Up To 15% Of GIs In South Vietnam Heroin Addicts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A two-man congressional study mission contended today up to 15 per cent of the GIs in Vietnam are heroin addicts and said all U.S. troops should be withdrawn from South Vietnam if the flow of illegal drugs into that nation cannot be stopped.

Reps. Robert Steele, R-Conn., and Morgan Murphy, D-Ill., said in a report that they were told during their 21-day tour of eight nations that high government officials in South Vietnam and Laos are involved in heroin smuggling.

The two called a news conference to formally release their report on "The World Heroin Problem" along with 19 recommendations.

The report said "the best estimates available are that 10 to 15 per cent of all U.S. troops in South Vietnam are addicted to heroin in one form or another. It is estimated that in some units heroin addiction might be as high as 25 per cent."

"The bleak prognosis is that thousands upon thousands of junkie johnnies will come marching home hooked on heroin," Steele said in advance of the news conference.

One recommendation by the pair was that the military institute "an extensive program of urinalysis" to uncover addicts and provide a program of treatment. If a cure is not effected, they said, then commanding officers should be required "to civilly commit the addict to the administrator of the veterans administration for a period of three years for treatment and rehabilitation."

EAST MEETS WEST — Four Asian youths studying at West Texas State University are in Pampa for summer work vacation. They came here with the help of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown, 1206 Charles St. They will stay with the American couple throughout this summer. ### America As Asian Youths See It

By GEORGE TSAI

America is the land of great opulence and opportunities and its people are open-minded and friendly. This is the belief held by four foreign students now temporarily staying in Pampa.

They all agree that such a belief played an important role in motivating them to come over to the United States to pursue advanced studies.

Studying at the West Texas State University WTSU the four young people, from Hong Kong, India, Pakistan and the Philippines, hope and believe that the training and education they receive here will promise them a better future when they return to their respective countries.

They came to Pampa under sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown 1206 Charles St. The Browns provide them with free board and room. In addition to that, the young American couple helps them look for a three-month summer job so they will be able to make enough money to cover all school expenses for next academic year. Three of them came to this country on their own expenses.

Masood Jabbar, 22, is now with the Gibson Discount store. Hailing from Pakistan, Jabbar is a graduate student with a major in marketing.

Vithae J. Pai, 24, left for Amarillo two days ago. He probably has found a job over there. Pai is working toward his second master's degree in operation research. He received his first masters in engineering from an Indian college.

In order to show their deep appreciation for the kindness and hospitality of the host and hostess, the four Asian youths have "adopted" the Browns as their "foster parents." Mrs. Brown is a sociology senior at WTSU. She is interested in the activities of the 183 member Foreign Students' Association and a good friend of the organization.

East is east and west is west and the twain may have differences, Jabbar told The News in an interview that the striking difference he has noticed since he came to the United States four months ago is the dating system. "I like it in every sense of the word." College students in his native land, said Jabbar, are by far more conservative than their American counterparts. His view was shared by Miss De Leon and Pai.

Besides, Jabbar went on to say, food, dress, customs and . . . are all different. He thinks, as do his countrymen, that the United States is a great country and an affluent society. Pai, who came to this country under government scholarship, was warm in his praise of the American educational system. He believes the quality of education here is top-notch. The medium-sized Indian student is very much impressed by the high standard of living in this country, which presents a sharp contrast to the situation in his fatherland.

"Every American family has one or two cars while the average Indian people have to walk on foot," Pai said. He said his fellow countrymen work seven days a week, so are (See AMERICAN, Page 2)

$7 BILLION State's Record Budget Ready For Final Passage

AUSTIN (UPI) — Legislative leaders are confident a conference committee can reach an agreement on the state's record budget bill and have it ready for final passage by Monday night's deadline.

The $7 billion budget bill has been deadlocked in the conference committee because neither side is giving in on issues concerning spending for higher education.

There is still some areas where complete agreement is lacking today, but both Speaker Gus Mutscher and Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said they are confident the huge bill will be ready for final legislative action before the deadline Monday at midnight.

The major disagreement was over a faculty pay raise as proposed by the Senate version, and no pay raise in the House bill. Rep. William S. Heatly, D-Paducah, chairman of the House conferees, steadfastly insisted there will be no faculty pay raise in the final proposal.

Barnes and the Senate conferees still were trying to get the raise, but it appeared they would give in if the House refuses of budget. Barnes said there would be no special session over the issue.

Another point of disagreement was $5 million in the House bill for a new college of veterinary at Lubbock. Heatly refuses to give up on this issue and the Senate conferees argued against it.

But Heatly said today "As far as I'm concerned we've reached agreement."

Barnes charged his Senate conferees could not get the House conferees to meet and work out their differences. Finally Wednesday they met with Barnes and Mutscher and began compromising on some points.

Another argument developed over putting $11 million in the welfare section for a vendor drug program. Barnes contends this will allow the State Welfare Department to make more funds available and perhaps keep from cutting welfare checks to stay within the $80 million constitutional ceiling next year.

Business Index Rises For Sixth Straight Month

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Nixon Administration says evidence is increasing that the nation is pulling out of last year's recession. Some government economists admit privately to nagging fears that unemployment will remain high.

The jobs rate, probably the most politically sensitive of all economic figures, has been in the 6 per cent range since December, indicating the nation is experiencing its worst unemployment since 1961.

With interest rates apparently rising again after declining sharply early this year, there is concern that business will curtail planned expansion which could have produced additional jobs.

Another dark spot in the job picture centers around the steel labor negotiations which got under way last week. If the steelworkers union strikes when its contract expires this summer, there probably will be layoffs in the industries which supply raw materials, fuel and other goods to the steel mills.

Despite uncertainties on unemployment, other segments of the economy are showing definite improvement.

The Commerce Department reported Wednesday that its composite index of "leading" business indicators, statistics which usually points the way to future movements in the overall economy, rose 1.4 per cent in April, the sixth straight monthly advance.

VOTE SLATED TODAY Cates Against House Re-Districting Plan

Rep. Phil Cates of Lefors, current representative of the 79th Legislative District, today was outspokenly against a redistricting plan voted out late Wednesday by a Texas House committee.

The plan was scheduled for House approval or rejection today.

It would completely abandon the current 79th District and put Cates, if he decides to seek reelection, in a three-way race with Ralph Wayne of Plainview and Tom Christian of Claude in what would be the 78th District.

The new district would comprise Gray, Wheeler, Donley, Armstrong Swisher and most of Hale County.

The committee plan would make major changes in all Panhandle and South Plains districts.

"I am strictly opposed to the plan for abandoning the 79th and setting up the new 78th district," Cates said this morning.

Cates now represents Gray, Wheeler, Roberts, Ochiltree, Lipscomb and Hemphill Counties in the 79th District.

As voted out by the redistricting committee headed by Rep. Delvin Jones, the Panhandle would be the only area in which three incumbent House members would be brought into the same district.

Amarillo would lose one state representative and the rest of the Panhandle would lose two in the House if the committee plan is approved.

Wounded Reds To Be Sent Back To North June 2

PARIS (UPI)—Chief South Vietnamese negotiator Pham Hung Lam officially informed Hanoi delegates at the Paris peace talks today of arrangements for the release of 570 North Vietnamese prisoners held in the south.

The announcement, implying that North Vietnam had finally admitted to having troops in South Vietnam, stirred a glimmer of hope among more than 100 relatives of captured or missing U.S. servicemen maintaining a vigil outside the conference hall.

Saigon had announced the return procedure earlier in the week but official circulation of the plan at today's 11th Vietnam meeting gave it added importance.

Mrs. Peter Russell of New York City, one of 174 prisoner relatives in Paris this week to try to see the Vietnamese Communists, said the families always have their spirits raised by such announcements, even when they do not directly affect American prisoners of war.

Saigon's Ambassador Lam informed the North Vietnamese delegates that 570 wounded and sick North Vietnamese held in the south would be put aboard a ship on June 3 in Da Nang, and the ship would drop anchor at the 17th parallel frontier between North and South Vietnam where the prisoner release will take place with Hanoi's agreement on the morning of June 4 or 5.

Inside the conference room, U.S. negotiator Philip C. Habib accused the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong of continuing to refuse "to deal with this (prisoner) issue on a humanitarian basis. And you continue to use the helpless prisoners you hold—and their families—as hostages to achieve your military and political objectives."

Egypt Accuses U.S. Of Spoiling Peace Efforts

By United Press International

Egyptian President Anwar Sadat, pledging continuing friendship with the Soviet Union, accused the United States of "spoiling peace efforts and pushing the Middle East toward an explosion the consequences of which are incalculable."

Sadat spoke at a banquet Wednesday night honoring Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny. The two chiefs of state held a series of meetings during Wednesday and were continuing their discussions today.

The Egyptian president, in public reaffirmation that his purge of pro-Moscow elements in the Egyptian government would not affect close relations between the two nations, pledged undying friendship with the Kremlin.

At the same time, Sadat attacked the United States.

'THE SELLING OF PENTAGON' CBS Head Ordered To Appear At House Subcommittee Hearing

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional investigators, in a new attack on a television documentary critical of military public relations policies, have ordered CBS President Frank Stanton to make a personal appearance at a house subcommittee hearing.

The special commerce subcommittee voted Wednesday to issue a subpoena instructing Stanton to appear June 9 and demanding CBS submit unused film related to its documentary, "The Selling of the Pentagon."

Critics, who included Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, have accused CBS of using deceptive editing practices in making the documentary.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Harley O. Staggers, D-W.Va., earlier issued a subpoena demanding CBS make available materials used in the documentary. The network furnished the subcommittee with a film copy of the documentary but refused to make available "outtakes," film taken for the production but not actually televised. CBS argued the outtakes were the equivalent of a reporter's notes.

Stanton said Wednesday CBS would continue to refuse to furnish the outtakes.

"While we have not seen the new subpoena, our basic position in declining, on first amendment grounds, to provide material not actually broadcast remains unchanged," Stanton said.

Staggers announced in April he was opening the probe into the making of the CBS documentary. He said he wanted to determine if new laws were needed to protect the public from false and misleading filming and editing practices in the making of news documentaries.

Farmer Held On Charges Of Murdering 12 Persons

YUBA CITY, Calif. (UPI)—Fearing more brutally hacked bodies are hidden beneath the tranquil banks of the Feather River, Sheriff's deputies searched today around the clusters of crude graves where 12 murdered farm workers were found.

"There are more sites to be dug," said Sheriff Ray Whiteaker. "We have a couple of more grave sites to go over."

Juan V. Corona, 37, a stocky farm labor contractor and father of four young girls, was held on charges of murdering the slain men and burying them in peach orchards and riverside underbrush.

But his attorney insisted he was innocent. "I think they have the wrong man," said Public Defender Roy Vanden Huevel. "I'm convinced they have the wrong man."

The sheriff wouldn't discuss the evidence against Corona and said there was no known motive. But, Whiteaker said, "we are certain he committed the murders."

Corona said only one word publicly after he was arrested before dawn Wednesday at his neat suburban home in this farming community of 25,000 about 100 miles northeast of San Francisco. "No," he responded when asked during his arraignment if he could afford an attorney.

The judge continued the arraignment until next Wednesday to allow Vanden Huevel to allow Vanden Huevel (See FARMER, Page 2)

Graduation To End High School Years

COMMENCEMENT TONIGHT

With junior and sophomore members of Pampa High School Band playing the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" for their entrance, the 387 graduates of Pampa High School will march into the PHS Field House at 8 p.m. today led by two honor graduates, the valedictorian and salutatorian.

Dan Hood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hood, 2386 Duncan, was rated valedictorian of the 1971 graduating seniors, with Joe Nienstiel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nienstiel, 2217 Duncan, named salutatorian.

After the Rev. Melvin G. Herring, pastor of Lutheran Church, gives the invocation, the Harvester bandmen will play Mendelssohn's "Cantata choratis and Fugue."

Seniors giving their commencement addresses will be Nienstiel, Hood, and Senior Class President, John McCarroll, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCarroll, 2119 Christine.

The 14 honor graduates will be seated in the first rows to receive their diplomas first. Honor graduates are seniors who received a grade of 90 or above in eight semesters of advanced courses.

The 14 honor graduates are Robert Lawrence Akers, Laura Lynn Best, James Joel Brubham, Debbie A. Chafin, Laurie Jeanne Dingman, Anne Dingus, Jill Donaldson, Doyle Blaine Gercken, Steven Hom, Daniel Arthur Hood, Mimi Miller, Joe Don Nienstiel, Frances Palmer and Dudley Paul Warner.

Two seniors designated by the commencement program as exchange students are Regina Maria Silvera Stucchi, American Field Service Student from Brazil, and Catherine Brenda Pearce, Rotary sponsored student from England.

Those participating in the presentation of diplomas and conferring of honors will be Supt. Dr. James F. Malone, Principal Cameron Marsh, Assistant Principal Marvin Bowman and Mrs. W.A. Morgan, Senior Class sponsor.

Pampa school trustees for the first time will assist in presenting diplomas. Trustees are Warren Hasse, Bob Carmichael, Ben Sturgeon, Dr. R.M. Hampton, and John Gikas.

After the presentation of diplomas, and the singing of the school song by the graduating class, the Rev. Francis J. Hynes, C.M., of St. Vincent de Paul Church will give the benediction.

Junior and sophomore bandmen will give the seniors the final tribute as they play fanfare and recessional music as the graduates march out to their after graduation activities.

Mothers of seniors have planned an all-night program of a dance, a movie and breakfast. Seniors were given tickets for all events today during commencement rehearsals, and will be permitted to take a guest who is not a senior, according to Mrs. George McCarroll, coordinator.

Seniors and their guests will dance from 11 p.m. today to 2 a.m. Friday at the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn, with music provided by the group (See GRADUATION, Page 2)

When asked to comment on Philippine people's impression of the United States, Miss De Leon noted with hesitation that the "older generation and government are pro-America, but the major news media and younger generation are anti-America. This is because they were not satisfied with the conduct of some American GIs stationed in her country, she pointed out.

"We know enough already," he said. "We must do more than pass resolutions. We must pledge ourselves to be taxed, to sacrifice, to restore human values in our society."

Miss De Leon said the only big difference she has observed since her arrival in this country one year ago is that "the Philippine Christmas holiday period (Dec. 17-Jan. 6) is longer than that in the United States. The letter, which urges the Communists to provide humane treatment to American prisoners of war, reads as follows: "I am writing this letter neither as an advocate nor as an opponent of the Viet Nam War, but as an American, extremely concerned about the treatment of Americans being held prisoners of war in North Viet Nam I feel that humane treatment of these men is a matter of grave importance."

Price stated that as a Pampa resident, he was particularly proud of the students' efforts. "These young people are speaking out for justice in the best traditions of America, and it is young people like these who will one day guide the destiny of this nation, not the Rap Browns, the Stokely Carman in prison to send and receive mail, release the sick and wounded, identify and acknowledge each man held prisoner for benefit of his Vietnam."

Molded Salad Adds Spring Time Touch

Molded salads add to the art of dining well because they bring flavor and color to a table setting. For busy cooks a molded salad also is a perfect prepare-ahead answer to a hurried schedule. A special light and attractive salad-blend, zesty Florida grapefruit juice, unflavored gelatin, mayonnaise, avocado and whipped cream. This is served surrounded by fresh grapefruit sections, avocado slices and fresh or canned shrimp. For a successful salad always use ripe avocados and sprinkle the avocado with citrus juice to prevent its discoloring.

Bob Weaver brings a potpourri of interests and experience to his job as chef for the private Park Avenue executive dining room of Kenyon & Eckhardt, Inc., major advertising agency. He studied beauty culture in Chicago for a career in theatrical make-up, cooked for the Boy Scouts, was a porter and potwasher in private homes, cooked in a consolidated Army mess for 900 and also from a field truck. "My interest in cooking came from my Indiana heritage," Weaver explained. "Our family was among the early southern Negroes to settle in Grant County in 1847. There always was a plate on the table for guests, even during the Depression, and a pride in food."

fat. Brown chicken in fat and then remove to casserole and keep warm in oven.
CURRY SAUCE
4 tbs. butter
2 tbs. curry powder
2 c. milk or chicken broth
2 medium-sized onions
4 tbs. flour
1 tsp. salt
2 c. applesauce
Juice of 1 lemon
To make curry sauce, melt butter in top of double boiler, then stir in flour and curry powder until well blended. Gradually add liquid, stirring until well blended. Add onions that have been sautéed until yellow. Add applesauce, blend well. Pour over chicken in casserole and cook for one hour, or until chicken is done. Cook two cups rice according to directions.
Steamed raisins—Pour ¼-cup of water in small pan; add one cup of raisins. Cover pan, place over low heat for 5 or 10 minutes until raisins are plump. Toast one package of coconut in oven.
Chop one green pepper very fine.
Major Grey Chutney.
Place the four items above in separate small dishes and place around casserole so each one may help himself.

"IN-A-JIF" BEEF GOULASH
4 medium onions, sliced (about 2½ to 3 cups)
3 tbs. butter or margarine
1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
1 tomato-paste can water
2 tbs. paprika
2 cans (12 oz. each) roast beef with gravy
1 pkg. (4 oz.) noodles
1 tsp. poppy seeds
Sour cream (optional)
Sauté sliced onions in 2 tablespoons of the butter or margarine until tender but not browned, about 3 minutes. Stir in tomato paste, water and paprika. Simmer over low heat 10 minutes to blend flavors. Add roast beef with gravy. Heat thoroughly.
Meanwhile, cook noodles according to package directions. Drain; toss with remaining

French Tuna Dish Welcomes Guests For Wedding Shower

Although the traditional approach to marriage, like having a religious, legal ceremony, is being shaken 'til its teeth rattle, millions of expectant brides look forward to the round of showers and parties.

The bridal shower continues amid mounds of presents for the new home. The shower hostess with a flair for the different will appreciate a new recipe. One that is simple but with a story is Allade restaurant was The Hole in the Wall. Those honeymooning in England may want to visit this quaint inn where you dine in cozy dining rooms, one in the kitchen.

Allade Toulousaine is tuna specialty for cheery bridal shower.

AILLADE TOULOUSAINE

MOLASSES CAKE

1½ c. Sugar
1 c. Butter or Oleo
2 Eggs
1 c. Molasses
2 c. Flour
½ tsp. Ground Cloves
½ tsp. Ground Ginger
1 tsp. Cinnamon
½ tsp. Salt
2 gsp. Soda
1 c. Boiling Water
Cream the butter and sugar. Add well beaten eggs. Add molasses. Sift the flour with the cloves, ginger, cinnamon and salt. Put the soda in the cup of boiling hot water. Add the flour mixture to the first mixture.
Gradually add the soda water, stirring constantly. Beat mixture well.
The batter will be very thin, but do not add more flour. Pour into a greased and lightly floured cake pan or bread pan. Bake in moderate oven about 45 minutes or until, when you press top of cake, it leaves no dent. Turn upside-down on plate. Place damp cloth on top of pan. Serve hot or cold. It's good to the last crumb!

EASY CARAMEL ICING

½ c. Butter
1 c. Brown Sugar
¼ c. Milk
1 tsp. Vanilla
Pinch Salt
2 c. Confectioners' Sugar, Packed
Melt butter in saucepan; add brown sugar. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly for 2 minutes. Add milk and allow to come to a boil. Remove from heat and allow to cool. Add vanilla, salt and sugar and beat well.

PHONE BILL

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Internal Revenue Service asked the Wells Fargo Bank to deduct small amounts from the accounts of customers who refuse to pay telephone excise taxes. The taxes usually amount to $2 to $3 but the bank charges its customers the standard $7.50 attachment fee for the paperwork involved. The bank Wednesday asked the IRS to levy the attachments on phone tax protesters once a year rather than every quarter because the paperwork was out of line with the amounts received. One recent customer agreed. He was so mad about the $7.50 fee and $2.62 taken by the IRS that he stomped out of a suburban bank then returned with a note demanding $10.12 from the teller. He was arrested for bank robbery.

Shallot Butter Turns Steak Into Specialty

Increased travel is stimulating the taste buds on Americans. Regional dishes constantly are swapped by friends and relatives from other states. Those traveling to Europe, the Far East, South America or the Caribbean find more interesting foods to sample than the standard cheeseburger and french fries. One menu classic remains unchallenged, however, and that is the steak, although it can be prepared differently and garnished with a greater variety of sauces and butter toppings than most cooks fix at home. One favorite recipe, stemming from the French, is Less-expensive chuck roast becomes four-star dish with shallot butter.

May but even then difficult to find in most communities. Now chopped shallots are freeze-dried for year-round use. When using freeze-dried shallots with recipes calling for fresh shallots, measure the same amount, teaspoon for teaspoon. Stir them into a sauce, stew or soup as is. When using freeze-dried shallots in a comparatively dry mixture, mix them with an equal amount of water and let them stand three minutes to reconstitute.

SAN JOAQUIN OVEN ROAST

4 lb. chuck steak or roast, bone in
2 tsp. salt
¼ tsp. marjoram leaves, crumbled
¼ tsp. ground black pepper
¼ c. (one-sixth oz.) freeze-dried shallots
Water
2 tbs. flour
Sprinkle both sides of steak with salt, marjoram and black pepper. Place in a roasting pan in a preheated, 500-degree oven. Brown on both sides, turning once, about 20 to 40 minutes. Mix shallots with ¼-cup water. Let stand 3 minutes to rehydrate. Scatter over top of meat. Cover; reduce heat to 350 degrees and cook one hour or until tender. Measure pan drippings for gravy. Add water to measure 2 cups. Stir in flour; cook until thickened. Serve with meat. Makes 6 portions.

Black Principal Of A White School Says He Has Never Felt He Was Looked Upon By Pupils As Being Different

DALLAS (UPI) — At Arthur B. Kramer elementary school the kids all come from the surrounding neighborhood but the principal comes from across town.

"You might say I'm a bussed principal," said John W. Roland, the black principal of the predominantly white school.

A year ago Roland was principal of an all black elementary school and Kramer was all white.

Now Kramer, a modern brick building school located in an area of $50,000 and up homes, has two black students and Roland.

The principal said there have been no racial problems during his year at Kramer.

No Attitudes Formed

"I've had a strange feeling about that. I don't think they had any attitudes formed about race before I came here," he said.

"I have never felt while being here that I was looked upon by the kids as being different," said the 44-year-old Roland, a soft spoken man who wears his thinning hair combed straight back.

And Roland said parents have not caused any problems either. "If the parents had reservations they didn't show it. The parents have bent over backwards to help," he said.

Roland mentioned one incident in which a parent had sent a book back to the school with a note that it wasn't the sort of book she thought her child should be reading.

The book was the "Uncle Remus type," he said.

Roland was transferred to Kramer under the Dallas Independent School District's "crossover" program. The program represents school desegregation on a faculty and administrative level.

Dallas school officials say the program adds to the student's education.

"We have a confluence of cultures which involves everybody. We feel we have a pluralistic society and all groups have made important contributions," said Larry Ascoug, assistant to the Dallas superintendent of schools.

But Roland said for the white students at Kramer the opportunities to learn about other ethnic groups are "really limited."

"It perhaps has been too limited," he said.

Some Lack Knowledge

He also said that students graduating from Kramer to one of the Dallas junior high schools "don't perhaps know as much as they could about other ethnic groups."

cannot be solved by simply adding more material on other ethnic groups to the elementary school's curriculum.

"I don't think a year or two of studying out of a book would expose you enough to another ethnic group," he said.

There are Dallas programs being developed to give students from different ethnic groups greater chance for contact with one another.

Roland mentioned the possibility of exchange programs which would allow the students and parents from other areas of the city.

He said even these programs would not be enough, "but at least it's a start in the right direction."

"With the neighborhoods set up the way they are it makes it hard for kids to really come into contact with one another," said Roland.

"When housing desegregation is eliminated, the schools are automatically desegregated," he said.

JOB CREATION BILL

WASHINGTON (UPI)—House and Senate negotiators have agreed to seek final congressional approval for legislation that would fight unemployment by creating up to $2 billion in public works jobs.

The approval by conferees working out differences in bills passed by each chamber, came Tuesday despite warnings President Nixon might veto the legislation.

Bomb Threats, Sniping Are Part Of Daily Routine For Two Groups In Houston - The Terrorized And The Terrorists

By EDMUND GLEN JOHNSON
HOUSTON (UPI) — Bombs, snipers and telephoned threats are part of the daily routine for two groups in Texas' largest city — the terrorized and the terrorists.

During the last 18 months more than 20 violent acts have blasted radio transmitters and buildings, set fire to cars and straffed businesses and homes, but — miraculously — have caused no injuries.

"I have said from the outset it is a handful of extremists, and like most cities we have exremists on both ends of the spectrum — revolutionaries on the left and radicals on the right," Mayor Louie Welch said.

Handful or legion, they are still at work and last week Police Chief Herman Short reported his own police force would have to install alarm systems to protect its patrol cars.

"I consider this a hell of a note in our society," Short said. The chief reported his department has recorded 146 bomb threats so far this year and three materi-

But only one arrest has been made in a local case: Paul William Morato, 24, of League City was charged May 4 with placing a fake bomb in the Pacifica Radio Station, KPFT-FM.

Stafers at Pacifica, a liberal, nonprofit station, were not surprised by the bomb, but were surprised it was a fake. The station's transmitter was blasted out of commission May 12 and again Oct. 6 last year.

The two blasts kept the station off the air several weeks and cost $37,000. Pacifica only went back on the second time because Lloyds of London wrote the transmitter insurance policy. Domestic companies considered the risk of another blast too great.

No one has been charged with either Pacifica bombing and Larry Lee, the station manager at the time of the blasts, is not surprised.

"Chief Short's perception of the realities of terrorism are so selective it limits his effectiveness," Lee said. "He still has most of his political intelligence force watching the left for fear someone will blow up a highway overpass." But Short disputes charges his intelligence division pampers right wingers while harassing leftists.

"We have been investigating these incidents for some time," Short said. "Any time there is an act of violence we begin a full investigation. We aren't selective in our investigations, no matter what some groups charge."

First Arrest Made Last week, the first arrest was made in what some intelligence officers described as a "top-priority" investigation of a recent bombing and trafficking of the socialist workers party headquarters.

Michael Douglas Lowe, a 22-year-old Waco carpenter living in Houston, was arrested in the parking lot of his apartment house and charged with possession of a homemade bomb.

Police officers found a pound of potassium chlorate, a pound of sulphuric acid and pieces of rubber in his car. Combined, the materials could produce a deadly explosion and fire when he acid ate through the rubber to mix with the potassium chlorate.

Lowe was jailed under $100,000 bond, but he was not linked with any "specific local act of terrorism."

Three other men also have been arrested locally on bombing-related charges, but they were arrested by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents and have not been charged with any local incidents.

Jimmy Dale Hutto, 24; Russell A. Rector Jr., 18; Ronford Styron, 20, all of Pasadena, were caught after a high-speed chase west of Houston and charged by the FBI with conspiracy to bomb Pacifica transmitters in California.

All of those arrested — Hutto, Rector, Styron, Murratto and Lowe — have claimed membership in the United Klans of America or have had Klan literature in their possession.

But, grand dragon Frank Converse, who owns a Houston gun shop, maintains they were cast out of the organization for their far-right philosophies stressing violence.

The two favorites of any picnic...

FRIDAY, MAY 28

Your Birthday Friday: Several months of experimentation, trial and error finally bring you up to a new earning and learning plateau. Responsibility is stabilized at a somewhat higher level than you are accustomed to carry. Friday's natives have a strong linguistic and literary streak; may write or do important reading.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Wind up your work week serenely, thinking about what to do over the weekend. A brief holiday excursion is in the air.

Taurus (April 20-May 20): Broader opportunities, added attractions in places of special interest offer reasons for more exact plans. Consult specialists where you can't be sure of details.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): For future reference, make a list of your resources and recurring obligations. Include regular medical check-ups and other professional services.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): See the other fellow's view and give him freedom to differ. This leaves you opportunity and energy to take advantage of a bargain or start a long anticipated personal project.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): The reason and ultimate results remain about the same while short-range activity changes pace and goes by different rules. Let your own philosophy guide your participation.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Whether it's praise or blame, go ahead with essentials and do a clean-cut job of finishing up the work week.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23): Going it alone gets you more swiftly toward your goals. It's easier to do many things than to teach or delegate the doing, and you have no time to waste.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21): A little distance in space and opinion is desirable. Keep personalities out of business and organization activities. A gentle, humorous touch helps most of all.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Providing you are great sport for some people. If your patience outlasts the game, you will see the gains to be by remaining untroubled and pursuing your chosen goals.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Influential contacts come within reach, although not quite ready for you yet. Be prepared with a definite proposal or petition.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): What you say and do is likely to need correction soon. Keep things simple to avert possible embarrassments.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): More status and responsibility comes your way. Check promptly what is involved. You have no easy way of declining once you've started.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Liberty Bell rang to proclaim the Boston Tea Party and the first public reading of the Declaration of Independence, thereby becoming a symbol of great reverence to Americans. The World Almanac says that in July, 1835, the bell cracked while tolling for the funeral of Chief Justice John Marshall. The 2,080-pound bell was first hung in the Philadelphia State House in 1753, and is now exhibited in Independence Hall.

U.S. And Its Western Allies Will Soon Begin Exploratory Troop Cut Talks With Russia

MITTENWALD, Germany (UPI)—The United States and its Western allies will begin exploratory talks with Moscow soon to see if the Soviet Union is sincere about wanting troop cutbacks in Europe, American officials said Wednesday.

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird told delegates that U.S.-Soviet nuclear missile race is continuing despite the agreement by Washington and Moscow to discuss limiting offensive and defensive weapons.

He also said both superpowers were maintaining conventional ground forces at current strength in Central Europe although the Kremlin has indicated new interest in discussing mutual and balanced reductions of NATO and Warsaw Pact forces.

Laird reported to the other allied defense ministers that the United States is continuing its antiballistic missile (ABM) building program and still has more submarine-launched nuclear missiles and more nuclear bombers than the Soviets.

But, he said the Russians have a three-to-two superiority in intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBMs) and "will reach parity with the United States in submarine-launched missiles of the Polaris type by early 1974."

Laird said the Russians already have some of the missile-launching submarines as the V-type already in station in the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans.

Australia's National Airline Pays $560,000 Ransom Money To Hoaxer

By CHARLES BERNARD
SYDNEY (UPI)—Australia's national airline Wednesday paid $560,000 to a bomb hoaxer who caused a seven-hour air drama involving 123 passengers and crew on board a Hong Kong bound jetliner. There was no bomb.

The tension began when Capt. R.J. Ritchie, the general manager for Qantas International, received a note advising him that a sophisticated barometric bomb had been placed on the plane.

It stated that if the money were paid the airline would be told how to dismantle it. The bomb allegedly was rigged to be activated when the plane reached a certain altitude after take off and would detonate when the plane descended to that altitude when landing.

The hoaxer, to prove he was not joking, directed Ritchie in his note to an airport locker where a similar bomb was found.

The plane was ordered back to Sydney and circled the airport for seven hours while the crew conducted three thorough searches of the Boeing 707 without success.

The note said the bomb on the plane contained 24 sticks of gelignite and when the ransom money was paid, instructions would be given on where it was located and how to defuse it. The note gave detailed instructions "to save time" on how the bomb worked and how airline and police officials should act.

"If the money is paid, there is no need for the passengers to be told anything," the note read. "Also I can promise you not to have another bomb on a Qantas plane."

"If you do not pay, or if you interfere in any way, you will lose your plane and this will be repeated."

The other two letters were to the finder of the bomb and to "Sergeant Short" of the Commonwealth Police.

If we could just wrap it all up.

Litter is a complex problem. And solving it calls for understanding and united action.

1. Litter isn't caused by bottles or cans or convenience packaging. Litter is caused by the thoughtless man. The thinking man can stop it.
2. The natural first step is individual action. Let's all be a little more thoughtful. Let's make sure that we, ourselves, are not adding to the litter problem.
3. The thinking man takes active steps to keep his community clean. The tools are at hand.
4. The United States Brewers Association is ready to help you. We're working at the local and national levels to create greater public awareness. To attack apathy. To help keep America Beautiful.
5. If we tackle this problem together we can soon have it all wrapped up. Write us today and we'll help your community develop a campaign against litter.
