STATES CONFINED BY OWN SOVEREIGNTY

Apparently the states of this Union are to be saved from the encroachments of federal power whether they like it or not. The Supreme Court decision throwing out the municipal bankruptcy act enshrines the sovereignty of the states in a higher sphere of untouchability than the states themselves are likely to want.

This fact, it is worth remembering, did not involve any radical new conception of the function of government, as did such measures as the NRA and the AAA.

It was not part of an attempt to erect a new philosophy of government. It was simply a means by which local units were to be rescued from an intolerable financial situation.

At the beginning of 1934, slightly more than 2,000 cities, counties, and other political subdivisions were in default on their bonds. The face value of the bonds in default ran to approximately a billion dollars; the governmental units involved were scattered across 41 states.

Something had to be done. The debtors could raise no more money, and the creditors could collect no more.

A creditor could, indeed, go to court and get a mandamus writ ordering the debtor to pay, but where the tax values were exhausted—as was often the case—this was a meaningless gesture.

The state legislatures could give no help. Under the Constitution they can pass no laws impairing the obligation of existing contracts. A state insolvency act, therefore, could do nothing to obligations already incurred. Unless the federal government could help, no one could.

So Congress passed the municipal bankruptcy act. This provided that a local unit of government which was in default could readjust its debt to its capacity to pay, under very definite limitations.

It had to have the consent of two-thirds of its creditors; it had to have the approval of a federal judge; and it had to have the consent of the state in which it was situated.

This is the law which the Supreme Court has just nullified, on the ground that it is an infringement on state sovereignty.

Behold, now, the odd tangle in which the ruling leaves us.

Here was a case in which the states, under the Constitution, were specifically prevented from acting. The action provided for in the law could be taken only with the specific consent of the states involved. And yet the law is thrown out on the ground that it impairs state sovereignty.

Chief Justice Hughes has remarked that the Constitution is what the judges say it is.

The judges have spoken, in this case, to the effect that state sovereignty is a higher and holier thing than the states themselves had supposed or desired; a thing which, in this case, looks remarkably like a straitjacket.

A. The first Department of Drama, a school acting, direction, and design, was inaugurated at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, in 1913. The following year a beautiful theater was built for the Department of Drama.

Q. Why do some of the creek trains have an extra headlight pointing upward? A. H. S.

A. The Bureau of Locomotive Inspection says that several of the fast trains have an additional headlight which throws a beam of light into the sky as an extra warning. When a train is coming around a bend, the ordinary headlights are not always visible to individuals on the other side of the curve. Hence, the use of the upward headlight.

Q. What is the name of the railroad which crosses southern South America? S. T. B.

A. It is the Transandine Railway, which extends from Buenos Aires, Argentina, to Valparaiso, Chile.

Q. What nation consumes the most fish? T. A.

A. The Japanese people catch 35 per cent of all the fish caught in the world and, after exports, consume 25 per cent of the world's fish catch, according to Grover Clark's book, The Balance Sheet of Imperialism.

Q. What did the investigation of the Indian mummy found in Mammoth Cave prove? J. W. T.

A. Investigating the mummified remains of the Indian is still continuing. The University of Kentucky, the National Park Service, and the Smithsonian Institution are all investigating the find. They believe that the Indian was a miner, as was shown by the tools he carried with him.

A. This distinguishing feature was added to the 1914 models.

Q. How many plastic surgeons are there in the United States? E. R. T.

A. Many set up claims, but good ones are few. It is estimated there are about forty or fifty.

A. The girls are juniors at Baylor university in Waco, Texas.

Q. Why were there thirteen stars in the Confederate flag? C. R.

A. The Confederacy hoped for a total of thirteen member States at the time the flag was adopted. Only eleven seceded, but the number of stars was kept.

Q. Did the Hopi, Navajo, Apache, and Pueblo Indians of Arizona have a word for gold? S. McC.

A. These tribes had no knowledge of gold prior to contact with the Spanish, and consequently had no word for it. Subsequently they have either adopted the Spanish word, oro, in some corrupted pronunciation, or utilized a descriptive term such as red rock. The term rock was applied to both metal and ore as they had no word for the latter.

Q. Was Abraham Lincoln ever defeated when running for office? M. C.

A. He was defeated once—the first time he ran for an office. This was in 1832 when he ran for a seat in the Illinois legislature, but was not a candidate for re-election.

Q. Did the term "red neck" originate in England? S. B.

A. Soil chemists of the United States Department of Agriculture found that dust which fell in the February brown snow in New Hampshire and Vermont probably originated in Oklahoma, Texas, or Kansas. It showed the proportion of lime that distinguishes southwestern soils. It was estimated that the storm deposited 31 pounds of dust an acre in the area where the snow fell.

Q. Did Jonathan Swift leave his money to an asylum? Was he ever insane? H. H.

A. During the last years of his life, Swift was hopelessly insane and, at his death in 1745, left his property for an asylum for lunatics and incurables.

OUT OUR WAY - - - - - By WILLIAMS

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

—BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Voters in the congressional elections this year will do their customary job of "electing" members to the Washington lobby.

Defeating an unsatisfactory congressman doesn't mean that you must have him back home. Chances usually are better than even that he will stay right in Washington and capitalize on his influence, friendships, and past favors to others by hiring out to special interests as a fixer or lawyer-lobbyist.

In case any of the folks back in the Fourth district of Oklahoma, for instance, have been wondering what ever became of Tom McKeown, a lame duck of the 1934 vintage, they would have learned something by following the progress of the Van Nuys amendments to the bankruptcy law.

These amendments originally provided that creditors bringing a receivership suit against a company must represent 5 per cent of the concern's total indebtedness.

Three bondholders had brought such suit under the old law against Howard C. Hopson's $900,000,000 Associated Gas & Electric Co. The suit is still in litigation in the New York federal courts.

It was obvious enough to the A. G. E., at least, that if the Van Nuys amendment could be made retroactive, the suit would have no standing.

McKeown got busy. As a former veteran, high-ranking member of the powerful House Judiciary committee, he was able to work effectively with former colleagues and other friends. Into the measure went the "retroactive" clause.

A certain sharp-eyed lawyer in New York caught it—otherwise it would have become law.

McKeown was taxed by an acquaintance with lobbying for it on behalf of A. G. E. Solemnly he protested that the change had nothing to do with A. G. E.—that he was working for the "common good."

But when Van Nuys had the Senate scratch the amendments back from the House for further scrutiny and held hearings at which it was shown the Associated suit would be affected, McKeown appeared openly as an A. G. E. representative—and another exhibit of how the lobby system works here.

Andrew W. Mellon, former secretary of the Treasury and one of the world's wealthiest men, recently discussed the political campaign and the Republican party's prospects with an old friend.

He urged the need of harmony, of "working together," insisted that the G. O. P. was the dominant party, and said that the independents and progressives could be attracted back into the fold this year by a few concessions.

Mellon may not have been as far off base as most New Dealers would suggest. If you will check the long list of the national advisory committee of the "National Progressive League for Franklin D. Roosevelt" as of 1932, you will find that about half the members are now against the New Deal.

A few of the deserters will vote the Socialist ticket, but most of them would be willing to accept any Republican candidate who made a pretense of liberalism.

It's a good bet that the 1936 campaign will see two special "progressive" committees, one Republican and one Democratic.

The item about the Englewood, N. J., young woman who plunged from above into the lap of a young man is another instance of the perils of leap year.

With all those multiple births, a modern expectant father is afraid to ask the doctor, "Is it a boy?" for fear the answer will be, "Well, three of them are."

SECOND CENTENNIAL GAME WILL PIT ROAD RUNNERS AGAINST OLD RIVALS

HUBER BLACKS WILL BE HERE IN NIGHT GAME

CHODY IS SCHEDULED TO START ON MOUND TOMORROW

Standing room will probably be all a premium tomorrow night at Road Runner park, when the Pampa-Dainger Road Runners and the Huber Blackfaced of Borger meet in a Centennial ball game at 8:30 o'clock. Admission will be as usual, 40 cents for men, 25 cents for women and 15 cents for children.

Tomorrow is old men's day at the celebration, and those who are unable to secure tickets to the stag show will march to Road Runner park to attend the ball game. There, they will see two of the best semipro teams in the country.

The Huber Blackfaced, trampled badly by the Road Runner nine last season, succeeded in turning the tables on the Pampans three out of four games this season. The Road Runners broke the jinx last week in Borger. Ed Gene Ledford was on the hill for the locals and it may be that he will get the call tomorrow night. If he doesn't, it will probably be Carl Stewart who will be sending curve balls at the Borger batters.

Manager Sam Hale has been putting his nine through stiff practice sessions. The birds played sectional ball for eight innings against the Halliburton Cementers. Tomorrow night, Manager Hale reports, they will be ready to go the full nine innings without weakening.

Word comes from Borger that Byron Chody is due to get his chance in a full game against the Road Runners. In the past, Chody was always sent into the game after it had been lost. Chody is a right pitcher, with his fast ball and baffling curves.

Pewee Simpson will still be at shortstop, replacing Spencer who has been ill. Ross will hold down third, Dingman second and Manager Huffman first base. In the outfield will be Brown, Wilson and East. The veteran Polvoigt will be behind the bat.

Manager Sam Hale is undecided whether to change his batting order again or try out the order he used against Halliburton. Regardless of the decision, he will leave Al Summers at the leadoff position. The little second baseman collected four hits on five trips to the plate against the Duncan nine.

Ox will be at first, Summers at second, McLaughy at short and Hale on third to round out the infield. Bailey, Seltz and McNabb will be the outfield if Manager Huffman sends a righthander to the mound. Foisner will replace McNabb if a pitcher gets the call. Lisle will be behind the bat.

The Road Runners will leave Friday morning for Enid, Okla., where they will play the Eason Oilers on Friday night and on Saturday afternoon. On Saturday night the birds will be in Arkansas City, Kan., playing the Shell Dubbs of that city.

The Eason Oilers will come to Pampa for games on June 14 and 15.

Laketon Breaks Even With Rams By Close Margin

Laketon's fast-stepping baseball team took an 8 to 7 game from the Pampans on Sunday afternoon to even the count, the Rams having won, 8 to 5, two weeks ago.

West, ace of the Laketon pitching staff, allowed 10 hits but he fanned 13 batters to lead George Dillman who allowed nine hits but fanned only seven. Barber was behind the bat for Laketon with Roy Kretzmeier catching Dillman. Each team registered five errors with the Rams having the most costly miscues.

Dillman and Brown hit two baggers for the Rams with Barber and Fish getting the same distance for Laketon.

Laketon will meet the Texas Elf Carbon company team next Sunday.

FOURTH ACE SHOT BY TOME'S PARTNER IS AMONG 60 IN U. S.

By PAUL MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Meet the hole-in-one saucer champion of the world—Maury U. Tome of Trenton, N. J.

Mr. Tome, an 80 shooter, can't bag an ace for himself but deep in the pockets of his golf jeans he must carry a dozen rabbit's feet for his playing partners. For, since the season began, Mr. Tome has gazed with mixed feelings of pride and envy as he watched his rivals score four holes-in-one.

Frank K. Fisher, a Trenton building contractor, shot aces three and four before Mr. Tome's eyes. Mr. Tome, who already had seen two aces scored, saw his friend score one on the 126-yard tenth at the Trenton Country club, May 17. On May 23, Fisher scored another one, dropping his tee shot in on the 115-yard 15th hole at the same club.

Charlie Finkle of Fargo, N. D., who has been trying and promising to score an ace for all these years, might do well to get into a match with the sightseeing wizard from Trenton, who could help the ace brigades of Idaho, Nevada and New Hampshire, which still have to report for membership in the Associated Press National Hole-in-One club.

So furious was the bombardment during the last week that 60 aces were reported to lift the membership rolls in the national club to 455. South Dakota joined up with four. Texas reported three more to raise its leading total to 57 as against 30 for California, and 27 each for New York and Ohio. Its closest rivals, Dallas took the inter-city lead again with a 15 total against 13 each for San Diego and Indianapolis.

New members include: L. S. Walker, Quanah, Tex., 7th hole, 142 yards, Quanah course. Hooley Todd, Dallas, 13th hole, 459 yards, Lakewood C. C.

King, Texas and Methodists Take Games in League

Three postponed games in the Pampa Playground ball league were played yesterday afternoon with King Oil, Texas company, and the Methodists winning.

The Methodists broke into the win column at the expense of the Christians, who are now in undisputed possession of the cellar. The score was 7 to 4, the Methodists scoring three runs in an extra inning to break a tie score of 4 all.

King Oil had no trouble swamping the Baptists 15 to 9 behind the air-tight pitching of Poe and McAnally. Wagner was behind the bat, Martin and Hallmark divided mound duty for the churchmen with Dempster receiving.

INDIANS PILE LEAD ON OWN RESERVATION

MISSIONS WIN WILD GAME FROM THE SHIPPERS

(By The Associated Press) Today's games: Fort Worth at Dallas; Oklahoma City at Tulsa. Houston at Galveston. Beaumont at San Antonio. (All night games.)

The Oklahoma City Indians look out their scalp knives last night and whittled 17 runs out of two Tulsa pitchers to hang up one of the season's most lopsided victories, 17 to 1. The Indians made each of their safeties go for a run, while the Oilers converted their seven hits into a lone tally.

While the Indians were having their fun on their own reservation, Sig Gryka was belting out a homer to bring another wild game, between San Antonio and Beaumont, to a pleasant conclusion for the Alamo city club, 11 to 8. Four pitchers were required. The lead changed hands five times. Gryka's homer came with two on the bases.

The Fort Worth Cats are firmly entrenched in the cellar, but they made a mighty effort to turn their luck in their tussle with the Dallas Steers at Tulsa. The Steers won, 6 to 5, but only after the Cats fled up things in the ninth with a two-run rally. Vic Fraser, Dallas pitcher, won his own game with a blow that brought in Montague with the winning run. Fort Worth has lost each of its five efforts to defeat the Steers in Dallas.

The veteran Mike Cvengros pitched Houston to a 3-to-1 victory over Young Bill Tom Bennett, southpaw and the Galveston Buc on the latter's home field.

Mealey Is Freed After Suspension

GALVESTON, June 2 (AP)—Jack Mealey, deposed manager of the Galveston Buccaneers, today was free to play baseball in any league. Last night President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas league notified Roy Koehler, acting president of the Galveston club, that the suspension against Mealey had been lifted. Koehler had recommended the action.

No mention was made, however, regarding the suspension of Jack Jakuski. Mealey and Jakuski were indefinitely suspended after a disturbance at a Houston-Galveston game recently.

Mealey showed some improvement in fielding his position and ran bases well enough. But it was at the plate that he was a sensation. His big was club batted down fences in every park in the International league through the 1933 season, and established him as one of the greatest natural hitters in the minors.

U. S. Tennis Hopes Dashed In Allison's Defeat; Budge Wins

By BOB CAVAGNARO Associated Press Sports Writer PHILADELPHIA, June 2 (AP)—Another American Davis cup campaign was in the discard today with the prospect that it will be many a moon before Uncle Sam's men in white recapture it.

Frying turned black as far as 1936 is concerned yesterday when Jack Crawford hung a five-set defeat on Wilmer Allison, 4-6, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2, 6-2, giving Australia the decisive third point in her American zone final against the United States.

Austrian manager of victory finally was 3 to 2 as Donald Budge achieved a meaningless 6-2, 6-2, 6-4 victory over Adrian Quist in the fifth and final encounter. It was Budge's second singles win. He outlasted Crawford in a five-setter on the evening draw, merely scored to emphasize that until some other discovery is made he is America's lone international hope.

The hot and cold performance Allison exhibited in both singles assignments, with Quist his opponent for the first day, spelled his finish as an international contender. After a dismal showing in England last year, he came back and in a puzzling recovery of form capture the national title. Indications now are that he'll have to repeat next September at Forest Hills to warrant cup consideration next year.

Allison's two defeats in the series revived the controversy in connection with his selection over Bryan (Bitsy) Grant. Walter Merrill Hall, president of the U. S. Lawn Tennis association, and "Big Bill" Tilden, who went through many a cup war, rushed to the defense of Captain Walter Pate's selections.

The closeness of the scores—all but one of the four important matches went five sets—"justified Pate's selections," said Hall.

"I figured it out as I figured it would," Tilden said crisply. "We played the best men available. We'll never win the cup again unless we take young players and develop them, just as France did with Cochet and Lacoste; England with Perry and Austin, and Germany is doing with Von Cramm, Lund and Henkel. Germany will win the cup in the next couple of years."

Mercer Beasley, the prominent tennis tutor, added fuel to the Allison-Grant controversy, saying: "If this Grant might have won both his matches."

Australia's chances of regaining the cup after a lapse of 16 years were brightened considerably by developments in the last 48 hours. Bunny Austin's injury and Fred Perry's defeat in the French championships were regarded—by the Aussies as hopeful signs.

Britain Names Wimbledon Team

LONDON, June 2 (AP)—Great Britain named six players, headed by Dorothy Round and Katherine Stammers, to the Wimbledon tennis team which will oppose America's picked stars at Wimbledon June 12 and 13.

In addition to the Misses Round and Stammers, the team will be made up of Mary Hardwick, Freda James, Nancy Lyle and Evelyn Dearman.

SPORT NOTES

DALLAS, June 2 (AP)—Wrinkled, shrewd Jake Atz back in the league—and it's "Jake" with every Texas baseball fan. . . Twenty four years ago a sickly little man, just shaking off a yellow jaundice attack, took over the shortstop position with Beaumont's first entry in the Texas league.

Jakie Atz started a career then that has made history. . . From the playing field he ascended to the manager's role. . . How he won six straight pennants for Fort Worth from 1920 through 1925 is legendary. . . At the end of those six fat years for Cowtown baseball moguls, Jakie had only two pitchers, a catcher and an outfielder of the original 1920 team.

His best fling in the league was with Tulsa in 1934. . . More recently he has been working behind mutual windows at race tracks. . . Now he is with the Galveston Bucs, a cellar club with dull prospects. They're not predicting a pennant winner for Jakie, but last place clubs don't fit in with Atz's baseball magic.

Oddities: Freddie Tauby, Dallas outfielder, leading the league's sluggers in total hits but ranking only seventh in hit percentages. . . Forty-year old Fred Johnson, of Fort Worth, the league's "grandpa," showing the youngsters how to work with 106 innings on the mound to his credit. . . Larry Bettencourt, who three weeks ago lead the league with better than 450, now 100 points below that mark and going fast. Truman Spain, S. M. U.'s great tackle, never played a game without carrying a certain poker chip until time to take the field.

SO WHAT! CLEVELAND (AP)—Two automobiles collided in front of central police station and Patrolman Chester W. Krause ran out to ask some questions.

"What's your name?" he demanded of one driver. "Scram," the owner of the car replied. "What's that?" the astonished officer inquired. "Scram," said the man. "James Scram. I live on Clinton avenue."

PIRATES' EDGE IS WONDER OF GOOFY SEASON

MAJORS' FIRST NIGHT GAME OF SEASON IS SCHEDULED

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer

In a baseball season that already has proved rather remarkable in many ways—including the number of fans who have been drawn thru the turnstiles by the uncertainties and general goofiness of the early season contests—one of the minor surprises is the scant notice that generally has been paid to the performances of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Buccaneers, who open their second home stand against the National league's eastern clubs today following an afternoon on which no major league games were scheduled, are one of three clubs in their circuit with averages above the .500 mark. They haven't done much to the world airtie yet, with 21 victories against 20 defeats, but all things considered, it's surprising that they're in third place and still within easy striking distance of those embattled leaders, the Cardinals and Giants.

Against a seemingly mediocre average must be checked the facts that (1) Darrell (Cy) Blanton, the league's most effective pitcher in his freshman year last season, has been cuffed around with almost monotonous regularity; (2) Lloyd Waner suffered a serious illness just before the season opened and made an unusually quick recovery to get back into harness; (3) Floyd (Arky) Vaughan, the 1935 batting champion, has been hitting only about .270 thus far and Lloyd Waner, Woody Jensen and Bud Hefey are even further down on the batting list.

A large part of the Pirates' success can be attributed to the fact that Big Jim Weaver seems to have come into his own as a starting pitcher. The third man in the Bucco staff last year, Weaver has become the mound mainstay by recording six victories against two defeats this spring while Blanton has failed to pitch a complete game in 13 appearances on the mound and Bill Swift has finished only twice in eleven times out. With the aid of dependable relief flinging by Waite Hoyt and Guy Bush, Swift and Ralph Birkofer have managed to hold up their end, however.

The first major league night game of the season was scheduled tonight as the new east-west series opens. The Cincinnati Reds turn on their floodlights for a contest with the Phillies.

R. L. Odom of Jasper, Tex., started a counter attack on borers in his pecan grove, losing 34,000 parasites, called trichogramma, to fight them.

The other 99 breakers—Miss Betty Jameson, San Antonio, Tex.; Mrs. Leon Solomon, Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Edna Saenger, Shreveport, La., and Miss Kathryn Hemphill, Greenville, S. C.—also drew first round opponents whose qualifying scores flitted with the 100 mark.

Miss Jameson, whose 83 placed her second in medal play, drew Mrs. Jeff Rogers of Amarillo, Tex., who qualified at 100. Mrs. Solomon drew another 100 shooter, Mrs. G. G. Jackson of Oklahoma City, and Miss Saenger plays still another century markswoman, Miss Esther Jokers of Oklahoma City. Miss Hemphill has as her opponent Mrs. Faither hatcher of Memphis, also in the 100 class.

STUDY HOURS ARE PRECEDED BY LUNCHEONS IN TWO CIRCLES

GUESTS LUNCH AT METHODIST AT M. S. MEETINGS

LESSON LEADER GIVEN FLOWERS BY ONE GROUP

Luncheons were given by circles three and four of First Methodist Missionary society yesterday afternoon, while circles one and two had afternoon meetings in members' homes.

Mrs. W. Purviance was hostess to circle one, and refreshments were served in her rock garden. The preceding business session was in charge of Mrs. H. B. Carson. Mrs. Ethel McEwen gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Purviance conducted the study on the subject, Parents as Christian Teachers. Mrs. John Platt assisted. Eleven members were present.

Circle two had 16 members present at the home of Mrs. Raeburn Thompson. After the prayer by Mrs. Mahala Fullington, Mrs. W. C. House presented the devotional and lesson on Teaching Christian Living. She was given a beautiful corsage by circle members in appreciation of her work as study leader.

The luncheon for nine members and three guests of circle three was in Mrs. J. G. Cargile's home. Visitors were Mrs. Cates of Commerce, Mrs. Walter Stein, and Mrs. Paul Cunningham. After lunch Mrs. Sam Sheppard conducted the devotional and Mrs. J. E. Kirchner led the round-table Bible lesson.

Circle four lunched in the church dining room. Mrs. M. E. Datar presented the opening devotional and Mrs. A. W. Ebbione was lesson leader, assisted by Mmes. C. E. Waller, E. O. Pearce, Robert Elkins, Frank Stewart, and O. D. Stover.

Grace Brandon Adjudged Insane By Lunacy Court

SAN ANTONIO, June 2. (AP)—In an ironical aftermath of the Maj. Charles A. Shepard murder case, the federal government's star witness, Grace Brandon, was assigned to a hospital for the mentally un-sound.

The Brooks aviation field stenographer was adjudged of "unsound mind" by a lunacy court yesterday and ordered confined in a state institution here.

Miss Brandon, 30 years old, testified yesterday she received threatening letters after Major Shepard's trial, that she bought a pistol last week seeking a permit to carry it.

Dr. T. N. Goodson, county health officer, testified the stenographer had many delusions and probably was of more danger to others than to herself.

She is suffering from dementia praecox. She has probably been unbalanced all her life," he said, adding he did not believe her curable.

Dr. T. E. Christian, assistant county health officer, testified Miss Brandon had suffered from dementia praecox since early childhood, with lucid intervals. The Shepard trial, he added, probably were factors in producing her condition.

Young Dress For Warm Days

With Flattering Caped Feeling About Shoulders

By ELLEN WORTH

Here's a darling dress to add to your summer joys. You can imagine how ravishing it would be in those sheer cotton print, white or pastel tub silk or in linen.

The young cape-like feeling about the shoulders, makes the sab-tied waistline almost wasp-like. So much of the newest neckwear has a shirt type appearance so here we have a new and very dainty shirt collar.

Handkerchief linen prints, cotton challis prints, tub pastel silks, etc., are other nice suggestions for this fascinating dress.

You'll find it exceedingly simple and inexpensive to sew, particularly so, for the charming result gained.

Style No. 1759 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38 and 40-inches bust. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material with 2 1/2 yards of 5-inch ribbon for sash.

Our Illustrated Home Dressmaking Book will enable you to have smart clothes and more of them for less money. Each step in the making of a dress is shown with illustrated diagrams. Send for your copy today.

SEWING ROOM'S WORK IS SHOWN IN OPEN HOUSE

Women Employed on WPA Project Have Many Callers

Busy seamstresses at the WPA sewing room yesterday kept right on with their work while a number of visitors called in response to an invitation to an open house. The afternoon was planned to give Pampa residents an idea of the work being done in this room at the courthouse.

Workers, who now number 26, are engaged in an efficiency test, with a count being made of all garments turned out. The average for the sewing room staff is 28 garments per person each 15 days, Mrs. Buena Birchfield, supervisor, said.

Garments typical of the dozens made in the room during its six months of operation were on display yesterday. They range from dainty but practical layettes to sturdy overalls and work shirts. The professional finish put on the garments is more appreciated after Mrs. Birchfield explains that many of the women working in the sewing room knew nothing about sewing when they started.

All the garments are made from cotton materials. When finished, they are distributed to needy families of the city.
The workroom, with its 15 sewing machines and a cutting table, is given a homelike look by the curtains, couch cover, and chair cushions of cheerful red and white print that the women have made.

Sewing room projects are operated by the WPA to give employment and training to women, to supply the need for clothing in many families. The room here has been open since last November.

Mrs. Sewell Is Entertained at Farewell Party

Mrs. E. R. Sewell, who will leave to live in Waco, her former home, was surprised by a group of friends yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Brown. A shower of handkerchiefs was presented.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. O. H. Gilstrap, D. M. Scaief, John O. Scott, J. B. Davis, S. L. Anderson, R. W. Ragsdale, Guy Dunson, F. R. Nichols, W. L. Lane, Etta Gillham, H. T. Beckham, P. H. Smith, H. C. Chandler, J. C. Brown, and G. C. Stark.

Company Officers Killed Near Mine

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 2. (AP)—Three company officers were wounded early today during a fight near the Muscoda ore mine of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad company, in which approximately 150 shots were fired.

Wounding of the trio brought to eight the number shot since the strike of red ore miners began Sunday night.
The violence earlier resulted in a shutdown of the mines, affecting 2,500 jobs.
Chief Deputy Sheriff W. T. Kemp of Bessemer said the company officers told him they were fired on from ambush as they made a "routine inspection tour." The officers said they returned the fire with pistols.

W. L. Roy, John Bridges, and a Mr. McReynolds were treated at the emergency hospital at Muscoda. Attendants said they had been peppered with small shot but their injuries were not serious.
The new outbreak came as federal and state governments moved to conciliate differences which brought a shutdown of mines supplying Birmingham's big steel plants.

Huge Federal Loan Is Oversubscribed; Morgenthau Pleased

WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP)—Speedy oversubscription was recorded today as the treasury's books were closed on the latest cash offering of $1,000,000,000 in notes and bonds.

Secretary Morgenthau described the financing as "a great success." "I am more than pleased," he said at a press conference after the books had been open only one business day. "They simply put the cash on the barrel-head and money talks louder than anything else."

MRS. WOLFE TO BE CENTENNIAL MUSIC HOSTESS

TO HAVE CHARGE OF HEADQUARTERS FOR WEEK

Announcement has been made of the appointment of Mrs. Phillip Wolfe of Pampa as chairman of headquarters for music at the Centennial exposition at Dallas, for the period June 6 to June 13.

Mrs. Wolfe will select hostesses for the music headquarters to serve during the same period, choosing members of clubs in the Seventh district. She will announce her list shortly.

Mrs. Wolfe, a foremost leader in musical affairs of Pampa for several years, is president of the Seventh district Federation of Music clubs. Locally, she is serving as director of the Treble Clef club, sponsor of the Junior Treble Clef club, and director of the young people's choir of the First Methodist church. She is teacher of both piano and vocal music.

Miami Students Receive Degrees From Colleges

MIAMI, June 2.—Velva Barnett Man, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Barnett, will complete her four years work at the University of Missouri, Columbia, the morning of June 3. She will receive her A. B. degrees in arts and science with 743 more graduates of this school.

Mrs. Man was graduated from Miami high school in 1932 and was valedictorian of her class and during her four years at the University of Missouri has been an honor student, having the distinction of being elected a member of the National Honor society. She has been prominently identified with numerous campus, school clubs, and other activities. Mrs. Man won the honor of being elected to the Alpha Theta Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity.

Divorce Given to Couple Separated On Wedding Day

KANSAS CITY, June 2. (AP)—George B. Acosta, Kansas City, today held a divorce from Mrs. Vera Acosta, Berger, Tex., after testifying in circuit court they separated on their wedding day at Wichita, Kan., Sept. 26, 1934.

Acosta testified they decided "we couldn't get along" and separated immediately after the ceremony. He charged desertion.
"Did she have any reasons for leaving?" the court inquired.
"None that I know of," replied Acosta.

"Did she give you any?"
"No, we just decided we couldn't get along. We had about reached that decision before we were married. We had been going together for some time."
Puzzled, Judge Cowan granted the divorce.

SENATE ADDS HUGE SUM TO RELIEF BILL

DISPUTE OVER WPA FUND TAKEN TO CONFERENCE

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON, Associated Press Staff Writer. WASHINGTON, June 2. (AP) Emerging triumphantly from the Senate with a 62 to 14 vote of approval, a giant relief and deficiency appropriation bill sped today into a conference in which Senators will try to straighten out differences with the House.

So fast did the Senate amend and expand the bill last night, that clerks could not immediately compute the exact total of funds it carries. But the sum was figured roughly at more than $2,428,000,000, of which the biggest item is a $1,428,000,000 grant to President Roosevelt to carry on WPA and other relief activities next fiscal year.

Fighting without hope of success but for purposes "of the record," Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) sought to dismantle WPA and return the administration of relief to the states, with the federal government bearing 75 per cent of the cost. His amendment was snowed under, 57 to 14.

On this issue Vandenberg found himself opposed by Senator Roosevelt of Idaho, another man prominent in the republican presidential picture, and as the debate continued, the name of Governor Alf M. Landon was mentioned in chiding tones from the democratic side.

Vandenberg argued that if the job of administration were given to the states "waste and political exploitation" would be avoided.
Borah disagreed on the wisdom of such a move. He said Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator, was right and that it was "not in the interest of economy for one sovereignty to contribute the money and another to administer it."

Senator Schwellenbach (D., Wash.) broke into say that since the Senate was hearing from some "republican candidates," it should be advised of views expressed in the past by Governor Landon of Kansas. He read from a number of utterances he attributed to Landon, including a statement that "the President and WPA are doing all in their power to get the people work."

Secretary Ickes' WPA is permitted to use $300,000,000 for grants to local agencies to carry on public works, grants not to exceed 45 per cent of construction costs.
The President is permitted to continue the giant Florida ship canal if engineering boards of review approve.

An amendment offered by Senator Hayden (D., Ariz.) and approved by the Senate yesterday added $57,000,000 to the bill for western reclamation projects.

Jolly Nine Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Virgil Lundberg was hostess yesterday afternoon to members of the Jolly Nine bridge club and four guests, at a party attractively appointed in a yellow and white color scheme.

High score for special guests was made by Mrs. Chick Ayley, and high for members by Mrs. Charles Bush. Mrs. L. E. Brickell held second-high score for members, and Mrs. F. O. Carroll received the traveling prize.

Mrs. Ayley, Mrs. Bob Souder, Mrs. McGowan, and Mrs. Swafford were guests. Members present were Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Brickell, Mrs. Bert Isbell, and Mrs. F. O. Carroll.

Bad Elimination Makes It Easier To Catch Cold

With the right sort of food and proper exercise, constipation might be rare, but in actual living conditions, how few manage to escape it!

Mr. Clyde Martin, of Oms, W. Va., recently very aptly wrote that "constipation is the root of a lot of sickness, but if Black-Draught is taken right it will keep down constipation."

"If I let myself get constipated," he explains, "and my system filled with impure matter, I feel bloated, take cold easily, and feel out of sorts in a lot of ways. I will take about two good doses of Black-Draught. It seems to cleanse my whole system and I feel like doing my work."

BLACK LEGION MURDER CASE FACES COURT

DEATH OF JUDGE IN 1933 NOW LINKED WITH LEGION

DETROIT, June 2 (AP)—Investigation of Black Legion terrorism moved to court today for the examination of 15 accused night riders on charges of murder and kidnaping.

Seven of them are accused of being present when Charles A. Poole, 32-year-old WPA worker, was shot to death at a roadside in an "execution" charged to the hooded and robed order.

The others are charged with attending a meeting preceding the slaying at which, Police Inspector John I. Navarre asserted, shouts of "kill him" greeted charges that Poole had beaten his wife.

Mrs. Poole later denied that her husband ever had mistreated her, and Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea said he had been told that Poole was killed because he "knew too much" about the Black Legion.

Two other men were held today for questioning about the meeting, they were listed as Louis Womack, 28, and Michael Layton, 26. Detectives said they were employees of the public lighting commission and friends of Dayton Dean, accused "trigger man" in the slaying of Poole.

Meantime, Prosecutor McCrea disclosed that he had evidence purporting to link the Black Legion with the death of Vernon Dodge, former Flint, Mich., congressman and probate judge, at Flint in 1933. Dodge was strangled with his own bathrobe cord at his home and his death was presumed to be a suicide. A grand jury investigation of the Black Legion is underway in Flint.

The Wayne county prosecutor also made public a telegram from Senator Elmer A. Benson (Fla., Minn.) asking for evidence to support a joint resolution for investigation of the Black Legion and "similar un-American terrorist groups throughout the United States."

Senator Benson's telegram asked particularly for any evidence connecting the Black Legion with the burning of Father Charles E. Coughlin's original shrine of the Little Flower last winter.

Police Hush Own Whistles in Hunt For Loud Noises

HOUSTON, June 2 (AP)—Houston police today were in the midst of a search for blaring automobile horns, screeching factory whistles, howling street hawkers, barking dogs, crowing roosters—even crying babies.

Chief R. W. Payne, launching enforcement of the city's new anti-noise ordinance, mopped a worried brow and indicated no special noise-seeking patrol would be organized.

"We can't pass the buck to any one division," he said. "The whole police department will have to take it."

The ordinance, passed last week, went into enforcement today after several days of instruction to officers.

Among the principal items of schooling, traffic officers were instructed to soft-pedal their own whistles.

The chief listed automobile horns, train whistles, street peddlers, factory whistles and drive-in eating establishments among the most serious problems in enforcement.

Centennial Start To Be Broadcast

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Two broadcasts are to be coupled with Saturday's opening of the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas. One will be in the afternoon via CBS and the other at night on WEAF-NBC.

The CBS program, to run an hour, will include Vice President Garner and other Texas sons as speakers, as well as the round the world signal which is officially to open the gates.

The night broadcast on WEAF-NBC for 30 minutes will come from 12 points about the grounds and will be a general description of the exposition.

Gypsy Weather

Chapter 22
BROKEN WORD
"Well, and after she came upstairs," Dirk asked.

"Why, then she walked east, and at Eighth Avenue she took a taxi," Martin replied. "I hopped another one. But she was only going back to Chez Simonette. I watched her go in at the back door, and then I got the car and called for her."

"What color was the taxi she took?"
"Yes, sir. It was a yellow taxi. Took the number in case I'd need it. But she got out, like I say."

"You don't think that during any of this she saw you?"
"I know she didn't. Forty-eighth Street was crowded, and I was careful. I never got close to her till she reached the Garden, and then she could have seen me if she'd looked around, but she didn't."

"If I'd been a detective, I could have gone down behind her."
"I don't want detectives going down behind her. . . not in the daytime, at any rate. She's safe enough then, with you in the office. I've got detectives watching the gates at night."

"Gosh, I'm glad of that. Is it that car that sits across in Cotsford Road without any lights."
"You noticed it, then?"
"Once or twice, yes, sir. I thought it was Mr. Rank's car. It's nearer his fence than ours."

"Well, you can rest at night," said Dirk. "And the only thing that's expected of you is to watch as you've been doing, and without being seen, without alarming Mrs. Fortis. And report. I'll take care of the rest."

"But to think," said Martin, "I left her at Chez Simonette three hours last Saturday."
Last Saturday, thought Dirk. A matinee day. She had no doubt seen in the hotel watching the blond cowboy wrestle steers. The rodeo was over now. Was that the reason for her relief, for the gayety with which she had sung to-night?

At any rate, he knew who Mr. Rank was. And the blond cowboy, Dirk felt sure, was no other than the clown—the foolhardy, painted-clown—who had been hurt that night in Merritt's Wonder Show.

He would tell the detectives to get on the traces of Torrobin and the clown.

There were no further reports. The rodeo was gone, the horse-show had taken its place, and Hoppo's access of shopping fervor had ceased. She stayed in closely during the succeeding rainy week. Rupert having abandoned his practice of taking her out in the evening. Once she let Martin take her for a lonely drive when she did not leave the car.

The day of Elinor's wedding came, a gray day, chequered with sunlight, and cold with an easterly wind. Rupert had been drinking when he came home. Dirk, who had been with him all morning in the office, heard him on the stair and wondered if he had come home to dress and attend the wedding. Hope, Dirk knew, was dressing in her room.

Rupert had no intention of attending the wedding. He was vague as to why he had come home, and he sat now, slumped beside his bed, listening to a little sound that came from Hope's room. It was a song about a dog—whatever the name was "Git along, little doggie!" She sang it plaintively, as she moved about dressing.

It annoyed him. He wanted to strangle the sound, and tighten his fingers about it as if it were the throat of a bird. He wished that he might be strangled too, so that he would not hear—anything at all.

The soft throat of a bird. . . He went toward the sound, walking evenly, yet with the accustomed feeling of uneasiness. He had not been like this since the night Elinor had told him. . .

Matura Is Found Guilty of Death
ASPERMONT, June 2 (AP)—C. Matura, 65-year-old farmer, today faced death in the electric chair for the fatal beating of Miss Rebecca Coursey, 78-year-old O'Brien spinster, last April 23.

A jury in district court last night returned a guilty verdict a little more than an hour after receiving the case. Judge Dennis P. Ratliff ordered a jury trial after Matura sought to plead guilty in hope of receiving a prison sentence.

Clarence (Puny) Abston received the death sentence two weeks ago for the same crime. Miss Coursey was found beaten in her home and died a week later.

SUMMER BANDS TO MEET
A. C. Cox, director of the summer band school for ward school children, will hold the first rehearsal of the second band at 9 a. m. Wednesday and the first rehearsal of the first band at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday. The rehearsals are held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Red school building on the high school campus.

BUSINESS TAX BILL ATTACKED ON TWO SIDES

FRIEND AND FOE OF ADMINISTRATION CRITICIZE

BY DOUGLAS B. CORNELL, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Assailed from two directions, the Senate finance committee's blueprint for revamping the corporation tax structure moved at last today into the heat of Senate debate.

Even before the gavel cracked to signal the long-awaited Senate fight over the committee's drastic revision of President Roosevelt's tax ideas, Senator Hastings (R., Del.), a committee member, decried the bill in a minority report.

Accusing the government of "extravagance," he said: "I am opposed to any increase in taxes until there be shown some affirmative evidence upon the part of the President and the majority of Congress of real appreciation of their respective responsibilities to the taxpayers of this and future generations."

Previously Senators Black (D., Ala.) and La Follette (Prog., Wis.) issued another minority report criticizing the measure as one which would deal a "wholly unnecessary and deadly blow" at small corporations and small stockholders.

They produced a substitute more nearly approaching administration suggestions for steep, graduated taxes on undistributed income of corporations.

However, some administration supporters were talking tentatively of letting the Senate finance committee bill go through the Senate without a major fight, and striving to change it in conference with the House.

The latter chamber already had approved a bill more in line with administration desires.

Senator King (D., Utah), acting chairman of the finance committee, planned to submit a majority report on the committee measure today.

The bill is designed to raise $623,000,000 or more through a 15% to 18 per cent levy on net corporation income, a 7 per cent tax on profits undistributed to stockholders, and increases of the individual income surtax in the brackets above $6,000.

Shoe Company Is Given Orders To Lay Off Union

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The National Labor Relations board announced Monday that it had ordered the Brown Shoe company, third largest shoe manufacturer in the United States, to cease what was termed "interference with union membership."

The board also was ordered to offer reinstatement to other workers at its Salem, Ill., plant who went on strike last October. The board decision reversed the findings of a trial examiner, who had dismissed a complaint against the concern.

The board said that the company induced citizens of Salem, Illinois, to intimidate company workers from union membership; that it disrupted the union by hostility and threats to close the plant.

The board's announcement said that citizens used "strong arm" methods to break the union picket line immediately after shoe company officials had indicated that they might follow labor disturbances.

The plant dominated the economic life of the community, it said, and a citizens' committee had raised $125,000 to have the plant locate there.

Radical Airplane Will Leave Dallas

DALLAS, June 2 (AP)—A radically designed airplane which will leave here June 12 on a sub-stratosphere flight to the capitals of Europe, was en route here today from Los Angeles with Clyde Pangborn, world famous flier, and Monty G. Mason of Los Angeles at the controls.

William W. Webb, general manager of the Texas Centennial exposition, said the plane, "The Texas Sky Ranger," would fly from Dallas to New York, pick up its radio compass, and then head across the Atlantic for a European tour.

President Roosevelt, here for a Centennial appearance June 12, will be asked to wish the fliers bon voyage. From New York the plane will fly, at an average altitude of 25,000 feet, to Paris, Madrid, Amsterdam, London and perhaps Berlin and Moscow.

Official invitations to the Texas exposition will be taken to the president or king of each country visited.

The return trip will be a non-stop flight from either Moscow or Paris to Dallas.

Webb said the plane actually cost $145,000 and is radical in design. It has no fuselage and wings have a spread of 55 feet and six inches. Two beams connect wing tips, tail, which is a double rudder. The wings are 31 inches thick.

FLAT TIRES
ATLANTA (AP)—Sam Reynolds' tire changing business rebounded until the late calling of the summer band school for ward school children, which he stimulated prosperity with a few well-placed tacks.

Patrolman W. D. Nash said Reynolds for some time had been picking up dimes by polishing parked cars, each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Red school building on the high school campus.

Brothers Accused as Night Riders

With a supercilious stare, Ray Ernest, left, faced arraignment in Jackson, Mich., with his two brothers, Clarence, center, and Glen, right, both wearing worried looks, in the probe of alleged Black Legion outrages. They were held under $10,000 bond, accused in the flogging of Harley Smith, WPA worker, at Norwalk, Mich. Ray also was placed under $1500 bond on a concealed weapon charge. He was suspended as a Jackson prison guard after it was alleged that he was a "brigadier general" in the black-robed terror cult.

POLITICS at Random

BY BYRON PRICE
The prediction that President Roosevelt would compete with the Republican national convention for publicity, and seek to blanket it, seems likely to qualify as the season's worst political guess.

There were at least two good reasons, all the time, for being certain he would attempt no political bombshelling in the speeches he was booked to make in the south and west during the Cleveland convention week.

One was that there hardly would be the time, when the Republican picture was changing from day to day, to take up major campaign issues. It would be too much like shooting at a rapidly-moving target.

The other reason was that it would take something like a superhuman effort to dislodge any national convention of a great party from page one. The reading public likes it conventions too much.

As it versed either in politics or publicity was surprised when it developed that Mr. Roosevelt proposed to confine his speeches to more or less philosophic discussions of past historic events, and leave the event at Cleveland for future reference.

Lehman Action Uncertain

Much manifestly futile speculation likewise is being expended on the question whether the President, or anyone else, will insist that Governor Lehman of New York reverse his decision and run for re-election.

If the draft is exercised on Mr. Lehman, it will not be done for some time. It would be the worst possible for the world for the governor to say one week he wouldn't run, and then the next say he would.

Washington has been hearing a lot about another Democratic governor, but in a different way. In Indiana, the state executive is ineligible for re-election. Insistent word has come out of that state, however, that Governor McNutt is to be kept in the national picture, one way or another.

Some time back McNutt bartans were pointing out what fine candidate for vice-president he would make. Nothing came of that, and then the talk turned to his qualifications for a place in the cabinet.

The latest and best prediction is that Senator McNutt will be elevated to the federal bench after the election, and McNutt appointed senator to succeed him.

Clark Gives a Hint

Democratic headquarters strategists have been presented with a campaign hint in the keynote speech of Senator Clark before the Missouri state convention.

Instead of lambasting the Republicans, Senator Clark largely ignored them. He praised Mr. Roosevelt, and then turned loose on John J. Raskob, the Du Ponts and the Liberty League as the real enemy.

Whether or not they adopt similar tactics in the national campaign, party headquarters men are vastly interested in the suggestion.

Fletcher Smiles

Henry P. Fletcher is preparing to take leave of duty he doubtless will rejoice to see other should-ers.

Two years ago he was chosen chairman of the Republican national committee. He didn't know a great deal about politics. The party was badly divided, and it was essential that much reorganization work be done without treading on anyone's toes or being partial to any faction or candidate.

The position had no future, as everyone expected the new nominee to pick his own chairman. All

DICKINSON HAS WIDE LEAD IN IOWA PRIMARY

New Deal Critic Is Far Ahead of the Five Others

DES MOINES, Ia., June 2 (AP)—Senator Lester J. Dickinson, persistent critic of the new deal and a candidate for his party's presidential nomination, held a wide lead today in Iowa's republican senatorial primary.

With 1,089 of the state's 2,442 precincts reported from yesterday's primary elections, Dickinson led a field of six contenders with 48,363 votes, or 39.1 per cent of the total.

His closest competitor was former Senator Smith Wildman Brookhart, who recently resigned from an administration assignment as an advisor on Russian trade.

Brookhart had 26,452 votes. Guy Linville, Cedar Rapids attorney, was third with 15,858 votes, and Edwin C. Manning, three-times Ottumwa mayor, was fourth with 14,563. The other two candidates were distanced.

Governor Clyde L. Herring, Iowa's first democratic governor in a half century, ran well ahead of Congressman Hubert Utterback, who decided to oppose the governor in the democratic senatorial primary rather than seek re-nomination to a second term in the U. S. house of representatives.

Herring gathered 32,917 votes, or 49.1 per cent of the total cast by democratic voters in 1,115 precincts. Utterback had 26,419. A third candidate trailed.

George Wilson, Des Moines republican, gained 61,260 votes in 1,179 precincts in the republican gubernatorial primary. John M. Grimes, Ocala editor, totaled 45,650 votes and George R. Call, Sioux City investment banker, had 19,858.

STRIKE CHECKS COTTON BOOM IN ARGENTINE

FARMERS CLAIM THEY CAN NOT MAKE ANY MONEY

BUENOS AIRES, June 2 (AP)—Trouble in the form of a farmers' strike has followed Argentina's spurt in cotton production.

Part of the farmers in the Chaco territory, chief cotton growing section in Argentina which last year set a new record of 250,000 bales for this country, have been refusing to sell their cotton since March.

They want the government to guarantee minimum prices for their "white gold."

The strikers want a minimum price of 300 pesos (about $87) a metric ton (2,200 pounds) for their raw cotton. They say that the prevailing $72.50 a ton does not enable them to make a living.

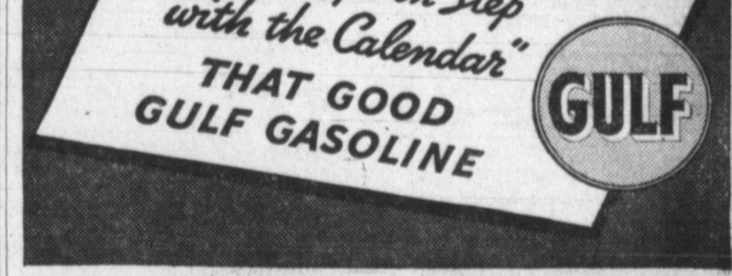

Bitter Words; Few Blows.
The strikers, aided by an organization called "the central committee in defense of production," point out that the government has guaranteed minimums for wheat, corn, and linseed.

Although bitter words have been bandied, the issue has resulted in little violence. In what incidents have occurred, strikers have accused the police of using undue violence against manifestants, and Governor Jose Castells of the territory has characterized one demonstration of "Bulgarians as 'communistic.'"

The strikers are mostly Spaniards, Poles, Russians, Czechs, Bulgarians, and Argentines, who have settled on government land. Few of them are affiliated with the cotton cooperatives which have their own ginning facilities.

Why Gulf makes a new Gas for June

JUNE—MONTH OF BRIDES . . . and the month when summer officially starts. Gulf is on the job with a new summer gas—because unless your gasoline is "Kept in Step with the Calendar" it can't give you the best mileage . . . per exhaust it blows out of your engine unburned, wasted. CHARGES FLUNG BY BARRYMORE AND SECRETARY

Ex-Employee Says He Aided in Flight From Elaine

LOS ANGELES, June 2 (AP)—A declaration of John Barrymore's discharged secretary that he played John Alden in reverse to the actor during his hectic transcontinental race with Elaine Barrie was on file in court today.

It happened last year when the "Ariel-Galban" affair of Barrymore and his protegee was at its crescendo. Emmett D. Camomile, the secretary, said in an answer to a suit the actor recently filed charging his one-time employe with illegally retaining certain documents.

Camomile also filed a $50,000 damage suit alleging Barrymore slandered him by charging he embezzled $30,000 worth of bonds.

He received a frantic plea from Barrymore. Camomile asserted, and complaints that Miss Barrie was harassing and embarrassing him with insistent attentions.

Miss Barrie was at the time engaged in pursuing her benefactor from New York toward Los Angeles.

He forthwith took a plane from Los Angeles to Chicago, the secretary declared, and retrieved his employer from the "custody" of Miss Barrie.

He was more than a valuable lieutenant to Barrymore in the Barrie episode, Camomile set forth; he also nursed the actor through a period of alcoholic helplessness and into big money again.

"Extraordinary personal services," Camomile termed his work. The value of his services as private secre-

WELL-BLINDS

AMARILLO, June 2 (AP)—Proceedings in the court of civil appeals for the seventh supreme judicial district.

Motions overruled: De Shong Motor Freight Lines, Inc. vs. Siler Hopkins, et al. to advance.

Affirmed: County school trustees of Lubbock county, et al. vs. Harrah county line independent school district, et al. from Lubbock county.

Marathon Oil company, et al. vs. J. Arthur Edwards, et al. from Lamb county.

Reversed and remanded: Texas Utilities company vs. Mrs. O. F. West, et al. from Deaf Smith county.

COURT RECORD

AMARILLO, June 2 (AP)—Lenden V. Stalcup, 22, today was under a 3-year sentence at Leavenworth penitentiary for theft of federal government property. His brother, Virgil Stalcup, was electrocuted May 4 for the slaying of a sheriff.

WELL BLOWS OUT

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 2 (AP)—H. L. Patton, expert well fire fighter who several days ago capped a wildly-blazing gasser, was called on today to cap the O. W. Killiam No. 1 well near Driscoll, which blew out yesterday, shooting oil some 300 feet high.

When all but 1,000 feet of pipe had been pulled out, two fourables of drill pipe knocked the crown block off. The derrick collapsed and the fluid shot toward the sky.

Making an estimated 2,000 barrels daily, the producer was considered of great importance as it extended the Clara Driscoll field a mile south.

Patton planned to utilize some of his fire-fighting equipment as well as bronze tools today in his first attempt to stem the tide of the runaway oil, which formed a little river to the Kingsville highway a mile away.

The No. 1 Ayers, the wild gasser which Patton recently capped, cost the lives of two men. Today's only casualty was Sam Walker, who suffered hand cuts when he slid down a guide wire to safety.

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 2 (AP)—H. L. Patton, expert well fire fighter who several days ago capped a wildly-blazing gasser, was called on today to cap the O. W. Killiam No. 1 well near Driscoll, which blew out yesterday, shooting oil some 300 feet high.

When all but 1,000 feet of pipe had been pulled out, two fourables of drill pipe knocked the crown block off. The derrick collapsed and the fluid shot toward the sky.

Making an estimated 2,000 barrels daily, the producer was considered of great importance as it extended the Clara Driscoll field a mile south.

Patton planned to utilize some of his fire-fighting equipment as well as bronze tools today in his first attempt to stem the tide of the runaway oil, which formed a little river to the Kingsville highway a mile away.

The No. 1 Ayers, the wild gasser which Patton recently capped, cost the lives of two men. Today's only casualty was Sam Walker, who suffered hand cuts when he slid down a guide wire to safety.

STALCUP SENTENCED

AMARILLO, June 2 (AP)—Lenden V. Stalcup, 22, today was under a 3-year sentence at Leavenworth penitentiary for theft of federal government property. His brother, Virgil Stalcup, was electrocuted May 4 for the slaying of a sheriff.

NEWS AND NOTES

EARLY FALL HEARING ON GAS CONSERVATION ACT EXPECTED

AUSTIN, June 2 (AP)—State's attorneys, cheered by prompt and favorable action on jurisdictional pleas, today prepared to ask the United States Supreme Court for an early fall submission of a case testing constitutionality of Texas' gas conservation act.

The Supreme Court yesterday granted the state's plea for a review of a suit brought by the Texoma and Consolidated Gas companies to void ratable takings provisions of the conservation statute.

A three-judge federal court held the Railroad commission's order invalid and awarded the two major pipe line companies injunctions.

Attorney General William McCraw said there is cause for jubilation among gas conservationists, for the reason that the noting of jurisdiction by the court before its summer adjournment indicates an early hearing of the litigation next fall.

McCraw said that after a setting of the case was obtained, he would go to Washington to present the case. All efforts were directed to speedy adjudication of the suit for if it involved a fundamental portion of the act, that of protecting correlative rights in the vast Panhandle field.

"The appeal will determine," McCraw said, "whether the Texas legislature has enacted a law to prevent any producer from taking more than his share of a common supply of gas and, if it has, whether or not the law is in conflict with the federal constitution."

Harry Pollard, assistant attorney general, said that during the summer recess attorneys would complete briefs, making it possible for the state to "prevail upon the court to grant us submission early in the fall." Otherwise, he explained, a delay of four or five months would have been encountered.

Pollard said the state would follow closely in its brief before the Supreme Court the argument advanced before the three-judge federal court in defending validity of the act and of the railroad commission's order under it.

tary was expressed in these words by Barrymore, Camomile's answer said:

"My dear Camomile, you are to me like the net is to the trapeze performer. If I fall, you are there to catch me."

CRUDE OUTPUT DROPS

TULSA, Okla., June 2 (AP)—The nation's crude oil output dropped 68,643 barrels daily during the week ending May 30, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today, with the week's production totaling 2,935,342 barrels daily.

Every major producing area showed at least a slight decrease.

The Oklahoma production was 531,600 barrels daily, a decrease of 28,076 barrels, while the total state of Texas produced 1,153,161 barrels, a decrease of 31,621 from the week before.

In the East Texas field production dropped 11,708 barrels to 443,586. Louisiana's output was 233,222 barrels, a decrease of 3,223 barrels from the previous week.

Kansas production was down 1,850 barrels to 155,275 barrels daily for the week. Eastern fields including Michigan dropped 1,505 barrels to 139,995.

California had a decrease of 5,750 barrels for a total of 568,000.

In the Rocky mountain area there was an increase of 750 barrels to a total of 57,910 barrels daily average for the week.

RODESSA ALLOWABLE CUT

AUSTIN, June 2 (AP)—E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission, said today that allowable production from wells in the Rodessa oil field would be reduced from 350 to 275 barrels daily, conforming to a Louisiana cut.

"You can say that we are following right down the line with Louisiana," he said, "in perfect harmony."

Thompson said the commission's order making the cut would be issued immediately, affecting seven wells on the Texas side. Until June 1, Texas and Louisiana had enforced the same allowable of 350 barrels a well, except for a special order in Louisiana permitting higher production from wells of one company.

STATES' WAGE LAWS DOUBTED AFTER RULING

LEGAL 'PATCHING' IS STARTED ON SOME STATUTES

WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—Hurried conferences and swift legal moves to patch up some state minimum wage laws came today in the wake of the Supreme Court's invalidation of New York's statute governing the minimum pay of women.

Described in some quarters as a blow to labor and greeted in others with "delight," the 6-4 split decision ruled out the empire state's 1933 law on the ground it violated "the right to make contracts."

Whether their own laws would stand or fall became an immediate question of importance to officials in many of the 16 states where statute books contain at least some of the provisions written into the New York legislation.

The majority opinion, read by Justice Butler and concurred in by Justices Van Devanter, McReynolds, Sutherland and Roberts, held that a state has no power "to prohibit, change or nullify contracts between employers and adult women workers as to the amount of wages to be paid."

Rumored to Be Black Legion Chief He's Socialists' 'Second Man'

"What if I am?" That was the answer of Virgil F. Effinger, Lima, O., electrical contractor, when asked if he were leader of the "Black Legion," alleged secret terrorist society, in Ohio, Michigan, and Pennsylvania. Admitting he belonged to the Ku Klux Klan and evincing knowledge of the legion, Effinger, who resembles a movie "western sheriff" is said to have stated that the latter had 3,000,000 members, talked about "our principles of Americanism and American first," and denied statements that the legion countenanced murder or planned to take over the government.

Jerusalem is showing real ingenuity in meeting its newest traffic hazard. In the general strike which the Palestine Arabs are staging in their demand that Jewish immigration be halted, tacks have been scattered in all the principal streets of the ancient city, to halt traffic. Here is shown an auto equipped to overcome this obstacle. Brooms have been placed in front of the wheels to sweep up the tacks as the car moves along and the laughing crowd beside the machine seems to be confident that the innovation will work.

Latest innovation in aviation, this hang glider will soar through the air at 23 miles an hour, declares its inventor, Bob Morse, 28-year-old Californian, shown strapped in the seat. It has only elevator and rudder control. Without ailerons, it is controlled by cables attached to the pilot's body. His feet act as landing gear. The glider weighs 90 pounds and, with a wing spread of only 22 feet, it can be landed in the flyer's back yard.

ZIONCHECK'S WIFE COMES TO HOSPITAL

Complete Rest Is Ordered For Congressman During Sanitary Observation.

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—Mrs. Marion A. Zioncheck, 21-year-old bride who left her husband of a month last Saturday, called at Gallinger hospital today to discuss the condition of the Washington state representative, lodged here by police for mental observation.

While Zioncheck was held in a ward, his wife talked with Dr. Joseph Gilbert, District of Columbia alienist. She was also allowed to see her husband.

The former Ruby Louise Nix, who left a position as PWA stenographer to marry Zioncheck, gave Dr. Gilbert an address where she has been living since she walked out on her husband in the midst of a hilarious party in the Zioncheck apartment.

Dr. Gilbert said the address was supplied with the understanding that Mrs. Zioncheck's whereabouts must not be made public.

"Mrs. Zioncheck expressed the desire to be notified in case her husband needs her or when she may be permitted to see him," Dr. Gilbert said.

A search throughout the city for his wife, which included two calls at the White House executive offices, preceded Zioncheck's arrest and commitment to Gallinger yesterday for tests to show whether his mind is sound.

As Zioncheck reclined in a room at Gallinger municipal hospital, Dr. Edgar A. Bocock, superintendent, said the physicians may require one day or several to complete their observations.

"The first thing he needs," said Dr. Bocock, "is complete rest. We are trying to give him that. Mr. Zioncheck is cooperating in every way."

Hurried to the institution after District of Columbia authorities ordered his arrest "on sight," the congressman was admitted to the hospital on a commitment sworn to by E. P. Stump, a sanitary officer, charging him with being of "unsound mind."

This procedure is generally followed when police seek mental observation of a person.

Readily submitting to the observation, Zioncheck asked only that he be given a "fair and thorough examination."

was frequently applauded. A frequent visitor here, he recognized and greeted scores of oldtimers—and felt "very much at home" in discussing local plans. His remarks, frequently addressed to radio listeners, urged attendance at the Panhandle Centennial here and the central exposition opening at Dallas June 6. He also called attention to other observances.

His address was audible for blocks over a loud-speaking truck brought by the Texas Centennial central exposition.

Pampa streets were gaily dressed for the occasion, show windows were filling with relics and oldtimers—some feeble and other spry and straight—were increasingly numerous among the throngs on Cuyler street, which was blocked until after the parade, as it will be daily.

The troops carried their official colors. After the Scouts were the Cubs, the Juniors of Scouting, in their blue uniforms. Boys are assembled here from many towns of the Adobe Walls council, of which Mr. Post is president.

Cowboys were numerous, joining the procession by the hundreds. Those at the informal luncheon for Governor Allred included Mayor W. A. Bratton, R. G. Hughes, Newton P. Strikes Threaten Cabinet Plan of French Socialist

BY EDWARD KENNEDY.

PARIS, June 2 (AP)—A fresh outbreak of strikes in the metal industry occurred today while Leon Blum, socialist leader, labored to select candidates for a new cabinet.

The Employers association charged "outside agitators" were influencing the workers to strike.

They announced 51 more factories were held by strikers at noon today, raising the total metal industry factories made idle by strikes to 66.

Employees of the big chemical factories also quit work.

Consolidation of France's war forces under one minister of national defense was projected today by Blum, prospective socialist premier.

Edouard Daladier, former premier and president of the radical socialist party, was selected to head the new ministry with three assistants, authoritative sources declared.

Marc Rucart, a member of the chamber of deputies, was placed in control of the army, the navy post went to Cesar Campinchi, diminutive radical socialist equally famed in the law courts and on the dueling field.

Pierre Coti, who headed the air ministry in Daladier's 1934 cabinet, received the same post in the merged defense program.

Queen Mary May Try Record Back

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—The Queen Mary failed to do it on the way over, but she may on the way back.

Retiree written all over their faces, officials of the new Cunard super-liner, which eased into her slip yesterday after an Atlantic crossing requiring 42 minutes more than the French Normandie, would make no predictions on the return voyage performance of the vessel.

But Chief Engineer Llewellyn Roberts, who stood guard over the great motor during her voyage of 4 days, 12 hours and 24 minutes was less conservative than his superiors.

"I think we'll beat the Normandie's record on the return," he commented.

The Queen Mary leaves Friday morning on the return trip to England.

ROAD BIDS RECEIVED. AUSTIN, June 2 (AP)—The Texas Highway commission received bids today on projects in Tarrant, Harris, Smith, Travis, Sutton, Glasscock, Stephens, Lee, and Milan counties.

The road and bridge construction and grade separation work to be bid upon today and tomorrow was estimated to cost a little more than $2,000,000.

HUNDREDS SEE NEW BAKERY BUILDING HOUSING PURITAN

More than 2,500 persons have inspected the Puritan bakery since its opening in a new location, 515 South Cuyler, where the attractive brick building has been adapted to the needs of the firm.

Managed by C. S. Jackson and J. H. Tucker, Puritan bakery has enjoyed a fine patronage since opening here less than two years ago.

Today the firm serves Pampa and the oil field. Five trucks are used in making deliveries.

The new building has been fitted with thoroughly sanitary and modern machinery, with a new dough room, proofing room, and other advantages.

At the opening, prizes were given to Mrs. C. A. Thompson, Mrs. Wagner Woodall, Mrs. D. H. Hillard, and Mrs. J. B. Barrett, all of Pampa.

Mrs. Thompson received a floor lamp and the others beautiful cakes.

Oldtimers are always favorite subjects of newspaper men and visiting photographers. Among the first newspaper men to arrive was Garford Wilkinson of the Globe-News at Amarillo, who will be here through the celebration.

Others will be here one or more days during the 4-day event.

Worried Father Kills Wife, Four Children, Self

DAYTON, O., June 2 (AP)—One by one, Walter Johnson, 42, killed five members of his family, including four of his seven children. Five times he looked at the clock, recorded death in its turn, then killed himself, authorities said today as they studied a note recording the tragedy.

He couldn't "take" discord over his work, he wrote, and the testimony of Horace, 18, and Wilbur, 16, two of three surviving children indicated, Coroner H. W. Harris said, that the killings resulted from worry over insufficient funds to "keep the home going."

Johnson's victims were: His wife, Louetta, 41; daughters Rose Marie, 15; Elsie May, 10, and Marietta, 8, and a son, Walter, 12.

Meeting Horace and Wilbur with a shotgun at the door to their home late yesterday, the father shouted to them that he had "just killed your mother, your three sisters and your brother," and asked: "Do you want to live, or do you want to go with them?"

The pair told Coroner Harris they expressed their desire to live.

"You'll hear a shot," he was quoted, "then you can call the police."

Summoning aid, the boys found 5 bodies on the beds in the single bedroom of the house.

On one lay the mother, who recently had been ill. She had been choked and beaten on the head.

Marietta, Elsie May and Walter, their throats slashed, lay on another bed, and Rose Marie, choked to death, was on the third. Johnson's body was nearby.

Truckers' Unit Is Formed Here

Organization of a local unit of the state association of truckers has been perfected with V. L. Boyles as president, C. M. Jeffries as secretary, and H. R. Thompson as director.

In cooperation with hundreds of other similar associations, the Pampa group will attempt to obtain remedial legislation at the next session of the legislature, including a higher load limit. A maximum of 16,000 pounds will be sought.

It was emphasized by the local truckers and others interested in the legislation that fairness, rather than special favors, would be sought. Educational publicity will be sought. Another meeting will be held next week.

R. H. Waters, organizer in this section, is assisting the local group, which has about 36 members at this time.

When the new Methodist church was built at Tuscumbia, Ala., the old church bell was sold to a negro Baptist congregation. The negroes immersed the bell and after the baptismal ceremony it was installed.

PAMPA TOPIC OF OUR CITY

Visiting Here. T. A. Ward of Santa Monica, Calif., arrived here Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dee Graham for a day or two. When he learned about the Centennial celebration, he decided to spend a week in Pampa, "taking in the sights." Mr. Graham and Mr. Ward's son, Tom, flew together in Spanish Honduras several years ago.

Twins Are Born. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saye of Kellerville announce the birth of twin boys, one born at 9 o'clock and the other born at 9:08 o'clock, last night. The boys have been named Donald and Ronald. Mother and sons are "fine," the proud father reports.

Band to Meet. All members of the Sam Houston school band are asked to meet at Sam Houston school at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to prepare for participation in the last two days of the Centennial celebration. The band members will have the opportunity to play for several entertainments there. The meeting is called by A. C. Cox, director of the band.

Plane to Be Seen. Adding to the aerial show visible to Pampans during the Centennial celebration, the TWA passenger plane which passes over the city at 5:45 p. m. will fly low and directly over the city today, so it can be seen by the celebration crowds. It was announced today from the Amarillo offices of the company.

BILL TO PRESIDENT. WASHINGTON, June 2 (AP)—The $461,000,000 Hayden-Catwright road bill went to the White House today when the house adopted a conference report on the measure authorizing the 1938-39 program. The conference report was adopted by a 238 to 87 roll call vote forced by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich) and other republicans.

Plans have been approved for the $100,000 mausoleum to contain the body of M. Frank Yount, Spindletop, Tex., oil millionaire who died two years ago. It will be built in a park near Houston, Tex.

C. H. McCormick Dies Following A Heart Attack

CHICAGO, June 2 (AP)—Cyrus Hall McCormick, 77, former chairman of the board of the International Harvester company, died today after a short illness.

McCormick was stricken with a heart attack Saturday at his Lake Forest estate, "Walden." Emergency efforts to save him had been under way since then, including placing the capitalist under an oxygen tent.

His wife, Mrs. Alice Holt McCormick, and his eldest son, Cyrus Jr., were at the bedside.

The capitalist and philanthropist was the son of the inventor of the reaper, Cyrus H. McCormick.

The McCormick family developed the world's largest concern manufacturing farm implements. When the inventor's son retired as chairman of "Harvester" in 1935, it was one of the nation's principal manufacturing concerns, with 18 plants in the United States and abroad.

Harold F. McCormick, the inventor's youngest son, succeeded Cyrus as president in 1918, and as chairman in 1935.
