Landon Goes for Daily Center

While political prophets were predicting "Landon on the first ballot" at the G. O. Bonus Checks To Be Sent To This Area On Monday

Payment to Arrive in City in About One Week

Approximately half of the bonus payment certificates for this section of the state will be mailed at Dallas on Monday. Inspector E. Dean told postmasters of this area yesterday afternoon in a meeting here. Arrival will be on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Inspector Dean explained in detail each of the many steps to be taken in delivering the bonds, receiving them for cashing, and sending of them to the cashing point.

It was estimated by the inspector that more than $450,000 in bonds would be received in Gray county. After the first mailing has been sent from Dallas, a regular quota will be dispatched daily. Local veterans believe about $350,000 in bonds will be received in the Pampa territory, with the rest going to McLean, Alameda, and LeFors.

Strict identification must be made before the bonds are delivered and before the bonds are received at postoffices for payment.

Each package of certificates will be received by registered mail. Delivery will be made on regular routes or at the postoffice. Only the man to whom the letter is designated can receive it and he must be known to the postoffice representative. Otherwise he must be identified by someone known to the postal employe. If, in street delivery cases, the veter-

GOVERNOR DECLARES MYSTERY MAY BE SOLVED

SANTA FE, N. M., June 10. (AP)—While the platform committee disputed over some new dead policies, Rep. Bertrand Snell warned the Republican convention today against "the dead stone of meaningless political phrases and empty promises."

To do that means defeat in November, he said solemnly upon assuming the permanent chairmanship.

The party is not contending against the democratic party as such, he told the thousands in the auditorium, "but it offers to lead America against an unconstitutional dictatorship—yes, the arrogant individualism of Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

Mentioning no candidate for the presidential nomination, he predicted victory in November and said "we shall need in executive positions the services of constitutional democrats and republicans alike."

"Reckless Squandering" In a burning prelude to the address tonight by former President Herbert Hoover, the republican leader of the house imputed betrayal of platform pledges to the new deal. He charged "reckless squandering," retardation of recovery and violation of constitutional liberties under this demagogical reign of incompetence.

"I hear today America's earnest prayer of deliverance," he said. Republicanism he praised as a "great heritage—a political force which personifies the deeply rooted American instinct for law and order, for true social security and the square deal, for a practical and workable system of government."

Snell pledged the party to "the maximum of social cooperation consistent with the faithful preservation of our liberties."

Two Factions of Chinese Battle

SHANGHAI, June 10. (AP)—Fighting broke out today between two factions of Kwangtung province (southwest) troops stationed in southern Fukien province, reports from South China said.

Reinforcements were rushed by the Canton government to suppress the rebellious soldiers. Dispatches declared one faction opposed any movement against the Nanking (north) government while the other group approved.

Military authorities in Kwangsi province, also connected with the Canton government, were reported to have commandeered all available vehicles to transport more troops into Hunan province.

Twenty Nanking airplanes arrived at Hankow and departed soon afterward for an unknown destination.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harrah, Mrs. Raymond Harrah and son, Raymond Jr., and J. W. Harrah of Akron, O., left yesterday for Dallas to attend the Centennial celebration.

The newspaper's criticism was one of the first authoritative indications of a vigorous fight when the socialist leader's bills are called for debate in the chamber of deputies Thursday.

THEFT OF WIRE HALTS SERVICE BY TELEGRAPH

Wire Replaced After Few Hours on FW&D

Telegraph service over the Fort Worth & Denver telegraph lines between Pampa and Childress was suddenly halted yesterday. Employees started tracing the cause and found a new type of theft responsible. Officers are investigating.

The linemen found that between 800 and 900 feet of copper line wire had been stolen from along the right-of-way a mile and a half south of Pampa. The wire was cut between 5 posts. Insulators around which the wire was fastened had been unmoored and poles showed no marks of being climbed.

Officers and Fort Worth & Denver officials believe a pair of wire snippers attached to a long stick was used. Immediate replacement was made and service restored after a few hours.

7TH ELECTION IS HELD FOR COUNTY POST

Ranchman Gets 18 of 28 Votes for Commissioner; Foe May Challenge

PECOS, June 10. (AP)—Loving county's three-year struggle to elect a commissioner from Precinct 2 was ended today—at least temporarily.

E. Hall, ranchman, came out winner over E. L. Stratton by a decisive margin of nearly two-thirds of the votes cast—18 out of 28—in the seventh election contest between the two since 1933.

Each of the previous six elections was contested and eventually thrown out by the higher courts. The seventh election was held yesterday.

Every eligible voter in the precinct went to the polls in an attempt to end the recurring friction which sharply divided this West Texas county into two camps.

Residents feared even the seventh election might not be the last. Stratton challenged five of the votes. Yesterday's voting started with a spirited argument over personnel of the election board. Outside a typical ranchhouse, where the voting took place, Hall stood with a new lawbook in his hands.

He referred to it frequently, as did his opponent, Stratton, who stood in the doorway with another brand new law book.

Finally, election officials were chosen, with Sheriff Hardin Ross passing on their fitness to serve. Technicalities figured in the previous election contests. The district court decided in Hall's favor each time, and each time the appellate court reversed the lower court and ordered a new election.

The voting yesterday gave Hall three "victories" and Stratton three. The other election ended in a tie.

On Friday President Roosevelt will speak at the exposition at Dallas commemorating Texas' 100 years of independence.

Thousands of Texans will see the presidential party. Upward of 5,000 were expected to hear the president's short speech at the San Jacinto battleground and a record crowd was predicted for his talk at the Dallas exposition.

The first stop out of Texarkana will be at Houston. The presidential party will arrive here at 9 a. m. to find the city in holiday dress and ready with a big welcome.

Mayor Oscar Holcombe designated the day as "President's Day" and proclaimed a holiday. Most of the public buildings and business houses will remain closed between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m.

Immediately after the train arrives here a parade will start at the station, continue through the downtown area and end at the turning basin in the Houston ship channel, where the party will board boats for the battle grounds.

The party will depart for San Antonio at 12:30 p. m.

'DEVASTATING INDICTMENT' DUE TONIGHT

MORE DELEGATES LINE UP FOR GOVERNOR ALF LANDON

BY WILLIAM S. ARDERY, Associated Press Staff Writer. CLEVELAND, June 10. (AP)—Pausing for a moment in his greetings to a throng of admirers, Herbert Hoover told newsmen today he was at the republican national convention "for just one purpose—to make a speech."

This statement was in reply to a question as to whether the former President planned conferences with leaders on the twin controversies of candidates and platform building.

Mr. Hoover shook hands with Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan in the hotel lobby but there was no discussion of these issues.

Greeted at the train by several thousand well wishers, the former President made his way through cheering lines of spectators to his hotel shortly after Chester E. Powell, chairman of the California delegation, had said that Hoover did not plan to seek to stampede the convention with a "self-seeking" speech.

Chester Powell, chairman of the big block of 44 from Hoover's state, said the speech will not be "any William Jennings Bryan Cross of Gold gesture." He referred to Bryan's stampede of the 1896 democratic convention with his noted speech.

Rowell termed the address, which he said had read, "the most devastating indictment of the new deal ever written."

Mr. Hoover stepped off a train from Chicago at 8:55 a. m. (CST). Guarded by a picked detail of six policemen, the former President waved to the crowd and shook hands with Patrick H. Hurley, his former secretary of war.

While more than a score of photographers snapped pictures, Mr. Hoover led a closely-packed wedge of his friends through the station.

He walked through a narrow lane cleared through the crowd by police. Frequently, a delegate on the sidelines would thrust a hand forward and Mr. Hoover would shake hands without interrupting his walk.

In front of the station, he posed for newswire photographers with

"TONGUES IN TREES"

Progress, very masterful, came the other day where Beauty was, and, with gallant gesture, tip-toed around, leaving her peace all undisturbed. Mapping the route for the reconstruction of a highway in New York State, a survey party ran full tilt into a tree.

Now, trees have been called many things by many poets, but in the lexicon of the tramping transit bearer their name is just Obstruction. This eighty-foot maple of lordly girth—thirteen feet around—already a sturdy sapling when, in the same state, Ethan Allen's "Green Mountain Boys" wrested the Fort of Ticonderoga from the British Burgoyne—was doomed to become so many feet of lumber. Then up spoke one McGregor, its owner. "Surveyor, spare that tree," or words to that effect, he cried and, doubtless cited a certain poet's well-known panegyric. (It was in the evening paper.) He won and new maps were drawn.

To the sojourner in an arid land, nostalgic longing for a tree is often overwhelming. The westward traveler in America listens well to the voices of the winds in the tree tops as he hurried from the nearer east to the farther west. He must traverse great stretches where no grateful arboreal shade rises to rest his gaze from the broad horizon's shimmering desert heat before he reaches wooded Pacific slopes. To his lips, also, may rise that oft-repeated stanza singing a poet's feeling for a tree. (It is Junior's prized parlor piece.)

Before those lines took birth, here and there in the dry country, men and women who loved a tree, like Cicero's diligent husbandman who sowed "trees, of which he himself will never see the fruit," labored to plant saplings in newly settled communities. One recalls a pleasant town in New Mexico, Roswell, where this was done by early beauty-loving citizens. Today, to ride into its tree-bordered avenues from the burning sun of the plains is to enter an oasis of cool delight.

Elsewhere men have mortgaged homes to purchase the view of a tree or two. Hasn't a talented and charming actress, Helen Hayes, recently confessed that she had never owned a mink coat but she had paid its equivalent to buy a tree? To which startling admission she added an equally startling omission. She didn't quote a famous far-flung couplet about a tree. She knew, of course, that all would hear it when next they dialed the radio.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—If any of the kids start asking, "Hay mama, what is politics?" during the conventions, you might give them a little lesson by telling what has been happening in Louisiana, domain of the late Huey Long.

Almost unnoticed, the government moved the other day to dismiss criminal income tax evasion charges against Seymour Weiss, chief henchman of Long, and four other Long politicians in New Orleans.

Considering all the grim and earnest effort the administration applied in its attempt to break up Huey's machine by those income tax prosecutions—including the hiring of such men as former Prohibition Administrator Amos W. Woodcock and ex-Gov. Dan Moody of Texas as special prosecutors—it is interesting now to hear the explanation of the abandonment given by some of the late Huey's heirs.

The administration, they say simply, has been very anxious for "harmony."

In any event, the end of the criminal income tax cases comes on top of a remarkable succession of decapitations of federal officials who represented the pro-administration group of Democrats and were appointed against the late Huey's bitter opposition.

One by one, Jim Farley is knocking off the men who a year ago were carrying the Roosevelt banner in Louisiana and is replacing them with politicians designated by the Long machine.

The Long people explain that the bitter fight between Long and Roosevelt was Huey's personal feud, that lacking a great leader they're powerless to carry it on, anyway, and that they're quite content to dominate Louisiana without looking about for more fields to conquer, as Huey did.

So the Louisiana delegation will be whooping it up for Roosevelt at the Democratic convention, the Long machine politicians have forgotten all about Huey's proposed third party, and the two Louisiana senators, John H. Overton and Mrs. Long, have been playing ball with the administration.

And, by way of returning the compliments, the administration is replacing its former loyal appointees.

Huey's so-called political heirs profess not to be especially interested in the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith's proposed merger of the "share-the-wealth" movement with the Townsend movement. They say Smith was only a paid organizer of the share-the-wealth clubs.

Protective copyrights on "Share the Wealth" and "Share Our Wealth" were taken out by Earle J. Christenberry, former secretary to Huey and now secretary to Mrs. Long, who is filling out her husband's unexpired senatorial term. Christenberry has turned the copyright over to Mrs. Long.

Allen J. Ellender, Huey's former speaker in the Louisiana legislature, who will come here next January for a six-year senatorial term, is pledged to raise the "Share the Wealth" torch again and carry on, although no one suggests he will be anywhere near as effective as Huey was.

A 100-year-old Cranmore, Calif., woman has used the telephone only once in her life. She's rather feeble, though and in the next few months may hang up.

After 12 years research, an Iowan has discovered 35,000 relatives. An easier way would have been to win on a Sweepstakes ticket.

"Metal hats keep oil machines from blowing their heads off." The helmets could be used more extensively, but hot campaign weather precludes their use by politicians.

A midwest garage man found a new comet. Undoubtedly, part of the credit should go to the car owner on whose time the discovery was made.

A business man's wife isn't entirely happy until her husband has a lot of irons in the fire—and, for that matter his wood clubs, too.

HOOVER INVITED TO SPEND BIRTHDAY IN TEXAS AUGUST 10

WOULD HONOR EX-PRESIDENT IN ALAMO CITY

'REPUBLICAN DAY' AT CENTENNIAL IS ADVOCATED

CLEVELAND, June 10. (AP)—An invitation to Herbert Hoover to visit Texas next August for a "birthday party" and to address the state convention in San Antonio today by the republican convention of the Texas state secretary, Lawrence Richey, Hoover's former president, is being spread throughout the state.

Richey, who is in the Alamo city, said he would like to see Hoover next day and then lead the state's republican party to Dallas for a "Republican Day" at the Texas Centennial Exposition.

L. J. Benckenstein of Beaumont, one of the leaders of the movement, said Hoover visit at that period would be "a natural" and John Philip, delegation secretary here, said Hoover would "already have had these days at the Centennial."

The Texas Centennial Exposition is being held in Dallas from August 10 to August 15. Hoover's visit would be the first since he left the White House in 1933.

Philip, Richey's secretary, said Hoover would be a "wonderful opportunity" for the state's republican party. He said Hoover's visit would be a "wonderful opportunity" for the state's republican party.

testimony of Dr. A. Hauser of Houston, last of four expert witnesses to be called.

District Attorney Hollis Kinard of Orange said the state was ready with five psychiatrists as rebuttal witnesses. Kinard said the state had not planned to burden the court with their testimony.

In direct testimony the state contended Eskridge, pastor of the First Baptist church at Orange for five years, planned the slaying after officers dismissed him. Witnesses said O'Reilly took a pistol from the two-gun preacher a day before the slaying. The state rested last Friday.

Relying on a plea of temporary insanity, coupled with the claim the defendant thought his life was in danger, the defense called its expert witnesses after more than 30 per cent of the jury had been selected.

Three psychiatrists they believed Eskridge was insane.

Dr. Hauser of Houston proceeded Dr. Titus H. Harris of Galveston, Dr. C. A. Shaw of the state hospital at Rusk and Dr. Guy E. WMA, professor of mental diseases at Baylor Medical School at Dallas.

Each said he believed the minister was temporarily insane.

Judge Langston King announced plans for the jury to see President Roosevelt when he arrives here tomorrow. He suggested that the jurors be placed in a bus at the point where the parade honoring the presidential party will pass.

John Robinson of Borger transferred business here this morning.

Oil Operators Are Charged in Hot Oil Cases

HOUSTON, June 10. (AP)—Four oil operators and a former employee of the Texas railroad commission today were charged with conspiring to defraud the state and federal authorities in the alleged "hot oil" case.

The Montgomery county grand jury at Corpus yesterday returned a bill jointly against Frank Betts, president of the Texas Oil and Gas company; D. D. Fildner, H. E. Hines, oil operator; Otis H. Gibson, official of the Crescent Oil and Marketing company; and M. P. Carter, former railroad commission worker.

Charges included conspiracy to force oil tenders and passing and using forced oil tenders.

In Dallas, Chairman E. O. Thomson of the railroad commission said the indictments were the result of six months of "rigorous investigation" into "hot oil" movements.

HOT SPOTS OF 1935
It's Never Too Hot For An Electric Refrigerator

The delightful summer climate of the Texas Panhandle does not mean that we have no high temperatures. Extremely low humidity makes a very hot day pleasant and exhilarating.

While low humidity in the Panhandle cools and refreshes your body on hot days, it cannot help your refrigerator maintain temperature below 50 degrees, the critical danger point. In fact, your refrigerator has the same difficult job on a 90-degree day in Pampa that it has in Houston or Dallas under like temperature.

The summer of 1935 was not unusual, as summers go in our county. We could boast that it was delightful. There Were 53 Days On Which Temperatures Ranged Up To or Above 95 Degrees.

This simply means that you must buy a refrigerator that is built for hot weather or else do without proper refrigeration temperatures, ice cubes and cold desserts, during that part of the summer that you need them most.

You have a right to insist that the electric refrigerator you buy will constantly maintain a temperature below 50 Degrees, no matter how hot the weather.

Final plans for representation at the convention were made at a business meeting in city club room last evening. Routine business was transacted, and reports were made on the club's part in the recent Centennial celebration.

TESTS REMOVE DOUBTS FROM JELLY MAKING

Exact Amounts of Four Ingredients Necessary

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Staff Writer.

Jelly that won't jell is not one of the modern housewife's trials. Science has taken care of that. There are four necessary ingredients for jelly and these must be used in correct proportions: fruit juice, fruit acid, sugar, and pectin.

Some fruits which are lacking in pectin when fully ripe will jelly naturally if used when slightly under-ripe. A good commercial pectin can be added to any fruit to make a perfect, firm jelly.

The fruits that make the best jelly when used alone are sour apples (including crabapples), currants, sour blackberries, under-ripe grapes, gooseberries and decidedly under-ripe raspberries. These fruits naturally have the right proportions of fruit acid and pectin.

Test Shows Pectin Lack. The acidity of fruit is readily determined by the taste; but the presence of pectin must be determined by test. Should a juice lack acid, this can quickly be corrected by adding 1 tablespoon lemon juice each cup of juice. Lemon juice added to strawberries or any red fruit will make the color more vivid, too.

When you want to determine the amount of pectin there are two simple rules you can depend on. One test is made by the use of Epsom Salts and the other by denaturing alcohol. As denatured alcohol is poisonous, care must be taken that the tested juice is not tasted.

To test for pectin with alcohol measure 1 tablespoon of fruit juice into a dish and add 1 tablespoon alcohol. If jelly-like mass forms immediately, a large amount of pectin is present and one cup of sugar to one cup of fruit juice should be used to make the jelly. If the juice forms into small flaky particles, there is a small amount of pectin and two-thirds cup of sugar to one cup of juice is the right proportion. If the mixture remains uncombined in consistency, there is no pectin present and commercial pectin or the juice of some fruit known to be rich in pectin must be added.

Tomorrow's Menu. BREAKFAST: Berries with ready-to-serve cereal, cream, poached eggs on toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Cheese fondue, creamed new peas, cabbage and grapefruit; salad, apple crisp, milk, tea.

DINNER: Vegetable plate, peanut brittle ice cream, sponge drops, milk, coffee.

To Make Epsom Salts Test. To make the Epsom Salts test, mix 1 tablespoon fruit juice, 1 teaspoon sugar and 1/2 tablespoon Epsom Salts. Stir until the salts are dissolved, and then let stand 20 minutes. The jelly-like mass or the formation of flaky particles indicates the amount of sugar needed.

Hard fruits such as apples and quinces must be cut in quarters and cooked in enough water to make tender in order to extract the juice. Soft fruits such as berries and currants are heated in just enough water to prevent burning until the juice flows freely. Put into jelly bag and let drip. The first extraction of juice produces the finest jelly, clear and sparkling.

After the first extraction return the pulp to preserving kettle with water to half cover and heat slowly to the boiling point. Simmer gently for 20 minutes and pour into jelly bag to drip.

Evangelist Talks Of Old and New Law of Worship

Last evening at 8:15, another splendid audience greeted Dr. N. B. Hardeman who is in a revival at the Francis Avenue Church of Christ. Visiting delegations were in attendance from several nearby Panhandle towns.

Dr. Hardeman continued the address he gave Monday evening on the subject of "The Three Separate and Distinct Religions" which embrace all the ages from the creation of Adam to the present day. The latter address had to do with the Jewish age or dispensation under which the Jews and the Jews only lived and worshipped. The speaker pointed out in detail the difference in the worship of the Old Testament and the worship we must render to God today.

"During the former age one family was selected from one tribe to officiate for the people as priests unto God," he said. "In the Christian age under which we live, which had its beginning on the first Pentecost after Christ arose from the dead, every child of God is a priest

Bank Officials Held in Money Smuggling Plot

MADRID, June 10. (AP)—Two officials of the International Banking corporation, an organization controlled by the National City bank of New York, were detained for questioning today following the discovery, police said, of a money smuggling syndicate.

One of the men detained was Benjamin Fulgens, San Antonio, Tex., assistant director of the Madrid branch of the corporation. The other was Francisco Quijano, assistant director of the Barcelona branch.

Police said they had discovered that 5,000,000 pesetas ($700,000) had been smuggled into France from Spain in violation of foreign exchange regulations intended to prevent the flight of capital from Spain.

A recent decree, aimed at stopping the outward flow of money which approached grave proportions following the leftist election victory, prohibits the exportation of pesetas except under certain conditions and then only in limited sums.

Pedro Casas, a curb broker of the Barcelona Stock exchange, was arrested as the head of an alleged group of smugglers.

Chain Store Tax Illegal, Claim

DALLAS, June 10. (AP)—Chain store operators continued their efforts today in District Judge Royall R. Watkins' court to show the chain store tax was invalid.

They alleged the tax was discriminatory, violative of property rights and "calculated to crush their businesses."

W. L. Weeks, manager of the Dallas store of the W. T. Grant company, testified his livelihood depended on holding his present job and that he would be unable to personally pay fines provided for in terms of the tax bill for failure to remit the tax.

The bill provides a fine of from $25 to $100 against any chain store manager failing to pay the tax, and that each day's failure shall constitute a separate offense.

Weeks said the management of his chain allowed each store manager discretion in purchases and "establishing bargain values" for customers.

He argued that enforcement of the tax would damage him, as well as all customers of the store.

Chapter 29 NEW MYSTERY Logan was a quiet man, gifted with what was almost a protective manner.

"The lady... Mrs. Joris... had gone over to the window, and stood there with her back to us.

"It was a sort of den where they were... battle-axes, and humidors, and sofa-pillows.

"He jammed it back at me, Mrs. Joris had turned around, and was looking at me.

"We waited across the street," said Logan.

"Green, Green and black. The figure that had waved got in without being seen to speak a word.

"The lady got out," said Logan.

"I had no instructions to go further, I had followed her and I saw the boy crouched from the bells on the mail-boxes.

"No, I sent Dinwiddie out on his telegraph messenger's cap, we fixed up what looked like a telegram.

"I didn't find her on the second either. Nobody answered one door, and I was kinder worried.

"I know that, and it's not the underworld, either. There's a rumor that he comes of a fine old Florentine family, and that Fazzini's not all of his name.

"Logan went on, 'Besides, Fazzini's something of a prince in his own world, and it's not the underworld, either.'

DF. A. Hauser of Houston of the bureau of classification of the Texas prison system, was qualified as an expert, and testified he believed Eskridge was mentally unsound at the time of the slaying. His testimony did not vary largely from that of experts who preceded him on the stand.

YOUNG MASTER OF CURVES AND CHANGE OF PACE WILL PITCH FOR EASON

ROAD RUNNERS WORKING HARD FOR INVASION

ENID TO SEND FORMER PAMPANS AGAINST DANCIGER

If hard work will make ball players, the Pampa-Danciger Road Runners should be ready for the team of Enid, Okla., here on Sunday afternoon and Monday night. Manager Sam Hale is putting his players through some stiff workouts in preparation for the invasion of three former Pampa players and their teammates.

The Pampans are scheduled to look at the curves and change of pace of a pitcher ready for the big time in one of the games. He is a mighty youngster by the name of King who has been winning consistently for Enid. Clowers, who was a Road Runner uniform during the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce tournament last year, is also on the list to hunt against the birds. He is a left-hander.

Gordon Nell and Dallas Patton will wield their heavy bats for Enid this year. Williamson, shortstop, Nick Urban second base, and Gilchrist third base will round out the infield that will help Nell. The outfield starters are uncertain although Eason will be in one field. Tank Horton and Woodruff will divide the catching job.

The birds will be making their first home appearance since June 3 when they defeated the Huber Blackfaces of Borger. The previous day they took Phillips of Amarillo to camp. The win peaked the gang up for their trip to Enid when they divided a twin bill Sunday afternoon. A game in Arkansas City, Kan., Saturday night was rained out.

Junior League Games To Be Played At Hoover, Canadian

First Half of Split Season Will End On June 20

Games in the Panhandle Junior League Sunday will be played at Canadian and at Hoover.

The Magnolia Peepees will play the Cubs at Canadian and Phillips 66 youngsters will go to Hoover. Canada has been inactive for a month, but has reorganized and will be ready for competition Sunday, it is understood.

A game matched between the Little Road Runners and the Borger Christians will be played next week instead of Sunday. The Danciger boys desire to see their elders in action against Enid Sunday and incidentally to snag balls. The Borgans and the Little Road Runners are undefeated in the league, the Christians having beaten Phillips and the Peepees. They are confident they can whip the Pampa boys who are just as certain they have a better club than the Hutchinson county entry.

The first half of the league season will end on June 20 when the second half will start. Any new members may enter the competition between now and then. It is rumored that a LeFors club will enter a team. Sunday, a LeFors baseball fan was heard to declare that he knew of a bunch of LeFors boys who would trounce either the Borgans or the Little Road Runners. League members are hoping such a team will be organized.

The second half of the split season will continue through July and the first Sunday in August, and probably longer. Monday night coaches and managers discussed a proposal to send a league team, comprising picked players, to the American Legion tournament. The matter will be presented to the local post of the American Legion before any action is taken. All players in the tournament must be under 17 years of age. It was suggested that the best players coming under the age limit be selected from each team in the league.

The Little Road Runners are now leading the league followed in the order named by Borger, the Peepees, Hoover, Phillips and Canadian.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 10 (AP)—If this isn't one for the books, see us: Ernie and Ferdie Catropa are twins. In qualifying for the National Open they had identical scores at Sewanee. In the Wheatley Hills pro-amateur tournament, they again came up with identical scores. Even pals can hardly tell 'em apart. And Al Brosch, pro at Bethpage, who tutored the boys, says they have identical swings. Incidentally, this Brosch will be a good one to watch in the next open. Paste that one in your hats, amigos.

Bob Garrison played 16 games for the Temple nine during the past college season and only got one hit. But it was a homer with the bases loaded. His average for the season was only .020, but he was the only Templeite, Templetonian or what have you to come through with a four-run blow. Max Schmeling's birthday, Rudy, celebrates his 28th birthday the day Max fight Joe Louis. Ach... ach!

NEWSMAN DIES LUFKIN, June 10 (AP)—G. E. Watford, veteran Texas newspaperman, died here today after a long illness. He published the Lufkin News for 20 years prior to his retirement in 1928 and before was editor of the Beaumont Journal. At one time he published a newspaper in Hamilton, Tex. His widow, a sister and two grandchildren survive.

CRASH INJURES THREE KENNEDY, June 10 (AP)—Three persons were injured in an airplane crash here today. Raymond Wascyk, pilot, was cut about the head and Howard and Edgar Helm, his passengers, suffered broken legs and other injuries.

MUNICIPAL PLAYERS INVITED TO COMPETE IN TEXAS MEET

SAN ANTONIO, June 10 (AP)—Top-ranking golfers of the state teed off today on the rolly San Antonio Country club course for qualifying rounds in quest of the Texas Golf association's 30th annual title.

Smith was paired for a late start with two other potential threats, Morris Norton of Wichita Falls, West Texas champion and hope for the state title, and Don Schumacher of Dallas, finalist at Corsicana. Norton accomplished the course in a practice round at 70, two under par.

PANTHERS WIN 7 TO 5 GAME FROM HOUSTON

OILERS CROWD BUFFS FOR THIRD PLACE IN LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press) Today's game, Dallas at Galveston (night), Ft. Worth at Houston (night), Oklahoma City at Beaumont, Tulsa at San Antonio (night).

Tulsa's Oilers were nipping at the heels of the fast-slipping Houston Buffs today. The Buffs weakened their hold on third place in the league standings by taking another drubbing last night from the lowly Fort Worth Cats, 7 to 5, in a game at Houston. The Cats shelled Stevenson and Ross for 14 hits. The defeat was Houston's third straight and the ninth in their last 12 games.

The Oilers, meanwhile, were taking two close games from the San Antonio club in an Alamo city doubleheader, 5 to 3 and 4 to 2. In both games the Oiler sluggers came through with two ninth-inning tallies.

Dallas kept its two and a half game lead over Beaumont at the top of the league with a victory over the Galveston Buccaneers, 8 to 5. Galveston went ahead in the sixth with a four-run rally. Dallas came back with four tallies in the eighth to put the game on ice. Al Baker, steady Dallas slinger, retired when the Bucs opened up in the sixth, and Stiles, right-handed newcomer from the Kansas City Blues, kept the Pirates in line thereafter.

The second-place Beaumont Shipppers came up fast in the ninth, shoved across three runs and emerged victorious over Oklahoma City, 8 to 7. The winning runs came after four walks, Brewer's error and Crocker's line double.
