Dissident Papers Combine Shock and Psychedelia

United Press International — One newspaper in Texas wants Southern Methodist University to be "dragged kicking and screaming into the 20th Century." Another subscribes to the "Liberation News Service."

The two publications, put together largely by dissident students and liberal helpers, combine psychedelia with shock, the piercing with the playful.

Their reason for being, aside from baiting academic authority, is, they say, to explore ideas, arguments and theories their college newspapers and the "establishment press" leave alone.

"Notes from the Underground" is published by students from Southern Methodist.

Republican Contenders Cross Paths Briefly

Metromedia (Opinion: Washington). The Michigan governor also told U.S. News & World Report in a copyrighted interview that only a Republican administration could find a solution to the Vietnam war. He said the Johnson administration "has made mistakes and lacks credibility with the people you have to deal with" in the war.

Meantime, in Maryland, Gov. Spiro T. Agnew, a Republican, announced that 50 prominent Baltimore citizens had formed the first of a series of state committees that will work to draft New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller as the GOP candidate.

Rockefeller still is supporting Romney, but said last week he would face the issue of a draft at the convention if he had to.

On the Democratic side, a Gallup Poll released Sunday indicated President Johnson had widened his lead over Senators Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy as the man most likely to win the Democratic nomination.

Kennedy said last week he would not oppose Johnson under any "foreseeable circumstances," but McCarthy is an announced anti-war candidate.

According to the latest poll, Johnson is about 5-4 choice over Kennedy and 4-1 over McCarthy.

Washington Official Has Serious Doubts

TOYKO (UPI) — The Japanese news agency Kyodo and the newspaper Mainichi Shimbun reported today from Seoul that the United States and North Korea have agreed to release the entire crew of the captured intelligence ship USS Pueblo.

SEUL (UPI) — A Seoul radio station said today some of the 83 crewmen of the captured USS Pueblo may be released and that three U.S. Army ambulances were standing by at Panmunjom. But a top Washington official said that "sorry to say" there still is no sign they will be released.

The Radio station Munhwa said the ambulances and a team of doctors took up positions at Panmunjom where American and North Korean delegates were reported meeting today for a third session on the seized intelligence ship.

William P. Bundy, assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific affairs, said in Washington there was no foundation for the reports.

Earlier, South Korean government sources said agreement at Panmunjom was expected soon on the release of all the crewmen captured 13 days ago. There was no American official comment on the reports.

The South Korean sources said it was expected that wounded Americans would be the first returned. Munhwa radio, a commercial station, quoted high South Korean sources as saying the body of one American would be returned in the first transfer.

There have been reports, never officially confirmed, that at least one of the Pueblo's crewmen were killed in the high seas capture.

American officials in Seoul would not confirm that a secret session was in progress at the truce village.

But the South Korean officials said the meeting involved U.S. Rear Adm. John V. Smith, United Nations command senior delegate to the Korean Armistice Commission, and his Communist counterpart, Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Kuk of the North Korean army.

Smith and Pak first met Friday, then again on Sunday. The secret meetings were held without the participation of the South (See PUEBLO, Page 3)

McNamara Clarifies 'Body Count' Figures

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In a few casual words, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has put into focus one of the longest running disputes since America entered the Vietnam war in force. It concerns the accuracy of the "body count."

He said Sunday that American reports of Communist casualties "carry the error that you would expect from battlefield conditions." He characterized them as "a reasonable approximation."

Demo Primary Looms as Hottest Battle Since 1962

AUSTIN (UPI)—Midnight tonight is the deadline for filing as a candidate for election in 1968 to any public office in Texas.

With the approach of the deadline, the Democratic primary was shaping up as the hottest political battle for the gubernatorial nomination since 1962 when Gov. John Connally wrestled party leadership away from then Gov. Price Daniel.

So far, nine candidates have filed for the Democratic primary. These include liberal Don Yarborough of Houston and eight moderate to conservatives.

Three candidates have announced for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. They are Paul W. Eggers, Wichita Falls attorney being pushed by the GOP leadership; John R. Trice, a Dallas lawyer, and Wallace Sisk, a Houston lawyer.

Joseph Kennedy Suffers Spasm

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Joseph P. Kennedy, father of the late President John F. Kennedy and two U.S. senators, suffered a "blood spasm on the brain" at his winter home Sunday night, but was reported resting comfortably.

A family spokesman said a physician and a Roman Catholic priest were summoned to the palatial Kennedy winter home at Palm Beach, but the 79-year-old Kennedy, an invalid since 1961, was resting comfortably. He was not hospitalized.

Ann Gargan, a Kennedy niece who has lived with the patriarch for years, said Kennedy suffered "a setback Sunday evening."

"But I expect him to be fine," she added, "he is resting comfortably." She said Kennedy's physician termed the spasm "slight."

Monsignor J.P. Mahoney, pastor of St. Edward Church in Palm Beach, was at Kennedy's bedside shortly after the spasm. Kennedy suffered a crippling stroke in 1961 and has had at least three heart seizures in recent years.

Garbage Piles Raise N.Y. Health Hazard

NEW YORK (UPI)—With uncollected garbage piled higher than automobiles on city streets, Mayor John V. Lindsay warned today the city might face a health emergency if the sanitation men's four-day-old strike continues into Tuesday.

The mayor said that while the health situation was not critical at present, "we're getting three." The fetid garbage already was attracting numbers of stray dogs and health officials feared an invasion of rats. The strike began Friday.

Lindsay warned also of "a very serious fire hazard that can endanger life." A five-alarm fire that destroyed one apartment house in Queens Sunday and damaged three (See GARBAGE, Page 3)

USA Concludes Reds Not Serious On Viet Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States has concluded that the Communists are not seriously interested in talking peace in Vietnam and made it clear today it will be "looking very hard" at any future peace hints by Hanoi.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk disclosed Sunday that U.S. bombing of North Vietnam was tapered off recently as a gesture toward getting negotiations started following a statement by Hanoi it would talk if the bombing was halted.

Since the Communist response appeared to be a widespread round of terrorism, Rusk said, "it would be foolish not to draw a political conclusion from this—that they are not seriously interested at the present time in talking about a peaceful settlement."

William P. Bundy, assistant secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific affairs, said today the North Vietnamese positions. Still, the Communists hold at least half the citadel compound that once sheltered the ancient kings of Annam.

Bodies litter the streets. Buildings are gutted.

Casualties are pouring out by the scores. We're getting the worst out by chopper.

There is no other way. The bridge is out. The Reds have cut the bridge on the one supply road for the allies.

Frank and Kenny and Pancho are in no hurry, though.

Six-Month Study of Cities Leads Commission to Pessimism on Race

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An exhaustive six-month study of the race riots that have wracked the nation's cities has convinced some members of President Johnson's riot commission that America is an "apartheid" society, like South Africa.

These members are pessimistic about the future: they believe that there will be further separation of the races, further alienation, a further wrenching of the structure of the U.S. society before the racial question can even begin to be resolved.

No member of the panel, formally known as the National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, will publicly predict another summer of racial violence. But privately most see little chance of a tranquil 1968.

Conditions in the big city ghettos, breeding ground of anger and discontent, are essentially unchanged since last summer. And no matter what recommendations the commission may make in its March report, there won't be time to put them into effect before the days lengthen and the temperatures soar.

Some commission members believe relationships between the races have deteriorated to the point where there are probably no short-term remedies, and they are doubtful whether the country has the patience to effect long-term solutions.

About two-thirds of the commission's report has been completed. There will be a final rewrite to sharpen the language, but there is essential agreement among the 11 members about what happened in the summer of 1967, and what caused the riots.

There is virtually no agreement yet on what should be done. (See STUDY, Page 3)

FRANK, PANCHO, KENNY DEAD

Casualties Pour Out of Hue, Worst Taken Out By Helicopter

By ALVIN WEBB, JR. HUE, South Vietnam (UPI)—Frank and Pancho and Kenny are dead because you have to kill just to go round a corner, cross a street and enter a room. Or be killed yourself.

The U.S. Marines and the South Vietnamese are pouring tremendous firepower into Viet Cong and North Vietnamese positions. Still, the Communists hold at least half the citadel compound that once sheltered the ancient kings of Annam.

Bodies litter the streets. Buildings are gutted.

Casualties are pouring out by the scores. We're getting the worst out by chopper.

There is no other way. The bridge is out. The Reds have cut the bridge on the one supply road for the allies.

Frank and Kenny and Pancho are in no hurry, though.

No last names of the dead here. Not allowed. Back home you'll hear about Frank.

Lt. Col. Howard L. Moon of Pemberton, N.J., says he's going to recommend Frank for the Medal of Honor, posthumously.

Almost singlehanded, Frank held off a suicidal Viet Cong attack on the Military Assistance Command compound. He poured machine gun rounds into them and they put four bullets in his body. He bit back the pain and kept firing until death released him.

"Hey! Fox Company! There's snipers in there." I heard someone shout from the second floor of a building on an embattled street.

"What?"

"There's gooks in there."

A Marine pointed to an elementary school 29 yards away. Bazookas, rockets and tank guns made the yellow building shudder. Glass tinkled all around.

"We don't fire on a building unless we get fire from it," said Col. S.S. Hughes of Tacoma, Wash.

"Corpsman! Corpsman!" the cry for a medic. Another Marine hit. But no need. The sniper who shot him hit him square in the head.

"Most of our casualties have been from head wounds," said Pfc. Garry Vicknair of New Orleans. He warned me: "Some of them (Communists) have scopes on their weapons."

Some just have automatic weapons. That's how they got Pancho. His last conscious act was to open a door in the house-to-house fighting in Hue.

The blue, red and gold Viet Cong flag flew through Sunday on the citadel, and now in the eighth day of the fighting the citadel remains the allied goal.

Waves of North Viet Troops Hit Khe Sanh

SAIGON (UPI)—North Vietnamese troops in human waves smashed today into a Marine outpost of the U.S. border fort of Khe Sanh. Leathernecks called down artillery fire on their positions and shattered the attack, military spokesmen said.

The Communists also rained rocket, mortar and artillery fire on the main fortress, eastern anchor of the Allied defense line below the North-South Vietnam border, in what may have been the opening gun of the predicted largest North Vietnamese invasion of the war.

Atop Hill 861, next to Khe Sanh, a small band of Marines hurried back with machinegun fire the first Communist assault. Spokesmen said the North Vietnamese then charged in human waves and broke through the Marine defense perimeter.

The Leathernecks buttoned themselves into deep bunkers and radioed for artillery. The barrage struck the North Vietnamese overhead. Spokesmen said the Marines emerged and counted more than 100 Communist bodies dangling on the barbed wire.

The assault against Khe Sanh followed up, as U.S. generals predicted, eight days of Viet Cong strikes against 35 South Vietnamese cities. Allied spokesmen said the first six days' fighting left 17,000 Communist dead along with 1,447 allied troops killed including 471 Americans.

The fight in the cities raged on. In Hue, 50 miles below the North-South Vietnam border, U.S. and government troops fought house-to-house against guerrillas who had seized the ancient former imperial capital. Marines smashed through to rescue 38 U.S. servicemen trapped five days a football punt's distance from American military headquarters at Hue. The guerrillas blew up the bridge on the Allied supply route to the city.

In Saigon, American and South Vietnamese troops battled

Johnson Asks Tax on Travel

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Johnson administration asked Congress today to approve an overseas travel tax for Americans who spend more than $7 a day abroad.

Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler presented to the House Ways and Means Committee a package of travel taxes designed to reduce a huge deficit the United States incurs when tourists spend more overseas than foreign visitors spend here.

The key to the tax proposals was a graduated tax on travelers spending outside the Western Hemisphere.

The first $7 spent a day would be exempt. Between $7 and $15, the tax rate would be 15 per cent. All spending over $15 daily would be taxed at a rate of 30 per cent.

If Congress goes along, the tax would cover the 1968 and 1969 travel seasons. It would expire Oct. 1, 1969.

Other parts of the package—Reducing to $10 the present $100 duty-free exemption allowed Americans on articles they take home from abroad.—Cutting to $1 the present $10 duty-free exemption for packages mailed home from abroad.—Vietnam servicemen, however, would still be allowed to send home $50 in gifts without paying a tax.

Return Required For Tax Refund

DALLAS (Sp) — You will not automatically receive a refund of tax withheld from your wages unless you file a tax return, according to Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director of Internal Revenue for Northern Texas. A tax return is not required when the gross income received during the year is less than $600, Campbell said today, but a return must be filed to obtain a refund of any Federal tax withheld. This advice applies particularly to students and other persons who worked only a part of the year. Forms 1040 and 1040A must be filed by everyone under 65 years of age whose gross income for 1967 was $600 or more. If the taxpayer is 65 or older, a return is required only if total income amounts to $1,200 or more.

"There is a definite need for an underground press in the United States, because the wire services are too competitive with each other," Mahler said. "They suppress too much of the news that the country needs to know." Burns said his newspaper fills Dallas' need for "a second voice." He said his off-campus publishing effort is banned from SMU because the school administration feels the paper "is not University." "I believe students do not give up their rights when they enter SMU," Burns said. "We have done just about everything but they still will not let us sell our paper on campus." Burns contended his "underground paper" is supported by many SMU students and still gets loyal readership. In one recent issue of Notes, the paper carried a three-page article dealing with abortions. The article told the reader exactly what to do in dealing with an unwanted pregnancy. It listed doctors in Mexico who for a certain price would perform the operation. Some two issues later, Notes came out with a warning telling its readers not to use the list of doctors it had provided. The warning said the list was dangerous.

Price Announces New Nominations

Congressman Bob Price announced in Washington today the names of 37 Panhandle youths, including two from Pampa, who received his nomination for appointment to the US Military, Naval, Air Force, and Merchant Marine Academies. The students made application for the nominations and were chosen on the basis of Civil Service Test Scores, high school academic records, athletic participation, and extracurricular activities. Price stated that he made the nominations on an equally competing basis and that actual appointments would be announced later in the spring after the young men have been given physical examinations and College Board grades are known. Price's nominees for the one vacancy at the US Military Academy, West Point, New York are: James Omar Kievit, Canyon; Jack William Pierce, Amarillo; Richard De Los Santos, Jr., Amarillo; William Darrell Schwab, Friona; Richard Louis Tarrant, Pampa; and Claude Lennon Taylor, Fritch. The congressman nominated 18 young men for the three vacancies at the US Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland. They are: Vacancy A — Glenn Franklin Bonner, Dumas; James David Devin, Dumas; Samuel Wood Line, Bushland; Ronald Claude McInturff, Dumas; Vincent Paul Stretch, Jr., Amarillo; and William Bernard Wyatt, Borger; Vacancy B — William Wallace Britain, Amarillo; James Donald Dale, Amarillo; Jimmy Joe Gruver, R. No Tax Required On Some Costs

By RAY DE CRANE NEA Publications If it is deductible and you couldn't find a category for it anywhere else, chances are it goes in the "other deductions" or miscellaneous category. Here is the proper place to list these deductions. Child care or invalid care payments. Storm, fire, auto accident and theft losses. Unreimbursed work expenses, such as the purchase and cleaning of required uniforms and special work clothes, purchase of rubber and asbestos gloves, safely equipment, tools and supplies and deductions from your wages for damage to your employer's property. Union dues. Fees paid an employment agency to obtain a new job. Educational expenses, if the training was to maintain or improve the skills required on your job or if it was to meet your employer's specific job requirements. But such expenses undertaken initially to qualify you for a job are not deductible. Alimony, if paid periodically to your former wife in accordance with the provisions of a court decree. (The former wife must include such payments as income.) Unreimbursed entertainment expenses if required by the nature of your work. Expenses incurred in connection with the production of collection of income. These could be fees paid an investment or tax counselor, subscriptions to financial publications and for the rental of a safety box for the protection of your securities. The child care allowance — a maximum of $600 if one child is being cared for and $900 if two or more under age 13 are involved — is permit widows, divorced and deserted women and widowers to go to work or to seek employment. A working wife who has a husband able to work must file a joint return before she can claim the deduction. In her case child care deduction is reduced by the excess of their combined income over $6,000. Uninsured losses from casualty and theft are deductible to the extent they exceed $100. This means that the first $100 of loss is on you, the remainder is deductible. (NEXT: Accounting for the sale of a home.) The News is a sister newspaper to the Valley group.

Study

(Continued From Page 1) done, specifically, to head off further racial turbulence. Generally, there are three broad categories of attack: improve housing; make sure everyone has the opportunity to work in a meaningful, dignified job; improve education for the young. Education and jobs are the key to relieving poverty. But there is imminent danger that Negroes will not endure the necessarily slow pace required to produce such jobs and attain such education. Some commission members contend the only answer is a guaranteed income for every family. The commission will have some harsh things to say about the white community. It has learned, for instance, that the great majority of whites disavow racial prejudice, claiming that they don't discriminate against Negroes. But most commission members have concluded that whites generally are prejudiced and do discriminate, although frequently unaware of it. But Negroes are aware. And this awareness has led inevitably to the rise of black nationalism, the call of the Negro militant for a separate black society. Historically, some commission members have concluded, the United States has never freely given the Negro anything except in response to protest. The question now, they think, is whether the white community has been sufficiently frightened to grant full equality. Most panel members don't think it has. Will it become frightened enough with almost certain violence again next summer? Again, most commission members think not. Instead, they see possible ruthless repression if anarchy breaks out.

Pampan is Charged With Intoxication

A Pampa man was charged with intoxication by Pampa police last night after he allegedly hit his wife and knocked some of her teeth out. A stepdaughter of the man telephoned police about the disturbance. When they arrived, the man was in a nearby alley. Several men were at his residence threatening to "work him over in the manner he worked over his wife," a police report said. He was charged with intoxication and placed in the city jail.

Vote Registration Likely a Record

Unofficial voter registration for 1968 in Gray County totals 13,687, according to an estimate by Tax Assessor-Collector Jack Back this morning. No official tally will be available for several days, but Back said that "voter registration is likely to set a record this year." Slightly over 10,000 voters registered in 1967, Back said, making it the second highest registration total in the history of Gray County.

"We have not a single scrap of information from any source whatsoever that this ship was within the 12-mile limit at any time in its voyage." McNamara said he could not say "that at no time beyond the shadow of a doubt" the ship did not stray into North Korean waters before it was boarded and towed to Wonsan.

Book Hearings Set This Week

About 14 school officials will meet with textbook consultants today through Wednesday for the annual textbook hearings to select new school books for Pampa children. The hearings in Pampa Junior High School start at 4 p.m. each day. Teachers and other school officials meeting with the consultants will discuss spelling, second through eighth grade; science, first-sixth; arithmetic, seventh and eighth; bookkeeping I and II; shorthand II and physical science, high school. Textbook committee members will make their final recommendations Feb. 26 and will also send their suggestions to the State Textbook Committee. The books in eight subjects and 20 categories were recommended for adoption in Texas by the State Textbook Committee. The State Board of Education will make final adoptions at its Nov. 13 meeting, when it will have recommendations, also from Commissioner of Education, Dr. J. W. Edgar.

Burglar Takes Cash From Beauty Shop

A burglar took $115.00 in change from the La Bonita Beauty Shop, 304 N. West Street, sometime between 3 p.m. Saturday and 7:50 a.m. this morning, according to Pampa police. A police report said the burglar apparently gained entry by prying open the rear door with a tire tool. The change was taken from a cash drawer and a coke machine.

Pampa Man Charged

John D. Young of 540 Crawford Street was arraigned before County Judge S. R. Lenning Jr. this morning on a charge of willful destruction of property. Bond was set at $500.

'Hebert Day' Begins Early With Program at PHS

"Kenny Hebert Day" began early this morning with a program at Pampa High at which Hebert received a plaque from the PHS Student Council and the presentation of Hebert's All-America picture from the University of Houston to the school. At the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Hebert was presented with the plaque which he won as the "Baseball Player of the Year" in the Panhandle from the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame. Hebert was unable to attend the ceremonies and Warren Hasse accepted it for him. Hebert's coach, Bill Yeoman, spoke at the luncheon on the University's progress since his arrival there in 1961 and made some comments about the Pampa athletes attending Houston. Hebert, recently drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL, was listed on the Look Magazine team and appeared on the Bob Hope TV Show. He led the nation in scoring as a junior with 113 points and ranked as the 12th best punter with a 41.3 yard average.

Matson's Heave Defeats Woods

Pampa's Randy Matson heaved the shot 87½ feet Saturday night in San Diego to defeat his rival George Woods, who had beaten Matson two weeks ago in Los Angeles. Woods was second with a mark of 65-6¼. Matson was about nine inches short of Neal Steinhauer's world indoor record. Matson throws in Fort Worth Friday night and the next night in Los Angeles. Matson effort was the best indoor mark of the season and the second best of all time indoors.

Arnie Wins Hope Title By 1 in Sudden Death

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Former President Eisenhower and the rest of Arnold Palmer's "army" rejoiced today in the gallant charge of their hero that brought him a typical victory in the Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic. The victory Sunday was worth $20,000 to Palmer and raised his official earnings for the year to $32,906. It was his first win of 1968; a previous check was for being second to Billy Casper in the Los Angeles Open a week ago. After the former President presented the annual Eisenhower Trophy to Palmer he remarked that they had been friends for years. Palmer graciously replied that this comment of friendship by Eisenhower meant more to him than winning the tournament. Palmer charged back from a one-stroke deficit on the 18th hole for a birdie after young Deane Beman had blistered the course with a record 65 to 12 under par. The birdie tied Palmer and Beman for the lead at 348 in regulation 90 holes of the five-day marathon and forced a sudden death playoff. The playoff began on the 15th hole at Bermuda Dunes, one of four courses used in the $122,000 classic. Both parred the first hole. On the 16th Palmer drove a slashing tee shot and was on the green in two. He missed a 20-foot putt, but got his par. Beman drove into the rough beyond the green and had to settle for a bogey. It was the 38-year-old Palmer's 52nd PGA tournament victory and 13th win out of 22 playoffs. Beman's prize was $12,000 for second. Harold Henning of South Africa moved up through the tight pack of pros in the final day to edge Billy Casper by one stroke with a final round 68 and a 90-hole total of 349, worth $7,500 for third place. Casper, who led going into the final round, had a 33 on the front nine but faltered and settled for a one-under-par 71 and a tie with young Tom Weiskopf at 350 for fourth and $4,650 in prize money each.

Porsches Sweep Daytona Event

By CHARLES S. ALDINGER DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—With a militant roar, the ghost white cars of Porsche have strutted to the top of the racing mountain and left Alfa Romeo, Ferrari and Ford scrapping at the bottom. Three sleek Porsche 907's from Stuttgart rolled over the finish line Sunday for a sweep of the top three positions in the 24 hours of Daytona Track and Road Race. Behind the fantastically durable German automobiles were the hulks of one American and two British cars which took a shot at them and fell down the mountain. The Alfa Romeos and the few Ferraris entered never had a chance. Ahead of Porsche is, in the words of a little German mechanic following this first race in the 1968 world manufacturer's championship series, "Porsche jahr" (the year of Porsche). The 2.2 liter Porsche 907's which will be flown back to Germany to be torn apart and rebuilt before returning for the Sebring, Fla. race March 23, picked up nine points toward the manufacturer's title. And it appears that nobody—not even the little Alfa Romeos who at 1.9 liters finished 5th, 6th and 7th behind a Ford Mustang—can knock Porsche off the top of the new three-liter standings. The Ferraris, which aren't competing on a factory level after the International Automobile Federation ruled out their big P4's in November, appeared resigned to the Porsche domination in the three-liter class for now. A crowd estimated at over 25,000 saw the long race, which was close until the Porsches methodically ground down two British-built five-liter Ford GT40s and the radical Howmet turbine car. The two Fords were forced out before the race ended and the Howmet wrecked at dusk Saturday while running high in the standings.

The Sports Patrol

By STEVE SNIDER UPI Sports Writer NEW YORK (UPI)—What's new in boating for 1968? For many, it's the second boat. Two-boat families are on the rise. The needs, whims or status-seeking that led to the second car, the second television set and even the second home away from home are apparent in the boating industry. The second boat, usually smaller than the family's No. 1, floating pride and joy, is big business at the 58th National Boat Show running Feb. 10-18 through four vast floors of New York's Coliseum. In the total fleet, there's more luxury in the yachts, more power in the engines, more built-in gimmicks in the runabouts, more houseboats that hit reasonably high speeds, more sporty racers for the swinging generation. But the little boat is an increasingly hot item and many are moving into the hands of families already owning a cruiser, runabout or luxury sailer. And for the micro-boats are micro-engines—including the gnat-weight 1.5 horsepower grinders from Evinrude and Johnson, a 3.9 horsepower motor from Mercury, 3.5 from Chrysler and a four horsepower from McCulloch costing $45. For sail buffs, there are micro-yachts for as low as two for $999.99. That's about the cost of two Sunfish sailers from Alcott of Waterbury, Conn., or a pair of Super Swifts from O'Day of Fall River, Mass. A pair of 12-foot Butterfly sailboats from Barnet of Kenosha, Wis., runs around $1,190, a guy on a Peally tight budget can set sail in an Econo-Dink from Atlantic Laminates of Bellmore, N.Y., for $249. Grumman Boats, subsidiary of the aircraft and spacecraft builder, has its usual line of aluminum boats plus nifty accessories: Five-foot pontoons that clamp to the sides of a canoe to serve as outriggers for greater stability in choppy waters or when a side-bracketed outboard is used. Rowing attachment with special seat for added speed on long trips. A carrying yoke with cushioned pads for easy portage. A sailing rig for canoes complete with rudder, leeboards and sails. Elsewhere are folding boats, inflatable, scores of car-top sizes, scores more for light trailers. But if you have to eat your heart out, there's always the 45-foot mahogany double cabin motor yacht from Matthews that not only sleeps six but "houses" same for $76,860. Hattaras has a 44-footer that's even more expensive at $80,250 but in either one you won't exactly be roughing it what with wall to wall carpeting, hot water, drapes, electric refrigerator, deep freeze, hi-fi, showers, television, ice cube makers and kitchen disposals among the extra touches. A good place to wind up the tour is the Kayak Corporation display. They've got one inflatable there for 15 bucks. We'll take two of those.

Kenny Stanton Wins in Cowtown

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Kenny Stanton, of Weiser, Idaho, took all-around cowboy honors, but Kenny Patterson, of Nashville, Tenn., walked off with the lion's share of the cash in the final competition at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show rodeo Sunday night. Patterson received a total of $5,000.77 when he won the calf roping competition and picked up top go-round money. Stanton, meanwhile, was named all-around cowboy, taking first place in bareback bronc riding and second in bull riding for a total win of $3,644.36. In winning the calf roping, Patterson beat former world's champion Don McLaughlin of Fort Collins, Colo. Patterson, only 22 years old, has been on the rodeo circuit for just a year. Other Stock Show rodeo champions were: —Bull riding: Dickie Cox, of Rockwall, Tex., winning $1,431.46. —Saddle bronc: Dennis Reinert, of Clara City, Minn., winning $1,207.75. —Steer wrestling: Jack Roddy, of San Jose, Calif., winning $2,326.21. —Barrel racing: Nelda Patton, of Mansfield, Tex. More than 400 cowboys competed for $78,000 in prize money offered at the 72nd annual event.

Bears Remain In SWC Lead

By United Press International It was only a week ago that their Southwest Conference basketball rivals nodded their collective heads with an "I told you so" attitude and predicted Baylor's hold atop the standings was beginning to give way. Hadn't strong-muscled Texas Christian manhandled the Bears 99-86 to throw the leadership struggle into a three-way tie involving those two clubs and Rice? It was, they figured, just a portent of what was to come. Well, here it is another Monday and where are those three clubs? Baylor, sans stars and studded with youngsters, is riding high with a 5-1 league record while TCU and Rice are deadlocked for fourth place at 3-3 and facing title extinction unless they can reverse the losing trend that enveloped them last week. Baylor started Rice's downfall with a 70-52 masterpiece on Tuesday night, then solidified its first-place role with a 77-67 subjugation of the Texas Aggies on the latter's own floor. Rice then went on to bow 68-64 to Texas at week's end. TCU, meanwhile, hit the road and lost a 68-67 squeaker to Arkansas and was walloped 83-65 by Texas Tech. Player, Team PG FT TP Avg. COACH BILL YEOMAN presents Weldon Trice with Kenny Hebert's official All-American picture in an assembly at PHS this morning.

Montgomery Word

BY CURTIS MONTGOMERY
Pampa Daily News Sports Editor
A respected coach spoke out yesterday on the subject of limiting an athlete to just one sport. That coach is the head coach of the University of Houston football program, Bill Yeoman in town for "Kenny Hebert Day." We feel that a boy should have the opportunity to see if he is good enough to play in more than one sport. Coach Yeoman agrees with this opinion. "I played 'em all and loved it. We have a football player who is playing basketball and several who will be playing baseball and some running track. I think it is a mistake to limit an athlete to one sport," Yeoman said. "Over-specialization," Yeoman continued, "is a bad thing. Maybe some of these coaches will string me up but that is the way I feel. "Playing basketball teaches a boy a lot and keeps him in good shape when football is over. The first year at Houston we want our boys to come out for spring training, but after that if they can offer something to another sport I encourage them to go out. "It is good for them and good for the school. Five of our football players (including Kenny Hebert) played on the baseball team that went to the NCAA Tournament last year. They underwent some good pressure, got some good experience. It did them more good being out for baseball than it would have done them being in our spring drills." Bill Yeoman has been around. He speaks from experience. He began his coaching career at Houston in December of 1961 after having coached eight years under Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State as Daugherty's top assistant. Earlier, in 1949 and 1950 he served as assistant coach under Col. Earl "Red" Blaik at West Point. Yeoman was an All-American center at West Point and captain of the 1948 team. He played his freshman year at Texas A&M before receiving his appointment to the U.S. Military Academy. He was an All-State football player and basketball star at Glendale High in Glendale, Arizona. He picked up a couple of letters at A&M his freshman year before going to West Point in 1946. Yeoman was backfield coach at Michigan State and had four All-American players during his tenure. Yeoman has strong feelings that a boy with all-round ability should have the chance to get the feel of more than one athletic activity, and be encouraged to do so. The thing about it is that a boy faces many problems which can discourage him from going out for basketball. For instance, if he has been through the long football season he finds himself facing the problems of orienting himself to the hardwood floor after spending the fall on the field. Many people familiar with this transition phase of athletics can understand a little bit better than others about how difficult it is for a boy to break into a line up in basketball filled with starters who have been playing the year around. There aren't very many who can do it. And if the cage team is a winner, it is that much harder on the boy. Such is the case at Pampa. Boys are not encouraged to come out for basketball if they are involved in football. And who's to criticize such a successful basketball program as the one here?

Scouting Scoops

By Mrs. G. J. Boyd

The Fern Dawson Memorial Fund has been established with a committee to select something of benefit for all Girl Scouts in the Quivira Council. The loss of this true "Scouter" is felt by all connected with Girl Scouting in this area. More information concerning the Memorial Fund will be announced during neighborhood meetings. Those wishing to contribute may do so at neighborhood meetings. Quivira Girl Scout office or mail to Fern Dawson Memorial Fund, Quivira Girl Scout Office, P. O. Box 459, Pampa, Tex.

Feb. 5 at the home of Mrs. Bob Miller. Information will be given at neighborhood meetings about the Junior Camporee to be held at Camp Mel Davis in April. The Cadette Planning Board had a second meeting last week to make final plans for their "Fair" project scheduled March 30. It was decided by majority vote to have the event for all District II Girl Scouts and their families; that admission will be 5 cents per person; that each Cadette Troop participating will sponsor a booth in which games, souvenirs and/or a variety of refreshments will be sold. Each troop will do a specialty act, such as skit, song, folk-dance, etc., at no extra cost to the guests. Also a decision was made for Cadettes to visit all Girl Scout troops in Pampa to personally invite troop members to attend the "Cadettes' Fair '68." Proceeds from the fair will make up a Cadette Service Fund which will be used for a project to benefit all Girl Scouts in District II. Cadette Troops represented were: Troop 214, Troop 125, Troop 59, Troop 54, Troop 28, Troop 1 and Advisor Mrs. O. C. Cox Jr.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd be writing to you for advice, but I need help and I can't go to my friends. Besides, I need help, not pity. My husband is a minister, about middle-age and average looking. About a year ago he met an attractive young woman while calling on the sick in a hospital. They developed quite a friendship because after she went home he continued to visit her at home. (She is not even a member of his church.) I told him that I didn't like the looks of it, which only made matters worse. He became very angry with me and insisted he was doing nothing wrong, but I notice he visits her only when her husband is at work. People are beginning to talk, Abby, and I am worried. What should I do?

DEAR MIXED UP: I think you should thank your lucky stars for two things. One, that you discovered early in the game that the "love bug" that bit you was a louse. Two, that if he had to get one of you pregnant, it was his wife.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is that I am a very poor hostess — at least I think I am. It's not that I can't relax around people because when I am a guest, I'm perfectly relaxed and have a wonderful time, but when guests are in my home, I am nervous and tense and I am just not "myself."

NOWHERE TO TURN
DEAR NOWHERE: Pastors have been relieved of their duties for this kind of thing, which your husband surely knows. Even if he is doing nothing "wrong," remind him to "abstain from all appearance of evil." (New Testament, 1 Thessalonians, verse 22) in case he wishes to practice what he preaches.

I am not the fussy kind of hostess who runs around emptying ash trays all the time, but if there's a lull in the conversation I feel embarrassed, and worry that I'm not giving my guests a good time.

POOR HOSTESS
DEAR HOSTESS: Guests can not relax unless the hostess is relaxed. The secret to being a good hostess is in getting comfortable people together in a comfortable atmosphere. No host or hostess can give his guests a good time. The guests must make it themselves.

DEAR ABBY: I'm in love with a married man. We've been seeing each other for over a year now. He told me that he and his wife weren't actually living as man and wife, although they shared the same house for appearances sake. Also, because they have five children, he didn't want to break up the marriage just yet. But Abby, he promised that in due time he would divorce his wife and marry me. I have been 100 per cent true to this man, Abby, since the day I realized I loved him. He said he loved me, too, but now he gives me the news that his wife is expecting? I don't know what to think. I need your opinion.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LIKES TO GOSSIP": To paraphrase a little gem of philosophy I learned years ago: "He who steals my good name enriches he who gossips about me and steals my good name enriches himself not, but makes me poor indeed."

Culture Club Attends Program On 'Search for Mythical Texas'

The Civic Culture Club met recently in the home of Mrs. A. C. Houchin. Mrs. Emmett Osborne, president, was in charge of the business meeting. It was announced club reports are due Feb. 15. Mrs. Irvin Cole, incoming president, named committee for 1968-69. They are program, Mmes. A. B. Cross, C. M. Grow, Frank Grantham, Chester Williams; finance, Mmes. H. W. Waters, W. C. Scott; civic, Mmes. A. C. Houchin, Katy Vincent, J. H. Reeves; social Mmes. John McInerney, J. W. Dike, A. D. Hills, George Neef, pressbook, Mrs. Frank Grantham; federation counselor and legislation, Mrs. Emmett Osborne.

The program was on Texas Heritage. Mrs. A. B. Cross had as her topic, "A Search for the Mythical Texas".

"A long time ago somebody — and no one is quite sure who — sold the world the myth that in Texas everything is the biggest. Eighteen years ago Holiday called these purveyors of the big boast "the super-Americans." In that article, Holland McCombs wrote about Dallas: Everything in Dallas is bigger and better." Everybody who writes or talks about Texas puts wonder in his words," she said.

"There are many myths about Texas. One is Texans drive as if they owned the roads. Texans do drive fast, partly because the distances are great and the roads are good. Good roads are certainly not a myth. Texas driving habits are a problem, as well illustrated by the highway death toll.

"The myth: Texans who come from Mexico are called Wetbacks and are treated like second class citizens. Despite all jokes, very few Texas — Mexicans have a wetback ancestry. Some are proud and respected families. Don Jose Antonio Navarro, whose home is preserved by the San Antonio Conservation Society, is one of the greats in Texas history.

"The Myth: Texans are braggers who love to flash a roll of money; and they think that money can buy everything.

"There is a story about a Texan in a New York bar who was bragging about his ranch. Someone asked how big the ranch was and he answered: "Forty acres." "I have a place

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a medication with the ability, in most cases — to promptly stop itching, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids.

Tests by doctors proved that in case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of the inflamed hemorrhoids took place. The secret is Preparation H®. There's no other formula like it! Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

POWERFUL PLUNGER CLEARS CLOGGED TOILETS
NEVER AGAIN that sick feeling when your toilet overflows
TOILAFLEX Toilet Plunger
Unlike ordinary plungers, Toilaflex does not permit compressed air or messy water to splash back or escape. With Toilaflex the full pressure plows through the clogging mass and switches it down.

You say you'd like a few suggestions on how to get more out of your telephone service?

Here are five tips to help make your every "hello" a real good buy:

- Whenever you're moving to another town within the Bell System, let us arrange for your phone service before you move. If you know the address of your new home, we can make arrangements in advance so you'll have the exact service you want in your new home. We'll also refer calls from your old phone to your new number if you like. Just call the business office and ask about our Easy Move Plan. There's no extra charge.
- Speaking of moving, we hope you realize that wherever you move in the Bell System, there is no color charge for the phones at your new address if you had color phones at your old address.
- Ever wonder what to do when you get a wrong number on a Long Distance call? Just hang up, dial "0" for "Operator," and tell her what happened. She'll see that you're not charged for the call.
- If you ever lose your dime in an out-of-order pay telephone, just go to a working phone and report it to the Operator. She'll arrange to have your dime mailed to you. Also, if you give her the number of the out-of-order phone, we'll get it fixed right away.
- Long Distance Interstate rates are lower all day Saturday and Sunday, and after 7 p.m. each weekday. You can also save money if you call by number. A station-to-station Long Distance call costs about one-third less than a person-to-person call.
