reopening them in such a way as to provide complete certainty that in so far as any bank is open at all it is absolutely sound to the degree that it is open.

Of these three objectives the simplest to attain is the one concerning gold. The suspension of gold payments, which is now in effect, puts an end to further hoarding. It would be folly, I should suppose to resume payments until the domestic panic has com-pletely subsided and until there is international agreement on the working of the gold standard. Since Britain suspended the gold standard has not been working anyway; its chief function has been make it easy for internationa speculators and domestic hourders provoke crises in one financial center after another. summer of 1931 they have been moving funds from Berlin to Lon-don, from London to New York and Paris, from New York back to Par is, Amsterdam, Zurich and so forth This has done no one any good and by staying off the internation al gold standard for the time being we shall not only obtain freedom of action for ourselves, but we shall hasten the return to a workable international standard.

As for the banks, without attempting to suggest ways and means, the principle seems reason-ably clear. The nation must take control of the banking system, and

In taking control the objective to aim at is to make the re-opening of any bank mean that that bank is solvent. No bank should be allowed to open 100 per cent or 50 per cent or 10 per cent unless it is absolutely certain that its solvency to that degree is beyond question. Since it is impossible to restore confidence completely in every bank, we should aim to restore bank, we should aim to restore complete confidence in those banks JOAN BLONDELL that are able to open. Oil Wells In Jones County Closed Down

Move Ordered In Protest Of Recent Cuts By Humble And Shell

ABILENIC-Wells in Jones county were ordered shut down at 7 a.
m. Saturday in protest against drastic price cuts on crude, recently ansounced by Shell and Humble.
The shut-down will affect a dozen operators with approximately 175 wells.

Protest of oil producers in this section against drastic price cuts on crude, recently announced by Shell and Humble, is taking directtion form in Jones county.

The price cut from 50 to 30 cents per barrel, started has week in Fisher county, when Shell con-tracted to buy 160,000 barrels of storage oil from Crantill & Rey-nolds at the lower price. Humble quickly met the cut, then extend-ed it to cover Jones county oil. Shell is not a Jones county produc-

Operators immediately protested, charging that Humble had arbit-rarily added Jones county to the West Texas (Permian basin) district where the prevailing price is 30 cents per barrel. Jones county production is under an allowable of 20 barrels per well; while, this week, the railroad commission in-

be from 20 to 156 barrels per well.

Jones county operators, protesting the increase in allowable unless it is applied to them, charge it was made without hearing.

The situation was discussed Thursday at Eastland, in a meeting of the West Central district, a grouping of 15 countier in this part of the state. At the Eastland meeting the sascelation voted to protest passage of house bill No. 508, providing a tax of two cents per 1,000 feet on natural gas; and the proposed gross production tax on crude oil, starting at two cents per barrel and working up to one dollar.
