Lunar Craft Pronounced In Good Shape By Crew

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Apollo 14's astronauts today inspected their lunar craft for the first time since blastoff and pronounced it "in really good shape" for America's third moon landing Friday.

The two and one-half hour inspection, which ground controllers said "went very well," ended two days of near-idleness for the crew.

"Apollo 14's progressing very nicely," said lacturn commander Alan B. Shepard as he and rookie space fliers Stuart A. Roosa and Edgar D. Mitchell beamed a 42-minute television show to earth 207,000 miles away.

"We're now right on schedule. It's going along extremely smoothly. And, we have a happy little ship here." A bright yellow, banana-shaped moon was clearly visible as Roosa panned his color camera through the window of the command ship Kitty Hawk. Roosa then turned the camera on his companions as they floated into Antares.

"From our point of view, the moon appears about the size of a grapefruit held at arm's length," Mitchell said. "The moon is starting to exceed the earth in apparent size."

Craters Visible
When Roosa adjusted his camera, heavily shadowed craters were visible along the lunar terminator—the line between sunlight and darkness on the moon's front face.

"That's really the way it looks with the eye," Roosa said. "It's just starting to get into the area where the larger craters would show up."

At a news briefing after Shepard and Mitchell returned to the Kitty Hawk, ground flight director Gerald P. Griffin reported "It all went very well" during the inspection.

Griffin also told newsmen a small course correction probably will be made tonight. A half-second blast from Apollo 14's main rocket would put the ship on the proper path to go into orbit Thursday around the moon.

Egypt To Make Crucial Decision On Cease-Fire

By United Press International
President Anwar Sadat called Egypt's highest policy making body into session today to make the crucial decision whether to extend the Middle East cease-fire past its expiration Friday as urged by U.N. Secretary General Thant.

Political sources in Cairo predicted Egypt will refuse an official extension—but will continue to observe the truce on an informal basis.

Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir reaffirmed in Jerusalem Tuesday that "if Israel is not fired on, she will not shoot."

Sadat will deliver the decision of the 150 member central committee of the Arab Socialist Union to the national assembly Thursday for approval.

Israeli newspapers said Egypt has massed 60,000 troops along the Suez Canal front with hundreds of anti-aircraft guns, tanks, heavy mortars and artillery pieces.

Jordanian and Saudi Arabian troops supported by Palestinian guerrillas were guarding the Jordan River cease-fire line. Newsmen who visited the Jordanian side said Israeli troops across the river were digging ditches and setting up barbed wire entanglements.

Thant, in a report to the U.N. Security Council, urged Egypt, Jordan and Israel Tuesday to "withhold fire, to exercise military restraint and to maintain the quiet which has prevailed in the area since August, 1970."

Egypt told U.N. peace negotiator Gunnar V. Jarring in a note made public Tuesday that Israel's talk of peace was meaningless as long as the Israelis refused total withdrawal from Arab territories occupied during the 1967 war.

Israeli officials in Jerusalem said Israel is discussing its latest move with representatives of countries on the U.N. Security Council. Political sources said this was being done to make sure Israel's position is understood in case Egypt takes the Middle East crisis to the council.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Syrian Prime Minister L.L. Gen. Hafez Assad completed talks with top Russian officials in Moscow Tuesday and the two countries pledged increased cooperation in the struggle against Israel.

Truman Back Home From Hospital

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (UPI)—Former President Harry S. Truman, eating and sleeping well and "in very good health for an 86-year-old man," is back home again following a 12-day hospitalization.

Truman and his wife, Bess, 85, were driven from Research Hospital in Kansas City, Mo., to their Independence home Tuesday afternoon by Mike Westwood, Truman's chauffeur and bodyguard.

Truman entered the hospital Jan. 21 with "moderately severe abdominal pains," said to have been caused by colitis, an inflammation of the large intestine.

Nixon, Aides Discuss War Situation In Laos

Laos Deliberates Russia's Charges

By United Press International

The Laotian cabinet convened today to discuss charges by Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin of a U.S.-South Vietnamese invasion of the country. President Nixon held an unscheduled meeting with top aides Tuesday night but the government maintained an official silence on what was going on in Laos.

Reliable sources in Washington said the operation called for 25,000 South Vietnamese troops and 9,000 Americans, who would stay on the Vietnamese side of the border.

Soviet and Japanese reports said the operation began two days ago.

White House officials acknowledged that Nixon held the meeting with Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Adm. Thomas Moorer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; CIA Director Richard C. Helms and Henry A. Kissinger, national security affairs adviser.

Laird earlier in the day had declined to discuss Laos other than to say no U.S. ground troops have been or would be sent there.

Reliable sources in Washington said the 9,000 American GIs assigned to the operation were to clear the way in South Vietnam for South Vietnamese troops to cross to Laos.

The sources said the American mission also was to clear Communist troops from along Highway 9 which runs across South Vietnam's northern provinces and extends to the Mekong River which forms the border with Thailand. The sources indicated the target of the clearing operation was the Bolovens Plateau, where some 9,000 North Vietnamese troops have been reported establishing a new headquarters for strikes into Cambodia and South Vietnam.

In Vientiane, Laos, government officials denied knowledge of any such Allied operation into the southern part of the country but said the meeting in the capital would discuss Kosygin's charge. The Soviet leader spoke of an "outrageous invasion" of Laos and later the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia said South Vietnamese troops under the direct command of American officers had invaded Laos.

Gen. Thongphan Knocksy, a Laotian Defense Ministry spokesman, denies reports of a secret agreement between Laotian and South Vietnamese generals to permit South Vietnamese forces to advance up to 32 miles into Laos for forays against the Ho Chi Minh Trail.

"I can assure you with honor that there were no such military secret pacts," Thongphan said. "As long as Prime Minister (Prince) Souvanna Phouma is the prime minister of Laos, there will be no military pact with any country," he said.

Laos is officially neutral as a result of the 1962 Geneva Accords.

Wreckage Of Missing F111 Bomber, Bodies Of Crew Found In Louisiana

MANDEVILLE, La. (UPI)—Larry Bieda and Billy Majors hiked today a forest of tall pine Tuesday afternoon to dig a drainage ditch, and stumbled upon the bodies of the pilot and navigator of a missing F111A fighter bomber the Air Force had all but given up on.

A bright orange parachute dangling from a treetop marked the spot. The cords of the parachute led to a shattered escape capsule and the bodies of Lt. Col. Bruce D. Stocks and Maj. Billy C. Gentry on the ground below.

There was no sign of the main body of the $8.5 million plane, only the capsule which Bieda and Majors said appeared to have hit the ground and bounced about 20 feet.

The Air Force dispatched investigators from Carswell AFB in Fort Worth and Keesler AFB, Miss., and declared the area off limits. The Louisiana Civil Air Patrol was ordered to search the vicinity for the fuselage of the plane. It was speculated the pilot and navigator had a few seconds to eject before the plane crashed.

The plane disappeared while on a checkout flight Jan. 8. The Air Force, Civil Air Patrol and other aircraft flew 3,300 hours searching half a million square miles of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Alabama, Oklahoma and Mississippi.

There were more than 700 reports from people living in four states who thought they saw or heard a plane go down Jan. 8. The Air Force checked out all the leads that seemed remotely plausible, but found nothing. On Tuesday of last week the search was suspended.

Some thought the airplane might have fallen into the Gulf of Mexico. There were even wild surmises the plane was flown to Cuba or some other foreign country.

Previous to the latest crash F111s had several accidents, with 13 planes destroyed and 11 persons killed. The plane has been grounded twice and taken out of service in Vietnam once.

As a result of the second grounding General Dynamics, maker of the F111, was forced to put 274 F111s through rigid fitness tests. The plane flown by Bieda and Gentry had just been tested and was on its final test flight when it disappeared.

The area where the escape capsule and the bodies of Stocks and Gentry were found is a thick pine forest just north of Lake Pontchartrain and 30 miles north of New Orleans.

A lonely hardwood road affords the only access to the area, and Bieda and Majors had to walk two miles to get to their car before they could report the wreckage.

OPEC Against Cutting Off Oil To Japan And Western Europe

TEHRAN (UPI)—Ten oil-producing nations decided today against cutting off oil to Japan and Western Europe as a means of forcing higher payments but will try unspecified "other measures," Persian Gulf sources said today.

The sources said a majority of the delegates at a meeting of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) overruled demands for a cutoff. There was no indication what the "other measures" would be. Iranian Finance Minister Jamshid Amouzegar, elected president of OPEC today, told newsmen the group would pass a "very strong resolution" against the companies for refusing to meet demands for price increases.

Month-long talks between representatives of 22 Western oil companies and delegates for the six Persian Gulf states in OPEC collapsed Tuesday and set the stage for the West's most serious fuel crisis since the 1967 Middle East War.

The Gulf states—Iran, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Kuwait, Abu Dhabi and Qatar—had set today as the deadline for reaching agreement.

Lord Strathalmond of British Petroleum, chief negotiator for the 22 oil companies, said Tuesday night "We are terribly disappointed because progress was being made but time was against us."

"It has not been possible to reach agreement on the financial items or to obtain adequate assurances that a sufficient volume of oil will be available for the needs of the consuming countries," Strathalmond said.

He said the companies' best offer would be a 10 percent increase in price for 1971 and a 5 percent increase for 1972.

OPEC sources said OPEC was seeking an initial increase of 25 cents per barrel plus an additional five cents yearly for the next five years.

Amouzegar said "The Western companies preferred not to reach an agreement, therefore they should bear all the responsibility for further action against them."

Michigan City Has Snow For 35 Days

By United Press International
Snow fell for the 35th consecutive day Tuesday at Hancock, Mich., bringing the season's total accumulation there to 160 inches. Seven hundred miles due south, residents of Cairo, Ill., haven't seen snow since the new year arrived—the first time that has happened since 1934.

Blizzard conditions remained in effect today in Hancock, a small city at the tip of the Upper Peninsula, as wind gusts up to 40 miles an hour whipped the heavy snowfall into the air.

Light snow drifted through Wisconsin Tuesday accompanied by above-zero temperatures. The thermometer read 1 above at noon in Milwaukee—the first time it managed to push above the zero mark in 79 hours.

Heavy snow warnings were in effect overnight and today and tonight snow or freezing rain was expected over the Central Plains.

In parts of Wyoming and Central Montana one to three inches of snow accumulated during the early hours today.

Winter eased its frigid grip through most of the nation except for an area from North Dakota to New England.

A 73-year-old man was found frozen to death Tuesday near his home in Manistique, Mich., where a cold wave plunged temperatures to -20 below zero.

New Yorkers continued to shiver in 6-degree weather on their second-coldest day of the winter. Consolidated Edison, crippled by a broken generator, continued its 5 per cent power curtailment for a second day.

PASS IT ON. Newest communications development seems to be "fire escape network," as illustrated by some workers in Warsaw, Poland, who gathered to pass along "high-level" information.

MRS. AGNEW BRIEFED — Randy Pendleton, Director of Texas Federal-State Relations, shows Mrs. Spiro Agnew, wife of the Vice-President, the symbol of Texas' campaign to encourage drivers in Texas to "drive friendly." The Texas safety effort has captured national attention, and several other states have asked permission to adapt it for their use. Pendleton, the Texas Governor's office representative in Washington, credited the news media of Texas for much of the success of the statewide campaign.

Texas Placed 38th In Evaluation Of Effectiveness Of Legislatures

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Texas ranked 38th in an evaluation of the effectiveness of the 50 state legislatures published today by a nonpartisan citizens group.

The Citizens Conference on State Legislatures ranked the 50 states on the basis of evidence showing the degree to which each is "functional, accountable, informed, independent and representative."

Conference officials said the 14-month, $200,000 study was the result of the first systematic evaluation of legislatures' capabilities.

California ranked at the top of the list. Other top-rated legislatures were New York, Illinois, Florida, Wisconsin, Iowa, Hawaii, Michigan, Nebraska and Minnesota.

Among the neighboring states of Texas, Louisiana ranked 33rd, Oklahoma 14th, and New Mexico 11th.

The study did not measure legislative output but the organization, structure and procedure employed by each state's lawmakers.

Texas ranked fairly high on one of the five major criteria—17th on the "representative" scale. But low scores on the other four—36th in "accountability," 43rd in "information," and 45th in "independence"—pulled the overall ranking down.

The citizens conference lauded as recent improvements the creation last year of the speaker's committee of 100 to study operations and procedures of the House, an orientation program for lawmakers conducted by the new Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, and "relatively generous" interim expense allowances for legislators.

The study report recommends an amendment to the state constitution to give legislators a minimum salary of $15,000 a year instead of the present $4,800.

Other suggestions include removal of constitutional restrictions against annual sessions and reduction of the number of committees on which lawmakers serve.

The study termed the broad legislative powers of Texas' lieutenant governor a "major weakness."

The citizens conference was formed in 1965 by business, education, labor, agriculture, and government leaders as part of a national effort to improve the effectiveness of state government.

Heaviest Fighting Reported Across South Vietnam Since Last April 14

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. military sources today reported the heaviest fighting in South Vietnam in 10 months. The American Command said waves of U.S. B52 bombers and other jets kept up relentless attacks on Communist supply lines in Laos.

Neither the U.S. Command nor military sources commented on reports from Tokyo and Moscow of a South Vietnamese incursion in Laos and a gathering of American forces on the South Vietnamese side of the border.

Military sources said American troops clashed with Viet Cong and North Vietnamese units 46 times between Monday night and Tuesday night and other Allied troops engaged the Communists 30 times in the same period.

Viet Cong gunners hit a dozen U.S. military bases in 72 hours with the latest attack at nightfall Tuesday when 15 rounds of 122mm rockets crashing into the Americal Division headquarters at Chu Lai, 335 miles northeast of Saigon. No casualties were reported.

American A37 Dragonfly jet bomber crashed from unknown causes Monday night in Ratanakiri Province of Northeast Cambodia. The pilot was killed.

The U.S. Command reported that American B52 bombers, F4 Phantom fighter-bombers, and carrier-based Navy jets struck in Laos. In the Laotian capital of Vientiane, a government military spokesman said the American air strikes had been stepped up over the past few days.

Reports from Phnom Penh said today that 322 Cambodian Communist guerrillas and their families had defected to the government side at a town 15 miles south of the capital.

The defectors brought with them 28 weapons, 2,300 rounds of ammunition and 60 grenades. It was the most Communist defectors yet reported by the Cambodian Command.

Lt. Col. Am Rong, the official Cambodian military spokesman, said Communist units fired seven rounds of 75mm recoilless rifle fire against Cambodian positions around Pich Nil Pass on Highway 4 southwest of Phnom Penh. No casualties were reported.

Tightest Security Blackouts On Laos Remain In Force

By United Press International
One of the tightest security blackouts in memory remained in force today on the progress of a major offensive by 25,000 South Vietnamese and 9,000 American troops to drive the North Vietnamese out of the northwestern corner of South Vietnam.

The White House, the State Department, the Pentagon and the U.S. command in Saigon all refused to lift the curtain of secrecy, and the Laotian Defense Minister denied that the offensive had crossed the border into Laos as Russian and Japanese reports claimed.

Reliable Washington sources said earlier this week that 25,000 South Vietnamese and 9,000 American troops were involved in the operation.

The Ho Chi Minh Trail leading from North Vietnam southward through Laos into South Vietnam and Cambodia dips into South Vietnam near Khe Sanh, a one-time U.S. Marine base just south of the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) and 10 miles east of the Laotian border.

East-west Highway 9 which parallels the DMZ crosses South Vietnam at this point and extends into Laos where the Communist defenders of the Ho Chi Minh Trail are at their greatest strength. The Washington sources said the South Vietnamese presumably would be assigned to go across the border for a broader cleanup.

The Nixon administration said no U.S. ground forces would enter Laos but did not rule out air support.

Solons Expected To Administer Death Blow To Smith's Proposal

AUSTIN (UPI)—Texas lawmakers today were expected to finally administer the death blow to Gov. Preston Smith's controversial $450 million revenue bond proposal, backing themselves into a corner that will require them to pass the biggest tax bill in state history.

Another item in Smith's spend-now-pay-later plan—a deficit spending proposal to appropriate $48.4 million to bail out the state welfare department without passing supporting taxes—was also slated for consideration.

Mutscher predicted the bond program would fail, pointing out that he has seen no evidence of Smith's making any effort to line up support for the plan.

The speaker said the emergency spending bill to send $37.9 million to the welfare department to continue assistance payments and repay $13.5 million borrowed earlier by that agency has the support of a majority of House members.

Without approval of the deficit spending plan, House members will face the chore of writing an emergency tax bill that will bring in about $65 million by Aug. 31.

A proposed increase in the state sales tax from 3.25 to 4 percent—which would bring in about $40 million this fiscal year—is now pending in House committee.

The House temporarily considered Smith's bond plan Tuesday, but delayed action after Rep. Ben Atwell, D-Dallas, its sponsor, could not answer questions about the program.

In other developments Tuesday, the House approved and returned to the Senate a plan to allow the state to spend more money on welfare assistance payments.

Two Defendants In Stock Suit Ask For Delay In Proceedings

DALLAS (UPI)—Two defendants in the Securities Exchange Commission's stock fraud suit asked U.S. District Judge Sarah T. Hughes Tuesday to delay proceedings in the suit.

Attorneys for defendants John Osorio and Donald Akins said they have not had sufficient time to prepare an answer to the SEC's allegations of illegal manipulation of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. stock.

But another defendant, Frank W. Sharp of Houston, asked Judge Hughes to go ahead and turn Monday's hearing into a full-fledged trial of the case.

'There's More To War Than Killing Enemy'

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (NEA)—Army Sgt. Richard S. McAllister says that even before he went to Vietnam he had decided "there's more to war than killing the enemy and I wanted to do something a little extra."

When he found out about the orphans' plight, McAllister says: "I wrote to my wife, Sandy, that something had to be done for the kids over there. She asked the students at Roxboro Middle School in Mattydale, where she is a teacher, if they wanted to help. The answer was an overwhelming 'yes' and they set up a local clothing collection.

McAllister then contacted his pre-Army employer, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, and Equitable suggested that each of its 50 national field offices organize a clothing drive for McAllister's campaign, which he named "Project Smile."

8:23 p.m.—Telecast showing the Fra Mauro landing site which lasts 14 minutes. Shepard and Mitchell then begin to activate the lunar lander.

11:53 p.m.—The lunar lander piloted by Shepard and Mitchell separates from the command module piloted by Roosa, with moon landing scheduled for 4:17 a.m. Friday.

City Will Open Building Bids For Auditorium

Bidders will be on hand at City Hall tomorrow afternoon to submit figures on construction costs for Pampa's M.K. Brown Memorial Auditorium.

City Manager Mack Wofford said today bids will be opened starting at 2 p.m. in the City Commission room.

Bids will be received on the auditorium building and separate bids will be opened for stage equipment and auditorium seats.

Herbert Brasher, Lubbock architect, will attend the bid opening at tomorrow's meeting of the City Commission.

Wofford said it is not likely the contract will be let tomorrow but at the regular meeting of the commission on Tuesday, Feb. 9, this, he said, will give the city staff time to study the bids for specifications compliance.

LAST SHADOW GONE

HIROSHIMA, Japan (UPI)—The last of Hiroshima's atomic "shadows"—outlines of people burned into walls of buildings by the heat of the Aug. 6, 1945 U.S. nuclear bombing—disappeared Tuesday.

Workers tore down the Hiroshima branch of the Sumitomo Bank, which had for 26 years carried the outline of a woman incinerated by the blast.

Such atomic "shadows" were a common sight in the years after the first wartime atomic bombing but they gradually disappeared as roads were repaved and buildings torn down.

Several members of the Oklahoma Senate offered amendments Tuesday to an anti-campus riot bill, but the most original was Sen. Leon Field's proposal.

Field suggested campus rioters be sentenced to sit in the electric chair for seven days. The amendment failed.

Laird: No U.S. Troops Used In Laos

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird declared Tuesday that no American troops are being used in Laos, and that none will be. But he declined to further discuss allied military operations in that area.

Questioned by newsmen after testifying on Capitol Hill, Laird refused to comment on widespread news reports that South Vietnamese forces had moved into Laos, under command of U.S. officers, in a strike on Communist operations there.

"But Mr. Secretary," one reporter said, "every news medium in the world is reporting that his operation is taking place, including Izvestia (the Soviet newspaper)."

"The only fact is that Izvestia is not speaking the truth," Laird said.

Izvestia said a major force of South Vietnamese troops "under the direct command of American officers" had moved into Laos in an action to take over southern provinces.

"Has this administration opened a credibility gap?"

Laird was asked. He replied: "We will not open any credibility gap... the e will be and there are no American ground combat troops operating in Laos. We are proceeding fully in accord with restrictions approved by Congress. I have no intention of asking Congress to change these restrictions."

"When will we find out what is going on about this operation?" a reporter shouted as Laird strolled away.

He said the answers would have to come from Gen. Creighton Abrams, U.S. commander in Vietnam.

"As you know," Laird said earlier, "I have complete confidence in Gen. Abrams and also confidence in the media and the embargo (on news from Indochina)."

It was learned that a plan worked out by Washington and Saigon envisaged use of 25,000 South Vietnamese troops and 9,000 Americans.

The Americans reliable sources said would be strictly limited to operations within South Vietnam.

Nixon Addresses Prayer Breakfast

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon said Tuesday that, like Solomon of old, the nation should pray for an "understanding heart" toward each other and all peoples.

"Let that be our prayer today," Nixon said in brief remarks at the annual National Prayer Breakfast. "Let us have an understanding heart in our relations with other nations, races, religions, parties, generations and each other."

More than 3,000 persons attended the breakfast at the Washington Hilton Hotel in what has become one of the biggest events of the year in this city. It is patterned after prayer breakfasts in Congress, all 50 states and 1,000 cities.

Every member of the cabinet and what one congressman said was half the membership of the House and Senate were present. Chief Justice Warren E. Burger gave the message. Evangelist Billy Graham, who did not speak, was at the head table.

204 Americans Thrown Into Jail In Mexico On Narcotics Charges

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — An increasing number of young Americans who come to Mexico seeking narcotics end their vacation under arrest and facing up to 12 years in prison.

U. S. Embassy official said 204 Americans, mostly between 18 and 25 were in Mexican jails on narcotics charges as of Jan. 1. The total was 187 last June.

More Americans are serving time in Mexico for drug offenses than in any country outside the United States, the officials said.

U. S. Ambassador Robert H. McBride publicly warned Americans last year to obey Mexican narcotics laws. Despite the diplomat's appeal, the arrests are continuing.

Mexico Cracking Down

"Just a few years ago, the belief was that you could get drugs easily and cheaply here, without any difficulty from the Mexican government," a U. S. official said in an interview. "That is not true now. The Mexican government is cracking down."

He added: "The best advice for any American who wants to stay out of trouble in Mexico is to stay far, far away from any kind of narcotics."

The official attributed the rising number of drug-related arrests to vigorous action by the Mexican army, which has been spearheading the anti-narcotics drive for the last year.

Under Mexican law, possession of marijuana is punishable by from 2-9 years in prison and a $900 fine. Dealing in the drug carries a 3-12 year sentence and a $1,600 fine.

Typical Case Given

In a typical case, two 21-year-old American students, convicted of possession and dealing in marijuana, were sentenced to seven and a half years. The government also confiscated their automobile, in which narcotics were found.

Another American convicted on a marijuana charge is serving nine years at forced labor on the Isla Maria a dreaded penal colony in the Pacific Ocean.

The U. S. Embassy can offer little assistance to an American arrested on a drug charge. "All we are able to do is to make sure the American receives the same rights as a Mexican and to make our interest in the case known to the government," the U. S. official said.

Richardson Asks Congress For Authority On Welfare

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Nixon administration asked Congress Tuesday for authority to continue welfare payments to states that have violated federal welfare regulations.

The proposal was made before the House Ways and Means Committee by HEW Secretary Elliott L. Richardson, who said existing provisions of the law "have been shown to be too limited and too rigid."

That law has been used four times — against Arizona, California, Indiana and Nebraska — in recent weeks. The administration said it had no choice but to cut off the states' federal welfare matching funds by April 1 unless they made changes in their state welfare regulations to conform with federal rules.

Richardson said states often can not make changes quickly enough to keep from losing the federal funds.

He said federal welfare reform could not begin, even if approved quickly before mid-1973 and modifications he seeks "would ease the transition to the new system."

Richardson proposed amendments that would:

Connally's Nomination Approved By Finance Committee Of Senate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Finance Committee approved the nomination of John B. Connally to be Treasury Secretary Tuesday, after quizzing him about his acceptance of $750,000 in executor fees from the estate of a Texas oil millionaire.

Connally testified during an hour and a half open session that he was paid the $750,000 over an 11-year period with $225,000 coming during the time he was governor of Texas.

He said that he actually could have claimed payment of $12 million but accepted between $400,000 or $500,000 less in order to stretch out the payments — for "obvious tax reasons."

The committee, after hearing his explanation, went into closed session to vote his recommended confirmation. The vote was 11 to 0, with two abstentions.

Connally said he received the last payment from the estate of the late Sid W. Richardson in January, 1969. "It's fully paid now," he said.

At the close of the hearings, committee chairman, Russell B. Long, D-La., referred to the payments as "warmed over biscuits."

"I personally see no reason why the man should not be confirmed," he told reporters. "I find no conflict of interests."

The nomination of Connally now goes to the full Senate.

Connally said he made the stretched-out payment arrangement so that he could become navy secretary 10 years ago without any annual income.

Sporadic Fighting Still In Uganda

KAMPALA, Uganda (UPI) — Uganda army forces, battled soldiers still loyal to ousted President Milton Obote Tuesday in a two-hour clash that swirled around a nursery school in a residential area of Kampala, government officials said.

The pro-Obote soldiers were flushed out by about 200 soldiers loyal to the new military regime of Gen. Idi Amin, who ousted Obote's eight-year-old civilian regime in a coup Jan. 25.

While the mopup action flared, Gen. Amin formally assumed all of Obote's legislative powers and privileges. He dissolved Parliament and named himself head of state, armed forces commander in chief and minister of defense.

At the nursery school in an outlying area of the capital the children, their parents and teachers crouched in terror on the floor while the pro-Obote forces fled from a nearby house, witnesses said.

Amin's government troops surrounded the insurgent-held house and set it afire. Witnesses later reported seeing at least two bodies carried out on stretchers.

The fighting was among the worst in Kampala since Gen. Amin toppled Obote's regime while the former president was in Singapore for a Commonwealth leaders' conference. Obote has since accepted political asylum in Tanzania.

Since then, Obote has been seeking the support of other African leaders for his claim to remain the rightful president of Uganda. The president of Tanzania, Julius Nyerere, has announced his country will continue to recognize Obote and no other foreign state has yet recognized Amin's regime.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — One of the most discussed books this season is "The Greening of America," which tells how the younger generation is saving the country from whatever it is the older generation has done to it.

Among other things the older generation has done, according to the book, is permit technology to run rampant. If it becomes technically possible to do something, the book says, the older generation will do it simply because it is technically possible.

Little or no thought is given to whether the project is really needed or what its ultimate impact on society and the environment will be, the book says.

Look At The Facts

Being over 29 myself, I resent this allegation, and so does Dr. Dmironff Deepthink of the Deepthink Institute of Applied Research and Storm Door Co.

When I ran into Dr. Deepthink at the Transportation Department this week, he disclosed details of an airplane that flies upside down.

"Thanks to some recent breakthroughs in aeronautical engineering, it is now technically possible to build a plane that flies better upside down than it does right side up," he explained.

"The aerodynamic principle involved here probably is too complicated for the layman to understand, but basically the blood rushing to the passengers' heads as they fly upside down gives the plane additional thrust."

Dr. Deepthink opened his briefcase and pulled out a small drawing board to which was attached a set of blueprints.

Extensive Preflight Testing

"These are the plans for the American version of the upside down transport, commonly known as the UDT," he said. "As you can see, it will be capable of carrying more than 2,000 passengers in an inverted position."

"It's beautiful," I said, "but have you considered what effect flying upside down will have on the passengers?"

"We conducted extensive tests with animals flying with their feet over their heads and no harmful effects were noted."

"That's reassuring," I said. "What animals did you use in the experiment?"

"Three-toed sloths,"

"You seem to have touched all the ecological bases," I said, "but are you certain there is a genuine need for the United States to build a plane of this type?"

"Absolutely," he replied. "We have to do it to keep Britain, France and the Soviet Union from doing it."

I doubt that even the younger generation would quarrel with that.

Television In Review

By RICK DU-BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Barring a change in plans, television watchers are expected to see two lengthy moonwalks this week by members of the Apollo 14 mission.

The lunar walks are scheduled for Friday and Saturday — early morning each day. And, if things go right, each excursion is expected to run between four and five hours.

On a more mundane level, television watchers can also see some rather provocative, if hardly historic, programming from the less heavenly network departments in the next week.

Tonight, for example, the non-commercial public broadcast service has a rerun of the excellent drama "The Andersonville Trial," about a prison camp commandant accused of mass deaths in the Civil War.

Also tonight, Dustin Hoffman narrates a 90-minute animated musical fable, "The Point," on ABC-TV's "Movie of the Week." The noted pop composer Harry Nilsson wrote the songs, and sings them. He also thought up the story, which concerns a boy born with a round head in a land where everyone else is pointed.

Yet another special on ABC-TV tonight is "Plimpton! The Man on the Flying Trapeze," in which George Plimpton, the well-known professional amateur, takes a crack at circus performing.

Wednesday night, NBC-TV offers Arthur Miller's play, "The Price," with George C. Scott and Barry Sullivan in a story of two brothers—one a policeman, the other a wealthy surgeon—who, estranged for 16 years, meet to dispose of their deceased father's old furniture.

On Thursday night, the public broadcast service's "NET Playhouse" continues its six-part look at the 1930s, this time in the Millard Lampell play "Hard Travelin'." Ralph Meeker stars in a collection of vignettes that make up the drama.

On Sunday, "NBC Experiment in Television" has an hour profile of Buckminster Fuller, exhaustively described by the network as "architect, engineer, inventor, author, scientist, teacher and philosopher."

Next Monday, Gig Young and Lee Grant star in an original two-hour NBC-TV teleplay, "The Neon Ceiling," in which an unhappily married woman and her daughter run away from home and become stranded at a roadside cafe and gas station operated by "a gruff loner" in the desert.

And next Tuesday, NBC-TV's movie is Mel Brooks' classic comedy, "The Producers," with Zero Mostel and Gene Wilder in an insanely wonderful tale of a once-successful Broadway showman who sets out to stage a surefire flop for the financial advantages involved.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The bull market has only started to get below," the Alexander Hamilton Institute says. The firm sees the environment as "healthy" with interest rates remaining low and business indicators firming up. The one big bluish is inflation, which roars on," it adds. "Still, the seemingly unbeatable inflation provides a good case for stock ownership."

Recent relatively high volume on the American Stock Exchange suggests that trading is becoming more speculatively oriented, according to E. F. Hutton.

However, although near term strength seems likely to be concentrated in the more speculative issues, speculation is still far from what could be called excessive, it observes.

The fact that the Dow Jones Industrial Average has more than recouped its oversold losses of last summer suggests the market may be headed for a plateau until other principal economic measures, including profits, catch up, Spear and Staff says. Street interest, during this potential lull, may dwell on secondary issues, particularly on the American and over the counter exchanges, it adds.

LOTS A CANS
 SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Reynolds Metals Company says it has collected 80 million empty cans since its nationwide aluminum can recycling program began a year ago.

The company collected 3.4 million cans in the San Francisco Bay area alone, a spokesman said, and paid $17,000 to people who brought the cans to recycling centers here.

Quivira Council Hears Established Camp Report

"Camp at Clarendon in '71" was the theme of the annual meeting of the Quivira Girl Scout Council in the First Methodist Church, Pampa. The program, a slide presentation, narrated by Mrs. Phil Tate of Pampa, showed accomplishments and needs of the new campsite at Clarendon.

Long-range plans, according to Mrs. Tate, include the development of four campsites — cabin units for the nine and 10-year olds; permanent wooden forms to be topped with covered-wagon tents for the 11 and 12 year olds; permanent wooden forms to be topped by teepee tents for the 13 and 14 year olds; and a cabin tent unit for the older girls.

Other long-range plans include building a shelter belt, leveling the dam and building seep ponds, a flushing sanitary unit, and the piping of water to each unit site.

Mrs. Tate explained upkeep on the swimming pool will run about $50 per year, a cost to be financed by cookie sale receipts.

New officers installed by Mrs. Rufe Jordan of Pampa were: President, Don Thompson and First Vice President, Mrs. Jim Wheeler, both of Borger; Second Vice President, Mrs. John Fritch, Jr.; Secretary, Mrs. Maynard Johnson; and Treasurer, Paul Keim, all of Pampa.

Appreciation awards went to Mrs. Carl Brugger, George Scott, Jack Inel, and Mrs. Parks Brumley in Pampa.

A silver tray was presented to Mrs. Stowers, outgoing president, by Mrs. D. B. Jameson of Pampa. Pier banners for standard-size troops were presented by Mrs. Bob Covington of Shamrock.

Borger's Senior Troop 200 gave the opening and closing flag ceremonies, and Pampa's Senior Troop 2 presented a short musical program.

During the business meeting, which preceded the dinner, new board members were elected, reports were given by officers and committee chairmen and the council goals for the next year were set. Mrs. Stowers presided.

For the dinner, name tags were made by the Miami troops and table decorations were made by Pampa Cadette troops. Approximately 180 people from the Council's 10-county area attended.

Students Chase Illusive Dream

By BETTY CANARY

A teacher in a Chicago high school tells me he asked his students to list what they most wanted in life. The 15-year-olds had "happiness" near the top of every list, while "money" ranked low or last. Other wants mentioned in this informal survey were strictly according to personal taste and included "a snowmobile," and "a clean Lake Michigan by 1972." The last was obviously listed by the class optimist.

After the unsigned lists were collected, the class had open discussion. The instructor tells me that, to him, the most interesting and puzzling part of the discussion was about "happiness."

"Most of them seemed to think happiness was something you get," he says. "Not buy it, but get it somehow."

"I was amazed," he said. "They seemed to think lucky ones get it while unlucky ones simply fail to run into it."

I didn't find their thinking so surprising. I've heard too many adults talk about happiness as if it were something found without effort or design, somewhat like a silver bracelet you pick up off a sidewalk one day and, because it's never listed in the lost-and-found classified ads, you keep it.

And haven't we all known someone who regarded happiness as a sort of benign disease one catches without conscious exposure. The kind of sweet sickness where a physician would prescribe only sugar pills and a two-month trip to Florida during the winter months, the better to prolong the illness.

The Chicago students rejected the teacher's suggestion that "we make our own happiness." To them, "making" it suggested manufacturing, which could only bring about an artificial ersatz article at best.

Perhaps he should have said "we create..." and it would have been more to their liking. We all like to think we have an artistic flair and "creating" happiness would be more acceptable than manufacturing it.

Or, we might say we "produce" it. This could conjure up visions of growing our own happiness from natural sources, using the labor of our own hands and minds.

We don't reject a flower border in a city park or a field of wheat in the country as a manufactured product. Yet neither is "got" nor "discovered." Both come about as the result of careful preparation of the soil, good seeds, fertilization and careful tending.

Sorority Chapter Selects Member As 1971 Queen

Dear Abby

By Abby Van Goren

DEAR ABBY: Our teenage daughter, I'll call her Debbie, has been driving for a year. She thinks she is a careful driver, but she drives too fast. Debbie got a ticket for going 25 miles an hour over the speed limit, and her license was suspended for 30 days. I am sure she has gone over the speed limit more than once, but this was the only time she was caught.

Debbie needs to drive to work after school, and it is so late when she is through with work, we wouldn't want her to take the bus.

My husband read about a "device" to put on a car which will monitor speed violations. We told Debbie we were going to put one on her car. She had a fit, and said it would be "spying" on her. I tried explaining that it would be better than having her license suspended again or maybe getting into a serious accident due to her habit of speeding.

Has Debbie the right to feel as she does? Or do we have the right to put one of those devices on her car?

DEBBIE'S PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: Forget the device, and let the police "police" your daughter. But if you do decide to use her speeding tickets, result in revocation of her license, not to expect any "chauffeur service" from you.

DEAR ABBY: We have a relative who is not old, but he talks about nothing but his aches and pains and allergies. He carries a dozen different kinds of pills with him. He even bought a leather case made especially to carry his pills. He looks like a walking drugstore. He keeps asking what time it is so he can take his next pill.

Why can't he take his pills in private? I have ailments, too, but I don't make a big show of it. What is the matter with him? Do you think it would help any if someone told him in a nice way he is getting on people's nerves?

CLOSE RELATIVE: DEAR RELATIVE: The matter with him is that he wants attention and sympathy. And no, it wouldn't help if someone told him he is getting on people's nerves. (He might have to increase the dosage to calm his.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a married man and the father of four. As a salesman I travel a lot, but I manage to keep up with your columns. Why do you all but hang a medal on every wife who thinks the most important thing she has to do is be a willing bed partner?

I have a wife like that, but let me tell you more about her. She sleeps all morning, gossips on the telephone for hours at

Marsha Stuart

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stuart, of Worland, Wyo., and former Pampa residents, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marsha Artek Stuart, to Clifford Dewain Gage, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Gage Jr., of 1016 E. Gordon. Wedding vows will be pledged Feb. 21 in the First Christian Church of Pampa. Miss Stuart graduated from Spring Woods High School in Houston in 1970 and is employed by Marie Foundations. Her fiancé graduated from Pampa High School in 1970 and attended West Texas University. He is employed with the Pampa Country Club and is serving in the National Guard.

PAMPA DAILY NEWS
PAMPA, TEXAS 63rd Year
Wednesday, February 2, 1971

JEANE DIXON
Your Horoscope

THURSDAY, FEB. 4: YOUR BIRTHDAY THURSDAY! Your coming year brings much opportunity: the chance to prove your character and quality. Thursday's natives are intrigued with sports, music, fond of working out logical patterns. Many have gone into law, mathematics, writing.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Go it alone wherever and however you can. Family squabbles can do lasting harm if you indulge in them; you need it.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Brace for an uphill day; concentrate on creative, or at least constructive activities. Take a break once in a while. Relax early. Friday is better but demands much energy.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Time, effort, money slip away easily with little achieved. If you pick out just a few things to do and concentrate on doing them well and thoroughly, you get more done.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Adhere to traditional routines, conservative action. Avoid lending; it loses you more than just the money and the trend. Favors have strings attached.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Early tensions fade away as you work systematically through the day, leaving nothing to chance. The evening may include some very serious, consistent discussion.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): There's more point in getting to work at what will reward than fretting about what doesn't. Information is incomplete or faulty.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Passive resistance is a better approach at this time than impulsive initiative. Little will be gained by forcing issues. Traditional courtesies are not to be taken lightly.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): If you encounter direct or harsh words, stick to the issues, stay calm and resolve matters. Locate and remedy any errors in your recent work, prevent further commission.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You may fail to do what you think best, from the beginning — nobody seems to be quite sure of the path. Patience and persistence become essential.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): This day brings moods of hate and impatience. Feeling moments of neglect. Great care is suggested in handling sharp objects, electrical appliances.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Now comes the exception for which your theories make no provision. Refrain from quick evaluations, hasty judgments. New methods or people pose a challenge in your career.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Trifling discrepancies become large errors if you fail to catch them promptly. You may have to talk somebody out of an unwise venture, but don't bicker. Face your efforts.

LONDON (UPI)—Bus driver Len Scholey and his wife have been separated — by a one-man bus.

He and his wife, Lillian, a conductress, were known as one of the happiest crews at London Transport's Brixton Garage.

But the gradual replacement of two-man buses by vehicles only requiring a driver has split the couple.

"It's awfully lonely, especially at night," Scholey said. "I have to have my tea break by myself and there is no one to talk to between runs."

Pampa Hits 100 Points After 4 Year Wait

MIKE THOMAS (45) going for two points as Mike Jordan (40) stretches to block the shot. Mike Edgar (34) is ready to get the rebound as Gary Haynes (20) and Richard Bunton (54) stand by to assist in the 100 to 74 Harvester victory.

Harvesters Rally For Easy Sandie Defeat

Four years ago Pampa hit a hundred points in a game. Last night they did it again against the Amarillo Sandies, 100 to 74 was the final and Pampa marches on to district heights.

The Palo Duro Dons were defeated by the Caprock Longhorns 56 to 54 knocking the Dons out of contention for the immediate time being. Tascosa went on to badger the Bulldogs for a 72 to 63 win in other district action. Pampa, Borger, Palo Duro and Tascosa were all tied for the district lead going into Tuesday's games with 2-1 seasons. Now Pampa and Tascosa are sharing the lead with Tascosa meeting Caprock Friday and the Harvesters going to Borger.

The Harvesters were led in their attack last night by Richard Bunton. Bunton hit for 25 points against the hapless Sandies and exhibited great plays throughout the game. Five of Pampa's players reached double figures in the Tuesday game. Besides Bunton, Mike Edgar who was averaging 17.0 per game hit for 18 points. Mike Jordan with 17 points, Marsh Gamblin with 14 points and Gary Haynes with 11.

Mike Jordan as coach McPherson says, "He is an all round ball player. He may not score a lot of points every ballgame but every ballgame he does his job and gives a 100 per cent effort."

David Van Vliet's season average going into the ball game was 14.3, the Harvesters held him to two points. Jimmy Portwood was the high scoring man for the Sandies with 13 points.

Pampa now has a 14-12 season record with a 3-1 district mark. The Harvesters jumped to an early lead on a field goal by Richard Bunton in the opening seconds of play. Pampa led the ball game at one time by thirty points. In the fourth quarter a basket by Donnie Cain made the tally 84 to 54 and the Sandies narrowed this margin to

Douglas Is Confident Of Playing Ability

By ED FITTE' UPI Sports Writer

DALLAS (UPI)—Karl Douglas, the black quarterback picked by the Baltimore Colts in the third round of the National Football League draft last week, says he's going to the grade at that position, or not at all.

"None of that switching around for me," the 6-2, 210-pound Texas A&I star said in a telephone interview from his off-campus home in Kingsville, far down on the Texas coastal flats.

Asked if he thought he could play some other position in case he didn't make the grade as a quarterback, Douglas had a quick answer. "I'm going to make it at quarterback," he said. "I've been one for 10 years now and putting me at another position would be like putting me in a

Record Holding Cale Yarborough Enters Daytona

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Record-holding Cale Yarborough Tuesday submitted his entry for the Daytona 500 stock car race Feb. 14, despite rumors he was through with stock cars this year.

When Yarborough signed to team with Lloyd Ruby driving Indy type cars for the U.S. Automobile Club, the word was he was not going to drive in any more stock car races.

Pampa SBOA Chapter Has A Meeting And Elect Officers

The Pampa Chapter of South-west Basketball Officials Association has elected new officers for 1971.

Norman Coulter was elected President, Vick Bates-Vice President, Eddie Poinac-Secretary and membership committee members are Cliff Davenport and Claude Robertson.

The Pampa Chapter meets each Wednesday night at 8 p.m. at the Pampa High School during basketball season. They start their meetings the first Wednesday in November each year and continue through January.

February is the month to make application to the South-west Basketball Officials Association if a person is interested in being a basketball official. They make applications to SBCA at 4310-H Westside Drive in Dallas, Texas, 75209.

Lambert Is Voted 1971 George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award

ARCADIA, Calif. (UPI)—Jerry Lambert, who achieved his greatest fame riding Native Diver, today was voted the 1971 George Woolf Memorial Jockey Award as the rider whose career reflected the greatest credit to himself and his profession.

The award was voted to Lambert by turf writers covering the current Santa Anita racing meeting, where Lambert is riding.

The award is named in honor of the late-rider who lost his life in a riding accident at Santa Anita in 1946 and in whose memory a lifesized statue stands in the paddock gardens at the track. Lambert will be presented a cast bronze miniature of the Woolf statue at public ceremonies at the track Wednesday, Feb. 24, prior to the day's racing program.

Lefors Will Play Host To District Play Off Tourney

The Lefors girls were defeated 57 to 40 in zone 3-B play-off action last night in Canadian by Miami. Miami jumped to a 15-7 lead in the first quarter and were in no serious danger of Lefors catching up the remainder of the game.

At halftime Miami had a comfortable 17 point margin leading 31-14. Miami was led in their attack on Lefors by Sandy Dedmon with 25 points. High point girl on the Lefors team was Susan Cline.

SCORE BY QUARTERS

Miami	15	31	40	57
Lefors	7	14	22	40

1 Card of Thanks

MRS. MILDRED KIRKLAND

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to each and every one who extended kindness and sympathy during the recent illness and death of our wife, Mother, and Sister, M. H. Kirkland, Mrs. J. C. Puffer Jr., Mr. & Mrs. Stan Puffer, Estelle Sherman, Mr. & Mrs. M. D. Standlee.

"Rest in Peace"

You are not forgotten loved one you will ever be as long as life and memory last we will remember them.

We miss you, our hearts are sore as time goes by we miss you more your loving smile, your gentle face no one can fill your vacant place for I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed in us.

Highlights And Sidelights From The State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Legislators face a week of major decisions.

Before the House are key portions of Gov. Preston Smith's finance plan. House followed the Senate in hurrying to a vote the proposal to lift the $80 million a year welfare spending lid.

An emergency $48.4 million deficit spending bill to avert a welfare crisis is perhaps their biggest problem today.

A four-fifth vote of both houses is required to suspend the Texas constitution's "pay as you go" requirement and permit lawmakers to go into the red for the balance of this fiscal year . . . which ends in August.

If legislators decline to take this route, they must pass a tax bill to raise the money by March 1. To place a revenue-raising measure into immediate effect would require passage by a two-thirds majority.

Alternative is reduction in welfare benefits by early spring.

Another matter being moved to an early showdown is Governor Smith's proposal to float a $450 million state bond issue secured by income from permanent school fund revenue diversion. Both bond issue and tapping of school land lease money would require constitutional amendments.

Regardless of the House vote on the bond issue, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes sizes up Senate sentiment toward it as cold.

Mood of both houses appears to favor early passage of code of ethics legislation.

If Governor Smith's finance program doesn't fare better than he anticipates, Barnes says, he will ask House Speaker Gus Mutscher to join him in urging the Governor to submit some alternatives.

COURTS SPEAK—Third Court of Civil Appeals here turned down the plan of the Fredericksburg Community Savings and Loan Association to provide mobile service to Burnet, Bandera, Kimble, Llano and Mason counties via trailer. Third Court also affirmed the savings and loan commissioner's decision to grant a charter to Matagorda County Savings and Loan Association in Bay City.

An April 7 hearing is set in the Third Court on the Sharpstown Bank of Houston dispute with an insurance company over a performance bond to insure repayment of a loan. Mustang Island Park purchase — whether State Parks and Wildlife Commission has authority to spend $4.2 million in state and federal funds for the property — has been the subject of a lengthy hearing in the federal district court at Austin for two weeks.

NEW-CAR INSURANCE PLAN OFFERED—Auto insurance agents in a hearing before the Insurance Board proposed "a much better insurance package" at reduced cost.

But a spokesman acknowledged no actuarial studies have been made to back up their claim.

While their plan keeps present liability coverage, it also would extend unlimited medical expense benefits to the insured regardless of who is at fault in accidents. It would replace up to 60 per cent of wages lost due to accident injuries to maximum of $250 a week, and provide death and dismemberment coverage.

Although all of the above (proposed as mandatory coverage in each policy) would increase costs, agents claimed the overall premium would be reduced if $150 deductible damage coverage was substituted for $50 and $100 deductible.

AG OPINIONS—A Justice of the Peace is not authorized or required to present the state's case, or undertake representation of the state's interest, in any matter before him, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In another recent opinion, Martin concluded that the El Paso county treasurer is duty bound to countersign checks signed by the county auditor when the commissioner's court orders money transferred from the general fund to a special bank account for disbursement by check to welfare recipients.

However, said Martin, the treasurer may refer checks to the commissioner's court for direction. Martin obtained a $1,000 judgment against Proter Steel Corporation of El Paso as the result of an airpollution suit.

FEDERAL HELP LAUDED—Word that the Secretary of Interior has announced the availability of more than $2 million to the State of Texas for fish and wildlife research in 1971 was greeted with enthusiasm by E.A. (Gene) Walker, director of Wildlife Services for the State.

Texas has participated in the Federal-State wildlife program since 1937 and the Sport Fish restoration project since 1950.

"This is the backbone of the work program in Wildlife and Fisheries," said Walker, "and the results of this basic research has provided tremendous increases in hunting and fishing opportunities for the people of this state."

As an example Walker cited the fact that Texas has more deer than any other state; larger bag limits and longer seasons on quail . . . just to mention a few of the benefits made possible by Federal financial assistance.

The Lone Star State will receive $1,538,500 in wildlife funds and $653,750 for fish restoration.

Money for wildlife research is derived from the 11 per cent excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition. Funds for fish projects come from a levy of 10 per cent on sport fishing equipment.

Appropriation is made available through the Interior's Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. Formula for appropriating hinges on the number of hunting and fishing licenses issued in the State. Money also can be used for purchase of land and water for wildlife and public use.

TREASURE DISPLAY URGED—An interim committee advised the Legislature in a written report to direct permanent display of treasure recovered from ancient Spanish galleons off Padre Island.

Actual ownership still is the subject of a dispute in court. Platona Inc. of Gary, Ind., which recovered the artifacts, won a decision in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals that it had a valid contract with the state for a 50-50 share of the treasure.

House interim committee on housing the treasure concluded it should become the property of the permanent school fund, and transferred around the state in a mobile unit occasionally, so school children can see it in their own communities.

REGISTRATION EXTENSION VOTED—A bill to extend voter registration through February sailed through the Senate 27-1 but ran into a delay in the House.

Another Senate bill passed to the House would provide for precinct-by-precinct reporting of statewide election returns to the secretary of state.

Still another would change the name of Pan American College, Edinburg, to Pan American University.

SHORT SNOOZE

A new Senate bill would require advance permits and strict security and health standards for rock festivals in rural areas where more than 5,000 people are expected to remain 12 hours or longer.

Charles G. Scruggs of Dallas was nominated for the Texas Tech University board of regents.

A Senate study committee recommended a state open housing law.

Bills call for establishment of a University of South Texas at Corpus Christi and a University of Houston branch at Clear Lake.

Top state leaders will address the third biennial legislative forum on United Community Services here on February 9.

Texas is recovering from the credit crunch (tight money) of 1968-70, according to a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research study.
