By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Up to now, if the Americans and Russians could agree, there was always some hope that the United Nations in any given crisis might be able to function effectively as a peace organization.

Mainland China's entry creates a new situation reflecting the realities of the global power triangle.

The new occupant of China's General Assembly chair—and of the permanent Security Council seat allotted by the charter—will oppose the United States in many if not most issues and probably will be just as hostile to the other superpower, the Soviet Union.

Peking commands a big and growing prestige, not only as one of five members of the Nuclear Weapons Club but because China is home for a quarter of the world's people.

The Peking delegation can attract much support from members from Africa, Asia and Latin America and even some from Eastern Europe, depending upon issues involved. Peking stands between the superpowers, able to have a go at tipping the scales in one direction or another or, failing that, to use a veto with paralyzing effect. The Soviet veto had been the only one anybody worried about in the past, and the Russians have used it sparingly in recent years. Now there are two vetoes to worry about.

Now it will take agreement by three governments instead of two to get anything of critical importance accomplished. Thus, Red China's entry into U.N. councils can generate problems even more formidable than those that have vexed the organization through its first quarter century.

Peking enters the organization as an avowed protector of and Russians agreeing on a candidate, the two could reach a meeting of minds. The other three permanent, veto-wielding members of the Security Council—Britain, France and Nationalist China—didn't create difficulties.

But the mainland regime rules 800 million people and is beholden neither to the United States nor the Soviet Union. The superpowers, if they manage to agree on important issues, will have to win the consent of a government which feels it owes nothing to either and, in fact, is the bitter rival of both for political influence.

tion as an avowed protector of small, poor nations against the alleged plots of the two superpowers. It contends the small members are insufficiently represented. Does this mean Peking will try to change the structure of U.N. bodies? Only time can answer the question.

Might Peking hold up the selection of a new secretary-general to succeed U. Thant, who is retiring this term? When it was just a matter of the Americans and Russians agreeing on a candidate, the two could reach a meeting of minds. The other three permanent, veto-wielding members of the Security Council—Britain, France and Nationalist China—didn't create difficulties.

Performance was measured against a standard instead of against each other, and the Harvester Band scored a division "1" for a superior rating. The Robert E. Lee band took a superior rating in junior high competition while Pampa Junior High scored a second division rank. Competition took place at West Texas State University, Canyon, in damp, chilly weather. (Staff Photo)

Peking Hails Decision By U.N., Assailing U.S.

By ROBERT LIU
Associated Press Writer
TOKYO (AP) — Peking hailed today its election to the United Nations and predicted the United States and Japan will keep trying to create two Chinas. President Chiang Kai-shek vowed again to overthrow the Communist regime.

Peking's official New China News Agency, referring to the General Assembly vote Monday to admit Communist China and oust the Nationalists, said: "This significant victory in foiling the U.S.-Japanese reactionaries' plot to create two Chinas in the United Nations was won by the Chinese people and the people of the world and various friendly countries upholding international justice through a protracted joint struggle."

Earlier reports from Peking said the Chinese soon may send a delegation to the United Nations. There was speculation Premier Chou En-lai would head it to dramatize the event.

The Peking correspondent of Tokyo's Asahi Shimbun said Chou appeared cheerful Tuesday night at an Iranian reception, moving from table to table and shaking hands with all foreign guests. The report said it was quite "unusual" for Chou to do so much handshaking at a party.

Acting Foreign Minister Chi Pengfei told newsmen his government was considering sending a delegation to the United Nations, Asahi reported.

The New China News Agency said the General Assembly vote "clearly indicated that the peo-

Deputies Arrest 'A Key Suspect' Of Triple Killings

MESQUITE, Tex. (AP) — Dallas and Hunt County officers picked up a man they described as "a key suspect" in the brutal three Mesquite residents early today.

The man was arrested by Hunt County Sheriff R. W. Wood near Quinlan at 3 a.m. after an all-night operation. He was being interrogated by Glen W. Grayson, and Dallas County Sheriff Clarence Jones at Greenville.

An eight-man posse of officers set out from here Tuesday night to find a man whom they wanted to question in connection with the deaths of Forrest Covey, 22, his wife Jena, 19, and Susan Shaw, 16.

The Coveys disappeared without trace from a drive-in grocery where Mrs. Covey worked on Oct. 17. Three nights later, Miss Shaw vanished in similar circumstances from the dough nut shop where she worked, just two blocks away.

The bullet-riddled bodies of all three were recovered Sunday. The Shaw girl was found near Lake Tawakoni and the couple was in a barn near Quinlan.

Search centered in the area near where the Coveys' bodies were found. It was reported that a witness had seen there a car similar to the 1953-54 blue and white Chevrolet the police were seeking.

Secretary Deplores World Body Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration says it accepts the U.N. expulsion of Taiwan as a cost of democracy, but it still talks of cutting American financial support for the world body.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers put the administration on both sides of the street Tuesday when he said each factor is part of official U.S. thinking.

He first told a news conference "We will not support a reduction of funds for the United Nations in retaliation for this vote."

To do so, he said, would be to reject the democratic process "and we in the United States are accustomed to being bound by a majority vote."

But in his next sentence Rogers said to reporters: "The other problem, though, the related problem of whether the United Nations is spending too much money or not, is a living beyond its resources, which is a very difficult question, which we will have to address."

"And I think that my own view is that it has spent too much money in the past. And we have probably contributed more than our share."

Later in the day, the White House was asked if President Nixon shared Rogers' view on the U.S.-U.N. financial relations. "The secretary of state spoke for the United States government today," was the answer.

What he actually meant by what he said, however, remained in question, even by some administration officials' accounts.

Although they maintained Rogers was not directly linking the U.N. defeat and American financial support, they acknowledged the way he explained his stand and even the positioning of his answers could be misread. And they lacked any explanation why Rogers' answers came out as they did.

But there was no uncertainty of his disappointment in the U.N. action and his expressed feeling of bad times to come for the international agency.

"The United States," he said, "deeply regrets the action taken by the United Nations to deprive the Republic of China of representation in that organization. We think that this pre-

President Tito In United States For Visit, Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Tito of Yugoslavia arrives here today to begin a six-day state visit that will include talks with President Nixon and top administration officials.

The aging European Communist leader spent Tuesday night under tight security in Gander, Newfoundland, during a brief stopover on his trip from Belgrade.

U.S. officials, who begin their talks with Tito Thursday, are expected to ask for his help in smoothing relations in the Middle East, where he long has sided with the Arab nations.

Although he was not specific about any weakening of the United Nations, he did say U.S. public support for the U.N. generally, and for continued American fiscal aid specifically, will be affected.

"I think there is some question in the minds of the American people," he said, "and certainly in the minds of Congress, about whether we are carrying too great a share of the burden."

Auditorium Tour Scheduled For Advisory Group

A construction progress tour of Pampa's new civic auditorium has been scheduled for 9 a.m. next Tuesday. City Manager Mack Wofford said today.

Wofford said the tour will give the newly-appointed advisory committee a chance to become better acquainted with the auditorium.

The committee of five, named to assist in planning for dedication of the building next April, was named yesterday by the City Commission.

Accompanying them on the tour will be the mayor, city manager and members of the city commission.

The city manager said there is a possibility the group also will be taken on a tour of the new water filtration plant now under construction.

Block Party Rally Set For Downtown

Harvester football on the air, Jim Hughes, KGRO, will be master of ceremonies for the big Block Party to share fans' frenzy with the football.

As plans stood at press time, about the only Harvester fan not expected in the 100 Block of Cuyler Thursday evening will be Harvester cheerleader Thelma Moultrie who is hospitalized.

"Block 'em! Rock 'em! Sock 'em!"
"Yeeeah! Team!"
"Two, Four, Six, Eight! Who do we appreciate?"
"Yoooo! Team!"

"You're right! A Pep Rally just can't be put into type. But Harvester and Harvester fans are going to try to squeeze one into a single city block—the 100 block of Cuyler Street. This "Beat the Bulldogs!" blast starts at 6 p.m. Thursday. A time-back for yelling room may start sooner.

Harvesters will be there en masse. Coach "Swede" Lee will be on hand to clue in fans as to what they can expect in the Borgier game.

The team will be there to growl background fright to the coach's assurances of victory.

The Pep Squad will spark the cheers for the Green-and-Gold Grid Gladiators—and the cheer leaders will spark the Pep Squad.

Rev. Martin Hager Selected One Of Five Outstanding Young Men

The Rev. Martin Hager, minister of First Presbyterian Church, has been selected as one of Texas Five Outstanding Young Men of 1971.

Word of Hager's selection was received here today by John Warner of the Pampa Jaycees.

The judging was done by a distinguished panel of Texans. Selection of the five was made from application forms submitted by Texas Jaycee organizations.

Warner said today an application now will be sought to submit the Pampa young man's name as a nominee for the national Jaycee selection of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in the United States.

The 30-year-old Rev. Hager resides with his wife Sherry Ann and their four children at 1712 Holly Lane.

Rev. Hager and his wife will attend the Jaycees Honor Banquet for the five outstanding young men to be held in Abilene Nov. 20.

The Pampa churchman has been active in city's civic, religious and cultural life. He is one of the leaders in fighting the drug abuse problem in Pampa and was one of those instrumental in the establishment of the city's Suicide Prevention and Crisis Information Center which has been in operation since March of this year.

The Pampa Jaycees, in the nomination form, described Rev. Hager as follows: "With concerned involvement, he is leading his church and our community in going out to people in need with compassion, understanding and a genuine interest."

State Tax Man Conducts Check On Garage Sales

The state comptroller's office at Austin has been investigating reports some garage sales in Pampa are not what they are cracked up to be.

Forrest E. Skinner, tax officer for the state office of public accounts, said he had received reports about the large number of garage sales here.

City Manager Mack Wofford said Skinner's office had received complaints that in some cases articles had been purchased out of town and brought in to be sold at local garage sales.

Skinner also stated, according to the city manager, that the matter of sales tax collections also was involved.

Skinner, according to Wofford, stated word had come to the Austin office that as high as 200 garage sales a month had been held in Pampa.

Proper Nutrition May Stop Cancer, Says UT Scholar

WASHINGTON (AP) — A University of Texas scientist who says he has starved rats on commercial white bread told the National Academy of Science today proper nutrition may prevent cancer.

Dr. Roger J. Williams said supernutrition, a word he coined for nutrition beyond "good" nutrition and unrelated to calories, deserves investigation as a strategy for the control of disease.

Much remains to be on what constitutes supernutrition, Williams said.

The presence of significant unknown nutrients in uncooked food has long been suspected, and (H.A.) Schneider has partially isolated an unusual unknown nutrient for mice.

Senate Considers Slicing U.S. Aid For World Body

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Nations' decision to expel Nationalist China has sparked a round of angry Senate denunciations and added controversy to the foreign aid bill.

Before anyone could even try to amend the $3.2 billion authorization measure, Sen. William Saxbe, R-Ohio, was on his feet Tuesday to urge it be sent back to the Foreign Relations Committee—so it could be saved.

"If we don't send it back to committee I think we're going to defeat it," Saxbe said.

But Senate leaders said a postponement in considering the aid measure might delay congressional adjournment now scheduled between Nov. 15 and Dec. 1. They also said it may delay other important legislation.

While the debate raged on the Senate floor, Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, came up to the Senate Press Gallery to support the Saxbe move.

"It's a very poor way to legislate—to begin this debate the day after the U.N. vote," Church said. "The mood of the Senate is hot-tempered and irrational. Senators have been known to do silly things in the past and who knows what silly thing might be adopted now."

But Saxbe had to abandon his effort, and the aid bill is now ready to receive amendments. An amendment already inserted by the Foreign Relations Committee calls for a withdrawal of troops from Indochina in six months.

As senators rushed to get on record on the U.N.'s Monday night vote, these main threads of argument developed:

—Conservative senators from both parties called for reduction in U.S. financial support of the United Nations, with Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., demanding U.S. withdrawal.

Sen. James L. Buckley, CON-N.Y., said he has asked his staff to prepare legislation "calling for a major reduction in U.S. support and amendments might come to cut the $141 million in the aid bill to U.N.-related programs.

Soldiers Jailed For War Protest Freed On Bonds

Soldiers jailed for taking part in an antiwar march here Veterans' Day have won a court order for their release on personal bonds.

Bell County Judge Don Busby granted it Tuesday after a hearing at which lawyers sought a writ of habeas corpus to get the servicemen freed.

The judge upheld $200 bonds set for civilians held, like the soldiers, on charges of parading without a permit.

One of the civilians, Larry Zeiger, testified the Killean jail was so crowded that 58 prisoners were put in a cell normally occupied by no more than eight.

Zeiger also said a police sergeant used Mace on the prisoners. Killean Police Chief Charlie Mitchell said he was unaware of such incidents.

Mitchell said 118 soldiers and civilians were arrested. He disclosed that three persons were taken to a hospital Tuesday from the jail—one to be treated for heat stroke, another for a relapse of malaria and a third for an asthma attack.

Zeiger said several persons had to remain standing all night in the crowded cells.

Of the 118 arrested, authorities said 108 were arraigned Monday night on charges of parading without a permit. The arraignment session in municipal court took 7½ hours.

One man was taken before a peace justice on charges of assaulting a police officer. Two others were not arraigned because they refused to leave their jail cells.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have recently married a kind, considerate and generous man, who took on a divorced 40-year-old woman, plus her three rambunctious teen-agers and a cat.

He wants to move us out of our present home into a larger, more pretentious one. I would like to stay put for another four years, until my youngest is out of high school. My children have changed schools many times in their lives, and now they are happy, and I don't want them to have to adjust to another change. I believe the teen years are the most difficult when it comes to breaking into a new circle of friends.

My home is pleasant and adequate, and in an entirely acceptable neighborhood, but my husband would like something a little less modest, want desperately to make this wonderful man happy, but at the moment I am torn with indecision about where my first obligation lies. Please tell me what you think.

TORN

DEAR TORN: You seem to be a very unselfish, sensitive and thoughtful woman. Tell your husband why you prefer to "stay put" rather than move into a more pretentious home. If he's as kind, considerate and generous as you say he is, he will respect you for your attitude, and defer willingly.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 71-year-old widow. I live alone in a little home which I own and I am afraid to be here alone at night.

Do you think I'd be the talk of the town if I let a man sleep in my basement? The man I have in mind is clean and respectable. He's a little retarded. Can't read or write, but he is honest. (He's done some odd jobs for me over the years.)

I have asked a few of my good friends, and they said, "Sure, why not?"

What do you say?

MRS. J.J.

DEAR MRS. J.J.: Sure, why not, indeed!

DEAR ABBY: I don't know whom to believe. My teenage daughter tells me that her friends have complained to her about the way her father acts towards them. Father is 40, good-looking and very lively. I mentioned this to him and he said those girls have misinterpreted his actions — that he is just trying to have a little fun, teasing them.

He tickles them in the ribs and sneaks up behind them and puts his hands around their shoulders or their waists.

Your suggestions are most welcome in this misunderstanding.

MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Tell father that if he will keep his hands to himself there will be no chance of a "misinterpretation" whatever.

DEAR ABBY: After being officially engaged for five months, I realize that it would be a big mistake to marry Harry. I feel bad about having to break our engagement after all the parties and gifts given in our honor, but there is no other way.

I have already figured out what to say to him, my family and friends, but what do I do with the engagement ring? Should I pay him the $300 and keep it? (I don't really want it.) He still has the wedding ring, which is part of the set, and half a set won't do either one of us any good.

Please hurry your answer as I want to settle this soon.

RING TROUBLE

DEAR RING: Give the engagement ring back to him. What he does with it after that is his problem.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Troop leaders who missed the October neighborhood meeting should drop by the Girl Scout office and pick up an agenda.

The Standard First Aid Course for adult scouts, which has had 2 sessions, Oct. 19 and Oct. 26 will continue for 3 more sessions, Oct. 28 and Nov. 2 and 4. The meetings are being held in the City Commission Room in City Hall from 7-8:30 p.m. J.D. Ray is the instructor.

Scouters interested in obtaining a First Aid card should take advantage of this opportunity. One make-up session will be offered.

Adults who attended the Basic Group Leadership course this month were Mmes. Robert Craig, Charles Albus, Barney Luke, James Finkenbinder, Bobby Wilson, Frank Stoffa, J.W. Gist, James Birdsell, Kenneth Mumford, Leo Scott and Alvin Alexander. Makeup sessions will be scheduled in November.

Mrs. Wayne Jones, Cadette Troop 61, reports their troop held a rededication ceremony and the girls received their Cadette cookades.

Mrs. J.W. Gist's Brownie Troop 77 cooked out recently.

They also made drinking cups from soft drink cans, and visited the Aquarium and Fern's Flower Shop.

Brownie Troop 70 presented the flag at Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. last month. Their leader is Mrs. Bobby Wilson. Brownies in Troop 83 made dunking bags and are now taking skating lessons while working on their Skater's Badge. Their leader is Mrs. Walter Hill, Jr.

Connie Maness reports that Junior Troop 136 held a camp-out at Camp Mel Davis. The girls stayed in the lodge, but cooked their meals outside. Parents traveled to camp for the rededication ceremony and troop birthday party on Saturday night. Receiving membership stars were Debra Eggleston, Brenda Kite, Kim Gooch, Debby Anderson, Cindy Day, Rose Ann Miller, Cheryl Miser, Belinda Collins, Sherri Eggleston, and Connie Maness.

Using their recently acquired knowledge of the compass, they had a contest to see which group could most accurately follow a compass trail. They also followed trail signs through the woods, learned square lashing and two new songs. Girls earning their Gypsy Badge this month were Martha Earhart, Glenn Franks, Kim Gattis, Julie Goff, Kerri Hill, Jo Reader, Donna Ward, Brenda White, Toni Shields and Penny Wieser.

Your Horoscope

By Francis Griffin
THURSDAY, October 27, 1971

Your birthday today: Transformation pervades your experience during the coming week. Material needs, however, are fulfilled without undue stress. Social life is bristling with surprises. Today's "fortune" hints at an abrupt "change," one often tempted to force issues.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): It's 5:00 p.m.; your "voice of games and rules" has been heard. Well-worn "maneuver" are often tempted to force issues.

Taurus (April 20-May 20): Break out of your "grumpy" mood; grasp the nettle and go ahead where you've already worked out even tentative plans. Impromptu changes are in order.

Gemini (May 21-June 20): Seek a suitable "partner" much of today as "arranged" meditation promises major guidance.

Cancer (June 21-July 21): Divide your attention and serve into separate chapters for the day and its extension into the night. Do a thorough check on "plans" and "provisions" are incomplete.

Leo (July 22-Aug. 22): Pace your work efforts and commitments to provide "extra" energy for much of today's "company." Social contacts include probable surprises.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You may think you're done with old projects, but some of them come to life again for reworking, revision, or ready to experiment. Seek an expedient.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): What gains you achieve in the day should be set aside promptly, not let be scattered in the evening.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Purging "material" arrangements find favor, smooth sailing early. Close business as well as custom permits no aloof talk.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Never mind "feeling" sorry for yourself—everything has hindrances, frustrations, limitations.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Instant emotional support is rare but can happen. Your maturity and will to relate are "critical" factors.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): You might think what you say does no damage today a misunderstood word could bring you with its repercussions.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20): Think twice before trying to respond to severe alluring attractions. The swifter you make a definite choice, the easier.

A CAT MAY ALWAYS LAND on its feet, but that doesn't mean there can't sometimes be problems, such as the broken leg which nine-week-old "Duchess" of St. Petersburg, Fla., got for jumping out of a tree and landing too hard. In traction, she still gets around very well, thank you, and in the best play-must-go-on tradition doesn't let a little thing like that stop her from batting around the old spool with the good paw, right.

Western Religion As 2 Easterners See It

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Two spiritual leaders from India, pondering the Western religious landscape, are convinced that it is gradually being revitalized with "leaven" from the East. "Millions of people in the West now are responding to Eastern thought," says Swami Ranganathananda, a monastic leader of the Hindu Ramakrishna order. "It's having a deepening influence."

This doesn't imply or necessitate any shift of Westerners away from Judeo-Christianity to Eastern faiths, he points out, and adds: "Once they've come through experience with Eastern ideas, they will find it makes their Christianity more real, that they understand their own religion better."

Muni Sri Chirabhanu, the first Jainist muni—saintly one—to leave the soil of India, also says that newly inspired directions are at work in the West which has become "sick with dogmatic religion." The two Easterners, here for interreligious conferences at Princeton Theological Seminary this week and at Harvard Divinity School recently, said in a joint interview that Western faiths are suffering from stifling formalism. "It's a failure of Western religion to express itself in experiential terms," said Swami Ranganathananda, 63, a gentle, articulate man in saffron-hued mantle whose headquarters is in Belur Math near Calcutta. He said mankind is "moving away from formal religious institutionalism. It's just decaying all around us—there's no doubt about it." But at the same time, he added, "religion now is only beginning."

lain, Buddhism, Judaism, Hinduism, Jainism and Chinese faiths, are under the auspices of the Temple of Understanding. This is an interfaith organization, founded by Mrs. Dickman Hollister of Greenwich, Conn., to develop a center in Washington D.C., for interreligious study and dialogue. Ordinarily, works of the old masters are used for illustrated Bibles, but the choice of Dali's contemporary works for that work was intended to reflect the modernity of the new translation.

It was produced by a team of French Roman Catholics and Protestant scholars and first issued in English in 1966. Along with the religious medals, a series of booklets is being issued on each faith, written by the Rev. Dr. David Poling, a United Presbyterian scholar and columnist. "Interest in the great religious traditions of the world has assumed new dimensions," he said, following a trip to Asia, the Middle East and Africa doing research for the series. The 12-member advisory commission guiding the project includes founding Israeli president David Ben Gurion, Baptist evangelist Billy Graham, Catholic Bishop Fulton Sheen and U.S. cabinet member George Romney, a Mormon. Menconi, 56, a Roman Catholic and one of the world's leading sculptors of medals who has designed them for the last four presidents.

France, USSR Agree To Sign Declaration

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — France and the Soviet Union have agreed to a declaration of principles to govern their future political relations, informed sources said Tuesday. The declaration will be signed Saturday at the end of the official visit by the Soviet Communist party chief, Leonid I. Brezhnev. It is the result of a compromise between Brezhnev and President Georges Pompidou.

The Russians insisted that France subscribe to a friendship treaty whose aim, France feared, would be to dislodge it from the Atlantic Alliance. It was understood that Brezhnev pressed Pompidou again Monday for a treaty during their first meeting in the presidential palace. The sources said Pompidou fell back on a French counterproposal, which was put forth during the preparations for Brezhnev's first visit to the West. This was a formal statement, falling short of a treaty that would spell out their basis of cooperation. The sources reported the document would contain three basic principles—dissolution of military-political blocs in Europe, respect for existing frontiers and noninterference in the internal affairs of other states. I also was learned that France and the Soviet Union would simultaneously sign a new economic agreement.

Rogers Says U.S. Deeply Regrets Free China's Expulsion From UN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers said Tuesday the expulsion of Nationalist China from the United Nations was a regrettable act that could adversely affect the future of the world body.

The secretary told newsmen the Nixon administration will, however, respect the majority decision of the United Nations in expelling the government on Taiwan. Rogers said "This administration deeply regrets the expulsion of the Republic of China and thinks the precedent is a most unfortunate one and will have adverse affects in the future." He expressed hope, however, the United Nations "won't be weakened. But he pointedly told reporters the world organization faces a financial crisis which will take deep consideration by members.

While denying the Nixon administration would attempt to retaliate against the United Nations over the China question, Rogers did say the financial situation is a serious one.

There is "another problem," he said, "of whether the United Nations is living beyond its means... I think that may be the case."

Armed Forces Holiday Leave

WASHINGTON (AP) — The armed forces will adhere to traditional policies of liberal leave and early discharges during the Christmas season, the Pentagon announced Tuesday. Officers and enlisted men whose discharge date occurs between Dec. 18 and Jan. 2, will be separated during the week of Dec. 8.

The Army will grant holiday leave between Dec. 18 and Jan. 2. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force have no specified period, but each has been urged to exercise liberal leave policies during the holiday season, the Pentagon said. Such policies allow more personnel to be on leave during holidays than during other times.

Texas Undergoes Annual Rash Of 'Football Knee,' Says Doctor

DALLAS (AP) — Texas undergoes an annual epidemic of "football knee," Dr. George Truett James, a leading Dallas orthopedic surgeon, said in a recent interview. "This injury which strikes heavily during the football season is more serious than the public realizes," Dr. James said. "It does not destroy the knee. However, severe cases require surgery and if often leaves the boy with a weakened knee and the strong possibility of arthritic disorders later on in life."

Dr. James, one of a team of consulting surgeons to the SMU Mustangs and a number of Dallas high schools, says the injury is common to all types of football games ranging from the pro ranks to "tag" contests. "In Dallas alone we may see to three dozen cases, a week during the football season," he explained. "And it is not only painful but costly, disturbing to the patient and his family and invariably knocks him out for the season." In most instances "football knee" comes from clipping, hard tackling and unnecessary roughness during games, the surgeon said. "The victims do not realize their knee gets hit with the impact of a heavy railroad tie striking with 2,000 pounds of force. The blow often literally shreds knee ligaments and destroys the cartilage. All that can be done is to repair it through surgery."

Unfortunately because "football knee" weakens the leg it frequently becomes a repeat injury, Dr. James pointed out. "Players like Kyle Rote at SMU underwent four operations for this injury," he said. "But the worst I have seen was the player who refused to quit until his ninth operation knocked him out of the game completely." Despite obvious dangers in the game, Dr. James counsels over-anxious parents against forbidding their sons to play football. The psychological advantage playing has for the boy at this stage in life must be realized by the family, coach and his doctor," he stated. "Just being a team member is a vital factor in his process of growing up properly."

DETROIT (AP)—The flood of import car sales has eased a bit but whether it is temporary or permanent is anybody's guess.

Others say it is because of the additional 6.5 per cent tax which was tacked onto the price of new cars imported after President Nixon's Aug. 15 economic program. They previously had been assessed 3.5 per cent.

Still others say the slackening in demand for autos built over seas came after the Nixon wage-price freeze which meant the new 1972 domestic cars were selling at 1971 prices—at least until mid-November when a price increase is anticipated.

At first glance, the 128,190 sales which the import cars chalked up in the U.S. market in September were impressive. They were the highest total of any September in import car history.

A closer look, however, showed that the import sales represented only about 15 per cent of the September new car market, down considerably from the 21 per cent of the previous month.

The plain fact is that domestic car sales are booming in the United States with many of Detroit's auto executives expressing confidence that October will become the first month in history in which over a million autos—domestic and imports—were sold. By contrast,

Communist China Expected To Send Delegation To UN

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China is most likely to send a delegation to the United Nations during the current session of the General Assembly, a Japanese newspaper report from Peking said Tuesday.

The Peking-based correspondent of Asahi Shimbun said there is a rumor in Peking that Premier Chou En-lai would go to New York but this has not been confirmed officially.

The Communist Chinese ambassador to Canada will make arrangements for establishing the Chinese office in the world body, Asahi said.

The Peking government appears to believe its duty is to oppose U.S.-Soviet control of the United Nations together with Albania, Algeria and other countries which supported admitting Peking to the United Nations, the paper said.

High Court Upholds Massive Busing Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court let stand Tuesday a massive busing plan for schools in Pontiac, Mich., and a finding that officials there intentionally promoted segregation.

The plan and the ruling, by U.S. District Judge Damon J. Keith of Detroit, had been appealed to the high court by an argument that whatever segregation exists in the industrial city 25 miles northwest of Detroit is a result of housing patterns.

While Keith charged the school board with locating new schools and arranging boundaries in such a way as to perpetuate segregation, the officials told the court in the petition filed Aug. 25 that they had tried to reduce racial imbalance even amid shifting populations.

The justices voted unanimously not to review Judge Keith's decision, sustained last May by the U.S. Circuit Court in Cincinnati. They did not make any comment on the issues.

Some 10,000 of the 24,000 public school children have been bused since the new term began Sept. 7. Thirty-two per cent of the school population in the automobile manufacturing center are black. The aim of the busing plan is to make each school 20 to 40 per cent black.

On the night of Aug. 30, ten school buses were destroyed by bomb explosions. FBI agents subsequently made six arrests. Another 23 arrests were made by school officials in the first three days of classes.

The Supreme Court has never heard argument on a school desegregation case from a northern or western state. The appeal said there was no substantial distinction between the situation in Pontiac and that in Cincinnati, Kansas City, and Gary, Ind., where residential housing patterns spawned school segregation and where the court declined to hear complaints from Negro parents.

FOR CHILI CONTEST Fowler's 2 Chances: 'Slim' And None!

LOS ANGELES — C.V. Wood, champion of the International Chili Society's Super Chili Bowl Cook-Off, has issued a warning to his challenger, Welford P. Fowler, Austin, concerning their head-on match Nov. 6 at Terlingua, in the fifth renewal of the gastro-nomical tussle.

"There really is little or no reason for him (Fowler) to show up," said the executive, president of McCulloch Oil Corp. "I have a new and (of course) secret recipe — acquired after a year-long search — that will provide judges with an all-time taste thrill."

Wood claims he secured the recipe from the great-grand daughter of a West Texas miner who made his fortune as a chili cook near Satter's Creek in 1859. He was otherwise unsuccessful as a miner in the area of California's great Gold Rush.

"The century-old chili formula," Wood adamantly refused to disclose details of his discovery. He said the list of ingredients and cooking instructions have been sealed in a special vault.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — They call it the case of the hit-and-run bathtub.

Police responding to a call in downtown San Francisco Monday found four traffic lights out of commission, two of them badly damaged, and a battered white enameled bathtub on the sidewalk.

Witnesses told police the tub swung out from the back of a flatbed truck loaded with approximately 49 other bathtubs and banged into one traffic light—standard bending it at a 45-degree angle.

The bathtub then careened into the second light standard and toppled off the truck onto the sidewalk.

Witnesses reported the driver got out, surveyed the damage, shrugged his shoulders and drove off.

Police turned the tub over to the hit-run detail as evidence.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 140-member World Symphony Orchestra played its third and final performance Monday night in the opera house of the new John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

The orchestra, comprised of musicians from almost every country where western music is played, gave an international program before an invited audience of diplomats and Washington officials.

at a highly-regarded local financial institution.

Wood said it was foolhardy for Fowler to make the trek to Terlingua.

"I'm giving fair warning: it will be futile for the man to try and dethrone me. Because of my new recipe, he'll have only two chances: slim and none."

The ghost town match is expected to attract upwards of 3,000 chili lovers who will also witness an elimination competition to determine a challenger for next year's renewal.

Fowler earned the right to oppose Wood in the championship conflict a year ago when he disposed of nine pretenders in an elimination tournament, supervised by Frank X. Tolbert, of Dallas, executive secretary of the International Chili Society.

Author H. Allen Smith inspired the contest when he claimed in a national magazine article that he was the finest chili cook in the universe. Industrialist Wood won the title in 1969.

The competition is an ad lib blend of cooking, comedy and an escape from reality for participants and spectators alike.

Terlingua is located 300-plus miles southeast of El Paso in the Chisos Mountains near the entrance to Big Bend National Park.

DOCTOR SAYS Half Of Texas Poor Children Suffers From Malnutrition

HOUSTON (AP) — A physician who specializes in children's nutrition problems says one-half of the poor in Texas suffer from malnutrition although no exact figures are available.

Dr. Buford Nichols Jr., chief of Baylor College of Medicine's Nutrition and Gastroenterology Section, says Texas spends less on public health than do 46 of the 50 states.

"If Texas has a welfare problem it's our own fault," Nichols told a recent session of the Houston Council on Human Relations. "I think we should feed our children."

He said the child suffering from malnutrition is susceptible to infectious diseases, including tuberculosis and other chronic ailments.

The problem becomes more acute when the child enters school, he said, adding that children suffering the effects of malnutrition often must be neglected by teachers who do not have time to give them enough individual attention.

"If we can spend millions on football, then we can spend money on school lunches to combat malnutrition," he said.

Nichols headed a state survey on health and nutrition this year to determine the effectiveness of state and federal food programs in helping the poor.

Texas College Selected As Site For National Program

DALLAS (AP) — Eastfield College of the Dallas County Junior College District has been chosen as the site for the nation's first training program for paraprofessionals to serve the deaf.

Dr. Bill J. Priest, chancellor of the district, told the trustees that Mrs. Louise Helton, who organized the project, will direct the program. Prior to joining the district as a teacher, Mrs. Helton was chief of the clinical services division of the Callier Hearing and Speech Center.

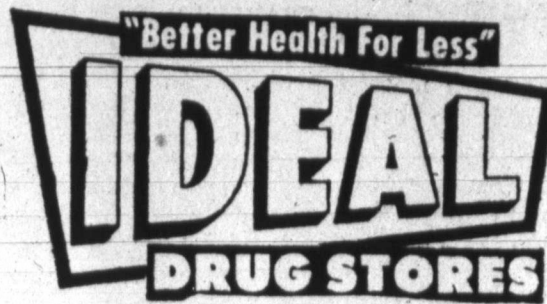

The program, financed by a grant from the Division of Occupational Research and Development of the Texas Education Agency, will offer students courses of study leading to a one-year certificate or a two-year associate of applied science degree.

Mrs. Helton pointed out the program is also tailored to increase the communication skills of the deaf themselves and of persons with deaf family members.

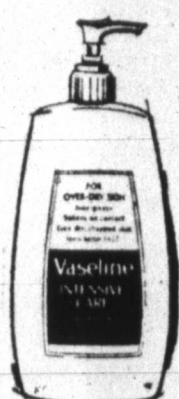

Mrs. Helton said a shortage of trained personnel to work with the deaf is expected to create a demand for students who complete the program.

The program will enable graduates to qualify for employment as a teacher's aide, media specialist, house parent in a residential school, auditory equipment specialist, communications development aide, interpreter for the deaf, aide with the multiply-handicapped and as a recreational assistant.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Judge Reiser is a versatile genius in the field of practical psychology. As a former athletic coach, he decided to keep me warmed up properly for the "main bout" at night so I addressed 4 high school convocations during the day. But I relish orienting teenagers concerning the pitfalls they must avoid in life.

CASE S-503: Judge Carleton Reiser of Cleina, Ohio, is a superb practical psychologist. For you can't sit in judgment on 10,000 court cases without absorbing a vast knowledge of human nature.

"Dr. Crane," he had advised me via telephone, "you better fly to the Fort Wayne airport, where I shall meet you by car and bring you here for your speech."

During my trips back and forth from the airport, he regaled me with some of his fascinating experiences.

"My wife and I were at Indianapolis 30 years ago," he said, "and were dining at the Columbia Club on the Circle."

"During our dinner, I noticed a distinguished looking man at a neighboring table, to whom the waiters were catering with extra care.

"So I inquired and found that it was the late Senator Jim Watson. Whereupon, I arose and went over to introduce myself. He was very gracious and commended our Ohio statesman, Governor Bricker. I told him I also admired Gov. Bricker but belonged to the rival ticket. Then I asked Sen. Watson why he had opposed Wendell Wilkie for the presidential nomination on his own Republican ticket. Sen. Watson said Wilkie had been a Democrat, but I asked Sen. Watson if he didn't believe in 'revelation' and 'conversion'."

He smiled and said, "Yes, indeed, Judge Reiser. For if a prostitute were converted and the very next Sunday asked to join my church, I'd welcome her with open arms. But I wouldn't make her the director of the choir the following Sunday."

Judge Reiser headed his country Mental Health Association, under whose auspices I was to give an evening public address.

But he had been an athletic coach during his versatile career, so he decided to give me some "warm-ups" to make sure I wouldn't be out of condition for the "main-bout" that night.

So I addressed 4 different high school convocations during the day, thus giving appropriate psychological counsel to 2,500 teenagers.

And at the big evening meeting, I spoke to 1,500 after being graciously introduced by Marion Wells, the talented Executive Director of the Ohio Mental Health Association.

She has labored valiantly for 23 years at the legislative level to build up the Ohio organization.

But now a rift has occurred with the national association, for the latter wants to levy undue tribute upon the funds of the Ohio group.

"Dr. Crane," she added, "we have worked long and hard to gain our appropriations and we feel we are better able to dispense them here in our own state than could a distant bureau in Washington."

Which fits into the current demand that Uncle Sam turn back to the states a larger share of their own taxes for local use.

For example, my home state of Illinois furnishes Uncle Sam $1.65 in taxes for every single $1.00 it gets back for local use.

Connecticut even must hand over $1.70 for every $1 it gets back!

Yet the bureaucrats in Washington don't spend such taxes as efficiently as the home states, where the voters are closer to the spenders and thus can force them to be more honest and efficient!

Maybe we thus need rival associations, even in the Mental Health field, just as we now have American and National Leagues in baseball and other competitive sports.

So send for my booklet "How to Save Our Republic," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of The Pampa Daily News, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Revenues for the quarter were $51,678,494, up $16,130,606, and expenses totaled $119,177,758, up $12,929,119.

TV & Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — New television series often have their greatest difficulties in getting started. Sometimes one must kick off with a certain show because it sets the scene and introduces the people—and often it is one of the least engaging of the lot. In other cases—usually involving action and adventure series—the initial program is picked as the most exciting on hand.

Sometimes a series that looks dreary and maladroit at launching, picks up steam and better scripts as it moves along.

Not always. "Bearcats," CBS's Wild West series, does not seem to improve with age. The year is 1915 and there are more model T's than horses and more jaunty straw boaters than 10-gallon hats to be seen but it remains a tedious hour with completely predictable plot turns. Worst of all, it assumes a jaunty air that just doesn't come off.

The story Thursday night involved a small town captured by a band of desperados. Their evil leader offered to release the village priest if the remaining townsmen built a gallows. His old daddy had been hanged there five years before for a killing and the leader was bent on revenge.

Hank and J.J. Henny—Rod Taylor and Dennis Cole—strutted around for most of the hour and finally set a big explosion under the gallows, sprayed machine-gun bullets around, captured the villains and freed the priest. The idea of an adventurer for hire was carried off with considerable elan in "Have Gun, Will Travel." This one seeks to substitute 50-year-old props, mostly old cars and armaments, for a good story.

"Bearcats" has some tough competition, including another Western about a pair of jaunty adventurers, ABC's "Alias Smith and Jones." And Flip Wilson's program on NBC has an audience almost as big as the two rival series together.

ABC's "Longstreet," on the other hand, started with a violent, painful episode but now seems to have simmered down into an interesting detective series. The blind sleuth, played most effectively by James Franciscus, on Thursday was solving the puzzle of the theft of two horns once owned by a famous Dixieland musician.

Top 2-Nebraska And Oklahoma Take On Colorado And Iowa St.

By HERSHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The top two teams in the country—Nebraska and Oklahoma—take on the No. 3 and 4 teams in the Big Eight—Colorado and Iowa State—this weekend. And since Nebraska and Oklahoma also happen to be No. 1 and 2 in the Big Eight, there should be some fur flying around the Midlands.

There's a Southeastern Conference doubleheader on tap at Jackson, Miss., with Louisiana State facing revenge-bent Mississippi in the afternoon and Alabama tangling with Mississippi State at night. Another SEC attraction pairs two of the nation's more publicized quarterbacks—Florida's John Reeves and Auburn's Pat Sullivan.

Penn State visits West Virginia in the East, with the winner likely to come away with the Lambert Trophy. Air Force and Arizona State clash in a battle between members of the Associated Press Second Ten. And Toledo, with 30 consecutive victories stashed away, tries to equal the longest winning streak of modern times against Miami of Ohio.

Colorado at Nebraska—Buffs have beaten LSU and Ohio State on the road and lost to Oklahoma. Cornhuskers' Bob Devaney says his boys aren't looking ahead to Oklahoma on Thanksgiving Day. They better not. NEBRASKA.

Iowa State at Oklahoma—Overlooked Cyclones are 5-1 and the surprise team of the Big Eight Call Oklahoma's offense a cyclone, tornado, or what-have-you. OKLAHOMA.

Louisiana State vs. Mississippi at Jackson—All signs point to an upset. LSU could be looking ahead to Alabama and Ole Miss won't soon forget last year's 61-17 mauling. But the Rebels have already lost to SEC powers Alabama and Georgia and the Bayou Bengals are right up there. LSU.

Alabama vs. Mississippi State at Jackson—Bear Bryant needs one more victory to tie Jess Neely for fourth place on the all-time coaching list and become 'Bama's winningest coach ever. Does he want it? "I just want one more victory for old Alabama and for the team to go on to win the national championship, that's what I want." Okay, Bear. ALABAMA.

Florida at Auburn—Gators could be the SEC spoilers with Auburn followed by Georgia. And they'd like nothing better than to get even for last year's 63-14 battering. With footballs filling the Alabama air... AUBURN.

Penn State at West Virginia—Nittany Lions smell the roses. Well, maybe not roses, but certainly orange, sugar or cotton. Mountaineers will be without super soph Kerry Marbury. PENN STATE.

Air Force at Arizona State—First meeting ever, and it should be a dilly. Arizona's Dan White riddled New Mexico for six touchdowns passes last week and the Sun Devils are supposed to be a running team. ARIZONA STATE.

Toledo at Miami of Ohio—Miami leads the series 14-4 but Toledo has won the last two from the Redskins and the last two against all comers. The last two years, though, the scores have been 14-10 and 14-13 so an upset isn't impossible. Resisting the temptation to make this the Upset Special of the Week... TOLEDO.

Georgia at South Carolina—Bulldogs won last year 52-34. Some of the walking wounded return this week as they take a break from SEC action... as any help were needed. GEORGIA.

Ohio State at Minnesota—Beavers of Minnesota when November rolls around. Saturday, however, is still October. OHIO STATE.

Stanford at Oregon State—Beavers have gone lose-win-lose-win-lose-win-lose. You know what that means? Nothing. STANFORD.

Florida State at Houston—An FSU player tripped Houston's Nick Holm from the sidelines in last year's game.

Pritchett And Stevens Battle For MVC's Top Rushing Title

DALLAS (AP) — Louisville's Howard Stevens and West State's Billy Pritchett are waging a torrid battle for the Missouri Valley Conference rushing title.

Stevens, the 5-foot 6, 165-pound junior Cardinal halfback, has the lead again this week after a 99-yard output against Wichita State, a game which saw the Birds triumph by a 21-5 margin. Pritchett, last week's leader, was virtually stopped by Idaho as he gained only 1-yard in seven carries.

Stevens now owns a 105.0 per game average to Pritchett's 95.0. Both were ranked in the top 20 nationally last week.

Tulsa's Todd Starks maintained his lead in total offense although his per game average dropped from 164.4 to 150.2 yards per game. He was held to only 75 net yards in a 25-7 setback to Brigham Young.

Drake's passing duo of quarterback Dennis Redmond and end Doug Winslow continues to set the pace in Missouri Valley Conference passing and receiving. Redmond has hit on 96-of-199 for 1,206 yards and a completion average of 14.0. Winslow has been on the receiving end of 33 Redmond tosses good for 520 yards and three TDs. He has a reception average of 4.7 per game.

David Yaeger of North Texas State took over the top spot in punting with his 42.2 average 52 punts; Stevens remains the league's scoring leader with 42 points; and Bob Smith of Drake continues to lead in kick-scoring with a 5.1 per game average on 21-of-21 PATs and 5-of-10 field goals.

In MVC team statistics, Louisville continues to dominate on defense. The Cardinals, nationally ranked in three departments last week, continue to lead the Valley in total defense (187.3 yards per game), rushing defense (96.7 yards per game) and scoring defense (11.3 points per game).

They are second behind North Texas State in pass defense with an allowance of 90.7 yards per game. The Eagles, ranked third nationally last week, still have a 76.8 average after holding powerful Arkansas to 109 yards through the air last Saturday.

The Hogs had been ranked fifth in passing and their vaunted quarterback Joe Ferguson was second in total offense and fifth in passing until he hooked up with North Texas. The Eagles limited Ferguson to 94 yards passing on 8-of-12 and intercepted two of his aeriels.

Offensively, Drake's Bulldogs lead the Valley in three departments—total offense (310.9 yards per game), passing (213.3 yards per game) and scoring (23.4 points per game).

Memphis State holds the top spot in rushing with a 209.8 average.

PJH Football Roundup

The Pampa Junior High Reapers won their second game of the year when they defeated the Perryton Freshman "B Team" by a 14 to 8 score. This is the second win against 3 losses and a tie for the Reapers.

On their second possession of the first half the Reapers marched 33 yards to the Perryton 3 yard line before being stopped. The Reaper defense dug in and forced Perryton to punt without making a first down. The punt carried to only the Perryton 20 yard line giving the Reapers excellent field position. On third down halfback Greg Beck circled right end to the Perryton 1 yard line. Beck's run was set up by good block from Larry Edwards and Gary Harper. At the ten yard line it appeared Beck would be tackled, but he dropped his shoulder and ran over the Perryton defender for an extra nine yards. On the next play, Beck made the last yard for the touchdown. Mark Baird's extra point was good to make the score 7 to 0.

In the second quarter the Reapers drove 62 yards for their second touchdown of the day. The key play in the drive was a 23 yard run by quarterback Mike Taylor. The series started on the Perryton 33 yard line. On the 12th play of the drive the Perryton 33 yard line was crunched over from the 3 yard line. Baird's extra point was good making the score at halftime 14 to 0.

Perryton's score came in the fourth quarter following a Reaper fumble at their own 32 yard line. The Reapers handed the touchdown to Perryton with two 15 yard penalties on this drive. Joe Graves was guilty of grabbing a Perryton face mask and Randy Biggers received a personal foul penalty. Perryton's extra point run was successful to make the score 14 to 8. Perryton mounted one more drive just before the end of the game. Following a Reaper fumble at their own 42 yard line, Perryton marched inside the ten before time expired.

Reaper coach Don Drinnon commented on the game: "We were very happy with the win. We felt like we made entirely too many mistakes, however. We threw a pass interception and lost four fumbles. We need to correct these mistakes. Our offensive line blocked real well this week. They would knock Perryton off the line and let our backs have a chance to run. We were very pleased with this. Defensively we only allowed Perryton 80 yards of offense. We got very good play from defensive end Joe Holt. He was playing a new position and played it well. Our secondary intercepted a pass and we recovered two Perryton fumbles, so we made some opportunities for our offense."

Mark Baird, our fullback, played his best game of the year. He ran real tough inside and helped open the outside portion of our offense for us."

The Reapers travel to Perryton again on Thursday to play the tough Perryton Raiders. The Pampa Junior High eighth graders play at home on Thursday against Dumas.

Oilers Pick Up Second Back In As Many Days

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Oilers, still trying to improve their running game, picked up a second back in as many days Tuesday on the last day of the trading season.

The Oilers swapped tight end Willie Frazier to the Kansas City Chiefs for running back Robert Holmes and a 1972 draft choice.

Monday the Oilers traded running back Joe Dawkins to Denver for running back Dick Post.

Holmes, a 5-foot-9, 230-pounder, was the leading kickoff returner in pro football last year with a 28.2 average. He was the second leading rusher in the AFL in 1968 and played in the 1969 All-Star game.

Frazier, considered one of the top tight ends in pro football, came to the Oilers in an off-season trade from San Diego. He set a record of 57 catches for tight end in 1967 and was all-AFL in 1965.

Jim Beam Sports Quiz

Who holds the record for throwing the most touchdowns passes in a single season?
The one-and-only Y. A. Tittle. As New York Giant player Number 14, he completed 36 of the big ones in 1963. And that's a record that ought to be around for quite a while.

It's a record. For six generations the world's finest Bourbon since 1795.

Hughes' Death Surprising To Physicians

PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Is it possible for a strapping athlete to play the bruising game of professional football with only one of three main arteries supplying blood to his heart at a normal rate, a second only 30 per cent operative and a third nearly inoperative? It sounds impossible, or at least implausible.

But 28-year-old Chuck Hughes of the Detroit Lions did it and no one, neither he nor his doctors, knew that he had the condition which led to his death.

Hughes died Sunday of a heart attack caused by a blood clot and hardening of the arteries. He was pronounced dead at a Detroit hospital less than an hour after he collapsed on the field at Tiger Stadium with one minute remaining in a game against the Chicago Bears.

Although no one knew Hughes had hardening of the arteries, the 6-foot, 180-pound wide receiver had complained of chest pains earlier this year.

After being hospitalized for a short time when he suffered an injury Sept. 4 in an exhibition game against the Buffalo Bills, he was held out of action until he played briefly Sept. 26 against the New England Patriots.

Georgia at South Carolina—Bulldogs won last year 52-34. Some of the walking wounded return this week as they take a break from SEC action... as any help were needed. GEORGIA.

Paul Rondon Scores 13th Round TKO Over Brennan

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Light heavyweight champion Vincente Paul Rondon scored a 13th round technical knockout over challenger Gomeo Brennan Tuesday night as he successfully defended his World Boxing Association title.

Rondon, of Caracas, Venezuela, pounded his game Bimbomb challenger with a vicious barrage of punches in successfully defending his title for the third time.

He completely dominated the last five rounds and referee Eddie Eckert stopped the fight as the battered Brennan sat dejectedly in his corner at the end of the 12th round.

There were no knockdowns in the fight, although Brennan's eyes were nearly shut and he was dazed in both the 11th and 12th rounds.

Vida Blue Captures Top Award For AL Pitching

OAKLAND (AP) — "The way I look at this year is that it helped prepare me for next season," said Vida Blue, the American League's Cy Young Award winner.

The 22-year-old left-hander, in his first major league baseball season, had a 24-8 record, eight shutouts and a 1.82 earned-run average as he pitched the Oakland Athletics to the Western Division title.

He is the youngest player ever to win the award and is considered a strong contender for the league's Most Valuable Player Award, to be made next month.

"I'll never get that one. They can't give me everything," Blue said Tuesday after the Baseball Writers Association of America named him the league's best pitcher.

He was surprised at the outcome of the Cy Young Award voting, saying, "I really thought Mickey Lolich would win it, but I'm glad I did."

Lolich of the Detroit Tigers was runner-up in the voting and Wilbur Wood of the Chicago White Sox finished third. Blue got 14 of the 24 first-place votes, Lolich nine and Wood great high school athletic career at Mansfield, La.

He got some national attention last year with a no-hitter against the Minnesota Twins in a late-season stay with the A's. But he took baseball fans largely by surprise this year, and more than a million paid to see him pitch.

"The last part of the season I was just pooped," Blue said. "But it wasn't my arm, it was all that pressure from the publicity. I just couldn't take it mentally."

He won 19 games before his 22nd birthday on July 28. Two 1-0 losses and a game in which he pitched 11 shutout innings,

NEWEST 'MAGIC KINGDOM' IN FLORIDA Walt Disney's World Of Fantasy Opens

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — This newest "magic kingdom" in the late Walt Disney's world of fantasy that began with a "gentle mouse, a bad tempered duck and seven mixed up dwarfs" was formally opened Monday before crowds much larger than expected.

The quotes came from comedian Bob Hope, one of many Hollywood stars who came to join in the dedication of the $400-million playground built in a central Florida swamp near here.

Attendance hit 30,000 a day during a three-day opening celebration that began Saturday. This was several thousand more than expected for October the slowest period of the year in Florida's bread and butter tourist industry.

Disney World was expected to have a tremendous impact on holiday business all over Florida.

At Cypress Gardens, a water ski attraction 30 miles away, owner Dick Pope reported attendance had risen 50 per cent since Disney World first opened its gates Oct. 1.

"It's like a whirlpool, the longer you stir it, the further out it goes," said Pope, who came here to join in the opening. "It got to us first. Tampa is feeling it and it's spreading down both coasts."

Miami Beach, which has just suffered through one of its poorest years, had feared Disney World would make further inroads into its business. But Pope said Miami Beach is "bound to be helped, too. It's been Florida's most famous name for too long to be damaged."

Pope said Miami Beach has been hurt partly by the Caribbean islands and "partly because of its own faults eroded beaches and surly waiters, cab drivers and bell boys."

In contrast, Disney World is manned by thousands of cheerful, well-mannered young high school graduates and college students.

"These young people here are teaching our people to smile," Pope said. "The tourists here greet each other and smile and they don't know why. This doesn't happen at Miami Beach."

"People come South expecting to see Southern hospitality," he said. "It's cheaper to give it to them than to have to advertise to bring them back after we've made them mad."

Roy Disney read a plaque placed in the town square as a tribute to his brother who founded the Disney entertainment empire. It said: "May Walt Disney World bring joy and inspiration and new knowledge to all who come to this happy place—a Magic Kingdom where the young of heart of all ages can laugh and play and learn together."

E. Cardon Walker, chief operations officer, said a prediction made 2½ years ago that Disney World would have 10 million visitors in its first year was being borne out.

"We are bringing more people to Florida," he said. "If somebody else has a good show, they're going to see that, too."

But if other attractions are going to benefit, he added, "they're going to have to have a quality show. The people are doing to have to get their money's worth."

The Magic Kingdom, made up of Adventureland, Frontierland, Fantasyland, Liberty Square, Tomorrowland and a Main Street from the turn of the century with horsedrawn street cars and gas lights, covers 2,000 acres of the 28,000-acre site. Construction will continue for many years and include the building of a domed, air conditioned "City of Tomorrow."

A 7,500-acre tract inhabited by deer, alligators and a few panthers and bears has been set aside as a permanent wild-

TV & Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — It was a long but rewarding Thursday night at the television set, largely through the courtesy of CBS. The network provided three hours of actuality programs in a season which has been remarkably shy of them. "CBS Reports" had its premiere in the new monthly, two-hour form—it was actually two documentaries. Earlier there was a lively edition of its weekly "60 Minutes."

The first hour of "CBS Reports" was a simple, leisurely and beautifully illustrated biography of Pablo Picasso, now approaching his 90th birthday. With a wealth of visual material—his paintings and sculpture, with archive photographs and film—the program traced the development of the Spanish-born artist from child prodigy to an old man, today still working furiously.
