritative French source said Foreign Minister Pierre-Etienne Flandin entered today's conference, reassured by a united Franco-

Livestock Tax Is Proposed in FDR's Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Reports that an excise tax on livestock would be proposed as part of the administration's forthcoming tax bill today caused western congressmen to organize opposition.

Spokesmen for the westerners said they had no definite information that a livestock tax was proposed, but considered the report substantial enough to justify an organized protest at once.

The report was that a tax of 20 cents a hundredweight upon dressed meats would be proposed as a levy upon packing houses.

The western group named Representatives Robinson, (D. Utah), Greener (D. Wyo.), Ayers (D. Mont.), Ferguson, (D. Okla.), and Coffee (D. Neb.), as a committee to appear before the house ways and means sub-committee considering tax legislation to oppose any such proposal.

Earnings To Be Taxed in Bill

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—A house ways and means subcommittee indicated that it will frame a tax on undistributed corporate earnings which will yield about $620,000,000 requested by the administration, regardless of any revisions for "cushion" reserves.

Chairman Samuel B. Hill (D. Wash.) said he believed the tentative schedule "will bring in $620,000,000 although it may not be exactly that."

A rate starting at 15 per cent on the first five percent of undivided net corporate income and mounting to 55 per cent on 35 per cent or more of undistributed profits has received the most serious consideration of the sub-committee.

Hill said the members spent two hours this morning trying to untangle the knotty problem of how to prevent foreign holders of stock in American corporations from escaping taxation on dividends.

"We are no nearer a solution," Hill said.

COURT UPHOLDS CONVICTION OF PHIL KENAMER

25-Year Sentence of Judge's Son Is Approved

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 13 (AP)—The Oklahoma criminal court of appeals upheld today the conviction of Phil Kenamer, 20-year-old son of a federal judge, sentenced to 25 years in prison for manslaughter in the slaying of John Gorrell, 21-year-old dental student, in a Tulsa residential district Thanksgiving night, 1934.

Kenamer was convicted in district court at Tulsa after a change of venue from Tulsa county. The jury left the sentence to the court and Judge Thurman S. Hurst set it at 25 years in state's prison.

Released on $25,000 appeal bond after a few weeks in the penitentiary at McAlester, Kenamer had been living in Tulsa and at his father's ranch near Tulsa.

His attorneys now have 15 days to ask for a rehearing. If a new hearing is not granted, the mandate will be issued and Kenamer will be returned to prison. Appellate court judges expressed belief there would be no appeal to the United States supreme court as "no federal question is involved."

CHELSEA, Okla., Mar. 13 (AP)—Young Phil Kenamer, reached at the ranch of his father near Tulsa, said today he "had nothing to say" about a criminal court decision upholding his 25-year sentence in the slaying of John Gorrell, young dental college student.

"If I indicated a belief that matters ultimately would adjudge themselves people would accuse me of cockiness," he explained.

"On the other hand, if I expressed sorrow at the decision, people would say I was whining."

Added? Then Add Through Ads, Says Our Little Audrey

Audrey (not to be confused with the Little Audrey of folklore fame, who believes that Pampa and Amarillo will play their football game next Thanksgiving in the Dust Bowl) laughed and laughed this morning because she knew all the time that Friday 13th would be a dud for some softies but a big want ad day for her.

Unlike Little Audrey who is fond of saying, "well, the dust bowl ought to be built by now." The NEWS' Audrey believes that even Hitler and Flandin could add together on a want-ad page.

Audrey was much busier than usual this morning writing Friday 13th want ads which appear today on the classified ad page. Now, Audrey has figured up a reason why one should put in a classified Sunday: An ad a day will add to your profits if your addition is not such that you are already added.

LATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—The house today voted $50,000 to defray expenses of its special bipartisan committee investigating the Townsend and other old age pension plans.

LONDON, March 13 (AP)—An official communique issued tonight said a "closed approximation of views" had been reached between the Locarno treaty signatories.

MOUNT PLEASANT, March 13 (AP)—The R. L. Pereto No. 1 Carr wildcat well—drilled 60 miles from a producing old field—was swabbed this afternoon in a test which operators said would definitely show whether it is a producer. Fevelo was confident of production and claimed the well had been "lying to blow in for the last 12 hours."

The plug had been drilled and the hole cleaned during the morning. It was drilled to a depth of 4,598 feet.

TEXAN IS FINED
ARDMORE, Okla., March 13 (AP)—John Camp Abney, 21, who gave his home as Lampasas, Texas, was held in $2,500 bail today, charged with carrying concealed weapons and attempted larceny of an automobile.

Twinkles

Bette Davis may be the best actress of this year, even if, perhaps because, she gives us the jitters.

Mae West's new picture is perhaps one that we should condemn in advance. But after so many of you folks saw and heard "Tobacco Road," we'd likely be considered prudish.

Political patronage, says the West Foster group, is what you grip about when you don't get it if you ask for it. Otherwise it is your just reward.

The guiding force in state and national politics is the scramble for honor and dollars, in local politics it is more often personal animosities.

One reason we can remember the Alamo with pride is that the ter-cast was very much.

Musing of the moment: An astonishingly big response has been received to our tirade against so few people holding so many meetings. Perhaps we should have said that too many folks are having too many meetings.

And at a women's club we heard a member decline an invitation by saying, "No thanks—I am going to slow down." So, while Al takes a walk in New York, we think we'll slow down and maybe even find time to read our own paper.

Brevitorials

SOME OF THE ladies about town have taken seriously the cracks, uttered by several speakers recently, about women's lack of aptitude in public affairs. The discussion comes at a fortunate time, in that the B&PW club and Council of Clubs are to have a "School of Citizenship" luncheon Monday.

Reservations will close at noon tomorrow. There will be a surprise program described as "unusual." Plates are 50 cents each. We are informed that "invitations are extended to all interested in the growth of Pampa and curious as to ability of women's organizations to help."

Something of the same idea will be carried out at the Young Democratic club meeting in the county courtroom next Wednesday. Women of the club will be in charge of the program. The "woman's angle" on national and world events will be presented, along with definite proposals to prove that women know what they wish in politics and government. The public will be invited to attend.

PAMPANS ARE asked to become more conscious of party government and to recognize that we in this country have a two-party system which is the basis of our self-government at this time. But regardless of this view, Pampans can unite in entertaining a large convention here May 2. West Texas Young Democrats are not so young as the name might imply. The age limit is 40 years for active participation and unlimited as to general membership and interest.

Those who have doubted the success of the Texas Centennial may now bury their skepticism. When Fort Worth and Dallas become rivals in providing splendor, we may know that the whole nation will be amused. Now if Amarillo starts something in rivalry with the Pampa Centennial, nothing will be lacking in the entertainment field.

ORDINARILY WE do not print verse, believing that good prose is preferable. However, we have received a poem from Rev. Rice of Stamford with a request that it be printed. It is dedicated to the Rev. E. C. McKenzie. On the theory that the local minister can "take it" and that nothing one minister would write about another would be anything except good clean fun, we herewith produce the poem:

"BULL!"
A preacher lives in Pampa town,
His bull he slings it all around;
It's in his walk, it's in his laugh,
"Twas in the bull when just a calf,
He sticks his nose up in the air,
Each Sunday morn I will declare,
He shakes his head and curls his tail,
And with a grin begins to rail.
He weighs two hundred forty four,
Like other bulls he likes to roar;
And cast a look up in the sky,
Then breathes a sympathetic sigh.
His sermons tho are very good—
He speaks aloud and chews his cud;
He talks and spurs for quite awhile,
And thinks he has a lovely style.
He takes his stand and speaks aloud,
He has a lovely handsome crowd;
But goodness sakes, they soon get full,
Of this old ugly silly bull.

George Rainouard and A. H. Doucette discussing the weather. "Al" said he didn't profess to be a weather prophet but he believed we would have an early spring. His belief was based on an elm tree in his yard. It is usually the last tree to bud but it has already begun this year.

Also, an apricot tree which he has had for 20 years and which has just borne fruit one year because of its early production of buds and flowers, is just about ready to "burst" out.

Distinction Through Simplicity

A room which had no outstanding architectural features was made into an apartment of charm and distinction through the very simplicity of its decorations. One wall had a classic design while the others were plain. The windows were hung with venetian blinds and undraped. Funds for redecorating homes may be obtained from private financial institutions and insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

BACK P-TA RECORD IS ONE OF HELPFULNESS

(The first of a series of historical reports of Parent-Teacher associations in the county, telling the history and recent accomplishments of the units, was written by Mrs. Earnest Dowell, secretary of Back association. This series will precede the annual convention of eighth district Parent-Teacher associations, starting here April 22.)

Hundred per cent membership of teachers and patrons of Back school is the boast of Back Parent-Teacher association. The goal for this year was state standardization, and that goal has been reached. The association is proud of its 41 members—the most in its history, and of its record of assistance to the school and community.

Back association was organized in 1930 with Mrs. L. L. Morse as president, Mrs. Benny Harrison vice-president, Mrs. John Lantz secretary-treasurer. It bought playground equipment that year, and also $10 worth of library books, and sponsored a Christmas tree for pupils. Funds were raised at a pie supper. The school received a certificate of approval that term.

The same projects were continued in 1931-32. Tennis courts were built at the school and requests bought; the association paid the school's entrance fee in the interscholastic league and contributed to a life membership fund.

In 1932-33 Mrs. Percy Barker was president, Mrs. H. D. Hale vice-president, Mrs. Roy Barker secretary. Mrs. Morse treasurer. Playground and library equipment were purchased and annual customs of conducting a summer health roundup and entering the school in the interscholastic league were maintained.

Mrs. Morse was returned to the presidency for 1933-34, with Mrs. Percy Barker as vice-president, Mrs.

SCHOOL OF CITIZENSHIP TO BE 'GET-TOGETHER' EVENT FOR PAMPA ORGANIZATIONS

Efforts and Goals of Clubs Will Be Aired

"What is a school of citizenship?" and "why the luncheon?" are questions which Lillian Jordan, legislative chairman of the Business and Professional Women's club has been busy answering since the club extended a call to all citizens to attend a "School of Citizenship" luncheon at the Schneider hotel at noon Monday.

"Pampa," explains Mrs. Jordan, "is conceded to have a citizenship heartily interested in the progress of the city. It is quite evident that we will experience considerable growth during the coming few years, and particularly should the citizenship as a whole understand our present opportunities."

"Women's organizations during the past have shouldered many local problems as well as the men's. In order that everyone can grasp a unified picture of the work being done and the work to be done, the necessity for a 'clearing house' of ideas is apparent. It is for this purpose that we urge every organization in the city to be represented, and for every citizen interested in a larger, busier, more attractive Pampa, to come and get acquainted with all the rest of us, who have the same ambition."

Reservations are being turned in at the Schneider hotel, and will be received late at Saturday. The cost of the luncheon is the regular 50c charge.

Telegrams have been dispatched to the local civic clubs inviting them to have a representation at the luncheon but the invitation is to the general public also.

Active women's organizations which have made reservations are: El Progresso club, Mrs. C. T. Hunkapiller, president; Mrs. Harvey Todd, speaker, Philharmonic club, Mrs. J. M. Dodson, president; C. O. Huber, speaker, Child Study club, Mrs. Lee Harrah, president; Mrs. J. B. Hesse, speaker, Twentieth Century club, Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, president and speaker, Treble Clef club, Mrs. J. W. Garman, president; Mrs. Dave Dodge, speaker, Twentieth Century Forum, Mrs. Arthur Ted, president; Mrs. Frank Perry, speaker; A. A. W. Mrs. Josephine Thomas, president; Mrs. Tom Rose, speaker.

Other clubs to be represented, the names of the speakers not yet available, are the Twentieth Century Civic Culture, Garden club and Treble Clef Junior. The Council of Women's clubs will be represented by Mrs. Raymond Harrah, president, and Mrs. Grace Pool, speaker. An outline of the work planned for the summer recreational program sponsored by that organization will be the subject of their discussion.

Besides the president and speaker each club will have a large membership present. Speeches are to be of three minute duration only and an opportunity will be given for comment and suggestions from the men. "It is the hope of our club," concluded Mrs. Jordan, "that a board will be appointed from those present to organize the School of Citizenship meeting next spring. As has been pointed out previously, a 'clearing house' for plans and ideas is a good thing, and it is the belief of our organization should men and women co-operate to the same end, success is assured. Before cooperation is possible, acquaintance on the same ground is necessary."

SOUTHWEST IS WINNING FIGHT AGAINST DUST

DUST BLOWS BUT NOT AS BAD AS LAST SEASON

(Editors Note: In April, 1935, an Associated Press staff writer made an automobile tour of the Southwest's "dust bowl" to give readers a first hand account of conditions there. The same reporter again has been assigned to cover the territory. The following story is one of a series of his reports. The number of additional stories will depend upon developments.)

BY ROBERT GEIGER

SPRINGFIELD, Colo., March 13. (AP)—Men continued to wage a great battle against dust today, striving to prevent a recurrence of dirt and sand laden clouds which last year wrought tremendous hardships and wiped out thousands of acres of crops.

Even as they worked, wrath-like yellow columns shot up and twirled among them, the twisters that sometimes develop into a "black roller" the kind of a dust cloud the Southwest has come to dread.

The war against dust was started by the civilian conservation corps as an experiment, and to show the farmers that dust can be conquered.

H. G. Becher, superintendent of a CCC camp here for soil conservation, said the experiment is successful.

The aim is to actually trap the dust before it leaves a "blow field" and becomes a saffron haze that darkens the sun or becomes so dense that it tumbles forward and turns mid-day to midnight.

In pastures, where the native buffalo grass, a valuable protective covering, has been killed or is dormant from a five-year drought, "contour furrows" are dug. The bed in such furrows runs in level line. Beside it, the plow throws up a dike 12 inches high. The furrow is 21 inches wide and 9 inches deep.

Each furrow is nine-tenths foot below the one above it. Along a gently sloping hill, there is one about every 30 feet, running cross-ways of the incline.

When it rains, the water collects in the furrows, which are dammed at intervals. Thus, the moisture is kept on the land and is prevented from carrying away valuable top soil.

It will require several years to get the plan fully working, Becher said, but the furrows with their sides extending a foot into the air, meanwhile are breaking up the ground currents of wind.

The furrows are constructed so that they also throw the surplus water along a gentle course into lowlands on a farm for irrigation. In farm fields, "contour listing" is used. This is similar to contour furrowing, except that the furrows are close together.

The Springfield CCC camp, with 168 youths from Oklahoma, is co-operating with farmers in re-planting 77,500 acres, about one-fourth of the "blow land" in Baca county, heart of the "dust bowl."

The farmer furnishes material, an almost insignificant item. The CCC furnishes tractors, gasoline, oil and labor.

Realty Owners Try to Break Strike in Ads

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—Owners, striving to break their deadlock with labor leaders and settle the 13-day-old building service walkout, sought today to split the strikers' united front and induce them to desert union leadership.

Through newspaper advertisements, the Realty Advisory board, representing management, asked strikers to abandon the union ranks and seek reinstatement in their jobs as individuals.

The board pledged that "owners will loyally protect" returning workers and that "no advantage will be taken of the fact that the strike is rapidly losing ground."

James J. Bambrick, local president of the Building Service Union, declaring the striking workers were too intelligent to heed such an appeal, replied:

"I charge the Realty board with not only lack of sincerity, but with plain disturbance of the peace. 'That stupid ad? It's a joke.'"

OUTBREAK SETTLED
EL PASO, March 13 (AP)—An agrarian outbreak which included seizure of about 1,000 acres of land in the Juarez, Mexico, valley apparently was settled today. A. L. Pierce, bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints and manager of the property, said the agrarians had vacated the land. Bishop Pierce described the agrarians as former employes on the farms who were dissatisfied with wages paid them.

FRIDAY 13TH NOTE
HOUSTON, March 13 (AP)—As Friday the thirteenth dawned on Houston, 13 men were involuntary prisoners in a 13-bed room at the Rice hotel because 12 of them could not agree on a verdict in a narcotic law violation case against Joe Luke of Houston and Roscoe Cell of Galveston. The thirteenth man was Bailiff Dalley Hammond, assigned to the task of guarding the jurors until Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly returns from Laredo tomorrow.

WEAPONS CLANK, EUROPE'S ARMIES MARCH AS HISTORY OF WORLD WAR IS REPEATED

BY MELVIN E. COLEMAN, Associated Press Staff Writer.

Scrap of paper, international pacts signed with all the solemnity of diplomatic ritualism, hailed as bulwarks of peace and as harbingers of brighter days, have been scattered across militaristic Europe for so far back "that the mind of man runneth not to the contrary."

Today French and Belgian fears, made almost frantic by the tramp of Hitler's new army across the bridges of the Rhine, are matched by German pride as der fuhrer proclaims Locarno and Versailles engagements terminated and tells his people that the restoration of German equality is an established fact.

Weapons clank on both sides of the border, diplomats hurry from conferences to send reports to home offices, governmental leaders counsel calmness and editors plead for cool heads.

History Repeats.
So Europe poised throughout the first decade of the century, Clashing colonial interests in Africa brought several acute crises but the combination of the "triple entente"—France, czarist Russia and Great Britain—the "triple alliance" of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, kept the balances tilted on the peace side.

Then the scene swung to the Balkans. Turkey's grip on her European lands was loosening and Russia, "big brother" of the south slavs, was still feeling the effects of her 1904-05 defeat by Japan, when, in October, 1908, Austria-Hungary annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Neighboring Serbia protested and called on St. Petersburg for help. Berlin warned that Russia must not interfere. The czar's forces were not ready for another war, so Serbia was compelled to acquiesce.

But not the people of the annexed provinces. "Revolutionaries" flourished there, particularly in Bosnia, through the Balkan wars of 1912-13, France persuaded Russia to stay out of those embroilments and Germany and Italy kept Austria-Hungary from intervening.

Armies Strengthened.
Meanwhile Germany was increasing her army and building a navy; France, as she has today, had lengthened the service terms of her military conscripts; England was working out military cooperation with her dominions and Russia had embarked on a 5-year plan for rebuilding her war machine. Austria-Hungary's general staff had drawn up full plans for a campaign in the Balkans.

Into this powder keg fell the Bosnian match, the murders on June 28, 1914, at Sarajevo of the heir to the Austrian throne and his wife. Austria-Hungary pounced on Serbia; Russia rose ponderously to defend "the little brother" and Germany's ultimatum, effective when the Bosnian dispute arose in 1908, was disregarded. France, bound to her alliance with czarist Russia as today she is bound by treaty to the Soviet Union, called her men to the colors; Germany turned in both directions, "knew the Alsace-Lorraine frontier was too strong to overcome by frontal attack, and rebuffed through Belgium. She had helped guarantee the neutrality of that little kingdom but when reminded of this obligation by British responded: "Puff! A scrap of paper."

Huge Death Toll.
More than 8,500,000 dead, more than 21,000,000 wounded, and 7,750,000 "prisoners and missing"; starvation, bankruptcy, and revolution was the result. The treaty makers of Versailles in 1919, of Locarno in 1925, the negotiators of the Dawes and Young plans, the organizers of the League of Nations, all have tried to erect barriers that would hold back any such flood of death and destruction in the future.

But Versailles' pact lies in shreds. Locarno's signature line is torn off, reparations belong in the misty past and the league did not prevent China's loss of Manchuria or Italy's "colonial expedition" into Ethiopia. Germany derides war-like intention. Hitler offers a fresh series of treaties and General Werner von Blomberg, war minister, tells a nation-wide radio hook-up:

"War destroys the flower of humanity and brings gain neither to the victor nor the vanquished."

well as Scotland and the Isles, but a few days before she became eighteen, she was widowed by the death of her father. He had lost the title to the French throne.

In August Mary returned to her native Scotland and here the third act of this drama was played. It covered the time to her enforced abdication of the Scottish throne in 1567 when she went to England, uninvited and apparently an unwelcome guest. Her cousin Elizabeth occupied the English throne and felt that Mary was a dangerous rival. They were always at swords points but never saw each other.

Intigue became more and more complicated and menacing. Mary was imprisoned for nineteen years and finally beheaded in 1587 thus making Elizabeth secure as Queen of England. The latter seems to have signed the death warrant for Mary Stuart but vehemently declared that the execution was entirely without her knowledge or consent. Those who were the immediate instruments of carrying out their sovereign's wishes and, as they believed, commands, were denounced and removed from places of government.

Elizabeth told her subjects repeatedly and let it be known to the world at large that she was not to blame for the execution of her cousin and rival. Probably the majority believed this to be true and the author states that it is likely that, in time, Elizabeth herself came to believe that she really was innocent.

March 24, 1603 Elizabeth now in her seventieth year, died making way for James VI of Scotland, son of Mary Stuart, and Darnley, who had been ruling in Scotland, since his mother's forced stay in England. He ascended the English throne as King James I.

Nearly three score are listed as chief persons in this drama, more than a third of whom met violent deaths, executed or murdered.

Most of the sixteen illustrations are portraits, six of Mary at different periods. One, showing the execution scene, was reproduced from a woodcut now in possession of Messrs. Maggs Bros., London.

Stefan Zweig has written more than a dozen books which have been translated into English and published here. These include short stories, plays, and biography. Perhaps the best known is "Marie Antoinette" which was the Book-of-the-Month Club selection for April, 1933. Much time and painstaking effort was required to go through histories, letters, documents, public records collecting data and absorbing details from which to build this historical account. The author has unusual skill in portraying characters which renders this a fascinating tale.

This book contains twenty-five stories, each complete in itself, of Texas history. The author was a successful teacher of history and geography before her marriage and made by taking search to obtain material suitable for use as supplementary work in the grades of public schools.
There are eight full-page illustrations, two of them in color, besides many sketches, all of which add interest to the printed pages. Texas heroes, builders, resources, and even a genuine Texas ghost figure in these tales. The important facts of Texas history are placed here in condensed form and should be attractive to adults desiring to be made by the knowledge of events of record during the past century.

MARY QUEEN OF SCOTLAND AND THE ISLES by Stefan Zweig. Translated by Eden and Cedar Paul, published by Viking Press, N. Y., August, 1935, $3.50.
James V. of Scotland, wounded in battle, died at the age of thirty-one, leaving his six-day old daughter, Mary Stuart, with the title of Queen of Scotland and the Isles.
This history is divided into four periods or acts in a drama of religious intolerance, political intrigue, and tragedy, the first of which is enacted in Scotland beginning with the birth of Mary Stuart December 9, 1542 and including her arrival on French soil as the affianced bride of the French Dauphin when she was not quite six years old.
During the young queen's childhood, she had four Marys as playmates. Mary Seton, Mary Fleming, Mary Livingston, and Mary Beaton. Each of these were of her age and children of prominent Scottish families. They were with her in school days in France, were later her maids of honor, and one of them remained with her throughout her years of imprisonment and final execution.
The second act was staged at the court of Henry II of France from 1548 to 1561. Mary Stuart learned French easily, sang pleasingly, danced beautifully, and was a popular member of the royal household. In her sixteenth year she was married to Francis II, eldest son of Henry II, and Catherine de Medici. He was a frail, delicate lad of fourteen but became king of France the following year on the death of his father. Mary was now Queen of France as

REPUDIATION OF NEUILLY TREATY IS ATHENS RUMOR
ATHENS, Greece, March 13. (AP)—Rumors circulated widely today that Greece was massing troops on the Bulgarian frontier to meet a reported threat by Bulgaria to repudiate the Neuilly treaty. Greek officials denied quickly that any such move was contemplated, and the Bulgarian legation denied equally emphatically that Bulgaria had any such intentions.

The treaty of Neuilly, one of the world war treaties, was signed between the allies and Bulgaria at Neuilly, suburb of Paris, Nov. 27, 1919. Bulgaria ceded—three to Greece, returned its Serbian conquests and agreed to pay indemnity in money and coal.

GOP COFFERS ARE SWOLLEN BY BIG GIFTS

DEMOCRATS ARE GIVEN VERY FEW MONEY DONATIONS
BY NATHAN ROBERTSON, WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Reports submitted to the house for the first two months of this year disclosed today that sizeable contributions are pouring into the republican national committee, but that they are few and far between around democratic headquarters and the American Liberty League.

During the first two months of the election year, the republicans received contributions aggregating $261,387. The Liberty League, which got $485,000 last year, received only $64,702.

The democrats—their income bolstered by $200,000 from Philadelphia, the convention city, and $270,000 from the Jackson day dinners—were spending much faster than republicans.

The republican national committee since the year started, spent $165,599, leaving $356,288 in the treasury on the first of March. In contrast, the democrats spent $329,900 out of $550,000, leaving only $220,100 on hand March 1, of which which contributed a large portion of the Liberty League's funds last year, has transferred its support for the election year to the republicans. No big Du Pont contributions were listed by the league, but the republican national committee received $5,000 from Lamont Du Pont and the republican congressional committee reported $1,666 from him.

The reports indicated that the Du Pont family of Wilmington, Del., Grover Setz made a business trip to Amarillo yesterday.

ASK JUDGMENTS IN GAS SUIT AT WICHITA FALLS

Jury Answers Issues In Verdict at Austin

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—Attorneys for the Community Natural Gas company and the railroad commission today prepared motions for judgments in the company's suit attacking a Wichita Falls rate reduction.

Company attorneys contended jury answers to two of three special issues supported a judgment enjoining enforcement of the commission's order reducing rates 67 1/2 cents to 61 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

Attorneys for the city and commission sought a judgment upholding the order notwithstanding the verdict. District Judge Ralph W. Yarborough indicated he would reverse the motions either March 17 or 30.

The jury, concluding an eight-weeks trial, held that the commission's property valuation of $1,036,587 was low for undepreciated rate base. It calculated $1,250,000 would be fair, compared with $1,510,041 claimed by the company and $1,105,809 suggested by the city.

An annual allowance of $20,000 for depreciation was held inadequate and $25,000 determined as sufficient. The company claimed $33,647 would be fair and the city $15,734.

Contentions of the state that a seven per cent annual rate of return was reasonable was upheld in the third issue. The company asserted eight to 10 per cent was necessary.

SULLIVAN DIVORCED

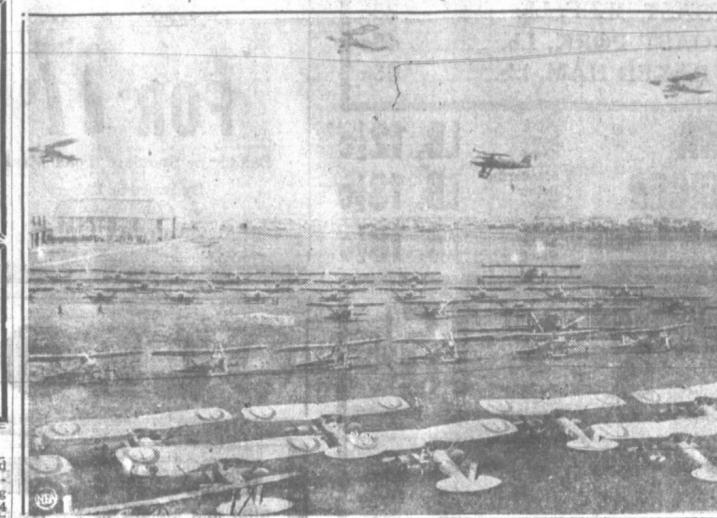

EL PASO, March 13 (AP)—Margaret Sullivan's attorney announced last night the film actress obtained a divorce from her husband, William Wyler, motion picture director, March 6. The attorney, Moses Garza Ramos, said Miss Sullivan charged incompetency.

BAND AT FUNERAL

SCRANTON, Pa., March 13 (AP)—With a 30 piece band playing funeral dirges, Mrs. Carmela Castlegrande, 98, was laid to rest today in Catholic cemetery. The woman, who left 140 descendants had requested that a band play at her funeral, and her family engaged the musicians.

Mrs. Joe Duby of LeFors was a visitor in Pampa yesterday afternoon.

French Air Armada Tuned Up for German Crisis

As troops were rushed to strengthen border garrisons to meet what the Paris government considered Germany's challenge in re-arming the demilitarized Rhineland, French aviators prepared for any emergency that might develop out of the critical situation in Europe. This view of the military airport at Bron, near Lyons, gives an idea of the vast armada ready to take the air.

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

SECTION OF COLD FRAME SHOWING PLANTS GROWING DURING WINTER MONTHS.

APPLY PLANT FOOD FOR EARLY GROWTH

In applying plant food to established lawns and perennial borders, conditions are encountered which differ greatly from new plantings and which permit much earlier action.

Plants which are full grown when spring begins—in which grass plants are included—begin to grow much earlier than most of us realize. They are likely to make their best growth in temperatures which are too cold for gardeners to enjoy.

Early growth is always most important because it determines to a considerable extent the ultimate development of a plant. Just as a well-fed infant will grow into a sturdy man, able to take care of himself, so a baby plant which is well fed will develop a vigor which enables it to forage for food more successfully and to reach the maximum size for its type.

Grass plants which are well fed when growth begins develop larger roots which enable them better to endure the drought and trails of the hot weather. The size reached by established perennials which receive ample food supplies from the very beginning of their season's growth is noticeably increased.

Plant food may be applied to lawns and established borders as soon as spring thawing begins. As the deep frost leaves the soil assumes a condition which has been described as "honeycombed." The surface is pitted, and plant food applied at this stage will immediately dissolve and sink into the soil. The ground is soft, so that the food elements are quickly carried down to the roots of plants to stimulate their growth. Such applications should not be made on soil which is to be worked afterwards, or soil in which crops are to be grown from seed. It is better in such cases to delay plant food application until near sowing time.

FARNSWORTH CHALLENGES PANHANDLE CAGE SUPREMACY OF PHILLIPS FIVE

CLUB OFFERS TO BATTLE '66 TEAM AT ONCE

OILERS ALSO ANXIOUS TO PLAY UNBEATEN 'CAGERS

The right of the Phillips 66 basketball team, from the South Pampa field to call themselves Panhandle champions was vehemently challenged this morning when E. W. Rogers, manager of the Farnsworth Independents, stormed into the office of the Daily News. In emphatic terms he declared that the Oilers were afraid of his team and that he would play them any time and any place.

Manager Rogers said that he had a game scheduled with the Pampa team and at the last minute they called it off because a couple of their players were called away. Manager M. L. Gibson of the Oilers retorted with the statement that the game was cancelled two days in advance and that his team would meet Farnsworth any time with no holds barred.

Farnsworth has a record of 32 wins against two losses to the Goodwill Aggies, great college aggregation from Oklahoma. The Ochiltree county team holds wins over 25 Texas teams. Phillips has 20 victories against two defeats, one of them by a one-point margin and the other by two points.

Manager Gibson later in the morning reported that he was in touch with Farnsworth officials and that his team would play the independents Tuesday night in Borger or here on Wednesday night. Arrangements are in the making for the big tussle and a definite announcement is expected soon.

Members of the Farnsworth team are F. Morton, Cat for Barnes, forwards, Anderson, center; Copeland, R. Pearson, D. B. Pearson, and Brown, guards.

The season record of the Oilers has been compiled and it is an imposing one.

The Oilers rang up 787 points for an average of 36 points per game. Their opponents scored 583 points or an average of 27. Slim Windom, center, led the team scoring with 197 points in the 20 games in which he participated. Brother Tip Windom, forward, was second in scoring with 136 points in 15 games. Christian, guard, took third place with 104 points in 20 games.

Members of the team are former college, independent and high school stars. The two Windom brothers started their careers in the Oilers in McLean high school and carried on at Perryton.

Comprising the squad are Tip Windom, Slim Windom, Laycock, Dewey, Winkler, Baccus, Christian, Jones, Wells, Gibson, Ringham, Smith and McCullum played a few games with the team.

TRAINING CAMP NOTES

(By The Associated Press)

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Casey Stengel of the Dodgers was cheered today by news that his sick and injured were fast rounding into shape. Lonnie Frey, who has been down with the gripe, was expected to get back into action by the middle of next week. Max Brutter's infected knee was improved as was Harry Eisenstat's bum arm.

PENSACOLA, Fla.—This is Terry day in Pensacola and the mayor has declared a half holiday. It also is the day on which the Giants hook up with the Cleveland Indians in the first of 17 exhibition games.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Joe McCarthy of the Yankees is high in praise of Steve Sundra, the Cleveland native who throws a sinker ball that baffles even the catchers at times. Steve doesn't know when the ball is going to dip or how he does it.

SAN ANTONIO—Pie Traynor will pitch, Lincum and Bauer will play Sunday's first intra-game while Honus Wagner's team will have Struss and Weaver.

SARATOGA, Fla.—Manager Joe Cronin lauded Mel Almada's hitting after yesterday's intra-Red Sox game. When Mel socked a mighty homer to center, Cronin remarked that something happened during the winter to increase Almada's hitting power.

FORT MYERS — Connie Mack hints that Pinky Higgins, holdout third sacker, may be in camp soon. Meanwhile observers have been impressed with the work of Russell Peters at third and short.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. — The Phils went back in camp today after dropping their first training game to the Dodgers. Fear was felt that third sacker Hickey Haslin, who was hit on the arm by a pitched ball, may have suffered a fracture.

BRADENTON, Fla.—Dizzy Dean didn't get very far in his attempts to ride Manager Frankie Frisch when he was dropped into camp with Mrs. Dean yesterday. Diz said something about Frankie being a bit fat but Frankie told Diz to come out some time and watch him gallop around the lot if he thought that he (Frisch) was slowing up any.

WEST PALM BEACH—Outfielder Roy (Beau) Bell of the Browns, who made known his desire to take over holdout Jack Burns' place at first base yesterday, yesterday he slashed out drives to left and center that would have been hits in any league—and off the pitching of regular hurlers, too.

LAKELAND — Three rookies — Outfielders Buddy Baker and Chet Laiba and infielder Don Ross—led the Tigers spring exhibition series hitting lists today. Ross, challenger for Marvin Owen's third base job, collected four singles in five trips to the plate and Bates a double and two singles in three turns as the rookies trimmed the Reds. Laiba singled and tripled.

LAKELAND, Fla.—The world champion Detroit Tigers have been given an extra incentive to repeat in the American league this year with the offer of Owner Walter O. Briggs of a bonus—one of the biggest ever paid a baseball club—for a pennant. Observers believe the bonus plan was inaugurated to coax Hank Greenberg into the salary fold and to solve later salary problems.

NEW ORLEANS—Suffering from rainy weather, the Indians hoped to get in one long workout today before going to Pensacola, Fla., for a series with the Giants. Manager Steve O'Neill kept in the sands with an injured knee, sent his team through a two-inning drill yesterday but a downpour made further work impossible.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Pat Malone, Yankee veteran, is making a great effort this spring to repay Manager Joe McCarthy for carrying him through last season. He takes the mound every time he gets a chance, runs around the park, does individual setting up exercises and takes part in pepper games. His pitching this spring has reflected the extra effort to get into condition.

SCHEDULE AND NEW RULES IN LOOP ADOPTED

DISTRICT 3 PLAY TO BE CLOSED BY NOVEMBER 20

McLEAN, March 13.—A schedule and new rules to govern play in district 3, class B, was arranged at a meeting of superintendents here on Tuesday.

Supt. W. C. Perkins of Shamrock was elected chairman of the executive committee to determine all interscholastic League football questions during the coming grid year. Supt. J. Lee Gilmore of Wheeler and Supt. W. C. Davis of Memphis were named as directors of the committee. Coach J. B. Rush of Shamrock was elected secretary of the organization.

The retiring chairman of the executive committee is Supt. C. A. Cryer of McLean.

Expressing the opinion that better crowds would attend the football games if they were played earlier in the year, the coaches and superintendents voted 5 to 3 to close regional play by Thanksgiving.

Rules passed at the meeting are:

- To close district play by November 20.
- To assess each school $2 for the purchase of a trophy to be given the district winner.
- Each coach is to list all prospective grid officials in his vicinity. These are to be turned in to the district secretary in order that selection of the officials may be made at the minimum expense.
- Each school is allowed 10 free local passes to home games.
- Each school's band and pep squad will be admitted free.
- Two complimentary tickets are to be furnished scouts of opposing schools.

Following are incomplete schedules as worked out:

September 11—LeFors vs. Sayre, Wellington vs. Mobeetie.

September 18—LeFors vs. Canyon, Wellington vs. Wheeler, Memphis vs. Mobeetie.

September 25—Shamrock vs. LeFors, McLean vs. Mobeetie, Clarendon vs. Wellington.

October 2—Shamrock vs. Mobeetie, Memphis vs. LeFors, Wheeler vs. Clarendon.

October 9—Clarendon vs. Shamrock, McLean vs. Memphis, LeFors vs. Wellington, Mobeetie vs. Wheeler.

October 16—LeFors vs. Clarendon, Memphis vs. Wheeler.

October 23—Memphis vs. Shamrock, McLean vs. Wellington, LeFors vs. Wheeler, Mobeetie vs. Clarendon.

November 6—Wheeler vs. Shamrock, LeFors vs. McLean, Clarendon vs. Memphis.

November 11-13—Wellington vs. Shamrock, LeFors vs. Clarendon, Wheeler vs. McLean.

November 20—Shamrock vs. McLean.

The game sites have not been definitely worked out.

PRETTY PUTTING

A perfect picture of muscular action is Don Elser, huge Notre Dame grifter and shot putter, as he hurls the 16-pound shot through the air. Elser, now a senior at the Irish institution, will take part in the Central Interscholastic Conference indoor track meet at Notre Dame, March 13-14. Defending champion in the shot put, he won last year with a toss of 47 feet 7 3/4 inches.

DISTRICT ONE GRID SCHEDULE IS ARRANGED

CLASS B COACHES IN PAMPA DECIDE ON PLAY-OFF

Superintendents and football coaches of schools in District 1 Class B, gathered in Pampa yesterday afternoon to discuss play for next season and to tentatively arrange a conference schedule.

Because of the large number of schools in the district, it was agreed to again divide play with winning teams in the two sections meeting in a play-off to decide the district champion who will meet in regional play.

The south section will again be composed of Claude, Panhandle, White Deer, Groom, Whittenburg, Miami. Teams in the other section will be Canadian, Fellett, Spearman, Perryton.

George A. Heath, superintendent of schools at White Deer, was named chairman of the executive committee. Coach Gene McCollum of White Deer was elected secretary.

Johnny Revolta And Picard Win Tournay Again

MIAMI, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Henry Picard and Johnny Revolta held the distinction today of being the only pair ever to win the international four-ball golf matches twice in succession.

All of the credit for a 4 to 2 final victory went to Gene Sarazen of Brookfield Center, Conn., and Jimmy Hines of Garden City, L. I., went to the tall Picard, from Hershey Pa.

Revolta, of Milwaukee and current P. G. A. champion, did his part in the long march to the last round, but failed, yesterday to win a hole.

Fast Girl Teams To Meet Tonight

HILLSBORO, March 13 (AP)—Sloucum and Howard, rated among the fastest school girl basketball teams in Texas, will meet tonight in the opening quarter-final game of the Southern A. A. U. high school tourney at Abbott.

Sloucum has won the Anderson county championship four years and has not been defeated this season. Howard, title winner in Ellis county, has won 36 of its last 37 games. The two teams went into the quarter-finals on forfeits.

Semi-finals in the consolation and championship brackets will be played tomorrow afternoon with title games at night.

Trene advanced to the quarter final last night by defeating Watt 54 to 22, and Lott nosed out Bryan, 32 to 29, in a first round game.

PHILLIES WILL HAVE HURLERS THIS SEASON

HOWEVER TEAM MIGHT BECOME 'HITLESS' WONDERS

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Old customers are going to rub their eyes and take another look at their ticket stubs when they watch the Philadelphia Nationals in action this year.

The Phillies, for years a boon to the lumber business as they battered down National league fences a mile from home plate, have gone in so strong for pitching that they threaten to become "hitless wonders"—hard to hit is to believe.

Manager Jimmy Wilson, who admits he's a little fed up with a team of sluggers that loses games by football scores, won't have more than one or two sure 300 hitters on the team but he's as excited about his pitchers as he thinks his 1936 model Philly machine is capable of landing high in the second division at least.

"We'll have a great pitching staff, seven tested men who can burn that baseball over the plate," said Jimmy, "and that's the biggest part of it."

Sure, we'll be weak with the stick but it's going to make me feel young to strut around the circuit with a good pitching staff.

Wilson's probable "big seven" pitching staff will consist of six who have had at least one year's experience in the major leagues and a rookie, Hal Heleher of Hazleton, Pa., a six foot right hander.

The six are Curt Davis, Joe Bowman, Bucky Walter (Bucky's dropped the "s" from his last name this year), Earl Moore, Sylvester Johnson and Gravel Jones.

Last season the Phils rarely had more than two regular pitchers well enough to start a game and finished in seventh place.

Besides his "big seven," Wilson has promising talent in Claude Pascaud, obtained from Pittsburgh in the deal for catcher Al Todd. Pascaud struck out 239 batsmen in 244 innings for Des Moines last season, winning 20 and losing 11. Yet, with all his talent, Wilson may not have an effective southpaw on his staff unless a rookie comes through.

The infield rates strong defensively but weak on offense. Dolph Camilli, whose power was reduced by sinus trouble last year, is a fixture at first with Jose G. Mox at second and Johnny Vergez on the bench as present with a sprained ankle, at third.

Shortstop is the big problem, but Wilson is strong for Leo Norris, obtained from Minneapolis where he batted .290 last season. Reserves will be plentiful for infield positions, but again the power will be lacking.

There are no more Chuck Kleins in the Philly outfield but there should be plenty of speed and defensive class. Lou Clozsa, converted from an infielder, is starring in the daily drills.

Catching apparently is well fortified with Wilson, himself, and Earl Grace, who says he never was given a real chance to learn much about backstopping until Pittsburgh sent him under Wilson's wing.

LIKE A HEALTHY BABY AFTER CRYING AN HOUR FOR DINNER

START FAST

Cold motors cry for it... because they need high test for instant starting... and the new Phillips 66 Poly Gas is higher test than ever plus the added heat units of the scientific POLYMERIZATION process.

It still costs nothing extra; so it's a greater value than ever. Gives faster acceleration... peeps up power... adds more mileage... all with minimized use of the choke. And this last means real cost-cutting in your gasoline bills. Try a tankful and check the savings yourself.

DIZZY ADOPTED NAME OF HIS FAVORITE CATCHER—J. HARRIS

DALLAS, March 13 (AP)—Why did Jerome Herman Dean, the noisy St. Louis Cardinal hurler, drop his given name of Jay Hanna Dean and adopt the other one?

The ditzzy one explained it here recently.

"I was playing sandlot baseball in San Antonio a few years ago. We had a catcher named Jerome (Jelly) Harris—the best catcher that ever caught me."

"Harris joined our club after leaving Texas A. & M. college and I liked him. I liked him so much I thought I'd just take his name. In fact I wish he was still catching me. One of the finest prospects I ever saw."

"The Herman? Aw, I just picked that up."

Harris signed with Cleveland after his college days, played a season in the minors and retired from baseball to a business career in San Antonio.

HORACE MANN AND HOUSTON CAPTURE TILTS

BAKER IS DEFEATED BY IMPRESSIVE SCORE OF 22-2

The Pampa ward school playground ball league got away to a flying start on Wednesday afternoon with the Sam Houston school taking two games from Baker school and Horace Mann winning two games from Woodrow Wilson school.

Sam Houston juniors had an easy time winning from Baker by a score of 22 to 2. The seniors, however, had to battle until the last player was out to take a 22 to 19 decision.

Baldwin, Sam Houston's senior pitcher, and Smith of Baker were hit freely but tightened in the pinches. Meyers had an easy time pitching the junior tilt.

The Horace Mann juniors took a 22 to 10 game from Woodrow Wilson with the seniors winning a hard-fought game by a score of 13 to 9. Shofner and Clemmons divided mound duty for the Horace Mann seniors with A. Smith behind the bat. Cooper and Parker hurled for the losers with Shifley receiving.

D. C. Vaughn was the winning pitcher for the Horace Mann juniors and S. Vaughn was behind the bat. The boys are not related, A. L. Parker and Gray divided mound work for Woodrow Wilson with Dyer and Arthur receiving.

The next games will be played on Wednesday afternoon with Sam Houston at Horace Mann and Woodrow Wilson at Baker. Both junior and senior teams will play.

TOURNAMENT TO OPEN ON TOMORROW EVENING

DENVER, March 13 (AP)—A field of at least 52 teams will answer the starting gun in the National A. A. U. basketball tournament in the city auditorium.

The tourney will open at 6 p. m. tomorrow with two games sandwiched between contests in the Colorado high school tournament, regional A. A. U. officials announced.

Ten more games will be played Sunday and probably 12 each Monday and Tuesday to reduce the list of contenders to 16 by Wednesday.

Officials said it has not yet been decided which teams will play in the two contests tomorrow night.

Up to today no entry had been received from the Hutchinson, Kan., Transits runners up in the Missouri Valley section and officials said they were not including the team in the bracket.

Twenty-two states and the District of Columbia are represented in the entry list. Twenty-two college teams are in the field.

The entries include: Sul Ross Teachers college, Alpine, Tex., and West Texas Teachers college, Canyon.

Italy's Armies On March Again

ROME, March 13 (AP)—Italy's African armies are on the march in both northern and Southern Ethiopia, Marshal Pietro Badoglio reported today, with war planes flying over the territory between Neghelli and Addis Ababa.

The tribesmen of Galla Borano on the southern front, are conducting "victorious actions" for Italy, Marshal Badoglio wireless.

"On the western plain our troops have reached the region of Alcazra, where they were enthusiastically welcomed by the populace."

"The aviation bombed strong concentrations of armed groups in the Ennetcab zone and in the region of south of Quorum."

"On the Somali front aviation activity progresses between Neghelli and Addis Ababa in the lake region."

"Bands of armed Galla Borano tribesmen who submitted to us are effecting victorious guerrilla action while all people in the bordering section are gathering around Neghelli to seek our protection."

probably will be Whitehill, Ed Linke, who finished last season with 8 straight victories, and Jimmy DeGros, who Harris believes never got a real chance to prove his worth with the Yankees. Professor Monte Weaver, after two bad years, is a question mark.

Among the rookies, Henry Coppola, who won 3 and lost 4 last season before a sore arm shelved him, and Dick Lanahan, another husky right hander who came up for a trial late last year, show fine promise.

Catching is Harris' biggest problem. Cliff Bolton, a powerful hitter doesn't satisfy Harris on defense and a trade may be made to plug the spot.

The Senators should have plenty of power at the plate with Myer Powell, Travis and Kuehl doing the biggest part of the work.

AMARILLO, March 13 (AP)—Thirteen-year-old Topy Whiskey of Cronon had a $561 check today because he raised the grand champion fat beef exhibited at the Amarillo Fat Stock show.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

LAKELAND, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Virgil Davis says Roy Parmelee has more stuff than any man on the Cardinal staff, including the Deans. . . . They say Frank Pytlak's trouble is only a complex. . . . He's as good as ever if he'd only believe it.

Izzy Kline, trainer for Barney Ross, says Jimmy McLarin will half kill Tony Cansner when they meet in May. . . . Firpo Marberry believes he'll make the grade with the Giants because he's had 14 teeth extracted.

Over at Bradenton yesterday the Cardinals chipped into buy Bill Delaney an expensive lounching robe. . . . Bill is ill in Arizona and can't play this year. . . . The Cards are nice that way. . . . When they won the 1934 world's series, they voted a full share to Charlie Gelbert, flat on his back in a hospital.

There is a surprising shortage of good young catchers in the big league training camps. . . . Competitive golf takes weight off most people. . . . But not Patty Berg, the Minneapolis sensation—she's picked up 18 pounds during the Florida season.

Dolph Camilli is the most popular man on the Philly squad. . . . Bucky Harris is beginning his 13th season as a big league pilot. . . . Connie Mack is starting his 53rd year. . . . And he's as enthusiastic as ever. . . . Jimmy Foy says Lefty Grove was the greatest pitcher in the American league last year.

You've all heard how the great Joe Jackson dished shoes. . . . Well, Lou Scottie, Cardinal rookie outfielder, is the same way about socks. . . . He'd rather play in his bare legs. . . . 50-year-old as he cracks that apple, Frankie Frisch doesn't care.

Wonder Team IS PLANNED BY BUCKY HARRIS

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ORLANDO, Fla., Mar. 12 (AP)—Bucky Harris, once the boy wonder manager, may come up with a boy wonder Washington team this year.

Bucky does not figure to crash by the American league's potential "big four" to capture the pennant, but he does hold a good chance to top the second division and possibly slip into first.

The Senators rebuilt so completely that only Earl Whitehill, Joe Kuehl and Buddy Myer remain among the regulars of the 1933 championship club, remind one of the "kid" squad that the Chicago Cubs started out with last spring.

At almost every vital spot Harris has posted young hustlers no so long out of knee breeches.

"This is the most interesting team I've ever managed," said Harris, who is starting his 13th year as a major league pilot. "They're doing so well in training that I am convinced to believe there is a Santa Claus. Oh, we'll have some terrible days, but we'll have some good ones, too. We'll fool a lot of people."

With Cecil Travis, converted from third baseman to shortstop, and Buddy Lewis, 19-year-old third baseman who came up from Chattanooga, in high gear and with Myer at second and Kuehl at first, Harris' infield worries appear over.

His outfield, it seems will be the fastest in either league with Jesse Hill, Wilson, miles and Alvin Powell, forming the patrol.

Pitching should be stronger than last year but not great. Buck Newsom, who won 11 games during the two months he was able to work, is expected to be the team's big winner.

Sen. Holt Seeks More Munitions For Hopkins War

WASHINGTON, March 13. (AP)—While the New Deal mastered its forces in defense of its work relief program, Senator Holt (D. W. Va.) headed for his home state today to dig up new munitions for his war on Harry L. Hopkins and WPA.

Holt accused Hopkins yesterday of the "worst mal-administration of public funds ever known in the history of America."

About the same time Hopkins, who had aroused Holt's ire by reporting that West Virginia work relief was free from politics, announced the dismissal of two Illinois WPA officials accused of "collecting money on a project for political purposes."

Declaring "We'll go down the line" to keep politics out of the work relief administration, Hopkins also ordered an investigation of charges that foremen and timekeepers at Marion, Ill., had been asked to contribute to primary campaign funds.

Holt talked more than an hour in the senate.

Challenging Hopkins to disprove his charges that political influence was exercised on WPA jobs distribution, he called the administrator "the world's greatest spender of untruths and lies."

British front against Hitler, as well as the soviet backing for sanctions.

The French were understood to have received recognition from the British that stiff application of the full range of sanctions, the league's penalties, might be necessary unless der fischer adopted a more conciliatory attitude.

A swift succession of private conferences preceding the full session of the Locarno-powers, pointed toward a final appeal for conciliation or a final agreement on the penalties to be recommended to tomorrow's league council session.

Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff talked with Flaminio for a quarter of an hour at the French minister's hotel where, informed sources said, France was assured Russia's support.

Britain's elder statesmen reviewed the situation with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin.

French Position The diplomats of France, Belgium and Italy conferred before the representatives of all signatories of the Locarno pact except Germany started their second London session in a crisis which some feared might lead to strife.

The French position was outlined authoritatively thus: France believes it holds the trump card at the Locarno table, since Britain would prefer to proceed on the basis of a Franco-British front, rather than permit France to be thrown more fully to the side of Soviet Russia for strong support.

France is willing to give Britain sufficient time to prepare public opinion at home for imposition of sanctions on Germany, but is ready to proceed immediately itself in employing all sanctions possible—diplomatic, financial and military—if necessary.

It was reported in informed quarters that Foreign Secretary Eden told Ambassador Von Hoersch of Germany that an opportunity still existed for Reichsfuehrer Hitler to make a spontaneous gesture.

It was presumed that the time limit for such a gesture would expire with the meeting of the council tomorrow. But, in the meanwhile, the action would indicate that the British had not abandoned all hope that Hitler might act to relieve the tension.

LONDON, March 13.—A high authority stated today that Italy had flatly refused to impose sanctions against Germany shortly after the British foreign office announced: "The door is still open for Germany to make any kind of an offer it wishes."

The Italian action was regarded as a stumbling block in the way of the French demand that military and economic sanctions be applied against Germany for sending troops into the Rhineland.

Russia had been supporting France in demanding these sanctions. So had Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Rumania, the members of the little entente.

This sudden interruption in the progress toward punishment of Reichsfuehrer Hitler became known after Ambassador Von Hesch of Germany went to the foreign office for a conference.

In view of the fact that Great Britain, with the consent of France, made the Italo-Ethiopian war test case for League of Nations sanctions, the Italians were said to have taken the stand that "No British or French statesman now can go to Italy and ask the Italian people to fight for them in any eventuality whatsoever."

The position of Pierre-Etienne Flaminio, French foreign minister, was made delicate by Italy's stand. The demand in France for sanctions against Italy was said to be so strong that he was, in effect,

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Flag History Told

Interesting stories of the various flags which have been used in Texas and the United States were told yesterday at Pampa Lions by Sgt. H. H. Rumph of the Skellytown school. He exhibited the flags discussed and placed them in a stand as he spoke. The program was arranged by Jack Dunn. The club passed a resolution addressed to the State Highway commission, urging improvement of the Pampa-Borger road.

Trip Is Tonight

Pampa good will trippers will leave the city hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight for the journey to Moberly, Mo., for the carnival, merchandise auction, and pie supper scheduled for 8:30 o'clock tonight. The Pampa Junior chamber will send its new cowboy string band, which is headed by Harry Kelley. A large crowd of Pampans is desired for the trip.

New Automobiles

Automobile licenses of new cars: Chevrolet master sedan, Bert Walsi; Chevrolet coupe, D. W. Slaton; Terraplane sedan, James F. Reid; Plymouth sedan, Fred C. Cullum; Buick sedan, C. M. Jeffers; Plymouth sedan, J. D. Shaw; Plymouth coupe, W. A. Florence.

Grading at Bridge

Forms have been removed from the new concrete bridge east of the Sam Houston school, revealing its attractive lines. Only the hand rails and wing-walls remain to be poured. Removal of dirt from under the bridge and shaping of the approaches will require some time.

On another WPA project, the asphalt tarring has been paced on the tennis courts at the Woodrow Wilson school. About 10 days must elapse before play can begin. Sand and gravel must be worked into the asphalt, which will harden with age.

New Proposal

With the Cuyler street crossing apparently barred as an underpass location, the State Highway department is considering the Hobart street crossing for such a project. The U. S. Bureau of Roads, which must give approval, has made such requirements at Cuyler street that it would be necessary to close Aitchison and Tyng streets to obtain the necessary clearance. The proposed damage if the streets were closed would be prohibitive, inasmuch as four dead ends would be left. Inasmuch as the Santa Fe railroad is suggesting two underpasses in Amarillo, local authorities believe that the least the road can logically do here is to cooperate fully in a local underpass project.

To Fight Fires

Men of the various CCC camps will be used in fighting of summer fires in grass and timber, and will be trained for emergencies, according to a release from the National Park service. Twenty men will be in each fire-fighting unit. The Texas Park board is cooperating in the movement.

Car Is Recovered

The Ford coupe, 1935 model, recently stolen from H. H. Heskell in front of the Pampa postoffice, has been recovered in Calvin, Okla., the local sheriff's office has been notified. A gun battle in which two officers were slightly injured was reported to have preceded abandonment of the vehicle. The car had not been disguised in any way. No arrests were made.

Friday 13th Baby

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lindemann are the parents of a Friday 13th daughter, born early this morning at Pampa-Jarratt hospital. She weighed 8 1/2 pounds. No name has been selected. The baby is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Banton.

Thomasons at Merkel

Dr. Earl Thomason and his brother, Donald C. Thomason have opened a dental clinic at Merkel, according to a story appearing in the Merkel paper. Both were former residents of Pampa. Donald Thomason will be x-ray technician and business manager of the clinic. He recently married Miss Geraldine Johnston of Abilene.

Daughter to McCarty's

A daughter, weighing 9 pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCarty of Skellytown at Pampa-Jarratt hospital last night. She has not been named.

Returns Home

Frank Chapman returned yesterday from Mineral Wells where he spent the last week taking baths following a lengthy illness.

placed in the position of saying: "I can't go back to France and tell the French people they are less important than Ethiopia; Emperor Haile Selassie can get what we can't."

Ambassador von Hoesch remained in the foreign office only a short time. He said he had not talked to Locarno signatories but he declined to say whether he had talked to Anthony Eden, the British foreign secretary.

It was immediately rumored through Whitehall that Eden had given the German envoy a request signed by Great Britain, France, Belgium, and Italy that Hitler make a conciliatory move.

Chubby Teacher Loses Plea to Get Job Back

ALBANY, N. Y., March 13. (AP)—State Education Commissioner Frank P. Graves today denied the appeal of Miss Rose Freistater from a ruling of the New York City board of Education that she could not hold a teaching license because she was overweight. She weighed 182 pounds.

Commissioner Graves based his ruling on a legal technicality. Miss Freistater's appeal, he said, was not filed within the required time. He did not discuss her weight, but he said in his opinion:

"Of course, weight is not an important factor in determining a person's efficiency as a teacher. The remedy, however, is through the local school authorities. The commissioner of education may not substitute his judgment for the judgment of such authorities."

HITLER

an impersonal idea. They bring people together.

Eden, the English aristocrat, with a fixed idea of a true League of Nations, and Litvinoff, the Jewish intellectual with the obsession of a Soviet world, speak the same language when they sit in conference.

Hitler's threats against communism do not scare Litvinoff. The man of the Soviet knows Russia never has been conquered, and to him, what Hitler fears is underground communism among his own people.

As shrewd as Hitler, but less aggressive, Litvinoff tries to reach his point through patient penetration and negotiation.

Eden, like Litvinoff, is a negotiator-type. But to the British representative, as to Hitler, communism would appear a danger. Eden, however, would see it in a different light from Hitler.

To Eden, the League of Nations which he used a few months ago to attempt to force an Italian-Ethiopian peace, is now an instrument which he may use against Germany, and possibly in the future against Russia.

Flaminio and Sarraut, the Frenchmen, are not so much psychological personalities as symbols of the nervous system of France.

I think they are emotionally keyed to feel that there is a profound intention of the whole German revolution to dominate the world, and that if the Fuehrer's troops cross the border to march to Paris it will be not for vengeance but to establish a kingdom of God directed by Hitler.

In the background of the European crisis, two other potentially significant psychological personalities are Premier Mussolini of Italy and Hajimar Schacht of Germany.

Mussolini, no less adventurous than Hitler, is nevertheless a negotiator. He Duce, however, has a more flexible personality and more flexible goals.

Schacht represents the cool economic type of thinking in Germany—a type less interested in glory and more in sound economics.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicks were visitors in Memphis yesterday afternoon and last night.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, March 13. (AP)—Fears that European discussions aimed at preservation of peace may fall were reflected today in a progressively lower movement in the stock market.

Shares lost 1 to 4 or more points. Each time a halt in the decline appeared, activity diminished, and prices again fell with an increase in the trading pace. The late tone was weak, and transactions approximated 2,750,000 shares.

TRENTON, N. J., March 13. (AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann, his last reprieve deadline passed at midnight last night, paced his cell today still convinced he would not die for the kidnap-slaying of the Lindbergh baby.

Gov. Harold G. Hoffman, who stayed Hauptmann's execution on Jan. 17, announced yesterday that he does not intend to grant a new reprieve, that, in fact, he has no legal power to do so now.

Hauptmann told his chief counsel, C. Lloyd Fisher, he is confident he will somehow win a new reprieve. Fisher did not tell him of Hoffman's announcement.

The governor, despite his announcement, continued his investigation today of the Lindbergh crime, which, he has said, he believes is not completely solved.

at random

By BYRON PRICE
(Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

It now is possible to get a somewhat clearer view of the republican situation, although many obscurities persist.

The most prominent feature of the picture is the effort of a powerful group of old-line leaders to prevent any foreclosures of the presidential nomination in advance of the convention.

This effort is focused principally in the east and mid-west. The plan is to keep the convention balance of power in the hands of a sizeable bloc of delegations pledged to no candidate.

To this movement adhere many of the recognized leaders of the old guard. Apparently no objection is raised by the friends of most of the candidates.

Whether Herbert Hoover is to be a candidate or not, his associates appear to believe that his best bet is to let the nomination question remain open. The supporters of Governor Landon manifestly are seeking to keep him as much in the "dark horse" class as possible, and to avoid arousing resentment by entering primary contests.

Naturally, the friends of such other dark horse candidates as Senator Vandenberg and Senator Dickinson interpose no opposition. A dead-lock convention, with a preponderant number of delegates free to shift to a compromise candidate, would be exactly to their liking.

How It May Go
There is one exception — possibly two. The definite exception is Senator Borah. The possible exception is Colonel Knox.

Knox himself refrains from discussing the political wisdom of choosing uninstructed delegates, but his adherents are at work in many states for delegates instructed for Knox. He alone, aside from Borah, is showing a readiness to go into the primaries and fight it out.

Borah's opposition to the uninstructed-delegate program is open and direct. He pronounces it a scheme to disfranchise the common voters and permit the old guard to make its own choice, for its own purposes, in a blackroom caucus.

Thus do events appear to arrange themselves on the basis of the present circumstances, for three successive waves of action.

First comes the initial heat between Borah and Knox, each seeking to line up enough delegates to nominate him.

If these two are stopped, or if they stop each other in the convention, the next step seemingly will be to try out Landon, or possibly Hoover.

Finally, if neither of these can make the grade, the convention must turn to the dark horses. If it is of a mind to select a candidate with a middle-ground record on the "new deal," it will be offered Vandenberg. If it seems better to take an out-and-out, it will be asked to look over Dickinson.

Whether any prophetic implications...

THIS NATURAL FOOD GENTLY REGULATES YOUR SYSTEM

Furnishes Needed "Bulk" for Regular Habits

Your doctor will tell you that keeping bowels regular is the most important part of a proper diet. That common constipation is usually due to insufficient "bulk" in meals, and that patent medicines give you only temporary relief.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies gently acting "bulk" which corrects the cause of common constipation. This "bulk" takes up moisture, forming a soft mass which helps to cleanse the system.

ALL-BRAN gives your body the regular internal exercise it needs to prevent sluggishness. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron.

Studies on normal men and women have shown that this delicious cereal is perfectly satisfactory. Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity, with milk or cream—or use in cooking.

Two tablespoonsful daily are usually sufficient. Consult your doctor if you do not gain relief this way. ALL-BRAN is much more effective than part-bran products. Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

itions attach to the fact or not. It is interesting to note that the central Republican question, "to instruct or not to instruct," is not new to politics.

"It would be wiser not to instruct delegates," argued a prominent old-line political leader on another occasion. "The convention should be unfettered. It should be prepared to do what is best for party and country in the immediate circumstances which confront it."

"The plan of uninstructed delegates" would disfranchise the great body of voters," replied another. "and would enable a handful of individuals to handpick a candidate by a process of trade and barter."

The date of these utterances was February, 1932. The party referred to was the Democratic party. The gentleman advocating uninstructed delegates was Joubert Shouse, then chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, now president of the Liberty League.

The gentlemen who disagreed with him was Franklin D. Roosevelt, then governor of New York, now president of the United States.

SALES TAX IS LOOMING ISSUE

As long as the education of the children of this state, the protection of property, and a few more duties were the principal functions of its government, the original tax system—granting it had defects—was not far from a reasonable principle. But activities of government have gone so far beyond the original concepts that broadening of the tax base is inevitable.

The property tax was conceived when it was an ideal of government to limit its services and keep taxes low. But while office-seekers have habitually been "agin" high taxes, the tax load has constantly grown. That Texas has rich mineral resources is a fact which has made possible its rapid advancement without breaking the backs of property tax payers.

In other words, when state taxes were low, the present tax system was adequate. Tax burdens have been multiplied by cities, counties, and school districts. Property has borne the main burden of this development.

Today the state government is called upon vastly to increase its services and costs. The people's mandate on old age pensions, for instance, was written into the state constitution. But property cannot assume this new load. The money, in the first place, cannot be raised by the ad valorem tax. But, in the second place, the people have said that the pensions must be paid. How?

Many of those studying the situation see only one answer: The sales tax. Certainly the sales tax has for the first time become a pertinent topic of discussion. Social legislation is so costly that new taxes must be found. Other states have turned to the sales tax.

Two great classes oppose the sales tax. One is that group which opposes all new taxes. The position of this group is almost hopeless in the face of the constitutional mandate. The second group, including Governor James V. Allred, holds that the sales tax is a "tax on poverty" and as such is to be avoided.

Opposition to the "poverty idea" is lessening. Dr. Townsend has gone so far as to gain popularity for a transactions tax which would be far more burdensome than a sales tax, in that it would apply to every transaction instead of to the last sale. Moreover, the sales tax is acceptable to those who receive the pensions, because most pensioners had rather receive pensions and pay the tax than never to be pensioned.

Social legislation is coming to the theory that it involves taxation of those who have jobs, health, and strength for the benefit of those who are jobless, ill, and aged. The sales tax does not violate this theory. That the tax falls upon those benefited is a technical point which cannot be avoided, since the cost of segregating the recipients would be prohibitive.

There may be a better system of supporting social legislation than the sales tax, but if there is it has not yet appeared. All suggestions for higher corporation taxes, taxing "hidden" wealth, and for income taxes fall far short of pointing to the amount of income necessary. It is no longer a question of avoiding new taxes but of discovering the best form of levies. And the sales tax is such a workable levy that those who oppose it are faced with the necessity of proposing an acceptable substitute therefor.

The NEWS in the past consistently opposed the sales tax when neighboring states had no such levies, when trade would have been driven out of the state, and when the demand for state funds was far smaller than now. But in the face of the popular demand for social legislation—which is typical of our newer conception of government in this country—the NEWS is now obliged to give serious consideration to the sales tax as an answer to the question of how old age assistance can be granted.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Mr. Roosevelt soaks the rich and the rich soak Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Roosevelt soaks the rich again and if they don't look out there will be no one left to support the American Liberty League.

The new tax plan—drives with New Deal philosophy. If Congress accepts it, the New Deal will have inched along a bit farther in sharing industrial wealth and restoring mass purchasing power.

Proposal to tax corporation profits by levying on undivided surpluses and dividends on a get-'em-going-or-coming scheme was substituted at the last moment for an earlier decision by Roosevelt to ask Congress for an inheritance tax and a larger assessment against higher bracket incomes.

The more Roosevelt studied his tax problem, the more this relatively radical idea appealed to him. Since everything that happens in Washington this year has a political aspect, it is better than a good guess that the president was especially impressed with the desirability of appealing to consumers, who are fed up with increasing taxes on food and will now benefit by a great reduction in such taxes, and to small stockholders, who presumably will benefit from more and bigger dividends stimulated by the surplus tax.

Here are the various claims made for the plan: The rich will pay more taxes. Well-to-do stockholders will pay more, too, but will receive more money in dividends. Purchasing power will expand because dividend recipients will spend more, because consumers will be able to buy more farm products, and because some of the distributed profits may go into wages.

The holding company idea will be discouraged, because undivided surpluses won't be used to acquire subsidiaries or buy stock in other corporations—another sock at "bigness." (Page Justice Brandeis and Dr. Frankfurter.)

Excess productive capacity will be discouraged, because corporations won't be so likely to expand plants unless there's pressing demand for it. Corporations won't have large surpluses to toss into the stock market and encourage dangerous booms.

In traffic campaign film, a midwestern mayor acts the role of auto victim. In some cities, the audience might find this less instructive than entertaining.

"In treatment of diseases, radio will be used to induce artificial fever." Our first intimation that the one we ran when a politician came on was artificial.

The New Jersey governor may be courting political suicide, since there is danger of losing the votes of all those Hauptmann witnesses.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, March 12 (AP)—It had been a busy day, and for hours the railroad commission had labored behind closed doors on a mass of orders.

Four o'clock, five o'clock—the hours slipped away while a correspondent waited patiently to ask Chairman Ernest O. Thompson some questions. He couldn't be interrupted.

"Big pardon," the correspondent asked a commission employe as 6 o'clock approached: "are they still in conference?"

"Yes," said the employe, "but it won't be long now."

"Well, never mind," said the correspondent. "I'll write about the commission working until six o'clock. That's a better story."

Publicity given the declaration of independence in connection with March 2 observance greatly stimulated interest of tourists in that document on display in the capital.

Workmen who had removed the yellowed sheet of paper for the journey to Old Washington-on-the-Brazos put it back two days later and curious circle of children and grownups viewed it almost uninteruptedly.

There was a slight flurry just before the document was restored to its niche in the entrance hall near the rotunda when a report got about that it had been lost. It was located, however, in the Rangers office.

Another object of great interest to tourists—also native Texans visiting the capital for the first time—is a copy of the state's second capital at Houston in 1836-37.

Built by an architectural firm of Houston, the facade standing on a table in the rotunda, shows a two-story frame house marked by long galleries and green shutters.

It will be placed in the state museum to be built on the campus of the University of Texas.

The only other objects more or less permanently located on the rotunda first floor are the bust of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson and two swivel chairs for watchmen.

"Good dinner, governor?"

"Oh, farish," said he. "Had baked chicken again."

"Don't you like baked chicken?"

"Occasionally, but not too often. Rather have fried ham, or chile with beans, as a steady diet."

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic: Jesus teaches his disciples to pray.

Scripture lesson: Luke 11:1-13.

1. And it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3. Give us day by day our daily bread.

4. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive everyone that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5. And he said unto them, which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6. For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7. And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8. I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10. For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12. Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

Immediately answers our prayer by planting a seed. We may think the prayer is unanswered, while all the time the answer is already working in our life towards consummation."—Speaker's Bible.

The Promise—v. 10
"For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened." Persevering prayer is always prevailing prayer. If the object for which it originally asks is not specifically granted, something better is sure to be granted in its place. "There is something rebuking, and yet amazingly encouraging, in his serene confidence that there is no such thing as an unanswered prayer. This does not mean that every request receives a specific answer in the shape in which we ask it; our Lord himself asked three times that the cup might pass from him, nevertheless the cup remained. Still, it is true that there is no such thing as an unanswered prayer. Prayer is itself a moving of the door; we are nearer to God than if we had not prayed."—Devotional Commentary.

"Much More Your Heavenly Father"—v. 11-12
"And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask a loaf, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion?" "Think of a kind human father and then of the Heavenly Father. To a hungry son asking for bread would a father give a stone? It may look like a loaf, but it cannot nourish. Will he give a poisonous serpent when a wholesome fish is requested? Instead of an egg, will a venomous scorpion be given? To ask these questions is to answer them. The application is clear: "Much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him!" Infinitely better is he than any earthly parent, and infinitely better is the gift he will bestow upon us for the asking. It is the gift of the Holy Spirit. "There are five contrasts in this passage: An earth father with an Heavenly; good gifts with spiritual gifts; a stone with bread; a serpent with a fish; and a scorpion with an egg. The similarity in color and shape between a Syrian loaf and a stone, and between a coiled up scorpion and an egg, has often been noticed."—Student's Commentary.

"Lord, Teach Us To Pray"—v. 1
1. Pray, Prayer is the soul's sincere desire. It is the Christian's vital breath. It is a great privilege. It is an imperative duty.

2. Pray in the name of Jesus. If we believe, we must ask in his name, believing. Our prayers must reach by way of Calvary if they ever reach heaven.

Law Moves to Send Jockey to Reform School

FORT WORTH, March 13.—District Attorney W. R. Parker moved today to send Donald Fay, 17-year-old jockey, to the Texas reformatory at Gatesville to serve his sentence for slaying T. W. Watson, Arlington Downs race track watchman Nov. 23, 1934.

Fay was arrested yesterday at Hot Springs, Ark., where he was riding at the Oakland Park track, and turned over to Texas officers.

Fay was sentenced to four years, six months and eight days, the time intervening from the date of his trial until his twenty-first birthday, and was paroled to an aunt, Mrs. J. C. Oldfield, in Co. pus Christi.

The parole was revoked after the jockey disappeared from his aunt's home in June last year, Parker said.

Watson, aged night watchman, was fatally shot in an attempted hold-up. Fay admitted the shooting at his trial.

CO-OP MOVEMENT GAINS FIRM HOLD IN UNITED STATES WITH 3,000 GROUPS DOING BUSINESS

BRITISH CO-OP TRADE SECOND TO BANK OF ENGLAND

Sweeping growth of the co-operative movement in the United States, to the point where annual business of the co-ops totals hundreds of millions of dollars, is told by Bertram B. Fowler, noted magazine writer, in this story. Fowler became interested in the movement through contact with co-ops in Massachusetts and made an extensive study of the whole program.

By BERTRAM B. FOWLER
(Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

The co-ops have taken hold in America.

What is a co-op? A co-op is a group of consumers banded together to run a business for themselves. It may be as gas station, or may be a grocery store, or a feed warehouse, or a milk distribution plant.

But in every case the idea is the same. These men go into business to sell themselves whatever they need. They run the business through their own appointed managers and at the end of the year divide the profits among themselves.

From Massachusetts to California a chain of co-operative enterprises is springing up. In factory towns and rural communities the co-op signs are appearing. Co-op gas stations are dotting the west. In many states they are challenging the big distributors for the markets.

Co-op tires are grinding out the miles on U. S. highways. In the cars are full of co-op gas and the crank cases with co-op oil.

A few figures will show the magnitude of this rapidly growing movement. For the consumer co-operatives as a whole, it is figured that there are now about 3,000 in the country, with a membership of 1,800,000. Last year they did a total business estimated at $365,000,000.

Among these are about 2,000 co-op gas and oil station groups, with more than 500,000 members. It is estimated that these groups are turning back in patronage dividends about $8,000,000 a year and the number of trucks operated by them runs into the thousands.

Farmers Join Movement
Some of the most powerful farm organizations have joined the consumer co-operation as the major item on their programs. They are welding their memberships into co-operative co-operative organizations.

One of the biggest fertilizer factories in the United States is controlled by a co-operative group. Its feed mills range from the little hammer mills scattered through Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Illinois to the big modern plants owned in Buffalo.

There are co-op insurance companies. There are co-operative credit banks with millions of dollars on deposit and so banked that these funds can be used only for co-operative purposes.

There are four big oil blending plants scattered through the west, serving thousands of co-op members. They own their own tank cars on the railroads, their fleets of tank trucks on the roads. Yes, the co-ops have very definitely come to America.

The idea of consumer co-operation was born in Rochdale, England, more than 90 years ago. At that time 28 poor weavers, weary of listening to political promises, desperate over their own poverty and misery, decided to do something about it themselves rather than wait for the state to act.

They saved their money for a year. At the end of that time they had $140. They put this into a stock of those commodities which all must buy. They rented a store, and the idea of consumer co-operation was born.

Under Democratic Rule
These weavers laid down certain revolutionary rules. They threw overboard the old stock voting system in favor of more democratic rule. No matter how many shares of stock a member might own, he could have but one vote.

The record rule was just as startling. Capital was to have no share in the profits. Capital, like labor, was put on a fixed wage. Shares should always sell at par and draw the legal rate of interest.

What to do with profits caused a third rule to be drawn up. It is this rule, more than anything else, that has been responsible for the phenomenal growth of consumer co-operation during the last few years.

They decided that the man who spent his money over the counter made the profit possible. Therefore all profits must be given back to the consumer members in ratio to what they had purchased for the year. They called this a patronage dividend.

In other words, profits vanished. What looked like profits were but the unexpended portions of the consumer's dollar and must go back to him.

That was 90 years ago. Since then the British co-operative movement has grown into thousands of modern stores. These stores have set up their two big wholesale houses, one in Scotland, one in England. These wholesalers in turn have moved back toward production.

They own more than 150 factories and mills. They buy their own wheat in Canada, handle it through their own elevators, grind it in their own mills, bake it in their own bakeries, and deliver it to the consumer in their own trucks.

Biggest Business in Britain
The co-operative movement has become the largest single business in Great Britain. Its banking business is second only to that of the Bank of England. Half of the families of England and Scotland are members of co-op societies. And the idea is spreading faster every day.

The idea moved to Sweden, where practically every commodity was controlled in price by a monopoly. Since 1918 the Swedish Co-operatives have broken or brought into control every trust in Sweden.

Their Consumer Co-operation is fast becoming the national economic order. It sets the prices for most commodities. And it is run by the people themselves. The Swedes call it economic democracy.

It went to Denmark and remade that little country. Finland imported it and became a democratic commonwealth even before she came from under Russian rule. Today no less an authority than the president of the Bank of Finland gives co-operation the major share of the credit for banishing the depression from Finland.

Comes to America
Now it has come to America. There have been co-operatives in America before. The history of American business is strewn with their wreckage.

But this latest co-op activity is based squarely on the success of the movement in Great Britain and Scandinavia. American farmers have taken hold of the idea, and encouraged by their initial success, are pushing on, going more and more things co-operatively.

Millions of them are beginning to talk about economic democracy about a new economic order which they are building themselves.

The movement cannot be laughed off. American business must face the challenge of the co-ops squarely and not attempt to minimize their importance if private business hopes to meet the issue.

For the co-ops represent a revolution in buying habits. The people are discovering that they can run business for themselves, can govern and control it democratically. And what is more to the point, that they can save the profits for themselves.

Force Changes in U. S.
In doing all these things, the co-ops are forcing certain changes upon American business. The co-op idea is taking hold.

It may mean that the people through their co-operative organizations are going to capture the major part of the retail business of the nation. Or it may mean that they are going to force American business to reform along co-operative lines.

In any event, the co-ops have come to work deep and far-reaching changes. One cannot evade figures. And the figures of co-op gains are being written up for all to see.

$50,000 Exposition Hall of Religion

It's a long way from the "gospel riders" of early Texas, who carried a pistol in their holster and a rifle in their lap as they rode around their "circuit," to the $50,000 Hall of Religion now being built on the grounds of the Texas Centennial Exposition, the $25,000,000 World's Fair which opens in Dallas June 6. Religious lore of Texas over a period of 400 years will be housed in the building, which is being sponsored and built by the Lone Star Gas Company. From the top of the building's 75-foot tower "The Eternal Flame of Life" will burn from the Exposition's opening until its close, Nov. 29.

CRUISE TO NOWHERE

by Deck Morgan © 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

Chapter XI
It was the ship's gala or cabaret night. More than 200 guests sat at small tables in the rear ball-room, surrounding a square of polished floor. Lights were dimmed. Waiters in white mess jackets wove their way in and out, with dunces caps and noise-making favors of red and blue paper. The passengers sat with ship's champagne at their elbows.

The noise rose crescendo until the music began. Several couples were already on the dancing floor when Jane entered with Tino Rossi. There was a clap or two for the opera star when he took his place at a choice table, but it was as nothing compared with the addition heaped on Nora Lane, when she came in with Dirk. Nora Lane, grand trouper that she was, hadn't let the passengers down. At the ship's gala she was one of them!

"Why doesn't the entertainment begin?" Jane asked, and Tino, responding to her request, nodded his head to Ken Martin, the master of ceremonies.

Ken sang. That was not a novelty, for he always sang with his orchestra. But tonight he sang to Linda Hayes. By every note, by his gestures and pantomime, Ken Martin showed love on Linda who sat at her table, looking up at him. Everyone in the room seemed to sense the young couple's devotion to each other. Not even the applause at the end of the song broke the spell.

But the applause brought Jane out of her reverie. She wondered if her eyes were moist. She was afraid that they were.

Tino smiled at her. "You are so like a lovely child," he said. "And so much of a woman, too."

Ken stood up to make an announcement. "We have with us this evening," he said, "one of the world's most famous dramatic actresses. It isn't often a master of ceremonies can introduce such an international star, but tonight, ladies and gentlemen, I have the great pleasure of introducing to you Miss Nora Lane."

When the actress arose the applause broke like a clap of thunder. Miss Lane smiled and bowed. Ken Martin stilled the tumult.

"Miss Lane," he said, "we'd be pleased if you would give us a number on our program."

Nora Lane spread her arms graciously, took a long breath, and said, "But what can I do for you?"

"The Portent?" She laughed. "That's much too deep and dark but—right! I'll give you the scene at the end of the third act."

The room was breathlessly still. Lights were lowered. Nora Lane's voice was resonant and clear and charged with emotion. She made every listener feel the despair and stark tragedy of her role.

And then the lights were back, and Nora Lane was smiling, and bowing. She sat down amid applause that filled the room.

Ken Martin tried to talk and eventually was able to be heard. "We have with us this evening another international figure," he said. "Ladies and gentlemen, I give you a brilliant star on the operatic horizon, the baritone, Signor Tino Rossi."

comfort. Suddenly he saw a pair of deck chairs that had been placed in a broad shadow under the stars. His eyes became as still, china eyes, trying to pierce the blackness.

Two indistinct shadows lay behind the fog horns. Tino Rossi, the baritone, was talking there in the darkness with Jane.

"There is no spot on the globe as lovely as the Italian Alps," the singer said. "You should see Cortina D'Ampezzo under the moonlight—ah! Giant spiny pink peaks soaring into a blanket of stars."

Dirk saw an operatic palm lifted heavenward, and two glistening, eager Italian eyes. The light went out, but the voice, as soft as a caress, went on.

"Kisses and moonlight!" the singer said, sighing. "We used to go there when I was studying singing at La Scala. Do you think I am a terrible type-speaking of past loves to a young girl like you? But you are so exclusive. You should know something of romance and gaiety."

Again Dirk saw the hands flung upward with an impressive, contented gesture. He couldn't budge without disturbing Tino's talk.

"Shall we go back to the bar now?" Tino asked. "The cabaret should be over. I can't sleep with all this moonlight. The islands are so restful. Tomorrow at this hour we'll be high up on the harbor shore, reaching for the stars!"

Dirk could listen no more. He knew that he was in love with Jane, and he was jealous.

He stood by the rail as the pair got up to go. Jane came so close to him that he caught the scent of jasmine in her hair. He gripped the rail hard. When he thought the pair was out of sight he lit a cigarette, shielding the flame before his face. After a few puffs he walked slowly down the deck, tossed the cigarette away and went back to the ballroom.

People were beginning to leave. Dirk went straight to Snowshoes and Nora Lane and said, "This party's dying. Let's go on to the bar."

Nora Lane laughed. "I'll go," she said. "If you'll let me sit quietly in a corner, sip a milk punch and talk about shooting ducks with this amazing detective. We're getting along swimmingly."

"What a remarkable woman!" Snowshoes breathed. "Her husband used to take her along to the blind, and she beat him shooting ducks. It was their first quarrel."

They all rose, laughing. Dirk looked at Nora Lane. He could see her walking over the moors toward the duck blind, a gun in the crook of her arm. She was the amazing creature.

Russia Lines Up With France in Hitler Attack

MOSCOW, Mar. 13. (AP)—France's ratification of the Franco-Soviet mutual assistance pact was termed by an official Soviet spokesman today as the first warning to Germany "saber rattlers" that the friends of European peace intend to stand together.

Attempting to disprove Hitler's contention that the pact was an alliance against Germany—the argument on which Der Fuehrer based his violation of the Locarno pact—the spokesman declared, however a desire that the accord serve as a nucleus around which agreements to include Germany could be built.

The official organ of the communist party, Pravda, called for a solid front of all powers "interested in preservation of peace" to back up the ratification of the Franco-Soviet accord.

This treaty is already interlinked with a pact of mutual assistance between the Soviet union and Czechoslovakia.

The newspaper Pravda charged that the Nazis were "systematically trying to terrorize western neighbors and blow up efforts for collective security."

Truett Inspired By World Outlook Of Baptist Church

SHANGHAI, March 13. (AP)—The Rev. Dr. George W. Truett, Dallas, Tex., president of the Baptist world congress, expressed enthusiasm on the "inspiring outlook of the Baptist church the world over" upon his arrival today from Canton.

Dr. Truett, on a world tour accompanied by his wife, said, "It should be a source of profound encouragement to Baptists throughout the United States that Baptist mission work everywhere, notable in China, is progressing remarkably."

"Everywhere I have heard inspiring reports which are accentuated by the fact that the world seems definitely emerging from the depths of the depression."

After six weeks of travel in China, Dr. Truett said he would proceed to Japan and then back to the United States. While here he was to confer with Baptist missionaries on their future program, and to discuss plans for the one hundredth anniversary celebration of the Baptist church in China, this October.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANT
JASPER, Mar. 13. (AP)—Fire, starting from a belt spark, destroyed the operating plant and dry kiln of the Jasper Veneer and Manufacturing Co. today. The loss was estimated at $25,000. The mill had a capacity of 15,000 feet of veneer daily and employed eighty men. General Manager Falmadge Butler said it would not be rebuilt.

HITLER WILL STAND BEHIND OMNIBUS GUNS

NAZIS RESOLVED NOT TO BACK DOWN AN INCH

BY MELVIN K. WHITELEATHER
(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, March 13.—Adolf Hitler and his Nazi third reich stood steadfast today behind the guns they have planted in the Rhine-land, vowing "Nothing in the world can move me from a 'tremendous step forward.'"

With a "come what may" glare in their eyes and compromise seemingly ruled out, the high priests of nazidom looked to London for new British efforts to break down their stubborn determination, but pledged themselves to give no ground on Germany's newfound "freedom."

Der Fuehrer, helled to the echo by tens of thousands in the Rhine-land city of Karlsruhe, coupled his bold refusal to "renounce this sovereignty" with the warning that if his offer of a new European peace system is turned down, "it will never be repeated."

Across Germany, at Koelnberg, General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, the reich's air minister, served notice simultaneously last night.

"Now let come whatever is to come. Germany will stand up to the last man to defend her rights until the last breath."

Until the last few hours, Hitler had apparently been waiting for Britain to prevent other Locarno powers from going further than to pronounce their formal censure of his remilitarization of the Rhine. That was what they did when the reich, in contravention of the treaty of Versailles, brought back military training on March 16, 1935.

Music sheets of rubber will be used for the Olympic games in Berlin next summer as a precaution against bad weather.

IT WORKED FOR ME

Women should take liquid laxatives

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use liquid laxatives, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes biliousness due to constipation, your money back.

Astaire Is Not Satisfied With Contract, Claim

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP)—The World Telegram said today that Fred Astaire, song and dance star of the movies, is dissatisfied with a new contract said to provide him with $4,000,000.

The R-K-O studio, the World Telegram story said, offered Astaire and Ginger Rogers $8,000,000 for eight pictures together. First of Astaire's objections, the story said, is the continued partnership between himself and Miss Rogers.

He is quoted as saying this unvaried pairing of their talents will weaken their box office value.

He also objects to constant work, the newspaper said, and wants from six to eight months off that he might visit his sister Adele, Lady Cavendish, in Ireland.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—Advisability of closing state departments on holidays might be subject to question if the legislature was informed some state employees do not know the reason for them.

The major part of the employees have the holidays classified but a number, evidently, are not well informed upon the significance of the anniversaries observed.

"How come we are getting a holiday today?" one employee asked another in the favorite rendezvous of state workers near the capital.

The other knew the answer. It was March 2, Texas independence day, about which newspapers had carried hundreds of words. The date is regarded as the most important in Texas history, not exceeding April 21, anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto in which the gallant Texans gave effect to the declaration of independence.

One holiday numerous employees are not familiar with is January 19 the birth anniversary of Robert E. Lee, commander of the Confederate's armed forces. A few of the departments even failed to close that day, having forgotten it was in the list of holidays.

State employees work on an average, between 248 and 250 days each year.

Virtually all departments take a half-day off Saturday. All are closed Sundays. Each employee is entitled to 14 days vacation each year and an additional 14 days sick leave. The departments usually close for about 10 days during the Christmas season and in addition are closed on about eight or 10 state and national holidays.

Another little known state holiday is June 3, the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate States of America. It is observed generally, however, through the state and some governors have officially called attention to it in proclamations.

One national holiday about which state employees and department heads appear to care little is February 12, Lincoln's birthday.

Claude E. Teer, chairman of the board of control, said it was not included in the list of statutory holidays but that departments could observe it if the respective heads desired.

"The question, however, has never been raised," Teer commented.

Another holiday, June 19, attracts considerable attention in some quarters but it not observed as a state anniversary. It is Emancipation day, when all negro employees of the state take a day off. A feature of the day's observance is the solicitation of "Juneteenth" contributions from white friends.

Special Issues In 8-Week Trial Studied by Jury

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—A Travis county district court jury today studied three special issues in the eight-week trial of the Community Natural Gas company's attack on a rate reduction order for Wichita Falls.

Affirmative answers on the three issues would favor the city and the Railroad commission, which ordered domestic rates cut from 6 3/4 to 6 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. It estimated consumers would be saved $41,000 annually by the reduction.

Jurors were instructed to determine if $1,086,587 as allowed by the commission was a fair value of an undepreciated reserve account, and if a 7 per cent annual rate of return permitted by the commission was a reasonable rate on the undepreciated rate base.

The company, a subsidiary of the Lone Star Gas company, attacked the reduction order which the commission ordered effective March 1, 1935, with refunds to October 1, 1931. It claimed an appraisal of $1,510,041 while engineers for the city and commission appraised the Wichita Falls properties at $1,058,809.

The jury retired, late yesterday after receiving the charge from Judge Ralph W. Yarbrough and hearing six hours of argument by attorneys.

WEINERT FILES

AUSTIN, March 13 (AP)—R. A. Weinert of Seguin today filed formal applications in counties of the 19th senatorial district as a candidate for the unexpired term of W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales, resigned.

Governor Allred set a special election for March 28 when Hopkins resigned upon becoming an assistant attorney general of the United States. Nearly two years of his term was unexpired.
