Signalmen Strike Against Railroads

Liberal Republicans Force Nixon To Change Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Liberal Republicans forming a fledgling "Dump Nixon" movement still hope to force a change in the President's policies, but they will not hesitate to campaign against him in '72, if he does not.

Nineteen Republicans from across the country held their first meeting Sunday—a six and one-half-hour session at a private home in Washington. The meeting was called by former Sen. Charles E. Goodell of New York and by Reps. Donald W. Riegle of Michigan and Paul N. McCloskey Jr. of California.

"The views expressed were pretty unanimous that preparations should be made now in the event we have to oppose Nixon in the primaries," said Goodell, who himself was dumped by President Nixon when the administration refused to support him in the last election in a dispute over war policy.

But Goodell said those present still want to describe their attempt as a "move Nixon or change Nixon" effort.

"There was no hesitancy in the group that we will be for someone else as an alternative to Nixon, but we hope that won't be necessary," Goodell said. McCloskey addressed the meeting but did not seek support for his own candidacy. McCloskey has expressed his willingness to be a GOP primary candidate. Other potential candidates who were discussed, according to Goodell, included himself, Sen. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, New York City Mayor John V. Lindsay; former Health, Education and Welfare Secretary, John W. Gardner; and former Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel.

Board Opens Hearing On Postal Rate Hike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—With Americans already paying more for postage stamps, the new Postal Rate Commission today opened hearings to decide whether the $1.41 billion temporary rate hike should be permanent.

The U.S. Postal Service and its 12-man board of governors put the higher rates into effect at midnight Sunday because the five-member rate commission did not act, as the law provides, within 100 days after the increases were proposed. The law which created the new postal set-up also created the rate commission to act as final authority on rate changes proposed by the Postal Service—a power held until now by Congress. And if the commission, in its hearings starting today, does not act by July 1, when the Postal Service formally takes over the mail system, rates will fall back to what they were Saturday.

Tax Board Hears Protests From Property Owners

More than a score of city property owners were in hand this forenoon as the City Tax Equalization Board opened a hearing on valuations assessed for tax purposes.

Notices had been sent out by the tax department to taxpayers whose property valuations were raised for the 1971 tax roll.

Property owners wishing to protest increases were given the opportunity at today's hearing. City Tax Assessor-Collector Aubrey Jones said it was within the equalization board's authority to lower or raise assessments after a study of the facts.

Members of the equalization board are Quentin Williams, Jimmy McCune and R.M. Samples.

Tax assessments will be based on the board's findings after thorough consideration of property owners' testimony at today's hearing, according to Jones.

600,000 Other Railmen Honor Picket Lines

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Railroad signalmen went on strike today, shutting down the nation's rail lines, and President Nixon proposed emergency legislation to force the men back to work until at least July 1.

Within five hours after the 13,000-man Brotherhood of Railway Signalmen went on strike, effectively shutting down all rail passenger and freight traffic, the Florida White House announced Nixon's plan to Congress, calling for a new round of negotiations.

Urging passage of a joint resolution to halt the shutdown that started at 6:01 a.m. local time, Nixon said a continued national strike "would cause great hardship to all Americans and strike a serious blow at the nation's economy."

"It is essential that our railroads continue to operate," the President said.

The President recommended that Congress promptly enact legislation to extend the present contract negotiation between the signalmen, union and the railroads until July 1.

He further asked Labor Secretary James D. Hodgson to follow the situation closely as it developed and to continue assisting both sides of the dispute. He said that if no settlement had been reached by June 21, it should be reported to the "chaotic nature of collective bargaining" in the transportation industry.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said "we feel this piecemeal method is no way to run a railroad."

Some 600,000 other rail workers honored the picket lines of the signalmen, who comprise only about 2 per cent of the rail work force.

With a few exceptions, all train service was idled across the nation from Boston to San Diego.

The people most immediately affected were an estimated 600,000 railroad commuters.

Traffic jams developed in cities that normally depend heavily on commuter trains, mainly New York and Chicago.

Manufacturing plants immediately began slowdowns. One of the first was the Chrysler stamping plant at Tinsburg, Ohio, which said it would work

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

City Starts Work On 1971-72 Budget

Preparation of Pampa's annual city budget for fiscal 1971-72 moved into the initial stage at an 11 a.m. meeting today in City Hall.

City Manager Mack Wofford called all city department heads together and distributed budget forms on which fund requests for the coming year were requested.

Pampa's budget for the current fiscal year which ends Sept. 30 was $2,047,230. That was an increase of $120,722 over the previous year.

The city manager said one of the biggest problems in setting the new budget will be financing of management and operation of the new civic auditorium. The $1.2 million auditorium is expected to be completed and opened by April of next year.

Wofford said budget forms handed out today will be turned in by department heads on June 17.

A review of the requests is scheduled at meetings with department heads June 23, 24 and 25.

The mayor and city commissioners will get a preview look at the budget during the week of Aug. 2-6.

The revised and reviewed budget will be put together during the week of Aug. 9-13 and will be filed with the city secretary on Aug. 20.

It will be formally submitted to the City Commission Tuesday, Aug. 24, at which time a public hearing date will be set on the budget, along with first reading of a budget ordinance and tax rate ordinance.

The approved budget is required by law to be filed with the County Clerk and the State Comptroller by Oct. 1.

City Manager Wofford said current plans call for no raise in the city tax rate, but that will have to be determined by the City Commission after thorough study of financial needs for the coming year.

American Cardinal Dies In Rome At 75

ROME (UPI)—Cardinal Gregory Peter Agagianian, who rose from the obscurity of an Armenian village to become the leader of the world's Roman Catholic Mission and a candidate for the papacy, died at his home Sunday night.

The tall, bearded cardinal who spent most of his life in Rome and spoke with a Roman accent, was 75. Church officials said he had been sick for some time and Pope Paul VI called at his bedside a few weeks ago.

The cardinal was born Lazarus Agagianian Sept. 18, 1895, at Akhazitkhe in what now is Soviet Armenia, only a few miles from the Georgia birthplace of Josef Stalin.

His parish priest thought so highly of the handsome and studious boy that he sent him to Rome at the age of 11 to attend the Pontifical College for the Propagation of the Faith.

Agagianian rose quickly through church ranks and in 1937 was elected 15th patriarch of the world's 100,000 Armenian Roman Catholics.

Egypt's Political Upheaval Delays Efforts To Reopen Suez Canal

By United Press International
Egypt's political upheaval today delayed efforts to find an interim Middle East solution that would permit reopening of the Suez Canal, but Secretary of State William P. Rogers said Sunday his attempts to find a solution did not appear threatened by events in Egypt. Rogers and Assistant Secretary of State Joseph J. Sisco scheduled conferences in New York at 11 a.m. EDT today with U.N. Secretary General Thant and Gunar V. Jarring, the U.N. peace negotiator whose own efforts have been in limbo for several weeks.

U.S. Suffers Record Deficit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The flow of American dollars overseas reached tidal wave proportions in the first three months of this year, with a deficit of $5.5 billion in the balance of payments, the Nixon administration reported today.

That was the highest one-quarter deficit on record.

The Commerce Department said the figure—the difference between what the nation spends abroad and what it takes in—was $2.2 billion higher than for the last quarter of 1970 and more than half the $9.8 billion deficit for all of 1970.

Treasury Secretary John B. Connally, who discussed the figure at a Senate Finance Committee hearing on trade, said: "Clearly that level of deficit is not sustainable."

Connally said that in addition to what the government is doing to improve the U.S. trade situation, business and labor must do more "to hold down the rise in labor costs, to avoid unnecessary increases in interest rates and to speed the return to price stability."

demand that Israel withdraw from the Suez Canal—the demand that has halted the talks.

Sisco and Rogers met both with Israeli and Egyptian officials on their recent Mideast tour and Sisco flew back to Cairo with a new Israeli canal proposal. Today they were briefing Thant and Jarring in what was called an "information only" session.

Polls In County Open 8 a.m. Tomorrow

Gray County voters will be given opportunity as part of the Texas electorate, to accept or reject four proposed constitutional amendments when polls open at 8 a.m. voting places will be closed at 7 p.m. in the county voting sites.

Precincts 2 and 7 through 14 will be combined for the election with ballot boxes located in the Gray County Courthouse. Other polling places will be set up in McLean, Grandview, Alanreed, Laketon and Lefors.

County Clerk Wanda Carter said today that 14 absentee ballots had been received by her office and that six applications for absentee voting were still out in the mail.

The off-year balloting was expected to be light by county officials, basing their prediction on past elections.

Walkout Ties Up Majority Of Texas' Freight Trains

A strike of the small Brotherhood of Railway Signalmen tied up the majority of Texas' freight trains today and left the only passenger train that moves through the state on Mondays stranded in the Houston rail yards.

The shutdown, however, was far from complete in Texas. Pickets went up at most of the state's major rail yards at 6 a.m. Matting the pickets

A local spokesman for the Santa Fe Railway said early today that the two local members of the striking railroad brotherhood were in Amarillo on the picket line early this morning.

This forenoon, both local trains expected in Pampa had made scheduled runs, according to the office here.

No picket line is expected to be set up in Pampa since this station is not an origin point for any train, the spokesman said.

Wherever the pickets were up, however, other rail union members were refusing to cross them and more than half of the state's 35,374 rail employees were off the job today.

A prolonged strike could threaten the shipment of citrus from the Rio Grande Valley and the movement of crops from the drought stricken Panhandle and South Plains.

"There are three pickets right outside my office," said Lero Borchurs, the yardmaster in San Antonio's Santa Fe rail yards.

"We only had one train move after 6 o'clock, and that was moved by a crew that had come in from other points, but those are ones that got started before the strike. Once they get here they tie up."

Pickets were also up in Dallas, Houston and in Fort Worth and in scattered parts of West Texas.

Valley Without Pickets
In the Rio Grande Valley, however, there were no pickets and trains were continuing to roll out of the area.

"There are no pickets in Harlingen," said Frank Nagy, terminal manager for the Missouri Pacific. "We're operating normally."

Asked for the effect if trains are stopped.

"Well, of course it isn't fruit season," said Nagy. "There are some vegetables and cantaloupes which are moving quite steadily, however."

"It's an hour to hour situation. It's a difficult situation to predict. We hope for all concerned our operation is not interrupted."

The Amtrak passenger train which normally leaves Houston at 7:00 a.m. northward for Chicago was stopped by pickets.

The only other passenger train in the state — which follows an east-west route from San Antonio to El Paso — runs only on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Arguments For And Against State Constitutional Amendments

By United Press International
Decisions Texas voters make Tuesday could affect the $4,800 salary of lawmakers, the future of Texas water projects, welfare payments and the ease of passing future constitutional amendments.

Amendment No. 1 would set up a commission to recommend to the Texas Legislature salaries, and to draw up a code of ethics. The commission would then investigate ethics violations.

Amendment No. 2 would allow the legislature to propose amendments to the constitution in special sessions as well as during regular sessions of the legislature.

Amendment No. 3 would remove the $50 million welfare payment ceiling for the elderly, the blind and the disabled, but would establish a $35 million ceiling for aid to dependent children and their caretakers.

Amendment No. 4 would allow Texas to sell $100 million in bonds at 6 per cent to raise money for water improvement projects. State bonds are currently sold at 4 per cent.

Number 1 — For Backers of amendment No. 1 say it affords the following advantages:

— It would result in a rule against lawmakers' accepting gifts from lobbyists.

— To compensate for this, the ethics commission could recommend a pay raise, since legislators earn only $4,800 and are no longer just part-time state employees.

— The above two changes would allow lawmakers to vote more independently.

— Legislators would be required to file financial statements to the commission. This would build public confidence.

— Legislators should have to account for their stewardship. The commission would provide for this need, since it would investigate ethics violations.

— The commission itself would be above politics, since its nine members would be chosen by the state's two highest court and a judicial commission.

— It would be a way to raise legislators' pay without going through the long and drawn-out process of a constitutional amendment for each and every salary change, as now required by the Texas constitution.

Number 1 — Against Opponents of amendment No.

1, however, argue:

— The amendment is merely a quick and easy way for a pay raise, using the ethics issue as a "front." Texas citizens had better retain the power of lawmakers' salaries.

— An ethics commission is not needed, since Texas voters judge the conduct of their legislators and express these judgments at the polls at re-election time.

— Texas cannot afford to give its lawmakers a pay raise at this time. The state is already pressed for funds and is fast running out of ways of raising new money.

— There is already a law which deals with matters of ethics and standards of conduct for public officials.

— The part requiring financial disclosure would not build public confidence, since these documents will be seen only by the

House Votes On New Liquor Tax That May Cost Texans $65 Million

AUSTIN (UPI) — Proposed new liquor taxes that would cost Texans as much as $65 million in the next two years were scheduled for a House vote today in an effort to bolster the shakily-balanced budget for the next biennium.

The liquor tax bill also includes a provision that would roll back part of an earlier increase on beer taxes, however.

The brunt of the new taxes would fall on those persons who buy mixed drinks in cities that approve the sale of cocktails in local option elections Tuesday.

The remainder of the new revenue would come from liquor and wines.

Also up for House consideration was a proposal by Rep. Ed Howard, D-Texas, that would repeal a 1969 law set Howard contends the kindergarten plan would cost the state

Demonstration To Promote Safety In Tractor Operations Set At 5 p.m.

A demonstration designed to promote safety in operating tractors on the farm was set to get underway at 5 p.m. today at the Courthouse Annex, east of Pampa. Open to the public, the demonstration was to be presented by Ben Bullard, assistant safety director for the Texas Farm Bureau. The course precedes a course in tractor driving for youngsters which begins tomorrow.

up to $150 million a year by the time it is fully implemented in 1975, then even more when it is extended to younger aged children.

Using film and model units, the director will show how lives can be saved and injuries reduced by use of a roll-guard, crush-proof cab.

The course for youngsters, scheduled to begin at 4 p.m. tomorrow, will be taught to 13 and 14 year-old students through May 21. Richard Guggisberg will instruct the class which will include classroom training and driving. This instruction is necessary to exempt potential farm workers from the Hazardous Occupation Act, enabling youngsters to work on farms during the summer vacation.

Guggisberg said today that 13 boys have enrolled for the course, designed to teach practical operations and safety measures in driving tractors on farms.

Amendments...

— The commission would hardly serve as a "watch dog," since the amendment provides the legislature can disapprove any decision the commission recommends.

Number 2 — For Backers of amendment No. 2, to allow constitutional amendments to be proposed during special sessions as well as regular sessions, say it has the following advantages:

— It would provide a quicker way to change the Texas constitution of 1876, which is old and unwieldy and often creates situations such as welfare crises, that must be taken care when there is not time to wait for the next regular session, held once every two years.

— The framers of the constitution did not want it to be too easy to amend the document, but since it has already been amended 200 times, let's admit it needs the changes and therefore it is time to make changes easier to execute.

Those who oppose Amendment No. 2 say the constitution has been amended far too many times already and besides, special sessions are frequently called for a particular purpose, such as a tax bill. Lawmakers could stall the real business of the special session by offering irrelevant amendments.

Number 3 — For Amendment No. 3, supporters say, is needed because:

— A drastic cut in welfare payments to needy Texans will be a reality within a few months if the amendment is not passed.

— Amendment No. 3 would remove a hard-and-fast ceiling of $80 million that has caused crisis after crisis in the welfare department.

— Texans afraid of "runaway" payments to dependent children can vote for this amendment because it does place a $55 million ceiling on welfare to dependent children and their guardians.

— This proposal got 27-4 Senate support, and the House approved it by a vote of 122-17, showing lawmakers have strongly endorsed it.

Number 3 — Against Opponents of the welfare amendment argue:

— Welfare costs continue to skyrocket and you have to draw a line — establish a ceiling — at some point and stick to it. In these times of tight money let's seek cost-saving reforms instead of authorizing larger expenditures.

— Defeat of this amendment would hurry the inevitable and desirable process of federal takeover of the welfare responsibility.

— Many people genuinely need welfare, but there are still many freeloaders collecting payments, and we shouldn't increase welfare spending until we reform the system to get rid of the freeloaders.

Number 4 — For Proponents of amendment No. 4, to sell $100 million in water bonds, say:

— Since the state's very future depends on its water resources, it is essential we raise needed funds to improve the quality and quantity of our water now.

— Added funds this amendment would make available would mean Texas could qualify for 55 per cent federal assistance funds, while at present the state gets only 30 per cent from the federal government.

— The increase in the interest rate—from 4 to 6 percent — would allow the bonds to be sold in today's competitive bond market.

Number 4 — Against Opponents of amendment No. 4 argue it should be defeated because:

— Texas will still have to pay interest on these bonds, and this will place a new burden on an already strained budget.

— This amendment would let cities and local governments pass onto the state another responsibility that by all rights belongs at the local level.

— Interest rates are now beginning to go down after many years of rising; it is therefore unwise to raise the interest ceiling from 4 to 6 per cent.

A sudden dust storm held off until outside ceremonies were completed.

First air traffic from the new airport started this morning.

Reflecting presidential concern about the economic effects of the strike, Ziegler said, "past experience has shown such a strike has an extremely detrimental effect on the economy and welfare of American citizens."

In his statement, Nixon said that he had hoped for a "voluntary negotiated settlement of this dispute; however, this was not forthcoming."

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the only young couple on our block who have no children, but we have two poodle pups we think the world of.

In a way, those poodles are our "children." We have toys for them, and all the neighborhood kids love to play with the pups.

Our poodles will be a year old soon, and I would like to give a birthday party for them. I would invite the neighborhood kids over for birthday cake and ice cream, and I'd have crazy hats and balloons just like a regular birthday party. I'd even take pictures of it. My question: Do you think people will think we are completely nuts?

CHULA VISTA

DEAR CHULA: No. Just "art" nuts.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married in six weeks. A month ago I telephoned a girl who had been a good friend of mine at college and asked her to be one of my bridesmaids. She accepted. I hadn't seen her for about six months, so I invited her to visit me for a weekend. When she arrived, I was shocked. She is obviously pregnant, and says she'll be starting her eighth month in six weeks from now. She is not married and has no plans to be. She told me honestly that she had had a "meaningful relationship" with a fellow at college and they broke up. She isn't exactly proud of her condition, but she's not ashamed of it, either.

Abby, I still love her and believe me, I am not judging her, but this is a small town and my family and friends would never understand an unmarried but pregnant bridesmaid in my wedding party. I hate to hurt her feelings, but what can I tell her?

BRIDE-TO-BE

DEAR BRIDE: Tell her you hate to hurt her feelings, that you still love her and are not judging her, but yours is a small town and your family and friends would never understand an unmarried but pregnant bridesmaid. If she loves you, she'll not judge you either.

DEAR ABBY: I invited a friend over, and she wanted to make prank phone calls, but I told her my parents don't like me to use the phone unless it's for a good reason. My parents weren't home at the time, but my mother called and asked me to go to the bus station and meet my uncle. My friend said so I went alone. When I was gone she made a prank long distance call. We got the bill a month later on it for a call to Florida! My parents were furious and made me pay for it. When I asked my friend if she made the call she laughed and said she did. How can I get her to pay me back?

MAD

DEAR MAD: You probably can't. I don't know how friendly you are with this girl, but you gained a very valuable insight into her character (or lack of it) for $6.28. A bargain — at today's prices.

CONFIDENTIAL TO HELP

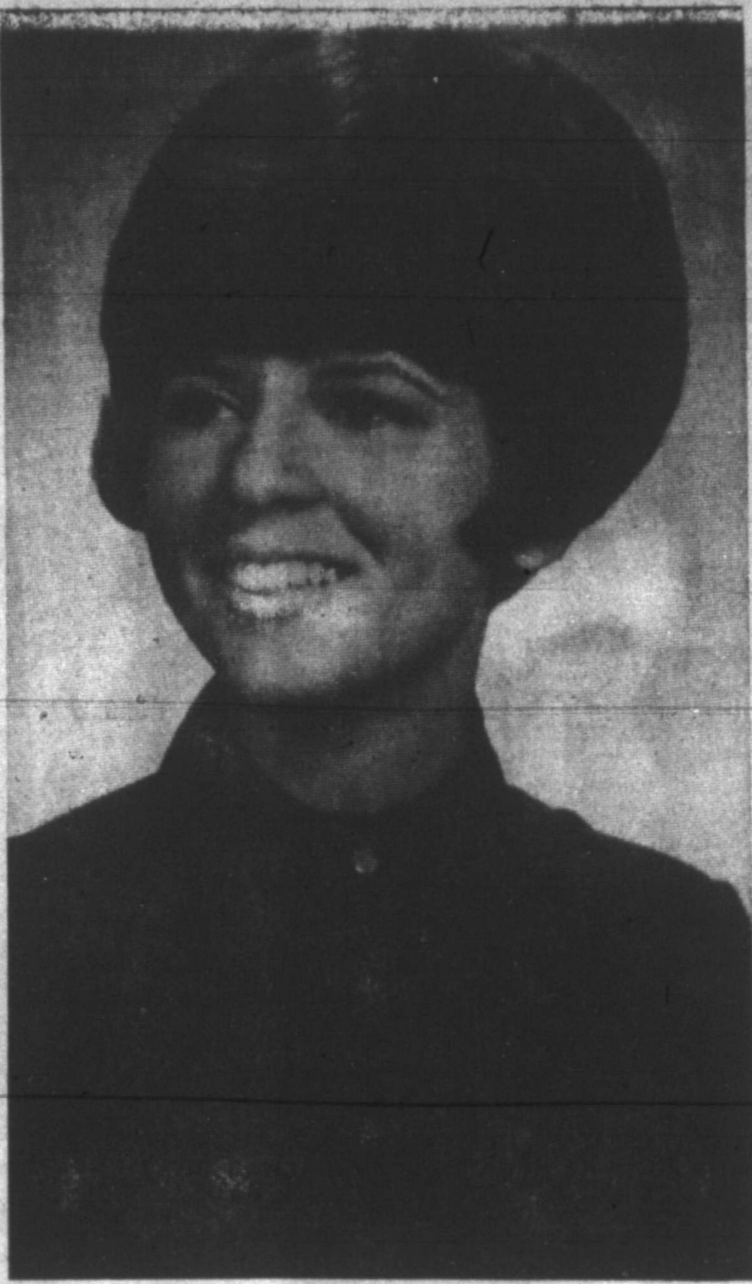

ME TO HELP MY MOTHER" IN HOUSTON: Only your mother can help herself. Poor soul. She, like many other vain women, would rather not wear a hearing aid and pretend she's hearing everything, than to wear one and hear everything. Please tell her that at least half the women her age have a hearing loss, and the new hearing aids are so cleverly designed now that they are practically invisible.

Advertising is a serious investment... art, engraving, typography and copy are costly. All are planned carefully to attract readers who are prospects for the merchandise or service. No business can afford to waste any part of this investment in any medium that cannot guarantee definite circulation and readership. "Waste basket circulation" in past offices, and so called throw-aways that usually travel to the incinerator are of little or no value to the advertiser.

LEGAL ERROR

NOTTINGHAM, England (UPI)—Adrian Shephard, 20, and his girl friend, Christine Roberts, 18, were making up after an argument, kissing and cuddling in a store doorway. But their embraces were so energetic two passing policemen thought they were fighting and arrested Shephard for disorderly conduct. A Nottingham judge cleared him of the charge Thursday after he explained what they were doing.

GOING TO HOUSTON

HOUSTON (UPI)—Maurice Presly, a 6-10 high school all-America center, has rejected a bid by representatives of billionaire Howard Hughes to come to Nevada and signed with the Cougars.

PADGETT'S NEW AIDE

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Former basketball coach at San Francisco University, Phil Vukicevich was named Friday as an assistant to Jim Padgett at the University of California.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Overpriced" is gradually coming into its own as the word for the American stock market," the Janeway Service says. "People with big positions in the market are sensing that they have stampeded themselves into a huge and cruel bear trap." However, the commotion over the dollar last week has gone a long way toward showing that if a "shocker break" is in store for the market, it won't be a gold run on the dollar that will bring it on, Janeway adds. "Surplus" dollars, that can no longer be converted into other currencies at fixed rates and that are falling in value in the open market, most likely will wind up invested in U.S. securities, the Value Line Investment Survey observes. Revaluation is going to give American industry a new advantage over Europe and the United States remains the most politically stable country in the world, it adds. Since the news background has hardly been conducive to new buying in recent weeks, the ability of the market to hold its own relatively close to its recovery highs is encouraging and suggests that "the bears are losing another battle by default," E. F. Hutton says. Currently the market is following a pattern seen during each consolidation phase this year, drifting sideways over a fairly narrow range following an initial decline, it says.

William Calley, and the reactions to the court-martial decision, will be presented by ABC-TV on Sunday afternoon, May 23. Title of the hour is "The Calley Case: A Nation's Agony," and Edward P. Morgan will be moderator of the panelists on hand.

Jimmy Stewart, who has a new half-hour series on NBC-TV in the fall, will also star on the network next season in a major adaptation of the wonderfully poignant and droll play about a lovable boozier, "Harvey" ... The producer of Stewart's series, by the way, says the actor refuses to have a laugh track on his weekly show and that there won't be one.
Another major special on NBC-TV next season will be an adaptation of the old comedy "The Man Who Came to Dinner"—The network will also offer a new production of the Pulitzer Prize play "All the Way Home," based on James Agee's book "A Death in the Family," and starring Joanne Woodward and Richard Kiley in the tale of Tennessee people in 1915 who must surmount a tragic accident that befalls the husband of the house.

Dave Garroway will be the host of the summer series "The CBS Newcomers," which bows in July 12 with weekly hour of

IF A NEW MEDICINE COULD TALK

"When I was discovered by a research scientist, I really caused a lot of excitement. Everybody in the laboratory was overjoyed when I showed what I could do against disease. Of course, they checked me out pretty carefully to be sure I wasn't a fluke I had to prove myself over and over.

"Then, when they were sure of me, I was packaged up nicely and they introduced me to all the doctors. They must have been impressed too, because they asked the pharmacist to get me to their patients. I know I had better enjoy my popularity for pretty soon newer medicines will be grabbing the headlines."

A GAS outdoor grill gives food a tangy outdoor flavor without the time and bother of charcoal fire. Char-broiled flavor comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on hot briquets. Charcoal itself provides no flavor.

Permanent ceramic briquets in the gas grill reach cooking heat in a few minutes, and there is no long wait to start cooking. The heat is regulated manually so there is no need to move a grill up or down.

Your Horoscope

TUESDAY, MAY 18
YOUR BIRTHDAY: Material, welfare, vocational or professional success drive normally, according to diligent selection of specialty. You may be called upon for volunteer or honorary service to your community. Tuesday's natives are generally more honest than is convenient in our current civilization, thus with the best intentions in the world occasionally pursue ideas and goals beyond reach.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Be sure associates know fully of your ideas on spending habits and related subjects. Your economy drive is appropriate to prevalent influences.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Where you can experiment without burning bridges behind you, this is a favorable time for action. Allow extra time before judging the results.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): There are more details than you can manage conveniently, so set a priority list first do the larger chores that clear space for further work.

CANCER (June 21-July 21): Nothing is going to be exact or perfect Tuesday, so there is less than usual excuse for complaint and disagreements over discrepancies. Use a philosophic approach.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22): Expect to be very busy the rest of this week. Avoid projects which take up extra time. Routines extend beyond normal duration if they don't make a mini-holiday of the time available.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Don't play games with the feelings of people or experiment to see what you can get away with. Do your regular work as nearly as the situation permits.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Tuesday holds the first inkling of some intriguing possibilities. Investigate a project if you have time to spare before you plunge into action.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Opportunity opens more likely where you really are best prepared by effort at self-improvement and serious study. Once you are gone over as much ground as you can cover in a reasonable day, celebrate.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): There are more important things to consider than critics' comment either praise or complaint. Get your work done well, then add an extra touch or two.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): What you have to work with is here and now. If you can put Tuesday's needs and resources together well enough, the past is alleviated and the future better provided for.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Expect others to do what you would not usually do. Give them plenty of space and time in which to take themselves out of your path.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Friends explain features of your projects that have escaped your thinking. Even routine decisions have widening results in the future, so pay strict attention to the sense of what you're doing.

NIXON PLANTS TREE
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon planted a California Sequoia on the South Lawn of the White House Friday, following a presidential tree-planting tradition that goes back to 1826. Nixon used a gold-covered shovel decorated with a red, white and blue ribbon to plant the 5-year-old tree that had been nurtured to its three-foot height in the Angeles National Forest near Pear Blossom, Calif. He said he picked the Sequoia because it "grows biggest and lasts longest."

CANADA JOBLESS RATE
OTTAWA (UPI)—The unemployment rate in Canada in April was 7.8 per cent of the nation's 8.39 million work force. Figured on a seasonally adjusted basis, it was the highest rate 10 years. The actual percentage was unchanged from March. However, unemployment usually drops sharply in April. Unemployment was most frequent among persons under 25 years old and in Eastern provinces.

"Case Ace" May Belong To Pittsburgh Pirates

The Pittsburgh Pirates gave the New York Mets a first-hand demonstration Sunday that they could have the "Case Ace" in the National League East Division race again this year.

He's reliever Dave Giusti and he proved to be the decisive factor last year in the Pirates' victory over the Mets and Chicago Cubs in the NL's East race. A journeyman with a sub-500-record until last season when he had a 9-3 record and 26 saves, Giusti started the 1971 season with rivals demanding to know: "Can he do it again or was he a one-year wonder?"

The answer seems to be that Giusti can do it again because he came out of the bullpen Sunday to cut off the Mets' ninth-inning rally and complete a 4-2 victory for Dock Ellis and the Pirates. The save was his eighth of the season, and at that rate, he might set a major league mark by the end of the season.

The victory enabled the Pirates to salvage the last game of the three-game series and cut the Mets' first-place lead to two games. Giusti's closest performance was especially significant because Met reliever Tug McGraw was touched for two runs in the bottom of the eighth, enabling the Pirates to take a 4-1 lead into the ninth.

The Pirates clinched the victory when singles by Richie Hebner and Al Oliver, Bob Robertson's double and a wild pitch produced the two eighth-inning runs off McGraw. Nolan Ryan suffered his first loss against five victories while Ellis won his fifth game against three defeats.

The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, the Montreal Expos downed the Cincinnati Reds, 9-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped the San Francisco Giants, 9-6, the Houston Astros walloped the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-4, and the Chicago Cubs beat the San Diego Padres, 9-8 in 10 innings and led, 6-3, when their second game was suspended after six innings because of darkness in other NL games.

In the American League, it was Detroit 5 Washington 4, Minnesota 6 Chicago 2, Kansas City over Oakland 10-4 after a 4-2 loss and Milwaukee 6 California 2, Cleveland at New York and Baltimore at Boston were rained out.

Rookie Willie Montanez accounted for all the Phillies' runs with two homers and a double as Rick Wise won his second game and Pat Jarvis lost his fifth straight. Monanez, now hitting .324, was described by Phils Manager Frank Lucchesi as "the best thing that has happened to Philadelphia since the nickel bear."

Ron Hunt had three hits and John Bateman hit a three-run homer for the Expos, who routed Red rookie Ross Grimsley in 1 2-3 innings. Clyde Mashore and Coco Laboy had two hits each for the Expos while Tony Perez homered for the Reds. Steve Renko went 7 1-3 innings to raise his record to 4-2.

Wes Parker's two-run homer in the eighth tied the score and Tom Haller's third hit of the game drove in the winning run in the ninth as the Dodgers braked the runaway Giants in the NL West. Jim Brewer was the winner and Don McMahon the loser in a game marked by eight errors, four by each side, and six stolen bases. Bobby Bonds homered for the Giants.

Doug Rader, who started the game hitting .164, hit a grand slam homer in the first inning and a two-run double in the third to lead a 17-hit Houston attack that brought Larry Dierker his sixth win against the loss. Roger Metzger and Jack Hiatt had three hits each for the Astros, who dealt Jerry Reuss his fourth loss. Joe Hague homered and Julian Javier had three hits for the Cardinals.

Jim Hickman hit a two-run homer with none out in the 10th to give the Cubs the victory after they trailed, 7-1. Hickman's blow came off Al Santorini after Billy Williams walked to lead off the inning and went to second on a passed ball. Ron Santo also homered for the Cubs while Larry Stahl connected for the Padres. It was the sixth victory in a row for the Cubs. The second game will be completed on Aug. 4.

Larry Dierker Happy He Can Win But Rader Doesn't Believe Luck

Dierker is just happy he can pitch well enough to win but Doug Rader doesn't believe a hitter can overkill when he is coming out of the kind of slump Rader has been in.

The golden-gloved third baseman, who went into Sunday's game with St. Louis batting .164 with only 7 RBI's, hit a grand slam homer and a two-run double the first two times at bat to drive in six runs and tie a club record.

Houston went on to pound the Cards, 12-4.

Dierker won his 6th game in 7 decisions even though he was tapped for 13 hits in the six innings he worked. Manager Harry Walker decided he had thrown enough and sent in reliever Jim Ray to finish up.

"Larry's one of the top pitchers in the league," Walker said. "This wasn't one of his better games but you can rank him right up there with Bob Gibson, Tom Seaver and Juan Marichal."

Someone asked Rader if his terrible batting slump was now over.

"I really don't want to say that it is, but I think so," Rader said. "I have been swinging the bat real good for the past week."

Asked if opposing pitchers had found a weakness in his hitting, Rader said, "No. Just

Ryun's Famous Kick Never Passed Liquori

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (UPI)—Marty Liquori kept waiting for the famous Jim Ryun kick, but he's just as glad it didn't materialize.

"I expected him to come at me on the last turn," Liquori said after outdueling Ryun in the showdown of super milers in the Martin Luther King International Freedom Games Sunday at Franklin Field.

Liquori, who took the lead from Ryun just before the three-quarter mark and matched the world record-holder's kick down the stretch, posted a time of 3:54.6—the fastest ever on the Eastern Seaboard.

"I was waiting for him on the final stretch," Liquori said. "But I was glad to be ahead just waiting for his move."

As the two approached the final 440 yards, Liquori frequently would glance over his shoulder at Ryun who was right at his heels.

"I wanted him on my shoulder," Liquori said. "I had to run the race that way—discouraging him every time he tried to go-by me."

It was at first thought that the weather might throw a damper on the super mile as a steady morning rain and a chilly temperature left the all-weather track with intermittent puddles.

Pampa Golfers Dominate In American Petroleum Tour.

BORGER—J.D. Richardson edged Joe McMurray by three strokes with his 142 to walk away with Championship honors in the American Petroleum Golf Tournament held at Huber Country Club Sunday.

Richardson fired a 69 on the final 18 holes while McMurray totaled a 73. Both golfers were from Borger.

McMurray shared medalist honors with John Hood, also of Borger, with Hood's 72 carded in the first round of competition Saturday.

In the first, second and third flights Pampa golfers found their playing field. In the 10th annual affair over the 72 par Huber course Pampa members won two of three flights outright.

Of the 142 golfers entered in the 15 flight field Pampa's A.R. Raber took first flight honors while Dale Ray of Borger copped the top honors in the second flight. S.E. Spurgeon of Pampa won the third flight with a 136.

Low net went to Pampa's Larry Reed with his round of 135.

Colonels Attempt To Destroy Jinx In Salt Lake City

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Determined to destroy a jinx, the Kentucky Colonels left today for Salt Lake City and their playoff game with the Utah Stars Tuesday night that will decide the championship of the American Basketball Association.

The best-of-seven final series stands at three victories apiece, with each team winning all of the games in its home area.

Confronting the Colonels is the jinx of never having beaten the Stars in the Utah capital during the regular season, and three more in the playoffs.

The Colonels were in good physical condition except for forward Jim Ligon who has an ailing back.

In a courageous performance, Ligon played 31 minutes for the Colonels Saturday when they beat the Stars here 105-102 to extend the series to seven games. But he was far below par as he scored only two points and grabbed only six rebounds.

2 Years Waiting But Revson Beats Donohue

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—It took him two years, but handsome Pete Revson, New York's gift to auto racing, gained a big measure of revenge today over fellow Ivy Leaguer Mark Donohue as the fastest pole-sitter in Indianapolis "500" history.

In 1969, when both were newcomers to the famed Memorial Day race, Revson placed fifth and Donohue seventh, but the coveted "Rookie of the Year" honor went to Donohue.

Saturday it was Revson, 32, the former Cornell collegian, who turned the tables, upsetting the highly-favored Donohue for the pole spot that went to the fastest first-day qualifier for the $1 million holiday chase May 29.

With a record-shattering burst of speed from an engine he wasn't sure would produce, Revson blazed around the ancient 2 1/2-mile oval at an average speed of 178.696 miles per hour and with a best lap of

Bi-District Clash Set For Tomorrow

Quail and Follett play a bi-district class-B baseball game tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. in Optimist Club Park.

Both coaches, Bill Wilson of Quail and Charles Skeen of Follett, are looking for a victory in the crucial game.

The victor of tomorrow's game will advance to regional play-offs. The site for regionals will be settled after the bi-district clash tomorrow at 2 p.m.

There are no admission fees for the public.

BUYS GREENSBORO CLUB GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI)—Ted Munchak, a Rome, Ga., carpet tycoon, Friday purchased the Greensboro Hockey Club in the Eastern Hockey League for an estimated $70,000 or $80,000.

Pan-Am Vs. Texas In CBWS Fri.-Sat.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Pan American, which has beaten Texas three out of four games this season, will be trying to win just two out of three Friday and Saturday for a berth in the College Baseball World Series.

Texas, champion of the Southwest Conference, will go into the first game with ace Burt Hooton, 11-1, on the mound against Pan American's Lupe Salazar, also 11-1.

The first game will be played Friday night on the campus of St. Mary's University, and the second—and third, if necessary—games will be played Saturday afternoon.

Texas takes a 33-9 record into the playoff, while Pan American has a 40-7 season mark.

4 Million Turned Down In Offer For Canonero 11

By RAY AYERS
UPI Sports Writer

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—Canonero II, sold for $1,200 as a crooked-legged yearling and shipped off to Venezuela to apparent obscurity, cannot be purchased for any price today, following the colt's record-breaking victory Saturday in the Preakness Stakes that gave him two-thirds of the Triple Crown.

"We already have had an offer of $4 million for him," said Victory Scialom, a spokesman for owner Edgar Caltbert and his wife who received the colt as a wedding present from Pedro Baptista, his father-in-law.

"We turned the offer down. All the money in the world couldn't buy this horse. No, I am not at liberty to reveal the person who made it," he added.

Canonero's victory in the Preakness was as startling as his Kentucky Derby victory two weeks ago was surprising.

There have been count fleets who have buried rivals in their dust with speed. There have been whirlwinds who crushed opposition—with devastating stretch runs. To everyone's amazement, Canonero proved he can do either in winning the second jewel in the Triple Crown.

The South American invader came from 20 lengths back to win the Kentucky Derby. He was expected to try the same thing in the Preakness.

Instead, jockey Gustavo Avila sent Canonero to the front at the start and the crowd of 47,211, the biggest in Maryland racing history, roared in disbelief.

Canonero challenged Calumet Farm's Eastern Fleet for the lead. He caught his rival on the first turn and the two colts raced stride for stride, nose and nose into the homestretch, then, with only an eighth of a mile to go in the 1 3/16 mile race, Canonero inched ahead to win by a length and one-half and smash the track record of 1:54 3/5 set by Nashua in 1955 with a 1:54 flat clocking.

The complete change in tactics amazed everyone and horsemen wondered what to expect on June 5 when Canonero will try to complete his sweep of the Triple Crown in the Belmont Stakes. Only eight horses have done so but none in almost a quarter of a century. Citation last pulled off the Triple in 1948.

"Only four, no more than four, will run against him," predicted Scialom while Jose V. Almenar, another member of the Venezuelan contingent who acted as an interpreter, sighed: "Mementos, mementos, that is all winning tickets will be worth. He will pay so little in the Belmont Stakes."

Canonero paid $19.40 in winning the Kentucky Derby and $8.80 in winning the Preakness. He was co-favorite with Jim French who had finished second in the Kentucky Derby and third in the Preakness behind Canonero and Eastern Fleet.

No Competition In Matson's Victory

In an invitational track meet that looked more like a practice session for two stars, Pampa's Randy Matson tossed the shot put a distance of 67'10".

Matson the solitary entry hurled the shot a total of six times and all were over the 67 foot mark.

Another famous name entered in the Texas Invitational track meet was Willie Davenport who had run the 120-high hurdles in 13.2. Davenport slackened his pace for a 14 flat in the Houston meet.

An interesting sidelight to Matson's victory in the shot was the absence of officials when he took to the arena. Nobody had been assigned to measuring duties and finally a stadium attendant and a high school coach were enlisted to do the honors.

Rice's 17-foot pole vaulter, David Roberts but ended up taking his pole to the Beaumont Ty Terrell Relays instead.

Drouth Turns Cattle Against Deer In Fight For Food On Rangeland

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The drought has caused a fight for food on Texas rangeland between livestock and deer. Whoever wins it will cost the cattlemen and the consumer.

It hurts the cattlemen in the pocketbook because his livestock have less food and, therefore, weigh less when sold or when he has to buy supplemental

Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife. "Many areas already are faced with an overpopulation of deer and there is just not enough food for all of them."

"If the drought holds and cattlemen don't take into their unit counts the deer populations on their ranches, some cattle herds, are going to get the hell knocked out of them," he said. "The deer are going to ravage other food," he said. "Grass is not one of the staple items in their diet. They eat it, but they could die of starvation with a full stomach."

"If the drought keeps up, the deer are going to be hurting. Plains flowers and weeds aren't around this spring. Either the dry weather prevented their blooming and growing this spring or they have already

Washington Window

By RAYMOND LAHR
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — When three-fourths of the Republicans on a Senate committee complain about major provisions in a bill, their dissents can be read as signals for amendments to the bill to avoid a veto by a Republican president.

The disputed measure is the 1971 version of campaign reform legislation written to meet President Nixon's objections when he vetoed a 1970 bill to limit political spending for television and radio.

After clearing the Senate Commerce Committee, the bill now must follow an unusual route through the Senate Rules and Finance Committees before it goes to the Senate floor and then to the House.

It would permit each presidential candidate to spend five cents for each person of voting age for broadcast media and an equal amount for all other political advertising—newspapers, billboards, bumper stickers, lapel pins or whatever. Each party could spend about $7 million apiece for broadcast

Science Today

By ELDON BARRETT
 SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—A University of Washington medical research team has discovered that the enzyme glutaminase shows an ability to destroy one highly malignant type of cancer propagated in mice.

The glutaminase deprives the cancer known as Ehrlich tumor of the amino acid, glutamine, which the carcinoma cells require to stay alive.

According to Dr. William C. Dolowy, professor and chairman of the university medical school's department of experimental animal medicine, glutaminase is produced by "using a gram-negative rod" type of bacteria. He indicated he preferred to defer further explanation of this phase of the research.

Joining Dolowy on the team were Dr. Joseph Roberts, professor of research and head of the department's research division, and John Holcenberg, an assistant professor of pharmacology.

They are exploring the general theory that cancer can be attacked by determining what cancer cells need for life and then depriving the cells of that substance.

In one 30-day test, the three scientists found that three of every five mice treated with glutaminase were freed of tumors while all the mice not treated with the enzyme died of Ehrlich tumors.

Now they have expanded their research in the use of glutaminase to other types of cancer.

At the same time, the team is attempting to determine what harmful side-effects, if any, might result from glutaminase treatment.

Many chemical reactions will not operate properly except in the presence of minute amounts of substances known as catalysts. Enzymes are the catalysts made by living cells and which enable the cells to carry out the chemical process necessary to exist. Therefore, almost all chemical reactions in living matter are controlled by enzymes.

All enzymes which have been isolated are known to be proteins—polymers of high molecular weight made up of amino acids.

Glutaminase, of course, falls into that category.

How to make your savings grow faster

Earn high interest at Security Federal

Your regular savings, plus the growth power of our compounded earnings, make your savings account add up quickly. And while money grows, Federal agency insurance keeps it safe. If you need funds quickly, your savings are readily available. That's what "serious money" is all about.

At Security Federal, we take the best care of your "serious money," paying interest every quarter, and we care about your convenience. Park free at both offices, or save at the drive up window in Amarillo. Save by mail, free, too, at Security Federal, the oldest and largest association on the High Plains.
